

For Easter, several people in Hereford have been questioned on the subject of brotherly love.

Now Easter is a Christian festival that celebrates the resurrection of Jesus Christ. The story of Easter comes from the Bible. The Gospels tell that the body of Jesus disappeared from His tomb on the third day after His crucifixion. An angel appeared to His followers and announced, "He is risen."

And brotherly love is also found in the Bible.

Perhaps the connection between the subjects of Easter and brotherly love will not be seen at this time — as it was not to some of the local people who were interviewed — but there is a connection.

Each person interviewed — and each presents a cross-section in personal and church affiliations — were asked the same question: "We are celebrating a Christian holiday. The story of Easter tells of history's darkest hour which became transformed into life's greatest promise. Later it was transcribed in the Bible. "Let brotherly love continue." (Hebrews 13:1). Do you believe this practice is followed as closely as it should be in our time?"

All had an opening answer similar to that of Hereford's new mayor, Jim Sears: "The only way to answer that question is no — the way it is phrased."

Earnest Langley, Hereford attorney and president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, said, "I do not believe that it is followed as closely as it should be. In many respects, we seem further from the ideal than we have been for a long time. But I believe that people are talking about the ideal more directly and honestly, and are recognizing the importance of the matter more at this time than ever in the history of the world."

Langley, who is also noted for his wit as a master of ceremonies, was very obviously concerned as he continued, "I think what we are seeing is a very painful time that is brought on in large respect by the demands of large segments of our population, to be loved in a way that they have never been loved. If we can get through the trauma of reconciling these demands with genuine concern without too much damage, we should be approaching a time when the demand of love will come closer to being met than they ever have been."

George Masso, operator of May Department Store, offered the statement, "No, I don't believe it is practiced as fully as it should be. If all people were more objective and less narrow-minded about factors affecting our everyday living, this world of ours would be more peaceful for all mankind."

Fred Tijerina, an 18-year-old Distributive Education student at Hereford High School who is employed at Foodway, replied, "Some parts of the world still has brotherly love, but not all. I think it would help all people if they got back to brotherly love."

Clinton Jackson, who with his wife has recently returned from a tour of strife-torn Pakistan, said, "I don't think the practice is followed as closely as it should be. In this day of a troubled world, I feel that if we were to follow this 'brotherly love', that many of our world problems would be solved before they were created. Not only world problems but those at home too."

Jackson pointed out, "In these fast-moving times many times we are prone to disregard our fellowman, and forget him in our endeavors to get together and survive and make a place for ourselves, socially and economically. I won't say that we need to slow down — because we can't. But if we would all live by the Golden Rule and consider our brother, then we wouldn't have to spend so much money on armaments, etc. This same money could be used for development, and help underprivileged countries to develop. I am not only speaking for our own nation but every nation in the world."

County Judge H. C. Williams, who has introduced Juvenile Court defendants to The Ten Commandments, The Lord's Prayer and the 23rd Psalm for recitation last week and has often told the Court that he has asked the Lord to guide him on the bench, stated, "No, I don't (think brotherly love is being practiced) for the simple reason that we are too self-centered and too busy chasing the rainbow that doesn't exist."

Judge Williams said the Christian-type of brotherly love is the need of the day.

The Judge clarified it by explaining, "Brotherly love as they — the hippies and that kind — interpret it is not the type of brotherly love that I mean, but as brotherly love actually is — as Christ meant it."

Pastors of local churches have not been quoted here, although they have spoken on the subject many times to this Brand reporter. One of them interpreted "love" as "respect."

Notwithstanding, laymen and churchmen alike agreed to a return of the Biblical "brotherly love."

Another remarked, "What better day to revitalize this movement than on the day of celebration of Christ's resurrection — Easter."

Cal Brumley Is Appointed To Government Post

Cal Brumley, son of Mrs. Alma Knox Brumley and the late D. E. Brumley, was appointed Deputy Special Assistant to United States Treasury Secretary David Kennedy's public relations department it was announced Friday.

No other information concerning the appointment was available. It was pointed out by his mother that he and his family will make their home in Washington, D. C. as soon as possible.

A 1941 graduate of Hereford High School, Brumley was active in newspaper writing throughout his high school and college days. He attended Texas A&M University where he was named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" and was also editor of the University paper.

When he graduated from A&M, Brumley returned to the Panhandle where he worked with the Amarillo Globe-News as a reporter, then went to work for Associated Press in Dallas. He purchased the Tulsa Herald newspaper and after a short time there, he sold out and went to Lubbock with the Avalanche Journal as agricultural manager.

While he was with the Lubbock paper he married and then he and his wife moved to Ft. Worth where he became publisher of the Texas Herald. From there they went to Denver, Colo. where he was editor of the Denver Livestock Journal.

His first connection with the Wall Street Journal came while he was with the Denver magazine and he immediately accepted a job with the Journal and moved to New York City. When the company opened up branch offices in Jacksonville, Fla., Brumley was sent there where he stayed five years. During that time, he was sent to Cuba for six months to study the economic situation of that country under the then new Castro regime.

Promoted to the Boston Bureau of the Wall Street Journal, Brumley and an associate were put in charge of the News Service Economic Bureau opened up by Dow Jones in New York City. With the News Service department, he was sent to England where he was in charge of establishing the same type of bureau there.

His recent appointment had been under consideration for almost a month, but official okay of it was not made until last Thursday.

Brumley and his wife have one son, Bryan, 16, who is a student at Milton Academy in Boston.

Pulliam Is New Prexy

Denzil Pulliam was elected president of the Deaf Smith County Water Association at the organization's second annual meeting last week in Hereford.

Re-elected were Wilbur A. vice president, and Joel Hodges, Jr., secretary. Treasurer R. C. (Dick) Greaves was elected area director.

Board of directors now include A. W. Harlan, Vander Zee, Dudley Bayne, Godwin, Bruce Brown, Paul Conaway, Bob Ginn, Bruce Burney, Henry Sears, James Wither, Jay Boston, Virgil Marsh, Ray Cowser, Leo Forrest Hodges, Charles Hoover, Andrew Kershner, Palmer Norton, John P. Rose, Jr.

Godwin reported that the organization toward backing the present progress of water importation into this area.

Grain Producers Make Area Tour

Several dignitaries from Washington, D. C. and other officers of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association visited in Hereford Thursday, touring numerous feed lots as a part of the grain sorghum overseas market.

Richard Kathie, executive vice president of the U.S. Feed Grain Council, along with A. W. "Dub" Anthony, president of the Grain Sorghum Producers, and Elbert Harp, executive director of the association, stopped at several of the feed lots, discussing and observing first-hand how shipping, feeding and grading of grain sorghum is done in this area.

Kathie, presently living in Kansas City, Kansas, has just recently returned from Europe where he had discussed the grain market with several of the Council's foreign offices. His position with the U.S. Feed Grain Council, to which he has just recently been appointed, has him in charge of the total workings of the overseas market for grain.

The Grain Sorghum Producers Association, a member of the United States Feed Grain Council, has their marketing procedures handled by their main office in Washington, D. C. Harp pointed out that since the inception of the mother office about ten years ago, the overseas market has become a billion-dollar year operation for the U.S. farmer, having tripled itself from 10,000,000 to 30,000,000 tons of exports per year.

The group stayed in the Hereford area throughout most of Thursday and returned to Lubbock where the main office of Grain Sorghum Producers will be relocated.

All people are urged to attend the showing during the morning by the local unit. No admission is to be charged.

Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees elected Saturday were Hugh Clearman, Lowell Sharp — and in one of the closest vote tallies in some time here — Olin Parris by one vote over Wayne Phillips.

Parris received a total of 341 votes to Phillip's 340. Clearman received 403 and Sharp totaled 401.

Voters totaled 534 at two boxes (Hereford and Dawn) for the election. Three positions were to be filled with a choice from four candidates. Both Clearman and Parris were running for re-election. Sharp is new to the board.

Trustees now serving unexpired terms on the Hereford School board are Raymond White, Ed. Loerwald, Hilrey Aven, and Dr. A. T. Mims. Trustee leaving the board is Bill Gentry, who had served for a period of six years.

Gentry issued a statement that he "had wonderful experiences while serving on the board. There were many complex problems, and some of the decisions were hard to reach, but it was still a worthwhile experience."

He recently announced plans for Southwest Feed Yards Inc. here and the construction of the Roadrunner Truck Stop complex east of the city.

Trustees have recorded several problems, especially during the past year. Among them have been the announcement for the need of a new elementary school here due to the increase in school enrollment. This necessitated a bond election which was overshadowed by controversy over the site of the proposed school.

However, the bond was passed by a large majority of voters along with a companion bond for football stadium improvements.

In the meantime, material and labor prices for construction inflated to the point where no bid could be accepted at first reading. A few days later, the trustees accepted an over cost bid which is to be paid from the school's local funds. While the school construction bid was brought in line with the original bond, it was the stadium cost that could not be pared any lower. But the trustees agreed to it in order to keep faith with the voters who expected a stadium to be constructed.

But they also saw the operation of the schools as a "big business" that had become planted on sound financial ground. Trustees did not find it necessary to borrow additional monies or to ask for a tax increase. They also saw a tremendous increase in the tax rolls.

Absentee balloting for the trustees reached 200 on the April 1 deadline. Due to the election date falling one day prior to Easter, the trustees, candidates, and administrators urged the voters who were leaving Hereford over

2 Youths Face Forgery Counts

For the second time in one week, County Judge H. C. Williams ordered defendants in a Juvenile Court hearing to recite The Lord's Prayer, The Ten Commandments and the 23rd Psalm as a part of their indefinite probation sentences.

Two juveniles, both charged with forgery and passing of worthless checks to five Hereford businesses, were placed in jail with their heads shaved Thursday night. At their hearing Friday morning, Judge Williams had them returned to jail with five hours to learn the Biblical verses. They were then returned to the judge's office at 3 p. m. for the recitation.

Charged were Mark Allen Busby, 14, and Thomas Wayne Myers, 13, both eighth grade students at La Plata Junior High School here. The youths admitted passing worthless checks to City Drug, Duckwall's, Rut Hereford's, Penney's, and Harold Close Drugs.

Assistant County Attorney Tom Burdett, who examined the defendants individually on the stand, reported that the Court has four of the checks in evidence and that the fifth one is being returned to them. The Busby youth identified each check which was presented.

Myers testified that he had endorsed each of the checks while Busby had "made out the front." Each youth said they had gotten names from the local telephone book but that some of them were fictitious names. One of the names used, however, was Emmett Duke, who was formerly a Deaf Smith County deputy sheriff. But they stated that they did not know of this connection until afterward and that none of the "real people" knew their names were being used on the checks.

Myers also reported that he and another La Plata student (named to the Court) had entered the school through a back window following the past Christmas holidays, had taken a set of keys and "vandalized a little bit."

Trustees To Be Installed

County Clerk B. F. Cain will qualify the newly elected Hereford Independent School District trustees at the board's regular meeting, scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the School Administration Building.

Reorganization of the board is to be conducted by Hereford Schools Assistant Superintendent Roy Hartman. Reorganization of the board is to be conducted by Hereford Schools Assistant Superintendent Johnny Clark Jr., is currently in inspection of schools tour throughout the Scandinavian countries.

Report on the school's Bilingual Program and the Literary UIL Contest is on the agenda, along with a report on Social Studies by Assistant Superintendent Robert Holman.

from a local grocery store where they had purchased a package of sunflower seeds. Busby replied that "a lot of kids eat them. They've just got salt in them." He said it was not for "kicks."

Both youths told the Court that they did not need the money. They had "just gotten the money —bought records."

Questioned at some length on how they had gotten the idea to write the checks, Myers and Busby related that they had heard the matter discussed in English class at school recently. "The teacher talked about tax evasion and hot checks." They said they had decided to write a couple of checks. "It sounded so easy we just couldn't get into trouble."

Burdett pointed out that Forgery and Passing is a penitentiary offense ranging from five to 20 years.

Also present at the hearing were the boy's parents and guardians and a pastor of one of the local churches.

It was brought out that the Busby youth had lived with his aunt and uncle for the past ten years. However, his father, who now lives in Lubbock, appeared before the Court and explained that he had no financial responsibility toward his son. The boy's mother is dead. Judge Williams stated that school officials had reported the boy to be "uncontrollable."

Part of their probationary terms includes that of attending school regularly. Other terms are "being obedient to parents" with a 9 p.m. curfew. The boys cannot be seen with each other outside of the school. They must attend the church of their choice each Sunday with a note signed as verification by their pastor — which is to be presented to Judge Williams each Wednesday morning.

Restitution of the worthless checks was made by the parents.

Grand Opening For Firestone

Grand opening celebration of the new Firestone Home and Auto Safety Center at 105 N. Main in Hereford is slated for Monday.

Scheduled for the 1 p. m. ribbon-cutting ceremonies are Mayor James Sears and D. G. Theissen, Firestone's Oklahoma City district manager. Also present will be William Byrd, retail sales manager.

During the grand opening, visitors may register for a prize drawing which features a portable TV, lawn mower, and a boy's or girl's bicycle. According to Theissen, the store features a complete auto-service area and a large air-conditioned sales room with a full line of merchandise for the home and automobile.

The four-bay service department has the latest equipment for tire care service, wheel balancing, front end alignment, brake service and battery maintenance. Passenger, truck and tractor tires are also available, Theissen said.

Danny Vermillion of Chickasha, Okla., is manager of the store. It has been open for business since late in March.

The new store also offers a color television lounge where customers may relax, along with sales of televisions, radios, ranges, laundry equipment, refrigerators and freezers. Other merchandise includes lawn and garden equipment, recreation supplies, custom wheel goods and appliances.

Other staff personnel at the new store are Ray O'Rourke, James Braly and Joe Carabajal.

During the grand opening week the store hours are set as 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Ex-Resident Services Held

Funeral services for Mrs. D. H. Alexander, 85, of Seagraves and a former Hereford resident for 37 years, were conducted Friday at the Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Russell Winger, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery by Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mrs. Alexander died Wednesday night in Seagraves Hospital following a long illness.

Bertha Alexander was born January 10, 1884 and grew up at Silverton where she was brought as a small child when her family moved in a covered wagon from Missouri in 1890. She completed her high school studies at Silverton and began her long teaching career before her eighteenth birthday.

She was on the McLean faculty when she married Dave Alexander July 24, 1907.

A member of the Presbyterian Church, in which she was very active, Mrs. Alexander contributed much to church, club and the cultural life of Hereford. She was a member of the Bay View Study Club for 37 years. Her work with it earned her the distinction of "Club Jewel," an honor given her for her work in the organization and to Federated Club work.

Following the death of her husband in June of 1966 she left Hereford and moved to Seagraves to live with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Hudson. Survivors include her daughter and a son, Burl of Fort Worth, a sister, Mrs. Ora Alexander of Silverton; three grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

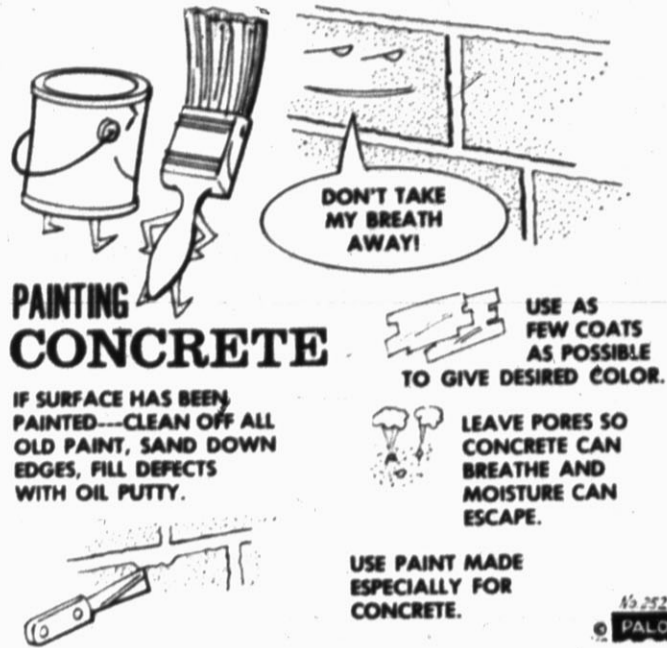

Pallbearers for the funeral included Ralph Hastings, George Jones, Albert Maxwell, Bill Nunn, A. J. Schroeter and Clifford Kerr.

Roy Neaves' Rites Pending

Funeral services for L. Alford (Roy) Neaves, 72, who died Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Earl Poarch, are pending with Gilliland Funeral Home. The services will be conducted in Rose Chapel by Goree Applewhite of Lockney. Burial will be in Rest Lawn Memorial Park.

Neaves was born Jan. 7, 1897 at Lockney and married Letha Taylor in 1929 at Clayton, N. M.

He had been a resident of Hereford since 1958, coming here from Adrian.

He is survived by his wife, mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Neaves of Lockney; one daughter, Sarah Poarch of Hereford; two brothers, Robert of Ontario, Calif. and Jim of Lockney; and three grandchildren.

No Injuries In Collisions

No injuries were reported in two minor collisions here this week.

One occurring Wednesday afternoon at the high school parking lot included a 1965 Oldsmobile driven by Arlene West which sustained damage of $125 and a 1966 Buick driven by Barbara Anstey. Damage to the Anstey car was $20.

Minor damage was reported Friday when a 1966 Chrysler driven by Mary Ethel Winter, backed out of a driveway on West Park and Ranger Drive, and struck a parked car owned by Frances Gollehon Crume.

Investigating officer was James L. Tucker.

Fullback Jerry Skogmo, a 200-pounder from Fergus Falls, Minn., led North Dakota's 1968 freshman ball carriers with 345 yards on 44 carries in three games. The team was unbeaten.

Hospital Receives New Equipment

New equipment has arrived at Deaf Smith County Hospital that was purchased with the funds which were made available by the Project Christmas Card, according to hospital administrator T. E. Seigler.

The two items purchased are an anesthesia machine for the Obstetrical Department that is semi-automatic and a new defibrillator to add to the equipment in the Intensive-Care Unit, which was established last year with funds from Project Christmas Card.

"Both of these pieces of equipment are valuable assets to our equipment inventory," Seigler states, "and will be of much help to us in taking care of our patients in years to come."

Seigler continued to say that the addition of the Intensive Care Unit, which was made possible by the project last year, is one of the finest additions which we have made in many years. The unit is almost in constant use and has done much good for our patients," he said.

New Manager For Safeway

Clifton Hooker, who has been assistant manager of the Safeway Super Market in Amarillo, has assumed duties this week as local manager of the Hereford Safeway Super Market.

Hooker succeeds Gene Spears who has moved to Oklahoma.

The Hookers have lived in the West Texas area for ten years and calls it home although he graduated from high school at Dodge City, Kansas and attended Imporia State Teachers College. He received a B. S. degree in retailing from the college in 1958.

Hooker plans to move his wife, Darlene and daughters, Rhonda, 10, and Sharon, 7, to Hereford as soon as school dismisses for the summer.

They are active members of the Baptist Church. He has been associated with Lion's Club and Jaycees but says their main interest remains in the church.

Rain Is Familiar Sight

"We feel right at home here with the recent rains here," says Mrs. Judson Nowotny, who just moved to Hereford this week from Gulfport, Miss. where the rains are a familiar sight. Mrs. Nowotny says her 13-year-old daughter's friends have chided her about bringing the rains with her.

The Nowotnys have moved into their lovely new home at 122 N. Texas and are still straightening up, she says, but they have already fallen in love with Hereford. The friendly people here have made us feel right at home," she said smiling, "but we are having difficulty breathing in this higher altitude."

The rains came every day in Mississippi, said Mrs. Nowotny, and the dry climate here takes a little getting used to.

The Nowotnys are native Texans but have moved around quite a lot. Mr. Nowotny has assumed duties as minister of education at the First Baptist Church here.

Before moving to Mississippi two years ago, they lived at Weatherford where he held the same position.

Their three children, Patti, who is 15; David, 13 and young nine-year-old Pam, all dreading the move back to Texas, have all become acquainted — found new friends and are settled down as if they had lived here all their lives.

Mrs. Nowotny enjoys her homemaker duties and loves to sew. She said she had never had to sew before they moved to Mississippi because they lived so near her mother who did most of her sewing for her. Mrs. Nowotny now makes most of her clothing as well as that of her daughters.

She enjoys working in her lovely yard but is kept so busy with her family and working along side her husband in church work that she cannot find the time. While in Mississippi, she worked with a Sunday School class of junior high girls and plans doing the same here. She also enjoys working with the Women's missionary Union.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nowotny graduated from high school at San Antonio and he continued his formal education at Howard Payne College and received his master's degree from Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth.

The three children keep her busy but she is finding time to get acquainted with people in Hereford. She says she has trouble remembering names but knows a million faces and is enjoying meeting people.

Fifteen-year-old Patti has an artistic nature and uses her spare time playing the piano and flute as well as oil painting.

Young David is attending La Plata Jr. High School and is looking forward to baseball season where he plans to play in the Pony League.

There is never a dull moment around the house when nine-year-old Pam is there. She is quite the tomboy and stays outdoors most of the time.

The family loves horses and hopes to acquire some here. They owned several when they lived at Weatherford but when they went to Mississippi they soon found out there's no pasture there so they had to sell them.

Club Visit To Girlstown Made By LAE

A visit to Girlstown, U. S. A., was paid this week by members of La Affiliatus Studio Club, who went together to the girls residence home at Whiteface on their regular meeting day. The club has made a number of gifts to Girlstown residents.

Members were greeted and shown over the facilities by girls and staff members. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Viola Williams, who is a member of the Girlstown Board of Directors and a frequent visitor at the home.

In the party were Meses. W. F. Johnson, Earl Clark, Emmett Hale, T. W. Robertson, George Suggs, W. F. Markham, B. A. Reddell and A. L. Hewitt.

Volleyballers Lose Play-Offs

Hereford's volleyball team, who wound up champions in the South Zone of District 1-AAA, could not get past the Perryton Rangerettes in the Zone play-offs last week, as they fell to them in three games.

Hereford won the first game, 15-4, but the Rangerettes rallied back in the second to take it 15-12 then took the third and decisive game, 15-4. In the first game, Karen Bain accounted for four serve points and Miss Reddell, six.

In the second game, Kay Williams had five serves and Miss Reddell four.

Is this any way to treat your highways?

Keep your home beautiful — keep America beautiful

You use America's highways to get to work on weekdays — for travel and pleasure on weekends and vacations. You spend a lot of time driving along them — they're part of your home. Why litter your home? Why litter your America? Litter is ugly and unhealthy and dangerous. Cleaning it up costs millions in taxes you help pay. Every litter bit hurts you.

Litter doesn't throw itself away; litter doesn't just happen. People cause it — and only people can prevent it. "People" means you. Keep America Beautiful.

In other Board action, Trustees heard Commodity Committee reports and discussed the Foundation's annual budget.

Each member of the Foundation's research staff discussed progress made in all areas of research during the past year.

The meeting was conducted in Plainview Holiday Inn and adjourned at noon. Approximately 44 trustees attended the semi-annual meeting.

Lyons Winner Of Quail Shoot

In the first-time-ever shoot for the "Quail Walk Trophy," held last Sunday at the local rifle range, Paul Lyons walked away with the trophy.

Lyons registered hits on 30 of a possible 50 pigeons for the win while Gene Cope wound up second with 28 of 50 and Mark Simpson-third with 27 of 50.

According to Jim Lassiter, member of the local gun club, there will be a league team shoot at the range east of the airport, Sunday, April 13, beginning at 1 p. m. This will be one of three such team shoots, he added.

The Walkers were told that they could take greater satisfaction in their son's achievement "knowing that competition in the Preparatory School is keen among a selected group of intelligent and motivated young men. His performance in academic subjects and in military and physical training must therefore be exceptional to merit this honor."

Goeringer To Be Area Entry

Hereford Toastmasters Club hosted the area speech contest Thursday night at Jones Restaurant here, where Connie Goeringer, Hereford's entry, won the right to represent Area 1 in the District 44 contest, which is to be held at Plainview in May.

Goeringer's speech topic was "Prescription For Guilt."

Runner-up in the local contest was Bob Stewart of Amarillo's Tuesday Night Toastmasters Club.

Other out-of-town speakers were Gene Gormley and Charlie Eubands.

Special guests were the club member's wives, out-of-town members and their wives, Area 1 Gov. Harry Bramblett of Amarillo, and District Lt. Gov. Bob Spikes, also of Amarillo.

Along The Frio

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS Brand Correspondent

Visiting the Tony Vigils during the weekend were her sister, Mrs. Archie Romero and family and their mother, Mrs. Benita Gomez, all of Portales. Mrs. Gomez remained for a longer visit.

Seiby Stroud of San Antonio came home with Darlene Sparkman for the Easter holidays from college at Baylor. Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Jr. met her daughter and guest at the Amarillo airport on Thursday evening. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Alma Andrews. The Sparkmans plan to take the girls back to Waco this Sunday.

Guests of Debby Ogan and the Ogan family during the Easter holidays is Karen Hamanaka of Los Angeles. The girls are freshmen at Baylor and live in the same dorm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andrews and children returned home last week from a 12 day trip into Mexico as far as H. Zitacuaro, about 100 miles southwest of Mexico City. The resort area there is called San Cayetano. The trip covered about 3300 miles. On the return trip they visited Mrs. Andrews parents, the Herbert Haseloffs of Abilene and the Ron Griffiths at Lubbock. They report the summertime season has already arrived in Mexico with fruits, flowers and strawberry fields already in full growth.

Visiting the Elza Warricks during the weekend were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Draves of Hooper, Colo. On Monday, they celebrated the birthday of the other Warrick daughter, Mrs. Floyd Neill at the Warrick home. The H.E. Lindleys also attended the family gathering.

Mrs. Stella Sevier of El Paso came the last part of this week to spend the Easter holidays with her parents, and especially to be with her father, Jack Fortenberry, who has been seriously ill in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Another daughter, Mrs. Jack Dowd, the former Chloe Fortenberry of Hamilton, Ohio, is also here to be with her father. Mrs. Inman Larsen and Mrs. C. R. Higgins of Hereford are also daughters of the Fortenberrys.

The Charles Springers have been going to Lubbock to be with her father, Dale Tinnin, of Hereford, who underwent artery surgery in his neck this week. He has done remarkably well, they say, but is expected to have surgery of the same type on the other side within a few days.

Lightning struck the Frio Church roof to the front of the steeple over the foyer in the brief thunderstorm Thursday afternoon. A hole was knocked in the roof and ceiling and some electrical wiring damage was done in that part of the building. Also the lights and the telephone were knocked out in the pastors home.

Paul Abalos spoke at the Frio church service Wednesday evening. He was a representative of the local area, sponsored by Frio Church, to the Texas Alcohol-Narcotics Education meeting at Baylor University at Waco. Abalos, a teacher in the Hereford Schools, was invited by a group of churches to go to the meeting and bring information on the work of T.A.N.E.

Boyd reported that interested people in Deaf Smith County should contact Continental Grain at 364-2366.

Participating in the program are Dr. Ron Bunch, manager of Swine Research; Jerry Smith, product manager of Swine Feeds; Jud Estes, Texas regional sales manager; and Boyd. A question and answer period is planned following the session.

DOC'S STILL FLYING CHAPEL HILL, N. C. — On and off the football field, North Carolina's sophomore end Tony Blanchard has people ask him about his father, the famed Doc Blanchard of Army football.

"He's still piloting planes in Vietnam," says Tony. "The last word I got was that my father will return home in January."

New Orleans' famous Mardi Gras King, Rex, first appeared in 1872 to welcome the carnival's initial royal guest, the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia.

Mrs. E. B. Berryman and Mrs. Earl Cole left this week for a trip to visit their children. Mrs. Berryman will visit her daughter, Mrs. Wallace White and family at Biloxi, Miss., and Mrs. Cole will visit the Ralph Coles in New Orleans. Mrs. Clark Andrews and children took the two to Amarillo Friday morning to get on the bus for the trip.

Mrs. Ernest Harder and Leonard Schmidt went to Coon, Okla. Thursday night after receiving word that their invalid mother had become critically ill.

Swine Short Course Set

Swine Production Short Course is scheduled to be conducted Friday at the Holiday Inn in Plainview from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m., according to B. E. "Bill" Boyd, general manager of Wayne Feeds, a division of Allied Mills Inc.

Boyd reported that interested people in Deaf Smith County should contact Continental Grain at 364-2366.

SLUMS HOLD THEIR OWN

NEW DELHI (AP) — Of an estimated 3.8 million persons living in India's capital, 75 per cent live in slums, according to an Indian town planner.

The situation is not improving, he claims, in that 50,000 migrants annually pour into the city in search of work.

The Black Sea is black because of a high concentration of hydrogen sulphide. The Red Sea gets its red hue from the recurring bloom of small algae. Russia's White Sea earned its name from the ice that covers it most of the year. The Yellow Sea derives its color from mud that rivers carry into it.

Miss Hill, Mr. Walden Are Married In Church

In a candlelighted setting at First Presbyterian Church, Miss Donna Dale Hill and John Kelly Walden repeated marriage vows Friday evening as the Rev. Russell A. Wingert, pastor, conducted the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hill, 504 East Fifth, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walden of Fallon, Nev. The couple, to be at home at 301-B Lawton after a short wedding trip, are both students at West Texas State University this term, and both attended South Plains College at Levelland last year.

Sprays of fresh foliage were arranged for the wedding background with two tall silver candelabra in which white tapers burned at the church altar. Mr. Hill gave his daughter in marriage.

The maid of honor was Miss Suzanne Hart, and Larry Noland acted as best man. Mrs. David Hill, the bride's sister-in-law, and Miss Dee Dec Walden of Fallon, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Groomsmen were Mike Huffaker of Tahoka and David Hill; ushers, Guy Williams of Fallon, Walden's brother-in-law, Dave Evans of Tahoka, his uncle, Mike Ferguson and Harold Beauchamp.

Completing the wedding party was the small flower girl, Tana Jo Nix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Nix.

As a prelude to the service Donald D. Henslee sang solos, Because and White R Thou Goest. Mrs. Jack Keeling was organ accompanist and played the marches.

Pearled Alencon lace formed a deep yoke with Victorian neckline on the bride's gown of snowflake satin. Falling straight-to-floor-length in front, the skirt had back interest in the Watteau train applied with lace motifs, attached below the yoke with a double bow of the satin.

Her veil of soft white net fell over her shoulders from a headpiece of lace and pearls. The necklace she wore was a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white roses with trailing sprays of English ivy.

Her attendants were dressed alike in mint green satin, floor length, fashioned in empire style with short sleeves and belted across the high waistline in the back. Their flowers were roses in white and shades of pink, with ivy. The flower girl carried more of the blossoms in her basket.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. James Piper of Dallas and Mrs. Guy Williams of Fallon served cake and Miss Davaughn Evans of Tahoka ladled punch.

Miss Patsy Smith was at the bride's book where guests registered. Tandy and Jim Bob Walden, younger sister and brother of the bridegroom, assisted in the houseparty.

The tiered cake formed a part of the table decorations, with pink and white roses and ivy in a candelabra arrangement. Fluffy net over white covered the semi-circular table.

For travel Mrs. Walden chose a dress with dropped waistline, a matching three-quarter coat and black patent accessories.

She was a 1967 graduate of

STYLE SHOW TICKET SALESMEN — Mrs. Duke Powell, right, is chairman and Mrs. Gene Steers is a member of the ways and means committee in Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, which is making arrangements for a benefit style show in the Pañts Cage at Sugarland Mall Tuesday evening. They are dividing a stack of tickets, which are on sale in advance by the committee and other members of the chapter. Proceeds of the show will go to the fund for service projects.

Debbie Banks Honored At Afternoon Party

Complimenting Miss Debbie Banks, bride-elect, a shower was given in the home of Mrs. Grover Durham, 613 Blackfoot, Saturday afternoon. Miss Banks and William Tate of Abilene are to be married May 2.

Hostesses were Meses. Bill Southward, Ray Fleming, Dale Walton, Alvis Jolly, D. R. Hammock, Charles Durham, A. G. Jarvis, Floyd Millican, Charles Tackard, Buster Thomason, Edgar Tel-

ick, Bob Adams and Grover Durham.

The hostesses in turn assisted Miss Banks and her mother, Mrs. Dwight E. Banks, in receiving guests, and presided at the refreshment table.

Easter lilies made a lovely centerpiece in colors which the honoree has selected for her wedding, mint green and white.

The couple is planning a wedding in First Christian Church at Lubbock.

English Student Talks To Presbyterians

Sharon Watson, English girl who is a student in Hereford High School in the American Field Service program, was the guest speaker to the United Presbyterian Women's Association at a luncheon in the church fellowship hall Wednesday.

Miss Watson gave some impressions of American life gained during her stay in a Hereford home, as she told the church women and guests of her own home and school. She gave background facts about Britain and her hometown in the industrial region of England.

Views of that area and other parts of the British Isles were shown by the young speaker.

Guests at the luncheon, served at tables with Easter decoration, were Mrs. Grant Hanna, in whose home Miss Watson is living during the school term; Mrs. Charles Walden of Fallon, Nev., Mrs. W. A. Gearn and Mrs. Floyd Coleman.

The Association is beginning a new year with a recently-installed staff of officers. Mrs. Charles Frye is president, Mrs. Charles Newell vice president, Mrs. Hazen Woods secretary and Mrs. George Millard treasurer.

Serving with them as coordinators of work programs are Mrs. W. S. Kerr, general missions; Mrs. Pat Webb, studies; Mrs. M. L. Simpson, action and involvement; Mrs. Al Smith, representative to children's home; Mrs. Henry Hastings, secretary of sewing and supplies.

Late Appeal For Easter Seals

A last minute appeal for support of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its program of services to the handicapped was issued today by J. A. Hodges, Jr., who is the Easter Seal Representative in Deaf Smith County.

The Easter Seal Society is providing treatment and services for 17,622 physically handicapped children and adults in Texas, Hodges said, and this program needs to be expanded. Many people are going without services that would increase the productivity of their lives and make them happier. With increased growth of the Easter Seal Society, more and more of these people will be reached, he added.

The society is carrying on a continuing program to seek out the disabled who are going without services to see that they receive the services they need. As Easter Seal Representative, Hodges is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society.

The Texas Easter Seal Society helps support 21 treatment facilities in Texas where crippled children and adults are treated regardless of their ability to pay. Physical, occupational, and speech therapy are offered to help the handicapped overcome their disabilities. A complete referral program to insure equal rehabilitation services to every person in Texas is included in Easter Seal Society services, he added.

Hodges asked that anyone in need of services contact him at the Hereford State Bank, Hereford, Texas 79045. He added that the Easter Seal Appeal will close Sunday, April 6, and full support should be given the Easter Seal Society by every citizen of Deaf Smith County.

Lieutenant Governor Ben Barnes is State Chairman of the Appeal.

ONE SOLITARY LIFE

He was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman.

He grew up in still another village, where He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty. Then for 3 years He was an itinerant preacher.

He never wrote a book. He never held an office.

He never had a family or traveled 200 miles from the place where He was born.

He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness.

He had no credentials but Himself.

He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against Him.

His friends ran away.

He was turned over to His enemies and went through the mockery of a trial.

He was nailed to a cross between two thieves.

While He was dying, His executioners gambled for His clothing, the only property He had on earth.

When He was dead, He was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen centuries have come and gone; today He is the central figure of the human race and the leader of mankind's progress.

All the armies that ever marched . . .

All the navies that ever sailed . . .

All the parliaments that ever sat . . .

All the kings that ever reigned put together . . .

Have not affected the life of man on this earth as much as that ONE SOLITARY LIFE!

Wishing You A Joyous Easter

Sr., Mrs. Ray L. Johnson and Mrs. Ralph McCullough, pictured in the home of Mrs. McCullough, general chairman of arrangements. Another member of the committee is Mrs. Delmar Sigle, club president.

Deborah Ogan High On List

WACO, Tex. Deborah Sue Ogan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. B. Ogan of Rt. 2, Hereford, is listed among the more than 390 Baylor University students who have been selected for recognition of academic performance during the 1968 fall semester. A freshman, Miss Ogan, who is majoring in Education, attained a 3.81 grade point average. To make the Dean's List, undergraduate students must have earned a grade point average of more than 3.60 on a 4.00 scale and be enrolled for at least 15 hours during a semester.

U. S. 60 TO GET SEAL COAT
AUSTIN Contracts for seal coat work on 388 miles of highways in the Amarillo District have been awarded by the Texas Highway Commission. The work will be under the supervision of District Engineer Charles W. Smith in Deaf Smith, Potter, Sherman, Oldham, Hartley, Moore, Dallam, Randall, Carson, Gray, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Hemphill, Roberts, Hutchinson, Armstrong, and Donley. Seal coating in Deaf Smith County is slated for a 13.2-mile stretch of U. S. 60 from Randall County line to Hereford. W. D. Turner Construction

Co. of Lubbock was awarded this 18-county contract with a low bid of $424,888.12. Texas Highway Commission reported the project will take 90 days. No starting date has been set.

Pioneer Club Birthday Recalls Years Of Work

Sixty Progressive Years is the theme for Pioneer Study Club's anniversary tea, to which more than 500 women of this community have been invited. It will be given in Community Center from 3 to 5 p. m. Tuesday, and hostess club members in costumes of 60 years ago will greet guests.

Organized in March, 1909, the club for its first 22 years was named the Mothers Club. Many Hereford residents have heard the story of how it grew out of an Anti-Cigarette League organized in schools of the city. Each schoolroom had a sponsoring organization from churches and clubs, but one room of first grade boys was left without a sponsor. The group of mothers formed a club to serve in that capacity, and Mrs. S. B. Edwards was named president.

She served two terms, and learning of the aims of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, in her second year made a trip to a state convention to find out how the Hereford group might become a part of the larger organization. Impressed by her findings, the club federated in 1910 and is still in the FW.

One charter member, Mrs. J. M. Gilliland, is still an active member of the club. Mrs. Allen Bell has been a member since 1962 and Mrs. Bess Werner since 1914.

Mrs. Rex Tynes was president in 1931 when the club name was changed to accord with its expanded activities and interests. It had started with program series on such subjects as Juvenile Growth, The Boy Problem and Child Welfare, related to the young matrons' interest in their small children.

By 1931 it was studying such topics as The Woman Movement, The American Home and Texas Literature; since World War II the emphasis has again shifted and subjects have included Bulwarks of Democracy, Informed Women for a Better World and Our Spheres of Influence. Mrs. Tynes served five years as president, and later was elected for another two years, giving her the longest time in the office, although Mrs. Ralph McCullough was president for six successive years from 1957 to 1963.

She headed the club when it celebrated its Golden anniversary in 1959, entertaining then with a tea similar in plan to this week's event. It was given in the parish hall of St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

First major project of the Mothers Club was establishment of Mothers Park, the triangular plot at the north end of Main Street, adjoining Dameron Park which was improved later. Club members themselves worked on planting trees, shrubs and grass, and enlisted the help of other residents. The club still maintains the park.

Other early work for community betterment included furnishing a rest room in the courthouse, buying a drinking fountain for a school, entertaining teachers and school board members annually, staging Easter egg hunts for first graders; working for a county library, swimming pool and community center; backing pure food inspection and Better Babies programs. During World Wars I and II, thousands of hours were devoted to Red Cross, USO and other wartime activities. Pioneer Club assisted with formation of the County Federation of Women's Clubs, sponsored the Junior Pioneer Club which became LaPlata Study Club, also Lone Star and L'Allegria Study Clubs, and the Worthwhile Club for older women.

Presidents in order of their terms have been Mmes. Edwards, J. T. Rutherford, T. M. Palmer, W. B. Palmer, Sherm Williams, M.R. Corbett, Gilliland, A. A. Foster, Tynes, F. M. Kester, O. G. Hill Sr., M. D. Womble, H.D. Reed.

Also Mmes. Wirt Phillips, Noah Ewton, N. E. Gass, P. H. Gilliland, Burl France, Mary Seigler, A. L. Manjeot, Tynes, Ray Johnson, McCullough, L. H. Lookingbill Sr. and, now serving her second term, Mrs. Delmar Sigle.

Mrs. Henry Hastings, club historian, has custody of scrapbooks with clippings from newspapers as far back as the 1920's, programs of public entertainments sponsored by the club, pictures of past leaders, yearbooks and certificates of awards won in the district federation.

Stories of club events in those old clippings are told in elaborate style, like the one which begins, "The Pioneer Study Club entertained with a fascinating program on modern classic arts... a delightful dramatization..." Others are in more practical words, like the announcement of a City Election Chicken Pie Dinner to raise money for club projects, which has a familiar ring today.

Expected as guests for the tea, to stand in the receiving line with Mrs. Sigle and Mrs. Gilliland, are Mrs. B.M. Sims of Wellington, president of Top of Texas District, TFWC, and several past district presidents.

Mrs. McCullough heads the arrangements committee, with Mmes. Johnson, Lookingbill and Sigle as other members. Mmes. W. C. Ilromas, Hill, R. L. Wilson and Manjeot are in charge of decorations. Mmes. M. L. Simpson and Phillips will assist Mrs. Hastings with the display of yearbooks and scrapbooks.

Mmes. H. E. Miller, Frank Ball, B. E. Brumley and Bob Hammon, comprising the courtesy committee, with Mrs. Fred Barrett will arrange a display of pictures. Serving in turn at the guest book will be Mmes. France, E. S. Ireland, Werner and Bell.

On tea committees are Mmes. P. B. Sowell, William Wimberley and Paul Rudder, tea and coffee; Mmes. Ted Panciera, Herman Ford, John Patton and J. V. Pickens,

Tea To Honor AFS Students

A tea, to be given in honor of all area Foreign Exchange Students and friends, will be hosted by the American Field Service Chapter of Hereford, April 13 at the Community Center.

Some 17 exchange students from throughout the Panhandle will be honored including the two students in Hereford this year, Sharon Watson and Theo ten Have. The tea will begin at 3 p. m. and last till around 5 p. m.

Miss Gillian MacArthur, a Hereford exchange student in 1962-63, will be the special guest at the tea. While in Hereford with the Foreign Exchange program, Miss MacArthur lived with the A. B. "Hap" Higgins family. She arrived in Hereford last Thursday and will stay here for a three week visit.

table; Mmes. Seigler, C. L. Craig, Frank Ball, Gass and Miss Roberta Campbell, serving.

HE IS RISEN

Father in Heaven, we thank you for Jesus Christ who bore our sins in His own body on the cross. We do offer praise to You that He was raised from the dead to give eternal life to those believing on Him. In Christ's name. Amen.

Mrs. Young Heads Study Crafts Club

Simms Study Craft Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Arlis Edwards with Mrs. Robert Lloyd and Mrs. Jack Fulghum as co-hostesses.

The regular business meeting was held and a discussion on repairing the community building. It was reported that the paint had been purchased and workers were needed.

Elected as new officers are Mrs. Lennon Young, president; Willis Duggin, vice-president; Mrs. Tom Bullard, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Terry Crietz, reporter; Mrs. E. L. Young, historian and Mrs. James Bullard, parliamentarian.

A program on making bur-lap flowers was presented by Mrs. Robert Lloyd.

The members were reminded to bring a gift for their secret pal to the next meeting which will be a salad luncheon on May 7.

YOUNG MOTHERS CLUB
The meeting of Young Mothers Study Club Tuesday evening will be in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co., beginning at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Travis McPherson is scheduled as hostess.

The 13 members present were Mmes. Tommy Blasingame, J. M. Boothe, Leland Burns, Dwayne Cassels, Jim Cavin, Terry Crietz, Willis Duggin, Emmett Young, Lennon Young, Betty Stevens, Edwards, and Lloyd and Fulghum.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated At Party

On the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brownlow of 107 Northwest Drive were surprised with an informal gathering of friends and relatives Tuesday evening.

The silver anniversary was arranged by the Brownlow children, Barbara, Vicki, Dale and Patsy.

Refreshments of cake, coffee and punch were served from a pink and white table to approximately 25 guests.

Instead of a gift for the honored couple, the guests dropped money into a wishing well on the refreshment table.

Club Elects Nominee For State Meeting

Mrs. W. J. Lueb was the hostess for the meeting of the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon, in her home.

Mrs. Viola Williams was elected as the club's nominee for the state meeting, and a report on the district meeting was given by Roberta Campbell.

Members present included Mmes. C. L. Whitehead, Otto Massie, R. A. Fullwood, Roger Williams, Viola Williams, Clinton Ward, A. A. Hare, Paul Hoff, Lueb and Campbell.

Coffee Is Held By Wyche Club

A coffee in the home of Mrs. Charles Packard was given for Wyche Home Demonstration Club members and a guest, Mrs. Louie Olson, instead of the usual afternoon meeting this week.

Mrs. Cecil Hart presented the program titled Hazard No. 5 — Poisons, stressing the high incidence of death, especially among children under five years of age, due to home accidents involving poison.

"The best preventive," she said, "is to lock it up! Household cleaners should be locked out of reach of children and so should medicines, in a separate place. Dispose of old drugs regularly. And in case of poisoning, the key word is hurry!"

In a short business period members decided to serve sandwiches and pie at a farm sale Apr. 10 to benefit the club treasury. The next meeting, Apr. 17, will be with Mrs. Cecil Matsen.

Carla Stengel On TWU List

DENTON, Texas — Names of students at the Texas Woman's University who have won distinction for excellent grades during the first semester of the regular academic session have been announced by Dr. John D. Williams, vice president for academic affairs at the university.

TWU students who achieved a "B" or better grade average will be given special recognition at an Honors Day Assembly April 24.

The list includes one Hereford student. She is Carla Stengel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stengel, Route 5.

Miss Stengel, a freshman nursing major, is on the 23 list.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Silverthoath, John and Denny of Amarillo.

Oregon's 25 million acres of commercial timber could rebuild every house in the United States, National Geographic says.

Baseballers Set The Pace

College presidents who wish to stop rioting, demonstrating and beatnik activities on the campus might do well to study some of the methods employed recently by baseball officials.

When spring training was about to begin baseball officials sent word down the line to all players to shave off those long sideburns and to get rid of mustaches and beards.

The players were told emphatically there would be no exceptions. They were told they had an obligation to fulfill with the youngsters of the country and that a neat appearance was part of that obligation.

Without fanfare — without demonstrations and charges of violation of civil rights, off went the long sideburns.

Off went the beards and off went the mustaches.

The players knew that if they didn't comply they would be subject to possibly severe fines, suspension or maybe sent down to a lower league.

So far as we know there was not one single case of objection to the ruling.

Of course, the baseball official got the jump on the situation and they also have a hold on players that make it worth a lot of money to "follow the rules." However, college officials could suspend students — and should if the activities of the students tend to disrupt educational processes of the school — but it is difficult to find a college president in this day and time with the intestinal fortitude to take a stand on the situation. Hence, the rabble rousers and beatniks get the upper hand.

Short hair is not necessarily a mark of respectability. We've seen a lot of young people, and a few older ones, who wear their hair and sideburns considerably longer than we prefer, yet look rather well due to the fact that hair, mustaches and beards are neatly trimmed and groomed. On the other hand, youngsters do tend to mimic athletic heroes and we think the baseball world should be commended for their efforts in this area. And knowing the caliber of the people who participate in these sports, we doubt that it took much persuasion to get the fellows to shave.

Railroads on A Dole

In a remarkable, even incredible, reversal of policy, the nation's railroads are asking Congress to subsidize money-losing passenger trains. The only other subsidies ever given to the railroads have been land grants in the 1860s to spur rail development in the West; a $500 million guarantee made a decade ago to help hard-pressed roads obtain capital equipment, and $11 million to aid development of higher-speed New York to Washington rail service.

Historically the railroads have been opposed to government subsidies, not only for themselves but also for air and water carriers. Now, however, it is the unanimous recommendation of the Assn. of American Railroads' board of directors that legislation be sought authorizing the government to pay individual roads the difference between the cost and the revenue received from operating any train which the Interstate Commerce Commission might require to be operated in the public interest.

The railroads, to be sure, do not refer to this as a subsidy program. It's called "a cooperative industry-government program." AAR President Thomas M. Goodfellow says the plan "would be similar to a contractual arrangement" and that the railroads would "simply be insured against losses."

In other words, now that the railroads — with few exceptions — have done little or nothing to make passenger service as convenient and as attractive as it could be, they are asking the public to pick up the tab for past omissions or poor judgment. The proposed subsidy would remove the last incentive to upgrade passenger service.

"We still believe as firmly as ever," says Mr. Goodfellow, "in the free enterprise system." That system, however, was not built on businesses whose losses were guaranteed by a benevolent government. In the long haul the railroads and the public would find that there is nothing either free or enterprising about the rail subsidy proposed.

It will be surprising if Congress agrees to add the railroads to the nation's growing list of welfare recipients. American railroads on a dole? How the mighty have fallen. —

Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier

BATTLE OF THE SEXES

The female of the species is coming into her alleged own with such a flourish these emancipating days (imagine, a woman jockey of all things) that the following bit of dialogue was reported recently in the New York Daily News:

"My father can lick your father."
"So what? My mother can lick my father." — Hamilton (Ont.) Spectator

Men must seek religion for it can not seek them. — Matador (Tex.) Tribune

Time Running Out For Campus Trouble Makers

By BERT MILLS
WASHINGTON, D.C.—Time is about to run out for campus revolutionaries who seek to destroy the colleges because Congress and the Nixon Administration is going to stop handing out tax dollars to the anarchists.

Congress tried to use its purse last year to cut off Federal aid to campus law-breakers, but the Johnson Administration and college officials combined to nullify the law. There will be a tougher law this year and Washington will see to it that it is enforced.

No college student today pays in full for a college education. One way or another, every student's education is subsidized. Now the taxpayers are revolting and the rioters are sure to get the message soon. The day when a minority can interrupt the education of a majority by force is going to end.

Dissent on the campus is not going to be suppressed. Free speech is not going to be repealed. But campus criminals are going to be treated as law-breakers. The public reaction is sure to be: "It's about time," for Dr. George Gallup disclosed recently that the public regarded the college problem as their biggest worry.

Nixon Statement Mild
President Nixon's recent statement on campus disorders was surprisingly mild. Doubtless it was deliberately designed that way, lest it foment new campus protests. However, it should be remembered that Nixon also acclaimed the stand of Father Hesburgh of Notre Dame, who took a no-nonsense position against use of force by dissenters.

The President's avowed purpose in discussing college riots was to "be of some assistance in moderating the present turmoil." At the same time, however, he made it clear that the 1968 law which his predecessor refused to enforce will be used to withdraw Federal aid from students found guilty in court of violating a criminal statute.

Without pointing the finger too sharply at college presidents who have tolerated criminal conduct, Nixon made it plain that it is their responsibility to preserve "the integrity, the independence, and the creativity of our institutions of higher learning." Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert Finch has written to college presidents to remind them that the law requires them to cut off Federal aid to students convicted of participating in disorders.

Congress in a Tough Mood
That Congress is in a tough mood toward campus violence is demonstrated daily. Rep. Edith Green (D., Ore.), a left-of-center liberal whose patience has been exhausted as head of the House Education Subcommittee, has stated flatly that "there is absolutely no chance" Congress will adjourn without passing legislation to restrict Federal aid to student rioters.

Sen. Gordon Allott (R., Colo.) a conservative, has gone even further. He has predicted that not only Federal aid will be withheld but that financial support from tax-free foundations will be forbidden to those who use illegal force on the campus. Unquestionably, some foundation money has been used to finance college disorders. Rep. Paul Rogers (D., Fla.) recently told the House how far some campus revolutionists have gone. He published the study outline for a course given by student extremists at the Santa Barbara branch of the University of California, after they seized the university center last February. The course was on the tactics and practice of guerrilla warfare.

It told how to "hold a building against police attack; conduct hit and run missions; defend yourself against police harassment; sabotage military-industrial police stations; get community involved through terrorism." An information sheet said "the purpose of this class (is) to give the people who are already convinced that this government needs to be overthrown a method for overthrowing it!"

This is anarchy, of course, and that is a major Federal crime. It will be interesting to see if the Department of Justice files charges, as Rep. Rogers has requested.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnsgress farm has an odd but typical idea this week.

Dear editor:
I found a newspaper wedged in the back door to keep it shut. I've been meaning to get around to fixing that latch and will as soon as the Paris peace talks are over, and pulled it out and propped the door shut with the brick I've been using for years and got out of ear shot and immediately read an article that gave me an idea.

According to it, life in many big cities has become dangerous. It's awful. People can't walk the streets at night, parks are useless even during the day unless there's a cop every 15 or 20 feet, houses are being broken into regularly.

In fact, it's got so bad that city people are going to great extremes to stay safe in their homes.

Some people are putting three locks to the door, double barring the windows, keeping floodlights on all night, buying extra watch dogs installing electric-eye beams to set off alarms when a prowler shows up, carrying mace in their purses, etc.

But the gadget that set me to thinking is an inflatable dummy, for use when you're driving alone in your car.

You blow it up, it looks just like a big, husky man, and you put it on the front seat next to you. This is supposed to scare off a highwayman or thug hunting for some one driving alone.

I wish you'd find out where I can buy one. I know the stores in Hereford don't stock them, there's no market for them in a civilized town like this, but I'd like to get hold of one if the price isn't too high.

What I want it for is to blow up and set on my tractor seat, its hands on the steering wheel, with the tractor parked on the far side of the field, away from the house.

Then I'm going to get in a comfortable position some place and read. A glance from the house will lead one to believe I'm on my tractor and hard at work, and other people can attend to their own business.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

THE SPRING OF DISCONTENT — Thousands of workers were jobless, another 1,300 were under criminal indictment and hundreds more were involved in bloody violence almost daily over much of Texas in the spring of 1886.

It started in March of that year when employes of Jay Gould's vast railroad empire — primarily the Southern Pacific, Missouri Pacific and Texas & Pacific lines — walked out from Denison south to Waco and from Marshall east to El Paso.

Strikers were members of the Knights of Labor, an organization that demanded shorter hours, safer working conditions and health care. When Gould refused even to discuss the demands, all workers except trainmen walked out. For weeks, all public transportation stood still.

By late April, 1886, the strike had failed and transportation had returned to normal. But in the number of workers involved and in the amount of violence, the great Southwest Railroad strike belongs to history as the state's greatest labor dispute.

NO POSTCARDS, EITHER? — No postage stamps were ever issued by the Republic of Texas.

The Republic established a postal system in October, 1835, and named John Rice Jones as postmaster general. Rates were set at 4 1/2 cents for a one-page letter traveling no more than 20 miles. The fee was collected in advance by the local postmaster of carrier, and no stamps were used.

THE SMART SET — Austin claims to be the first community in Texas to set up an organization for "the cultivation of the minds of young men."

On October 30, 1889, citizens decided to improve the intellectual climate in the fledgling capital by organizing the Austin Lyceum. Initiates paid $3 for membership, plus a $1 monthly in dues. The dues went into a fund earmarked for the later construction of a library and museum.

Apparently there was no great rush to join, however, because the Lyceum surrendered its charter less than two years later. The funds intended for the library and museum were given to the family of the Travis County judge who had been killed by Indians.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? — Azle, in Tarrant County, got its name because of a quarrel between two of its prominent residents.

Originally called Fowler's Store, the community was renamed in 1881 for William O'Bar. Later a feud developed between O'Bar and the town physician, Dr. Azle Stewart. The townspeople took Stewart's side in the fight, and showed their displeasure two years later by renaming the town for him.

WHERE ARE THEY NOW? — Gray-haired couples who drop into the Gaalite Room at Houston's Hotel Montagu sometimes do a double-take when they encounter Head Waiter Al Roth.

And why not? From 1912 until the mid-Thirties, Al Roth ranked along with Milton Berle, George Jessel and others as one of vaudeville's big names. Then vaudeville folded and Roth hit the road. He has been in Houston, working mostly as a waiter, since 1949.

65 YEARS AGO — 1904

We regret to learn that G. S. Williams of the North Draw, while assisting A. H. Morris on Monday in branding calves, had the misfortune to break his leg, but hope that his fracture will rapidly mend and that he will soon be a welcome visitor in town.

50 YEARS AGO — 1919

Pursuant to the call of the Mayor, a mass meeting of citizens was held in the county courthouse last Saturday afternoon to discuss the question of naming three candidates for School Trustees to succeed the retiring members, who had signified their unwillingness to again accept the honor.

35 YEARS AGO — 1934

Charles J. Paddock was elected mayor of Hereford Tuesday in an election that saw only 361 votes cast. Paddock polled 242 votes against 118 for Mayor F. B. Black who was seeking a second term.

25 YEARS AGO — 1944

One of the closest contests in the history of Hereford Monday saw the election of E. S. Ireland as mayor and N. E. Gass and J. C. McCracken as commissioners to serve for the coming two-year term. In the mayor's race, there was a bare 16 vote difference between the totals for Ireland and the present mayor, C. J. Paddock.

15 YEARS AGO — 1954

Final disposition of the Hotel Jim Hill is still an open question following public sale of the property and furnishing by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Tuesday morning. The hotel is remaining open for the present. RFC made the top bid on the property — $122,000 — to protect its investment of about $199,000 which is still due on the money borrowed by the Community Hotel Corporation to help finance construction of the building.

10 YEARS AGO — 1959

Woodrow "Woody" Wilson edged political opponent Dr. R. R. Wills by a margin of 72 votes in a "light" election to become new mayor of Hereford in the general city election Tuesday. There were many serious talks and discussions during the 3-day conference of Rotary's District 573 in Hereford, hosted Sunday, Monday and Tuesday by the Hereford Rotary Club. But there were many other sidelights which will never appear in the official record of the meeting.

Basketball Stats Given On Mavs

As was the case with the football team, a good season was recorded by the La Plata ninth grade basketball squad as evidenced by season totals and figures released by coach Alex Glass.

Playing a total of 21 games throughout the season, the Mavs met defeat only three times, winding up with an impressive 18-3 mark. Their losses were at the hands of Dimmitt, 42-37; Muleshoe, 41-25; and Plainview Red Pups, 72-41.

Winners Named In League Play

In Major League bowling league action last week, Buddie Evans took home the "High Single Game" honors with his 220 score while Mike Waldrip won the "High 3-Game" tokens with a 582.

In team action, City Cab Company won the "High Single Game Team" with a 1021 and Plains Insurance the "High 3-Game Team" with a 2890.

Others rolling high three games were Evans, 550; Ray Lueb, 554; and J. Cortez, 573. High single games were also rolled by Gene Steers, 202; Mike Clark, 215; Mike Waldrip, 215; Wendell Burdine, 201; Frank Lopez, 202; Reese Dawson, 202; John Fink, 214; and L. J. Clark, 204.

Last week, Plains Insurance won 3 and lost 1; Orval Watson Ford won 1 and lost 3; St. Anthony's won 3 and lost 1; Ink Spot won 1 and lost 3; Pioneer Natural Gas won 3 and lost 1; Sunset Lanes forfeited; Farr Better Feed won 3 and lost 1; Piggly Wiggly won 1 and lost 3; Boyd Machine Shop won 2 and lost 2; and City Cab Company won 2 and lost 2.

Standings show Farr Better Feed, 30-18; Ink Spot, 28-20; St. Anthony's, 28-20; Plains Insurance Agency, 26-22; Pioneer Natural Gas Company, 26-23; Boyd Machine Shop, 23-25; Orval Watson Ford, 22-26; City Cab Company, 22-26; Sunset Lanes, 22-26; and Piggly Wiggly, 14-34.

In a 12-man tournament held last week, L. J. Clark emerged the champ, league officials reported.

Water - Teacher Bills Discussed

Both the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the Texas Farm Bureau have issued reports from Austin on current legislative action of interest to the people of this area. They include the water plan and education.

West Texas C of C's "Capitol Commentary" reported: TEXAS WATER PLAN MAKES PROGRESS. The Senate this week passed HJR 9 authorizing $3.5 billion in water bonds to finance the state's share of the proposed ten billion dollar water development program over the next 50 years. The plan would bring water from the Mississippi River to water-short West Texas. It would bring water through East Texas by canal and pipeline connecting with the Dallas-Fort Worth area. The supply would extend to terminal reservoirs on the High Plains of Northwest Texas and on to El Paso. The measure removes the present limitation of 4 per cent on interest, eliminates the present termination date, extends maturity schedules, broadens the Water Development Board's power to contract for water resources and facilities. The measure is now in a conference committee to adjust the differences between the House and Senate. The Senate vote was 29 to 1. It should be finally approved next week and be voted on by the people of Texas Aug. 5, 1969.

SIX WATER BILLS PASSED. The Senate on Tuesday approved and sent to the House six water development measures sponsored by Senator Creighton (SE 241, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6). These bills redefined "projects," increased the authorized amount of the Water Development Fund; eliminated the termination date for financial assistance; removed certain requirements for applications; and increased the maturity date to 50 years. All of these bills would implement the provisions of the Texas Water Plan.

TEACHER SALARY BILL ENDORSED. A school bill (SB 100 by Aikin) received Senate committee approval this week and the same bill was presented to the House committee by Representative Hinson. The measure which gained a favorable report did not contain either of the highly controversial sections objected to by witnesses on the Hale bill heard a week ago. This bill contains the same salary increases (to cost about $220 million for the biennium). It does not call for compulsory consolidation and does not include the market value tax equalization provisions recommended by Governor Connally's Committee on Public School Education.

"Austin Newsletter" of Texas Farm Bureau reported that they favor the teachers but oppose taxes which would "have the effect of taxing farmers and ranchers out of existence."

On H. B. 240 by Hinson, the "teacher pay raise" bill who also included provisions to finance the Minimum Foundation School Program through a uniform state tax equalization rate based on the full market value of real property, was heard before the House of Representatives Committee on Public Education on Tuesday.

In a highly significant move, Farm Bureau said, Hinson offered a committee substitute bill which deleted the provision imposing a uniform state tax equalization rate based on full market value, and substituted in its place a provision to continue financing based on the economic index of individual counties. This move is significant because it probably indicates an end to efforts this session to impose a full market value tax. Any full market value tax could easily tax farmers and ranchers out of existence.

Betty Rusher Is Named Star Of Week In Sunset Keglers

Betty Rusher was named the "Star of the Week" in Sunset Keglers play when she rolled a 492 series last week.

Faye White took honors in the "High Individual Game" with a 219 and the "High Individual Series" with a 555. Rutherford and Company ran away with the team tokens as they won both the "High Team Series" and the "High Team Game" with scores of 2305 and 827, respectively.

Others rolling 200-or-better games included Joan Munnerlyn, 207; Stella Varner, 214; and Faye White, 201 and 219. 500-or better series were rolled by Molly Schofield, 507; Joan Munnerlyn, 520; Stella Varner, 547; Faye White, 555; and Jean Watts, 510.

Converting splits were Helen Arntt, the 3-6-7-10; Alice Lueb, 3-10; Martha Emerson, 3-10; Evelyn Crofford, 5-10; Joan Milton, 3-10, twice; Daisy Huntsinger, 3-10; Sandra Combs, 5-7; and Margaret Byers, 5-7.

In play last week, Boyd Machine and Supply won 4 and lost 0; Hereford Welding won 0 and lost 4; Rutherford and Company won 4 and lost 0; Hays Implement won 0 and lost 4; Chester Gin won 4 and lost 0; O'Kelley's Sporting Goods won 0 and lost 4; Hereford Insurance won 3½ and lost ½; Hiway 60 Truck Stop won ½ and lost 3½; Justice Realtors won 3 and lost 1; Sunset Lanes won 1 and lost 1; Sunset Lanes won 1 and lost 3; Hereford Clinic won 3 and lost 1; and Arrowhead Drive In won 1 and lost 3.

To date, Justice Realtors is 75-37; Hereford Insurance, 75-37; Hereford Clinic, 69-43; Sunset Lanes, 65½-46½; Hereford Welding, 61-51; Chester Gin, 60-52; Rutherford and Company, 56-56; Arrowhead Drive In, 50-62; Boyd Machine and Supply, 48-64; Hays Implement, 42-70; Hiway 60 Truck Stop, 37½-74½; and O'Kelley's Sporting Goods, 33-79.

Pro-Am Is Set Here Monday

Interested golfers are reminded that a Pro-Am Tournament is scheduled for the John D. Pitman Golf Course Monday, and deadline for signing up is 1:30 p.m. that afternoon.

Cal Garrett, pro at the course, reminds amateurs that they must turn in a handicap card before the tournament begins so that they can be placed with other golfers according to their handicaps. If a person does not have a handicap card, he is urged to contact Garrett as soon as possible. The tournament will begin at 9 a.m.

Social Security Facts

Residents of the Panhandle area who are receiving monthly social security checks are reminded by Travis C. Briggs, social security manager in Amarillo, to report directly to the Amarillo or Pampa offices any change of address or other events affecting continued receipt of their checks. Reports may be made by mail, phone, or in person. Appropriate reports are available at the Amarillo or Pampa offices.

Briggs said this reporting method enables the district office to take advantage of the increased capacity of its high speed communications circuits to transmit information to record centers. Until recently, social-security beneficiaries were encouraged to notify the Social Security Administration about the occurrence of these events by mailing pre-addressed postcard forms to a record center.

Events that affect receipt of monthly social security checks, in addition to address changes, are starting or stopping work (employment), marriage or remarriage in some instances, divorce, and death.

The Amarillo office is located

Red Cross Event Winners Named

First place winners in the American Red Cross essay contest were named recently. Winner in Division III and the recipient of a $25 savings bond is Janis Tremble, daughter of Mrs. Joyce Tremble of 832 Blevins.

Miss Tremble, a junior at Hereford High School, has lived in Hereford since 1961. She entered the contest as a result of an assignment in her creative writing class at school.

The essay that won first place for Janis Tremble in Division III follows:

WHAT RED CROSS MEANS TO MY COUNTRY

The importance of the Red Cross and its activities is immense in our country. In times of disaster or the re-establishment of disabled servicemen, Red Cross has proved extremely valuable, not only by supplying shelter, food, and clothing, but also by sharing their invigorating hope. Without the Red Cross, many millions of people would be destitute today.

In disaster areas, the Red Cross appears quickly, and with the necessary supplies. As in the instance of a flood, the Red Cross provides medical attention, as well as new homes, food, and clothes for the victims. Often, the assistance of the Red Cross continues for a series of weeks, and even months after the actual incident. Their procedures include rebuilding those homes which were destroyed and repairing those still standing. They also furnish the money needed for the refurbishing of the homes.

One of the most important deeds of the Red Cross is that of helping servicemen and their families. Maintaining a communication between these soldiers and their families is most crucial for the morale of those in Vietnam. Red Cross helps to make this possible by handling the numerous telegrams and letters which these men receive. In times of emergency situations at home, the Red Cross helps to arrange the transportation for the soldier affected. It also gives counseling when an emergency erupts, as well as financial aid to the serviceman's family.

On the battle field, Red Cross is seen everywhere. They may be in the form of doctors or field directors; their guises are many. These people stay on duty day and night, always ready to aid those who are helpless to help themselves.

Raising the morale of those in battle is a difficult task, but Red Cross tackles this with ingenuity. A mobile club is often the answer. This is a club of girls from America who serve in Vietnam on 1-year tours. Not only do these courageous girls entertain their boys in battle zones, but they serve at hospitals on hospital ships, going where they are needed the most. This, in itself, is the greatest step of the Red Cross, their perseverance of going where they are needed.

An astounding fact of the Red Cross is that most of their services are done by volunteers who give their time and energy to help make hope come alive. These people give their services freely, not only in disaster situations, or in Vietnam, but most importantly, here at home.

In promoting health, the Red Cross is the best. The effects are seen in every county by the number of certificates given in first aid, water safety, and home nursing. The Red Cross realizes the importance of installing the idea of safety in young people's minds, not only for themselves, but for others. By initiating such courses for youngsters, they are making our country healthier and safer.

The Red Cross is an asset to America and is the type of organization which helps all those in need. By aiding this program, volunteers are also enlarging their knowledge and experience. The participation of so many people in our country is also an asset to our importance in other countries and should be recognized as such. Without the Red Cross, our country would be devastated, demoralized, and underprivileged. Red Cross deserves appreciation from all of our citizens.

Winner in Division II and also a recipient of a $25 savings bond is Margaret Schilling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schilling of Summerfield. Miss Schilling is a seventh grader at Saint Anthony's School.

The essay that won first place for her follows:

WHAT RED CROSS MEANS TO MY COUNTRY

What does Red Cross mean to you?

Red Cross is an organization of people, who in their hearts fill that people need love and understanding at times of disasters, and this is exactly what they do. They bring understanding of a kind, and a helping hand to all needy people.

What Red Cross has done for Deaf Smith County is tremendously heart warming. They have actually rendered their services and time to talk a person's problem over, and try to find a practical solution.

When the camp was flooded a few years ago, Red Cross was ready, and willing, to help all of the homeless people. They provided them with all of the necessities of keeping a family in good health, and gave a lot of love to top it off. Red Cross does not only help in time of disasters, but they have communications with our servicemen overseas. Red Cross can contact the serviceman in case of a death or illness in the family. Red Cross can get the information needed and can get the serviceman home easier and faster than the family can.

Red Cross, in Deaf Smith, has different divisions in which to help the people of Deaf Smith. Nursing courses and safety courses, are taught to all. These and Junior Red Cross are all joined in helping Deaf Smith County to be a better place to live.

It is a normal activity for Red Cross, Junior Red Cross, and all volunteers to send ditty bags to the servicemen overseas. Needed things are put into these bags and then are sent to the servicemen for Christmas. In this way, Red Cross brightens what might be a very dull and lonely Christmas.

Not only do they make ditty bags, but they send joke books to the Veteran Hospitals where they are needed to cheer someone.

The Red Cross and all of the volunteers should be thanked for their works, not only here, but all over the entire world.

To show our gratitude toward the Red Cross, we could contribute to all Red Cross funds, and by donating needed objects to go into the ditty bags. Also by raising money to buy food for the hungry here in Deaf Smith County, and all over the entire world.

Another way that we could show our gratitude is by standing side by side, hand in hand with each other, and to go out into the world to help people help themselves and to bring people closer together by our desire to help them.

America's Orbiting Astronomical Observatory, launched in December 1968, has received some 40,000 commands from earth and has responded with more than four million pieces of information about the stars.

Rev. Bertin Roll Father Bertin To Speak Here

Rev. Bertin Roll, O. F. M. Cap., will speak on "Ideals of Home Life With Stress On Parental Responsibilities" at St. Anthony's Auditorium, Thursday at 8 p. m.

Father Bertin studied for the priesthood at the St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, Pa., and Capuchin College, Washington, D. C., and was ordained in May of 1942 in Trinity Chapel, Washington, by the Most Reverend John M. McNamara, Auxiliary Bishop of Washington. He went to Pittsburgh in 1943 and assisted in the work of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers and the Third Order of St. Francis, serving also as retreat master at the St. Francis Retreat House.

Father Bertin has also been active in radio and television work and the National Council of Catholic Men sponsored many of the programs on which he has appeared.

Since 1944, he has been National Director of the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers.

Besides driving thousands of miles each year to visit Confraternities of Christian Mothers across the country, Father Bertin writes the leaflets for parents and teenagers that are published by the national office. More than 20 million of the leaflets have been distributed through parish groups and schools.

Harness driver Stanley Dancer won 14 stakes with 3-year-old trotting champion Nevele Pride during 1968.

At The Library

South Korea Is Book Setting

The story of a young woman who went to Korea to help young boys and girls and a novel about the largest ship in the world and the problems surrounding it are two new books at the Deaf Smith County Library.

A book we believe will be enjoyed is Susie Younger's NEVER ENDING FLOWER. In 1959, at the age of twenty-three, Susie Younger went to South Korea. She has lived there ever since and hopes to remain for the rest of her life. In Never Ending Flower she paints vivid pictures of this country and of its gay, patient, hard working and desperately poor people, whose life she shares.

Her first venture was to start a home for young bootblacks, boys exploited by their bosses who took most of their earnings from them. Some of them needed both courage and inventiveness to escape and join Susie and her friend Maria in the tiny house where they all lived, in Korean fashion, sleeping on the floor and eating a diet of rice, barley and vegetables.

At the request of the Korean government, and working for the Catholic Archdiocese of Taegu, Susie went on to set up a similar home for country girls who had come to town to look for work, many of whom owing to the scarcity of legitimate jobs, had turned to prostitution.

Their problems were more difficult than those of the shoeshine boys; it was harder for them to escape and to adjust to a very different way of life — besides which they had to learn some new trade. There have been a few failures, but most of the girls have found self-respect and happiness in the home and in a return to ordinary society; many of them have married.

Now, besides these activities, Susie Younger is engaged in an agricultural program which is giving work and extra income to very poor farmers, as well as increasing the local production of food and bring previously unused land under cultivation.

Susie Younger has identified herself in all material details with the Koreans whose life she shares, and Never Ending Flower is her story of venturesome compassion and of the unquenchable human spirit of the people with whom she has worked.

THE ANGRY OCEAN, by Ronald Johnston, is the Pacific, and across it on her maiden voyage sails the Inoco Emperor, the world's biggest ship. Revolutionary in design, equipment, and manning, the Emperor is the first stage of a whole new concept of oil transportation, brain child of James Bruce, ambitious sailor-turned-businessman.

This is the story of the men involved with the Inoco Emperor: Bruce and the American millionaire Eugene North, who heads the Inoco firm; Commodore Lang, the man Bruce is trying to squeeze out of the fleet; Captain Stock, the young man Bruce wanted to have in charge. It is the story of a voyage that becomes a nightmare when a volcanic island explodes in the ocean, creating a wave over three hundred feet tall that is heading straight for the giant ship. As the ship attempts to outrace the wave, Stock and Lang battle for command, and the lives of both the sportanker and her crew lie at the mercy of one malfunctioning midship joint.

Penetrating characterization and the breath-taking struggle of man against nature distinguish this novel of adventure, and suspense.

Hereford NGPL Workers Sited

The Goodland and Hereford pipeline departments of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America were honored for safety records at a dinner April 2 at the Corral Restaurant, Muleshoe.

Group awards to the two departments were for having no lost-time accidents in 1968.

In addition a 10-year individual award was given to J. G. Hughes of the Hereford pipeline department; and Hereford pipeline foreman, P. R. Clough, earned a 5-year award; and O. C. Whaley, Hereford pipeline department, a one-year award.

Speakers included R. L. Pivonka, assistant general superintendent, transmission, who talked on general safety practices; C. H. Duncan, general superintendent, special engineering services division, who spoke on the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act; and J. A. Evans, supervisor of safety, who discussed safety belts in vehicles. All are from the Company's Chicago office headquarters.

Master of ceremonies for the evening was W. H. Burford, district pipeline superintendent, Lovington, N. M.

Sen. Tower Tells Of Two New Bills; Vietnam Trip

As you know I am currently visiting our military forces in South Vietnam in order to re-evaluate our operations there for the Senate Armed Services Committee. Upon my return I will make a personal report to you on my findings. I have taped this report for use at this time in order to share with you some of the more important pieces of legislation I have introduced, or am co-sponsoring with other senators, during those first few months of this Congressional session. Possibly the most important of these is my bill to revise the draft so that young men 19 years of age will be most susceptible to induction instead of men 26 years of age as is now the case. Perhaps the most distressing trouble with the draft is the years of uncertainty it imposes on our young men who cannot make plans until after age 26 without the shadow of military induction hanging over them. My measure would reverse the existing order of draft call so that induction would be made primarily of 19-year-olds. After military service, a young man would then be free to pursue an advanced education or begin his employment career free of uncertainty regarding the draft. College students who obtain draft deferment would, under my bill, be placed in the most susceptible draft category upon graduation. They would thus not avoid the draft, but would be assured of prime vulnerability after four years of college. Each young man, whether he attended college or not, would experience only one year of prime draft vulnerability. If he were not inducted during that year, he would be free to plan his future with virtual certainty that, short of all-out war, he would not be needed by our armed services.

Many errors are made in completing federal income tax forms simply because the form itself has grown so complex. Of particular importance to Texans is my bill to legally fix the Texas coastline at its location of 1846 when Texas entered the Union. My colleague, Rep. George Bush of Houston, has introduced an identical bill in the House. The purpose of this legislation is to fix the coastline in accordance with an earlier Supreme Court determination in the famous Tidelands case. The coastline is used as a base in fixing the federal-state demarcation line for the collection of oil royalties on offshore drilling. Royalties in state tidelands go to the State of Texas and those from wells beyond the demarcation line go to the federal government. The Supreme Court, in an earlier decision, ruled the line be drawn 3 leagues from the coastline as it existed in 1846. Three leagues is equivalent to about ten miles. A recent high court ruling, however, held that the demarcation line should be moved landward where the coast has eroded, but not be moved seaward where coastal accretion has taken place. Thus, my bill would preserve the court's earlier ruling. I am also co-sponsoring with other senators, several important legislative proposals. Among these is a constitutional amendment to allow prayer in our public schools; and another one to determine electoral votes in our presidential elections on the basis of one vote for each congressional district plus two votes for each state. I am also co-sponsoring a bill to specifically outlaw secondary boycotts, and another to exempt certain sport-

Concerning Veterans

A veteran's widow entitled to GI home loan benefits is automatically eligible for the newly created widow's educational assistance from the Veterans Administration. But the reverse is not necessarily true, the VA reminded today. Only unremarried widows of World War II, Korean Conflict and Post-Korean veterans who died as the result of military service are entitled to VA home loan guarantees. However, unremarried widows of veterans who served at any time since the Spanish-American War and who died as the result of military service are eligible for VA educational assistance up to a maximum of 36 months. In addition, the wives of veterans who are permanently and totally disabled because of service are also eligible for the educational benefits, which amount to as much as $130 a month for full-time training. Eligible widows of World War II veterans have only until July 25, 1970, to use their GI home loan entitlement. The entitlement of eligible Korean Conflict widows expires January 31, 1975, with eligible Post-Korean widows having 20 years from their husband's death in service, 20 years from the veteran's discharge, or March 3, 1976, whichever is later, to use their entitlement. Widows and wives, eligible for educational assistance, have until November 30, 1976, or eight years after their husbands' deaths or VA finding of permanent and total disability, whichever is later, to complete their education or training.

Herefords Of Hereford Meet

The Herefords of Hereford Association held their annual meeting and dinner at the Cajon House in Hereford Tuesday. The meeting was attended by Hereford breeders of the Hereford area and several interested visitors. The officers of the association elected for the coming year were Olen Caviness, Hereford, President; Nolen Henson, Happy Hereford Ranch, Happy, Vice President; Don Allred, Wildorado, Secretary-Treasurer; and two new directors, G.C. Merritt, Jr., Hereford, and Tommy Sparkman, Hereford. The two hold-over directors are R. A. Daniels and Colby Conkright, both of Hereford. Awards were presented to Bill Cole of Hereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole, for having shown his Hereford steer as Grand Champion of the recent Hereford Junior Livestock Show, and to Kaye Clearman of Hereford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clearman, for her Reserve Champion Hereford Steer at the same show. The speaker for the evening was Dale Furr, superintendent of the Texas Tech Pantex Research Farm at Amarillo. An announcement was made by Jim Conkright that the Texas Junior Hereford Association would hold a Field Day at the Conkright & Son Ranch, Hereford, on July 25. The New York Mets will play their Oldtimers Game at New York's Shea Stadium on Saturday night, June 28.

Teacher Pay Is Discussed

AUSTIN — Texas is losing nearly 10,000 teachers a year — 15 percent of those leaving the teaching profession in Texas are going to other states where the pay is better, Kathryn Townsend, President of the 46,000-member Texas Classroom Teachers Association, said in a prepared statement to the Senate and House Education Committees. Texas must raise its teachers' salaries to prevent this drain of qualified personnel, Mrs. Townsend said. "Salaries must be raised to a level which will attract and retain top young people in the teaching profession." Speaking before the House Public Education and Senate Education Committees, in favor of S. B. 100 and H. B. 240, Mrs. Townsend said that quality instruction for the three million school children in Texas cannot be maintained as long as the teaching profession continues to lose its members to business and industry. Mrs. Townsend said that this loss stems from one basic fact — "they can make substantially larger salaries in other fields."

In the area of governmental reform, I have introduced two bills which I believe to be critically important. One of these would limit the questions asked in the decennial census to areas necessary for accomplishment of the purpose of the census. My bill would require that the Secretary of Commerce review all questions to be asked in the census and that he allow only those questions which he deems essential. It would require that any non-essential question be deleted or made optional. I have sponsored this legislation because it is my opinion that certain questions proposed for the 1970 census constitute a serious violation of privacy. The other important bill in the area of governmental reform is one to simplify the federal income tax forms. It would authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to set up an advisory committee composed of knowledgeable people in the field to recommend ways to simplify tax forms.

According to Kathryn Townsend, "We need to attract more young men into the field of education. At the present time, slightly over 28 percent of Texas teachers are men. Thirty-four other states have a higher percentage of men in the classroom." Senate Bill 100 was authored by Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., Paris, Representative George Hinson, Mineola, sponsored House Bill 240.

NEW YORK — If you've ever wondered why you see a limited number of wallets made of elephant hide when shopping, the reason is that elephants are never killed to obtain leather. According to elephant-wallet specialist Enger Kress, availability is determined by the death rate of elephants from natural causes or conservation-controlled harvests. The current supply is approximately 1,000 square feet per month.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — My refund came and it was lower than I expected. How can I find out why it was reduced?

A — In cases such as these, mistakes in arithmetic account for most of the adjustments. You should receive an explanation from us shortly after your refund check arrives explaining the adjustment.

Q — Can I add the medical insurance premiums I pay for my dependent mother to my own for the purpose of tax deductions?

A — Premiums paid for medical care insurance for yourself, your spouse and your dependents are deductible. Total all of these premiums you paid last year and deduct one-half of them up to $150 without regard to the three percent rule. The balance of the premiums should be included with your other medical expenses which are subject to the three percent limitation.

Q — When do I have to file my estimated tax declaration?

A — Estimated declarations and first quarter payments are due April 15. Use the pre-addressed 1040-ES voucher form you received in the mail when you file. It will assure proper crediting of payments to your account.

Q — How does the $100 limitation apply to casualty losses? We suffered damage from two different storms last year.

A — The $100 limitation applies to each separate non-business casualty. Deduct the excess over $100 not reimbursed by insurance for each separate loss. See page 9 of the Form 1040 instructions for details.

Q — Is a company pension taxable?

A — Your tax liability depends on how much you contributed to the pension fund. This is explained in the instructions for Schedule B of Form 1040. Copies of this schedule and the instructions are available at many banks and post offices as well as local offices of the IRS.

Q — Can I add the medical insurance premiums I pay for my dependent mother to my own for the purpose of tax deductions?

A — Premiums paid for medical care insurance for yourself, your spouse and your dependents are deductible. Total all of these premiums you paid last year and deduct one-half of them up to $150 without regard to the three percent rule. The balance of the premiums should be included with your other medical expenses which are subject to the three percent limitation.

Q — I'm due a refund. Where should I send my return?

A — Send your return to the IRS Service Center. An envelope was enclosed with Form 1040 tax packages. If you don't have one, look on page 9 on the instructions for the address of your Service Center.

Q — When does a person have to pay self-employment tax?

A — To be liable for self-employment tax, a person must have income from a business or a trade or profession which he conducts as an independent contractor or as a member of a partnership. To be subject to the tax net earnings from self-employment must be at least $400. For additional information see Schedule C-3.

Q — My wife died last year. I have not remarried. Can I still file a joint return?

A — You can file a joint return for the year of death. You may also file as a "surviving spouse" using joint return rates for the two years succeeding the year of your wife's death if you meet requirements. Check page 3 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q — Do you need to keep tax records after your refund comes?

A — Yes. Records should be kept as long as they are needed to substantiate information shown on Federal tax returns. Generally, this is a minimum of three years from the date the return was due to be filed.

Some records, like those on the purchase of a home or stock, may have to be kept indefinitely.

Arden Jensen, sophomore field goal kicker, set an Army season mark with 11 in 1968. Two of them were 46-yarders.

COULDN'T HAVE BEEN WORTH IT

HONOLULU — Franklin D. Melandre, 29, stole a half-minute of freedom last May.

Now he must pay the penalty — five more years in prison.

Melandre broke away from a prison guard at the Honolulu Court House after he was arraigned for an earlier escape from the Hawaii State Prison.

He got five years for the first escape. But he hid out as a hermit in the mountains for 4 1/2 months before he was caught.

For the second, 30-second escape, his sentence was the same.

SAY, THAT'S INTERESTING, STANLEY. IMAGINE... A REAL LIVE COLONY OF ANTS UNDER GLASS!

THEY'RE FUN TO WATCH. YOU'D BE AMAZED AT THE THINGS THEY DO.

OH, I KNOW ALL ABOUT ANTS, STANLEY. MATTER OF FACT, I ONCE ACTUALLY LIVED IN AN ANT COLONY.

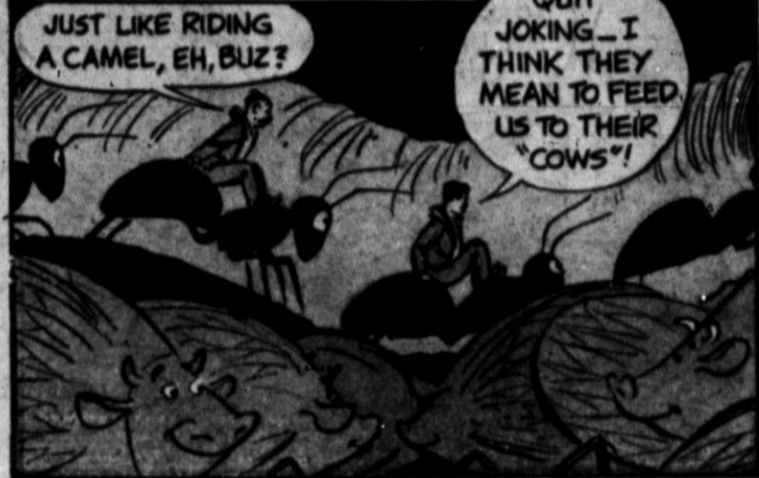

G'WAN.

WE'RE SURROUNDED, BUZ!

THEY SEEM TO WANT US TO CLIMB ON THEIR BACKS!

THEY TOOK US ON A TOUR OF THEIR COLONY DEEP UNDERGROUND. WE SAW A HERD OF HUGE APHIDS WHICH THEY KEPT LIKE COWS.

JUST LIKE RIDING A CAMEL, EH, BUZ?

QUIT JOKING... I THINK THEY MEAN TO FEED US TO THEIR "COWS"!

BEING AN OLD HAND WITH COWS, I MADE FRIENDS WITH THEM EASILY. THE ANTS WERE AMAZED AT THE WAY THEY RESPONDED TO MY HANDLING.

SING WHILE YOU MILK THEM. KEEP THEM CONTENTED.

HE SHOWED THE ANTS MANY WAYS TO IMPROVE THEIR MILK PRODUCTION. IN RETURN, THEY BUILT US A BEAUTIFUL FOUR-ROOM BUNGALOW FACING THE SEA.

THIS IS THE LIFE, EH, BUZ?

I ALMOST HATE THE THOUGHT OF BEING RESCUED!

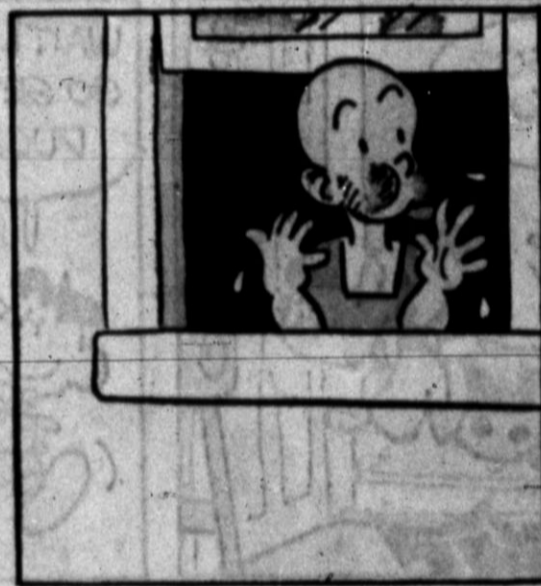

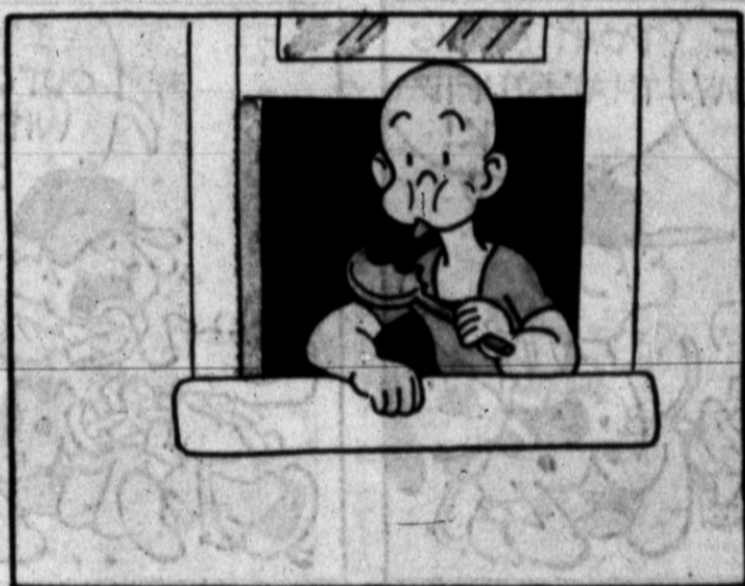

G'WAN, HOW COULD ANTS BUILD A HOUSE?

WHY, STANLEY... SURELY YOU'VE HEARD OF CARPENTER ANTS!
