

LCB To Tighten Enforcement Of Liquor Laws Concerning Private Clubs

A "new approach" to enforcement of liquor laws concerning private clubs is now being instigated by Bill Austin, Liquor Control Board agent based in Hereford.

Stressing that "compliance with the law is all we want," Austin said he is tightening up his enforcement due to the laxity of some local clubs in their operation.

In the past, Austin explained, he has charged a person found to be intoxicated at a private club with being "drunk in a public place." However, the law states that the owner of the club also may be charged with "permitting an intoxicated person to remain on the premises of a licensed establishment," and if the intoxicated person is served in the presence of Austin, the other person may be charged with "serving alcoholic beverages to an intoxicated person."

Austin, up until now, has taken his cases to Justice of the Peace Court as misdemeanors but they now will be handled as criminal cases in county court. Minimum fine is $100 and the maximum is $1,000, with a jail sentence of up to one year also possible along with the fine or separate.

Austin said other laws which clubs can violate are "employing intoxicated on a licensed premises," and "soliciting coins to operate a musical device."

Austin emphasized that "our only aim is to enforce the laws and regulations that point to a beverage industry in Texas that is beyond reproach."

LCB DESCRIBED
"Most Texans believe, and justly so, that it is a police agency and they are right in part, but few Texans know that the Texas Liquor Control Board is also a revenue collecting outfit almost without peer in the annals of state government," explained Austin.

"This year it is likely to exceed $53 million in collections for the State Treasury. Its annual budget is approximately 6 percent of that sum. I would like to have a business paying 94 percent on its investment." The agent pointed out that the LCB had put into the treasury some $16 for every dollar spent on LCB work in recent years.

Continuing, Austin said the Texas Constitution was amended in 1933, following the repeal of national prohibition, to provide for the sale of 3.2 percent beer. In 1935, the Constitution was amended again to provide for the manufacture, sale and transportation of all alcoholic beverages.

UF Day A Big Success

"United Fund Day" in Hereford appeared to be more of a success than UF officers had dared to hope for Saturday, as a "bucket brigade" and bake sale were going strong at press time.

During the first two hours of the "bucket brigade" Saturday morning, members of the local civic clubs had collected nearly $400 by stopping cars and pedestrians at seven locations in the city.

Melvin Jayroe, who was in charge of the "bucket brigade" portion of the special day, said he had collected only the bills and checks from the workers for the two hours, and they still had a great amount of change.

Members of the Paisano Lions, Easter Lions, Hereford Lions, Optimist Club, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club and Dawn Lions Club had told United Fund officials they would help in the "bucket brigade" throughout the day Saturday and the Saturday night wrestling matches in the Bull Barn.

The Hereford Lions Club will donate all proceeds from the matches Saturday night to the UF. Members of the different clubs were to have helped at the matches. High bidder on a Shetland pony donated to the UF was to have been announced at the matches. High bid before Saturday was $25.

Bake sales were being conducted throughout the day Saturday at Furr's Supermarket, Cooper's and Piggly Wiggly by various ladies organizations, under direction of Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr.

The special events were being held in an effort to reach the United Fund goal of $37,100.39. When they began Saturday, the total stood at $32,269, and drive officials were afraid they had about reached the maximum without the special activities and help from local organizations.

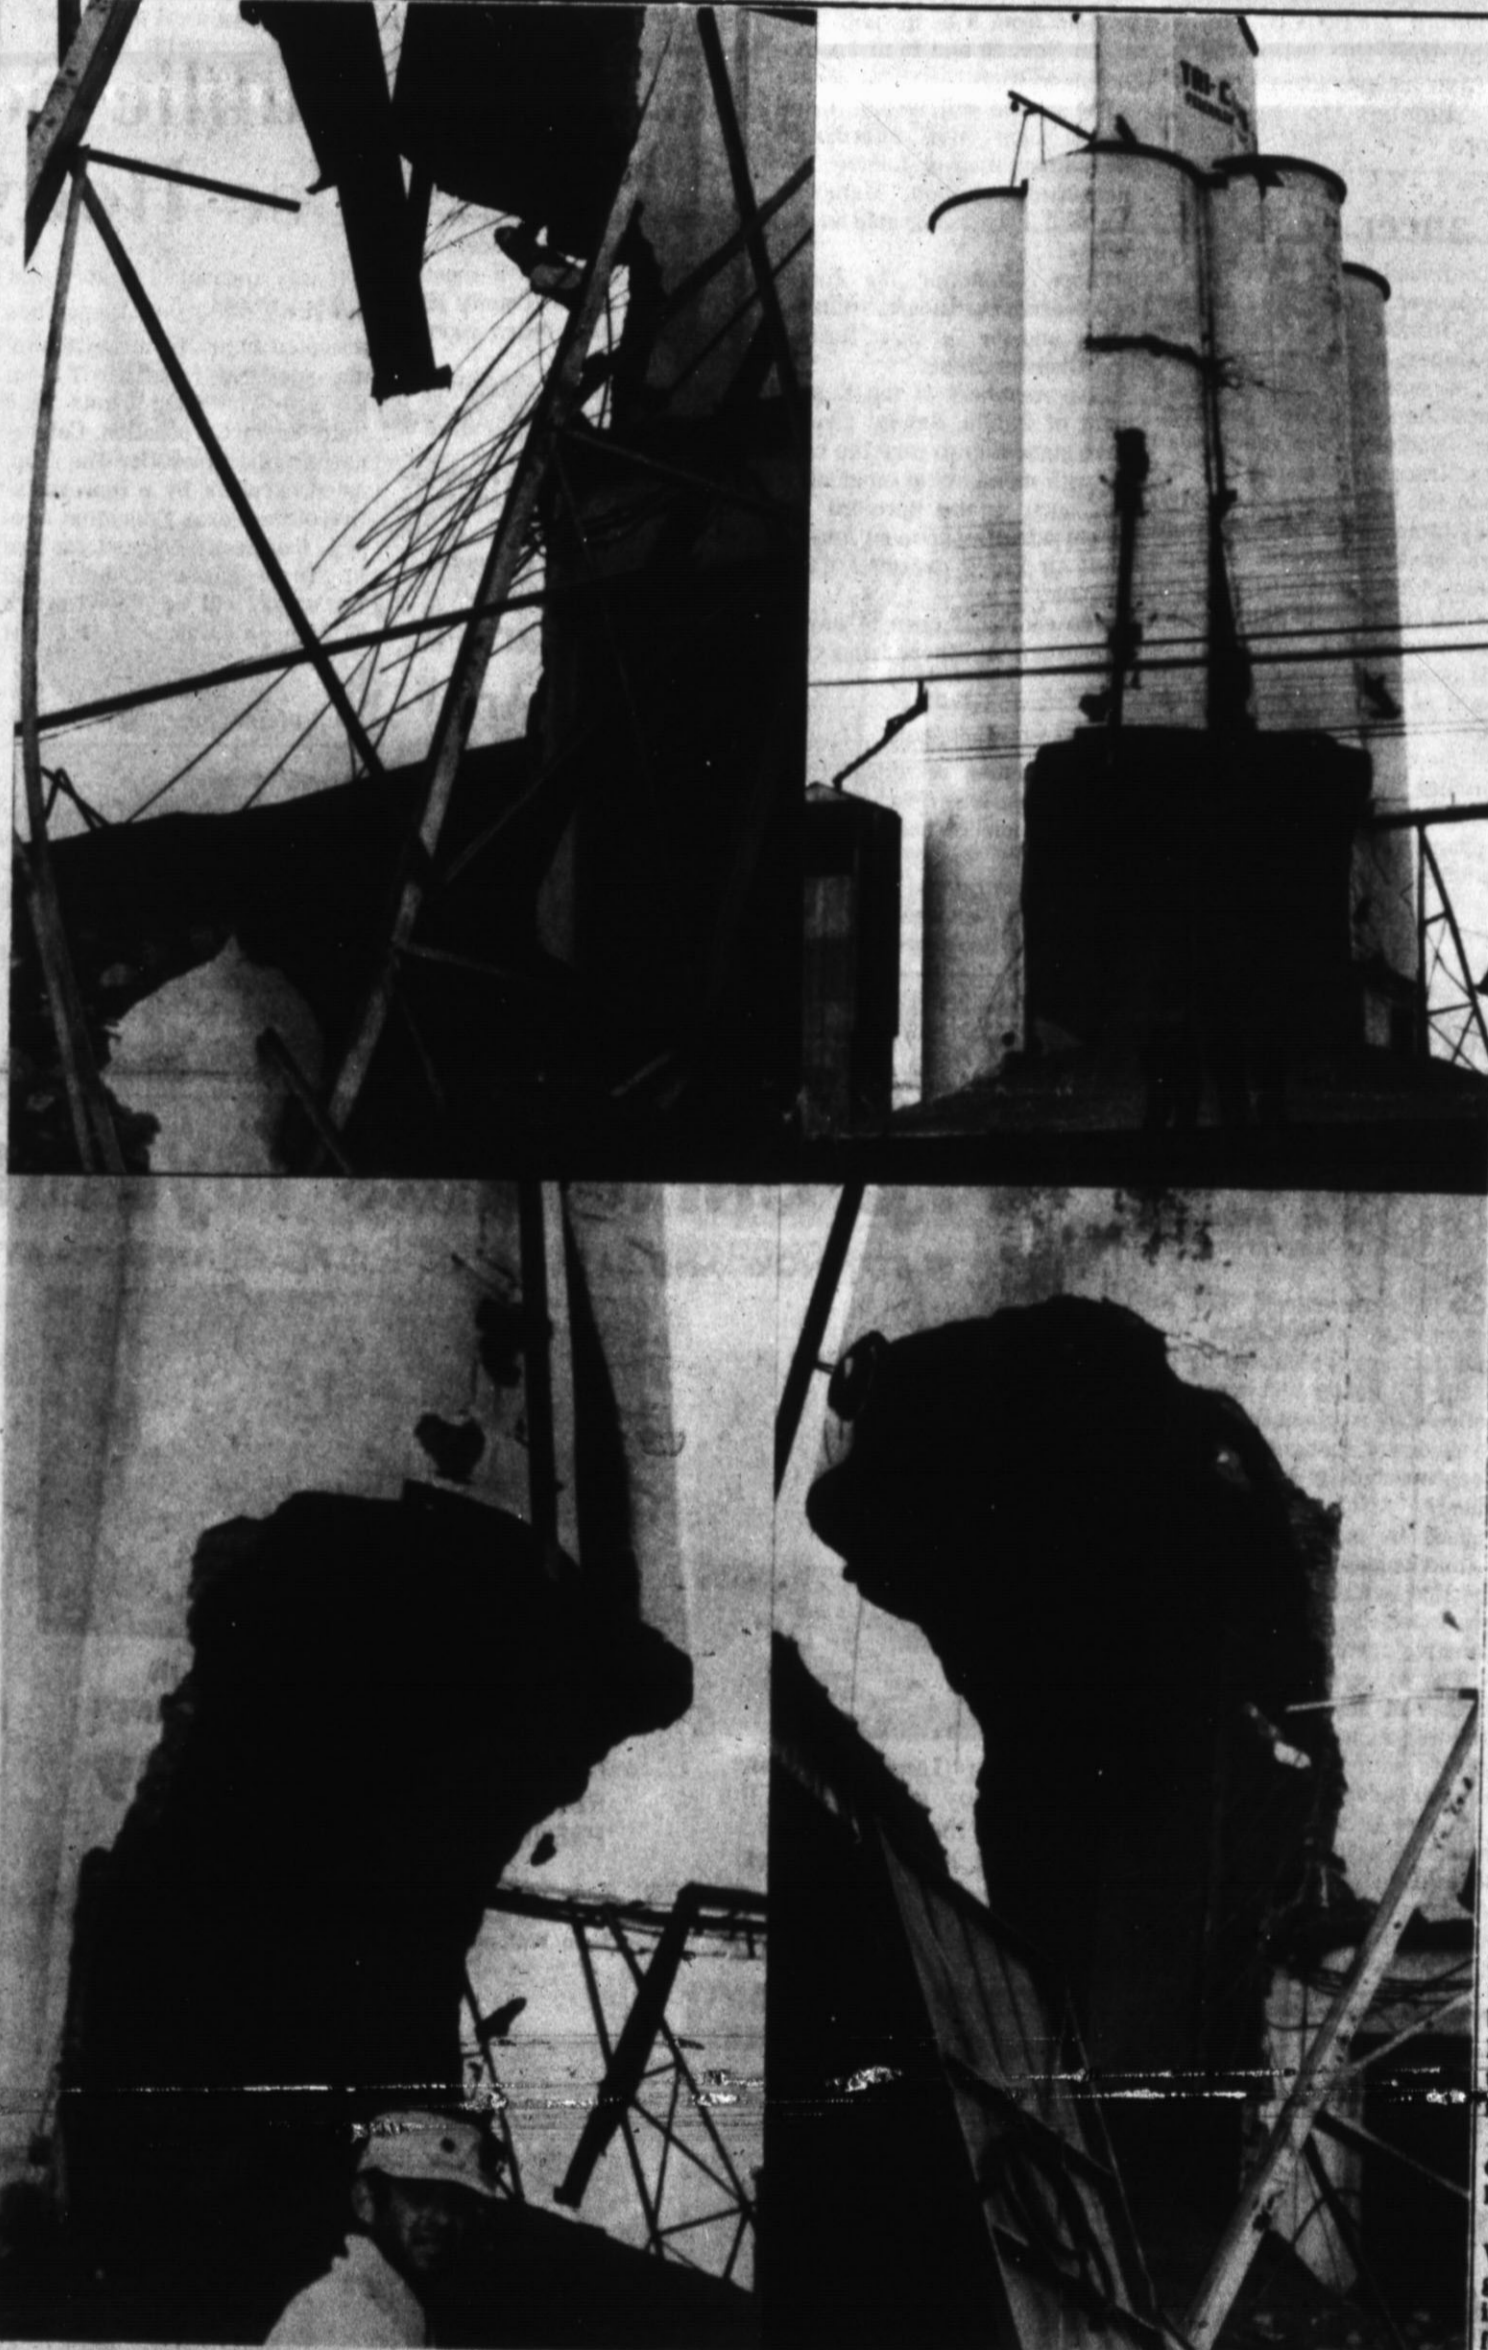

Donations to the UF still will be taken at any time by drive officials. They may be mailed to Debbs Knox, 519 Park Avenue, Hereford, or by dropping the donation out at the post office in an envelope marked United Fund.

Chartered Buses To Go To Dumas

Reservations for a chartered bus trip to Dumas Friday night for the all-important football showdown between Hereford and Dumas are now being taken by the Hereford Booster Club.

Earl Stagner, Booster Club president, and tickets to ride on the bus are $4.75 each and reservations must be made by noon Wednesday so that the Booster Club will know how many buses to charter. Each bus seats from 36 to 39 persons.

Reservations may be made by calling Debbs Knox at the Hereford Bakery. Knox also has reserve tickets for Friday night's game.

ELEVATOR DISASTER — Tri-County Elevator Co. of Black had concrete collapse from the lower part of one of its elevators Thursday afternoon, which spilled out 2½ million lbs. of grain from two tanks nearly full — and fortunately no one was injured. The structure was 12 years old and no reason could be given for the sudden breakdown. Eyewitnesses said the grain spout had been open about 10 minutes when the freak accident occurred and that it created dust unlike any ever seen in the area before. Damages are reportedly $32,000. Salvage operation were to have begun Friday morning, and the elevator will be restored soon, it was announced. — Staff Photos

Jeff Carlile, Rex Lee, Jim McDowell and J. W. Robinson Jr. were elected to the Deaf Smith County Board of Directors in a record election which ended Friday.

A total of 369 ballots were returned to the chamber office Friday. They had been mailed out to chamber members Nov. 1, and contained the names of eight men. The other candidates were John McNeely, Jim Hale, Paul Abalos and Bob Spangler.

The four men elected to the board will serve three-year terms, beginning Jan. 1. Going off the board at that time will be Ed Wilson, Clete Corlis, Melvin Young, Morris Easley and Neil Cooper, immediate past president. Earnest Langley, chamber president, will replace Cooper on the board.

A 1958 graduate of Hereford High School, Jim McDowell moved to Hereford when he was in the seventh grade. He was born in Wellington. Following graduation from the University of Oklahoma in 1962 with a bachelor's degree in pharmacy, McDowell returned to Hereford to become associated with his father, Ansel McDowell, in McDowell Drug. Hold Organizational Meeting For Cancer Society Educational Group

An organizational meeting of the Education Committee of the Deaf Smith County Cancer Society was held at noon Friday, with Jack Cromartie of Amarillo, district supervisor outlining purposes and duties of the committee.

John David Bryant, committee chairman, pointed out that "education has become an essential part of our daily life; therefore, education which concerns our personal health should be the most important. I feel however, that education within our community has been neglected."

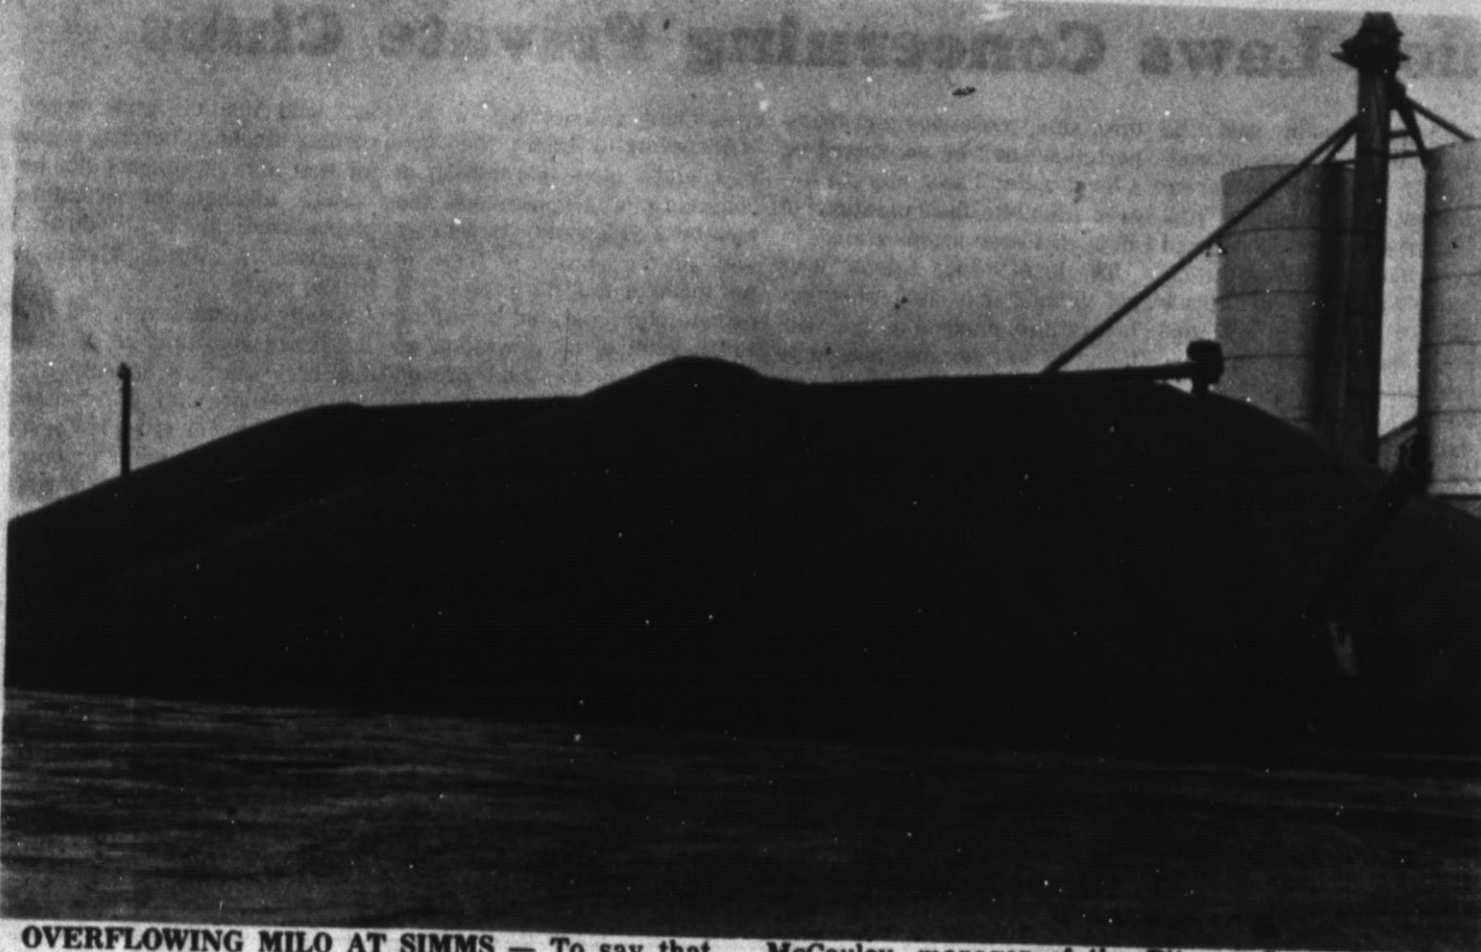

Cromartie emphasized that "one of the most important jobs of the Cancer Society is getting people to the doctor in time. He pointed out that this can be done by educating the people to the dangers of cancer and its symptoms."

Members of the education committee will have access to films for showing to any organization, no matter what age. There are films for men, women or elementary school children, and some in Spanish. A mobile unit also will be available to the local organization, with merchants of Sugarland Mall already having granted permission to have the unit set up in that location. When in operation, the mobil unit has slides and other attention-drawing items which the passer-by can operate without someone having to stay on duty all the time. Information on cancer also may be picked up at the mobil unit, which will be placed at local school buildings if arrangements are worked out.

Present for the meeting Friday were sub-committee chairman Tom Harkey, schools; Gene See CANCER, Page 2

Public Schools To Use Holly Film

It was announced Friday that the Texas Education Agency has accepted 20 prints of the 26-minute color film "Farther Than the Eye Can See" from the Holly Sugar Corporation, Colorado Springs, Colorado. The film, rated excellent by a representative of the Texas Education Agency, has been accepted for use in Texas public schools and the copies will be placed in the 20 Regional Centers of Media of Texas.

"Farther Than the Eye Can See" presents the sugar beet industry as seen through the eyes of a sugar beet grower's son. Most of the filming was done in the Holly Sugar Plant at Hereford, the agricultural scenes were filmed in the area that supplies beets to the Hereford, Texas, plant. The film stars Gerald Shipley, a Hereford, Texas, junior high school student as the grower's son, and Bud Snyder, Holly Sugar Agriculturist, as the father.

The film is regarded an excellent educational presentation of the industry's agricultural and manufacturing techniques — combining the talents of film and industry, to produce food for America's dinner tables. The official presentation of the 20 film copies was made to Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education, Texas Education Agency, by Marlin C. Chenburg, Vice President — Marketing, Holly Sugar Corporation.

administrator, who in turn appoints all of the other employees.

There are four main divisions of the board — accounting, auditing, legal and enforcement — the agent continued to explain. The accounting division issues the licenses and permits to qualified applicants and also keeps up with the accounting and disbursement of state funds handled by this department. The accounting division issued over 45,000 licenses and permits in 1967, with almost 43,000 being active at the close of the year. Records of the accounting division also show that Texans last year consumed a total of $214,654,379 gallons of alcoholic beverages, up 23,808, 261 over 1965. The per capita consumption last year was 22.4 gallons, up 2.4 over 1965. The per capita figures were based on the 1960 census.

Auditing offices maintained in Dallas, Houston and San Antonio conducted 1,273 audits during 1967, and found delinquency's in the sum of $61,310.62. It is the duty of the auditing division to audit all wholesale liquor and beer accounts in the state to insure that the state is receiving the proper amount of tax revenue from the sale of alcoholic beverages.

The auditing division also maintains and operates 11 tax collection stations along the Texas-Mexico border. Last year, these stations reported $1,233,667.57 in tax revenue on alcoholic beverages brought into the state by individuals. They also reported seizing and destroying 11,933 containers of alcoholic beverages for various violations of the law such as unlawful, size, excessive amounts, intoxicated persons transporting liquor, smuggling, possession by minor, refusal to pay tax, etc.

The legal division handles all matters dealing with licenses and permits who are called to appear before the administrator in an administrative case to show why their license or permit should not be cancelled or suspended for a violation of the law or for a rule and regulation of the board.

Hearings were held on over 5,100 non-criminal cases last year, resulting in almost 1,500 cancellations and over 3,200 suspensions.

The enforcement division, continued Austin, is the largest of the divisions, having a headquarters staff and 19 districts. The district offices, located in the larger cities throughout the state, consist of a district supervisor and assistant district supervisor, plus a varying number of inspectors as the work load requires and personnel is available.

There are eight men in the Amarillo district, which is composed of the 20 counties in the Texas Panhandle. The inspectors are commissioned State Peace Officers with all the powers and duties of a peace officer anywhere in the state. In addition to the general police powers, the inspectors have the power, when dealing with the alcoholic beverage industry, to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, and take depositions within or without the state. There are also many other powers, said Austin.

"Our primary function is to investigate for violations for the Texas Liquor Control Act, and to make removal of the violators." In 1967, this division filed over 19,000 criminal liquor law cases and over 2,000 non-criminal cases. In criminal actions, the various counties were enriched by $654,251.77. The board does not receive any part of the money from fines.

Mrs. Nadine Wade represented Mrs. Irene McKinister for the financial institutions, and Mrs. Sue James took the place of Mrs. Henry Sears as women's study clubs sub-chairman. Dale Young, sub-chairman of the utilities, was absent.

It was announced that the board of directors for the Deaf Smith County Cancer Society will meet at noon Friday in the Jim Hill Hotel, Herman Ford is county chairman. Cromartie handed out several handbooks and pamphlets explaining all about cancer, its symptoms and what the individual should do.

According to the American Cancer Society, "cancer is a disease that is characterized by abnormal growth and spread of cells. If this malignant process is not controlled or checked, the patient will die. However, many cancers can be cured if detected early in their development and treated by surgery or radiation."

Can it be prevented? "Yes. Research has proved that most lung cancers are caused by cigarette smoking and most skin cancers by frequent overexposure to direct sunlight. These can be prevented by avoiding their causes. Also, certain cancers caused by occupational factors — particularly bladder cancer in the dye industry — have been prevented by eliminating the caustic agents."

Who will get cancer? "Cancer strikes at any age. It affects children as well as adults, but it strikes with increasing frequency with advancing age." Cancer's seven danger signals are: (1) unusual bleeding or discharge; (2) a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; (3) a sore that does not heal; (4) change in bowel or bladder habits; (5) hoarseness or cough; (6) indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; and (7) change in a wart or mole. "These signals do not usually mean cancer but they are warnings; if one lasts more than two weeks, it is important to go to your doctor."

Taxes may be staggering but they never go down. Blue Rapids (Kans.) Times

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 200 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q — I have taken my pre-induction examination and have passed. I did not know I could take a medical statement to this examination. I've now sent the statement about the defect to the draft board. Is it too late for this to be considered?

A — No. Your statement will still receive consideration.

Q — Must a man request a college student deferment each year?

A — No. Only the first. It is your duty, however, to show the board each year you are satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction.

Q — My son is planning to enter a local junior college. Is such a college considered an institution of higher learning? Can a junior college student get a II-S deferment?

A — A junior college is an institution of higher learning. If a student takes a full-time course and the credits are acceptable by an institution granting a baccalaureate degree, the student is eligible for classification in class II-S. If the student is taking only a vocational or two-year terminal course, his classification is II-A if a deferment is granted.

Q — Since taking my pre-induction physical examination, I have lost the vision in one eye. What should I do?

A — Obtain a statement from your doctor setting forth his clinical findings and give this to your draft board. This will be evaluated either by the board's medical advisor or the armed forces examining station.

Xmas Decoration Committee Meets

Members of the Christmas Decoration Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, met at a noon luncheon at Ward's Restaurant Friday and discussed preparations for decorating the city for the Christmas holidays.

The committee approved a motion by Paul Harvey to have the decorations put up as soon as possible. Each year, the decorations are put up by employees of Southwestern Public Service, shortly after the Thanksgiving holiday, but, the committee decided to have them put up as soon as possible as other area towns already have them up.

Present at the meetings were Buddy Bloomer, Harvey, Dudley Bayne, Ted Higgins, Irene McKinster, Helen McCauley, Don Bausous and Bill Thompson.

ADDED SECURITY

CHINOOK, Mont. (AP) — Four nuns were seen driving along in a car near the Canadian border area called the Hi-Line.

As the vehicle went along its way there could be no finer display of proper driving; it was the epitome of highway safety.

But, almost unnoticed on the rear of the car was a little sign that said, "In God We Trust."

DYING PROFESSION

DURBAN, South Africa — Heart transplant pioneer Prof. Christian Barnard told a graduating class of nurses that theirs was a dying profession. Barnard said nurses were becoming little more than "medical clerks" with more and more of the real work being carried out by nurses aides and other assistants.

"Nothing helps a doctor more than leaving a patient in the hands of a competent nurse. Not even the most modern medical machinery can replace a good nurse."

Herd Drubs Tulia, 25-0; Decisive Game Is Friday

Hereford has set the stage for all the marbles in district 1-AAA after shutting out the Tulia Hornets 25-0 Friday night while Dumas, who shared the lead with them before last week, fell to the Perryton Rangers, 21-7.

The win places the Whitefaces in sole possession of the district lead with a perfect 4-0 record while standing at 5-4 for the season. Dumas and Perryton are just one game back with 3-1 marks each with Perryton owning the best overall record of 8-1 and the Demons having a 4-5. The lone loss to the Rangers, who were ranked as the number one team in the state for eight consecutive weeks, came at the hands of the Whitefaces on Nov. 1, 13-12.

Tulia, who had not won a game all season, proved itself a worthy opponent through the first half of the game as they held the Herd to one slim touchdown. The ball exchanged hands four times in the opening quarter with the locals threatening on their first possession by driving to the Hornet nine-yard line before being stopped and forced to give the ball up on downs.

A bad snap from the Tulia center deep in their own territory gave the Whitefaces their first score of the game — a two point safety. After getting the pigskin from the locals, the Hornets could not muster a drive, and then on a fourth and punting situation, the ball flew over the Hornet punters head and Whitefacer Larry Guinn tackled him in a scramble in the end zone.

Fighting a rain-sogged field and a determined Tulia defense, the Whitefaces drove to the Tulia 15-yard line but never made it past that point on their next possession. A fumble on the visitor's 15, which Tulia recovered, stopped the drive in the second stanza. The ball again exchanged hands and the Herd took over on their own 45 then steadily drove to the other end of the field. Whiteface quarterback Bill Cole called on John Frank Martin to carry from the Tulia nine, and he bulled his way across but the TD was called back on a penalty. On the next play, Cole passed 14 yards to Steve McAndrews for the official touchdown. Jim Loerwald put his boot to work and added the PAT for a 9-0 halftime lead.

Following halftime ceremonies the Whitefaces came back on the field determined to strengthen their lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Hornet defense stymied the Herd offense again and they were forced to punt. The ball landed on the Tulia 34-yard line, and the visitors began from there. After three plays of little gains, the fourth and punting situation again faced the Hornets and again the ball was centered high. The punter grabbed the ball and scrambled around before being brought down on his own four-yard line where the Whitefaces took over on downs.

McAndrews got one hard yard then was followed a two-and-one-half yard gain by Elgin Williams, and then Cole took the pigskin over on a quarterback sneak. With 6:34 left in the third quarter, Loerwald added the second point after boot to make the score stand at 16-0 for Hereford.

Following the touchdown, kicker Martin lined the kick at the front line of the Tulia kickoff return team and the ball bounced off a Hornet player and was recovered by the Whitefaces. Three plays later, the pigskin went over on downs then came back to the Whitefaces via a pass interception by Randy Ragan on the Hereford 41.

The Whitefaces netted a first down then drove to the Tulia 12-yard line before a Cole pass was intercepted by a Hornet defender and ran back to the Tulia 37. A fumble by the staggering Tulia offensive backfield was then recovered by Hereford on the Hornet 36 and the locals went on in from there to score their third touchdown.

Williams wormed his way to the Tulia 14 on a 22 yard run on the first play following the fumble recovery then McAndrews carried the ball to the nine-yard line. Whiteface boss Martin dipped his hands in on the scoring play then with a TD plunge for a 22-0 lead. Loerwald made it three-for-three in the PAT department to make the score read 3-0.

With about three minutes left on the clock, Hereford took the ball on the Tulia 31 following a punt, and sub field general Marsh Pitman's calls carried the ball to the Tulia seven. An attempted pass by Pitman was then intercepted, but on the first Hornet play, a score for the Whitefaces was registered as the Tulia quarterback was caught behind the goal line for a safety, and the final scoring play.

Tulia threatened to score on their last possession as a runner broke for 45 yards before being brought down on the Hereford 34. The clock then ran out and the game ended with the Whitefaces winning, 25-0.

Hereford will meet Dumas at 7:30 p. m. Friday at Dumas.

La Plata 7th, 8th Grades Take Titles

With La Plata's ninth grade taking their district championship, the Maverick's seventh and eighth grades were not to be outdone as they also wound up their seasons last week with conference crowns.

The seventh grade met the Stanton seventh grade and lost their game, 14-12, but still retained the conference title with a 4-1 record and the eighth graders clubbed the Stanton eleven, 48-12 for their championship.

Stanton's seventh grade, who ended the grid season with a 2-2-1 record eked out their win in last Tuesday night's contest by netting the game-deciding two-point conversion following a touchdown. The Stantonites held the Mavs to one lone touchdown and that was in the final quarter while their other four points resulted from two safeties.

La Plata's Jim Marsh ran three yards for the only Mav score then added the two point conversion. A second quarter safety and another in the fourth period gave the La Platans their 12 points, but the Dogies came across with two TD's plus one two point conversion for the winning margin.

Game statistics for the La Plata seventh showed them with seven first downs, 118 yards rushing and 25 passing for a total of 143 yards. In the individual game, four Mavs hit in the plus columns in rushing with Schumacher getting an average of 4.4 yards per carry; Marsh, 3.2 yards per carry; and Winget, 4.0 yards per tote. Passing, Bogard completed one of three attempts for 24 yards while Waits attempted one but it went incomplete.

In the eighth grade battle for the district championship, La Plata managed a win over their cross town opponent with Terry Champ, Larry and Barry McNutt, and Alvin Ellerd all putting efforts together for the win.

Champ scored from one yard out in the opening minutes of the game to give the La Platans the edge, and the extra point attempt failed. In the second quarter, Champ again scored from four yards then moments later, put six more points on the board with a three yard plunge.

Larry McNutt added more to the score in the second period with a 70-yard pass interception return to make the score stand at 30-0. Ellerd put the finishing touches on the scoring for the first half with a 45 yard TD scamper and Champ again put his legs to work for a two-point conversion.

Stanton then got on the scoreboard in the first half with their 12 points but the Mav eighth graders got those back plus some. Champ ran for 27 yards and a TD in the third period with Larry McNutt notching the two-point extra. Walter Olson, La Plata field general, tossed the pigkin 22 yards to Barry McNutt for the final Mav touchdown with Larry McNutt adding the last two-pointer.

Stanton's eighth grade wound up the season with a 4-2 record and La Plata had a 5-1 record and the championship.

La Plata 9th Grade Grabs Championship

La Plata's ninth grade Mavericks finished their grid season Thursday night with a 16-12 win over Stanton that came as a result of completing two, two-point conversions for the winning margin.

The Mavericks pulled their game out of the bag with a fourth quarter rally that gave them a 16-12 decision over Stanton. In gaining the win they won the conference championship in their league with an 8-1 record. Stanton pulled out front in the opening half of the first quarter when Eugene Suttle swept for 49 yards and the touchdown. The point after attempt was no good, but they held a 6-0 edge.

John Page, La Plata back, evened the score up in the second stanza when he hauled in a Charles Allison pass that covered 30 yards. Page then took the ball over on the two-point conversion attempt for a lead that the Mavericks held through the third period.

Battling back and forth for field position, but neither getting the needed yardage, the game went scoreless through the remainder of the second quarter and all the way through the third period. Both teams threatened on several occasions, but could not muster the sufficient drive.

Eddie Gage, Dogie receiver, was on the end of a Rudy Gonzales pass in the fourth period that gave them the lead for the second time in the contest. A gain of the PAT pass attempt failed and that was the deciding factor in the game in the end.

Holding a four-point lead, the Stanton defense attempted to hold the surging Mavericks, but were unable to do so for the entire fourth period. The Mavs drove to the Dogie one-yard line and La Plata quarterback Charles Allison took the ball over for the deciding TD. Page again added the PAT and the score ended with the Mavs pulling the game out in the waning minutes.

Statistics showed that the game was as close as the score as both teams collected 11 first downs with La Plata getting a total of 225 yards and Stanton ending up with 221 total yards. Stanton out rushed La Plata 184 to 160, but the Mavericks got ahead in the passing category with 56 yards to Stanton's 37.

Individually, for Stanton, Eugene Suttle led the ground game with 112 yards on 7 carries for an average of 6.6 while others included Rudy Gonzales, 25 yards on 12 carries; David Spain, 46 yards on 15 carries; and Ike Graves, one yard on one carry. La Plata had Allison as their average leading ground gainer as he clicked off 21 yards on four carries for a 5.25 average. Danny Charest had the most number of yards with 66 on 13 totes for a 4.4 per try; Page, a 4.8 average on 17 attempts; and Billy Bob Taylor, one yard on one carry.

In the passing department, Stanton's Rudy Gonzales completed three passes on nine attempts for 37 yards and La Plata's Allison had three of five attempts to connect. Page also attempted one pass for La Plata, but it was incomplete.

Stanton ended their season with a 5-3 record with losses coming at the hands of Dumas, the Plainview Red Pups and the La Plata team. La Plata wound up with an 8-1 mark with their lone loss coming at the hands of the Muleshoe squad.

Longhorns End Season With 20-0 Decision Over Tulia

Victim number seven was added to the list of wins for the Hereford Longhorns as they ended their season last Thursday with a 20-0 win over the Tulia junior varsity.

The game, which was originally scheduled to be played at Whiteface Stadium, was changed to the Tulia field, but that proved of little value to the host team. Hereford's big gun in the win was their defensive playing that held the Tulia team to only eight first downs while their offense managed 15 first downs.

The aerial game was in favor of the Longhorns also as they managed to hit the 500 mark with eight completions on 16 attempts. Willard Black got things rolling for the Longhorns in the initial period of play when, after a long march into Tulia territory, he bulled his way into the end zone from 19 yards out. A fake extra point try netted the locals an 8-0 lead following the TD as quarterback Paul Hendon hit Paul Loerwald with a pass in the end zone.

Tulia drove to the Longhorns eight-yard line on their possession, but the defense held steadily and the ball changed hands as the first period ended. On numerous other occasions during the game, the host team managed to drive to the Hereford 15-yard line, but on each of these occasions the defense held them. In the second quarter, Loerwald added the second touchdown of the game when he took the ball over from four out. The PAT attempt failed and the score read 14-0 as the first half ended.

From the beginning of the second half up until the last few seconds of play, the game turned into a defensive struggle with neither team being able to dominate the ball. Then, with six seconds remaining on the clock the Longhorns drove to the Tulia 12-yard line and quarterback Hendon completed a pass to Randy Jones for the final touch-

This was the last game of the season for the Longhorns as they ended their season with a 7-3 record. Their losses came at the hands of the powerful Tascosa team in the season opener, then to the Hart varsity team, and last week to the strong New Mexico Military Institute "B" team. They lost to Tascosa, 26-6, Hart, 38-14, and to NMMI, 25-0.

Football Contest Is Extended 1 Week

Due to the closeness in the football contest and the fact that there is still one game left for most football teams, the contest has been extended one week.

At the end of the contest, an arrangement will be worked out with the top guessers. Possibly, this will be to the effect of guessing the closest to a single game's score.

In cases where there is still a tie at Presently, there are 42 persons who are standing above 90 correct guesses with the highest being 101 by Ronnie Roberts. Don Lane is close at hand with 100.

Others in the 90-or-above category include: Mrs. E. K. Pinnell, 90; Bob Renfro, 90; Clyde Schmer, 96; Judy Renfro, 93; Mrs. A. J. Cancer Discussed At Kiwanis Meeting

U. G. Berry, past chairman of the Amarillo chapter of the American Cancer Society, was the speaker at the regular Thursday luncheon of the Hereford Kiwanis Club.

Berry presented the film "Investment in Life," which dealt with the causes, cures and treatments of cancer, the number two killer in the United States. Following the film, he discussed the part in the upcoming cancer crusade that Kiwanis International has committed itself to.

The film discussed the methods of preparing human cells for inspection of cancer and explained the characteristics of cancer-infected cells — mainly irregular size, stains and distortion of the cell nucleus. Numerous noted epidemiologists appeared in the film, telling of the advancements that have taken place in the past that have led to the present stage of fighting cancer.

One epidemiologist explained that the relationship between smokers and the occurrence of cancer, in a recent study, was tremendous as also was the reported cases of asbestos workers. The study disclosed that men who worked with asbestos had a high rate of cancer due to the fine fibers of the material that were breathed into the lungs. As the fibers entered the lungs, certain body chemicals actually aided their growth and resulted in cancerous cells development.

The major obstacle met in the treatment of cancer has been the difficulty in being able to separate cancer-infested cells from regular cells. Numerous treatments have been designed to combat the spreading of the disease, and great steps have been taken toward eliminating the disease.

"The cure for cancer," Berry ended, "is inevitable as we have made tremendous advances toward that goal in the past number of years."

Country School Is Modern At Walcott

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Walcott School, which is located 31 miles northwest of Hereford, has an enrollment of 92 students — and 91 of them must be transported to school via bus each day.

It is a country school. Almost all the students live on farms and ranches.

But Walcott is not a 'country school in the time-worn image of the phrase. As principal L. B. Russell said, "It is a country school with modern methods. When the kids leave here after the eighth grade for schools in Hereford, we have no complaints that they are not up to the standard that they should be."

And Walcott does it with four teachers instructing all eight grades. Moreover, one of the teachers not only coaches but drives a school bus. They have a basketball team in district play for the first time this year and they have had cheerleaders for several years.

The original Walcott school was constructed in 1928 as a wooden schoolhouse, and was used until 1950. The present building, which is brick, was opened in September 1951 but has had additions along the way. And it is as modern — inside and out — as its course of education.

Similar to the growth of Hereford, the enrollment number has grown each year at Walcott. In its wooden-frame days, the enrollment averaged sixteen. In 1951, it had 34 students. In 1959, it had risen to 59. Future prospects are unlimited.

Its district covers 560 square miles, Russell said, but everything in that large area is centered around the school. "All the people join in on all the activities whether they have children in school or not. Some of them don't even have children but they still join in with us. We are very close together here because of that, and we have very strong support."

In the school gymnasium, which is somewhat higher than the one-story sprawling building it connects, Russell pointed out that there is play between both men's and women's volleyball teams vying against other areas. "They get together one night each week, and they have a tournament in the winter. A P.T.O. project, they play teams from all over the Panhandle and Plains. Volleyball has been popular for some time out here with the people and has maintained a lot of interest."

Recently, the Walcott people held their annual Halloween party which was attended by more than 100 people of all ages. It featured costumes, prizes, box suppers, and cake walks. As with all their parties there, Russell pointed out, everyone pitched right in and had a good time.

WIDE OPEN SPACES

Even the location of the school has a tendency to bury the idea of its modernistic approach to education and its service as a center of activity to its community. An example is the travel route from Hereford. One goes west on Park Avenue and travels 24 miles on Harrison Highway (Farm Road 1058). Especially beyond Westway, the homes become farther and farther apart. There are the Easley and Circle 3 Feed Yards several miles before reaching the Precinct 3 County Barn at "Bootleg Corner." A right turn there onto Texas Highway 214 will display almost nothing for seven miles but the "great West Texas Plains."

But there is Walcott School. As County Commissioner of Precinct 3 Bruce Coleman said, "You can't miss it." And all three of his children are presently students there.

Unquestionably, the school property stands out like "a ship in the pasture." Russell reported that the State Highway Department had made signs for the location of the school, which would soon be erected at Bootleg Corner and at Shims. "The location of the school has become more and more important through tournament plays and district meets, and we thought this to be very important."

The basketball district will include Vega, Springlake, Sudan, Bovina, and Farwell. It will begin on Nov. 25.

"And we also have track." But unfortunately, there is no football.

Russell, who was born in Deaf

Smith County, had made a name for himself in football out of his Hereford High School class before entering junior college at Paris, Tex., and gaining the nickname "Scat" on the football fields for Hardin-Simmons at Abilene.

Before entering the service during World War II, he was football coach at Abilene for a year and returned for another year after the war. He later coached at Baird and at Cisco Junior College, before returning to Hereford in 1952. He became "Coach Russell" here, and served three years as elementary principal and two-and-a-half years as high school principal. (Russell was also elected one of the trustees of the Hereford Independent School District in 1965.)

He reported that he was "very pleased" with his position at Walcott and with "all the people" who make up his school district.

Maybe there will be football there someday.

DOUBLE GRADE TEACHERS
Mrs. George Brakebill is teacher for the first and second graders, Mrs. Jim Stapleton teaches third and fourth graders, Coach Ed Easley (who also drives one of the four buses) teaches fifth and sixth, and George Brakebill is seventh and eighth grade instructor.

A tour down the hall into their individual rooms is no different than a tour of any of the highly accredited elementary schools in Hereford, complete with the latest types of visual aids for the students.

The only difference? Two grades of children in the same classroom.

But Russell spoke highly of each of his teachers and felt that this is not a detriment to any student's education. (In country schools of times gone by, there were times when all classes were taught in the same room without any marked handicap on teacher or student — except perhaps more "wear and tear".) And since all but one of the students are bused into Walcott naturally they cannot go home for lunch. But Walcott has its own kitchen and lunchroom facilities — supervised by Mrs. Bertha Waligura — and the kids are well fed. Her husband, Joe Waligura, is the school custodian.

And it is the Waligura's child who does not have to catch the bus for a ride to school. They live in a house on the school property! "But the kids who travel by bus, one of the drivers is a Hereford man, Gerald Wilson, who drives in each morning from Hereford and collects a load for Walcott — and a load of the older kids whom he transports to the Hereford schools. The other drivers for Walcott alone are Betty Monroe, Maxine Brown, and Easley—who thinks it's cold when he first gets up these mornings but warm by the time school starts."

And who are the cheerleaders this year? Officially, they are Kay Bingsgame, Kerry Hall, Sharon White, Carmen West, and Cindy Coleman. Unofficially, it has been pointed out, the cheerleaders are everyone in the Walcott district.

Delegates Named By Farmers Union

Delegates to the Farmers Union Convention to be held in Austin on Dec. 5 through 7 who will represent Deaf Smith County have been announced as S. A. McCathern, Alfred Smith, A. J. (Doc) Bezner, Robert Strain, Edgar Vinson, Leo Witkowski, Ralph Mitchell, Louis Woodford and Andrew Kershen. Their wives will act as alternates.

The state convention opens at the Terrace Motor Hotel in Austin on Thursday, Dec. 5, according to the state general farm organization officials at Waco.

Farmers and ranchers who attend the convention this year are expected to hear from Tony T. Dechant of Denver, president of National Farmers Union; U. S. Senators Ralph Yarborough of Texas and Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, Congressman Jake Pickle of Austin, State Representative F. G. Mutschler Jr. of Brenham, AFL-CIO president Hank Brown, State Farmers Home Administrator L. J. Capleman; Gilbert Rohde, president of Wisconsin Farmers Union; and Victor Ray, director of Public Relations for National Farmers Union.

Resolutions and policy recommendations have already begun to arrive at the state office in Waco from the 110 chartered county organizations in Texas — including those framed by the officers and members here (and published in last week's Sunday Brand.) These resolutions will be combined into a draft of the 1969 program which will be discussed and adopted during the 3-day convention.

A state president and vice president for 1969 and delegates to the National Farmers Union convention will be elected by delegate ballot from nominations made on the floor of the Austin convention. Texas Farmers Un-

SCHOOL AND PUPILS — This photograph of the last school building at Summerfield, owned by Mrs. Guy Walsler, dates from the early 1920's. The brick building was constructed in 1920, to replace a wooden building dating from about 1901. First school at Summerfield was conducted in a half-dugout.

SUMMERFIELD DINNER SLATED

Community Gift Will Honor Former Teachers

By SUE COLEMAN Women's Editor

Some community history and more personal recollections will be reviewed at a reunion of Summerfield residents Thursday evening at Easter Community Clubhouse, when the Summerfield Study Club will be hostess.

The event will be a community Thanksgiving dinner, and its feature will be the presentation of a $500 scholarship to the Opportunity Plan at West Texas State University, a community gift in honor of former Summerfield teachers.

Past teachers at the school, which has been consolidated with the Hereford School System for a number of years, will be the honor guests, and invitations have been sent to a number in other cities.

Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. R. B. Baker head the hostess committee for the pot-luck supper. All present and former residents of the community are invited, says Mrs. Guy Walsler, club president.

Searching for information to compile a history of the Summerfield school, Mrs. Johnson, who herself is a former teacher, has found that the first school was in the half-dugout home of a Mrs. Millet, who taught the Wilson and Loflin children and her own children about the turn of the century.

The first school was built in 1901 or 1902, according to recollections of Mrs. J. L. Roy Rogers, 306 N. Lawton, whose family, that of the late W. L. Sain, moved to Summerfield from Johnson County in November of 1902. The building was new then she says.

She entered school when the term began the following Jan. 1, and Miss Lenna Greer was the first teacher. Mrs. Greer, later Mrs. Persy Estes, taught several terms and was the only teacher.

A second teacher was added to the faculty for the 1911-12 term, when Miss Edith Maurer, now Mrs. Lillard of Friona, was the principal and Miss Mattie Highsmith, now Mrs. Ford of Clovis, N. M., the assistant. Miss Hortense Russell, now Mrs. Woodard of Amarillo, followed Miss Highsmith.

Ray Johnson, who came with his parents to the community in 1908, remembers that Will Harris was the teacher in 1910. Mrs. Rogers says Johnson attended high school in Hereford and rode back and forth on the train, which had a convenient schedule that brought him to Hereford early in the morning and took him home after school was dismissed.

Mrs. Rogers also recalls an odd fact caused by the location of Summerfield at a point where Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer Counties come together. The three counties took turns paying the teacher her salary in the early days.

As the school building was in Castro County and Miss Greer boarded with a family whose residence was in Parmer County, when it was her turn to draw her pay from Deaf Smith County she was in a unique position, being paid by one county while she lived in another and worked in a third.

The wooden school building was used for church services as well as classes, Mrs. Rogers says, and her family drove in by buggy from their farm six miles to the south, to attend church twice a month and a Methodist minister another Sunday.

The congregation which came in from scattered farms, many for long distances, usually heard the preaching, then had "dinner on the ground" before an afternoon Union Sunday school. The Presbyterian minister from Hereford sometimes preached after Sunday School.

Names of Laura Edwards and Mr. Edelman are also mentioned among early teachers in the school. A brick building replaced the old wooden school about 1920, when Miss Bessie Foster, now Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. of Hereford, was principal.

Mrs. Johnson, then Miss Billee Smith, came to Summerfield as a teacher for the 1921 term, when the brick building was new and Miss Dell Slaton was the other teacher.

After it was no longer used for school, the brick building served as a community center until it was destroyed by fire.

If you have a medium-size funnel you can use it to "hang" an angelfood cake (in its pan) when you remove the cake from the oven. Let the cake stand this way until it is cold, then ease it from the pan. Stand the funnel on its wide end and place the tube of the pan over the funnel's narrow end.

One-Act Plays Set As Second HCP Production

A night of one-act plays on a date to be selected, early in February, will be the next production of Hereford Community Players following the presentation next Thursday and Friday of a comedy, Blithe Spirit.

The decision was reached at a membership meeting Thursday evening at Stanton Junior High School, where a rehearsal of Blithe Spirit was held afterward. Mrs. John Gilliland was named to direct a one-act comedy, and John Claypool to direct a short drama on the February program.

Musical entertainment was tentatively planned between the two plays to round out an evening's program.

Ticket sale reports were made at the meeting. All members of the organization have tickets to the opening play for sale, and admission will also be available at the door Thursday and Friday evenings. Blithe Spirit will be staged in the Stanton auditorium and the same place is planned for the one-act plays.

To make tomato cups to hold salad mixtures, cut each tomato almost through into half a dozen sections; separate the sections slightly and pile the salad mixture in the center.

Changes In SS Could Aid Many Workers Today

Workers approaching retirement age should check with their social security office at three important times, according to Travis C. Briggs, district manager in Amarillo.

Because of recent changes in the social security law regarding earnings after benefits begin, many workers and their families may receive some or all of their social security checks during the year, even though the worker continues on his job. For this reason, Briggs said, a worker who is nearing age 62 should look into possible benefits even if he is not planning to stop working.

A second point at which a worker should contact his social security office, Briggs said, is when he approaches age 65. Although his earnings may be too high to permit monthly payments, he can make application for hospital and medical insurance protection under Medicare at 65, while he still continues to work.

And lastly, Briggs pointed out, once the worker becomes 72 years old, his earnings no longer prevent him from receiving his social security checks. If he has not applied for social security benefits prior to that time, he should definitely make application at age 72, Briggs stressed.

At The Library

Bible Smuggler Is Book Subject

Now at the Deaf Smith County Library you will find the thrilling story of a man's desire to bring the word of God to forbidden lands and the daring risks he had to face to do so.

GOD'S SMUGGLER. He carries contraband Bibles past armed border guards to bring the love of Christ to the peoples behind the Iron Curtain. Brother Andrew grew up in a devoutly Christian home in Witte, a tiny town in Holland. As a child he dreamed of feats of daring-do, and when he became a young man of seventeen he went to a orthodox lay seminary that operated no regular missions, provided no funds, and sent its graduates into fields of their own choosing.

Brother Andrew's special mission was revealed to him under the most ironic circumstances. Invited by the Communists to a youth rally in Poland, Andrew discovered that though the Communists overtly permitted religious freedom, they had banned the Book. No Bibles were to be obtained anywhere behind the Iron Curtain. From that moment Brother Andrew became God's smuggler, carrying the Holy Testaments into forbidden territory.

Andrew's account of his mission is a story of exuberant, danger-charged adventure. He tells of the Red Captain who forgot to arrest him while officer and missionary hotly debated theology for hours on end, of the Siberian pastor of a Bible-less church who traveled two thousand miles on God's order and appeared in Red Square at the very moment Brother Andrew arrived with his contraband goods.

His bags bulging with Bibles, wheeling past blessedly-blind guards, over boarders and back again, Brother Andrew has penetrated every Communist country on the map, including Red China. The life story of this irresponsible Dutch missionary embodies a unique and heartening view of Eastern Europe's Christian communities. It is a book that carries an inspiring message for every Christian of the Free World.

Maybe death and taxes are inevitable, but death doesn't get worse every time Congress meets.

According to an Associated Press Washington report, 6,400 of America's finest fighting men have died since the beginning of the Paris peace talks six months ago, with an additional 22,161 being wounded badly enough to be hospitalized.

During the Korean talks that finally led to the present day stalemate, 12,700 American men died, but that covered a two-year period. The battlefield death count last week stood at 166 U. S. fighting men killed, the highest in four weeks.

Cessation of bombing, just a couple of days before the election may well lead to an increase in the casualty rate before many weeks have gone by. There seems to be little question that troops and supplies from North Vietnam have continued to go south during the lull, and the longer the VCs can get supplies and additional men the longer the fighting will continue, and the less anxious the North Vietnamese will be to negotiate a peace.

Like the old saying goes, we "too soon old, too late smart."

With Thanksgiving coming as late as it is this year, it looks like the Christmas decorations will be going up before rather than after the holiday. Actually, the Christmas season is practically upon us — and as usual, we're not ready. Like a lot of other people, it looks like we're going to have to visit the friendly banker before December 25.

The Hereford Whitefaces should be on their way to a district championship this year after their 25-0 win over the hapless Tulla Hornets Friday night. Only Dumas stands in the way of the Whiteface eleven and we're betting that the Herd takes care of them Friday night. Since Perryton beat the Dumas Demons Friday night, a win, or even a tie next Friday would Demons Friday night, a win, or the district title. A loss to the Demons would throw the district into a three way tie.

Four new directors will be taking their place on the board of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce on January 1, and we're looking forward to even greater accomplishments by the Chamber in the next few years. Jeff Carlile, vice president of the Hereford State Bank, Rex Lee, owner-manager of Summerfield Fertilizer Company; J. W. Robinson Jr., owner of Robinson Insurance Agency and Jim McDowell, pharmacist at McDowell Drug will be the four new ones.

Robinson has served the community well over the past years. He is a native of Hereford and has been president of the Hereford Lions Club as well as District Governor of District 271. He has been quite active in chamber work for a number of years.

Lee has also served as president of the Hereford Lions Club and has been quite active in that organization since coming to Hereford. He will be an asset to the board.

McDowell is a Rotarian. He graduated from high school in Hereford and has returned to help manage his father's drug store. He is the youngest of the crew, but has been a valuable member of the Rotary Club and we're expecting a continuation of this dedication and hard work for the chamber.

Carlile has been in Hereford only a couple of years but the popular young banker is making his mark. He is a Kiwanian and has been quite active in the club.

We have been fortunate over the years in Hereford by having an unusually talented group of men serving on the board of directors of the chamber and no doubt this is one of the secrets to the success enjoyed by our fine community.

One of life's briefest moments, we're told, is the time between reading the sign on the expressway and realizing you just missed the exit ramp.

GUEST DAY AT CLUB — Dr. C. L. Kay, right, was the speaker when Pioneer Study Club had a Guest Day program on Americanism Tuesday. Dr. Kay, assistant president of Lubbock Christian College, was accompanied to Hereford by Mrs. Kay, left. Mrs. B. E. Brumley, center, was program leader and introduced the speaker.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in his Annual Report Summary for the Fiscal Year of 1967, states "The mission of the Service is to encourage and achieve the highest possible degree of voluntary compliance with the tax laws and regulations and to maintain the highest degree of public confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the Service. This includes communicating the requirements of the law to the public, determining the extent of compliance and causes of noncompliance, and doing all things needful to a proper enforcement of the law."

On the last page of the Commissioner's Report Summary, under the title "Investigation of Alleged Tax Fraud," there is listed "Plea of guilty or nolo contendere or conviction after trial . . . 1,173. Apparently, out of 100 million, there were still 1,000 who didn't volunteer."

THRIFTY WHISKY

CAPE TOWN, South Africa — The whiskey makers of Scotland probably have nothing to worry about, but South African whisky a blend of malt whisky and cane and wine spirits costs much less than Scotch.

This thrifty note was struck by the distiller, who said South African whisky introduced about two years ago is selling so well that a new plant is planned for Rhodesia.

VOE STUDENT OF THE WEEK — Chosen as this week's Voe student of the week is Billee Goettsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Goettsch of 808 W. First. Miss Goettsch, a senior, is employed at the First National Bank as a file clerk under the Vocational Office Education program of Hereford High School. After graduation she plans to attend WTSU. Pictured with Miss Goettsch is Helen Smith, her on-the-job supervisor. Staff Photo

Naman Opposes Committee's Recommendation

Jay Naman, president of Texas Farmers Union, has urged Secretary of Agriculture Freeman to "ignore recommendations of the Cotton Advisory Committee which would unduly increase cotton expansion in 1969 and substantially reduce grower income. The Cotton Advisory Committee does not speak for cotton producers," stated Naman.

Naman wired Secretary Freeman immediately after the announcement of the Cotton Advisory Committee's recommendation to increase cotton production for 1969. Referring to the more recent Cotton Advisory Committee's recommendations, Naman asserted, "the announcement of this program could cost farmers $20 a bale on this year's crop which is to be sold. Weak current markets and declining futures in face of a short crop are hardly consistent with an expansion of acreage in 1969."

Citing recommendations of Texas Farmers Union Commodity Committees for Cotton, Naman said, ". . . bona fide cotton farm operators representing all cotton producing areas advocate an increase in mandatory diversion level and diversion payments."

National Farmers Union president Tony Dechant has joined the Texas farm organization leader in his effort to persuade USDA officials to ignore recommendations of the Cotton Advisory Committee. Dechant has wired Secretary Freeman a suggestion that the announcement of regulations pertaining to the 1969 crop encourage farmers to keep supply in line with demand.

HEREFORD COMMUNITY

PLAYERS READY

TO MAKE DEBUT

MAKING ITS DEBUT for a Hereford audience, the amateur theatrical organization formed last summer, Hereford Community Players, will present Noel Coward's sophisticated comedy in three acts, Blithe Spirits, on the stage of Stanton Junior High School Thursday and Friday evenings. Tickets are on sale now by members, and will be available at the box office both nights.

PRINCIPALS OF CAST who are rehearsing for 'Blithe Spirit' are, from left, Sylvia Parsley as the late Elvira Condomine, first wife of Charles; Mary Howard as Ruth, currently Mrs. Condomine; Fred Howard as Charles, who is bedeviled by the return of his former wife's spirit, and Carole Byers as Madame Arcati, the medium who is much pleased — and surprised — when the seance she conducts produces an actual spirit visitor.

INSPECTING THE SET as it is being constructed are officers of the Community Players. Mrs. John Gillland, right, is president, Mrs. F. D. Holbert, treasurer and Orval Watson, chairman of the board of directors. Mrs. Gene Parsely is membership chairman and Mrs. Floyd Coleman secretary.

BUILDING THE SET, a living room in a comfortable home, which will be the scene for all three acts, the backstage crew is busy on the stage where rehearsals are in progress under direction of Imogene Anderson. From left are Dale Moore, John Gillland and John Claypool.

HEREFORD, TEXAS

1968 SAMPLING LUNCHEON

L'ALLEGRA STUDY CLUB will hold its annual benefit luncheon in the County Bull Barn from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday, since it has outgrown the Community Center where it has been held previously. Mrs. Danny Martin, seated, is general chairman and Mrs. Jim McDowell, standing right, is the club president. They are pictured with Mrs. Cameron Gault, one of the members who will prepare gourmet dishes for sampling by those who buy tickets.

COOKBOOKS WITH ALL RECIPES represented in the menu have been made for sale, under direction of Mrs. W. C. Russell, second from right. At work folding the books are Mrs. Alex Schroeter, Mrs. J. M. McCrary and Mrs. Walker Parris.

MAIN DISHES will be prepared by a committee of which Mrs. John E. Smith, left, is chairman. Included on the committee are Mrs. Don Chaney and Mrs. Noble Ballard. Proceeds of the lunch will benefit a club donation to Opportunity Plan, Inc., at West Texas State College.

'Blithe Spirit' Actors Have Stage Experience

School stages have given most of their acting experience to director and cast members of the Hereford Community Players' comedy, Blithe Spirit, which is to be presented Thursday and Friday in Stanton Junior High Auditorium.

Imogene Anderson, who came to Hereford High School this year as speech and drama instructor, is directing the three-act comedy by Noel Coward due as the first production of the amateur theatrical group which was organized last summer.

A successful stage play in England and the United States, then a popular movie, Blithe Spirit is a fanciful comedy about an ordinary Englishman who is not exactly happy with a domineering wife, but who finds life much more complicated when the spirit of his dead first wife is materialized in a seance conducted by an eccentric medium.

Miss Anderson took part in such productions as Carousel, Madwoman of Chaillot and Cradle Song while she was a student at Northwestern State College in Tule, Okla. She is a graduate of that college and has done graduate study at West Texas State University.

She has directed dramatic productions of the YWCA in Muskogee, Okla., and has participated in local and state Miss America pageants.

Heading the cast of Blithe Spirit is Sylvia Parsley in the title role. Her British accent is a genuine one, as she was born of British parents in Rangoon, Burma, and spent her school years in and near Darjeeling, India.

She married Gene Parsley while he was in the U. S. Navy on duty in England, where she lived for a few years, and came to this country with him. They lived in California before moving to Hereford in 1963, and their two sons were born in the West Coast state. Parsley is employed by Holly Sugar.

Mary and Fred Howard, husband and wife in real life as in the play, were both born in Houston. She attended Houston and Austin schools, he Austin and Littlefield, then took his BA degree at the University of Texas and Bachelor of Divinity in the Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest at Austin.

He appeared in high school dramas. The Howards came to Hereford about a year ago when he became vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Howard's stage experience has been as a singer more than an actor, as she has sung in choir and other vocal groups. She also took part in the Red Stocking Follies of 1962 in Annapolis, Md. They have the roles of Charles Condomine and his second wife, Ruth, in Blithe Spirit.

As the zany Madame Arcati, whose efforts as a spiritualist medium rouses the ghost of the late Elvira Condomine, Carlisle Byers has an almost slapstick role. Mrs. Byers acted in school dramas as a junior and senior in Canyon schools. She and her husband, Bobby, have lived in Hereford eight years, and have two sons. She is an employee of Hi-Plains Savings & Loan.

Tom Kendrick, Hereford Attorney, and Donna Johnson, music teacher at Bluebonnet School, depict the Condomine's friends, Dr. and Mrs. Bradman, who take part in the fatal seance.

Miss Johnson holds a Bachelor of Music Education degree from North Texas State University. A Hereford resident two years, she is a member of the sanctuary choir at First United Methodist Church and accompanist for the Wesley Singers, a girls' choir.

Kendrick came here in June, 1967, shortly after graduation from the University of Texas School of Law, and is a member of a local law firm.

The part of Edith, the bewildered maid, is played by Lorene Johnson, who is better known as a painter and teacher of art than as an actress.

Fund Started To Place Memorial In Club Park

Nucleus of a fund to put a memorial marker in Mothers Park, the small triangular park at the north end of Main Street which is maintained by Pioneer Study Club, was set aside in a short business meeting which followed the club's guest day program this week.

A cash gift from Lone Star Study Club, which recently honored Pioneer Club on its 60th anniversary with a tea, will start the memorial fund, members decided. Pioneer Club sponsored the organization of Lone Star Club in the 1930's.

Mrs. Delmar Sigle, president, conducted the business session after a luncheon program with Dr. C. L. Kay of Lubbock as speaker to about 50 members and guests.

Announcement was made that bulbs ordered through the club's sale project have arrived and are being distributed for fall planting. A few extra daffodil, tulip and Dutch iris bulbs were ordered, and may still be bought from Mrs. Ralph McCullough, Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. or Mrs. A. L. Manjeot. Now is the time to plant them, members were reminded, for bloom next spring.

Mrs. W. C. Hromas announced that Texas Federated Women's Clubs are now sponsoring a move to set aside a large tract in the "big thicket" of East Texas for a national park, and asked members to write to legislators who will be faced with proposals to form the park.

Members and several of the guests brought items to the meeting to be sent to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo for the annual Christmas gift shop, in which the patients select gifts to send their families on the holiday.

Plans were made to cooperate in the Saturday-bake sale which aided the United Fund drive here.

Items In Purse Assist Woman In Self-Defense If Attacked

OTTAWA - An article on self-defense for women in the current edition of The Canadian Nurse tells how a woman should react if, despite her precautions, she finds herself confronted by a thief, rapist or murderer.

Mrs. A. L. Graham of Ottawa, an editorial assistant for the publication, says police departments differ in their opinions about what women should do in individual situations. "But they generally agreed she should surrender her possessions without resistance, while fighting like a tiger when her life is at stake."

Mrs. Graham warns, however, that it is illegal in places to carry an offensive weapon or anything designed to be used as a weapon. As well, a weapon could be easily wrested from a woman and turned against her.

For her article, she has drawn on information in a dozen publications dealing with the subject.

"As a woman, your most lethal weapon is speed," Mrs. Graham writes.

"If you think you assailant means business, your only chance is to defend yourself quickly and decisively."

"Use your hands like bear claws and aim for his face; gouge his eyes with your fingernails; blind him and make him scream with pain by twisting a finger in his eye."

"Convert anything that is handy into a weapon and aim for the most accessible area of his body. If you are smoking, jab your lit cigarette into his face; if you are carrying a heavy purse, swing at his face or lower abdomen; if it is raining, use your umbrella like a boyonnet."

Peanut Butter Now Standardized

COLLEGE STATION - Peanut butter now has been standardized by the Food and Drug Administration.

The new ruling, which became effective October 22, 1968 calls for peanut butter to contain at least 90 percent peanuts by weight, reports Gwendolynne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Family Tree In Photos In Anniversary Decor

Golden Wedding Couple photographed in 1918

A family tree in photographs was a center of attraction in decoration for a reception last Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. Steve Meiwes on their Golden Wedding anniversary. The seven children, 43 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren of the couple were all represented.

Pictures of each, topped by the Meiwes' wedding photograph, were arranged by family members assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Pete Denton.

A mass at St. Anthony's Catholic Church, followed by the reception, buffet supper and dance in the Knights of Columbus Hall marked the day. All the children were present to act as hosts, with 39 of the grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Children living here are Mrs. Marcel Fischbacher and Steve Meiwes. Others are Mrs. Joseph Bernsten of La Harpe, Kan., Mrs. Fred Sigl and Mrs. Lawrence Reherman of Kingfisher, Okla., Henry Meiwes of Piedmont, Okla., and George Meiwes of Kincaid, Kan.

Mrs. John Thimmisch of Goddard, Kan., who was a bridesmaid at the wedding Nov. 12, 1918, was present with Mr. Thimmisch and son. Also from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lempe of Kincaid, Sister M. Arnelia Rausch of Wichita, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Otha Thomas of Hinton, Okla.

The church altar was decorated with gold-hued chrysanthemums and the reception table centered with a gold and white rose arrangement sent by wire from Germany by sisters and brothers of Mr. Meiwes. Mrs. Meiwes wore a gold orchid corsage and Mr. Meiwes a white carnation boutonniere.

Salad Dressing Oil Content Set

There are about 3,000 different salad dressings on the market, report Extension foods specialists at Texas A&M University. Vegetable oil is the major ingredient in all kinds.

The Food and Drug Administration has minimum standards for the amount of oil you get for your money when you buy dressing. Cooked salad dressing must have almost 30 percent vegetable oil by weight; mayonnaise, 65 percent and french dressing, 35 percent.

Here's Ice Cream With French Accent

Coupe is a French word for an ice cream sundae. Try Pear Coupe with fresh pears:

Lean a pared, cored fresh pear half against a scoop of vanilla ice cream and drizzle both with caramel sauce, suggests Frances Reasonover, Extension nutritionist at Texas A&M University.

Varied Sauces Handy For Cook

Good cooks make smooth sauces and use them often to give variety and added flavor to main dishes, vegetables, meats and desserts.

A sauce made with milk has the advantage of doing its share toward getting more of that valuable milk protein into your family's daily diet, reminds Gwendolynne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

For an easy cheese sauce to use with vegetables and meats, add 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese to 1 cup hot white sauce (thin or medium). Stir until cheese is melted, being careful not to overcook.

Miss Gore Repeats Vows With George T. Brashear

The marriage of Miss Jeanne Ann Gore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gore, and George Thomas Brashear, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brashear, was read by the Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor, in First United Methodist Church Friday evening.

Candles lighted the sanctuary for the ceremony in which the bride's father gave her in marriage. White chrysanthemums and green foliage decorated the altar.

Miss Daun Hopson was the bride's only attendant and Ricky Nunley acted as best man. Guests were seated by Dusty Duncan and Edward Hammett as Don Baugous played a prelude of wedding music on the organ.

Miss Judy Hollingsworth sang the solos, Twelfth of Never and The Lord's Prayer, with Robert Bell as organ accompanist. The bride's cousin, Miss Debra Angelo was at the table where guests registered.

Miss Gore's wedding gown was of embossed candlelight satin in empire style, floor length and with a train. Slender lines were repeated in long sleeves, pointed over the wrist.

Her veil of lace and net fell over her shoulders from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses and chrysanthemums as her bridal bouquet.

A pastel blue dress was worn by the maid of honor, fashioned in similar style to that of the bride. Her headdress was of blue net with roses made of the dress fabric and her bouquet was a nosegay of white carnations and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Gore wore for her daughter's wedding a mint green sheath dress with accessories in winter white. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a knit suit of burnt orange shade and accessories of pearl grey.

They received guests with the newlywed couple immediately after the ceremony at a reception in Ward Parlor of the church. Miss Patsy Daniels served the wedding cake and Miss Becky Owen poured punch at a table centered with candles based in white carnations and chrysanthemums.

The wedding cake, in three tiers, was ornamented with blue and white sugar flowers and wedding bells and topped with bride-and-groom figurines.

For travel Mrs. Brashear chose a suit in pink, beige and mint plaid. Her corsage of white rosebuds was taken from the wedding bouquet.

After a trip to El Paso, the couple will be at home at 904-B Miles Avenue. Both are senior students in Hereford High School and employed with Hereford business firms.

Cranberries Are Right In Season For Versatile Use In Holidays

COLLEGE STATION — The unusual cranberry fruit comes into season in time for versatile holiday use. Cranberries are easy to cook because there is nothing to peel, and there are no seeds or pits, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Cranberry sauce, which contains vitamins A and C, is good with meats and poultry. To make it, first wash and sort berries. Then combine 2 cups of water and 2 cups of sugar, heat to a boil and add 1 pound of cranberries. Then cook over low heat until berries pop — usually 15 minutes.

The sauce can be used whole or strained through a food mill or strainer.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests freezing the berries in the bag or box in which they are purchased. Simply put the unopened container into the freezer. Since they go in the freezer dry, they are easy to separate while still frozen.

They need not be thawed before cooking, says the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Just a brief rinse in water and they are ready to go into a pie, fruit cake or this recipe for Cranberry Crunch:

1 cup uncooked rolled oats
1/2 cup flour
1 cup brown sugar
One-third butter or margarine

Sour cream left over? You can add it, instead of water or other liquid, to a confectioners' sugar frosting.

One pound cranberry sauce (jellied or whole)

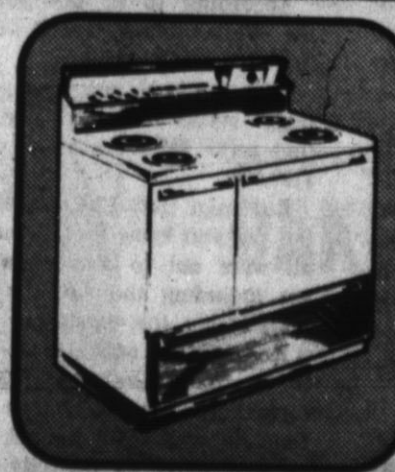

Mix oats, flour and brown sugar. Cut in butter until crumbly. Place half of this mixture in an 8"x8" greased baking dish. Cover with cranberry sauce. Top with the remaining half of the oat mixture. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve hot in squares topped with vanilla ice cream. Serves 6 to 8.

THE REASON WHY!

Good Highways Save Lives

Governor John Connally has proclaimed Sunday, November 17, "Safety Sunday" in Texas and called on all citizens to enlist in the fight for greater safety by considering their moral obligations to protect the sanctity of human life.

"It is essential that every Texan realize that safety for himself, his loved ones and his friends, as well as others is a matter of moral responsibility," the Governor said in his proclamation, while pointing out that "accidents continue to take a grave toll in our State each year."

Traffic crashes alone, according to the Governor, took the lives of 3,367 Texans last year and an additional 205, 308 persons suffered painful injuries. The economic loss from these accidents is estimated at some $793 million.

The purpose of "safety Sunday," which is sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, is to focus public attention on the necessity for reducing accident tolls especially during the Fall and Winter holiday season. The Safety Association reports that previous experience indicates that accident tolls increase sharply during this period.

And while it is true that accidents do increase during the holiday season, and through the winter, we might add a note to the Governor's safety message by encouraging the citizens of our neighboring county to the south to do something about the narrow two lane highway (385) which is now carrying a tremendous amount of traffic through their county.

The Deaf Smith County portion of the road has been widened to handle the increased traffic but at the Castro County line, the road narrows and has become extremely dangerous over the past few years.

The Texas Highway Department, in cooperation with the Deaf Smith County Commissioners, are now in the process of widening that stretch of road from Milo Center north to the Oldham County line due to the increased truck traffic coming from that direction. A move that may well save many lives over the next few years. But the traffic problem to the south is compounded due to the three package stores in that area.

A number of lives have been lost in the past three years on this murderous stretch of road, and the situation is not getting better.

It's Up To The Unions

In the weeks before the election the labor unions tried to frighten their members about the results of a Republican victory. If the GOP won, the unions as much as said, organized labor just might not survive.

While all political rhetoric tends to overstatement, this campaign went unusually far. Relatively few Republicans would deny that unions are capable of important service to the economy. In modern industry communication between employer and employe would be difficult, to say the least, if there were no organized way for workers to make their views known.

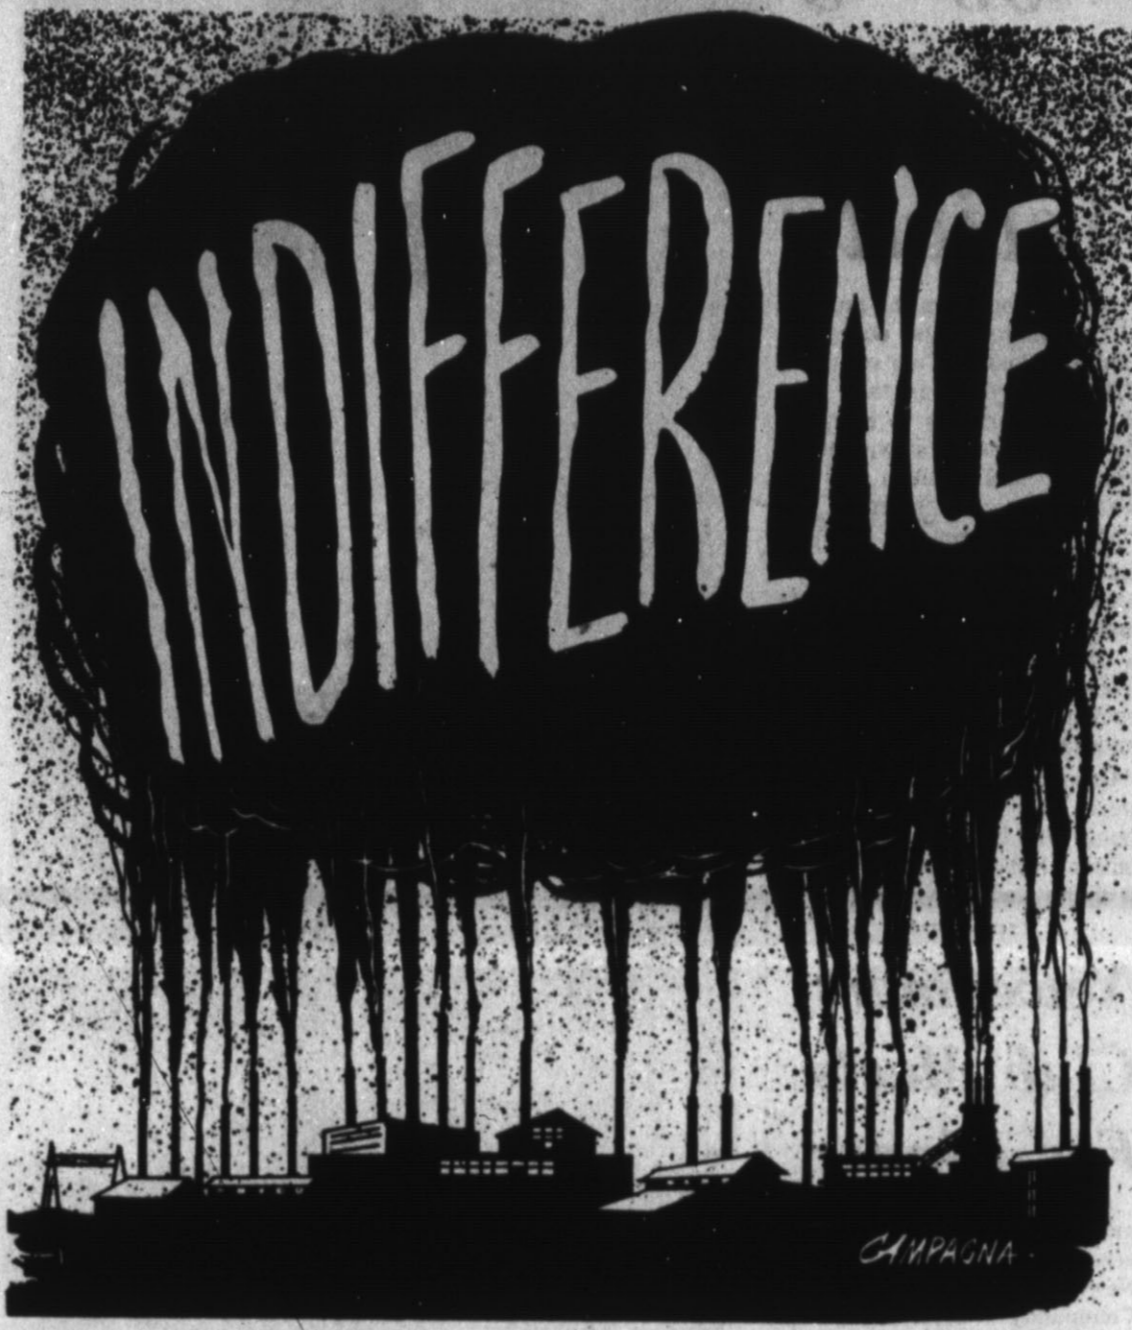

Moreover, when so many businesses are so large, it seems reasonable that unions should be fairly sizable too. If collective bargaining is to be fair, one of its elements must be an equitable balance of power.

Well, in any case, the unions' worst fears were not realized. Though the Republicans elected a President, Congress remains in the hands of the Democrats. So what's the outlook for organized labor now?

Union officials might recall that in recent years it has been a Democratic Congress that has voiced concern over the growing tendency of strikes to become national crises, causing harm to the public. A Democratic Administration acknowledged the danger, though it failed to propose counter-measures.

The unions nonetheless continue to try to expand their power, pressing for more of the national contracts that can turn local labor disputes into total industry shutdowns. They are deterred scarcely at all by the fact that national labor leaders appear to be losing touch with the rank and file, a situation that has produced a proliferation of debilitating local strikes.

The patience of a nation, under a Republican or Democratic Congress, is not inexhaustible. Much more than the outcome of any election, the future of organized labor is up to the unions themselves. —The Wall Street Journal

Lack Of Popular Mandate May Prove To Be Blessing

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Richard Nixon's lack of a popular mandate may prove to be a blessing in disguise and enable him to become a successful President despite the handicaps he faces.

Consider the situation the new President will find himself in after his inauguration. He was elected by a minority of Americans. He will be confronted by a Congress dominated by his opponents. He will inherit a host of problems at home and abroad which his predecessor has been unable to solve.

Under these discouraging circumstances, the public is not likely to expect great things of the Nixon Administration. It is for precisely that reason that Nixon has a rare opportunity to be a successful President in a difficult era. His efforts to seek reconciliation and some semblance of national unity should be greeted sympathetically.

"There will still be Nixon haters in 1969. There will still be those who do not trust the President-elect. But the time would seem to be ripe for the new national leader to earn the esteem of the general public by developing a program that will bind up the nation's wounds and cure the festering sores.

Dissent will not end simply because a new President has been chosen but the national mood appears to call for an adjournment of controversy and a reconciliation of conflicting views. Richard Nixon may be just the man for that task.

Job is to "Cool It" Cautious by nature and scarred from the political wars, Nixon is not likely to be a crusader who will embark on excursions which will divide the nation and add new controversies. His first task will be to "cool it." If he can do that, history will treat him kindly even if he cannot claim credit for a long string of legislative successes.

The Democratic party lost public favor for a variety of reasons, including the Vietnam war and the crime problem. Nixon is committed to finding a honorable solution to war in Asia and to enforcing law and order at home. Both will be enormously difficult but the new President will have the full support of the American people if he can achieve results.

Lack of a Republican majority in Congress may be a less serious obstacle for Nixon than mere numbers make it seem. Of course, the 91st Congress is not going to enact the G. O. P. platform, but neither would it have passed the Democratic platform if Hubert Humphrey had been elected.

The expiring Congress was less liberal than Lyndon Johnson and the incoming group will be at least as conservative, with a few more Republicans holding seats. The leaders will all be veterans despite the influx of new blood, particularly in the Senate.

As President, Nixon should not have great difficulty in achieving a satisfactory working relationship with Congress. A stalemate is hardly in prospect, because Nixon's program will be close enough to the mainstream to attract bipartisan support. As a former Representative, Senator, and Vice President, Nixon knows how to perate on Capitol Hill.

Open Administration Pledged One of the most intriguing aspects of the coming Nixon regime is his pledge of "an open administration — open to ideas from the people, and open in its communication with the people — an administration of open doors, open eyes and open minds." This will be a refreshing change from the Johnson Administration in which secrecy has been a fetish.

When President Johnson was riding high in the early days of his White House service, he communicated with the people. The longer he served, the more secretive he became, and that may be one reason his popularity waned. Nixon seeks to avoid a similar pattern and promises not to surround himself with "yes men."

"Officials of a new administration will not have to check their consciences at the door, or leave their powers of independent judgment at home," Nixon has promised. He has also pledged he will delegate authority, leaving himself free to concentrate on the great decisions, particularly on foreign policy. Good Luck, Mr. Nixon.

THE BOOTLEG

—Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson-grass farm adds a final note to the recent campaigns.

Dear editor: Sifting through a stack of newspapers printed before the election and dumped in a ditch near my house I was looking for something to read besides out-dated campaign oratory and yesterday's claims of victory that didn't pan out when I ran across an article on the cost of running for office.

According to it, the politicians, from the local level to the White House, spent around $300,000,000 running for office this year.

Now a lot of people say that's too much, that it doesn't make sense to spend a million dollars seeking a job that pays $25,000 a year, or 20 million for a job that pays $100,000.

But take that $300,000,000. It sounds like a lot of money, but did you know that if the 200 million people in this country all went out to dinner tonight and ate $1.50 worth apiece, not including the tip, it's amount to $300,000,000?

Show me the candidate that's not worth at least $1.50. Running for office is sort of like raising children. It used to be that there was a profit in a kid, he made a good farm hand free of charge from sunup to sundown from the time he was 6 till he got big enough to catch on and pick up and move to the city.

Nowadays, though, there's very little profit in raising kids, yet people keep on doing it.

Nowadays, there's very little profit in say a Congressman's or a Senator's or a Governor's salary, yet people keep on running for the jobs.

It leads you to believe that there are other returns from the office than the salary, although maybe not altogether in the same category as the returns from raising kids. On the whole though I'd say the level of the current crop of politicians is about the same as the current crop of kids, or their parents or their grandparents. Let's face it, it's all we've got to work with.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

U. S. Culture Is Club Topic

Waves of immigration which populated America were described as Mrs. Sam Self outlined the history of the American race, its cultures and some of its language derivations for Calliopean Club Thursday evening at a meeting in Mrs. Sue James' home.

A vignette depicting a typical American scene was read, then the speaker went back to point out words borrowed from other languages.

Mrs. Self reminded her hearers that America was not settled predominantly by peoples seeking religious freedom; rather, many of the immigrants were failures in their home countries and not a few were convicts. Earliest settlers were from Western Europe but after the Civil War the flow shifted to Eastern Europe — Russia, Poland, Yugoslavia.

The first generation to arrive remained immigrants, the speaker said, but the second became Americans. The south was populated mostly by English and Scotch-Irish, people not accustomed to the warmer climate so they brought in Negroes from Africa as slaves.

In the latter half of the nineteenth century an immigrant could cross the Atlantic for as little as $8 and steamship lines advertised in Europe, painting too rosy a picture of life in America, Mrs. Self continued. Until 1890 most immigrants stayed in northeast states, then railroads were built westward and immigrants went with them.

She told of Orientals who came in from the west and were resented, and of moves to restrict immigration by 1907. A stiff law was finally passed in 1924, but was relaxed during the Nazi era in Germany to allow persecuted Jews to come to this country. The last large group of immigrants to arrive was that of Hungarian refugees, Mrs. Self said.

Rites Held For Ernest Caskey

Funeral services for Ernest D. Caskey, 63, Amarillo cattleman who died of an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound 37 miles west of Hereford Wednesday afternoon, were held Friday morning at Blackburn-Shaw Memorial Chapel in Amarillo.

Officiating was Dr. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the Polk Street Methodist Church. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Deaf Smith County Sheriff's officers said they were called to the scene on Farm-to-Market 1058 Wednesday afternoon when the man's body was found. Lloyd Northcutt told officers that he had seen the car parked about 50 feet inside the state line as he passed going to New Mexico. When he noticed the car still there about two hours later, he stopped to see if anything was wrong. As he approached the 1966 Cadillac he saw a blood stain and immediately went to call officers.

Upon investigating, officers found Caskey leaning back in the seat and against the door opposite the driver's side. A single shot model 67 Winchester 22 caliber rifle was in the front seat and Caskey had a gunshot wound in the chest.

Justice of the Peace Ernest Wade, acting as coroner, ruled that Caskey had died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Owner of the E. D. Rogers Range Riders, Mr. Caskey was born at Grapeland and had lived in Amarillo since 1927. He was a past president of the Will Rogers Range Riders, a member of the American Hereford Breeders Association, the Amarillo Knife and Fork Club, Amarillo Rotary Club, the Polk Street Methodist Church and its McDavid Sunday School Class.

Survivors include his wife, his mother, a brother and two sisters.

2 teaspoons poultry seasoning

1/2 teaspoon pepper

"Namu, The Killer Whale," First Free Show In Series

"Namu, the Killer Whale" will be the first of three Shop and Show free matinees sponsored by the First National Bank in Hereford at the Star Theatre, where local mothers can leave their children and begin their Christmas shopping in any store in the city.

According to Star manager Francis Hardwick, the three engagements here prior to Christmas is to discourage Deaf Smith County shoppers from spending their gift money at stores in other cities. He and the First National Bank believe that Deaf Smith County shoppers will benefit by shopping in Hereford.

The plan is one that will boost the local sales this year at an estimated $30,000 to $30,000.

It has been pointed out that the money for purchase of gifts here will benefit many people within the entire county. "The dollar will circulate here. That certainly isn't so if the dollar is taken outside the county!"

Another point offered was, prices in the local stores are very little different — if any at all — than the stores of Amarillo and

Lubbock. Added to that would be the added expense of travel, which would run the overall price considerably higher, and the chances are very slight that anyone in the county would ever see any part of that money in the future.

Purpose of the free matinees is to make Hardwick "the biggest babysitter in town." He illustrated that as another saving on expense for buying in Hereford. "I the mother left town on a shopping trip, they would have to pay for baby-sitting services in many cases. In this way, the First National Bank picks up the bill and that represents an additional savings."

The first "baby-sitting" matinee is booked for two showings on the day after Thanksgiving at the Star, opening at 9:45 a. m. and 1:45 p. m. "All the mothers have to do is bring them down."

"Namu, the Killer Whale" is an 89-minute movie in color.

Namu, the first and only killer whale ever captured and trained by man, makes his debut in Ivan Tors' production. A male of indeterminate age, weighs almost six tons and measures 26 feet from his nose to his flukes. His owner-trainer, Edward I. Griffin, who rides on his back every once in a while, says he's as playful as a kitten.

An adventure story has been written around Namu for his movie appearance. The film stars Robert Lansing, John Anderson, Lee Meriwether and Richard Erdman.

The National Geographic recently carried a 26-page story with color pictures of Namu's capture and subsequent career as a star attraction at Seattle's Public Aquarium.

On the same program is a 3 Stooges comedy.

The other two free Shop and Show matinees are booked for the Saturday and Monday immediately prior to Christmas with two other features.

ARC Disaster Teams To Meet

American Red Cross Disaster Action Teams will meet with the Deaf Smith County Chapter teams for a Disaster Team Workshop, to be conducted by Dick Meyer, regional director from St. Louis, on Friday, Nov. 22, at Ward's Restaurant. It was reported by Buddy Bloomer, chairman of the disaster committee.

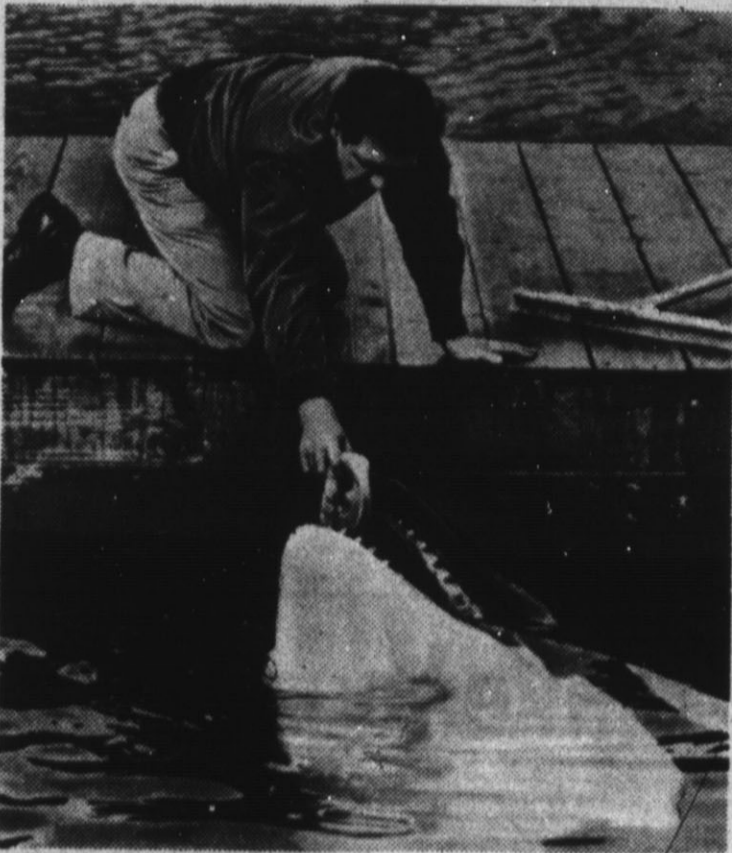

Mrs. T. B. Thomas, chairman of uniformed volunteers, will be in charge of registration at 9:30 a. m., when coffee will be served.

Registered nurses throughout the area have been cordially invited to attend the 4-hour workshop, according to Mrs. Dorothy Phillips, disaster nurse for the Deaf Smith County Disaster Committee. Red Cross Chapter board chairman J. R. Johnson will be on hand to welcome the teams from a 5-county area including Lamb, Bailey, Castro, Parmer, and Deaf Smith.

Disaster Action Teams are set up in readiness to go to the scene of a disaster within minutes after the catastrophe occurs, and Bloomer and Johnson emphasize the urgency of such preparedness.

Issac Newton was only 24 years old when he provided an answer to gravitation, one of the great riddles of all time.

The average person breathes in 35 pounds of air each day, six times as much as the food and drink he consumes.

New Type Flu Being Attacked

The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, Dr. William H. Stewart, said today that first supplies of a vaccine against the new Hong Kong influenza strain will become available by the latter part of November.

Dr. Stewart urged that the first supplies be used exclusively for persons over 65 years old and those who have some chronic illness. These are the people to whom a respiratory infection is most harmful.

He said a single dose of the new vaccine will be recommended for protection.

Manufacturers have informed Dr. Stewart that first supplies of the vaccine will be available next month, and he expects sufficient supplies to be available to meet all reasonable demands later in the winter.

Dr. Stewart praised the manufacturers for their emergency efforts to make the new vaccine, noting that soon after the new strain of A2 appeared in the Far East, and was proven different enough from older strains to call for a new vaccine, he wrote to all of the influenza manufacturers asking them to consider emergency production.

"They have responded with an excellent effort," Dr. Stewart said, "so that if the Hong Kong strain appears to get a foothold in the United States in the weeks ahead, we should be able to achieve enough immunization of the high risk group to prevent serious illnesses and possible deaths."

Dr. Stewart also noted that the American Medical Association and other groups had already passed on the recommendation of the Public Health Service that the older people and chronically ill be given first priority, and he reiterated the hope that practicing physicians will assist in this effort.

"The manufacturers, responding to the Government's request have moved fast to help protect the most vulnerable portion of our people and we believe that normal healthy people and their doctors ought to hold off — if they really feel the need to be protected — until we have taken care of those who need it most," he said.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Texas' first physician was Cabeza de Vaca. He also was probably the first white person to perform a surgical operation anywhere on the North American continent.

He landed on Galveston Island with 80 other Spaniards on November 6, 1528. Friendly Indians, believing that the white men had magical powers, taught de Vaca the rudiments of the crude medicine they practiced. From them he learned how to make an incision, cauterize a wound and prepare medicine from herbs.

The first surgical operation probably was performed near where the town of Pecos now stands. The patient was an Indian who had carried an arrowhead in his right shoulder for several years. It was in 1535 that de Vaca opened the patient's chest cavity with a knife, removed the arrowhead and stitched the wound with a deer bone. The Indian recovered.

HAVE YOU EVER WONDERED — Why tourists rarely are seen at San Antonio's Mexican Market?

Located in the western section of downtown San Antonio across from the Farmers' Market on Produce Row, the mart is a replica of hundreds like it in Mexico. It does a thriving business with San Antonio's Mexican-Americans, but tourists seldom discover it.

LAND OF THE BIG TREES — On a special test plot in the Brazos River bottoms, scientists at Texas A&M University are proving that cottonwood trees can be made to grow at the rate of 15 feet per year.

The experiment was born of necessity. An East Texas pulp manufacturer found that it needed cottonwood to produce the high quality paper demanded by a national picture magazine. It has been importing the cottonwood logs from Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Experts of the Texas Forest Service, however, believed that giant cottonwoods could be produced in a few years by careful planting, fertilization and cultivation. They are proving their theory along the Brazos River.

TRAVELING TEXAS — Somervell County, in North central Texas, has the only courthouse in the state graced by a statue of a dinosaur — and with good reason.

The Paluxy River, which flows through the county, was mostly mud 135 million years ago. Dinosaurs abounded in the area and many left their tracks in the mud which now is the limestone bed of the river. As a result, Glen Rose, the county seat, is the unofficial "dinosaur capital" of the U. S.

The dinosaur tracks, which still may be seen along the Paluxy, have become a tourist magnet.

IT'S THE LAW — Animals and animal-drawn vehicles have the same rights as automobiles or pedestrians on Texas streets and highways.

Only if the animal is damaging the pavement or violating a traffic law can the rider or driver be asked to move off the road.

POSTAGE PAID — Peter Carr belongs to history as the postman who originated rural free delivery — without the knowledge or blessing of the Republic of Texas postal authorities.

In 1839, Carr made a weekly mail run from Austin to La Grange. His job was to collect the going rate — 25 cents for each parcel or letter — on delivery. For his friends, however, Carr often carried messages free.

Since postmasters were paid out of receipts, they opposed a free delivery. And when the postmaster at Webber's Prairie, an intermediate stop on Carr's route, heard about the mail going through without charge, he stopped it. Thereafter farmers paid the specified rate until the U. S. post office restored rural free delivery years later.

Charity Clinic To Be Discussed During Meeting

A charity clinic in Hereford will be the topic of discussion during a meeting at 8 p. m. Nov. 26 at the Community Center.

"A good deal of ground work has already been made in regards to this project," said Dr. Rush, "but the members of the medical community believe that a more wide-spread interest is mandatory in order to meet the needs of the largest number of individuals in our community."

Dr. Rush explained that "a rather unilateral approach to the problem has been made in the past by Dr. Lena Edwards and has been carried forward and nurtured by the Catholic Church. The medical profession is indeed indebted to these dedicated individuals for their concern."

"We believe, however, that a more wide-spread understanding of the problem, and with it, a responsibility for the care of these individuals is needed," he stated.

"There are a lot of facets to be explored and we need to get the reaction of the people on this idea," he pointed out. Letters have been mailed to persons known to be interested in such a project, said Dr. Rush, but anyone who is interested at all is urged to attend the meeting.

The banquet will be held in the American Legion Hall at Veterans Park. Auxiliary members are preparing the meal, with Legion members furnishing the fare.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - I started working this fall. Will enough be taken out of my paycheck to cover the new surtax as well as the regular income tax?

A - For most people, withholding will be sufficient to satisfy their federal tax liabilities this year as it has in the past.

Withholding rates were adjusted in July to take care of the tax surcharge. As you started work after that date, tax will have been withheld at rates set to satisfy your federal income tax liability.

The new tax surcharge will have an effective rate of 7½ percent in 1968. Although the tax surcharge rate is 10 percent it is in effect for only 9 months of the year for individuals. The surcharge on corporation income is in effect for the entire 12 months of 1968.

Q - Our country place was damaged by lightning. Can we deduct the loss?

A - If the loss exceeds $100 and is not covered by insurance you may be entitled to a tax deduction. Generally, the loss is the difference in the value of the property before and after the lightning struck. For details send a post card to your District Director and ask for a free copy of Document No. 5174, Disasters, Casualties and Thefts.

Q - Why isn't a check made out to cash acceptable as proof of a charitable contribution?

A - To substantiate a deductible expense your records must indicate, among other things, the purpose of the expense, to whom paid, as well as the amount.

A check made out to cash or to yourself gives no indication by itself of the nature of the expense. This kind of check must be supported by other records, such as receipts, to be useful in proving any deductions you claim.

A check made out to a specific organization, a charity for example, may well be sufficient to establish that a deductible contribution has been made.

Q - I've made a substantial pledge to my church's building fund. Can I take this deduction on my 1969 return if it is to my advantage?

A - Deductions for charitable contributions can only be taken for the taxpayer they are actually paid. If you pay all or part of your pledge this year then you must take the deduction on your 1969 return for the amount actually paid. To take the deduction on your 1969 return you should postpone your payments until 1969.

Q - My paycheck was a few dollars higher last time even though my gross earnings were the same. Are taxes lower?

A - No, the only recent change in federal tax withholding rates was the 10 percent increase resulting from the surcharge.

Your net pay could be higher if Social Security taxes are no longer being withheld from your wages. An employer is required to withhold Social Security taxes only on the first $7,800 paid. After that total is reached, these taxes are no longer withheld so that the net amount of an employee's paycheck will go up.

Q - Can I make changes in my withholding exemptions whenever I want?

A - It depends on your employer. Many employers will let an employee change his withholding certificate at any time. Under the law, however, the employer is only required to make payroll changes four times a year, on January 1, May 1, July 1, or October 1, for changes filed at least 3 days previously.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS APPROVED AND GRADED THE BEEF WHICH BEARS THIS SEAL!

1. Every Beef which bears this seal has been individually approved and graded by an approved federal inspector.
2. Only beef coming from a sanitary U.S. Government-approved plant has earned the right to bear this seal!
3. Cooper's sell this CHOICE grade of beef in their modern market. Only the prime grade of beef is a higher classification and most of our customer prefer the leaner grade of CHOICE. Other lower grades are good, utility, etc.

4. Cooper's beef contains no tenderizing agents or other chemical flavors or preservatives. We believe the natural flavor is best — and that nothing which is added can improve that flavor, and choice grade beef is naturally tender.

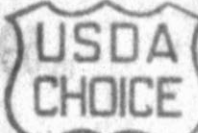

5. Look for this seal on the beef you buy — You can be sure the market which sells U.S.D.A. CHOICE grade beef will be proud to have it known!

6. Doesn't it just make good sense to take advantage of the protection this Government grading and inspection provides. Be sure of the meat your family will eat!
