27 Killed In Explosion Of Illinois Mine

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., July 25. (AP)—Twenty-seven miners lost their lives in an explosion yesterday in one of the state's largest mines in the heart of the Southern Illinois coal fields.

Twenty-six of the approximately 200 miners at work in the diggings 500 feet underground were found dead at the bottom of the shaft at the main entrance to the Old Ben Coal Company's No. 8 mine. One of the five seriously burned and injured in the blast died today in a hospital.

The bodies of all 26 had been brought to the surface early today by rescue squads and were placed in an emergency morgue.

Work was hampered by carbon monoxide gas and the last three bodies found were buried beneath coal and debris.

Harold L. Walker, Illinois director of mines and minerals, said many of the bodies were badly burned, indicating, he said, a fire had broken out following the explosion. The cause of the blast early today had not been determined.

The rescue teams had worked frantically to reach the men in the belief they had been trapped by rock slides and might be alive.

One of the miners at first believed among those trapped but who later was reported safe was Howard Lewis, underground superintendent and a brother of John L. Lewis, president of the AFL-United Mine Workers.

Burglary Wave Harries Law

Though the loot taken was small, an outbreak of burglaries in widely separated sections of the city sometime Thursday night provided headaches for the sheriff's department and members of the city police force alike this morning.

Thieves broke into the Westox Oil company bulk station, East First and Goliad streets, broke open a safe and removed $60 and cash, then apparently moved on down to the City Service Wholesale office, 309 East First street, and made off with two tires, four tubes, an electric fan and an electric razor.

In both instances, the intruders apparently gained entrance by battering in the front doors to the establishments.

Approximately $14 in coins was taken from a cigarette machine from the Air Castle, 1012 East Third street. Nothing else was missing.

Burglars jimmed a rear window of the Cosden Service station, 804 East Third street, but nothing was missing from the establishment. Police theorized the thieves had been frightened off after forcing their way into the place.

An Odessa man reported loss of a suit case full of clothes from a car parked in front of a west end tavern shortly before midnight last night. The car had been left unlocked, the owner declared.

Heavy Withdrawals From Nurses Fund

AUSTIN, July 25. (AP)—"Unsupported withdrawals" of $21,552.36 from the bank account of the State Board of Nurse Examiners were reported by State Auditor C. H. Cavness today to the governor, the board, and the legislature.

Cavness' formal report said these withdrawals "were checks made payable to Eloween Mesch, to 'cash', to various ladies' ready-to-wear stores, department stores, garages, utility companies, etc., and to individuals not connected in any way with the board's affairs, and appeared to have been issued for the personal benefit of the secretary-treasurer, who signed all checks."

Mrs. Mesch, a former member of the board, was secretary-treasurer until her recent commitment to the San Antonio state hospital for the insane.

Cavness told the governor "it is our opinion that nothing of real value to the board would be gained by further investigation of this case."

"We have met with the board and have spent some time with the newly-elected secretary-treasurer in setting up a complete and proper set of books so a fresh start can be made. We will also assist the board in preparation of their claim against the surety company," Cavness' report said.

Yesterday Gov. Beauford H. Jester named Miss Laura Cole of Temple to fill Mrs. Mesch's unexpired term and Miss Marjorie Bridwell of San Angelo to fill the unexpired term of Miss Blanche Thompson of Fort Worth, who re-

50-Cent Maximum Proposed To Permit Higher Operation Costs

Propertied voters of Howard county give their answer Saturday to increase the tax limit of the Howard County Junior College district from 20 to 50 cents.

The proposed increase in a higher top limit on the county-wide district rate has had the support of the board of trustees, who called the election in response to petitions.

Polls open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. at the usual voting places. In Big Spring boxes No. 1 through No. 4 will be at the courthouse and No. 8 at West Ward school.

Cochoma traditionally ballots at the city hall and Soash has a residential polling place, but other boxes will be open at the community school houses.

Eligible to participate in the election are all duly qualified voters (those who have paid poll taxes, or possess exemptions and who satisfy residential requirements of a minimum of six months in the county and one year in the state, provided they have real or personal property rendered or assessed for taxes.

A campaign in support of the projected increase in the limit will be climaxed at 7:15 p. m. today by W. L. Mead, Big Spring, and H. E. Barnes, Knott superintendent, at 7:15 a. m. Saturday when Otis Grafa, board member, and E. C. Dodd, president of the college, make final appeals over the radio.

During the past week Dodd has made several appearances before service club groups, and R. T. Piner, board member, and L. H. Thomas, board president, also addressed club groups in support of the proposal. Letters and posters have been posted and telephone reminders to vote are due Saturday.

Board members and administrative officials have declared more funds are needed to meet increased instructional costs, through needed raises for staff members and for additions to the faculty; for higher operation costs; and to meet needs for expanding the college curriculum, particularly in vocational fields. The budget is projected tentatively on adding about $30,000 in the levy, approximately the same now collected.

The college has operated on a 20-cent rate, the limit possible when the district was created in 1945. However, the 50th legislature this year increased the limits to 50 cents each for maintenance and interest and sinking fund. The local district proposed a 50 cent limit to cover both purposes. Bonds of $200,000 were voted at the outset, but $150,000 of this can be used only for permanent buildings. Part of the remaining $50,000 is being used for equipment.

Training Bill Is Approved By House Group

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The House armed services committee today approved a universal military training bill by a vote of 20 to 0.

Chairman Walter G. Andrews (R-NY) told reporters immediately that there is no intention of bringing the bill to a House vote this year. He said the committee action is intended solely to get a bill before Congress. The bill, drafted by a subcommittee, goes on the House calendar and will be ready for consideration early next year.

Eight Republicans and 12 Democrats, with three of the Democrats represented by proxies, voted to send the bill to the House floor. There are 33 on the committee.

Closely following the recommendations of President Truman's special commission on universal training, the legislation calls for six months of basic training in an Army or Navy establishment for all qualified American males after they reach the age of 18.

Quakes Reported In Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES, July 25. (AP)—Three light earthquakes in the Los Angeles area and six in the San Diego district caused seismographs to jiggle in Southern California yesterday but no damage was reported.

The latest one was reported in San Diego at 10:20:12 p. m. (PST) and seismologist Fred Robinson said it lasted for about three and one-half minutes.

Thomas E. Gallemore, Jr., 11 months, and his grandmother, Mrs. Sue Gallemore, 58, of San Angelo, died of injuries.

The infant was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Gallemore of Victoria, both of whom were in a local hospital.

Truman Declares Part Of War Is Over

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—President Truman today declared the war over, insofar as veterans' benefits and a batch of other war and emergency statutes are concerned.

The chief executive signed a senate joint resolution (SJR 123), making inoperative some 175 laws whose effect was based on the status of war and emergency.

But he said some other extraordinary powers must be retained for a time, and announced that he has asked Attorney General Clark to continue his studies on the ending of the remaining war statutes.

In interpreting the 175 acts, the resolution says, the proclamations of World War II, the limited emergency and the unlimited emergency "shall be construed as terminated and peace established."

It is therefore T-day—termination-of-war-day—for about 16,000 war veterans and servicemen.

Dutch Claim First Phase Over In Java

Republicans Expect Main Port To Fall

BATAVIA, July 25. (AP)—A fully qualified Dutch source said today the first phase of Dutch operations against the Indonesian Republican army—aimed at isolating Central Java from the rice-producing East and West—had been completed.

Reporting from the Republican capital of Jogjakarta, deep in the interior, Associated Press Correspondent Harris Jackson said official Republicans obviously foresaw the possibility that the Dutch would capture the main part of Java, but insisted the Indonesians would render the Dutch position continuously precarious with guerrilla warfare.

The Dutch informant here said the next step for Dutch troops would be to mop up zones of resistance in the eastern and western parts of the island and install new administrations.

An Indonesian army communique reported that Republican forces in Central Java had penetrated Dutch defenses at Semarang on the north coast, jump-off point for a Dutch drive on Jogjakarta.

A Dutch communique said Dutch forces which swept past six more western Java towns, including an important former Republican army headquarters, found much evidence of Indonesian scorched earth tactics.

The communique said two rubber estates captured in West Java suffered badly and there was much destruction and burning at Jitlangka and Madjalaja. Air reconnaissance showed the important West Java radio station at Malabar was ablaze, the bulletin added.

In Northern Sumatra, fierce Chinese tribesmen counterattacked twice against Bindjai west of Medan, the communique said, but were officially reported driven off. The remainder of Sumatra was said to be quiet.

Official Dutch casualty figures since the start of operations were given as 32 killed, 41 wounded and seven missing. Normally these figures lag considerably behind operational reports.

May, Garssons Are Given Prison Terms

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)— Ex-Congressman Andrew J. May was sentenced today to a term of eight months to two years in prison on charges of accepting $53,634.70 in bribes while he was wartime chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee.

The two men accused of paying May the bribes — munitions makers Murray and Henry Garsson — also were given prison terms with a minimum of eight months and a maximum of two years.

The maximum penalty that could have been imposed on each by Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut was six years in prison and a fine of $50,000.

None of the defendants had anything to say to newsmen after hearing their sentences. All were released on $2,000 bail each pending appeals.

The sentencing was delayed for more than two hours while the defendants' lawyers pleaded for a new trial and May biseeched the court for mercy.

The 72-year-old former Kentucky Democratic congressman insisted that he had never taken "a single dime" dishonestly during his long service in congress.

He told Schweinhaut: "I stand before the court today with a clear, clean conscience. I never violated a law as far as I know in the 72 years of my life. "I never received a dollar directly or indirectly that was not honestly earned or justly due."

May was convicted July 3 after an 11-week-long trial of accepting $53,634.07 in bribes from munitions makers Murray and Henry Garsson.

Defense attorneys, who have said they will carry the case to the supreme court if necessary, pleaded for a new trial and praised May and the Garssons before May addressed the court.

Among the reasons cited by the lawyers for a new trial was the contention that the jurors had listened to radio descriptions of the trial and read newspapers before reaching their verdict.

No Clemency For Newton

AUSTIN, July 25. (AP)—The state board of pardons and paroles today voted two to one against recommending further clemency for Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron, convicted in the murder of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield.

Board Chairman Abner L. Lewis voted in favor of recommending a full pardon. Members Walter Strong and R. A. (Smoot) Schmid voted against it.

Lewis issued a statement accompanying his announcement of the board's action, saying he "regretted" that his colleagues on the board did not join him in recommending the clemency and giving his reasons for so recommending.

Lewis said the other two board members felt the agency should "not invade the province of a jury to determine guilt or innocence."

Turner Joins State National

Election of a new staff member to be assistant cashiers and promotion of two others to a like position has been announced by the State National bank.

Acceptance of appointment as assistant cashier has come from H. A. Turner, who has 12 years banking experience, including six years as assistant national bank examiner. Lately, he has been cashier at Sonora, T. S. Currie, president of State National, announced following a board meeting.

Fred Haller and T. S. Currie, Jr. were promoted to assistant cashiers by the board. Turner is to assume his duties with the bank on July 31.

Box Seat Ducats For Rodeo Ready

Tickets for box seat holders for the annual Big Spring Rodeo have been received, and persons who reserved boxes earlier may secure them at the chamber of commerce office, rodeo association officials announced this morning.

Reservations for box seats were made available several weeks ago, and the choice locations were claimed rapidly. However, tickets were not available at the time, and it will be necessary for those who reserved boxes to obtain them between now and opening day, officials explained.

Merchants about the city were continuing preparations for the rodeo this morning. Several store buildings already exhibited colorful signs with drawings of cowboys and bucking horses, and posters and placards were being distributed.

Senate Raises Foreign Aid By 77 Million

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The Senate today passed a bill providing $1,530,361,000 to finance America's foreign policy operations, including the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program. It goes back to the House for action on Senate additions.

The House had trimmed the administration's request for $1,548,364,000 by 12.6 percent but the Senate voted to restore most of that cut.

The foreign aid fund is contained in a general deficiency appropriation totaling $1,680,737,897 as passed by the Senate.

This is $77,538,802 more than the House allowed.

Besides the $400,000,000 to help Greece and Turkey to combat communism—the same amount voted by the House—the bill provides $332,000,000 for relief in Italy, Austria, Trieste, China and Greece.

The East is warming up some, and the northern Plains are due for readings 10 to 15 degrees above normal, in the 90's.

More Violence In Holy Land—

JERUSALEM, July 25. (AP)—A refugee ship named "Return to Zion," carrying 400 illegal immigrants, was reported by the Jewish underground organization Haganah to be nearing Palestine waters today with British destroyers "already on her track."

Haganah announced the approach of the ship simultaneously with an assertion that it had learned through its intelligence corps that the British planned to impose martial law on all Jews in the Holy Land in an effort to curb a wave of violence in which at least 10 persons have been killed and 75 wounded in the last pine days.

British quarters have predicted a tightening of security controls to check the spreading wave of bloodshed. Highly placed informants hinted that the measures would take the form of sanctions against official Jewry, widespread arrests and stricter curfews.

At present some 150,000 Jews in Jerusalem, Haifa and Natanya are under house arrest.

Police reported that the latest incident in wave of terror was the mining last night of a British army truck on the outskirts of Jerusalem in which two soldiers were wounded.

Hectic Session Ends At Sunrise

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)— Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) the minority leader, today blocked a renewed attempt to bring up the Kem resolution to investigate Attorney General Clark's conduct in the Kansas City vote fraud cases—a controversy that kept the Senate in session all night.

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—A hectic 18 hour and 12 minute Senate session ended at sunrise today with Republican leaders conceding defeat in their demands for an investigation into Attorney General Clark's handling of Kansas City vote fraud charges.

Determined to carry out their plans to adjourn Congress for the year tomorrow night, GOP chieftains bowed before unbending Democratic opposition.

The decision to quit until noon (11 a. m. EST) came at 6:12 a. m. (5:12 a. m. EST).

The Republicans hours before had won a battle but obviously lost the war in their effort to force the inquiry.

They battered down a Democratic attempt to postpone formally until January any decision on the resolution by Senator Kem (R-Mo) demanding the Clark investigation.

But the bitter debate dragged on through the night.

Then, shortly after daybreak, the Republican leadership agreed to lay aside the Kem matter long enough to take up one of several appropriation bills that must be passed before Congress can quit for the year tomorrow night, as planned.

That measure, carrying funds for the Greek-Turkish aid program and foreign relief, was discussed only 20 minutes, however, when the weary lawmakers decided to call it quits so members could get a few hours sleep.

The earlier Republican victory on the Kem proposal was on a straight party-line vote of 45 to 30. After the chamber had been in session nearly 17 hours, Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican whip, conceded on the floor that GOP forces would be unable to press the matter to a final vote this session.

The GOP strategy through the early morning hours obviously was designed to try to demonstrate to the country that the Democrats had avoided a showdown on the investigation issue.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) of the GOP policy committee made repeated attempts to gain agreement for a time to vote on the pending proposal to take up the Kem resolution.

Taft had charged earlier that the Democrats were "filibustering" attempts to get action on the resolution. However, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) carried the debate beyond the midnight hour with a lengthy speech in favor of investigating Clark's action.

Armed Forces Merger Voted By The House

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—The house completed congressional action today on a measure to unify the nation's armed services, thus clearing one of the few remaining hurdles in the way of adjournment tomorrow.

The action, sending the bill to President Truman for anticipated quick approval, came on a voice vote in accepting a joint congressional committee's recommendations for ironing out differences between the house and senate on the unification plan.

Final approval cleared the way for a long-postponed house showdown in another piece of major legislation—a senate-approved bill ordering extension of wool support prices.

Before the final vote on the armed services unification, Chairman Hoffman (R-Mich) of the house expenditures committee asserted it had become necessary to prevent "inexcusable duplication and waste" which he said had been widespread during the war.

As now drafted, the bill grants the president wide leeway to pick top officials to supervise the armed services from either civilian or military ranks.

Although stiff opposition was anticipated, supporters of the wool price measure claimed sufficient strength to insure its passage. Originally scheduled for action yesterday, it was bogged down by work on appropriations bills.

The measure would extend the price support program through the end of next year, and nothing more. It was drafted after President Truman vetoed a previous measure empowering the administration to boost tariffs or fix quotas if foreign wool threatened prices on the domestic market.

Russia Blocks Solons' Visit

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Moscow's "no" to a Russian visit by three American lawmakers rubbed raw today a new point of irritation between Congress and the Soviet Union.

The turn down produced:

1. A proposal that hundreds, maybe thousands, of Russians be expelled from the United States.
2. A curt letter to Soviet Ambassador Nikolai V. Novikov about "diplomatic deterrents."
3. Complete junking of plans for the trip.
4. A rise in congressional temperatures, especially that of Rep. Kersten (R-Wis).

Kersten is chairman of a three-man house labor subcommittee which was supposed to go to Russia in September to study education and labor to determine the amount of freedom allowed students, teachers and workers.

The State department issued passports to Kersten and to Reps. Owens (R-Ill) and Kennedy (D-Mass).

But Moscow refused visas.

"We have served notice that we desire to see their records—all the records that we might wish to check," Daniel said.

Heavy Showers In East Howard

Thundershowers visited familiar haunts Thursday afternoon, drenching an area from Center Point to Coahoma while dumping a young flood on the East Howard oil pool.

Families were isolated temporarily by blinding rain, estimated up to two inches in less than two hours, in the oil field area. Tricassic roadbeds were turned into quagmires, and automobiles remained hopelessly stuck for hours.

The Coahoma area, favored in the shower pattern for Howard county this summer, got good showers for the second consecutive day. Up to an half inch was reported in and immediately around Coahoma and the W. W. Lay farm ranch several miles northeast had half an inch.

There were reports of showers between Big Spring and Garden City Thursday afternoon.

Farm Bureau Studies Auto Insurance Plan

A proposed automobile casualty insurance program which the organization expects to offer its members in the near future was discussed at a special meeting for members of the Howard County Farm Bureau Federation in the Settles this morning.

John Casey, Chicago, insurance director for the American Farm Bureau Federation, and Austin Crowmover, Waco, field executive for the Texas Federation, were principal speakers at the meeting.

The saving in premiums would result from dividends on stock which each policy holder would receive when he signed and paid his premium.

Thomas Urges HCJC Support

Making the final appeal before Big Spring civic clubs this week on behalf of the Howard County Junior College tax election Saturday, L. H. Thomas, president of the college board of trustees, urged a large representative vote in the school this year.

Of the over 300 students at the school this year, according to Thomas, some 50 per cent would have had no opportunity to attend schools elsewhere. An efficient system here would give students who are too young to go away to college a good background.

Thomas also cited as a good reason for appropriations for the school the fact that an adequate faculty would require an increased salary.

Blue and gold candles were used at the registry and the refreshment table, laid with a lace cloth, was centered with an arrangement of pink and gold verbenas on a mirror reflector and flanked with blue and gold candles.

Recordings of wedding music were played during the party.

Sunday School Lesson

Wisdom The Main Thing

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 27 is 1 Kings 3:5-14; Job 28:12-28; Proverbs 1:1-7, 20-33; 13:1-8; 4:1-9; 8: 9:1- 9:10; 16:30; James 1:5. The Memory Verse being Proverbs 16:20. "He that giveth heed unto the word shall find good; and whose trusteth in Jehovah, happy is he.")

TODAY'S LESSON deals with the necessity for wisdom and understanding in life, and the ways of obtaining them. When Solomon, son of King David, came to throne of Israel, he was a very young man, and evidently, he felt his responsibilities and wanted, with all his heart, to do what was right for his people.

One night he had a remarkable dream. In this dream the Lord came to him and said, "Ask what I shall give thee." Instead of asking for wealth and fame, as many a man would have done, Solomon told the Lord that he felt like a little child in taking over the throne of his father, David, to whom the Lord had shown great kindness. "I know not how to go out or come in," he said.

"And thy servant is in the midst of Thy people which Thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

"Give therefore Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people, that I may discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this Thy so great a people?"

The Lord was pleased with Solomon's request, and granted it—and Solomon, as we know, is still referred to as one of the wisest of rulers. Furthermore, as Solomon had not asked for riches and fame for himself, these, too, were given him—the Lord adding, "And if thou wilt walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen thy days."

Job, during his great trials, realized the need for wisdom. Said he to his friends, "But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?"

"Man knoweth not the price thereof, neither is it found in the land of the living "It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof "God understandeth the way thereof, and He knoweth the place thereof "And unto man He said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding."

Even a little child can understand that to fear evil, to try one's best to be good, and to ask God's help in all things, is good—in fact, is wisdom. The dictionary says: "Wisdom is knowledge practically applied to the best ends; piety."

In his later days, after reigning for many years, Solomon wrote Proverbs out of his own wisdom and understanding.

"To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding; "To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity; "A wise man will hear, and will increase learning, and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and instruction."

"Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and she gaineth thereof than fine gold.

"She is more precious than rubies; and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her "Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace. "She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her; and happy is every one that retaineth her."

In the 8th chapter of Proverbs wisdom is made to seem a person and to talk directly to men: "Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. . . . Receive My instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold. . . . Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom; I am understanding; I have strength."

In his letter of advice to members of the early church, James, the apostle, writes: "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

In Big Spring Churches

East Fourth Baptist To Welcome New Pastor

Designating Sunday as "Parks Day," personnel of the East Fourth Baptist church will sponsor a special program Sunday morning to welcome the Rev. James Parks, who arrived Tuesday to assume the pastorate here.

Preceding the 11 a. m. services brief welcomes will be extended from various church leaders including George McLellan, superintendent of the Sunday school, Lee Nuckles, chairman of the board of deacons, Gene Haston, brotherhood president and Keats Watts, scout director.

In addition each department of the Sunday school has announced special goals toward increased membership. Total attendance goal Sunday is placed at 450.

The Rev. Parks will deliver both evening and morning sermons. His first topic is "Christian Discipleship," based on Luke 9:23, and in the evening he will speak on the "Characteristics of Love," taken from I Corinthians 13:1-8.

The Rev. Henry C. Thomas, who recently came to Big Spring from Perryton to head the Church of the Nazarene here, has announced as his sermon theme for the 10:45 service "Almost Persuaded to Be A Christian." The subject matter comes from Acts 26:28.

Selecting his topic from Hebrews 12:14, the Rev. Thomas will speak on "Five Reasons Why We Need Holiness" at the 8 p. m. services. Sunday school opens at 9:45 a. m., prayer service is held at 7 p. m. and young people's meeting is at 7:15.

Sunday school is scheduled for 9:30 a. m. in the Church of Christ Scientist, 217 1/2 Main street. Morning service is at 11 and Wednesday service is at 8 p. m.

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is: "O Lord, Thou art my God; I will extol Thee, I will praise Thy name; Thy counsels of old are faithful and true" (Isaiah 25:1).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He is the Rock. His work is perfect: for all his ways are judgement: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is He" (Deuteronomy 32:4).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals try to believe without understanding Truth; yet God is Truth."

"Some Reasons For Bible Study" is the subject upon which Herbert Newman, pastor of the Church of Christ, will speak in a broadcast from KBST at 8:15 a. m. Sunday.

Sunday morning at the church there will be two services: one at 9 and a second at 10:50 a. m. The same sermon topic, "The Sin of Forgetting God" will be used at both hours. Bible school is held at 10 a. m., immediately after the first sermon.

Mr. Newman's subject for the evening service discloses "What It Means To Be A Member of the Church."

Continuing as guest pastor at the First Baptist church during Dr. P. D. O'Brien's absence, the Rev. Truett Sheriff of Hardin-Simmons University will speak at both worship services Sunday.

"Heroes of Faith" is the subject of the sermon to be given for the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning by the Rev. Gage Lloyd, pastor. Text for his theme was taken from Hebrews 11:13, 29-40. "The Man That Lived A See-Saw Life" will be the evening sermon topic.

The Rev. N. L. Sulter, pastor of the Church of God at 4th and Galveston streets, will speak at the 11 a. m. service Sunday on "A Life with God," based on Act. 7:9.

At the Wesley Methodist church, the Rev. Aubrey White, pastor will speak at the 11 a. m. services on the theme "Digging Wells." The topic is based on John 4:12.

For his evening sermon, the Rev. White will use the subject "Every Man In His Place," using the text of Judges 7:21.

Youth Fellowship class convenes at 7:15 p. m.

Congress Deals GI Loans A Blow

There is small if any possibility at all that Congress will make provision for ready market for GI loan paper. For practical purposes, it means a sore, if not a paralyzing blow to GI loans, especially home loans.

Many financial institutions, like our own banks, have been handling GI home loans. Up to this point, most of the paper is carried locally, but banks can comprehend a sound ration of this type of investment to their total. They cannot be expected to go beyond reasonable limits.

Until July 1 there was an outlet for the paper through RFC. If a bank had good loans which deserved to be made and it was carrying all that type of paper at the moment that management felt was sound, then the excess could be handled by the bank through RFC.

But Congress chopped off this outlet, and with it they dealt a sharp blow to veterans who hoped to get local help in meeting their housing problems. Banks have an outlet for the paper through HOLC, but this means rediscounting paper. There are too many other opportunities for better investments than to go this route.

GOP spokesmen gave as their only reason that the volume of the loans was too big. It begins to look like some rosy promises to help veterans is predicated on a big "if"—if only a few want help.

What The College Issue May Mean

Although this is an "off" year so far as primary elections go, the traditional fourth Saturday of July march to polls is in order for Howard county Saturday.

The issue is whether to grant authority to the board of trustees of the Howard County Junior College to increase the tax limit of the county-wide district to 50 cents.

We hope that there will be a representative turnout Saturday so that public opinion on the proposal will be reflected adequately.

The Herald believes that the best interest of the community will be served by a broader financial base for our young and robust junior college. We do not tell anyone it will not mean additional taxes; on the contrary it will mean just that. While no one seriously believes the board will find it necessary to levy the full limit, the fact will remain it may be levied at some future date. People might as well know this and face facts.

And in facing facts, we believe many will keep in mind that it is necessary to pay for what you get; that wholesome and constructive things seldom result from mere wishing. Almost invariably they result from vision, faith and courage.

These are the elements upon which we base our belief that the Howard County Junior College is deserving of broader support. It needs this support to meet the competitive rise in instructional costs and the increased cost of operation, not to mention the necessity of more substance to meet the challenge of expansion. We believe it is economical for parents to have the college at home, that it is good for business to keep the revenue at home. Most of all we believe a stronger college will be good for every one in a degree that will increase with the years.

Texas Today—Jack Rutledge

Radio Mixes With Speaker System

Paul Upchurch, manager of the bus station at Texarkana, says he has trouble with his public address system. Sometimes it picks up radio station KCMC. One quiet Sunday morning, for example, he made a routine announcement: "Bus Number 47 loading for Nash, Leary, Lone Star, Red River, Camp Runnels and New Boston."

Just as he finished, the voice of a Texarkana minister came over the loud speaker: "... and may God have mercy on your soul."

They have trouble with geography in Texarkana, too. The city straddles the state line, you know. It's part in Texas and part in Arkansas. This obviously leads to complications.

A funny one involved a man identified as Joe Doe. There had been some controversy as to whether his home was in Texas or Arkansas. Sometimes he paid taxes in one state and voted in another, and then some official would come along and tell him he was all wrong, so Joe Doe would change.

It was both confusing and a lot of bother. Joe finally asked the government to survey the place and decide once and for all just where he lived.

"From now on," the engineer told him after the survey, "You live in Texas."

"Thank goodness," said Joe. She walked off in a huff.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Jap Issue Widens U. S.-Red Rift

Another critical show-down between Russian and the western allies is pressed by Moscow's refusal of the American invitation to join an 11-nation conference on August 19 to discuss a Japanese peace treaty.

Russia charges that the United States acted in a unilateral manner, and says that preliminary work on the Japanese treaty should be done by the council of foreign ministers. That is to say, the Soviet Union wants to follow the same procedure as that which resulted in the disastrous failure of the Big Four to frame a German treaty because of disagreements between Russia on the one side and America, other.

What Washington proposed regarding the Japanese treaty, was that the work be done by a veto-free body of eleven interested nations, to be held in Washington or San Francisco. Decisions would be made by a two-thirds vote, with or without agreement by the great powers—a procedure which would be a far-reach from the European Big Four meetings where a veto by one power scuttled the ship. Finally there would be a general peace conference of all forty-eight nations which were at war with Japan.

The eleven nations which America proposed should draft the treaty all have a special interest in it. They are the United States, Britain, China, Russia, France, Canada, the Netherlands, India, Australia, New Zealand and the Philippines.

Moscow's rejection of this proposal puts Washington in position of having to decide whether to try to go ahead with a 10-nation conference which would frame a treaty without participation of one of the countries chiefly interested—Soviet Russia. We must assume that this contingency was foreseen, but it nevertheless creates a serious situation.

Should it be decided to go ahead without the Muscovites, there will be another complication to iron out,—not a serious difficulty but one which has been causing some heart-burning. A British commonwealth meeting had been fixed for August 26 in Canberra, Australia, to consider the commonwealth position regarding a Japanese treaty. The British have asked that the suggested peace conference be postponed.

When the American proposal was announced General Douglas MacArthur was described as highly pleased, and Japan generally was jubilant. As far back as March, MacArthur called for an early treaty with Japan and he has said that it should set the pattern for future peace throughout the world.

Experts have figured that the framing of a Japanese treaty might take a year, and they note that the complicated territorial and political questions which have harassed Europe will be absent.

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

Now The Gal Will Chase Bob Hope

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—After years of chasing his favorite blondes and brunettes on the screen, Bob Hope is getting a switch—"The Princess" Jane Russell will slug him with a bottle to get him to marry her.

Jane plays two-titled Calamity Jane in the new Hope opus. She's pleased because she's been more than a year away from the studios. Her role will be a complete change of pace since her two previous films had her portray a putting desert girl and a retiring young widow. She has yearned for the kind of role in which she chases men, and this is it.

Bob Waterfield, Jane's husband, may be included in the film for a gag. His appearance will have to be soon, because he starts training with the Los Angeles Rams pro football team Aug. 4.

Dixie Lee Crosby is also being sought for the picture, in the role of a dance hall queen. She has been asked to return to the screen before, but never has accepted.

vertible to New York.

There was laughter on the "Romance in High C" set when Ann Sheridan, who is not in the picture, walked through a scene while the camera was grinding. But was Mike Curtis laughing? He is working with his own money, and it costs him $3000 an hour.

Congressmen Weary

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The first session of the 80th Congress is winding to a close with the usual oratorical fanfare—but it isn't much of a show from the galleries.

Congressional leaders are trying to finish their legislative chores to meet a Saturday night deadline. But if you have a mental picture of a tense room packed with eager statesmen bent on saving the "peepul," you should attend one of the final sessions now underway in the House of Representatives.

It isn't like that at all. It is more like a classroom the last day of school, with everybody eager to get away on his vacation.

I watched the House proceedings for two hours one afternoon from a gallery seat. Some 75 congressmen were present, and I remarked this seemed a small number for a closing session.

"Why this is big crowd today," said a press veteran. The chamber looked small and dingy. A framework of steel girders has been erected beneath the old ceiling to keep it from crumbling down on the heads of the legislators. Over the whole room hung an air of tired boredom and languor. Most congressmen already had their minds on their coming vacations.

Many ambled restlessly about the chamber visiting with one another. Others sat and read newspapers.

One old-timer climbed to his feet and took the microphone to KISS AND HISS DEARBORN, Mich. (U.P.)—Werner Hiss and Arthur Hiss were drivers of cars involved in a minor street-corner collision. The investigating officer said he was tempted to write "Kiss and Hiss didn't miss."

Is That Labor Bill Unworkable?

WASHINGTON.—Chairman Fred Hartley of the House labor committee was speechless the other morning when Rep. Ray Madden, slow-talking Indiana Democrat, interrupted a closed-door meeting of the labor committee to come to the support of his chairman.

Hartley, who doesn't like Madden, had been discussing the CIO's open support for a victorious Democratic congressman in Baltimore.

"I want to say something in defense of our chairman," Madden suddenly interrupted. "There was immediate silence, since committee members know how Madden and Hartley feel toward each other."

"Every time he makes a statement about the Taft-Hartley labor bill, his co-sponsor, Senator Taft, takes issue with him," continued Madden. "When our chairman decided the coal operators were violating the law by their agreement with Mr. Lewis, Senator Taft as much as said our chairman didn't know what he was talking about."

"Now here's this corrupt-practices section—Senator Taft is ready to repeal it, but our chairman still supports it."

"I for one am tired of Senator Taft kicking our chairman around. I'm sure our chairman knows as much about that law as Senator Taft does."

Hartley by this time was grinning broadly—but he didn't care so much for the rest of Madden's remarks.

"It seems to me that the two sponsors of this bill have already proven by their actions that President Truman was correct in his veto message when he said the bill was saturated with confusion and completely unworkable. Of course, I hardly thought the two sponsors of the bill themselves would hasten to prove the President correct."

MARSHALL ON RUSSIA Secretary of State Marshall expressed some significant ideas on the foolishness of war with Russia when he met with ten Democratic congressmen last week. He seemed to be in complete agreement with Rep. Tom Morris of Oklahoma, who argued that the communist ideology would not be wiped out by military action.

"History shows us that Christianity and Mohammedism fought for 500 years, and nothing was gained for either side," said the Oklahoma congressman. "That's about what would happen if war broke out now."

The Secretary of State agreed that "fighting communism is pretty much like fighting shadows." Our troubles with the Russians, he went on to say, are not just a matter of rivalry between our form of government and theirs.

Much more important than politics as a difference between us, explained Secretary Marshall, is their intense nationalism, and of course the critical economic situation in Europe and the Near East.

Marshall started to tell about negotiations with Moscow now in progress, but Rep. Chet Holtfield stopped him.

"Mr. Secretary, if these negotiations are secret," the California congressman cautioned, "I think it would be better that you not tell us about them so we can't be held responsible in case they leak to the Press."

Marshall smiled and agreed. Returning to his discussion of Russia, he said it was a mistake to think of the Soviet Union as a "police state completely dominated and held together by fear of the secret police." People can be ruled by force for a time, but such a state cannot hold together without a real motive and enthusiasm. It takes more than mere authority.

"In the army we know that a bad commander can't enforce his authority for long," continued the Secretary of State. "His men have got to learn to trust him and rely upon him. It is obvious that the Russian people believe in their leaders."

"A lot of the things we read these days as statements by Russian leaders at international conferences are purely for home consumption, as for instance, the charge by Mr. Molotov that the United States had taken millions of dollars' worth of German patents. As a matter of fact, I talked to Stalin about that when I was in Moscow later. I told him it was pure propaganda, and he didn't deny it."

"Molotov knew it wasn't true when he said it—and he knew I knew it wasn't true."

WHY MEN HATE Warning to his subject, Marshall talked at length about propaganda. He said that during the war our troops in the Pacific were out to kill. The atrocities of the Bataan death march did that to them. They were out to get a Jap.

"But in the European theatre our troops never really hated the German soldier—until the end. They even admired his courage and skill. In the battle of the Bulge, however, a small detachment of about 30 men was captured by German troops and machine-gunned in cold blood. One of the boys lived and was able to tell what happened.

"That story swept the American lines like wildfire. And from that point on every American soldier fought with doubled fury. He felt toward the Germans the same as our troops in the Pacific felt toward the Japs."

"The Germans killed millions of Russians, civilians and soldiers, in cold blood," Marshall continued. "The Russian people won't forget that—and it's no wonder their leaders find it hard to hold them together."

Secretary Marshall told this story partly to illustrate the feeling of the Russian people toward the Germans, also to show why the American public should understand the Russian problem of reparations.

"If you take the outrage our troops felt over their thirty murdered comrades in the Bulge and multiply that by the millions murdered in Russia," Marshall explained, "you can get some idea of how the Russians feel."

The Secretary of State also commented sadly on the failure of Congress to support him on his plan for the "Voice of America" and the winning of Russian friendship through propaganda.

"While I was in Moscow," he said, "every sentence in the press here on the budget difficulties of the 'Voice of America' program was a page over there in Russia. They're cutting the ground from under Marshall in Washington," was the Russian reaction, "so how can we depend on what he says?"

GOODWILL AMBASSADOR Congressman Alvin O'Konski of Wisconsin, outspoken friend of Argentina's dictator, Juan Peron, will spend two weeks in Buenos Aires this summer as a self-styled "goodwill ambassador"—at the invitation (and, incidentally, the expense) of Dictator Peron. He was supposed to leave July 19, but couldn't run out on his congressional duties. Now he hopes to get away as soon as Congress adjourns.

The Wisconsin Republican, a vigorous pro-Nazi propagandist before Pearl Harbor, says the purpose of his visit is: (1) to strengthen hemispheric solidarity; and (2) convince Argentina that the people of America want sincere friendship. O'Konski will be accompanied by a secretary. "A male secretary," he adds hastily.

Note—Wonder if Peron knows the congressman was fined by the state of Wisconsin for income-tax evasion? (Copyright, 1947, The Bell Syndicate)

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Much Atomic Work Is In Progress

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Here's an outline of what this country is doing at this time in American history with atomic energy.

You, an ordinary citizen, can't imagine it all. Few people can, unless they're high in the government or are scientists.

The work is too huge, too scattered, too complicated, too scientific.

The outline given here is pretty sketchy because there still is so much secrecy surrounding the development of atomic energy.

It is pieced together from the report which the government's atomic energy commission made to Congress last night.

This commission, which makes such a report twice a year, is the boss of atomic energy and everything connected with it in this country.

And the commission isn't telling everything, by a long shot. But first of all, new and bigger (or worse) atomic bombs are being made.

The government will continue to do this until it reaches—if it reaches—agreement with other nations on controlling atomic bomb-making.

Somewhere in the Pacific it is setting up "proving grounds" for testing atomic weapons and experimenting with them.

This country is out in front now with the atomic bomb, and it's trying to stay there. The commission says:

"To rely on existing knowledge alone could be disastrous." So the government is pouring huge sums into trying to learn more about atomic energy and how to use it, for war and peace.

For the fiscal year starting July 1 and ending next June 30, the government will spend probably more than $500,000,000 on atomic work.

Los Alamos, N. M.; Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Chicago; one being built at Patchogue, Long Island, N.Y., and one being built at Schenectady, N. Y.

More than 50 universities are doing work in connection with the work done at those laboratories. If it did nothing else, this would be good training for young scientists in the atomic field.

But other work is being done at big private laboratories and by industrial firms.

Patterson To Oppose Kolwe In 8:15 Contest

Longhorn Lead Is At Stake

Lloyd "Pat" Patterson and Ozlie Kolwe were scheduled to face each other on the mound tonight when their respective teams, the Big Spring Broncs and Midland's Indians, tangle for the Longhorn league lead.

Patterson was gunning for his 15th victory of the campaign. He stopped the Tribe with a five-hitter to chalk up Big Spring's only win in a three-game series at Big Spring last week.

Kolwe came back two nights later to humble the Steeds, despite the fact that he was hit hard. Midland goes into the fray with Arnold Nelson, their star center fielder, slightly ailing. However, the left-handed hitting gardener is expected to play.

A victory would send the Indians to the top of the Longhorn league heap. They now trail the Broncs by half a game.

The two tilts will clash here again Saturday night, then move to Big Spring for a single clash Sunday afternoon.

Rebels Launch All-Out Drive On Top Teams

The Dallas Rebels, who went the home run route to lick all contenders in the stretch last year, are moving up in the same way as the Texas league campaign careers pennantward.

Two nights in a row the Rebels have unlimbered their big bats to take the decisions and move hotly toward Shreveport's third-place stand. Today Dallas is only two games away.

Houston's leading Buffs remained two and one-half games in front of Fort Worth last night by licking Oklahoma City 7-2. Fort Worth was sweeping a three-game series with Shreveport with a 1-0 victory.

Red Davis blasted a grand slam homer to spark a five-run first-inning spurge that resulted in an 8-2 decision over Beaumont as the Rebels won their eighth straight from the Exporters. The night before Gene Markland's circuit smash had edged Beaumont in the fourth inning.

Last night featured strong pitching. Rufe Gentry gave Beaumont only three hits. Roman Brunswick twirled a six-hitter as Houston closed out the series with Oklahoma City with two victories to one. Clarence Poddiehan and Ralph Hamner hooked up in a brilliant hurling duel in the Fort Worth-Shreveport melee. Poddiehan allowing six blows and Hamer five.

San Antonio's game at Tulsa was postponed because of wet grounds.

Houston cut loose with four runs in the seventh to break up a close game with Oklahoma City as Bill Costa doubled to drive in two tallies and Ed Knoblauch singled to score two more.

Roy Schalk's single brought in Toby Atwell with the only run of the game in Fort Worth's decision over Shreveport.

Big Spring Players Pace West All-Stars To Win

Cindan Collects Mound Victory

BALLINGER, July 25 — Big Spring players collected ten of the victors' hits as the West All-Stars turned back the East, 11-4, in the first annual game played before some 3,500 fans here Thursday night.

Jose Cindan, who gave up all four of the East's runs in the three innings he worked, nevertheless received credit for the decision when his mates recaptured the lead before his successor, Ernie Nelson could come into the fray in the seventh round.

Gaspar Del Toro paced the West's attack with three hits while Pepper Martin, who started in the place of the injured Arnold Davis, drove out the only home run in the eighth.

Orlando Moreno, making an all-out bid for the Most Valuable Player award, collected two hits and scored three times. Armando Transpueto, who relieved Al Zigelman in the fifth, banged out a triple and a single, while Pat Stasey, still another Big Spring player, collected a single in four trips.

Claude Gray, who started on the hill for the West, pitched shutout ball in the three innings he worked.

Losing pitcher was Paul Cook of Ballinger, who was hit hard in the seventh and eighth rounds.

The Sluggers are scheduled to engage the Midland Skyscrapers at 8:15 o'clock tonight on the home diamond. The Midland crew was booked to play here last week, but failed to put in an appearance at game time. They already hold two victories over the Sluggers this season.

Urges Burmese Unity Behind Anti-Fascist People's League

RANGOON, Burma, July 25. (AP)—Daw Su—70-year-old mother of U Aung San, assassinated Burmese executive council member—made a nationwide appeal today for unity and urged the country to give whole-hearted support to the Anti-Fascist People's Freedom League, of which her son was leader. Her statement was issued through AFPFL headquarters.

Mother Seeks Story Of Her Son's Death

WACO, July 25. (AP)—A McGregor mother today sought home addresses of court martial witnesses in the proceedings in New York against a navy signalman, accused of tipping off Japanese prison guards to an escape plot and thereby causing the death by torture of her son.

Eleven Buildings Deeded To College

The Howard County Junior College apparently was in full and final possession of 11 buildings at the army air field here Friday. E. C. Dodd, president, said papers had been executed and returned to W. H. Sindt, Fort Worth, division engineer, Federal Works Agency, bureau of community facilities. Presumably, these complete the transfer of the buildings, used for classroom purposes, to the college.

Earlier in the week the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had these, together with buildings sought by the Big Spring Independent School district, earmarked for priority bids for small business resale. RFC, however, surrendered its claim and the transaction was placed back in the hands of the War Assets Administration, which had a directive for delivery from the FWA.

W. C. Blankenship, city superintendent, said that the RFC had given assurances that it also was surrendering its claim to two classroom structures and four latrines, the latter wanted for field house purposes. The WAA confirmed this Thursday, and the schools' application for the structure is being pressed.

Dodd said that the college had renewed its application for 12 additional buildings, including two in the center of the classroom area deeded to the college.

White House Pressure Possible—

Jesse Jones May Be Witness In Probe Of Hughes, Kaiser

WASHINGTON, July 25. (AP)—Senatorial investigators hinted today at Jesse Jones as an ace witness in their efforts to prove that White House pressure forced award of a $40,000,000 wartime plane contract to Howard Hughes and Henry J. Kaiser.

The former cabinet member's possible appearance hinges on one Senator said, on whether any documentary evidence is found in the files of the late President Roosevelt.

A senate war investigating subcommittee will open a hearing Monday into the contract for planes that never were delivered.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), who heads the inquiry group told a reporter he "doesn't know yet" whether Jones will be asked to testify.

Although Ferguson declined further comment, another committee member said it is likely the former secretary of commerce and head of the Reconstruction Finance corporation will be asked to tell what he knows about the matter if a search of the Roosevelt files proves fruitless.

Jones was represented by this member as having balked at signing the airplane contract with movie producer, and Kaiser, wartime ship builder, until he was given a written memo on the deal.

Kiwanis Urged To Vote For College Tax

Kiwanis club members were urged Thursday to go to the polls and support the proposed tax increase for the Howard County Junior college, which is scheduled to come before tax-paying voters Saturday.

R. T. Piner, member of the HCJC board, spoke briefly at the clubs regular luncheon meeting at the Crawford. He told Kiwanians that the college administration is anxious for all voters who qualify to cast ballots on the proposal.

Herbert Whitney, city manager, was principal speaker at the meeting. He presented a brief history of the city manager form of government in Big Spring, and pointed out that the city manager system is increasing throughout the country.

Hugh Mathis was introduced as a new member of the club.

Alamo Heroes Are Honored

SALUDA, S. C., July 25. (AP)—A granite monument will be unveiled in the courthouse square here Saturday to the memory of Col. William Travis and Col. James Butler Bonham, who died in the defense of the Alamo at San Antonio in 1836.

Both Travis and Bonham were natives of what is now Saluda county. Relatives of Bonham will participate in the ceremonies, which will include a parade and several addresses, one of which will be by Eugene S. Biease of Newberry, former chief justice of the state supreme court.

Governor J. Strom Thurmond and State Adjutant General James C. Dozier are scheduled to review the parade.

The occasion will also mark the 51st anniversary of the establishment of the county, which was created by the state constitutional convention of 1895.

Five Japs Plead Innocent To Crimes

YOKOHAMA, July 25. (AP)—Five Japanese pleaded innocent as they went on joint trial before an eighth army military commission on charges of beating and torturing allied soldiers at a Nagoya prison camp.

Prisoners allegedly mistreated include Earl G. Thurman, 109 E. Hull St., Denison.

New Mexico Rocket Business Picks Up

ALAMOGORDO, N. M., July 25. (AP)—The rocket business is picking up in southern New Mexico.

Tabbed a key phase of the nation's military preparedness program, guided missiles research has been in progress nearly a year and a half at the nearby White Sands proving ground.

Now the Army Air Forces are consolidating a separate set of rocket experiments at the Alamogordo Army Air Field.

Announcement of the transfer of Boeing aircraft facilities and equipment for the work to Alamogordo coincided with the first launching of one of the company's supersonic Gapa missiles here Wednesday.
