Al Lee, a soil technician with the Hereford office of the Soil Conservation Service, received the "Certificate of Merit," during ceremonies Wednesday night in Amarillo.

Light Damage In 1-Car Wreck

A total of $75 in damages resulted in a one-car turnover early Wednesday on Country Club Drive, east of the intersection with Hillcrest Drive. A 1954 Chevrolet driven by Daniel Locker of Star Route was going west on Country Club Drive about 8:25 a. m. when the accident occurred.

Presenting the outstanding achievement award during an area-wide meeting of SCS personnel was H. N. Smith of Temple, who is in charge of SCS in Texas.

Lee, said Smith, received the award for having done an outstanding job in the past year with SCS. Three of the awards were presented during the ceremonies, which were attended by more than 50 persons. A salary increase went along with the award.

Locker told officers that he was going around a slight curve to the left and applied the brakes. The car went off the road to the left, through the bar ditch and overturned after leaving 148 feet of skid marks. Locker told officers the steering locked. A citation was issued for overturning a vehicle due to excessive speed.

Ray Lueb Named 'Bowler of Week'

Ray Lueb was named 'Bowler of the Week' after he had a 656 score during Major League action Tuesday night. Lueb also had the high Three-Game score with 587, while T. K. Anderson had the High Single Game mark with 224.

The High Team Single Game score was 1023 and the High Team 3 Game score 2967. In the Tuesday night action Hereford Flying Service won 4-0 over West Park '66,' the Ink Spot won 4-0 over Boyd Machine Shop; Hacker & Son Meat Co. 3-1 over Klub Island Capri; Hedrick Dodge 3-1 over City Cab Co. and Summerfield Fertilizer and Sunset Lanes split 2-2.

La Plata, Tulia Teams Play Ties

The LaPlata Junior High 7th graders opened their football season Tuesday night and battled Tulia to a 0-0 tie. La Plata had one touchdown called back in the defensive contest. Bobby Bogard and Austin Rose were labeled as stalwarts in the La Plata defense. The La Plata 8th graders also tied Tulia 12-12, but details of that game were not available. Results from that game, as well as the Stanton and La Plata freshmen games, will be in Thursday's Brand.

The campaign for 10,000 signatures to try to defer the military service of two local doctors seems to be going along well, although some resistance has been met from people who are concerned over the Vietnam War and the fact that the military needs doctors too.

Mrs. Chris Brooks, who has been busy getting the petitions signed, reported Friday that the idea of the petitions is to keep the men temporarily — long enough to find additional doctors to relieve the present situation. "We realize that the situation is bad in Vietnam," Mrs. Brooks said, "and we know that the military service must have doctors. We only want to forestall military service for Drs. Johnson and Ballard until such a time as we can secure more doctors for Hereford to replace them. The situation here will be critical when these men leave."

Both doctors are members of the Medical Reserve. Dr. Roy Grubbs, who has resigned from the Hereford Clinic, called to let us know that he will not be leaving Hereford until November 15, rather than October 15 as was reported in the paper. Roy will be going to Amarillo, and will specialize in pediatrics. His wife and family will remain in Hereford until the end of the school year. October 15 as was reported in Amarillo, and will specialize in

Chamber Warns Of Wig Club

Area women are currently being bombarded by offers of free wigs by the Charles Wig Styling Club of Philadelphia, Penn. according to a report received at the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce office. The report from the Amarillo Better Business Bureau stated that the club declined to give the Philadelphia BBB the information requested on July 27, 1967, regarding the organization.

The Philadelphia BBB reports however, that they have had at least 147 complaints alleging either dissatisfaction with the ordered wig or non-delivery. The complaints were forwarded to the company but only four replies were returned to that bureau. Only five of the 147 complainants received a satisfactory adjustment. Anyone who considers purchasing a wig in this manner would do well to consider the risks involved. Some points that would be difficult to insure in a mail order transaction are these: whether you would be satisfied with the color or shade received, whether the wig would be styled to your satisfaction, and whether it would be of the proper size.

Hereford JV's Throttle Dumas 6-0

By JERRY ODOM Brand Staff Writer It took 12 years, but the Hereford Whitefaces finally ran over the Dumas Demons 6-0 in a game of hard-hitting and bone-jarring football Thursday night in Dumas.

The dominance of the Whiteface Junior Varsity in the game is illustrated in more ways than just the score. Hereford picked up a sparkling 274 yards rushing while Dumas achieved only 99 yards. Dumas gained six points on a powerful and agile 17-yard run in the third quarter. McAndrews seemed for a moment to be trapped by a throng of Demons, when he spun out of their grasps. Again, it looked as he were going to be stopped but he dived across the goal line. The conversion attempt was unsuccessful.

Hereford came very close to racking up six more points in the second quarter. It was a fourth-down-and-three yards to go for a TD. The play came around right end on a pitchout to Tailback Randy Ragan, who was stopped six inches short of paydirt.

The most outstanding players for Hereford were members of the defensive unit. Not only did they hold the Demons to 99 yards rushing, but they also recovered four of the Dumas fumbles.

Tackle Tony Gorman, Cornerback Jerry Tyler and Defensive Halfbacks Randy Ragan and Paul Hendon were defensive standouts, with Tyler and Gorman each recovering a fumble. To some people this game may not have seemed very important because it was a Junior Varsity game, but it was for one significant reason. These two teams will be varsity teams for the next two years. What happens in the Dumas-Hereford games of the next two years is an intriguing wonder.

This year the Hereford varsity will try to follow in the footsteps of the JV's as they take on the Demons in Whiteface Stadium on Nov. 17.

Local Man Initiated Into Unique Order

Bruce Lafayette Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce L. Miller of Hereford is a new member of the Order of Gownsmen. The ceremonial investiture where each new member is robed by an old member of the order was included in the Founders' Day ceremonies in All Saints' Chapel at the University of the South.

The Order of Gownsmen is an organization unique at the University of the South, composed of upperclassmen with high academic averages. It acts as the student governing body, and members wear the academic gown to class and to chapel. University of the South, located at Seawane, Tenn., is an educational center of the Episcopal Church, owned and operated by twenty-one Southern Dioceses.

Hostesses for the meeting at St. Anthony's parish school auditorium are Mrs. George Frank, Robert Gerke and Richard Homer.

Cotton Program Has Big Changes

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced a 1968 cotton program which calls for increased plantings of 15 per cent and allows two skip-row planting methods.

Announced during the past week, the program calls for planting of 11.1 million acres—a figure up only 1.5 million acres from 1967 plantings. It is expected that the production will reach about 13.5 million bales under the program, as compared to just over 8 million bales produced this year. The 1967 crop was the smallest output since 1921.

To be put back on the list of accepted planting practices are the two-in-two-out and two-in-one-out methods of skip-row planting. The two practices had been disallowed in 1966 and 1967.

Growers, the USDA announced, will be required to take at least 5 per cent of their allotments out of cotton production in 1968 to qualify for price support loans and federal payments on the required division in 1968. Growers will receive a payment of 10.76 cents a pound on the projected yields assigned to their farms by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The mandatory diversion payments will be equal to 25 per cent of parity, the legal minimum. In addition to the mandatory diversion, the growers next year will have an option of diverting another 30 per cent of their allotments from cotton production at a payment rate of six cents a pound.

Price support loans will be available to cooperating growers next year at a base rate of 20.25 cents per pound for middling-inch at average location, same as this year. Growers also will receive a direct price support of production payment of 12.24 cents a pound on 65 per cent of their allotments, up from 11.53 cents in 1967.

For further information on the 1968 cotton program, contact the ASCS office at 317 W. Third.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

The members and officers of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department wish to take this means of expressing our appreciation to Plains Insurance Agency and others for their help in securing literature, badges, and helmets used during Fire Prevention Week, and also for their assistance in riding the school children in the fire trucks.

While the Department apologizes for any offense or inconvenience caused Hereford citizens during the kiddie rides Thursday, by the end of the day over 900 first grade "junior fire marshalls" were made happy. These rides have been an annual occurrence for twenty years and there have been no complaints until this year, when several were received. The rides will again be given next year and the years after as an integral part of Fire Prevention Week, and it is sincerely hoped that the educational aspects derived by these children will have a greater impact upon the community than a few complaints by self-centered individuals who have been disturbed by the sirens and noise.

Officers of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department.

Water Association Discusses Plans

The Research Committee of Deaf Smith County Water Association met Thursday morning, October 12 to discuss plans for local studies in preparation for an imported water project. The meeting was arranged and conducted by Vice-Chairman Paul Conaway. Others present were Gene Parsley, James Gould, Wilton Green, Justin McBride, Wilburn Axe and Dick Godwin.

Godwin, who is a director of Water, Inc., pointed out that "any area desiring imported water must prove both willingness and capability for meeting the financial obligations involved. Willingness means that farmers are ready to contract for water at a determined price and that all business segments will approve a special benefit tax to cover costs of water above what farmers can afford. Capability means the area can afford to meet repayment schedules. Proof that we are capable of paying for imported water is based upon an analysis of our economy, showing that the productive value of irrigated agriculture exceeds that of dry-land farming sufficiently to justify the cost of imported water. Benefits from irrigation do not end with the farmer. As a matter of fact, studies already show that the farmer's share in benefits from irrigated agriculture is only 23 percent, the remaining 77 percent going to the non-farming businesses."

Conaway suggested that every business in the area depends on irrigated agriculture.

Earl Lowry of Ft. Worth, former resident of this community, was killed on Wednesday night in an automobile accident in the Ft. Worth area. Funeral services were at 2:00 Saturday, in Lakeworth Baptist Church in Ft. Worth.

The family lived in this community during the 40's. His wife, Bess, and sons, Jackie, and Jo Mack, survive him. His sister, Mrs. Charles Krophoff, and aunt, Mrs. E. B. Berryman, are among relatives living here. Mrs. Berryman accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Clark Andrews, Clark Andrews, and Rocky to Ft. Worth, leaving here on Friday.

FIREMEN RECOGNIZED — The Hereford Volunteer Firemen, who observed Fire Prevention Week during the past week, were honored "for recognizing youth as the mainstay of the fire prevention program." Bill Patton and Avis Northcutt of Plains Insurance Agency, sponsors of the program, are holding the flag.

Cub Scouts Get New Charter

A renewed charter was presented to Cub Scout Pack 51, sponsored by St. Anthony's Church, at a recent supper attended by 80 boys and their parents. Awards were also given a number of the boys.

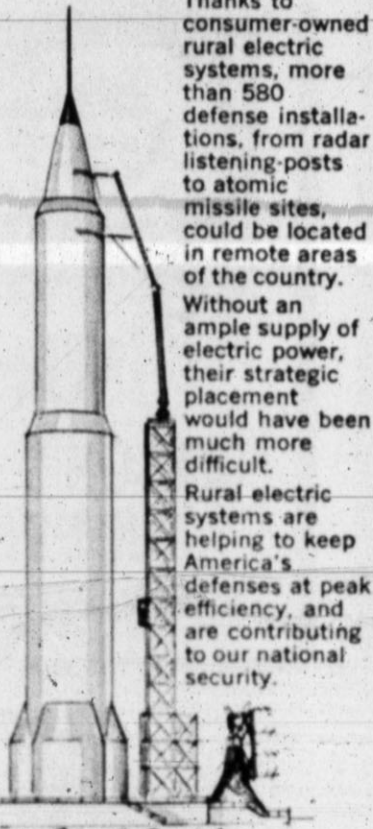

Bob Jones, Scout Executive, commented that the charter renewal to the 10-year-old pack was unusual, as most Cub packs disband before reaching that age. He praised the work of Martin Reed Moore, leader and Walter Craig, assistant.

Recognition was also given the committeemen, Duane Albracht, Albert Ricketts, Leander Reinart and Norbert Skypala, and the den mothers, Mmes. Craig, Moore, James Clarke, Joe Peters and C. P. Urbanczyk. Announcement was made that Mrs. Harlan Vander-Zee, recommended by the district, has accepted appointment as den mothers' coach.

Curtis Stoerner and James Ricketts pack members, who had already earned wolf badges, were presented a row points. Wolf badges were presented to Grag Albracht, Bill Urbanczyk, Rex Reinart, Mark Peters, Greg Skypala, John Paetzold, Benny Moore, Timmy Clarke, Greg Hacker and Tommy Marnell.

A STRONG AMERICA with Rural Electricity...

Thanks to consumer-owned rural electric systems, more than 550 defense installations, from radar listening posts to atomic missile sites, could be located in remote areas of the country.

Without an ample supply of electric power, their strategic placement would have been much more difficult.

Rural electric systems are helping to keep America's defenses at peak efficiency, and are contributing to our national security.

Deaf Smith Co. Has 9 Mishaps In September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 9 accidents on rural highways in Deaf Smith County during the month of September according to Sergeant W. E.visor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed, two persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $12,340.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1967 shows a total of 75 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 36 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $64,940.00.

Traffic wise, the month of October signals the beginning of the most deadly season of the year. From past experience the last three months of the year almost double the number of deaths occurring during the first three months of the year.

The Sergeant listed some factors why these three months are more deadly. (1) October marks the beginning of shorter days and longer nights. These from Kentucky.

Grand Champion in the show was from the Bridwell Hereford Ranch. An earlier story in the Brand had stated that "Vega Mischief" had finished second in the entire show.

Tractor, Pickup Have Wreck

An accident involving a tractor and a pickup on Dairy Road Monday night resulted in a total of $150 damage.

A 1966 International tractor driven by John O. Ralston of Madison, Ind. was stopped at the railroad tracks waiting for the train to pass and a 1965 Chevrolet driven by James Young of Hereford was behind the tractor when the accident

Damage Is $250 In 2-Car Wreck

A citation for failure to grant right of way to oncoming traffic was issued following a two-car accident Oct. 6, on 25 Mile Avenue, near the intersection with Plains.

A 1966 Cadillac driven by Kay Alexander of 131 Kingwood sustained $100 damage and a 1962 Buick driven by Linda Backburn of Route 2 had $150 damage when the vehicles collided.

The Alexander vehicle was going south on 25 Mile Avenue and the Backburn car north on the highway when one driver pulled in front of the other. The accident occurred about 3:50 p.m.

increased hours of darkness will hide dangers otherwise visible during the daylight hours. (2) An increase in traffic due to vehicles conveying school children, football games, harvest vehicles and trailers, and the holidays. (3) Inclement weather conditions. These factors in varying degrees coupled with high speed cause accidents that would not occur in the daytime.

Getting Benefits Considered Easy

There is a first time for nearly everything in life, and many people are sometimes a little uncomfortable as they go into those things that are new, according to Bruce Grady, Field Representative of the Social Security Administration.

When a gateman signaled for the traffic to start, the brakes on the tractor were released and it backed into the pickup. There was no damage to the tractor and no citations were given. The accident occurred about 7:25 p. m.

For most people age 65 and over who enrolled for medicare, there comes a first time to claim medicare benefits to help pay for their doctor bills. Grady says the following is all a person has to do.

The form to be used was included in the green booklet, "Your Medicare Handbook." On the back are simple instructions for completing the form. And most important, only three yes or no answers are needed, plus a brief statement by you describing your illness or injury. Sign the form, enter the medicare claim number from the red, white, and blue medicare card; then all that remains is to attach itemized receipts bills, and mail the one form and the bill bills to Medicare. For most (Texas) people, the address is (P. O. Box 22147, Dallas, Texas 75222.) Grady feels that's as easy as A, B, C or 1, 2, 3.

If help is needed or an explanation is needed before following these instructions, you may wish to call at your nearest social security office. If this is not convenient, you may meet a social security representative at Hereford on every Tuesday at the courthouse.

CLOSED SUNDAYS

COACH IS OPTIMIST SPEAKER — Larry Wartes, athletic director and head football coach at Hereford High School, expounded on his views of athletics and the future of local sports during a talk Thursday at the Hereford Optimist Club.

Optimists Hear Coach Wartes

Hereford High School Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Larry Wartes told members of the Hereford Optimist Club Thursday that he felt students learn a great deal from athletics.

The athletes, explained Wartes, learn courage, confidence, and most important — they learn a cause. "So many young American people today don't even have a cause for living."

"I don't believe there's any other place in the world that you can learn courage like in sports," the coach emphasized. "It's competitive, like the business world and the athletes will learn how it is going to be."

Wartes said "everybody wants to be a first stringer. Every kid on my team is a first stringer in my mind. Sure, we want to be first, but the real value is how much we realize from the overall picture."

According to Wartes, schools will be aligned as to their classification on Oct. 22 and it will be at that time the coaches will know when they will go into Class AAAA. "I hope they do give us time to develop a system, because it's going to take time for us to build a little to be able to compete with the Class AAAA schools."

Wartes said 80 boys present.

Following Wreck

Two citations were given one driver following a two-car collision on 25 Mile Avenue about 1:25 p. m. Thursday.

Officers said a 1965 Ford driven by Fidensio Moreno of 311 Norton Street was going north on 25 Mile Avenue and was making a left turn onto Norton Street. A 1960 Chevrolet driven by Tiburcio Casarez of HerefordCalle was going south on 25 Mile Avenue and the vehicles collided at the intersection.

One driver was given citations for failure to grant right of way and having no driver's license. Damage to each vehicle was estimated at $50.

ly are out for football, the largest in the school's history, "but that is expected because the enrollment is larger." "Certainly, we want to win," continued the coach, "but high school athletics is supposed to be fun. When it stops being fun to me and the boys I'm coaching, I'll quit."

The board of directors for the Optimist Club will meet at 8:30 p. m. Monday at Jones Restaurant.

N. Main Street Scene Of Wreck

North Main Street, in front of the U. S. Post Office building, was the scene of a two-car accident about noon Tuesday which resulted in a total of $300.

A 1967 Ford pickup driven by Martin Wagner of Star Street was going north on Main Street in the 400 block and a 1965 Chrysler driven by Robert Cocanougher of Hereford was angle parked at the curb in front of the Post Office building.

Cocanougher told officers he had his vehicle in reverse with his foot on the brake. The foot slipped off the brake and onto the gas pedal. Cocanougher's car jumped back and was struck by Wagner's pickup. There was an estimated $175 damage to the pickup and $125 to the car.

A citation was issued for causing a negligent collision by an improper start from a parked position.

18-Month Term In DWI Case

Leroy Carolton of Hereford pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense, and was sentenced to 18 months in the Deaf Smith County Jail Friday by 69th District Court Judge Archie McDonald.

In other 69th District Court action, charges of forgery against Bobby Wray were dropped after witnesses were unable to identify him.

Miss Gooch Is Bride Of Billy Joe Wall

Miss Mary Sue Gooch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gooch, 120 Avenue J, and Billy Joe Wall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wall, 519 Avenue J, exchanged wedding vows in an evening ceremony Thursday at Avenue Baptist Church.

The Rev. Ronald Harpster, pastor, officiated and Mr. Gooch gave his daughter in marriage.

Banked greenery with baskets of yellow feathered mums made a floral background for the wedding party.

Miss Becky Bell was the bride's only attendant and Edward Hammett was best man. Johnny Wall and Johnny Gooch acted as ushers.

Before the ceremony Miss Carolyn Parmer sang Whither

Thou Goest, and at the conclusion, Wedding Prayer. Mrs. Harpster played piano accompaniment and the marches.

The gown of white satin and lace worn as a bride by her aunt, Mrs. Kenneth Gooch, was the dress chosen by Miss Gooch. With fitted, lace trimmed bodice and full skirt, it is fashioned with overskirt and train of lace.

Floating over the train in the back, the veil is tiered to waist length at the front. The bridal bouquet was of yellow roses and white carnations.

The maid of honor was dressed in yellow and carried a plume of white carnations tied with yellow ribbons.

For the wedding and the reception afterward in the Kenneth Gooch home; the bride's mother wore a navy knit suit with yellow accents in the accessories, and the bridegroom's mother a three-piece costume of orange and yellow tweed with brown accessories.

Wedding colors were repeated in decor for the reception at 810 Avenue K. Flowers and candles were arranged on the bride's table where the wedding cake and punch were served by Misses Kay Golden and Carolyn Hernandez and a groom's table where Misses Kathy Doughman and Dorinda Wall poured coffee.

Miss Phyllis Richardson was at the guest register. Out-of-city guests present included Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Millsap, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Milsap of Plainview, Mrs. L. A. Wall and Mrs. Waymon Moody of Wellington, Mrs. Jessie Cox of Hobbs, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wal of Dimmitt.

Leaving for a short honeymoon in Red River, N. M. Mrs. Wall traveled in an off-white knit suit accessorized in tan. The couple will be at home in Hereford, where the bridegroom is employed with Walco Drilling Company. He also attends West Texas State University, after graduation last year from Hereford High School. The bride is a high school student.

Highlight of today's races, which begin at 3 p. m., will be a Demolition Derby in which the drivers attempt to put the other cars out of commission while protecting their own. Other special events are expected and the regular races will be run.

To top off the day, several prizes will be presented and some of the cars sold.

Homes Tour Replaces Club Talks

Instead of a customary program in a member's home, the Friday afternoon meeting of Bippus Home Demonstration Club took members to four Hereford homes as they made the flower show-tour of homes sponsored by Garden Beautiful Club that afternoon.

Beginning the special meeting, women from the far northwest reaches of Deaf Smith County who make up the club met for luncheon at the Caison House.

Heavy Damage In Accident Friday

An accident at the intersection of Third and Schley streets just before 1 p. m. Friday resulted in approximately $450 damage to a car, pickup and an office building.

City police said a 1956 Chrysler driven by Martin Maldonado of Hereford was going south on Schley Street and a 1966 Chevrolet half-ton pickup driven by Homer Thomas of 1009 Union was going east on Third Street when they collided at the intersection.

The Pioneer Natural Gas Co. pickup was knocked over the curb and broke a plate glass window in the office of Andrew Shuval, local attorney. The car then continued on south and struck a parked pickup, but no damage was done to the pickup.

The car was considered a total loss by officers, the pickup had $250 damage and the plate glass window was valued at $100.

A citation was issued for failure to yield right of way. The accident occurred at 12:49 p. m.

Thompson Addresses Kiwanians

Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Thompson expressed confidence in Hugh Yantis and the Water Quality Control Board as far as the investigation of pollution in Buffalo Lake and Tierra Blanca Creek concerns Hereford business firms in an address to Kiwanians at their regular noon luncheon Thursday.

Thompson gave various definitions and usage illustrations of the word pollution as concerns bodies of water, stating that when and if a tree overhangs a puddle and sheds its leaves into the water, then that puddle is polluted for all practical purposes. Thompson explained that federal and state agencies were trying to get away from the word pollution, to use instead water quality control.

Stating that the publicity given the pollution problem was initiated by an over-zealous reporter in guest of a journalistic prize, it has since gotten quite out of hand due to unauthorized press releases from opinionated but uninformed sources.

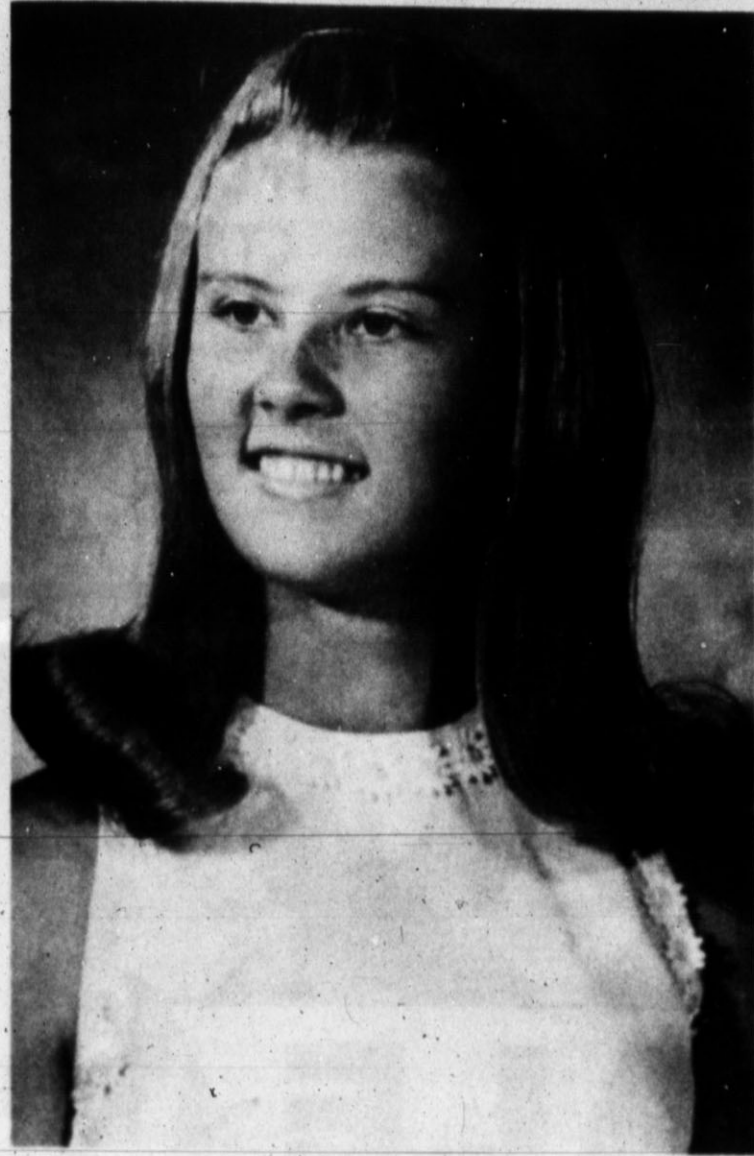

Since there is no release for the waters of Buffalo Lake other than over the spillway, occurrence has not happened in several years, Thompson affirmed the fact that the waters are indeed stagnant, and could not possibly be otherwise. While Hereford, unlike previous ones, Thompson refrained from asserting positively that Hereford organizations now heading the pollution investigation would be fair and unbiased towards

FHA Activities Are Under Way In Schools Here

At an informal party for Future Homemakers members of Hereford High School, Ralph Loerwald was elected FHA Beau for this term. The party was held at Community Center to give members an opportunity to get acquainted with "little sisters," the new members.

Four new members from the high school chapters and 96 from junior-high chapters were present. New members were initiated and officers of Stanton and LaPlata Junior High chapters were installed at a formal program in Stanton auditorium last weekend. Sherry White is president at LaPlata, Marylin Murphy at Stanton.

Current project of the FHA is a "salute to soldiers." Gifts to be sent to U. S. Soldiers, including books, toilet articles and powder to make soft drinks.

Work on the FHA float for the annual Homecoming parade is beginning, at the home of Chris Loerwald.

St. Kitts, Nevis and Anguilla support some 60,000 persons scattered on 135 square miles. The three islands were first visited by Christopher Columbus about 1493.

Local Member Named On State OES Committee

Reports from the recent Grand Chapter meeting of the Order of Eastern Star were given at the local chapter's recent meeting in Masonic Hall. Mrs. Charlie Noland, who ended a term as deputy grand matron for this district, was named a member of the fraternal visitation committee at the meeting.

Her successor as deputy for the district is Mrs. Hazel Nowell of Muleshoe. The new worthy grand matron for Texas is Mrs. Nancy Bailey of San Antonio.

Members from Hereford attending the Dallas meeting, in addition to Mrs. Noland, were Mrs. R. B. Hutson, worthy matron, Mrs. Marple Cline, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Roberson, r. and Mrs. W. C. Hromas.

A holiday bazaar to be held in December was planned but the date has not been decided. Mrs. Art Lewis was hostess chairman and 24 members were present.

Members of the American Junior Bowling Congress met last Saturday at the Hereford Sunset Bowling Alley to conduct a class of about 50 youngsters. Shown is L. J. Clark instructing the students on the correct way to throw the ball. Students were given a chance to practice what they had learned at the last half of the class. Classes are held every Saturday morning at 9:30 at the bowling alley. Roller skating is a sport enjoyed by many children as they are shown above applying their skill at the open house of the Playhouse Skating rink. A penny scramble added to the fun as kids hit the floor to see who wins the most pennies.

EDUCATION

Children are the hope of the future. All Americans believe this to be central to the progress of mankind. Therefore education is our major national endeavor.

For the children of the labor camp, education is wrought with difficulties. First is the tall hurdle of language. Very few of the beginning students in school know English sufficiently to understand their teachers. For them, education is more a parroting of sounds rather than understanding. Crowded living conditions prevent adequate concentration on homework. Even more serious, orientation towards learning, and towards success through education is virtually non-existent. Most of the kids miss two, three or more months of school a year as they migrate across the Southwest. And most never go beyond the seventh or eighth grade.

Combating these difficulties is the main concern of the VISTA's. The tutorial program, to provide individual help for needy children through personal contact with residents of Hereford, was described two weeks ago. The Cub Scouts and the Camp Fire Girls have education as their main concern.

The pre-school program has been a regular institution in the Casa de Amigos. For three hours each week-day morning, approximately 45 children between 4 and 6 years old are taught English, songs and games and various artistic endeavors. Even more important, they obtain confidence in social interaction and impersonal success, and begin to enjoy learning. With a year or more pre-school behind them, these children will have a greater chance for success in later schooling.

This year, two new programs will begin. First, the fifth and sixth grade boys at St. Joseph's School will be taught science one hour a week for the entire year. This is a continuation of the 4-H program of the last few years. The girls are taught cooking and sewing by Fran and Mary, and volunteers from town. Last year the boys were taught electricity. This year the program for boys has been expanded to include all phases of science.

For the first four weeks we will concentrate on botany. The first session (October 4 and 5) included a general introduction and an experiment. Lima bean seeds were planted in 10 cups under varying conditions: sunlight, darkness, wet, dry, good soil, dirt, hot, warm, cold, and finally one cup filled to the top with water, cutting off air. We hope the plants will grow according to the correct conditions.

This last week we went into the basic structure of plants, and the functions of the various parts. We discussed the processes of photosynthesis and reproduction and growth. Finally, we described microscopic plants. In the next two weeks we will go into a discussion of the various kinds of plants as they exist in various environments, and the value of plants to mankind.

The succeeding four weeks will involve a discussion of animals. We have already accumulated a guinea pig, a canary and a parakeet to act as assistant teachers. A discussion of human anatomy and health will bring us to the Christmas vacation. The remaining time will involve chemistry, physics, geology and geography, meteorology and astronomy. During the entire year we will concentrate on experiments, especially those the students can do themselves. All of this will be supplemented by movies and occasional Saturday afternoon field trips (for example to the Holly Sugar plant, the park, and Palo Duro Canyon).

Finally, during all of this program we will be assisted by the able volunteer help of Mr. Ed Dziuk. This help is greatly appreciated by both the VISTA's and the fifth and sixth graders of St. Joseph's School.

A second new education program was just begun last week. This will involve teaching first and second grade children at St. Joseph's who have insufficient English or reading abilities to succeed in school. For an hour after school each Monday, all the children selected by their teachers for this program will meet for educational games and general reading practice. Then the group will be divided into two classes for more intensive and personal education. Those who have little knowledge of English will meet each Tuesday afternoon for English lessons and beginning reading. The remaining children will meet every Thursday afternoon for intensive reading and writing.

For this class I have just completed a flannel board set and a phonetic alphabet kit. Each sound in the English Language is given a separate color. There are only 47 different sounds in English, but because of the many different languages that have led to its creation, each sound can be spelled in many different ways. All letters but "v" and "r" are included in more than one sound group — either by itself or in a combination of letters (such as "ough"). Some of the letters are included in many of the groups (there are 36 E's, 24 H's, and 22 O's). It was necessary to make a total of 252 separate letters, each colored with one of 47 different crayons, and pieces of sandpaper glued on the back. With the language sounds in a more rational order, perhaps reading will be easier for them. Hopefully, this set will see extensive use throughout the year.

In the two weeks I have been teaching at the school, I can foresee many problems for the future. Because of the lack of orientation towards learning, it is difficult to hold the interest of the children for the length of the class. For the younger ones (and somewhat less for the sixth graders), there is a serious problem of discipline. Shouting, punctuated by occasional pat on the behind are only partially successful. At the same time I must make the class pleasant for them so that they will want to learn and want to return (bribery with candy sometimes increases incentive). However we all hope that our efforts will have a significant affect on the children we teach. Perhaps for a few, their lives will lead through new paths towards new goals, through education, sparked by our efforts. Then our year's work in this labor camp will be successful.

HEREFORD MAN'S FIANCEE — Miss Shelly Irene Walker's engagement to Sgt. Frank Dutton, USMC, now stationed at El Toro, Calif., has been announced in her home city, Anaheim, Calif. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Walker of Anaheim and is employed at a clinic there. Dutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dutton, Route 5, was graduated from Hereford High School and attended West Texas State University two years before joining the Marine Corps. He expects to be discharged from military service soon and the couple plans to be married in Anaheim early in 1968.

Letter To The Editor

I just read the Hereford Brand and was distressed beyond belief that the county commissioners had turned down a possibility of warming signs and gates on the Santa Fe crossing in Dawn. I hope to hear very soon that there was a very good reason for refusing to cooperate. We have begged, pleaded, written and petitioned for a crossing in Dawn for years. It is such a terrible hazard as one cannot see to the east far enough for a safe crossing. If there is any doubt about there being a great deal of traffic you might come count the grain, ensilage, and cattle trucks alone that cross the railroad daily — particularly during harvest season. And our children — the school bus crosses at least twice, part of the time four times daily. Do we have to have a tragedy similar to the one in Nebraska to wake us up? I pray not.

It hardly seems reasonable to spend thousands on new vehicles and neglect the safety of hundreds. I hope this will help to put the value of human life in proper perspective, though I feel surely there must be circumstances not evident that would explain the action taken. Sincerely, Mrs. Ray Stewart

H.D. CHATTER Fall Recipe Requests

By Mrs. Argen Draper Home Demonstration Agent

The last food preservation of the season is being done and requests have come for these fall recipes:

SAUERKRAUT
Select mature, sound heads of cabbage or lettuce for kraut. Remove all damaged or dirty leaves; quarter the heads and slice off the core portion. Remember that washing the vegetables too thoroughly or soaking in water removes lactic acid bacteria needed for fermentation.

Weight five pounds of cabbage and two ounces (1/4 C. salt). Shred cabbage directly into jar or keg without exposing it to the air. Sprinkle salt over shredded cabbage. Too much salt prevents fermentation and uneven distribution may cause red streaks in the brined product.

Keep vegetable under brine by adding weight; a plate weighted down or a plastic bag filled with water. A scum will form on top of the brine in a day or two; this should be carefully skimmed off daily as it tends to destroy the acidity, break down the vegetable, and weaken the acid content.

The best temperature for curing is between 75 and 85 degrees F and requires from 10 days to three weeks. Two temperature retards fermentation and too high temperature during curing periods may cause rosy brine and spoilage. When kraut is made, seal in jars.

PICKLED OKRA
Soak okra overnight in a brine made of 2 teaspoons alum and 1/4 cup salt in 1/2 Gallon water. Rinse in clear water and pack in jars. Cover with a hot solution made of the following:
1 1/2 C. water
2 C. white vinegar
2 T. salt
2 t. mustard seed
1 t. dill seed
Hot green peppers
Seal while hot.

GREEN TOMATO MINCE MEAT
1 pt. chopped green tomatoes
1 1/2 pt. chopped tart apples
2 t. cinnamon
1 t. salt
1 t. all-spice cloves
3 cups sugar
1 lb. raisins
1 c. suet
1 c. vinegar
Peel and chop the apples and then mix all ingredients together. Bring to a rapid boil and simmer until thick. Pour into jars and seal.

WITH FALL IN THE air, it is time to think about turkey baking. Thawing frozen turkeys at room temperature is now safe and practical. The secret is to thaw the turkey in a closed paper bag. The bag keeps the temperature low enough to protect quality and this method is more convenient than thawing in a refrigerator or under tap water.

Many processors hesitate to recommend room-temperature thawing. Although this has been a common practice, the outside surface of the bird can be exposed long enough and at temperatures high enough for bacteria to multiply.

Refrigerator thawing avoids this danger. But, research has shown that if the bird is kept in its plastic wrap and placed in a paper bag at room temperature, the atmosphere inside the bag is only slightly warmer than the atmosphere of the refrigerator. Thus, the bird can be thawed completely without exposing the surface to temperature higher than 55 degrees F.

Large birds, 20 to 25 pounds, should thaw for 16 hours; small birds, 8 to 12 pounds, should thaw for 12 hours. Cook the turkey within one to three hours after thawing. When the turkey has thawed and is ready to cook, salt inside the turkey.

East Park Ave. Scene Of Wreck

East Park Avenue and Avenue J was the scene of a two-car accident Oct. 6 which resulted in a total of $120 damage.

Officers said a 1963 Pontiac driven by John William Hall of 12 Avenue J and a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Deborah Boardman of Route 3 both were going west in the 100 block of East Park Avenue about 7:10 p. m. when one driver attempted to pass and the other driver turned in his path.

There was $100 damage to the Boardman vehicle and $20 to the other car. A citation was issued for making an improper right turn.

MARRIED 64 YEARS — Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pinckert observed their 64th wedding anniversary Tuesday in a way unusual for octogenarians — they repainted the kitchen of their home at 1014 E. Third St., walls and ceiling. Spending the day quietly, the lively Hereford couple went about their usual active lives on the anniversary, and the interior decorating chore was simply the next thing on the agenda. Married in Minnesota in 1903, the Pinckerts have lived in this area nearly 50 years, moving to Hereford in 1946 after ranching and farming in the Jumbo community.

Two Injured In Head-on Wreck

A head-on collision on East Highway 60 about 9:30 p. m. Oct. 7 resulted in a total of $1,200 damages and minor injuries to two persons.

Treated and released at Deaf Smith County Hospital following the wreck were Pamela Nakasawa 17, of the West Mobile Lodge, and Tony Cahill, 33, of 118 Fuller.

Investigating officers said a 1959 Pontiac driven by Stanley Simons of 340 Avenue A was going east on U.S. 60 and a 1965 Chevrolet driven by Richard Sabufo Nakasawa of the West Mobil Lodge was going west on the divided highway when one of the drivers attempted to turn across the opposite lane and the car hit head-on. There was an estimated damage of $600 to each car. A citation was issued for failure to yield right of way.

Style Satirized In Club Revue

Satirized and discussed seriously, Fall Fashion was the topic for La Madre Mia Club's program Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Dean Herring with Mrs. Carl Carlile as co-hostess. Mrs. John E. Smith directed a mock style revue and was the speaker. Models who illustrated such terms as knife peats and block silhouette with real knives and blocks were Mmes. Jon Cranford, Bill Lankford, Joe Penner and Herring. Then two smart fall costumes from Gaston's Store were modeled by Jean King.

Mrs. Smith listed principles of good style, advising club members to desire to look their best, but not cater to fads which are merely seasonal. She gave three guides to choosing a costume: Be yourself, dare to use colors, buy for quality instead of price.

Reports from the rummage sale held recently to benefit the club treasury were given in the business period with Mrs. Penner presiding.

Members also present were Mmes. Don Walser, Travis Tay-

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Like I say, when you begin wondering out loud about something, you are likely to find out all sorts of things. That's why it's fun to wonder.

A LETTER CAME this week from Anchorage, Alaska, and to me the postmark was exciting. I don't know anybody in Anchorage! It's from Arlis Simms Tewell, and doubtless some of the oldtimers of Deaf Smith County do know her. It's such a nice letter that I'm going to claim her now as a friend in Anchorage.

The J.G. Fortenberrys, she wrote, sent her clippings of this column when I was wondering just how Simms community got its name. Arlis says she is "one of the Simms girls", and sends some notes on the naming of the school out northwest of Hereford where the family of "Apple Pie" lived.

DON'T YOU LIKE her father's nickname? It derives from his initials, A.P., and he was one of a large family of boys which migrated west from Tennessee in the 1800's and settled in Bell County. As they grew up several of the boys moved farther west. The oldest, A.P., "took out a claim" on Deaf Smith County land and brought his young family here early in the present century. The homestead of two sections was 35 miles northwest of town out the rolling grassland country.

Simms worked as a carpenter along with his ranching, and during school terms the family lived in Hereford so the four older children could attend school. Summers were spent in the ranch, where the father cultivated part of the land and started a "nice herd of white-face cattle."

AFTER A FEW YEAR Molly Simms tired of having the family separated so much of the year, and decided that she and the children would stay with her husband on the ranch year-round. That called for schooling for the young homesteaders, so the Simms began to work toward a community school. Five more children were added to their family as time went by.

Classes were first held in 1912 in a one-room cabin in the old Robertson place with seven or eight pupils, four of them Simms girls. Next term there were no other children in the area, so Miss Birdie Mitchell resided with the Simms family and taught in the home. In 1914 school was held in a house on the old Chapple place with Miss Jennie Carter (now Mrs. J. J. Buckner of Hereford) as teacher. Mrs. Buckner has told of her experience; unable to find a place to live near the school, she suggested that Bessie Simms, who by then was qualified to teach, be given the job.

THE COMMUNITY WAS growing and by the summer of 1914 the ranchers got together and built a one-room school building, giving it the name of Simms School. Larger buildings were erected later and the school functioned until recent years brought paved roads, buses and consolidated schools.

To Mrs. Tewell I'm much indebted for this fragment of Deaf Smith County history, interesting to many residents here, and I hope it will renew the remembrance of Arlis Simms in some of her old acquaintances.

Her address, incidentally, is 7327 Spruce St., Anchorage, Alaska, 99502.

AND I STILL wonder what Lawton Street is named for.

Robert E. Peary's 23-year campaign to reach the North Pole probably began in 1885 with a visit to a Washington, D. C. bookstore. There the 29-year-old Navy civil engineer read a paper on the Greenland ice cap.

Mrs. Cline Is Honored At LA Meeting

Mrs. Marie W. Cline, 221 Elm, Hereford, medical assistant to Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic, was among 74 medical assistants honored at luncheon in Los Angeles Saturday, Oct. 14 during the American Association of Medical Assistants' 11th annual convention at the International Hotel. These 74 individuals—certified in 1967—join the 159 medical assistants already certified under this program.

"Certified Medical Assistants" according to AAMA Certifying Board Chair, Mrs. Mary Kinn Santa Anna, Calif., "have achieved the highest professional level, and thus are rated as the best qualified and most highly skilled medical assistants in the nation."

To be eligible for the rigid Certification Examination a candidate must be a high school graduate, at least 21 years of age, and have a minimum of three years of employment by a licensed Doctor of Medicine (including 12 continuous months of employment by the same physician). Certification may be attained in either the clinical or administrative categories, or both. The medical terminology, medical ethics, human relations, communications, and laboratory orientation

Overseeing the examination is a Certifying Board consisting of 16 members—six Certified Medical Assistants; plus the AAMA four physicians, and four educators.

AAMA is an educational, non-profit organization designed to maintain and advance high standards of professional self-improvement among its 12,500 nurses, medical secretaries and technicians. National headquarters are located at North Dearborn Street, Chicago—Illinois 60610.

World Fair Trip Is Club Topic

A firsthand report of Expo '67, the Canadian world fair at Montreal which she visited in the summer, was given by Mrs. Emil Dettman for Calliopean Study Club Thursday evening.

Mrs. Sam Self was hostess in her home. Subject of the program, one of a series on the general theme, "Que Pasa?" or "What Is Happening," was Que Pasa Around the World? Slides and pictures which Mrs. Dettman brought from her trip illustrated her graphic description of fair sights and her tour of the city of Montreal. She gave details of the United States, Soviet and Czechoslovakian buildings at the fair.

As club president, Mrs. Dettman also conducted a brief business period in which members agreed to serve as hostesses at Deaf Smith County Museum during open hours in the month of May. Announcement was made that Dr. C. E. Hicks will be guest speaker at the next meeting, Oct. 26.

Members present included Mmes. Hazen Woods, George Warner, Gene Parsley, M. W. Nobles, Emmett Milburn, Ansel McDowell, Sue James, Roy Grubbs, J. T. Gilbreath Jr., C. J. Crump, Paul Coneway, Clyde Cave, B. F. Cain and Irving Alexander.
