Stanley Fuhrman Receives Large GE Scholarship

John Stanley Fuhrman, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fuhrman, 505 Union, is one of 44 students in the University of Texas accounting department receiving scholarships and awards totaling $22,050.

Fuhrman is the winner of a $5,000 General Electric scholarship, according to an announcement at an awards luncheon of Beta Alpha Psi, accounting society.

Sources of the scholarships were professional accounting firms, industries, the UT Accounting Department scholarship fund and the College of Business Administration Foundation.

wood converged on Hereford this past week, filming background material for a film "The Holly Sugar Success Story."

The film sequence shot locally is built around a boy and his father who, for the first time, bring a load of beets to the plant for processing.

The "leading roles" in Hereford's part of the film are played by Bud Snyder, lab technician at the local plant and Gerald Shipley, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Shipley of Hereford.

In the film, the plant manager, (this part played by Bruce Brown, local plant manager), invites the father and son to tour the plant to see how the beets are processed. In this manner, the complete processing cycle is shown.

Besides filming sequences at the plant, the cameramen shot film of the Hereford area, including sugar beet fields and feed yards, from the air. Also included in the aerial shots were the Holly plant itself.

E. E. Corbin, general sales manager of Holly Sugar from Colorado Springs, said, "The film we take here at the Hereford Plant will be added to film taken at Holly installations in California and Colorado. Our purpose is to show the operation of Holly Sugar as a whole, and the film is really a documentary on the Holly Sugar Corporation." Corbin also noted that the film would be syndicated throughout the nation as part of a series, "Success Story U. S. A." "We have not decided on a title as yet," Corbin added.

According to Al Parker, Holly director of public relations, the film should be completed in about three to four months. It will be a full color production, and will be about 30 minutes long. Publisher Bennett Serf will give the introduction to the film, as he does for all "Success Story U. S. A." films. The production will be suitable for television broadcast and for use by supper clubs and other interested groups.

The company finished its filming Wednesday afternoon.

Game Of The Year Pits Whitefaces, Dumas Demons

Can they do it? The players believe they can. The coaches believe they are capable. The fans want them to do it so much they are talking of nothing else.

Put all of that faith and determination into the stampeding of Hereford Whitefaces and you could have the upset of the year when the team plays the Dumas Demons Friday night in Whiteface Stadium.

If they accomplish their objective — beating the Demons — the Whitefaces could throw the District 1-AAA race into a two-way tie between themselves and Dumas, with Perryton able to make it a three-way tie if they beat Muleshoe Friday. In that case, a flip of the coin would decide the conference representative for the playoffs.

The Demons not only will bring a 7-1-1 record and high state ranking into the contest at 7:30 p. m. Friday, but they also will bring a bagful of confidence that they already are conference champions. They have been for the champs for six straight years, not including this season.

In those six seasons, the Demons won 66 games, lost 7 and tied one. There were state championships in 1961 and 1962, reached the quarter finals in 1963 and in 1965, and had gone undefeated in 1964 to take the district title. They lost in 1963 to Graham 13-0 after going undefeated in regular season play, and in the quarter finals game in 1964 to Andrews 15-14. They also went undefeated in regular season in 1965 and lost to Brownwood 7-6.

During the past six seasons, Hereford has come close to beating Dumas only once — in 1965 when the final score was 7-6. Other scores have included 38-6 in 1961; 53-0 in 1962; 42-0 in 1963; 42-16 in 1964, and 22-3 in 1966.

As evident by past records and this season's games, the Demons yield no mercy to an opponent as they run up impressive scores.

This season's games saw the

Sales Are Higher, Holly Announces

COLORADO SPRINGS — Holly Sugar Corporation announced Wednesday higher sales for the second quarter and for the first six months of its current fiscal year.

According to Dennis O'Rourke, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, sales for the second quarter ended September 30, 1967 and increased to $38,681,450 from $37,342,603 for the comparable quarter of 1966. Sales for the first six months rose to $60,600,838 from $58,365,961 for the first six months of last year.

O'Rourke said that the Company does not report earnings until the end of the third quarter. "Because sugar beet processing is materially affected by seasonal and climatic factors and because the Company uses the LIFO method for valuing sugar inventory, we do not know enough of major cost factors until the end of December to permit an earnings report," the Holly chairman said.

Holly Sugar is one of the largest beet processors in the nation, and has also developed extensive cattle feeding operations. Sugar beet harvests so far this year have been good in all the Company's growing locations except Northern California, where abnormally poor weather has hurt the quality of much of that areas agricultural production. Cattle feeding operations are reporting good results. "With encouraging prospects for the remainder of the year," according to Mr. O'Rourke.

Last month the Company announced plans to build a major new sugar refinery in the Red River Valley of North Dakota. This new installation, which is scheduled to begin processing beets from both North Dakota and Minnesota in 1969, will match the output of Holly's largest factory and will increase the Company's production capacity by about 20 per cent. ## Andrew Shuval Announces For District Attorney Andrew Jackson Shuval, 34-year-old Hereford attorney, today announced his candidacy for District Attorney of the 69th Judicial District.

The 69th Judicial District includes Deaf Smith, Oldham, Hartley, Moore, Sherman and Dallam Counties. Bill Hunter, present District Attorney, announced recently that he would not seek re-election.

Shuval is a 1960 graduate of Texas A&M. He attended the University of Texas Law School and opened his own law office for private practice in Hereford in 1965. He is a veteran of four years service in the Air Force.

Shuval stated that he would work closely with law enforcement officers in the area paying particular attention to briefing officers regularly on the continual changes in the law. Shuval, an experienced trial attorney, said, "In our troubled times the office of District Attorney must play a vital role in law enforcement in our community. I believe that offenders must be prosecuted vigorously but fairly and the District Attorney should be available to all the citizens of the district."

The Hereford attorney is an active Democrat and has held various State and Regional offices in the Democratic Party. He is one of three young Texans to be given a special plaque of recognition by the Texas Young Democrats for his leadership and contributions to the party.

Shuval is a member of the Lions Club, active in civic affairs as a member of the Chamber of Commerce Education Committee, past Chairman of the Business division of the Cancer Crusade and immediate past president of the Hereford Riders Club.

He attended Harvard University after graduating from high school in New Hampshire. He also taught school in Bruni, Texas, and has maintained continuing interest in the youth activities in the community.

Shuval pledged that if elected District Attorney he would be "fair and firm," and promised a "strong and effective administration."

Hospital Managers Request $130,000 Bond Election

A petition calling for a $130,000 bond election to finance additions and improvements at the Deaf Smith County Hospital will be circulated this week for signing by county residents.

The petition, which was drawn up following a meeting Monday between the hospital managers, Deaf Smith County Commissioners, and representatives of a bonding company, needs approximately 400 names before the bond issue can be called.

Items to be included in the bond issue, if called, include a new X-ray department large enough to accommodate a 500 milliamper X-ray machine — all worth about $40,000; a 500 MA X-ray machine complete with image intensifier and spot device — worth about $28,000; a rapid processor (developer) for X-ray film — worth $9,000; two new boilers and pumps large enough so that one boiler could heat the premises should a breakdown occur — all worth about $25,000; additional warehouse space totaling approximately 1,380 feet — worth about $10,187 and new lighting for the Children's wing and the semi-private area — worth $5,397.

"Contingencies and architects fees" are expected to total about $10,550 to make the total requested $127,684.

"We have eliminated many items that would be desirable and have retained only those we feel are quite necessary," emphasized John D. Pitman, president of the Board of Managers and T. E. Seigler, hospital administrator.

It was pointed out that the hospital's present X-ray machine is a 200 milliamper machine which was purchased some 16 years ago and has become somewhat outdated. Plans call for putting the new machine in the new room with a higher ceiling, and keep the present machine as a stand-by unit and for emergencies.

The present boilers at the hospital, explained the managers, were purchased in 1947 and "it takes the entire output of both boilers to heat the premises during the winter months. Our boiler inspector has advised us that we should be seriously concerned about a possible breakdown during cold weather since they are showing the signs of age." The men stressed that "your hospital is one institution that cannot close down at any time for any reason. It is, therefore, quite important that we have sufficient capacity for heat at all times."

The warehouse space always can be used and it would enable the administrator to buy supplies in larger quantities, therefore paying lower prices, commissioners were told.

The hospital managers stated that they also had thought of adding more patient beds at the present time, but feel like there are enough beds to handle the patients. There may be a demand for such in the future, however.

"We are aware of the fact that people are getting tired of paying ever higher taxes and we so not know if the amount would necessitate an increase in County tax. However, this is only the second time in over twenty years that we have asked the people of our County for a bond issue," said the managers. They explained that they have operated the hospital in such a way that the county has gotten a return of more than the bond money.

Meeting with Commissioners were Pitman, Seigler, and other managers Wayne Thomas, Ed Loerwald, Dr. John McCrary.

Also the architect Oscar Schilling and two bondsmen, Robert Goodrich and Bob Davis of Columbian Securities.

Copies of the petition will be placed in about 10 locations throughout the city. A tentative date of Dec. 16 was set for the bond election — if enough names are placed on the petition.

In other action, commissioners agreed to give $300 to the Chamber of Commerce for Christmas Tree decorations. The City of Hereford also gave $300.

LAST RESPECTS TO WAR CASUALTY — Friends and relatives of James E. Pavlicek, 25, the first soldier from Hereford to lose his life in the Vietnam War, paid their last respects during services Sunday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Lt. Pavlicek was killed Nov. 3 when his helicopter crashed. Military services were conducted by members of the ROTC unit of West Texas State University.

Two-Party System Is Best For America, Says Baggarly

H. M. Baggarly, publisher of the Tullia Herald and dean of Panhandle Democrats, was the principal speaker for a group of party members Tuesday night at the Community Center, explaining to the group his concept of the differences in the two major political parties and why the nation is best served by these two parties. He also delved into the many factors and factions that might tend to split the Democrats at election time.

"We have a constitution and government in fact," Baggarly told the group, "and in theory everyone has a say in our government." But in reality everyone could not express an opinion individually on every issue, therefore people who think alike usually unite in groups. From the political standpoint, he continued, the two party system is best, although everyone within these parties will not agree on all issues.

Baggarly reviewed some of the history of the founding of the two party system in America, pointing out that in the beginning America was divided into two distinct groups — the Aristocracy with vested interests, the land owners and cronies of the King, the rich and well born who had no quarrel with the British and who did not object to seeing things remain as they were, and a second group, consisting primarily of these people who work with their hands.

Baggarly pointed out that along with these two groups we also have two philosophies of government. One philosophy is that big business should be assured of prosperity and that this prosperity will trickle down to the working classes. The other philosophy, Baggarly said, is that the government should put the emphasis on helping the masses and that prosperity on this level will assure prosperity for those in business and industry as well. Baggarly referred to this as the "trickle-up" theory. Baggarly also emphasized the need for unity within the party, even though party members do not always agree on individual issues. "We can't do much as individuals," he said, "so we must have an organization. Because of this, and in spite of the many differences within a party organization, we now have two basic political parties espousing the two basic principals of government."

The Tullia publisher said that political parties are far from perfect, but if we're going to be a part of an institution we're going to have to make some compromises. "We are Democrats not because we think the Democratic party is perfect but because the Democratic party is best for America. It is the party of the masses."

Baggarly also took issue with those who become faint and weak-hearted and fall away when an organization begins to have problems, and fired a broadside at the Democrats who are now falling away from the party because of the President's policies on Vietnam. He called these people immature — people who can't see the forest or the trees and pointed out that most of the differences within a party are seldom on 1 major issue, but minor in nature.

Baggarly outlined the Vietnam involvement from the time of the Truman administration to the present undeclared war in this Southeast Asian country, pointing out that the conflict has come about due to a gradual envelopment over a period of years, and reiterated the fact that the President is doing everything possible to win the conflict without starting World War III. "Whoever we elect as president in 1968," Baggarly said, "it will not make 5 cents worth of difference in how the

Grady Taken Off Critical List

Robert Grady, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Grady of Hereford, was reported to be in serious condition at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Wednesday night, recovering from a gunshot wound in the thigh.

Grady was shot about 6 p. m. Sunday when his 22 caliber rifle accidentally discharged. The accident occurred 11 miles north and 5 miles east of Hereford. Grady, a Hereford High School Junior, was alone at the time of the shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Brown and their son, Dean, were on the way to church in Canyon and happened on the accident. Young Dean related the story this way: "We were just behind him I guess, because when we arrived he was getting out of the car and yelling 'I've been shot. My dad didn't know whether he was kidding or not."

"Two cars went by while we were sitting there, and Grady tried to flag them down, but they didn't stop. He just stood there holding his side. Dad went over to see if he was really hurt and saw blood on his pants. A man in a pickup came by and helped us put Grady in the back seat of our car. Then we took him to Canyon."

According to Nolan Grady, Robert went rabbit hunting Sunday afternoon, taking the rifle with him. He stopped his car on Farm Road 1962 to take a shot at a rabbit across the road, but by the time he loaded his gun the rabbit had gone. Grady noticed his car was blocking the road, and got back in to move it, laying the loaded gun beside him in the seat. When he started to get out again, the gun discharged, striking him in the thigh.

Grady was transferred from Neblett clinic in Canyon to Northwest Texas Hospital Sunday night.

Demons beat Borger 6-3; Pampa, 69-6; Phillips, 18-0; Canyon, 49-0; Muleshoe, 56-8; Tulia, 33-7, and Perryton, 7-0. They fought Palo Duro of Amarillo to a 0-0 deadlock, and lost to Amarillo High 33-14.

Leading the Demons is one of the strongest backfields in the Panhandle. Steve Burks, a strong candidate for All-State honors at his halfback position has averaged more than 100 yards per game rushing and is a constant threat any time he has the ball.

Glenn Bonner, one of the Panhandle's best quarterbacks, again is expected to dazzle the Whitefaces with his running and passing. Another threat is Mike Slagle, senior halfback, while strong linemen include ends Ronnie McInturff and Bill Sloss, and tackle Steve Bayless.

The Whitefaces are expected to be in top form for the contest, with Elgin Williams and Mike Higgins the only players having troubles. Higgins has missed being at his end position for the past few games because of the mumps and is not expected to start Friday, while Tailback Williams has a stretched muscle which may hamper his flashy running somewhat.

Leading the offense thrust for the Herd will be Quarterbacks Jim Childers and Sid Shaw; backs Williams, Bobby Burwick, Donnie Fangman, Gary Goodin, Karl French; Ends Lennie Petree and Barry Johnson; Tackles Johnny Cornelius and Larry Guinn; Guards, Randy Kriehshaus and Gary Crume and Center Jim Loerwald.

Also leading the Whitefaces in their effort will be End Ralph Loerwald; Tackles Sheldon White and Sheldon Alexander; Guards Jeff Massie and Max Bridges; Linebacker — Center Bill Ohlig, and backs Bill Russell, Steve McAndrews, Bill Cole and Mark Golden. Several sophomores are expected to see plenty of action, including Jerry Tyler, Tony Gorman, James Head and Rodney Dearing.

A pep rally will be held about 2 p. m. Friday at the high school in an effort to create more enthusiasm for the big game. The public is invited to attend.

Deadline For VFW Essays Is This Monday

Students win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the VFW Voice of Democracy program said Commander Wayne Driskill of Post 4818, in discussing the annual script-writing contest being sponsored by the VFW and its ladies Auxiliary.

Freedom's Challenge is the theme for this year's essay scripts, which will be written by high school students and then taped by Radio Station KPAN. Each essay must be no less than three minutes nor more than five minutes long.

"Some of the fringe benefits of writing and reading the essays," says Driskill, "are increased self-confidence, greater poise, the overcoming of certain emotional problems and valuable practice in expressing ideas clearly."

Student's essays express their personal views on freedom. In the more than six years that the VFW has been sole sponsor of the contest, more than 1,000,000 students have participated.

From among the state winners, 5 national winners are chosen. A $25 savings bond will be prize on the local level, with judging being done by a staff member of West Texas State University in Canyon, Texas. Then judged in district, state, then national competition, with first prize in national competition a $5000 scholarship. Second, third, fourth and fifth prizes are scholarships in the amounts of $3,500, $2,500, $1,500 and $1,000.

Mrs. Bill Thompson, English teacher at HHS, is assisting local students with essays, which must be turned in by Nov. 20, and into the post by Dec. 1. Deadline for all school and community contests is Dec. 11.

The speaker also delved into other issues facing the Democrats in the 1968 presidential election including the poverty program, the rioting in the streets, the race situation, spending and inflation. In closing, he stated that the President is not due the criticism that is being heaped upon him and that the problem of the Democrats in 1968 is not changing the nominee, but in doing something about the political ignorance that is around us. ### Hearings On Sugar Beets Are Set

The United States Department of Agriculture Wednesday announced a series of public hearings on wage rates and prices for 1968 crop sugar beets.

Hearings will be held between November 27 and December 12 in cities within major producing and labor supply regions of sugar beet areas.

The schedule of meetings in this area includes Lubbock, December 4, in the Conference Room, South Plains Electric Co-op Building, 110 North Amarillo Road, beginning at 9:30 a. m., and San Antonio, Texas, Dec. 6, in Assembly Room, Gunter Hotel, beginning at 9:30 a. m.

The series will be considered as one hearing, and testimony at each place will constitute part of the same record. Persons may present testimony at any of the designated places. One condition which producers must meet to qualify for payments under the Sugar Act of 1948, is to pay wage rates not less than those determined to be fair and reasonable by Secretary of Agriculture after public hearing and investigation.

The Act also provides, as condition for payment, that producers who process sugar beets grown by other producers must pay prices for sugarbeets determined to be fair and reasonable by the Secretary of Agriculture.

To obtain the best possible information, the United States Department of Agriculture requests that all interested persons appear at hearings to express views and present appropriate data.

Catholic Women Attend Meeting At Plainview

Delegates and visitors from St. Anthony's Catholic Church were among those attending a meeting of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women at Plainview last week. The very Rev. Angelus Delahunt, St. Anthony's pastor, gave the welcoming address on the program.

Mrs. Edmund Loerwald, president of the Amarillo DCCW, presided for the sessions. Mrs. Elmer Reinart and Mrs. Kenneth Walterscheid were delegates from the Hereford women's organizations.

Those who went as visitors were Mmes. Leo Witkowski, Louis P. Orleans and Jonny Cloud, and Miss Barbara Coggins, who works as a nurse at St. Joseph's Mission here.

Democrats Form Local Group

The Deaf Smith County Young Democrats organization was formed during a meeting of local and area political leaders here Tuesday night, but election of officers was postponed.

Those forming the organization agreed to meet again during the first 10 days in December, during which time the officers will be elected. The film "1,000 Days of JFK" will be shown during the December meeting.

Andrew Shuval, former president of the Texas Young Democrats, stated that anyone interested in joining the local organization may call him at 364-4143 or Tom McCaleb at 364-4111. Anyone also wishing to attend the Democratic Political Seminar, set for Saturday at the Cornado Inn in Amarillo, also may contact the two men.

Any high school students wishing to join the Young Democrats may contact Kandy Hill, Barry Johnson of Steve McAndrews.

Sales ...

On October 19, International Systems & Controls Corporation formerly Houston Oil Field Material Company, Inc., sold to institutional and other investors its holdings of Holly common stock, approximately 280,000 shares. In addition, Holly was granted an option to buy back $1,860,000, principal amount of Holly's 4 1/2 percent convertible subordinated debentures, now held by International Systems.

Following this action, on November 2, Holly offered to purchase from other bondholders all of its outstanding 4 1/2 percent debentures at a price of $1,695 for each $1,000 face amount of debenture. The tender offered will expire on November 17, unless extended.

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editors note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. Ninth St., Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q — Recently I married a widow with a child. At the time of our marriage I had a II-A occupational deferment. Should I now be reclassified by my local board?

What is the minimum time I have before being inducted?

A — You get at least 21 days after your local board mails you a Statement of Acceptability (DD Form 62), which your board sends you after your examination. You may get more time, of course.

Q — When I reach my 18th birthday this month, I will be in college 500 miles away from home. Must I go home to register?

A — No. You may register at any of more than 4,000 draft boards throughout the country. Consult the telephone directory, or the college registrar's office and the address of the board nearest you. By calling at that board and giving your home address, you may complete your registration card, which will be sent to the board having jurisdiction over your home. This will always be your local board.

A — Yes, if you are maintaining a bona fide family relationship in your home with the child, provided you're not a physician, or one of certain other medical specialists, or a student deferred in II-S after June 30, 1967, if you qualify for both III-A and II-A, III-A will take precedence.

Q — I have been ordered to report for a preinduction examination by my local board.

Gunnery was the primary subject taught during the 23-week course, designed to prepare men for officer duties in artillery units. He was also trained in artillery survey and terrain sport, communications, map and aerial-photo reading, electronics, counterinsurgency and leadership.

His wife, Evelyn, lives on Rt. 1, Ralls, Tex.

Charles Bell Gets High Post

Charles Bell, president of the Hereford Camp Fire Council, was named to the Region IV Planning Board during business session of the Quadrennial Conference for Camp Fire Girls held from Nov. 5-10 in Kansas City.

Camp Fire delegates from Hereford attending the conference included, besides Bell, Mrs. Louis Lea, Mrs. Jack Allen, Mrs. William S. Dameron and Mrs. Vance Crume.

Keynote speaker for the conference was Dr. Thomas R. Bennett II, a noted sociologist who, using the time-proven value of shock treatment, opened the meetings with modern music at full volume as he confronted the 80 work groups present and dared them to come up with some new ideas.

"Teenagers of today are more mobile, more knowledgeable and more vocal than those of a generation or two ago," he said, and the generation of today is creative in its music, its dress and its dance. He emphasized that a program which is interested in young people should also be creative, and challenged Camp Fire to bridge the culture gap and widen horizons.

For stuffed tomatoes, cut each tomato into sixths from the top to the bottom — without actually cutting through the bottom. The tomato will have a star shape and will hold a salad filling. For the filling you might like to use chicken, turkey, tuna or salmon along with celery and mayonnaise. Serve the stuffed tomatoes on salad greens.

Hearers Applaud Piano Concert

A Sunday matinee concert by George Eason of the West Texas State University music faculty was applauded by guests and members of Music Study Club, who presented the pianist in a varied program at First Baptist Church.

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Eason followed the concert. Mrs. A. O. Thompson poured coffee and Mrs. C. J. Mountz was at the spiced tea service, at opposite ends of a table centered with an arrangement of autumn flowers.

Mrs. R. C. Godwin, president of the hostess club, welcomed guests to this annual open program by a guest musician. In addition to Mrs. Eason, a special guest was Mrs. Carl Wimberley of Dawn, president of First District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

Eason's program was built around three classical piano compositions, a Beethoven sonata, three mazurkas by Chopin and a set of Brahms' variations on a theme by Paganini. After intermission a sonata by Scriabin was heard, with a group of short pieces composed by the guest pianist himself.

Stanton Choirs Staging Gilbert-Sullivan Piece

A comic operetta which has been a popular favorite for many years, "The Mikado" by Gilbert and Sullivan, will be presented by eighth and ninth grade choirs of Stanton Junior High School Monday and Tuesday evenings in the school auditorium.

Curtain time is 7:30 each evening. Admission prices are 75 cents for adults, 35 cents for students. Douglas Morris is directing the production with Mrs. Bill Devers as accompanist.

The cast includes Donnie Stark, Becky Hickman, Becky Cox, Kevin Young, Lester Mays, Carl Brown, George Fuller and Dion Miller.

In the chorus, which sings some of the most tuneful of the operetta's numbers, are Theresa Vines, Teena May, Nelda Norton, Terri Carter, Connie Ward, Vickie Keenan, Carola Scott, Kevin Patton, Donnie Houle, Ricki Ward, David Spain, Richard Barrett and Raydon Quintana.

A Japanese setting and costumes are added to liting music and comic plot to make the operetta a well-liked piece for schools and other amateur groups as well as for professional players.

There are two acts, with a plot which satirizes some western customs as it pokes fun at ancient Japanese manners and ideas.

Damages Light In Collision

An unlicensed driver was given a citation last Thursday for negligent collision when two cars were involved in a collision at the intersection of Brevard and Myrtle Ave.

Involved in the 4:45 p.m. collision was a 1967 Buick, driven by Irene S. McKinster of 111 Fir St. and a 1967 Chevrolet Stationwagon, driven by Eugene Cordero, 507 Whittier.

The accident occurred when one vehicle, traveling west on Myrtle, and the other vehicle, traveling north on Brevard, collided, causing damage to the right front of one car and the right rear of the other.

An estimated $150 damages was done to the Buick, while the Chevrolet received $125. One ticket for negligent collision was issued in the mishap.

Business-Social Meeting Held

Mrs. Jerry Landers was hostess to Golden Circle Class of Ave. Baptist Sunday School a recent business and social session. Mrs. John Burns presided as plans were made for the class Christmas party, a salad supper in the home of Mrs. Marti Mason Dec. 11.

TO SUIT THE OCCASION
MEMPHIS — Clerks at the dress shop said they'd helped pick apparel for everything from a debutante party to a funeral, but this request was a new one.

The young customer said she had a date in Traffic Court and wanted "something sweet and innocent-looking."

Edward Adams Is In Viet Nam War

U. S. ARMY, VIETNAM — Army specialist Four Edward E. Adams, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman H. Adams, Friona, is participating in "Operation Wheeler" in Vietnam with other members of the 101st Airborne Division's 1st Brigade.

Wheeler, which began in September, is the fifth operation the Brigade has been in since joining Task Force Oregon in May.

In five months of action, the men of the "Screaming Eagle" brigade have accounted for more than 2,000 enemy kills.

Spec. Adams is a rifleman in Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion of the brigade's 327th Infantry.

There is so much growing concern that some folks fear the day when we may have to use a microscope to examine our national conscience.

Why not use the beautification money from Washington to clean the air? After all, Americans don't breathe billboards and junk yards. (Don't hold your breath until they do).

 Plans Holiday
 Family Dinner

A family dinner is a Thanksgiving week entertainment slated by the American Legion Auxiliary at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the Legion Building. After the covered dish dinner, a program will feature showing of the film, On The Square, made during a Russian tour by a party of West Texans.

Hostesses to arrange for the dinner are Mmes. Tom Draper, M. C. Adams and Richard Jewell. Members are to bring gifts for the annual gift shop at the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo. Final plans for the dinner were made at a recent business session, when plans were also made to send a box of Christmas gifts for patients to the state hospital in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Leroy Williamson, vice president, presided and announced that 90 are enrolled in the Auxiliary for next year. Mrs. Troy Stambaugh and Mrs. W. O. Wilkins were hostesses.

bers could easily identify with the characters, was the subject of an entertaining book review given at the club meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Al Hunter presented Edna Pettigrew's humorous book, Three Is a Family. Mrs. Gene Parsley was hostess in her home. Mrs. Glenn Watts introduced the reviewer, who told the story as it was seen through the eyes of the harried mother of three daughters and wife of a busy lawyer.

Mrs. Bob Willmot presided for business. Members decided to bring gifts suitable for residents at Abilene State Hospital for mentally retarded, to the club's Christmas party. The packages will be exchanged and opened, then sent to the hospital. Aid to patients there is the principal club project of this year.

Those present included Mmes. George Ritter, Gene Parsley, Hugh Clearman, James W. Durham, Ronald Harpster, Armon Lauderback, Dale Barkley, Bill Brady and Gid Brown.

Doctor Bills Paid By SS

For most people over 65, there are Medicare benefits available to help pay their doctor bills, according to Travis C. Briggs, District Manager of the Social Security Administration in Amarillo.

There are two easy methods for claiming those benefits. If the doctor and the patient both agree, then payment is made directly to the doctor. If the patient or his doctor prefers the other method, then payment can be made to the patient. In that case the following is all a person has to do.

At the time a person enrolls for Medicare he is given a Medicare Handbook which contains the form to be used. Only three "Yes" or "No" answers are needed, plus a brief statement describing the illness and the patient's Medicare claim number from his Medicare card. Then, attach the itemized, receipted bill(s) to the form and send to Medicare.

For most people the address is: Medicare - Part B, Group Medical and Surgical Services, P. O. Box 22147, Dallas, Texas 75222.

Briggs urges anyone who needs help or has questions about filing their Medicare claims to visit the social security office at 1006 Adams Street of telephone DRake 6-5151.

Said the Doctor to the patient: "I've done all I can do to get your weight down, Mrs. Jones — without any success. I suggest you just learn to be jolly."

—HB—

We were indeed pleased with the fine turnout at The Brand's open house Sunday afternoon, and the many wonderful comments that we have received. The flowers were especially beautiful and we doubly appreciate all the ads in the paper. It's not easy to get a newspaper production plant in its Sunday dress for an open house, so I seriously doubt that we'll ever have another. However, individuals and groups are welcome to tour the plant throughout the year if they will call a day or so ahead and make arrangements. We're always glad to have groups, especially the young people, but we need to know in advance.

Again, we want to express the appreciation of the entire staff at the Brand for the wonderful attendance Sunday. It couldn't have been better.

—HB—

Incidentally, we all thought it quite fitting that Corinne Neeley and Bettye Turpen were the first to sign the guest register. Both are former employees of The Brand and both were working here in 1948 when this writer became associated with the paper. Corinne still contributes articles to the paper, although she doesn't maintain a desk at the office, and Bettye has been one of those who has taken a personal interest in the paper for many years.

—HB—

Someone has sent us a tear sheet from the Cincinnati Pictorial Enquirer (which is apparently a Sunday magazine supplement to the daily newspaper) containing a story about "The Lettuce Habit". . . Bravo. It is quite interesting of course and well done except that the people who wrote the story apparently do not know anything about our state's officials. They made reference to "Texas Governor Tom Connolly." We suppose they have confused Governor John Connally with the late Senator Tom Connolly — a mistake that few Texans would make. We're happy to see however, that others make mistakes too.

Engler Urges Reduction Of Beef Production

Paul Engler, Montana rancher and president of Hereford Feed Yards Inc. here, urged some 600 feedlot operators to reduce production despite the trend towards expansion of feedlots and larger production of cattle at a meeting of the Texas Cattle Feeder's Convention. The meeting, held Sunday through Tuesday at the Holiday Inn West in Amarillo, was the largest group of cattle feeders ever assembled at one time in America. Those attending voiced as a group the unanimous opinion that the Panhandle feedlot industry would mushroom into the beef producing center of the world, while Engler expressed the opinion that cattle production should be decreased by five percent.

Engler stated that cattle production has been increased without taking any thought of the law of supply and demand. "Cattle prices were 14 per cent higher in 1950 than they are now, he said, "and yet, we're the only industry left that operates without a bunch of federal aid on strictly a free enterprise system."

Engler was named to a 12-man committee last January of the American National Cattlemen's Association of Denver to do a complete study on the nation's beef marketing system and the current supply of beef cattle.

He stated that the committee found more cattle than they ever dreamed of when they took a really good look, and that they might already be in trouble market-wise, but it was not too late to start working for a stronger market next year.

The entire group, however, singled out the Panhandle region as being the future beef producing center of the world.

HONORED BY LIONS — Don Zimmerman, left, and Bill Gentry, right, were honored by the Paisano Lions Club Sunday during a Zone Meeting of the area organizations. COMING THROUGH DEAF SMITH COUNTY — Lowering-in crews prepare to place the last few feet of pipe into the trench on NGPL's new $22 million, 256-mile Permian Basin pipeline project.

The 24-inch pipeline extends from Eddy County in southeastern New Mexico to the company's mainline near Fritch, where it connects with existing facilities.

Company Finishes Pipeline Project

Chicago — Construction of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's 256-mile, 24 inch Permian pipeline project, extending from Eddy County in southeastern New Mexico to the Company's main line near Amarillo, is now complete with all pipe in the ground.

The final phases of construction were completed on Nov. 9. The pipeline enables NGPL to transport gas from its Permian Basin reserves to its main line, near Fritch & Stinnett, Tex.

The project, undertaken at a cost of $22 million, includes a 4,000-horsepower compressor station located at the junction of the Company's existing 20- and 24-inch pipeline segments in Lea County, about 16 miles west of Lovington, N. M.

All facilities of the new system are expected to be operational by Dec. 1. NGPL's Permian pipeline is capable of transporting a peak-day quantity of 221 million cubic feet of natural gas from the Company's New Mexico reserves to its major market area in Chicago and northern Illinois.

The pipeline was built in three separate sections. McVean & Barlow, Inc., Odessa, constructed the southernmost portion, a total of 95 miles, in Eddy, Lea, and Roosevelt Counties, N. M. H. B. Zachry Co., San Antonio, was contractor for the middle portion, 96 miles, in Bailey, Parmer, Castro, and Deaf Smith Counties. The northernmost section, 79 miles, was constructed by Great Plains Construction Co., Lubbock, in Hutchinson, Moore, Potter, Randall, and Deaf Smith Counties.

NGPL's total system peak-day deliverability from both pipeline and storage now will exceed 3.8 billion cubic feet for the coming heating season.

Air Cadets Will Exchange Visits

Aviation minded young men from 14 European and Near East countries as well as Canada and Great Britain, will exchange home-land visits this summer with the United States in the 1968 International Air Cadet Exchange. This was one of the key agreements emerging from an IACE Planning Conference held October 1, at Oslo, Norway.

The number of the cadets to participate in the program has not been finalized but increases were indicated by Austria, Portugal and Turkey.

Rites Pending For Rodriguez

Funeral arrangements are pending for Salvador Rodriguez, 34, of Levelland, at Gilliland Funeral Home. Mr. Rodriguez, an oilwell construction worker, died at a Levelland hospital Monday shortly after admission of injuries he received at work. Death was due to electrocution. A native of Mexico, Rodriguez was a citizen of that country. The body was brought to Hereford by Price Funeral Home of Levelland. Plans are for a funeral conducted by the Rev. John Broderick, assistant pastor at St. Joseph's Mission, and burial in West Park Cemetery.

Funeral Service Of Father Held

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Koenig, southeast of Hereford, have returned home after attending funeral services for his father, Joe C. Koenig, 79, of Goree. The funeral was held Monday morning in St. Joseph's Church at Rhineland.

Events Planned At St. Anthony's

The Catholic Youth Organization of St. Anthony's Parish will present a folk mass, First Mass for Young America by Ray Repp, at 10 a. m. Sunday directed by the Rev. Timothy MacDonald, S. A. Young Adults Group of the parish has scheduled a meeting Sunday afternoon, and will go roller skating at the local rink.

Several members of the Hereford Composite Squadron Cadet corps are eligible for participation in this program and will be making application, according to Dr. Adams, commander of the local unit.

Sponsored by Civil Air Patrol, a civilian auxiliary of the United States Air Force, the International Air Cadet Exchange is to be held next year from July 22 to August 15. This is the 21st consecutive year Civil Air Patrol will have participated in the Exchange, one of the national highlights of CAP's cadet special activities program.

Cadets from Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, the United Kingdom, Israel and the United States will participate in the 1968 program. Each visiting cadet group will be escorted by male adult members of its sponsoring Air Force or aero club activity and will be guest of the Civil Air Patrol Wings while visiting the United States.

Purpose of the Exchange is to foster international understanding, good will and fellowship among the youth of the free world. CAP cadets and their counterparts from the foreign countries are chosen for character, academic achievement and extraordinary leadership.

Some 30 countries have taken part in the program over the past 20 years and approximately 5,000 persons participated including more than 2,300 CAP cadets and foreign youth.

Thanksgiving Supper Held

Families of Rebekah and Odd Fellows Lodge members were guests of the Rebekahs at a Thanksgiving supper in the IOOF Hall Tuesday evening, when a covered dish meal was served to approximately 45 persons.

Tables were decorated with symbols of the holiday and fall flowers. After supper the adults played 42 while children enjoyed games. Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. was piano accompanist for group singing of familiar patriotic songs.

Mrs. Arthur Rogers was chairman of the hostess committee, with Mrs. Sam Smith, Mrs. Wallace Shelton and Mrs. A. N. Hopson as other members.

WTSU Buffs End Play Saturday

CANYON — West Texas State University's Buffaloes will take a 7-2 record into Saturday's season finale against the Wichita State Shockers. The game will be played at Wichita's Veterans Field. Kickoff is set for 3 p. m. (CST).

Both teams are expected to report in top physical condition after Saturday bouts which saw the Buffs rout favored East Carolina 37-13 in Greenville, N. C. and Wichita lose a 20-14 squeaker to North Texas State in Denton. The loss drops Wichita's season record to 1-6-1.

Coach Joe Kerbel's Buffs, led by junior all-American halfback candidate Eugene (Mercury) Morris and fullback Albie (00) Owens, boomed for 390 yards rushing and added an additional 113 yards on passes in their victory over East Carolina. Morris personally accounted for 224 yards rushing to run his season's total to 1,106 yards. He also scored three touchdowns to give him 14 for the season. Owens, who replaced injured sophomore sensation Duane Thomas three weeks ago, rushed for 161 yards and scored on a 74 yard burst. In the past three games, Owens has accounted for 363 yards rushing and an average of 121 yards a game.

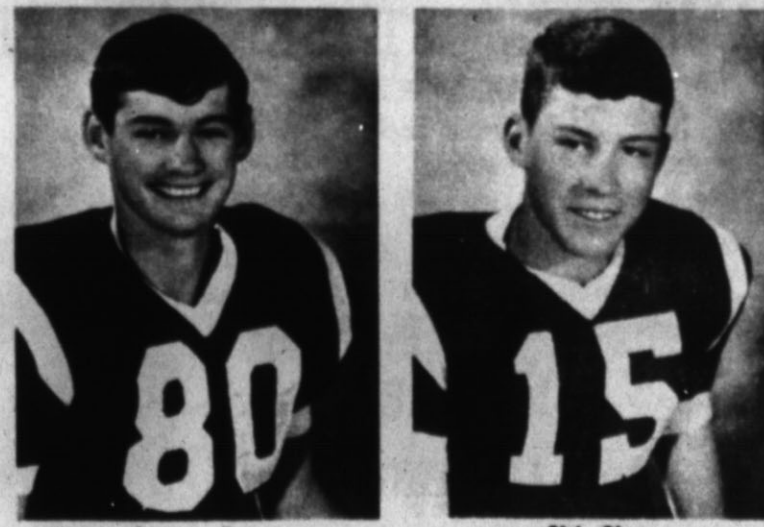

Keep your eye on safety Steve Haterius against Wichita State Saturday afternoon. The senior pre-med major from Stamford needs just two interceptions to tie a national interception record set in 1960 by George Shaw of Oregon State. Shaw intercepted 13 passes.

When WTSU Senior safety Rick Barrett intercepted two East Carolina passes Saturday night, it boosted the Buffs season theft total to 23, and tied a WTSU season interception mark set in 1962.

MOST VALUABLE BUFFS Junior halfback Eugene (Mercury) Morris and sophomore guard Dag Azam were named as the most valuable offensive players in the East Carolina game Saturday night. Morris raced for 22 yards and scored three touchdowns. Azam graded an outstanding 92 percent on a scale where 75 is considered playing winning football. Defensive standouts in the East Carolina game were junior outside linebackers Jesse Powell and Carl Heilman. Both were credited with 14 tackles.

Americanism Is Topic For Club

Christmastime sharing with less fortunate persons was a part of the program at Pioneer Study Club's meeting Tuesday, in collecting packages for the annual gift shop at the Amarillo Veterans Hospital, and in plans for more gifts to be made at the December meeting.

Contributions to hospitalized veterans of American military service were made Tuesday, in keeping with the program theme of Americanism. Mrs. M. L. Simpson, public affairs, chairman, was in charge of the collection.

Mmes. Ralph McCullough, Ted Panciera and Allen Bell were hostesses for luncheon at the Cason House. Early American settlers, the Pilgrims, were pictured in cutouts on the tables, with U. S. flags, turkey figurines and cornucopia arrangements of fruit suggestive of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Henry Hastings touched on the Thanksgiving theme with a meditation titled Life of Sharing and the reading of a Psalm. Mrs. Ray Johnson, program chairman, introduced two members to discuss current topics.

Mrs. Frank Ball's subject was The Black Mood. She presented a survey of the Negro's fight for civil rights and extremes to which the movement has gone, as well as hopeful signs for the future. Mrs. Bess Werner spiced with her discussion of What a Congressman Really Does.

Mrs. Delmar Sigle presided for business and appointed a nominating committee. Mmes. Paul Rudd, O. G. Hill Sr., McCullough, Ball and Panciera. Members voted to bring to the next meeting clothing for distribution through the Migrant Ministry to residents of the Labor Camp, also staple food for Christmas baskets for needy families. They will also bring Christmas gifts for the residents at Gristown U. S. A. Books of trading stamps will be contributed for a Texas Federation of Women's Clubs project, a Friendship Garden at Brownsville.

La Plata Beauty School Opens New Worlds For Area Women

By PAT SPURGEON
Staff Writer

With the opening of the new La Plata Beauty School last week, area women have another opportunity to prepare themselves for future jobs working with principles and ideas which are as old as time itself but always as new as tomorrow.

The urge to be different and creative in hair styling has always appealed to women, regardless of age, and at La Plata Beauty School, after basics are taught and real talent uncovered, a student is limited only by her imagination.

The school, located at 921 E. First, across from the new Bus Depot, received its certification and go-ahead from the State Board of Cosmetologists in Austin at noon on Nov. 6, after a two-weeks mixup with reclining chairs that wouldn't, backrests, and slow freight methods.

After having finally received the certification, Mrs. Hazel Carter, owner, and two instructors, Mrs. Vanna Bell Thurlow and Mrs. Helon Rains began classes on Nov. 7, with a partial enrollment. Fuller enrollment is expected before the end of this week.

Mrs. Carter, herself a beautician, having graduated from the San Jacinto School of Beauty, now Space and Form School in Amarillo, is owner of the Witches Hut Beauty Salon on Main Street, formerly named 20th Century.

Both instructors, Mrs. Thurlow and Mrs. Rains, are experenced teachers of cosmetology, possessing teaching licenses as well as beauticians licenses. The former license is granted after much additional training and exhaustive state board tests.

According to Mrs. Carter, a beauty course is much like a course in pre-medicine as students are not only taught to give permanents, set hair, and conjure up styles, but also are taught individual bones of the body, ligaments, cartilages, skin ailments, scalp diseases, nail care and diseases, anatomy and some psychology.

La Plata Beauty School has a capacity of 100 students, which will be divided into four or more classes, 20 to 25 in each class. Two additional instructors will be employed to complete the staff.

Classes are divided into two groups, junior and senior. Juniors are students just beginning the course and the latter are students possessing 500 or more clock hours of classroom work and application.

Several senior students are already members of the class, having had two years of cosmetology work in the course offered at Hereford High School. With the completion of 500 hours, a transcript of which is due from Austin soon, according to Mrs. Carter, these students are eligible to practice their craft on patrons of the beauty school.

Much of the junior's time is spent in lecture rooms, receiving instructions in the basics of hair care. Students are cautioned to always keep in mind that mistakes can damage not only a patron's hair, but also relations between the operator and patron and shop and patrons.

One such lecture, demonstrating correct methods of cutting hair, not only gave the correct way to shave the strands of hair for a shape cut, but also the method of cutting the hair bluntly, such as for a neckline cut, etc.

Correct ways of handling the extra sharp razors used in cutting hair are also taught, an important item for the operator or student who must protect her fingers from the blade as well as give a good haircut, while not seeming unduly cautious of the instrument she uses.

Basic application of principles learned in the classes is done on mannequins, life-sized heads with 100 percent rooted human hair and life-like skin.

The mannequins are easily detached from their bases so they can be transferred to dryers, washing sinks, etc., and it isn't at all unusual to see the 'heads,' in various stages of styling, being carried around the room tucked under a student's arm.

More practical applications are practiced on fellow students at the school. In addition to having her own hair cut, curled, permanent waved, colored, or receiving a massage, facial, manicure or pedicure, each student is required also to give each treatment to another student. Students are always good natured when it is their turn to be used as a demonstrator.

The full cosmetology course requires six months and 1000 clock-hours of instruction and practical application. Student's hours are from 8 to 5, five days each week, with no more than 40 hours being spent in classroom training each week. Mrs. Carter says, according to state board rules.

In addition to the regular six months course, Mrs. Carter also plans special brush-up courses for already licensed operators. The first of these courses, to be held in about two months, Mrs. Carter says, will feature J. C. Prince, owner of the Peacock Beauty Salon of Amarillo as guest-instructor. Prince is the owner of numerous styling trophies and is skilled in all phases of hair design, from basic BEAUTY SCHOOL, Page 2

ALMOST A PRE-MED COURSE — Posters on the walls, giving beginning students a glimpse of things yet to come, give the impression that one has stepped into a training class for future doctors or nurses. Such is not the case, however, but students are required to learn quite a bit of anatomy and physiology as well as some psychology.

MEMORIES STILL VIVID — Mrs. Hazel Carter, owner and manager of La Plata Beauty School, even after five years, recalls her carpool in which seven women made the daily trip to and from Amarillo taking cosmetology courses there. This is one of several reasons Mrs. Carter gave for starting the beauty college here. She is shown thumbing through one of the textbooks being used in the course.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE
BOSTON — Before the days of Social Security and other programs to help the elderly, the Massachusetts Bequest Fund was initiated so persons could donate money to the state for disbursement to needy, elderly persons.

Now State Auditor Thaddeus Buczko doesn't think the fund will ever be used for its stated purpose. Buczko says fund rules state that there must be a cash balance of $500,000 before any payments can be made.

In the almost 40 years since the fund was established in 1928 only $1,979.01 has been donated. The fund now stands — with interest and all — at $5,678.86.

Know this way of fixing plantains? Peel them, then squeeze them, fry in hot deep fat. Serve as a nibble with a before-dinner drink.

HEREFORD, TEXAS, 79045, THURS., NOV. 16, 1967

A WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND is her hairdresser, as the old adage goes. These girls, all students at the new La Plata Beauty Salon, are learning their craft the best way—by practical application. Each student will undergo such treatments in the six months course which will provide them with a basis for state board tests and licensing.

Ballots Mailed For Election Of C of C Directors

Ballots for election of Directors for the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce were mailed to members of the organization Thursday.
Deadline for the return of the completed vote is Friday, Nov. 24. Voters are reminded to sign the ballots, and unsigned ones will not be tallied. Signatures will be clipped from the ballots before they are tallied.
Don Baugous, Bruce Brown, Richard Jagels, Virgil Marsh, Ralph Owens, Ed Wilson and Don Zimmerman have been nominated to the directors posts, and four of the eight will be elected.

Students Cram For Big Exams

Until after this week, Hereford High School activities will be limited because of the approaching Six Weeks tests that face every student in school. These tests will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, with even-numbered classes on Wednesday, and odd-numbered classes on Thursday.

Club meetings, football parties, and dates are things of the future (maybe) until everyone is sure whether or not he cleared the hurdle without knocking it over. In other words, students fear that they may not pass their tests and then they wouldn't have to worry about going anywhere.

JV's Win Eighth To Close Season

The Hereford Junior Varsity finished their season Thursday night with a 14-0 win over the Tullia Hornets.
Although the Whitefaces were penalized a total of 115 yards as compared with Tullia's 10-yard penalty total, they still managed to score two TD's and two extra points.
The first touchdown came when Marsh Pitman scored from the four-yard line. The run for extra points failed.
Pitman also scored the second touchdown, this time from five yards out. Lynn Betts ran for the two extra points.
The team finished with a 8-1 season record, their only loss being to the Hart varsity, 18-12.

Classes are being tentatively planned for nights since the school has received many calls from prospective students who are not able to attend day classes. These classes would run for four hours each night, but no definite plans have yet been made.

La Plata Beauty School is the result of several years in the tentative stage and one in planning, according to Mrs. Carter. It was just one year ago that she began active correspondence with officials in Austin regarding the school, weaving her way through state laws, statutes, footnotes and explanations, equipment lists and other requirements for certification and licensing.

One of La Plata Beauty School's reasons for being, according to Mrs. Carter, is simply the memory of her carpool when she was receiving her training in Amarillo. Seven women, including herself, made the trip daily, missing only about three days during the six months because of bad weather.

Another reason for opening the school was the interest of local persons in studying cosmetology, including the students at the high school who are taking or have taken the course there.

Many of the patrons of the shop on Main Street urged Mrs. Carter to open the school, also.

Students attending the school not only come from Hereford, but several are enrolled from Dimmitt, Friona and Canyon.

Enrollment is open at the school, Mrs. Carter says, and with the receipt of the senior student's transcripts from Austin, these students will be able to receive appointments from patrons.

Mrs. Carter plans a formal open house in about two weeks she says, at which time the public will be invited to drop in and inspect the neat and spacious arrangement of the school.
"Just as soon as I get the drapes up," she says, "the open house will be announced."

PLAY-LENGTH TITLE
FRANKFURT — Peter Weiss outdoes himself as a long-title enthusiast in his latest play.

The German-born author gained international prominence with a drama who 23-word labe was popularly abbreviated as "Mar-at-Sade." His latest has a 48-word tag:

"Discourse over the Previous History and the Long Continuing Freedom Fight in Vietnam as an Example of the Unnecessary Weaponized Battle for the Underdogs Against Those Pressing Them Under as Well as of the Attempt of the United States of America to Destory the Cause of the Revolution." The first production is to be in Rostock, East Germany.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

Oh LORD, OUR GOD,

... give us hearts of gratitude on this Thanksgiving Day. May the dignity and the solemnity of the occasion of Thanksgiving warm our hearts as individuals, as families, as nations. As we express gratitude for the favors of mercy, may we be conscious of the fact... they all come from God. May we know the full meaning of historic Plymouth landing. Let us be reminded anew that freedom began there... and to worship God according to the dictates of our own hearts was guaranteed when the Pilgrim Fathers stepped ashore. Then, let us not fail to humbly recognize God as the Giver of life,—the Provider of all goods,—and the Savior of the souls of men... AMEN

Messenger Club Hears Program

Names were drawn for a gift exchange at the Christmas party of Messenger Home Demonstration Club, when Mrs. Elton Sorrells was hostess in her home Friday. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. H. D. Buse Nov. 30.

Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent, gave the program on dressings for various meat and game. She made a quick dressing of wild rice which she recommended for use with chicken. Incidentally, she reminded club members that when they want a recipe for dressing, to look in the index for "stuffing" the term more widely used.

Preceding her talk was a slogan writing contest in which Mrs. Elmer Northcutt received the prize. Thanksgiving decorations featuring Pilgrim cutouts, made the table attractive as Linda and Debbie Sorrells assisted their mother in serving refreshments. Mrs. Gene Bradley was a guest.

Final plans were made for the clubs Thanksgiving supper

4-H News

Seven new members were informed, and members of longer standing were reminded of 4-H Club objectives when County Agent Justin McBride was the speaker to Ford 4-H Club at a recent meeting in Community Center.

He explained purposes of the organization and requirements for members. Early planning is necessary for successful projects, he said as he gave examples of good planning. Records should be kept from the beginning of membership, so they will be available when a member is old enough to compete for awards, and they should show what has been learned and how the member has helped others, he added.

Announcement was made of a livestock subject matter group to start next month, and a child care unit to be taught by Mrs. Joyce Hickman.

Reports were made by Joette Hanna on the County 4-H Council and the annual countywide Christmas party, Beth Bezner on the public speaking group.

Joyce Bezner, who presided, was given a savings bond, a showmanship award she won at the recent State Fair of Texas. Jim Aikin, led the opening 4-H ritual. The next meeting will be Dec. 15, the club Christmas party.

New members of the group are Gary Dunning, Kathy Hardcastle, Lanette Cawthon, Glenda Dodson, Nina Gilliland, Charlotte Bezner and Larry Taggart. Genell Matthews was a visitor.

Camela Burgess and Mark Busby were hosts. Other members attending were Jim Marsh, Jerry Sublett, Cynthia

Miss Meiwes Honored As Prospective Bride

Miss Margaret Meiwes, whose marriage to James Clements of Dumas is to take place November 25, was complimented with a coffee to introduce her to her fiancé's friends when she visited Jim Clements, last weekend. Miss Meiwes is the daughter of Mr and Mrs George Meiwes, former Hereford residents who moved in August to a new home near Kincaid, Kan. She remained here and is making her home with her grandmother.

For the party at Dumas, seven hostesses entertained in the home of Mrs. J. W. Brian. They included Mmes. Ed Hardy, George Brown, W. B. Hoehn, Neal Messenger, Bill Harbert and Elizabeth Hunnicutt.

Guests called during the morning hours, were served coffee and presented gifts to the bride-elect.

ZEFIRELLI SCHEDULES HIS OWN ACTING COMPANY

ROME—Franco Zeffirelli is taking time out from movie making for a three-play repertory season with his own resident acting company.

The schedule includes Edward Albee's "A Delicate Balance," to be followed by "The Promise" by Aleks Arbusov and an untitled comedy written by Pasquale Festa Campanile and Gigi Magni.

Art Guild, Garden Club Shows To Be Combined

Combining two annual shows with emphasis on art, the weekend of Dec. 2 and 3 will offer a gala display of painting and flower arranging by area residents at Sugarland Mall. The public is invited, at no admission charge.

Hereford Art Guild's exhibit will be hanging at the same time that three garden clubs stage their fall flower show, which will have as its theme this year, Magic Of Christmas. Home decoration for the holidays, tables for Christmas parties and gift packages will be featured.

Hereford Garden Club, which has Mrs. Ray Johnson as president, Bud to Blossom Club, headed by Mrs. Bruce Brown, and the Junior Garden Club, with Janna Balden as president and Mrs. Eugene Brink leader, are to cooperate in the flower show.

Mrs. Hilrey Aven is president of the Art Guild, which invites entries in various media from artists of this area.

Flower show entries are limited to members of the three clubs, except for two classes in the horticultural division. Open to the public are entries of potted geraniums and African violet collections.

Hours for the show will be 3 to 9 p. m. Saturday, Dec. 2, and 2 to 5 p. m. Dec. 3. A new feature of the flower show will be a shoppers' corner. Some paintings in the art show will be for sale.

General chairman for the flower show is Mrs. A. L. Manjeot of Hereford Garden Club with Mrs. Bill Nelson of Bud to Blossom Club as assistant. Serving with them on the general committee are Mmes. Ben Childers, W. H. Gentry, Calvin Edwards, Alfred Smith, Sam Long and R. L. Ethridge.

Mrs. Tom Sawyer is chairman of staging, Mrs. G. W. Newson of the horticulture division, Mrs. Delmo Williams of classification, Mrs. Smith of properties, Mrs. Manjeot is serving as schedule chairman.

Mrs. R. N. Yarbro is general treasurer for the show. Mrs. W. H. Hromas will be in charge of the Christmas Shoppers Corner where items suitable for gifts or decorations will be on sale to raise funds for garden club Civic Development projects.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. R. L. Wilson, horticulture placement; Mrs. Gentry, artistic placement; Mrs. Ethridge, judges; Mrs. Nelson, hospitality; Mrs. Emmett Hale, awards; Mrs. Sam Long, clerks; Mrs. J. V. Pickens, educational exhibit; Mrs. Herbert Bruns, dismantling.

Mrs. Arthur Stoy and Mrs. Roy Botkin are chairmen for the junior show. Named as consultants are Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. for artistic entries, Mrs. R. W. Mitchell for horticulture entries.

Exhibits will be received from 8 to 10:45 a. m. Dec. 2 and judging is to begin at 12 noon. Ribbons will be awarded in each class, and sweepstakes awards in both horticulture and artistic divisions.

Classes of horticulture specimens include berried branches, broadleaf and needled evergreens, potted plants, cacti and succulents, and preserved materials, dried or treated.

Advance notice must be given of entries in the artistic division, in person or by telephone, between Nov. 13 and 24. Classes in this division have names suggestive of the holidays, Glow of Candles, Warmth of Fireside, Around the Tree, White Christmas, When Old Friends Meet, Night Before Christmas, and others.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Sometimes we feel that today's young Americans, growing up in our soft society, don't learn to work and won't put out continued effort. Apparently some of them can and do work — on something that interests them.

COLLEGES HEREBABOUT have broken out into a rash of opera lately, and staging an opera is good, hard work. Not only the labor backstage, but in order to sing an operatic role passably there must be long rehearsals backed by years of study and practice to prepare a voice.

Several persons who can judge and compare the performance with that of professionals have told me the WTSU production of La Boheme last weekend was done as well as some versions by the Metropolitan Opera Company itself on its ventures in this area.

Hereford can be proud, incidentally, of Joe Ella Cansler, who sang the prima donna role. She led up to that with leads in musical comedies of past years in the Branding Iron Theatre at WTSU.

Critics say her lovely soprano voice has matured in the last few months so the improvement is quite noticeable since she appeared in the campus-staged Camelot last term. Her acting ability is also mentioned — and the fact that she certainly is a hard worker.

NOT JUST AT WTSU are students putting out effort in campus show biz. Saturday night I was lucky enough to hear a program of opera at Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, which the Music Theatre of that school called Best of Five. Don Moore, who is remembered here for his fine direction of high school choruses a few years ago, was musical director.

Scenes from five different operas were presented, with casts totaling 26. Staging, costumes and voices all helped make a thoroughly enjoyable program, and it's something like amazing to consider that a school no larger than ENMU can muster so many competent singer-actors — who are willing to work enough to handle the taxing music of Mozart, Gounod, Puccini and Menotti.

It was through gracious invitations of Kathlee Palmer and Mary Jo Godwin that I got to the Portales campus, and as of now they are my favorite people.

THE EARL COLES, 107 Ave. I. are proud of a grandson who is working hard in another direction at school. He is David Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole of New Orleans, who has been selected among backfield players on the NORD team which will compete in the Mini Bowl in Philadelphia next Sunday afternoon.

His school team will meet a Pop Warner junior football team game, to be played in conjunction with the New Orleans Saints — Philadelphia Eagles. The first quarter of the junior National Football League clash game will be televised on the Saints and Eagles networks.

A recent issue of the New Orleans State-Item carried a picture of young Cole with a fellow squad member and a coach in its sports section.

ROBERTA MARTIN HENRY and Juandell Wade have completed a two-week series of special art classes at WTSU, with Dr. Dirk Van Driest of Taos as instructor in Oils. Van Driest is a painter from The Netherlands who is working at present in Taos. His class in oil painting was arranged in the WTSU art department.

MY APOLOGIES to Mrs. Dean Herring and Mrs. Dean Stallings for a mixup in their names on the Sunday page of church women's officers' pictures. It is Mrs. Herring who is a WMS president at First Baptist Church.

And there's no sense in my getting their names mixed, since I know Mary Herring and Jeri Stallings perfectly well, just because both are attractive blonde young women and live (miles apart) on the Vega Highway. It isn't the women I confuse, you understand, just the names.

You may find that your youngster enjoys mashed potato mixed with another vegetable—carrots, beets, peas or green beans.

Supper Planned As Community Event At Bippus

A community Thanksgiving supper next Sunday evening at Bippus Community Building, with all residents of that neighborhood invited, was planned in a recent Bippus Home Demonstration Club meeting at Mrs. J. V. Perrin's home.

The supper is scheduled to begin at 5:30 p. m. and will be served covered dish style. The club's Christmas party was set for Dec. 13 in the home of Mrs. C. F. Hornfeld.

Argen Draper, county H. D. Agent, gave the program after business with Mrs. C. F. Burk presiding. Her topic was Holiday Dressings and she demonstrated a wild rice dressing for chicken.

Samples of white and brown wild rice were shown and Mrs. Draper explained that it is more expensive than cultivated rice because it must be gathered by hand. It is the seed of a grass which grows in shallow water. Recipes were given for several types of dressings.

Members present included Mmes. J. G. Fortenberry, John Hill, G. V. Hall, Wayne Sifford, C. T. Douglas, Jimmie D. Bradley and Homfeld.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Cookbook Tells Story

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A cookbook with an international air is a valued possession of Mrs. Roy Buechler, a souvenir of a unique festival held each summer in her home town, Red Lodge, Mont.

THE BUECHLER FAMILY (they pronounce the name Buecker) has lived in Hereford the past four years, residing now in Northwest Mobile Lodge. Buechler was one of the Holly Sugar Co. employees who came here when the firm first located in this county.

He helped in construction of the feeding pens which are a part of the Holly complex, and remained as an employee. He had previously worked for the firm in Hardin, Mont. and in Wisconsin.

Moves are to be expected by someone working for a company with 11 plants scattered over the West, so the Buechlers find a trailer a convenient place to live, Mrs. Buechler explains.

"IT ISN'T LIKE a real home but for sudden moves it's the best thing I know," she says with a glance over the spic-and-span interior of the family-sized trailer that houses the couple and their two children, Debra, 15 and Charles, 9 years old.

Frequent moves have become a way of life for the couple only in recent years. Both were residents of Red Lodge before their marriage. Mrs. Buechler, the former Agnes Menge, was born in the small town which is situated on a main highway leading to Yellowstone National Park, about 50 miles away.

Her parents are of German ancestry, as are many other residents of the Red Lodge area. Not only Germans, but Scotch, Italian, Finnish, English-Irish, Scandinavian and Yugoslavian nationalities are represented.

THE TOWN IS SUCH a melting-pot because it was settled by miners. Work in the mines brought various immigrant groups there in succession to mingling with the Anglo-Americans and a few of the original inhabitants of the region, Crow Indians.

This diversity of background gave rise to the annual Festival of Nations which attracted about 4,000 visitors from 44 states and 19 foreign countries last August, according to reports in the hometown paper which comes to the Buechler home.

It originated in 1951 when a small group of citizens who were interested in the many cultures represented by inhabitants, decided to hold a festival aimed at preserving their folklore, and also that of pioneer Montana.

THE THIRD WEEK is August festival date and practically everyone in town gives his time and money to revive old-country customs, foods, music, crafts and arts.

"This adventure in friendship has been kept non-profit with all entertainment free of charge," explains the foreword in the cookbook. "It is a festival in the true sense, since the participants... grandparents and grandchildren alike, are in it for one reason — enjoyment."

Art and craft displays are set up on downtown streets, says Mrs. Buechler, including rug weaving by Finnish residents who use looms brought from Finland.

COSTUMES AND flags of various nations are collected, many coming from relatives still living in the European homelands, and kept from year to year. Each night a program is given by residents of a different nationality, where the old songs and dances are kept alive and musical instruments not often seen in America are used.

At midweek, Montana Day is inserted, and the final program is an All-Nations event. Each schoolroom in town has a display from one country and on each day downtown cafes feature native foods of a certain country.

Agnes Buechler likes to recall not only the international background of her home town, but another type of background, its beautiful mountains. She misses them on the plains, and says the family always enjoys a return to the rugged country of Montana on vacations.

IT'S A WONDERFUL place to live in summer," she says, "but you have to like cold weather to enjoy it in winter!" Below-zero temperatures are expected all winter, a happy fact for ski enthusiasts. Nearby resorts attract many skiers, but Mrs. Buechler admits that she never cared for the sport.

"I was scared," she says simply, adding, "I saw too many persons hurt in ski accidents, but if I had the chance again I think I'd learn."

The Buechlers like to visit Palo Duro Canyon, finding its rugged cliffs and its depth a relief from flat land.

Mrs. Buechler has not tried many recipes in her festival cookbook, but it makes good reading even for one who does not intend to cook. Names of the recipes indicate its variety; in the section for pancakes, for instance, are listed kartoffel pfannkuchen, Irish pancakes, palacinke, potato cakes and sour-dough hotcakes.

NAMES OF THE cooks are as varied: Mrs. Sven Berg, Ann Haagenstad, Mrs. Kearney Ber-ven, Mrs. F. J. O'Connor, Mrs. Ted Schmitz, Chris Romersa, Alice Rodencal, Isla Klopchich, Lillian Lampi, Mrs. E. Waisanen.

There is a section on wild game cookery which prints in capital letters, COOK BEAR MEAT WELL DONE, and another section gives a group of Eskimo recipes from students of a school in Alaska.

For her own family, blue-eyed Agnes Buechler prefers to make doughnuts, using a recipe which she says is the first one she ever found to make excellent raised doughnuts. These live up to their name:

LIGHT-AS-A-FEATHER DOUGHNUTS
(Makes about 20)

¾ cup milk
¼ CUP SUGAR
1 tsp. salt
¼ cup (half a stick) margarine
¼ cup warm water
1 pkg. or cake yeast (active dry or compressed)
1 egg, beaten
¾ cups unsifted flour (about)
Scald milk, stir in sugar, salt and margarine and allow it to cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warmed mixing bowl. Sprinkle or crumble the yeast in and stir til dissolved.

Add lukewarm milk mixture, egg, and half the flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 10 minutes.

Place in a greased bowl, turning to grease all sides. Cover, let rise in a warm place free from drafts until double in bulk, about an hour. Punch dough down, roll out about a half-inch thick. Cut with a 2½-inch doughnut cutter.

Place on greased baking sheets, cover and let rise in warm place until double in size again, about an hour. Handle as little as possible to prevent falling. Fry in deep fat, 375 degrees, two or three minutes, or until brown on both sides. Drain on absorbent paper. While warm dip in glaze or cinnamon-sugar.

GLAZE
Blend together 2 cups sifted confectioners sugar, one-third C. milk and 1 tsp. vanilla. Dip warm doughnuts into glaze, drain on rack set over waxed paper to catch icing so it may be re-used.

CINNAMON-SUGAR
Combine ½ cup sugar and 2 tsp. cinnamon. Dip warm doughnuts into mixture.

Chop mild sweet onion and add to canned tomatoes; chill thoroughly and serve in sauce dishes. Pass the pepper grinder.

from the ear. One is filled but never satisfied, she says. The hopelessness is shown by her words, "I could not think of tomorrow when my stomach was not full today." This is the lot of the common man, who subsists and tries to carry on his farming and business — or the students, as she was.

The students, after a few in the classroom (and recent news of China tells of the lessening of these hours) are assigned to hard labor for the good of the party.

Of the party she says, one third accept, one third pretend to for show or benefits received, and the other third pretend just enough to save their skins.

Sansan's story offers the best insight into China of today, from a personal angle, that we have read. It holds your attention from first to last.

Today she is with her family and completing her college education, her life's dream. Her sister already has degrees and many honors and accomplishments.

FIRE DAMAGE AND PROBABLE CAUSE—Damage to Allied Millwrights, located west of the city, was estimated at more than $1,000 following a fire there Sunday morning. The blaze, which was contained to office spaces and the walls around that area, was believed to have started when cans of paint near a heater became too hot. Two units of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department answered the call and remained at the scene about 40 minutes. There also was much smoke damage.

Appreciation Services Honor Baptist Pastor

Appreciation services for the pastor of St. John Baptist Church, Rev. C. W. Allen, were completed Sunday afternoon with four area church representatives assisting in services.

Honoring Rev. Allen for ten years of ministry in the local church were Rev. Terry First Baptist Church of Littlefield; Rev. Gentry, Hopewell Baptist Church of Petersburg; Assistant Pastor Sims, Antioch Baptist Church, Dalhart; and Rev. Hall, Meditarians Baptist Church of Tullia.

The Sunday service was the climax of a four-day program in which the Hereford church was visited by ministers of area Baptist Churches on each night. Sponsors of the program was the Mission Society of St. John Baptist Church, of which Mrs. R. Clayton is president. The members of the church, as well as members of the Mission Society, expressed their appreciation of the guests and also for the use of the Wesley Methodist Church building, in which the services were held.

TO ARMS, GARDENERS
NEW DELHI —City gardeners went on strike in pressing a demand that they be provided with swords.

The strike was called after 25 gardeners were frightened by a five-foot snake while they were cleaning a public park. They claimed if they had been furnished the long curving swords used here to cut grass they could have "dispatched" the snake.

Interstate 40 goes south of Adrian, there will be an overpass at each end of town and only a side road leading into Adrian; no turn off of the Expressway in the center of Adrian.

Our community consists of around 300 people (counting some dogs and cats) and several of these people depend on or own the businesses along the highway. Several people work at these places as a second income and some depend on that income alone. Some kids work after school.

We are 50 miles west of Amarillo and 21 miles east of the New Mexico border. Several families who have their homes here and have lived here for 50 years, are well established in business, have raised their families here, and have children in school or in college. What will become of them? Will this hurt our schools?

When the highway goes around and the business close down, people move to other towns. That takes children out of our school and then will we have to consolidate?

The cities are crowded already. The government is trying to keep the people from moving to towns. The state is trying to consolidate the rural schools. Well, the people move to wherever their children go to school.

They tell me that's progress. But is it progress to put so many people out of jobs. This is just one small town, just look at all the other towns with these same problems.

Who is responsible for this — our President? He is from Texas but surely he wouldn't do this to his fellow Texan. Would He? Who is responsible then? The president of transportation? What progress would he gain to route the highway around the small towns.

The main question here is "Who will be the first one to close up?" They won't let you build on Interstate 40. Oh, you can build on it, but there won't be any roads leading off, except at the end of town.

So do we move out now, or stay here and struggle until we go broke, or starve to death? Where can we go? Maybe we can all sit home and draw our unemployment. Who will pay this unemployment? Our employers, who will be in worse shape than the employee?

Do you suppose someone will come to Adrian and build a factory, to employ all that will be unemployed in a couple of years. Or will they guarantee us an unemployment check every week. We can wait for Social Security, or Old Age Pension and most of us are too young for Medicare or Retirement Benefits. Maybe they will come up with some new kind of care for us.

Some of the people here think the tourists will take the side road into Adrian and our business will still be good. But most of us know they won't, and Adrian is fast becoming a Ghost Town.

Business has been good here for the past 20 years. The tourists business is really good here during the summer months and the business people here save their summer earnings to get them through the winter months.

Take Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Loveless, owner and operator of the Loveless Oil Company, owner of the Adrian Courts, leasee and operator of Tommy's Cafe, and leasee of the Phillips 66 Service Station (it is now leased out to John Horton), and owner of a garage (rented to Jim Rupe).

The Loveless have been in business for more than 30 years. Their sons, Tommy and Larry, are in the vending business, having machines in Glenrio, Vega, Adrian and Wildorado. They all agree that in time it will hurt all of their businesses. The Loveless are also in the whole sale gas and butane business. They deliver to three service stations that sit on Route 66.

They deliver butane to most of the businesses and local residents here. They depend a lot on the farmers in this area, but can't manage on the farmers alone.

Then there are Jess Fincher and W. C. Edmonds, business partners for nearly 20 years, they have a new cafe and Humble Station in Adrian and a cafe in Wildorado which was built this year. They feel the highway going south of us won't hurt their business. They think the tourists will take the side road and come into Adrian.

Don Morgan, who owns and operates two service stations on Route 66 now, has been in business for 20 years. He feels that if he can survive the first three or four years that his business will be alright. Don has closed down one cafe this year due to lack of business. His wife, Alice who operates a beauty shop near their home, feels different.

Carroll Gruhke has the Texico Station rented now for 17 years and he feels he should pack his bag and move out now.

Most of the people who are employed in these business feel we should move on. But where?

Adrian Residents Worry About Coming Of I-40

By ANN BEAVERS

The new Interstate 40-lane Highway will be going around our small country town of Adrian in about a year or so from now.

The big machines have been out there now for several months working like a bunch of red ants making their beds. We always smile or laugh a little when we know some of the machines are broke down and there will be some delay. But soon they are working again.

Some of our local men are working on the road. It pays good money and some of our single guys are talking about moving on with the road crew when they finish here.

But what will happen to the people here in Adrian, when the highway men are gone and with them goes our tourist business. Adrian consists of two cafes, five service stations and one motel. All of these business are setting on U. S. 66.

After Interstate 40 goes south of Adrian, there will be an overpass at each end of town and only a side road leading into Adrian; no turn off of the Expressway in the center of Adrian.

Park, 25 Mile Ave. Scene Of Collision

The intersection of Park Avenue and 25 Mile Avenue was the scene of a collision Saturday which resulted in a total of $350 damages and two citations. A 1959 Ford convertible, driven by Celestino Esquivel of the Labor Camp received $150 damages and a 1966 Chrysler driven by Mabel Faulkner Wilson of 218 N. Texas received $200 damage in the collision, which occurred at 2 p. m.

Both vehicles were traveling on 25 Mile Avenue, going through the intersection on a green light, and the accident occurred when one car attempted a left turn onto Park Avenue into the path of the other car. The vehicles were traveling in opposing directions.

Citations issued in the collision included one for not possessing a valid driver license and one for failure to yield right of way.

In its first three games, Wyoming's football team made 45 first-downs to 41 for the opposition.

VETERANS DAY EVENTS — Photographs depict some of the events which transpired last Saturday as local and area residents observed Veterans Day. In the top picture, Earl Drager becomes the first Vietnam veteran to join the local American Legion Post. The Gold Star mothers, a portion of them shown in the middle photo, were honored during the program, and the bottom photo was taken at the annual breakfast.

Senator Tower Speaks

Senator Talks With Teens About World Situation

We hear a great deal about youngsters gone wrong these days. There is concern about drastic increases in the rate of crime by teenagers. Just a few weeks ago we had a bunch of ill-clad, ill-groomed and ill-mannered Hippies dacing around the Washington Monument right here in the nation's capital.

Nevertheless, we are quite often reminded that such youngsters are not representative of American young men and young women. And that certainly is correct where young Texans are concerned.

Two such Texans are visiting me today as a part of the American Legion's "Top Teens program."

The first is Alan Keyes of San Antonio. "Alan, it's a pleasure to have you here."

Keyes — "Thank you." The other is Richard Clardy of Odessa. "Welcome to Washington, Dick."

Clardy — "Thank you." I also have with me today Ray Larsen of Northbrook, Illinois, who is the American Legion Baseball Player of the Year. "Ray, glad to have you."

Larsen — "Thank you." Tower — Alan Keyes is the American Legion Boys' Nation President and its National Oratorical Champion. As a Legionnaire myself, I'm very proud that a Texan has achieved those honors. He is the son of U. S. Army Sergeant-Major Allison Keyes who is serving in Vietnam. "Alan, I think the Texans listening would be interested in your views on Southeast Asia."

Keyes — "Well, it all depends on what aspect."

Tower — "Well, what do you think of our effort over there. Do you think we are doing the right thing in opposing communism?"

Keyes — "In opposing communism, I think we definitely are taking a correct step in doing that. It all depends upon the means whereby we are doing it. I might have, on occasion, a dispute with that in particular phases and areas of it. For instance, for the particular effort in Vietnam and all over the world, I think, in a lot of cases, I think we are allowing the communists to pick their time and place of battle and then we allow ourselves to utilize this time and place whether it's to our advantage or not. I believe we have done that in Vietnam and I believe it has been a mistake there in this particular case. However, now that we are there and are fighting, I believe we should do all we honorably can to seek a just and lasting peace there, but I feel that since we are there fighting, we have to stay there until we do find an honorable settlement."

Tower — "Alan, I think that's a very perceptive comment and one that would do credit to a lot of informed adults on this matter. Certainly, I would wish your words could be repeated on the floor of the United States Senate for the benefit of some of my colleagues sometime. I'll be going to Vietnam again in a few days and I hope I see your dad over there."

Tower — Dick Clardy is the son of Mrs. Dortha M. Clardy. He's the representative here today of more than 4,000 Boy Scout troops which are sponsored by American Legion Posts all over the nation. "Dick, I understand the Scouting program has been considerably modernized and changed since the time when I was a Boy Scout almost 30 years ago. So maybe you'd like to tell us some of the things the Scouts are doing these days, and what's going on in Scouting."

Clardy — "Well, this past summer I was privileged to attend the Twelfth National World Jamboree in Idaho. And, of course, we saw Scouts from all over the world and these boys were actually the "cream of the crop" in the world. I think the Scouting program nowadays is utilizing every effort to make each boy an opportunity to attain his goals. Of course, the effort is trying to be modernized but I think the original thing that it was started for is still being used, the outdoor adventure camping."

Tower — "Well, that's good. I'm delighted to hear that report on scouting." Ray Larsen of Illinois is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Larsen, Ray is the American Legion top teenaged baseball player. "Ray, what are some of the things you all have been doing in Washington?"

Larsen — "Well, briefly, we arrived here on Sunday night and yesterday we had the opportunity to meet J. Edgar Hoover and view the FBI and took a tour. We met with Senator Yarborough, your colleague from Texas, and met with Senator Dirksen and today are meeting with you. We'll be on TV this afternoon."

Tower — "Well, that's good. I hope you're enjoying your visit to the nation's Capitol. Thank you boys for being here today."

SAUSAGE EATERS — Some of the biggest eaters of the 2,500 persons who attended the 15th annual Umbarger Sausage Festival were, naturally, children. For the most part, they dug right into the delicious food. But a few, were interested in their surroundings and one even noticed the cameraman before he snapped her picture. ## Anthony's Chain Begun In 1911

The story of the C. R. Anthony Company is in effect the story of a free America. It is the story of that man, Charles Ross Anthony, a Tennessee farm boy who was orphaned at 13 and had to set out to make his own way.

Mrs. Tollett Is West Hereford Club Hostess

Quick preparation of a main dish for a holiday meal was demonstrated for West Hereford Home Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon by Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent. The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Jim Tollett, 701 25 Mile Avenue.

Mrs. Draper made a dressing for canned chicken, using wild rice and a canned celery soup. Also on program was Miss Mary Brady, whose subject was Wise Buying.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. John Jacobsen 643 West Second, on Nov. 21.

Mrs. Jacobsen received the hostess gift. Others present were Mes. Carl Schroeder, Blanche Hardin, Bell Grimes, Alice Brady, Lola Monasco, Carlos Vaughn and Miss Evelyn Bell.

Anthony's parents were Tennessee tenant farmers. When he was but seven years old, he was chopping and picking cotton. At 13, orphaned, he was grubbing sassafras and splitting rails to earn money. When he finally accumulated $24 he rode the Home Seekers Special to Indian Territory (what is now Holdenville, Okla.) arriving there with a nickel in his home-spun jeans.

He needed a job and applied at a general store owned and operated by a widow, Anthony, a natural born salesman, sold himself to her and it was there he apprenticed in the merchantile business.

When the widow decided to sell the business, she wanted him to buy it. With a little cash and a $8,000.00 bank loan C. R. Anthony, at 18, was in business for himself. The first year he cleared his indebtedness, but the next year the floods came and he was nearly wiped out when he granted credit until the financial strain was too great. He didn't go bankrupt, but barely got out with his shirt.

Through the years he tried various jobs, but was determined to someday return to the merchantile business.

It was 46 years ago this year that this goal was realized and the first C. R. Anthony store was opened in Cushing, Okla. This was the beginning of what is now a chain of 302 stores located in 21 states and employing more than 3400 people.

The principles upon which C. R. Anthony established all of these stores was to give everyday thrifty prices, dependable high quality, fashions newest styles and friendly courteous service to all customers.

To pay tribute to this man who has spent his life time building and helping others, the entire Anthony chain decided the best way would be to have a special Founder's Day Sell-ation based upon the principles that are so strongly adhered to by C. R. Anthony.

And so beginning at 6 p. m. today (Thursday), we invite all of you to visit our store, have a cup of coffee and join us in honoring our founder and the 46th anniversary of the C. R. Anthony Company.

Familiar Songs Make Program

Familiar songs of thanksgiving and patriotism made up the program for Dawn Music Club at its meeting Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. E. Curtsinger. Mrs. Roy Manning was co-hostess.

In a brief business period with Mrs. William Wimberley presiding, members voted to send contributions to the Christmas gift shop at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Amarillo.

A donation was voted to a student award fund of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, which will result in the club name being placed on the Pioneer Club Roll. Mrs. Pat Miller was elected historian to fill an office vacancy.

Opening the program, the group sang Thanksgiving Hymn, chosen Hymn of the Month by the National Federation of Music Clubs. Mrs. Edgar Sowell gave current music news in her talk, A Note From the Musical World. Mrs. Edgar Lemons read the once-popular poem, Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers by Felicia Hemens.

Mrs. William Wimberley played This Our Song of Praise (Stickers) as a piano solo and accompanied vocal selections, Prayer of Thanks, a duet by Mrs. Carl Wimberley and Mrs. Clarence Betzen, and Battle Cry of Freedom by Mrs. Walter Lemons and Mrs. Curtsinger.

Another piano solo, Battle Hymn of the Republic, was played by Mrs. Ted Wimberley. Several well-known songs including America were sung by the group with Mrs. Curtsinger as accompanist.
