Worker Receives Shock, Escapes With Burn

7,600 Volt Jolt Knocks Man Down

A Hereford man was knocked to the ground by a 7,600 volt shock Friday morning in a mishap which physicians said could easily have proved fatal.

But the victim escaped with only "a small burn on the end of a finger."

The mishap was one of six which sent Hereford Fire Department trucks and emergency vehicles rolling in a three-day period.

The calls — three of them came Friday morning — broke a lull in fire department emergency runs.

Guy Cornelius Sr., 202 Fir, was taken to Hereford Clinic by firemen for treatment and observation after the winch truck he was driving backed into a high-voltage line.

The accident occurred while Cornelius was loading pipe at the Kenny Gearm pipe yard east of the city.

HE WAS treated for a small burn on one of his fingers after he touched the controls to the truck and was knocked to the ground by the voltage.

Cornelius said he was loading pipe on a truck, along with his son, Guy Cornelius Jr., and N. E. Wolfe, when the mishap occurred.

An estimated $300 damage was inflicted to the truck when the rear tires caught fire while the truck was still in contact with the line.

Firemen pulled the truck from the line with a fibre rope. Southwestern Public Service See WORKER Page 2

REA Grants $917 Thousand Loan For DSCEC Projects

Funds Marked For Expanding Coop's Service

Announcement was made by the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington Friday that a loan of $917,000 has been approved for the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative to finance construction of new line to "beef up" service to the present system and make room for new customers.

Congressman Walter Rogers and U. S. Senator John Tower made the announcement in telegrams to local DSCEC officials and the Hereford Brand Saturday morning.

DSCEC manager Leo Forrest told the Brand that the $917,000 contract was approved to provide additional lines to be installed over a three-county area served by the cooperative. Counties included are Deaf Smith, Castro, and Parmer.

INCLUDED are 105 miles of distribution line to serve 632 new customers.

Also included are a new 5,000 KVA substation near Dimmitt and a 5,000 KVA portable substation for the cooperative.

The contract also calls for a conversion of 294 miles of existing line and related facilities. Forrest said the project, which will get underway soon, is designed "to give better service to Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative customers."

MUCH OF the approved funds will go to improve service facilities by beefing up 294 miles of existing lines.

"Through the growth of the area, the loads on the lines have outgrown that for which this portion of the system was designed when installed as long as 20 to 30 years ago," Forrest said.

He said heavier line and related equipment will be installed to increase capacity and quality of service in the conversion portion of the project.

"EXCITING ERA AHEAD"

Directors, Officers Installed For CofC

Speakers at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Installation Banquet took the opportunity Thursday night to forecast "an exciting year" for Hereford.

Outgoing chamber president Wayne Thomas said that 1965 had been "a particularly outstanding and exciting period" and predicted 1966 could be a year of "unexcelled growth for Hereford."

And installation speaker Carroll Davidson, executive vice president of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, said he knew "of at least one chamber of commerce which envies the strides made in Hereford during recent months."

He challenged incoming chamber officers and directors to live up to the responsibility placed upon their shoulders "to guide the development of your community during the coming months."

"THIS IS OBVIOUSLY a growing and prosperous community which has the tools and resources to build a fantastic future... if you as directors of the chamber of commerce have the vision and desire to do so."

Davidson addressed his remarks to the trio of new officers and four new chamber directors installed at the dinner in the Hereford Country Club.

Installed as president of the chamber for the coming year was Raymond White, who replaces Thomas as prexy on Feb. 1.

Hilrey Aven was installed as vice president, and Russel Corver was installed as treasurer.

NEW DIRECTORS installed were Morris Easley, Dexter Little, Frank Ford Jr., and Melvin Young.

These were elected recently to replace directors Bert Boomer, Jimmie Allred, Woddy Wilson, and Thomas, whose See DIRECTORS Page 2

HOT CHECK LAW DISCUSSED

City Merchants Association Lists Suggested Holidays

Hereford merchants got together Friday morning to prepare a list of suggested business holidays during 1966 and hear county attorney Bruce Miller outline "hot check" prosecuting procedures.

The merchants, who met in the Jim Hill Hotel Ballroom, listed Memorial Day, Labor Day Independence Day, and Thanksgiving as suggested holidays for the year.

Also included were Christmas Day and Monday, Dec. 26, and New Year's Day and Monday, Jan. 2, 1967.

THE LIST of suggested holidays is not "official," but merely a guideline for holiday closings which many merchants plan to observe.

The holiday schedule is prepared by the chamber of commerce in order that residents may anticipate the business holidays.

In other business, merchants discussed check laws with the county attorney.

THE GROUP then adopted a recommendation that the board of directors of the chamber of commerce organize a committee to look into the check laws and determine what steps might be taken to relieve some of the problems businessmen face in prosecuting "hot check" writers.

Miller explained procedures required in filing complaints.

Judge Miles also heard 158 small claims and 81 civil justice cases, while 114 felony cases were heard.

A total of 239 persons settled their fines by laying them out in the county jail.

The most cases filed in the JP Court in one month were filed in July, when 240 were filed. The lowest number of cases were filed in February, when 49 were filed.

concerning bad checks and precautions businessmen should take when accepting checks.

Butch Walterscheid of Hereford has become the city's first athlete to sign with a professional football team.

Walterscheid signed with the Washington Redskins last week according to Lou Spry, West Texas State University public relations director.

The 225-pound linebacker played three years on the varsity squad at Hereford High School and started three years for the Buffaloes.

THUS FAR, the highlight of Walterscheid's career has been his nomination for the Associated Press lineman of the week.

The nomination came after Walterscheid along with the help of the "unfriendly society" of the Buffalo football squad held the Ohio University team to a minus one yard offensive rushing early in the 1965 season.

During the remainder of the season the WT defensive delegation held opponents to a 118.9 yard average per game on offensive rushing.

Both of these events were school records by the line.

Walterscheid scored once for the Buffaloes when he blocked a kick and recovered it in the end zone in a game with San Jose State of California. The score gave WT the winning advantage in the game.

The next week Walterscheid again blocked a kick which was a school record... no one player had blocked two consecutive kicks in two consecutive games.

THE REDSKINS will start Walterscheid as linebacker since he is "too short" to play end on the professional team.

He signed for a "modest bonus," according to Spry.

Hereford grid coach Jack Meredith said, "Butch was a real leader and a real asset to our team my first year in Hereford." See BUTCH Page 2

ANOTHER INDEX OF GROWTH

Post Office Receipts Spiral

Another index of growth occurred with past indications this week as the Hereford Post Office announced a sizeable climb in receipts here during 1965.

Postmaster Nolan Grady announced that total receipts at the Hereford Post Office climbed more than $11,000 over the 1964 figure.

This announcement, combined with recent reports of record bank deposits and an unexcelled construction boom, added more fuel to the statement that Hereford is a city on the grow.

TOTAL of receipts for the post office here during 1965 was $200,219.03, Grady said.

This compares with $189,109.82 registered for 1964.

The increase was $11,109.21 for 1965.

It was pointed out that pieces of mail handled in the Hereford Post Office also showed a sizeable increase in 1965, as compared to 1964.

TOTAL PIECES of mail handled in 1965 was 7,443,000, as compared to 6,450,000 in 1964.

A total of 1,736,000 five-cent stamps alone were sold in '65 at the Hereford Post Office.

Stamp sales at the post office totalled $117,466.85. Added to this was $36,036.18 from patrons postage meters and $16,936.94 from post office postage meters.

Second class postage totalled $8,845.10 and permit mailing, $7,890.55.

Money order fees reached a sum of $6,723.55.

ALSO NOTED was a large jump in December receipts at the local post office in 1965, as compared to 1964.

The December, 1965, receipts amounted to $32,059.21, as compared to $29,823.49 in 1964. The increase was $2,235.72 for that month alone, Grady said.

Nickle stamps sold totalled 277,400 during the month, while 60,000 four-cent stamps were issued.

Pieces of mail handled totalled 864,500 in December, 1965, as compared to 815,000 in December, 1964.

Railroad, City Grow Together

By TYLER VANCE
Staff Writer

Many years have passed since the shrill whistle of the steam engine has been heard in Hereford and now the deep echoing sound of the diesel horn has taken its place.

It's a sign of progress, say the officials of the Santa Fe. The railroad has grown, and with it the city of Hereford has grown.

THE TWO have grown since they first came together in 1908. (In fact, the news that what has now become the Santa Fe's main line between East and West would pass through this corner of the county is often credited for bringing the county seat from now-gone La Plata in central Deaf Smith County to what is now Hereford.)

And as Hereford has grown, so has the Santa Fe Railroad's service to the city.

DURING THE first 11 months of 1965, some 5,606 carloads of freight made their way to the Hereford yard... and 4,376 carloads of freight was loaded in Hereford to be shipped across a sprawling nation.

This was the announcement made by rail officials last week, who said that railroad business here continues to grow in contrast to troubles reported elsewhere in the nation.

Two passenger trains also stop daily at the newly remodeled and enlarged depot here.

TICKET sales in the Hereford depot amounted to $22,529 during the year, a spokesman said.

A transportation link whose value to a city seeking new industry is virtually limitless, the railroad's main line's presence here is often credited for helping to bring about industrial growth in the area.

Wages paid 23 employees here totalled $148,958 during the year, the announcement added.

On Schedule...

Regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will be held at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday in the chamber office to discuss the budget for the coming year, and several other items.

Hereford Independent School District board of directors will meet at 6 p. m. Tuesday in the school administration office to discuss matters including proposed curriculum additions and details of the upcoming school trustee election.

Members of the Deaf Smith County Farmers Union will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. Flammery to elect a new president. (See story inside)

Speaker Traces Special Ed Development In Schools

Guest speaker for the regular meeting of the Hereford Lions Club held Wednesday at the Jim Hill Hotel was Byron Terrell, special education coordinator — teacher for the Hereford public schools.

TERRELL gave the club a little history of the growth of the special education, noting that it first came into being with the 1919 act passed by the federal government in the form of the Rehabilitation Act. In 1920, Terrell continued, the government added civilians to the military act of 1919, which covered the physically handicapped.

In 1943, the government added mentally handicapped persons to the act.

In 1962, the Texas Education Agency began working with the independent schools in the formation of special education classes.

Terrell also explained the term "special education," which

O. E. Stevick, 330 Ave. I, was given a probated sentence of five years after pleading guilty to a charge of fondling. Stevick was arrested by a deputy sheriff on Sept. 8, 1965.

Eddie Evans, 200 Bennett, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of fraud, and was given a three year probated sentence. Evans was arrested by a Highway Patrolman on June 6, 1965.

Monty Roe, Silver City, N. M., was given a two year probated sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of removal of mortgaged property.

Roe was arrested by a deputy sheriff on Feb. 26, 1965.

Dawn Club Begins New Year's Work

Mrs. Ray Stewart, new president of Dawn Home Demonstration Club, was hostess in her home for the first 1966 meeting Friday morning. She presided for the business session in which new yearbooks were distributed and the year's programs outlined.

Following roll call, answered with descriptions of tea tables most admired by the members, Mrs. Argen Draper, Home Demonstration Agent, presented the program on Tea Table Appearances.

She showed slides emphasizing her narration on table settings for serving tea, from the very formal to the most informal types. Mrs. Draper spoke of the importance of linens and harmonizing service pieces to make tables attractive and suggested that the housewife reserve one good cloth for "company" entertaining.

Mrs. Eldon Owens, a guest, became a new member. Others present were Mmes. H. S. Fuller, Orval Galley, J. B. Caraway, H. D. Fowler, Gene Suttle, Rea Cox and Dick Golden.

By MELVIN YOUNG

Congressman Jim Wright of Ft. Worth surprised many of his supporters Saturday afternoon, by announcing that he would seek another term of office in the House of Representatives and would not be a candidate for the democratic nomination for Senator.

Wright had previously appeared on statewide television, putting out "feelers" for popular support. The Saturday afternoon announcement stemmed from the earlier appeal and we must assume that Wright did not feel the time ripe for the Senate race.

Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr had previously announced that he would be a candidate for the position. Had Wright also announced, the May primary might well have resembled a "rerun" of the past battles of Governor Allen Shivers and Senator Ralph Yarborough. Both men have a reputation for being excellent campaigners.

Wright was first elected to the 84th Congress November 2, 1954, representing the 12th Congressional District (Tarrant County), and has served in that position since. Prior to his election to Congress, Wright served in the Texas Legislature and served two terms as mayor of Weatherford.

Carr was elected to the office of Attorney General in 1962. He previously served as State Representative from Lubbock.

Chances are, Carr will not be opposed, since Jim Wright appeared to be the only formidable opponent on the horizon. If this remains so, then Carr will face Republican John Tower, the incumbent Senator in November.

Tower was elected May 27, 1961, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lyndon B. Johnson. He serves on the Armed Services and Banking and Currency Committees, as well as the Joint Committee on Defense Production.

On the local level, we will have at least one contested race, and maybe more. Vieing for the office of County Judge will be incumbent H. C. (Hank) Williams, and L. B. Russell, former football coach and high school principal.

Just a reminder. You can't vote in local or state elections in 1966 without a paid poll tax receipt or exemption, as the case may be. Texans voted to retain the poll tax as a requirement for voting in local and state elections. It will serve sufficiently for national voting also, so there is no need to worry about registering if you have paid your poll taxes.

Deadline for paying the tax incidentally, is January 31.

Since Gaylord Newell became a grandfather some two years ago, he has become quite proficient in the art of "bragging on the grandchildren."

This week he called us aside to let us in on a "scoop."

Kim Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wilson was throwing a big surprise birthday party for her 8-year-old sister Kathy. The principal guest however (according to Gaylord) was his 2½-year-old granddaughter, Kerri Ayn Calloway. Kerri Ayn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Calloway of Harlingen, Texas.

Gaylord figures that was the biggest social event of the year. And it may well have been.

Noticed a number of people since Christmas wearing those "rainbow" ties. You know the kind with a pot at the end.

The new year got off to a real good start for the Hereford Toastmasters Club the evening of January 6th. Thirteen members and three guests were present at the initial meeting of 1966. Jim Stuteville and Ernest Neff were the guests of Toastmaster Raymond Dement and Toastmaster Raymond Flores had as his guest, Leonard Haney.

An informal, round-table joke session started the meeting followed by the giving of a new word by most of the members present. Table topics were varied and interesting as presented by Toastmaster Dodson serving as Topic Master of the evening. Kenneth Rudd was Toastmaster of the Evening and Toastmaster Coker was G. E.

Toastmasters Loch, Alexander and Dement were the speakers of the evening. Bob Loch took those present on a brief tour of the Holly Sugar complex with his prepared talk. Irving Alexander related some of his experiences in New York while on his frequent business trips there. Toastmaster Dement presented an enlightening speech on the development of a person's personality. Toastmaster Dement was awarded both the "Speaker of Distinction" and "Most Improved Speaker" for his speech. Dr. Adams evaluated Dement's speech, and was also named best evaluator of the evening.

And speaking of offices, have you seen the new offices at the First National Bank of Hereford. Strictly first class.

Of course they're not entirely through with the work inside the bank, but they are far enough along that you'll know at a glance it's a fine addition to the building.

Don't forget to get your tickets for the big Chamber of Commerce banquet upcoming Thursday night, January 20. The event should be bigger and better than ever this year. Ticket sales, according to W. T. Thompson, CoC manager, have been running consistently ahead of the same date last year, and according to present calculations, this could well be the biggest banquet in the history of the Chamber.

The United States will never lack for leaders so long as there is a predominance of youth like those who belong to the 4-H Clubs all over America and there is such a predominance though sometimes it is overshadowed by crime headlines. —Lincoln (Neb.) Journal.

Kissing, according to one authority, can cause dental cavities. It can also cause holes in a man's wallet.

Best table topics award was taken by Toastmaster Coker.

Ladies Night will be held at the next meeting, January 13 at 7:30 p. m. Installation of officers for the new year will highlight the program. The entire program is under the able direction of Toastmaster Alexander and promises to be an evening of entertainment and fellowship for all who attend. Toastmasters are reminded to complete, and return to Dr. Adams, the cards with the information reservations for themselves and that meeting for the benefit of all Hereford Toastmasters. In view of the fact that January 20 is the date of the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet, the members present last Thursday evening voted to not hold the regular Toastmasters meeting on that date so that the members who desire to attend the Chamber Banquet might do so.

A program for the next regular Toastmasters meeting, January 27th will be arranged by the new slate of officers and will be in this column prior to that meeting for the benefit of all Hereford Toastmasters.

"Ye are the salt of the earth:" Matt. 5:13.

This is Christ's way of saying that His followers are a blessing to mankind on the earth.

The compound salt has two primary purposes. "First, it seasons, giving relish to what would otherwise be tasteless. Christians are the relishing element, preventing society from becoming insipid to the Lord. Second, salt preserves, arresting the tendency to decay. The world is tending to corruption; sin, like cancer, is eating at the body of society. A Christian preserves society," Frank L. Cox.

Ten righteous souls would have preserved Sodom from destruction.

"Like salt, a disciple of Jesus is of use only so long as he retains his distinctive quality of discipleship. If he loses his zeal and devotion, he is like salt that has become insipid and therefore, useless, incapable of keeping that which it touches pure and pleasant." A. W. Argyle.

RURAL ELECTRICITY helps America grow...

Placing power lines where they are needed is fun for a child, but it is a big job for the nation's power industry.

Today, consumer-owned electric systems such as ours serve 54% of the rural population, and the demand doubles every seven years.

Meeting the rising power needs and preparing for tomorrow takes the best efforts of the entire power industry. In our area we are proud to be carrying our share of the load.

Club To Present Guest Lecturer

Including members of other garden clubs as guests, Hereford Garden Club will be hostess at 2:30 p. m. Friday at Community Center, presenting Mrs. Vera Deason of Amarillo to lecture on Birds of the Panhandle.

Final plans for the guest day program were made at a called business meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, when various committee reports were also made. Mrs. Manjeot and Mrs. Ben Childers will be hostesses next Friday.

The lecture topic is the club's

Comprehensive Study subject for this year, which will be stressed in other programs in the spring, related to the general theme of conservation.

Bud to Blossom and Garden Beautiful Club, also junior garden club members are invited to the lecture. Members of the hostess club are also inviting guests individually.

Mrs. Ray L. Johnson, president, conducted the called session which opened with the pledge to the flag. Mrs. J. V. Pickens reported on the District I Northern Zone Garden Club meeting held at Pampa in November.

Soloists Heard In Club

Songs and comment by guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wert, made up a program on Musical Appreciation for Hereford Study Club Thursday evening. Mrs. Garland Solomon was hostess in her home.

Mrs. W. C. Hromas reviewed an article by Norene Butler in the national garden club magazine, titled What, No Blue Ribbon? It stressed that the purpose of making flower arrangements is to create beauty for the pleasure it gives the creator and others, rather than to win prizes.

Others present were Mmes. Glenn Boardman, Jeff Roberson, C. D. Kelton, A. O. Thompson, R. L. Wilson, S. S. Williams, Alred Smith, A. M. Stoy, Sam Morgan, R. W. Mitchell, R. E. Lance Jr., J. N. Jacobsen Jr., O. G. Hill Sr., Emmett Hale, H. H. Craver.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank each one of our friends for their thoughtful acts of kindness during my stay in the hospital, for each visit, the flowers and cards which meant so much to me and my family. Also our thanks to Dr. Hicks, Dr. Mims, and each nurse for their wonderful care and interest.

G. K. Horton and family.

Rites Held For Rollin S. Orr

Funeral services for Rollin S. Orr, a Hereford native who died of cancer Thursday morning at New Orleans, were conducted there Saturday morning.

His home was in a New Orleans suburb Metairie, La. His mother, Mrs. Berry Orr, lives in Hereford.

Born June 24, 1915, he was a graduate of Hereford High School. He married at New Orleans and had lived there a number of years. His work was in agricultural laboratory research, and had received a United States Department of Agriculture merit award for outstanding work in this field.

Survivors in addition to his wife and his mother include two sons, Billy and Paul, of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Wilton Lynn of Hedley, Mrs. Charles Cirino of New Orleans and Mrs. George Griffin of Denver; and four brothers, Rogers Orr of Lubbock, Berry Orr Jr. of Dallas, Paul Orr of Tyler and John B. Orr of Sacramento, Calif.

Two Sentenced In County Court

One man was given a 20-day sentence on a charge of escape from confinement, and another placed on one year probation after pleading guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated this week in County Court.

Judge H. C. (Hank) Williams sentenced Francisco Cano, 18, who gave his address as Mission, to 20 days after he reportedly walked away from a job while a trustee at the county jail, serving a sentence for aggravated assault.

Cano reportedly walked off from a job at the Bluebonnet School Oct. 13, and was arrested in Plainview on Nov. 19.

Judge Williams, placed Jerry L. Tucker, Vega, on one year probation, and fined him $50 plus cost on the charge of driving while intoxicated. Tucker was arrested by the Highway Patrol.

ASCS Predicts Better Returns

Wheat farmers who participate in the 1966 voluntary wheat program can expect a better return-per bushel of wheat than in 1965, Frank Bezner, Chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said today.

The increased return can be expected because wheat produced for domestic food consumption is supported at 100 percent of parity, the Chairman said.

UNDER provisions of the new program, 45 percent of the projected yield production of the allotment of a participating farm will be eligible for domestic marketing certificates and a price-support loan. The marketing certificates will be valued at the difference between the national average loan rate of $1.25 per bushel and parity on July 1, 1966, Mr. Bezner said.

In addition, all wheat produced on allotment acres of participating farms is eligible for price-support loans.

Senator Reveals Plans For Future

(Editor's Note: Following is a statement received from Senator Ralph Yarborough concerning his political plans for the future.)

During the past year, and especially since the adjournment of Congress, I have received numerous requests, both oral and written, from across the State of Texas urging me to become a candidate for Governor of the State of Texas. Because these requests have reached greater proportions that ever before in my political career, I feel that the people of Texas deserve a statement of my political plans for the future before I return to Washington, D. C., for the reconvening of the Congress on Jan. 10.

Without exception, the requests that I run for Governor have stemmed from a deep concern about the future of our state. The tide of dissatisfaction runs high, as an overwhelming majority of Texans went to the polls last year to endorse the Democratic candidates who stood on the Democratic platform during the campaign. The people of Texas endorsed the continuing programs of the New Frontier and the beginning programs of the Great Society of President Lyndon B. Johnson as the promise for progress in Texas.

Yet, after the elections were over and office-holders began their terms, the people of Texas realize that the mass of Democratic support had swept some candidates into office who in fact opposed the principles of the Democratic Party and intended to thwart, rather than promote, progress in our State.

THE WAR on Poverty was stymied by veto and threats of vetoes; the Voting Rights Bill was condemned; the Medicare and Social Security Act was attacked; many of the Great Society programs which the Democratic Party and the Administration of President Johnson were fighting for, and upon which Democrats were elected, were being subjected to opposition and obstruction in the leadership of the State of Texas, and this Texas attack on the administration by Texas office holders is unduly publicized over the nation.

Yet, the State of Texas would be one of the chief beneficiaries of these programs, because the State of Texas has a great need. We are 33rd in the Nation in per capita personal income. The lower a state's income, the more it has, but Texas is not taking advantage of Federal programs, because we fail to put up the matching funds.

And the results are disastrous. While we rank number one in cotton production, we are 32nd in the nation in old age assistance. We are first in oil production, and we are last in per capita expenditure for child welfare services for children under 21. We are first in cattle, but 38th in per capita expenditures for hospital care. TEXAS is proud of its natural resources, and neglectful of its human resources. While we are sixth from the top in gross income, we are sixth from the bottom in vocational rehabilitation expenditures on a per capita basis. In health manpower, we lag far behind — Texas ranks 32nd in physicians per 100,000 population; 42nd in dentists; and 46th in nurses.

Those are our human resources, which we can develop only through education, yet Texas is 30th in per capita expenditures for public elementary and secondary schools in 1964-65, but we rank 44th in literacy among those 14 years old and older. Despite this, the people of Texas are told that we are improving because we take a little step each year. But, when the facts are consulted, Texas ranks 39th among the states in the percent of increase of expenditures for education per pupil in the last ten years. Thirty-eight states are improving their educational systems faster than we are.

The people of Texas are discontented with this situation and they are looking for leadership in our home state — leadership that can take giant steps, rather than timid ones. I am both proud and appreciative of the faith which these people have expressed in me of being able to uphold the Democratic principles in a State office, as I have done in a National office.

However, I have only served one-sixth of my present term as little over a year ago I asked the people for a six year term. Although all of the Federal programs require state leadership to become effective, there is still progress that must be completed on a National level, and the people of Texas have elected me for six years to help in that progress.

Realizing that state action must come soon and that Texas must embark on new, vigorous courses of action for the future, I do not feel this is the time for me to vacate my Senate seat to partake in that Renaissance. I believe the same faith which the people of Texas have given to me will demand that Texas leadership follow the principles of the Great Society and the Democratic Party in the future and I leave that decision to the voters in Texas as I continue in my position as United States Senator.

I FEEL a great obligation to the five million veterans of the Cold War, who now have no educational advantages such as we gave the Veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict. For seven years I have urged a Cold War GI Bill as an act of justice, and twice in that time the Senate has passed a GI Bill, last year by a vote of over 4 to 1, only to have the Bill pigeon-holed in the House Committee.

It is time for a GI Bill now, and I have pledged for seven long years to keep up the fight as an act of faith with our fighting men, until such an act was passed. To quit that fight to run for Governor now, would be to break faith with them. It took 4 1/2 years of hard work for me to get the Padre Island

National Seashore Bill passed. I have been working for years for a Guadalupe Mountain National Park and a Big Thicket Preserve or Park. That work must not cease now. AS A member of the Senate Education Subcommittee for the last eight years, I co-authored the National Defense Education Act of 1958, under which more than 800,000 young Americans have gone to college. I have been either a co-author or one of the sponsors of every Federal education act written into law since 1958. Now vast new problems face

News About Area Men On Duty

Seaman Joe Ramirez, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Ramirez of Hereford, has returned to Long Beach, Calif. aboard the destroyer USS Maddox, after completing operations off the Vietnamese coast with the Seventh Fleet.

Destroyers are high-speed ships used primarily in anti-submarine warfare. They also operate offensively against surface ships, defend against airborne attack, and provide gunfire support for amphibious assaults.

While deployed with the Seventh Fleet, Maddox visited Hong Kong and ports in Japan, Taiwan (Formosa) and the Philippine Islands.

the nation, and there is a threat that money for these crucial educational programs will be reduced or cut off. I intend to work to see that the Great Society program of promise for an education for every boy and girl to the limit of their capabilities does not go down the drain.

In view of the almost national crises conditions under which this Congress meets, my presence will be necessary in Washington. To wage an effective campaign in Texas would require an absence from my post of duty in Washington. I will remain at that post of duty.

Program Opens North Hereford H.D. Club Year

Officers took up duties for a new year and 1966 program books were completed at the meeting of North Hereford Home Demonstration Club in Mrs. Paul Hoff's home Thursday. Mrs. O. L. Williams presided at the start of her second year as president.

The hostess gave the demonstration, on preparation of a meal on top of the stove. At roll call, each member named her favorite dish for a quick stove-top meal. Mrs. Charles Russell conducted the opening exercise.

Mrs. Hoff was appointed assistant reporter for this year. It was announced that the next meeting will be with Mrs. O. C. Williams Jan. 20.

Mrs. W. L. Lueb was a guest. Other members present were Mrs. C. L. Whitehead, Otto Massie, Mary Rodkin; Otto Olson and R. A. Fullwood.

INSPECTION STATIONS LISTED HERE

Motor Vehicle Inspection Law Requires Sticker Soon

With the deadline for compliance with the Texas Motor Vehicle Inspection Law still several months away — April 15-officials announced certified inspection stations in Hereford and commended motorists for early compliance with the law.

Sgt. Bill Wells, head of the Texas Highway Patrol office in Hereford reminded motorists that inspection stickers are now available here.

Eight inspection stations, are available to Hereford residents. THEY ARE Stephens-Hudson Motor Co., Kinsey-Osborn Motors, Orsborn Chevrolet-Olds, Beavers Motor Co., McRight

Garage and Supply, Dishman-Hale Chrysler-Plymouth, Phillips and Lawrence Service Station, and Kemp Auto Repair.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, commended Texas motorists for their improving compliance with the Motor Vehicle Inspection Law.

"ALREADY some 250,000 more vehicles are displaying the new inspection sticker than there were at the same time last year," he said. "This indicates that Texans are aware of the benefits of having their cars inspected early. Not only does it give each driver the assurance that his vehicle is mechanically sound, it also relieves him of having to wait in line as the April 15 deadline draws nearer."

During the summer of 1965, the DPS conducted its annual training program for all garage mechanics desiring to be qualified to inspect vehicles at authorized inspection stations. At that time, each mechanic was urged to request permission to inspect any vehicle whenever its owner brought it in for repairs or service. This technique has paid dividends in helping increase the number of vehicles inspected to over four percent of the number inspected at this time last year. "Those drivers who have not yet had their car inspected should make plans to have it done as soon as possible," Garrison said. "And they should have no trouble locating an authorized inspection station. A new official standard sign has been issued each station, and is displayed near the service entrance where the inspection is made."

ALTHOUGH many more motorists have had their cars inspected early this year, some 3,450,000 still have to be inspected during the next three months. This means that each inspection will have to inspect over 10 cars per day on the average to get each vehicle inspected before the deadline.

"It is easy to see," the DPS director said, "that lines will begin to form at the deadline. Crows nearer, for if a station inspects only four or five a day during the next month or so, then the load will increase to 15 per day as the owner brings his car in later."

In urging motorists to have their car inspected now, Garrison reminded them that when a mechanic asks for permission to inspect a vehicle he is attempting to save time for himself and the motorist.

Dimmitt Gains Revenge Friday

UP BUT NOT IN—Steve Hodges goes up to shoot, but misses in the game with Dimmitt Friday as the Whitefaces went down 56-45. The game was a revenge game with the Bobcats since the Whitefaces downed the 'Cats in the first game of the season. Hodges, who usually has a consistently high average, failed to hit any field goals in Friday's game. (Staff Photo)

Whitefaces Drop Last Non Conference Game

The Dimmitt Bobcats took sweet revenge Friday evening on their home court as they downed the Hereford Whitefaces 56-45 in the locals' last non-conference clash.

Hereford defeated the Bobcats in the local five's, first game of the season, 66-57, but the Whitefaces couldn't seem to get control of the second ballgame and manage a win.

The Whitefaces will begin their conference slate Tuesday at 8 p. m. against the Tulla Hornets in the high school gym.

HEREFORD JUMPED out ahead of the Bobcats in the first few minutes of the game with a 5-0 lead. Dimmitt came back and gained a 15-13 lead by the end of the first quarter.

The basket seemed to close up on the Hereford end of the court as the second stanza began and the locals scored only two field goals and three free shots in that quarter as the Bobcats widened their lead to 31-20 score at the halftime intermission.

Hereford came back in the third quarter to throw up a stroing defense and held the Dimmitt five to a mere nine points while the locals score elevin.

EVEN WITH the strong defense in the third stanza, the locals were not able to regain the lead.

As the fourth quarter began Dimmitt regained control of the ballgame and outscored the Hereford quint racking up 16 points while allowing the locals only 13.

Hereford players hit 35.8 per cent of their shots in the game with the Dimmitt five hitting 40.4 per cent.

THE WHITEFACES were hurt at the free throw line as they were able to hit only 55 per cent of their shots. Dimmitt players managed to hit 75 per cent of their shots at the charity line.

In the fourth quarter quarter Hereford failed to score until nearly three minutes of the stanza had lapsed. The Bobcats began a stall as the quarter began and the Whitefaces were not able to gain possession of the ball until nearly two minutes had passed.

This was the second consecutive loss for the Whitefaces after they dropped a game to Phillips Dec. 28 at Phillips.

No one person starred for the Whitefaces, all of the men scored less points than usual.

ROBBY LEMONS and Oscar Holmes were tied for high man honors scoring 10 points each.

Gene Duvall, Gary Payne and Steve Hodges were all close to these two with Duvall scoring seven points; Payne, six, and Hodges, five.

Hodges scored all of his points on free throws in the game.

John Howell was high man for the Bobcats, scoring 26 points. Tommy Stafford and Bob Bradford were the next high men with Stafford scoring 11 points and Bradford hitting nine.

HEREFORD WILL have one practice session before clashing with the Tulla Hornets Tuesday in both teams' conference debut.

Tulla dropped their game to the Bobcats Tuesday by a lopsided 62-38 score.

The loss gave the whitefaces a 6-6 non-conference record.

Hereford Tips Off In District

Hereford Whiteface cagers will tip-off their 1966 conference schedule Tuesday evening in the high school gym at 8 p. m. when they clash with the Tulla Hornets.

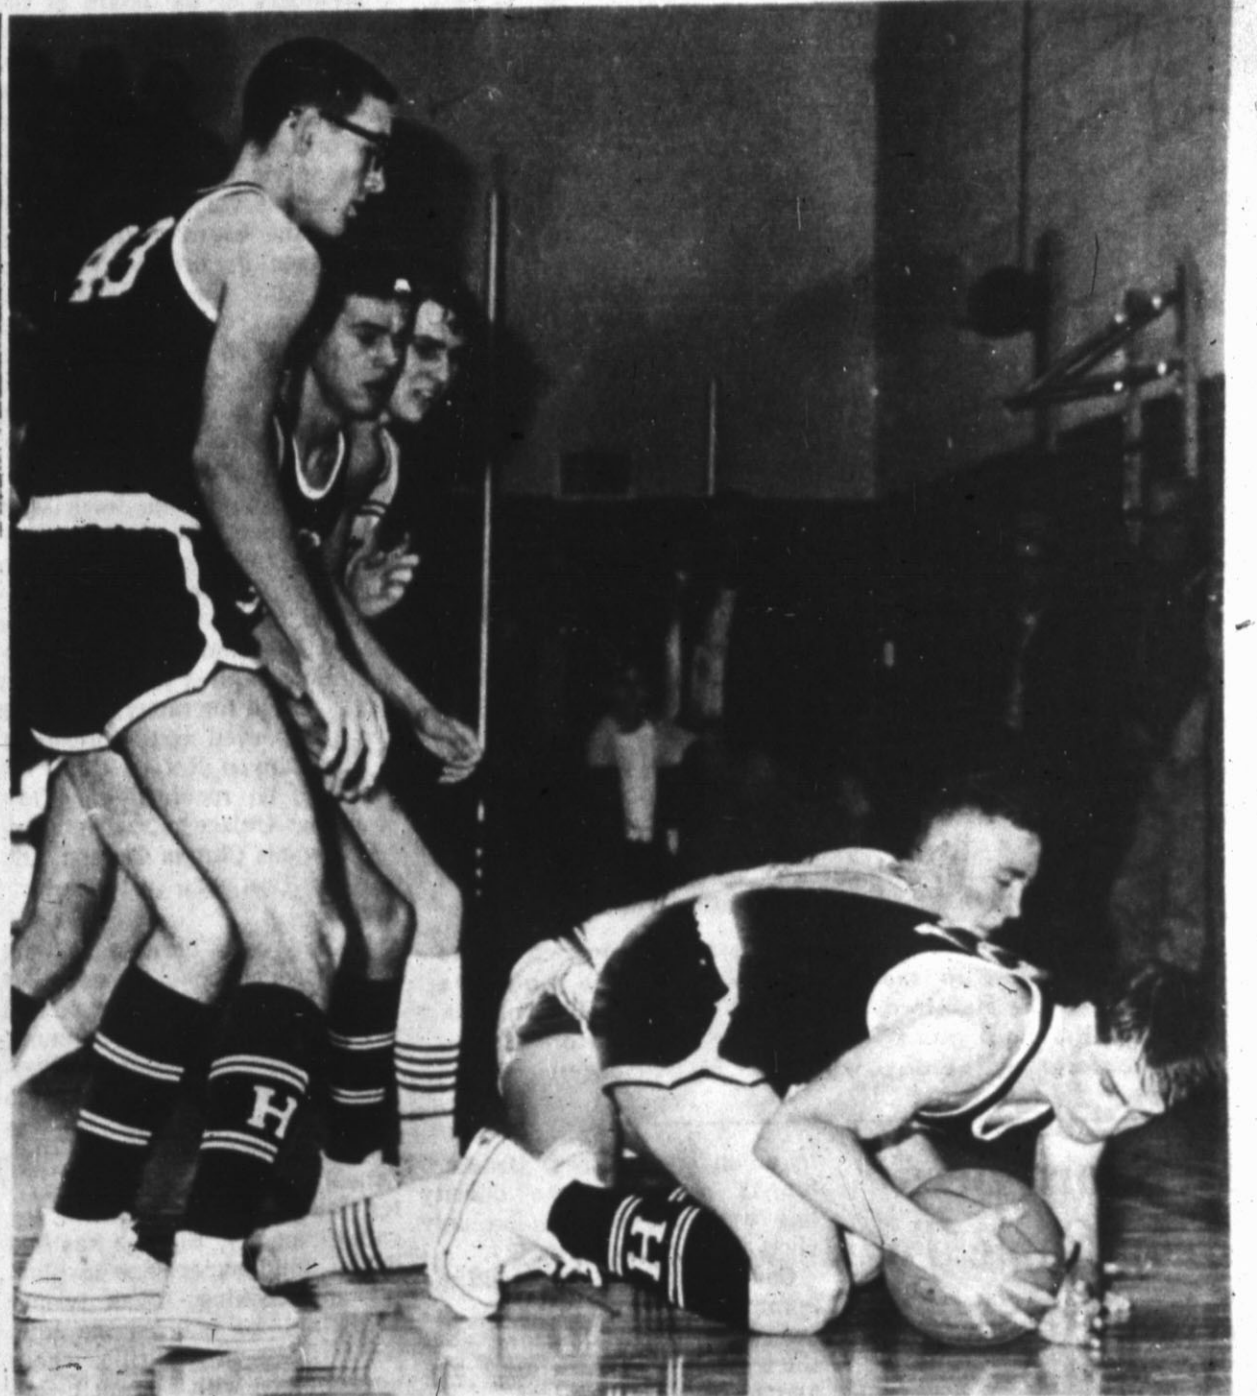

This will also be the first conference game for the Hornets who dropped a game last week to Dimmitt 62-38 in their next to last non-conference game.

Tulla sported a 7-7 record following the loss to the Bobcats.

Hornet coach Don Nentwig said his biggest liability was being short on rebounding and a hot-cold defense.

Hereford now has a 6-6 record for the season.

Following the game with the Hornets the Whitefaces will host the Perryton Rangers here Friday evening at 8 p. m. The B-team game will be at 8:15 p. m.

TIE BALL CALLED—Steve Hodges and an unidentified Dimmitt ball player both fell to the floor for a tie ball call from the referee. The Bobcats sought revenge from the Whitefaces and were successful when they defeated the Herd 56-45 in Hereford's last game before starting conference play. (Staff Photo)

Sports

Roger Owen tells us that the Hereford High School golf team is getting into shape for its season which begins in March.

AT THE PRESENT time the men are more or less on their own since coach Cuby Kitchens is busy with the Whiteface basketball team.

Kitchens said the team is scheduled for a number of spring meets including one invitational tourney here in Hereford.

WHITEFACE baseball practice finally got underway Wednesday after a two day delay.

The big holdup was a lack of equipment which had been ordered earlier this year.

COACH DON DORMAN said Thursday that it looked like the team would be stiff competition for the Dumas Demons.

As of now Dumas is the only other school in district I-AAA which has a baseball team.

The spring schedule calls for eight meetings of the two teams to decide the district winners.

Rumors have it that Canyon is trying to get a baseball team started this year, but no well founded statements have been released from over Canyon way.

BASEBALL IS a good sport and helps athletes develop techniques which would not otherwise be developed.

We feel the more sports offered to local athletes, the better off they are when they graduate.

Hereford High School offers almost all sports and we think we have some well-rounded athletes.

Coffin and Fangman were also on the Whiteface football line.

Both of the men are juniors at Hereford High School and will be returning next year to help in both these sports.

IT SEEMS AS if the Dumas Demon basketball team has something to be desired this year after winning only two games in their season, thus far.

Of course past records prove that the Demons are late season developers.

Coach Jerry Hale has won the state championship once in his short career at Dumas, and in that year the Demons had a poor non-conference record.

We read where 15 Amarillo hunters spent the first day of a three-day quail hunting spree and returned with 155 bobwhites and two pheasant cocks among them. THAT'S A PRETTY good record. We have been getting the quail hunting urge lately and this may spur us to go out and beat the bushes for a few of these tasty birds.

The season for quail hunting opened in the Panhandle on Nov. 13 and will remain open through the rest of January, closing Jan. 31.

Hereford football coach Jack Meredith said Wednesday that he is still having trouble getting a full football schedule for next year's grid season.

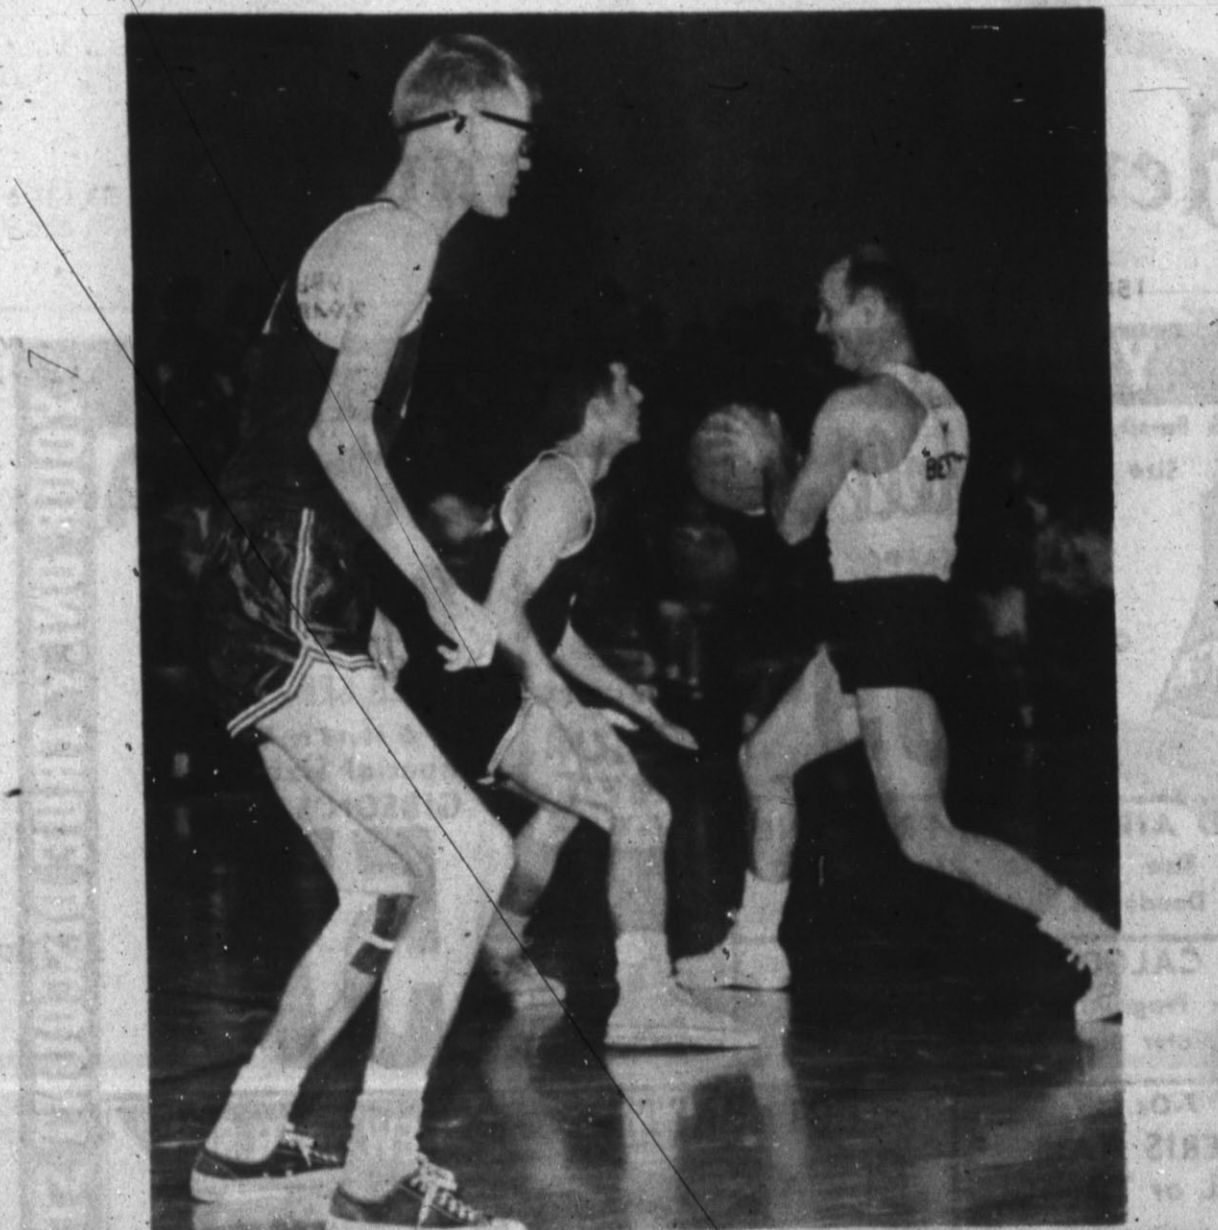

The coach has been having trouble scheduling an Oct. 7 game for the mighty Whitefaces.

FROM SAME STABLE

CLEVELAND — Bret Hancock, the great pacer who won all 24 races as a 2-year-old in 1964, is the best colt Ricard Downing of Shaker eights, Have Ohio ever owned.

But he also had a good filly named Timely Beauty who won stakes in 1962 and 1963. Timely Beauty, purchased at Lexington for $19,000, paced a record mile in 1:57 1/5 in a Lexington time trial in 1962.

In three years of racing she earned $115,265.

HOLDING A CLOSE GUARD—David Henderson and his brother Johnny put a tight guard on the members of the KIXZ Dribbling Drips in the high school student council benefit game Thursday in the high school gym. Proceeds from the game went to the student council and to the KIXZ scholarship fund. (Staff Photo)

Drips Drop Game To Locals 57-51

The Hereford Gunners downed the KIXZ Dribbling Drips Thursday in the Student Council sponsored ballgame.

Hereford and the Drips stayed close in the first half with the Drips leading 28-25 at the halftime intermission.

THE GUNNERS came back in the second half to close the gap between the two teams and come out on top with a six point advantage over the Drips.

Game proceeds were split between the Hereford High School student council and the Amarillo radio station.

The money going to the radio station was put into a scholarship fund. At the end of the Drips' season two persons' names from each school, in which the team has played, will be submitted to the radio station and from these names some lucky student will win a scholarship.

David Henderson was high man for the Gunners, scoring 20 points. Jerry Curtsinger and Earl Keese were second scoring 12 points each.

SAMY SMITH was high man for the Drips, scoring 29 points. Jay Bennett was second high man for the Amarillo team scoring 13 points.

Playing for the Hereford team were, David Dowell, Curtsinger, Henderson, Johnny Henderson, Harve Pinner, Keese, Howard Johnson and Doug Proffer.

HEREFORD TIED the Drips as the first quarter ended after the lead had changed hands several times.

But the Drips came back to regain the lead at halftime. As the second half began the Hereford team regained the lead and managed to hold it through out the remainder of the game.

CHANGE WITH SEASONS DENVER — A number of players on the Denver Broncos of the American Football League played basketball last winter to keep in shape.

During the Bronco season ticket drive a game played by the gridiron cagers raised enough money to pay for 23 ticket books as door prizes.

Seventh Graders Drop To Tulla In Home Game

Seventh grade cagers from Stanton Junior High dropped their first game of the new year to the Tulla Dobbers Thursday by a close 24-26.

The local five trailed throughout the game by a wide margin until the last five minutes of the game when they poured it on the Dobbers with an attack led by Greg Chisholm and Allen Harding.

As the two cagers began the attack the locals trailed by an 18-26 score, but the two managed to close the gap to the two point lead held by the Tulla five at the end of the game.

COACH RAY Don King said the seventh grade cagers handled the ball well and did a good job of picking the rebounds off the board in the game.

Allen Harding, was high man for the Dogies scoring eight points in the game.

Greg Chisholm and Willard Black were close behind scoring five points each.

Rickie Lee, Jeff Davenport and Donnie McDermitt each tallied two points each.

FIRST GAME AFTER BREAK

Frosh Take Win In Overtime Tiff

Hereford freshmen took a victory over the Tulla Hornets Thursday in an exciting game which went into an overtime.

THE LOCALS trailed at the end of the first quarter, but managed a lead in the second and third stanzas. The Hornets began to catch the locals and by the last few minutes of the game were ahead two points.

Jerry Russell tossed in two bucket in a 1-1 situation as the game ended throwing it into a 52-52 tie, running the game into an overtime.

As the overtime neared an end it looked as if Hereford had the game in the bag with a three point lead, but the hornets tossed in a bucket giving the local five only a one-point lead.

BUT THE WHITEFACES were able to stall with the ball till the final buzzer had come out of the game with a victory.

At the end of the first quarter the Hornets held a five point margin with a 11-15 score.

By the end of the half the Whitefaces had reversed the lead to give them a 29-24 lead in the game.

As the third quarter ended the local quint had widened the margin to 10 points to give them a 38-28 lead.

BUT THE HORNETS had ideas of their own in the fourth and last stanza as they caught the locals off guard several times and managed to tie the score.

Bill Russell was fouled and was given the 1-1 and made both shots tying the game and throwing it into an overtime.

As the overtime progressed the lead changed hands several times, but once again Bill Russell tossed in the vital bucket to give the Whiteface a victory.

Bryce Hunter was high man for the Whitefaces, scoring 17 points in the game.

CLOSE BEHIND were Jerry Russell and Dusty Duncan with Russell scoring 10 points and Duncan tossing in the ball for nine.

Gidion Polk led the Hornets in scoring with 16 points.

Ricky Cox and Mike Henthorn were not far behind with Cox scoring 14 points and Henthorn scoring 12.

This was the first game for the frosh since the holiday break.

The Hereford Whiteface football banquet is only two weeks off. The event is set for Jan. 22 in the high school cafeteria.

FOOTBALL MOTHERS will be honoring their sons on that night and we will be privileged to present the annual 'Hustling Whiteface' award to some deserving Hereford football player.

This is the first year for the school to hold a football banquet instead of an all sports event.

Other awards will be presented at the event by various school and civic organizations.

IT MAY NOT BE spring, but spring is in the air. Nearly all of the participants in spring sports are practicing.

We saw Ricky Fangman and Bill Coffin working out in front of the fieldhouse Wednesday afternoon.

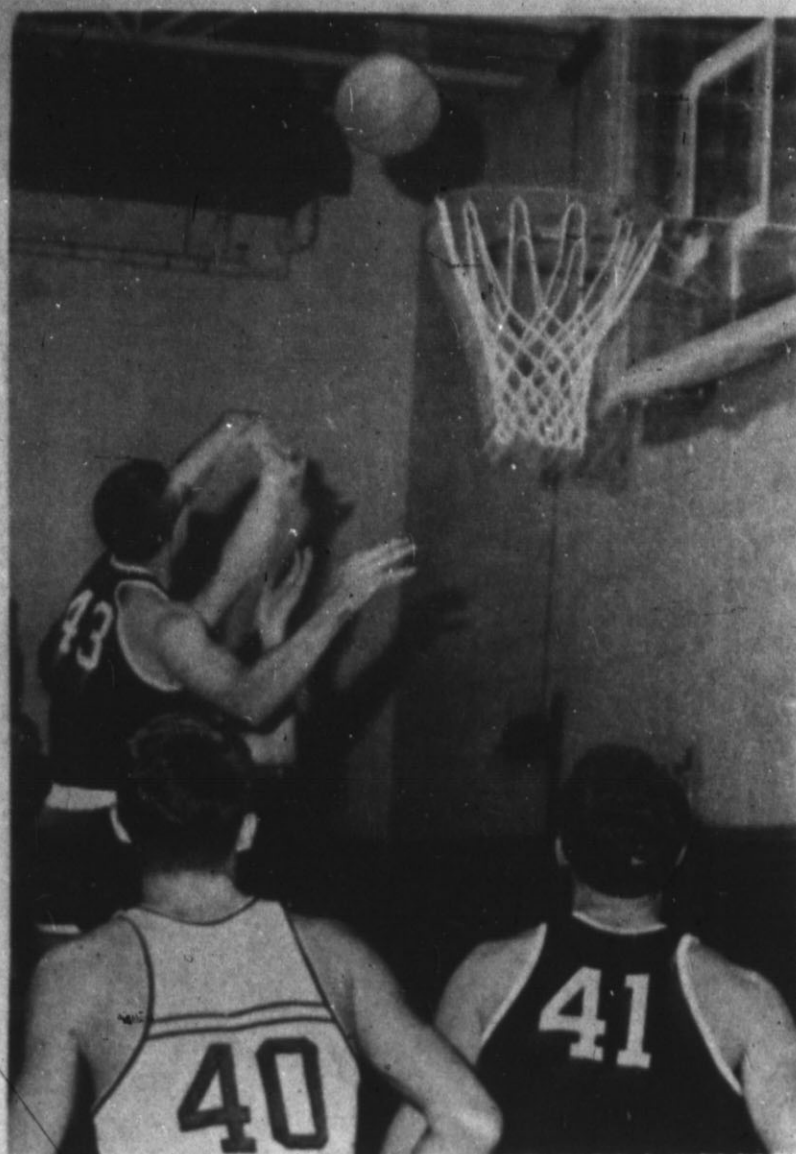

Fangman is the Whiteface discus hurler and Coffin is the shot man.

Both Coffin and Fangman seem to be showing some real promise in their respective

KNOCKS BALL BACK—An unidentified Bobcat player got into this awkward position Friday evening in the Dimmitt-Hereford game as he knocked the ball back onto the court. Dimmitt downed the Whitefaces 56-45 in the game. (Staff Photo)

GOOD FOR TWO—Oscar Holmes goes up for two as he scored six points in the third quarter of the ballgame Friday when the Hereford Whitefaces clashed with Dimmitt. This was the final game for the Whitefaces before beginning conference Tuesday with the Tulia Hornets. (Staff Photo)

Canyon Man New Executive At Amphitheater

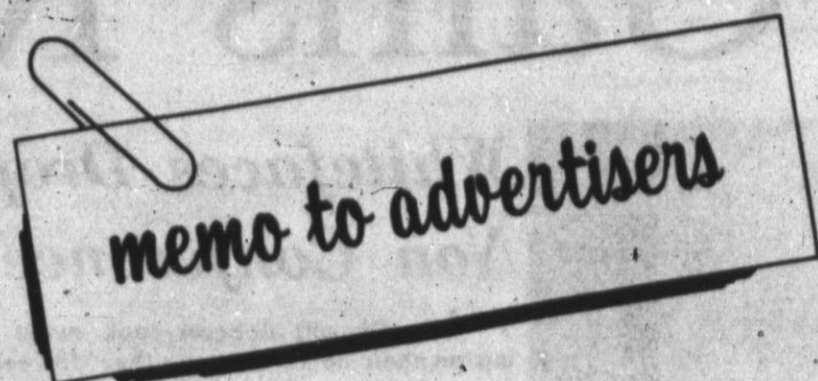

Members of the board of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation announce that Raymond Raillard of Canyon will devote his full time to the business of the organization, serving as executive vice-president. Raillard has been a very effective member of the board of the foundation since its creation. He has served on the organizational committee on the executive board, and on the building committee, and brings a thorough knowledge of the history and mechanics of the organization to his new position.

In addition to his work with the Heritage Foundation, Raillard has been connected with the Amarillo Area Fund. At present he is the president of the Canyon Community Concert Association and has worked in that organization for many years. He has also served as the president of the Canyon Rotary Club. On Dec. 17, he received an "Outstanding Citizen" award from the Kiwanis Club of Canyon, and was the first man to be so honored.

Raillard was born in Dalhart and attended school there. His special interests were music and art. He is a graduate in music from West Texas State University and played in the Amarillo Symphony at one time. He was on the staff of the Wheeler High School as band director and later taught at Floydada in the same capacity. He also has had dance band experience in playing and booking. About twenty years ago he entered the lumber business in Amarillo, where he remained with Foxworth-Galbraith for five years as credit manager. He then moved to Canyon, where he has been associated with the Sternberg Lumber Company. His business experience includes accounting and bookkeeping.

After April, Raillard will be assisted by Edith Eckhardt, who serves the organization in management and in public relations.

The Republic of Lebanon corresponds closely in area to ancient Phoenicia, and cities of that time still in existence include Byblos, where the phonetic alphabet was invented.

People who pay to shop

Most retailers, we suspect, would shudder at the idea of charging customers an admission fee to shop in their stores.

Yet, we do it regularly. Readers buy this paper for the news and features, but they also buy it to see your advertising. They want to know what you are selling, what your prices are, and compare this with what another merchant is advertising.

Readers are shoppers, and people who pay to shop, shop to buy.

Your advertising reaches them as an invited guest. They study it at their leisure, and they will respond if what you have to say interests them.

Who measures this paying audience?

As members of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, we submit our circulation records to regular inspection by traveling ABC auditors. This is an organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers, whose sole purpose is to give accurate and factual circulation reports.

ABC measures our circulation audience, in accordance with the highest industry standards.

Its reports tell how many shoppers buy our paper, where they buy it, what they pay, and many other facts to help you know our paying audience.

Teen Crowd

ON SPECIAL OCCASIONS like New Year's Eve or ordinary times like some Friday evening, crowds of Hereford High School students find their way to the Community Center for dances which have become a fixed part of their social life. With no set schedule, the dances are planned by a committee named in HHS Student Council, working with Mrs. Robert Lemons, Community Center manager, to fit into the pattern of school activities. They may be on a holiday, at Homecoming, after a game or just a weekend where there is no school event to conflict. Less frequently, junior high students have similar dances at the Center.

Has A Ball

CLIMAX OF THE HOLIDAY season was the New Year's Eve party for high school students and their friends, photographed for this page during the gala hours. More than 300 attended the dance, and the earlier Christmas and Homecoming dances attracted equally large numbers. Girls and boys in party dress-up greeted the New Year in the ballroom where the decor featured showers of multi-colored balloons and streamers from the ceiling, a huge clock face and musical symbols on the walls. More or less formal, all the dances have decorations, refreshments and music, usually by an orchestra, arranged by the student committee.

IN THE CENTER of the swirl of activities at Hereford Community Center, where as many as three or four meetings are often in progress at the same time, Mrs. Lemons is in charge of bookings for the various rooms and keeping the calendar of engagements. Of all her work, she says she likes best helping with the many youth activities focused at the Center, especially the dances for high school and junior high students, whom she counts among her best friends.

COMMUNITY CENTER MANAGER

Work With Youth Is 'Best Part' Of Her Job

By SUE COLEMAN Women's Editor

Her office hours are from 3 to 5 p. m. five days a week, so her job sounds like the sort of insecure any employed woman would envy.

But Mrs. Robert Lemons manager of Hereford Community Center, works "an average of 18 hours a day, counting telephone calls to my home at all hours of the day and night."

Before she gives that explanation, vivacious Mrs. Lemons makes it clear that she likes her job.

ESPECIALLY, she likes the contacts it gives her with youth, from Cub Scouts to upper-teen girls and boys who call her "Ma," share with her their troubles and triumphs and flock to the dances which they arrange with her aid through a committee of high-schoolers.

That the teenagers return her affection was amply demonstrated when Mrs. Lemons underwent heart surgery recently. Flowers, gifts, and cards by the scores flooded her room in an Oklahoma City hospital. One card, handmade of poster-size cardboard, had more than 200 signatures.

The many activities which swirl about her small office in the center would hardly seem to supply an atmosphere best for convalescence from heart surgery, but Mary Frances Lemons declares that nothing has speeded her recovery more than getting back to her young friends.

WHEN SHE LEFT for the hospital, she gaily promised them she would be back "in two weeks and two days" after surgery. On that day she attended a high school pep rally.

Not all her work at Community Center concerns the young crowd, but she says the Center's activities have always been focused on youth.

In addition to the dances for high school and junior high students and their friends, there are almost daily meetings of some groups — Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts, Hereford Youth Society, 4-H Clubs.

Adult groups which use the Center regularly include the Duplicate Bridge Club, Beta Sigma Phi chapters, Jaycee-Eltes, Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Art Guild, Home Demonstration Council, Hereford Riders, Booster Club, WWI Veterans.

IN ADDITION, many other organizations meet there for special programs, parties, conventions — and Mrs. Lemons manages the bookings, no small task at times when every available room is in use. Her office is open from 3 to 5 p. m. except on Wednesdays and Saturdays, to book meetings.

Busiest seasons are at Christmas and in the spring, when Mrs. Lemons would like to have either a few more evenings in the week or a few more rooms at the Center to care for the rush.

She will officially mark her first anniversary in the job Feb. 1, although she began work about mid-January last year, assisting Mrs. Clyde Cave, her predecessor, and learning the routine.

It was actually her very first job, as she had married at 17, the year after her graduation from high school at Claude, where she was the youngest of six children in a pioneer family of that area.

AS MARY FRANCES Best, she grew up at Claude. She and her young husband lived there a few months after their marriage, then went to Panhandle where he farmed until they moved to this county 23 years ago.

They lived on a farm near Hereford, then moved into town in 1953. Lemons is an insurance agent and shares his wife's interest in work with young people. They helped chaperone Community Center dances since the first one, when their older daughter attended.

committee named by the high school Student Council, which makes decisions on main problems and on discipline, according to rules which the students themselves have made. A similar committee from junior high schools is being planned, Mrs. Lemons says.

The school committee includes John Perrin, Bob Gentry, Retha Kelly, Donna Clark, Larry Clements and Brant Knox, seniors; David Evans, Edith Davis, Charlotte Hill and Janis Elliott, juniors; Kandy Hill and Susan Bradley, sophomores; Wayne Winget and John Stagner, freshmen.

Eighteen were present in Ida Hopper Group, meeting in Mrs. Louis Woodford's home. Miss Frances Dameron directed the study and Mrs. M. W. Sumner the worship period.

Mrs. Walter London Jr. was in charge of study for Joan Eubank Group at the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Bill Dameron presented the worship topic.

Also meeting at the church, Joyce Wiley Group had Mrs. Betty Henson as hostess. Both study and worship were conducted by Mrs. Ed DeLozier.

Those groups had morning meetings, and Tice Group met in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Williams, who led the study hour after a brief worship service conducted by Mrs. Ray Suit. Mrs. Rusher was a guest.

Announcement was made of the January executive meeting to be held at 9:30 a. m. next Wednesday at the church, and the luncheon Jan. 19, when Joyce Wiley Group will be hostesses.

"WE ALWAYS LIKED KIDS in their teens," she says, "and always had them visiting in our home, even when our own children were smaller."

The Lemons' children are Beth, Mrs. Jack Miller of Portales; Kay, Mrs. Jay Boynton of Norman, Okla., and Robby, currently captain of Hereford High School basketball team and president of the 'Acappella Choir.

From the standpoint of numbers, dances for students are the biggest events at the Community Center. About 300 persons attended the recent New Year's Eve dance, also the Christmas dance and the one which was a part of high school activities, but there are usually two or three a month for high school students and one for junior high students.

A SMALL admission charge is made to pay for the music and refreshments. A band from a nearby town is engaged for most high school dances; the students like that better than records or local bands.

Pioneer Club Slates Guest Day

Guests are being invited by Pioneer Study Club members to hear a program Tuesday featuring a book review by Mrs. Earl Humphrey of Lubbock. Mrs. W. Frank Ball is leader for the club's annual program with a religious theme.

Mrs. Humphrey has become well known in Lubbock and neighboring cities for her review of the book, Dawn to Dusk, which she will present here.

Mrs. H. E. Miller will be the devotional speaker on the topic, "True Religion and Undefined." Mrs. Carl Mountz will sketch the history of the Hymn of the Month chosen by the National Federation of Music Clubs, Awake My Soul. Mrs. Mountz is a member of Hereford Music Club, to which she is to present the same talk later this month.

Hostesses for the guest luncheon are Mrs. Ralph McCullough, Mrs. J. M. Gilliland and Mrs. Roberta Campbell.

Election of officers for a two-year term is scheduled at a brief business session with Mr. L. H. Lookingbill Sr. presiding. She is completing a three-year tenure in the presidency, serving the added year when the club changed dates of its biennial elections to conform to procedure in the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, with which it is affiliated.

CAMP FIRE LEADERS

Annual Meeting Of Council Set

The 21st annual meeting of Hereford Camp Fire Girls Council will be held at 8 p. m. Monday at Community Center. Officers for a new year will be elected and installed; reports will be heard on various phases of activity, and awards will be presented.

Vance Crume is serving now as president of the Council, which embraces all adults registered as currently paid members and serving in a defined capacity as leaders, assistant leaders, sponsors or members of the local board of directors and committees.

This group constitutes the voting membership of the Council at its annual meeting. At present 115 adults are registered with the Council, working with 305 girls.

Members of the Council, both adults and girls, represent various groups and interests which make up this community." Mrs. Phillip Barkley, administrative secretary, points out, "Membership is made up of those whose community interests lie within the Council's jurisdiction, which is Deaf Smith County.

There are 26 groups of girls in the local schools, divided by age into Blue Birds, Camp Fire, Junior High Camp Fire and Horizon Club groups. A new group is being organized at the Latin American Labor Camp for girls living there.

This new group, with 14 girls now registered, is a community service project of Starlighters Horizon Club, whose adult advisor is Mrs. Vance Crume.

Hereford Camp Fire Girls Council was organized and chartered with National Camp Fire Girls, Inc., on Oct. 10, 1945. The Council is a participating member of Hereford United Fund.

Installation of the newly-elected officers will be conducted at the meeting Monday by the Junior High Cabinet, which will be in charge of the Council Fire ceremony.

—Small Talk—

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

It's been bothering Mrs. J. C. Hennington, she says, and it had also occurred to me, so when she mentioned it and said that something really should be done about it, there is enough reason for me to bring it up.

THE QUESTION IS, who is responsible for the well-being of the pretty little evergreen shrubs in Variety Park plantings on Main Street? Mrs. Hennington thinks some of them are looking a little peaked, and she wonders if they are being watered enough, now that the weather is colder.

Being a relative newcomer, it didn't seem to behoove me to offer advice about downtown horticulture, but Mrs. Hennington says she has spent enough winters in these parts to know that shrubs need lots of water to best withstand the cold, dry winds.

Some people hold to the theory that plants need to be watered only in the growing season, but she agrees with most long-time gardeners that it is as important, or maybe more, to keep shrubs, grass and trees well watered in winter, especially when they are just getting established as are the Variety Park plants.

Now maybe somebody will come along and tell us that the downtown evergreens are a variety that naturally look brownish in mid-winter and are rally very healthy. Well, in that case we can easily find something else to wonder about!

SOME ASSORTED NOTES about some of the nice people of Hereford:

Whenever you see Mrs. Joe Whitley shopping or doing errands around town, she is almost always accompanied by her two cute daughters. We got pretty well acquainted with Pam and Sandy while Mrs. Whitley was visiting our office on business concerned with Project Christmas Card. They like our typewriters. Wonder if we might make newspaperwomen of them?

The Earnest Langleys are lucky to have a family of pretty daughters, who will be lucky if they achieve the mature attractiveness of their mother, who was looking especially pretty when she came by the office this week, wearing a green tweedy coat very becoming to her brown eyes.

There may be someone hereabout with more appealing dimples than Margaret Bell's, but offhand I can't think who.

With capes on the fashion scene again, some smart-looking ones have been seen lately. One of the most striking was a full length deep gold one, worn by brunette Mrs. James T. Clark and suited perfectly to her slender figure.

SOMETIMES THERE are days like this. Can't wake up even after dragging out of bed; stumble through dressing and wind up with mismatched belt, shoes and scarf; burn the toast twice before giving up and scraping a piece to gulp with the instant coffee in a hurry.

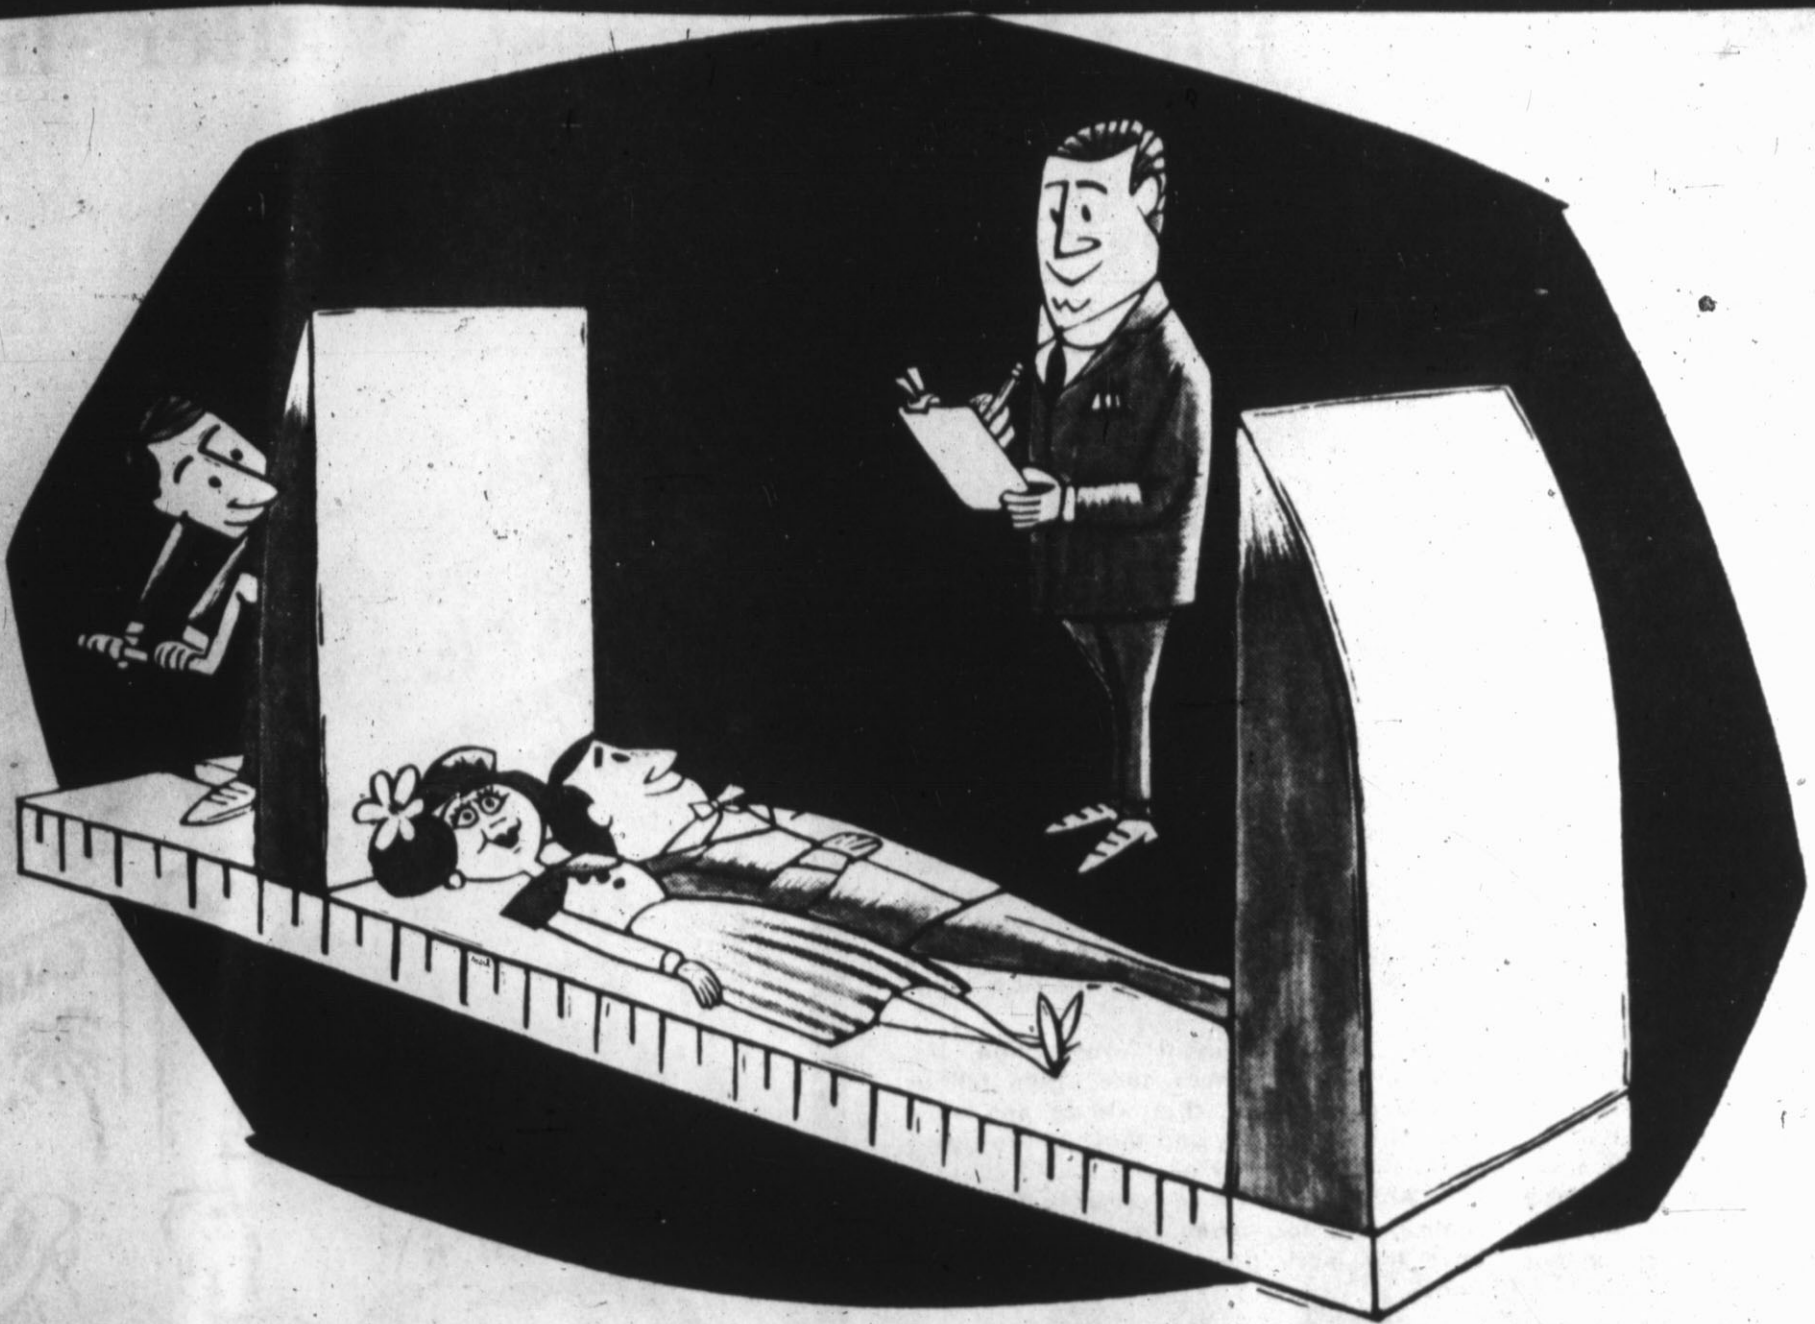

Start out with the wrong purse and have to go back and get the car keys; get to all the intersections just as the light turns red; reach the office a little late and find notes about several early phone calls to be returned.

There's a stack of work from yesterday that should have been done then; go out for a cup of coffee and run into the Don't Walk signs.

No doubt about I have it, this day a little better disorganized than usual.

GETS LAMPS BACK

STARKE, FL. — A donation he made 43 years ago is coming back to Rev. J. T. Quigley, an 85-year-old retired minister. In 1922, residents of the city provided the money to put street lights on Call Street. These eight foot lights with globes on top are now being replaced by the city. Rev. Auigley, the only survivor of those who purchased the lamps, is being given six of the street lights for his antique collection as a sentimental gesture of the City Council.

WE'VE BEEN LEAD TO WATER . . . AND

Sec. Freeman Is Still Going To Make Us Drink

Congressman Walter Rogers returned to the Panhandle this week with open and scathing criticism of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman and, according to the reports we get, he is only one of several Congressmen who are thoroughly displeased with actions of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Centering around cotton skip-row and micronaire staple length issues, Rogers also included a reference to grain sorghum in his complaints. Basically, Rogers declares that Freeman's action "borders on dishonesty" in that he has failed to carry out his commitments to Congress by twisting the interpretations of the Farm Bill in such manner as to defeat the purpose of the elected body. Equally upset are Mahon of Lubbock and Bob Poague, second man on the House Agriculture Committee.

The feud — and it appears to fast becoming just that — affords several facets. If the Congressmen are correct, and it seems to us that they must be, then why should we go to so much trouble to elect our officials? If our country is to be dominated and run by bureaucrats, then we must admit that things are in worse shape than any of us realized for, instead of standing to lose our freedom, we have already lost it. Worse still, if our elected officials must always bow to the appointed bureau heads — and we haven't noticed where any of the yowls of our Congressmen did anything save advise their constituents of their loss of power — then we no longer have a true voice in our government in that we are at best represented by figureheads.

Under this new system, our Congressmen and Senators may well be labeled as "Official Lobbyists" and, while no one has more respect for results achieved by lobbyists, this is hardly what we had in mind when we so carefully elected our officials and sent them to Washington to enact the laws which should govern our nation. Furthermore and strictly secondary, remains the fact that federal bureau and judicial edicts made it mandatory that we re-district to secure fair representation. If our elected officials are to be ignored, we wonder why they went to so much expense and trouble.

All in all, it seems to us that Mr. Freeman and others concerned at least owe the people an explanation and an answer to the open charges of so many elected officials. If they are guilty as accused, we certainly go along with Mr. Rogers: They should either resign — or be kicked out.

Congressional investigations have probably been overworked, but this situation presents an occasion which justifies such an investigation — if one was ever justified. In fact, the American Revolution was fought over matters of far less importance to the individual, or his liberty. The other obvious route, and the one which some Congressmen are hinting, would be an open feud with the Secretary through a complete lack of cooperation.

Where would this leave the American farmer?

Already our schools are coming under the same kind of bureaucratic domination. Where will the average American be when these same people finally take over our courts and we lose our right of trial by jury?

Granted that Congress was remiss in not spelling out the full powers and methods to the Secretary of Agriculture in the new bill, we still feel that the government should belong to the people and to their elected representatives. Blatant and high-handed tactics are never democratic and, consequently, they are seldom good for the public welfare. Because Mr. Freeman adopted the same attitude during the wheat referendum, he lost by an overwhelming landslide, and this should be a guiding light for every Congressman who now holds office.

In a Congressional investigation, Mr. Freeman will no doubt once again tell us how stupid we are, that we do not know what is good for us, and that we are going to do things his way or else.

And maybe some of us will finally realize that too many of the bureaucrats have too much power . . . for our own good.

Labor vs. Labor

In the view of one local labor official, the New York transit walkout is largely "sabotage" against labor itself. In a number of ways, that's a highly accurate assessment.

No matter how long the strike lasts, the economic burden on the Transport Workers Union's own members will of course be considerable. More-over, thousands of New York area workers, including many members of other unions, will be denied a chance to reach their jobs to earn a living. But the anti-labor aspect of this strike is a good deal broader than that.

When Congress comes back to work this month, a number of its members will be pushing for new legal curbs on irresponsible use of strikes and strike threats, as well as for new restraints on walkouts that chiefly damage the public. The TWU could hardly have done more to advance their effort if it had been trying to do so.

Up to now the advocates of new restraints on union power have talked mainly about the perils of nationwide strikes in steel, auto or other industries. Though such strikes could damage the nation's economy far more than a walkout on New York's subways and buses, their impact is spread across the country and is scarcely visible to many members of the public.

The New York transit strike, on the other hand, presents the problem in microcosm. Not only New Yorkers but interested outsiders, in Congress or elsewhere, can see how one union can on whim tie up everything.

Those who favor new curbs on unions, for example, contend that unions too often seem to think they are a law unto themselves. To buttress that argument they now can point to the TWU's strike, which was begun in open defiance of a state law flatly barring walkouts by public employees. They can also point to the astonishing spectacle of Michael Quill, the TWU's international president, ripping up duly served court papers in full view of television cameras.

Another argument for restrictions on union power is that unions sometimes use their power to promote unreasonable demands. Here, again, the TWU provides a dramatic example. Its demands make those put forth in recent years by other unions look like, to borrow a phrase from Mr. Quill, "operation peanuts."

Among other things, the Transport Workers asked for a 30% pay raise, a cut in the work-week from five to four days, and six-week vacations after one year's service; the cost was estimated at $680 million over a two-year period. Possibly the union, hoped to achieve a tactical advantage; Mr. Quill obviously now thinks he is magnanimous because he has scaled down his demand to about $180 million.

Not surprisingly, however, the public agency that runs the subways and buses can see little magnanimity in such a "concession." The Transit Authority is already deeply in the red without any increase in labor costs. Furthermore, its workers are, by any rational standard, already far from poorly paid. Their wages compare favorably with those of other transit workers around the country, and they have increased more than 55% in the past decade.

The union has further weakened its case by its sidishow methods of advancing it. Mr. Quill seemed to enjoy his attempts at Irish humor and his efforts to blame the strike on, among others, the editorial page editor of the New York Times and a mayor who has barely taken office. But such an aversion to calm, logical discussion just might persuade the public that even the union's leaders know the facts are against them.

So New York presents, in concentrated form, a dramatic illustration of how badly unions can abuse their monopoly power. If the federal Government, which has done so much to build that power, now moves to take some of it away, organized labor surely will know where to place much of the responsibility.

SEARS WORKS WITH COMMITTEES

Vital Subjects Talked At WT Chamber Meeting

Eighteen special guest speakers, covering a wide range of subjects vital to the economy and prosperity of West Texas, are on the program as the West Texas Chamber of Commerce holds its mid-winter meeting in El Paso, Jan. 13-14.

HEREFORD banker Henry Sears, vice president of WTCC said a record attendance of directors is expected for the meeting, which will feature talks by experts in 18 specialized fields.

Sears, who heads the program of work for the WTCC, said plans for the coming year will be mapped out in committee sessions, in which he will participate.

WTCC Board Members, committee chairmen, officers, members and wives from the entire 132-county area of the Chamber will attend the El Paso meeting.

THE TWO-DAY conference will be held at the Plaza Motor Hotel in downtown El Paso, and during the first afternoon members will scatter for a series of committee meetings held concurrently at business locations in the heart of the city.

The El Paso meeting also will be the site for release of a special report prepared by the West Texas Chamber and the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas, entitled, "What Is West Texas?" WTCC President Beeman Fisher of Fort Worth will formally present the detailed economic report at the opening luncheon on January 13 where he will be keynote speaker.

THE REPORT will highlight the assets, facilities, characteristics, and opportunities in West Texas. This report, we feel, will show what makes West Texas tick; what it has to offer; tell of its human and natural resources and many other things," Fisher said. The report is being published and will be available after the El Paso meeting.

The El Paso meeting will open with registration at 10 a. m. on January 13, followed at 12 noon by the membership luncheon.

Committee meetings will begin at 1:45 in the downtown area, featuring the special guest speakers.

THE SPEAKERS, their subjects, and the committees before which they will appear, are:

C. B. Ray, executive vice-president, El Paso Valley Cotton Association, speaking on "National Agricultural Legislation," and Bill Shurley, representing the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association, speaking on "Cooperative Effort, W. T. C. C. and T. S. G. R. A.," to the Agriculture Committee; Chad A. Wymer of Las Cruces, president, New Mexico Chamber of Commerce Managers Association, on "Chamber of Commerce Management Trends in New Mexico," to the Community Services Committee; Dr. Milton Leech, vice president of Texas Western College, on "The Future Development of Higher Education in West Texas," and Dr. T. G. Barnes, Texas Western College, speaking on "Research Opportunity in a College Community," to the Education Committee; C. Truett Smith, president of the First State Bank of Wylie, Texas, on "Results of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce Industrial Tours," and Wilson Guest, president of the National Bank of Sweet water, speaking on "We can Develop Industry in West Texas," to the Industrial Development Committee;

Also, William J. Hooten, vice-president and editor, The El Paso Times, and William I. Latham, managing editor of the El Paso Times, on "How to Improve the Image of the WTCC in Its Service Area," to the Public Relations Committee; Ray Pearson, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, on "State Politics in 1966," and Glenn Biggs, executive administrative assistant, office of the Speaker, House of Representatives, State of Texas, will speak on the "Issues Facing Texas," to the State Affairs Committee; E. R. Lockhart, president of El Paso Electric Company, on "The Southwest Sun Country Association and West Texas," to the Tourist Development Committee; William B. Alderman, editor of Texas Parade Magazine, on "Circle Tours in West Texas," to the tourist Development Committee;

Also, K. D. McFarland, manager of public relations for the Ralph M. Parsons Co., Los Angeles, Calif., on "The NAWAPA Plan," to the Water Resources Committee; Joe G. Moore, Jr., executive director, State Board of Water Development in Austin, on "The Texas Master Water Plan and West Texas," to the Water Resources Committee.

The WTCC Executive Committee will meet later in the afternoon of January 13 under Fisher's leadership. The full Board of Directors meeting will be at 9 a. m. on January 14, winding up the business portion of the meeting.

A SPECIAL Quota Busters breakfast will be held at 7:30 a. m. on January 14 for all West Texas Chamber directors who have met or exceeded membership quotas in their cities.

John Ben Sheppard of Odessa, vice-president of the WTCC for membership and finance, will direct Quota Buster activities. The other vice-president, Sears, is in charge of the program of work.

Panhandle Paragraphs

We've had a feeling for years that the greatest present danger to the human race on the planet is not from some gigantic nuclear blast which might snuff out the whole populace in one catastrophic microsecond, but slow and agonizing suffocation beneath an avalanche of paper!

In the global battle of people against paper, the people are steadily losing ground. Millions of filing cabinets are bulging with the stuff . . . countless vaults are filled with it . . . untold acres of desks are overflowing with it . . . thousands of postmen are staggering beneath it daily . . . and few post office boxes could have survive more than 48 hours without being relieved of the load.

—Spur of the Moment in The Canadian Record

I am a most important fellow. The wife and I are a most important couple. We have the mail to prove it. Why, during 1965 — one of our grandest years — the ramrod of the household and I have been privileged, selected, honored, congratulated, and — well, "baited" is the real word. We've been baited by eight pounds and two ounces of junk mail from all over the nation. One hundred and eighty two choice missiles arrived at the house and virtually each was in flowery language designed to make the recipient feel like he's a one-in-a-million fellow.

—Barney Thompson in the Denver City Press

Until the Saturday and Sunday football games were unreeled, we were all for starting a campaign. We figured that if a television station could raise $16,000 to send a band to a bowl game, we could raise $11 or $12 to buy a couple of books. The books would be "Defensive Football" and "How to Prepare a Team Mentally For A Bowl Game." Both of the hardback books would be presented to the Texas Tech Athletic Dept. in hopes that they might prove helpful.

Tom Robinson, local real estate dealer, was telling about a story he recently read about Edward's Island. It told of the fact they had no liquor there since 1900, there have been no murders or other major crimes on the island, they do not have a sheriff or police officers — just a watchman. They average two minor car accidents a year to each ten thousand autos. They have a population of 90,000.

August 15, 1966, will mark our 20th anniversary as editor of the Tulia Herald. Twenty years ago the breaking of ground for a new residence rated a front page news story! We were campaigning for more lighted signs in front of stores around the square. Some of the stores still had wooden awnings which extended over the sidewalks. There were virtually no street lights. In an early issue we noted that one could stand in the middle of Highway 86 south of the city park and, looking eastward, not see a street light or electric sign of any kind. We published a black square on the front page which we captioned: "Highway 86 through Tulia at night." We campaigned against outdoor toilets in Tulia, observing that one outdoor privy was within two blocks of the courthouse. Two irate merchants called us to complain. A local rabble-rouser had told these men that we were referring to their places of business. A line in one of our first wedding stories was lost, and the story said that the mother of the bride wore a white carnation corsage. She was indignant when she called to complain . . . We live much less dangerously when we confine our work to politics.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm takes a sidelong glance at a new machine in use in Washington.

Dear editor: According to an article I read in a copy of a newspaper which was used for packing in a box of cups and saucers somebody sent here during the holidays — if people were more thoughtful they'd use a bigger variety of newspapers for such purposes and not tear them up into shreds — at any rate, according to it, the Democrats now have and the Republicans are planning on getting one of those huge computing and electronic-brain machines which they use for answering mail.

As I understand it, the machine can memorize the names, including first names and nicknames, addresses and various bits of information about millions of individuals. A Congressman just hands the machine a list of all his constituents with all the details about each one he has found out about. Then when he wants to write them a letter, explaining why he voted for or against something, or was opposed to a pay rise but was over-ruled by the majority, or wanting to know how they feel about some pending bill, all he has to do is write the letter and hand it to the machine, which in turn writes the same letter to everyone of them, each one addressed individually and by nickname if desired, with little personal touches thrown in, and then signs them all and addresses the envelopes.

Now I have been thinking about this and while it sounds like real progress and a great time-saver, I believe those boys ought to be careful.

After getting prompt and efficient mail service from this machine, some voter may get the notion it could have other uses. If it can answer the Congressman's mail, why can't it receive it too? Instead of Congressman having a machine to write to the voters, why couldn't the voters have a machine to write to instead of a Congressman?

If it can learn every voter in the district by his first name, answer 10,000 letters an hour, and digest the views of a million people in 30 minutes and vote accordingly, all it would have to do is learn how to shake hands, and where would that leave the Congressman?

This thing has vast and explosive possibilities and if I was a Congressman I'd get that machine surrounded with enough entangling legislation to keep its use from getting too widespread.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Attorney Speaks As Club Guest

History and functions of the United States Supreme Court were discussed for Bay-View Study Club by a guest speaker, Hereford attorney Earnest Langley, at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Francis Hardwick Thursday.

One of a series of programs titled Our Federal Government, Langley's talk stressed the Supreme Court's place since 1803, as the final arbiter on questions concerning the Constitution. He added that the court was created by men of vision.

As many as 1,027 cases come before the court in a year, he said, and some must be refused because there is time to hear only five cases a day. The speaker gave examples of some interesting and far-reaching decisions of the court, and discussed the case Gideon vs.

Wainwright. Recent issues which he listed among the court's cases include obscene literature, free speech, states' rights, civil rights, school prayers and laws on communism. Interested members asked numerous questions of the speaker after his talk.

Mrs. Lee Benefield opened the program by reading A Recipe for New Year Living, Business concerning state and district Federated Club affairs was discussed with Mrs. Ansel McDowell presiding.

Mrs. Dexter Lillie reported that she delivered Christmas gifts from the club to Wichita Falls State Hospital in person. These gifts for hospital patients are given in an annual project.

A social period followed the program, when the hostess served coffee and cakes to Meses. W. J. Gilliland, A. M. Jones, Benefield, E. J. McMillan, W. S. Kerr, J. M. Gillentine, D. H. Alexander, J. W. Kirby, R. B. Miller, McDowell and Lillie.

Hobby Craft Is Topic Of Simms Club

Two guests shared with Simms Study Craft Club members a program Wednesday in the home of Mrs. J. M. Boothe, club president. Mrs. Lewis West, a former member, and Mrs. M. H. Zahring of Adrian were the visitors.

Her hobby, needlepoint, was the subject of Mrs. Roscoe Pinnell, program leader. She told the history of this handicraft, an old art which has enjoyed a new popularity for home decoration.

Several pieces of needlepoint were shown by Mrs. Pinnell after she had demonstrated the three basic stitches and told something of the technique of the work.

Refreshments were served after the program and a business session to the guests and Meses. Robert Lloyd, Edwin Morrison, Julian Perrin, Emmett Young, Pinnell, M. A. Ferguson, Charles Durham, Jim Cavin and Leland Burns.

Federation Activities Planned By Study Club

Activity based on its affiliation with state and county Federations of Women's Clubs received attention in Summerfield Study Club at its meeting Thursday in Mrs. Guy Waiser's home. Mrs. Lee Curry was co-hostess. The program subject was Americanism.

Summerfield Club will be hostess chairman for the quarterly luncheon of Deaf Smith Federation of Clubs Jan. 29. Members discussed plans for this meeting, at which Garden Beautiful, West Hereford, El Llano and Lone Star Clubs will be other hostesses.

Through the years hundreds of bills to change the system have been introduced in both houses of Congress, only to fail, she continued. As three of the most promising alternatives she listed - the district system, the proportional method, and direct popular vote.

Club members were reminded to pay poll taxes this month, to be eligible to vote in all 1966 elections.

Announcement was made of plans for entertaining husbands of members in the Caison House at 7 p. m. Feb. 3. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill and Mrs. Mack Noland were appointed to decorate for this party.

Federation department chairmen in the club were asked to meet at 2 p. m. Wednesday in First National Bank Community Room to work on reports.

Mrs. Clayton Sanders was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Fate Shannon as a guest. Other members present were Mmes. Thurman Atchley, J. R. Euler, Earl Lance and J. C. Clearman.

Charles and Anne Lindbergh in 1933 blazed a northern aerial trail across the Atlantic via Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Labrador, Greenland and Iceland. Their flight pioneered the great circle route as the shortest distance to Europe.

Her children and their families here for the weekend were Fred Ricketts, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ricketts, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Costin, Jim and Julia of Portales, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ricketts, Janey, Jeff, Sara, Celia and Danny of Dimmitt; Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ricketts, Debra, David, Frances, Mark and Dana of Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ricketts, James and Kerri. A family dinner with four generations represented Sunday attendance at First Christian Church services, and a Sunday dinner at the Caison House with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ricketts as hosts were events of the reunion. Other relatives and friends who visited were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hershney of Dimmitt, Mrs. Benny Cooper, Claude Ricketts, James Corbett, the Clyde Russell, H. L. Hershney and Fred Mercer families.

Make-It-Yourself-With Wool contest. This contest was held on the campus of the Texas A & M University on January 7 and 8.

ONE OF THE MOST talked about farm products at present is hogs. Sausage is becoming more popular than ever, as sausage offers a flavor and seasoning to suit everyone. I am told there are more than 200 sausages that have names.

Sausage actually is defined as minced meat, or a combination of meats blended with seasonings and spices and stuffed into a casing or container. A pound of ready-cooked sausage will usually make 4 - 6 servings.

The Home Demonstration Club foods leaders are giving programs this month on a very tasty sausage dish. This is made on top of the range. This, along with many other recipes, is a very attractive and usable bulletin, Quick Meals, B-927.

Here is Tom Draper's secret sausage recipe, when he sold that delicious old hog sausage I wish we could talk him into making some sausage soon. He made it mild, medium, hot and with garlic.

50 pounds meat (40 % fat; 60% lean)
1 pound salt
3 ounces pepper -- 1 oz. black pepper 2 oz. red pepper
1 1/2 ounces sage

In 1965, pork consumed per person was 60 pounds which was 5 pounds less than in 1964.

TREES ARE AGAIN available from Texas Forest Service. These are for windbreak planting and are ordered from Indian Mound Nursery, Alto, Texas.

The orders must be received at the nursery before February 11. The species available are Austrian pine, black locust, black walnut, catalpa, Chinese elm, cottonwood, loblolly pine, muberry and osage orange. Also available are ponderosa pine, redcedar, rose multiflora, shortleaf pine, slash pine, sycamore, eunonymus and buffalo-berry.

Order blanks are available at the office. We will mail you a blank if you call us at Emerson 4-3573.

Frio News

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Brand Correspondent

A Bible study course is being conducted at Frio Baptist Church this week. Enrollment of 72 with average attendance of 67 was counted the last of the week. The Rev. Sam Ogan and local members are teaching classes for all age groups.

A watch service was held at Frio Baptist Church New Year's Eve, with about 25 attending.

The E. F. Voglers were hosts to a dozen friends at a New Years Eve party.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Vogler are due home this week after spending the holidays in the home of her brother, at Fayetteville, N. Ewell Perry, and family. Their mother also lives with the Perrys. Perry is in the army stationed at Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dobbs, LeAnn and Renee spent last weekend at Elk City, Okla. after taking Mrs. Dobbs' parents, the Walter Jays, to their home there. The Jays had spent several days visiting their children here during the holidays.

Visiting the W. H. Andrews Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Varvil of Borger. The two families have been friends since the Andrews lived at Borger, a good many years ago.

Visiting the Sam Ogan home Thursday of last week were her aunt, Mrs. Parker Rampley and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Rampley and their sons, Dwight and Dwain, all of Silvertown. Dwight Rampley is enrolled at Weatherford, Okla., college and was at home for the holidays.

The Harlan Barbers met relatives at Ruidoso the first of last week and all enjoyed a three day holiday vacation at family cabins at the resort.

Visiting the Harlan Barbers Thursday and Friday were his brother, E. L. Barber, and Mrs. Barber, of Dodge City, Kan.

Weekend guests of the Barbers were Mr. and Mrs. Gail Alexander, their daughter, Jan, a H. H. U. student at Abilene and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander of Lubbock. The Jimmy Barbers also spent the weekend with their parents, and on Monday the Harlan Barbers went to Lubbock with them to help them get settled in a house of their own. They were moving from a furnished apartment.

Mrs. Lee Johnson, Midland, spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. H. M. Mobley, and other relatives here.

Attending the funeral of Bill Davis of Canyon Sunday afternoon were W. H. Andrews, Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrews and Miss Alma Andrews. Davis was a brother of Mrs. Emmett Leach, who was a neighbor and close friend of the Andrews when they lived at Wellington during the 1920's. Mrs. Leach now lives in Lubbock and she and some of her children were at Canyon to attend the services.

D. C. Miller is resting well in the hospital after having been taken there Wednesday afternoon suffering with chest pains. He had been feeling badly for two or three days.

A large crowd attended the farm sale of Bill Cotton Wednesday at the Charles Schlabs farm. The Cottons plan to move within a few days to Spazina, Okla. about 70 miles northeast of Tulsa, to operate Indian Springs Fishing Resort on Grand Lake. They plan to build a home and motel and there is already a cafe, boat storage and rental service. The Robert Simpsons, parents of Mrs. Cotton, have a trailer court there also. Charles Schlabs will farm the Cotton place.

Darrell Knabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Knabe, spent the holidays with his family. He is a sophomore at Maryknoll Junior Seminary at Chertfield, Mo. The Knabe family including sons Swaine, Weldon, Raymond, Adolph Jr. and Darrell went to Munster Christmas week and visited parents of Mrs. Knabe, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Reiter, and Kanbe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knabe, and other relatives in the area. Darrell returned to the seminary Jan. 2.

Frio Homemakers club met Tuesday at the Community Center, Hereford, Mrs. Jim Brooks and Mrs. Dee Taylor were hostesses. Leif Nelleman, Exchange student from Denmark, was guest speaker. He talked about the geography, government and other topics of interest about his native country.

Present were Meses. Harlan Barber, Bill Williams, Edgar Vinson, T. L. Sparkman Jr., Eugene Baldwin, Chesley Johnston.

Tommy Sparkman, Herbert Burns, B. H. Baldwin, D. O. Benson, Sam Ogan, Ernest Harder, E. F. Vogler, Henry Andrews, Laura Littrell and Owen Andrews, Miss Alma Andrews and the hostesses.

The next meeting will be at the Community Center with Mrs. Arthur Clark as hostess. The project will be learning to knit and those who want to learn may bring needles and yarn.

Roland and Howard Livesay, Lubbock, spent the Christmas holidays in the home of their sister, Mrs. Tommy Sparkman. Eugene Baldwin and Sparkman took their home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews, were in Amarillo Thursday. They visited a sister of Mrs. Sparkman, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, in a convalescent home and also with Mrs. Johnson's daughter, Mrs. Truman Gibbons from Iowa, who with her husband is in Amarillo to be with the mother for awhile.

L'Allegra Club Topic Is Art Of New Mexico

New Mexican art exemplified in three cultures, the Indian, Spanish and Anglo, was the subject discussed by Mrs. Cameron Gault, hostess and program leader for L'Allegra Club Thursday afternoon.

Firsthand information gleaned by Mrs. Gault on visits to the Santa Fe-Taos area was presented in her talk, and she showed a number of paintings from its famed artist colony, as well as examples of Indian-made jewelry and baskets, Spanish wood carving and lace.

She told of establishment of the painters' colony around Taos in 1898 and its growth to world renown, also of the Santa Fe opera house and other centers of music and drama.

Mrs. Dwaine Walker presided for a short business session in which hostess assignments for the remainder of the club year were made.

Also present were Meses. David Gibson, James Higgins, Dennis Lomas, Betty Pickens, Pat Robbins, Vance Robinson, Alex Schroeter, Howard Johnson, Bobby Viegell, Noble Ballard, Jimmy Conkright, Bob Sims, J. H. McCrary and John Smith.

Ideal Weather Speeds Cotton Harvest To End

Ideal weather conditions this week enabled South Plains farmers to resume the cotton harvest and 80 to 85 per cent of the crop was out of the fields at mid-week, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the USDA.

The Lubbock Office received approximately 22,000 samples daily this week, the Brownfield Office 7,000 and the Lamesa Of-ice 3,000. THE THREE South Plains Offices classed 146,000 samples during the week ending Wednesday, January 5th. The Lubbock Office classed 110,000 of this total, the Brownfield Office 17,000 and the Lamesa Office 19,000.

Through January 5th the Lubbock Office had classed 1,410,000 samples of this year's crop, the Brownfield Office 151,000 and the Lamesa Office 137,000. This brought the total for the season for the three offices to 1,698,000. Through January 5th last year the three offices had classed 1,771,000 samples of the 1964 crop.

TRADING was steady on the Lubbock market this week but prices continued to decline slightly. Demand was light for Middling, Strict Low Middling and Middling Light Spotted, moderate for Strict Low Middling Light Spotted and strong for Low Middling Light Spotted and all Spotted cotton. Prices paid farmers for cotton with micronaire of 3.5 and better, as reported by the Consumer and Marketing Service of the USDA, ranged from the loan for Strict Middling and Middling to $1.50 per bale over the loan for low Middling.

Prices for the Light Spotted grades ranged from the loan for Strict Middling Light Spotted to $4.25 per bale over the loan for Low Middling Light Spotted. Middling Light Spotted was bringing from 1.25 to $2.50 per bale over the loan.

Average prices paid for the most predominant qualities were: Strict Low Middling 15/16 - 26.20, Strict Low Middling 31/32 - 26.70, Low Middling 15/16 - 24.85, Low Middling 31/32 - 25.35, Middling Light Spotted 15/16 - 26.25, Middling Light Spotted 31/32 - 26.75, Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 15/16 - 25.60 and Strict Low Middling Light Spotted 31/32 - 26.00.

Cotoneed prices at gins are $45 to $52 per ton.

HOW FAST SHOULD EATERS TURN?

CHICAGO (AP) — The rotating cafe atop an inn on Chicago's Near North Side has been speeded up a bit because patrons were getting space sick waiting for a complete revolution.

The restaurant is patterned after the one that topped the Space Needle at the Seattle World's fair.

A tiny 1/2 horsepower motor makes the Pinnacle revolve. At the restaurant's opening, the room turned one complete revolution every 48 minutes. Now it operates at 33 minutes for each revolution.

Manager John Bogardus said he'll try for a happy medium speed of perhaps 40 minutes per revolution.

An estimated 98 per cent of the homes in Bermuda have electricity.

Playset Given In Club

A skit, Don't Be a Litterbug, was presented as the program of Bud to Blossom Garden Club Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Bob Cooper. Mrs. Bill Nelson was in charge of the program on community beauty.

She was assisted in the informal skit by Mrs. R. N. Yarbrough, Mrs. Bruce Brown, Mrs. Melvin Cordray and Mrs. Jack Allen.

Members answered roll call with suggestions for keeping Hereford clean and beautiful.

In the business session with Mrs. Sam Long presiding, the group discussed sponsoring a spring hat sale as a fund-raising project.

Other members present were Meses. Ernest Kendall, W. H. Gentry, Calvin Edwards, R. A. Daniel, Jim Conkright, Al Brown and Frann Battenfield.

A SON OF RIBOT
OCEANPORT, N. J. (AP) — Ribot, the unbeaten Italian horse whose son Tom Rolfe won the Preakness, may not be around this summer but one of his highly regarded sons will.

Ribot, imported on a five-year lease for $1,350,000 by John summer. But Graustark, son of Ribot — Flower Bowls, is being pointed toward the $100,000 Sapling to be run at Monmouth Park on Aug. 7.

Graustark is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Galbreath.

When the Erie Canal, now called Barge Canal, closed down for the winter Dec. 5, it was ending its 140th season of operation.

TELL HIM TO PUT HIS REQUEST IN WRITING

LT. FUZZ SAYS TO PUT YOUR REQUEST IN WRITING

THERE! GIVE HIM THAT!

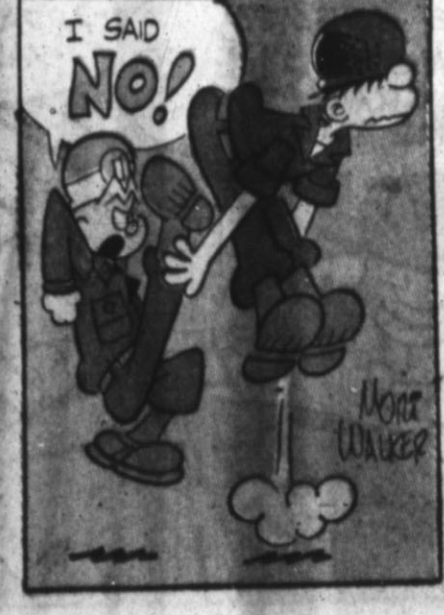

say YES!

TELL HIM NO!

NO?! WELL, YOU GO TELL HIM HE'S WRONG!

I SAID NO!

YES!

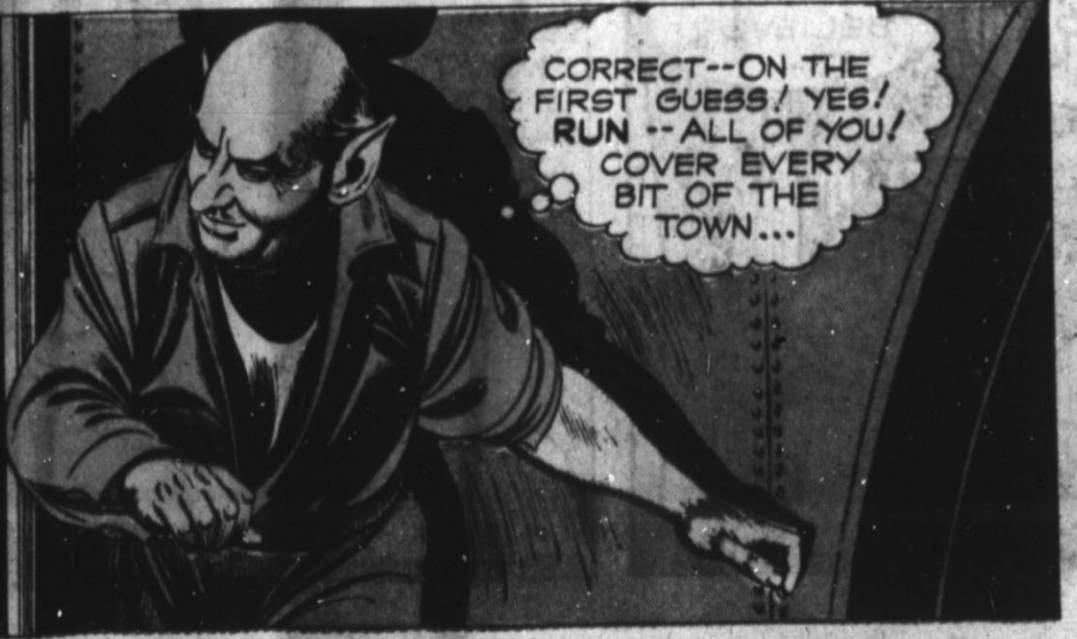

I'LL NEVER PLAY PING-PONG AGAIN

FLASH GORDON by MAC RABOY

THE ALARM! PRISON BREAK--LET'S GET OUT THERE!

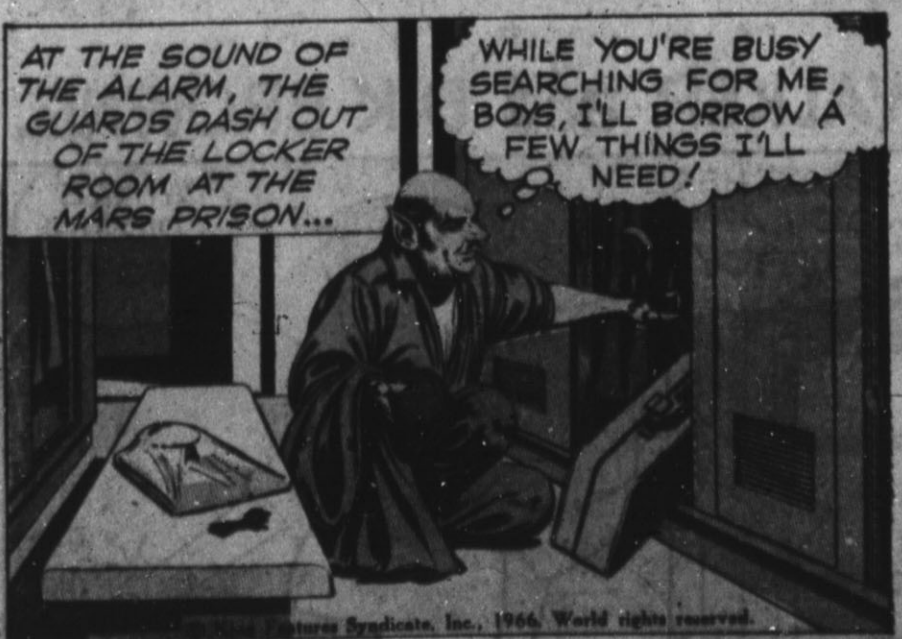

IT MUST BE THAT MAGICIAN GUY FLASH GORDON BROUGHT IN!

CORRECT--ON THE FIRST GUESS! YES! RUN--ALL OF YOU! COVER EVERY BIT OF THE TOWN...

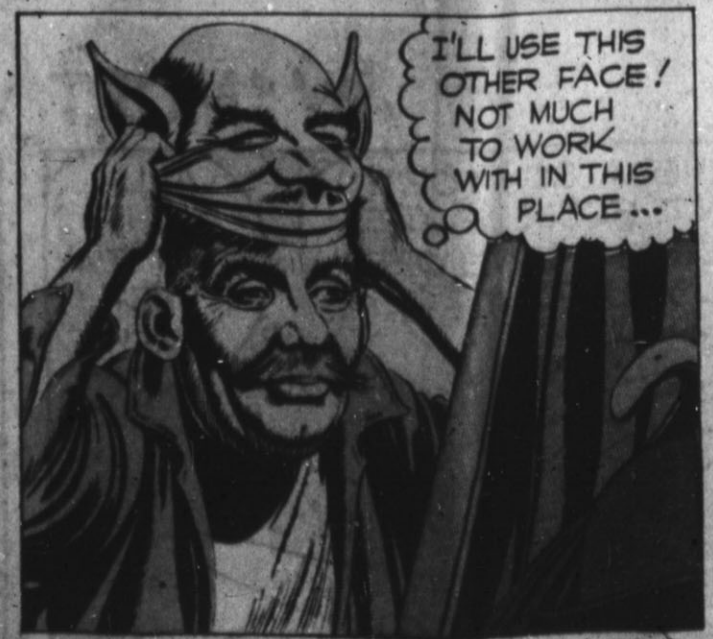

...WHILE I GO SAFELY ABOUT MY BUSINESS HERE IN THE PRISON!

AT THE SOUND OF THE ALARM, THE GUARDS DASH OUT OF THE LOCKER ROOM AT THE MARS PRISON...

WHILE YOU'RE BUSY SEARCHING FOR ME, BOYS, I'LL BORROW A FEW THINGS I'LL NEED!

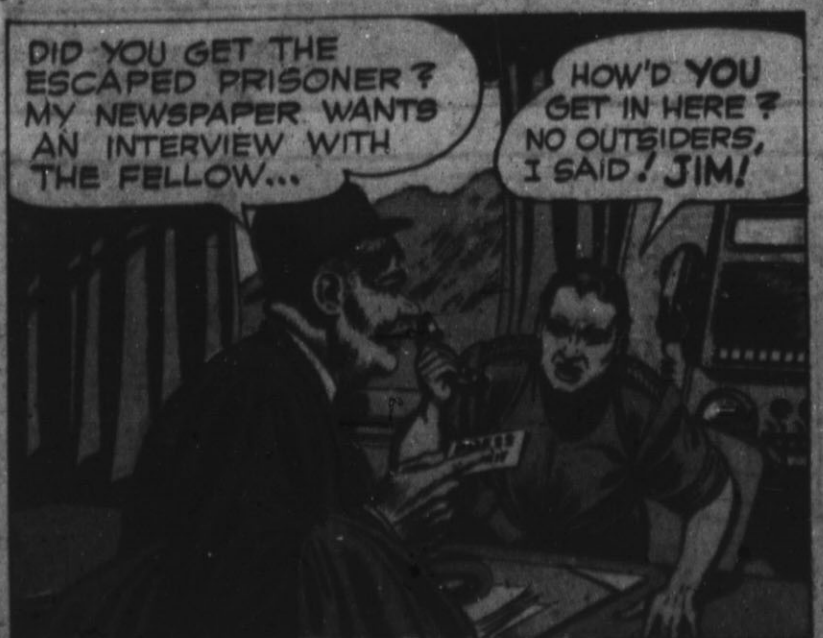

I'LL USE THIS OTHER FACE! NOT MUCH TO WORK WITH IN THIS PLACE...

... BUT THESE THINGS WILL HAVE TO DO! I'M NOW THE ROCKET STEWARD AGAIN...

..NO ONE HERE HAS SEEN ME IN THIS DISGUISE! SO MERLYN NOW BECOMES MR. CEDRIC BREWSTER, HONEST CITIZEN, ONCE MORE!

DID YOU GET THE ESCAPED PRISONER? MY NEWSPAPER WANTS AN INTERVIEW WITH THE FELLOW...

HOW'D YOU GET IN HERE? NO OUTSIDERS, I SAID! JIM!

... AND STAY OUT!!

I FULLY INTEND TO!

AS MERLYN WALKS AWAY FROM THE PRISON...

TSK-TSK--SUCH HOSPITALITY!

NEXT WEEK--UNDOING!

LITTLE IODINE by JIMMY HATLO

JUST STOPPED BY TO TALK BUSINESS, HENRY...

I WAS HELPING IODINE BUILD AN ESKIMO IGLOO...

FINE JOB! AND IT'S ABOUT THE JOB OF V.P. THAT I WANT TO TALK TO YOU, HENRY...

YESSIR, SIR...

JUST LIKE YOU BUILT THIS IGLOO, HENRY... I THINK YOU CAN BUILD UP OUR SALES...

OF COURSE THERE'LL BE A BIG JUMP IN SALARY AND A SEAT ON OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS. IGLOO... HEH-HEH-HEH...

OH, MR. BIGDOME... CAN I ASK YOU FOR SOMETHING? ULP!

WHY, OF COURSE, MY DEAR... WHAT CAN I DO FOR YOU?

WELL, I WAS READING ABOUT WHAT ESKIMOS USED IN THEIR LAMPS....

BLUBBER, WASN'T IT? BUT WHAT...?

WELL, I REMEMBER ONE TIME DADDY SAID...

"YOU CARRIED AROUND TWO HUNDRED POUNDS OF BLUBBER..."

ERK!

BIGDOME & CO. HOME BRANCH

I'LL BE TRANSFERRED BACK TO THE HOME OFFICE SOON--BIGDOME CAN'T HOLD A GRUDGE FOREVER... GLUB-ERK...

The Little Woman

by DON TOBIN

DO YOU EXPECT ME TO BELIEVE THAT ABOUT IRMA?

ALICE SWEARS IT'S TRUE -

IT'S ABSURD! IRMA COULD NEVER DO A CRAZY THING LIKE THAT!

APPARENTLY SHE DID -

YOU MEAN YOU BELIEVE THE STORY?

YES, I DO.

WELL - I DON'T! NOTHING COULD EVER CONVINCE ME !!

IRMA IS MUCH TOO SENSIBLE TO DO A CRAZY THING LIKE THAT!

O.K. - DON'T BELIEVE IT -

I CERTAINLY WON'T! I DON'T CARE WHAT ALICE OR ANYBODY SAYS!

IT'S TOO RIDICULOUS!

HELLO, EMILY -

MABEL! DID YOU HEAR WHAT THAT SILLY IRMA DID?!!

Hi and Lois

DAD, WILL YOU HELP ME?

WHAT'S YOUR PROBLEM, DITTO?

I'M MAILING A BOX TOP BUT I CAN'T SQUEEZE THE ADDRESS ON THE ENVELOPE. WILL YOU DO IT?

ALL RIGHT, BUT I'M VERY BUSY.

OKAY, HERE YOU ARE, DITTO!

WHERE DID HE GO?

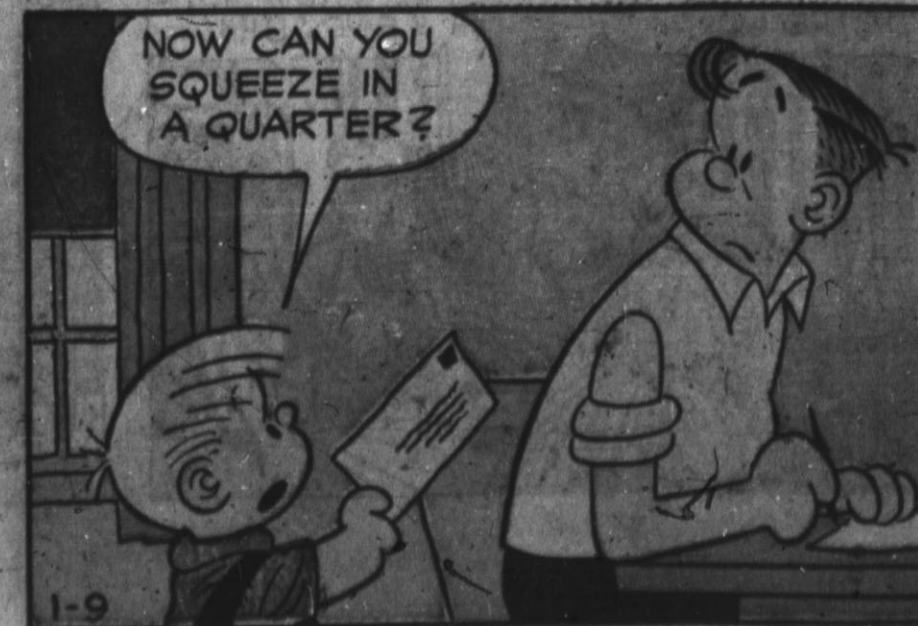

DID YOU SQUEEZE IT IN?

YES, AND I PUT ON A STAMP, TOO.

GEE, DAD, YOU SEALED THE ENVELOPE!

THAT'S RIGHT

NOW CAN YOU SQUEEZE IN A QUARTER?
