

Request Breaks With Absolute Veto Plan—

U. S. Proposes 11 Nation Parley To Start On Japan Peace Treaty

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—The United States announced today it has proposed an 11-nation conference August 19 to begin work on a Japanese peace treaty.

The conference, under the American proposal, would be held either in Washington or San Francisco.

No replies have been received to the proposal which was made, the State Department announced, last Friday.

American officials said that because of the availability of diplomatic representatives in Washington it probably would be simpler to arrange this initial conference here.

American officials, disclosing this today, said they are uncertain whether Russia will accept the proposal, which would have the effect of eliminating a Big Four or Big Five veto control over every provision going into the treaty.

The proposal which went out only a few days ago and to which no replies have been received yet would not only take treaty-making out of the hands of four nations and turn it over to 11, but it also would establish a two-thirds voting system among the 11 so that even there no veto would be permitted.

U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith, on confidential instructions from Secretary of State Marshall, has discussed the new treaty-making plans with Foreign Minister Molotov and Molotov is understood to have indicated dislike of those provisions which would end exclusive domination of the great powers in this field.

However, Molotov agreed to take the matter under consideration and no Russian objection or counter proposal has been received.

European Needs Being Drafted By Committees

PARIS, July 16. (AP)—With the visiting foreign ministers on their way home, economic experts of 16 countries settled down today to the job of drafting a balance sheet of Europe's resources and requirements under the Marshall plan.

The 16-nation cooperation or steering committee met at 10 a. m. at the French foreign ministry to lay out a working program for subcommittees on fuel and power, transport, food and agriculture and iron and steel.

Delegates of western and southern European countries approved the committee setup yesterday in the third plenary session of a four-day conference.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who was conference chairman; Belgian Premier and Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak and Italian Foreign Minister Carlo Strozzi left for home by air today.

Meanwhile heads of delegations were completing lists of experts for approval by their government.

Republican Governors Wary Of Approving Marshall Plan

SALT LAKE CITY, July 16. (AP)—Republican governors made it plain today they will await a specific blueprint of the Marshall European rebuilding plan before they commit their party to a full endorsement of economic aid abroad.

FATAL MISHAP AT SAFETY SIGN

SHREVEPORT, La., July 16. (AP)—Audrey E. Briggs of Jefferson, Tex., was killed late yesterday when his truck crashed into a telephone pole and burst into flames.

The accident occurred within sight of a public safety department billboard calling attention to the city's "30 death days."

College Men To Make Sea Trip

SAN PEDRO, Calif., July 16. (AP)—Nineteen college men, including one from Texas, today were ready to answer the call of the sea with a former navy subchaser as their ship of adventure and fortune.

They're going to sail to the South Seas aboard a 110-foot, 100-ton twin-diesel powered subchaser once used by the Navy.

The Tahiti-bound vessel will carry cigarettes, metal mirrors, beads and other trading goods. Gabriel, Calif. Most of the crew are pre-medical students at Southern California colleges, including Millard Smith of Denton.

Marshall Lashes At Immigration Curbs

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall, urging the admission of 400,000 European war refugees, was interrupted in his testimony today by the suggestion that the United States already has absorbed its share of aliens.

Marshall retorted: "That's the significance of the Statue of Liberty."

Rep. Gossett (D-Tex.) made the observation that brought the reply as Marshall, Secretary of War Patterson and Secretary of Commerce Harriman asked a House judiciary subcommittee to approve legislation permitting the entry of displaced persons.

Marshall testified he would be willing to see Congress pass this year a measure to admit only 100,000 refugees—the proposed legislation would provide for entry of 100,000 a year for four years.

"It would be better than nothing," Marshall said, adding that admission of a "substantial number" would partly remove a source of "conflict and friction" with Russia.

Patterson contended the United States should take the leadership in resettling these displaced persons. He said their admission would be an economy to the taxpayers, since the cost to the Army national refugee organization this fiscal year will total $73,000,000.

Harriman said in a statement that the United States has a "moral obligation" to aid these people and "to do it now."

Hawaiian Strike Ends Suddenly

HONOLULU, July 16. (AP)—The strike in Hawaii's $65,000,000 pineapple industry ended today as abruptly as it began six days ago.

Federal Labor Conciliator Nathan P. Feinsinger announced that the CIO Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union had called off the strike and that the industry had agreed to reopen contract negotiations immediately.

ILWU Chief Harry Bridges said workers would return to their jobs at noon.

The accord between the union and industry leaders after five turbulent days brought peace again to the territory and ended the threat that the strike might spread throughout other major industries to cripple seriously the entire economy of the islands.

"This is the toughest case I ever worked on," said Feinsinger, who almost had brought disputing parties into agreement last Thursday, only to see negotiations literally "blow up" in his face.

"There was danger," he added, "that if the strike was not settled this week it would have gone on for months and dragged sugar and the waterfront down with it."

The agreement to call off the strike and resume negotiations was reached on a basis of recommendations made by Feinsinger.

Governors Asked To Unite For Bill Clearing Tidelands

SALT LAKE CITY, July 16. (AP)—Governor Beauford Jester of Texas said today he was confident the governors' conference would approve a resolution requesting Congress to remove "a cloud" which he said a United States supreme court decision cast on state ownership of tidelands and submerged lands.

The resolution, scheduled for final action this afternoon, will ask the governors, Jester said, to unite behind legislation at the next session of Congress affirming that the states own submerged lands and resources underlying them.

"Under the common law and civil law," the resolution read, "the states' sovereignty and authority over and title to said lands has been long acknowledged, affirmed and respected by the federal government x x x."

Truman Asks Mississippi Flood Control

Congress Urged To Act On Plan Immediately

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—President Truman recommended to Congress today an immediate start upon a 10-year program from controlling floods and developing water resources of the Mississippi river basin.

He asked $250,000,000 to get the work underway. In a special message, Mr. Truman outlined a program that embraced also navigation, irrigation, hydroelectric power development and other utilization of water resources.

But he said flood control must come first in the light of flood losses on the Missouri and Mississippi this year that may exceed $50,000,000.

The President noted that many of the necessary flood control projects already have been authorized by Congress and added: "What we need to do is to take immediate advantage of the Mississippi basin's authorizations totaling almost $6,000,000,000—which the Congress has already voted for flood control and related purposes."

"Of this amount, from three and a half to four billion dollars is either directly or closely related to flood control. "Let us through the next ten years accelerate our program and put this money to work, to gather with such additional moneys as may be required and as our economy from year to year shall permit. In that way we shall save ourselves untold billions and pave the way for the wealth production that surely will flow from the integrated development of our valleys."

GM Suspends Car Production

DETROIT, July 16. (AP)—General Motors Corp. will take a week off cars, starting Monday, because of the steel industry's "disturbed conditions."

GM, which makes roughly half of the nation's automobiles, said its steel supplies were too short to permit full-time operations. It blamed the "coal-mining situation" of early July.

Ultimately 180,000 workers will be laid off from the corporation's assembly lines, a GM spokesman said. The corporation, which employs a total of 265,000 production workers recently reached a weekly output of 30,000 cars.

There were no immediate indications, however, that other major manufacturers of motorcars would follow suit.

GM's president C. E. Wilson announced the shutdown plans last night.

Southern Railroads Ask Fare Increase

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Twenty-five railroads operating in the South today asked Interstate Commerce Commission authority to raise their basic one-way passenger fares in coaches by 13.63 percent.

The change would make the coach fares on these lines conform with eastern railroads, which raised the coach rate from 2.2 to 2.5 cents per mile June 1.

The six cargo-passenger vessels were described as pre-war built and of medium size. The four surplus craft were built during the war and were not otherwise described.

Occupants Escape Flames In Hotel

PORT ARTHUR, July 16. (AP)—A two-hour fire raged at the 10-story Goodhue Hotel here early today, cutting part of the sixth floor and causing an estimated $10,000 damage.

Mrs. Foster Bryan of Charleston, W. Va., suffered a scorched scalp and singed hair. No other injuries were reported.

The 150-room brick hotel, built in 1929, was packed to capacity at the time. All guests were evacuated, which gutted his room.

Mrs. Bryan is credited with helping to confine the fire to the one floor. Firemen said she closed her door as she fled, choking off a draft that might have caused the flames to spread quickly.

The fire "could have been very serious," said John Ayres of the Port Arthur News. However, no high winds were blowing—and prompt work by the fire department confined the flames to one floor, and quickly extinguished the fire.

There was no panic among guests. They crowded the street surrounding the hotel while firemen worked at the flames. They were dressed in nightgowns and pajamas, and were joined by hundreds of Port Arthur residents.

Fire, which broke out about 2:30 a. m. is believed to have started in the room occupied by Bill McReynolds of Waco, a seaman. He fled to the main lobby in his shorts to report it. He was not hurt. He said he lost "a flock of travelers checks" in the fire,

Plan Special Greek 'Watch'

Would Desert U. N. If Reds Employed Veto

Nations After Information For Council To Study

LAKE SUCCESS, July 16. An authoritative source said today some United Nations delegates were considering the possibility of setting up a Greek border watch outside the world organization if Russia blocks security council action on the Balkans.

The source said this was one possible step should the security council turn down a U. S. proposal for establishing a United Nations semi-permanent commission to watch over the Balkan border areas.

If Russia vetoes the U. S. commission plan, this informant said, Greece could invite other members of the United Nations to form an independent commission which could make its headquarters on Greek soil and watch over the border area.

Such a commission, he explained, would have no powers but could gather information. The members, through their governments, could place the information at the disposal of the United Nations when the general assembly meets in September.

There also were suggestions in some quarters that if the security council failed to act in the Balkan case then the U. S. or Britain might bring the case before the general assembly.

It appeared, however, that both Britain and America would exhaust all other means before joining in an independent watch over the Balkan borders from Greek soil.

Informed quarters suggested that if Russia used her power of veto to block action now, serious consideration would be given to the possibility of submitting a new complaint to the security council.

Under chapter seven of the charter, the council would be asked to consider measures not involving armed forces which could be employed against accused nations.

The council could call upon member nations to apply such measures as economic sanctions and the severance of diplomatic relations. But here again the veto could be used just as it can be used in the present case.

The only alternative left inside the United Nations in that event would be to bring a complaint to the general assembly and ask that body to establish a commission such as the Palestine inquiry commission.

Siegel's Girl In Danger?

PARIS, July 16. (AP)—Monte Carlo dispatches disclosed today that tittian-haired Virginia Hall in whose California home Benjamin (Bugsy) Siegel was slain last June 20, had been hospitalized there briefly a few days ago and the newspaper Parisien Libre said she had been treated for an overdose of sleeping pills.

The Monte Carlo disclosure followed by less than a week reports from the United States that a "pair of assassins" were en route to France to "take care of Miss Hill because she knew too much about Siegel's affairs."

The American girl, who arrived here several days before Siegel was shot to death, checked out of her Paris hotel on July 3 and had not been heard from until today.

10 Ships Going To Turkey In Aid Program

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall announced today the United States is taking steps to turn over 10 merchant ships to Turkey as a first move in the new program of strengthening the Turkish armed forces.

Marshall told a press conference that, with the navy's concurrence, he had asked the maritime commission to sell Turkey six U. S. government-owned cargo-passenger vessels. The maritime commission also is being asked to sell four surplus vessels to Turkey.

Marshall was asked whether this represented the first transfer under the $100,000,000 undertaking to strengthen Turkey, and he replied affirmatively. Marshall told that the sale of the six cargo-passenger vessels did not involve expenditure of any U. S. funds. They will be paid for in cash.

The six cargo-passenger vessels were described as pre-war built and of medium size. The four surplus craft were built during the war and were not otherwise described.

All-Time Record Price For Livestock

SAN ANTONIO, July 16. (AP)—Another new all-time record price was set on the San Antonio livestock market today when a load of average to top medium 1437-pound grass steers sold for $24.50 per 100 pounds.

The previous top had been $24.00.

Mrs. Gressett Succumbs Here

Funeral for Mrs. J. P. Gressett, 75, for more than two score years a resident of Sterling county, will be held at 4 p. m. Thursday at the Sterling City Baptist church.

Mrs. Gressett died in a local hospital at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday after an illness of one week. She had resided in Sterling county since 1905. Her husband, Philip N. Gressett, died in 1907.

Rites will be in charge of the Rev. McIntire and interment will be in the Mount Vale cemetery in charge of arrangements. The body will lie in state at the Eberley chapel here until noon Thursday.

Surviving are two sons, Walter Gressett, Forsan, and Orval Gressett, Sterling City; two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Simmons, San Angelo, and Mrs. Alice Robertson, Casa Grande, Ariz.; two sisters, Mrs. George Nelson, Gustine, Texas, and Mrs. S. P. Easley, Portales, N. M.; one brother, Matt Daniels, Pauls Valley, Okla.; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Theft From Auto Is Investigated

City police this morning were investigating a theft reported last night by R. A. Trigg of San Antonio.

Trigg told officers that approximately $500 worth of merchandise was taken from his car while he was watching a baseball game at the local ball park. The items consisted of leather jackets and coats.

Price Collapse As In 1921 Seen By Former OPA Chief Henderson

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Former Price Administrator Leon Henderson said today he sees "little immediate danger of a major depression" but that prices may collapse disastrously as they did after World War I.

"While that collapse (of 1920-21) cannot be compared with the grinding depression of 1929-33, it was no picnic," Henderson said in a statement prepared for the joint congressional committee on the economic report.

He presented his document as chairman of the executive committee of Americans for Democratic Action, an organization of self-styled "liberals committed to the principles of liberty and justice and the democratic process."

"Today, just as in 1920, prices have been permitted to get out of hand," Henderson declared. "Once again, the price structure is shot through with distortions and imbalances."

Henderson, now chief economist of the Research Institute of America, a private business survey enterprise, made no mention in his statement of yesterday's testimony to the committee by the National Association of Manufacturers. But the views he set forth clashed sharply with those enunciated by NAM President Earl Bunting. For example, Henderson said: "The fruits of our stabilization program were thrown to the winds in the hasty abandonment of wartime controls. x x x Had the basic wartime controls been continued, our economy today would be equally solid and strong."

Bunting, on the other hand, recalled that NAM argued for elimination of price controls in order to encourage production. Bunting said this objective had been achieved with only "moderate" price increases, and that during the last four months "the price level has definitely flattened out."

New Orleans Cotton Futures Skyrocket

NEW ORLEANS, July 16. (AP)—Cotton futures continued to skyrocket here today in heavy trading and at the end of the first half hour of trading prices were $3.65 to $4.75 a bale higher.

Much of the demand, which put prices to new highs for the season, resulted from indications of short supplies and predictions of heavy domestic consumption and exports next season.

Some observers said there were indications that large spot interests were doing much of the buying.

Street Project Awaits Materials

The City of Big Spring made further progress on current paving work Monday, although a supply problem involving base materials caused a slight delay on the West 17th street project.

16th was primed with a light coat of asphalt, however. A shipment of rock asphalt or "pre-mix" is expected later in the week, after which the final topping will be applied. Street department workers expect to complete the task of moving base materials to West 17th within the next day or two.

Mrs. Bertha Bloss was convalescing Tuesday at Cowper-Sanders hospital from a dislocated ankle. She sustained injury Monday and was removed to the hospital in an Eberley ambulance when it was feared her ankle was broken.

All Professional Baseball Loops In State Doing Record Business

DALLAS, July 16. (AP)—Texas' five professional baseball leagues paid attendance for the first half of the campaign—the largest in the state's history for a similar period.

The Texas league, which last year set an all-time record with 1,592,567, registered 913,695 at the half-way mark this season and was more than 100,000 ahead of the same time in 1946.

The West Texas-New Mexico league was behind last year because of bad weather that caused the loss of 30 playing dates but showed 285,298.

All other leagues of the state are new—the Big State, Lone Star and Longhorn circuits having been formed this year. Some of them have clubs from last year's leagues but offer no way of comparison. Texas actually has two more leagues than last season.

The five loops registered a combined 1,913,333 paid attendance for the first half with the Big State league ranking next to the Texas league. The Big State had 401,600.

The Lone Star league reported 202,004 and the Longhorn league 110,741. The latter is a six-club organization; all others are eight.

President J. Walter Morris of the Big State league forecast that his circuit would draw more than 800,000 due to the close race.

President Milton Price of the West Texas-New Mexico league predicted his loop would beat last year, despite its slow start.

President Howard Green of the Longhorn league placed the probable attendance figure for the season at 250,000. The best drawing club has been the smallest town in the circuit—Ballinger—with 26,285. It also has had the largest single game attendance—2,449. Ballinger has a population of fewer than 4,000.

In the Lone Star league, Longview set the pace with 36,092, with Kilgore next with 30,770.

Of the 38 clubs in the five leagues, five of them are outside Texas—Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Shreveport in the Texas league and Albuquerque and Clovis of the West Texas-New Mexico league.

Coal Prices Take A Jump

PITTSBURGH, July 16. (AP)—Soft production increased today—and so did soft coal prices.

William R. Thurmond, secretary of the Southern Coal Producers' association, said consumers "will be required to pay about $800,000, 000 additional during the next 12 months."

Thurmond said the recent $1.20 a-day wage increase granted to John L. Lewis' AFL United Mine Workers "will cost the operators more than $1.25 a ton x x so coal will sell at the mines from $1.25 to $1.50 higher at once."

However, Lewis said in an editorial in the UMW Journal that increased costs to consumers of coal and other products would be "infinitesimal."

The Journal estimated the new contract added only 65 to 67 cents to the cost of producing a ton of soft coal.

Anthrax prices were also expected to rise—about 70 cents a ton—because of the Lewis-won wage hikes.

Steel companies have announced no general price increase.

Meantime, the nation's 400,000 bituminous diggers settled down to regular work and production was reported nearly 100 percent of capacity.

Grim Foot-Note To Bad World Relations—

U.S. Putting Its Atom Bomb Facilities On Permanent Basis

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—The United States is putting its atom bomb factory on a permanent basis.

This grim footnote to the long and thus far fruitless effort to set up world controls over nuclear energy came to light today in an atomic energy commission announcement of plans to "permanently and effectively modernize" the war-built town of Los Alamos, N. M.

The first A-bomb was made there and tested at Alamogordo, N. M., two years ago today. The commission announcement said that Carroll L. Tyler, retired Navy Captain and ordnance expert, will be in charge of the Los Alamos laboratory, "where a multi-million dollar improvement program is under way." Tyler succeeds Col. Herbert C. Gee, army engineer who has been on loan to the commission since it took over the Army's Manhattan project at the start of this year.

Word of the Los Alamos "permanently" coincided with another matter. That was the Army's identification of the secret Sandia base near Albuquerque, N. M., as a unit of the little-known "armed forces special weapons project." Virtually nothing is known of the nature of work at this project except that Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, who was director of the Manhattan project when the Army made A-bombs, is associated with it.

The identification of the Sandia base—about which the Army previously had refused to talk at all—was contained in a routine announcement of command changes for various general officers.

The atomic commission statement on plans for improving Los Alamos said that more than 1,000 new homes will be constructed along with new schools, community service, and commercial facilities, streets and utilities.

The atomic energy commission has declined to discuss frequent statements by scientists and public officials that the United States either has or is developing atomic bombs of tremendously greater power than the five exploded to date.

The CHIROPRACTOR—and You

No. 24 of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of Chiropractic.

CASE HISTORY No. 541. A former athlete who had been forced out of sport by an apparent injury to the left knee. The knee gave great pain whenever the limb was exerted, even in walking. For 7 years the condition persisted and, in the patient's own words: "I spent a small fortune trying to get the knee fixed, but no luck." A few weeks ago the patient read Article No. 2 of this series and visited a Chiropractor. Analysis revealed a pinched nerve in the knee which was traced to a displacement of a segment of the spine. A series of adjustments realigned the spine, released the pinched nerve and thereby removed the cause of the pain.

CASE HISTORY No. 37. A prominent business man who suffered from severe headaches at frequent intervals. Had great difficulty in obtaining sleep. Physical examinations had failed to reveal any abnormality and the headaches and sleeplessness were put down to "nervous tension." However, during a particularly severe headache he was persuaded to visit a Chiropractor. A spinal adjustment was given and the headache ceased immediately. Chiropractic analysis revealed an acute condition of constipation due to interference with the nerves supplying the intestines. The interference was removed by spinal adjustment, and as a result, bowel action became natural and the headache went.

CASE HISTORY No. 16. A municipal worker suffering from severe "gas pains" in the stomach. Constipation and violent headaches were present. Actually afraid to eat because of the distress that followed. Had not worked a full day for seven months when he brought his case to a Chiropractor. Pressure on the nerves controlling the action of the stomach was located in the spine. Chiropractic adjustments relieved the pressure and within a short time nature restored the digestive rhythm to normal.

WHY YOU ARE ILL. Chiropractors have found that illness and disease are most often caused by pressure upon the nerves which carry vital nerve force from the brain to various parts of the body. The nervous system radiates from the spinal column, and it is here that even slight pressure from a displaced segment of the spine can impede the flow of nerve force from the brain, thus interfering with the function of one or more parts of the body. This nerve interference can be located accurately by the Chiropractic technique. The Chiropractor can then remove the pressure by a simple adjustment with his hands only. Drugs and surgery are not employed. Once the cause of the illness is removed, Nature itself restores the affected part to normal.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION concerning the modern Chiropractor and what he can do for you. Phone 419. Appointment only.

Four Consider Running For Vacated Mansfield Post

HOUSTON, July 16. (AP)—Thirty-one year-old Mayor J. C. Trahan of Texas City will make a definite decision "within the next two or three days" as to whether he will run for Congress to fill the vacancy created by the recent death of Representative J. J. Mansfield. He said last night that he was considering making the race.

Sharp Increase Seen In Cotton, Wheat Output

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—Tremendous increases in acreage and prospective production of cotton and wheat, and sharp cuts in corn, oats and all sorghums were reported for Texas by the United States department of agriculture.

The increases in cotton and wheat, however, boosted the grand total of acreage for harvest to seven per cent above that a year ago. Cotton acreage in cultivation July 1 was estimated at 8,265,000, compared with 6,283,000 a year ago. Wheat acreage for harvest was estimated at 7,190,000, compared with 6,000,000 on July 1 a year ago. The July 1 estimate of production set the figure at 136,610,000 bushels, somewhat below the June estimate of 142,405,000 bushels.

The oats crop was estimated at 31,248,000 bushels, the smallest in four years. Rice acreage was 441,000, a seven per cent gain. Barley estimated at 2,372,000 bushels was the lowest since 1938. All sorghums planted for harvest were forecast at 5,617,000 acres, compared with 7,101,000 this time last year; the peanut acreage was 825,000, down two per cent. Peach production of 1,664,000 bushels was slightly above the average but below last year's 1,856,000.

Texas citrus fruits were generally in good condition as of July 1.

West Texas C-C Approves Survey

ABILENE, July 16. (AP)—The stamp of approval today was on plans for an economic survey of the Texas and Pacific railway's West Texas territory.

The approval was given yesterday by the executive board of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce T. & P. railway industrial development committee. The survey was presented by Dr. Robert W. French, director of the University of Texas bureau of business research.

Mexico Plans To Finish Pan-Am Highway Section

MEXICO CITY, July 16. (AP)—Mexican plans to complete and pave her section of the Pan-American highway by the end of 1949, the department of communications and public works reported last night.

When finished the 24-year project will have cost 100,000,000 pesos ($20,000,000), the department said, about 70,000,000 pesos ($14,000,000) already have been spent in pushing the 1,600-mile mountainous paved highway from the Texas border to Oaxaca, south of Mexico City, and preparing the roadbed almost to the Guatemala border.

South of Oaxaca there are 82 miles of pavement, 387 miles of graded gravel, 81 miles of dirt road, and 82 miles of jungle trail, according to latest department reports.

The military reservation at West Point includes 15,085 acres, plus an air field reservation of 1,674 acres.

Felines Defeat Ships To Gain On Buff Nine

By The Associated Press

Fort Worth's persistent efforts to reach the top in the Texas league brought the Cats to within two games of their goal today.

Houston's 5-0 licking by Tulsa last night and the Cats' handy 10-2 decision over Beaumont narrowed the Buffs' margin to two games. Shreveport bounced back to hand Dallas a 3-1 defeat, while Oklahoma City took advantage of San Antonio miscues to win, 4-1, in other games.

Fort Worth jumped on three Beaumont hurriers for 16 hits in running up ten runs. Charley Sammakis scattered six Exporter hits to win his eleventh game of the season.

Lee Anthony blanked the league leading Houston Buffs on three hits, fanning ten and giving up only three walks for his ninth victory. Elwood Grantham's three singles paced the Oilers' 11-hit attack off Al Pappi and Rundus.

Doc Greene's two run home run in the second inning proved to be the deciding blow in Shreveport's win over Dallas. Both starting pitchers—Tom Pullig of Dallas and Bill Gann—failed to finish the game. Pullig went out for a pinch-hitter in the eighth and Gann needed help from Joe Berry in the ninth.

Al Rosen's third-inning home run was the only earned run of the game in Oklahoma City's victory over San Antonio, but his Indian mates counted three more on bobbles. Leonard Gilmore held San Antonio's Missions to four hits.

Rotarians Hear Local Pastor

Diffusion of responsibility to laymen in projecting the doctrine of Christianity as an every-day pattern for living is hope of saving the world, the Rev. Audrey White, pastor of the Wesley Methodist church, told Rotarians Tuesday at the Settles.

The job is not one for ministers, who normally get one chance a week, but rather to train laymen to take the practices of Christianity with them throughout the week.

Another guest of the club was Joe Camiria, scout for the Washington Senators, who interspersed words of praise and encouragement for the Rotarians, local baseball club, with bits of humor.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing, why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and off color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have proved beyond a shadow of doubt that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special acid potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By Leatrice Ross

Heard it said the other day that the reason no one gives out with a party around the town is that all original ideas for "clam bakes" are extinct. This is to prove differently: Recently at Fort Wayne, Ind., teenagers sponsored a dance at which a requisite was taking off socks and shoes and checking them as one would a coat! Why not here?

Among things that do not lack is the constant migration of vacationists. Joe Robert Boadle and James Cass were in San Angelo Friday. George O'Brien spent the weekend in Colorado City. Harold Bishop is away in Fort Worth, working with the telephone company. Wesley Yater is home weekends, but is working otherwise on an 11-week job in Sweetwater.

I-C Dwan Williams has come by his discharge from the Navy. It will likely be a month, however, before we see him. He is now enroute from Pearl Harbor to Bikini aboard the USS Chilton. Joe Tillet and Gwen Grisham of Abilene, sorority sisters of Marjorie Thurman at TU, are to arrive Friday to spend the weekend here.

Also on Friday evening: Three couples are to meet at the McElreath ranch near Forsan for a chicken barbecue: namely, Muriel Floyd, Billy Crunk, Danny Bell McRay, Don Richardson, Doris McElreath, Kenny McFadden. Darrell Webb, by the by, is supervisor of the new playground sponsored by the YMCA at southward school.

We hereby dub Sailor Tex Watkins the "Chair-leg champion." The moniker should find approval from those at the fights Monday evening: Vera Dell Walker, Robert Swann Lee, Lynelle Sullivan, Arthur Morton, Scooter Terry, Ikey Davidson, Rosa Faye Rice, Charles Prather, Mary Ann Goodson, Dormand Hill, Millie Balch, Joe Robert Boadle, Jo Nelle Sikes, Lynn Martin, Wanda Richardson, Darrell Webb, Dorothy Day, Bob Williams, Gloria Strom, Bill Newsom, Norma Ray, Kenneth Orr.

Seen around at one time or another lately: Mary Evelyn Johnson, Jimmy Smith, Betsy Jones, Reed Collins, Joyce Murdock, Dickie Cloud, Helen Montgomery, Harold Berry, Frances Wilson, B. L. Lees, Jan Richardson is getting that mail from Harold Bishop. Mickey Butts tells us he is with the T. & P. these days, wags a railroad hand in our face to prove it. Wedding bells department: Charles Teague and Dorothy Faye Pettit. Couples at the HCJC summer students' watermelon feast and dance Tuesday evening at the pavilion: Doris Jean Morehead, Ardis McCasland, Ann Blankenship, Nathan Richardson, Luan Wear, Charles Lovelace, Laverne Hampton, John Bill Gary, Dorothy Sue Rowe, Delbert Shultz, Helen McDonnell, Charles Sherwood, Betty Lou McGinnis, Bill Newsom, Mary Lou Redwine, Robert Hobbs. A Dachshund belonging to Frances Wilson showed up to steal the entire evening.

POPULAR SONG WRITER IS DEAD

SANTA MONICA, Calif. July 16. (AP)—Walter Davidson, composer of many popular song hits since 1915, is dead.

The Brooklyn-born writer of "My Blue Heaven," "Yes Sir, That's My Baby," "My Mammy," "Little White Lies" and a host of others succumbed yesterday to a liver ailment of long standing. He was 54.

His first was "We'll Have A Jubilee In My Kentucky Home" in 1915. During World War I he turned out such numbers as "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down On The Farm" and "Daughter Of Rosie O'Grady". For a time he collaborated with Irving Berlin.

Al Johnson made his "My Mammy" famous in 1920. Then there were "That Certain Party," "You're Driving Me Crazy" and "My Buddy."

Sound films brought Donaldson to Hollywood after "My Blue Heaven," written in 1927.

Fashion Expert Pleas For 'American Look'

By Dorothy Roe Associated Press Fashion Editor NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Pad your hips if you like, squeeze your waistline if you must, but lady, please keep your shoulders square.

Such is the plea of Maurice Rentner, who issued a ringing defense of the "American look" along with his fall collection, and predicted the U. S. women will not surrender without a fight to the round-shouldered, wide-hipped silhouette which some designers seek to hoist upon them, said he.

"The American woman, solely for the purpose of change, will not adopt a fashion that is not becoming. . . I definitely believe that the elimination of the padded shoulder would constitute a sacrifice. . . It would be detrimental to her looks and figure. By the same token, most women would not look well in the predicted lengths or widths."

Something Besides A Pretty Face

Eva Peron, the glamorized front for Gen. Juan Peron down Argentine way, is crashing into some national magazines. Although most articles are cautious not to warm too much to Senora Peron, the unwary might see in this fair face and shapely body, which has attracted so much attention in Portugal, Spain and Italy, a sugar-coated picture of an unique government in South America.

The people might as well be bluntly reminded of the truth. Senora Peron's itinerary has been arranged to take her into the citadel of Fascism in Portugal and Spain and attempt to capitalize upon religious ties through a visit to Italy and the Vatican. Not many will be fooled by this.

Now what is the state of affairs at home, from whence Senora Peron has been sent as an ambassador of good will? Miguel Miranda, virtual economic director under Gen. Peron, has announced a series of protectionist orders calculated to assist Argentina "to be on the same economic level as the rest of the world." Not a bad objective, and an ambitious one. But let us examine the means.

Argentina has been warned by its government that such a course will be costly and will be pursued with determination by the state, "because (and get this) the state is the most perfect institution in the relations of mankind." He adds that Argentines must continue to pay the cost of state planning so that their country can enjoy "economic independence."

Doesn't this have a strangely familiar and obnoxious odor to democratic noses?

Contribution To Farm Welfare

Victor H. Schofflemayer has retired from active service as a newspaper writer, specializing in the field of agriculture.

For 30 years he labored with the Dallas News and by his acumen, industry, and vision became not an authority on agriculture of the South, but one of the most respected authorities on the subject in the nation.

However, the real contribution of Mr. Schofflemayer has not been in the recognition which has accrued to him, but in the constant campaigning which resulted in revitalizing areas of agriculture and in the resulting increasing of standards of living for thousands of people in the Southwest.

This is not to say that he did these things himself; on the contrary, he was simply sometime a voice crying in the wilderness. Other times he was a crusader, and still others he was a radical and visionary pioneer.

But such things as his More-Cotton-on-Fewer-Acres campaign helped to revive a shaky industry. His far-reaching studies on the relation of science and agriculture have opened some new vistas, and only a few of the many more to come. His contribution to this region has been singular and significant.

It is good to know that this self-made man who came to this country as an immigrant lad will still contribute articles on science and agriculture. He has earned a rest, but one can suspect that there will be no resting of his discerning mind.

No Tax Cut Seen In Near Future

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Once more—the second time this year—Congress has passed a bill to cut your income taxes.

And once again Mr. Truman will veto this bill, just as he did the first one. The veto seems sure to stick. That will kill the bill again.

Just a month ago, June 16, Mr. Truman vetoed a similar tax-cut bill which the Republican controlled Congress had passed.

It went back to Congress but the Republicans couldn't get up enough votes to re-pass it into law over the veto. So the bill died.

It was hardly stiff before the Republicans got busy again and rammed through a bill exactly the same as the one Mr. Truman vetoed except for this:

The bill vetoed June 16 would have cut your taxes, beginning July 1. This one would cut your taxes, starting next Jan. 1. Last November, when they were running for Congress, the Republicans promised to cut taxes in 1947 if they won control of both houses.

As noted, it's doubtful the Republicans can get up enough votes to re-pass it into law over the veto.

What then? That will be about the end of any attempt by Congress this year to cut taxes. It plans to quit for 1947 by the end of this month.

Its next regular session starts in January. But—Mr. Truman may have to call it back into special session before for some reason or other, such as voting relief for Europe.

That seems unlikely. But if it happens, don't be surprised if the Republicans try a third time in 1947 to cut taxes.

Can they cut taxes when they come back in January? They'll almost surely try but any cut they make then, if they can make it, will be for 1948. In vetoing the bill on June 16,

Mr. Truman gave these reasons:

1. The bill, he said, is unfair. It gives the rich a lot better break than the poor.

2. A record number of people are working. So they can afford to go without a tax cut now. They'd need a cut more if times were bad.

3. With money so plentiful, the money the government would lose on a tax cut could be better used to pay off the big national debt.

4. The government got into the debt by borrowing right and left for keeping running and pay for the war. It will take years, maybe generations, to pay it off.

5. We're in an inflationary period, prices higher than they should be. A tax cut now would give people extra money to spend and make the inflation worse.

6. This isn't a good tax-cut bill. Congress should do a real job of overhauling the entire tax set-up and produce a good bill.

'I'M COUNTING ON HIM, TOO'

Hal Boyle's Notebook

College Buddy's Visit

NEW YORK, July 15. (AP)—Every day from June to September burdened mailmen stagger through New York delivering to innocent residents horrible letters that read roughly as follows:

"Dear Pudge, 'Well, old brother in the bond of Delta Upsilon, Epsilon got out the welcome mat. I done pretty well in the real estate biz this year for a country boy, and Mamie and I are coming to see how you and Annabelle are roughing it in the big city.

"Suppose by now you got a mortgage on the whole place—Ha, Ha! Hope you can put us up in that spare bedroom. We can only stay two weeks. Get out the glad rags, kid. We're rarin'!

fraternally, Monk."

P. S. Get us all some good tickets to a couple of the hot musicals. I'll straighten it out with you when I come."

This precipitates the biggest crisis in the family since Pudge's cousin came for a three-day visit two years ago that lasted seven weeks—until he got a job as a bartender.

Annabelle wants to know if any of Pudge's friends ever heard the Army and Navy gave the hotels back to the civilians some time ago.

Monk and Mamie breeze into town like a hurricane: fifteen minutes late for Florida.

"Let's go right on up to the Ostrich Club and let the celebrities have a gander at Mamie," says Monk.

"I just put on some lamb chops," protests Annabelle, "and I thought afterward we could sit around and you and Pudge could talk over old times."

"I ain't ready for old-home-kid week yet," says Monk. "Let's kick up our heels just like you New Yorkers do every night. Mamie and I won't get in the way, kid."

So up they go to the Ostrich Club, and Pudge has to let go five dollars to the man with the rope at the door. Monk, still doesn't want to go home. Four hours and ten drinks later Pudge gets the tab, and gives up any idea of buying a summer suit. They roll on home in a cab, but Monk first insists he's gotta ride around Central Park by moonlight, and Pudge gets that bill, too.

For six days and nights Monk and Mamie do the town, and of course good of Pudge and Annabelle have to stay with them. Monk says they just gotta split the checks, as that is only fair, but even so Pudge is considering bankruptcy as an easier way out.

But after a week Monk and Mamie begin auditing their own accounts and decide even the real estate biz hasn't been that good. So they decide to cut the visit short and Annabelle can hear Mamie's voice through the thin bedroom wall.

"I don't see why they live in a place like this—it's almost Bohemian. I can smell the carpets in the hall."

And Annabelle whispers to Pudge:

"That tomato-faced witch! She put $400 on my charge accounts for some new clothes, and I can't buy anything myself now until she gets around to paying us back—if she ever thinks of it."

"She-h-h!" says Pudge the peacemaker.

The next day, after a quick gallop up the Empire State Building, Monk and Mamie say farewell at the train in a flurry of tired kisses.

"New York's a great place to visit, Pudge," says Monk. "but I sure wouldn't want to live here. How do you stand the place?" And the train takes them away.

"If anybody every says that to me again, I'll brain them with a fireplug," says Annabelle.

"Listen, next Monday I'm going looking for a one room apartment set far out on Long Island your friends will never find the way with a map. I don't care if you have to ride the subway the rest of your life."

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Draw Pearson

Hot Words On Kansas City Probe

WASHINGTON. — Republican leaders hushed it up, but seldom has so much oratorical vitriol been poured forth in a session of the GOP policy committee as was heaped on the head of fellow-Republican Sen. Bill Langer of North Dakota last week for snafu-ing the probe of the Kansas City vote scandal.

The two Republican senators from Missouri were especially vitriolic. Bricker of Ohio ranted and raved. But all they succeeded in doing was to make the tempestuous, cigar-chewing North Dakotan madder than usual.

Langer, one of the most independent voters in the senate, never hesitates to thumb his nose at the Republican leaders who once tried to prevent him from taking his senate seat. Once prosecuted by the Justice department on a political charge when he was governor of North Dakota, Langer contends that a lot of unfair politics can creep into a vote investigation. He even states in his self-penned biographical sketch that he is the "only person ever to be arrested in an English-speaking country for filing an affidavit of prejudice against a judge."

Langer now controls the deciding vote on the senate judiciary committee, and GOP Senators Donnell and Kem of Missouri demanded to know if he intended to support Democratic efforts to block the Kansas City probe.

If so, they threatened to discharge the judiciary committee and set up a special committee to conduct the investigation.

"Well, I'm damned if I'm going to change my position," shouted the North Dakotan angrily. "I don't care what you do."

At this, Bricker jumped into the fray with a lecture on party "regularity."

"This is one of the best campaign issues we've got," he declared. "Kansas City is more important to us than flood control, soil conservation or almost anything before Congress. You should see the way papers in Ohio eat up the news about Kansas City."

The Democrats should be made to answer for the "crooked politicians" of the Pendergast machine, Bricker continued, adding that he would join the fight for a special committee if the judiciary committee failed to do the job.

Everybody at the secret caucus agreed with Bricker's political strategy—except Langer. The North Dakotan, who never hesitates to vote as he pleases, sat champing at his cigar with an expression on his face that plainly told his GOP colleagues to get on with the probe.

MICHIGANDER VANDENBERG. Burley Sen. Arthur Vandenberg has been accused of neglecting his state of Michigan to devote full attention to the problems of the nation. But he won't let anyone belittle Michigan and get away with it—not as long as he is presiding over the senate.

When Republican William Langer of North Dakota referred to Pontiac, Mich., as "another little town" the other day, Vandenberg cut him short.

"A point of order," boomed Vandenberg. "What does the senator mean by 'another little town'?"

TRUMAN'S WISECRACKS. Harry Truman is getting to be almost as much of a wise-cracker as Franklin Roosevelt when it comes to receiving visitors at the White House. He let loose quite a line when Democratic leaders from six southern states called on him recently.

White House attaches privately were expecting "rebel yells" from the southern politicians as a result of the labor and tax-bill vetoes. However, Texas' expansive Myron G. Blalock broke the ice by plunking down a $50,000 check as the Texas contribution to the Democratic national committee. After that, everything was plain sailing. Oklahoma's Gov. Bob Kerr followed with a donation of $26,000.

"That," commented Truman, "ought to keep the national committee going for a few days now."

The southern leaders all urged the president to get on the back end of a campaign train and make a political swing through the south, speaking from the rear platform at every sizable stop. Blalock was particularly eager to have the president come to Texas.

"You know, Myron," replied the president. "I was down in Mexico recently for the 100th anniversary of the Mexican war. When I got back to the states, Texas urged me to attend the 100th anniversary of their liberation from Mexico."

Earlier, Democratic Party Executive Director-Gael Sullivan had remarked that Kentucky's national committeeman, Undersecretary of Labor Kern Johnson, was "full of mellow wisdom."

"As long as that mellow wisdom is made from good Missouri corn," shot back the president.

ident, "that's all right." The president also said he hoped Johnson wasn't too full of it.

Best Truman gag of the conference came in reply to National Committeeman Henry Serrier of Louisiana, who promised the president a big reception if he visited the south.

LOUISIANA ORATORY. "That reminds me," Truman said, "of the time Senator Brunsard took a Washington big-shot down to the Cajun country to make a speech. The Cajuns did not understand English, so the senator stationed a friend who understood both Cajun and English behind the speaker. The crowd had orders to applaud when the man behind the speaker held up one finger. If he held up two fingers, they were to applaud still louder. And if he held up both hands, they were to raise the roof with their applause.

"At the end of the speech, the big-shot from Washington turned to the senator and said, 'my senator, this is the most responsive audience I have ever had. I would like to be invited back.'

"I hope," concluded Truman, "that isn't the kind of reception you're planning for me if I come to Louisiana."

This prompted Louisiana State Chairman John Fred Odum to assure the president he would get a tumultuous welcome. Then, letting his voice ring out as if he were in a convention hall, Odum boomed:

"Mr. President, I feel like saying right now, 'Louisiana casts its 22 votes for Harry S. Truman. We'll be shouting that next year.'

After Serrier assured Truman there are no republicans in Louisiana, Texan Blalock proclaimed:

"Mr. President, the only people in Oklahoma are the guys who were chased out of Texas."

Even Oklahoma's Bob Kerr laughed.

UNDER THE DOME. GOP Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts, the veterans' friend, has been trying to push legislation for higher "on-the-job" training allowances through the house rules committee. The other day Rules Committee Chairman Leo Allen of Illinois, who has not pushed her legislation, greeted Mrs. Rogers warmly. "I don't want affection from you, Leo," snapped the lady from Massachusetts. "I want rules."

How Preacher Named Texas Town

Do you know how Direct, Texas, got its name?

Tradition says an itinerant preacher told the inhabitants they were going "direct to hell" unless they mended their ways. Such as crossing the Red River for firewater.

So they just named the place Direct.

Paris: T. H. R. Poteet, of French descent, proposed the name for the new townsite for a county seat donated by George W. Wright in 1844.

Roxton: Named for a rock-bottom creek in the vicinity.

Blossom: For flower-covered prairies.

Tigertown: Because it was pretty tough in the early days.

Deport: For Col. Dee Thompson, an early settler.

Frost: Has nothing to do with the weather. It was established in 1881 on the Cotton Belt and was named for Hon. Sam R. Frost, early lawyer.

Rice: Named for the same gentleman who gave his name—and a lot of cash—to Rice Institute, Houston. He was William Marsh Rice, early railroad owner.

Emhouse: For Col. E. M. Woodrow Wilson. He was once superintendent of the Trinity and Brazos Valley Railroad, 10 miles northwest of Corsicana, about 1908.

Honey Grove: For a Grove of trees discovered by Davey Crockett, says Mrs. Ida G. W. Marcom of Dodd City. (She says Dodd City was named for Major Dodd, a founder and a civil war veteran.)

Bonham: For a hero of the Alamo, according to Mrs. Henry N. Rohde of Bryan. She says it was first called Fort English for its founder, Bailey English. Mrs. Rohde is a great grand daughter of Bonham.

Dallas: Named for George Mifflin Dallas, American statesman and diplomat, and vice-president of the U. S. under James K. Polk.

Panola: Indian term for cotton, says Chaplain Morris Lively of Amarillo.

Gall: County seat of Borden county, both named for Gall Borden, the inventor of the process for condensing milk. He was an early Texas pioneer and patriot.

Beeville: (And Bee county) For the confederate General Bernard Bee.

Situation In Greece Looks Bad

From whatever angle you view it, that Greek situation doesn't look so good.

The communist rebellion with constitutes a fuse which could set off a mighty charge of high explosive. Greece is perhaps the greatest danger spot on the globe today.

It's generally accepted that the whole world wants peace. The only great power capable of waging a major offensive war is the United States, and she certainly isn't looking for trouble. Russia doesn't want war; Britain doesn't want it; nobody wants it.

And yet we find aggressive communism so determined on expansion that it is taking an enormous chance of precipitating a Balkan upheaval which in turn assuredly would threaten world peace. Greece furnishes an extreme example of this determination.

The Athens government claims the Red revolt is backed by the neighboring communist countries of Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. A majority of the United Nations Balkan investigating commission agrees that the rebellion is being fostered by these countries.

In short we have a situation which in any man's language amounts to war between fiery Greece and her equally fiery neighbors. Yet the quarrel hasn't been labeled "war"—and we hope it won't be, because that would almost inevitably accentuate the difficulties already existing between Russia and the western democracies. For, are not Red Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria the minions of Moscow, and have not the western powers vowed to halt the expansion of communism by aggression?

In any event, one wonders whether for once Russia and the western allies might not agree to let the security council of the United Nations put the clamps on this whole Balkan show a wee bit.

Aprons of this thought, London official sources yesterday said Britain was concerned over the wholesale arrests of communists, trade unionists and left-wing liberals in Greece. These sources also said the cabinet was worried over signs that the Greek offensive against the guerrillas was failing, and that high-level Anglo-American talks might be initiated to consider possible future steps in Greece if the situation doesn't improve. Another source, asked whether intervention by British or American troops in Greece was possible, gave this reply (our Uncle Sam please note):

"Britain has only 5,000 troops left in Greece. We certainly will not send more. x x x Greece is more a United States than a British responsibility, anyway. America recognizes the responsibility she has undertaken. Dwight Griswold, chief of the American economic aid mission to Greece, announced last Friday in Washington that the United States was speeding an initial shipment of artillery, ammunition and other military equipment to Greek armed forces.

Bogart Dislikes 'Star' System

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Humphrey Bogart says Hollywood's star-machines direly need an overhauling.

"They build 'em too fast these days," the actor commented on "The Treasure of Sierra Madre" set. "The result is that in spite of the star billing, the newcomers aren't real stars."

The observation echoes complaints by theater men that Hollywood hasn't developed a big name draw in recent years, with the exception of Ingrid Bergman. A star, you see, does not mean the same as a leading man or woman. To be a star, a player has to be able to carry the burden of a picture unaided.

Few, if any, of the youngsters can do this.

Take a look at the vintage of some of the industry's top male stars: Gary Cooper, 46; Jimmy Cagney, 43; Spencer Tracy, 47; Clark Gable, 46; Bill Powell, 55; Bing Crosby, 43; Bob Hope, 43; Ronald Colman, 56; Cary Grant, 43; Walter Pidgeon, 49; Youngster Ray Milland, 39.

Added Bogart, who is 46: "The fans will keep on going to see them as long as those stars can walk. As a matter of fact, they'll yell for a guy like Cooper even if he has to be wheeled on the screen."

Sights and sounds on the Hollywood beat. . . Marie McDonald in the MGM commissary showing her ex-husband an eight-carat diamond from her next husband. . . The stars hunting their cars in the Carthage Circle parking lot after a premiere—open season for autograph hounds. . .

Tony Zale Favored To Abbreviate Title Go With Graziano Tonight

Record Indoor Gate Is Due

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—Tony Zale, world's middleweight champion, and challenger Rocky Graziano, two of the greatest offensive fighters in the past 10 years, battle tonight before upwards of 20,000 spectators who will contribute to a record all-time indoor gate of around $450,000.

The contest in the Chicago Stadium is scheduled for 15 rounds or less—undoubtedly less, considering the punching prowess of both. No one, including Zale and Graziano, believes it will go the limit. The consensus of experts is that Zale will triumph within six rounds.

Zale at the age of 33 defends his title for the second time against the challenge of Graziano, 25. This will be an encore of the knockdown-and-count Rocky-out thriller fought in New York last September in which Zale degraded himself off the canvas to win by a knockout in six savage rounds.

This rematch was scheduled for New York last spring, but the New York Athletic Commission revoked Graziano's license for failure to report an unsuccessful attempt by gamblers to bribe him with the result that the bout was switched to Chicago.

Zale remained a steadfast 7 to 5 betting favorite. Always in excellent condition, Zale says he has trained to perfection and feels stronger now than he did before their first meeting.

Graziano has trained harder and longer for tonight's battle than he ever did before. He considers his condition perfect and he expresses confidence of victory. This, however, could be his last major ring engagement since defeat by Zale would practically shove him out of the middleweight picture.

Yankees Threaten League's Win Mark After Copping 16 In Row

One of the American League's most majestic marks—the 19 consecutive victories by the Chicago White Sox, famous Hitless Wonders of 1906—was being seriously threatened today by the New York Yankees.

The onrushing Bronx Bombers now boast 16 straight wins and need only four more to shatter the record which has stood for the past 40 years.

The old Yankees of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, and Tony Lazzeri back in 1926 reached 16 but were stopped the next day. The 1912 Washington Senators and 1931 Philadelphia Athletics went them one better, winning 17 straight each, but got no further. The major league record of 26 straight by the New York Giants of 1916 still is too far off to be given any serious thought.

In winning both ends of a twilight-night doubleheader from the Indians in Cleveland before a huge turnout of 82,355 paid fans yesterday, 9-4 and 2-1, the Yankees not only had the satisfaction of prolonging their streak but got their 16th win at the expense of the great Bob Feller.

Another consecutive win streak, perhaps more remarkable if not as spectacular as the Yankees' skin, belongs to Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati's sensational stringbean righthander. Blackwell pitched his 14th straight victory last night as the Reds hit the .500 mark with a 5-4 win over the Phillies in Philadelphia.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Perhaps it would be contrary to Clark Griffith's wishes, but the brain trust of the local baseball family should find ways and means of getting Joe Cambria to visit here more often.

Joe, in event you haven't heard, is the chief (and only) scout for the Washington Senators—parent club of the Big Spring team—and what he does to build the proverbial fire under the Cuban players must be defined as sensational. Cambria, a pleasant little fellow who has made his home in Washington, D. C., for many years, was in the stands Monday night when the Hosbes beat the Sox off the Vernon Dusters. He drew attention to the big league possibilities of several of the athletes wearing local livery and that night they looked every inch the champions. They measured up because they hustled like all get-out, something they do not ordinarily do every minute they're on the field. It was a pleasure to see, and made for the kind of baseball that will bring the trade out in droves.

The Washington ivory hunter appeared before the Kiwanis club at a luncheon gathering Tuesday and let it be known that he and his organization were highly impressed with the way the village had cottoned to the sport, with the plant that had been provided for the team and with the manner in which the manswarm had adopted the Cuban boys and made them feel at home.

Joe told the luncheon gathering that he was sold on Big Spring's possibilities as a baseball town as early as 1942, at which time he made his first visit here. At that time, he descended upon Big Spring to view Bill Evans in action and was so impressed with Sweet William he bought him for the organization.

When Joe Langston approached Cambria at the Minor League meeting in Los Angeles last winter seeking a tie-up with the Senators, the Washington executive said he jumped at the opportunity to pitch camp with Our Town. He has never had cause to regret it, he told his audience.

Cambria mentioned he had brought a total of 131 Cuban boys to American diamonds in his years with the Senators and most of them are still in Organized Baseball. Four of the players now playing with the Senators cost the club but $21 in expense money, Carboza recalled.

Joe is looking forward to working with Pat Stacey and company again next year and intends to do even better by the village than he did this season. He has several youngsters lined up for 1948 shipment here he did not want to start on the professional diamond just yet. He says all are rookies, very valuable chattel in Class D baseball.

Big Spring, he mentioned, will get the cream of the rookie crop because it is the only D team doing business with the Sens.

Cambria has also signed a Texan by the name of Bill Stevens for shipment here next year. The youth is a big, left-handed first sacker. According to Joe, he is a terrific hitter. The scout spotted him in Clarksville, Texas.

Cambria wasn't the only major league bush heater in the stands Monday evening. Andy Cohen of the Boston Red Sox slipped back in to look at some of the local boys.

Dick Samek, the young backstop who appeared here with the Sweetwater Sports on several occasions, has been returned to Clovis by Joe Dotlich. The Pioneers are trying to option him out again, preferably to a Longhorn league club.

Tex Shirley, the Clovis graduate who was up with the St. Louis Browns for several seasons, has been sent to Buffalo of the International league by Toledo.

Tigers To Meet Anson Sunday

Big Spring's Tigers, acknowledged to be one of the strongest Latin-American baseball teams in West Texas, return to their home diamond north of North Ward school Sunday afternoon to do battle with Anson. Game time is 3:30 o'clock.

The Bengals clawed Colorado City into submission last Sunday and appear capable of holding their own with any contingent in this section.

Manager Ynez Yanez will field his usual lineup.

Del Toro Paces Big Springers To 11-6 Win

Paced by Gaspar Del Toro's four one-basers, the Big Spring Broncos swept a short series from Vernon by defeating the Dusters, 11-6, here Tuesday night.

Jose Cindan wasn't his usual stylish self but managed to go all the way in rolling up his 15th pitching victory of the campaign. As a result, he will probably carry the best won-and-lost record into the All-Star game at Ballinger next week. Cindy had lost three decisions.

Del Toro, who collected 17 base hits during the six-game home stand, drove in three of the Hosbes' runs. He kept rallies alive in the third, fifth, sixth and eighth rounds with his timely hitting.

Cindan struck out 11 men, issued five passes and surrendered 11 base knocks in his nine-inning stint. He was in hot water several times in the late rounds but waded clear. Singles by Y. B. Gibson and a double by Morris Cowser gave the visitors a temporary lead in the second inning but the Steeds tied it up in the third on Moreno's walk, his stolen base and Del Toro's single.

The Vernon defense fell apart in fourth to give the resident nine two tallies, Pepper Martin and Leonam Bostick crossing the dish, and Our Town was never behind after that.

Chuck Chapetta, the Dusters' bespectacled right-fielder, hit for the circuit to lead off the eighth round. The Big Spring 15-hit attack came at the expense of Gerald Fahr, one-time nemesis of the local bunch, who now has suffered two straight lickings at the hands of the Big Springers.

Sluggers Play Here Thursday

LeRoy Modkins and his Big Spring Colored Sluggers swing back into action at Steer-park Thursday night, clashing with the Lamesa Black Lobes at 8:15 o'clock.

The Sluggers already hold two wins over the Lamesa club and will be favored to turn the trick again, since they will be playing in their home park.

Modkins' crew also plays here Friday night, opposing the strong Stamford Indians in an 8:15 battle.

White Enplanes For Polo Meet

Gus White, Jr., one of the greatest all-around athletes ever to come out of Lamesa high school, left by plane here this morning for New York City where he will compete in the International Handicap polo matches now in progress.

White will play on the Llano Estacado team captained by Tom Mather of Morton, Texas. Other members of the contingent include Tom Mather, Jr., John Mather and Stanley Taylor.

The Lamesa star carried a five-goal handicap into the matches, which have lured teams from Argentina, Chile, Mexico and other places.

FORAN PLAYS TONIGHT

Spartans, ABC Win In Meet

STERLING CITY, July 15.—Two Big Spring teams, Big Spring Hardware and American Business Club, advanced into the semifinals of the Sterling City softball tournament by scoring victories here Tuesday night.

The Spartans nosed out Merton, 7-5, a three-run outbreak in the fifth clinching the decision.

ABC ambushed Caribad, 3-2, when Tommie Elliott hit a seven-inning home run.

Gene Cope hit for the circuit for the losers, the blow coming in the fourth with Nichols up front.

Forsan's Cosden Pipeliners play the San Angelo Telephone majors and Sterling City meets the Telephone Minors in contests tonight.

Doctors Can't Use Two Syllable Words

CHICAGO, July 16. (AP)—In an article in the current journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association, authorities recommended a medicine as "preventive of naturally occurring enteric hepatitis of poultry."

The explained "enteric hepatitis" is a disease more commonly known as "blackhead." And "poultis," they added are just young turkeys.

The medicine recommended was: Diisobutylphenoxethoxyethylidimethylbenzylammonium chloride.

Legal Notice

ZONING ORDINANCE
 A DESCRIPTIVE CAPTION STATING IN SUMMARY THE PURPOSE OF A ZONING ORDINANCE AND THE PENALTY FOR VIOLATION THEREOF, SAID ORDINANCE HAVING BEEN PASSED AND APPROVED ON FIRST READING AT A REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF BIG SPRING ON JUNE 10, 1947, PASSED AND APPROVED ON SECOND READING AT A REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF BIG SPRING ON JUNE 24, 1947, PASSED AND APPROVED ON THIRD READING AT A REGULAR MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSION OF BIG SPRING ON JULY 8, 1947.

An ordinance to regulate and restrict the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residences, or other purposes, the height, number of stories, and area of buildings and other structures, the size of yards and other open spaces, and the density of population, and for said purposes to divide the municipality into districts of such number, shape and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out these regulations; to prescribe penalties for the violation of its provisions and to provide for its enforcement.

The City Commission of the City of Big Spring deems it necessary in order to lessen congestion on streets, to secure safety from fire, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the over-crowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provisions of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements; to conserve the value of property and encourage the most appropriate use of land throughout the city; all in accordance with a comprehensive plan.

Any person, firm or corporation who violates, disobeys, omits, neglects or refuses to comply with or who resists the enforcement of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than fifty ($50) dollars for each offense. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense.

W. DABNEY, Mayor.

Mementoes Of Long Career Noted

Final Tributes Paid To Memory Of Texas Congressman Mansfield

COLUMBUS, July 16. (AP)—A small, modest stucco home on Walnut street, across from Columbus high school, today holds mementoes of the long career of a distinguished Texas statesman—U. S. Rep. Joseph Jefferson Mansfield. The mementoes were in evidence yesterday when hundreds of friends crowded the little brown house to pay final tribute to the 86-year-old congressman who died last Saturday at Bethesda, Md., naval hospital after serving more than 60 years in public office. A bookcase in the living room is filled with pictures that trace Judge Mansfield's 16 terms as a member of Congress. Included is a letter that reads, in part, "...my congratulations to you on the manner in which you handled the pipelines bill." It is signed, "Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Many of the friends and associates who attended the brief, 7-minute Episcopalian services will recall the congressman as the little man with snow white hair and mustache, dark-rimmed glasses, a bow tie and a smile.

British Royalty Arrested On Charge Of Giving Hot Check

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Statuesque Lady Iris Mountbatten O'Malley, 27, who like King George VI of Great Britain is a great grandchild of Queen Victoria, appeared in night court last night in a check case which she said arose from her misunderstanding of American banking practices. Lady Iris, who came to this country last October and said she has entered publicity work, was arrested by police at the apartment of a friend in Washington, D. C., warrant accusing her of issuing a worthless check for $88.95 in payment for two dresses. After arraignment, conducted privately before Chief Magistrate Edgar Bromberger, she was released in custody of Sir Francis Evans, British consul general here, for a hearing next Tuesday.

A few minutes before 4 p. m. a long funeral procession accompanied the casket to the Masonic cemetery at Eagle Lake, 16 miles to the east, where the Rev. R. Bruce Brannon of Commerce, grand master of the grand lodge of Texas, conducted Masonic graveside rites.

The body was buried beside the grave of Judge Mansfield's wife, Annie Scott Bruce Mansfield, who died in 1938.

Four Dallas Men Are Charged With Felony Gambling

DALLAS, July 16. (AP)—Four men, one a hotel manager, were charged yesterday with felony gambling, the first such complaints filed here in a decade.

District Attorney Will Wilson filed normal charges of keeping a gambling house against Sherman F. Little, James F. Worshing and Mervil Weil.

Maurice G. Hymes, the hotel manager, was charged with "knowingly permitting premises to be used for gaming."

The men were released on $2,500 bonds each. The charges said the offenses occurred in 1944.

NEW FIFTY CENT PIECES

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—Coinage of Patrick Henry Memorial 50-cent pieces was recommended to the senate by the banking and currency committee.

The touch-me-not is a plant particularly abundant in India and Ceylon and so called because the fruits explode when touched and scatter seeds.

Horses being trained to move freight cars on British railways are said to have proved more efficient and cheaper than locomotives.
