Back To School Early This Year

Hereford public schools will be off to an early start this year with Wednesday, August 27, marking the opening date for the local students to return to their classes.

However, students who are scheduled to enter these classes are set to begin their registration on Monday, Aug. 25.

Junior high and high school students will begin enrollment from 1 to 3:30 p.m. on this date and they are to continue registering through Tuesday.

Tuesday is the day set for elementary pupils to sign up at their respective schools.

But teachers here must answer the bell at the various schools where they have been assigned one week prior to the start of classes, according to school administrators. They have a Wednesday, Aug. 20, starting date.

Workshops are also on their docket for the two coming days. The various teacher workshops are still in the process of being arranged, assistant superintendent Robert Holman reported, and its schedule will be released Tuesday.

There is to be a general faculty meeting on the morning of the date which has been set for the beginning of student registration.

HOLIDAYS REPORTED

Beginning Aug. 27, students and teachers will have 179 days ahead of them before summer vacation following the 1969-70 semester. Barring prolonged inclement weather which would bar classes for a period of several days, end of school will arrive Friday, May 29.

There are several holidays penciled in between Aug. 27 and May 29 — with the first one coming less than a week after the beginning of classes. Labor Day (Sept. 1) will be the first reprieve.

Hereford Two-Day Tour Set

A two-day tour of area ranches, jointly sponsored by the Panhandle Hereford Breeders Association, Herefords of Hereford, and the XIT Hereford Breeders of Dalhart, will spend its first day in the Deaf Smith County area complete with a barbecue luncheon at the Bull Barn and a program on the breed.

The tour is scheduled to begin Monday.

Beginning at 8 a.m. at the West Texas State University farm on US 87 near Canyon, coffee and doughnuts are to be served to the touring delegation. Afterward, they will continue to the Walter Graham Happy Hereford Ranch.

McFarland Has Resigned As Water Manager

Russell Bean, president of the board of directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, Lubbock, announced that Tom McFarland has submitted his resignation as general manager of the district.

McFarland did not announce his future plans. He is a former president of the old Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

District directors noted the many accomplishments of the district during the 18 years McFarland served as its manager. McFarland was also praised for his services to the people in this area, and throughout Texas, for his work on numerous water projects in the public interest.

Other members of the board are Chester Mitchell, Lockney; Weldon Newsom, Morton; Ross Goodwin, Muleshoe; and John Pitman, Hereford.

The board appointed Frank Rayner acting general manager of the district. Rayner was formerly the district's chief engineer.

School Board Meets Tuesday

Regular meeting of the Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees is scheduled to begin at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday in the School Administration Building.

Last week's meeting was essentially for the approval of the 1969-70 school budget and was regarded as a special session.

Johnny Clark Jr., who will officially carry the title of superintendent until Aug. 15, is not expected to be present Tuesday in view of his current move to Baytown for his assignment there.

Roy Hartman, who is to become superintendent here on Friday, is slated to represent school administration in Clark's place. Raymond White is trustee president.

Ticket Sales Begin Monday

Persons who have held reserve seat football tickets in past years are reminded that they will be given first chance at "choice" seats in the new football stadium this week.

Those who have held these tickets will be given a chance, on a first-come-first-serve basis, school officials reported. The seats, situated in Section B, rows 18 through 30, can be obtained any day this week at the school administration office, 700 Union.

Officials also pointed out that tickets not picked up by past holders will go on sale to the general public during the week of Aug. 18-22.

Thai Youth Settling Down To Hereford Life

By JANIE REINART
Staff Writer

Chokedee "Dean" Navigamool, the male foreign exchange student to attend Hereford High this school term, is making his American home at the Jack Nunley residence at 602 E. 4th St. He comes from Thailand.

Dean is the first American Field Service student to arrive in this area this year and as he arrived in Hereford Saturday the Nunleys were able to take him to the Lions Club Carnival which he thoroughly enjoyed.

When asked about American food Navigamool said, "Food here is not the same but I like everything. Hotdogs, bacon, ground beef, hamburgers."

Mrs. Nunley happily reported that he eats everything she fixes for meals. "Either he likes it or is just being polite." She has let her new son in her kitchen once so far. "He cooked some rice the way he likes it best."

"Rice is the main food in Thailand," according to Dean. "We do not eat very much meat, but a lot of fruit, and not much bread."

"The life in my country is not much different than here but they use more machines here. We don't have many cars, they mostly come from Japan. Most of our transportation is by motorcycles and bicycles."

In Thailand there are no telephones. There are television and theatres for entertainment along with sports, clubs, and hobbies.

Temperature-wise, Thailand is warm throughout the year; about 30 C. Upon Dean's trip to the mountains he will see snow for the first time in his life.

Dean's home town, Ranode in the province of Songkhla, consists of approximately 10,000 people although Hereford seems much larger because in Thailand the people live closer together. There are 71 provinces in Thailand. "A province is like a state over here only smaller."

Navigamool studied English for eight years prior to his trip to America and is having only a little difficulty understanding it the "improper way we use it."

The Nunleys have explained to him that very few of us speak perfect English; we have added to it and taken from it to fighting is only done in sport." Being a Boy Scout, Dean is looking forward to a trip to the mountains with the Nunleys, sometime before school starts. They plan to do a lot of camping out.

Dancing is something Dean likes to watch but not participate in. The music in the United States is similar to that of Thailand in some respects. Gerald Nunley, American brother to Dean, vouched for him in saying "some of our pop music he likes but some he doesn't."

Cattle Town Sets Opening

Cattle Town is located nine miles west of Hereford between the Black and Summerfield communities.

United Fund Ups Kickoff

United Fund is set to kick-off its 1969 campaign in mid-September instead of the usual October 1 starting date, according to drive chairman Clete Corlis, who also announced following a meeting of the United Fund officers Thursday morning that Ray Moore has been appointed his co-drive chairman.

The kickoff date could possibly be set as Sept. 17, depending upon the availability of Texas Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes as the local United Fund speaker on that date.

Barnes is tentatively scheduled to appear in Amarillo during the morning hours of Sept. 17. Clint Formby, a United Fund director, has been delegated by Corlis and president Calvin Goodin to approach the lieutenant governor on the matter.

In any event, the United Fund drive will definitely begin in mid-September this year. Local officers agreed that they would have more opportunity to conduct a successful campaign at this time (after school has begun and prior to business tax operations) than through delay of two weeks.

The Thursday meeting, conducted in the board room of the Hereford State Bank, included comments on the date change and other modes of operation by former drive chairman Nell Cooper, Debbs Knox, Johnny Clark Jr. and Formby.

The former drive chairman also agreed on the point that the United Fund should be sold "as a community thing and not necessarily to the merchant alone." Pointed out was the fact that not one of those in attendance at the meeting had personally used any of the agencies supported by the United Fund for their own benefit, but they had offered their full support nonetheless because they believed the agencies involved "are an aid to the community at large."

Corlis reported that he intends to conduct his campaign through a strong community involvement basis.

Agencies supported through the United Fund here are the Salvation Army, USO, Texas United Fund, Pony League, Little League, Boy Scouts, Coit

Housing Group Reports

Reports on various housing projects throughout the area were made by members of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Housing Committee at a meeting Wednesday where "generally, the reports were favorable," according to chamber manager Bill Thompson.

The survey is being conducted by the housing committee for possibilities of a housing project to be constructed in Hereford in the future on a low-cost rental basis.

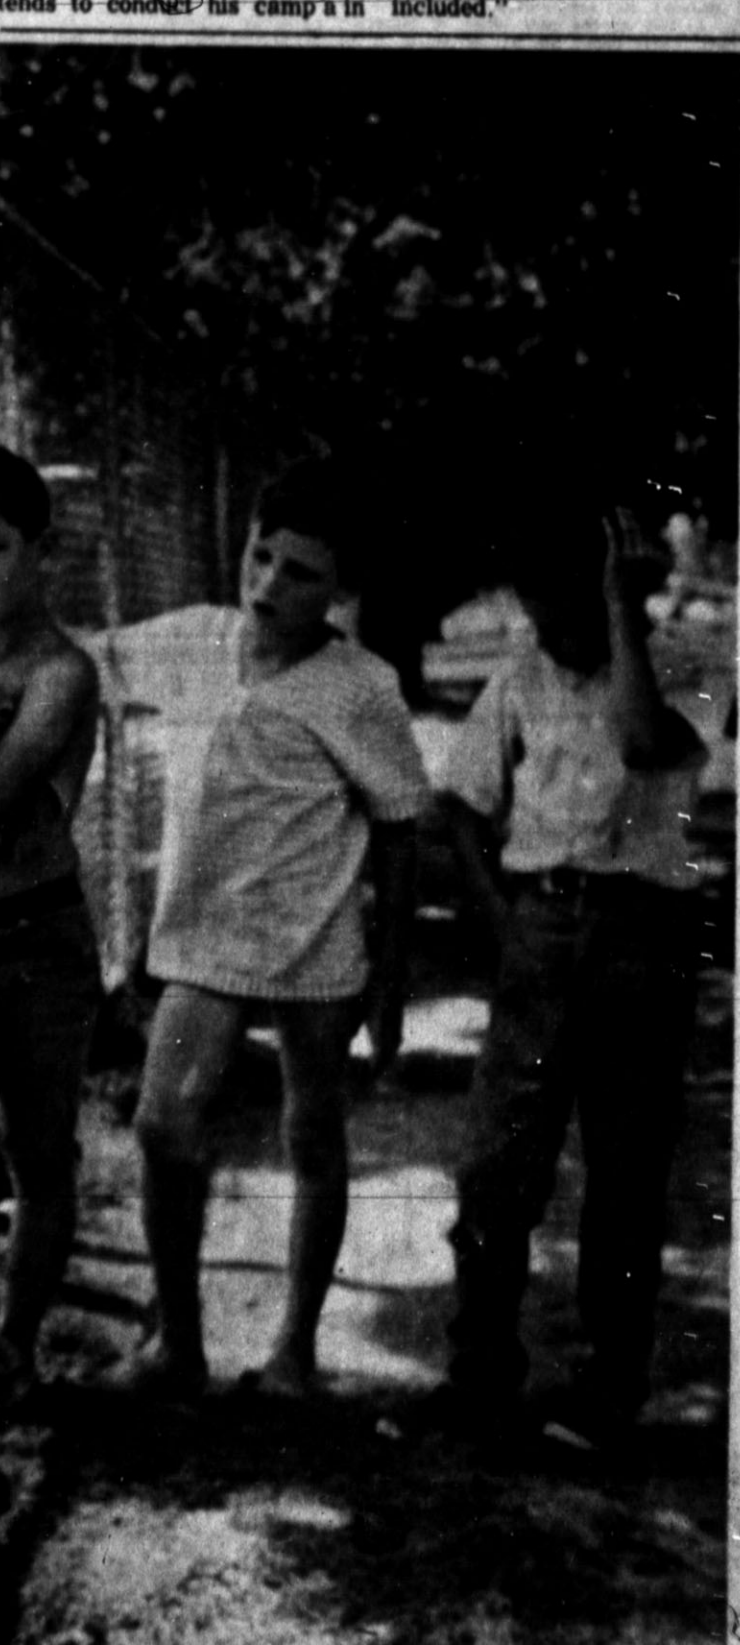

Report on the Dimmitt housing project was made by Jay Boston, the Plainview project by Raymond White, Hobbs project by Eddie Reinauer, and Albuquerque by Harlan Vandervee.

Their reports concerned the plots and designs with a general attitude toward their individual successes or failures.

"Overall, they felt that the housing projects were a success," Thompson said. "But they reported that the key to this success is a hard-nosed manager who insists that the people in the apartments take care of them."

Also stressed is a need for a playground area to be included with the project, Thompson said.

"None of the units reported upon had bachelor apartments," he continued, "and it was recommended here that they not be included."

make it 'slang.'

Dean's parents do not speak any English but his five sisters and one brother can speak some. Dean is an uncle to two nieces and two nephews.

His parents own a general store in Ranode and they make their home in the same building. "It is that way throughout the whole town with businesses."

Dean recognized his American family when leaving the bus, from pictures they sent him earlier. He greeted them in Thailand fashion by folding his hands, bowing his head, and saying "swaddi" which means hello. The custom is called "what" which means respect.

When asked what his first impressions of Texas were, Navigamool had this to say, "I expected many cowboys here. Back home they talk of Texas as the 'cowboy state.' Dean has found Texas to be 'full of friendly people', which has a lot to do with the 'wonderful American family' he is staying with.

The Nunleys are having a ball getting to know him and all about Thailand and vice versa. The 18-year-old Thai is rather quiet but likes to be asked questions about him; his home.

Navigamool's American family consists of two brothers and two sisters — Gerald 18, Dennis 12, Annie 18, and Leta 12, and his American parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nunley.

EASY WAY FOR BAIT

Plant a tree if you're looking for a good supply of fishing bait. Or you might consider going hunting with a tin can and flashlight the next time a thunderstorm comes along.

Although these may not sound like ways to get bait, they are helpful in assuring a supply of worms for summer angling.

Fishermen who plant trees will make sure they have at least one catalpa tree in the yard, say the fishing authorities at Mercury Outboards. For this is the source of the long, green catalpa worms considered a delectable dish by many species of fresh water fish.

Catalpa worms are the larval stage of sphinx moths. They often grow to three inches long and are found only on catalpa trees, their sole source of food. They are harvested by shaking the tree and picking up worms that fall to the ground.

Keeping them is easy. A box with catalpa leaves in the bottom works fine. To save them for later use, put them in a can with some cornmeal and keep the can refrigerated. They can be strung on the hook like an ordinary fishing worm.

A second easy way to get bait is to go worm hunting during spring and early summer storms.

At night, during a heavy rain storm, earth worms will come out of the ground and lay on top of the grass or just underneath. Many of them will travel, moving out onto concrete, driveways and street curbs. All you need do is don a raincoat, grab a can and flashlight and pick up a good start on your summer's bait supply. During prolonged storms, you can repeatedly return to the same driveway, finding a fresh supply of worms each time.

SAFETY MEASURE

DENVER — Gerald Carlson, physical education instructor at the University of Colorado's Denver Center, has devised a 'heel lock' wrap designed to reduce ankle and knee injuries in football. He conceived of the method while a trainer at Northland College in Wisconsin.

KEEP WARM TO LIVE

LONDON — Up to 90,000 people a year die in Britain for lack of proper heating, according to medical expert Dr. Geoffrey Taylor.

Taylor's statistics show that in the six cold months of the years 1961-67 there was an average of 60,000 more deaths than in the six warm months.

Taylor suggested that people who live in warm houses live up to five years longer than those in cold, draughty houses.

When pursued by dogs, coons employ many ruses, such as tapping a tree with forepaws to leave a scent or swimming a creek to break a trail. Recalls a veteran hound-dog man: "I have stood near an old coon while he looked down from his tree on a pack of dogs that couldn't harm him, and I swear he grinned and grinned and grinned."

Letter To The Editor

AN OPEN LETTER TO PARENTS

After watching the various proceedings at the County Court House over the past few months, I should like to communicate some of my own observations and reflections (for whatever they are worth) to the parents of this community. Though this letter is written with parents primarily in mind, other citizens might also find it of some interest.

The intent of this letter IS NOT to point out nor condemn anyone; but rather to remind any and all of some basic principles of our society: principles which are essential to orderly process; principles which now appear to have been forgotten or laid aside; principles which, when forgotten, lead to chaos for many and manipulation by a few.

One of the 'corner stones' laid by our founding fathers in the Constitution was with regard to due process of law. This came from the experiences and traditions known by our founders who had left various European systems in which the processes of law were inequitable and unjust.

The American Constitutional principle was (and still is) based upon the premise that all men are equal under the law — that is, that the law should apply to all men equally no matter what station in life he happened to occupy — rich or poor, male or female, young or old, black or white, believer or non-believer, etc.

However, it seems that we have a tendency to let our religious, emotional, and moral opinions guide our legal actions. This means that when a group of citizens of similar or like religious, emotional, and moral opinions become a majority, they take legal action against those of different opinions more drastically and with more vehemence than they do against those of like minds. Thus the law becomes inequitable by process, and one's station in life does become a determining factor on how he will be treated by law.

Another founding principle for 'due process of law' concerns our form of government. Prior to the American Constitution, governments had been based upon an idea that only one or a few were capable of governing the ignorant masses. This was sometimes determined by "Divine Right" (the concept that God chose certain rulers), and it was sometimes determined by whoever had enough power to take over the government.

Our Constitution introduced the concept that the people (i.e. those governed) have both the capability and right to govern themselves. Thus we elect our own representatives to legislate, administer, and enforce the law.

If our representatives do not perform as we (the governed) wish, then we have opportunity for an orderly 'revolution' by voting. Consequently, we are the Law. By electing representatives, we authorize individuals to act in our stead for the due process of law; but in essence and in principle, we are the law.

However, another tendency of ours is to say, "Let the law handle it," whenever someone is charged with breaking the law. Thus whenever an infraction of the law occurs and someone is suspected of being guilty of the infraction, most of us sit back without fulfilling our responsibility to see if our representatives are applying the equitably and with due process. It is indeed odd that our society watches its legislators so closely and seldom even looks at its administrators and enforcers.

A third principle of 'due process' is that a person is to be considered innocent of any crime until proven guilty. This means that a prosecuting attorney is responsible for proving a suspect guilty.

The suspect (the person charged with breaking the law — the 'defendant') must only maintain his innocence and disprove evidence brought against him. As most prosecuting attorneys are well trained in law, and as most average citizens are not trained in law, this adversary system is unbalanced unless a citizen has good legal counsel. Thus defense lawyers are retained by defendants (or appointed by courts) so that those being prosecuted may be treated equitably by the law.

The judge is the unbiased official whose responsibility it is to rule on the rights of both the prosecutor and the defendant as prescribed by the law. It should be emphasized that the court of law in criminal proceedings is the place where the prosecutor's task is to prove beyond a doubt that the charged person is indeed guilty of a crime — and not innocent.

Our tendency on this principle, however, has been to assume that a person charged with a crime is GUILTY; and that court proceedings are held in order for him to prove (if he can) his innocence.

For this principle (that a man is innocent until proven guilty) to be forgotten or laid aside is as dangerous to the due process of law as is any attack on our Constitutional system of law and order. Yet most of us assume that when someone is picked up and charged, he must be guilty or else he would not have been picked up.

Either we as citizens should insist that "innocent until proven guilty" be practiced, or we should change our system and our principles of law and order. Otherwise, we make a mockery of ourselves who govern, and of our democratic process.

With these principles in mind, and with my observations of tendencies as I have seen them, my reflections are as follows:

1. If a charge of breaking the law were made against my child, my wife, or myself, I would seek competent legal advice and counsel immediately. The task of legal counsel for a charged person is, as I understand it, to advise and work toward the goal of due process of law.

In other words, the defense lawyer is not responsible for trying to make guilty people appear innocent in court; but rather his task is to protect a person charged from inequitable treatment by courts and/or prosecutors. If a person is proven to be guilty of law infraction, he should receive only what he deserves under the law.

And I stated that I would seek 'competent' legal advice because my observations in many communities has been that some lawyers are competent while some are not. I understand 'competent' to mean primarily two things — capability and willingness. Most accredited lawyers are capable of good legal advice, but not all are willing.

There are many reasons for this. Some lawyers specialize in other areas of law and are not aware of the latest criminal laws. As the general public usually does not understand nor appreciate lawyers who defend criminal cases, many lawyers do not want to get into criminal law.

Sometimes the ethics of the legal profession will prevent a man from taking a case. Sometimes, because of friendships or other ties, a lawyer is not able to fight for his client. All this to say that in seeking legal counsel, I would try to determine if the lawyer would be capable and willing to really protect my legal rights.

At any rate, I would seek competent legal counsel. If I knew that my child, my wife, or I were guilty, I would not ask any lawyer to pull 'tricks' or cleverness to get me acquitted. I would only ask that he advise me and represent me in terms of what my legal rights were.

Because our system of law and order is an adversary system (i.e., someone opposed to someone), most competent counsellors (including competent prosecutors) will go as far as they can in presenting their cases.

If someone on the other side does not know how far the law allows one to go in presenting a case, then that side is placed in a precarious position. There are many court cases on record to show that offenders without competent legal advice receive more severe sentences for the same crimes than other offenders receive when they have competent counsel.

So I would seek competent legal counsel so that my child, my wife or I might get whatever is coming to us under the due process of law — nothing more, nothing less.

2. If ordered to appear before a Court of Inquiry or a Grand Jury as a witness, I would (for myself or in my child's stead) insist on receiving a written subpoena stating: when and where I was to appear; what charges I was expected to testify to; and who was charged. Our laws require this.

When I appeared to testify before the Court of Inquiry or Grand Jury, I would tell everything I KNOW (not assume or had heard) about the charges under investigation. I would not give any information that might incriminate me, nor would I give information about any other charges that were not stated in the subpoena WITHOUT FURTHER LEGAL ADVICE. Many innocent people have been convicted of crimes because witnesses testified about things they had heard (but did not know), and I do not wish to be a part of that undue process of law.

3. As a father and as a citizen who is proud of living where our freedoms and responsibilities are guarded by the Constitution, I intend to continue to observe and reflect upon the administration and enforcement of the law in our community. I would hope that most citizens would be concerned as much about justice as law and order.

We should attend court cases just to observe the due process. If we are a government of the people, for the people, and by the people (as I assume we are) then we as citizens are responsible for seeing that our laws are applied equitably to all — whether we personally like or dislike the people involved.

4. As a concerned citizen, I intend to attempt to communicate with, and support where possible, our law enforcement officers; our city, county, district, state, and federal officials; and our legal counsellors.

We must support our law enforcement officers. They are hard working, overloaded, underpaid professionals. But their task is to enforce the law, not to pro-

Fertilizer Is Key In Wheat Crops

"Fertilizer is perhaps the biggest bargain available to wheat producers on the High Plains," says Jim Valentine, Extension soil chemist at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. "And the profit to be expected from its use will depend on what your soil actually needs."

"A soil test can tell you what and how much fertilizer is needed," points out the soil chemist. "Nitrogen and phosphorus are the two elements of primary concern, nitrogen being a key nutrient in the production of high quality forage and grain."

At a very low soil test level, 120 pounds of actual nitrogen is often required for 60 bushels of grain after moderate grazing. Heavy soils such as Pullman can accumulate nitrogen where previous rates have exceeded crop removal. A soil test for nitrate nitrogen gives a quick inventory of this carryover. If nitrate levels are in the medium or high range, nitrogen application can be cut down without lowering production.

On heavy soils all the nitrogen can be applied preplant with no hazard of loss through leaching, judge, and sentence. Sometimes a friendly reminder is helpful.

We must stand behind our courts of law. For it is in the courts that due process of law will be carried out. But the court is the arena where someone assumed innocent is taken so that he may or may not be proven guilty of breaking the law. If the courts become anything else, our society will be in trouble.

Above all else, we must insist on the due process of law for all. If equitable application of the law is lost, then the door will be open so that none of us (nor our children) may have the freedoms and responsibilities that our founding fathers attempted to establish in the Constitution.

FOILED BY FALL. VIENNA — Police who at first believed that a 56-year-old woman secretary who in the middle of night fell to her death from the second story window of a lawyers' office was a burglar, said later it was more likely the woman wanted to get a look at her husband's divorce papers which were filed with the law firm.

The woman was dressed in blue overalls, and had burglar tools and a flashlight when she apparently lost her footing on a rope ladder and fell through a glass roof into a restaurant kitchen.

Washington Report

From Congressman
BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

1223 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 223-3708

Here are the comments of Con. Bob Price on the questionnaire which he sent to all residents of the 18th Congressional District several weeks ago. The questionnaire sought, through a series of multiple choice questions, to obtain an indication of the sentiment of Panhandle residents on a variety of domestic and international issues.

"The response we have had to the questionnaire my office sent out last month has been gratifying. I have received a great many replies from interested constituents and we will shortly begin tabulating the results.

"That is why it is extremely important that those who have not returned their completed questionnaires and who wish to be included in this informal poll, complete the forms and return them within the next two weeks.

"We expect to begin tabulating the returns shortly after Congress recesses about the middle of this month.

"The results will be announced as soon as tabulations are completed."

"Those who did not receive forms may contact my Washington Office, 507 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20515, and a form will be sent."

The House Public Works Subcommittee on Watershed Development approved the Lakeview Watershed Project today, shortly after hearing testimony on the need for the project from Panhandle Con. Bob Price.

The project, which is primarily aimed at soil and water conservation flood control, will benefit over 200,000 acres of intensively cultivated farm land and will serve the communities of Lakeview, Plaska, and Brice.

Although the project must now be approved by the full Public Works Committee, Congressman Price predicted it would be approved without difficulty.

The watershed area covers approximately 237 square miles.

"Of all the problems facing the residents of the watershed area, none is more crucial than that of flooding," Price said in his statement to the subcommittee today.

"Floodwater, sediment, and erosion cause frequent damage to over twenty thousand acres of intensively cultivated agricultural lands. The town of Lakeview suffers frequent damage to streets, low-water crossings, residences, and commercial buildings and the communities of Plaska and Brice experience nuisance flooding periodically," Congressman Price told the subcommittee.

Local sponsors of the project are the Hall County and Donley County Soil and Water Improvement District No. 1, the Commissioners Courts of Hall and Donley County and the City of Lakeview.

Total cost of the project would be $3,881,000 of which the Department of Agriculture would provide $2,947,000 or 76 percent of the costs.

Twenty-five floodwater retarding structures would be constructed, along with five grade stabilization structures, 92,015 feet of channel improvement, 31,328 feet of floodwater diversion, 3,850 feet of streambank protection and 3,000 feet of dike.

Local sponsors of the project are the Hall County and Donley County Soil and Water Improvement District No. 1, the Commissioners Courts of Hall and Donley County and the City of Lakeview.

WORCESTER TOP AMATEUR GROUP
WORCESTER, Mass. — The Worcester actors' Guild, an amateur theater company in Worcester, will represent the United States at the fourth quadrennial World Amateur Theatre Festival at Monaco, Aug. 27 to Sept. 7. The New England troupe won a 39-company competition with its performance of Arthur Kopit's "Chamber Music."

First alternate in the festival, Donley County and the City of Lakeview.

in case the Worcester group should not go, was won by the Alameda, Calif., Little Theatre, with its production, Giant Carlo Menotti's one-act opera, "The Medium." Second alternate is the Baton Rouge, La., Theatre, which staged Murray Schisgal's "The Typist."

TEACHERS EMIGRATING
HAIFA, Israel — About 600 U. S. teachers are expected to arrive in Israel with their families in July as immigrants, the Jewish Agency, in charge of immigration, announced here.

They will undergo a six-month Hebrew language course, and work probably in 1970, the agency said.

Teresa Rudd

Teresa Rudd Is Selected For Airline Course

Teresa Rudd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rudd of Westway, is one of five cadets chosen from the southwest region of the Civil Air Patrol for participation in the American Airlines orientation course for airline stewardesses in Dallas.

The stewardess course is to be conducted Aug. 17-23.

Miss Rudd, who graduated from Hereford High School last semester and will enter Texas Technological University at Lubbock in the fall, is actually Cadet Second Lt. Teresa C. Rudd of the Hereford Composite Squadron of the CAP.

Lt. Rudd reported that she applied for the airline course herself and was accepted. She was eligible through her commission in the CAP, she said.

The course includes charm, personality development, the correct use of cosmetics, and is oriented along the lines of instruction given American Airlines stewardesses.

She said that American Airlines have provided her room, board and instruction without charge.

The commissioned officers selected for attendance are from locations in Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico, and Louisiana — the states which comprise the CAP's southwest region.

Martin Gives Deadline On Drug Refunds

AUSTIN — Attorney General Crawford C. Martin has reminded Texans that August 16, 1969, is the deadline for mailing refund claims on broad spectrum antibiotics for which they were overcharged during the years 1954 through 1966.

That is the deadline set by the federal court for individuals to file claims for a share of the $100 million settlement offered by five drug manufacturers after multiple civil antitrust actions were filed against them by Texas and other states.

Martin said the procedure for filing consumer claims was the result of an order issued by the U. S. District Court in New York. The forms for the refund claims may be picked up at the County Clerk's office in each county courthouse.

If a person fails to file a claim, it will constitute authorization to use the money recovered in his behalf for the benefit of all consumers in a manner directed by the federal court.

The notarized claims must be mailed to the Clerk, United States District Court, P. O. Box 745, Bronx, New York 10451.

Drugs involved in the settlement are Aureomycin, Terramycin, Achromycin, Mystecilin, Panalba, Panmycin, Polycycline, Steclin, Tetracyclin and Tetrax.

HAPPY TRAVELING

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Ten rest areas with buildings and traveler comfort facilities now are open to travelers on Kentucky's interstate highway system.

Lions have a lot of what killed the smaller cat. They hunt foods only at night, but curiosity spurs them to daytime activity, too. British anthropologist Louis S. B. Leakey says lions often come into his camps in East Africa during the day to see what is going on.

The Isles of Scilly number some 140 small islands, islets, and clusters of rock 28 miles off the coast of Cornwall. Only five islands are inhabited — St. Mary's, Treco, St. Martin's, St. Agnes, and Bryher. About 1,400 of the islands' 1,800 residents live on St. Mary's.

G S P A Reveals Plans In Two Conferences

Following press conferences in both Lubbock and Amarillo Friday, Elbert Harp of Lubbock, executive director of Grain Sorghum Producers Association, discussed the checkoff proposal, which is to be considered by farmers in a 29-county area of Texas (including Deaf Smith County) which would make available more than $200,000 for marketing, research and insect control.

Harp said there are more than 27,000 grain sorghum farms in the 29-county area.

These conferences came on the heels of the certification of the GSPA to conduct a referendum, wherein the grain sorghum farmers will vote on a program of research and market development, designed to strengthen the farmer's profit position by financing research to find methods of lowering production costs and promoting markets.

With no exact date specified, the referendum is to be conducted in October. A mail ballot, the results are to be tabulated in the GSPA Lubbock offices.

Harp said, "We are looking for a vast majority of the farmers to approve this referendum. The investment will only be five cents per ton, to be collected at the point of first sale — or an average of eight cents per acre throughout the area."

He continued, "We are pleased to have the opportunity of holding this referendum. It is the first opportunity the farmers have had to vote on this program which is so essential to their future."

Recent passage of HB 764 by the Texas 1969 Legislature has made the referendum possible. Grain farmers are now in a position to be polled on the five-cent cost and the election of a 12-man board to govern the checkoff funds.

The 12-man board will have the responsibility of developing the programs of research, promotion and education.

"It is a farmer's program," Harp stipulated, "a board made up of producers, a voluntary program in that anyone may get his money back if he so desires. I believe the referendum will pass by an overwhelming majority."

He added, "If we do not find some way to cut the high cost of production and strengthen the prices of the grain we sell, the farmers will not be able to stay in business. If nothing more could come from this program than a possible reduction of one spraying for insects, this would yield a 1,500 per cent return annually for a farmer's investment. This is only one possibility of the value in this program."

Harp also issued the statement that members of Farmers Union, National Farmers Organization and Farm Bureau were consulted and all agreed to organize no campaigns against the proposal.

He reported that GSPA has a paid membership of 3,400 members in this area. "We believe this to be nearly 20 per cent of the commercial grain farmers, both in number and volume of production." Members voluntarily pay dues of two pounds per each 1,000 pounds of their production now toward aid in their market development and research work.

MEMBERSHIP MEET

Membership Committee of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce has set a meeting at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the chamber offices with Lynton Allred as chairman.

County Committeeman Is Named By Farmers Home Administration

Ray Stewart of Dawn has been appointed to the three man Deaf Smith Farmers Home Administration committee, it is announced by James Gouddy, county supervisor. The appointment is for a three-year term ending June 30, 1972.

Stewart succeeds Bob Strain and will join the other two members of the committee, Billy Wayne Sisson of Hereford and Joe Brorman of Ford Community.

The three member committee serves in an advisory capacity to the County Supervisor and makes determinations as to eligibility for loan advances for the agency. They are also frequently called upon by the County supervisor to render assistance in servicing loans and development of other community services.

The Farmers Home Administration does not compete with private lenders in the field of agricultural credit; however, it supplements such sources of credit and makes loans on a long-range basis for the development of farms and ranches as well as improvement of community facilities, and providing housing for rural residents.

Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties are serviced by the Farmers Home Administration office at 313 W. 3rd. Street, Hereford. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday except on legal holidays.

Moved To Be Near Family

By BARBARA SWIMMER
Women's Editor

"We remember the day we moved here because it was our anniversary, which is July 11," says gentle speaking Mrs. H. H. Chaney, who moved here with her husband from Enid, Okla. to be nearer their children. The Chaney's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Chaney and three beautiful daughters have lived in Hereford for several years.

When the Chaney's moved, they didn't have to worry about moving their furniture because they brought their home with them. Their new mobile home which they purchased shortly before moving here is located at 906 Cherokee St.

They both enjoy working in the yard and are busily putting in a lawn.

The Chaney's are enjoying the mild weather in Hereford and think it's wonderful compared to the heat in Oklahoma. "When we lived in Enid, the first thing we did every morning was turn on the air conditioner, but here we find it so much cooler," she said.

Mrs. Chaney's hobbies are concentrated mostly around her three grandchildren, and she is enjoying every minute spent with them. They delight in the homemade rolls she makes for them.

She says she used to cook and sew quite a bit but doesn't seem to find time anymore. The Chaney's both work afternoons at Dandy Don's Drive Up Grocery which is owned by their son, and they have met many new people and are enjoying their new acquaintances.

They are members of the Church of Christ and have also met new friends through the church.

"I guess we enjoy company better than anyone," she said smiling, "and we love to visit with our neighbors."

People Warned Of Exhaustion, Heat

With a summer heat wave scorching Texas, there is the possibility you could become a victim of sunstroke or heat exhaustion during the blast-furnace weather ahead, advises the Texas State Department of Health.

The combined effects of the sun, exercise, heat and excessive perspiration with water and salt loss can produce serious symptoms and may even be fatal.

Sunstroke is caused by over exposure to the hot sun while heat exhaustion is due to prolonged exposure to high temperatures indoors or outdoors. In sunstroke the body overheats. Usually the victim has a severe headache and everything looks red to him. Often the victim becomes unconscious.

Heat exhaustion is caused by prolonged heat and high humidity, but it is very different from sunstroke. The victim is usually conscious but weak and dizzy. His temperature falls instead of rises, and he feels cold and clammy.

In either case call a doctor at once. The victim should be moved into the shade and any tight clothing loosened.

Simple, common-sense precautions will nearly always prevent these conditions. During hot weather:

Don't expose yourself to the heat when you don't have to. Don't go out in the hot sunshine without a hat.

Don't wear heavy or tight clothing.
Don't exercise strenuously in the sun or heat.
Don't exercise just before or after meals.
Don't overeat.
Don't overindulge in alcoholic drinks.

On sultry days, keep the air circulating to help the evaporation of perspiration. Keep shaded windows open and use an electric fan.

If you perspire freely, you may need extra water and salt. Drink water often throughout the day, one glass at a time. The amount of salt needed depends on how much you lose through perspiration. Office workers probably get enough in their food, but others doing heavy labor may need salt tablets periodically or a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt dissolved in a glass of water every hour.

The aging, the very young, alcoholics and people with heart trouble are easily affected by sun and heat.

ACTRESS TURNS DIRECTOR

NEW YORK — Actress Barbara Harris will join the thin ranks of women theater directors, making her debut with "The Penny Wars," a new play by Elliott Baker, based on his own novel. The play is scheduled to open on Broadway in October.

As an actress, Miss Harris last appeared in "The Apple Tree," for which she won the 1967 Tony award as best musical comedy actress.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — My refund check only covered the amount I claimed on my return and not the additional amount due me from the 1040X I filed. What should I do?

A — You will receive another refund check soon for the additional amount claimed. No further action on your part is necessary.

Q — I do baby-sitting and housework for several women on a regular basis. How can I tell if Social Security is being paid on my wages?

A — Employers are required to provide employees with an annual statement of wages paid and Social Security taxes withheld.

For household employees, Social Security taxes have to be paid by the employer when cash wages of $50 or more are paid to an employee during any calendar quarter. No income tax is withheld.

A full statement of your Social Security coverage may be obtained by writing to the Social Security Administration, Baltimore, Maryland, 21235. Give your name, address and Social Security number.

Q — My former husband helps support our three children but what he gives me doesn't come close to covering the cost of raising them. Who gets to claim them for tax purposes?

A — The general rule as to the children of divorced or separated parents is that the parent who has custody of them for the greater part of the year is entitled to claim the dependency deduction. But there are exceptions to this rule depending on what the decree states who is not a delegate would be taxable. Any personal expenses and amount of support furnished by your former husband.

For details on claiming a dependency exemption for a child of divorced or separated parents, send a post card to your IRS district office. Ask for a copy of Publication 501, Your Exemptions and Exemptions for Dependents.

Q — My church is paying my expenses to a denominational convention this summer. Will this money be taxable for me?

A — If you are attending as an official delegate of your church, the expenses being paid for you will usually not be taxable for you. However, any expenses being paid for a member of your family accompanying you is not a delegate would be taxable. Any personal expenses paid for you would have to be declared as taxable income. Also, any reimbursement that exceeds your actual expense is subject to tax.

Sen. Tower Gives Views On Nixon's Tour; Legislation

President Nixon recently returned from a historic world tour which may prove to mark a significant change in our foreign policy.

The tour began with a Presidential welcome upon the safe return to Earth by our three heroic astronauts who themselves had made an epic voyage to bring man's physical presence to the very surface of the moon.

Next the President visited a series of Asian countries where he reaffirmed American support for independent nations, making it clear that we stand ready to continue to assist freedom-loving nations to remain independent by providing them with economic aid and material. At the same time, he indicated the United States would be cautious regarding military troop commitments. In Thailand, he indicated the number of American troops there will gradually be reduced as the Vietnam War comes to an end.

Regarding the Vietnam conflict itself, the President quite clearly pointed out that the burden of peace lies squarely with the Hanoi regime. In Saigon, he said the United States has gone as far as we can or should go in seeking a peaceful and honorable settlement. He stated clearly that it is time for the other side to respond.

Many weeks ago, President Nixon and the South Vietnamese government stated both individually and jointly that the single non-negotiable issue at the Paris peace talks is self-determination for the Vietnamese people. That view was enunciated clearly and it has been repeated again and again.

But the Hanoi regime has still not responded in any positive way that can be construed as indicative of any sincere desire for peace. There has been an apparent reduction in the level of the fighting in South Vietnam. Hopefully, this will continue and eventually develop into a sign of peace. But thus far, Hanoi has not even been willing to pretend that they are actually scaling down the level of fighting and of course, they could be building toward another main force engagement.

After his visit to Asia, President Nixon paid an official visit to Rumania. Now that alone was a historic occasion. It was the first visit by an American president to a Communist Bloc nation since President Kennedy visited Poland.

The Rumanians greeted our President with genuine eagerness. Tumultuous throngs cheered him in the streets and Rumanian officials expressed hope for improved future relations with us.

The visit to Rumania represented initiative on our part in our dealings with the Soviet Union, which I, for one, am glad to see. I believe we have too often allowed the Soviets to make all the first moves and then have found ourselves in a position of continual reaction.

Overall, the President's world tour showed the need for the United States to infuse in its foreign policy a bit more flexibility.

The world continues to grow smaller. Man has the capacity to go to the moon. Communication methods continue to bridge broader distances in less time. The World population continues to grow. And a world with more people, with faster means of communication and travel, is a world where situations change more rapidly.

We must be equipped to deal with changing world situations and this means the administration must be given a high degree of latitude within which to operate.

While Congress should retain authority wherever possible, practicality dictates that the President cannot be confined in his international operations too strictly.

I believe, for example, that our trade policies should be used in concert with our foreign policy. As our foreign policy changes, so we must be able to shift with ease our trade policy.

The Senate will consider later this year extension of our existing Export Control Act. I favor a simple extension of the existing law because it provides the administration with sufficient latitude to regulate exportation of certain goods to Communist countries within the current objectives of our foreign policy. Using this act as a tool, the administration can encourage or discourage exportation in accordance with the requirements of the immediately existing foreign relations situations.

Now other legislation has been introduced in Congress which would give Rumania what is called "favored nation" status in our trade policy. Now if the legislation provided that the administration could regulate the amount of trade as foreign policy situations dictate, then that could be a useful tool for the administration. If not, it could prove to be a great detriment.

I cite this legislation as examples. I believe the President's tour proves the need for administrative flexibility in our foreign policy within the broad outlines which should continue to be established by the Congress of the United States.

Nun Is Among WTSU Graduates

CANYON — One of the few, if not the first Catholic nun to graduate from West Texas State University, plans to take a master of education degree at the Aug. 21 summer convocation of the university.

Although records do not show clearly, she may be the first nun to graduate from WTSU. She is the first student from the university to have the title "Sister" placed on her diploma, said Dr. Walter H. Juniper, WTSU academic vice president.

Sister M. Emma Oswald of St. Francis Convent in Amarillo is in the order of Franciscan Sisters of Mary Immaculate. She has spent four summers at the university working toward her degree.

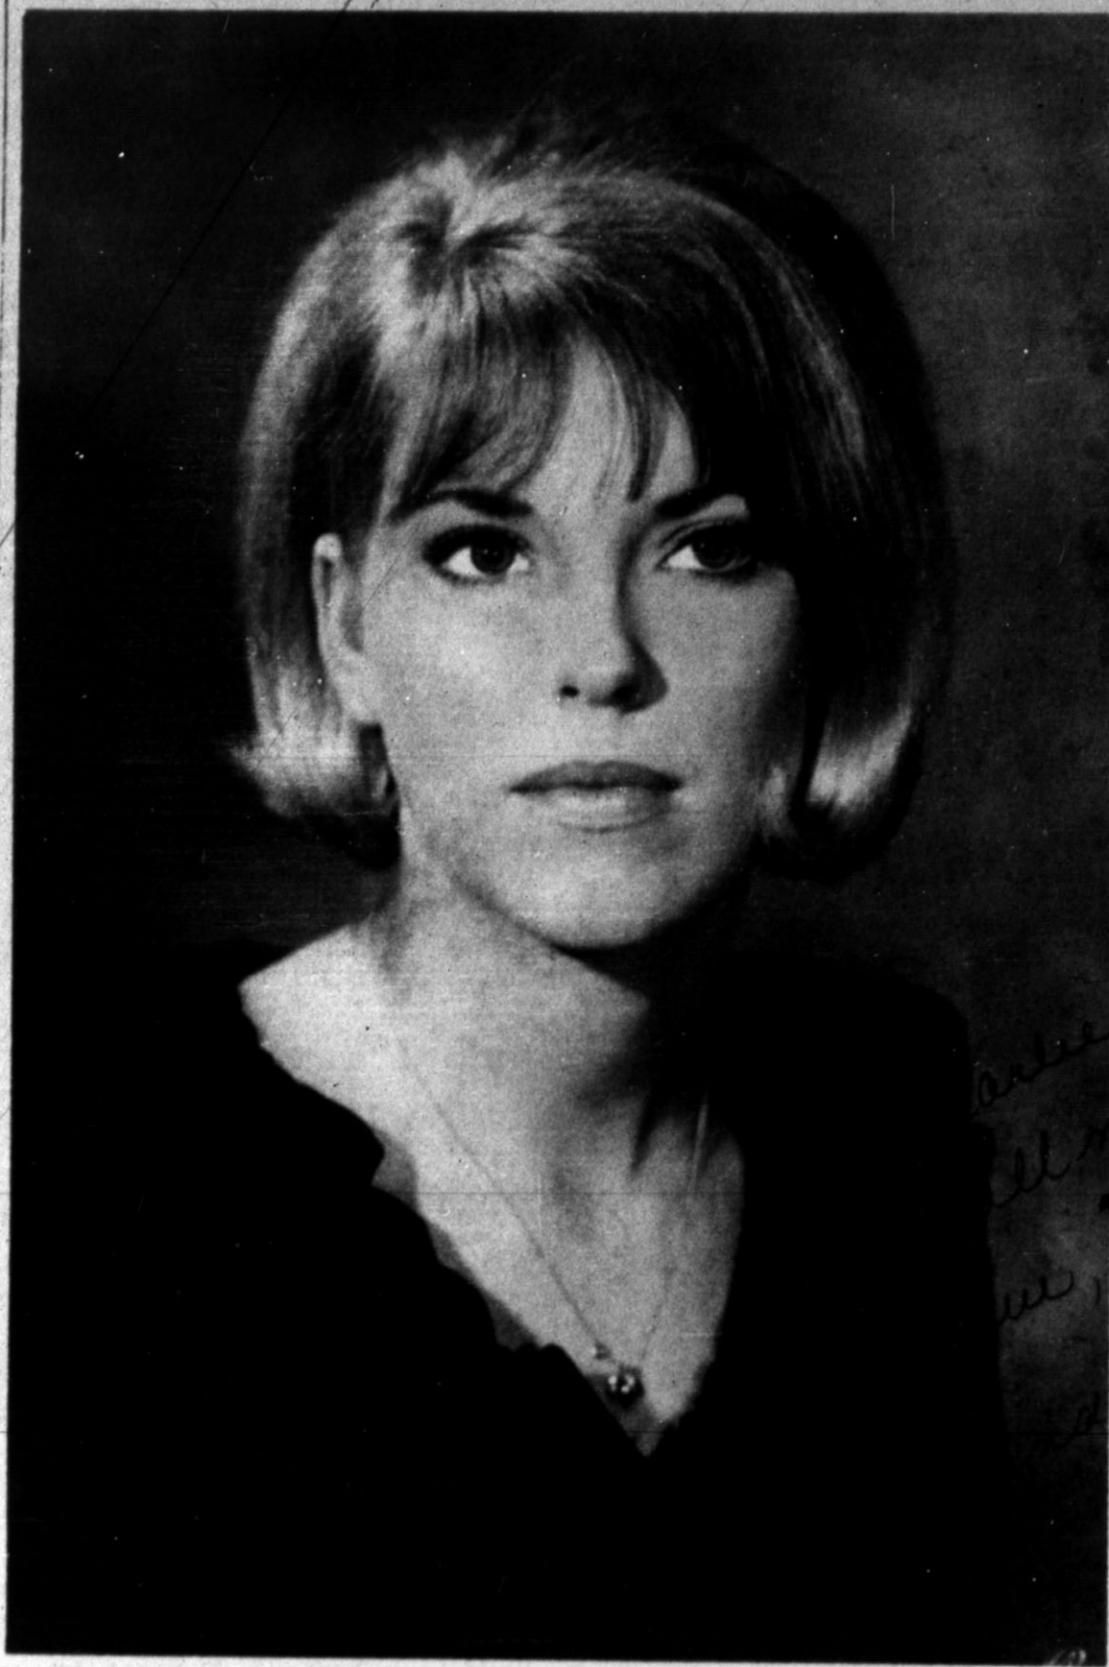

She will wear the traditional graduation cap and gown over her habit. "The gown will cover the shorter habits we have now. Of course I will wear the veil," she said.

Class Completed In Life Saving

Senior life saving certificates have been awarded to members of a class conducted this summer by G. C. Graves, Red Cross water safety instructor and manager of the municipal pool here.

In what may be a first in Hereford, nine persons enrolled for the arduous 17-hour course and all nine qualified for their certificates.

Included in the class were two couples, Lynton and Joyce Alford, Gerald and Mary Haak. Others were Janice Newsom, Susan Rudd, Judy Roberson, Judy Yarbrough and Raymond Schlabs.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cawthon Jr., 803 Knight, announce the marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to Charles Ray Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burke Inman, 416 Star. The couple was married July 23 in El Paso.

They both were graduated from Hereford High School in 1968 and attended West Texas State University. Following a brief wedding trip to New Mexico, they are now at home at 239 Ave. E. (Bradly Photo)

Bible School To Be Held At Labor Camp

Through the cooperative effort of several of the churches of Hereford, an Ecumenical-Interracial Bible School will be held at Hereford Labor Camp, August 11-15, 1:30 — 3:30 p.m., in St. Joseph's school building.

The theme selected for the five day session will be "Jesus Loves Me". Activities will include devotionals, crafts, games, stories, singing, hygiene and nutrition instructions, and visits by local professional people. Refreshments will be served at the end of each day's classes.

The plans for this Bible School were formulated during two recent meetings held at the First Christian Church by interested individuals.

Churches cooperating in this Christian effort to be of service to the migrant families of the Hereford area are First United Methodist, St. Anthony's, St. Joseph's, First Christian, San Pablo, Wesley Methodist, First Baptist and St. Thomas Episcopal.

Attending the second meeting Tuesday morning were Mmes. D. N. Garner, Gerald Wilson, Marie Chesshir, Paul Zinser, Thomas Albracht, Howard E. Johnson, Werner Koelzer, Miss Martha Kate Aiken, Virginia Dodson and Jeremy Main.

Anna Jane Johnson Weds In Impressive Ceremony

The Wesley Methodist Church was the setting Saturday evening for an impressive ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Anna Jane Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Route 4, and Michael Mitchell Solomon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Solomon, 500 Star.

Officiating at the double ring service was Chaplain E. W. Solomon of Weldon, Tex., uncle of the bridegroom.

A pair of seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers illuminated an altar table laid with white and holding an opened Bible flanked by candles.

Miss Lanny Buck was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Chris Loerwald and Grace Ann Flood.

Best man was Bill Price of Pampa and groomsmen were Tom Bob Moss, cousin of the bridegroom and Charles Stengel. Serving as ushers were Craig Solomon and Bill Johnson, brothers of the bride and groom and Gary Moss, the bridegroom's cousin.

Miss Cheryl Solomon, sister of the bridegroom, presented a program of organ music and accompanied Miss Suzanne Oglesby as she sang "One Hand One Heart" and Bob Nelson as he sang "True Love." The couple then sang a duet, "Hawaiian Wedding Song." Candles were also lighted by Miss Oglesby and Mr. Nelson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's formal gown of white peau de sole was designed with a portrait neckline, natural waist and long fingertip sleeves. A detachable Watteau train complimented the gown.

Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a coil of organza rosettes and Lily of the Valley.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and daisies with yellow streamers.

The feminine attendants wore formal gowns of green tulle fashioned with empire waistlines and Bishop sleeves. Their headpieces were matching bows and they wore short white gloves. They each carried three yellow daisies tied with yellow streamers.

Mrs. Johnson chose for her daughter's wedding, a two-piece pink crepe ensemble with white accessories.

Mrs. Solomon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue two-piece knit dress accessorized in white. Both wore corsages of daisies tied with yellow ribbon.

A reception followed in the home of the bridegroom's parents where Miss Suzanne Solomon registered the guests.

The serving table was laid with white lace and centered with an arrangement of daisies. The three-tier wedding cake was surrounded by yellow wedding bells and Lilies-of-the-valley.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. Bill Johnson, sister-in-law of bride and Mrs. Johnny Allen, sister of the bride. Other members of the houseparty included Miss Karen Sue and Kathy Stanford, cousins of the bridegroom and his sister, Miss Cheryl Solomon.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride's traveling ensemble was a navy blue dacron knit dress with white accessories. Her corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will attend West Texas State University this fall where he is a junior student and she will be a freshman.

Miss Mary Denise King Is Wed In Evening Ceremony

The Littlefield Church of Christ was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Mary Denise King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. King, Route 4, Hereford, to Tommy Leon Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Higgins of Canyon.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Bob Wear, pastor.

The minister and his wife were the couple's only attendants.

The bride wore a formal A-line gown of white antique satin fashioned with an empire waistline caught at the center back with a satin bow. The satin was repeated at the highrise neckline and banded the elbow length sleeves. She wore a white straw picture hat banded with green velvet ribbon and carried an all-white nosegay of carnations centered with a gardenia.

For a brief wedding trip the bride's traveling ensemble was a white two piece knit suit trimmed in red and her accessories were white. Her corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple is at home at 619 B 21st in Amarillo.

Co-hosting the event with Mrs. Harvey were Meses. Arm on Lauderback, W. B. Finley, Bill Kendall, Baxter London, John Gooch, Clifford Kerr, Walter London Jr., Max Stipe, Louis Beckman, Arthur Howe, Tony Hoffman and Steve Clements.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of yellow and white were also carried out in the napkins and mints.

Cake squares with punch and coffee were served by Misses Kay Tucker and Martha Morgan.

Mrs. Kenneth Hager registered the guests.

For the evening, Miss Gholson wore yellow lace tulle tulle frock and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

Similar corsages were presented to each of the receiving line.

Sgt. Davis Is Three-Time Nixon Guard

Marine Sgt. Alfred H. Davis Jr., who has acted as one of the security guards for President Richard M. Nixon on two previous occasions, again received this assignment for the presidential visit last week at Bucharest.

Sgt. Davis previously acted as security guard for Nixon prior to his becoming president, at Paris and Moscow.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davis Sr. of 824 S. Texas, and was graduated from Hereford High School. Upon graduation here, he was awarded a scholarship by local businessmen to attend Highlands University at Las Vegas.

Davis is 23 years old.

His father reported that Davis was selected for his current assignment primarily because he could speak Russian. He had learned the language following 1½ years duty in Moscow. Davis Sr. said that his son has also "worked on" the German and French languages.

He has been in the US Marines for the past four years.

As security guard, it was necessary for him to wear civilian clothing and to sleep in the same room with President Nixon during his stay in Bucharest.

His parents here have also received a letter of praise for the sergeant's work from Marine Major Daniel G. Dempsey, in charge of security at the American Embassy in Paris.

Davis is scheduled to return to Hereford in November. He is vice president of A. H. Davis and Sons, who have recently incorporated the business here.

Davis & Sons Incorporates

A. H. Davis & Sons, importers of certified antiques and art objects at 615 Union in Hereford, have been chartered to incorporate their business at $100,000 and are offering 20,000 shares of common stock for public sale.

For the past fifteen years, the Davis family has been in the furniture repair and antique restoration business in Hereford. It began as an "after hours" and "in the home business" and became a full time establishment.

In 1940, Alfred Davis Sr. began his instruction in the furniture manufacturing business at Amarillo with Dallas H. Kay. Afterward, he spent five years in Miami, Fla., associated in the interior decoration business before entering the U. S. Air Force for a period of six years.

At present, Davis and his wife Marian, and Hereford attorney Bruce Miller are directors of the corporation.

The Davis' two sons, Alfred Jr. and Oren, are also involved in the business.

Curiosity proved the undoing of many American antelopes that once swarmed over the plains east of the Rocky Mountains. To attract antelopes, a hunter lay down in the grass out of sight and held up a flag, a pan, or even his own feet. The antelope would come over to investigate, and the hunter would have an easy target.

THE IMPORTANCE OF DANCE EDUCATION

There are many reasons you may have been wishing you could arrange dance lessons for your child, and yet there may be other advantages you have not considered. Just what can dance classes under a properly trained teacher offer your child?

The right kind of dance training develops a sense of rhythm and a love for music; it improves posture and coordination, and it strengthens the body and feet of the student. It is recommended for congenital flat feet, sway backs and some other physical defects. It gives a child a sense of belonging and accomplishment; it helps him learn how to work with groups, how to take instruction, and if continued is good training in self-discipline.

Who will it help? All sports require rhythmic movement, and dance is that study of movement in time and space the basketball and football coaches are discovering is a great help to their players. There is the too-thin child who needs to develop those pipestem legs, or the too-chunky child whose puppy fat is slow to disappear — dancing classes are very good for these conditions. There's the tomboy with six brothers who knows more about climbing trees than how to walk like a lady, and the mouse who is afraid of school, where he will have to stand before the class and read; the overgrown elf and the emotional storm who need a physical outlet for their energy.

And last, but not least, there is the talented child whose sense of grace and rhythm cries out for development. For her (or him) there is the possibility of a career in dancing, or at least a hobby for a lifetime of enjoyment.

Best of all, our classes are fun and your child will learn to enjoy the fellowship of working with other boys and girls to pleasant music. Your child's education is not complete without some dance training.

To Survey Needs

Recreation Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce has set an organizational meeting at 5 p. m. Monday in chamber offices with Rodney Laubhan as chairman.

Laubhan has reported, "Frequently we receive inquiries about the availability of overnight camping facilities for trailers or campers. A study needs to be made of the possibility of providing such a facility here."

Also on the agenda is the question of a need here for a fulltime recreation director through city or school support.

The committee will also inquire into the future plans for expanding the golf course in Veterans Memorial Park by the city, since the land sale and donation by the Hereford Post American Legion.

Red Cross Had 18-Year Delay

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

The Red Cross, an organization known for its many worthwhile activities toward humanity, was founded by a Swiss philanthropist. Moreover, its beginning in the United States was beset by a long delay — and was actually begun under another name.

Jean Henri Dunant was the founder of the Red Cross. He was on a tour of Italy in 1859 during the Austro-Sardinian War and saw the field at Solferino on the day after 40,000 men had been killed or wounded in a battle. He was horrified at the suffering of the wounded, and formed a group of volunteers to help them.

In 1862, Dunant published a pamphlet called Reflections of Solferino. It ended with the plea, "Would it not be possible to found and organize in all civilized countries permanent societies of volunteers who in time of war would give help to the wounded without regard for their nationality?"

The appeal won favorable response. On Oct. 26, 1863, delegates from 16 nations and seven charitable organizations met in Geneva to discuss Dunant's idea. This conference laid the groundwork for the international Red Cross movement and chose the organization's symbol.

Delegates from 15 European nations met in Geneva from Aug. 8 through 22, 1864, on invitation of the Swiss Federal Council. Two observers from the United States attended (during the time of the Civil War). Out of this meeting came the First Treaty of Geneva — or the International Red Cross Treaty. (Later treaties extended and improved it).

But in the United States, congress did not ratify the Geneva Convention for eighteen years, fearing foreign entanglements. (The Geneva Convention provides for the humane treatment of prisoners and wounded men in wartime).

The American Association for the Relief of Misery on the Battlefields was organized during this time. It adopted the red cross as its emblem.

Clara Barton was a great American woman who devoted her life to the good of humanity. Her greatest achievement was the founding of the American Red Cross.

Soon after the outbreak of the Civil War in 1861, Miss Barton began the work of carrying supplies to soldiers and the nursing of wounded men on the battlefields. Her deeds attracted national attention and appreciation. She was called "The Angel of the Battlefield."

At first, the United States government refused to give help or encouragement. But in 1864, she was appointed superintendent of nurses for the Army of the James. When the war ended, she formed and headed a bureau to search for missing men. This bureau marked more than 12,000 graves in the Andersonville, Ga., National Cemetery.

Miss Barton went to Switzerland in 1869. During the Franco-Prussian War, she served as a nurse at the battle front. There, she had the opportunity to see the worthwhile work that members of the International Committee of the Red Cross had done in Europe.

She returned home in 1873, and immediately started to convince people of the need for taking part in Red Cross work.

The Geneva Treaty was finally ratified in 1882 by the United States Senate. The American Branch of the Red Cross was formed.

Miss Barton became its first president, and represented the United States at the International Conference of the Red Cross in Geneva in 1884. She served as president of the American organization from 1882 to 1904. She died in 1912

But in her lifetime, she realized that the Red Cross could be useful to civilians as well as to soldiers. She originated the clause in the Red Cross constitution that provides for relief in calamities other than war.

She took charge of the relief work in the yellow-fever epidemic in Florida in 1877 and in the flood at Johnstown, Penn., in 1889. She also helped during the Russian and Armenian famines in 1891 and 1896.

Miss Barton was in charge of relief after the flood in Galveston in 1900.

The Red Cross association was later reorganized, and in 1905 Congress granted it a new charter that established the basic organization of today's American Red Cross.

During and after World War I, the American Red Cross developed greatly. The American Junior Red Cross was founded in 1917. During World War II, Red Cross workers conducted a training program at home to teach first aid, nutrition, and nursing.

After the war, the Red Cross directed its activities to aiding millions of veterans. It also tried to relieve war-caused suffering in other lands. The Red Cross expanded its blood program during the Korean war. In response to a government request, it began to coordinate blood-bank work for the armed forces and civil defense. It also trained hundreds of thousands of persons in first aid and home nursing.

Their activities are in full swing in Hereford and have been for several years. Among the local chapter's current activities is the shipment of ditty bags to servicemen in South Vietnam.

The local Red Cross chapter is a United Fund agency.

Mrs. Genevieve Miller is executive secretary with offices at 319 Sampson. President of the local chapter is W. B. Dowell.

Former Resident Accident Victim

Mrs. J. W. Thomas, wife of former Deaf Smith County Agriculture Agent "Lefty" Thomas, was seriously injured last week when she was run over by a tractor on their farm near Samnorwood.

The accident occurred last Tuesday when Mrs. Thomas was helping her husband move irrigation pipe. Her husband had gotten off the tractor and when Mrs. Thomas attempted to climb down, she apparently hit the clutch, causing the machine to lurch forward, throwing her under the wheel.

She was rushed to Shamrock General Hospital where she was reported to be suffering from nine broken ribs and a punctured lung.

TECO PRODUCTS

The Teco mill installed at Cattle Town Inc., is our latest design continuous flow mill, with a capacity of mixing 65 tons of high concentrate feed per hour. The Hay cube crusher is a new product by Teco. The cuber, the elevator, conveyors, finished feed bins and mixers are all Teco products made in California by Thompson & Gill, Inc. and were shipped to Hereford to make up the finest mill we have ever built.

TECO PRODUCTS

This Teco mill is a continuous flow mill. All feed ingredients are fed over weighbelts into a collector conveyor. These weighbelts are pre-set from the control room to the proper amount of flow. All ingredients are then fed into an elevator leg that leads to a large overhead continuous mixer where the fats and molasses are added. The mixed feed is then deposited in five holding bins, which have a total capacity of 100 tons. We believe this to be one of the finest mills in operation.

Farm Bureau Chief Reports On Program

WACO — Testimony on proposed farm program legislation presented Tuesday to the Agricultural Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives "bears out what we in Texas have known for a long time," commented Sidney Dean, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

"Market prices of government-controlled crops continue to set record low levels, while uncontrolled crops and livestock continue to make new gains." We must start the transition to a market-place economy "now," Dean said.

The TFB president's remarks were in reference to the testimony presented by American Farm Bureau president Charles B. Shuman at a house agriculture committee hearing in which Shuman endorsed the proposed Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1969. This legislation has been introduced by two members of the agriculture committee — Representatives Charles Teague (R. Calif.) and George Goodling

(R. Penn.), 19 other members of the house, and 20 senators.

In his testimony, Shuman, president of the nation's largest general farm organization, called on congress to enact what he called "a broad-based program to help individual farmers make needed adjustments, increase prices, expand markets, cut costs and thus provide the basis for increased net farm income."

"The Food and Agriculture Act of 1965 is a demonstrated failure," the Farm Bureau president said.

"Despite the expenditure of billions of dollars, farm problems have not been solved, and farmers have not achieved a satisfactory level of net farm income."

"A completely new approach is needed," he declared. And he added:

"New legislation should be enacted this year so that farmers can plan ahead. The hour is already late."

Shuman said the proposed Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1969 would provide for a five-year transition period during which acreage controls, base acreages, marketing quotas, processing taxes, and direct payments for wheat, feed grains, and cotton would be based out. It would also:

—Direct the secretary of agriculture to retire at least 10 million acres per year under the crop and adjustment program from 1971 through 1975.

—Provide government price support loans for wheat, feed grains, cotton, and soybeans at not more than 85 percent of the previous three-year average price beginning with the 1971 crop year.

—Prohibit the sale of government stocks of farm commodities at less than 150 percent of the current loan rate plus carrying charges, except when sales are offset by equivalent purchases in the open market.

—Authorize the secretary of agriculture to offer a special transitional program to any farmer who has had average gross annual sales of farm products of not more than $5,000 and off-farm income of not more than $2,000 per year for husband and wife for the immediately preceding three years. Such farmers would be eligible to receive compensation for acreage allotments and base acres surrendered to the secretary for permanent cancellation; land retirement payments under the cropland adjustment program; retraining grants; adjustment assistance, and loans under existing credit programs.

This special program for low income farmers, Shuman said, "would help farmers who do not have the resources needed for a successful farming operation to make a transition to more gainful employment." He added that it would be "entirely voluntary."

The Farm Bureau president emphasized that, under the proposed legislation, "the transition to the market system would be gradual."

"Substantial payments would be made during the transition period to help farmers make needed adjustments," he said.

He said that, in contrast to existing programs, the proposed expansion of the cropland adjustment program "would more economically divert surplus crop land to noncrop uses."

"The retirement of whole farms would result in the retirement of some non-land resources and eliminate the increase in per-acre yields which results when resources formerly used for 'diverted acres' are shifted to land that remains in production on the same farm," he said.

"At the end of the proposed phase-out of acreage allotments, marketing quotas, base acreages, certificates and government payments for feed grains, wheat and cotton each producer would be free to plan his wheat, feed grain, cotton and soybean production so as to make the best use of his resources in the light of the market outlook. Thus, the way would be clear for farmers to earn and get higher incomes in the marketplace."

The Farm Bureau president told the agriculture committee that congress should encourage the Nixon administration to withdraw from the International Wheat Trade Convention so that the depressing effect of "inverse subsidies" can be removed from wheat prices. He also said congress should continue to reject proposals to authorize the establishment of government

In a joint statement, National Equipment Leasing Corporation of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Western Leasing and Financial Corporation, Amarillo, announced the formation of a new financial entity to serve the central reserves of farm commodities.

"Government reserves are not needed for the protection of consumers," he said.

"They are primarily a device for holding down farm prices."

Farmers Union Prexy Speaks

Panhandle farmers will hear from a national farm leader when Farmers Union President Tony T. Dechant of Denver addresses the annual District 1 Farmers Union banquet which will be held in Panhandle Monday, Aug. 18.

Dechant was born in Munjer, Kan., on the family wheat farm and farmed with his father in Ellis County, Kansas. He was elected secretary-treasurer of the National Farmers Union in 1946 and served in that capacity until he was elected president in 1966. Dechant also heads several of the business entities associated with the National Farmers Union.

The national farm organization president's appearance in Texas is timely because of the heated controversy among the major general farm organizations on national farm policy. Farmers Union supports the extension of present commodity programs. Dechant is expected to discuss the farm program battle which is underway in Washington.

Ronald Kotara of Panhandle, who is in charge of arrangements, has announced that food service will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m., and the principal speaker will be heard after the banquet. According to Carson County Farmers Union president, Edd Hughes of Groom tickets have been distributed to all District 1 Farmers Union counties and are available through the county officers.

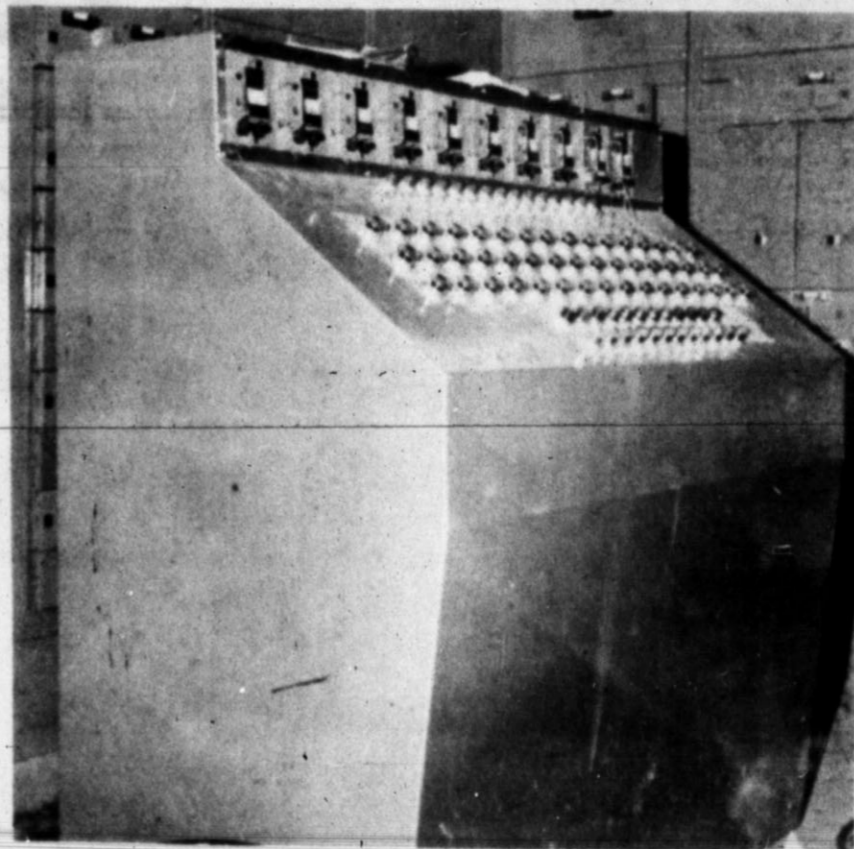

Tony T. Dechant

W. R. (Buck) Breeding of Collingsworth County, District 1 director, urges advance ticket purchases. The Wellington farmer and rancher reports that a large attendance is expected at the banquet and it is important that those wishing to attend purchase their tickets in advance. Breeding listed the following counties as part of District 1 and participating in the Panhandle meeting: Dallam, Hartley, Hansford, Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Moore, Hemphill, Odham, Carson, Wheeler, Gray, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley and Collingsworth.

Other District 1 officers are Joe J. Berg, Amarillo, vice director and Mrs. Clinton Jackson, Hereford, secretary-treasurer.

L. ORVIN DAVIS

10 August 1969

Dear Friends and Customers:

For the past fifteen years, the Davis' have been in the furniture repair and antique restoration business in Hereford. All our patrons from Hereford and the surrounding area have been good to and for us. During those years, the business has grown from an "after hours" and "in the home" business to a full time downtown establishment. In 1940, I started learning the furniture manufacturing business from Dallas D. Kay of Amarillo, a master craftsman and artist. For five years in Miami, Florida, I was associated with an interior decorator trained by Ann Wrigley of New York City, and Alexander Evasco, a Vienna cabinetmaker and Pulitzer Prize winner for craftsmanship. I spent 6 years in the Air Force and have had many "side-line" occupations but my ultimate goal is and has always been to be an appraiser of antiques and objects of art.

My two sons have grown up and not only learned the furniture art but have come to love it as I have.

Now the business is entering into a new phase. Through Alfred's efforts while stationed in Europe nearly three years, we have been able to establish good, reliable, firm contacts which will enable us to import both certified antiques and fine furniture for wholesale and retail sales.

We have incorporated the business for $100,000.00, have received our charter and are ready to go. There is now available, 20,000 shares of common stock at $1.00 per share. Perhaps you would be interested in obtaining some shares. At the present time, until there is a stockholders meeting, Bruce Miller, my wife Marian and myself are the directors of the corporation.

Sincerely yours,
Alfred Davis Sr.

The Case Of The Senate Mafia

Available at the Deaf Smith County Library this week are two stories of interest telling the perils of an artist's life and the tough assignment of a private detective to investigate a senate mafia.

RAGE IN SILENCE

By Donald Braider
RAGE IN SILENCE is the towering story of a man whose fiery passions were matched by the turbulence of the times in which he lived. Out of the agony of his native Spain, Francisco Goya created a phantasmagoric world of art.

Spanish history is inseparable from his life, and while his own dramatic rebirth after the age of fifty, as both man and artist, forms the heart of this blazing novel, the sad chronicle of a once-proud nation ruled by the lover of a nymphomaniac queen and torn by the Napoleonic invasion provides its unforgettable setting.

Few artists have ever been so cursed by tragedy and so elevated by happiness as Goya. Cut down in his lusty prime by a nearly fatal illness that leaves him deaf, he feels that life has ended and that there is little left for him to do except gather further riches as Spain's greatest portrait painter and see out the years with his frigid wife and estranged son.

In the midst of this despair, he meets the notorious, vivacious Duchess of Alba and thereby begins one of the most famous love affairs in history. But both Goya and his duchess are too proud to escape the debauched whims of the Bourbon court, and the fate of their idyll is inevitable.

If it is the duchess who first helps Goya to discover that his art can bring rewards greater than money, it is history that spurs him to his greatest achievements.

Unlike his friends, the accafios, the intellectuals who feel that Spain's future lies with a constitutional monarchy, Goya knows that the Spanish masses, from whom he has sprung, will die solely for their king, right or wrong.

The king of the moment is Carlos IV, a sad spectacle of a man who closes his eyes to his wife's flagrant infidelity and willingly surrenders control of the country to her lover, Godoy.

The French Revolution has passed; Napoleon has come to power; and the egomania of Godoy leaves Spain a pawn in the struggle between France and England for European supremacy.

The corruption of the Spanish monarchy and the Spanish church, the atrocities that follow the French invasion inspire Goya to his greatest work at the same time his personal life has been reduced to ashes.

He little realizes that in his waning years he will miraculously find a new source of private joy, but he is all too well aware of the ruin that awaits his nation.

RUN WHEN I SAY GO

By HILLARY WAUGH

It was a tough assignment for private detective Peter Congdon-protect and deliver the star witness in the senate Mafia investigation. It was bad enough that the Mafia was breathing down his neck. Worse still, the witness ex-mistress of a key Mafia figure, was hiding out in Italy.

To complicate matters still more, the senator heading the investigation is a political megalomaniac who is using the Mafia purge to keep himself in the nation's spotlight and spark his rise to the top.

Peter reaches the girl just ahead of the Mafia and from there on it is "Run for your life" through Italy and France — on foot, by car, plane, train and speedboat. Peter is fighting not only to keep the girl alive, but also to keep her at an emotional distance. Beneath that hard veneer of the gangster's girl was something that drew Peter to her against his will. In the middle of his double dilemma, Peter discovers he's been the victim of an ingenious double cross.

Seven days of chase and intrigue build to an ironic twist and explode in a shattering climax on Capitol Hill.

"The Army Green"

By Sfc BERT PINALES

U. S. Army Recruiter

We want to start off this column by wishing our friends in the American Legion a very happy birthday. The Legion is celebrating its 50th anniversary during 1969. So, a tip of the hat to the members of the American Legion posts in this area.

FAILS INSPECTION

Each year all Army units are subject to an official inspection known as the I. G., the initials standing for Inspector General. Both equipment and personnel stand a rather rigid inspection to make certain they are in good shape.

Well, one unit at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, passed its inspection, but the unit mascot, a donkey, didn't quite make it.

He flunked because his hair was mussed up and he had a burr on his belly.

HELICOPTER PILOTS

According to most men returning from Vietnam, the real heroes over there are the helicopter pilots. As a matter of fact they have earned the nickname of "guardian angels" as a result of their fantastic work in evacuating the wounded.

Don't know if you realize it or not, but most of the helicopter pilots in Vietnam are Army men.

It is possible for a person to join the Army specifically for training as a helicopter pilot. All you need is a high school diploma. If you are interested in more information about the Army's Helicopter training, call me at 364-1697 in Hereford or visit our office at Amarillo.

FOLDING THE FLAG

Those of you who display an American Flag at home or at your place of business are probably aware of how it should be folded. However, how many of you know why it is folded into a triangular shape?

The answer: The triangular shape is supposed to represent the cocked, three cornered hat of the American Revolution.

FACTS ABOUT THE ARMY

Did you know —That the United States is divided into five Army areas? We are located in the fourth Army. The other states in our Army are: Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, New Mexico and Texas.

That June 14th was the 194th anniversary of the United States Army?

—That there are approximately 3,650 women and 1,000 men in the Army Nurse Corps?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK
As an enlisted man, will I get a clothing allowance?

As you know, all enlisted men are provided with their initial uniforms free of charge. After six months of service, enlisted men and women receive $5.10 per month as a tax-free clothing allowance. It is possible for this allowance to go up to as much as $7.20 a month, depending upon rank and time in service.

COMBAT ART EXHIBIT

Currently working its way through the United States is an exhibit of original art by the members of the "combat artist team" which has been in Vietnam. The work includes sketches, watercolors, oils and lithographs. The work will become part of the Army's war art collection.

COMING WEEK

During the coming week I will be visiting, Monday — the Post Office in Amarillo; Tuesday — Local Board in Hereford; Wednesday & Thursday — the Post Office in Amarillo; and Friday — a. m. Canyon and p. m. Dimmitt post offices.

I'd like to urge anyone who has a question regarding the U. S. Army to visit me at any of the locations listed above. I'll be very happy to explain the many programs available for enlistment.

Rickman-Keyes Wedding Solemnized In Church

The marriage of Miss Deborah Mae Rickman and Thad Randall Keyes took place at twilight Friday, when the Rev. Bob Reed officiated for the exchange of vows in Avenue Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Rickman of Route 3 and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Keyes, also of Route 3. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The wedding party stood before baskets of white gladiolus tied with white bows and set amid green foliage.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Billee Goetsch, and Bobby Byers was best man. Misses Terri Townsend and Dell Sealy were the bridesmaids; Johnny Rickman, brother of the bride, and Danny McClanahan of Harlingen were groomsmen.

Cheryl McClanahan, daughter of the G. D. McClanahans, was the flower girl. Rings were carried by the Bobby Byers son, Robert. The bridegroom's brother, Jeff Keyes, and Keith Spearman ushered guests to their pews.

Wedding music was by Miss Carol Newton, organist, and Mrs. Bobby Reed, who sang Wedding Prayer and More.

Miss Rickman's gown was designed and made by her mother. Over a sheath of bridal satin the short-sleeved lace bodice hung loose, its scalloped edge ornamented with crystals and a tear-drop pearl hung from the center of each scallop.

The floor-length skirt and chapel train were of chiffon over the satin, with deep borders of applied lace motifs beaded with crystals and seed pearls. A large bow of the fabrics held the train at the back waistline.

A pearl-trimmed flower headpiece caught her tiered illusion veil. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums with pink miniature rosebuds and she wore a diamond necklace, gift of the bridegroom. As an heirloom piece she wore a gold locket on a bracelet, given to her mother by her father before their marriage.

Her attendants' gowns were in the same style as the bride's, in hot pink shade with brief puffed sleeves. Twin bows marked the front of the high waistline. They wore single circles of illusion held by flower headpieces and each carried a pink carnation.

Fellowship hall of the church was the scene of the wedding reception. Sisters of the bridegroom were in the house party.

Miss Mary Keyes pouring punch, Miss Kathy Keyes serving the cake and Miss Linda Keyes registering guests. Mrs. W. H. Goetsch and Mrs. J. A. Crofford assisted.

Pink roses were arranged to center the lace-covered pink cloth on the table where the four-tiered wedding cake was a part of the decor. It was wreath-

Robinsons Attend Austin Workshop

AUSTIN — Jess L. Robinson and Richard Robinson, Vocational Agriculture teachers at Hereford High School, were participants in the In-Service Educational Workshop conducted this week at the Terrace Motor Hotel in Austin, according to George H. Hurt, director of Agriculture Education.

Guest speaker for the opening session was Herbert J. Head, general marketing manager of Ford Motor Company, Birmingham, Michigan. His subject was centered around "Agriculture — the Year 2000."

An important phase of the training session were the eleven workshops conducted Wednesday-Thursday in subjects such as "Winter Feeding and Performance of Heifers," "Use and Safety of Herbicides," "Swine Management and Production," "Farm Credit," "Creative Teaching Innovations," and "Developing a Program in Off-Farm Agriculture Occupations."

The second general session began Thursday with guest speaker Reagan V. Brown, extension sociologist at Texas A&M University. His subject is "High on the Totem Pole." John R. Guemple, assistant commissioner for Vocational and Adult Education, is to discuss "How Recent Legislation Effects You As a Vocational Teacher."

The meeting closed on Friday with teachers planning district and area in-service education workshops, Future Farmer and Young Farmer activities for 1969-70.

On the first day of the workshop, the approximately 1,158 teachers were welcomed by Austin Mayor Travis LaRue and heard remarks by Dr. J.W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education.

Vocational Agriculture Education teachers meet annually for training in new developments and trends.

Concerning Veterans

The GI roll call has passed the 27,000,000 mark.

In announcing the new total of enrollees, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said that Vietnam veterans discharged to August 4, raised the ledger count to the highest peak in history.

In reviewing the veteran population, the VA Manager noted that the average age of all 27 million veterans has increased to 44.3 years.

Broken down by wars, the average age of veterans on the active rolls are:

Spanish-American War (6,000 veterans) 80.3 years; World War I (1,647,000) 74.7 years; World War II (14,592,000 veterans) 49.7 years; Korean Conflict (5,847,000 veterans) 40 years; and Vietnam era (3,169,000 veterans) 26.2 years.

Also on the VA rolls are 3,134,000 who served in the Armed Forces between the Korean Conflict and Vietnam. Their average age is 30.7 years.

The totals above tops 27 million since some veterans served in more than one period.

While most of the nation's veterans have taken advantage of some rights during the 25-year history of the GI Bill, Coker pointed out, major participation was four million in education and another 7.5 million for on-the-job training.

Millions including many of those who received education and training benefits, also have received other benefits such as loan guarantees for purchases of homes, businesses and farms, and compensation or pensions.

The VA Manager pointed out that Vietnam veterans who did not complete high school have an opportunity veterans of other wars did not, in that the VA will pay them a monthly subsistence while they earn their high school diploma. This does not reduce their entitlement for other educational or training benefits.

Complete information on GI Bill benefits is available at any VA office, locations of which are in the white pages of telephone directories.

Holly Sales High; Suit Dismissed

COLARADO SPRINGS — A 27 percent increase in sales over last year for the three months ended June 30, 1969, was announced by Holly Sugar Corporation in an interim report to stockholders released in August.

Chairman John L. Loeb, Jr. and President John B. Bunker said that sales this year were $23,190,000 compared with $18,208,000 for the similar period last year.

These figures include sales for Holly World Foods, Inc., Holly's wholly-owned gourmet food subsidiary.

Because of the seasonal nature of Holly's business, the initial quarters of its fiscal year are not representative of operating results expected for a full year. Consequently, only sales figures are reported.

that a suit had been brought against Holly and a co-defendant seeking specific performance, by one or both of the defendants, of an alleged agreement to purchase 20 percent of the outstanding stock in and a note of Tallman Sugar Corporation for a total price of approximately $1,925,000. Loeb and Bunker announced.

"On July 3, 1969, a cross-counterclaim was filed against Holly by the co-defendant alleging that Holly had agreed to buy all of the outstanding stock of Tallman, including the remaining 80 percent of such stock owned by the co-defendant.

"The co-defendant claims in his cross-counterclaim consequential and compensatory damages of $16,000,000 and punitive damages of $25,000,000. On Aug. 4, 1969, such claim for punitive damages was dismissed by the court subject to the co-defendant's right of appeal. Holly denies all the co-defendant's claims," Loeb and Bunker reported.

Plants range in size from bacteria only a few microns (millionths of a meter) long to giant redwoods more than 350 feet high.

A brilliant Arab scholar of the 9th century, Al Khwarizmi, used the zero to advantage in his classic work Al-Jabr w'al muqabalah. The title, abbreviated, became the word "algebra". The term "logarithm" supposedly is a distortion of the scholar's name.

FINAL 18 TOUGHEST

HOUSTON — Deane Beman, Miller Barber and Ray Floyd were the only golfers to break par of 70 in two rounds of the 72-hole U. S. Open.

However, Beman went five over par in his last two rounds. Barber, shooting a 78 the final day when a 74 would have made him champion, went nine over par on his second and final rounds. Floyd, starting with a 78, put in a pair of 68s then faltered to a 72 the last round.

Orville Moody took the Open with a 281 but the final 18 holes proved toughest for the field as only two golfers broke par of 70. They were Bruce Devlin and Joe Campbell, both with 69.

287 MAKES IT FOR 1970

HOUSTON — Twenty golfers besides champion Orville Moody qualified for the 1970 U. S. Open on their play over the Champions Golf Club.

The first 15 players and ties become automatic qualifiers which exempts them from local and sectional qualifying rounds next spring. The cutoff point was 287, seven over par. Nine golfers had that 72-hole total to tie for 12th place and $1,888 each.

Lee Trevino, who failed to qualify for the last two rounds at Champions, Jack Nicklaus, Billy Casper and Gary Player qualify for 1970 for having preceded Moody as open champions.

I SUPPOSE YOU KNOW BUFO AND I GOT INTO A LITTLE TROUBLE BEFORE REACHING NADUWA—

WE HEARD NO DETAILS, MISTER GIBBS—

IT WASN'T MY FAULT. I HAD TO SHOOT THOSE CROCS AND THAT LEOPARD IN SELF-DEFENSE!

... AND IF BUFO HADN'T WARNED ME, I'D BE DEAD, WOULDN'T I?

IT'S POSSIBLE, I GUESS—

SO, WHY DO THE GAME AUTHORITIES GET UPSET ABOUT ME FOR PROTECTING MYSELF?

I SHOULD HAVE TOLD HIM THAT CROCODILES AND LEOPARDS ARE A FAST-DISAPPEARING SPECIES — THAT'S WHY GAME RANGERS GET UPSET !!

BUT, GIBBS IS SO ANTI-LEOPARD, AND PRO-BUFO, I DOUBT IF HE'D UNDERSTAND !!

TIM, HE DID SHOOT IN SELF-DEFENSE!

IT'S TRUE THAT BUFO WARNS AGAINST WILD ANIMAL ATTACKS, BUT THE PROBLEM IS, HE ALSO ATTRACTS THOSE ATTACKS!
