Commission OK's Airport T-Hangar

Hereford City Commissioners had a brief but productive meeting Monday night, signing a contract for construction of a new T-hangar at the airport, annexing some of its own property west of the city, agreeing to sell most of that property and setting a public hearing on raising electrical rates.

Members of Hereford Aero Inc. presented a contract to commissioners for approval on construction of a six-unit T-hangar at the Hereford Municipal Airport. The 31-by-190 foot building will be leased to the corporation under the 12-year contract. Site for the new hangar has not been established.

Dr. Roy Grubbs, who is leaving Hereford Nov. 15, had planned to be at the meeting to submit his resignation, as City Health Officer, but he was not present. Commissioners delayed action on the matter until the resignation is submitted. They then will appoint a new health officer.

Action on the possibility of raising the city water rates also was passed by commissioners

Board Discusses New School And Location

Adult education, current enrollment figures, location of new schools and the possible need for same were the major items under discussion Monday at an early morning meeting of the Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees convening at the Caison House at 6 a.m. Meeting with board were Mayor Ray Cowser and members of the Hereford City Council.

An adult education program to be operated in connection with the new vocational school at Hereford High School is now being planned with registration to begin Nov. 7. The program will be based entirely on the demand and is open to any adult (vocational training), 18 years or older while the basic education program will be limited to those adults who are able to read and write the English language, according to school officials. The adult education program is being formulated in cooperation with the Education Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

"We're prepared to put in whatever classes are needed," Superintendent Johnny Clark said, "based on demand." The new vocational annex of Hereford High School should be completed in time for the Nov. 7 registration. Parts of the building are being used now, and other classes will be moving into the area soon. Contractors did not make the October deadline and were penalized $1500. Next penalty would go into effect November 1, Clark explained, but stated that work should be completed well before this time. Clark said that much of the hardware for the building had not arrived, but that everything else, including lockers, had arrived according to schedule.

Total school enrollment, according to the Monday morning report, has risen by 237 students compared to a like period last year, and has declined by 17 students compared to the last report made on October 3, 1967. School officials felt however, that the enrollment figures would be more consistent throughout the year, not dropping off so severely in December, January and February as has been the pattern in previous years. The increased enrollment plus the anticipation of construction being started on the Wilson & Co. packing plant, started board members again to discussing possible location of an additional elementary school in Hereford. The school district owns a 15-acre tract of land in South Hereford, although no definite decision has been made to construct a school in this area. Board members were looking at other possible locations and trying to determine which direction the city would grow.

Meeting with the board on be-

half of the South Hereford location were Mayor Ray Cowser, Commissioners Dick Barnard, D. C. Kinsey, Albert Maxwell and City Manager Dudley Bayne. "The City of Hereford has spent $350,000 getting sewer and water to the south area of Hereford in anticipation of a new elementary school there," Cowser told the group, "and we would certainly encourage you to consider this location." Sewer and water lines have been placed near the north edge of the school property.

Cowser also voiced concern about the fact that trends in the past have been away from the south side of Hereford, pointing out that if the trend continues, it will create problems with the central fire station location. Cowser pointed out that a school in the area would encourage more people to build in South Hereford, and probably would help to keep the town growing in an orderly fashion.

Cowser said the city would not, in all probability, have extended sewer and water to the area had it not been for the schools action in purchasing land for an elementary school. South Hereford has been slower to develop than other areas of the city, but many homes have been constructed here in the last three years.

Trustees assured the city fathers that they would take the area into consideration when and if action is taken on a new school. The board also was considering other locations for schools in the event Hereford's growth accelerates after the start of construction on the new packing plant.

The board also approved contracts for two new teachers, Ann Cummings, special education; and Mary Bavousett, special education; approved the new tax roll; approved a cafeteria report and heard a resolution honoring L. B. Russell for his service on the board.

Homecoming Activities Planned

Homecoming is just around the bend and for most people a time of excitement. Former Hereford High School students will be coming home for the big weekend and students in HHS work on activities that go along with the preparations.

Thursday night the skies above the Hereford Whiteface Stadium are sure to be filled with smoke when the big bonfire is set off and left to burn. The band will play and cheerleaders lead yells to the tune of BEAT CANYON.

Floats receive the most work as students strive to finish their masterpieces before the day arrives. On Friday, at 2:10 p. m., a before the game parade will be held in the high school gymnasium where the 1967-68 Football Queen is to be crowned. The parade will assemble in the parking lot behind the band hall and then continue through town.

At 5 p. m., the Hereford Whiteface Band is sponsoring a chili supper to be held in the high school cafeteria.

Canyon is the Herd's traditional rival for the Homecoming game which will begin at 8 p. m. During halftime, the two Junior High Bands and a choir, and the Hereford High School Whiteface Honor Band and the high school choir will assemble on the field for a fanfare of "Sea to Shining Sea" while all the floats and cars that received so much hard work will parade around the football field. Some of the floats that will be viewed are the Student Council's Queen float which will carry the Queen and her attendants, the Senior float and the Junior and Sophomore float.

A dance at the Community Center will wrap-up the year's Homecoming activities. Music will be by the Tearas.

Accidents Mar Weekend

A typical Sunday afternoon? For the majority of residents, perhaps, but not for authorities in and around Hereford. Chronologically, the hectic part of the day went something like this:

4:50 p.m. — Two-car accident in which one car left the scene.

5:30 p.m. — Car struck pedestrian and left scene. Victim injured.

5:45 p.m. — Two-car accident with heavy damage.

6:25 p.m. — Two-car accident, one taken to hospital, one jailed, heavy damage.

7:15 p.m. — Two-car accident, one taken to hospital, heavy damage.

7:45 P.M. — High speed chase in South Hereford, one captured.

9 p.m. — Pickup and truck collide, light damage.

The first accident occurred in the 1000 block of West First Street. Officers said a 1958 Ford Thunderbird with New Mexico license plates and a 1965 Ford driven by Carl Proffer of El Paso both were going west on West First and the Thunderbird was attempting to pass when it bumped into the side of the other car and then left the scene.

Damage to the Proffer car was estimated at $50 and no citations were given. The Thunderbird also was reported to be doing 50 miles per hour in a 45 zone.

Jimmie Limas, 10, who lives on Dairy Road, was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital after he was struck by a car on Progressive Road, about 40 feet north of the intersection with Dairy Road.

The boy, officers were told, ran across the highway and was struck by a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Jesus Albiar of Route 4, who was headed south on Progressive Road. The youth was running from east to west.

He was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital and received emergency treatment for bruises, abrasions and a possible concussion. He was released Monday. Albiar received a citation for leaving the scene of an accident. There was no damage to his car.

A two-car accident at the intersection of U. S. 385 and Park Avenue at 5:45 p.m. caused an estimated $500 damage. A 1965 Mercury driven by Prescott Moore of Mesa, Ariz., and a 1966 Pontiac driven by Jim Marcum of 116 Juniper were involved in the accident.

Officers were told that Moore was going west on Park Avenue and Marcum was traveling north on U. S. 385 when the two collided at the intersection. There was $300 damage to the Mercury and $200 to the Pontiac. A citation for a failure to yield right of way was issued.

MAN HOSPITALIZED, JAILED

Serapio Bustamante of 831 Brevard, driver of a 1961 Falcon, received emergency treatment at the hospital following a two-car accident just west of the intersection of U. S. 385 and U. S. 60, at 6:25 p. m.

Following treatment for facial lacerations, Bustamante was charged with driving while intoxicated. He was fined $100 and sentenced to five days in jail by County Judge H. C. Williams.

A 1967 Lincoln driven by Terry Gattis of Durant, Okla., was going east on West First when Gattis stopped for a red light at the intersection. The Lincoln was struck in the rear by the Falcon, with the Lincoln sustaining $400 damage and the Falcon $350.

Bustamante attempted to leave the scene, but was stopped by a Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff, who had witnessed the accident.

The intersection of Forest and Irving Streets was the scene of another two-car accident at 7:15 p. m. in which total damage estimates were $750.

Mary Hernandez, 20, of 410 Long Street, driver of a 1963 Chevrolet, was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital following the accident. She was released Tuesday after being treated for bruises and lacerations.

Officers said Miss Hernandez was going east on Forest Street and a 1963 Ford driven by Donald Cornelius of 202 Fir was going north on Irving when the vehicles collided at the intersection. There was an estimated $450 damage to the Cornelius vehicle and $300 to the Hernandez car. A citation was issued for failure to yield right of way.

A Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff said he was making routine patrols when he saw two cars parked without lights about a mile east of the intersection of Austin Road and Progressive Road.

Herd Hosts Eagles

The Hereford Whitefaces, well rested after a week off from football wars, get back into the affray at 8 p. m. Friday when they host the Canyon Eagles in the annual homecoming game and District 1-AAA opener.

Although the Eagles have only one victory in five starts, they would like nothing better than to spoil the Hereford homecoming and could get fired up enough to do just that.

Paced by Fullback Phil Swartzell, (No. 45) and Linebacker Jim McBroom, (No. 62) the Eagles have lost to Phillips 65-0; Lawton, Okla., Eisenhower, 49-7; Tucuman, N. M., 25-12; and Spearman 7-6, while they defeated Levelland 19-18 for the only victory.

The Whitefaces will take a 3-2 record into the game, having defeated Floydada, 41-6; Hale Center, 34-0, and Portales, N. M., 27-7, while losing to two unbeaten teams Olton, 21-20, and Monahans, 27-7.

Joining the varsity for the first time this season will be Tailback Bobby Burwick, who compiled an awesome record with the Junior Varsity. Quarterback Jim Childers is expected to suit up but will see limited action due to a sore leg which he injured against Hale Center.

A spectacular halftime show in which some 300 students will participate is expected to be well worth the price of admission alone. See story in this issue for all the homecoming activities.

Latin-Americans Charged In Affray

Two Latin American men were charged with assault with intent to murder following the shooting of Jorge Galvez, 30, in the 100 block of North Main about 11:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Charged in the shooting incident were Luz Espinoza Alvarez, 44, and his son, Arthur Alvarez, 20, both of the Labor Camp. The two were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Ernest Wade, who set bond at $10,000 each.

Galvez, the attending physician said, had seven different gunshot wounds and a broken right arm, which apparently had occurred before the shooting. There were four wounds in the upper left arm, one in the upper right chest and shoulder, one in the left shoulder and lower chest and one in the lower abdomen. The physician, who said Wednesday afternoon that Galvez was in satisfactory condition in Deaf Smith County Hospital, stated that he could not tell how many times the man had been shot.

A police unit was sent to the 100 block of North Main at 11:32 p.m. after the dispatcher had received a call that there was some sort of trouble there. Upon arrival, the officer was told that someone had just shot at a man and drove west.

Spotting the vehicle about three blocks away, the officer gave pursuit. The car turned south on U. S. 385 and then went behind the Moore Brothers Shamrock Service Station. The policeman then stopped the car, which contained four Latin American males, and asked the driver what the trouble was and why he was driving so fast.

At that time, one of the men got out of the car on the opposite side with a gun in his hand. The policeman pulled his gun and the man dropped the pistol across the trunk of the car. The other three Latin American got out of the car to assist the man and the officer called for assistance.

When two other policemen arrived, Luz Alvarez told the officers he was not going to jail. A fight began involving the three officers and the men under arrest. Another policeman and two sheriff's deputies arrived. See AFFRAY, Page Two

Large Group Hears Feeding Experts

By TOM PORTER
Staff Writer

Approximately 100 persons involved in the Panhandle's fastest growing industry — beef cattle fattening — heard two experts speak Tuesday night on starting new cattle on feed and use of computers in the business.

Sponsored by Shur-Gro Liquid Feed, Inc., the program began with Dr. William D. Powell, regional veterinarian for Chas. Pfizer and Co., discussing "Methods of Starting Feedlot Cattle."

Dr. Powell detailed the day by day feeding of the new cattle, describing the problems which arise as time passes and offered suggestions as to how to cure the problems.

J. F. Simonet of Madera, Calif., changed the title of his talk from "Total Feedlot Programming Using Computers" to "Total Programming For Finishing Beef Cattle."

Simonet began his talk by explaining that each person has one thing in common — they are all affected by computers. "There is relatively little in life not dominated by the computer," he stated. He listed how computers are used in medicine, law, business and in the home.

People in the feeding industry are only about two years away from the point where the feed will be manufactured without a human hand touching it.

He also stressed the growing need for computers in a business such as Shur-Gro because no two men in a business are alike and each is entitled to his own feeding formula.

With computers, the business can "serve more people, more accurately and more economically," Simonet said vast amounts of information can be handled swiftly with a computer, which few people can explain.

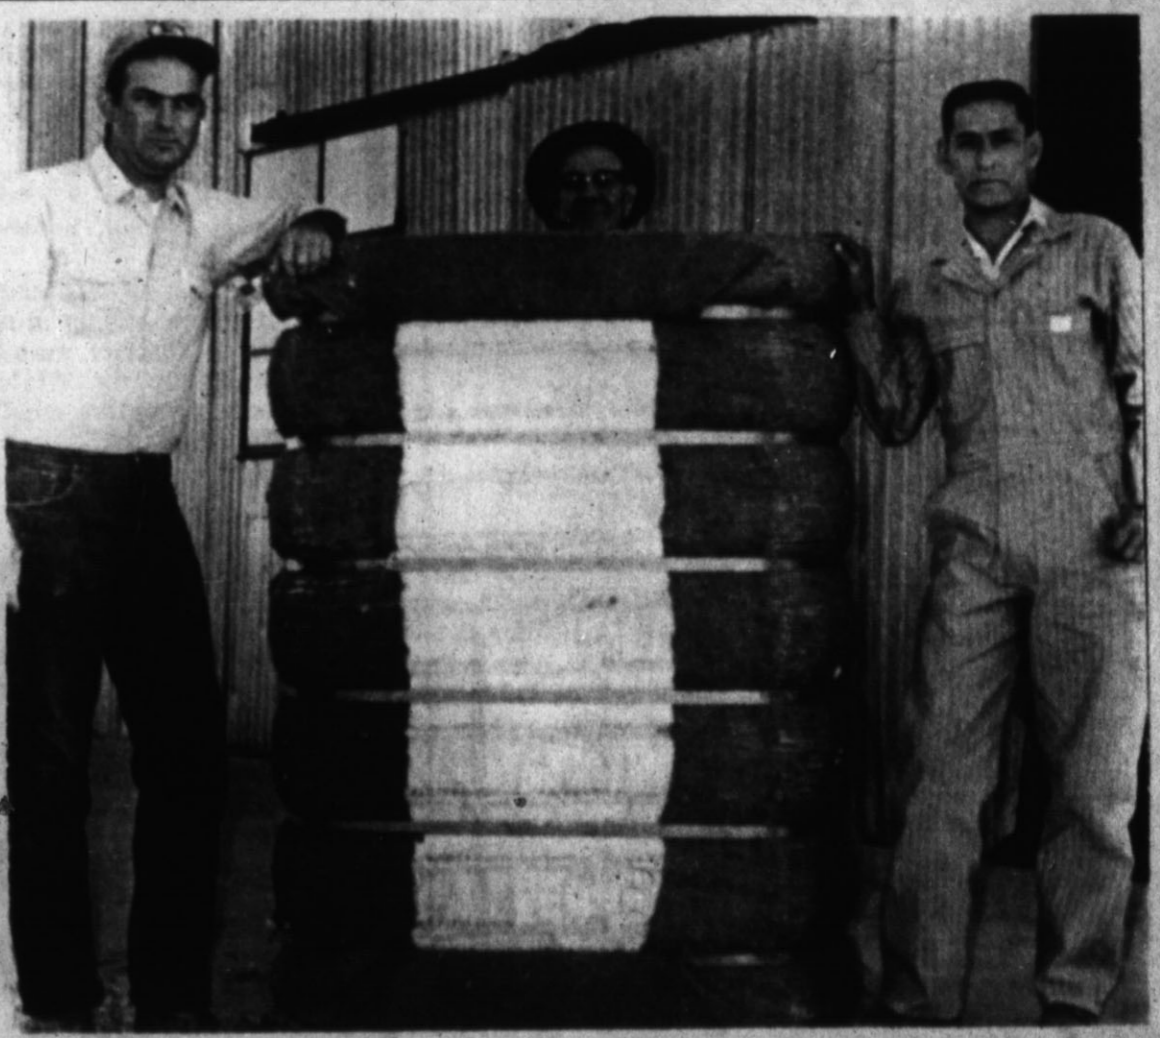

"Anything that a computer does is what you tell it to do," continued Simonet. "It can't change the information we give it without other information we give it."

He stated that total programming is now available in the feedlots and the feed lot operator should be able to project the cost per pound gained on cattle. Also, the operator can predict the average gain per day on the cattle.

The computer can evaluate the weather in the projection and the affect the weather will have on the cattle. Even the risk can be put into the computer, said Simonet. "It will follow each instruction we give it."

The computer gives the customer a data platform on which to base his decisions. The company refuses to make the decisions.

Question and answer sessions followed each talk. A barbecue supper was prepared by the Hereford Rotary Club.

FIRST BALE — Carlyle Sargent, left, harvested the first bale of cotton in Deaf Smith County this season, having the crop ginned at the Hereford Gin Saturday. J. F. Smith, manager, and Frank Condarco, ginner, also are pictured with the 465-pound bale of the Acala brand. Sargent planted the crop in May on land directly north of the Hereford Gin. There was 2,100 pounds of seed cotton from the bale, which is expected to grade around one and one-eighth inch staple. Sargent also farms 3 miles south of Hereford.

(Continued from page one) cars, they turned around and sped from the scene. The deputy gave chase and reached speeds of 90 to 100 miles per hour before the car was stopped about five minutes later coming back east on Austin Road.

Units from the Hereford Police Department and the Department of Public Safety assisted in searching for the second car, but it was not found. The 24-year-old driver of the car which was caught was ordered to appear Friday, at which time charges will be filed. At 9 p. m., police were dispatched to Filpe Calle Street to investigate an accident involving a 1956 Chevrolet pickup driven by Antonio Martinez of Hereford and a 1967 Chevrolet pickup truck owned by Hermilo Ramirez of the Holiday Motel. The

TWO SUNDAY ACCIDENTS — Scenes from two of the six traffic accidents which occurred Sunday are shown. The accident in left photo was just west of the intersection of U.S. 60 and 385, while the other was at the intersection of Forest and Irving streets. One person was taken to the hospital from each accident. See story on Page 1 of this issue for details.

Ramirez truck was parked facing south on the street. Officers were told that the Martinez vehicle was going north on the street and struck the truck. No citations were given because no one admitted driving the pickup. There was an estimated $75 damage to each vehicle.

The 1967 crop of food promises to be 4 per cent above last year's and 2 per cent above the 1965 record crop, according to the Statistical Reporting Service of the Agriculture Department's Crop Reporting Board.

Police Investigate Vandalism

Hereford police are continuing to investigate several cases of vandalism which occurred during Friday the 13th.

James G. Gandy of 414 Star Street reported to police that he had found the right front window and windshield of his pickup, broken, which had been parked near his home. The day before, Gandy said, someone had gotten into the glove compartment of the vehicle and scattered papers around. Damage was estimated at $80.

During the night of Oct. 13 and 14, someone broke a large window in the Whiteface Barber shop, 240 N. Main. Damage was estimated at $75 and a large caliche rock was found inside the building.

Officials of Mesa Homes reported to police that eight window panes and three garage door panes were broken from the home under construction at 627 Avenue G. Damage was estimated at $18.

Helen's Shop, 417 Main, had a front plate glass window broken out, the owner reported. Value of the window was not known and nothing was found to indicate how it had been deliberately broken.

Two large holes were knocked in the front plate glass window of Neill's Body Shop, 128 Schley. Damage was estimated at $100 and two large caliche rocks were found in the building.

Two tool boxes filled with assorted tools and valued at approximately $150 were reported as stolen to Hereford Police Monday.

Albert Maxwell, manager of Hereford Growers and Shippers, 121 South Witherspoon, said the tools were taken from the back part of the shed sometime between Oct. 9 and Monday.

Washington Report
From Congressman
BOB PRICE 10TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
1323 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 275-2704

On the same day the United States and Russia deposited proclamations of ratification of a treaty barring weapons in outer space, the Soviet Union announced a 15 percent increase in its 1968 military budget.

The announcement cited "international tension" and suggested that the total included substantial aid to North Viet Nam and replacement of Arab arms lost in the June war with Israel. The Russians singled out "aggression" by the United States in Viet Nam and by Israel in the Middle East.

Balanced against recent hard-line Russian statements to continue their massive aid to North Viet Nam, Castro's Cuba and Nasser's United Arab Republic, our continued overtures to Russia for better and more East-West relations and trade appear rather absurd.

A case in point is a recent purchase by a California firm of two million pounds of cottonseed oil from the Soviet Union. The cottonseed oil purchase, made by Hunt-Wesson Foods, Inc. was protested by Rep. Paul Findley, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, in a telegram to the President of that company who said, "the purchase was developed in view of the shortage of cottonseed in the United States," and that "to attempt to buy domestic cotton seed oil for export use, in connection with our own, and other domestic consumer needs could put an extreme inflationary pressure on the price of domestic vegetable oils."

oil on the U. S. market at fire-sale prices? Why trade with a country which not only is supplying North Viet Nam with the most modern weapons to kill American men but is also helping hold down farm prices in this country? Imports from friendly nations of meat, dairy products, textiles and cotton have also helped hold down returns to farmers and ranchers but at least most of these countries are not aiding our enemies.

It's long past time that we enforced our anti-dumping laws and adopted some practical policies about doing business with the Russians, particularly on their terms. We should stop this nonsense of seeking wider trade opportunities with the Soviet Union and other Communist-bloc countries until they stop aiding countries with whom we are at war, and continue to foment armed aggression and their so-called "wars of liberation" in countries that have so far resisted the yoke of Communism.

St. Louis's newly opened Gateway Arch commemorates the city as the gateway to the West. The monument towers 630 feet, 75 feet higher than the Washington Monument. Some 900 tons of polished stainless steel were used—the largest amount ever employed in a single project.

The theory that all living things are composed of cells was advanced by Matthias Schleiden and Theodor Schwann in 1839.

But the U. S. Department of Agriculture apparently does not agree that the purchase of cottonseed oil by Hunt-Wesson in the domestic market, rather than from the Soviet Union, would put undue inflationary pressure on domestic vegetable oil prices. That agency recently announced a Food-for-Peace agreement under which the United States will give 154 million pounds of soybean and cottonseed oil to India. It is obvious that the United States has a large, price-depressing surplus of vegetable oils on hand.

In fact, such oils are now selling on the domestic market at bargain prices well below what the industry has paid in the past. Cottonseed oil is down about three cents from a year ago, as is soybean oil, and corn oil is down two cents. Cottonseed is bringing farmers only 77 percent of parity and soybeans are selling for nearly one dollar a bushel below last year's price.

So why should we allow the Soviet Union to dump its surplus cottonseed and safflower

Cash Donations Still Needed To Aid Victims

No further food and clothing contributions are needed by victims of Hurricane Beulah, but cash donations are needed to help residents get back to normal life in their homes and businesses; Deaf Smith County Red Cross board members were told Tuesday.

The monthly board meeting was held in First National Community Room. J. R. Johnson, county chairman, reported on and after the hurricane and announced that cash contributions may be made through the Red Cross office here.

Mrs. Marvis Southward, chairman of Red Cross Volunteer, reported that 234 ditty bags filled with small articles for the comfort and convenience of servicemen were shipped last week from this county, which had a quota of 225 bags.

She expressed appreciation for cooperation of merchants, women's organizations which cut, sewed and filled the bags, and all who gave time, cash and gift items for this project. Aim of all the work is to have a bag for every U. S. serviceman in Vietnam, ready for distribution at Christmas.

Curtis Traweek, first aid chairman, announced that a new first aid instructor, Charles Watson, is available to give authorized Red Cross courses.

Mrs. Doyle Rush, water safety chairman, summarized the 1967 summer program, in which a dozen qualified water safety instructors gave 705 hours of instruction to 534 persons, child and adult, assisted by 25 aides who contributed 460 hours of time.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Cookery Learned Young

By SUE COLEMAN
Youngest in her family and the only girl of six children, Margaret Poyner dreamed of growing up to be the mother of pretty little girls, as she learned housewifely skills from her mother.

THEN SHE GREW UP, married Buddy Bloomer and is the mother of three delightful little boys who have changed her mind about wanting girls in the family.

"Probably I understand boys better anyway," she remarks as she surveys her lively brood.

Hereford residents the past five years, the Bloomers were married in Lubbock where Margaret was born, reared and completed her high schooling. She met her husband while he was a student in Texas Tech, through church activities.

BOTH ARE STILL active in church, devoting considerable time to the Central Church of Christ where they are members. They share an enthusiasm for sports, water skiing and other outdoor amusements in summer, shifting to spectator interest in football in the fall, with emphasis on Tech's games.

The boys play football with their Dad now, Mrs. Bloomer foresees years in which the parents will be involved with Little Leagues and school sports programs.

The oldest boy, five-year-old Steven Blane, will be in kindergarten next year. Scott Lane is three years old and Sidney Bane 19 months.

Because she was her mother's chief helper as the only girl, Margaret had no difficulty establishing a housekeeping routine and learning to cook after she married. Her only problem was cooking for two, after preparing meals for a family of eight.

"MY MOTHER IS probably the best organizer and planner in the world," she says with pride, "and I learned from her to schedule my work and keep things in order so there is not so much chance of a housekeeping crisis".

She likes to have the house in apple-pie order because she enjoys an attractive home. Although the boys play like any other children, they are also tonight to put toys away after playtime, and to help their mother keep things picked up for a neat look in the house.

Planning the use of her time enables Mrs. Bloomer to set aside an hour of more once a week to visit ill or shut-in friends, usually at Kings Manor, where the boys accompany her at the urgent invitation of her friends there.

SHE DOES SUCH handwork as sewing for herself and making accessories for her home; a recent piece of work resulted in a large arrangement of the popular colored feather flowers for her dining table.

A hobby, just pastime, is hair arranging. She has not studied hairstyling and has no plans for professional work, but she likes to experiment on her friends' hair, creating new styles.

In rush times she assists her husband in his work as manager of White's Store here, sometimes substituting for an absent secretary or salesperson in emergencies.

COOKING IS ONE phase of the housework she enjoys. She collects recipes, especially those tried and recommended by friends, and she experiments with new ones although her family has its favorites of plain foods which form the basis of meals at the Bloomer home. "Man-type" items like meat, potatoes and pie loom large in her program of cookery. She is on the committee to prepare meat dishes, and plans to cook chicken as her contribution to the Nov. 2 tasting luncheon of L'Allegria Study Club, of which she is a member.

One of her favorite recipes she got from her mother, for pecan pie.

"I'VE TRIED a lot of others, but they just aren't as good," she says of this, and it is an easy-mix method. For the crust, she finds it difficult to give an accurate recipe because she does not measure water, and says she uses more water than most cooks, to make a crisper crust.

Basically, she uses 1 cup flour, 1/2 tsp. salt and one-third cup shortening, then water to make a dough just stiff enough to roll. If she has dough left, she bakes it in crisp crackers which the boys like.

3 eggs
3/4 cup sugar
1 cup white corn syrup
1 tsp vanilla
Dash of salt
3 tb. butter
1 cup pecans.

Mix all thoroughly and cook in unbaked pie shell 45 minutes. Have oven temperature at 450 degrees the 1st 10 minutes, then reduce to 350 degrees and bake 30 minutes.

Statistics Show Herd Good Offensive Team

Cumulative statistics from the first five games of the current season reveal that although the Hereford Whitefaces have handled the ball far less time than their opponents, they have outscored, outrushed, outpassed and outdefended the foes.

Enroute to a 3-2 record, the Herd scored 129 points while allowing their opponents 61; rushed for a net of 1,026 yards while holding the foes to 792; passed for 380 yards while allowing opponents 201, and made an average gain of 5.2 on each play while holding the opponents to 3.7 yards per play.

In piling up the impressive figures, the Whitefaces ran only 270 offensive plays, while their opponents had 311 tries with the football. Hereford had 197 rushing plays and opponents had 214. The Herd completed 20 of 46 passes for 380 yards and the foes completed 17 of 57 aeriels for 201 yards. Each intercepted four passes, but Whiteface players returned their interceptions 45 yards while the opponents got only 25 yards. Hereford has lost seven of 22 fumbles and the opponents have lost 10 of 19 bobbles.

The Whitefaces also led in another category, one they gladly would have allowed the other teams to dominate. The locals received 31 penalties for 298 yards, while foes were penalized 29 times for 226 yards.

In individual statistics, Gary Goodin, who played three games and three quarters of the fourth game before being injured, leads the team in rushing with 326 yards on 64 carries - an average of 5.1 yards per tote. Goodin also scored 18 points, had one punt return for an 86-yard touch-

DRYLAND MILO — Some 120 acres of dryland milo is doing exceptionally well for Richard Fortenberry, who farms about 30 miles west and one mile north of Hereford. Prospects are good for a yield of 1,800 pounds per acre from the crop.

Farmers Eyeing One Dryland Milo Crop

Dryland farmers of the western edges of Deaf Smith County, plagued with another poor grain sorghum crop, currently are keeping a close watch on what may be a bumper crop.

Richard Fortenberry, who farms about 30 miles west and a mile north of Hereford, has been holding his breath of late as he has watched 360 acres of grain sorghum mature. He has irrigated 240 acres of that crop and the remainder has been left to survive on what little rain fell.

Farmers and specialists who looked over the crops last week predicted that the irrigated crop will yield an average of 2,200 pounds per acre, while the dryland crop will yield 1,800 pounds per acre.

Farmers in that area hold an average of 800 to 1,000 pounds an acre year in and year out, getting as much as 3,000 pounds one year and 500 the next. This year, the big percentage of the farmers will average only 500 to 800 pounds an acre — if the crop is good enough to cut at all. Much of it will be grazed.

Fortenberry said he started planting the milo — the majority of it being of the Texas 610 variety — between June 15 and 20, and took three days in putting down the crop. The dryland crop was put on abandoned wheat ground and the irrigated crop on land where a variety of crops had been grown.

The growth of the non-irrigated crop, Fortenberry believes, can be attributed to skip-row planting — two rows in and one out. The farmer feels that the blank row stored the moisture from rains and had it available when the plant was forming a head.

Another major contributor to the growth was the land itself, which had not been completely fallowed (left unplanted but plowed), but had been abandoned when the wheat crop failed.

In the future, Fortenberry has plans to plant on summer fallowed land, (land left unplanted for a year) particularly the dryland grain sorghum.

Irrigation, which was the first time for Fortenberry, began on the other 240 acres on Aug. 2. He estimated that he has applied about 100-acre-feet of water — or five inches — in three separate irrigations. Water was applied only every 120 inches or to every third row during tube watering from irrigation ditches. There is only one other farmer in that area known to be irrigating at this time.

Fortenberry said he was still evaluating, but the fuel costs in irrigating have been roughly $9.50 per acre-foot. That figure does not include labor, depreciation, return on investment and other such expenses. "With that high a cost, a person needs to get maximum use out of it," he said in explaining that he had been expecting the irrigation to be worth more.

Next year, Fortenberry plans to improve his irrigation system on sorghum to bring up the yield. He has been advised to decrease the irrigated acres so he could give the soil all the moisture it needs for maximum production of 2,000 to 2,500 pounds an acre.

The outcome of Fortenberry's crops is expected to be known soon as plans call for harvesting the crop after the first frost or by Nov. 1 if there is no frost. The area's first frost occurred during the night Sunday, but it was light and may not stop the crop's growth.

IRRIGATED CROP — The 240 acres of grain sorghum planted by Richard Fortenberry and placed under irrigation will yield an average of 2,200 pounds per acre, specialists have predicted. Fortenberry planted the crop in June and began irrigating in August.

Texas Cattle Feeders To Meet

Features of the annual meeting of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association, to be held in Amarillo Nov. 13-14, will be three panel discussions on topics of major interest to cattle feeders and persons interested in the industry.

Topic of the afternoon panel discussion Nov. 13 will be "The Development of the Packing Industry on the Plains." Officials from Texas Meat, Inc., Juengling & Son Packing Co., Glover Packing Co., Missouri Beef Packers and Wilson & Co. will be on the panel, which will be moderated by Jack Tompkins.

Panels during the day Nov. 14 will discuss "Feeder Cattle Replacements—From Where—Under What Arrangement" and "How Far Will Feeding Development Go On the Plains." Outstanding authorities from across the nation will participate on the panels.

A discussion of feeding research developments by Charles Quarre of Bakersfield, Calif., will be on Nov. 14, while other experts will discuss developments in animal nutrition, the impact of these developments on the cattle feeding industry, and an appraisal of the developing cattle feeding industry on the Plains.

The ladies' program will include a luncheon and style show on Nov. 14 and the association meeting will close Tuesday evening, Nov. 14 with a dinner-dance at the Holiday Inn-West.

Congressman Will Visit In District

Panhandle Congressman Bob Price will return to the district for a busy two-day schedule this week-end.

He will be guest speaker at a Plains Cotton Growers Association luncheon meeting, Friday, at the Ko Ko Inn in Lubbock. From there he will go to Muleshoe for a dinner meeting with the Muleshoe Industrial Foundation at the Corral Drive-In and a 7:30 Town Hall meeting at the High School Cafeteria sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Vic Benedict, Chamber president will be in charge.

Saturday, Glenn Lust, Farmer County GOP Chairman, has arranged a 9 A. M. Town Hall meeting at Friona where the Congressman will discuss national issues and answer questions. The meeting will be in the High School Cafeteria.

From Farmer County he will jump to Wheeler County for another Town Hall session to be held at 2 P. M. at the County Court House in Wheeler in the District Court Room. George Porter, Republican County Chairman, will be in charge of the Wheeler affair.

That evening Price will meet with his Northern Agriculture Advisory Committee at the Coronado Inn in Pampa. Chairman of that group is Buddy Cockrell. Price said he would discuss the newly announced cotton program for 1968, other agriculture programs affecting the Panhandle and would review recent Congressional developments in Washington, as well as the U. S. involvement in Vietnam.

A beef production short course for adult farmers will be held Oct. 30, under the sponsorship of the Adrian High School Vocational Agriculture Dept., according to Mr. Pat Blankenship, Supt., and Mr. Bob Wood, teacher of vocational agriculture.

Mr. W. W. (Bill) Holtzapple, Beef Production Specialist with the Vocational Agriculture Division of the Texas Education Agency and the Dept. of Animal Science at Texas A&M University will be the instructor for the course. He is headquartered at Texas A&M University.

Mr. Holtzapple is a graduate of Texas A&M. He majored in Agricultural Education with much of his work done in livestock production.

Upon graduation, he taught Vocational Agriculture at Hearne, Texas, for one year, and served as County Agriculture Agent for nine years in San Augustine County. This is his third year with the Specialist Program. Mr. Holtzapple has had much experience in working with beef cattle and operated his own farm with beef cattle and poultry as the main enterprises.

He had worked with commercial and registered breeders in that area and has carried on a very active program in beef grain in beef cattle production.

The short course at Adrian is scheduled to begin Oct. 30 at 7:30 p. m. in the vocational agriculture building. Other meetings in the series of Beef Cattle will be held Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2nd. During the dates the short course is in progress, Mr. Holtzapple will be available to assist cattlemen with individual problems and to provide on-the-farm instruction, according to Mr. Bob Wood, Voc-Ag Instructor.

Cattlemen interested in attending the short course should write or call the superintendent of schools, Mr. Pat Blankenship, or the teacher of vocational agriculture, Mr. Bob Wood. An entry fee of $2.00 will be charged.

Beef production short course certificates will be presented to each cattlemen who attends all the training sessions.

Mr. Holtzapple states that the field of beef cattle production must take a close look at efficiency of production in the future. With land prices feed, and taxes rising, the producer is meeting more and more competition for the consumers' dollar at the meat counter. From the economic view of the beef cattle business, there is every indication that in comparing the producer of yesteryear and the producer of tomorrow, beef must be produced to sell cheaper in order to be a profit-making business.

Mr. Holtzapple indicates that the beef production short course will deal with methods of producing beef at a lower cost and the ways of producing the kind of beef that the homemaker wants to buy. He also states that the course will include such important fields as the meat-type steer, selecting bulls and replacement heifers, proper range use, and supplemental winter feeding. The course can be changed to meet the wishes and interests of the farmers and ranchers enrolled.

BOOK OF INFLUENCE
is a surprise book written by Helen Woodward. We dare you to guess what it is about before you read further! In spite of its name it is a book which should appeal to both men and women. Husbands can learn when and how women began her fight for equality. It was long before the suffrage movement.

As late as the Civil War women of America were "legally dead!" Blackstone is the man who coined the phrase. This meant that they had no rights legally and once married, they and their possessions were the property of their husbands. Even the children looked to him as head of the house. They ranked with the slave, idiot or lunatic as far as politics and ownership were concerned.

Both men and women can say today that women have come a long way. Most women look with pride on this accomplishment but some view it with regret. They feel something has been lost. Men may resent her high handedness and power. By 1956 women owned 70 per cent of the property and monies in the United States.

Believe it or not the first steps toward woman's freedom came with the publishing of Godey's Lady Book. The first magazine, it was published by Edward Bok. In the beginning he handled it alone but in time Mrs. Sara Josepha Hale was asked by him to do the writing and editing while he managed the business and advertising.

This team marked the beginning of many women's magazines which showed women the way to independence. Along with the magazines, the strongest of all influences, were two other contributing factors. The invention of the sewing machine and the making of patterns for sewing. The last named was suggested by a woman to her husband, Butterick.

So began the first commercialized patterns, which Butterick developed on a large scale to meet the needs. Later he developed a magazine stressing patterns, to supplement the styles. Most women's magazines to-

FIRST GRADERS GET RIDE — First graders and some pre-schoolers at Hereford elementary schools observed Fire Prevention Week first-hand Thursday and Friday when they took a ride throughout the city on the fire truck. Firemen picked the children up at the schools and returned them after the ride.

The children also were allowed to blow the sirens during the trip. The rides have become a tradition in Hereford and the children showed their gratitude by writing thank you notes and drawing pictures of the trucks and firemen.

ONCE BOTTLES WERE CORKERS
NEW YORK — Today's wine and beverage bottles have a better sanding than their predecessors of 300 years ago. The Glass Container Manufacturers Institute notes that in the 17th Century wine and "soda water" bottles had rounded bottoms.

Ralph McCullough, district awards chairman, who will assist in the workshop on standing committees.

Mrs. Lookingbill will be one of the officers to present previews of district work as a part of the luncheon program. Yearbooks, pressbooks and reports which were winners at the district convention in Amarillo last spring will be on display.

Early wine and soda bottles were sealed with corks that had to be kept moist to maintain the seal. The bottles were thus purposely designed so they couldn't stand up, necessitating horizontal storage to keep the corks wet.

Flat-bottom bottles came into popularity in the 19th Century with the development of crown caps.

SUGARLAND MALL HANGING — Persons entering the west entrance to Sugarland Mall had to take a second look Friday to make sure their eyes weren't deceiving them. A sign on the hanging dummy explained that the man had not shopped at the Mall during "Black Cat. Specials." It was Friday the 13th.

90th Birthday Honoree Feted

Her four children and their families to the fourth generation joined Mrs. D. H. Bryant here to celebrate her ninetieth birthday Sunday. There were 31 relatives in all.

Mrs. Bryant has resided in Deaf Smith county since the early years of this century, and for the past two years has made her home at Kings Manor retirement home. A family dinner at the Manor at noon was a highlight of Sunday's celebration. The birthday cake was shared with other residents there.

Her four children, their husbands and wives present were Mr. and Mrs. Cawthon Bryant of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Burgess of Tulsa, the Rev. and Mrs. Noel Bryant of Sherman and Mrs. Orion W. Carter of Plainview.

Grandchildren and other relatives, including two brothers, two nieces and a nephew, included Mr. and Mrs. John David Bryant of Canyon, Stanley Bryant of Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Carter and son James of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Taylor, Lisa and Lorne of Lubbock.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Davis Webb of Weatherford, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Carlyle and Mrs. Gaylord Newell of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carlyle of Muleshoe, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Carlyle and sons, Harry, Glenn and Lynn of Hobbs, N. M. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cason of Duncannon.

Born near Southwest City Mo. in what was then Indian Territory, Mrs. Bryant, the former Flora Carlyle, grew up in that Ozark Mountain area. She and her husband, who died 11 years ago, were active in First Methodist Church, of which she has been a member since she came here in 1902.

She calls her residence at Kings Manor one of the happiest times of her long life, and enjoys the association with other residents while she maintains ties with her many friends in Hereford, her church and its organizations.

Her favorite hobby is handicrafts and each year she has handmade gifts ready at Christmas for every one in her family.

December Flower Show Schedule Is Approved

Schedules for a flower show to be held Dec. 2 and 3 by Hereford and Bud To Blossom Garden Clubs were approved at a recent meeting of Hereford Garden Club in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. The show will be staged in Sugarland Mall. Mrs. A. L. Manjeot presented the tentative schedule.

A Shoppers Christmas Corner will be held at the same time, managed by Mrs. W. C. Hromas and Mrs. R. N. Yarbrow, to raise funds for civic beautification and other club and other club projects.

Mrs. Ray Johnson, president, was in charge of the business session preceding a lecture by Mrs. R. L. Ethridge based on the book, Design in Flowers (Reister), one of the books on the books on the required reading list for national flower show judges.

Principles in flower arranging are the same and shape remains constant, but time changes form, Mrs. Ethridge emphasized. Design is an art, she continued, and knowledge alone will not create a beautiful arrangement, but it will guide the arranger who may develop creativeness by practice.

The speaker made a number of flower arrangements to illustrate points on changing fashions in the art.

Mrs. R. L. Wilson, horticulture chairman, reported on 1967 introductions in rose varieties, mentioning the San Antonio, a red, and La Paloma, a white in the hybrid teas, Night And Day and Sunbonnes, florabundas. She said rose bushes should be cleaned of black spot now, and debris burned, and recommended bare root plants to be set in March for best results in this climate.

Each member brought a horticultural specimen from her garden for judging by members of various national flower societies.

Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., project chairman, reported that national calendars have been received and are available. Subscriptions to The National Gardener magazine were reported. Members all contributed to a national garden club fund, the Dimes for Pines Memorial fund. Mrs. L. W. Norvelle and Mrs. Viola Williams were welcomed as new members. In the social period Mmes: W. H. Mitchell, Art Stoy and Hromas hostesses, served refreshments to them and 15 members, many of whom went on the tour of Hereford homes sponsored by Garden Beautiful Club, after adjournment.

Cricket, rugby and tennis are popular sports in the Cook Islands of the South Pacific. Tensions that build up insular life — once vented in almost continual strife in the Cooks — find release in the hotly contested games.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

Prospecting

...has been part of the American Romance — always frontiers that beckon — the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow. Forever the call of the wild; the mountain to climb; the vision for change, for movement, for progress... a stake in copper, silver, gold, oil and uranium. We owe those prospectors much.

They blazed the paths, those harbingers of wealth, civilization and culture. We are their successors but our vision differs. We must prospect for even greater good... for a new mountain pass from one country, one people, to another. We seek the gold of mutual understanding. We look for land where the new order of the ages may grow. Our Kingdom of the future must be the Kingdom of God, where love, joy and peace, will be the precious values. The Book of Books and your church offer information and inspiration for this new challenge.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Autumn has been edging up on us for several weeks, but the weekend norther and its frosty aftermath have speeded the process and there are now more browning and yellowing leaves on the trees than green ones. ALL OF A SUDDEN the fragile pastels of summer flowers have almost disappeared, giving way to sturdier hues of fall's reigning blossom, the chrysanthemum, and its companions.

Pyracantha and other berries which modestly blended green shades with the leaves of shrubs earlier in the year, now are conspicuous in a blazing profusion. City yards are putting on their own display of color to match that of the harvest-stage crops and to make you wonder whether or not it is really worth-while to go on a foliage tour, when there is so much beauty for the seeing if you just look down almost any residential street in town.

SITTERS ARE engaged these days not only for the baby, but for dogs, cats and even birds when the family goes away for a few days so that care is assured the household pets. But when I was at Mrs. F. A. Marnell's house the other day I found her acting as a sitter for something really unusual - a bevy of African violet plants. They belong to her mother, Mrs. Frank Wilhelm, who was visiting in Albuquerque. The handsome display of violets, most of them in bloom, is arranged on a shelf unit which is portable so it could be moved to the Marnell home without too much trouble. And where Mrs.

Marnell can keep an eye on them, the plants are not likely to be allowed to lack water, proper light and whatever other attention they may need. SPEAKING OF SITTERS in these days when housewives ruefully face the fact that it is almost impossible to get domestic help because women somehow feel it is beneath them to hire out as a cook, housemaid or children's nursemaid, the job of baby-sitter has a much better status. Young girls and older women are happy to take jobs as baby-sitters, although they would turn down the same work if the mother said she wanted a nursemaid for her children. Maybe there is something in a name, after all; do you suppose I could find someone to be the sitter for my dinner, and come over and cook it for me? or a washday sitter who would sit with the machine while it washes the clothes, then sit at the ironing board and iron them? DIDN'T YOU LIKE the story in Sunday's paper about the F. L. Pinckert's celebrating their 64th wedding anniversary by just going ahead with their usual routine, and since they had planned to repaint the kitchen, they did it that day? Not anything unusual for that couple, both past 80, who keep their place on East Third spic and span inside and out. When their son, Chub Pinckert and his wife found that Mr. Pinckert had painted the ceiling and he felt they would accuse him of doing too-strenuous work, he hastened to assure them that he had made a point of getting a roller with a long handle so he could reach the ceiling without climbing a ladder. It's pleasant to visit with the friendly couple, and pleasant to know that Mrs. Pinckert's health, not too good for a while, is much improved. Mr. Pinckert still is active in business and both stay too busy to bother

FIX CHOPPER'S RADIO FAST WASHINGTON — A trio of compact radios, designed to speed servicing and allow helicopters to return rapidly to operational status, was described here by Fred W. Wilkins.

Wilkins is deputy program manager for the Light Observation Helicopter Avionics Package of the American Helicopter Society's Annual national forum.

"For the first time, the Army can predict how long it will take to repair a radio." Built-in automatic monitoring circuits will allow crews to detect within seconds a faulty receiver or transmitter. A portable test set permits isolation and replacement of faulty module or subassembly in the radio.

The three transceivers weigh less than one-third the weight of comparable radios, Wilkins said

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS

Connally Candidacy Keeps 'em Guessing

By VERN SANFORD

Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex. — Gov. John Connally dropped a political bombshell on the state capital scene by reportedly telling 45 top supporters in a meeting at the Mansion that he has about made up his mind not to run for re-election.

Word of his unexpected reluctance promptly leaked to newsmen. Connally confirmed that the meeting was held and the possibility of a fourth term was discussed.

"My mind is not finally and irrevocably made up," he stated. "I have a pretty firm idea what I am going to do, but I am not prepared to announce the decision. I may decide within the next few days, but I think it will be longer — two weeks or later."

Backers began deluging the governor's office with telephone calls and some newspapers are sounding editorial appeals for the governor to run "just one more time."

U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough's name figures increasingly in the list of prospective gubernatorial candidates following a disagreement between Connally and the senior senator over flood aid.

Li. Gov. Preston Smith, who already has announced as a candidate for the top spot, continues his campaigning in East Texas where he is conducting a "listening tour."

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has stated repeatedly he might run for governor if Connally does not.

House Speaker Ben Barnes says he will run for lieutenant governor regardless of Connally's ultimate decision.

COURT RACES SPOTLIGHTED

State high court races are assured more than ordinary attention in 1968 primaries by the early announcements of three incumbents judges that they will not seek re-election.

Court of Criminal Appeals Judge Wesley Dice is the latest to reveal plans to step aside at the end of his present term. States Attorney Leon Douglas immediately announced as a candidate for the place.

Earlier announcements were made by State Supreme Court Associate Justices James R. Norvell and Meade F. Griffin that they will retire after next year. Potential candidates to succeed them include Austin District Judge Tom Reavley, Chief Justice James G. Denton of the Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals, Associate Justice Matt Davis of the Texarkana Court of Civil Appeals and Houston District Judge Sears McGee.

NEW INSPECTION ITEMS

Auto inspections, expanded by the new State law, are underway at 5,500 stations and will continue through April 15.

Don't be surprised at the additional items covered by the new $1.75 fee. They will include:

*Required front seat safety belts on every car which has anchorages as part of the manufacturer's original equipment.

Checking for "lash" or "play" in steering control. Vehicles will be rejected if steering wheel can be turned more than two inches without front wheel motion. It must also be possible to turn the wheels from full right to full left without jamming or binding. Vehicles with power steering must be checked with power on, and if fluid is below recommended level, car will not pass inspection.

*Wheels with defective or bent rim flanges or those with loose or missing bolts, nuts or lugs will cause rejection of the vehicle.

AIRPORT AID ALLOTTED

Texas Aeronautics Commission has allocated $467,380 to 24 towns and a county for airport development.

COURTS SPEAK

Reversing a 32-year-old decision denying right of parents to recover damages for death of child due to pre-birth injuries, State Supreme Court recognized the right of parents to collect compensation in such a case. Suit involved the death of a two-day infant as a result of injuries sustained before birth in an auto-truck accident.

Court in other actions: *Upheld denial of applications for savings and loan institutions in La Grange.

*Agreed that the City of Fort Worth and Fort Worth schools can tax Greyhound buses within their jurisdictions.

*Set a November 22 hearing on a Negro's suit against a Houston Club manager who refused to serve him and allegedly jerked a plate out of his hand.

ATTACK ON CRIME

House Speaker Barnes revealed his three-pronged plan on the problem of rising crime rate in Texas.

The "concentrated attack" would equip law-enforcement officers with the tools necessary to offset a "wave of lawlessness," he said.

First of the three steps is the appointment of a study committee to make a continual study of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which was passed by the 59th Legislature and revised somewhat by the 60th Legislature.

Second point will be the production of a Manual of Law Enforcement, designed to insure uniformity in crime prevention in the state, to be put out by a recently appointed Law Enforcement Study Committee.

Finally, Barnes wants to establish a state police academy, which would be open to law officers of all levels within the state, from highway patrol to country sheriffs and city police.

AUCTION SALE

High bids on gas leases on University of Texas lands in West Texas averaged $54 an acre. Funds will be used mainly for university construction.

Jerry Sadler, Land Commissioner and Chairman of the Board for Lease of University Lands, said the 170 tracts totaled 45,000 acres and brought high bids of $2,426,400. He expressed satisfaction with this figure.

AG RULES

New law, requiring American government and history courses in state institutions of higher education and junior colleges for general academic courses, is not applicable to vocational or technical course certificates given for State Board of Vocational Education-approved courses, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

In other opinions Martin held that: fund tax overpayments made under mistake of fact or mistake of law under duress.

*Comptroller must refund forfeited discount and deductions and penalties and interest when a taxpayer is able to show returns were mailed on time but postmarked late.

*Motor vehicle sales tax applies to all sales of motor vehicles to a dealer where vehicle is extensively utilized for personal or business purposes of the dealer, his family or employees. No new group contract is necessary under recent law. *Fees cannot be paid by a county to its own county clerk in condemnation proceedings brought by the county.

Regional Meet Replaces Local

The Builder: The Teacher Creative was the program theme of a regional meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, society of women educators, at Amarillo Saturday, attended by members of Delta Xi Chapter from Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties.

Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Delta Xi president, and Mrs. Jim Bookout were at the executive board meeting and dinner Friday evening and were guests that night of Amarillo members. Miss Dimple Watson of Lubbock, regional director, conducted the Saturday program.

Mrs. Mattie Ruth Nowlin of Plainview state director, gave the principal address at luncheon in Amarillo High School Cafeteria. The morning was devoted to discussion groups and a model installation of chapter officers.

Creativity in teaching was emphasized in the speaker's statement. "If a teacher can be replaced by a machine, he should be". Conformity as a destructive force in today's society was discussed, with the teacher's responsibility to combat it.

"Put down the book and pick up their minds," the teachers were advised. Admonition was given that "You have not done enough as long as there is something you can contribute".

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 782 Colorado Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q — How may I, as an employer, obtain information about occupational deferments?

A — A free Selective Service pamphlet, "Information for Employers," about occupational deferments in Class II-A, may be obtained from any draft board, or from the State Selective Service Director.

Q — My draft board gave me too different cards and told me to carry them with me all the time. Why did they give me two?

A — The first one, called a "Registration Certificate" (SSS Form No. 2) is proof that you have registered. The second, a "Notice of Classification" (SSS Form No. 110) lets you know how the draft board has you classified. You must keep the cards and must not mutilate, alter, burn, or destroy them.

Q — May a person appeal a state appeal board classification under any circumstances?

A — Yes, He may appeal to the President of the U. S. If even one of the five members votes to defer him at the same time the others vote not to defer. Q — How will he know how the vote went?

Q — How will he know how the vote went?

A Thanksgiving supper at school was planned. Announcement was made that Walcott boys and girls would play their first basketball games of the season Monday evening with Adrian teams as their opponents, in the Walcott gym.
