Famed Museum To Stop In Hereford

The Chisholm Trail Centennial Museum, constructed to mark the 100th anniversary of the famed Chisholm Trail, will be in Hereford from 10 a. m. until 7 p. m. on Dec. 16.

Tentative plans call for the specially-built train car to be parked somewhere in the vicinity of the Santa Fe Depot, said G. T. Slaughter, supervisor of the Santa Fe Freight office.

Serving as hosts for the museum visit will be members of the Deaf Smith County Historical Survey Committee and the Junior Historical Society. The sleek, sand beige Chisholm Trail Museum, uniquely housed in a railway car, is sponsored by the Tri-State Chisholm Trail Central Commission in cooperation with the Santa Fe Railroad.

Roger Conger, chairman of the Texas Chisholm Trail Centennial Commission and member of the Tri-State Commission, explained that his commission approached the railroad with the idea of a mobile museum housed in a rail car.

Plains were drawn up for the conversion of the car and workmen in the Santa Fe rail yard in Topeka, Kan., swiftly and skillfully outfitted the unit. The spacious car was stripped and display cases, special lighting and sound equipment and air-conditioning were installed, said Conger.

Parents are urged to bring their children to see this segment of our western heritage which had such a tremendous impact on shaping our society, forging the economic future of the southwest and was a way of life to many for more than 20 years.

Housed in the 60-foot car are exhibits of selected items from private and museum collections which vividly interpret the story of the Chisholm Trail. The Brand will carry more stories of the museum and Ray Reynolds of Hereford will attempt to depict cowboy life on the trail through a series of drawings.

Sales Tax Is Discussed, Commissioners Will Decide

Members of the Hereford City Commission, after pondering the one cent sales tax briefly Monday night, decided to give the matter more thought and act on it at the next meeting.

Ernest Langley, attorney for the city, pointed out that an election on the tax could not be held until 30 days after an ordinance is passed calling the election. It would be next fall before the commission would receive any money from the tax if it were passed by voters, and the collection would be for less than half the year.

Commissioners agreed that if they call for an election on the tax, the voter should be fully informed on the matter before the voting day. The commission meets again Dec. 18.

A large tract of land in the northwest part of the city was annexed by a unanimous vote of commissioners. N. D. Bartlett and Dub Hair had petitioned that the city annex the land, which is in the vicinity of 15th Street and La Plata Junior High School.

Brought into the city as a Zone "C" were all of lots 1 through 17 in Block No. 1 of the North Heights Addition; all of lots 1 through 34 in Block No. 2 and all of lots 1 through 17 in Block No. 3 of the North Heights Addition as "A" Zone. The Zoning Board had earlier approved the annexation.

Commissioners rejected a bid of $2,510 from Joe Kerr on property owned by the city on New York Street. Bids had been called for on all of Lots 9-14 in Block 30 of the Whitehead Addition.

Rejection of the bid came after it was pointed out that there is a six-inch well and a frame stucco residence on the property, with 150-foot frontage on New York Street and 150-foot frontage on the Santa Fe Railway. Two real estate agents had appraised the property at $22,500 and $22,000.

The City Commission will meet Tuesday with school board members and the County Commission to discuss entering into a contract with a tax consultant. The three agencies are considering hiring the firm of McMorries and Associates again.

Approved by commissioners was a Subdivision Ordinance which will deal with developers of property.

City Manager Dudley Bayne presented to the commission a traffic survey made last Saturday at the intersection of Sampson and Third streets. Commissioners had requested the survey to see if there is a necessity for traffic lights there.

The survey, taken between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., showed a total traffic count of 3,875, an average of 368 cars an hour. Total traffic on Third Street was 2,196 vehicles and total traffic on Sampson was 1,479. Commissioners agreed to study the survey further before taking action concerning lights at the intersection.

Bayne also pointed out that there probably is an equal amount of traffic at the intersection of Miles and Fourth streets.

Absentee Voting Deadline Set In Bond Issue

No absentee ballots have been received at the County Clerk's office and only two requests have been received for the ballots in the forthcoming hospital bond issue, according to B. F. Cain, county clerk.

Tuesday at 5 p. m. has been set as the deadline for the absentee balloting, Cain said. The actual election will be held on Saturday, Dec. 16.

The issue is being held to raise $130,000 for improvements to and new equipment for Deaf Smith County Hospital and was called after a petition circulated for the purpose raised the names of well over ten percent of the county's qualified voters.

City Leads In Musical Phones

Eighteen months ago the musical "sound of the future" was introduced in Hereford. Since then, Hereford's development of the Touchtone phones has reached 20 per cent highest in the Southwestern Bell, according to Telephone Times Company magazine.

Dallas and Fort Worth also received Touchtone dialing on a limited basis.

Agencies Get Assignments On Long Pollution Survey

Seven state and national agencies received their assignments Monday morning at City Hall in Hereford as the final preparatory step before a complete study begins into the causes of pollution at Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge.

Representatives of the agencies participating in the survey, as well as numerous other interested persons, were present for a 16-page work plan at the art of the meeting by Joe Teller, Austin deputy director of the Texas Water Quality Control Board, the coordinating agency for the study.

Agencies receiving assignments include the TWQCB, Texas State Department of Health, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Texas Water Development Board, Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, United States Public Health Service and the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

Teller pointed out in starting the meeting Tuesday that more persons have been made available to work on the survey so more sampling spots will be chosen than the five which were listed in the work plan.

The five sampling spots included one immediately above Buffalo Lake, one on the Tierra Blanca Creek above the confluence with Frio Creek, another on Tierra Blanca Creek above Hereford, another on Frio Creek above confluence but below the cattle feed lots, and above Friona. There will be other sampling spots, added Teller, and will be included on a revised work plan which will be mailed to interested persons in about two weeks.

As pointed out by Teller, the work plan calls for "collecting water samples from Buffalo Lake and Tierra Blanca Creek monthly for a year" beginning in January. Sometime during the area's rainy season — May through August — a mobile laboratory will be stationed at Buffalo Lake and the sampling party take tests two to three days per week.

"The samples will be collected during periods of surface runoff or as soon thereafter as possible," the plan states. "In the event no rain occurs during a month period, the samples run will be made on the last Monday of the month."

Teller stated that tests on water samples taken from the lake will be run at the mobile laboratory when it is at the lake, or at the Amarillo Health Unit Laboratory and may be flown to either Austin or Ada, Okla., to the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration station there. The Ada office is furnishing the mobile laboratory.

Emphasized by Teller was the fact that samplings will be done individually "and enough times so that we get an answer." He stressed, as did Sam Wolforth, a member of the Texas Water Quality Board, that no unreasonable requests will be made of persons involved in the survey because the law will not allow an unreasonable request.

The TWQCB will take all the data when the survey is complete, do an evaluation, make a final report and take the necessary steps on water quality control.

Building permits issued during a month of November for construction in Hereford totaled 206,080, bringing the total for the year near the $3 million mark.

Of the 20 permits last month City Hall 19 of them were for residential construction totaling $99,580. Included in the 19 were 12 permits for $22,000 each for "4-plex" residences in the Northridge Addition.

For the first 11 months of 1967, building permits in the city have totaled $2,847,830. During the same period in 1966, permits totaled $2,410,250.

The building record in Hereford came in 1965 when $5,313,110 in permits was issued. The figure had been $1,700,000 in 1962, rose to $4,397,730 in 1963, and on up to $4,498,600 in 1964.

Last month's total also included permits for six new homes other than the 4-plexes. There were two $16,000 permits for homes, one $23,500 and another for $25,000.

Dr. Hicks Named To "Who's Who"

Dr. Clarence F. Hicks, heart specialist at Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic, has been notified that his biography will appear in the 900-page volume for "Who's Who in Texas Today," which will be published this month.

His name and biography will appear with those of approximately 15,000 other prominent Texans in the book.

Hicks, who resides at 105 Douglas with his wife, Agnes, and three children, was born in Oak Hill, West Va., received his high school education and graduated at South Charleston. He served in the Army Air Force from 1943 until 1945, afterwards attending West Virginia University, where he received both his AB and BS degrees.

Graduating from Medical College of Virginia in 1951, Hicks served his internship and first year medical residency at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. A second year of residency was gained at Mercy Hospital in Denver, and a year of cardiology training was obtained at Colorado General Hospital in Denver.

After having practiced three years in Middleboro, Ky., Hicks came to Hereford in 1958. The same year he passed the American Board of Internal Medicine. Currently president of the Tierra Blanca Medical Society, Hicks married the former Agnes Hunt of Gretna, Va. The couple's three children are David, 15, a sophomore at Hereford High School; David, 13, an 8th grader at La Plata Junior High; and Gary, 12, who is a 7th grader at La Plata.

Hicks' biography will be published along with that of another Hereford man, Ben Gollebo, who was also notified of the honor. Recently, Gollebo has been named director at Hereford High School for the past 5 years, and under his direction the band has won numerous sweepstakes awards, culminating recently by being named Honor Band of the State.

Firemen's Fete Will Be Saturday

The Hereford Volunteer Fire Department will honor firemen's wives as well as "City Fathers" on Saturday night when the group holds its annual Firemen's Banquet.

The banquet will begin at the Caisson House, from 7:30 to 8:30, when the group meets for dinner. Moving to the Knights of Columbus Hall afterwards, the group will continue the event by holding a dance there which will continue until 1 a. m.

Honoring the wives of firemen at an annual party during the Christmas season began a number of years back when light telephones in firemen's homes were connected with a central phone at the fire department.

The wives answered the home phones, sometimes during the night, each calling in turn two other firemen's residences. The chain of events generated enough men to answer fire calls in just a short time.

With the addition of modern radio equipment this is no longer necessary, but the tradition of honoring the wives has remained. Funds for the event are saved throughout the year by the volunteer fire department.

City commissioners, their wives, and the mayor and his wife are also honored at this time, and will be the department's guests at the affair.

And even during the banquet, according to J. R. (Jap) Dickerson, fire chief, all the firemen will still be on call and in radio contact with the fire department.

Three Hereford Whitefaces Named To All-District Team

Three members of this season's Hereford Whiteface football team have earned positions on the All-District team, with four more local players missing the star-studded squad by one vote.

Named to the District I-AAA squad are seniors Tony Malouf, Johnny Cornelius and Bobby Burwick. Just missing a spot on the All-District team was Lenzy Petree, Jim Childers, Karl French and Randy Kriegshauser — all seniors.

Malouf, a 194-pound fullback-linebacker, has now been named to the All-District team each year he played at HHS. In 1965-66, he was placed on the defensive squad as a guard; in 1966-67, he made the defensive team as a linebacker, and repeated in that spot this year.

This season, Malouf led the Whiteface attack as he was credited with 157 defensive efforts, including 14 unassisted tackles, 132 tackles and assists, one fumble recovery and 10 pass defensive saves. On offense, Malouf picked up 169 yards on 75 carries and was an excellent blocker.

Cornelius, who began to play only on offense during the latter part of the past season, was credited with 53 defensive plays. The 200-pounder, however, was most valuable at offensive tackle as he led the way for many big gains by Whiteface backs.

Burwick, who joined the varsity after becoming eligible at midseason, led the team in rushing with 453 yards on 75 carries, connected on three of seven passes for 29 yards and two touchdowns, and had numerous defensive credits at his

Numerous Awards Given At Banquet, Carr Speaks On National Problems

The largest number of persons ever to attend a Tierra Blanca District Awards Banquet heard former Attorney General Waggoner Carr Tuesday night urge them to become a part of a new movement which will soon sweep the country.

In his recent travels over the state, Carr explained to those present, he has seen and heard a "thunderous reaction" developing in the average American which is going to drown out the sounds of the Stokely Carmichaels and the Hap Browns.

Carr's talk climaxed the banquet, which was held in the Hereford High School Cafeteria and attended by approximately 100 Scouting leaders and friends of the scout.

As explained by Ed Skypala, district chairman of the Tierra Blanca District of the Boy Scouts of America who served as master of ceremonies, the purpose of the banquet was "to honor the adult leaders who take time to work with scouting."

First to be recognized were the four scouts who have earned Eagle Awards this year. Nolan

Grady, advancement chairman presented pins to Randy Corlis, Carl Brown, Jimmy Dickerson and David Collins.

"Breakthrough Streamers"

which go to groups having completed 75 per cent of their goals, went to Pack 16 and Troop 16 of Vega; Pack 32 and Troop 32 of Adrian; Pack 56 and Troop 56 of Friona, and Pack 50, Pack 51, Pack 151, Pack 153, Troop 52, Troop 55 and Troop 154, all of Hereford. Bill Phillips, new assistant district commissioner, presented the award.

Certificates of Appreciation were presented to the past year's officers — Phillips, Grady, Oliver Streu and Charles Bell. Skypala presented the certificates.

The City of Adrian was presented the Traveling Award after a count revealed that residents from there had traveled more miles to attend the banquet. The award was made after officers multiplied the number of persons from a city by the miles traveled.

Training Awards, presented by Streu, who is Leadership and Training Chairman, went to Kate Bradley of Pack 32 in Adrian; Carolyn Slutz of Pack 16 in Vega; Treva Hester of Pack 151 in Hereford; Mrs. Fred Mueller of Pack 50 in Hereford; Marilyn Craig of Pack 51, Hereford; Earlene Hamby and Barbara Pittard of Pack 151, Hereford. ## Chamber Group Begins Cleanup

Plans were announced Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce Beautification Committee year-end meeting for an intensive two-week yard clean-up campaign to begin immediately.

City residents are urged to rake and pick up both front and back yards and to stack litter in the alley where special city trucks will pick it up.

The city truck will haul away bundled or boxed litter that is in the alley and off property lines at the end of the two-week campaign. This measure has been substituted for a massive clean-up campaign as has been held in past years in an effort to keep the city clean, neat, and attractive.

Also suggested during the noon Country Club meeting was the decoration of residential outdoor lamp posts with seasonal greenery in an effort to give the city a special Christmas glow.

Next season, according to a motion made by a committee member, a campaign will be held to encourage the decoration of yard lights, naming a certain day as the starting date for decoration.

Other business discussed during the meeting was the beautification of several triangularly shaped city parks and property during the coming year and the completion of the "windmill park" west of the Santa Fe De- See CHAMBER, Page 2

Petree, at his end position, led the Whitefaces in scoring with 48 points and in pass receiving with 13 receptions for 290 yards and eight touchdowns.

French had 71 defensive saves at his linebacker spot on defense, picked up 261 yards rushing on 46 carries as fullback and caught eight passes for another 135 yards.

Entertainment for the banquet was provided by the Mays brothers, who did comedy monologue.

John O. Colquitt Jr. of Dalhart, council president, installed the new officers. They are Skypala, district chairman; Harlan Vander Zee, vice district chairman; Melvin Jayroe, district commissioner; Phillips, assistant district commissioner; Streu, leadership and training; Grady, advancement; Dr. Eugene Hendon, health and safety, and Bell, finance.

Grady also presented Skypala with appreciation rewards for his efforts during the past year.

Dr. Milton Adams, a longtime friend of Waggoner Carr, introduced the featured speaker. Carr quickly had the audience laughing as he made comments about several friends he has in Hereford who were in attendance.

Carr then began to discuss some of the things currently happening and the path the country is taking. He listed 26 major riots last summer, "murders being committed where it seems to be convenient," and "hate being instilled in people which time will never be able to erase. And the nation's leaders are predicting more to come," emphasized Carr.

It was pointed out by Carr that these riots were not race riots because not all the people involved were Negroes, not all were poor people and not all were young.

Carr described the events as a "breakdown in law and order which will eventually ruin the nation unless Americans turn the tide."

It had disturbed Carr that National Guardsmen weren't allowed to fight back during riots, and then "I saw an argument between the President and governor of a state about who had played politics in sending troops to the scene."

"The only way to stop crime in this country is to get tough," Carr said emphatically. "Shoot if you have to and shoot to kill. You have to protect the integrity of this country."

Continuing, Carr said "You don't get too big for the law or too little for law and when you begin to play favorites in law enforcement, you're tearing the insides out of America."

Mentioning draft card burners sit-ins, love-ins, Hap Brown, Stokely Carmichael and others, Carr stated "Some of my fellow Americans are sick. Cassius Clay would fight for money but he would not fight for his country."

Carr said he did not know the answer to the Vietnam war, but "one answer in the fight for freedom and battle against Communism is not to tuck tail and run."

"The people are disturbed," 48 defensive saves at his guard post, including one interception for a touchdown.

Childers, who was plagued by an injured leg during the latter part of the season, completed five of 12 passes for 84 yards and one touchdown from his quarterback position. Childers also had 57 defensive saves at his safety position.

The All-District team was chosen by coaches soon after the season was completed last month, but withheld until Dumas, the conference champion, had completed its season. The Demons lost to Brownwood in the state quarterfinals last Saturday. A complete listing of the All-District team will be in Sunday's Brand.

The Whitefaces won six of their games and finished third in conference play.

Car, Utility Pole Collide

The intersection of Long and 15th Streets was the scene of a 6:19 p. m. collision Tuesday in which $100 damage was done to the auto involved and no damage at all was sustained by the other object involved.

The auto, a 1967 Chevrolet driven by Robert Allen Treadway of 235 Ave. E., struck a telephone pole. The car was traveling east on 15th when the accident occurred. The left front bumper of the auto was damaged.

A citation for failure to control speed was issued in the incident.

LONG DRESSES AGAIN

TORONTO — A Toronto designer who specializes in little girls' fashions says long gowns for flower girls are suddenly in demand for weddings.

"It's a trend toward more elegance in dressing up for special occasions this Centennial Year," said Ellen Henderson. Mrs. Henderson exports her high-style children's wear to New York, Philadelphia, Boston and London.

he continued, and it reminded him of a small rhyme. "When in danger, when in doubt, wave your arms, run and shout. That's the way we are today. We're looking for the David to kill Goliath. We yearn for a leader who knows all the answers."

"There is no such human man. We still cry out for a Messiah, a human Messiah. We still dream of a heaven on earth. There never will be. You have to die to go to heaven. When God created earth, he created built-in problems. Dreaming won't get rid of them."

Carr told the crowd that "we must at least remain a little philosophical; keep a strong heart. As my teenage son says, 'Keep your cool.' You must keep faith in yourself and the fellow next to you. If we lose faith in each other, we'll scatter in 200 million different ways."

The people determine how much crime there will be by how much importance they put on law enforcement. "The situation is turning," concluded Carr. "I'm going to be a part of the new movement. You can be a part of it."

Carr made no mention of his political future in the speech, but indicated in conversations that he has been considering the office of Governor and should have his mind made up by next month.

Marsh Pitman Announced As Winner Of Essay Contest

Marsh Pitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Pitman, won top honors in the VFW, "Voice of Democracy" essay contest and was presented with a trophy and a $25 savings bond at the awards banquet Monday night at the Caison House.

Winning second place in the contest was Gayle Thompson, while Janene Suttle was chosen third place winner. Wayne Driskill, Commander of the local VFW post, presented the awards.

The three winning essays were chosen from 12 semi-finalists selections by the speech department at West Texas State University. The 12 essays were taped by radio station KPAN, and sent to WT for judging.

The three essays will be run in Sundays Brands. The tape of Pitman's essays will now be forwarded to Plainview, to be judged in District competition at Wayland College. Pitman will compete against essays from Plainview, Tulla, Floydada and other Panhandle towns.

If he wins in Plainview, Pitman's taped essay will be sent to the state contest in Stephenville, in January. The top state winner will win a trip to Washington D. C., for five days, where his taped essay will be judged on the national level.

Also at Monday's banquet, Mrs. Bill Thompson was presented with a gift for her help in the contest. Mrs. Thompson, English teacher at Hereford High School, judged the 30 essays entered in the contest on the local level.

Radio Station KPAN and the Hereford Brand were presented certificates of appreciation for the help they gave in publicizing the recent contest.

The 12 semi-finalists were presented with Voice of Democracy emblems. Ed Skypala was the Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

Chamber . . .

The beautification committee agreed to assume beautification responsibility for this park and requested funds from the Chamber of Commerce to be used in buying bulbs, greenery, etc. with members of the committee to do the work.

Tentatively suggesting "non-residential" as a term to be used, members motioned that the commercial beauty spot of the city category be broadened to include churches and other organizations which would not have fitted the commercial description.

Unanimously accepted also was a recommendation to express the committee's appreciation to the Beauty Spot Selection Committee.

Still stymied in its efforts to beautify Hiway 60, through Hereford, the committee made several suggestions as a means of camouflaging a wrecking yard and other businesses along that route. While nothing was definitely decided, the matter will be resumed at meetings held next year.

Motions were made and seconded to congratulate and express appreciation to the Hereford Garden Club, Bud to Blossom Club, Junior Garden Club and the Hereford Art Guild for their successful flower and art show held the past weekend at Sugarland Mall.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Milton Adams, chairman; Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Thompson; Mrs. Jack Renfro; Mrs. W. R. Hromas; Mrs. L. P. Orleans and Mrs. Tom Carter.

tens the continued use of this lake for water contact sports.

"The water quality problems in the lake have been attributed to the combined effects of feed-lot runoff, waste water from vegetable packing establishments, and municipal sewage treatment plant effluents."

"This conclusion has been questioned and the possible contribution of pollutants from other sources raised. Specifically raised were possible contribution by runoff from pasture and cultivated lands, and the contributions by waterfowl present on the lake."

Also brought out in the work plan is the fact that tests will be made monthly at six sampling stations on the lake itself to determine the extent of pollution done by waterfowls, runoffs into the lake, of algae in the lake.

The work plan also answered its own question "What pollution control measures will be required of the various pollution sources?" "During the course of the study of Buffalo Lake, an evaluation of the magnitude and character of the waste load from each source will be undertaken. Following the evaluation of the survey data and the evaluation of the pollution control facilities at each waste source, this decision will be made by the Texas Water Quality Board."

Band Parents Will Foot Bill For Austin Trip

A band parents meeting held Tuesday night brought forth resolutions that individual expenses of band students making the trip to Austin in February for a concert there be paid by the student's parents.

The four-day trip to and from Austin, as well as sleeping accommodations will cost around $4,000 for the entire band. The school board will pay $2,000 of that total. Individual expenses will be in excess of $25 each. Food and other expenses are not covered in that amount.

The group also decided to allow publication in First Chair of America, a volume similar to

Deadline Nears On Messages To Servicemen

Christmas messages being sent to a close friend or relative in the military in another country have only until Dec. 18 to be sent.

Anyone wishing to send a message should do so right away, as it takes days to locate the person who is to receive the message, announced, Bill Thompson, official of the MARS (Military Affiliate Radio System).

Thompson, who is assistant state director for training in the Texas Army MARS Program, says that there is no charge for sending the message, which should be limited to the greeting type. Persons wishing to send messages may contact Thompson at his home, 364-2259, or at the Chamber of Commerce office 364-3333.

Caprock Pelts Local Cagers

Hereford's Whitefaces dropped their seventh game of the season Tuesday night, losing to Caprock of Amarillo, 45-42. Caprock also beat the local "B" team cagers, 59-53.

Their record is now 1-6 for the season. Bobby Burwick, a name now quite familiar to local sports fans, again came out in the high point position, scoring 16 points.

Jim Rakestraw was high point man in the "B" team game, scoring 17 points. The "B" teamers now have a 2-5 season tally.

Local Residents Aid Boys Ranch

Will Harris of Summerfield, the "Mayor of Goathead Prairie," has continued a tradition that he started when Boys Ranch began by being the first this year to donate $25 to the Boys Ranch Christmas Suit Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Newson, all of Hereford, also are among the first this year to contribute $25 for a new suit for a boy.

The goal of the Christmas Suit Fund is to help brighten Christmas for each of the 348 young men at the Ranch by providing each one of them with a new suit of clothing. Those boys who need a combination of clothing or a dress coat and slacks worse than they need a suit are allowed to choose a combination of a coat, a shirt, and a pair of slacks.

These new suits really make a Christmas a memorable occasion for the boys at Boys Ranch. For many of the younger Ranchers, these will be the first suits they have ever owned and will be long remembered. For many of the older Ranchers, the suits will replace worn ones that were outgrown months ago.

Ranch President, Virgil Patterson, stated, "These suits mean so much to our boys

Of course, the boys are happy to receive a gift, but the suits mean more than ordinary gifts. They are important because they show our boys that there are people all over the Panhandle who are interested in them.

Contributions of $25 for a suit may be mailed to the Boys Ranch Christmas Suit Fund, Boys Ranch Office, Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, or brought to the Ranch Office at 600 West 11th Street, Amarillo.

Bravo President Offers Debt Plan

Puzant Torigan, president of Bravo Smokes Inc. and Bravo Uvalde Corp., submitted a payment plan Monday in which unsecured creditors of the firms will receive 25 cents on the dollar within the next four years.

The action Monday in Amarillo was the latest in the bankruptcy proceedings involving the tobaccoless cigarette firm and Torigan Federal Bankruptcy Referee Frank Murray of Lubbock received the plan from Torigan, who is now living in Austin.

The creditors have until Dec. 20 to act on the plan, with a hearing set for 9 a. m. that day in the U. S. District Courtroom in Amarillo.

In his plan, Torigan told Murray he would pay all priority debts, including administration expenses, wages and taxes, upon confirmation of the plan. He proposed to settle all other debts on a payment of 2 per cent of the total amount.

Torigan proposed to pay 5 per cent on confirmation and 5 per cent each year until the 25 per cent is paid.

Murray also received a letter from Torigan stating that finances have been found for the firm as a company belonging to the New York Stock Exchange will put up the money. Murray said he had received word from William D. Willard Inc. of New York that the firm is interested in Bravo but wants additional time to consider the matter.

The two cigarette firms have been operated by the federal bankruptcy court since September in his original petitions.

Subscriptions for the new records and also for older ones may be made by contacting Margaret Daniels at the Hereford High School office.

The 75-80 persons attending the meeting also voted to "give the kids a little fun" at a band party to be held the evening of Dec. 29. No definite arrangements have been made for time and place. The party is being sponsored in appreciation of the hard work band students have done throughout the year.

XEA Members Act As Models

Modeling technique which may be applied to improve appearance of any woman, was demonstrated on the program of Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, in a Tuesday evening meeting at Community Center. Mrs. Howard Gore was program director.

Good carriage, grooming and posture which models use to achieve a striking appearance were illustrated by Meses. Bobby Shelton, Pat Parker, Larry Summers, C. D. Fitzgerald Jr. and Harold Kids.

Mrs. Gore also discussed Etiquette, giving some, modern rules of dining etiquette from Amy Vanderbilt's authoritative book.

Plans were discussed for a rush season next spring to enroll new members for the chapter. Also planned was the annual Christmas party for members and their husbands, which will begin at 7:30 p. m. Dec. 19 at the Kids home and will include a caroling tour of the city.

Mrs. Preston Hagans and Mrs. Glen Wilson, hostesses, served refreshments to those on program and Meses. John Schneider, Hicks Roberson, John Gill-land, Clete Corlis, Delbert Balm, Irving Alexander and Olene Williams.

Club's Oldest Member Is Honored On Birthday

Birthday gifts for their oldest member, Mrs. G. E. Pinkerton, were brought by Messenger Home Demonstration Club members to their recent meeting in the home of Mrs. H. D. Buse and taken to Mrs. Pinkerton at her home afterward.

Celebrating her 91st birthday this year, Mrs. Pinkerton is not as active in the club as she was formerly, but remains a member. Another club member, Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, was also remembered with birthday gifts in the informal social hour that followed the program.

Traditions of Christmas in various nations were recounted by Mrs. Bill Page, and Mrs. J. E. Sorrells read a Christmas poem on the program. At roll call members each told of a holiday tradition in her family.

Mrs. N. A. Brown won the prize in a game which opened the meeting. Mrs. Sorrells presided and introduced two guests, Mrs. George Bumpass of Hereford and Mrs. Gene Bradley. Mrs. Elmer Northcutt made a report of the November session of County H. D. Council and announced that the annual sale of H. D. Club cookbooks would begin Dec. 6.

Serviceman's Visit Inspires Early Christmas

An early Christmas was celebrated in the J. L. Leatherman home with a family dinner the evening of Nov. 30.

Present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hershey and daughter, Joann, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leatherman, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walterscheid and Miss Judy Leatherman.

While he was on leave, SSG Leatherman and his family paid a short visit to relatives at Fort Worth. They planned to go by way of California to visit his brothers before reporting for his new assignment.

Bill Meek of Army's coaching staff coached Southern Methodist teams from 1957 through 1961.

CHRISTMAS 1967

December 25th is approaching at a rapid pace. Before we realize it we will be in the midst of Christmas shopping, cooking, decorating, and the many varied things which fill our heart and hands at this joyful time of the year.

Let us ALL purpose in our hearts, that we will keep Christmas in our hearts and activities as is becoming to the observance of our Saviour's birth. The world needs this and we as individuals need to right-about face and show to the world what this glorious day means to us.

One of the mediums we can use to portray to the world the true meaning and significance of Christmas is through our decorations, both outside and inside the home.

Why do people forget all they know relative to the holy birth as portrayed in the scripture? And why do we as arrangers forget what we know about design, color harmony, developing of a theme, and proper combinations when we are faced with decorating the outside of our homes for Christmas? This is a wonderful way to share with our neighbors, the passers-by, and our families the significance of this Holiday.

This year, before you start draping lights on the ever-green trees, STOP... and THINK! Simplicity and sincerity of purpose are very important. Have a definite plan, and carry it out carefully and correctly.

Your home and property, as viewed from the street, are the setting and the lights and decorations might be called the plant materials. So generally, the same principles of design, as used in flower arranging can apply.

First, choose the theme which you wish to carry out. Will it be a depiction of some phase of the scriptural story? Will it be relative to the spirit of Christmas?

One of the first considerations to the development of a chosen theme is DOMINANCE. In this case in the picture which you wish to create. Santa, pixies, reindeer, angels, manger scenes, three wisemen and shepherds all have a place at Christmas — but PLEASE do not use all at once and on the same lawn. Choose one idea and STICK with it in so doing you will have created unity. This will create within the onlooker the right spirit and direct their thinking into the proper channel.

It is confusing and detracting if there is a general mixed up portrayal and such will not create the true Christmas spirit.

It is also very important to consider size scale of the selected subjects which you are to use in the decorations. Do not overcrowd, and use care in size selection.

For example, if you are going to use the three wise men approaching the Holy city, do not select camels and wise men which are larger than the objects used to picture the city. And if Santa and a chimney are used, be sure the chimney is large enough for Santa to enter... and not get hung up. Remember he is a busy fellow and can't afford to be stopped in a small chimney. Even small children notice many of these fine points in our decorations.

One year I was with a child, and we were looking at Christmas lighting, and decorations. We saw a lighted face of Santa HANGING on a door, and the child said to me, "Oh, Poor Santa, he has gotten his head cut off."

Introduce CONTRAST by introducing a small amount of another color of light. A change in form, a silhouette or variation in height can prevent monotony. Sometimes it is better to use a spotlight rather than strings of lights. If the latter is used, be careful in the selection of colors and don't string them everywhere, use them carefully to develop the theme you are picturing. It is good to use greenery or other materials to soften the glare of lights. Sometime our homes are made to look like advertisements.

Restraint is something we Americans need to use. It is much better to have too little amount of materials, objects etc, than to just keep putting in, because we have thus and so, and it is Christmasy looking. Simplicity, rhythm, and balance are very, very important; they go hand in hand with RESTRAINT.

Lights can be used to create proper balance, and the eye should follow through, in a rhythmic manner. Graduation, transition, and line are mediums to be used in creating RHYTHM. If the focal center is a beautifully lighted window, or an entranceway, then use the outside objects starting at a given point and lead to the center of interest. Make the most of architectural features. Remember you are dealing with an extra special, glorious, joyful time. In truth and beauty it should be portrayed.

Again we repeat, THINK and PLAN, before you start on the decorations. I would offer one other suggestion, do not mix add to glad's garden ideas of the outside decor and the inside. If a scriptural depiction is being used, then make inside decor in keeping, and if the objects of your theme deal with Santa, etc., then develop this in the inside too.

Christmas trees are now on the market. If you purchase early, do CONDITION the tree before it is set and decorated. More about Christmas trees next week.

The Hereford Garden Club, The Bud to Blossom Garden Club, The Junior Gardeners, and The Hereford Art Guild are most appreciative of the interest shown, and the cooperation of friends, and business associates. THANKS!

Each organization that participated really PUT THEIR BEST FOOT forward. Beauty tolerer and study were evident in all entries.

PLEASE... THE PERSON WHO BY MISTAKE TOOK ONE OF MY BOXES CONTAINING A CHRISTMAS MOBILE AND A CARVED BOOK RACK... DO RETURN THEM TO 363 West-haven or call 364-1343 they were both cherished articles. Anyone knowing anything about these please contact the listed phone number.

Glad, really wants them, please!

The African Violets, p. s. "Flash," "Black Foot," "Ruby" and "Blue Boy," all came home from the Flower Show, with their awards flying high. I believe they are lifting their flower heads even higher now than before. Was PROUD of them.

Wilbur Gibson To Make Water Tour Of State

A Hereford man, Wilbur D. Gibson, will be among 75 area persons making a three-day water Inc. tour of California. The group will leave Amarillo by plane on Sunday and return Wednesday.

John Kendrick of Brownfield, President of Water, Inc., said that the group will visit state water officials in Sacramento and go from there to the giant Oroville Dam, the starting point of the $1,750,000,000 California Water Project. "And the starting point of the tour," Kendrick added.

The group will also visit Kern County, located in the San Joaquin Valley, one of the most intensively irrigated areas in the world. While there, the Kern County Water Agency in Bakersfield will explain the "Master District" water agencies operation to the tour members.

Like the Water, Inc. region, California is running out of underground water and has begun

GIFTS FOR GIRLSTOWN — Adding a few more packages to the load in her grandmother's car, Dee Ann Miller is getting ready to accompany Mrs. Viola Williams on a recent trip to Girlstown at Whiteface, with Christmas gifts for the residents there, given by Hereford people. The front of the car was loaded with other packages. Mrs. Williams, a member of the board for Girlstown, collects gifts for the girls' residence at all times of the year, especially around Christmas, when residents of this area customarily give food for the holiday dinner and other meals, clothing and an array of gifts for girls from preschool to college age. Dee Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Miller, granddaughter of Mrs. Williams.

Miss Husmann Shower Honoree

Miss Phyllis Jo Husmann, whose marriage to Marvin Kuper is to take place Jan. 6, was complimented with an evening party and shower Wednesday, one of a series of courtesies to brides-elect which are enlivening the holiday season here.

Hostesses were Mes. Elmer

Reinart, Alfred Reinart, Lester Wagner, Clarence Betzen, Carl Last, Arnold Betzen, Ed Beizer, Ray Wilhelm, Joe Brorman, Joe Schulte, Walter Kuper, Ed Paetzold, Tom Dupnik and Ed Schilling, who entertained in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Company.

Blue and silver, colors to be used in wedding decor, set the note for the refreshment table, where hostesses in turn served refreshments to dozens of callers.

Silver service was used and the cloth was of white lace. A centerpiece was made of blue flowers and matching candles in crystal holders.

The honoree is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Husmann Route 1, and her fiance, a farmer of the Summerfield community, is a son of the H. J. Kupers.

In international road signs, the outline of a swerving auto with skid marks indicates a slippery road ahead. A puffing locomotive signifies a rail crossing without gates. A silhouette of children with books needs no explanation.

Stunt Night Set At High School

Stunt Night, sponsored by the Hereford High School Student Council, will be held December 16, in the High School Auditorium. Every year, an Annual Queen candidate is picked from each class. From the senior class, Debbie Ogan was chosen, junior class, Debra Walden, and sophomores, Peggy Summers.

One of these girls will be selected as annual queen according to how much money each class brought in at their annual class chili supper. The other two girls will be named as attendants to the queen.

Admission to Stunt Night will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students. Money will go to the annual staff to help pay for the student's yearbooks.

Holly Official Assumes Duties

Robert F. (Bob) Ginn assumed duties here Monday at the Holly Sugar plant as its new agricultural manager, replacing Percy Rosenow who was named to the Northern Agricultural manager's post for the corporation.

Reared in Madison county, Neb. Ginn attended the University of Nebraska and after serving in the Army, began work for Holly at its Torrington, Wyo. branch.

He served in the armed forces at a base in San Antonio as a member of the Air Corps and in the veterinary division, leaving service with the rank of master sergeant in 1946. Later that same year he assumed duties as field man at Torrington.

Ginn was transferred to the Grand Junction, Colo. office in 1956 and made agricultural manager at Delta in 1959, where he remained until being moved to Hereford.

Having purchased a home at 117 Fir, Ginn's wife, Marcia, and children, Mickey, 13, and Linda, 8, will join him here the latter part of January, during school semester break. The Ginn's other son, Kenneth, 23, is a member of the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Scott AFB, Ill.

Tree At Center Is Decked By BSP Members

Their yearly gift to all residents who use Hereford Community Center during the holidays, decoration of a Christmas tree for the clubroom, was completed by members of Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday evening.

After the chapter meeting with Mrs. Jim Aldridge and Mrs. Bob Coons as hostesses, members unpacked boxes of tree lights and luster balls and placed them on the white-flocked tree, topping it with a lighted star. It will remain in the room through the Christmas season, while the Center is serving as the meeting place for numerous groups.

A Christmas flavor was given to Tuesday evening's program when Mrs. Taylor Holland chose a familiar song, The Night Before Christmas, to illustrate her talk on the topic, Poetry Into Music.

She told the story of Clement Moore's verses which have delighted children — and adults — in America for a century, and which were set to music in recent years. A recording of the song was played.

In the business period with Mrs. Max Goforth presiding, reports were made on the recent fund-raising project in which the chapter collected enough for its contribution to the endowment fund of BSP International and a gift of $100 to Girlstown at Whiteface. Mrs. Alex Schroeter received the project award.

Plans were made for visits by chapter members to Kings Manor retirement home here, next Monday and on Dec. 16. The chapter's Christmas party for members and their husbands was planned. Social committee members will be hostesses and the date is Dec. 19. Theme of the party will be Christmas-a-go-go.

Cake served with red punch before the work session was decorated in holiday colors.

Hereford Man Among Texas Tech's Honored

LUBBOCK — James L. Haney son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Haney, 200 Grand Avenue, will receive his Army ROTC flight training wings in ceremonies today at Memorial Circle on the Texas Tech campus.

The occasion, part of a Pearl Harbor Day retreat, will include the awarding of wings to nine Air Force ROTC cadets and seven other Army ROTC cadets. The late Capt. Gerald Brown, a Texas Tech alumnus known as the "Kool Aid Kid" for his interest in Vietnamese children prior to his death last March, will also be awarded four posthumous medals from Vietnam.

Brown's mother, Mrs. L. F. Spaulding of Ft. Worth, will accept the medals and a Freedom's Foundation award from Tech Executive Vice President William M. Pearce.

Brown first came into public attention for his distribution of presweetened soft drink powder to the Vietnamese children and his interest triggered the shipment of medical supplies, food and other needed commodities to the nation from civilian population.

The Vietnamese government responded to Brown's military heroism by awarding the Tech graduate and former ROTC cadet colonel the National Order Fifth Class and the Gallantry Cross with Palm. The citations were signed by Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Thiem, now president of the republic. Two Gallantry crosses with Bronze Stars, awarded at the regiment level, also will be presented to Brown's mother.

The Freedoms Foundation award-a medal, certificate, and $50-was in recognition of an essay Brown had submitted in a Foundation competition shortly before he was killed in combat with the Viet Cong.

Mrs. Howard Hunter with five little Hunters

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

She Aids Award Winner

By SUE COLEMAN
West Texas farm life, which she finds very satisfying, is the only kind she has known, Mrs. Howard Hunter says, adding with a grin, "I wouldn't know how to live anywhere else".

HER FATHER, Virgil Walker is a farmer and she grew up on a farm in this county where her parents moved when she was two years old. Her birthplace was Clovis, just across the line in New Mexico.

Black-eyed Nell Walker married Howard Hunter while she was in high school, and their home has always been on a farm. After living near Bovina a while, they have also farmed near Hereford, and for six years have lived on a place northwest of Summerfield.

When Hunter was named Young Farmer of the Year recently by the Deaf Smith Young Farmers of Texas, he gave his vivacious wife credit for cooperation in making his agricultural operations successful.

HER SHARE in the partnership ranges from housework and the care of their five children to driving tractors and other actual work in the field. Just now, during cotton stripping season, she stays fairly busy pulling cotton trailers to and from the gin.

Don't say I'm a good housekeeper, says Mrs. Hunter, gesturing to toy cars scattered across the living room floor and being manipulated by a couple of small boys. She has postponed an orderly house to the future, when the children don't need it for play space.

Other, larger toys clutter the backyard, where a playhouse under a spreading shadetree is a favorite rendezvous for the lively youngsters. It was built by the parents who had as much fun building it as the children do using it.

THE HUNTER CHILDREN are Gina, 9; Kristi, 7; Howard

Scott, 6; David, 3, and Lauri, 2, all learning with enthusiasm to help their parents with work of the farm and the house.

"The two older girls are learning to cook, and like it as much as I do", Mrs. Hunter explains. "They like to wash and iron, too, and I surely hope they don't lose their taste for that!"

"The boys are not around the house much when their Dad is at work in the fields. They go with him every chance they have, and are learning to be pretty good hands".

ASKED HOW SHE finds time for the handcraft which she does in quantity, Nell Hunter replies that she simply makes time because she enjoys it so much.

One of her own oil paintings is a central decorative feature of a Hunter living room; an unusual floor lamp with a large cluster of plastic grapes holding the bulb, a sparkling peacock plaque and feather flower arrangement are other beautiful pieces she has made.

Less delicate handwork, such as putting a tile backing for the kitchen range, is not beneath Mrs. Hunter's interest and she does her share of work on upkeep of the house and yard. Sewing is another skill she finds useful in dressing herself and her daughters.

FOR RECREATION the Hunters like hunting — no pun intended — and she accompanies her husband on hunting excursions. The whole family enjoys camping, not in a plush camper but with tent, sleeping bags and outdoor fire.

As her children grow up she gives a hand to their activities. Now she is assisting the leader of a Camp Fire Girl group which she led last year when the members were Bluebird age, and looking forward to Cub Scout and Little League sponsorship soon.

Her children are in choirs at First Methodist Church, which the family attends, and she expects them to be members of school bands and choirs as she was when she attended Hereford schools.

SEVEN YEARS membership in Young Mothers Study Club has brought her association with congenial friends with her own interests. She has been president of the club and also held most of the other offices. She assists each year with the summer Bible School for children of her church. Preparing for Christmas, Mrs. Hunter makes special candy and cookies for gifts and frequently uses her mother's recipe for a candy that is a favorite with recipients. Here are the instructions for making it:

SNOWBALLS

- 2 and 3/4 cups crushed vanilla wafers
  - 1/4 cup soft or melted margarine
  - 1 cup powdered sugar
  - 1 cup chopped nuts
  - 1/4 cup undiluted frozen orange juice
- Mix well and form into balls about the size of a walnut, then chill thoroughly. Dip each ball into an icing made with 2 tb. margarine, 2 cups powdered sugar and enough milk to make coating ball with this icing, roll it in coconut.

Local Resident Gets Certificate In Job Corps

SAN MARCOS, TEXAS — Richard Rendon, 18, of Hereford, was among 231 Gary Job Corps Center trainees to receive a certificate of completion at formal graduation ceremonies Tuesday, November 21.

Rendon had completed the Auto Partsman course. He has been in training at Gary for 7 months.

The graduates, representing all six vocational clusters which include the 38 trade programs offered to Corpsmen, totaled the largest number of students to complete their respective courses of study since the Center opened for operation in 1965. Their graduation periods will occur from the commencement date through the first of the year.

Presentation of graduation certificates was made by Center Director Wallace D. Dockall. The graduates and their special guests were honored at a reception in the Student Union following the ceremony.

The Gary Center currently has more than 3,000 Corpsmen in training. Approximately 8,250 others have completed training and have been processed for employment, have returned to school or are in the military services.

Hap Wiseman Leads Busy Life With SWPS Recalls Past 30 Years, Looks Ahead

Maxey H. Wiseman, better known to his friends as "Hap", has held title to only two positions at Southwestern Public Service Company, where he has worked for the past 31½ years, but he's held many positions there.

Coming to Hereford in 1936, Wiseman joined the firm on April 6 of that year. Former employment had been with an electric company in Big Springs. Beginning as lineman foreman, he served in this capacity for 12 years before being made a journeyman meterman.

Likening utility work now to what it was when he came here, Wiseman calls it a "different world". "Then," he says, "we worked with our hands. Now, we have aero buckets, ladders, and other equipment. It's as different as it can be."

Telling of a thing that is little known to persons outside electrical work, Wiseman explains about the special insulated gloves utility men wore for protection from "hot" wires. While working and handling the wires coursing with live current, the men wore gloves that reached almost to the elbow. Past the elbow, however, was unprotected territory, and many is the time, Wiseman recalls, that men working in the gloves would have to change to dry ones when the current began nipping at the arms, feeling, he said, like insect bites. Things were all right as long as the gloves were relatively dry, but as soon as they became too damp, the gloves served as a conductor instead of retardant.

Now, Wiseman says, hot sticks and other aids are used when live current wires are handled.

Standing out in his memory, too, is the ice storm which occurred in November of 1940, when power between Hereford and Amarillo and Plainview and Hereford was completely knocked out.

The day began, he said, with slow rain and a temperature of 31 degrees. Not too unusual, until the drizzle froze to everything it touched. Wires normally one half to an inch thick quickly accumulated ice till they were three and four inches thick; with the ice cover, power lines began to snap, isolating farms and houses, then poles began to sag with the greater weight and finally fell. One half-mile stretch between Hereford and Dimmitt, Wiseman recalls, looked just like the poles had been run down by a bulldozer.

There was little rest for the utility men during that storm. Wiseman himself worked through 40 hours trying to restore power, leaving work only to go home for a change of dry clothing. An auxiliary power unit had to be set up to provide power to pump water for city residents. Men climbing poles to refasten lines found one and one-half inches of ice covering poles, so they fastened their belts onto the bottom of the poles and climbed on up, hoping that the spikes on their boots would hold through the slippery ice.

Power was finally restored by the men and since that time, more poles and wires carrying more current have been installed by both SWPS and REA, which lost 1500 poles alone in the storm.

In 1947, Wiseman's luck took a turn for the worse when he fell off a utility pole. He had finished his work atop the pole and while descending, his spiked boot found a crack instead of a smooth foothold and he fell to the ground, breaking several bones plus suffering internal injuries. He spent 80 days in the hospital, 56 of them flat on his back with a leg in suspension.

But he wasn't sick, he pointed out. He was just injured, and hurried nurses were the first to find this out. Nurses who didn't understand the situation were quickly shown the difference, one in particular, who attempted to give him a haircut. Wiseman admitted that his hair might have been a little long, but when the nurse came in carrying a pair of blunt-end scissors, she found herself almost on the receiving end of the spanking. Of course, he said it was all in fun; but he didn't mention when or how his hair was finally cut.

HAP'S FAVORITE HORSE — Sonny, as the horse is named, is the equivalent to 80 or 90 years old by human standards, and hasn't taken a saddle for about a year. About all he's good for now, Wiseman admits, is to feed and he can be awfully contrary about that.

It was at this time that Wiseman realized how many friends he had made in Hereford. Nurses and hospital personnel told him that people had called the hospital at all hours when the news was released about the accident. If he wasn't able to have visitors, the friends just called to see how he was doing, to check if he needed anything they could furnish.

For three months Wiseman's activities were limited, but within a year he was back on the job. Not to the same work he had been doing, he said, but to what he does now, which is a little bit of everything. "Whenever something needs doing, and there's nobody else around to do it, they all yell for Hap," he says. He's filled in at a number of different SWPS jobs, from bookkeeper to manager at times. grandchildren, of which he has seven; his three great-grandchildren, cooking, and lastly, his cattle and horses.

He visits his daughters, Mrs. Juanita Roberts of Amarillo and Mrs. Maxey Ann Teas of Denver City as often as he can. He visits his family in Amarillo on days off and spends weekends with the family in Denver City.

He keeps 60 head of cattle and three horses on a grassland place west of town, and spends a lot of time there, too. One of the horses, named Sonny, has been a member of the family since the youngest daughter was a baby. That was 24 years ago, he says.

While he and the horse get along famously, the grandchildren are the ones who are its special friends. The children run out with open arms, hooting and hollering, to meet the horse and the horse loves it. "If I tried that, I'd still be chasing him next week," Wiseman declared.

While he is fond of all his cattle and horses, Sonny is his favorite, too, and he doesn't mind letting me know when he wants to be fed or needs attention," he says. He talks to the horses as if they were human, though sometimes, he declares, if they could understand what he said, they'd probably not appreciate it.

The other hobby, cooking, Wiseman learned while a chuckwagon cook during trail drives. Working for the VVN outfit south of Bovina, Wiseman said, he learned to cook sourdough biscuits. Pinto beans were simmered for hours in a cast iron kettle over an open fire, and other cooking was done in an old dutch oven. This was his work during the harsh depression years when he could find no other. But he liked it and called everyday exciting, especially bitterly cold mornings when horses had to be saddled.

Wiseman's sour-dough biscuits have since earned him fame. He's been asked to demonstrate his skill at several home demonstration club meetings, and he doesn't mind sharing his recipe with others.

LONG TIME SWPS EMPLOYEE — W. H. "Hap" Wiseman, who, after 31½ years with the company, will reach retirement age next October and probably retire the end of that year. A man who has always been active, he will spend the time with his grand and great-grandchildren in Amarillo and Denver City and his horses and cattle 30 miles west of Hereford.

Wiseman, a widower for seven years, reaches retirement age on October 4, 1968, and probably at the end of that year will leave SWPS. What will he do? Follow his horses around the lot, he guesses, and tell them how preethey are, and spend as much time with his grand and great-grandchildren as he can. One thing a person can bet money on, though. "Hap Wiseman will never be idle, retired or not; and with as many friends as he can count, he'll never be lonesome, either."

'HAMLET,' FOUR WAYS

SAN FRANCISCO — Four interpretations of Hamlet's drama are to be staged during the next two years by the American Conservatory Theater.

The first will use Shakespeare's script with emphasis on the spoken text rather than such other theatrical values as costumes, movement, scenery and lighting. The second is to be what general director William Ball regards as a traditional representation. Tom Stoppard's recent London hit, "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" is to be done next, followed by an "extremely fragmented" modern interpretation of the Shakespearean original.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A sort of backdoor view of the flower and art show out at the mall was available Sunday afternoon at closing time, when exhibitors began taking down paintings and picking up flower pots and leaving the building where there was still a good crowd of spectators.

HUSBANDS SHOWED UP to help the sponsoring club women take home the exhibits. Naming no names, it was interesting to see several prominent businessmen standing while their outstretched arms were stacked with large framed paintings of assorted sizes, maybe crowned with a flower arrangement titled "Here Comes Santa Claus" — dangling a blue ribbon, yet.

Of all the work that was done on the show — and it took a lot to get ready and then stay on the job for the two-day event — the hardest was probably that of a committee you seldom hear about. Mrs. Herbert Bruns and Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. was named as the dismantling committee for the flower show, with the note that "all members" were to help. It's always more fun, if not easier, to prepare for the party than to clean up afterward, you know.

HECTIC AS WAS THE first weekend in December, with the double show involving scores of members from the Art Guild and three garden clubs, and the annual bazaar at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, and a flurry of early holiday parties — things are not likely to slow up much before New Years Day.

One thing which many Hereford people look forward to each year is the high school choir concert, and have I mentioned that it is scheduled for the evening of Dec. 19? With so many dates to keep track of, I'm not sure about this one.

Anyway, Director Dick Jackson promises a "different" concert this year. Instead of featuring music of Handel's oratorio, The Messiah, there will be other Christmas music. A program is promised us soon so we can see what to expect as to content. As to quality, we always expect the best from HHS choirs.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF the publication of a new cookbook usually doesn't excite me at all, because I'm not a cookbook browser as some people are, and don't do any vast amount of cooking. But one with a novel idea — is just out, and it sounds practical to me.

Anyone who ever cooks eventually faces the problem of what to do with extra egg whites or yolks, and this book is called The Other Half Of The Egg. Written by William North Jayme with the collaboration of a food editor and a chef, it is

Offices Filled In St. Anthony's Mothers Group

New officers were installed in the Congregation of Christian Mothers of St. Anthony's Catholic Church at a program in the parish school auditorium Sunday afternoon. Each officer installed her successor, who had been appointed by the Very Rev

Angelus Delahunt, S. A., pastor. Mrs. Gene Loerwald, new president, was represented by Mrs. S. T. Loerwald in her absence due to illness, for installation by Mrs. A. H. Husmann. Mrs. Leon Vinton was installed by Mrs. Clarence Betzen as vice president, Mrs. John Tomasi by Mrs. Charles Schlabs as secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Husmann thanked officers of her administration for their work. The pastor was celebrant for the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament to close the meeting, and spoke briefly on the important role of a mother in her family, to bring up children to know love and to respect God, parents and their fellow humans.

Brother John Poncia, S. A., assistant at St. Anthony's, directed group singing. The retiring officers were hostesses, who served cookies, coffee and tea to 49 women. Mrs. Robert Schmucker was presented the door prize.

BROKEN VOWS

A Vow Is A Serious Thing

Our promise and your performance reveal the quality of your soul.

A promise will make a friend but performance will keep him. Are you keeping your marriage vows, your vows to your church or synagog? When you make vows to God, do you keep them or do you go AWOL on Him? "When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it, for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee." Faithful performance of good vows strengthens character, honors God and makes a better citizen.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

More People, More Money Less Room In State By 1990

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN —Texas will almost double its population — to nearly 18,000,000 by 1990 — and residents will have more money to spend, if not as much room to live in.

These are among predictions for the not-so-distant future contained in a new forward look at the state's economy prepared by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Their publication, "Texas 90: An Economic Profile of Texas to 1990," includes these highlights:

*New factory growth will bolster the Texas economy more powerfully than any other factor between 1967 and 1990, as the state becomes constantly more dependent upon manufacturing. Value added by manufacture (a measure of the difference in value between the raw materials that flow into a factory and the goods shipped out) will increase to $37,500,000,000 a year. It now is less than $10,000,000,000.

*Due for rapid expansion is the work force — although not uniformly in all industries. Most dynamic employment growth will be in the service industries; laundries, barber and beauty shops, auto repairs, transportation, hotel management, recreation, professional services, etc.

*Texas agriculture will approximately double its output (cash receipts from farm markets are seen as reaching nearly $5,000,000,000 in 1990), although farm employment probably will decrease.

*Texas cities will lead the population growth trend. By 1990 both the Houston and the combined Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan areas will have populations of more than 3,800,000. That nearly equals the entire U. S. of 1970. All seven of the state's biggest standard metropolitan statistical areas will see massive growth.

*Negro population, while increasing in numbers, now represents less than 13 percent of the total, compared to 25 percent a century ago.

*Spanish-surname population is increasing rapidly and now makes up 15 percent of the Texas total.

*Children under 15 can be convicted only for perjury under penal code.

Appointments Announced — Governor Connally named former Hidalgo County Judge J. C. Looney of Edinburg to Public Safety Commission, succeeding John Peace of San Antonio who took oath of office to University of Texas Board of Regents. Looney leaves the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System, a post he has held the past two years.

Governor named as regents of Midwestern University R. E. Thornton of Olney, HENRY SEARS of Hereford and Mrs. Roland Boyd of McKinney. He reappointed E. N. Jones of Dallas.

Peter S. Solito of Houston was appointed by Connally as Judge of Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 in Harris County.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed to interim House Committee on Juvenile Crime and Delinquency Reps. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls, Lamoine Holland of San Antonio, Glenn Johnson of Temple, John Allen of Longview, and Curtis Graves of Houston; also, Mrs. J. Howard Hodge of Midland, Mrs. Jim W. Walker of Amarillo Joe Golman of Dallas and Judge Scott Moore of Fort Worth.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith named Sen. Charles Herring of Austin to the Senate Parking and Traffic Committee and Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo declined to serve.

ATTY. GEN. CRAWFORD C. MARTIN has held that telephone companies owe sales taxes on electricity used to perform their operations. Decision means about $400,000 in revenue to the state. In other recent opinions, Martin has concluded that: "School board vacancy positions must be specifically designated on ballot." "To qualify under 'Grandfather clause,' for permit, a corporation need show it was engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in the State under a charter or permit prior to August 24, 1935." "University of Texas may enter interagency contracts with Coordinating Board, College and University System to furnish it, at cost, data processing equipment and services." "Firemen in certain cities are entitled to refund of paid-in contributions to retirement fund on separation from service, notwithstanding prior payment of disability benefits." "Harrison County commissioners may approve purchase of equipment, supplies or material for road and bridge work though purchase was made by someone other than county engineer."

TSPE Hits Water Requirements — Texas Society of Professional Engineers has joined in the attack on federal agency insistence on storing substantial quantities of water for "flushing" streams as "completely unrealistic."

TSPE President H. E. Boyav Jr. said the policies of the Federal Pollution Control Administration and the U. S. Corps of Engineers would seriously affect future Texas water development. He said their position falls to recognize more effective treatment for waste will be discovered in the next century.

Courts Speak — Texas Supreme Court will review a Harris County case in which a dealer in foreign cars claimed $862,000 in damages to his cars from flood waters which he said city of Houston could have controlled by a culvert.

High court also agreed to take careful look at a Jefferson County suit by a man who claims his vision was damaged by an improperly-fitted pair of contact lenses.

Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a man imprisoned for 30 years, because his lawyer made an inadequate defense, maintained no law office, and actually had appeared in court only twice in 10 years.

Federal Judge Jack Roberts held Mooney Aircraft Corp., Kerrville plane builders, cannot recover $291,000 in income taxes and interest the firm claims it paid under protest.

New Vote Devices Approved Secretary of State Hill, after extended study, has sanctioned five brands of low-cost electronic voting devices for use in Texas elections.

Systems are IBM Votomatic, Seismograph Vote Recorder, Datamedia, Vote-A-Corder, V.I.P. Vot-A-Maker and Cuvic votronics Vote Counter.

Advocates of the electronic devices point out that they insure fast, accurate counting and cost only $185 (or less) each as compared with conventional voting machines which sell for $1,900.

He's Got 'Em Guessing AGAIN — Once more Gov. John Connally's plans are the No. 1 topic of state capitol speculation.

In a press conference here, Connally vigorously denied rumors he may be the next U. S. Secretary of Defense. He plans to serve out his term as governor. But less than 12 hours later in Washington, he acknowledged the secretary's job "would be very difficult to turn down" if offered. With the rumor still buzzing, he flew to France on a promotional mission for HemisFair '68, the world's fair in San Antonio next year.

Before he left Texas, Connally had kind words to say about two men who have been mentioned as prospects to succeed him: former Congressman Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls (who has stated he does not intend to run) and Secretary of State John L. Hill (who indicates that he plans to announce by mid-January).

Actual declared-candidate list picked up one new name: State Rep. Don Gladden, Fort Worth liberal, announced for lieutenant governor against House Speaker Ben Barnes. Gladden said he would like to run on a ticket headed by Sen. Ralph Yarborough as a candidate for governor. Houston attorney Don Yarborough, another likely gubernatorial candidate, said he wouldn't seek the governor's office if the senator does.

construction or repair of seven bridges in Victoria and DeWitt Counties as result of Hurricane Beulah damage. Air Southwest Co., new $8,800,000 San Antonio-based airline, is seeking Texas Aeronautics Commission certification, proposing cut-rate fares of $12.95 and $14.95 between Fort Worth-Dallas and Houston-San Antonio.

Eleven Texas businessmen will huddle in Austin December 14 to map a program which will "quickly and unmistakably transmit the views of the general business community of our State government" according to Dolph Briscoe Jr., president of the State Chamber of Commerce. . . . Union Bank of Texas City has filed an application for a state charter. . . . Bill J. Doggett will move from superintendent of Travis State School in Austin to the same job at the Austin State school, and Robert L. Breckenridge will transfer from the Denton State School to take Doggett's job, the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation announced.

DANGEROUS JOB DENVER (AP) — A process server, Calvin Smith, went to a stockyards auction to serve a complaint and became an unwilling bidder for an Angus calf. When Smith pointed his finger at the man he wanted to hand the subpoena, the auctioneer called, "I'm bid $400." But Smith didn't have to buy the calf — someone else bid $500.

Tax
Facts

Students in Northern Texas who work part-time or summers may have a refund coming on their 1967 Federal income tax returns, Ellis Campbell, Jr., District Director of Internal Revenue said today.

Students are required to file a tax return if they earned $600 or more. If they earned less than $600 and taxes were withheld from wages by their employers, they should file a return in order to obtain a refund of the tax withheld from their wages. Unmarried students who earn less than $900 will not owe any Federal income tax. They are entitled to claim the usual $600 personal exemption, plus a $300 minimum standard deduction.

Students are entitled to claim their own personal exemption when filing a tax return, Mr. Campbell said. Parents who furnish more than one-half the cost of support for their child who is a full-time student may also claim an exemption on their tax return, unless the child is married and is filing a joint return with his or her spouse.
