Sing Here Thursday

The 45-voice chorus of the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago will be presented in concert at the First Baptist Church at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The choir, under direction of Don Hustad, the institute's music department director, will present a program of sacred music, interspersed with smaller group specialties and testimonials. A highlight of the program being presented on the current winter tour is "All in a Lifetime," a dramatic sketch of the life and ministry of D. L. Moody, perhaps the most famous evangelist of this century. There is no admission charge, although proceeds of a free will offering will be given to the young singers to help defray expenses of their travels. Chorus members will be in the homes of members of the church Thursday night.

Rail Financier Young Prepares New Move

NEW YORK (AP)—Robert R. Young, clear of all connections with the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad, was free today to achieve his ambition of controlling the New York Central System—if he can. The 56-year-old Texas-born financier dropped a bombshell in financial and railroad circles with the announcement last night that he and a group of associates are quitting the C&O and severing all ties that in the past have kept him from sitting on the Central board. The C&O announced that Young had resigned as board chairman of the C&O. With him went his companion in an astonishing rise to power, Allan P. Kirby, who stepped out as president of the railroad. For years Young—the most discussed and unorthodox figure in American railroading—has talked of controlling the Central. Four other C&O directors, all of them with financial interests in Allegheny or its subsidiaries, also resigned from the C&O board. They were James Blaine, Henry Guild, Harry Thompson and Andrew Van Pelt. At the same time, the C&O announced that Allegheny had sold all its remaining holdings in the C&O—104,854 shares of common stock—to Cyrus S. Eaton, wealthy

Sen. Holland Of Florida Sees New North-South Demo Unity

By JACK BELL. WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) said today there are signs of a new unity between Southern leaders which should pay off in the November elections involving control of Congress. Holland, who led a group of Southern senators in boycotting a midsummer party rally at Chicago last year, said he is joining fully in preparations for a party meeting scheduled at Miami Beach, Fla., March 8. Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) said in a statement former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, is expected to be the main speaker. Party members from Southern states will attend. Holland said in an interview he believes conditions have changed materially since he said he would not attend the 1953 Chicago rally because he didn't believe it would benefit the South. "I think the attitude of the national party leadership is decidedly more considerate to the South now than it was at that time," Holland declared. "I feel the signs are encouraging for better cooperation within the party than they have been in months." He said Stevenson lost four Southern states to Eisenhower in the 1952 elections. He had taken a stand in favor of civil rights legislation. In this connection Holland said he was pleased by Stevenson's statements on a visit to Atlanta late last year. "He said at Atlanta that the South had made more significant progress in the field of solving civil rights problems than had any other part of the nation" Holland said. "That is different talk from some that we heard in 1952. I think that with give and take a satisfactory program can be worked out this time. We Southerners can't expect to have our views followed 100 per cent but we're getting tired of the other side's insistence on having their views adopted 100 per cent. "We ought to be willing to meet halfway any sincere efforts at reconciliation, and I feel that those efforts are being made." Holland noted, too, that the Chicago meeting had virtually buried the "loyalty oath" to which Southerners had objected strenuously. The oath pledged 1952 convention delegates to try to get convention nominees on their state ballots under the Democratic label. Holland said evident dropping of this, with other actions, "ought to give us new unity for the congressional elections this fall." Invitations to speak at the dinner, signed by all Democratic members of the Florida congressional delegation, have been sent to Stevenson, Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) and Rep. Rayburn of Texas, the House minority leader.

President In Second Year As U.S. Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower started his second year in office today, and a close associate said "he's thriving on the challenge" of the big job ahead. Cabinet members, Republican party officials and White House staff members arranged to present a surprise gift to the President at a ceremony in his office commemorating the first anniversary of his inauguration. Otherwise, the 63-year-old Chief Executive's day shaped up pretty much like scores of others during the last 12 months. He scheduled a breakfast conference with Secretary of State Dulles who flies to Berlin tomorrow for the Big Four foreign ministers conference.

Jimmy Roosevelt Sues For Separate Maintenance Ruling

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—James Roosevelt, 46, who separated five months ago from his second wife, Romelle Schneider Roosevelt, 28, has sued for a decree of separate maintenance alleging that she caused him "mental and physical anguish and distress." They were wed in Beverly Hills, Calif., in 1941 in a civil ceremony. They met in 1938 in Rochester, Minn., when Miss Schneider, a hospital nurse, was assigned to Roosevelt's case when he had an abdominal operation. They have three children. Roosevelt's lawyer, Samuel B. Picone, said negotiations for an amicable settlement of financial issues were started last Sept. 1 but have been unproductive. The complaint stated that Roosevelt had made numerous requests to his wife for return of such items as the late Franklin D. Roosevelt's wrist watch, cigarette holder, ring and similar articles of sentimental value. "She has refused to deliver them and still refuses to do so," read the complaint.

A Cabinet business session was listed just ahead of the anniversary ceremony. These meetings ordinarily are held on Friday but this week's was planned for today because of the special occasion. People who have worked with Eisenhower in the White House report that he seems to be in top physical condition and in a cheerful frame of mind. One aide who sees the President many times a day said Eisenhower "probably hates" some of the detail of his job and that he isn't very happy about having to attend all the social functions, he does. This aide, who asked that his name be withheld, also said the President chafes somewhat under the confinement of the presidency—although he has traveled 36,474 miles since his inauguration.

THE GRUB LINE

With Franklin Reynolds

While I haven't read much of this excitement about cigarette smoke and lung cancer being somehow connected, I have taken time to observe that a considerable number of old-timers, men well around the proverbial three score years and ten, are continuing their cigarette smoking and to look at most of them you'd never figure they'd ever been sick a day in their lives.

Of course, as I understand it, the scientists don't claim positively that cigarette smoking causes cancer of the lungs; nor do they claim all cigarette smokers have cancer of the lungs, but it does appear, according to the evidence they submit, that most persons with cancer of the lung are cigarette smokers. At the same time this is an indirect admission that some people who don't smoke also have lung cancers.

It seems to be a similar proposition to: Which came first, the chicken or the egg? which was topic of fast and furious debate in school rooms and around country stores not so many years ago.

There are other statistics on lung cancer that I would like to see. I would like to know the percentage of the patients who live on farms and ranches as compared with the percentage who live in towns; I would like to know the occupations of the patients; the brand of cigarettes they smoke; and what percentage of the smokers, if any, roll their own with Bull Durham or Duke's Mixture. There is a whole lot of information that could have been supplied us, but that has been denied us so far as I can learn.

In any event I'm going to refuse to become unduly alarmed about it because I am just about old enough to have a pretty fair picture of cigarette smoking in the last past several years.

When I was a boy cigarettes were referred to by the reform element as "coffin nails" and every one you smoked was supposed to be "another nail in your coffin." In those days cigarette smokers were known as "cigarette fiends" and just to taste one meant addiction. Young men around town didn't dare let their prospective cigar-smoking fathers-in-law see them smoking a cigarette. Most fathers claimed they would rather see their daughters marry a bank robber than a cigarette fiend.

In the cow country it was different. Prospective fathers-in-law passed the makin's back and forth, or maybe it was just the factory-made cigarettes that were coffin nails, anyway.

But it isn't hard to recall that just about the time the reform element established National Prohibition in World War I days, they were almost as well organized against cigarettes as against strong drink and but for World War I and the undying popularity it gave cigarettes, there was a good chance that we would have had a national cigarette prohibition law too.

Many men who likely had never smoked a cigarette before, learned during World War I what a hearty life a "fag" would give a man. That war saved the cigarette industry a lot of trouble. There have been times when the cigarette makers have been fought almost as bitterly as the distillers and brewers.

Then women received the power of the vote and assumed many other powers as a natural consequence. This, plus the general excitement of post-War I days through the "Jazz Age" of the 1920s into being with its synthetic gin that neither man nor woman could swallow without a couple of drags on a cigarette, one just before the drink and one just afterward.

Moreover, up until this time only a very few of the most daring of ladies had ever been seen smoking a cigarette in public, and even the madames of their houses that they weren't to be seen smoking cigarettes on their appearances in public.

The cigarette (in the cities) was the mark of the fiend and the chip-py. The cow country remained more liberal and tolerant. In the cities it was commonly admitted that a person who smoked a cigarette immediately lost control of his moral restraints; that cigarettes dried up the brain and blood; that all criminals smoked cigarettes and that they had become criminals because of this habit. Prospective employers (except in the cow country) examined the fingers of young men seeking jobs to see if there was any nicotine stain on them. A cigarette smoker could not be trusted to handle money, to flag a train, to sell groceries, and even if he was given a job forking livery stable manure he would be sure to set the barn on fire.

And all this was just a few years ago and well within the memory of many men now living. There has always been some alarming argument against cigarettes and the one that they dried up the brain and caused it to shrivel was just as exciting in its day as is the one against lung cancer today.

Men of good character in those days were those who smoked cigars and pipes and chewed tobacco, and some of those who used tobacco in these murderous forms and approved of their sons and young employees doing likewise, could be numbered among the toughest foes of the cigarette.

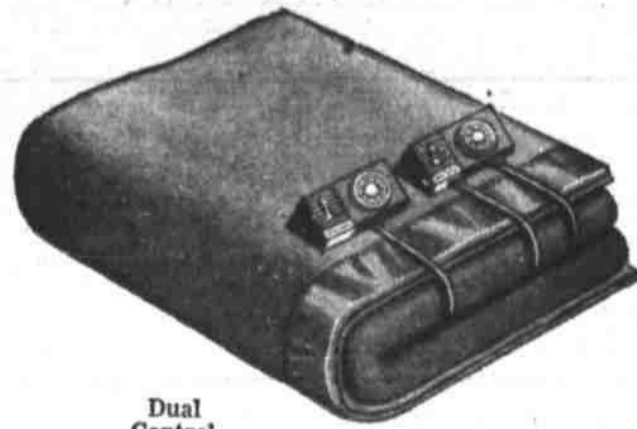

But the "makin's" had come to the cow country to stay because of convenience and price. Cowboys couldn't always carry cigars or pipes and pouches around in their pockets, and besides they couldn't afford cigars and good pipes. They weren't making that much money. (To be continued tomorrow.)

Businessmen 'Slave' For March Of Dimes Drive

By TED McKENNA
VISTA, Calif. (AP) More than 125 businessmen, public officials and civic leaders were "slaves" here yesterday in a unique fund raising project for the March of Dimes.

The "Slave Day" was the second phase of the polo fund-raising drive in this northern San Diego County community. Last month the men were auctioned off as "slaves" by Howard D. Cunnemon, newspaper distributor. That project brought in more than $1,200. An additional $1,000 was collected yesterday.

The weekly Vista Press published a special edition yesterday and sold each copy for 25 cents. Publisher Everett Remsburg donated all the proceeds, approximately $300, to the March of Dimes. Businessmen offered themselves to work in other stores from 1 to 5 p.m. A percentage of their sales went to the polo fund. Other "slaves" included a hardware store owner acting as a judge and a pastor as the sheriff.

"Slaves" who didn't show up were captured by a "posse" and led by "Sheriff" Grashme Smith who normally is pastor of the Vista Community Church.

They were taken before "Judge" Frank Jones, a hardware store owner, who fined the violators a total of $100. Attorneys donated their time to plead their clients' cases — but needless to say the prosecution won all of them.

Leon Bone, Vista's regular judge in justice court, meanwhile was working behind a counter in a coffee shop.

Other businessmen and civic leaders helped shine shoes and collect newspaper subscriptions, with part of the money going to the March of Dimes. Others carried out packages from food markets and waited on tables at various cafes.

Seats Of Cowmen Bigger Now, Too

DENVER (AP) — It isn't only in their feet that cowmen are bigger than they used to be. They're bigger all over.

A Denver buyer of Western clothes, noting a boot salesman's observation that the famous Western boot is several sizes larger than it was in bygone years, said today the same holds true for clothing.

Take pants, for instance. "The average rancher doesn't ride a horse as much as he used to," the buyer said. "He uses a truck or a jeep for a lot of his work. Result: his hips and waistline are expanding. Pants sizes now run 34 to 36."

It's different with the rodeo cowboys, who do a lot of the stiffest kind of riding. They keep their weight down, so their trouser sizes run mostly 30 to 32.

The rodeo hand's favorite hat now is a "dogger style" number with a four-inch brim.

Schools Start 2nd Semester

Big Spring schools were swinging into second semester stride Wednesday as pupils braced themselves for the bad or good news—first semester report cards.

The reports were to go out to parents Wednesday. Meanwhile, at the high school, permanent grade cards were being filed.

Beginning of a new semester was signal for another jump in elementary enrollments. High school was holding its own and there were slight gains at junior high with promise of more.

Dean Bennett, supervisor of elementary education, said that another 19 youngsters had been received at various schools this week. That, with 83 the first week after Christmas holidays, accounted for 102 more membership. The figure is now 2,884 in the elementary schools as compared with 2,782 before the holidays. High school, according to Mayron Shields, assistant principal, had a net gain of one. The figures now are 249 sophomores, 208 juniors and 184 seniors, a total of 622. There have been 11 entries since the holidays but six graduated, three moved and two married. Junior high had a net gain of four for a membership of 925. Total membership was 4,411.

There were no curriculum changes of consequence, only those on the calendar. At senior high, said Roy Worley, principal, commercial geography, a half credit course, became a commercial arithmetic at mid-term. In junior high, drivers education becomes occupational guidance, while for those who took occupational guidance the first half it will become drivers education.

Petroleum Building Is Gaining More Occupants Steadily

The Petroleum Building, which contributed liberally to the tenants in the Permian Building when it opened in November, is steadily filling again.

Jess T. Thornton, Petroleum Building manager, said one of the immediate effects of the transfer of tenants was that two long-time occupants took more space. This was the case with Dr. Dick Lane who doubled his, Sinclair added another suite to his district offices.

Within the past month Amicable Life, with T. A. Thigpen as representative, opened offices in the Petroleum Building as did General Adjustment Bureau and the R. D. Butler Claims Service. General Adjustment operates out of the district point in Midland and Baton is a branch of the independent West Texas claims service headquartered in Abilene.

Thornton also opened his offices in the building. Contacts are underway with two other concerns at the present time. In addition, the State of Texas has indicated it wants to increase space of the comptroller's office.

The Best Barrow

Emmet Matlock, a student in the Westbrook High School and a member of that Future Farmers of America Chapter, exhibited the best fat barrow in the Westbrook show Monday afternoon, in the judgment of Judge Ed Schneider, vocational agriculture instructor at Roscoe. The barrow was fed out under the supervision of John P. Hines, vocational ag teacher at Westbrook.

Men Jailed In 'Frisco Abduction Split Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two one-time private detectives jailed as abductors in the "Case of the Kidnaped Twin" split up today—police said one confessed and blamed the other, who denied some of the story but essentially wouldn't talk. The victim, short, round-faced Leonard Moskowitz, 36, was rescued unharmed and smiling yesterday morning after 2 1/2 days of captivity. No ransom was paid despite demands of first $500,000 and then $300,000.

Under California's "Little Lindbergh Law" kidnaping with bodily harm carries a maximum penalty of death and a minimum of life without parole. Kidnaping without harm carries a penalty of life with the possibility of parole. Moskowitz said he was not injured, but Dist. Atty. Thomas Lynch told newsmen the interpretation of bodily harm is up to a jury, which could decide that cruel bonds or the like could mean injury. Moskowitz was bound and shackled during most of his imprisonment.

The two men arrested were seized separately. The first Joseph William Lear, 43, of Sacramento, Calif., was caught in a telephone booth making a ransom call to the victim's identical twin and constant companion Alfred.

Police said Lear broke down and led them to a rented house, where a stocking-foot raiding party broke in, rescued Moskowitz and arrested 57-year-old Harold Jackson of Sacramento as he stood in his shorts. Jackson was shivering with fright, said Inspector Al Neider, who nailed him.

Police said Lear, a soft-faced and fearful hearing aid salesman, made a complete confession after he and Jackson had been booked on suspicion of kidnaping.

Chief Homicide Inspector Frank Ahern said Lear blamed the whole plot on Jackson. He said Lear related: Lear had believed he was working with Jackson on a detective case until Moskowitz was bundled into a house rented by Jackson and threatened with death unless Moskowitz' family paid $500,000 ransom.

Lear followed Jackson's lead from fear. Moskowitz himself said Lear kept muttering "Didn't know it was to be this kind of a job or I wouldn't have gone into it." "Jackson seemed to be the leader," Moskowitz said.

Protestants Join Attack On Hughes' 'French Line' Film

NEW YORK (AP)—A powerful Protestant church group has joined the attack on Howard Hughes' movie "The French Line."

The Christian Herald magazine and the Protestant Motion Picture Council's National Reviewing Group said yesterday in a joint statement that the movie is "an offense to all decent people both on the grounds of morals and plain good taste."

The council says it speaks for 48 million American Protestants. The Roman Catholic National Legion of Decency on Monday put the film in its "condemned" classification.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the magazine, said both the publication and the council oppose any relaxing of the present motion picture code. Dr. Poling added: "We need to most of the churchmen of my faith, the case of 'The French Line' is indication enough that the code does not need any revising downward but rather a more rigid application of the industry's self-censoring determination."

Two Boys Arrested After 3-Alarm Fire

BALTIMORE (AP)—A 10-year-old boy, said to be a former inmate of the Maryland Reformatory, and an 8-year-old companion were arrested by police yesterday after a three-alarm fire broke out in a group of abandoned houses. The boys were seen running from the scene prior to the discovery of yesterday's blaze.

Aircraft Carrier's Claimed Designer Dies After Illness

DRYMEN, Scotland (AP)—The sixth Duke of Montrose, who claimed to have invented and designed HMS Argus, the world's first aircraft carrier, died today after a week's illness. He was 75. He served with the army in the Boer War and with the navy in World War I.

Concerning the Argus, he told the House of Lords many years later: "It was a seagoing ship and carried 20 to 30 planes."

"I completed my plans and laid them before the admiralty in 1912, two years before the war was declared. But the war had been going on 2 1/2 years before my firm was instructed to carry on and build aircraft carriers."

"HMS Argus was finished too late to take part in that war, but she performed just on to 30 years service in the navy."

Flynn Contempt Case Hearing Called Off

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A contempt hearing set for Friday on the support payments Nora Eddington Flynn says actor Errol Flynn owes her is to be called off.

Nora's lawyer, S. S. Hahn, said he has received assurance from Flynn's New York attorney, Samuel Peller, that the actor, now in Europe, will pay the $7,300 due. The money was to pay $550 a month for support of his two daughters by Nora, who says she has received only $400 in the last 14 months.

Great Books Group To Begin At HCJC

A series of fast-paced discussions on the classics of literature is in prospect for those who register for a Great Books discussion group to begin at Howard County Junior College Feb. 5, according to Bill Thompson, HCJC instructor.

Registration will be Feb. 4 and 5 at HCJC. The group is expected to start meeting on Feb. 5, with the time to be determined by the applicants who enroll.

Many thousands of adults have found that learning to think for themselves by studying Great Books can be fun as well as stimulating, Thompson points out. Ever since 1947, when the Great Books Foundation was incorporated in Chicago as a non-profit organization, groups of 20 to 30 people from coast to coast have been meeting to discuss books by such authors as Plato, Shakespeare and Jonathan Swift, books old as the Bible and new as Freud.

They have found that the books deal with basic problems as current and important today as when they were written: the problems of justice, happiness, immortality, government, and the nature of man, Thompson says.

The regular reading assignments give participants an opportunity to read the classics, then exchange ideas with fellow-citizens at the Great Books round-table.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

Waiting for a cab the other afternoon, I watched a ragged old man with straggly hair and beard feeding a flock of Central Park pigeons from a paper bag and talking to them as if he and they were old friends.

The doorman followed my gaze, tapped his forehead and remarked as I climbed into my taxicab, "That's a character. He comes around every day."

Later, a young friend was telling me about an amusing chap she'd met. "He's a character," she remarked and related an adventure he had participated in that she seemed to consider very wacky.

I got to thinking about the word character and decided it must have changed its meaning in the past two decades, although to me it hasn't. My idea of a character is still an unforgettable man or woman who at some time in my life has awed me or fired my imagination. Probably my first character in this sense was William Fitzhugh Buckner who lived to be 101 and was very old when I used to watch him go past our house on his way to the bank of which he was president.

My great ambition was to be a writer even then and I thought it would be a wonderful story if only I could get this smiling patriarch to talk about the Mexican War and the time he went by ox-cart to California for the gold rush, then finding a herd of 400 cattle back to California in the days when Salt Lake City was almost the only town between Missouri and the gold fields.

Then there was Temple Robinson of whom my grandfather often told me stories, explaining that he was an abolitionist during the Civil War when all his friends and relatives were slave owners. He must have had very advanced ideas indeed for that time and place for he walked all the way from Paris, Mo., to Concord, Mass., to be with Emerson, Thoreau and other members of the famous Concord school of philosophy.

Some of the children were scared of Mr. Temple, as we called him, for he wore a long, old-fashioned tailcoat and often carried an ax with him as he wandered about the countryside cutting down dead trees. My grandfather said he was walking off terrible fits of temper which beset him. I was never afraid of him and I longed to have him talk to me about Louisa May Alcott, author of my favorite "Little Women," whom he had actually known well.

Henry Sladek was another whose story fascinated me. He was born in Bohemia and came to America because he joined in an uprising against Germany and there was a price on his head. Like Mr. Temple Robinson he was a great walker—there was no hitchhiking then and he walked every step of the 800 miles from his home to Bremen where he took ship to freedom and America. German police followed him on board but he hid behind two countrywomen in immense crinolines. He ran a bake shop in our town and on occasion played his old violin which had been in his family for hundreds of years and was said to be worth thousands of dollars.

Characters—I wish the fine old word would recapture its original meaning. But then again, maybe we've run out of the right kind of characters to pin the name on.

HC Jayhawks Outlast AJC In Zone Thriller, 72-70

Knotts Paces Local Attack

In a thriller typical of the long and honored HCJC-Amarillo College series, the resident Jayhawks hung on to rack up a 72-70 verdict and gain their first West Zone basketball triumph here Tuesday night.

The Big Springers led most of the way, save for a short stretch in the second period, but the enraged Badgers never let up.

Less than 30 seconds before the end, the visitors pulled to within one point of the Hawks. Don Stevens was fouled in the closing seconds and sank a gratis offering that gave the Hawks their final margin.

Strangely enough, the shorter Hawks came down with most of the rebounds, 47-37. Of the HC total, Tommy Patterson and Paschall Wickard accounted for 20 between them.

Each team hit 43 per cent of their shots, but the Hawks got more opportunities, making good on 29 of 67 while the best the Badgers could do was 25 of 57.

Tall Tom Boyd, who led the visitors in scoring with 24 points, connected eight times in 20 tries from the field but could hit the target only six times in 13 attempts from the penalty line.

HCJC had three players who hit 50 per cent or more of their shots. P. D. Fletcher took only four shots but connected on three of them. Patterson wound up with 64 per cent, connecting on five of eight.

Sensational Jim Knotts, a great ball player all the way for HCJC, tried 23 shots and hit 11 times for an even 50 per cent. He was high scorer with 25 points and it was his sneaky crips right down the middle late in the game that told the story.

Calvert Shortes hit a couple of very important shots late in the game that kept the Hawks out from.

Amarillo led by a score of 23-17 early in the second period but HCJC enjoyed a four-point lead when the half ended.

With seven minutes left in the game, the Hawks led, 60-55 but Patterson, who did a grand job of guarding Boyd, fouled out.

In less than 45 seconds, the visitors had pulled to within two points of the Big Springers. Knott vice hit two-pointers to enable the locals to pull farther out in front, however.

With 3 1/2 minutes to go, Arien White went to the penalty box for HC and the Hawks lost more of their height advantage.

After Boyd had connected with two more gratis offerings and Cecil Holloway followed with a field goal, Fletcher connected from the field and made good on a free toss to complete Hawk scoring for the night, save for Steven's final free pitch, which came in the last two seconds of play.

Amarillo stole the ball to set up its final two points.

The Hawks now have a 1-1 record in Zone play. Amarillo is winless in two starts.

Jayhawks return action Thursday night, meeting San Angelo here. The game was originally scheduled for Friday night, but was moved up at the suggestion of Phil George, San Angelo mentor.

'Ouch, His Big Bat Clipped Me'

Jerry Brooks Paces Steers To 58-45 Win Over Vernon

Held to one field goal in the final period, which came in the final ten seconds of the round, the Steers began to open up in the second period and trailed by only five points at the rest period.

Jerry Brooks, the fastest man on the court, led a third period surge that put Big Spring ahead to stay. In all, Jerry scored 15 points, tops in the game.

Wiley Brown's ability to control the backboards also played a big role in swinging the issue Big Spring's way.

Gene Miller paced Vernon with 15 points. Charles Clark collected 11 points for Big Spring.

Vernon won the B game 48-40. Tommy Smith's 22 points paved the way for the Lions' win in that game.

Futurity Purse May Be $8,000

RUIDOSO, N. M. (SC) — Nominations for the 1954 Quarterhorse Futurity at Ruidoso Downs close Feb. 1.

Trials for the Futurity will be run on June 12, opening day at Ruidoso Downs. The trials and Futurity are to be run at 440 yards and the purse is due to exceed $8,000.

Forty-six colts were nominated in the two-year-old event last year.

Happy Lowers The Boom On Moguls

CHICAGO (AP)—Major league club owners were accused by former baseball commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler yesterday of doing "a horrible thing to the players" in the recent dispute over the pension fund.

Chandler said that the All-Star Game television deal which he engineered while commissioner provided for one million dollars annually for six years.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

When Oth and Dee Miller quit the Frank Phillips JC basketball team recently, they didn't say it was forever.

They were back in uniform when the Plainsmen knocked over Amarillo recently and will probably be in there when the Berger team squares off against the Jayhawks here next Monday night.

Big Spring's Bobby Jack Gross, who is due to be the best weight tosser in Southwest Conference track and field circles this spring, will get his fill of action before June comes on.

The Aggies start their campaigning as early as March 13 (at Laredo) and will be busy well into May.

Perhaps the high spot on the Aggies' schedule this year will be a quad-rannual meet with Southern Cal, Texas and SMU at Dallas on May 1.

USC usually fields the best track team in the country.

Monahans, which dickered with Big Spring for a 1954 football date for a long time, has completed its schedule.

The AA Lobos will play non-conference games with Wink, Andrews, Kermit, Colorado City, Hobbs, N. M., Seminole and El Paso Jefferson. Monahans is in a four-team conference (7-A).

Bill McGowan, the veteran umpire, said: "Maury McDermott (recently traded by the Boston Red Sox to Washington), can be the greatest pitcher in baseball. All he has to do is settle down and take the game serious. He is only a shade less than the man I consider the hardest left-handed thrower I ever saw—Lefty Grove."

Here's a story on Jack Dempsey you might appreciate: One time, while in his prime, Jack headed into Chicago for an exhibition.

The program was running late and Jack's train east was about to leave. When he came out for the third round, he touched gloves with his opponent as if it were the last round.

"What the blankety blank!" piped up his foe, "this ain't the last round."

"It is for you, brother," replied Dempsey, and let him have it. He caught his train.

Rudy Briner, who formerly bossed the San Angelo entry in the Longhorn League and before that was a catcher for Artesia, is supposed to be in line for the managerial post of the Midland Indians.

He would succeed Jay Haney, who has gone to Abilene.

Don Mouser recently signed a new three-year contract as head football coach at Plainview High School.

His Bulldogs are due to be loaded this fall.

Plainview Bulldogs Gain Sole Possession Of Lead

SWEETWATER (SC) — The Plainview Bulldogs gained exclusive possession of first place in District 1-AAA basketball standings by drubbing the Sweetwater Mustangs, 54-38, here Tuesday night.

Both teams entered the contest undefeated. The win was the fourth straight for Plainview. Sweetwater now has a 3-1 won-lost record.

The Mustangs grabbed an early lead but the Bulldogs enjoyed a 19-point second period and led, 26-19, at the intermission.

Lineups, listed with points each player scored: PLAINVIEW — Webb (10-2), Stapleton (10-2), Bryant (2-0-4), North (2-5-9), Tilson (6-3-15), Newton (5-2-12), Jordan (4-2-10). SWEETWATER — Shackelford (2-3-7), McKeethan (4-7-15), Cain (1-1-3), Montgomery (3-1-7), Green (2-3-6).

Feb. 15—At Odessa. March 8 — Odessa in Big Spring. March 10 — At Midland. March 18 — Midland at Big Spring. March 22 — At Lamesa. April 2—Lamesa at Big Spring. The champion will be decided in the double round-robin schedule rather than in a tournament this year. In case two teams tie for first place they will meet in a three-game series to decide the titlist, one on each home court and the other at a neutral site.

Lubbock was not represented and will not compete this season. Miss Phillips was named president of the district committee while Miss Smith will serve as secretary. Rules and regulations pertaining to district play were worked out. Big Spring's Schedule: TOURNEY BEGINS ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—The annual Florida Winter Golf Tournament started here today over the Ponce de Leon Golf Club course with a qualifying round of 18 holes medal play.

Hall Of Fame May Get Five New Members

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's Hall of Fame, now numbering 70 members, is expected to be increased by two and perhaps as many as five today when the ballots are counted in the 14th annual election.

The ballots, cast by some 300 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America, have been under lock and key in Commissioner Ford Frick's office. So there is no indication of how many will be honored.

But on the basis of last year's election, at least five figure to have a chance to have their names engraved on a plaque which will hang in the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. Rules of the election require that a player's name be on 75 per cent of the ballots.

And under a new rule, in effect for the first time this year, a player must have been out of organized ball at least five years. The only exception is those who received more than 100 votes last year when Dizzy Dean and Al Simmons were named. Joe DiMaggio, the New York Yankee, and Ted Lyons, ex-Chicago White Sox pitcher and manager and recently signed as Brooklyn coach.

Walter (Rabbit) Maranzino, the great little shortstop who died recently, appears to be the outstanding candidate. Last year he received 174 votes, 24 short of election. Maranzino, sparkling of 1914 Boston Braves world championship team, had been away from organized ball for more than a decade.

Bill Terry, one of the all-time New York Giant greats and former manager also is considered a strong candidate. Terry, engaged in private business in Florida, polled 191 votes a year ago, when Dean was elected with 209 and Simmons with 199.

George Favors Senate Vote On Bricker Proposal

WASHINGTON (U) — Sen. George (D-Ga) urged Republicans today to take to a Senate vote their differences over a proposed constitutional amendment on treaty powers. But Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader, said he hasn't given up hope of a compromise.

George taking a leading role for the Democrats in the treaty controversy, said he regards as "a fair proposition" an offer by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) to submit to a rollcall test a section of a proposed constitutional amendment criticized by President Eisenhower.

Eisenhower said he would never agree to giving the states power to nullify within their own borders the operations of treaties.

Bricker has said that what he is trying to do is to make sure that treaties don't take away the rights of the states to establish the qualifications of voters and to exercise other powers reserved to them in the Constitution. Lawyers disagree as to whether this is a real danger. George said the quick and simple way to end the argument is to put it up to the Senate.

"I think I might vote to eliminate it, although I don't consider it as significant nor as harmful as some others seem to think it is."

George predicted that on a test, a majority of the Senate would vote to strip out the disputed clause and thus make the proposed treaty power amendment more palatable to Eisenhower. Democratic votes are likely to decide the question.

New Wing Executive Officer At Webb AFB Is Colonel Freeman

Col. Fred Dean, Webb AFB commander, announced today that Col. Cleon E. Freeman, a native of St. Louis who has recently returned to the United States from Japan, has assumed the post of Wing Executive Officer at Webb.

The important Webb post had been vacant since the departure in December of Col. Henry S. Tyler Jr. who left Webb to command the 4th Fighter-Interceptor Sabrejet Group in Korea.

Col. Freeman was born during the same year and the same month—December 1903—in which the Wright Brothers made the first powered flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C. In another historic aviation year, 1927, the young colonel-to-be entered as a buck private the same Missouri Air National Guard Squadron in which another youngster, soon to be famous, was training to make the first solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean. That youngster was Charles A. Lindbergh, with whom Col. Freeman later became acquainted.

Today Col. Freeman, who began at the level of apprentice aircraft mechanic, holds ratings as a senior pilot, a senior aircraft observer, and a combat observer.

Freeman began his long experience as a pilot by learning to fly at his own expense. He first soloed an airplane at St. Louis in 1927 and passed a flight check for his private pilot's license with only 11 hours total flying time. He added to his flying experience by instructing other student pilots.

By 1932, Freeman had risen in the Air National Guard to the rank of second lieutenant, and two years later he was rated an aircraft observer.

When Nazi armored columns began their march outside Germany's pre-war frontiers in 1938, Freeman had become a first lieutenant and had increased his flying experience to more than 600 hours—at his own expense. He decided to apply for a military "airplane pilot" rating. Sent to Scott Air Force Base, now headquarters of the Air Training Command, Lt. Freeman received his pilot's flight check with Capt. Arthur Thomas, who recently retired from the Air Force as a major general.

Mobilized for the national emergency in December 1940, Freeman spent a year with his National Guard unit at Little Rock, Ark., where he served as squadron operations officer. Five days before Pearl Harbor, he became squadron commander.

The war soon took Freeman to England, where he worked with the operations division of the 8th Air Support Command. Later, when the 8th was absorbed into the 9th Air Force, he aided its planning staff and the First Army planning staff in the preparation for the invasion of Normandy. After the invasion of Europe, Freeman's Air Force-Army liaison work led him to 66 flights across the English Channel, in addition to two more crossings by ship.

For his services, Colonel Freeman has been awarded the Bronze Star, the Air Medal, the Commendation Ribbon, and both the French and the Belgian Croix de Guerre with palm.

Following World War II, Col. Freeman has held assignments as deputy commander and executive officer at Mitchell AFB, Long Island, and later as vice commander of the First Air Force at the same base. His latest assignment was that of director of organization and manpower for the Far East Air Forces, covering Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Guam, and The Philippines.

Col. Freeman and his wife, Gertrude, who is also native to St. Louis, will live in Big Spring.

Flower Grove FFA Youths To Have Entries In Show

FLOWER GROVE (SC) — Several members of the Flower Grove High School chapter of the Future Farmers of America will have entries in the annual Martin County Junior Livestock Show and Sale at Stanton Thursday and Friday, says Robert Becker, vocational agriculture instructor.

Becker lists these boys as Vernon Holcomb, who will have three lambs and two pens of five broilers each; Curtis Miller with two pens of five broilers; Jerry Cave with a fat barrow and a pen of five capons and two pens of five broilers; Don Cave with a pen of five capons and a fat barrow; Donald Bloodworth with two pens of five broilers; Derrill Froman with a fat barrow; Wayne Anderson with a fat barrow and a fat gilt; J. P. Cave with two fat barrows, and Travis Lillard with a fat barrow.

Mike Hale and Tommy Carstensen will show two fat barrows owned by the FFA Chapter, Becker said.

Under the rules of the show each exhibitor may sell only two lambs and two hogs. Going through the auction will be only the top 20 capons in the single class and the top five in the trio class. Only the top 25 groups of broilers will be sold.

The capons, broilers and sheep will be judged Thursday afternoon; the swine at 9 a.m. Friday and the steers at 12:30 p.m. There will not be any steers offered for sale, according to the county agent and vocational agriculture instructors.

The sale will be held in the Martin County Show Barn, a few blocks east of the Courthouse in Stanton at 2 p.m. Friday. Active management of the show and sale will be in the hands of members of the Martin County 4-H Club and members of the FFA chapters at Flower Grove, Courtney and Stanton, under the supervision of County Agent Ray Hastings and the following vocational agriculture instructors, Elbert Steele of Stanton, Kenneth Niles of Courtney and Becker.

The steers and swine will be judged by L. M. Hargrave, associate professor of animal husbandry at Texas Tech; the poultry by Marvin Webber, a poultry specialist.

Shrieks Too Much For Driver Of Bus

TOLEDO, Ohio (U) — Every time the bus skidded, the woman passenger let out a little shriek. Even when it just looked like it might skid, she hollered.

It was the kind of thing that would bother a man, much less a woman. And a woman, Mrs. Emily Jefferson, was the driver.

Finally she couldn't take it any longer. She pulled the bus to the curb, climbed out and announced: "You make me nervous, I quit."

The bus company said it understood and she could have her job back. "She was just nervous and upset and didn't want to run any risk," a spokesman explained.

from Abilene, and the lambs by Dub Day, county agent at Rankin. Lunches and hot coffee will be served all day both Thursday and Friday, by members of the County Home Demonstration Club, it has been announced by Mrs. Mildred Elland, home demonstration agent.
