

BOOMING INDUSTRY — Hereford and the surrounding area has come to the forefront in recent years as one of the leading Panhandle counties in beef production. It has been estimated that there are from 150,000 to over 300,000 head of livestock within a 20 mile radius of the city. Although it is one of the county's oldest industries, cattle production has been spotlighted by a recent concentration of feeding operations. Pictured is approximately 20,000 head of livestock at Easley Feed Yards Inc. located on Harrison Highway. See story on ABI page of this edition. (Hereford Brand Photo by Joe Bran.)

Vocational School Contract Is Let

Bids were opened Tuesday night for construction of the vocational addition to Hereford High School. Bob Hunter Construction Company Inc. of Lubbock submitted the low bid of $260,900 and satisfied the board in conversation that he could complete the job in time for state requirements on some courses next fall.

In a field of ten bidders, the Hunter Company stated that they could complete the structure in 270 days. The board felt that this time would be detrimental to the development of cosmetology students who have to have a certain number of days to make their course acceptable to the state board of cosmetology.

Since some of the equipment from the present lab for the girls would have to be moved into the new building as part of the construction is completed the old lab would be useless for their training. Superintendent Johnny Clark said.

Hunter said that he could finish it earlier than the 270 days for that particular portion.

After a conference the board offered a cash incentive to the contractor. The contract will require that the cosmetology lab be finished in 210 days and that the other part of the vocational building be completed within 240 days. Failure on the part of Hunter to complete the building according to this schedule would result in the forfeiture of $1500 for every one day over either time. After the 270 days, he would be penalized $50 a day for each day over the 270 that construction required.

The board explained the unusual forfeiture as being necessary to push completion for the cosmetology lab. The original bid had been $1500 under the figure finally submitted by Hunter, the school board being authorized by law to negotiate with the contractor.

Budget Proposal Is Biggest For Chamber

Routine action involving the approval of a record $51,400 budget marked the Wednesday morning meeting of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

The 1967 budget, which is the largest budget in the history of the Chamber, according to Bill Thompson, Chamber Manager, represents an increase of $9,400 over the 1966 budget of $42,000. Of the $51,400 budget, $37,000 will come from dues income. Thompson explained, and he further indicated that the remaining amount will be solicited separately for special projects such as the annual banquet, Christmas decorations, and the highway development Association work. An average general fund (dues income) budget for Texas towns the size of Hereford is around $20,000, as compared to Hereford's 1967 general fund budget of $37,000, according to Thompson.

Two recommendations from the Government Affairs Committee, recommendations approved by the board, included support for a permissive city sales tax. We are not saying that Hereford should have a sales tax, Thompson explained, we're just saying that legislation should be passed so that people can express their opinions here and other places.

The second recommendation approved by the Board was a statement which gives support to Western Information Network, a closed circuit television net.

Center Is Open Sunday, Feb. 5

The Easter Lions announce the opening of the new Easter community building Sunday, February 5. The Lions are the sponsoring club for the building.

Pat Thompson, the club's publicity chairman, invited the public to come to the open house from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Refreshments will be served and entertainment provided.

The building will be completed this week, Thompson said.

County Men Attend

Deaf Smith County members of the High Plains Undergrround Water District will attend a one day water conference in Lubbock tomorrow.

The conference is the fifth annual meeting of West Texas Water Conference.

To be conducted by the West Texas Water Institute, the conference will feature discussions on Tech's new International Center for Arid and Semi Arid Land Studies, weather modification, local research on water use efficiency, the Texas Water Plan and the economic importance of water.

All sessions will be in the Tech Union Building. Joe G. Moore Jr. of Austin, Texas Water Development Board director will speak on Texas Water Planning at 9:20 a.m.

Tech Agricultural Economics Prof. James E. Osborn will speak on the Importance of Major Irrigated Crops to Agricultural Input Suppliers of the Texas High Plains.

Other speakers during the day will be Roland Willis of the Soil Conservation Service in Lubbock. Dr. J. Robert Stinson, associate chief of the Office of Atmospheric Water Resources in Denver.

Tech President Grover E. Murray will be the luncheon speaker.

Dr. Victor Hauser, research agricultural engineer with the Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland will open the afternoon sessions with a discussion of groundwater.

Sugar Growers Accept Contract

Local sugar beet growers began signing contracts with Holly Sugar Corporation here this week for the 1967 growing season.

Activity is expected to pick up next week with growers accepting the 30 cents a ton raise in price. The raise is straight across the board and is not affected by sugar content.

Also encouraging to farmers in the area is the lifting of government restrictions on acreage devoted to sugar beets.

Dexter Lillie, Hereford district manager for Holly, said that some contracts were signed Tuesday.

The listing of acreage restrictions by the Secretary of Agriculture early in January will allow old Hereford district growers to increase their plantings to desired levels. It will also allow new growers to plant beets and establish acreage histories which provide specific base allotments in the event that acreage controls are imposed in the future. We are looking forward to some 38,500 acres of sugar beets in 1967," Lillie said.

He praised the advanced agricultural practices commonly employed throughout the Texas-New Mexico area which have made sugar beets an ideal crop in the sound rotation program of Hi Plains farmers.

Lillie observed that Holly agriculturists expected to complete acreage contracting by mid-February. In 1966, he noted, some 450 growers raised beets in the Texas-New Mexico area and some increase in this number was anticipated under the current program.

Contracts were prepared after negotiations between Holly and Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association were finalized.

Record Marked By Area Voters

A record number of Deaf Smith County residents registered to vote during January, eclipsing the mark of 3,575 paid registrants for the 1964 Presidential election.

Tax Assessor-Collector Neil Miller said Wednesday that 3,819 persons had registered by the deadline at midnight Tuesday and any letters which arrive postmarked Jan. 31 also will be counted.

Registration was a free this year since the poll tax had been abolished in the November election. The tax office remained open until the deadline Tuesday, with 62 persons registering after 5 p.m.

Mrs. Miller also reported that car registration, which began Wednesday morning, is "booming."

Oldham Residents Have Visiting Doctor

By TOM PORTER

A three month trial period, during which doctors from the Hereford Clinic will treat patients in Vega and the surrounding area, appears to be progressing satisfactorily for all concerned.

Doctors Noble Ballard, H. R. Johnson and B. G. Beene began Jan. 4 working in the Vega clinic three days a week. By mid-morning Monday, after 11 visits which almost always are only half a day each, they already had received 128 patients.

The local physicians began making the 30-mile trip to Vega soon after the community's only doctor moved away. Residents there found that the U. S. Government also is demanding doctors to fill a need in Vietnam.

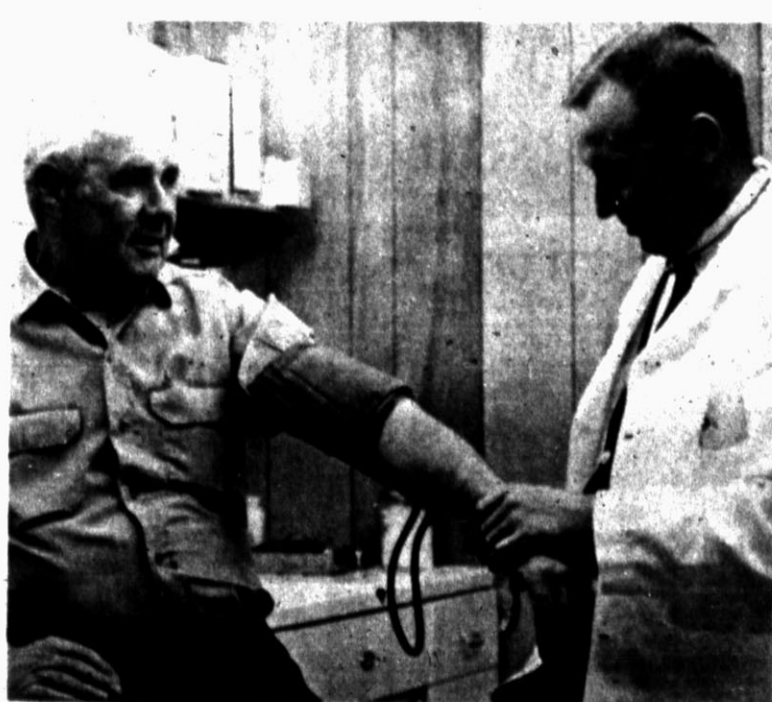

Several Vega residents contracted doctors in the Hereford Clinic and persuaded them to lend a hand. "We enjoy working with the people up there," said Dr. Johnson, who handles patients each Friday. "Of course they have their problems just like the people in Hereford, and our job is helping others."

Dr. Ballard, who visits the clinic each Monday, explained that the work consisted mainly of "a dispensary type medicine" because of the present lack of facilities. Only the basic medical equipment is now in the clinic, with examining tables and instruments having been brought from Hereford. No surgery, baby deliveries, or house calls is done.

"We can do the routine blood count and urine analysis, but most of the laboratory tests are brought back to Hereford," said Ballard. "Winter colds are most common now, but treatment usually is for things people will ignore if they have to drive 30 to 35 miles."

It has been estimated that the Vega Clinic offers services to about 6,000 people from Adrian, Boys Ranch, Wildorado and the surrounding areas. The clinic also is the closest medical spot in 50 to 60 miles for some area residents.

Dr. Beene explained that "they have to seek emergency treatment elsewhere as they have done in the past, but I feel that we have taken a great burden off them."

Raymond Thompson, president of the First State Bank in Vega and one of the persons instrumental in getting the Hereford doctors to make the visits, said he feels the people are "more than happy." Of course, we know that everything isn't perfect with facilities and such, but the people are just tickled to death to have any kind of medical facilities.

"Many Vega people traveled to the Hereford Clinic for treatment anyway," Thompson continued, "so we feel like we're kind of at home with the boys. To us, they're widening the scope of the Hereford area in taking care of our needs, and we want to work hand in glove with them."

Each of the three Hereford doctors said they felt the number of patients was increasing all the time. "It takes the people a little time to get accustomed to us being here, but they are very understanding and it's working out pretty well," said Ballard.

Dr. Johnson also described the visits as "an overall rewarding experience for us all. We're helping them out and it's helping us too. We're meeting new people and making new friends."

Each of the doctors said plans call for the visits to continue so long as they don't interfere with treatment of Hereford patients. The doctors take their own nurses along to assist at the clinic, and Mrs. Leona Brandes serves as receptionist.

Thompson said the city and county officials in Vega "are bidding our time now. We hope in due time that the men from the Hereford Clinic can help get someone in here to take over our clinic. Meanwhile, anything we can do to help them out will be done."

Glad's Garden

PAPER GARDENING

We are living in a day when paper is being used for many things. One of the latest adaptations for paper is, that it is now being used for clothing. Some of the new styles in ladies dresses are being shown in paper. This is the time of year, when we gardeners can put paper to a good use, namely Paper Gardening. It's the season when a lot of folk like to think about planning their flower and vegetable gardens, and the overall landscape design.

For your paper gardening you will need a large piece of graph paper. Scale it to your overall dimensions. Place the house, and other permanent properties, and the plantings which are already there. Designate the permanent things by one color of pencil, and the others that you plan to plant by another color.

In this method you can at a glance see what has been accomplished, and what you are to work towards.

If you are a new home owner, and there is nothing permanent other than the house, then you will make a complete new plan. Let me warn that this is a matter that cannot be done hastily. It should be carefully and thoroughly thought out before you do any of the PAPER gardening.

Select authoritative books on landscape design, purchase advice from a landscape architect, or nurseryman. To this add a collection of plant and seed catalogues, books on gardening which are reliable. Read and study carefully, then proceed with your design for landscaping, on your graph paper.

One of the first considerations in landscaping, is that you are striving for beauty. To appreciate beauty and to create beauty, we must possess a real desire for the beautiful. If this is your desire, you will have a beautiful place. There are general principles of design which must be considered to achieve the kind of home grounds you want.

Dr. Elo Urbanovsky, of Texas Tech Landscape and Park Management Department states in the book, "Planting for the Plains," that "there are generally THREE areas to be considered, namely the public area, the work area, and the liveable area.

The public or entrance area, is usually that part of the grounds viewed from the street. It has a three fold purpose, one, to give a pleasing appearance to the house, to tie the house with the surrounding grounds, and to provide something beautiful for your neighbors and the passers-by.

The work area or service area includes space for playgrounds, tool storage hobby grounds, utility area, and other necessary, but somewhat unsightly provisions. This area should be screened so that it is not visible from either the street or the liveable area.

Liveable area is one of the most important. It should be thought of as another room with the advantages of the out of doors. There should be a feeling of privacy, spaciousness, balanced composition with spots of interest and touches of originality. All should be so arranged as to provide the maximum use and effect. To meet this requirement family needs should be listed. Let each have a share in plans for this area.

Sylvia Crowe, a distinguished landscape architect, suggests that the following should have much consideration in our landscaping. They are, 'unity, scale, time, space-division, light and shade, texture, tone and color, and styles.

UNITY may be achieved in gardening by repetition. For example in the lovely Trivoli Gardens in Copenhagen, Denmark, we noted that unity is given by the repetitive pattern of bubbling fountains. Climate imposes unity, in that wind and its full force will give a clipped shape or character to a garden. Form is another means of achieving unity in our gardens.

SCALE deals with the limitless expanse of sky and horizon, a means of achieving this is by enclosure, such as walls, fences or hedges, in other words the boundaries.

TIME, is one of the differing factors from all other arts. No garden design springs to life fully as a finished work of art, time governs this. (A note of warning, DO NOT OVER-PLANT, use discretion and judgment in purchasing of planting materials or other accessories. It is much better to have one good plant than a half dozen of mediocre quality. An excellent objective to keep in mind is SIMPLICITY)

SPACE is that fundamental pattern which results from open spaces, and solid mass. Spaces are open ground or water. Solids consist of trees, shrubs, rocks, or statuary.

LIGHT AND SHADE. A sudden blaze of sunlight, or a bit of blue sky gives a delightful effect of Light and Shade. Sunlight is necessary for our gardens, and helpful to people. Shade effect can be aesthetic.

TEXTURE is that feeling of different materials used or planted in the garden, for instance foliage and ironwork, contrasts of rocks, and or other garden accessories, also patterned soil and water.

TONE AND COLOR is eye appeal. Don't make the garden have a spotty effect by planting a mixture of colors here and there. A blend of color, a contrast, or complementary co-

DWI Is Charged After Accident

Alberto M. Gutierrez, Rt. 3 was charged by police with driving while intoxicated following an accident on 25 Mile Ave. Saturday night.

A vehicle owned by the Amer-lor harmony, or a monotone in greens, either can be wonderful when properly executed in the design.

STYLED should be compatible with the architecture of the house, and other buildings. If a western style, then do not use colonial or early American styled design or fixtures in the garden design. Yards and or gardens are expressive of the characteristics of the people who live in the house.

Adopt the pace of nature, her secret is PATIENCE.

ican Cynamide Co. 807 S. 25 Mile Ave. was parked on the right side of the street and Gutierrez told police he was attempting a right turn onto Bradley St. when the collision occurred.

The house of T. E. Brisendine, 825 25 Mile Ave., was also damaged, with 2 boards on the corner of the house and some cement broken. Damage to the house totaled $80.

Damage to the parked automobile was estimated by police at $600 while the Gutierrez vehicle incurred $500 damage. The vehicle driven by Gutierrez is owned by Martin Gutierrez.

When you are using a double boiler for custards or Hollandaise sauce, make sure that the water in the bottom part of the boiler does not touch the top and does not boil during the cooking of the custard or sauce.

Oil Portrait Painting Will Be Taught At Local Gallery

Leona Turner is scheduled to begin classes at the Hereford Art Gallery on February 14th. The Amarillo artist has studied under Dr. E. Caballero and Olive Van Druff Bugbee, both of West Texas State University, as well as several other leading art instructors.

Hereford Art Gallery owner and manager, Mrs. Juandell Wade, explained that Mrs. Turner's classes were desired by artists in the area. "We are seeing after the business part of Mrs. Turner's classes," Mrs. Wade stated.

Mrs. Wade said the classes will be $40 for ten lessons. "There are still openings," she said, "and if enough come, we will have two classes."

To be held at the Hereford Art Gallery, located at Lee and 35 Mile Avenue, the classes will deal with portrait oil painting. Classes will be taught from 1-4 P. M. on Mondays.

Noting that Mrs. Turner will be available to do portraits in the mornings, Mrs. Wade explained that Mrs. Turner has done over 600 portraits.

Mrs. Turner, whose husband, George E. Turner, has done both art work (including the cover) and writing for the new Southwest Heritage Magazine, published locally by Pioneer Publishers has held a variety of artist positions in the area. She has served four years as staff artist for the Globe-News Publishing Company, Amarillo, one year as an illustrator for Lloyd Cook Art Service, Amarillo, and three years as a special art consultant for Russell Stationery Company, Amarillo.

In addition to the study at W. T. S. U., Mrs. Turner has studied at the University of Texas and Texas Women's University. At Cloudford Mrs. Turner had portrait painting classes under Ramon Froman and landscape painting classes under Harold Roney.

Mrs. Turner said that she is a demonstrator for Grumbacher, "the largest manufacturer of paints and supplies in the country," according to Mrs. Turner. "A group can hire me to do a demonstration she explained, "and I will be able to distribute Grumbacher samples."

Pioneer Of 87 Feted

His 87th birthday was celebrated by Vern Witherspoon, Deaf Smith County pioneer, on the weekend when his two sons and members of their families were here. The actual birth date was Jan. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Witherspoon came from Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Witherspoon and son, Neal, from Albuquerque, and the family enjoyed the week end together at the parents' home, 201 N. Jackson.

Witherspoon, who has operated an electrical shop here and is a former city commissioner, was a boy of 10 when he came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Witherspoon, from Ellis County to Deaf Smith County in 1890. His father filed on the section of land adjoining LaPlata, then the county seat.

The boy worked with his father and older brother on their ranch, and when he was only 12 became a cowhand for the Escarbada Division of the XIT Ranch, attending school in the months when ranch work was slack. After the town of LaPlata was moved in 1899 to the site on the railroad which became Hereford, Witherspoon and others in his family moved also.

Her married Myrtle Cornelia Bove in 1906; they recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

CAP Unit Works On Memberships

After a call for new members, the local unit of the Civil Air Patrol has three prospects who attended the regular meeting of the group last Monday evening at Northwest Elementary School.

Bill Thompson, who in his words "wears about four hats" in the organization, stated that the local unit has one senior member prospect and two cadets prospects. "However," he added, "no applications have been processed as yet." Thompson indicated that the local CAP unit can accept new cadet prospects for the next two meeting nights at which time the enrollments must be closed. Lynn McLarty is the Deputy for Cadets in charge of cadet enrollment, according to Thompson.

CAP, which is a civilian auxiliary for the Air Force, offers advantages to young men facing military service. "The boy who enlists goes into the Air Force as an Airman 3rd Class, and the CAP applicant who applies to the Air Academy or advanced Air Force ROTC is eligible for a ten-point preference on entrance qualifications," Thompson stated.

Jurors Named For Petit Jury

A total of 120 prospective jurors have been summoned to appear in 99th District Court at 1:30 p. m. Monday as jury trials are set to begin.

First case to be heard after the jury is chosen will be the assault with intent to murder trial of William B. Clifford of Canyon, Clifford, who is serving a two-year term in the state penitentiary for the April 8 murder of his wife, was brought from Huntsville Jan. 21 to the Deaf Smith County jail.

Clifford is charged with the shooting of Billy Joe Stevens of Hereford on April 8 at a local feed yard. He appeared in 99th District Court on Oct. 28 to face the charge here, and at that time his attorneys asked for a change of venue.

The request was denied, but just before selection of the jury began in the case, one of Clifford's attorneys, Shuford Farmer of Waco, suffered a heart attack. A motion for postponement by the defense was accepted and the trial rescheduled. Farmer is expected to return for the trial and will work with Frank Baughman of Amarillo.

Also on the schedule is the assault with intent to murder trial of Charley Johnson Jr., who is charged with shooting two persons on June 19, and the case of Jimmy Ray Myers, charged with driving while intoxicated, second offense.

The prospective petit jurors are Mrs. Charles Sowell, H. D. Fowler, Mrs. George Jowell, Frank Garcia, Joseph A. Meyer, Mrs. J. L. Fite, A. T. Griffin, J. R. Hickman, T. B. Thomas, Mrs. Ed Dziuk Sr., and Labry Ballard.

Fifth Birthday Is Celebrated

Five years old Wednesday, Valerie Barkley was honoree at a birthday party in the home of her parents, the Dale Barkleys, 132 Aspen. A circus theme was used in games and decorations on the table where individual candle-light cakes were served. Favors were balloons printed with the words, Happy Birthday, Valerie.

Guests were Tonya Landers, Carla West, Denise Smith, Joyce McCullar, Barry Jackson, Melissa Harpster, Joy and Doug Gresham, Chris Burt, John David Nance, Cindy Fuller, Cynthia Thomas, Laurie Parvin of Texico, Gary Don Malone of Dimmitt and the honoree's sister, Alisa.

Johnny Cain, an assistant football coach at the University of Mississippi, captained the 1932 Alabama football team under Coach Frank Thomas.

Mother's Rites To Be Conducted

The family of Bill Shoemaker, 611 N. Main, will attend funeral services for his mother, Mrs. Otella Shoemaker, in Oklahoma City today. Mrs. Shoemaker was a resident of that city and died there earlier this week.

In addition to the son in Hereford she is survived by a daughter and two other sons.

Di-Syston Impregnated Fertilizer

NOW AVAILABLE

SUGAR BEETS

POTATOES

A systemic fertilizer that not only provides "Inside Plant" protection against leaf hoppers (Curly Top) - in sugar beets - but also provides special Fertilizer Response because of being placed 8 inches below beet seed area. Tests indicate possibilities of up to a 10-ton increase over normal practices.

Di - Syston impregnated fertilizers have helped save the potato industry in the Northwest -applying Di-Syston in the same way fertilizer is normally applied to potatoes at planting.

Di-Syston fertilizer formulations are available to fit your individual situation - even where you may have broadcast a part or all of your normal fertilizer program.

Use custom application with specially built equipment for the pre-plant seed bed. Application on sugar beet ground at 8" depth.

ON EITHER SUGAR BEETS OR POTATOES, HERE IS A PROGRAM THAT MORE THAN PAYS ITS WAY.

Former Resident, Bride Living In New Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Francis are at home in Las Vegas, N. M., where both are students at Highlands University, after their marriage in First Methodist Church of that city Saturday. The bride is the former Miss LaRee Ervin.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Parker of Orlando, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Francis of Clovis. The Francis family lived in Hereford for a number of years and the bridegroom attended elementary schools here.

His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Plummer, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Plummer and their young sons, went from Hereford to the wedding. The Rev. Edward Ditterline read the double-ring service as the couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plummer of Phoenix, Ariz. The bride wore a winter white suit and accessories accented with satin bows and buttons.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mrs. Marie Hansen.

Mrs. Francis is a senior in Highlands, majoring in home economics. Francis is a second year student in electronics, is assistant manager of a new FM radio station on the campus and is on leave from the electronics research division of Motorola, Inc. at Phoenix.

President Given Honor By Club

Messenger Home Demonstration Club nominated its new president, Mrs. J. E. Sorrells, as its Woman of the Year to be a candidate for the title of Deaf Smith County H. D. Woman of the year. Voting at the annual H. D. Appreciation Luncheon Feb. 27 will determine the county honoree.

Mrs. H. D. Buse was hostess to the club in her home and Mrs. Sorrells gave the program on Benefit of Driver Education in Schools. She also won the prize in a riddle game which the hostess directed.

Mrs. N. A. Brown, chairman, reported the finance committee's proposals for money-making projects of the year. Mrs. Elmer Northcutt made a report on the latest H. D. Council meeting, including county committee recommendations. Others present were Mmes. Lloyd Sevier, John Jones, S. N. Thweatt and Bill Page. The next meeting will be a Valentine luncheon in the home of Mrs. Jones.

Sisters Are Visitors With Mrs. Patterson

Visiting in the Elmer Patterson's home Monday were two sisters of Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Monroe Horton from Ventura, Calif. and Mary Frances Chambers, Amarillo.

They all went to Lubbock Tuesday to visit J. C. Chambers, a brother. Mrs. Horton and Miss Chambers later plan to go to Roswell, N. M. to visit another sister, Mrs. J. J. Kennon who is ill.

students which was followed by a reception in the church fellowship hall with Licensed Vocational Nurses of the county as hostesses. Frances Carver, director of training, presented the class and Joyce Seigler, director of nurses at the hospital, awarded the caps and pin. For the remainder of their year's training period, these students will spend most of their time in experience of practical work in the hospital.

Book Review Is Lunch Feature

A historical novel of ancient Rome as it changed from a republic to a dictatorship and then an empire was reviewed in dramatic detail by Mrs. Ansel McDowell for members of Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs at a luncheon Tuesday in Community Center.

Introduced by Mrs. A. B. Higgins, program chairman, Mrs. McDowell described the book's author, Taylor Caldwell, as a British native long resident in America, writer of a long list of best-sellers.

The book she reviewed, pillar of iron, is a new one, based on the career of Cicero and his contemporaries in Rome. She presented the depiction of Cicero as a man of integrity in a changing world.

Mrs. C. D. Kelton presided for the business period immediately after luncheon. Members voted to contribute to the fund for equipping the kitchen at the County Bull Barn. A report was given on installation of the electric dishwasher which the Federation helped buy for the Community Center kitchen.

Valentine decorations were arranged by Hereford Garden Club members on tables where the covered dish luncheon was served. Other hostess groups were Music Study, Hereford Study and La Afflatus Estudio Clubs.

The meeting was one of three held each year by the County Federation. Next will be the annual spring Fine Arts program April 29.

... a new mill towers over sixty feet above the pens

Easleys Convert From Ranching Feeding Program Grows

Obviously bored cows measured by the acre and fed by IBM give the wide range involved in Joe Easley's feeding operations.

Easley is manager and a large stockholder of Easley Feed Yards, Inc. The feeding operation located sixteen miles west of Hereford on Harrison Highway, is a family enterprise that has grown as Hereford has grown.

Easley said that they were just plodding along when they took a look at Hereford Feed Yards and learned that a bigger operation could be more efficient.

Originally, Jpe, along with his father, E. O. Easley had only a growing yard, a lot for the feeding of cattle but not fattening. This was as early as 1955, ten years ago. Oscar had operated with farming and ranching in the area but when Joe came back to Hereford after graduating from Denver University, the two joined efforts to build their cattle operation into big business.

To actually say that IBM feeds the cows could be misleading, but by the use of IBM cards marked for each pen and owner, specific rations can be figured by computer. Easley says that this plan should give the best ration, the fastest gain for the least amount of money.

The operation covers about 100 acres of pens and is strictly a contract feeding operation. The company does not own any of the cattle being fed.

Incorporating in 1964, Easleys were feeding about 6,000 head. This past year a share of the business was sold to Midwest investors, central offices Cincinnati, Ohio. The company in Hereford uses the name Omega Cattle Corporation.

Growing rapidly, the pens now feed 20,000 head of cattle and employ 55 people. Part of the employees devote their time to constructing more pens and troughs.

Each pen has 200 head of cattle. The pens are designed with concrete feeding troughs on the sides and concrete watering troughs in the center of the pen. Five foot aprons adjacent to the troughs give wet weather protection from mud for the cattle.

The feed mixing plant that is being built for the yards by Porsch Brothers, a local manufacturing firm, actually makes flakes that are mixed with molasses for a tasty cow dish.

The plant is completely automatic. Three men can operate the entire plant according to Easley. Milo is one of the basic ingredients for the ration being used. The grain goes through steam chambers, into the flaking mills and these flattened "Cereal" flakes are pushed by negative air pressure into storage bins.

Weighing, mixing and storing is one continuous operation. The molasses and fat are added in the weighing stage.

This mixture is hauled to the pens by trucks.

Eventually the finished feed bins will have an assigned ration and an operator, using hydraulic controls inside the office building will push buttons to fill the trucks with the right ration.

The yards are expected to use 450,000 pounds of feed per day and 13½ million pounds per month when the operation reaches capacity sometime next fall. Easley expects to feed 30,000 head by that time.

"We purchase all that we can locally, especially milo, one of our major area crops," he says. Easley said that he has not been able to get enough alfalfa hay from the area so he has been buying hay in Roswell. He keeps about 1200 tons of hay on hand. He recently lost about 400 tons in a fire.

Driving by the pens, Easley noted that the cattle "seem to get bored. I've seen them play with a piece of paper that blew into the pen and tear it to ribbons before it gets to the other side." Pointing to mounds of manure in the pens Easley explains that cattle stand on them during cold and wet weather. The excess manure is sold to farmers for fertilizer.

"Actually, there is no school that teaches this business," Easley comments when asked about his BSBA degree in advertising. "There are only a small percentage who have learned about feedlot operations because it is a development of the last five years," he adds.

Knowledge has been gained from operations in Arizona and California where firms have established the same type of business, a commercial-type feed yard, according to Easley.

"We can compete because the feed is cheaper here. We are just capitalizing on a natural resource — local production."

Commenting on the future, Easley, points to several interesting possible changes when he mentions such ideas as "climate controlled feeding" and "birth to slaughter in the feed pen." "The markets are not ready yet for such measures," he says, however. "Conversion of pounds of feed to pounds of beef is the heart of our business," he admits. "The practicability of these measures is not here yet; the need for more beef must come first."

Four Sons Cooperate In Feeding Steers And Heifers

Western Feed Yards, located east of Hereford, is said by Mrs. J. A. McAndrews, wife of the feed lot owner, to be "strictly a family-type feed lot." With a capacity of 2500 cattle in his feed lot, McAndrews also grazes cattle in Iowa, New Mexico and on a Hereford wheat pasture. All of the cattle he raises, unlike the conventional lots, belong to him, he says.

Feeding both heifers and steers — "because there's a market for both." — McAndrews uses rolled maize — though he is presently installing a machine to steam it — silage, cotton seed burrs, alfalfa and supplemental feed. After they've been fattened for the market, McAndrews sells his cattle to packing plants in Lubbock, San Antonio, Oklahoma City and Clovis.

McAndrews says his cattle are "pretty much Hereford and Angus and No. 1 Okies, which is a mixed breed."

Working to improve not only his own cattle feeding operation, but the community profile as well, McAndrews said that he is interested in Wilson and Company locating in this area because a company of this stature could help to build the area as a meat center. "If we could get Wilson" he would have one of the biggest operations west of the Missouri," McAndrews said.

He doesn't lack for assistance at the feed lot, with a manager, 3 hired men and 4 sons. The McAndrews boys range in age from 10 to 18 and each one helps at the lot before and after school each day, says Mrs. McAndrews.

She adds, "When they were small, we never thought of them going into agriculture, we just wanted them to do what they wanted to. . . but, the way it looks now, they are all most interested in the cattle business."

She states that this pleases her very much, for she feels that the country will soon be in great demand for food, since only 7 percent of the population are involved in agriculture, and "that number is decreasing all the time."

The boys are Jamie, 10 a 5th grader at St. Anthony School; Neal, 13, a 7th grader at Stanton Jr. High; — Steven, 16, a sophomore at Hereford High and Kevin, 18 and a senior at Hereford High. Mrs. McAndrews says her husband is often greeted with "Oh, you're the man with all the sons," even though they also have two daughters, Maura, a sophomore at West Texas State University and Teresa, a sophomore at Hereford High.

The oldest son, Kevin is planning to study agriculture management in college, his mother says.

Manager of the lot is Berry Cox, of whom Mrs. McAndrews says, "To the boys his word is absolute law," adding that "He has been one of the most outstanding cattlemen in the entire Panhandle. . . there just isn't any thing he doesn't know about cattle."

McAndrews states that he feels Hereford is the "most rapidly expanding cattle-feeding area in the entire country and in possibly 2 years it will be the largest."

"What makes it this way," he says, "is the availability of cattle, feed, sunshine and weather, labor and good financing."

The seasoned rancher states that "When we came here in 1957 there were 300 cattle on feed in Deaf Smith County. We expect it to be 300,000 by the end of this year."

Originally from Iowa, McAndrews says an Iowa banker advised him not to use the cattle-feeding method he now uses, because he felt it wouldn't pay. At that time, he says borrowing money for cattle-feeding "was considered a heavy gamble."

Now, however, he says the "local banks are working with other banks to bring in enough finances to help finance the cattle-feeders." He says that he believes the Hereford banks to be the best financiers in the area adding, "They've treated us real well."

McAndrews stressed the difficulties that a rancher had, getting backing from a bank just a few years ago, adding, "Today money is coming from all areas of financial centers."

Mrs. McAndrews says, "We think this type work is something that just suits our family. . . everybody works and

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Cake Pretty For Party

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Parties are in full bloom in February, with all those holidays to supply an excuse for gay decorations and festive food. Besides, it is long enough since Christmas that everybody young and old, is ready for a party again.

WHETHER IT'S a child's birthday party or a teenage dance or a club guest dinner, early February entertainment calls for refreshments pretty and pink to suit the Valentine motif. Recipes for a party and easy-to-make for the family are given by Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald Jr., who has found it a favorite with her family and guests.

She credits two fellow members in Beta Sigma Phi Sorority with the recipes for cake and icing, which appear in a BSP cookbook compiled a few years ago. Pretty brunette Linda Fitzgerald has been a member of the sorority four years.

It is the only organization in which she is active, as she feels that her home and two small children demand most of her time although "I think a woman needs some outlet to keep her from becoming housebound."

A HEREFORD RESIDENT all her life, she is the former Linda Russell. Her parents, the Clyde Russells, reside on a farm in this county and Linda is a graduate of Hereford High School.

Business courses in school added to her lively interest in office work, led her into a career that has combined homemaking with outside duties most of the time since her marriage. Before that, she was employed a year in Amarillo after she finished high school work.

She has most recently worked as a teller in a bank here, now is devoting all her time to her home. The Fitzgeralds' children are curly-haired Crystal 3, and husky Curt, just past a year old. They were eager helpers as Mrs. Fitzgerald iced a cake this week at their home, 304 Jewell.

COMPLETION OF STUDY in the ritual chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was marked by Mrs. Fitzgerald last fall by progress to the exemplar chapter, Xi Epsilon Alpha. She served Kappa Iota Chapter as president in the 1964-65 season, and was the choice of its members as Valentine Sweetheart that year. Activity has extended to BSP City Council, of which she has been vice president.

Her party cake recipe begins with a quickly-mixed chocolate cake including mayonnaise. It was contributed to the cookbook by Mrs. Don Baugous, and the recipe for Sweetheart Frosting is Jo Ives's.

MAYONNAISE CAKE
1 cup sugar
1 cup water
4 tb. cocoa

1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup mayonnaise
2 cups sifted flour
2 tsp. soda
Mix mayonnaise, sugar and water together, mix well and add dry ingredients, then vanilla. Bake in two layers in 350 degree oven for 40 minutes.

SWEETHEART FROSTING
1 1/3 cup white corn syrup
2 egg whites
Dash salt
1/2 tsp. each vanilla and almond extract
Red Food coloring
Coconut

In a small sauce pan heat syrup to boiling. While it is heating, beat egg whites until they form soft peaks. Add the salt, then slowly pour the boiling syrup over the whites, continuing to beat with electric beater or rotary beater. Beat until the mixture is fluffy and will stand in peaks. Add flavoring, color to the desired tint. Put layers together with frosting and swirl remainder over the top of the cake. Sprinkle with coconut if desired.

Bill Cole Gains New Stock Honors

Bill Cole added another trophy to his collection last week when he exhibited the first place lightweight Hereford steer during the annual Amarillo Fat Stock Show. He won this honor in the junior division of the show.

He showed the four county reserve champion at the Young Farmers Junior Livestock Show held last week in Hereford. In doing that, he placed the Grand Champion in the county competition bracket.

In last year's Amarillo show, Bill showed the grand champion steer of the show.

Cole is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole from Frio. He is a member of the Happy Hustlers 4-H Club and is a sophomore in high school.

Church Basketball

Both of the teams for the First Baptist Church and the First Methodist Church team were victorious as the second half of play began in the Church Basketball League Monday night.

First Baptist Church No. 1 team won over the First Christian Church team 50-23. Jerry Curtisinger was high for the Baptists with 16 points and Harold Morton was high for First Christian with 7.

First Methodist beat the First Presbyterian Church team 44-29, with Frank Campbell and Bob Sims getting 7 points each to lead the Methodists and John Cranford hitting 7 for First Presbyterian.

First Baptist Church No. 2 team beat St. Anthony's Catholic 44-31, with Harold Kidd scoring 10 to lead the Baptists and Ronnie Rainey and Fred Lookingbill getting 12 each for St. Anthony's.

Farming Costs Reported Higher

COLLEGE STATION — The cost of farming and ranching will be higher in 1967, according to John McHaney, Extension economist at Texas A&M University. Farm production expenses will increase again in 1967 but at a slower rate than in 1966, said McHaney.

The 1966 cost of farming — as measured by overall farm production expenses — was up a whopping 8 percent over 1965, he said. It cost farmers about $3 billion for overall production expenses in 1966.

McHaney said the increase in expenses results in part from higher prices for certain production inputs — particularly feeder livestock and feed. Prices paid by farmers moved up slightly for motor and other supplies, and building and fencing materials. Then too, he said, more purchased inputs were used in 1966, contributing to the increase in total farm expenses.

The A&M economist said farm production expenses will likely rise again in 1967 though not quite as much as the 1966 increase. Increases are highly probable in 1967 for taxes, interest, and insurance. Higher expenditures for several production items, including fertilizer and pesticides, are likely because of increased use of these items.

Part of the increase in the cost of farm inputs in recent years can be attributed to increasing use of services that were formerly done by the farmer or were not even available, said McHaney. Farmers now may have feed delivered directly to their beef, poultry or hog feeders. They may have buildings constructed, fences built or fertilizer applied rather than doing the work themselves. These extra services, as well as the supplies themselves, are often financed by the supplier, who will normally add a financing charge — all contributing to higher input costs, said McHaney.

After checking 10,600 A B C — approved 300 games, statistics showed that the average age of the perfect game bowler is 34, his average 188 and his years of experience 11.

County Exceeds Bond Sale Goal

United States Savings Bond sales in Deaf Smith County during 1966 totaled $109,835, according to Robert Thompson, chairman of county Savings Bonds Committee. The 1966 county sales goal was $90,000 and 122 per cent has been achieved.

During 1966 Texas purchased a total of $153,172,007 in Series E and H Savings Bonds. This represents 104 per cent of the state's goal of $147.5 million. Sales in Texas during the month of December totaled $13,790,861 which is an increase of 19 per cent over the same period of 1965.

SCIENCE AND CHRISTIANITY

LONDON (AP) — The "conflict between science and Christianity has been caused by a persistent tendency to treat faith as though it were a matter of science, and science as though it were a matter of faith the Rev. Dr. Russell Hindmarsh of the University of Newcastle on Tyne, told a meeting here.

Make fish stock from fish heads and bones left after filleting. Simmer in water with onion, celery, bay leaf and mushroom stems plus salt and peppercorns. Strain through several thicknesses of cheese cloth and use as liquid for sauces to be served with fish. The stock may be poured into 1/2-pint or pint jars and stored in the freezer to have on hand when needed.

Washington Report
From Congressman
BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
1223 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C. 20540

I am proud to begin my second report from Washington by announcing that I will introduce a proposed school prayer amendment on January 26. This is in the form of a joint resolution which states:

"Nothing contained in this Constitution shall abridge the right of persons lawfully assembled, in any public building which is supported in whole or in part through the expenditure of public funds, to participate in non-denominational prayer." In order to become part of our Constitution this resolution must be approved by two-thirds of the members of each house of Congress and then must be ratified by three-fourths of our state legislatures.

I do not believe the nine men of the Supreme Court should be allowed to tell 190 million people, including the children, where and when they can utter their prayers. I greatly appreciate all the mail I have received in regard to this proposal and hope we can reverse the decision of the last Congress when the resolution failed to gain the necessary votes to be submitted to the states.

At the time of this writing I have learned that the Executive Committee of the Committee on Committees has approved my request for assignment to the House Agriculture Committee. I am confident the full committee will approve this recommendation, and I will be in a position to help the farmers and ranchers of the Panhandle with their problems as well as trying to help the agricultural industry across the nation.

The chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee was kind enough to appoint me to the 18-member executive committee of that group recently. The goal of the Congressional Committee is to maintain the Constitutional balance of power between the Congress and the President by keeping a strong two-party system.

Although we have not yet begun our deliberations on legislation introduced in this session of Congress, I am happy to report that the volume of mail already received here in our Washington office indicates the residents of the 18th District are very interested in their government. I am always happy to hear from you.

I would also like to thank all of you who have sent your best wishes to Marty, the children, and me. We have almost completed the job of moving into our home here, and the children will start to their new school on January 30. I am sure they will become accustomed to their new surroundings sooner than Marty and I will.

Until next week my best regards to all of you there in the Panhandle, and, remember, my staff and I are here to serve you. Do not hesitate to write if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,
BOB PRICE

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Our June-in-January season brought out fine displays of spring hats at church services last Sunday, also green tips of sprouting bulbs and a few shoots of Bermuda grass if you look below the dead stubble, and on Monday morning I saw a bunch of little girls jumping rope in a schoolyard.

NOT EVEN kite-flying is more springlike. These girls were experts who were doing trick steps with their circling ropes. It still looks like fun.

Incidentally, wonder what would happen if I tried to "run in" and jump a few hot-pepper or double-rope steps now? Maybe girls today don't even do those, at least under the names we used in my rope-jumping days. Anyhow, I'm not going to try them again.

IT'S HARD to believe on days like Sunday that it isn't really spring and that we may have more use for snow boots than straw hats from now to Easter.

But you do get touches of spring fever and feel impelled to get out and dig a little—that is, if you have the smallest tinge of green on the thumbs.

RIDING ON A farm road in an adjoining county Sunday afternoon we saw at one attractive—small new home a large old-fashioned coal heater on the front porch. Looked like a deluxe model of a Cole's Hobblast, a larger version of one that was in our living room when I was a child in the pre-historic, pre-gas heat days.

The porch was such an odd place for it that I wonder whether it is now classed as an antique, and was placed where it could be seen from the road in case someone wants to buy it.

Come to think of it, what happened to all those stoves which were abandoned, a whole townful at a time, when the gaslines came to this part of the country?

Maybe junkmen bought and shipped them in wholesale lots to melt down for scrap, but a few people must have stored the family stove in a garage or attic. Those who did could use them, even now, as a conversation piece in family rooms with circa-1900 furniture, which is becoming antique now instead of just out-of-style.

Who knows, maybe a heating stove which is authentic pioneer gear in this country, will replace the fireplace which was authentic in some places but not in this timberless area, as the decorating darling of the next generation.

AND OH, YES, a very merry Groundhog Day to all!

Chile Discussed By Leo Forrest

Slides of people, places and interesting points in Chile were featured as part of the program at the Rotary Club's regular luncheon Monday.

Introduced by Roy Faubion, Leo Forrest showed slides of a trip which Faubion called, "a trip out of business purposes and out of a desire for service."

Forrest spent some time in Chile in May and November of last year doing what he called "helping them help themselves in working with the Rural Electric Cooperative," adding that in Chile the REC "works with the government officials more than we do here."

Forrest showed club members a copper plate which was presented to him by a Chilean REC some spurs and several novelties that he purchased while there.

Showing contrasting slides of the modern and older parts of Chile, Forrest told the club that all of Chile is like that—both modern and primitive.

Explaining some of the customs of the Chileans, Forrest informed club members that they have an equivalent to the English tea-time at 5:30 or 6:30 p. m., not eating dinner until somewhere near 9:30 p. m.

He told the group that the Chile government discourages buying luxuries such as cars, etc. Thus a small usually inexpensive vehicle costs approximately $16,000 in Chile. On a Chilean told Forrest that a Chevrolet would probably cost twice as much.

After showing the slides, Forrest, who is manager of the Deaf Smith County Rural Electric Cooperative, further explained that "We're doing it (working with South American countries) to combat communism. . . and it has its effect."

Teach Children To React Fast

COLLEGE STATION — A young child must be taught to think for himself, not just to react by habit if he is able to cope with the unexpected, say family life education specialists at Texas A&M University.

Although demands upon the preschool youngster must be kept within reason, childcare authorities, including the Child Study Association of America, agree that the average 4-year old is capable of comprehending much more than his parents usually believe he can.

In teaching a child to handle emergencies, do not frighten him. Take a calm, matter-of-fact attitude in explaining emergency situations, even if you may be anxious about them yourself. For instance, in explaining these situations, do not offer sordid details or create a horror story.

Every young child should know what to do in these specific situations:

1) If lost in town: he should be able to repeat his name, address and telephone number to an adult. A small child should also carry some form of identification such as a bracelet or tag on his clothing with his name and address on it. Train him not to panic, but to try to seek a policeman or fireman for help.

2) If lost in the country: he should remain in the open where he can be found more easily. If an older child is lost while hiking in the woods, teach him to pick one direction and walk until he comes to a road or path. He should be able to keep track of his direction by knowing that the sun rises in the east and sets in the west.

3) If bitten by an animal: train your child never to pet a strange animal. But, if bitten, and no adult is immediately available for help, teach him to wash the wound thoroughly under running water and to dry it with a clean gauze. He should report the injury to an adult as soon as possible and try to identify the animal.

4) If fire breaks out at home: a child should know two escape routes from his bedroom. He should also know how to call the fire department and how to report the exact location of the house. The National Fire Protection Association says children as young as four have been successfully taught some simple responses in case a fire breaks out during the night. These include not to open bedroom doors but to stay near an open window awaiting rescue and, on a predetermined signal from a parent, to crawl out to a window. Repeated rehearsals are important because a child's impulse is to run to his parents in a fire emergency, an act that could trap him in the flames.

5) If clothes catch on fire: train the child to immediately drop to the ground and smother the flames by rolling about. If a rug or coat is handy, he should wrap these about his body.

6) If approached by strangers: many hundreds of boys and girls are victimized each year because they are not taught to beware of strangers who approach them in public places. Teach children not to become friendly with strangers and never under any circumstances to accompany a stranger to a lonely place.

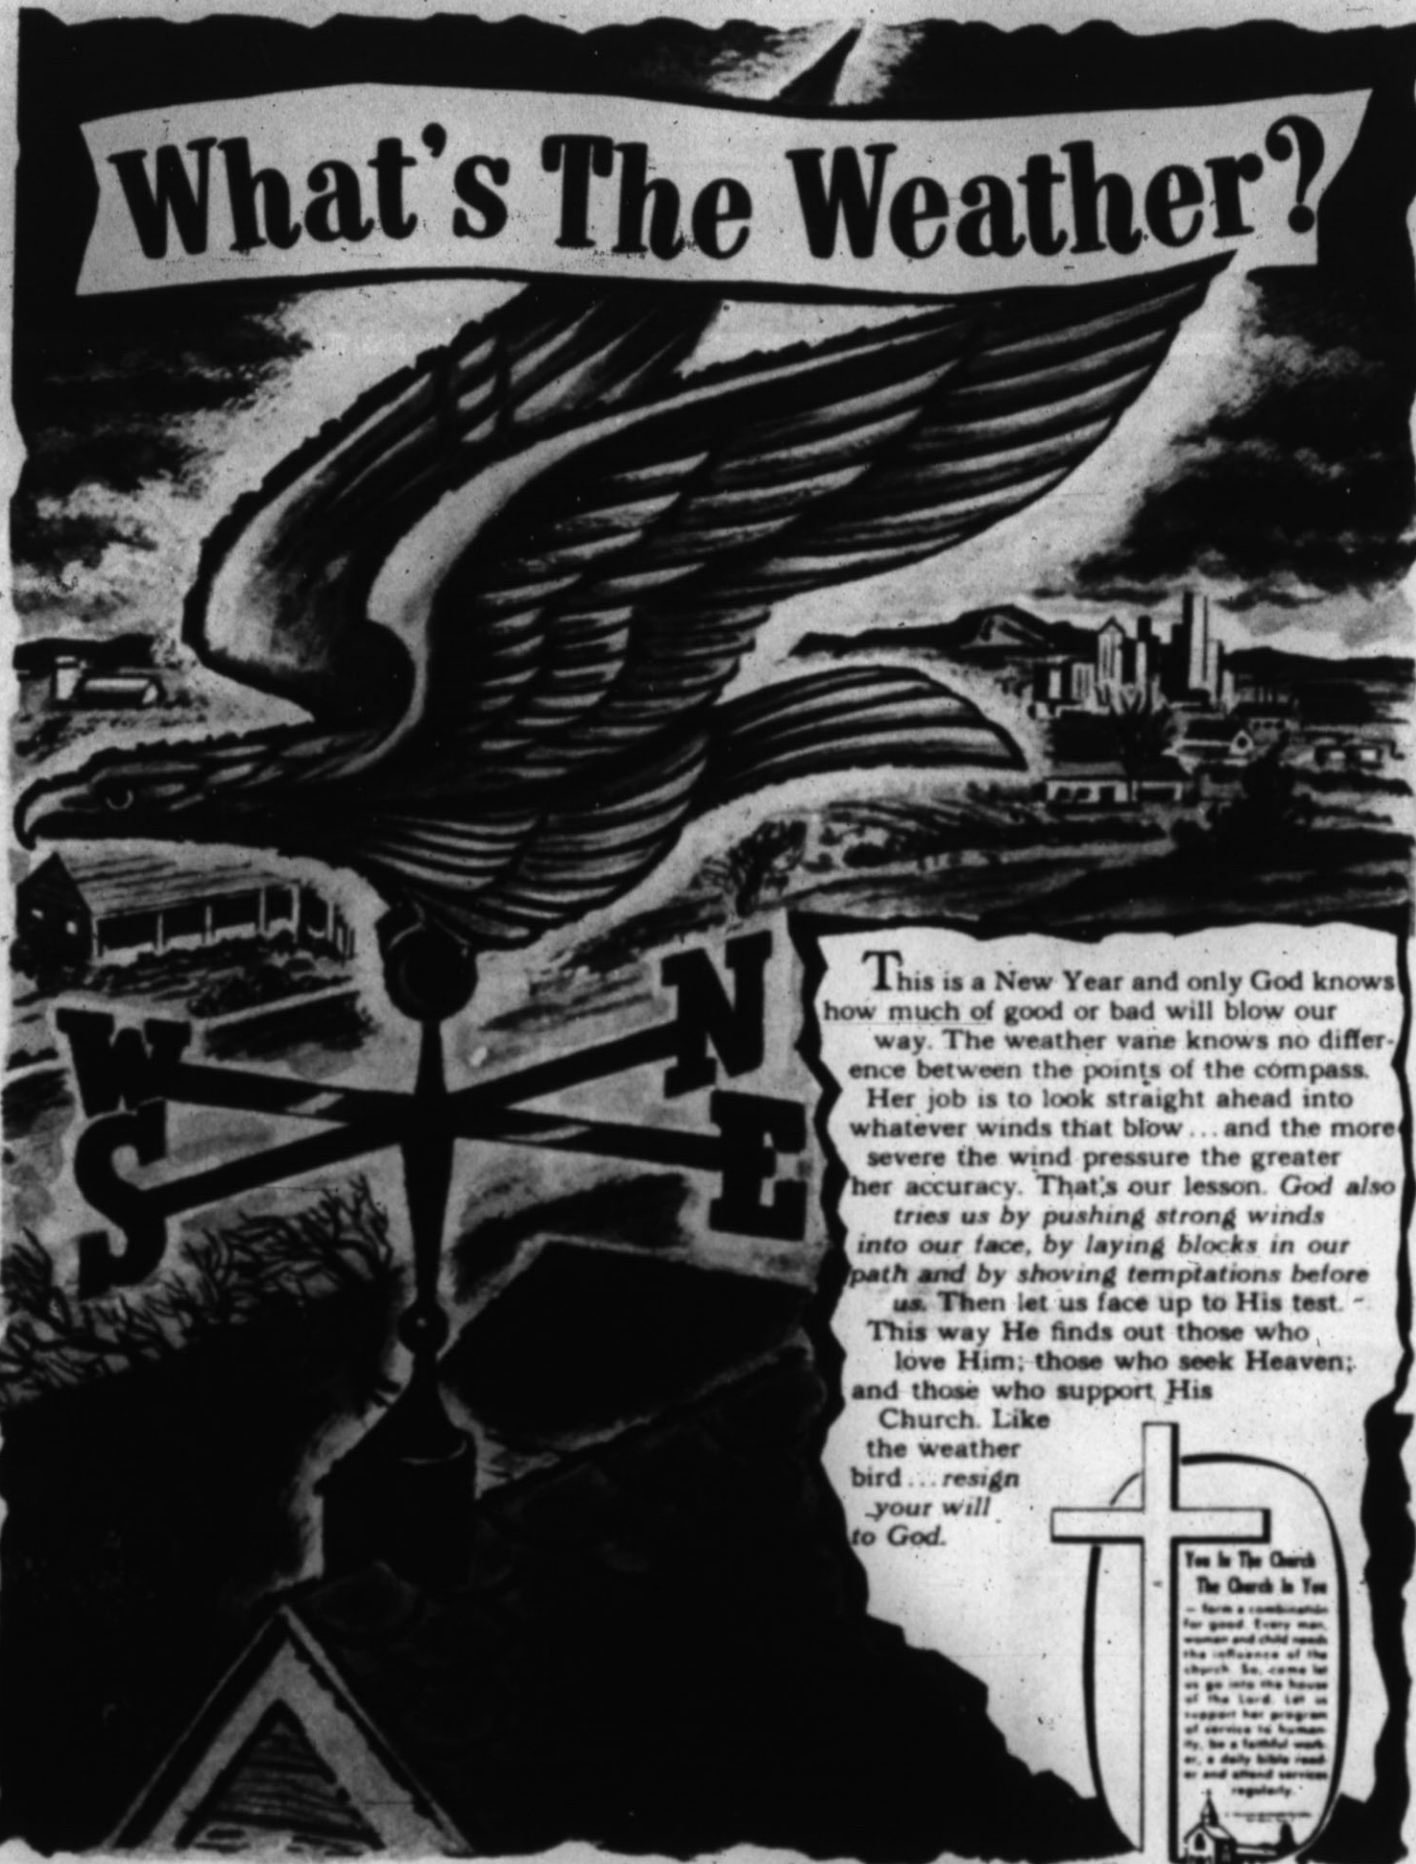

Children should not accept automobile rides, candy, money or other favors from a stranger.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

What's The Weather?

This is a New Year and only God knows how much of good or bad will blow our way. The weather vane knows no difference between the points of the compass. Her job is to look straight ahead into whatever winds that blow... and the more severe the wind pressure the greater her accuracy. That's our lesson. God also tries us by pushing strong winds into our face, by laying blocks in our path and by shoving temptations before us. Then let us face up to His test. This way He finds out those who love Him; those who seek Heaven; and those who support His Church. Like the weather bird... resign your will to God.

Cultural Survey Made For County

A survey of the fine arts in Deaf Smith County has been completed by Mrs. Ralph McCullough Deaf Smith County Coordinator for a state-wide survey directed by the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs for the new Texas Fine Arts Commission. Mrs. McCullough was appointed to her position by Mrs. Guy Crawford of Borger, President of the TFWC Top of Texas District.

Commenting on the scope of the survey and the time given for making the study, Mrs. McCullough said that although some of the items for the survey may have been missed, she felt that there was a general representation of groups.

"We needed more time," she said. "Every one of us had that week full." She added that private collections were "the thing we really needed time on."

Compiled during the week of January 16-20, the eighteen-page report was comprised of ten pages of "inventories" designed to survey six major categories: (1) activity, (2) organizations, (3) individual activity, (4) cultural resources, (5) general resources and (6) community inquiries. Eight more pages were directed at county government, businesses, civic clubs, and public schools.

The survey incorporated various aspects of the fine arts in Deaf Smith County. For example the following public events were marked as having occurred in the last year: fine arts festival, cultural lectures, cultural conferences, art exhibits, musical comedy performances, symphony concerts, and several others as art classes, historical museums, choral groups (other than church choirs) square dance groups, creative writing groups, poetry craft classes, and several additional items, including a Braille Library.

Assisting Mrs. McCullough in the completion of the survey were Mes. Ray Johnson Pioneer Study Club, R. E. Lance (Summerfield Club), Ansel McDowell (Bay View Club), and A. L. Manjeot (Pioneer Study Club).

Under the category "Individuals" the survey, sent to Mrs. Crawford in Borger last January 25th, shows two amateur poets, two amateur novelists, and fifty general artists. The survey also listed fifteen collected items ranging from old guns and coins to clocks. Facilities Report (Municipal or Public Auditorium)" shows that the Hereford High School auditorium is eight years old with a seating capacity of 750 fixed seats.

"We also had a lot of help from the Chamber of Commerce office," Mrs. McCullough stated.

A rather comprehensive document, the survey was a very interesting document to work up, according to Mrs. McCullough, who added, "It was real interesting to know the number of artists and the number of clubs."

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

Two Retiring Texans Will Reside In Washington

By TEX EASLEY WASHINGTON — Two retiring Texas congressmen will do as 10 other former members from Texas have done—reside in Washington. The latter include Lyndon B. Johnson. The two newcomers to the list are Reps. Clark Thompson of Galveston and Walter Rogers of Pampa. Neither sought re-election. Thompson now is with a public relations firm. He also is an executive of a group planning to build a permanent exposition in Washington to depict U. S. industrial, scientific, and technological progress. Rogers will resume his law practice here. Four of the other Texans still in Washington left Congress for the federal bench payroll. They are: Eugene Black, 87, in the House from 1915 to 1929, was named to the U. S. Tax Court by president Herbert Hoover. Black is retired. Marvin Jones, 80, senior judge of the Court of Claims, had a House career from 1917 to 1941. Eugene Worley, chief judge of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, whose 9-year House tenure ended in 1950. Paul Kilday, member of Congress from 1939 to 1961, is now a member of the three-judge Court of Military Appeals. The other five are Grank Icard of Wichita Falls, president of the American Petroleum Institute; Tom Pickett of Palestine, a vice president of the Association of American Railroads; William McFarlane 72, formerly of Graham, a retired Justice Department lawyer; J. T. Rutherford of Odessa, head of a public relations firm; and Ben Gull, a Republican, who won a special election in 1950 to succeed Worley. Gull is also in public relations.

Texas Try-Outs Can Be Mailed

"TEXAS" try-outs attracted actors from as far east as Chicago, north as Springfield, Mo., south as San Antonio, and west as Albuquerque in the first four days of auditioning. The directors, Margaret Echols and William A. Moore, and musical director, Royal Brantley, were pleased with the quality of the applicants and report that they heard many performers who would be effective in the production. The next audition is scheduled for Lubbock, Texas on February 7th, 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the Coronado High School Auditorium. An audition for central Texas will be held in Dallas on Saturday, March 4th. Those who will be unable to make the announced auditions may write an application, including photo and a taped song and reading, and mail it to "TEXAS," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015. "TEXAS" is the popular musical romance of panhandle history, written by the Pulitzer prize-winning playwright, Paul Green, which played its first season last summer to packed houses in the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. With a cast of 50, it is a drama of the Panhandle Country, intertwined with native folk-songs and dances of the 1880's. It is a story of challenge, humor and pathos, and excitement, reliving this unforgettable era in history. Cowboys, Indians, horses and wagons, and western characters are seen in authentic settings. The amphitheatre has perfect acoustics, stereo sound, and dramatic lighting against a 600 foot bluff canyon wall for a backdrop, with the stars for a ceiling. "TEXAS" plays July through Labor Day. Bill Doernman of Fort Wayne, Ind., has completed in 58 consecutive ABC tournaments. Oldest bowler in the 1966 ABC National Seniors tournament at Skokie, Ill., was Allen Smith, 94, a retired tailor from Ann Arbor, Mich. He bows in two leagues every week.

Abolish the annual tax levy (not the 80 cent maximum) on the Constitutional funds. 7. Require County Commissioners to run Countywide, with a Precinct residence required. According to the association president, two bills are not being discussed. One bill would outline in detail just what a County Commissioner can and cannot do with county equipment and manpower. The other bill would set out certain penalties for violating these rules. TAX MAN SAM SEZ Students who work during the summer and earn less than $600 are not required to file an income tax return. Unmarried students who earned less than $900 usually don't owe any tax. However, it is very important for students to file a tax return if they worked during the year and income tax was withheld from their wages. They must file if they expect to get their refund. Just like "Dad," most students like to get a refund. National Football League rosters this year include 22 former Notre Dame players.

Garcia Proposed Bills Affect County

Several bills are expected to be introduced in the State Legislature by the Legislative Council which could have an effect on Deaf Smith County offices. The proposed bills were explained to County Judge H. C. Williams in a letter from the president of the State Association of County Judges and Commissioners. As interpreted by the Association, the measures include: A bill requiring all District, County and Precinct officials to deposit all money belonging to the County with the County Treasurer. This deposit must be made no later than one business day after collections. All fees and commissions likewise to be deposited in the county treasury depository, with any interest accumulating there being credited to the County, and not the individual officers funds. This bill establishes a penalty of misdemeanor for non-compliance. A bill making it a misdemeanor for a County Official to refuse to give any report, statement, or other information, to the County Auditor, as required in Article 1663-A. A bill allowing the County Attorneys of all counties to establish and to operate a "Hot Check" lawful collection agency. The bill allows the County attorney to charge a 10 per cent fee to the merchant, or complainant, for successful collections. Also, the letter to the County Judge states that the Legislative Council Study Committee on County Government will recommend that at this session the following measures be enacted: 1. Give the Commissioners Court authority to issue building president, two bills are now being constructed in the unincorporated areas, and outside the extra-territorial authority of the home rule cities. 2. Require an audit at least every two years of every county. The County auditor may perform the audit, provided that the audit (a copy of which is to be furnished to the State Auditor) complies with auditing standards promulgated by the State Auditor. 3. Request the State Auditor to set up a uniform accounting system to be made available to the counties on an optional basis. 4. Set up a Training School for County Law Officers. This will allow the counties to reimburse these officials for any cost

(Continued From Page One) everybody shares in the profit." Her husband added that expansion is limited since city land surrounding him is not for sale but that he would like to keep expanding.

Employed at Western Feed Yard are Raymond Mauck, Fidel Lucero and Manuel Vigil, all of whom Mrs. McAndrews says "can do anything in 'feed lot work or in the pasture — they're all-around men." The McAndrews agreed on the importance of good labor, stating that "if an employe makes one small, trifling error it can result in thousands of dollars of loss."

Mrs. McAndrews says that she feels she does her part in the business by answering the telephone "about a hundred thousands times a day."

The McAndrews are members of St. Anthony's Catholic Church active in the patterning program and several community activities. The children are members of the Dawn Boys and Willing Workers 4-H Clubs and Mrs. McAndrews teaches a foods unit at St. Joseph's Mission on Thursday afternoons.

Hairdressers Go To Beauty Show

Three hairdressers from Made moiselle Coiffures Beauty Salon in Sugarland Mhll will attend the All-Texas Beauty Show in Dallas February 4, 5 and 6. One of the partners in the salon, Mike Southard of Lubbock, will participate in the artistic creation and 'open' (or trend) showings.

Ruby Jones, Teresa Larsen and Sue George are the local hairdressers who will attend the showing of the latest in hair styling and hair fashions.

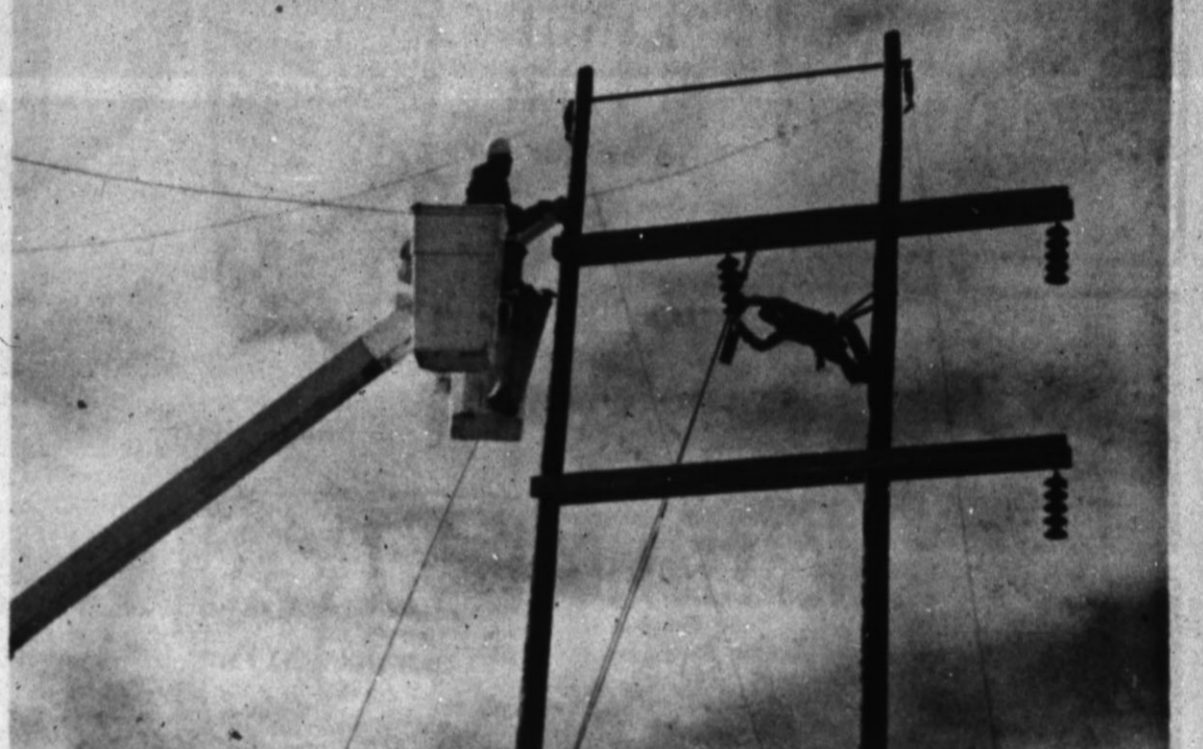

Some of the work in the showing will be done with wigs, as well as human hair.

The salon will be closed Monday, but will be in operation as usual Tuesday.

Electric Growth Circles Town

Over two miles of a 69,000-volt electric line is being raised on 15th Street in Northwest Hereford. The local electrical expansion job is being done by crews from the Amarillo office of Southwestern Public Service Company.

Melvin Jayroe, manager of the firm's Hereford office said Friday that this new line is part of a loop that will eventually encircle the city.

"We receive 115,000 volts at our Interchange Station on New York Street from Plant X at Earth," he said. "Then, we break down the 69,000 volts to and issue that in all directions from our Hereford District Substation."

"Our new Centre Street Substation, just off 15th Street, will accompany Ravanelli and sang several musical numbers. The selections include sad, happy and humorous songs.

According to Jayroe this new line and sub-station indicates Hereford's continued growth and will provide improved voltage for the northwest side of town. Don French, local general foreman for Southwestern Public Service, said the new line will be completed about February 15th.

LCC Associates Honor Seniors

The Lubbock Christian College Associates of Hereford gave a dinner honoring sixteen seniors Monday night at the Community Center.

This is an annual affair to get students interested in the college program.

The invocation was given by Gene Fooks, Minister of Central Church of Christ, followed by the welcoming address and inroduction of guests by Mrs. Alton Hollingsworth, this year's banquet chairman. Nate Stark gave the response on behalf of the students.

Jim Ravanelli from the Lubbock college spoke on some of the benefits that the college has to offer and other facts about it. He later conferred with some interested seniors.
