Dameron Ranch Is Sold

One of the largest land transactions in the history of Deaf Smith County was concluded recently when it was learned that the Dameron Ranch, located 20 miles northwest of Hereford, had been sold.

The ranch which contained approximately 4400 acres of grassland and 1100 acres of irrigated farmland, was owned by Dameron Land and Cattle Co., Inc. Officers of the corporation are William S. Dameron, president, and Mrs. W. E. Dameron, secretary-treasurer, both of Hereford, and Jame Dameron Nolen, vice president, of Austin.

For many years, the ranch was the home of an outstanding herd of registered Herefords and was operated as Dameron Hereford Ranch. The herd was dispersed in 1965 on it Golden Anniversary of 50 years in operation. The herd was founded in 1915 by the late W. E. Dameron, former mayor of Hereford.

According to Dameron, president of the corporation, four parties were involved in the transaction. Approximately 3600 acres of grassland and 450 acres of farmland were traded on a tax-free exchange for 4600 deeded and 6400 B. L. M. (Bureau of Land Management) acres in Colorado. The Colorado ranch was owned by Arizona Colorado Cattle Co., Inc., an Arizona Corporation.

The Arizona corporation, in turn, sold the newly acquired Texas property to two parties. Buyer of the largest tract was Herbert Friemel and Sons of Hereford. This was handled by Justice Realtors of Hereford.

The other tract was purchased by Brown W. Cannon of Denver. He is a partner in the Cliff Cattle Co. with Jim Easley of Hereford.

The remaining portion of the ranch, including the improvements, was purchased directly from Dameron Land and Cattle Co. Inc., by E. D. and Layton Sawyer of Hereford. The Sawyers have been farming this land for the past two years.

Although prices for the various tracts of land to the three buyers were not disclosed, it was understood that the total consideration for the entire ranch transaction exceeded $1,250,000.

The Colorado ranch acquired by the Dameron in the exchange has been leased and operated by them for the past 20 months. It has the reputation of being one of the finest ranches in Colorado due to its excellent water rights and high quality hay production. It carried 2500 head of steers last year and produced almost 900,000 pounds of beef. The ranch, which has almost 4000 acres of irrigated meadow, joins the west city limits of Saguache, Colo., which is located in the northern end of the San Luis Valley.

The William S. Dameron Family intends to make their home in Salda, Colo. in the near future.

Open House Set On Vocational Addition At HS

The new vocational addition to Hereford High School, which was completed in the latter part of September of last year, at a cost in excess of $200,000 will hold open house Monday night from 7:30 until 9.

All rooms will be open and teachers of the courses will be present to discuss the courses in their respective classes, while members of the Future Teachers Association serve as guides during the ceremonies.

All of the 11 large rooms, with courses being taught in distributive education, industrial cooperative training, auto mechanics, building trades, special education, cosmetology, personality and self improvement, and business education, are stocked with the latest equipment.

The facilities, in part, are also used for the adult education program.

The public is urged to attend the open house.

Beet Harvest Is Nearing End

With the sugar beet harvesting about 95 per cent complete, it seems that, with no more bad weather during the next week or so, the harvest should be completely finished.

Bob Ginn, agricultural manager for the Hereford plant, said Friday that only approximately 1375 acres remained to be harvested, and with no more moisture to dampen the ground, the harvest, which has been delayed due to a below freezing temperature of 12 degrees, will be completed within the next week.

Ginn went on to state that although the temperature did get very low, it did not affect the quality of the beets. He said that if the weather does not change drastically from cold to hot the beets will not be affected and there will be no loss.

Goal Is Near In Bonds Sale

During the month of November United States Savings Bond sales in Deaf Smith County totaled $3,239 according to a report received today from Wheeler M. Sears, Chairman of the Deaf Smith County Savings Bonds Committee.

The January-November sales totaled $111,575, and this is $3 per cent of the 1967 goal of $120,000.

During the first eleven months of 1967 Savings Bond sales in Texas totaled $153,756,962 which is 85 per cent of the 1967 sales goal and a 10.3 per cent increase over sales during the same period last year.

Nationally, the total sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds for the first eleven months of 1967 amounted to $4,546 million, 1.3 per cent above a year earlier.

Sales of the new Savings Notes available only to regular buyers of E Bonds totaled $17.3 million during November, bringing the cumulative total to $62.8 million since May.

Burwick, Malouf Are Placed On Star-Studded Grid Team

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

Two players from the past grid season have been selected for honors on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal's Class AAA All-South Plains football squad which was selected recently by the sports writers with the Lubbock paper.

Grabbing honors for the Whitefaces were linebacker Tony Malouf and tailback Bobby Burwick.

Malouf also grabbed honors in the state AAA football polls as he was named to the second team back position in a recent vote by the Texas Sportswriters' Association committee.

Malouf, who, for the second time in three years has been a member of the All-South Plains unit, had a remarkable year as he led the Whitefaces in tackles with 157 — with 14 of these being unassisted. He was also credited with one fumble recovery and the breaking up of some ten pass attempts by the opposing teams.

On offense, Malouf carried the ball 35 times for 169 yards for an average of 4.8 yards a carry. He also showed up good in his blocking ability on offense when he was not carrying the ball.

All-South Plains team as he led the Whitefaces in rushing with a total of 453 yards on 75 carries for an average of 6.0 yards per carry. Other than running with the ball Burwick proved his passing ability as he completed three of seven passes for 29 yards and two touchdowns.

Burwick, who spent the first half of the year playing with the Junior Varsity and gaining over 500 yards rushing while with the J.V.'s, scored over 80 points in his half year with the varsity squad and the other half with the Junior Varsity.

Malouf and Ruben Jimenez of Kermit were the only returning players on the All-South Plains team.

Flu Bug Hasn't Bit Hereford

Although the flu season has arrived in this area, it appears it has had very little effect on the attendance at Hereford High School.

In commenting about the absentee percentage in HHS, assistant principal Jesse Geron said that although the number of absentees are up slightly during the last few days due to flu-type illnesses, it has not hit the school here as hard as in comparison to other local schools.

In further reference to this, Geron stated that although there is about a 4 percent increase in the number of absentees during the last couple of days due to illness, the system is still maintaining about a 92 per cent attendance percentage.

In regard to the students who miss school deliberately, and not due to illness, Geron said, "The way I feel about this is that the students are taking advantage of school because that is where everything is happening and that is where they like to be."

So, in view of all the facts and percentages, the flu-type illness has yet to effect the attendance at HHS.

In checking with the two junior highs and part of the elementary schools, it was discovered that attendance has not dropped due to the fact that the flu season is here.

Rules, Deadline Are Given For Junior Livestock Show

The Hereford Young Farmers Junior Livestock Show has announced a deadline of February 10 for entry cards and fees covering all animals, which will be exhibited on Feb. 15, 16 and 17 at the County Bull Barn.

The division superintendents are Bud Thomas and Jerry Glover, steers; Lewis Block, L. Dee Taylor and Bob Hicks, barrows; and John Hammett and James Dobbs, lambs. The general superintendents are Clark Andrews and Larry Kaul.

The entry fees have been set at the rate of $4 per calf and $2 per barrow or lamb. Floor price will be set on all animals prior to sale, February 17. Animals to be sold at the floor price which are not eligible for auction will be moved from the barn to pens before the auction sale begins.

The 7-man appointed group will be made up of two USDA officials, one grain exporter, one grain feed miller, and one farmer each producing soybeans, grain sorghum, and corn.

The team will be in Japan and Taiwan between Friday and the Jan. 28th.

Earlier, similar groups of American grain industry people have been sent by the Secretary to both European and Latin American countries.

The American farm leader's will travel in the Asiatic area calling attention to the supply, quality, and availability of U.S. feed grains, particularly grain sorghum which has its largest cash market in Japan. It is expected that the group will visit the Ministries of Agriculture in the various countries to discuss duty and tariff situations as well as call on feed users, livestock producers, and other grain trade individuals.

Barton is president of the Castro County Grain Sorghum Producers Association and has been a supporting member of the organization since it was founded. He owns 400 acres and leases 1700 acres of farm land on which he produces 800 acres of grain sorghum, 500 acres of wheat, 150 acres of cotton, 100 acres of sugar beets, and runs cattle.

Chamber Group Endorses Plan For Jr. College

Members of the Education Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce voted unanimously Thursday to support establishment of a junior college in the immediate area.

The plan worked out by the board calls for placing a junior college in the immediate area to serve Deaf Smith, Castro, Oldham and Parmer counties.

Committee Chairman Leo Forrester reported that he and Hereford Superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. plan to be in Austin Monday for a public hearing by the Coordinating Board staff. Purpose of the meeting is to discuss proposed policy statements concerning development of a junior college system.

New Mailing Rates Effective Today

Postmaster Nolan Grady last night reminded mailers that new higher postage rates become effective today, including the 6-cents-an-ounce charge for first-class letters.

Other rates effective today, he noted, are: 10 cents an ounce for air mail, 5 cents each for postals, and 8 cents each for air postals cards.

"When you consider that 6 cents will carry a first-class letter addressed to any of 200 million persons in 50 states, as well as letters addressed to any of 63 million persons in Mexico and Canada," he added, "this still remains as one of the biggest bargains on earth."

The 20 per cent raise in first-class letter rates, effective today, is a smaller percentage raise than imposed on other types of mail.

He pointed out that there has been a 24 per cent raise in the rates for mailing newspaper and magazines and a 34 per cent hike in the charges for advertising circulars, "occupant" mail and other bulk third-class mail items.

The new rate provisions also establish important rate changes for heavier first-class mail pieces, Grady explained.

If the first-class mail piece weighs more than 13 ounces, it will go automatically by the fastest transportation available—meaning air service usually.

"Heavier first-class pieces, above 13 ounces, will be merged with air parcel post under a single rate schedule," he said, "and all air mail above 7 ounces also will be subject to the air parcel post rate schedule."

The postmaster assured local residents plenty of one-cent stamps are on hand for use with any existing stocks of 3-cent stamps they may have on hand. There are also adequate supplies of 6-cent stamps to meet the new first-class letter rate available at the post office, he said.

The higher rates become effective today also for other categories of mail used primarily by large-volume mailers. These include bulk third-class advertising mail rates, special rates for books, films and records.

The post office is working closely with commercial mailers to provide them with every possible assistance in complying with the technical provisions of these rate changes, Grady noted.

Absentee Voting Is Begun On Tax

Absentee balloting for the one-percent sales tax election was begun on January 3 and will continue through the 19th four days prior to the election on January 23, according to Earnest Langley, attorney for the city of Hereford.

Langley stated also that the last day for a personal appearance application for such ballot is Jan. 19, and it is also the last day officially for the absentee returns.

In order to be a qualified voter in this special election, Langley said, the person must be registered in the State of Texas with his 1967 receipt — issued last year. However, such person is required to have been a Hereford resident for at least six months.

Langley made it clear that the voter qualifications had nothing whatever to do with personal property or other taxes, only the musts of being a registered voter with a six-month residence in the city.

January 19 will fill on a Friday. The regular election will come on the following Tuesday.

An ordinance for the special election was passed unanimously by the Hereford City Commissioners last Dec. 18. Named as presiding judge was Robert Veigel Sr. Lloyd Pool was selected as alternate judge.

City Hall will be the scene of the voting.

City Manager Dudley Bayne, in a brief outline at the time of the ordinance, detailed what the new tax could call for. He listed new equipment, another policeman, and another man in the Park Department.

Another story in this issue of the Brand lists the number of cities in Texas which passed the sale tax before the new year began.

Tri-Hi-Y Members To Aid In March Of Dimes Drive

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

The two chapters of the Tri-Hi-Y at Hereford High School are finalizing plans for the March of Dimes.

In complete cooperation with each other, it will include collections both inside the school and throughout the city along with an offer of help to others who will be involved in various adult fund raising campaigns.

Jan Miller and Cynthia McMinn, presidents of the two chapters, advised that a film was to be secured for showings by W. C. Russell, the 1968 fund drive chairman, and that there would be an admission charge. All proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

No definite date has been set for the showing, but the subject of the film is to be upon the research of birth defects and polio, so that the students will gain a better understanding of the cause.

On Tuesday and Wednesday during the lunch periods, the Tri-Hi-Y will have a cookie sale at 2 for 5 cents with these funds earmarked for donation.

Also under discussion were the prospects of setting up "road blocks" on Main, Park Ave. and The Mall, pending the approval of the police, tentatively set for Saturday, January 20.

The two groups of girls have also volunteered their services as babysitters for the Mother's March campaign, so that as many ladies as possible will be available on January 22, under the sponsorship of the La Madre Mia Study Club.

The exhibitor of the Grand Champion steer, the Grand Champion barrow and the champion of each lamb class will not be eligible to compete in that division or class in future shows.

The Hereford Young Farmers reserve the right to disqualify any exhibitor or animal for any reason that is deemed necessary.

The judging schedule is: Barrows: Thursday, Feb. 15, 2 p. m. Lambs: Friday, Feb. 16, 10 a. m.; Steers: Friday, Feb. 16, 2 p. m. and Livestock judging contest, FFA and 4-H: Saturday, Feb. 7, 9 a. m.

Following the Deaf Smith County Show, entries from this county will be judged along with those from Castro, Parmer and Oldham counties.

Association, said that Secretary Freeman's naming Barton to this important trade mission is an indication of an esteem and prestige which High Plains grain sorghum producers have gained as authorities in production, marketing and utilization, and that, in addition to Barton's responsibility for reporting to the Secretary on his mission, the experience and information gained will be an asset to the Association as Barton continues his local leadership in directing Association research, market development and service programs.

However, both Misses MMinn and Miller reported that their school was a form of competition between all the classes, as far as the individual totals are concerned. HHS principal Bill Michael is working with the high school students.

Both of the local junior highs have set up programs for their own March of Dimes collections.

The Stanton program will follow assembly work of January 29, which will include fund raising on a class-by-class basis in the 18 individual home rooms.

A similar program is planned at La Plata.

Jerry Don George is principal at La Plata and Stanton's principal is W. C. Quattlebaum.

158 Cities Vote Approval Of Tax

Voters in 158 Texas cities containing 70 percent of the state's urban population approved the 1 percent municipal sales tax in elections held during 1967. The tax was defeated in only 22 cities.

Actual collection of the tax, authorized on a local option basis by the legislature last spring, began January 1, 1968, in 14 cities where elections were held and results reported to the state comptroller before the end of September. The comptroller administers the tax and returns proceeds, except for his expenses, to the city of origin, but the law allows a full calendar quarter to elapse between election and collection.

Cities where collections have begun include Aransas Pass, Austin, Brackettville, Corpus Christi, Elgin, El Paso, Henrieta, Igleside, Nacogdoches, Orange Grove, Port Aransas, Taylor, Texarkana, and Wichita Falls. Retailers in municipal sales tax cities collect 3 per cent (2 per cent state and 1 per cent city) of the price of purchases beginning at the 17 cent 49 cent range, where the first penny of tax falls. An additional penny for both state and city tax purposes is levied with each increase of approximately 33 c.nts. or fraction, of purchase price.

In 144 cities voting the tax between October 1 and December 31, 1967, collection will begin April 1.

The 158 cities approving the tax in 1967 contain a total population of 6,231,211. Population of cities defeating the tax last year totaled 377,987.

Elections during the first month of 1968 have been called in at least a dozen more cities.

Handwork Shown As Guest Speaks

A guest, Mrs. Ross Cooley, presented the program for Bud To Blossom Garden Club Friday morning in the home of Mrs. Bill Gentry, showing some of her unusually beautiful work in papier mache as she demonstrated that handcraft.

Mrs. Cooley explained the method of making the paper decorations on a variety of bases, demonstrating steps in completing a piece. Several finished articles were on display, illustrating different types of work with papier mache.

Mrs. Bruce Brown presided over a business session. The next meeting was announced for Jan. 19 at Community Center with Mrs. Bill Nelson as hostess, for a program on Hobbies For Home Decoration.

In addition to the speaker, guests were Mes. J.C. Henderson, Lloyd Neville and Arthur Tiefel. Other members at the meeting were Mes. Herbert Burns, Bob Cooper, Ernest Kendall, Sam Long, Nelson, Lou Orleans, Lloyd Sharp, Delmo Williams, R. N. Yarbrough and Jess Robinson.

Belief In Astrology Is Discussed In Club

Horoscopes, based on the supposed influence of the stars in analyzing character and predicting the future, have been used for more than 5,000 years and despite scientific belief that they have no value, they are still widely popular.

Mrs. Eugene Cope told L'Allegria Study Club members Thursday afternoon.

The club met in Mrs. James Higgins' home. Mrs. Cope spoke of the prevalence of faith in astrology as a guide for human conduct, saying that about ten million Americans are more or less devoted followers.

She displayed charts and showed how a horoscope is determined. Each member present gave her birth date and Mrs. Cope read a general horoscope, explaining how details are worked out by practitioners in astrology.

Mrs. Gerald Payne was a guest. Members present were Mes. Dennis Lomas, John E. Smith, Bill Warrick, Hazen Woods, Terrel Hodges, Cameron Gault, Jimmy Conkright and the speaker.

Choice And Care Of New Fabrics Is Club Topic

A post-holiday refreshment table holding a colorful array of dainties, one from each member present, featured the tea hour at the Thursday meeting of Bay View Study Club in First National Bank's Community Room.

No one hostess was designated, so each person had a share in hostess duty.

Mrs. R. B. Miller, president, conducted the business meeting and presided for committee reports.

Mr. W. S. Kerr gave the program on New Fabrics And Their Care. She said the very abundance of man-made fibers, with a variety of generic and trade names, makes the choice of fabrics confusing.

To help her hearers classify fabrics, she presented a display arranged by Mrs. Maurice Tannahill, showing different materials labeled with their fiber family names.

Since 1961 a law has required all fabrics on sale in retail stores, to carry labels showing the fiber content, she said, but while fiber content is a guide to fabric quality it is not the entire story. She urged the study of labels as a help in choosing fabrics for various purposes.

New fibers are often blended to secure a fabric with greater strength or with properties which make it easier to care for, the speaker added as she gave suggestions for best care of different types.

Other members present were Mes. Francis Hardwick, Howard Gault, Colby Conkright, Bruce Burney and H. L. Benefield.

Exchange Student Returns To City

Rene Batard, 1965 exchange student at Hereford High from France, has returned to the States with the intention of attending college at West Texas University in Canyon.

After Batard had returned to France and completed his thirteenth year, which is the number of school years required in France, he canceled his military deferment and was drafted in the French army for sixteen months. At that time, he knew that he wanted to come back to the States and study at WT.

Batard wants especially to study English while at college and supposes that will be his major. His schedule has not been worked out as of yet, and he isn't sure what else he will be taking.

To work hard and have a good time is Batard's main objective. As for extra-curricular activities, he doesn't know. One reason he chose WT as his college was because of its closeness to Hereford. Also, he likes the friendly atmosphere. "It's kind of like a large family," he stated. He also likes the friendliness of the professors.

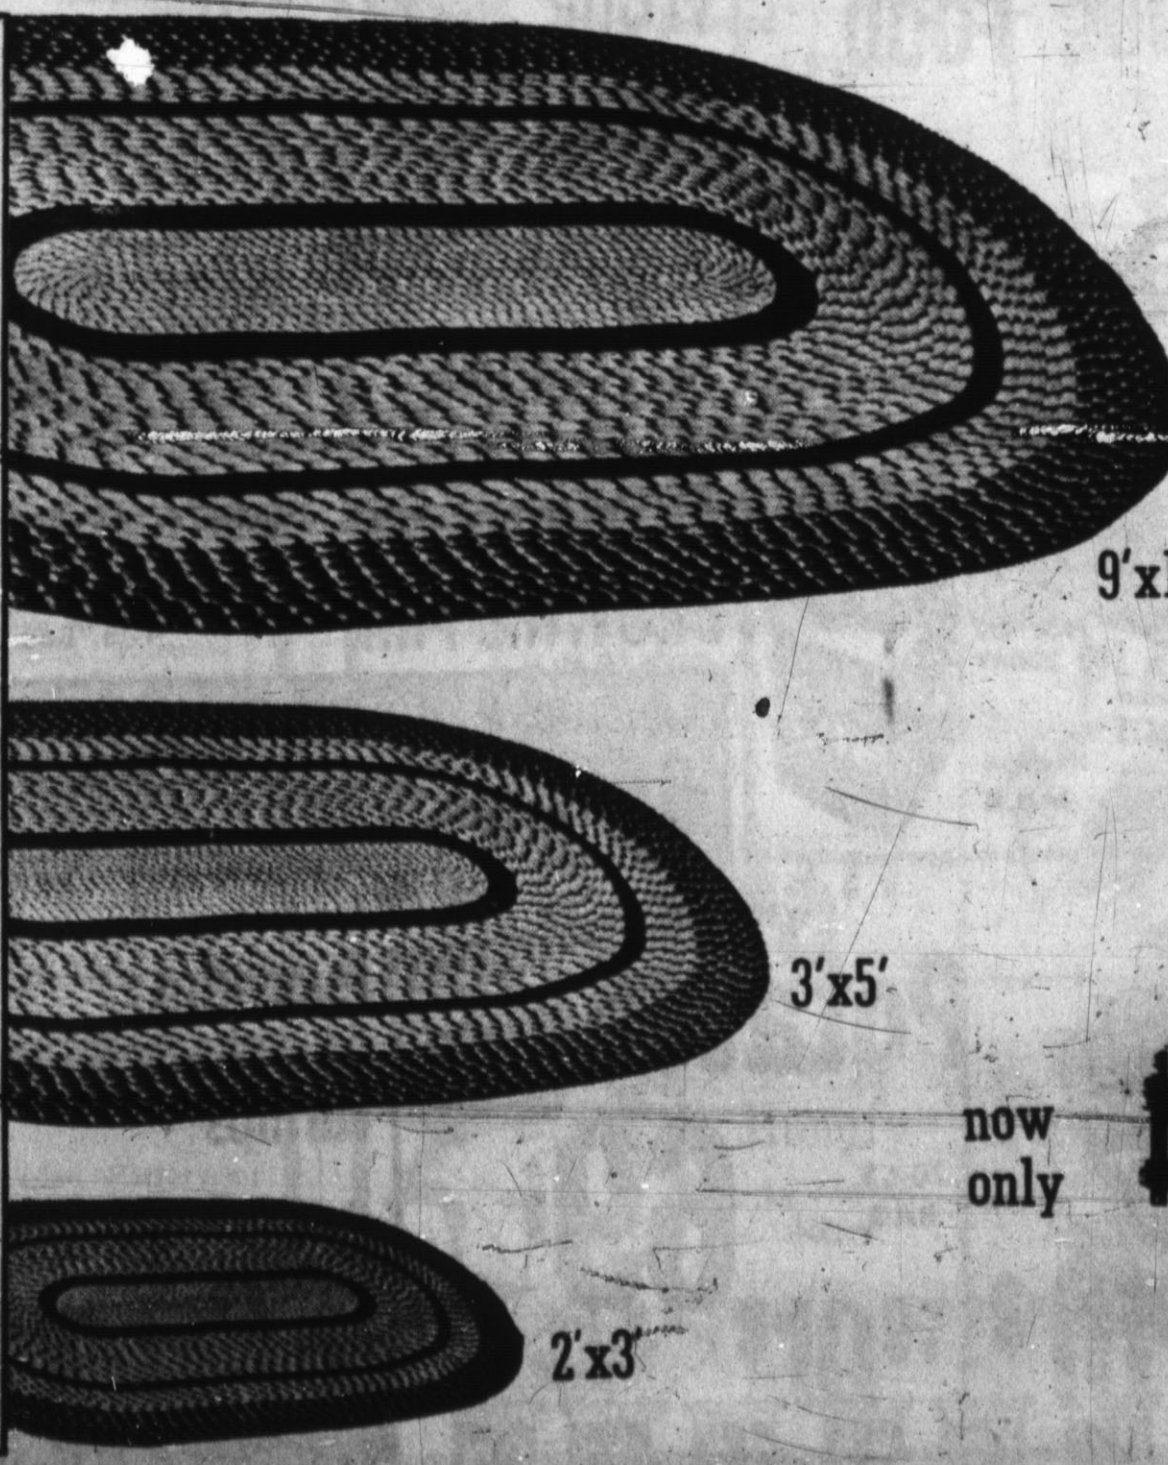

"The first thing I need to do is adjust to the American way of life," admits Batard. "It just takes time to adjust."

by MELVIN YOUNG

A group of local sports fans were gathered around the round table at The Caisson House recently discussing the past week's football thrillers and specifically extolling the virtues of the Dallas Cowboys who lost a heart-breaker last Sunday to the Green Bay Packers. Naturally, the sentiment was a little lopsided. Granted, Green Bay has a great football team. But this is Cowboy country, and it's just natural that the local boys would be leaning pretty heavy on the culprits who had the audacity to "upset" the state's favorite team. It's not surprising then that they were somewhat startled when a stranger approached the table and without a word, handed them a little round sticker proclaiming simply: "I'm a Packer backer."

As it turned out, the young man was an airman from Holloman Air Force Base at Alamogordo, N.M., whose home town is Green Bay, Wisconsin — and man, that's Packer country. However, he was a friendly type who just couldn't resist putting in a plug for his heroes.

Upon leaving, he left his trademark behind — "I'm a Packer Backer" plainly plastered on the glass door of The Caisson House restaurant.

Kenneth Cowan received a letter in the mail last week with a piece of yarn enclosed. It's the type used in decorating packages at Christmas time and apparently this one came from a Cowan package. The note suggested that Cowan might want to use it again.

"I'm not sure whether the customer is kidding me or whether he's insulted because his gift was tied with yarn", Cowan said. But anyhow he figures to take it in the lighter vein and if he can find out who returned the yarn, he'll save it to use on next year's package.

Personally we have never worried about how a gift was wrapped. We've always been interested in what the package contains.

Yesterday was the last day day to mail your letters at the 5c rate. The postal increase goes into effect today — 6c for first class and 10c for air mail letters.

Actually, that's still one of the biggest bargains we Americans receive. And in spite of all the heckling we give the post office department, over the long haul they do a pretty good job.

ment. Now that's what we call service.

Francis Hardwick tells us that he has Walt Disney's "Jungle Book" coming in March — at regular prices no less. The film has been packing the movie-houses in the larger cities and is considered one of the best yet. We plan to see it when it comes to Hereford.

Apparently chaos still reigns at Amarillo City Hall. And for whatever pain it may be causing the citizens of Amarillo, there's an equal amount of amusement from the hinterlands. We haven't had so much fun since attending our first circus.

If, and when, the Amarillo electorate takes care of the situation, the rest of us will have to revert back to TV or the movies for entertainment.

And while we're thinking about it, we might take issue with Amarillo weatherman Dan True concerning his statements about Big Bend park. True apparently figures that it isn't worth the trip down, but we spent a few days at the park last February and found that it is everything the travel literature says it is — and perhaps a little more. In other words, if you ever have the opportunity to make a trip to Big Bend, don't turn it down. It's well worth your time and trouble.

If you have leftover fish, mix it with mayonnaise, a few capers, some lemon juice and celery for a delicious fish salad. Serve on tossed greens with cucumber slices, cherry tomatoes.

Garden Fences Studied As Landscape Features

Fences as a basic feature of home grounds were discussed in a meeting of Garden Beautiful Club Friday afternoon in Mrs. V. O. Hennen's home. Mrs. N.D. Bartlett was co-hostess, who also introduced program guests.

Films were shown and questions answered about cement fences of various types, by representatives of a firm which builds them. R. L. Layman of the local office was in charge of the program.

Hostess plans were started for the winter luncheon of Deaf Smith Federated Clubs, scheduled at noon Jan. 30. Garden

Beautiful, Lone Star and Music Study Clubs will be hostesses at Community Center.

Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr., vice president, conducted business in the absence of Mrs. Noinad, president. Members voted a cash contribution to help install cabinets for china and glassware at Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

Those present included Mrs. don Robinson, Roy Smith, Charles Hood, B. E. Roberson, Carl Swanson, Homer Newton, Ansel McDowell, W. J. Stanford, Leo Witkowski, Will S. Kerr, De- ward Roberson and E. W. Young

Sheriff Speaks To Auxiliary

Guest speaker to the American Legion Auxiliary this week was Sheriff Ed Roberson, who discussed drugs and their relation to crime in this community and over the nation. He termed the problem a comparatively small one here, saying that Hereford has been fortunate in that respect.

Reports were made on Christmas activities of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Bill Gilleland, welfare chairman, said a box of gifts and a check were sent to Giristown and two local families were sent boxes. Mrs. Ira Ott and Mrs. Cecil Wilkins told of the annual gift shop and Christmas party at the Amarillo Veterans Hospital.

Mrs. Fran Smith and Mrs. Dolly Dawson, hostesses, served refreshments to the Auxiliary and also to AMERICAN Legion members who met the same evening.

Club President Nominated As Woman Of Year

President of North Hereford Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. Paul Hoff is its nominee for H. D. Club Woman of the Year Deaf Smith County. She was chosen at a meeting in her home Thursday afternoon.

Each H. D. Club in the county is selecting a nominee, and the County title will be decided at the annual appreciation luncheon Jan. 22. Mrs. Hoff is also the North Hereford nominee as a delegate to the District Texas H. D. Association convention from this county.

Plans for the appreciation luncheon were discussed, and 1968 yearbooks were completed at the first meeting for a new year, which was devoted entirely to business.

Present were: Meses. R. A. Fullwood, Otto Massie, Fred Barrett, W. J. Lueb, Viola Williams, O. L. Williams and L. C. Whitehead.

home of Mrs. C. R. Winget. Mrs. Art Stoy was co-hostess.

A girl and boy living in a foster home will be assisted with cash from the club treasury, and with personal gifts which are to be collected within a week. Members are to bring gifts to Tannahill Fabric Shop to be taken all together to the youngsters.

Mrs. Don Robinson presented the program, a lesson in handicrafts. She showed how to make several types of colorful artificial flowers which are popular in home decoration now.

Using both crepe paper and tissue she made large Mexican flowers. Raffia and burlap were the materials for other flowers, made on foundations of styrofoam and cardboard.

A change in the next meeting day was announced, since the date falls on the evening of the annual Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce banquet. The club will have its program on Jan. 25 instead of Jan. 18.

Hostesses served refreshments to Miss Gladys Setliff, Meses. R. N. Yarbro, Baxter London, Marvin Knox, Merlin Kaul, Noble Howard, W. H. Gentry, S. L. Garrison, Kenneth Fanning, Johnny Clark, E. D. Braddy, N. D. Bartlett, Labry Ballard, R. P. Coneway, Maurice Tannahill and Robinson.

Winter Program Opened At Refuge

By TYLER VANCE
Staff Writer

BUFFALO LAKE — Pan-handle residents now have the opportunity to view wildlife at its best — and closest — as the winter recreation program at Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge was opened Friday afternoon.

Refuge manager Gordon Hansen unveiled the new facilities, improved camping sites and roads, and most important — the wildlife exhibits which permits close-up inspection of the water fowl.

Plans for the winter program this year were almost ruined by a fire which entirely gutted the main office building on Nov. 2. However, some articles were salvaged from the building, permitting Hansen to put into action a few of the original ideas for improving the Refuge.

The winter visitor to the lake will find greatly improved, if not all together new picnic areas, restrooms, and roads. A new boat ramp also awaits the boating enthusiast. The ramp is 140 feet long, the longest on the lake, and able to handle any type craft that can be used on Buffalo Lake.

A new feature has been added — duck blinds — from which visitors can see first-hand the thousands of water fowl now making their home on the lake. The blinds also will be helpful to nature photographers, allowing them to get right up on the birds without the fowl seeing them.

Two such blinds have been completed, and plans call for four more blinds to be built next year, as well as re-building of the office.

A system of tours, both guided and self-guided have been instigated. According to Hansen, tours will be available on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, with guided tours starting at 2 p. m.

Group tours are also available, and will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Hansen noted that the refuge would be open from early morning to sunset for those wishing to watch the birds going in and out of the park to feed. Geese leave early in the morning and return at sunset, while ducks leave in the evening and return at sun up. During these times the sky is filled with birds, creating quite an impressive sight.

Guided tours will last about two hours, and will cover 13 miles round-trip. On the tours, visitors will see water fowl first-hand from the blinds, and have a chance to learn about the birds from instructive signs or "stations" along the way. Another feature of the tours will enable visitors to watch the banding operation of the ducks and geese.

The local Refuge has been instructed to band 500 geese and 1000 mallard ducks. The bands contain information of sex, age and present location of the birds. They are used to keep track of the migratory paths of water fowl. Hansen noted that a bird banded at Buffalo lake had been found in Northern Canada previously. He also noted that the birds differ in their routes, as one goose was spotted at Midway Island, some 3,600 miles from the United States!

The ducks are first lured into a pen, then banded and turned free. The pen is also a new improvement at the lake. Officials noted that the banding operation should be complete by the end of January. At present, there are about 40,000 geese and 450,000 ducks on the lake.

Another improvement being made at the lake is the introduction of Northern Pike, into the lake water. The Pike are being stocked in the lake to keep down the total of carp and other such fish that are not desirable for eating.

The introduction of young Pike into the lake was tried last May, but because of their small size were unable to survive. The project this time calls for the fish to be held in a small pond created with the building of a dike and roadway at the refuge until they reach large enough size to survive.

The average pike will reach a weight of 10 pounds in two years and grow to a weight of 20-30 pounds in its lifetime.

The 1968 visitor to Buffalo lake will be surprised at the many improvements that have been made during the last year, said Hansen.

With the new and improved picnic facilities, restroom and roads, combined with the new duck blinds and information stations, perhaps the record set last year of 543,000 tourists visiting the refuge will be broken.

BAND APPLICATION — Assistant Park manager Dick Gritman adjusts an identification band on a bird's leg.

MOVING THE BIRDS TO A HOLDING PEN

BANDING PROCESS — Water fowl are first captured in a net trap and herded down to a holding pen at the end of the trap. There, they are checked individually by park officials (which sometimes proves to be quite a job) to see if they have been previously banded. If the bird is wearing a band, he is set free. However if there is not a band on his leg, Assistant Refuge Manager Dick Britman fits one on. The end result of the banding program is that Refuge officials all across the nation can trace a birds migratory flight.

CHECKING BIRDS FOR BANDS CAN BE QUITE A JOB

MANAGER AND FRIEND — Refuge manager Gordon Hansen holds one of the 450,000 ducks now located at Buffalo lake.

Ice Blamed For Minor Accident

A two-car accident at the intersection of 25 Mile Avenue and Higgins Street last Sunday morning resulted in approximately $160.

Police said a 1967 Chrysler driven by Lloyd Kibbe of Ulysses, Kan., was driving east on Higgins when he stopped for a signal at the intersection. A 1958 Pontiac driven by Mary Lou Zepeda of 408 Barret was going south on 25 Mile Avenue and began sliding when the driver applied the brakes.

The Pontiac slid into the front of the Chrysler, causing an estimated $125 damage to the Chrysler and $35 damage to the Pontiac.

A citation was issued for causing a negligent collision by improper turn (on ice).

Herd Ready For District, First Half Of Season Ends

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

With the completion of pre-district cage action, the Herd will go against the Tulia Hornets Tuesday night.

Though pre-district statistics show that the Herd is behind in most departments, the point difference is very slight.

Leading the team in scoring is Bobby Burwick, who has an average of 17.8 points per game. Burwick also leads the team in three other categories as he has a total of 123 rebounds to his credit along with a season total of 267 points and a field goal percentage of 46.4 per cent, hitting 102 field goal attempts out of a total of 220.

Marsh Pitman leads the team at the free throw line as he has hit 29 of his 46 tries for an average of 63.0 per cent.

While the records show that the Whitefaces are a little behind in the average per game section with 46.9 per game as compared to 57.3 to their opponents, their rebounding tops their foes with a total of 520 to 504.

In the free throw percentage, the Herd has hit 55.8 per cent of their attempts while the opposing teams have averaged a sum of 58.4 per cent. Also, the Herd is slightly behind in the field goal percentage as they have only popped the net for 34.8 per cent of their total tries while the other teams have a total of 39.5 per cent.

The seasonal statistics for the Junior Varsity are quite similar to those of the varsity as they sport a record of 6 wins and 9 losses.

Jim Rakestraw takes high point honors for the Junior varsity as he has an average of 11.4 points per game and a seasonal total of 114 points to his credit.

Leading in two departments is Percy Mays, who has hit for 40.4 per cent of his field goal attempts and is runner-up to Rakestraw in the scoring department as he has a total average of 8.5 points per game.

Mays also leads the J.V.'s in rebounding with 42 thus far this season. Willie Holmes leads in free throw percentage as he has hit for 66.7 per cent of his tries.

Team totals show that the Junior Varsity has netted a total of 553 points as compared to 598 for their opponents. This averages out to 50.3 points per game to 54.4 for their foes.

In the field goal section, the J.V.'s are only slightly behind as they have hit for 34.5 per cent to an average of 36.5 per cent for the other teams.

While the statistics show that both teams are slightly behind in most categories—it must be noted that all of the games that have been played have either been won or lost by very few points and all the teams that they have played have proved to be tough teams—many of them class AAAA.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Husmann, Route 1, and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kuper of Summerfield.

Mr. Husmann gave his daughter, in marriage in the double ring service. Steve and Matt Husmann, brothers of the bride, served as acolytes in the ceremony.

Sisters of the bridal couple, Miss Dolores Kuper and Miss Mary Husmann, were the bride's attendants. John Kuper acted as his brother's best man and John Husmann, brother of the bride, as groomsman.

The bride was graduated from Immaculate Conception High School in Great Bend and attended Immaculate Conception College there a year. She is presently employed by West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Eighty girls of assorted ages were made happy Christmas with gifts to Girlstown USA from over West Texas. Many of these were from generous people in Deaf Smith County, and I'd like for them all to know how much their gifts meant.

This Christmas was one of the nicest, I believe the very nicest, ever celebrated at Girlstown, with more food, clothes and household necessities received, as well as more of the gifts which make the holiday happy for girls — toys for the smaller ones and things like cosmetics or pretty costume jewelry for the teenagers.

Clubs, Sunday School classes and business firms contributed, and so did many, many individuals with large or small gifts which added up to the big total. Efforts are being made to thank every one, but many of the gifts were made anonymously so this is the only way to say "thank you and God bless you" to each giver.

It would have made you feel that your gift was very much worthwhile if you could have seen the girls at Christmas. From all 80 of them, and from all the board members and adult staff members, comes this very sincere message of appreciation.

Sincerely,
Viola Williams (Board member)

Trio To Aid Local Junior Historians

Three members of LaPlata Study Club were named to work with Deaf Smith County Junior Historical Society this year, at a meeting Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Howard R. Johnson. Assistance to the junior society is a major club project.

Mrs. E. W. Dettman, Mrs. Milton Adams and Mrs. Johnson are the club representatives who will work directly with the young history enthusiasts.

Other business included appointment of a nominating committee headed by Mrs. Philip Shook, to report next month when officers for 1968-69 will be elected.

A guest, Tommie Bishoff, an instructor in vocational classes at Hereford High School, was introduced by Mrs. Larry Dippel to give the program on the topic, Room For Improvement. She gave practical suggestions for improved personal appearance, including better posture and grooming.

Out-Of-City Guests Come To Wedding

Ushers were Richard and Roy Kuper, cousins of the bridegroom, Eugene Diller of Dallas and Robert S. Williams of Amarillo, the bride's brother-in-law.

Another brother of the bridegroom, Larry Kuper, was the vocal soloist whose selections were Panis Angelicus, Ave Maria, Our Father, and Mother At My Feet. Miss Linda Wieck of Amarillo played traditional organ music.

Gleaming white satin made the bride's gown, cut with empire waist, a floor length A-line skirt and fitted sleeves pointed at the wrist. Lace motifs were applied on the skirt and the chapel train.

A floral coil ornamented with seed pearls held her illusion veil. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a white orchid circled with pom-pom mums.

Bridesmaids' dresses were of similar style, with blue velvet bodices above brocade skirts. Headpieces were Dior bows of the dress fabric. Each carried one white mum with blue ribbon streamers.

For the wedding and the reception following in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. Husmann chose a lace dress of avocado green with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a costume of maroon, the dress in two-piece style.

Mrs. Willie Artho, sister of the bride, registered guests. The reception ended with a dance for relatives and close friends of the families.

The travel ensemble of Mrs. Kuper as she left on the wedding trip to Missouri and Kansas was a tent dress of blue wool worn with plaid fingertip coat with blue as its dominant color. Accessories were black.

Officers for a new year will be elected at the annual meeting of Hereford Camp Fire Girls Board at 7:30 p. m. Monday in Community Center. Charlie Bell as president heads present officers.

All registered adult members of the local Camp Fire Council are urged to attend the annual meeting. A program will be given by Camp Fire and Horizon Club members of the city, and various activities of the coming months will be discussed.

The Father-Daughter banquet, yearly big social event in which girls of all ages in the Camp Fire program participate, is to be held Jan. 19 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

HEREFORD HIGH WINS AGAIN — In the third round of competition against Friona in the "Learn and Live" television quiz Saturday from Amarillo, Hereford won 90-60. The Hereford High School team, seated left to right, are Kenneth Justice (alternate), Jerry Odum, Jane Zinser and Laquita Robison. The team's sponsor, Jean Schumacher, is pictured across the table from them. They are now eligible to vie for first place in 4th round competition. Their opponents will be the upcoming winner of the game between Shamrock and Caprock (Amarillo).

Casa de Amigos

By KIETH SCHROYER
Last Summer, plans were made at the Casa de Amigos for the formation of a community organization in the Labor Camp. The object of such an organization was to get the people of the camp meeting together to find solutions to common problems.

Visits were first made to the parents of preschool children. Some of these parents had not been in the Casa before and actually knew little about the preschool itself. With this in mind, several of the families were invited to the Casa to see the preschool classrooms, see their children work and talk at length with the teachers.

Only several of these meetings were held. It was found that during the Summer months it was very difficult to set up meetings as work in the fields often lasted very late.

Two months ago, as work began to diminish, it was felt that the time was good to try community meetings once more. Notes were sent home with each preschool child describing the meeting at the Casa of all parents of the preschoolers. The parents were again invited to see the classrooms, their children work and to talk with the teachers.

Twenty-four parents came to the open house and talked informally among themselves and

Following the meeting, again conversation started among themselves as well as with Mr. Abalos.

The third meeting took place just before Christmas. Mrs. Estela Lineavever, a nurse at the Castro County Health Project spoke to the parents concerning good health practices and preventive medicine. She explained some basic illnesses while emphasizing the importance of adequate medical care.

Following the meeting, the parents again talked among themselves as well as with Mrs. Lineavever. The conversations lasted for almost an hour and ranged from discussions about the weather to medical problems. This extended conversation was exciting to see in this situation where the people do not have neighbors as we know them, or any sense of a community.

The next step is visiting, at Although nowadays a cheese and cracker course is often served on a wooden serving dish or a wooden tray, there's nothing against using a dish or tray of silver, glass or china for the cheese and crackers.

—Small Talk—

Instead of opening the first season of the new Hereford Community Concert Association, pianist Peter Nero will provide a climax with an appearance here in March, I've lately learned.

DUE TO PLAY in the first concert last fall, Nero became ill and was forced to cancel a part of his fall tour. It was a blow to the association here because it had just got itself organized and the Nero concert was booked as the piece de resistance of the season.

The local group had the choice of canceling the Nero concert entirely and booking a substitution, or waiting to see if the pianist could come here later in the season. Board members opted the latter course, which looks now as it were the wiser.

Recovered and on the road again, Nero can come here in March which will make the first season of Hereford Community Concerts short but sweet, with a program every month for three months.

EXACT DATE in March has not been set; local members and the booking agency are talking over four or five possible dates and in the meantime being sure that nothing else is scheduled for the high school auditorium on any of them.

length, among the people in camp as to the prospects for future meetings. Throughout the first three meetings, attempts were made to illustrate the good benefits which could result from community meetings. Hopefully, the people in camp will now be able to help us with suggestions as to what they would like discussed, who they would like to hear and what they would like this organization to do and be.

Now slated as preliminaries to the Nero appearance instead of follow-ups are the program by Richard Liebert, organist, the 27th of this month and the Texas Boys Choir concert Feb. 22.

THAT COMMENT above, about avoiding date conflicts at the auditorium, reminds me of date conflicts in general, a pesky thing at times. Why on earth they happen as they do is one of the universal mysteries.

There is nothing logical in a situation like this: In a given month, in the whole Western Panhandle there are two events you want to attend — one in Canyon, perhaps, and one in Friona. What are they booked on? You know the answer — the same night.

Right now I'm thinking of musical programs, but it doesn't matter exactly what, the result is the same if it is flower shows or wrestling matches or political speakings. Nobody sits down and doubles up on dates on purpose, but that's the way they come.

THE LATEST instance to annoy me was the Amarillo Symphony concert and our high school's choral concert. I'm sure a lot of other people here wanted to hear both but were forced to choose.

It would be nice if some sort of clearing committee could function, keeping a list of special events at least at WTSU, Amarillo and Lubbock which Hereford people would be interested in, and having the information available when some local program was to be scheduled, so the list could be checked and the double-up avoided.

It could even head off conflicts in local programs, which happen sometimes. Maybe the Chamber of Commerce Fine Arts Committee could set up such a sub-committee, for fine arts programs?

Area Ranch Was Home

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A ranch near Adrian was Mrs. Emmett Duke's home while she was growing up, so when she and her family moved here a few months ago from New Mexico, she felt that she was coming back to home territory.

ACTUALLY, almost all her life has been spent in the country along the New Mexico-Texas Panhandle border, and the move to Hereford was from Tucumcari.

Mrs. Duke is the wife of one of the new deputies on the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's staff. At Tucumcari, Duke's work was with the New Mexico Cattle Sanitary Board, concerned chiefly with enforcement of state livestock regulations and investigation of cattle theft cases.

He is a longtime law enforcement officer and Mrs. Duke says the disadvantages of that type of work, the long and irregular hours and possibly dangerous assignments, are simply taken as a matter of course in the family.

"IN KEEPING HOUSE, I work around his hours," she explains. She also adjusts her household schedule to fit her own hours, as she has held office employment most of the time during her marriage. She has been working part time in city hall offices since she came to Hereford.

One of her interests when she was Bonnie Lotspeich, a high school student at Adrian, was basketball. She is still trim and slender, with the tall, lithe figure of a basketball star although her role in athletics now is that of a spectator.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Duke, and now their junior high age daughter D'Ann, enjoy watching school football and basketball games, their favorite recreation as a family.

SEWING FOR her daughter and herself is a homemaking task that she likes especially, although she finds all the routine of housekeeping a pleasure rather than a chore. Cooking can be fun, she adds, with baking her favorite phase.

As her daughter grows up she finds herself more involved in that young lady's busy life which this year includes membership in a Camp Fire group, in the school band and other campus activity. Also, there are piano lessons. The Duke family attends First Baptist Church.

Bonnie Duke is a native of Floydada, but she was a small girl when her parents moved to the Adrian community where they still reside. She started to school at nearby Endee, N. M., transferred to Adrian when she reached high school.

AFTER GRADUATION she was a student at West Texas State University a year and a half.

She has a sister living at Tucumcari and a brother at Hale Center; since Duke's parents as well as hers reside not too far

Local Couple Will Attend Austin Events

Younger Farmer Larry Dobbs of the Frio community is scheduled to attend the Young Farmers Convention at Austin on January 12. Mrs. Dobbs will also attend, as a representative of the Young Homemakers.

The convention will be held at the Terrace Motor Hotel, two miles south of downtown Austin, with registration beginning at 8:30 a. m. The banquet will be held Friday night and will continue through the dinner on Saturday.

away, there is considerable visiting among relatives. Mrs. Duke has revived acquaintances from her schooldays and made many new ones since she has lived here.

The Duke's home is at 129 Ave. I, shared by the family with a frisky gray poodle, Fritz. A birthday gift to D'Ann, the little dog has made himself a member of the family and gives callers an enthusiastic welcome.

Concerning Veterans

Five new categories of specialized flying training can now be taken under the GI Bill, the Veterans Administration and the Federal Aviation Administration announced recently.

FAA district offices are accepting requests from certified flying schools that want to offer the following types of FAA approved training to veterans who already hold pilot certificates:

- "Class" ratings to cover additional ratings to be added to instructor certificates.
- Proficiency training needed to prepare for an airline transport rating.
- Proficiency training needed for a certificate as a rotorcraft external load operator or chief pilot.
- Proficiency training needed for a certificate as an agricultural aircraft operator or supervisor.

ed. for veterans under the Veterans Pension and Readjustment Assistance Act of 1967 (Public Law 90-77), but two conditions were specified:

First, the eligible veteran must have a valid private pilot certificate (or have completed the necessary flying training leading to such a certificate), and be medically qualified for a commercial pilot certificate.

Second, the flight school courses must meet FAA standards and be approved by FAA and the appropriate State authority.

At the time the law was passed, FAA inspected and certified only those flying training courses leading to pilot certificates, instructor certificates and instrument ratings. The number of applications from veterans for the more advanced courses caused FAA to amend its rules to include them.

Those taking approved flying training are reimbursed quarterly for 90 percent of the cost of the course they are taking.

Organization May Be Key In Farmer's Big Challenge

The new year, 1968, offers many challenges, but the one who faces the greatest challenge of all is the American farmer; and this includes many of us who do not actually till the soil.

Today, the farmer is receiving far less for the products he grows than he received a decade ago, which leaves him in a boat all by himself. The things he buys and the things other people buy, including foods and fibers, have increased tremendously in cost over the same period of time. About this situation, there is no argument.

Only through increased efficiency and greater production has the farmer been able to survive. This has been supplemented from time to time through government "exceptions" which failed to include the farmer under the same laws which most producers had to face. Currently, however these exemptions are gradually being revoked, and within the next year or so the farmer is likely to find himself subject to the same regulations which govern the merchant, manufacturer, and processor. When this time comes, he will of necessity change his way of life.

Doing something now would, of course, be highly preferable — but what? Several farm organizations have made attempts to help remedy the plight and we hear constant complaints on the part of the producer these days. Because the labor vote is so much larger than that of the farmer, he can expect little consideration on the political front; certainly, nothing like the attention he once demanded and got.

Organization seems to be the logical answer, but we have always understood that the American farmer is an independent soul, one who seldom, if ever, successfully organizes for a mutual cause. Whether he can suddenly emerge in this new roll is highly questionable.

Meanwhile, he automatically has considerable assistance from all of the people who live in agricultural communities, including retail suppliers, chemical dealers, machinery and equipment manufacturers, and several other sources where his money goes, including the so-called "country" banks. This enlarges the challenge and places it before the community: the people we might designate as Rural America. It becomes immediately the No. 1 problem before every chamber of commerce in "small town U. S. A.," because it is the greatest problem all of its members must face.

Right now, our greatest void appears to rest in a need for leadership on national, state and local levels. Let us hope, once the need becomes acute enough that it will develop, just as leadership has always appeared in this country in times of crisis.

Last Year's Big Problems May Be Bigger In 1968

Here we are with a New Year, and it seems to us that America's two big problems are centered around taxes and riots.

Maybe "little people" shouldn't worry about things like this, but the "wheels" are not getting along very well as things stand, and no one seems to have anything resembling an answer.

The government says we are spending too much, which is probably right, but neither are they setting us a very good example. A few years back, probably about the time of the last election, it was quite popular to point out that our taxes had reached the breaking-point; we were reminded of the fall of the Roman Empire, along with other things, and pretty well decided that taxes simply couldn't go any higher.

But they did. What's more, they are going up again in 1968, if our guess is correct, and probably some more after that.

All of which is bad enough, but when one stops to realize that instead of paying off some of our nation's staggering debts, the government is still on that deficit spending spree started by Franklin D. Roosevelt back in the '30's and despite the highest tax schedules in the world's history, we are going further and further in debt. This is disheartening to many people.

Next to taxes, the one thing which has expanded the most has been riots. Nobody in his right mind wants riots, but if we have to have them, it does seem that they are cropping up in the wrong places. The folks who are paying the taxes every week, it seems to us, are the ones with the most reason to riot. However, they just keep on paying the piper, and plugging away day after day. Maybe after they work enough to pay their taxes they are just too tired to protest.

Meanwhile, the Democrats are far more liberal than the Socialists were a few years back, and the Republicans are, likewise, more liberal than were the Democrats. No doubt about it, "Federalism" is a fast spreading malady. Nobody knows just how far it can spread before things crack up, but it does seem that we are going to find out, and there probably isn't a lot of use to worry about it too much, because all we will likely have left will be some new-flanged type of Hippie — and who wants to spend his time worrying about folks like that?

Jr. College May Be Top News Of '68

While not of prime public interest, the recent announcement that a state designated junior college in the Oldham Farmer-Deaf Smith-Castro area could be the biggest news to come our way in 1968.

With colleges already in the throes of an enrollment explosion, it is logical that this area will follow the pattern of New York and California in establishing more junior colleges. These units are highly practical because they make education available to many people who would find food and lodging a handicap. A promising student, after two years, will likely find scholarships available in cases where additional schooling is warranted. Such extensions may, in fact, become part of the local school system if viewed on a long-range basis.

Designation of this area for a junior college, on the other hand, solves a multitude of problems: 1) being state established, it will carry automatic curricular advantages; 2) a goodly portion of the cost will be state absorbed or subsidized, and 3) graduates will have far less troubles with transfer of credits.

Education will play a far greater roll in the life of the average American than it has ever played in the past. The fact that this territory is in a position to offer its residents educational opportunities equal to those of any other place in Texas is a necessity to future growth and development. Put all of these things together, and we believe you will agree that the junior college designation may well be among the foremost achievements of the territory in the current year.

Certain Problems May Stop Continued Economic Growth

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Continued economic expansion in 1968 is the virtually unanimous expectation of forecasters inside and outside government, despite a number of problems clouding the horizon.

For a record 83 months business barometers have been edging upward. History says the boom cannot last forever but few seers think a downturn is coming this year. A greater fear is that expansion will be so large as to be unhealthy.

One big question mark is the 10 percent surtax which the President failed to sell to Congress last fall. He will renew his campaign soon, his case strengthened by devaluation of the dollar and the resulting threat to the stability of the dollar.

Most economists and business leaders expect that higher taxes will be enacted in 1968, and their forecasts are based on that assumption. But the tax decision will be made by politicians in an election year. The odds on a tax increase are lower on Capitol Hill than they are on Wall Street.

Congress will reexamine the tax question in coming weeks but a swift decision is not expected. The issue will probably hang fire until spring. Key legislators will insist on examining the spending plans of the Administration first. Nobody expects a spending cut while there is a war in Vietnam and an election at home but Congress will insist on some restraint in expenditures.

More Inflation Seen

Businessmen and housewives are expected to be told that inflation is with us today and will be an increasing problem tomorrow. Consumer prices have risen steadily in recent months and everybody expects a further rise in 1968. The cost-of-living index seems sure to mount.

Labor unions will be even more militant than usual this year in their quest for higher wages to offset higher prices. A shortage of skilled workers will improve the bargaining position of union negotiators. Inflation may bring a clamor for imposition of Federal controls over wages and prices, as has been done in all past wars, including Korea. Congressional action would be required to impose controls. A decision is likely to be deferred until 1969.

Strikes in major industries may affect the economy in 1968. Almost 600 contracts in key industries employing about 2.3 million union members are up for renewal this year. Steel, aluminum, construction and transportation equipment are among the areas where labor trouble is anticipated.

The prospect of a steel strike next summer may stimulate the economy in coming months, because manufacturers are expected to stockpile supplies in anticipation of either a stoppage or higher prices stemming from a costly settlement. Another temporary stimulant may be rising auto sales, influenced in part by catch-up business resulting from the Ford strike last fall.

8 Million Car Year Expected
Despite the Ford strike, Detroit enjoyed its third largest year in 1967. Sales of passenger cars and trucks totaled 8 million.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his hindweed farm comes up with some news this week we hadn't heard about.

Dear editor:
I know that cities have about all the problems they can handle and then some, the city problem has now pulled up alongside the farm problem, so I hate to report on the latest scientific discovery I ran across at the bottom of an inside page of a newspaper I found under a pile of tin cans and Christmas wrappings in the ditch near my hindweed grass out here yesterday.

According to this article, a new bug has been discovered in Australia that eats up paved roads. That's right. The bug, so small it takes a microscope to see it, can consume matter equal to its own weight every five seconds and can multiply into 17,000,000 in 24 hours. Its favorite diet is blacktop roads.

It eats the oil out and the road then gradually falls apart, scientists have discovered. Miles of roads in Australia have been ruined by the bug.

I have been claiming all along that insects are smarter than men, that every time man comes out with a new insecticide, the insects come out with a few insect, and this sure bears me out.

The way I figure it, the insects have been noticing that more and more farm land is being paved, put into highways and city streets and suburbs and shopping centers — hundreds of thousands of acres a year according to the latest estimate — and they said, "Look, if this keeps up, there's going to be less and less crops for us to work on, we got to find a new source of supply," so they've come out with an insect that thrives on pavement.

I feel sorry for the city people. Get this road bug started in the United States and no telling what will happen to city streets, a lot of which already are in pretty bad shape. It'd take a mighty hungry bug to attack some of them. And after they finish with the streets, you know they'll start on the concrete foundations of buildings.

There are times when I feel like we ought to let up on the moon for awhile and get to work on our problems on earth, although if scientists can't do any better at fighting insects than I have out here on this hindweed farm, I don't blame them for trying the moon.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Last week I came upon this monstrosity of a bumper sticker, prominently displayed on a late model luxury automobile: ABJ in '68". Beneath it was the explanation, "Anyone But Johnson."

Hopefully, this won't be the attitude of the typical voter when he approaches the polls in national election this November. National issues are quite sufficient for determining who should be president, without regarding such asinine bumper stickers and attitudes as some openly disgruntled citizens are bound to display.

In many crowds of young people today, President Lyndon Johnson is unpopular, to say the least. But too often the attitude displayed is one of "Anyone But Johnson." It is hard to conceive of people being so dissatisfied that they would prefer absolutely anyone over Lyndon Johnson. If these critics would take a little more time for evaluation, they might soften their tones a little when they consider what the alternatives are.

Some people will never be satisfied with any President; they will pick the national leader to pieces at any opportunity, no matter what his party. This type person isn't hard to locate.

He doesn't take into account the fact that problems of war, economics, civil rights and civil liberties have not come about because Johnson was elected. The president did not create the problems; all he has had to do is find the answers.

If critics don't like the way things are being run on Capitol Hill, why don't they propose better answers to the problems at hand? Some are probably afraid to think of better answers, because they don't know what they are. So these people sidetrack the issue completely, thinking that answers to problems come about by doing nothing — by ignoring the situation.

Voting behavior studies indicate that the more informed a person is on matters of national concern, the less likely he is to be concerned about who will win a national election. The better informed person recognizes that problems exist, and solutions have to be found, no matter who is elected.

And this is what creates the split. Some people want leaders to find answers. Others prefer leaders to ignore problems entirely. There is less "government interference" that way.

50 YEARS AGO

The Hereford Chamber of Commerce New Years plans were presented at an informal luncheon under the theme, A Bigger and Better Hereford. In the absence of president D. L. McDonald, who was compelled to be away on business at the time, vice-president Henry Wilkinson presided. The other directors present were John P. Slaton, E. B. Posey, Eli Dunlap, C. C. Chenorveth and Pat Jowell. In addition were W. S. Williams, R. T. Evans, Rev. J. E. McClurkin, Mayor W. M. Knight and Seth B. Holman.

A special War Savings meeting was held at the Deaf Smith County Court House at 3 p. m. Sunday. Due to the illness of A. P. Murchinson, in a hospital at Temple, R. T. Evans took charge. (Mr. Murchinson died at Temple within a few days.)

A park board was named for the city. Three ladies and three men were announced by the City Commission, although they hadn't been selected as yet. The city owned a great number of triangles, which were to be beautified; others were to be secured.

Local Red Cross workers were needed.

The Star Theater was showing "Up and Down" with George Hernandez and "Rough House" with Fatty Arbuckle, Monday-Saturday. There were no Sunday showings.

Raymond Hawkins left for Stillwater, Okla., where he entered Oklahoma A & M.

One of the lightest votes ever cast in the county was that recorded Tuesday in the general election, only a bare 200 out of a possible 700 being recorded. Very little interest was manifested. All returns were in Thursday with the exception of Ford School house and Howard Branch box. In these boxes Governor Hobby received 157 votes, Boyton, the Republican candidate for governor, 25 votes, and Simpson, Socialist candidate, none. In fact, if we have any Socialist voters in our midst they did not manifest it by their votes in the election.

25 YEARS AGO

Miss Katherine (Kitty) Smith, first Hereford girl to enlist in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps (WAAC), left for Lubbock, where she joined the entire group of Texas Rangerettes, recently recruited in the Panhandle, for basic training at Ft. Des Moines, Iowa.

Deaf Smith County officials who were sworn in Friday morning were A. O. Thompson, county surveyor; Joe Bishop, constable; Carl Gilliland, county attorney; E. T. (Dick) Allred, commissioner, Precinct 4; Andy Thomas, justice of the peace; Wallace E. Cox, deputy sheriff and tax collector; H. D. Culpepper, commissioner, Precinct 3; Mrs. Velma Hodges, county treasurer; Miss Mary Jane Morgan, deputy sheriff and tax collector; Troy Moore, commissioner, Precinct 1; J. J. Clark, commissioner, Precinct 2; J. O. Newell, sheriff and tax collector; and Fred W. Baird, county judge and ex-officio superintendent of the schools.

Among the new books at the Deaf Smith County Library was "The Flying Tigers." "Making Christ Real in 1943" was the theme of the Tri-Hi-Y Club program Thursday night. The program was under the leadership of Phyllis Radovich.

The Star Theater was showing "Men of Texas" with Robert Stack and Broderick Crawford plus "United We Stand", a War Defense Department documentary concerning the Allied nations' cooperation on the eastern and western fronts in Europe, the battle of north Africa, and the war in the South Pacific.

cars reached 8.4 million, including 3/4 million imports. Most forecasters expect domestic sales of around 9 million autos this year — enough to bring joy to the motor moguls.

Retail sales of general merchandise accelerated in the second half of 1967 and a continuance of the trend is forecast this year. One industry leader expects retail volume to rise about 6 percent, due to higher incomes and a spending mood among consumers. Per capita food consumption is slated to hold level but population growth will lift sales, volume slightly, despite prices 2-3 percent higher.

Residential construction held steady in 1967 due to a surge

Panhandle Woman Writes

A Texas Panhandle woman, Mary Dutton, has written an exceptional novel, Thorge. And though it is fiction and claims to be about no certain persons or place it seems a very real portrayal as seen through a young girl's eyes of a certain time and place.

The story takes place during the depression days in a small community which was poor enough at best. Thorge is the name of the precocious child, the heroine. She is smart beyond her years in some things and according to her brother rather "dumb" about life and every day things.

But she is brave and loyal above all others in the family and community. These included her townsmen, relatives, friends and even her parents — except perhaps her father whom she adored. He, an outsider, a teacher and fond of books, explains her advance learning and their compatibility.

The mother, was from an old southern family, proud of her heritage and the southern traditions. It takes a long time for her to break down and become a strong individual. She understands neither her husband nor her daughter.

The story builds slowly and convincingly to the two main events which rock the community and makes, for the climax. The problem of class in the population of the south is not new but has existed for years and years before our time. It will probably not be solved in our time either; just as no thing or condition which has grown for years can be solved overnight, or without much thinking and planning of strong leaders. This might be the theme or moral of the story if a person is looking for more than just a story.

Corinne J Neely

If you use bread and butter plates, remove them after the main course has been served — unless a salad course follows the main dish. In this case remove the bread and butter plates with the salad plates.

Annual Reunion Set In Spade

SPADE — Renewing old acquaintances, eating a delicious barbecue meal, and viewing an exciting basketball game will all be on the roster February 10, as all Exes of the Spade school system and community prepare for the annual Spade Community Homecoming.

The days activities will begin with registration at 4:30 p. m. at the Spade School and will be immediately followed by the serving of the meal by the senior class and their parents and sponsors at 5 p. m. Price of the meal will be $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children through 12 years of age. All proceeds will go to the senior class.

Following the meal will be the Ex-Students Association meeting at 6 p. m. followed by the Spade-Anton girls basketball game at 7 p. m.

Topping off the night's activities will be the Spade Longhorns-Anton Bulldogs game which will have a half-time ceremony consisting of the coronation of the homecoming queen and a prize presentation to the Ex who has traveled the farthest distance. The persons from the earliest graduating class will also receive recognition.

Officers of the Ex-Students association are Lee Verrie (Hamilton) Smith, president; Duane Gray, vice-president, and Patsy (Wood) Bradley, secretary-treasurer.

Club Taught Paper Craft By Visitor

Starting with a box as a base, Mrs. Norman Hodges showed Simms Study-Craft Club members how to make a smart handbag with paper mache decoration when she was guest demonstrator at a meeting Wednesday.

Mrs. Terrell Hodges and Mrs. Tom Bullard were hostesses in the former's home.

The program guest showed the group how to decorate the box handbag with glued-on brown paper squares and string to make a pattern, then add paint for the desired color scheme, and finally finish with layers of protective lacquer, ink to modify the colors, and more lacquer. She added hardware last to make a modish bag.

TAX MAN SAM SEE:

Since you have probably already broken most of your New Years' Resolutions, now is probably a good time to make one more — it should read "I hereby resolve to file my tax return as soon as I get my W-2 this year, instead of waiting until 11:59 p.m. on April 15. I further resolve to check the arithmetic carefully and to make sure that I use the correct tax table and get the tax from the right line to the right line on the tax return. I solemnly resolve to say "hello" to the computer by using my correct social security number on the tax return — and finally, I resolve to keep better records and to take every cotton-pickin' and any other kind of deductions that I am entitled to and to make sure that I pay no more than my fair share."

club motto the prayer quotation, "Help me, O Lord, to live so the world will be a little better because Thou didst make me". Mrs. James Bullard presided for business.

Also at the meeting were a new member, Mrs. Terry Creitz, and Mmes. F. L. Eicke, Robert Lloyd, Julian Perrin, Emmitt Young, Mike Burnam, Lennon Young, Tom Bullard and J.-M. Boothe.

Henry Ogletree Will Seek Post In Castro Co.

An announcement has been made by Henry M. Ogletree, former deputy sheriff of Castro County, that he will oppose Sheriff Jack Cartwright in the May 4 Democratic primary.

Ogletree has been connected with the law enforcement body of Castro County since 1965 and resigned his deputy sheriff's position, effective Monday, in order to run for sheriff.

His law enforcement career covers a span of five years when he began working for the police department at Comanche in 1963, after serving a two-year period in the armed forces. After 1 1/2 years at Comanche, he accepted a job with the Brownfield police force up until the time he took the deputy sheriff's position of Castro County.

While he was a member of the Brownfield force, Ogletree

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequent ly asked by taxpayers.

Q — Where can I get 1967 tax forms?

A — Most taxpayers should receive their income tax forms in the mail early in January. Additional copies of the forms will be available in post offices, local IRS offices and many banks.

Q — I inherited some stock from my grandfather's estate and later sold it. Do I have to report anything on my tax return?

A — Yes. You will have a capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the sale proceeds and the fair market value of the stock at the date of your grandfather's death. The transaction should be reported on Schedules D and attached to your Form 1040.

Q — I was married last month. Since my name has changed do I also have to change my Social Security number?

A — When your name is changed, you should notify your local office of the Social Security Administration as soon as possible. Your number will not be changed but your record will be corrected to reflect your married name.

Q — I'm a full time college student and my parents claim my exemption on their tax return. If I file for a refund of taxes withheld on a summer job, will they lose their exemption for me?

A — No, your parents will not lose you as an exemption, provided the necessary dependency tests are met.

Q — Are gifts ever taxed?

A — There is no federal tax to pay for the recipient but the giver may have to pay a tax, if the gift is sizable. The law generally requires a tax return to be filed by the donor when a gift or gifts to any one person during the year exceed $3,000.

Q — I sold my house just a month or so before my 65th birthday. Does that mean I won't be entitled to the special benefits for the elderly on those sales?

A — To qualify for these special benefits you must be 65 or over before the date of sale or exchange.

Q — Do you have to report as income insurance compensation for injuries received in an auto accident?

A — No, damages for injuries suffered in an accident are tax free.

Q — Who has to file a tax return?

A — A return must be filed by every person under 65 who has gross income of $600 or more during the year. For those 65 and over, a return does not have to be filed until gross income reaches $1,200. However, if you are self-employed, you must file a return if you had net self-employment income of $400 or more, even though your gross income was less than $600.

The filing requirements also apply to minors. If, for example, a child has income of $600 or more from a savings or trust account or any other sources when a return must be filed on behalf of that child.

Q — Are there any changes in the tax law I should be aware of when I file my 1967 income tax return?

A — The filing requirements for 1967 returns are little changed from what they were a year ago. Perhaps the major change concerns the handling of medical deductions.

All taxpayers itemizing medical deductions on 1967 returns will be subject to the same 3 percent and 1 percent income limitations. Previously, taxpayers 65 years of age and over could deduct all of their allowable medical expenses, not just those in excess of 3 percent of their adjusted gross income.

Another change in the medical deduction area concerns premiums paid for medical insurance. On 1967 returns, one-half of the premiums paid for this insurance may be deducted without regard to the 3 percent limitation. The maximum that

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q — I'll finish high school in January and will enter college a week later. What must I do to get a II-S student deferment?

A — You must request it from your board in writing. After you're in college, you should have the school send a student certificate to your board providing evidence you are satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction.

Q — Will you tell me about how a draft appeal board is set up?

A — One appeal board is established in each federal judicial district. These boards normally have five members, appointed by the President upon recommendation of the governor. Members must be U. S. citizens who are not members of the armed forces or their reserves, must be residents of the district, and at least 30 years old. The appeal board should include a physician, a lawyer, representatives from labor and industry, and if applicable, from agriculture.

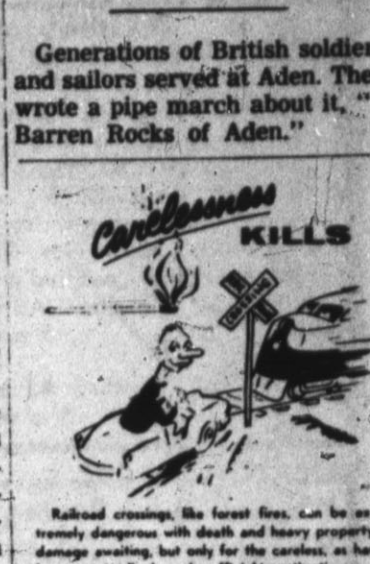

Q — I'm over age 26. Recently I was declared a delinquent and ordered to report for induction. If the induction ages are 18½ through 25, how can I be inducted?

A — Men deferred on or after June 19, 1961, are liable for training and service until age

35. Additionally, any person who has failed or refused to report for induction remains liable for induction, and, when available, can be inducted immediately, regardless of age. A man who has received a delinquency notice has the same rights of personal appearance and appeal as any other man.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH — More than 60 years ago, Harrison County boasted a resort that claimed to be the healthiest spot in the world. Among the thousands who came there to drink the mineral waters, only four died on the scene.

Hynson Springs — known to the Caddo Indians as the "Hills of Health" — still flow six miles west of Marshall. But the 120-room hotel, the summer houses and the pavilions that once made this the South's most beautiful resort are gone.

During the Civil War, the mineral waters from the 50 springs and wells were used in tanning leather. In the 1890's Hynson Springs was converted into a spa and was popular for more than a decade. The hotel closed in 1905, burned a few years later and today only the springs remain.

TOURIST NOTE — Kilgore may be the only city in the world where shopping center customers can watch a working oil well while they buy.

An active well stands in the heart of the city's newest shopping center. So customers would regard it as an attraction instead of an eyesore, the area around the well has been landscaped. And clear pipe has been installed so that visitors may watch oil being pumped from the well.

It's another first for Kilgore, which already boasts oil wells in the midst of a cemetery.

THE NAME'S THE SAME — Son't think that Long Branch exists only as the name of the Dodge City, Kansas, saloon where television's Marshal Dillon buys his beer from Kitty. Texas has a Long Branch, too. It's in Eastland County, on U. S. 285.

IT GAVE UP THE GHOST — Aldridge, on the edge of Jasper County in the pine woods of East Texas, started out to be a metropolis 65 years ago.

For while, it appeared that it might be. Between 1903 and 1920, it boasted the largest sawmill in East Texas and was producing 125,000 board feet of lumber daily. It had a railroad and a steadily growing population.

Then something happened. By the early 1930's, the mill was closed and dismantled, the railroad tracks torn up and the town abandoned. Visitors can still see the ruins today by taking a winding and very rough dirt road that turns off U. S. Highway 63 11 miles east of Zavalla.

VACATION PARADISE? — Only 35 miles from Austin is a resort with 60 personal cabins and house trailers, an indoor swimming pool, a landing strip for private airplanes and low, low rates. But the place is not especially popular with vacationers.

It's a resort reserved entirely for nudists. One of three such recognized parks in Texas, guests live and play au naturel. And visitors with nothing more than curiosity are barred.

SAFETY SENSE BY THOMPSON

DO SLOW DOWN ON ICY ROADS.
EVEN AT ONLY 20 MPH, YOUR CAR NEEDS ABOUT NINE TIMES AS FAR TO STOP ON ICE AS ON DRY PAVEMENT!

DO TO GET MORE TRACTION ON SNOW AND ICE, HAVE GOOD TIRES -- REGULAR OR SNOW TIRES -- WITH GOOD TREADS, AND USE TIRE CHAINS FOR SEVERE CONDITIONS. TESTS SHOW THAT REINFORCED TIRE CHAINS GIVE 4-7 TIMES AS MUCH PULLING POWER ON SNOW AND ICE AS REGULAR TIRES WITHOUT CHAINS.

IF YOU DO SKID ON ICE OR SNOW, DON'T JAM ON YOUR BRAKES -- THAT ONLY MAKES MATTERS WORSE. INSTEAD, TURN THE STEERING WHEEL IN THE DIRECTION THAT THE REAR END OF THE CAR IS SLIDING. DON'T OVERSTEER: THE INSTANT YOU FEEL THE CAR COMING OUT OF THE SKID, STRAIGHTEN THE WHEELS!

Church Members Hear Missionary

Rev. J. K. Salser Jr., with his wife Neva and baby Kevin, gave a talk Wednesday night at the First Baptist Church. Salser, with the Wycliffe Bible Translators with headquarters at Santa Ana, Calif., is a missionary in Colombia, South America, where he has been active in making a written language of the Indians there, so that it can be transferred into English for Biblical teachings. He has been in Colombia for five years. At the present, Salser is back in the United States on a six-month furlough. He and his family have spent some time at New Orleans and plan to visit Vancouver, Wash., the home of Mrs. Salser's parents. They should be back in this area in March, before returning to South America. Rev. Salser visited his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Salser Sr. and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Buckner. The Buckners also had their son and his family here for Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Buckner and Robert and Rall Kay.

Anyone Can Shop Smart

By Mrs. Argen Droper
Home Demonstration Agent

Local women are extra busy since the holidays getting clubs started, cleaning and shopping; home demonstration clubs change officers at the beginning of the year.

tage of the sales to help the family budget. Women are smart shoppers and are always trying to improve their knowledge of wise shopping. Anyone can be a smart shopper and everyone should be.

Wise buying takes only a few simple ground rules plus the willingness to spend some time and effort in observing them. In fact, the whole science of smart shopping might be reduced to these three commandments.

1. Never expect something for nothing. While it's true most stores have periodic sales of special, keep in mind that no successful merchant ever gives anything away. Expect to pay a reasonable price, but do some comparison shopping before buying and be highly suspicious of anything that is advertised as an outright giveaway.

2. Resist impulse buying. Nothing can wreck a budget faster! Because selling is a highly competitive business, merchants and manufacturers continually are dreaming up new models, features and gimmicks to promote merchandise sales. Before you take the buying plunge, ask yourself two questions: Do I need it? Can I afford it?

3. Be an informed shopper. The better-informed you are about prices, quality, advertising techniques, store reputations, labels and brands, the more you will be able to get for your money. Being informed takes time, but it pays off in dollars.

KNOWING THESE rules is only the battle of becoming an expert shopper. Learning how to apply the rules and developing know-how through practice and experience make up the rest. Remember anyone can be a smart shopper and everyone should be.

Management of all resources is important. A new bulletin, MP-832, MANAGEMENT IS - BECOMING, is being used in clubs programs this month. Call the office if you would like a copy mailed to you.

MANAGEMENT IS - Adjusting to people and situations.

Family members' behavior should attain a relationship that is pleasing to all within their physical, social, economic and family environment.

MANAGEMENT IS - Allocation. One management responsibility is dividing resources among different uses, to give the family the greatest amount of satisfaction. Allocation also implies sharing of responsibilities with different members of the family.

MANAGEMENT IS - Attitude. Attitude is a person's way of feeling and thinking in relation to people, things or situations. Attitude can be an asset or liability. A good attitude shown by several family members can influence the entire family to have positive, cooperative attitudes.

MANAGEMENT IS - Becoming. "Becoming" means growing. For younger family members, it will be physical maturing as well as in other ways. For adults, it may be managerial development.

MANAGEMENT IS - Change. A family undergoes constant change, adapting to environment and changes within the family. Happy families recognize that change is normal. Change physically, emotionally and mentally. Well-adjusted persons readily adapt to change within the family and within their environment.

How do you rate in these five management growth areas. Improving in the 21 areas that this new bulletin stresses is an excellent way to begin 1968. Not only begin, but review often and seriously try to become more becoming.
