Beef Company Denies Charges

The United States Department of Agriculture's claim that Missouri Beef Packers, Inc., made illegal brokerage payments to a Kansas firm is "completely unfounded," according to David J. La Fleur, president of Missouri Beef Packers, Inc.

IN A PRESS release issued by Missouri Beef Friday, La Fleur stated the claim against Missouri Beef Packers for its brokerage payments to Midwest Selection Service of Topeka is only an "administrative complaint" by the USDA.

La Fleur said the complaint did not "involve charges of making discriminatory advertising allowances or commercial bribery as previously announced by the news media."

"It is common place and customary in our industry," La Fleur stated, "to use a brokerage firm for the sale of products, and all such transactions with Midwest Selection Service were arms-length transactions in which they were dealt with just as all other brokers through which we sell."

LABELING the USDA's allegations of illegal brokerage payments as "without merit," La Fleur stated Missouri Beef would pursue proper legal actions against the allegations and would be "completely exonerated."

noted the 10 retiring employees' combined length of service in public education totalled 232 years, and 161 years had been spent with the Hereford school system.

Hartman paid special tribute to D.C. Martin, retiring from 25.5 years as a principal for Central and Aikman Elementary Schools and one-half year as a teacher in Hereford High School. Calling Martin "one of the finest educators he had ever known," Hartman added, "He has become a legend in his own time."

During the luncheon, part of an all-day in-service session for the purpose of wrapping up school matters before summer vacation, Hartman said the new elementary building now under construction would not be ready for use until August 1975.

HARTMAN also invited employees to suggest in writing what should be done with the old Central school now out of use.

Youth Program Begins Friday

Taking their pick of activities ranging from beadwork to bicycle rodeo, Hereford youths may register Friday for the new Summer Youth Program.

Hours for the sign-up at Community Center are 10 a.m. to 12 noon Friday. The program, planned to meet requests made by young residents in a recent survey, is sponsored by the youth committee of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division and will be based at Community Center.

GAMES for outdoors and indoors, country and western dancing, arts and crafts, one-act plays, a pet show and the bicycle rodeo are activities from which the signers may choose. All are offered without charge.

In addition, classes in self improvement and in yoga are planned for nominal fees, to be held in locations other than Community Center.

Youngsters of elementary school age as well as the older ones are included, and those in high school are invited to volunteer to assist in directing activities for junior high and elementary pupils. Adult volunteers are also involved as instructors and directors.

MRS. J.W. ROBINSON is chairman of the Women's Division committee which has Mmes. Jim Conkright, Neal Lomenick, Clarence Veazey, Charles Hoover, Andy Shuval, Tom Draper, Pete Caviness and Eugene Hendon as members and Mrs. O.G. Nieman, division president, as ex officio member.

They are working with Bunny Watts, Community Center director, and the Youth Council at the Center in making arrangements for this new program for local young people.

A survey made in schools last month gave pupils of different ages the opportunity to express their views on a summer program and their wishes for activities which might be included.

President Said Determined To Stay On; In Good Spirits

By Edward H. Sims

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- As the House Judiciary Committee began its historic hearings to determine whether to vote impeachment of the President, the press and many politicians suggested the President resign. The White House remained calm, however; Mr. Nixon stood firm in his decision to fight for his job, the opportunity to finish programs he had undertaken in 1969.

The White House staff admitted criticism of Mr. Nixon's transcript conversations, from members of Congress and formerly friendly newspapers, hurt. But they also said some of this had been expected, since there's rough talk and political reality aplenty in the transcripts -- enough to offend the sensibilities of many, to undercut some who have been defending the President.

But there was no panic at the White House. There were still smiles. Staffers admitted events moved at a hectic pace after release of the transcripts. But it was felt they had to be released.

One might describe the current mood at the White House as one of determination. On one secretary's desk is a sticker which reads: "Support the President." When asked what she thought of the President's most recent television speech another shot back: "Great!"

When this writer asked Ron Zeigler whether the President might resign, Zeigler fired back: "Never. Not a chance."

Zeigler feels the majority of Americans will forgive the President for his mistakes, for Watergate, in view of his overall record of accomplishment.

As the House Judiciary Committee show goes on, there are some in the White House, reportedly, who have doubts whether the President can stand up under the enormous pressure and criticism. The writer found none; Zeigler, in fact, says Mr. Nixon is in good spirits, up to the fight and feels sure he can win in the final test in the Senate -- if it comes to that.

NIXON'S LAWYER
The House Judiciary Committee has granted President Nixon's lawyer broad privileges to participate in its impeachment proceedings.

Policies Explained For Social Security

[Have you a question about social security? Address it to Travis C. Briggs, District Manager, Social Security Administration, 317 East Third Street, Amarillo, Texas 79101. You will receive an answer in this column or by mail.]

By TRAVIS C. BRIGGS

Q. I injured my leg three months ago. I applied for disability under Social Security, but was denied. My doctor says I should be able to return to work in another six months. Could I receive Supplemental Security Income until I am able to return to work?

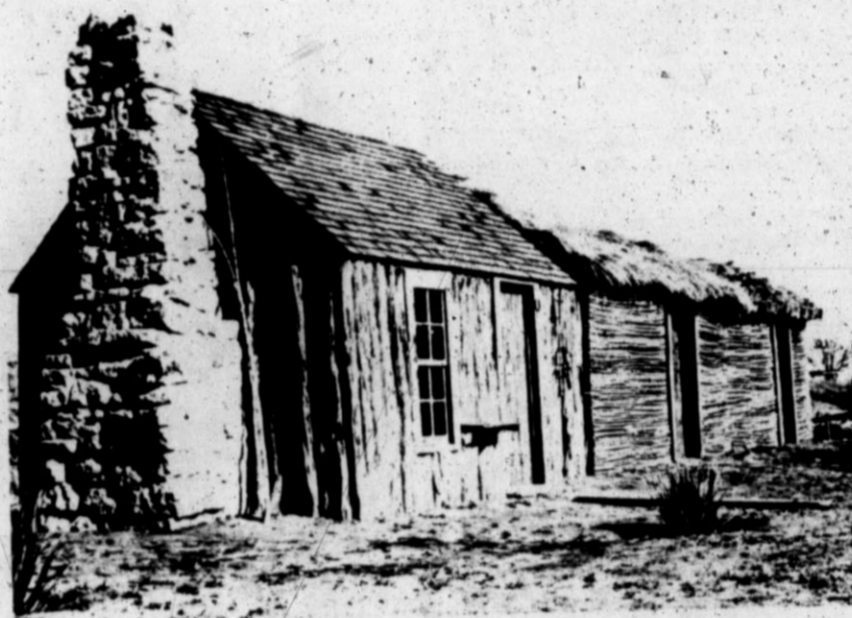

A. Based on information you have given, your disability will last only nine months. In order to qualify for disability payments under the Supplemental Security Income program, your disability must be expected to last at least twelve months, therefore you would not be eligible.

Q. I applied for disability under the Social Security program and was denied because I did not meet the earning requirements, even though I had worked many years in covered employment. Now I have applied for Supplemental Security Income payments and have been denied because of excess resources. What do I have to do to get benefits on the money I have paid into the system?

A. Social Security benefits are payable based on the amount of money you have paid into the system, whereas Supplemental Income payments come from a general trust fund and are payable based on need, not how much you have paid into the Social Security Trust Fund.

Q. What is the age range for an individual to qualify for Supplemental Security Income disability or blind payments?

A. Anyone under age 65 may qualify for disability/blind benefits under the Supplemental Security Income if they meet the other requirements.

PICKET AND SOTO HOUSE

New house dedicated at Ranch Headquarters

There was a gathering of West Texans at the Ranch Headquarters in Lubbock recently, and the occasion was the dedication of a unique Picket and Soto House built originally by a pioneer couple in 1904 when they moved to Crockett County.

John Ben Shepperd, past president and now a director of the Texas State Historical Commission, participated, and he emphasized for the crowd the importance of historical preservation in Texas, not only for its entertainment value but for its educational contribution to this and future generations.

Claude Denham, a former school superintendent at Ozona and now a member of the Ranch Headquarters Board of Overseers, recounted the history of the little house, built mostly of what pioneers could find at hand in the dry, western counties of the state.

D. B. and Trudy Kilpatrick, he said, moved from Val Verde County, below Del

Rio, to Crockett County in 1904. They came in a covered wagon, driving a small herd of livestock with them.

In Crockett County they located in a tributary of Howard's Draw where they found an ample supply of cedar posts or pickets and a good supply of Soto, a variety of Yucca. They used these materials for the walls of their house and Sacahuiste grass to thatch the roof. They stayed a year in this primitive structure and then sold their holdings to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Mills for $1,500.

The Mills added a picket room in 1905, and a fireplace of native field stone was a part of the new room. The new room even had a floor.

As it was when the Mills sold the improvements to S. S. Millpaugh the house now stands at the Ranch Headquarters, a unique reminder of the ingenuity of pioneer ranchers who used what they could find to build shelter as their business efforts built the West.

Mites Threaten Wheat, Barley

Sorghum and corn producers should be aware of infestation by the Banks grass mites which have appeared in heavy population earlier than usual. Most infested fields have been found near small grains such as wheat and barley, according to County Extension Agent, Justin T. McBride. The major geographical area involved has been around Hereford, Dimmitt, Friona, Bovina and Farwell, with some reports being received from other areas.

The Banks grass mites prefer hot, dry weather and have rapidly increased on area small grain fields where overwintering occurred. Heavy population apparently survived the milk, dry winter and are being carried by the strong winds into adjoining fields of corn, grain sorghum and alfalfa.

In some instances, sufficient numbers of mites are present to severely damage or kill seedling plants, reported McBride. Attempt has been made with several different chemicals to bring this damaging population under control. Various results have occurred. The constant reinfestation pressure has caused population to bounce back almost immediately.

Best results have been observed when the fields have been kept wet. Several factors make control extremely difficult. The small plant, affected material surface area to treat, hot, dry weather has prevailed and possibility of resistance to chemicals is ever present.

Producers are urged to carefully observe their fields to determine the degree of infestation. If damaging population exists, ground equipment for direct spray and 25-30 gallons of water/acre should be given for best results. If aerial application is used, apply as much water as possible. It may only be necessary to treat rows adjoining the small grain fields to obtain maximum results. Frequent irrigation may decrease the damage to the plants.

Care should be exercised in what materials are used to treat the infested areas. Although varied results have been obtained, with several different labeled materials, producers should not permit unlabeled compounds or mixes to be applied. The applying of unlabeled material could result in eventual condemning of the crops. No effective, long-lasting chemical control has been observed.

Labeled materials which have been used with varying success include:

Corn — Thimet, DiSyston and Meta Systox R;
Grain Sorghum — Cygon DiSyston, Systox, Thimet and Diazinon.

Please refer to the material label or contact your County Extension Agent for additional information.

H³ HUSTLE HUSTLE HUSTLE
By Bill Albright, Executive Vice President
Deaf Smith County Chamber Of Commerce

I think this is a good time to recognize the work that's been done by Jim Conkright's Special Action Council for Civic Facilities. That's a high sounding title for a fine group of folks who are working to get a "YMCA Type" facility for our community.

As many of you know, a survey was conducted last February and the results of the questionnaires showed that the overwhelming majority of people and groups responding, felt a strong need for such an addition. Those responding represented three categories—first, the heads of organizations who were registering their groups feelings; second, organizations whose members responded individually; and third, the general public who responded individually.

Among all three groups the specific features consistently recommended to be included were: indoor swimming pool, gym, handball courts, card rooms, game rooms and craft rooms. Most folks felt that admission should be on a membership basis.

The majority of all three groups felt that the project should be accomplished within one year using existing facilities insofar as possible. Also municipal bonds received the most favor as the method of financing.

Armed with this information, Jim's council visited with some other folks in the community to discuss feasibility. They inspected some existing facilities, and recommended that Central School be seriously considered as a candidate to meet many of the conditions set forth in the survey. Action on this recommendation is pending at this time.

I believe it's most important to note that the council is working to satisfy what appears to be a very real need for our community. Such a facility should be available for all age groups and should provide activities for almost everyone.

What is required now is a pulling together of all the various factions and groups of our community to accomplish a worth while project.

Of course it will take much planning, cooperation, time, money and most of all, lots of Hustle, Hustle, Hustle.

JANICE GALLEY

Teacher Ready For Africa Trip

By Kerrie Womble
Brand Staff Writer

As every old movie buff will testify, a missionary is frequently pictured as a talented, attractive socialite (resembling Susan Hayward), who sacrifices a promising career for a martyr-type burial in some primitive corner of the world.

However, according to Janice Galley, 22-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Watson of Dawn, being a missionary in 1974 means involvement in exciting work in bright, modern surroundings.

Miss Galley, school teacher at Alkman Elementary, will be boarding a jet bound for Tanzania in East Africa Thursday for two months of missionary work for the Assembly of God Church.

"I GUESS the idea of becoming a missionary has always been in the back of my mind because I grew up in a church which is very missionary-minded," Miss Galley said. "But the idea really didn't develop until I heard about the National Mobilization and Placement Service. The service directs the efforts of volunteers in about 88 countries around the world under the Assembly of God doctrine.

"I will be assisting an old friend, Sally Goodwin (also of Hereford), in her work at the seminary school over there (in Tanzania)," Miss Galley stated. "The school teaches the Assembly of God beliefs to about 50 Tanzanians and they return to their individual communities to spread their knowledge."

She feels that her experience in the classroom and life-long church training have prepared her for foreign mission work.

"IT'S A LITTLE bit scary when you get to thinking about traveling thousands of miles away from home," she said, "but I'm really excited about going."

"I'm sure there will be lots of things that I'll have to learn, such as their monetary system. However their school is relatively modern. Africa is trying to overcome its reputation as a primitive wilderness," she stated.

"OF COURSE I expect to encounter some cultural and language differences, so I'm sure I can learn as much from them as they can from me," Miss Galley commented. "I've never traveled abroad and I'm really looking forward to the experience."

The Latest Odds

The latest Lou Harris poll by Louis Harris shows President Nixon is supported by one in three Americans. Mr. Nixon's support was at a low point in early March—26 per cent of those polled—but rose to 31 per cent in April and again to 32 per cent in May, the most recent poll.

If Mr. Nixon gets one more than a third of the votes in any U.S. Senate test, he wins. If the Harris poll is accurate, the President now enjoys about that percentage of support from the general population.

But there is more to it than that—in Mr. Nixon's favor. Each of the fifty states has two Senators. Mr. Nixon can muster 34 votes in the Senate from states representing only twenty per cent of the electorate, or less. In the South, for example, where he is strongest, he will undoubtedly pick up Democratic votes.

There are currently 43 Republicans in the Senate. Most of these votes are likely to be for the President. If Mr. Nixon picks up eight to ten Democratic votes, which seems likely, he'll need only little more than half the Republican votes in the Senate. Obviously a very difficult job is facing those who would remove the President from office.

The Drag-Out
Whatever one wishes to call it, a dragging out of Watergate or a dragging of feet at the White House, it now seems evident that, partly for political purposes, the impeachment question is to be haggled over, televised and exploited by politicians for the remainder of the year, and probably into 1975.

This is evident when one views the slow pace of the House Judiciary Committee, when one contemplates the subpoena test now on its way to the Supreme Court, and considers the process the Senate must follow if impeachment is voted in the House, a time-consuming one.

In addition, many Senators aren't eager to vote on turning the President out of office immediately prior to an election, whichever way they vote, many will be alienated. For all these reasons, it appears that Mr. Nixon and the nation must endure another year of Watergate. By that time, of course, the presidential election will loom ahead the very next year.

And many insiders feel key Democrats will not wish to kick out Mr. Nixon, if they can (which remains unlikely), since to turn over the White House to Vice President Gerald Ford would be to give him a very real political advantage in the 1976 presidential election.

In this connection, it should be kept in mind that supporters of former Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York, Governor Ronald Reagan of California, and all other potential G.O.P. nominees, have a vested interest in seeing Mr. Nixon serve out his term.

If Ford replaces Mr. Nixon and elects to run in 1976, American political tradition is very strong on the point of party conventions nominating a President in office. If Nixon falls, then, both Democrats and G.O.P. aspirants concede to Gerald Ford an enormous political advantage, one which might very well elect him.

To The Graduate
June, 1974, is to be the first month of post-school life for millions of young Americans. Since they enter the stage of life at a time when there is much printed and spoken abuse of their country and its government, a word on the U.S. record is in order.

Our country's constitutional republican form of government has survived in its present form longer than any other in the world. The founding fathers of the nation, when they established the system, were ahead of their time, and they built a system flexible enough to change with changing times.

There are imperfections in the system and injustices in government and governing, but taken as a whole, the average citizen in the United States has something closer to an equal chance, economically and socially, than in any other major country. That is saying much for America, because we are a melting-pot nation of many races and religions.

We are an experimental nation in this sense. At our beginning two hundred years ago many sophisticated European scholars and philosophers predicted the idealistic principles and laws on which the new republic had been founded and would operate could not possibly survive; they felt a country composed of so many divergent nationalities and beliefs could not coalesce into a united nation.

Looking back on history, what has been the record? It is not perfect, but the people of this country have built the richest nation in the world, a nation of individual freedom for all, a nation which has never lost a war, a nation which constantly seeks to improve itself, to uplift the disadvantaged. We have a long way to go, yet, but that is not a bad start. Every newly-graduated young citizen should not casually accept these many blessings without an humble sense of thanksgiving and appreciation of the efforts and accomplishment of those who have gone before—who have done so much for all those starting out in 1974.

Safety, More Safety

THE DROP in highway fatalities which began last November when the gasoline shortage brought about less driving and reduction in speed limits has increased efforts to make our highways safer.

It is estimated that there were 3,700 fewer fatalities during the period from November through March compared to the previous year.

IN A REPORT of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, Dr. James B. Gregory, highway safety administrator said:

"I want to applaud the motoring public for their cooperation and the States for enforcing the lower speed limits. March marked the first month that all 50 states were observing a 55 m.p.h. speed limit, and the impact on highway safety is clear—more than a thousand lives saved in one month."

"I have said before that no one is happy with the problems brought about by the energy shortage, but the highway safety benefits accompanying the gasoline conservation efforts are obvious."

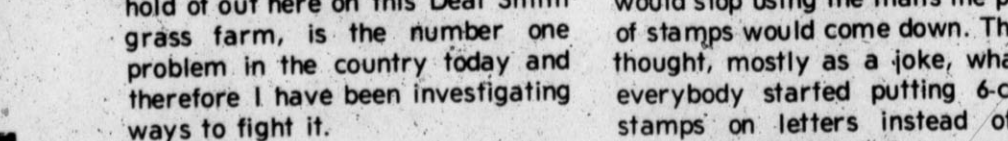

IT IS GRATIFYING to observe that the lower speed limits are being maintained. Little can be gained by erecting signs announcing "Speed Kills" and then raising the speed limits until death lurks every second you drive.

By keeping speed down and waging war on drunken driving, we can continue to reduce the traffic accident rate. It is also a welcome sign that attention is being directed to the problems that develop with the increased use of smaller cars and bicycles.

OVER 500 SAFETY EXPERTS from all over the United States and five other nations will meet in San Francisco at the Third International Congress on Automotive Safety July 15-17.

Since approximately 12,000 fatalities were the result of pedestrian and bicycle accidents last year, this phase of traffic regulation will be the target for much discussion.

THE COUNTRY'S highways were not built for race tracks. City streets should be safe for everyone to use. Let's work to keep safety uppermost in our minds while we are on the move.

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Deaf Smith grass farm on Bootleg corner tackles inflation again this week.

Dear editor:
Inflation, according to what I've been reading in the newspapers I get hold of out here on this Deaf Smith grass farm, is the number one problem in the country today and therefore I have been investigating ways to fight it.

Take the price of a cup of coffee. Years ago it was a nickel, then it went to 10 cents, then to 15, and now in some places it's 20 cents, 25 cents, and even in a few places 35 cents.

I READ about one man who, when he found out his cafe was charging 35 cents, got up and left and swore he'd fight such inflation by brewing his own from now on. He said a pound of coffee, costing about $1.25 a pound unless it goes up some tomorrow, will make 50 cups, which at 35 cents a cup means the cafe gets $17.50. He said the way to fight inflation on cafe coffee is to simply stop buying it, and eventually the price will come down.

I have been pursuing this along other lines. Take postage. Everybody knows postage has gone

Talk of Texas
BY JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — The great pine forests of East Texas, and the profitable lumber industry they support, owe their very existence to a small-town banker named W. Goodrich Jones.

Jones was an unlikely apostle of conservation. Born November 11, 1860 in New York, he attended grammar school in Germany, graduated from Princeton then came to Texas to enter business. In 1888, he became president of a new bank in Temple, Bell County.

He was concerned that Temple had almost no shade trees at that time. To correct this oversight of nature, he had trees removed from the banks of Bell County streams and transplanted along Temple streets. Soon Temple's many hackberry trees made it one of the most shaded towns in Central Texas.

Jones continued to preach the gospel of tree-planting. In 1889, he got his friend, Gov. L. Sullivan Ross, to get a bill through the Legislature establishing an official Arbor Day. Then he turned his attention to East Texas.

Lumber interests were cutting the virgin forests and refusing to replant. Tourge reforestation, Jones organized a state conservation society. In 1915, he got the Legislature to establish a Department of Forestry. He also began visiting owners of forest lands, convincing them that reforestation was the only way to insure the continuation of lumber production in Texas.

Largely as a result of his single-minded efforts, the Texas pine forests, once on the road to extinction, today are reforested, well-managed and produce more board feet of lumber than ever before.

IT'S A FACT — Houston is the spiritual headquarters for more than 50,000 members of the Greek Orthodox Church in 11 states. On December 1, 1967, the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Houston officially became the See of the Eighth Diocese of the Greek Archdiocese of North and South America. The diocese directs the spiritual life of that denomination from Wyoming to the Florida Panhandle.

Actually the Greek Orthodox Church has been established in Texas for almost 80 years. According to records at the Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio, the first Orthodox Church for Greeks only was established in Fort Worth in 1910. Today there are 11 such churches in Texas to serve the more than 10,000 Greeks who live in the state.

DID YOU KNOW — That Sam Bass, the famed bandit of the 1870's used to hide out in what now is a corner of the Southern Methodist University campus in Dallas? The Bass hiding place, a wooded area in the southwest corner of the campus, is still preserved. It is known today as Arden Forest, so named in 1916 when the school's dramatic society performed a Shakespearean play among the trees.

COLLECTOR'S NOTE — Take a second look before throwing away that strand of barbed wire. If it's what is known as the Plow Shear variety, an 18-inch "stick" is worth $1,000 to hobbyists who collect the stuff. Only two sticks are known to exist and both are owned by Art Edwards of Lewisville, Denton County.

School's Out
You know school is out when half-eaten peanut butter sandwiches appear in the most unlikely places at all hours of the day, when baseball gloves replace textbooks and cries of "What do we do NOW, Mom?" fill the air. For with the golden days of summer comes the traditional outpouring of youngsters from school buildings across the nation.

The last day of school heralds several months of "freedom," to be savored at the beach, campgrounds or maybe just the neighborhood park. For many, it means summer jobs. Whatever the seasonal school closure signifies, it is to be hoped that the youth of the USA will find time to pause and reflect upon the many blessings they enjoy simply because they are Americans. Not the least of these blessings is the right to an education.

If these young people can appreciate all that is America and build upon it constructively—taking care to blend freedom with responsibility—we will be able to entrust with confidence the future of the United States to those following behind us.

Main Street, U.S.A.
Demos Have Problems, Too; Who'll Run in '76?

BY BERT MILLS
Troubles of the Republican party are headlined daily but it should be noted that the Democratic party also has many problems, not the least of which is its lack of leadership and absence of an outstanding candidate for President in 1976.

Since the Republicans have controlled the White House for more than five years, the Democratic showcase is Congress. There has been a Democratic majority in both the House and Senate since 1955. That means that no law has been enacted in 19 years without the approval of the Democratic majority in Congress.

What does the public think of the performance of the majority party in Congress? Polls show only 21 per cent approve of the record. This can only be interpreted as an indictment of the Democratic party, and a failure to take advantage of its majority position.

The fact is that the Democrats are divided. The coalition that Franklin Roosevelt put together in 1932 is a collection of strange bedfellows who range all the way from extreme liberal to ardent conservative. Left wingers from the north and west and right wingers from the south add up to a numerical majority, but there is an ideological river in between.

MOST RESPONSIBLE for the record of Democratic Congress of the recent past have been Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) and House Speaker Carl Albert (D., Okla.). Both are bright, respected, and experienced. On both sides of the aisle which divides the parties in chambers, they are regarded as "nice guys."

But the rap against both Mansfield and Albert is that they are unable to lead effectively. They follow more dominant personalities, mostly committee chairmen. They fail to knock heads, work out party positions, and enforce discipline. Maybe it can't be done with today's diverse Democratic party but in the recent past two tough Texans named Lyndon Johnson and Sam Rayburn succeeded in the same roles.

Today's best known Senator is Teddy Kennedy, who isn't even a committee chairman. He became famous because of his older brothers but has earned a position of leadership because he is innovative, has a staff of capable eager-beavers, and gets out front on popular issues.

The best known Congressman is probably Rep. Wilbur Mills (D., Ark.), Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee. He has been the principal author of all tax and trade bills for some years. But he will be 65 in May, has physical problems, and has been touched by scandal recently in connection with his own abortive Presidential try in 1972.

TWO YEARS BEFORE the 1976 Presidential race gets up full steam, Senator Kennedy is the leader for the Democratic nomination. He is a non-candidate now but if the national convention were held this year, he could have the nomination if he decided to take it.

He has some advantages and some disadvantages as a prospective candidate. The Chappaquiddick incident would be sure to be revived, and Kennedy himself has said so.

Other Democratic possibilities, such as Governor George Wallace of Alabama, Senators Edmund Muskie of Maine, Henry Jackson of Washington, and Walter Mondale of Minnesota all have their drawbacks. The Democratic party has a golden opportunity to recapture the White House in '76 but needs to find a standard bearer.

Texas League Prexy To Speak At Broncho Feast

The Broncho League of Hereford will end its season in June with an awards banquet to feature Texas League president Bobby Bragan.

Bragan will speak to members of the boy's baseball league June 28 in the Bull Barn, and will award the special caps presented to the Broncho League All-Stars.

The Broncho League plays a 7-week season under the auspices of Kids, Incorporated and Boy's Baseball. In Hereford, the league has 24 teams, divided into three age divisions, major, minors, and peewees.

Each of the teams play two games a week in its division, and at the end of the season, the minors and peewees will have a tournament with the first place winner from each half of the season. The double elimination tourney then decides the winner of the division.

The winner of the major division will go to Altus this year in a regional contest. The winner of that contest could advance as far as the Boy's Baseball World Series to be played in Puerto Rico.

The league was formed in Hereford to give the youngsters 8 through 12 something to do in the summer evenings. The league also strives to teach the youngsters sportsmanship; and to prepare the boys for baseball in later years.

Broncho baseball is played with a hardball, and the bases are 70 feet compared with 90 feet in regulation baseball. The pitching distance is down to 48 feet.

Bragan, who became president of the Texas League in 1969, has quite a background in the baseball world. Born in 1917 in Birmingham, Alabama, Bragan was a standout in the Birmingham boy's baseball programs. His play attracted pro scouts, and after high school graduation, Bobby signed with the Philadelphia Phillies.

After a sensational year in Philadelphia's farm club in Pensacola, Bragan was called up to the majors to play for the Phillies as their regular shortstop in 1940.

In 1943, Bragan was traded to the Brooklyn Dodgers, whose shortstop was the great Pee Wee Reese, and consequently Bobby became a catcher.

In 1948, Bobby began his managing career when he was sent to Fort Worth as a player-manager for the Dodgers AA farm club, the Fort Worth Cats. Under his guidance the Cats became a Texas League power and produced many "name" players.

In 1956, Bobby became manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League, and then two years later Bobby switched leagues to become manager of the Cleveland Indians in the American.

Bobby's most recent major league job was with the Atlanta Braves. Bragan went with the Braves when they were still in Milwaukee, and stayed with them until 1966 when they were in Atlanta. Bragan coached Hank Aaron during those years, and Aaron's new autobiography includes a full chapter on Bragan.

Between 1966 and 1969, when Bragan became Texas League prexy, he worked as a scout for the Montreal Expos.

Among his many other outstanding awards, Bobby Bragan holds many Texas League records as a player, and a 1,000 batting average in the world series. Bragan batted only one time in the 1947 series, smashing a run-producing double against the powerful Yankees.

CofC Committee Honors Coaches

The Chamber of Commerce sports committee recognized two Hereford High School coaches, Larry Dippel and Barry Arwine, at the group's regular monthly meeting Friday.

Tom Simons presented Coach Dippel, head football coach, and Coach Arwine, head basketball coach, with certificates for Outstanding Sports Achievements. Both were named coach of the year in district 4-AAAA.

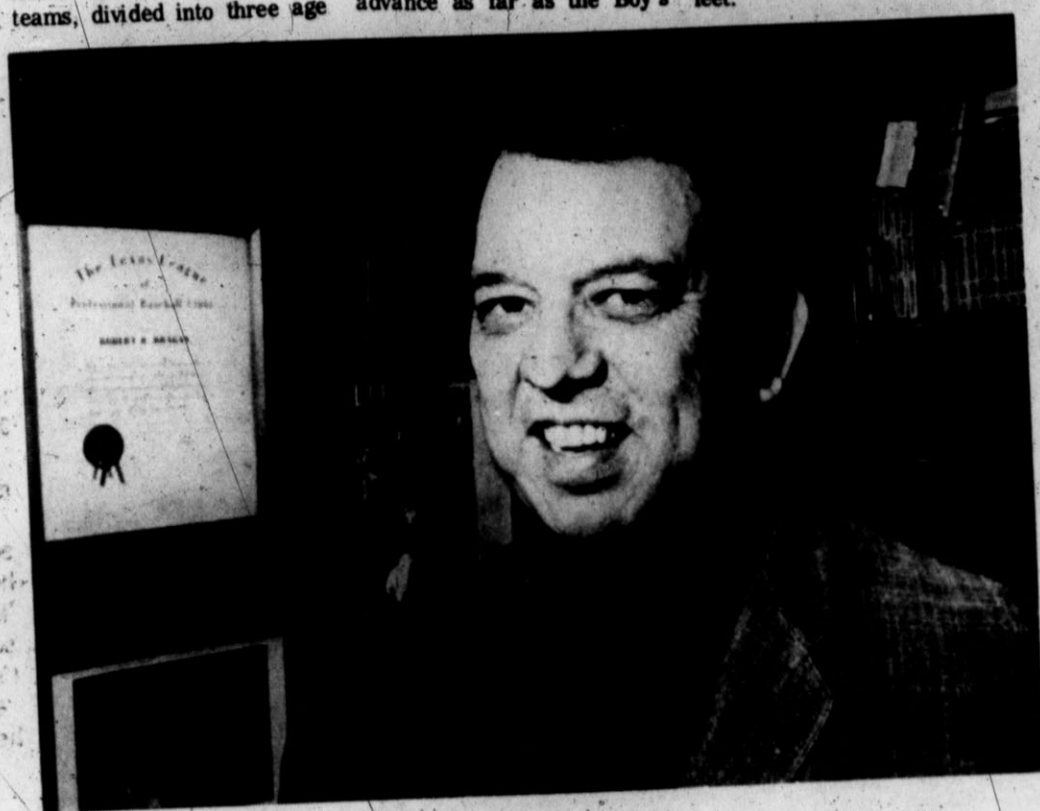

Coach Dippel gave a brief summary of spring training to the group, saying the Herd coaching staff was pleased with the improvement the players had made during the spring.

Jake Webb, presiding over the meeting, discussed the upcoming AAU Region Nine Boxing Tournament to be held in the Bull Barn June 7 and 8, and explained the new Hereford Amateur Athletic Association. Webb said members of the HAAA would be on hand at the next meeting to ask for the sports committee's endorsement.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—One has the feeling the smarter, better-trained team won in the NBA championship go. The Boston Celtics didn't seem to have the natural talent or height of some of the Milwaukee Bucks but they outsmarted them when the chips were down. The Bucks could be just as good but they must learn to work together better as a team and not rely so heavily on their great star, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. The Celtics planned their strategy to concede points to Jabbar, and shut off the other Bucks. They did that well enough to win in seven games (and one would like to see fewer NBA championship finales go the full seven games). The sight of super-tall men jumping up and easily popping the ball down through the basket isn't somehow as thrilling as seeing fine team play and great shots from distance, and that's probably why the Celtics were sentimental favorites in the recent NBA championships.

Red Raider Day Set For June 13

Plans for a "Red Raider Day", to be held in Hereford on June 13, were announced this week by Mac Tubb and Dave Hopper, co-chairmen of the arrangements committee.

The special event, for Texas Tech ex-students and Raider supporters as well, will include an afternoon of golf and a dinner at the Country Club. Tech coaches and other university officials will participate in the golf tourney and will be guests at the dinner.

A feature will be a film on Raider football highlights of the past season. Tubb, chairman of the golf tourney, said three local golfers will play with a Tech coach or official if possible. Entry fee for the golf event is $20 per person, and this includes green fees, cart and dinner. Admission to the cocktail hour and dinner is $7 each for those who do not play golf.

Both events are open to all interested Tech backers. Wives are also invited to the dinner on the evening of June 13. Those who wish to play golf should register with Mac Tubb by June 11, so that pairings can be made. The golf tourney will start at 1:30 p.m. The cocktail hour starts at 6:30 and golf tourney will start at 6:30 and dinner at 7:30 p.m. Those desiring to make dinner reservations only may call Speedy Nieman at The Hereford Brand.

Facial expressions tell the story of shots these duffers made. Left Dorothy Brownlow tries to come out of the weeds, and right, Jo Ellen Jorde makes a pressure putt. Both are members of the Hereford Women's Golf Association.

Women Take To Greens

Golf has become a ladies' sport at the Hereford Municipal Golf Course if the number of female diggers on the greens is any indication.

More than 80 women are active in the Hereford Women's Golf Association according to course pro Cal Garrett. Every Thursday the group plays 18 holes of golf in different forms of competition.

The association also meets the first Thursday of every month at the Country Club to discuss club business matters. The lady golfers play year-round, but most of the organized competition is from March to November.

Most of the golfers are beginners said Garrett. The club is open to any ladies that would like to join, whether novice or seasoned player. Membership is $5 per year.

Women in the association can play anytime Thursday on the course, and Garrett says about one-half the members play their rounds after five when they get off work.

Competition among the ladies includes a round of blind bogey (the players don't know their score until back in the clubhouse), the lowest number of putts on 18 holes, and the least number of strokes on a five-par. Each Thursday is a new competition.

Plans for the future include a Sunday set aside for Scotch Foursomes. Men and women will team up and alternate shots. Garrett plans to discuss rules with the ladies on Thursdays, and prepare clinics to improve their games.

Record Crowd Expected For Coaches All-America Game

Joe Barnes and Kenneth Wallace, who helped key Texas Tech to an 11-1 season and the Gator Bowl Championship along with Randy Gradishar, Ohio State's two-time All-American linebacker, heads a list of outstanding talent who have already signed to play in the 14th annual Coaches All-America Game. The big day is Saturday, June 22. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m. at Texas Tech's Jones Stadium.

Tickets for the big contest, hailed by Sports Illustrated magazine as "the best of the All-Star games," are now on sale and can be purchased from any member of the Lion's Club or at the Athletic Office at Texas Tech for $2., $5 and $7.

In all, 20 outstanding players have signed up to play. Joining Barnes and Wallace on the West squad will be Texas' All-American center Bill Wyman; Richard Williams, wide receiver, Abilene Christian College; Steve Odom, receiver, Utah; Dexter Bussy, running back from Texas Arlington; Bill Sandifer, and defensive lineman from UCLA.

Already signed for the East along with Gradishar is Norris Weese, quarterback from Mississippi; Andy Johnson, quarterback, Georgia; Carl Summerell, quarterback from East Carolina; Paul Vellana, defensive lineman, Maryland; Billy Howard, defensive lineman, Alcorn A&M; Barty Smith, running back, Richmond; Jim Cagle, defensive lineman, Georgia; Chuck Ramsey, kicking specialist, Wake Forest; John Holand, receiver, Tennessee State; Donald Reese, defensive lineman, Jackson State; Rod Kirby, linebacker; Pittsburgh; and Tony Bell, defensive back, Bowling Green.

Barry Switzer, who in his first season as head coach led Oklahoma to a 10-0-1 record, will be head coach for the West. He will be assisted by Jim Carlen of Texas Tech and Dave Maurer of Whittier.

John Majors, who in one season turned Pitt's battered Panthers into bowl participants, has been selected by the American Football Coaches Association to direct the East Squad. He will be joined by Bennie Ellender of Tulane and John Merritt of Tennessee State.

More than 43,000 fans were on hand last year to watch Coach John McKay's West team win over Coach Shug Jordan's East eleven, 20-6. The West now holds a 7-6 leading the series.

AAU Region Boxing Comes Next Weekend

The AAU Region Nine Junior Olympic Boxing Tournament will begin at 8 o'clock Friday night in the Bull Barn, and finals of the tourney will begin at 8 Saturday night.

Ninety-nine boxers from Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi are scheduled to arrive in Hereford Thursday night for the competition. Along with the boxers, many boxing fans are expected to attend the event.

Harold Wheeler, adult probation officer and the person responsible for the AAU meet coming to Hereford, said, "We'll have teams from the five districts in Region Nine. New Orleans, whose district covers Louisiana and Mississippi, will bring a full team of 22 boxers, and they always have a huge fan following at the meets. Houston will bring 15 boxers, San Antonio will bring 20, Dallas will have 20 boxers (with about 20 to 25 families following the chartered bus in cars), and the West Texas district will have 20 boxers.

"Four of our Hereford boys will be boxing on the West Texas district team, as well as boys from Amarillo, Guymon, Plainview, and Lubbock," said Wheeler. The boxers will arrive Thursday night, and weigh-in begins Friday morning at ten. Medical examinations will be given at noon, and then the first round of boxing will begin at eight Friday night. Winners in the twelve weight divisions of the senior class will advance from the regionals into the national tournament to be held in Peoria, Ill. August 1. Senior class includes boxers ages 14 and 15. The intermediate boxers, ages 12 and 13, will compete here, winners will be declared regional champions and advance no farther. About thirty of forty bouts will be fought Friday night, each scheduled to go three rounds. In the intermediate division, each round is one and one-half minutes, and senior rounds go two minutes. Wheeler said Miss Hereford, Susie Hickman, will sing the National Anthem both nights, and there will be entertainment each night for fans that arrive

MD Benefit Game Slated

Double-header baseball, the Amarillo Giants against Little Rock in a Texas League game, will benefit the Panhandle Chapter, Muscular Dystrophy Association, next Sunday afternoon. The game will begin at 2 p.m. in Madison Memorial Stadium at Amarillo.

All proceeds will be given to the association for patient aid and an addition to funds for research on the crippling disease. Tony Poole of Amarillo, president of the Panhandle M.D. Chapter, explains that it helps patients by providing wheel chairs, orthopedic appliances, cost of medical treatment in some instances and parties at special times of each year.

Tickets for the game are on sale at the Hereford banks and by local members of the association. Muscular Dystrophy patients of the area will be guests at the game, with several state officials who have accepted invitations. Entertainment for families is planned, with clowns to provide fun for children.

JUNE BRIDE-ELECT — Miss Virginia Lea Lehenbauer of Amarillo and Kenneth Orville Richardson plan to marry June 29 in Ames Christian Church in Ames, Oklahoma. The couple will make their home in Hereford. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merl A. Lehenbauer of Ames. She is employed in Amarillo and is a graduate of Northwestern State College of Oklahoma where she received a degree in accounting. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O.W. Richardson of Lamesa. He is assistant advertising manager of the Hereford Brand and graduated from Texas Tech University where he majored in advertising.

Honeymoon In Acapulco Follows Wedding Here

Married in a first-of-June wedding Saturday at First Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Odell Black left for a honeymoon in Acapulco, Mexico. Mrs. Black was Miss Jeanie Cecelia Paetzold before the ceremony conducted by the Rev. Steven D. Graham, assistant pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. H.F. Paetzold, 311 Stadium Drive, are parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Black, 1524 Brevard, of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Paetzold was attended by Miss Brenda Nahrgang as maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Tonja Black, bridesmaid. Kimberley Edelman, daughter of the Joe Don Edelmans and niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Richard Barrett acted as best man and Danny Paetzold, older brother of the bride, groomsmen. Ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Carey Black, and John Duke of Darrouzett. Paired spiral candelabra were set on either side of the altar with bouquets of white gladiolus and massed green foliage.

Wedding music was by Lilli Lyons, who sang Twelfth Of Never and The Lord's Prayer, and Jim Aikin, who played organ accompaniment and other selections.

Touches of Venice lace relieved the simple lines of the bride's satin organza gown, with motifs applied on the empire bodice, around the high neckline and bishop sleeves, and at the front hemline of the skirt. A narrow edging of the lace continued around the skirt which extended in graceful folds to form a chapel train.

A lace Juliet cap, held three tiers of lace-bordered illusion in her elbow-length veil. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis blooms. As a traditional luckpiece she wore a blue garter which her mother and sister had worn in their weddings.

Blending shades of blue with accents of magenta were in the print design of voile dresses worn by the feminine attendants. They were sleeveless, with high neckline, wide band set-in at the waist and deep ruffles at the hemline of softly gathered skirt.

Headpieces were tendrils of blue flowerettes and bouquets were nosegays of blue carnations and white roses, repeating the magenta accent.

The same flowers were used in decorations for the reception in the church fellowship hall. Misses Lynette Clearman and Cathy Carrothers invited guests to register.

Mrs. Edelman served the bride's cake and Miss Sharon Dearing the groom's cake, while Miss Julie Reinart poured punch.

Leaving on the honeymoon trip, Mrs. Black was wearing a sleeveless dress of red checks and navy, with matching jacket.

She was a graduate of Hereford High School with the class this spring, and is employed at Cowan Jewelers. Black, an employe of Consumers Fuel, attended West Texas State University two years after graduation in 1972 from Hereford High.

Brunch Precedes Wedding Saturday

Preceding the wedding of Jeanie Paetzold and Greg Black Saturday evening, the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Joe Don Eldelman, was hostess that morning at a bridesmaids brunch in her home at 222 Fir.

Refreshments of homemade cinnamon rolls, fruit plates and punch were served at the buffet brunch from the table covered with a white linen cloth trimmed in lace.

The centerpiece, made by the hostess, consisted of red film hearts topped with a white dove and arranged in a white ceramic vase.

Approximately 15 guests were present including bridal attendants and members of the reception houseparty.

DREAMS END IN DEATH
 KANSAS CITY, MO.—Having worked nearly 40 years as a tailor and cleaner, Hugh W. Buss decided to sell his shop after he was robbed and retire. Four weeks later he was found in his shop stabbed to death.

Other out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Page Blackwell, Guy Blackwell, Jo David Brown, Bud Brown and the Wallace Bichel family of Groom; Messrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Hood, Gary Webb, Billy Welch, Henry Lemke, Frank Quick, the Jimmy Teague, Donnie Black and Doug Black families, Mike Williams, Kyle Black and Teresa Bichsel of Amarillo.

Also the Jim Clifton family of Borger, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Nepper of Canyon, the Jim Russells and Tracey of Bovina, the Lynn Kings and Tiffany of Levelland.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Kendon O. Anderson of Easter announce the engagement of their daughter, Rebecca, to Richard K. Lee of Boise, Idaho, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Lee of Boise. The couple will marry June 29. Both are students at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. Brenda Saul Becomes Bride Of Richard Snow

Palms and ivy backed an altar bouquet of white gladiolas, mums and carnations in the setting for an evening wedding Saturday as Miss Brenda, Kay Saul and Richard Robert Snow exchanged marriage vows in First Christian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. Kelly Coplin, 113 Avenue B, and the late Dean Saul. Snow's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Snow of Amarillo.

Samual J. Hevelone of Lincoln, Nebraska, maternal grandfather of the bride, gave her in marriage as the Rev. Eugene Brink conducted the ceremony. Lighting the altar, tapers burned in seven-branch candelabra twined with ivy, flanking the flower arrangement. White rope draped pews down the center aisle of the sanctuary, with bows at the base of hurricane lights on either side. Miss Mary Sue Hasse of Pampa, roommate of Miss Saul at West Texas State University, was her maid of honor and Mrs. Mike Gilbert of Amarillo, matron of honor. Gilbert acted as best man and Frankie Conner of Hurst, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, as groomsman.

Brothers of the bride, Sammy Dean Saul of Rochester, N.Y., David Lee and Tommy Dee Saul, and her cousin, Robert Schwab of Amarillo, were ushers. Candles were lighted by Darin and Douglas Dean Saul.

Children of the David Sauls were young attendants, Hope as junior bridesmaid, Kasey flower girl and David Dean ring bearer.

Mrs. Frankie Conner was the wedding soloist, singing Top Of The World, Wedding Song and Our Wedding Prayer with Mrs. Bill Brady, organist, accompanying.

The bride's gown, designed and made by her mother, was of snowflake charmette over satin, the bodice fitted to the natural waistline, the slightly flared skirt carpet length.

Lace banding made a panel effect down the entire front, circled the high neckline and crossed the front panel at the hemline. The same lace edged the circular train which was attached at the waist in center back. Puffed on the shoulders, sleeves were gathered to wide cuffs fastened with tiny pearl buttons and fabric loops.

Layers of illusion made the bouffant veil which fell over her shoulders from a lace-and-pearl Juliet cap. She wore an heirloom pearl necklace set with diamonds, belonging to her mother, and carried a purple-throated white orchid centered in stephanots and English ivy, tied with ribbon streamers.

In princess style, Miss Hasse's dress was of orchid charmette with all-over embroidered design in white. Sleeves were of the plain sheer material; circle neckline and hemline were finished with ruffles. Mrs. Gilbert wore a dress in identical syle but of white-dotted charmette.

That material also made the junior bridesmaid's frock, which had panets-marked and puff sleeves banded with ribbon-run lace. A lighter shade of orchid made the flower girl's dress and she carried a large basket holding orchid and white petals. Each of the older attendants carried a single white rose.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony, then the couple left for a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Larry Finley served the bride's cake from a table covered with airy net over white satin, the bridal bouquet laid at the base of silver candelabra in the center. Three colonnade tiers rose above four layers which formed the base of the cake; bride-and-groom figurines made the traditional topping.

The groom's cake, in double wedding ring form, was served with coffee by Miss Mary Rhodes. The table was centered with dove figurines. Miss Nelda Finley of Canyon ladled punch and Mrs. Harvey Hudspeth of Amarillo was at the guest register.

For travel Mrs. Snow changed to a rose pantsuit with white shell and pink flowered jacket trimmed in the solid color. She took the orchid from her bouquet as a corsage. After their trip the couple will be at home at Apartment 11, 828 South Texas.

Tennis fashions popular

By BETH MOHR
Copley News Service

Tennis fashions are making their best scores off the courts. Spring and summer's popular "tennis look" adds features of traditional tennis sweaters to dresses, gowns and, even, sweaters.

V necklines bordered in narrow stripes of bright color on white knit are the common ingredients in dresses and sweaters. Lightly belted skimmer dresses are lengthened versions of pull-over sweaters and coat dresses or cardigans. Either may have short or long sleeves.

Sometime sweaters and dresses get together. Among the season's new twin sweater sets are tennis cardigans with matching pullovers. Costumes top tennis dresses with tennis sweaters.

Gowns are full-length versions of daytime skimmers and coat dresses. They take a few liberties, however. The borders may be in pale rather than bright shades, become dazzling in sequins or be left off entirely. Neither do the gowns feel obligated to stick to tennis white. Quite a few are in the season's popular light pastels.

The bride is a special education major at WTSU, where she is a member of Alpha Chi honorary society, the Campus Crusade For Christ and on the dean's honor roll. Snow, a patrolman with the Hereford Police Department, received his bachelor of science degree in sociology.

Wedding guests from other cities included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P.T. Saul of Beaver Crossing, Neb.; uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder of Kansas City; the bridegroom's god-mother, Mrs. Howard Anderson of El Paso, and great-aunt, Mrs. Thomas Shaw of La Puente, Calif.

Also Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Sharp of Blue Ridge, Jack Downing of Canyon and C.W. Conner of Lubbock; the Tom McGowan family of Borger; and from Amarillo, Messrs. and Mmes. Sy Pena, H.V. Preslar, Floyd Miller, R.G. Watkins, Charles Purviance, Gus Hampton, Jack Dekle, O.E. Cross, Robert Buckler, the Rev. and Mrs. Jack Sutton, the Rev. and Mrs. Argus Burnett, Mrs. Ora Williams, Harvey Hudspeth, Mrs. Robert Schwab, the Don Sharp family, Mrs. Fred Costa and children.

Cheri Mason Is Honored

Cheri Mason, June 21 bride-elect of Joel Pittard, was honored with a bridal shower recently in the home of Mrs. Fritz Smith.

Greeting guests with Miss Mason were her mother, Mrs. L. Gary Mason, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lynn P. Pittard. A white lace cloth over an orchid skirt covered the refreshment table which was centered with a multicolored arrangement of spring flowers. Approximately 40 guests attended. Hostesses included Mmes. Earl Harkins, Edgar Vinson and Marvin Smith and Sue Smith.

By FAY GAUGGEL

We welcome into our home two lovely new residents. They are Mrs. I.L. Richman of Hereford and Mrs. Joe C. Greer of Amarillo. Much happiness to you both in Kings Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Johnson and grandson, Randy Williams of Oklahoma City, visited Johnson's aunt, Mrs. S.O. Wilson.

Ruby McLaughlin (Sunshine Lady) is home from a visit to her son in Lubbock.

Alpheus Tooley visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Tooley, in Plainview also his son in Floydada for several days recently.

Mrs. Don Davidson and Fay

Gauggel spent last weekend in Plainview. Mrs. Davidson attended a wedding in the Tooley family and Mrs. Gauggel visited a niece, Alta Fay Doss.

A group of seventh graders from LaPlata School under the baton of Bill Devers provided good listening for our residents May 23. It was their last public performance of the current year.

The youngsters sang in parts and a cappella (Acapulco, as Mr. Devers quipped).

The program was varied enough to be fresh and interesting. Some of the numbers were: Nobody Home (Canon or round). When Johnnie Comes Marching Home (World War I song), Aura Lee (sung in two parts then split into four parts on last two measures). Not Alone. When the Saints Come Marching In. Colorado Trails and We're Marching to Practoria.

Mr. Devers' magnetism and rapport with the group provoked a focusing of all eyes upon his sensitive hands — The secret of good performance.

Mrs. Don Davidson spoke for us all in suggesting that we adults need not fear for the future when our children are afforded leadership such as we saw in Mr. Devers. Please come back next year.

Smith-Martin Marriage Read Saturday Evening

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Vivian Suzanne Smith and John Quentin Martin II in a Saturday evening ceremony at First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Norman Cobb of First United Methodist Church of Canyon officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayland E. Smith of 401 Star and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Quentin Martin, 124 Nueces. The couple will be at home in Lubbock.

The church was decorated with altar bouquets of white gladiolus and lavender mums, hurricane candles, lavender bows and streamers on pews ends down the main aisle.

Miss Karen Walden was maid of honor and best man was Steve Kirkpatrick. Miss Carolyn Langley also attended the bride and John Jorde was groomsmen.

Ushers were James Jorde, Tom Conaway, the bridegroom's brother, Bill Martin, his brother-in-law, Danny Thompson of Dumas and his cousin, Elliott Hodges of Lubbock.

Cousins of the bride, Miss Sandy Caison, vocalist, and Miss Dee Ann Caison, organist, presented principal wedding selections, All I Know, If, Till and Pieces of April.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta designed with a fitted empire bodice featuring a sheer pleated Victorian yoke and high neckline with a ruche of Belgian lace.

Alencon lace formed a wide shoulder effect and was applied over the bodice and sheer sleeves. The sleeves were gathered at the wrists by deep cuffs; lace ruffles extended beyond the cuffs.

A satin ribbon circled the waist and seed pearls were embroidered over the lace bodice. Double rows of Belgian lace edged the skirt which rounded into a slight train.

Her elbow length veil, edged in scalloped lace, was attached to a candelight lace coil seeded in pearls and topped with a flat satin ribbon bow. She carried a nosegay of white roses, stephanotis and babybreath.

Attendants' dresses of white cotton with embroidered lavender flowers were styled after the bride's gown. They carried lavender daisies in baskets.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Vivian Martin, invited guests to sign the guest book at the reception held in Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room.

Miss Elizabeth Word served the wedding cake, four round cakes on a revolving plate topped with three separate tiers.

The center column was surrounded by sugar bells covered with lavender lace. Tiers were garlanded with clusters of lavender rosebuds. A nosegay of fresh flowers, fashioned after the bride's bouquet, crowned the cake.

Mrs. Richard Schjabs and Mrs. Danny Thompson of Dumas, served punch from the refreshment table which was covered with maderia cut work over lavender.

Leaving for a wedding trip to Dallas, the bride wore a beige and black linen pantsuit and a white orchid corsage. The couple will make their home at 3601 - 2nd Street in Lubbock.

Mrs. Martin is employed by First National Bank in Lubbock. She graduated from Hereford High School in 1973 when she served as Rotary Club sweetheart.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Oklahoma State University in Stillwater.

Out-of-town wedding guest included Mrs. Claude Martin, Chattanooga, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf, Shawnee, Okla.; the Eldon Hodges family, Lubbock; Mrs. Freda Rogers, Chicago; Mrs. Bill Stansel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Manzer, and Sharon Manzer of Dumas; Chris Manzer, Houston.

Blind Corner

Alex dutifully halted his car at the stop sign. At that point, which was about 30 feet back from the corner, his vision of the intersection was blocked by some high bushes. Nevertheless, he moved briskly into the crossing. Result: a collision with a car coming along the other street.

Was Alex guilty of negligence? He insisted that he was not, pointing out in a court hearing that he had brought his car to a full stop at the sign.

"That's all the law requires," he said. "I stopped, looked, and listened at the designated place."

But the court found him guilty of negligence anyhow. The court said a "blind" corner imposes an extra duty on motorists—regardless of stop signs or traffic signals—to proceed with caution.

The law does recognize, however, that caution is a matter of degree. For example:

Another man also entered an intersection that he could not see because of shrubbery. But this time, the man edged forward at a snail's pace, glancing in both directions. Even though he still got in the way of an oncoming car and caused a collision, a court ruled afterward that he could not be held legally liable.

"The law does not require the impossible," said the court. "One cannot be held guilty of negligence because he is unable to see through impenetrable objects or to bend his vision around them."

What about the responsibility for making the intersection blind in the first place? Unless a special statute so provides, the local government ordinarily cannot be held liable for this kind of hazard.

However, courts have occasionally placed the blame on a private property owner who has brought such an obstruction into existence. Liability has been based on the theory that the condition of his premises could foreseeably cause some luckless motorist, some day, to get hurt.

By The Garden Gate With Glad

"Who loves a garden still his Eden keeps. Perennial pleasures plants, and wholesome harvest reaps" - A.B. Alcott.

These hot, dry, windy days are trying on all gardeners, and farmers too. But we have to keep on keeping on. All must try to continue proper maintenance and plant that which will withstand the weather conditions, yet give some beauty and satisfaction.

Perennials withstand many of the hardships of weather, therefore I recommend them. What is a perennial? It is a plant which lives for several or many years and after reaching maturity typically produces flowers and seeds each year.

Perennials are classified as herbaceous if the top dies to the ground each winter, and as woody if the top persists as in shrubs or trees. Peonies would be listed as herbaceous; Golden Rain Tree would be woody.

Hemerocallis is referred to by growers as the perennial supreme. Soon the hemerocallis (day-lily) will be in flower, in fact some are already blooming.

The foliage is beautiful, and adds a lovely color of green to the garden. Blossoms shaped like lilies come in several colors. The yellows, golds, and bi-colors, also reds, orange and bi-colors in these are all rich warm colors.

They have strong stems, and are very good for arranging. However the blossoms fade rather quickly, but the buds soon bloom out replacing the faded blossoms. They are good material for either mass or line designs. Combine well with other flowers. Are easy to grow.

Visit your friends gardens and see them in flower, and ask for a start, when and if she plans to divide them. I will have some, in yellows, reds and orange.

Iris is another easy grown perennial and certainly does withstand weather conditions as well or better than others. There are several varieties: bearded, (large, medium, intermediate and miniature) Dutch, also Siberian iris, grown from bulbs, bloom a bit later than the bearded, and have a good choice of colors.

Florescence is one of the most attractive features of the iris, in fact colors and sheen are so extremely beautiful that a complete rainbow of colors can be planted in the garden.

It is now time to divide iris rhizoms. If you have friends who have extra ones, and are dividing theirs now, contact them and secure some for your garden. Watch for plant sales at the garden center, there will in all probability be iris on sale there. If you do not find them otherwise, call Glad.

The Mohr family of iris is a beautiful selection to mark, and I promise will be a beauty spot in the garden. Is nice to make the acquaintance of each member of the family. I think Elmoir, Lady Mohr and Ormoir are a must for the iris fancier.

Another iris that is not as popular yet is one of my favorites, the Spuria, which is often referred to as the poor man's orchid. They have a pleasing range of color, are good keepers, adapt wonderfully well to various designs of arranging, grow well here.

Lilies: There are many beautiful and colorful lilies which can be grown in our area. One of the favorites is the Easter lily, one of the most used of all flowers for altar decorations.

Madonna, tiger, lily of the valley (one of the daintiest; are all old, yet very popular. The lily symbolizes purity, this is certainly true of the white, beautifully textured ones. Lilies can be planted so that there will almost be a continuous bloom throughout the flowering season. Garlic, onions, leek and asparagus are of the lily family.

Another favorite perennial is the chrysanthemum. Like iris it is adaptable to practically all soils and can be very effective in the garden. The range of color is comparable to the iris and the varieties are many.

It is not too late to divide chrysanthemums. Those which have been divided and planted earlier are now ready for pinching. This aids in making a stronger root system, and in controlling the growth pattern.

To produce show quality it is needful to pinch buds, to lessen the bloom and make exhibition quality. Water systematically, feed (they are the pigs of the garden) cultivate and pinch.

An excellent food can be prepared easily if one lives on a farm. Use a 50 gallon barrel. Fill with water, after placing a generous layer of farm manure, approximately 6 inches, (sheep, chicken is good also cow). Let ripen, drain off fluid and add some water to dilute if too strong.

Water the plants after they have been cultivated. Use as needed to promote growth and sturdiness for a well developed plant. August is a good time to start using this food. (Caution: it does have a strong odor)

Daisies will soon be in flower. There are many varieties that are adaptable to our soil and climate. They will add that bit of white which I think is needed to make a beautiful garden. Is especially lovely in the moonlight.

After flowering the daisies will be ready for dividing. Perhaps friends or neighbors will share. The Shasta is an old favorite. There have been new ones added, the double lace Shasta is very good; the Esther Reed is another favorite, and especially pretty for corsages; various colors can be used to good advantage.

A pretty combination is blue and gold painted daisies. I will never forget the lovely corner garden my mother planted in the gold and blue, using delphiniums for background. Beautiful sight in the early morning.

Perennial phlox is grown successfully here. The colors are fascinating. The old lavenders blended with the reds make a beauty spot. They are not very good for arranging as they shed easily after being cut, but they are lovely in the garden.

Mrs. Beasley has the prettiest white ones in town when in flower. An interesting item relative to the whites is the varied color of the eyes. Try them you will like 'em.

There are many perennials, far too many to name, but study them in the catalogues and in other gardens and plan now to plant more for another year. They do not take the care that the annuals do because they come back year after year.

There are many beauty spots in Hereford now, created with roses. Climbers, hybrid teas, floribundas, etc. give a large selection for the gardener in color, texture and form.

Also be sure and have some of the perennial foliage plants. A blending of greens is always beautiful. They do not require very much maintenance.

Hosta would be a good choice, then there are many ground-covers which bloom and come in the various colors of green. The acre is in flower in Mrs. Mitchell's garden. The tiny yellow blooms are star-like and add interest and beauty.

I have my groundcover planted so there is continuous bloom from late winter until frost. They give protection to other plants by holding moisture and making the roots cool in the heat of the day.

Suggested dates for gardening: 1st and 3rd, good days for planting above ground crops, for leafy vegetables and flower seed. Also time to mow lawns, and irrigate (water is very important); 4th and 5th are barren days, do no planting.

Sixth to 8th, plant root crops, such as potatoes, carrots, etc.; 9th and 10th, excellent time to kill weeds, foreign grasses and other plant pests; 11th-13th favorable time for planting late root crops, also vining crops; 14th-15th poor planting, fine for cultivating and watering.

16th-17th plant late onions and other root crops; 18th-19th poor time for planting. (Rest). 20th-21st best days for planting above ground crops and flowers, late zinnias, etc. 22nd-25th most barren period. Cut weeds, and kill other plant pests. 26th-28th excellent time for planting above ground crops very favorable for fodder crops, also flowers. 29th-30th late corn, peppers and leafy vegetables.

Best fishing days 6th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 20th, 21st, 29th, and 30th.

Resident Grants Awarded By WTSU

This scholarship program is another element in our continuing quest for excellence," said Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, WTSU president.

The awards consist of funds derived from rentals and services available in WTSU Halls. About 450 applications were submitted for the RH Scholarships, and from these, 50 $500 awards were made, according to Jack Edmondson, Director of Public Services and Scholarship Committee chairman.

Selection criteria were academic qualifications, demonstrated student and community leadership and extracurricular activities and honors received.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Just how we got the Hereford pioneer dislocated, nobody knows, but the Brand has repeated the misinformation that Caldwell Hicks, who was on program for Mid-Plains Pioneer day last week, is from Hereford in the 1920's. The family (Billy Hicks was the father) came here at the turn of the century and ranched near Dawn and then west of Hereford. Caldwell Hicks and his wife ranched near Garden City until he retired a few years ago and they moved into that city.

We're much obliged to Corinne for this correction; in reports of such an event as the pioneer's reunion an error can be picked up and repeated in successive issues of the paper until somebody tells us we're wrong since nobody on the staff is too well informed about the people involved.

LOTS OF things are being blamed on the drought in these parts; an unusual thing is the change in location for the annual Bluebird Day Camp, which was made at almost the last minute.

In recent years the camp has been held at a spot on Tierra Blanca Creek east of town, or what was known as the old Russell place. Nice green grass and shady trees made it an ideal location, but when leaders went out to get it ready last weekend they hardly knew the place.

Not only did the dry pastures around it have a depressing look but dust was deep in the campsite so it wasn't a very good place for a bunch of little girls to mill around. They are grateful to city officials for permitting use of a spot at the east end of the new golf course for the 1974 camp.

LOTS OF people in Hereford know Mrs. Earl Plank, or did when she lived here a number of years, but they may not know she has been appointed to a post in the National CowBelles organization. National Beef Education Director is her title.

Mrs. Plank is president of Cattle Capital CowBelles of Clovis and was lately honored as New Mexico CowBelle of the Year. Known as a good worker who made a notable record in whatever job she undertook here, Mrs. Plank may be expected to further the CowBelles' aims in this new task.

DR. FREDERICK RATHJEN

Author To Visit Here

Dr. Frederick W. Rathjen, author of "The Texas Panhandle Frontier", will be at the Christian Book Store in Hereford Monday to visit with persons interested in the history of the Panhandle.

Dr. Rathjen, associate professor of history at West Texas State University since 1956, will also be autographing copies of his book. Born at Childress, Rathjen received his Ph. D. at the University of Texas.

In his book, Dr. Rathjen approaches history from the regional viewpoint, examining the frontier experience of the Texas Panhandle in depth and relates development to the larger picture of state and national history. According to Dr. Rathjen, the Texas Panhandle as a political region includes the northernmost 26 counties of the state.

Geographically, the Panhandle is part of the vast interior region of North America, the Great Plains. While many aspects of the Panhandle have been covered in diverse sources, this book brings together widely scattered primary and secondary materials for a comprehensive history. The book is published by the University of Texas Press.

BARBECUED BEEF TURNOVERS

Make a two-crust recipe for pastry and store in refrigerator while making this sauce.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 2 cloves of garlic | 1/2 tsp. dry mustard |
| 1/2 green pepper | 1/2 c. catsup |
| 1 small onion | 1/2 c. cold water |
| 2 Tbsp. butter | 2 Tbsp. vinegar |
| 2 Tbsp. brown sugar | 2 Tbsp. Worcestershire sauce |
| 2 cups chopped leftover roast beef | 1/4 tsp. black pepper |
| | 1/2 tsp. hot pepper sauce |

Chop garlic, pepper and onion finely and cook in skillet with melted butter until wilted. Add remaining ingredients and cook slowly for 15 minutes. Put 2 cups chopped leftover roast beef in bowl and add enough sauce to moisten well. Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Roll pastry on floured board to thickness 1/8 inch. Cut into 9-inch squares and put mound of filling in center of each. Brush edges with water, then fold into triangles and seal edges together with a fork. Bake on cookie sheet for 15-20 minutes or until brown. Serve with remaining sauce.

For additional beef recipes, write John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Texas 78711.

H.D. CHATTER 4-H's Head For State Competition

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

SCHOOL bells have retired for a summer break, students are enjoying every minute of their summer vacation but our 4-H activities are just about to get underway for the busy summer months.

Fourteen senior 4-H members, four parents and two agents will leave Hereford, 8 a.m. Monday, for State 4-H Round-Up. The first night will be spent in Stephenville. The group will attend the state food show and round-up orientation Tuesday.

The demonstrations will be given on Wednesday by the following: JoAnn Wagner - Clothing Educational Activity, Wes Strain - Money Management, Diane Ward and Kim Simpson - Vegetable Production and Marketing, Laurie Close and Annette Cotten, Pasture and Forage Crop.

On the grass judging team are Micki Merritt, Sandee Finley and Sam Finley and the Livestock Judging team consists of Ricky Coleman, Randy Coleman, Britt Hicks and Edd Stallings.

The highlight of the trip will be the day spent at Six Flags Over Texas on the way home. Good Luck to you at state!

AN ICE cream social was held in honor of the Robert Devins Thursday night at Community Center. 4-H members parents and leaders hosted the occasion.

We hate to say goodbye to Robert, but on the other hand, we're very happy for him and his new position. We realize that Dallam County's gain will be Deaf Smith County's loss.

Good luck to Robert, Pat and Robin as they establish themselves in the Dalhart community.

4-H WILL be operating the concession at the boxing tournament this Friday and Saturday. If you enjoy working in a concession and would like to help us, please contact our office.

Proceeds from the concession will be distributed among the seven 4-H members planning to attend the National 4-H Short Course and Heritage Tour in Washington, D.C. this summer.

THE FLOYD COLES have recently remodeled their home and held an open house. You would not recognize the place! Their home is just beautiful and very well planned.

Friends and neighbors prepared cookies and punch for the open house. Some of the delicious cookies served were chocolate peanut butter bites. Mrs. George Olson gave us her recipe for those cookies.

CHOCOLATE PEANUT BUTTER BITES

- 2 c. sugar
- 4 T. cocoa
- 1 stick oleo
- 1/2 c. milk
- Mix and boil one minute.
- Add:
- 1/2 c. peanut butter, 3 c. rolled oats, 1/2-1 c. pecans, chopped, 2 t. vanilla, Pinch of salt.
- Mix well and drop by teaspoonful on waxed paper.

DON'T forget to attend the 4-H clothing workshop the second week in June. We're expecting top-quality garments from each 4-H member this summer. Make your plans now to enter the County Dress Revue which will be held Friday, July 12. For more details, contact our office.

Wrong Repairman
The lady of the house summoned a TV serviceman to fix the set. Spreading out his tools, the repairman inquired, "What seems to be the trouble?"
Replied the little woman, "Well, for one thing, all the programs are lousy."

A Study in English
"I want to be procrastinated at the next corner," said the passenger to the bus conductor.
"You want to be what?" demanded the conductor.
"Don't lose your temper. I had to look in the dictionary myself before I found out that 'procrastinate' means 'put off'."

Stand In Line
"Kiss me, darling."
"Now?"
"Well, if you're going to dicker, forget it."

"My wife," said one man, "is very poetic. She gets up at sunrise and says, 'Lo, the morn.'"
"Huh!" said the other sadly. "Mine says, 'Mow the lawn.'"

Used To It
"Just why do you want a married man to work for you, rather than a bachelor?" asked the curious friend.
"Well," signed the employer, "the married men don't get so upset if I yell at them."

Most of the nation observed Memorial Day Monday under the new holiday schedule. However, May 30 is the traditional Memorial Day, set on the anniversary of the World War I Armistice.

We believe EVERY day should be Memorial Day, for this observance means a lot to us. Despite our nation's temporal problems, think how much worse things might be for each of us if we had lost any of the wars our nation has been drawn into. Thanks to our veterans, we didn't.

We're proud of the veterans in South Hills Manor, and of ALL the former servicemen in our community!

WTSU Begins Term

Registration for West Texas State University's first summer session will begin at 8 a.m. Monday in the Activities Center.

Class instruction starts Tuesday.

Beginning Freshman Orientation and Academic Advising is set for 9-11:30 a.m. Monday in the University Complex South, Room 101. Registration for the beginning freshmen will be from 3-4 p.m. at the AC.

All other enrolling students will follow an alphabetic time schedule based on the first letter of the student's last name. Tuesday will be the last day for payment of fees without a penalty fee, but late registration will continue through Friday.

In addition to the variety of credit courses offered during the summer session, students may register for special music workshops scheduled during the first summer term.

Beginning Guitar Workshop for Teachers, Music 475-6, will meet June 10-14 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Dr. Henry Eisenkramer of St. Louis, Mo., will serve as clinician. The class is designed for the music and classroom teacher and will include techniques of simplified guitar accompaniment.

Music Therapy Workshop, Music 475-9, will be taught by Martha M. Estes, assistant professor of music at WTSU June 17-21 from 1:30-4:30 p.m.

The Music Therapy Workshop will acquaint students with career opportunities available in music therapy and the basic techniques utilized with music in a therapeutic setting.

West Texas Choral Conductors Workshop, Music 475-4, will be held in conjunction with the West Texas Choral Music Camp, June 24-28. Dr. Eph. choral conductor at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, will serve as guest clinician.

Also featured are evening business classes in real estate and on the graduate level. Real Estate Fundamentals and Practices (N214-1) is "for those seeking the qualifications for making real estate a future occupation or hobby," said Dr. Zeke Marchant, head of WT Business Administration.

Marchant also described the Seminar in Business Environmental Issues (513-1) as supplying the modern businessman with the enormous amount of legal information he needs each day in working with society and government. A graduate Seminar in Finance (N520-1) will be taught by Harrold Melton on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

The WTSU Mathematics Department is offering two courses, Math 490 and 491, each of which may be taken for six hours credit to apply on a teacher education degree. The Bilingual Mathematics Workshop (490) is a course in first and second grade arithmetic utilizing the Spanish vocabulary in which no mathematics or Spanish is required. The Workshop on Classroom Enrichment (491) will try to "humanize" mathematics by supplying techniques to make learning it a delight for students.

Our Health

by C. H. Tracy, M.D.

My son plays in an amateur rock band. Can constant exposure to loud noise be harmful to him?

It may be but it is rare that it will cause lasting damage.

Most people in generally good health take ordinary street sounds such as motor horns and construction noises in their stride. But a hypersensitive person will suffer greatly from such disturbances. Loud noise is also a very serious threat to people suffering from pneumonia, heart disease accompanied by insomnia, and people recovering from surgical operations. This is why cities provide zones of quiet around hospitals and nursing homes.

Experiments have shown that constant impinging of sound pressure, and that a person awakened by noise will remain tense for as long as thirty minutes. A sound disturbance during sleep raises the blood pressure and causes the muscles to contract.

People who earn their livings in an atmosphere of constant noise often develop a minor form of deafness, dizziness and headaches. Research indicates that it requires 19% more energy to perform a duty in noisy surroundings as opposed to a quiet environment.

In the late 1960's, when it was apparent that rock 'n roll was here to stay, many rock musicians and people who frequented rock concerts, complained of hardness of hearing. It was determined that continuous exposure to loud music was the cause.

Various methods such as rubber ear stoppers have been devised to diminish the effects of noise.

I've noticed a lot of rough dry spots around my elbows and knees. They soften up after I bathe, but as soon as my skin dries, they reappear. What can I do about it?

Continuous bathing in hard water with harsh soaps does more harm than good to dry skin. Some of the body's oils are lost each time you shower or bathe. A therapeutic bath oil such as non-greasy Alpha Keri is formulated to adhere to the skin, locking in the body's natural moisture. This aids in keeping the skin soft and supple while protecting it against drying elements.

Long Time

Doctor: "I advise you to take a hot bath before retiring."

Patient: "Before retiring? I won't be retiring for another ten years."

TV COMMENTARY

By John Smiley

WALTER CRONKITE'S evening news may grow into a 45-minute nightly show, if CBS' quiet husbandry bears fruit. CBS will plough the new ground as soon as enough stations on the local level prune away existing programs, giving CBS the extra time needed.

IF CBS PRODUCES the 45-minute newscast each evening, NBC and ABC could be expected to sow a similar furrow before the chickens roost. A 15-minute head start would give CBS a tremendous advantage in the hotly competitive news market.

THE DAYTIME 90-minute melodramas that were to rotate out the soap-opera-game-show crop of daily fare fell on rocky, barren ground. Housewives found the relatively expensive teleplays to be a used substitute for the bittersweet, tearjerking soaps. NOW THAT Lucille Ball has flown the coop of weekly television, she has the opportunity to play the legendary Lillian Russell (to Jackie Gleason's Diamond Jim Brady). Jackie Gleason has agreed to join her if they can find a time when it's mutually convenient. The show will probably be a special, or a film.

TV RE-RUNS are causing problems with the actors as well as with viewers. The performers may strike next month unless the residual fees that are paid them for repeats is increased significantly. If the actors do strike, the disruption of next season's program production could be worse than the tie-up that resulted from the four-month-long writer's walkout last year.

Fashion

Tops with pants are varied and colorful this season. They may be fly away garments tied on the shoulder and falling just below the waistline or they may be T-shirts of a flowered print or in contrasting color.

Denim, chambray and calico are in the news for play clothes and cotton is high fashion for elegant clothes.

Many of the new pants have bell bottoms.

Law Affects Farm Wages

Recently-enacted federal legislation raised the minimum wage for farm workers who are covered from the present $1.30 to $1.60 an hour, effective May 1. The minimum will increase to $1.80 on January 1, 1975; to $2 on January 1, 1976; to $2.20 on January 1, 1977; and to $2.30 on January 1, 1978. "The differential in minimum wage for agriculture and non-agriculture is wiped out by 1978," points out Kenneth Wolf, economist in Agrirbusiness for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "The newly-enacted amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act do not change the exemption of agriculture from overtime requirements or the '500 man-day' test for coverage of agricultural employers." Wolf advises each farmer to examine his records to determine whether he hired as much as 500 man-days of agricultural labor in any quarter of 1973. If so, the farmer is obligated to pay at least the minimum wage to all labor in 1974. "Covered farm employees need to keep the new minimum wage requirements in mind in recruiting workers for this summer," adds the Texas A&M University System economist. Also effective May 1, certain domestic service workers were covered by the minimum wage law for the first time, notes Wolf. In general, such a worker is covered if employed for a total of more than eight hours in a work week, even if the employment occurs in more than one household. "However, domestic workers are not covered if employed on a casual basis for babysitting or companionship services for individuals who, because of age or infirmity, are unable to care for themselves," explains the economist.

MODERN ROBIN HOOD

MEMPHIS--A man dressed in green and wearing a Robin Hood cap came into the post office, flashed a large roll of bills with a $100 bill on top, and asked for ten $200 money orders. When the clerk returned with the completed money orders, the man grabbed them from his hands and ran out the door.

The minimum rate for newly covered domestic workers is $1.90 an hour. It will increase to $2.00 on January 1, 1975; to $2.20 on January 1, 1976; and to $2.30 on January 1, 1977. For non-agricultural employees covered before 1966, the minimum wage increased from the present $1.60 to $2.00 an hour on May 1. Next January 1 it will go up to $2.10, and a year later, to $2.30.

Bible Rated As More Popular Than Sex Or Diets

The best-selling book of the year 1973 was not a sex book. It was not a diet book. It was a Bible: The Living Bible to be exact. Although sales records indicate the book buying public bought millions of diet and sex books, the Living Bible was again the No. 1 hard-back best seller. Dr. Atkins' diet book and The Joys of Sex ran a poor second and third place.

This is the second year running that The Living Bible has soared into the rarified number one best seller slot.

One million copies were sold in October, another million went out in November, and half a million by the end of December, according to Dr. Kenneth Taylor, president of Tyndale House, publisher of The Living Bible. Seven million copies were sold during 1973.

The total Living Bible sales adds up to a staggering 13 1/2 million volumes since it was first published in late 1971, said Dr. Taylor.

The book's popularity stems, in part, from the fact that it is written in easily understandable contemporary language.

"The average person's need to understand the Bible has contributed to the phenomenal sale of The Living Bible," observed Dr. Taylor.

"The fact that it's published at this time answers that need and insures continued public acceptance by all faiths."

Besides, more than 13 million people must be right.

Persuasive talk is what a man needs when he wants to borrow money.
