Bells... Banners... Bands...

Bells will ring. Orators will speak. Bands will play. Hereford is part of a national revival for a patriotic observance of Independence Day.

A committee appointed by the mayor has made arrangements for a celebration to be held on the south portico of the courthouse at 11:30 a. m. Monday morning.

Arrangements call for speeches by a cross cut of Hereford citizens, including both young and mature speakers, women, people of various occupations and creeds.

City and County commissioners will be seated with speakers on the portico, the band will occupy the steps to one side and the choir will occupy the other steps.

Choir practice will be at 3 p. m. in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church this afternoon.

Members of any choirs active in town, such as church or school choirs, are invited to be a part of the group. Anyone interested in participating as a choir member is invited. Selections are ones quite familiar with many vocalists: Once to Every Man and Nation, and Battle Hymn to the Republic.

Monday morning the group will assemble again at the First Baptist Church at 10:45 p. m. for a brief rehearsal and final instructions. Zack Pannell said that he expects about 40 singers.

The band under the direction of Ben Gollehon met Friday night for a rehearsal.

Planned as a formal program, citizens are urged to attend dressed as they may be — from work or play. The program will begin with a band prelude. This will serve as an introduction for the assembling of the group and as an accolade for the seating of the platform guests.

Summer Second Session Starts

High school students who have finished the first semester of summer school or those who want to pick-up a second semester of social studies, math or typing may register July 5th for those courses, Bill Michael, high school principal said this week.

Math being offered includes the second semester of related mathematics I. Typing is the last half of the first year and social studies includes American History and government.

The courses begin Tuesday and will be Monday thru Friday until July 29. Classes each day begin at 7:45 and last until 12.

Teaching this semester are Mrs. Billye Buck, Miss Janice Boren and Floyd Payne.

The first session this summer attracted 32 students. Some of those attending the typing sessions were adults who were not taking the course for credit.

WAGE ACT IN COMMITTEE

Upcoming Legislation Marks Labor Changes

Farmers and small business men in the area have been keeping an eye on a law that is now in Senate committee. Reaction to the 'wage law' is varied but according to a token sampling of some who might be affected by the law, the act may well 'ruffle a few feathers.'

Entitled, an "act to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to extend its protection to additional employes, to raise the minimum wage, and for other purposes," the bill will affect big-scale farmers and other businesses formerly exempted from the minimum wage requirement.

The 35-page document, which was approved by the House of Representatives on May 26, is now in a Senate committee; sources in Washington expect the bill to reach the floor sometime during the week of July 18. If passed as it now stands, the amendment will go into effect on February 1, 1967, raising minimum wage levels in several industries now covered by the present law, and establishing first time minimums for some 7.24 million employes in the United States. By 1967, according to estimated employment figures, almost 37 million workers will be covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Local farmers voice concern over the bill, which more than likely will include several large farmers in this area under its jurisdiction, if passed. "We just don't see how the farmer can stay in business out here," one farmer said.

REQUIREMENTS for a farmer to pay the minimum wage will be that he employ some 500 man-days of labor during any quarter of the preceding calendar year; this figure is roughly equal to seven full-time employes, exclusive of family and other exempted persons, on the farm.

Congressman Walter Rogers has stated "My position on this measure has been the same as it has been in the past. It is my feeling that minimum wage legislation should be the responsibility of each of the several states. The role of the federal government should be confined to those activities that are purely interstate."

THE BILL WILL extend minimum wage levels to workers in retailing, construction, laundering and drycleaning, transit and taxicab systems, restaurants, logging, agriculture and agricultural processing, hotels and motels, hospitals and federal government.

Agriculture workers, expected to number some 485,000 under the provisions, will have levels set at $1.15, and $1.30, the final wage going into effect Feb. 1, 1969. Other wage earners, who now are covered by the act, will see minimum levels go to $1.40. See UPCOMING Page 2

City Hall Offices Near Completion

City officials will move back into the newly remodeled first floor of Hereford City Hall early this week after four weeks of being temporarily stationed on the second floor.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said plans include finishing the floor by Tuesday so that furniture can be moved down stairs that evening.

He also said that those wishing to transact business in city hall Tuesday would have to use the stairs on the south side of the building, and if possible business should be postponed until Wednesday when the newly redecorated offices are opened.

The approximately $10,500 project which began some four weeks ago was the culmination of a remodeling project in the city hall which began more than a year ago with the upstairs portion of the building. City officials let all the contracts and supervised the remodeling.

Offices for the police department, city manager and city judge are housed on the second floor. The first floor contains the city water department and the city tax assessor-collector's office.

Improvements to the first floor of the building include an additional storage room which will be used by the water department for cutting plates for water billing and for storage. The new room is completely sound proof.

Central heating and air conditioning were also added to the first floor. Other new features in the building include suspended ceiling, new lighting, new floor and a new counter. Acoustical tile was also put on the walls of the offices to cut down on the noise.

Some $1,700 in furniture for the new offices is expected to arrive in approximately three weeks, according to Bayne.

The furniture was purchased from First Printing Company who submitted the low bid for the items. Included in the furniture is two secretary desks, three office desks, two credenzas, 3 junior executive chairs and three clerical posture chairs.

Medicare Moves Into Community

"Very few have refused to accept Medicare," T. E. Seigler Jr., manager of Deaf Smith County Hospital, said Saturday morning.

A check of hospital records Saturday morning disclosed that one had registered at the local hospital after the program went into effect July 1. This was a surgical case and the subject is 72 years old. Eight others who qualify under medicare provisions are in the hospital.

Other patients in the hospital have varying illness that will require different lengths of hospital confinement as part of their treatment the manager said.

Medicare provides for 60-90 days hospitalization. Some of the patients who qualify for the plan have had well over a month's confinement already. Of course these times prior to the date of Medicare effectiveness will not be covered, but they serve as an estimate of what might be expected in the county.

Cases presently in the hospital include one patient 85, being treated for fracture; one 75 hospitalized for diagnosis (covered under medicare); one 73 who has been hospitalized for over a month with a stroke; an 89. See MEDICARE Page 2

Onions Hit Good Early Market

After a spectacular year last season, vegetable men moved into the 1966 season with trepidation. Fears may be allayed as onion harvest moves into full operation with prices good, yields average and quality good.

About 25 per cent complete, onions are moving into the sheds to be shipped for good prices. Labor is not yet a problem and weather conditions are favorable.

Medium yellows are $2.50, jumbo yellows are going for $2.50-$2.75 and medium whites are marketing for $2.

Produce men say that if weather in the east and southeast remains moderate — that is without any heat waves, prices should stay this good and could even get better.

Heat affects the consumption of onions and a severe widespread heat wave in the consumption areas can kill the market, they said.

Processing sheds are expecting the peak to come next week and this will be just before other growing areas hit their peak.

Other areas growing onions are Washington, California, New Jersey and Iowa. They along with Lovington, N.M. onions will be coming off after Hereford onions hit maximum.

Onions represent one of the smaller phases of Deaf Smith County cash crops but they still account for a cool million dollars (estimated on $500 an acre. See ONIONS Page 2

Meeting To Decide County Paving

Deaf Smith County Commissioners will meet in Amarillo Thursday with Texas Highway Commission officials to decide which roads in the county will be paved with funds voted in the recent bond election.

A number of probable locations have been selected by the commissioners for paving, but until the meeting with highway commission officials no definite decision will be made.

Commissioners recently traveled to New York where they met with bond rating officials to seek a market rating for bonds which were voted by county residents June 11.

The proposal which has been sought for at least a decade by many county residents, drew a 2-1 vote in favor of the $450,000 issue.

The paving includes some 30 miles of proposed road paving in the county which is divided into all quadrants of the county.

The $450,000 from bonds will be added to $125,000 allocated by the Texas Highway Commission for paving program totaling $575,000 sufficient for about 30 miles of roads.

The big bonus in the bond issue is that it will cause no tax increase, according to county commissioners.

The roads constructed will be taken over by the state highway department for maintenance saving the county money now being used to maintain the present dirt roads.

This proposal is the first mafor bond issue for paving in the county since 1949, when voters stamped approval on $500,000 in bonds.

Taxing to retire those bonds issued in 1949 ends this year and the county can easily use the tax rate used to pay off the 1949 bonds to retire the newly elected $450,000 in bonds.

Where Does The Rain Water Go If Not To Buffalo?

By LARRY FUHRMANN
Staff Writer

Water doesn't really flow down that little gully known as the Tierra Blanca Creek; it just sort of saunters along. No sir, a stranger in these parts could step over the water, or rather walk across at the dry spots, and never realize that he had just crossed a creek.

This little arroyo, running along the southern edges of the City of Hereford and along the southern border of Deaf Smith County, has been the cause of a lot of fussing and fuming, verbally, concerning the pollution of a recreation spot to the east in Randall County, Buffalo Lake.

How such a little "creek" could make such a stink is just beyond some folks. On top of all this, the creek doesn't drain a whole lot of land.

The Tierra Blanca is just one of "those little wet-weather creeks," says Wilton Green, director of the Soil Conservation Service here. With another creek just to the north, the Palo Duro Creek, there's not a great area left to the Tierra Blanca because of the general slope of the land in this part of the country.

Drainage area along the watershed varies greatly, all the way from just along the creek itself to about 5 or 6 miles. And the flow certainly isn't too rapid.

"This is one of the flattest streams we've ever seen," officials at the SCS say. Guesses put the slope of the Tierra Blanca at some 3/10s foot per 100 feet — and that's a mighty flat surface to be running water down. So flat, in fact, that the water doesn't always go down the draw. Rather it just spreads out and soaks in. SCS men have seen it stretch out for over half a mile across at times.

Climatic conditions of West Texas keep the streams pretty well dried up; the 17-18 inches of rainfall, average for a year, aren't enough to make the little 'creek' move along unless several of the inches come in a hurry.

Even with conditions close to the flooding stage, not much water usually reaches Buffalo Lake report the SCS officials. "I've seen water as high as the bottom of the 385 bridge that still wouldn't get to Buffalo Lake," one noted.

As it washes along the grasslands, the Tierra Blanca doesn't cut a very big gully for containing water coming down the draw following a hard and fast rain. This is when the creek spreads out, covering pasture and grassland.

"I know the flow doesn't keep up with the evaporation," commented an SCS employe. Water from this area seldom if ever reaches the Buffalo Lake because the slow rate allows for much evaporation from the stream; high spots in the creek create pools of water during the dry "season," thus aiding evaporation.

Another factor keeping water from reaching the creek in the first place are conservation measures taken by farmers, particularly towards the western part of the county, to retain the water on their land.

Besides dams, there is a "whole slug of little ponds" all along the Tierra Blanca, making a really big rain necessary to get the Tierra Blanca to move along. Native grasses, and land devoted to grasses, soak up much of any rain water before it has a chance to drain to the creek.

Only a hard and fast rain will really make the Tierra Blanca flow, and then not for long or very far. The stream just sort of lies there.

IT JUST LAYS THERE — The Tierra Blanca is none too rapid, moving along only when it has to. High spots in the creek bed create little ponds, making evaporation ac-effective at the first of 1967, followed by another raise to $1.50 early in 1968. An amendment to this proposal has been suggested by Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Texas, who set the effective date for the last increase up to Feb. 1, 1968.

Comment voiced in a recent editorial on this amendment approved by the Senate labor subcommittee said, "Any upward adjustment in the minimum wage must be gradual, or thousands of small and marginal businesses will be forced to shut their doors. And we must never forget that the closing of a business means the ending of jobs. The jump in the minimum wage from $1.25 to $1.50 in just two years will mean unemployment for thousands of unskilled workers who are supposed to benefit from the raise."

SEN. COLE, legislative assistant to Sen. John Tower, explaining that the Texas senator hasn't made an official statement on his views on the bill now in a Senate committee, but will do so as soon as he confers with Republicans who will make a minority report to the Senate.

Senator Tower will probably be generally opposed to the measure as it now stands," he said. "The inclusion of farm labor in the act may be more harmful than beneficial; these provisions may be too hard on the farmers," he said in a preliminary opinion.

REPRESENTATIVE Walter Rogers, of the 19th District of Texas, comments, "It is my opinion that the many economic and geographic differences in this large country do not provide a proper basis for rigid and uncompromising wage and hour yardsticks to be applied in every section of our country. Wages and hours for farm labor cannot be measured by the same scale as those used for industry generally. Nature does not work on an hourly basis and cannot be started and stopped at the will of man. Wages and hours that may be fair and reasonable in some of the large cities or heavily industrialized areas, if applied in some of the smaller communities, can create unemployment and in many cases serve to bankrupt some merchants and business people who are trying to get a start.

"This in my opinion would serve to promote syndicated merchandising, chain store operation, and absentee landlordism. The independent merchant would be surely depressed as would opportunities for individual initiative."

IN ACTUALITY, passage of the bill in the House of Representatives almost turned out to be a defeat, rather than victory, for organized labor attempting to take agriculture into its bounds.

Excluded from the minimum wage standard will be employees who did not, during any quarter of the preceding year, use more than 300 non-days of agriculture labor, members of a farmer's immediate family, employees working as a hand harvest laborer and paid on a piece rate basis in an operation traditionally being paid on a piece rate basis, employees who commute daily from their permanent residences to the farm on which they are employed, and those who have been employed in agriculture less than 13 weeks during the preceding year.

AND ONE DEAF Smith County farmer, perhaps typical of the larger farming operations in this area, comments, "All my men make a lot over the minimum wage. In fact, even my lowest paid man makes more than that."

Payments in kind, house, utilities, and other furnished items usually associated with farming operations, may be accounted for as "wages." The value of these services would be determined in one clause of the act.

A majority report on the bill as reported to the House of Representatives points out that generally, only the employees of large farms will be covered. The act is intended to provide protection to employees of large agri-business enterprises.

Of the agricultural workers to be covered, some 713,000 (44 per cent) presently earn less than $1 an hour. Given the initial coverage of such workers at $1 an hour, the wage bill increase for agriculture will be $22 million, the report says.

THE AMERICAN Farm Bureau Federation, meeting in Chicago in May, says, "The composite wage data published by the Department of Agriculture grossly understate average farm wages for two principal reasons: (1) only cash wages are included, with 'extras' furnished by the farmer not listed, and (2) no data is collected with respect to earnings of piece rate workers who sometimes make two or three times average hourly wage."

The Farm Bureau also reports that average farm wage rates were ten per cent higher in April, 1965, than in April, 1964.

The federation also reports a 10 per cent reduction in labor in 1963, a 9 per cent reduction in 1964, and a 14 per cent reduction in April of this year, as compared to a year earlier.

Farm Bureau opposes adoption of the act, saying the wage increase will boost prices, thus adding to inflationary trends. The National Grange and the Farmer's Union are in favor of the law, saying it may place the family farm in a more competitive position.

United States Department of Agriculture statistics indicate that the only area to be affected generally will be the south, Texas included, where pay rates are listed below the $1 mark. But some farmers in this area of the United States may also be agreeable to the minimum wage, arguing that it will result in better labor and increased efficiency.

FRANK FORD JR., county chairman of the Republican party here, says, "We're all for everyone having a decent wage and good standard of living; however, there will be a group of people with a lack of skills who will be phased out of a job."

The increased minimum wages may not give a person a higher standard of living because of inflationary trends, he asserted.

President Johnson stated in a message to Congress on May 18, 1965, "Many American workers whose employment is clearly within the reach of this law have never enjoyed its benefits. Unfortunately, these workers are generally in the lowest wage groups and most in need of wage and hour protection. We must extend minimum wage and overtime protection to them."

Workers in this area are probably not considered to be among the poor, when compared to other areas throughout the South. Piece rate migrant labor estimates one crew boss, probably pays on the average of $1 to $1.25 per hour on present wage scales.

Whether or not the new minimum wage standards, aimed at big agricultural enterprises and increased wages overall, will affect this area greatly will remain to be seen if it passes the Senate.

Hereford is the largest onion growing area in the Panhandle. Yarnage per acre may be down due to some early setbacks because of blight and some growers, said strips were hemiculous this year.

Onions overlap wheat in harvesting operations but the sheds and elevators require different types of labor and harvesting procedures are completely different. As potatoes move into the picture, the same facilities are involved so the pace is stepped up. The labor picture appears adequate through the beginning of potato digging, but may tighten up as carrots overlap potatoes, processing men said.

The weaker sex is the stronger sex — because of the weakness of the stronger sex for the weaker sex! How's that now?

Our friend Clint Formby is in the dog house again, and apparently we're in there with him.

The rhubarb all started a month or so ago when KPAN and THE BRAND decided to take the responsibility of providing flags for the community through non-profit sales. That's when we started promoting the sales of the flags.

And that, apparently, was our first mistake.

Demand for the flags has been so great that the original order (if it ever arrives) would be far short of the number needed, so Formby placed an additional order. The first order of course had been shipped and should have arrived in Hereford last Wednesday.

To date we have seen no flags.

We do hope the flags arrive in Hereford before Monday, although we have no way of knowing at this time. We will however, try to keep flags on hand in the future for anyone wanting to make a purchase. To those who have placed orders with us, we want you to know that you are not obligated to buy the flags. But we will contact each and every one who left an order in the event you still wish to purchase a flag. That's about as good as we can do. Naturally the telephones at both places have been ringing off the hooks. And if we don't find those flags pretty soon, we're stand in danger of losing a darn good receptionist. She's about had it.

And of course, we have all taken a great deal of kidding over this flag deal. However, there is a bright side to the situation. One woman, disappointed to find that the flags had not arrived, opined that it's wonderful to note that the country has again taken an interest in the national emblem, causing the flag-makers to go on an overtime basis. We'll have to agree. We think it's great.

And the whole deal has somewhat of a humorous side also. Clint Formby was wandering down the street Friday morning and happened to overhear a group of women talking underneath one of the canopies on Main St.

"I ordered a flag from the radio station," one lady said, "but if it doesn't get it in by noon tomorrow, I'm going to the newspaper."

Clint just ducked his head and headed on down the street. He really wasn't worried about losing that customer, since we're both in the same boat.

Actually, we believe everything will work out okay. If it doesn't, then you may see one newspaper man and one radio station operator burning the midnight oil with needle and thread stitching flags.

Hereford homeowners should beware of out-of-town telephone solicitors. Particularly in the home building trades, we have had a report of two concealing out-of-town firms that want to put siding on houses, leading the homeowners to believe that it's all "free," to be used for advertising purposes.

Before dealing with these people, be sure to check with the Amarillo Better Business Bureau, or the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. They would be familiar with any legitimate business operation in that city.

And "Monk" Johnson is becoming quite an "animal doctor" these days. We hesitate to class him as a veterinarian. "Monk's" dog has been suffering from a cold accompanied by a pretty severe cough. Numerous remedies have been tried, but none of them have been successful. One old home remedy however, has caused quite a bit of comment around the household. It's honey and peach brandy. It didn't help the dog's cough, but that pup got so brave he almost tore the fence down trying to jump on a dog twice his size.

And if we don't get some flags soon, we may have to borrow "Monk's" home remedy. Just to give us enough nerve to stay in town.

Of those men polled recently, 40% were opposed to the short-short skirt. The remaining 60% were distracted by a pair of passing legs and did not hear the question.

And a timid soul, we're told, is one who lives in fear of bending or breaking an IBM card.

ELECTRIC POWER-

wherever it is needed!

Motivated only by the needs of the consumer, cooperative electric systems are proud of their efficiency and ingenuity. Recently a co-op hired a helicopter to do a five-week job in two days.

Providing scattered consumer-members with electric power often requires extra effort, but we know from first-hand experience that bringing electricity to a new area benefits the entire community.

Old Recipe Book Is Gift

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Nice department — Mrs. Bessie Roe remembered my interest in cake making and in recipes. This summer when she came to visit with her niece, Mrs. Salletta Brink, she brought me a prized possession, a cake cook-book.

It is Cakes of Quality by Mrs. Grace Osborn of Bay City, Mich., and was copyrighted in 1919. It is yellowed with age and has been used many times as it shows wear.

One of the most delightful things about it and that I appreciate most, is Mrs. Roe's comment written in about recipes; as too much of one ingredient or the addition of an ingredient or another flavor. An instruction in the book for baking the cake: "The baking of a fine cake is, in my opinion, the most important part of the whole process. You are more liable to fail in this, than in any other part of the work. Let me be as explicit as possible. Do not have one bit of heat in your oven. Start each cake in a COLD OVEN. Gradually add to the heat until the thermometer registers 200 degrees. One hour 300 degrees and one hour and one-quarter 320 degrees. The cake is now done and is ready to take out of the oven."

This is such a prize possession that I will always appreciate it. Sometime I will try to master the process.

Mrs. Roe has a twin sister, Mrs. Bertha Johnson and they are so much alike in looks and both nice. They live together in Ft. Worth.

IN LAUNDERING and dry-cleaning, be sure and close the slide fasteners. This prevents damage to the placket.

FEDERAL RECREATION Permit On Sale — the new $7 Federal Recreation Permit is now on sale. It is a wallet-sized card designated "A Golden Passport" because of its gold color and the fact that it entitles the purchaser and everyone in his car to enter 7,000 federal recreation areas.

Funds from the sale of the golden passport and other revenue funds are to help support the Land and Water Conservation Fund. Appropriations from the Land and Water Conservation Fund assist states and local governments in meeting urgent outdoor recreation needs and in acquisitions of federal areas authorized by Congress.

The $7 annual permit fee for entrance into federal recreation areas is sold at National parks and monuments, National forest areas, wildlife refuges, Corps of Engineers recreation areas and other federal recreation areas that charge entrance fees.

It will also be on sale at many offices of the American Automobile Association, U. S. Forestry Service, National Park Service, Bureau of Fisheries and Wildlife, and the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation.

HIGH QUALITY MEAT — Federally graded meat assures its high quality, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. The consistent quality within each grade results from the efforts of the United States Department of Agriculture Consumer and Marketing Service.

To make sure that meat is graded the same in all parts of the country at all times, meat grading supervisors regularly attend "refresher" schools.

PLAN FOR EMERGENCIES — recent severe spring storms, floods and tornadoes remind us that being prepared for any emergency is important. Preparedness for emergencies can help save lives.

Family members should take time to discuss emergency plans and identify all possible emergencies which might be encountered by the members. Then post the emergency preparedness steps agreed upon in a prominent place to remind each person of his responsibility, says Miss Sherilyn Bailey, Extension civil defense specialist.

STUDY IS SET On Medical Fakes — Factors which induce people to fall for medical fakes and swindles will be studied by seven agencies of the federal government. The study, an outcome of hearings by the Senate Special Committee on Aging, will concern all age groups beginning with teenagers, but will focus especially on the aging. To be studied are such factors as family and educational background, folk medicine customs, and health experiences on consumer attitudes toward health products, services and information.

NEW FINISHES Help Control Static Electricity — Newly developed fabric finishes are designed to control static electricity, moths, mildew and water and oil-borne stains, announces Mrs. Jane Berry, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist. These finishes do not alter color or texture, nor can they be seen with the naked eye.

'CAROUSEL, 'SHOW BOAT' TO SOUTH AMERICA

NEW YORK — Two favorite musicals, "Carousel" and "Show Boat," are being packaged for a good-will tour of South America next fall under State Department auspices.

A company of 5 actors and 20 technicians is to make the trip. Producing the shows, which will be performed outdoors or in a mobile tent, are Howard Young and Russell Lewis. The 10-week expedition starts Sept. 27 in Caracas. Other scheduled stops are Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo, Montevideo, Buenos Aires, Cordoba, Santiago, Lima, Guayaquil, Auito and Cali.

Duplicate Bridge Tourney Slated

Hereford Duplicate Bridge Club will be host to the annual Harvest Festival Tournament, officially approved by the American Contract Bridge League, at Community Center beginning with a session at 8 p. m. Thursday and continuing through afternoon games Sunday.

Mrs. R. E. Carver is tournament chairman and host committees have been named from the Hereford club. John Emery of Wichita Falls will serve as director.

During the tournament, Hereford Band Mothers Club will keep a snack bar open at Community Center.

Players are expected from other states as well as from a number of cities in Texas.

This is an open tourney; duplicate players who wish to enter are asked to notify Mr. or Mrs. Bill Dye, who are on the committee to arrange partnerships. Membership in ACBL, which may be purchased at the tourney, is required of all participants.

Mrs. Lavon Leon, Mrs. John McCleskey form the trophy committee and Mrs. Ann Woodward is publicity chairman. Ed Theus of Oklahoma City heads the rules committee, which includes Mrs. F. W. Hill of Hereford, Butch Adams of Lubbock and Payne Harrison of Dallas.

Events in the tourney have been given names suggestive of the Hereford locale. The schedule starts with Women's and Men's Pairs, one session each, Thursday evening.

Early Bird Pairs begin at 9:30 a. m. Friday and the first session of Masters Pairs (all players 20 points or more) at 1:30 p. m., when Sugar Beet Pairs are also scheduled. The second session of Masters Pairs and one-session Grain Sorghum Pairs are set for 8 p. m.

On Saturday play will begin at 9:30 a. m. with Irrigation Pairs, the qualifying round for Open Pairs is slated at 1:30 p. m. and finals at 8 p. m. Malnutrition Pairs, open to new players as well as those who do not qualify in Open Pairs, will also be played that evening.

Sunday afternoon play is for Team-of-Four and Salad Bowl Pairs, each in one session starting at 1:30 p. m.

Trophies will be given to first place winners in all events.

Master points will be issued in accordance with the ACBL schedule for sectional tournaments.

Defending champions, who are expected to be in competition this year, include Mrs. Jack Vick of Amarillo, Mrs. Carver and Mrs. Hill of Hereford and Mrs. Sue Emery of Wichita Falls Team-of-Four; Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Emery, Women's Pairs; Theus and Gaylor Kaste of Phoenix, Men's Pairs.

Also Mrs. Al Graham of Amarillo and Theus, Mixed Pairs; Theus and Kaste, Master's Pairs; Harrison and Adams, Open Pairs; Mrs. Leon and Mrs. Mozelle Nell of Hereford, Sugar Beet Pairs; Mrs. Dye and Mrs. Woodward, Early Bird Pairs; Mrs. E. A. Brown and Mrs. Zelle Hardwick of Amarillo, Salad Bowl Pairs; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jenkins of Amarillo, consolation.

REHANG CATHEDRAL BELLS?

COVENTRY, England (AP) — A plan to rehang the 14 bells in the tower of ruined Coventry Cathedral is being considered by the Diocesan Bellringers' Association.

The cathedral bells have not been rung since 1879, when the tower was reported slipping and it was judged dangerous to ring them. Most of the old Coventry Cathedral was destroyed by Nazi bombs in World War II and a new one has been built alongside it.

Woodward, all of Hereford. Standing are Ed Theus of Oklahoma City, Payne Harrison of Dallas, Mrs. Jack Vick of Amarillo, Mrs. John Emery of Wichita Falls, Butch Adams of Lubbock and Gaynor Kaste of Phoenix, Ariz.

Guests Join In Charity Bridge Play

Guests from other cities increased attendance at Hereford Duplicate Bridge Club's weekly games Thursday evening, and so increased the contribution to the charity fund of the American Contract Bridge League.

Hereford players, with other groups affiliated in the League, give proceeds of every fifth session to the charity fund, which amounts to many thousands of dollars each year nationally.

Nine tables were in play Thursday. North-south winners were Mrs. R. E. Carver and Mrs. Harry Alban of Long Beach, Calif., east-west winners Mrs. Ansel McDowell and Mrs. R. G. Peeler, Mrs. Ed Schroeder and Mrs. Wheeler Sears.

In addition to Dr. and Mrs. Alban, here from Long Beach on one of their periodic visits to look after farming interests in the county, there were visiting players from Amarillo, Canyon and El Paso.

Hereford club members, preparing to play host this weekend to the annual Harvest Festival sectional tournament, recently held a one-session tourney in which Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas were the winners.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Miss Anna Ruth Ogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Ogan, Rt. 2, is the fiancée of Jackie D. Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews, Rt. 2, her parents announce. Date of the wedding is to be set after Andrews completes basic training in the U.S. Navy, which he will begin in late September. Miss Ogan, who was a student in Wayland College, Plainview, the past year, is a graduate of Arvada, Colo., High School Andrews was graduated from Hereford High School with the class of 1964 and has attended West Texas State University. Summer Band Students Climax Workshop Sessions With Concert Summer beginners band had its 'graduation' concert Wednesday evening in Dameron park.

Forty beginning students worked with Hereford school's three band directors during the June workshop.

Lynn McLarty will direct the new LaPlata bands; Jim Priest will take over the Stanton bands and Ben Gollehon will continue with the high school band.

McLarty said that each junior high expects about the same number of band students.

Beginners will be about 40 strong at each school and it is hoped that the concert bands in each school will have between 75 and 80 students.

Freshmen students will again play with the junior high bands but will be divided between the two schools since freshmen classes have been moved from the high school to the junior high schools, school officials said.

McLarty, director for the new LaPlata Junior High School graduated from West Texas State University this spring and Hereford will be his first teaching position.

Priest came to Hereford from Fritch, where he has been the director for one year. Prior to working in Fritch Priest was the brass instructor at West Texas State for two years. He will be the director at Stanton this fall.

Both of these directors will assist with the high school band and Ben Gollehon will be assistant to these directors in their respective schools.

Bride-Elect Is Honoree

Miss Sylvia Phipps, whose August wedding plans were announced last week, was complimented with a lingerie shower Friday evening, when Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Charles McCain were hostesses to a group of her close friends.

Blue and silver, colors Miss Phipps has chosen for her wedding to David Emerick of Muskogee, Okla., were used in shower decorations. A corsage of blue flowers was presented to the bride-elect, with the gift packages which were opened informally.

When a salad dressing calls for a couple of tablespoons of Roquefort cheese, you can dispense with measuring and use a 1 1/4 ounce wedge. These wedges come individually wrapped in foil and may be bought singly.

Woodworking Is Family Home, Vacation Project

Transformation of a plank of wood into a work of art may seem an endless task to some, but one Hereford man enjoys it as a hobby.

Jack Mitchell, 130 Beach, has been working with wood for 13 years.

Most of his work is centered around objects and improvements for his home. Some furniture has been made as gifts for his family.

Anything associated with crafts seems to interest the Mitchell family Mrs. Mitchell, Heien, helps to refinish old furniture and also does some of the staining and painting on new pieces.

The Mitchell family interest in building and constructing from wood has added a den and several rooms to the family home on Beach.

Friends became infected with the Mitchell enthusiasm and several couples are building a cabin at Ute Lake near Logan, N. M.

The Mitchells with their friends go over on weekends and "work some and play some."

"THE DEN AT the home is 20 x 24 feet. This was a big project and friends helped with some of the heavier part of the construction. It took two months of spare time work to complete.

The cabin at Ute was started in 1963. Six couples are partners in the venture.

Some of the smaller projects require more of the artist in Mitchell even though they are craft projects.

By combining glass and wood, he has made some beautiful furniture. A hutch was built quickly for a gift to one of the family.

A coffee table in the Mitchell living room combines a redwood plaque that was a gift from a sister in California. The plaque is incorporated into the table made by Mitchell.

Mitchell is associated with Hereford Glass, so his occupation is extended into his after hours avocation. Daughter Lori Lynn is not old enough to help with the family hobby but she does enjoy the rocking chair that Mom and Pop have refinished.

Legion Discusses Housing Project

American Legion Post 192 will meet Tuesday night for nomination and election of officers.

The building committee will report on plans for the proposed club house, club officers said. Tentative plans call for construction of a building on 11 acres located where the old barracks buildings are now located in Veterans park.

Business firms desiring flag service may call EM 4-1922 and their business will be serviced this Monday. The annual service costs a business $10 and the American Legion "White Ambulance" delivers and picks-up flags each holiday.

Members of the planning committee for the American Legion Clubhouse are: Grant Hanna, chairman, Woody Wilson, Benny Womble, Cecil Parker, Lowell Sharp, Jim Loving and Ira Scott.

Local Council Okays Printing Of Brochure

Members of the Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism approved the printing of a special brochure to be distributed in Hereford welcome wagon material. The front of the brochure shows clasped hands and inside the pamphlet are three smaller pieces of material which tell of the problems of alcoholism.

Three points are made by the brochure — alcoholism is a disease and the alcoholic is a sick person, the alcoholic can be helped so there is hope. Alcoholism is a public health problem making it a public responsibility.

THE LOCAL council is open to anyone who would like to attend the meetings which are held at 7 a. m. at the La Cafe Hacienda on the last Wednesday of each month.

Sole purpose of the group is the education of the public to the problems of alcoholism.

Kiwanians Hold Meet Thursday

Hereford Kiwanians finished plans for their part of the special Independence Day observance in Hereford during their regular meeting Thursday.

KIWANIS president Gene Campbell encouraged all members to attend the ceremonies which will be held on the lawn of the Deaf Smith County Courthouse beginning at 11:30 a. m.

Other topics were discussed by members of the club during the business session.

Campbell pointed out that the membership drive was going well in the club with a new member nearly every week. The club's goal is 86 members in 1966 and with the year half over the club now has 45 members.

NAMES ARE still being sought by the club of local boys who are home on leave from Viet Nam or those who will be leaving for action in the Vietnamese war.

Kiwanis clubs over the nation are making a special effort to honor these boys in their hometown clubs by inviting them to a club meeting and introducing them to members.

The National Baseball Congress has approved use of a bright gold colored baseball during its annual national non-tournament in Wichita.

South Africans Inspect, Plan New Bravo Plant

Henry Gerber, businessman from South Africa, was a Hereford visitor last week as he inspected the local Bravo Smokes plant here in an attempt to gather information before beginning a new Bravo plant for his own country.

Puzant Torigian, president of the corporation here, said that Gerber, along with his traveling companions, will return to Africa after going to California. Torigian said the first test marketing will be done in South Africa in about 60 days, with construction on the branch plant to be underway by the end of the year, depending on restrictions and qualifications which will have to be met.

Traveling with Gerber were Jim Louw and Don Sudona. While here the trio was taken on a tour of the area by H. C. "Hank" Williams.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA — Observing a demonstration on a "moisture determination balance" is Don Sudona, as he watches lab assistant Mildred Edmonson explain its operation. Just behind Sudona is Jim Louw and Henry Gerber, all from South Africa. Gerber is investigating Bravo Smokes here in anticipation of construction a branch plant in South Africa. H. C. THE CHURCH I LOVE ENTERS THE KINGDOM THROUGH MANY TRIBULATIONS

Paul retraced one of his missionary journeys with Barnabas "Strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God." (Acts 14:22).

Christ did not promise his followers that the narrow way that leads to the everlasting kingdom will be strewn with roses and beds of ease. Rather he said, "For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few." (Matthew 7:14). "If any man would come after me," he exhorted, "let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." (Matthew 16:24).

With each trial, suffering and tribulation, Christ has promised compensating grace. "And lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age." (Matthew 28:20 b). "My grace is sufficient for you." (II Corinthians 12:9).

Remember the suffering of Christ, "the righteous for the unrighteous." We are children and "heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may be glorified with him." (Romans 8:17). "For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too." (II Corinthians 1:5).

"I consider," Paul wrote earnestly, "that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us." (Romans 8:18).

Let us also, "Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life," (I Timothy 6:12), "so there will be richly provided for us an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ." (II Peter 1:11).

G. R. Bloodgood Named 'Optimist Of The Year'

George Bloodgood was the recipient of the "Optimist of the Year" award presented at the Optimist Club's Thursday meeting, and Delbert Bainum was installed as new president to lead the club for the coming year.

Lt. Gov. Jim Alexander attended the meeting, held at Floyd's Restaurant, as installing officer. Eight positions were filled, including officers' positions and places on the board of directors.

Bill Phipps, outgoing president, expressed his "sincere thanks" to Pete Gooch, George Bloodgood, Roy Boyer, Vance Crume and Jim Alexander for their work in the club during the year.

Following the installation ceremony, Bainum presented Phipps with a plaque commemorating his work as president of the club. Bainum also gave him a pin marking his position as an ex-president; Phipps then presented Bainum with a pin signifying his president's office.

Installed by Alexander were Bainum, president; George Bloodgood, vice-president; and Vance Crume, secretary-treasurer. Named to the Board of Directors were Jim Cherry, Wayland Smith, L. V. Watts, Marvin Coffey and Noble Howard.

Charge Reversed In Recent Mishap

Further investigation of a Tuesday night accident resulted in the reversal of a citation issued at the scene to Bobby Randall Pearch. The change came after further information was furnished to the police department.

The citation, originally for passing on the improper side of another vehicle, was not held against the boy after his position at the time was explained.

Only other action at the police department this week occurred when two vehicles, both backing from driveways on the opposite sides of the street, collided in the 100 block of Ave. D. The mishap caused $85 damage to a late model car driven by Mrs. Paul Lyons, 500 Union Ave. Jeff Robertson, 137 Ave. D. was cited by investigating patrolmen.

QUALIFIES AT A MET

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Al Luplow, who hit only .133 (6 for 45) with the Cleveland Indians last year, has qualified as an outfield reserve for the New York Mets.

After striking out in an exhibition game here this spring he tripped entering the dugout and stuck his head on the cement roof. Result: Three stitches and a twisted right ankle.

TO LEAD OPTIMISTS — Delbert Bainum was installed as new president of the local Optimists Club this week, taking the place of Bill Phipps, outgoing president. Here Mrs. Bainum pins the president's pin on her husband. (Staff Photo)

SEND A BRAND-GRAM TO A FRIEND OR RELATIVE IN VIET NAM

The Hereford Brand, in co-operation with the Military Affiliate Radio System, now makes it possible for you to send a message to a friend or relative in Viet Nam, free of charge.

The coupon below, mailed to the Brand, starts a 6,000 mile communications chain to send your 25-word message. The message will be relayed to a MARS station and transmitted to Viet Nam.

In Viet Nam, your message will be decoded and delivered to the serviceman. If he's in an inaccessible area, it will be read to him over the telephone.

If you want to send a message, fill out the coupon and mail it to the Brand. Be sure to include your serviceman's full name, rank, serial number, and the name and number of his military unit and APO number.

The message and signature should be no more than 25 words, not counting the address.

This Brand public service is not intended for emergency messages, but only those of a personal or "morale-building" nature.

While neither the Brand nor the MARS network can absolutely guarantee delivery in that volatile area, every effort will be made to do so, if the form is filled out completely. Messages can be delivered to land-based operations only, and not to ships in waters off Viet Nam.

BRAND-GRAM TO VIET NAM

Print or type exact name, rank, etc. of serviceman. Please keep text of message to 25 words or less. This message will be sent without charge via the Military Affiliate Radio System. Neither MARS nor the Brand can guarantee delivery, but every effort will be made to do so as soon as possible. No emergency messages, please.

WINE FROM FLORIDA VINE

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP) — One of Florida's new really prolific grapevines shades 300 square feet of Charles A. Prester's homestead.

The heavily fruited, arbor-mounted canopy is a single vine of the Lake Emerald strain planted by Prester in 1958. Florida, a lush ground for most growing things, is inhospitable to almost every kind of grape because of an insect-carried virus, Lake Emerald, a white grape suitable for wine-making, was developed by state agricultural experimenters searching for a variety that would resist the virus.

Prester said his vine has yielded 250 to 260 pounds of grapes in recent years. "It has puzzled the scientific boys," Prester said. "A field laboratory man wouldn't believe one vine could give such a yield — until he saw it."

Prester said he has no growing secret that would account for the vine's fecundity, and no training as a viticulturist. "What was his trade before he took to farming?"

Sword-swallower. "Not many people know about that around here," Prester said with a smile. "When I came to settle in Fort Pierce, in 1937, people wouldn't have looked kindly on a fellow who'd been making his living with the circus."

LOST BLACK female poodle. Needs to be treated for ringworms on head. Reward. Carl Hollingsworth EM 4-2885 or EM 4-3572.

You Bet Your Life

Flagrant disregard of the rights of others is a prime cause of accidents.

LAW ON LAW

MIAMI (AP) — County grand jury investigators raided two bopita (numbers racket) houses recently, arrested three persons — and got a ticket for illegal parking.

"Infuriating," said one of the crime-fighters. "Here we were in this place arresting these people and this policeman is outside writing us a ticket. 'We argued, but he just kept on writing.'"

Entertainment Is Our Business

July 1, 1966

Dear Movie Fans,

We haven't had a visit from some of you folks for a long time, and we wonder what the reasons are. But we are going to tell you about our wonderful July Movie Vacation, and we hope you will enjoy it with us.

We started AROUND THE WORLD UNDER THE SEA with Lloyd Bridges and David McCullen — your favorite U.N.C.L.E. man. Before our plans were complete, Alan Ladd, better known as SHANE, convinced us in his quiet, positive western manner that we should include him.

Our first important stop was in Africa to see Virginia McKenna and Bill Travis, now Mr. and Mrs. George Adamson. George is a game warden in the wilds of Kenya. They have the cutest lion cub called Elsa. She came in to see us, and we will show our movie of them which we call BORN FREE.

Our next visit was with those mischievous and fun-loving girls, Haley Mills and June Harding. And if that clever and big-hearted Rosalind Russel hadn't come to our rescue, we would have been in TROUBLE WITH THE ANGELS.

We accepted Fred Gwynne and Yvonne DeCarlos' invitation to visit them in the Barnical Mansion which they inherited. While we were there, the century-old Ghost asked the MUNSIES TO GO HOME. Now that is something — a Ghost being scared.

James Stewart and Peter Finch told us how they wrecked their huge cargo plane in the desert and rebuilt it into a smaller plane which they called THE FLIGHT OF THE PHOENIX to fly out.

I tried to call you folks but the wires got crossed, and I was connected with that crazy, hair-raising, fun-loving Phyllis Diller and Bob Hope. BOY, DID I GET THE WRONG NUMBER!

Ran into Rock Hudson and Claudia Cardinale. They told of their experience in BLINDFOLD. It is breath-taking. It must be very trying to be a scientist in fear of being kidnapped.

That's all I have time for right now; but come to see us and we will show you these movies.

Send us your birthday and anniversary date with your address and we will send you a Special Invitation to Enjoy A Movie Vacation. We will also mail you our next month's letter.

With kindest personal regards,

Francis Hardwick and Theatre Staff

P. S. Save this letter. It is good for one FREE admission with one paid admission to see BOY, DID I GET THE WRONG NUMBER. It is a "2 for 1" deal.

Fertilizer Use Drops In 1966

COLLEGE STATION — Fertilizer tonnage purchased in Texas during the spring planting months of March and April was down compared to the same period last year.

Total for the two-month period was 264,594 tons, compared to 306,646 tons used in the same period in 1965, according to C. D. Welch, Extension soil chemist at Texas A&M University.

Reduced cotton acreage allotments and lag between sales and reporting the sales, account partially for the lower tonnage figure, Welch explains.

Welch also reports Texas' five state laboratories analyzed 7,194 samples during the same two month period. Of these, tests were run on 191 out-of-state samples. The five leading counties sending in samples were: Wharton 228, Harris 218, Houston 194, Matagorda 143, and Hale 123. The A&M laboratories at College Station ran tests on 3,009 samples to lead the reporting laboratories in number of samples processed.

The soil chemist says as rates of nitrogen, phosphorous, and potash are increased and fertilizing becomes a regular practice, micronutrient deficiencies appear more often. If deficiencies are suspected the county agricultural agent can help detect the symptoms, and prevent the deficiency from appearing in future crops.

Spraying plants with dilute zinc sulfate, iron sulfate, or chelates should correct a zinc or iron deficiency within a week, Welch says.

PICKET WHILE WORKING

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A labor union has gone modern and devised a method of picketing at the nation's space center which takes the strain off the feet.

Instead of marching back and forth with picket signs, members of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees have hired an airplane to tow a banner "airing" their complaint.

The banner reads: "RCA Unfair." Members of the union have been involved in a contract dispute with RCA since 1964 but have not been staying off the job.

DUG UP AN ENGINE

MIAMI (AP) — Excavators are accustomed to digging up some weird items when clearing land for new buildings.

But a bulldozer operator breaking ground for a new apartment building here really hit the jackpot.

His big 'dozer blade clanked against metal. It wouldn't move. Further digging by hand uncovered a steam locomotive lying on its side.

It was later learned that it had been blown over during the hurricane of 1926 and covered up rather than moved.

State Biologist Is Measuring Water Used By Only Herd Of Big Horns

MARFA — The woods and fields currently are overrun with technicians conducting the annual head count of wildlife. But, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, there's only one of the hundreds of field people now participating who is practically counting drops of water. That exception would be Tom Hailey, agile young biologist working the semi-arid Black Gap Wildlife Management Area.

One of his top assignments is watching after this state's only herd of desert Big Horn Sheep. His priority pitch right now is determining how much water the 29 rare animals need.

Hailey and the Department are looking ahead to the hoped-for time when surplus animals may be released from the enclosure.

Leading up to that exciting period, Hailey needs to anticipate water needs of the intrepid animals wearing mighty trophy horns.

Hailey inserted a water meter into the pipeline leading to a trough. He says he has determined to within a cupful how much the prized sheep drink at one time.

The biologist said management calls for knowing rather accurately the water needs around the calendar, particularly during the lambing time. And, of course, must reckon accurately how much nature takes back through evaporation.

The Department, in its broad restoration program, has been heartened in recent years by the success of the Palo Duro Canyon Aoudad sheep experiment in the Texas Panhandle.

The Big Horn test has finally leveled off into a steady progress. Three rams and three ewes from Arizona's Kofa Game Range were released in 1957. Losses cut the herd to two rams and two ewes four years later. This year five lambs raised the herd to 29. Hailey feels now the herd has a sporting chance of eventually adding to the Texas trophy targets.

Rules For State Parks Outlined As Vacationers Descend Enmasse

AUSTIN — The vacation trade is whooping it up at state parks in record numbers and also setting some kind of a mark for tidiness.

This word reaches the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department from hard working crews who catch up on their sleeping routine only in the off season months.

Of course tons of refuse are hauled from parks every day but an unusual amount of that this summer comes from the containers.

Still, the managers note, the hardest part of the policing job is collecting assorted waste scattered about the grounds.

Posters and strategically located collectors have combined to cut down the littering problem, according to the men of the scene.

Rules generally are being better observed too, state field reports.

Key regulations include:

Pets will be permitted on leash only;

Firearms or fireworks will not be used or displayed;

Intoxicating liquor or beverages may not be sold or publicly consumed;

Wild flowers or shrubs may not be molested;

No hunting in any state park;

Speed limit in all parks 20 MPH;

Only authorized traffic permitted after 10 P. M.

Minors will not be permitted to register or stay overnight in a park unless chaperoned and accompanied by adults.

Radios and recorded music and musical instruments will not be played after 10 P. M., in the picnic, camping, shelter and other overnight facility area of the parks;

Swimming permitted only in designated areas.

YOUTHFUL COMPANY

NEW YORK (AP) — A professional repertory company composed of players between the ages of 15 and 21 is to be launched here in the fall by Terese Hayden and Stella Spence.

Miss Hayden, an early participant in the development of off-Broadway theatricals, said the purpose is to perform works of particular appeal to youthful audiences, and to give experiences to performers who have found little opportunity beyond high school or university theater.

LESSON RESULTS ADMIRABLE — Tailored cotton dresses they made in a summer clothing class for adults at Hereford High School are modeled and approved at the final session Thursday by eight of the group which received instruction from Mrs. Prowell, HHS homemaking teacher. Exchanging views of their frocks in the top picture are, from left, Mrs. Elroy Artho, Mrs. Edward Cooksey, Mrs.

Raymond Cooksey and Mrs. G. T. Moody. Reflected in a mirror, Miss Della Stagner's shirtwaist dress is seen from two angles by Miss Virginia Thomas, who is attired in her own crisp creation. Miss Merle Elliston reviews for the last time a lesson on machine stitching as Miss Angelina Springer pays attention. Both made the dresses they are wearing.

Letter To The Editor

To Whom It May Concern:

And it is my sincere conviction that the "whom" means every individual person who reads this particular paper — for you see there is a tremendous opportunity present in Hereford. That opportunity is the chance to be of real service to real needs. For nearly a hundred years, the symbol of the Red Cross has meant help in these United States. Help not from enforced tax money (as important as that may be) but help from one concerned person to another on a purely voluntary basis. Help from a most personal involvement on the part of thousands of people like you and me who often express a desire to be of assistance but "haven't the vaguest idea how to go about it."

Because in the complexity of modern civilization organizations are deemed necessary, we have become organized, but unlike any other such organization outside of our churches, this organization is predominately composed of unpaid, non-professionals.

In fact the ratio of paid professionals to volunteers is roughly 1-150. These fellow citizens of ours donate their time (which is as precious to them as is yours to you) and talents (which are often no greater than yours) to become proficient in areas of deepest need in their (your) community. As a result of the efforts of these dedicated persons — training of the highest calibre is available in many aspects of human need — not only in foreign fields but right here in our own home area.

We at Red Cross know from years of experience that every person has something of himself to give to benefit others. There is an area of service which only you can fill awaiting you through our local Red Cross. There is in fact urgent need in several of the areas of concern right now. Though we do truly desire to fill these needs we are not in a position to know whom to contact in our fast changing populace.

However, we have a deep faith in the eagerness of American people to help whenever and wherever they are needed. And we trustfully expect you to contact us — not 'sometime I'll surely do that' but here, now and today — when the need is apparent.

Our executive secretary (herself a 'graduate volunteer') will be happy to discuss with you any aspect of Red Cross service or training most appropriate in your circumstance. Do call EM 4-3761 for the warm experience of offering yourself to assist some fellow human in need.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wm. S. Dameron
Volunteer Chairman

TEC Non-Farm Placements Up

The 60,768 non-farm job openings placed by employers in TEC offices throughout the state bettered the March record by some 4,000 according to R. L. Coffman, administrator of the Texas Employment Commission, and applicants referred (91,485) showed about the same increase. Placements (47,377) increased by nearly 3,000 reflecting continued strength in the Texas economy. The 23,722 farm job openings filled showed a substantial increase (5,775) over March of this year but are still running behind April 1965 when 32,884 farm placements were recorded.

Claims for unemployment insurance dropped from 244,321, in April 1965 to 145,565 this year. They also showed a decline from March of this year when 160,909 claims were filed.

CREDIT CARDS MOWED DOWN

SALINA, Kan. (AP) — Don Pabst was cutting his lawn with a power mower when his billfold slipped from his pocket.

Next thing he knew $45 in cash, credit cards, driver's license and other papers had been chopped up by the mower and scattered over the lawn.

He exchanged the money chips at a bank for whole bills but said it would take some time to replace the other papers.

Bon Voyage Party Given Before Trip

A surprise bon voyage party for Mrs. Frank Prowell, who with her husband will leave July 12 for a vacation in Alaska, was given by Mrs. J. J. Durham and Mrs. Joe Bradley Thursday afternoon in the Durham home.

The Prowells plan to fly to Vancouver, then make the boat trip up the Canadian coast to Alaska. They will visit Mrs. Prowell's brother, an Alaskan resident the past 17 years, in Anchorage, and travel to various parts of the far northern state.

Items useful for travel were presented to Mrs. Prowell as gifts from friends at the informal party. Tea sandwiches, cookies and lemonade were served.

Guests were Miss Della Stagner, Miss Mildred Elliott, Mmes. W. W. Buck, Jim Nell, Pat Parker, Jim Mercer, Raymond White and N. D. Bartlett Jr.

From left are Avis Northcutt, president; Jean Kennedy, secretary, and Faye Dirks, treasurer. Its aims are to encourage improvement in professional skills and personal life of its members.

State Magazine Cited As Good

AUSTIN — Texas Parks & Wildlife has been selected as one of the best conservation magazines in the nation.

The popular magazine was outscored by only two of the other 21 magazines entered in competition sponsored by the American Association for Conservation Information.

The Texas magazine, published by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, has undergone recent extensive changes which evidently appealed to the judges at the annual convention of the association. Inside color has been added, overall design has been modernized, and content has been expanded to achieve a total recreation scope. Although the conservation theme is important in the competition, the judges are by no means only conservation conscious. This year's judges, Guy Spillman of Monsanto Magazine and Dr. Lem Groom of the Oklahoma State University School of Journalism, are outstanding magazine authorities.

In a critique prepared by the judges, Texas Parks & Wildlife was commended in all areas of judging, scoring 481 points out of a possible 480.

"Well written with good choice of material... in all a 'pro' job of a commercial magazine," commented Groom.

Contents of the magazine are carefully balanced to offer interesting reading for all outdoor interests. Texas Parks & Wildlife is made up not only of news and developments in wildlife research and the state parks program, but also during the last few months has included nature sketches of animals, articles on birdwatching, surfing, waterskiing, shotshell reloading, boating, and many hunting, fishing, and adventure stories.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Wonder how on earth that White Leghorn hen got in the street in front of the courthouse at the noon rush hour Wednesday? She was dashing about frantically avoiding the traffic, and finally made it across the street to the courthouse lawn. But then where did she go? And where did she come from, and why?

ANOTHER THING I wonder about, whenever I pass the corner of East Second and Sampson, is the solitary pine tree on that lot. It just grows there, all by itself, in the middle of vacant spaces and used car sales yards.

It's easy enough to guess that a residence occupied the corner when the town was younger, but why was that one tree, only, left of its landscaping? Maybe it's somebody's pet; it's pretty enough.

WHILE I'M AT IT, something else has me in a curious mood. Anybody know why the recent popularity of French names for baby girls? It's noticeable when you look over the list of births for 1966.

Styles in names do run in cycles, but there is usually something to account for each trend. A well-liked actress or singer can set off a whole generation of little Glorias or Deb-bles, or a president's daughter can revive a fine old name like Margaret or Caroline.

During European wars in which the United States was involved, fads for French or distinctively British names have been born. But right now the liking for Denise, Michelle, Annette and other French names puzzles me.

Maybe I'm not abreast of the current entertainment favorites, but no dominant French group occurs to me. There is that song about Michelle, of course (or was — its peak is past) but it wouldn't account for the other names. Or would it?

Summer visitors, growing more numerous by the day now, include the Jack Browns' two daughters and their children. Jackie, Mrs. Bill Gore, with Sandy, Dave and Carol is here this week from Albuquerque and Joan, Mrs. Johnnie Latham, from Moriarty, N. M. with her three youngsters, Mark, Lance and Renee.

Citizens Urged To Buy Bonds

Ed Gossett, volunteer U. S. Savings Bonds chairman for Texas, joined with President Johnson today in urging citizens to "Put a small part of your prosperity into U. S. Savings Bonds."

Gossett was quoting from the President's special Independence Day message, prepared for newspaper, radio and television release, which asks the American people to "invest a few dollars each month in the front lines of battle for a stronger America and a safer world."

"Even while we celebrate Independence Day," the President's message said, "there is no real holiday from responsibility. We must go on with the work of building peace, enlarging our prosperity, guarding against inflation and recession... If only half of the 70 million employed Americans bought just one $25 Savings Bond a month for only one year, they would meet most of the special cost of the struggle that we are making for peace in Vietnam this year. Think about how much more meaningful your holiday enjoyment would be if you could honestly say, 'I have pledged to do my share as an American. I will buy U. S. Savings Bonds on a regular monthly basis.'"

Gossett said that the President's holiday statement, in the form of a public service ad, had been distributed by the Advertising Council, Inc., to all media in Texas.

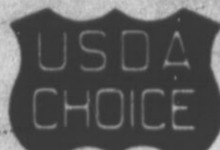

BHUTAN IN U. N.? NEW DELHI — Bhutan, a small Himalayan mountain state sandwiched between India and Communist-controlled Tibet, may seek a seat in the United Nations.

The subject reportedly arose during recent talks between King Jigme Dorji Wangchuk of Bhutan and Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India.

Independence Day Is Ideal To Review Conditions

The Fourth of July 1966 is a date which all of us should celebrate with vigor. Where else in the world could we enjoy the freedoms offered in the United States; where else could we find a government which is willing to spend so much on educating us? Where else in the world is there a nation with so much to offer its citizens?

On the Fourth, however, we might also pause to consider just how Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln — even Franklin D. Roosevelt — would react if they lived in the United States of America today... What would these men think about "relief lines" in this land of plenty? Would they endorse "Medicare"? What would these great leaders who did so much to mould our nation have to say about a lot of things today?

Without doubt, we have long since drifted away from the fundamentals upon which our nation was established. Many of the freedoms we once enjoyed have ceased to exist. We have advanced so far that few people can remember when folks worked from "sun-up to sun-set"; we have machines which perform many times over the tasks humans once slaved to accomplish. We also have, as a by-product, unemployment and idleness. Some people say that we will tax ourselves out of business, others feel that our nation is fast losing its moral stability, and our theologians are quick to point out that we are turning

Many Problems In Auto Safety

People have their fingers crossed when it comes to the highly publicized safety features which are scheduled to appear on automobiles in a couple of years under a government supervised program.

What the experts will produce as "required equipment," no one knows. At the same time, it is a field on which all Americans may well ponder a bit. The automobile has become so much a part of our lives that it is considered a necessity rather than a luxury these days.

Everyone, we feel, is interested in getting as many safety measures as possible. Individual purchase and installation of seat belts proved this point beyond doubt. The program, however, can be developed to the point where very few of us could afford to buy or operate automobiles, and this is the field where John Q. Public must place some thought.

Take the smog elimination gadgets, for instance. Should the government require these gadgets as standard equipment all over the nation — and they are considering it — the price of automobiles would soar much higher than at the present time. Regular checks, like each 30 days, would be necessary on expensive equipment; this, plus maintenance, might well leave many of us out in the cold when it comes to owning an automobile, and the two-car and three-car families would dwindle sharply.

Right now our economy is "slow," and much of the situation can be attributed to the automobile industry, which is barely walking these days. Elimination of 40 to 50 percent of the automobiles operated in this country would indeed reflect extensively on our economy as a nation.

Right now there is not much any of us can do about the situation. When the final rules and regulations are drawn up, however, we should scan them closely, and register our thoughts with congressmen and other officials.

Taking his automobile away from the American is highly similar to taking his beer away from the German. They just "ain't heard nothing... yet."

Johnson In Political Limelight Half His Life

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Lyndon B. Johnson will be 38 in August and has been a national figure almost exactly half his life. He first came to Washington as a freshman member of Congress 29 years ago, and soon won prominence.

After all that time in the limelight, including more than two and one-half years as President, he remains an enigma — a complicated man, difficult to analyze and hard to explain. Historians may have no trouble measuring his contributions to society but they will be hard put to explain the man and his motivations.

No one lives in a goldfish bowl more than a modern day American President. A small army of trained observers scrutinize his every move. The death of his dog is front page news. Television allows every citizen to watch from afar. Most everybody has an opinion about President Johnson, of one sort or another.

Johnson was elected less than two years ago with the biggest majority in the history of Presidential politics. How many of his votes were anti-Goldwater ballots will never be known but the record margin suggests LBJ benefited because many people, rightly or wrongly, feared Barry

Goldwater as President.

Whatever the reasons, it was a tremendous victory that Johnson won in 1964. Not only did he score an amazing personal triumph but he swept many members of his party into office, at the national, state, and local level. Congress, usually Democratic in this generation, became a two-to-one body, with the result that most Johnson proposals were enacted.

Fall Campaign Looms

Now another political campaign lies just ahead. While the President's name will not be on any ballot, the public will get its first chance in two years to assess the "Great Society." Almost certainly the Congressional election results next November will give an indication of what voters think of Johnson's conduct of his office.

Public opinion polls, for what they are worth — and Johnson himself places great stock in them — showed recently that the President's popularity had slumped to a new low. LBJ has said that he is not worried by these reports. However, it would be unlike the astute politician he has proved himself to be for him to ignore the amber lights the pollsters have flashed.

If that premise be true, that the President will strive to improve his image before the ballots are cast in November, he faces a tall order. The two major national issues these days appear to be the war in Vietnam and inflation on the home front. If LBJ has the solution to either problem, he has yet to give any indication of it.

All signs point toward further escalation of the Vietnamese war — more men, more money, and more resentment on the part of voters. It is hard to foresee any conceivable development on the battlefield in the next four months that would help the President and his supporters on Election Day.

Nor is the outlook any brighter in Washington's war against the rise in the cost of living. The rose may be off the bloom of the rising tide of the economy but bacon is still selling for about $1 a pound in Washington, housewives find their dollars are worth less each month at the supermarket, and prosperity is proving expensive to the average voter.

City Workers Included In Social Security

City employees will be included in the federal Social Security program for retirement, disability and survivors benefits.

W. A. Phipps gave the last tap to the Optimist Club bell as he turned over leadership of the group Tuesday to Lester E. Jones, as new president of the club, whose motto is "Friends of the Boy" promised members they will work by the slogan during the coming year.

Funeral services for Paul V. Kearns, 65, of near Umberger were conducted Tuesday morning in the St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

Bids will be let July 13 for construction of a new home office of the Hereford Texas Federal Credit Union, according to Mrs. Dyalhig Benson, secretary manager.

Good yields and the best price in the history of Hereford potato production had growers, who began digging the spuds on Monday and Tuesday, wearing big smiles and fingering big checks.

City "fogging" equipment will probably swing into action this weekend, according to Dudley Bayne, city manager.

Pat Dawson, 15 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dawson of 201-Ross, reigned as champion baker at the Annual County 4-H Club Bake Show held in the Junior High School Cafeteria on Friday.

Although the rains delayed some hoeing practices on farms in the Deaf Smith County area, employment is holding up pretty well, according to J. R. Patterson of the Texas Employment Commission.

A clean-up of alleys and vacant lots in Hereford as a means of eliminating insect breeding and other health hazards has been requested by Jack Gilliland, city sanitation officer.

Panhandle Paragraphs

A lady was sitting in her car parked in front of a medical clinic in Dallas with her head lying on the steering wheel. A passer-by noticed the woman and fearing perhaps she might have suffered a heart attack, went over to see if he could be of help.

About that time the woman raised her head and tears were rolling down her cheeks... due to the fact she was laughing so hard.

"I have just got to tell you this," she said to the would be helpful fellow. "I have been to the doctor and he told me to bring to his office a urine specimen. All I could find to put the specimen in was a whiskey bottle. I left it lying in the seat of my car and while I was gone someone took the bottle."

Farmers and ranchers in Childress, Collingsworth, Hall and Swisher counties will continue to be eligible for emergency Farmers Home Administration loans through June 30, 1967, Congressman Walter Rogers wired The Wellington Leader last Monday.

This applies primarily to funds used for operating expenses of farmers and ranchers who are affected by the drought, according to James E. Chappell of the Wellington FHA office. Farmers and ranchers can secure these loans if other sources of credit are closed to them.

City Patrolman Arthur Mason, 37-year-old veteran of 11 years in police work and a former Texas Highway Patrolman, is expected to be promoted to the post of chief of police of Denver City.

Mayor Ike Toler said Tuesday that city councilmen with whom he had conferred appear to be in accord with Mason's appointment to succeed Police Chief Woody Sullivan, 49, who is resigning to join the security division of Camp Gary at San Marcos, Texas.

Councilmen also were in accord, Toler reported, with the employment of a new patrolman to fill the vacancy created in Denver City police ranks by the elevation of Mason to the top post.

FRITCH — A record number for a city election, of voters went to the polls here Tuesday to approve an $85,000 bond issue to finance paving for 110 blocks of city streets, casting 254 votes for and 191 votes against the issue and the accompanying tax increase up to 25 cents.

The voters had defeated the issue in two previous elections. Present tax rate for the city is 50 cents on the $100 valuation.

A majority of the paving will be done in the original townsites, with some in Canadian Park Additions One and Four. The paving will be let on a first come, first served basis, city fathers reported last month.

The city will use 12 years for repayment of the bonds and repayment period will not exceed 15 years. The 12-year payout program would represent a saving of $5,987.50 to the citizens of Fritch.

—Borger News-Herald

We have often mentioned the many things coming across the Desk, and the wide variety of subjects discussed. This week we happened across a release from Congressman Walter Rogers, outlining Foreign Aid Policies, and the amount of our money which has been given to other countries.

The list of countries receiving such aid was led by, of all people, France, which has received almost nine and one-half billion dollars. That's $9,428,500,000.00 American bucks since 1945, which comprises almost one-fifth of the total dollars sent to Europe, and is more than was sent to the entire African continent. This sum missed very little being as much as was received by all of Latin America. We are all for helping out whenever possible but to send this sum to France, and then stand still while jolly Charlie kicks us in the teeth is too much.

We will not take a political approach to this, but would like to point out it proves beyond a doubt that it's impossible to buy friendship, for a person or a nation.

—County Wide News (Littlefield)

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his hindweed farm takes a certain look at human nature in his letter this week. The ideas are his, not ours.

Dear editor:

I don't know how it happened, but I was sitting under a tree out here on this hindweed farm yesterday afternoon and looked up and saw a newspaper floating down, must have fallen out of an airplane although it's the first time I've known it to happen, and I kept my eyes on it as it drifted down and memorized where it landed and after I got through resting walked over and picked it up.

According to the main headline on the front page, President Charles DeGaulle of France had just landed in Moscow for a visit with the Russian leaders, but what interested me was his first statement as he got off the plane.

"The whole universe," he said, "knows what importance is attached to the visit I am about to make."

I asked a neighbor what importance he attached to it and he said: "Who's DeGaulle?" This got me to figuring, and I estimate you can safely say there are hundreds of thousands of Americans who don't know who DeGaulle is or didn't know he had landed in Russia, there are millions of South Americans in the same shape, millions of Russians, hundreds of millions of Asians and practically all of the Eskimos.

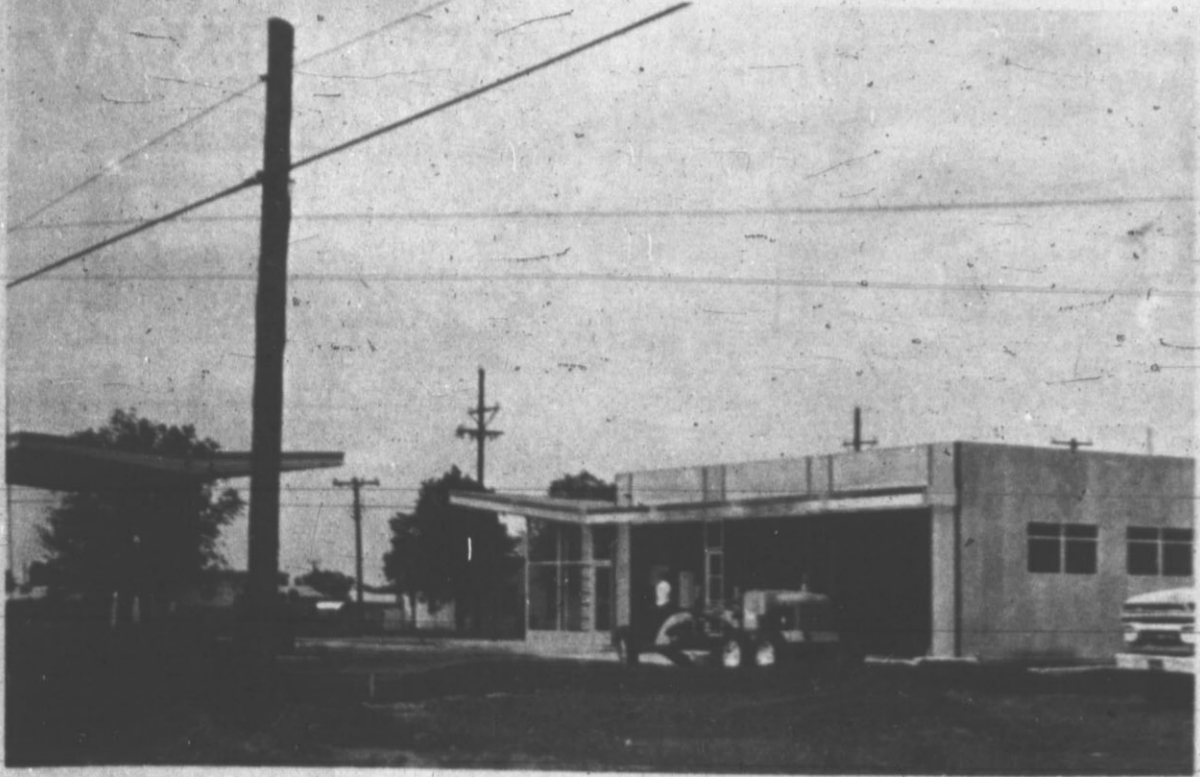

What it all boils down to is a notion that the visit of DeGaulle looks bigger to DeGaulle than it does to the universe.

However I suppose, and this makes him human which he wouldn't like, he is about like the rest of the race. Exaggeration is a fundamental trait of the human animal.

For example, when a teen-ager tells another teen-ager she'll never speak to her again, it means four or five hours, unless her telephone has been taken out.

And when a woman says, "I'll tell you one thing," get set for fifteen or twenty.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Lake Armistad Possibilities Explored For Fishermen

SAN ANGELO — The layman trying to comprehend the fishing opportunities when mighty Amistad Lake is readied has a great deal in common with the old pro fisheries people around Texas Parks and Wildlife Department regional headquarters. Leo Lewis, fisheries chief for Region One who operates out of San Angelo, was conferring with top level personnel when the variety of excitement incident to Amistad's recreational possibilities was mentioned.

The $80,000,000 impoundment, straddling the Rio Grande River above Del Rio and enveloping both Devils Lake and Lake Walk, is scheduled for completion in 1968.

Just about every popular fresh water fish is expected to thrive in the vast lake that will cover some 87,400 acres of land in both Mexico and the United States.

Black bass, as the fisheries experts see it, probably will be the target of anglers the year around. But they also envision giant blue cats, a massive crappie population and probably exploding white bass numbers.

White bass originally were successfully placed in Lake Walk under experiments conducted by the Department years ago. Now these have moved, downstream in the Rio Grande and have stocked Lake Falcon.

Research underway now suggests a huge selective kill of undesirable species in both Devils Lake and Lake Walk and converting both lakes as a gigantic natural black bass restocking facility.

Great rock caves along the banks of the Pecos and Devils rivers, up to 26 miles distance on the latter, will be ideal spawning spots for the big cats.

The Missouri Penitentiary has a boxing team which competes with teams from outside the prison.

House Minority Leader Gerald Ford (R., Mich.) has proclaimed 1966 "the year of the elephant." He expects the G. O. P. to make an impressive comeback at the polls in November. Historically, the "outs" make gains in off-year elections and Republicans suffered such casualties in Congress in 1964 that up is almost the only way they can go this fall.

Voters should ponder the national implications of their vote this fall. Here are some questions they might turn over in their own minds between now and November:

Has the Johnson Administration earned an endorsement? Is the "Great Society" a concept that most people favor? Does the Republican party offer a more attractive alternative at this stage in our history? Would it be best for the nation if a new mandate were delivered to the powers-that-be in Washington?

European Tour Set By Texas Farm Bureau

WACO — The Texas Farm Bureau will conduct a second Agricultural Market Builder tour of Europe Sept. 15-29, according to Walter Meyer, Waco, Texas, Farm Bureau director of trade development.

The TFB-sponsored tour will include sight-seeing and marketing activities in seven countries in Europe — England, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Germany, Switzerland and France. At the end of the original tour, tours will be available on an option basis to Scandinavia, Spain, and Portugal, and Italy. Tour members may choose to take a special one-day excursion to Berlin.

More than 40 persons have already signed up for the two week tour. According to Meyer, there is still space for some 50 persons on the tour. For those who are interested in details of the trip, a request for a brochure should be mailed to the Walter Meyer, Texas Farm Bureau, P. O. Box 489, Waco, Texas.

The group will fly via Pan American Airways from Houston and Dallas to London. They will return Sept. 29. Cost of the tour is $995. This includes all transportation, two meals a day, sight-seeing tours and tips. Other expenses are not covered by the tour fare.

Wondering how to cut up that rhubarb for pie? Unless the recipe states otherwise, you'll be safe in slicing the stalks crosswise into 1/2 inch pieces. Another hint: never peel pink or red rhubarb.

CZECHS LIKE BEER

PRAGUE — Czechoslovaks had, the biggest beer consumption in the world last year, the Czechoslovak news agency C.T. K. reported.

On an average, the Czechs drank 130.4 liters a person, but in West Bohemia (where the Pilsen brewery is located) the beer consumption was an average 191.4 liters.

Grasshoppers Are Not Local Problem, Yet

Young grasshoppers are appearing in abundant numbers in several areas of the state, but no problem areas have been reported in Deaf Smith County, according to aerial spraying officials.

ONLY ONE request from farmers for spraying for grasshoppers was reported by area spraying companies.

Grasshoppers are relatively easy to control when they are young but become increasingly difficult to control as they near maturity, according to Texas A&M University Extension Entomologist, W. H. Newton.

THEY ARE best controlled in their hatching areas before they begin to migrate over larger areas.

Frequently, spot treatment of the hatching areas will prevent later wide-spread damage. Eggs are usually deposited in late summer and fall in the soil in grassy, uncultivated areas such as roadsides, fence rows, idle crop land and pastures, the entomologist said.

THE YOUNG nymphs, after hatching the following spring, feed in the vicinity for several days before beginning to disperse to fields, pastures and gardens.

Applying control measures while the population is still fairly concentrated will reduce later damage to pasture and crops, Newton added.

SEVERAL insecticides give effective control of young grasshoppers and farmers should pay careful attention to the label precautions before applying any insecticide to pastures or crops and observe strictly the prescribed harvest, grazing or slaughter intervals, the entomologist said.

For control recommendations on grassland and specific field crops, a visit with the local county agent is suggested by the entomologist.

Mrs. E. W. Young uses souvenir Delft-china

FOR HEREFORD PAINTER

Trip Inspires Brush

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Some of the souvenir pieces she brought back from a recent trip to Germany will "pose" for Mrs. E. W. Young as subjects of still life paintings, and she plans to paint landscapes from pictures her husband took, assisted by her memory of details.

THE YOUNGS made the trip to visit their daughter Mary Anne, Mrs. Adrian Ashley, and her family. Captain Ashley was stationed with the U. S. Army at Heidelberg but just after the Hereford couple's visit he was returned to the United States and the family now lives at Fort Bragg, N. C.

An important member of the Ashley family is their daughter, Dana, who was only two months old when they went to Germany and is now past two years of age.

Some of the Youngs' memories of sights seen in Germany add to the pictured scenes they brought back. For instance, a "castle burning" is vividly in their minds.

THEY HAVE A colored print of the ancient castle at Heidelberg, sitting serenely on the bank of a river, but they remember it as it was illuminated with fireworks at the "burning." Less dramatic but as vivid are impressions of other sights.

Buildings and bombed ruins at Berchtesgaden, Hitler's plush stronghold which is now a resort for U. S. troops in Germany, and their families, museums with art works including Rembrandt paintings in Amsterdam, a castle at Schwetzingen with gardens built around elaborate statuary, the church at Worms associated with Martin Luther's plunge into the Reformation, tulip gardens in Holland and cars on the roads with garlands of the blooms draped over their hoods.

Mrs. Young enjoyed equally the opportunity to see famous paintings at close range, and to visit gardens and see vegetation new to her, interests which are reflected in her membership here in the Art Guild and Garden Beautiful Club.

THE YOUNGS spent several days at Heidelberg visiting the Ashleys and seeing sights near the noted university city, then went to other German areas, into Holland, to Austria, where they visited such varied places as the huge Linderhof Castle built by Ludwig, the "mad king" of Bavaria, and the apartment in Salzburg where Mozart lived.

Going through a section of Switzerland on their way back to Heidelberg, they stayed briefly in Lucerne and Zurich. They made the three-week trip by jet plane without stops enroute except at airports.

In addition to sightseeing and visiting Mrs. Young enjoyed the glimpses of residents in countries they traveled. She noticed in Germany that dress of the women was on the whole plainer than that in this country, and learned that after marriage most German women dress more soberly, using no make-up.

STRAIGHT SKIRTS and overblouses or jackets were almost a uniform for women on the streets, she said, and only the very young women were wearing skirts as short as we are accustomed to.

She had opportunities to observe women on the streets, in shops and in churches they attended. One church service was a presentation of the oratorio, The Creation, jointly by the base chapel choir in which Mrs. Ashley sang and a German choir.

The Youngs live at 306 W. Seventh. Two of their children,

Mrs. Loerwald Elected President Of Diocesan Catholic Women

Mrs. Ed Loerwald of Hereford was elected president of the Amarillo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at the recent summer meeting of its board of directors at St. Lawrence's School in Amarillo. Her two-year term will begin November 1.

It will be her second term in the office, as she served as Council president for 1964-65. She has held various other offices and committee posts in the diocese and in the Plainview Deanery, of which St. Anthony's Church here is a part.

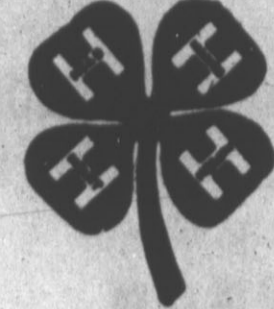

Mrs. C. E. Leasure Jr. and R. V. Young, reside here and they boast a total of seven grandchildren.

At present she is secretary of St. Anthony's Guild and is completing work in a diocesan chairmanship in which she has conducted six workshops and has another scheduled here next month.

The Diocesan Council comprises five deaneries, Pampa, Amarillo, Levelland and Lubbock as well as Plainview.

Mrs. Loerwald was named Council delegate to the national convention of the CCW, to be held in Miami, Fla., Oct. 5-8.

Others from St. Anthony's Church who attended the board meeting, were the Very Rev. Angelus Delahunt, S. A., moderator of the Plainview Deanery; Mrs. George Turfentine, diocesan CCW vice-president;

A group of Merry Maidens 4-H Club members forming a sewing Unit II, worked in the F. H. Haug home recently on garments they will model in the county 4-H Dress Revue July 7 at Sugarland Mall. They are making A-line skirts and garments with zippers.

CHURCH MUST RELATE TO CHILD'S LIFE

LONDON (U) — Flaws in church education techniques were pointed out by the Rev. Bernard Green of Nottingham in an address to the annual assembly of the Baptist Union and the Baptist Missionary Society. "Our teaching is that up to a certain point a child will accept almost anything we tell him, but if we fail to relate it to life, and it is not seen to be related to daily living, it will be jettisoned later," he said. "We cannot blame children in not coming to the point of involvement within the church, if the church does not become to any great extent involved with them."

POISE, CHARM PRACTICE — The annual charm school preceding the County 4-H Dress Revue was conducted for club girls, young and older, in Community Center Thursday and Friday afternoons. Practice sessions by the younger girls and advice on grooming and posture from more advanced members were typical of the sessions. Judging of garment construction and records is scheduled Wednesday, final competition will be in a style show open to the public Thursday evening in Sugarland Mall. Entrants will model their garments, using the techniques learned in charm school as they parade before the judges. The winner in the senior division will represent this county in district competition.

Indians Welcome National Tourists As Reservations Open For Summer

Nobody speaks with a forked tongue about today's Indians. At least not if they're talking about the progress many tribes are making in attracting tourists to their reservations during the summer. The Bureau of Indian Affairs has even launched a program with the theme: "See America first with the first Americans," the idea being to get you to stop by at a reservation on your way to or from your vacation jaunt. They — the Indians, that is — have even got Dan "Boss Cartwright" Blocker of the NBC-TV Bonanza show to do a lot of spots for them on radio and TV. "Many reservations are areas of unspoiled, scenic beauty," says Dan, "and they offer some of the finest recreation spots in the country. Fishing, especially, is outstanding."

Take the State of Minnesota, for example: one of the areas that Blocker mentions in his radio spots. On the Greater Leech Lake Reservation, in North Central Minnesota, there are almost 25 thousand acres belonging to the Chippewa Indians. It's one of the finest recreational areas in the State with many tourist camps and resorts and plenty of fishing area.

At White Earth Reservation, the Chippewas have an additional 58 thousand acres in the western part of the State, featuring an annual Indian Pow Wow in June, and boating, hunting, fishing and swimming all summer long.

In northern Minnesota, along the lower Red Lake and about 30 miles north of the town of Bemidji, there's the beautiful Red Lake Reservation of over 564 thousand acres, populated by 2,900 Chippewa Indians. You'll see Indian owned fishing and logging industry here, interesting examples of Indian art, and there's plenty of fishing in the many lakes and streams all around the area for trout and the famous northern pike.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs says that facilities on Indian reservations can range from

Was It A Pink Elephant Or Was It A Green Gator?

LA PORTE — The chances percentage-wise of a damaging traffic pileup — caused by an alligator — may be occupying some of the sharp pencil insurance people judging from a report to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Here's why:

An 11½ foot alligator darted in front of a small station wagon, bending wheels, springing doors, twisting the frame and smashing a luggage rack.

The alligator cadaver then caught a near miss from a second car. The driver, perhaps allergic to pink elephants and such, made a hit-and-run take-off, leaving only skid marks and a hub cap.

A third car pulling a trailer also finished second in contact with the deceased reptile to the extent of damaged steering and transmission.

Authorities and a wrecker crew glumly carted away the cause of it all, hopefully in a well-marked "alligator Heaven" grave. Some skeptical adjuster just might insist on seeing the evidence.

Scouts Camp in New Mexico — Scouts of Troop 151 are camping out at Middle Fork Lake this weekend near Red River, N. M. Roy Harris is scout master. Also accompanying the group of ten boys is Arthur Persley, Ray Bosley, and Dr. C. E. Hicks.
