AROUND TOWN

Sights and Faces Seen

Jesse William Hyde, Jr., whose serial number is 682, received the last Deaf Smith county order number, 817. One more registrant has been added to the list, George Allen with serial number 817.

You can't make two or three little girls in Westway school believe there aren't any witches "cause they found some witch hats last Tuesday morning, the hats apparently being lost by two witches on their broomstick ride over Westway last Monday night. That was the night the B & P W club went to Westway, and if you ask Ethyl Robinson or Florence Wilkins—especially Ethel—she might tell you that it was rather an unusual night.

Complete List of Numbers Given

First 20 questionnaires under the Selective Service Act went out yesterday to registrants of this county and 30 more were mailed today. The master list from Washington has been received and every Deaf Smith county registrant has been given a number. Order numbers in this county run from 1 to 817.

As explained last week, order numbers drawn at Washington which were larger than any in this county, were disregarded in determining local order numbers.

The following list of serial and order numbers has been compiled by the Selective Service Board in Hereford from the Master list supplied from Washington.

The first number is the Deaf Smith county serial number, second number is the order number, and so on, reading from

Victory For FDR Starts New National Trend

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, with a popular vote this morning of 24,363,798, to Wendell L. Willkie's 20,282,049 will go into the White House for a third term, and the history of the United States seems definitely to have taken a divergent trend from the traditions and ideals of the past.

With probable electoral vote of 468 to 63 for his Republican opponent, Roosevelt continued his tradition-smashing career.

Willkie, conceding victory to Roosevelt, yesterday called on his followers to unite behind the president and sent a telegram of congratulation to his victorious opponent.

Deaf Smith county gave Roosevelt a vote of three to one over Willkie. The president received 1282 votes to 423 for Willkie and five for Roger Babson. Texas as a whole gave Roosevelt a majority of about four to one. The count was 642,000 to 162,000 this morning.

J. E. McDonald, Democratic candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture and a Willkie supporter, received little opposition (Continued on Page 10)

Commissioners Order Election After Receiving Petition

Deaf Smith County Commissioners' Court Friday ordered an election to be held December 3 to determine whether or not this county will issue $600,000 in bonds for road paving purposes.

The court, composed of A. J. Schroeter, county judge, and Wiley Robertson, N. W. Ewton, T. W. Robertson and E. T. Allred, ordered the election following presentation of a petition of C. F. Kerr and 288 other persons asking that such an election be held.

The election order states that the bonds are to be issued for the purpose of construction, maintenance and operation of a road running west from the city limits of Hereford to the west boundary line of the county; a road running south from Hereford to the Castro county line and a road running north from Hereford to the Oldham county line.

The bonds, if voted, will not be sold unless the county receives definite assurance that the state will assume them and pay for them, the petition stipulated.

The bonds will bear interest at a rate not exceeding 5% per annum and will mature at such times as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed a period of 20 years. The election is also to determine whether or not an ad valorem tax shall be levied. (Continued on Page 10)

The city ordinance call for a fine of up to $100 upon conviction of its violation.

"Hogs must go," is the word from the City Hall. A warning was also given that the ordinance requiring that chickens be kept on the premises would also be strictly enforced. Many persons are planning flower gardens at this time of the year, Mr. Curtsinger said, and chickens must be kept up.

Individual Memberships Is Red Cross Goal

Placing emphasis on individual membership instead of firm membership, and enrollment of each member of a family, instead of a large family donation the Deaf Smith county chapter of the American Red Cross prepared this week for the beginning of its annual membership drive Monday, November 11, Armistice Day.

Primary purpose of the membership drive is to give individuals an opportunity to be (Continued on Page 10)

"It is my hope to operate a suburban grocery of which this community will be proud," Mr. Felts declared. ## WHITEFACES TO BATTLE FOR DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP AT TULIA FRIDAY NIGHT IN FINAL CONFERENCE GAME

Final Tribute Paid To Judge L. Gough In Services At First Christian Church Here Tuesday

In a service touching in its simplicity, and full of sadness at the loss of a great leader, a true pioneer, and friend to all, friends and relatives overflowed the First Christian Church Tuesday afternoon as last reverent tribute was paid to Judge L. Gough, who died early Sunday morning at the home of R. H. Norton in Amarillo. Dr. R. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the Amarillo First Christian Church, officiated at the final rites and interment was in West Park Cemetery.

The 78 year old cowboy, poet, lawyer, first teacher and first county judge of Castro County, and a resident of this area for more than half a century, was found dead at the home of his old friend, R. H. Norton, with whom he had made his home for about three years. The evening before, they had played games together.

The funeral services were held in accordance with Judge Gough's wishes. A son, Earl Gough, sang a song he had requested; the beautiful "Crossing the Bar." His last poem, found in his typewriter, was read by Dr. Snodgrass.

Survivors include three sons.

Roy Gough of Marfa, Leroy Gough of Beaumont, and Earl Gough of Austin; and three daughters, Mrs. Coralee McConnell of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. May Heffner and Mrs. Irma Gelin, both of Beaumont.

Other survivors included a brother, Marcus Gough of Roxton, a sister, Mrs. Anna Cothran of Paris; 12 grandchildren and other relatives.

Judge L. Gough was born a native Texan in Lamar county on July 29, 1862. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Asher Gough who came to Texas from Kentucky.

Judge Gough came to West Texas as a tenderfoot cowboy on the old T-Anchor ranch and was a member of the outfit that took one of the first herds up the old Chisholm Trail. He came when the development of this area had barely started and was in on the making of much history in the Panhandle. He anticipated the coming of farms (Continued on Page 10)

Tulia Hornets Plan Upset Victory Over Leading Whitefaces

With the first real chance at a district championship in five years awaiting them at Younger Field at Tulia tomorrow night, 7:30, Hereford's Whitefaces are grimly prepared to give the Tulia Hornets "the works" in the final conference game of the season for the Herefordites.

Tulia, last year's champions,

Hereford Stores To Close On Armistice Day

Indications today are that practically all stores in Hereford will be closed Monday, November 11, in observance of Armistice Day. This action is in line with what Hereford stores have done in years past, and the American Legion of Hereford has urged co-operation of business men in observing this Armistice by declaring a holiday.

It has been pointed out that the United States is the only major nation taking part in the first Armistice which can still celebrate the holiday amidst peace. Practically every nation which celebrated the first Armistice is today either trampled down by aggressors, waging aggressive war, or is defending itself from aggression.

Thus, in a war-torn world, Armistice Day takes on deeper meaning for all Americans, it was declared.

The scarcity of Chinese food products in American markets has caused little of the artistry of Chinese cooks to be adopted in the western world, although Chinese cookery is the envy of nations. For a long time Chinese vegetables and sauces, so indispensable to the proper blending of Oriental dishes, were known only to Chinese chefs, and could be purchased only in Chinese shops. But today bamboo shoots, water chestnuts, bean sprouts, noodles and soy bean sauce—all imported Chinese products—are being packed in tin cans or dried and sold in our markets. Now the American housewife can prepare any amount of Oriental dishes which are so intriguing, as well as nourishing.

This recipe comes from Mrs. Bob Wilson who persuaded a Jew who does commercial cooking to give it to her.

Let's Cook Something

CHOP SUEY

- 1 lb. lean veal.
- 1 lb. lean pork
- 1 can bean sprouts
- 1 cup celery diced small
- 1-2 cup chopped onion
- 1 small can mushrooms
- 1 tablespoon Chop Suey Sauce
- 1 tablespoon Worcester Sauce

Chop the meat in small cubes, making sure there is no fat or gristle left in, and brown in butter and cooking oil until tender. (Using just enough butter and cooking oil to keep from burning.) Make a mixture of 2 tablespoons flour and liquid from the mushrooms, adding enough water to make a thin paste. Add this to the meat, then add the mushrooms, cut in pieces, bean sprouts and Chop Suey Sauce. Saute the onion in a little butter, combine with celery and Worcester Sauce and add to the above mixture. Simmer slowly until gravy-like consistency. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Just before serving, add 1 small can of water chestnuts. Serve on mounds of rice, cooked dry, and top with Chow Mein Noodles. This is enough for eight servings. Everything should be piping hot when served and in case you are overly fond of chicken, it can be used instead of the meat.

Junior Bay View Club Program-Tea Compliments Senior Organization

Outstanding among week-end social functions was the affair given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Conkright Thursday night when the Junior Bay View Club complimented members of the senior organization.

The annual entertainment given by each club to complement the other organization is looked forward to each year as the high light of the season's activities. Thursday night's official hostesses were Miss Ruth Conkright, Mrs. Fred Mulkey, Mrs. Jim Kirby, Mrs. J. T. Gilbreath Jr. and Mrs. Elizabeth

Mrs. Luker is a popular reviewer and she sustained the interest of the audience for an hour as she brought out the dramatic color and human interest of the story.

Intriguing colors of autumn combined with colors suggesting that Armistice Day and its patriotic import might be just around the corner, marked decorations for the refreshment table. Spilling from an overturned deep red and gold basket at one end of the table, lush fruits in orange, deep purple, green, gold and red extended half the tables length with a trio of tall flag-red tapers burning in crystal holders at either side. At the other end of the table Miss Ruth Conkright presided over the silver tea service. Other appointments were in silver and crystal.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mesdames Bob Wilson, J. B. Stoker, J. P. Slaton, F. T. Roloson, G. A. F. Parker, John McLean, C. F. Moore, J. H. Olson, J. W. Kirby, Clara McLean, D. H. Alexander, C. Here's a short easy Quiz that can save you harsh starting wear all Winter... When you park, does all the lubricant drain down sooner if the cylinders slant like the sides of the letter V, or if they're straight up like the letter I?

Answer: All the lubricant DOES NOT drain down for hours—days—weeks—in any type of car engine that's OIL-PLATED by changing to Conoco Germ Processed oil for Winter.

Processed into this patented oil is the magnet-like ability to keep inner engine parts surfaced with rich slippery OIL-PLATING

...as close-fitting as other protective plating on your car... and just as drainproof!

Then before you can even get near your car, the waiting engine is already OIL-PLATED against the worst Winter wear. And out goes the dread of the starting period. Do you ever read or hear of any Winter help that's more positive? Change today then—simply, quickly, economically—to this patented Germ Processed oil that OIL-PLATES, warding off excess wear to keep up mileage.

The Commissioners' Court has called an election on bonds for highway improvement, but this week I got to wondering if the commissioners aren't overlooking a bet. They might just turn the matter over to Mrs. Wirt Phillips. Anyone who can make such a nice road, in such a short time, as she made through Hudson Grocery gets my vote for efficiency and speed.

Between the draft and Sadie Hawkins Day it looks like Wilson Gyles would give up—but he still continues to be a fugitive from a dame gang.

Oh Boy! Here's a scoop. The draft board embarrassed a lot of us fellows by printing our middle names and after much hard work, I have finally secured the middle names of the men on the draft board. They are Carl Thomas Jefferson Gilliland, Hiram Gratz Konkright, and Frank Earl Givan. I am also about half mad at Frank Givan. All of the names were easy to get except his. He wouldn't tell me; likewise, Mrs. Givan refused to disclose his middle name. I went to the court house and checked the records, but he always signed it Frank E. None of his friends had ever heard the name and his army discharge papers weren't available. Finally, John Patton wrote to Frank's brother in California—and then Frank turns up with a common, ordinary middle name like "Earl." I thought sure it would be Eustace, Ethiopia, Euripides or something unusual. It could even have been Empodolles, but no, it had to be Earl.

I am gradually winning the men over to the fact that I am only 32, although few of them have yet admitted their error and agreed with the women folks. Ray Singletary was one of the first. He says, "I believe you are only 32, but I still don't see how anyone could get so ugly in such a short time."

Well, election has come and gone. The American people have paid the highest tribute to President Roosevelt that has ever been paid to any man in the history of the United States. Here in Texas we should rejoice at the election of a Democrat, and Roosevelt should appreciate the fact that Texas gave him such an overwhelming majority. The President will likely consider his re-election for a third term as complete endorsement of his New Deal policies—and such calculations will be undoubtedly right. However, I do wish he would kick Mrs. Perkins out of the government circle. If he will just do this, coupled with the fact that John L. Lewis has already promised to resign if Roosevelt was re-elected, I think that the United States will be much, much better off. Harold Close wants to bet that Roosevelt will give Wendell Wilkie a government job within the next six months, but I don't believe Wilkie will accept.

In the following paragraphs you will find some short sketches on what a few of Deaf Smith County's World War veterans were doing when the Armistice was signed November 11, 1918—22 years ago. I am sure that each of the veterans remembers the incident and we

"CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTORS"

By REV. JAS. AIKEN
Considerable discussion has been taking place recently on the question of "Conscientious Objectors." This is a vital question and one which, in the months to come, may have a strong bearing upon the lives of many people. As is the case with every question, there are two views of it: It is the purpose of this article to present both views from a sincere and unbiased standpoint.

First, may we look at the standpoint of the Conscientious Objector? There are those who, because of their religious training and convictions, cannot take part in any war, whether it be one of aggression or defense. War, in any form, is out of harmony with their religious beliefs and convictions. Because they cannot take part in war, they are termed "Conscientious Objectors."

Secondly, there are those who, while they abhor war and all of its horror and suffering, do not feel that a war in defense of their country, their families, their homes, and their personal liberty, is out of harmony with their religious beliefs and convictions. Such are the views of the "Conscientious Objectors" and those who are not.

What conclusions, then, can we draw? First, we can say that those who are "Conscientious Objectors" form a minority group. Because they are a small group they will be unpopular. There will be those who, through shallowness of mind and lack of consideration and sympathy for others, will criticize, condemn, and maltreat the "Conscientious Objectors." This kind of action is definitely not democratic! Secondly, legislation has been enacted to protect the Conscientious Objectors. He should be granted the full protection of the law of these United States.

In conclusion, this article is a plea for sanity of thought, for consideration of and sympathy toward those who are not in accord with us concerning this tremendous problem. It is a plea that we will "do unto others as we would have them do unto us."

Personally, I am not a "Conscientious Objector," but I firmly believe that those who are should be granted the privilege of following the dictates of their conscience with regard to this question. Furthermore, I shall do all within my power to see that they are not in any way molested by any unthinking or unsympathetic individual or group of individuals.

May I say that this article was written upon request and I realize that I am subjecting myself to criticism and perhaps jeopardizing my standing in the community. Never-the-less, these are my firm convictions.

Bob Fullwoods Are Hosts At Masked Party

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fullwood entertained members of the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club and their families with a Halloween party Thursday night.

After masks were removed, games, reminiscent of childhood days, were enjoyed. A long dark tunnel, guarded by ghosts and goblins, led to the cellar where a keg of sweet cider, big bowls of popcorn balls, plates of gingerbread and baskets of red apples waited to be served to Messers and Mesdames Fred Saltzman and children, G. A. Frye, John Kropff and children M. H. Koelzer and children, C. G. Robbins, Ernest Runyon and children, W. H. Miller and children, George S. Parker, R. E. ## "The Messiah" Rehearsals Have Fine Beginning

Largest initial rehearsal for "The Messiah" ever held here was that which met Monday night at the Methodist Church. With the promise of more to attend, much more interest displayed and several new members with good voices, this year's presentation of "The Messiah" on December 8 promises to be one of the best ever given in Hereford.

Rehearsals will be held again next Monday night at the Methodist Church beginning at 7:30. There is room for more new members, Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, director said, and old members who did not attend the first rehearsal are urged to and commerce and kept a daily record of activities on the range-land.

As the ranches and great cattle herds were broken up by the development he had foreseen, Judge Gough set about putting his writings in book form, and in 1886 the volume was published under the title, "Western Travels and Other Rhymes." Fifty years later, when historians discovered that the book was not only interesting reading, but was of great historical value as well, the book was reissued under the title, "Spur Jingles and Saddle Songs." Later, the task of writing a history of activities he had seen, learned and in which he had had a part, consumed much of his time.

Because of his wide experience and knowledge of early day life, Judge Gough was in constant demand as a lecturer and had spoken before 350 Texas schools in the last few years.

Judge Gough came to Hereford at the town's beginning and was active in its early growth. He was in the real estate business here with the late C. G. Witherspoon.

At the time of his death he was secretary of the T-Ancor Cowboy Association and was active in organizing the Texas Wheat Growers Association. Mrs. Gough was buried in West Park Cemetery on December 28, 1937. She had died the day before in Amarillo. They were married November 23, 1904.

Palbearers were Dr. R. L. Rogers, and J. B. Briscoe, of Amarillo; M. D. Ramsey of Floydada, Charles Thomas of Pampa, and Troy Womble and C. H. Dyer of Hereford. The body lay in state at the First Christian Church from 10 o'clock Tuesday morning until the services late in the afternoon.

Relatives here for the services included Mr. and Mrs. Grover Taylor of Paris, Mrs. Wight Mayness of Roston, Mrs. Anna Cothran of Paris, Marcus Gough of Roston, Mrs. Coralee McConnell and daughter, Mrs. Frank Dishman of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gough and son, Jim, of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gough of Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Gough, Roy Jr., John and Ann, of Marfa; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gelin of Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Heffner, John and Dorothy, of Beaumont.

Friends from Amarillo who attended the services included R. H. Hill, L. F. Sheffey and R. E. Baird of Canyon.

Judge Gough's last poem follows:

GONE

The old T-Ancor ranch is gone,
And with it the open range,
No more we'll ride the plains alone,
There has been a mighty change.

No more we'll round the circle wide,
In early spring and fall,
Or stamp T-Ancor on the hide,
And hear the yearlings bawl.

No more we'll trail T-Ancor herds
To Fort Reno and "Montan,"
Or hear the drawing camp fire words,
Nor wear the trail brown tan.

We've seen cowboys in their prime,

And the ranch in all its glory,
Now some have crossed the line,
And others bald and hoary.

May the T-Ancor ranch in memory live,
Through all the coming years,
And our deeds strong courage give
To future youth and seers.

—L. Gough.

Boy Scouts To Leave For Camp

About 15 Boy Scouts of Troop 1, and possibly some from Troop 3, will leave at 7 o'clock Saturday morning for a three-day camp in Palo Duro Canyon. Hiking, exploring, games and scout training are activities planned.

Two new tenderfoot scouts were welcomed at Monday night's meeting. Ralph Fullwood and Joe Lyons will receive their badges at camp.

Three of the constitutional amendments carried in the state balloting, but the Red River county amendment was defeated here 405 to 297, and is in doubt over the state. The other amendments carried by a vote of about two to one, here.

Governor W. Lee O'Daniel had a handy majority of 1595 to Republican Hopkin's 107. In the state vote O'Daniel had received 469,000, Hopkins, 19,000, this morning.

All other Democratic nominees in the state had easy sledding.

In addition to open house, Central school will further celebrate National Education Week by daily 30-minute discussions in each room of the theme topic for that day, Mr. Allison added.

Several Hereford churches have also indicated plans to emphasize the Sunday theme, "Enriching Spiritual Life," in their services on November 10, the day the week begins.

"Education for the Common Defense" does not mean that a child should be taught how to shoot a gun, fire a cannon or be drilled in military tactics, it has been pointed out. Rather it means defense of America in the broader sense, through inculcation of democratic ideals, civic interest, leadership, responsibility and clear thinking.

John Schneider narrowly escaped electrocution Saturday morning when he grasped a live wire carrying 2300 volts at Lake Park. He was on a pole and fell 22 feet to the ground. The shock temporarily blinded him and partially paralyzed his chest. He was taken to the hospital at the time. He suffered severe bruises and scratches. Only the fact that he did not have his safety belt around the pole, allowing him to fall, saved him.

Ray Johnson of Summerfield came in last week and renewed his subscription to the Brand because, "It's one paper I can read that isn't for Willie."

Whitefaces To

to play their hardest of any game this season.

Hereford will be seeking the reverse of last year's 32-7 defeat by Tulla. The Whitefaces will go into the game with the experience of seven tussles, most of them tough ones, behind them and will have the near-disaster at Dalhart to keep down any over confidence they may have.

Dumas' defeat of Tulla, 40-6, doesn't mean much as far as Hereford is concerned. Dumas also beat Dalhart 50-0 and the Whitefaces barely got a 13-0 win there.

One of the largest crowds of fans to attend an out-of-town game this season will follow the Whitefaces to Tulla tomorrow evening. If room can be found in cars of fans going, the entire band and pep squad will go to the Swisher county capital. If any person will have room for an extra person in the car, Mr. Kinard or Mr. Hudson will appreciate a call to the high school.

The Whitefaces, with a week of rest behind them, are in splendid shape for the battle and eager for the fray. For some players it will mean the only chance in their football careers to be members of a championship team.

Individual

come members, and not to seek donations, H. V. Hennen, chairman of the drive pointed out yesterday at a meeting of committee chairmen and others in the county court room at the court house.

The ideal of the Red Cross drive this year is to give every individual in Deaf Smith county an opportunity to join if he wishes.

Over 200 workers have been appointed by Mr. Hennen, and the town and rural areas have been divided into small units so that each worker is not burdened with a large number of persons to contact. These workers and their territories were listed in last week's issue of the Brand. The person whose name appears first in each group is the chairman of that group and is responsible for the work of the persons under him, Mr. Hennen said.

John Olson, president of the local chapter, told the meeting that Deaf Smith county last year was ninth in the state in the proportion of memberships to population of the county. E. C. Eubanks, treasurer, told of Red Cross aid to the Cafeteria, the supplying of milk to small children in needy families, and other welfare activities. He said that the American Red Cross was constantly on guard and ready to send trained workers whenever disaster struck.

Persons becoming members of the Red Cross by paying their one dollar dues, will receive a membership card, a button and a window sticker. Mr. Hennen said. Firms or business houses in which every person connected with the organization becomes a member, will be issued a 100 per cent certificate.

Can International Troubles Be Settled Without Having War?

Monday, Armistice Day, marks the end of the twenty-second year since that glorious November 11, 1918, when the American, French, English and German soldiers laid down their arms, and the air became still, after four years of echoing the sound of guns, and peace reigned over the world once more.

Twenty-two years of steady progress, of struggling to make democracy what it really should be! Neither has the effort been lost, for today, more than ever before, the American people realize just how much their freedom means to them.

Today, we are faced with a problem similar to that which we faced in 1918. Although most of the provisions of the famous treaty of Versailles have been broken, we cannot forget that with the signing of that treaty, we gained the goal that we set in 1918. Yes, we gained the goal, but, oh! the price! We sent our boys across the ocean to fight, to give their life blood for democracy. Many of them never came back, leaving homes with a vacant place that can never be filled. Many mothers, hoping, praying, waiting to see the face that they loved, turned sadly away when they heard the terrible news. Others came home crippled for life. All came home sadder than when they left. Yet they did it gladly to save democracy from destruction. For twenty-two years, democracy has been safe, but now? Do we have to do it all over? Surely there is another way. Our Dads tried by fighting; why can't we try another way? Why can't we help to promote good-will among our fellow men? Armistice Day not only stands for the end of the

Hereford Schools to Observe Education Week Nov. 10-16

Sophomore Mothers Organize Today

The Sophomores held their meeting Wednesday, October 30, in the auditorium.

Dues were discussed, and it was decided that they would be paid between the first and the third of each month. Those not paying will be barred from class activities until the end of that month.

It was decided that the Sophomore mothers should meet today and organize.

The president nominated a committee to decide the date of the assembly program. They are: Bruce Beene as chairman, Geraldine Kendall, George L. LeGrand, and Wanda Jean Whitaker.

Student Council Makes Two Definite Decisions

After electing Lois Agnes Gilbreath reporter of the Student Council, the group discussed the value of privilege cards; it was decided that they were of enough value to be used this year. The persons applying for cards will have to have the same qualifications as last year.

The Council decided to continue having the bulletin in the study hall as they have in former years. The bulletin will contain various items such as slogans, inspirational poems, and the qualifications of a good student.

Juniors Taken For A Ride

Do you like a good, old-fashioned hay-ride? The Junior Class certainly does! This is the first year this class has ever gone on a hay-ride.

The group that went packed paper sack lunches, and a group of mothers prepared a beverage.

A hay rack loaded with hay awaited the group. By the way, John Estes, Harold Close, and Richard Ireland had the job of loading the rack with hay and were late to History III Class that afternoon. As soon as a tarp was stretched over the hay, the rack was loaded with eager Juniors. The tractor which was used was loaned by Rosson and Hayes Implement Company and was driven by Kenneth Lisenbe.

The group left Hereford about 5 o'clock Halloween afternoon for the ride to Earl Wilson's farm. There the class played games, and then enjoyed immensely their paper sack lunches. The trip home was one of fun and frolic.

Great World War, but it also stands for life, liberty, peace, happiness, brotherly love, and good will.

Let's all remember those boys who fought for us in Flanders Field, those who are buried beneath the poppies, and resolve to make this world a better place in which to live.

Theme Is "Education For Common Defense"

American Education Week, November 10-16, will be observed in Hereford this year more definitely than ever before. The program has been planned by a committee under the general supervision of Mr. G. M. Hudson.

Those working with him are Miss Irene Crawford, Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan, and Mr. John Willoughby. In assembly, Margaret Higgins will lead a panel discussion.

The theme for the entire program is "Education for the Common Defense." For each day, there is a special topic.

Sunday, the ministers will be asked to help observe this week by discussing "Enriching Spiritual Life." The basis for thought is the idea that the pioneers founded America because they wanted religious freedom; they built a great nation from this desire. Today, the school guides students to enriched spiritual living.

Monday, the topic will be "Strengthening Civic Loyalties." If America is to remain a nation where freedom reigns, civic loyalty must be strengthened. In school, a boy or girl fills the same capacity that a man or woman does in the community. The school teaches pupils how to act intelligently and govern themselves wisely.

Tuesday, the subject for thought will be "Financing Public Education." The National Education Association has said, "Education is an economic asset, an investment in human resources." The schools in the U. S. cost two billion dollars a year; this is an average of seventy-five dollars per pupil. Because of improved school buildings, school costs have risen in recent years. Though people want tax reduction, it would be folly to abandon schools to reach this desire.

Wednesday will be devoted to a discussion of "Developing Human Resources." The schools seek to improve the individual. By guiding these 30 million youths, the schools strive to eliminate unemployment, hunger amid plenty, crime, and ill health. When that is achieved, the nation will have developed her human resources.

Thursday will be the day for considering "Safeguarding Natural Resources." The U. S. has 45 per cent of the world's resources and only 6 1-2 per cent of its population. Only recently was the waste of resources noticed. One-third of the nation's top soil, most of its forest and much of its minerals are gone.

Friday will have a vital topic for discussion: "Perpetuating Individual Liberties." Education perpetuates individual liberties by developing a people capable of governing themselves and a people who are determined that America shall remain a free country.

Saturday will have, by no means, an insignificant topic. It is "Building Economic Security." People who are socially intelligent can achieve economic security. To make people socially learned is the duty of the school.

During the week of November 10-16, parents and others interested in our public schools are invited to visit the schools in order to get acquainted with the general school program and the faculty.

The Glee Club will present a concert of songs taken from different periods of American History. This program is to be presented Tuesday night, November 12, at the High School auditorium.

The songs include quartet numbers, group songs and dramatized pieces. The public is invited and there is no admission charge.

In Other Camps

Adorning the Tulla High School Auditorium is a new Hamilton Grand piano and are the students happy! As they listen with rapturous awe, they pledge their cooperation to the P. L. A. in paying for this new Hamilton Grand piano.

A girl whose hungry eyes are

But girls are loved by guys like

Central Chatter

The high point of interest at Central School last week was Halloween. Everyone came as spooks and ghosts; everyone was someone they weren't and were guessing from morn till night. To close the exciting day at school, some of the teachers gave parties for their rooms. Miss McMinn's room and Mr. Milner's room had parties. Miss Pitman's room entertained Miss Daughette's room. Miss Cotton's room entertained Miss Bradley's room. 7B gave a program for 7A, and 7A served refreshments to both rooms.

The 4th grade elected Keith Hutson president; Patsy Ann Slagle, vice-president; and Jacqueline Newell, secretary.

The 4th grade boys won a baseball game. They were playing against the 5th grade girls. The score was 11-9.

the group. Billie Louise Crawford gave a poem, and June Dameron gave "The Origin of Halloween." Songs followed, the last being "Sing Your Way Home."

Tri-Hi-Y To Entertain Dads With Banquet

The annual Father-Daughter Banquet was the topic for discussion at the Tri-Hi-Y, Tuesday, October 29, at the high school. This banquet is held each year, and this year it will be November 19.

The program was on "Boy and Girl Relationship." Betty Ann Dunlap gave a talk on "My Ideal Girl," and Polly Dixon gave a talk on "My Ideal Boy."

Rachel Ireland talked on "How Can a Girl Uphold Her Tri-Hi-Y Standards?" which was followed by a round table discussion that closed the meeting.

Pep Club Makes Plans For Annual Banquet

The Pep Club met Tuesday and discussed the Pep Club Banquet. The date set for this banquet is November 29. The club planned to have the mothers meet Tuesday, November 5, at 4:00 o'clock in Miss Foster's room to approve the plans. The theme of the banquet is a "Motion Picture Premier"; each person is to represent a particular movie star.

To raise money for the banquet, the girls voted to pay fifty cents per person and to sell favors on the special train to Tulla.

Hi-Y Boys Study Occupations

The Hi-Y Boys are continuing the study of occupations. At the latest regular meeting, Larry Trimble, Jack Allmon and Richard Ireland gave special reports on the subjects.

The date for card fees and cards to be turned in was November 5. If the boys had not done this by the appointed time, they were no longer considered members of the club.

A fine of five cents for being tardy was assessed and paid by Bruce Beene, Wilbur Harman, and Delbert Kassahn. Candidates for membership were exempted from paying the fine.

Yours...

The question is often asked, "Who runs a bank?" The chain of direct control is usually stockholders-to-directors-to-officers. But in the final analysis it is you, and other members of the public, who determine our facilities and policies.

Only by serving you satisfactorily can we hope to win and hold your patronage. Consequently, we do not think of this as our bank, but as yours — and we shape our policies accordingly.

We believe you will find in our organization the answer to your banking problems.

World History Classes Sponsored Election

The history classes of Miss Robbie Foster sponsored a school presidential election. The whole school was invited to participate. To vote, one had to pay his poll tax (one cent). Almost exact replicas of poll tax receipts were used.

Billy Dameron was the County Tax Assessor and Collector; Felix Pyka was the election judge. Thurman Williamson and Kenneth Rudd were Willie leaders, and Billy Gene Massie and John Douglas Pitman were Roosevelt leaders.

Campaign speeches were given in assembly, and several were given at noon.

A loud speaker was used both at noon and after school for campaign speeches. Billy Dameron acted as the man on the street on campaign days. Unrehearsed talks were given by students of both parties.

Whitefaces Expect To Trample Tulla Hornets

This week we go to Tulla to play our last conference game against the Hornets. For the last few years, they have beaten us by large scores. In 1938 the score was Tulla 19, Hereford 13; in 1939 the score was Tulla 32, Hereford 7; in 1940 the score is going to be Tulla?? Hereford?? The Herd will-go to Tulla this week, but it is no certainty that we will topple the Tulla lads this year. If determination means anything, the Whitefaces will return with a victory under their belts.

Tulla beat Dalhart by one touchdown, and we beat Dalhart by two touchdowns; but that doesn't mean that we can defeat Tulla by only three scores or it doesn't mean that we can beat them that much. Hereford should win by about 20 points if everything runs smoothly.

If the Hereford team continues their winning streak at Tulla, they will march into bi-district play for the first time in many years. In District 2, the champions will likely be either Phillips or Panhandle; however, this is at the present time uncertain.

The boys in this, the last scheduled game, need your support more than ever. The band and pep squad are going, and many fans are expected to turn out to make the trip to Tulla to yell for the home team.

If you are going and have extra room in your car, take some band or pep club member.

Ex-Whiteface Bulls Win Over Steers 18-0

Friday night, despite the fact that the Whitefaces had no game, was a jovial occasion with the ex-Whitefaces choosing sides and having a laugh riot which they called a football game. We'll call the sides the "Bulls" and "Steers." The Bulls with "Bunky" Daniels, Clyde Posey, R. C. Ashlock, Sylvester Loerwald, and seven others passed and ran to an 18-0 victory over the Steers who were led by "Buddy" Sowell, "Flick" Climer, H. D. Blythe, and G. H. Parker.

The boys expected to play Canyon "exes," but as Canyon didn't arrive, the boys had a jolly time among themselves. There were many sore, bruised arms and legs Friday night; in fact, many of the "exes" were unable to move their big toes Saturday morning.

ARMISTICE DAY

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO—Gongs sounded along the front line. And then silence. It was the Eleventh Hour, the Eleventh Day, the Eleventh Month and the end of the World War. In cities people were jubilant over the news and danced in the streets and wept for joy. Along the front line it was different. Just a silence. Tired, haggard faced, the men—fighting men—talked quietly to each other and wondered if it was really over. Then the message spread, officially, that shortly before 11 a. m. on that day the Allied battle chiefs had met with those of the German high command and signed the document that meant peace. That was the first Armistice day.

IT IS GOOD TO REMEMBER—That Armistice Day has grown to equal legal stature with other National holidays, through the post-war service of the Americans whose valor created the original Armistice. Their step is heavier, their shoulders not quite so straight, their numbers fewer, as they follow the flag down the Main Streets of America each succeeding Armistice Day. But they have "dedicated to the cause of world peace" all our Armistice Day—by their insistence on adequate national defense—their staunch opposition to foreign ideologies—their unswerving loyalty to the Stars and Stripes, to American democracy, and to the Constitution of the United States.

The meeting was then turned over to Miss Oliver who discussed year books for 1941 and matresses and fruit storage.

Those present included Audrey Mitchell, Zola Maye McBrayer, Betty Jean McBrayer, Patricia Dean Harris, Dorothy Johnson, Jonirene Joiner, Minnie Opal Elliston, Nancy Olson, Georgia May Reeves, Barbara Robertson, Helen Francis Elliston, Ima-Mae Hewitt, Lucy Mitchell, Christine Olson, Mrs. Olson and Miss Oliver.

VICTOR IN THE Sourpuss SWEEP STAKES?

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1 may well have been a smiling, gurgling baby. And by the same token, there is no reason why this screaming, yowling, sad-eyed child should not end up as a radio comedian.

Only a rash man thinks he can predict a child's future. But any car owner can readily foretell which is a winning oil for his motor.

He has no question or doubt because the integrity of the great Phillips organization is back of this direct statement: If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

When you make the seasonal change to lighter lubricant, or the 1,000-mile replacement which every engine needs, pick a winning oil. Refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Between the Goal Posts

By FRED HARRELL

Folks, I'm sure getting excited! Only one more football game to win and the district championship trophy will roost at Hereford again after Lot's many years. Yes sir, Hereford's Hungry Whitefaces were pushed away from the championship feed trough last year by Dalhart and Tulla but the boys are determined that it will be a different story this time. Already they've smacked Dalhart out of the road to the clover field and now they're determined to lick the daylight out of the Hornets.

All indications are that a tremendous bunch of fans are going over to Tulla Friday. Unless a last minute change is made the game will be played at night and that will give lots more folks a chance to see the game than could go to an afternoon game. Personally, I don't know of but one football game I'd rather see and that's a bidistrict between Hereford and anybody.

Hereford support of the Whitefaces this year has been the finest that could be expected. That support has given the Whitefaces a new kind of spirit because they know the town, is backing them up 100 per cent. They are going to need that kind of support against the Tulla

Hornets and I know that they'll get it.

There's another reason why I sure hope Hereford beats Tulla Friday night. If we don't, then it's going to throw us in a tie with Dumas and frankly, I just haven't any hankering for Hereford to play that Demon bunch again. Dumas smothered Dalhart 50 to 0 and last Friday they buried Tulla 40-6. Hereford beat Dalhart 13-0 when by the dope they should have won about 60-0. By the same dope Hereford ought to win over Tulla about 40-0. However, I'm not looking for that big a win. The Tulla Hornets will go on the field mad and vengeful. The Whitefaces, after being kicked around by Tulla the past four years, are going to return the favor. The result ought to be a thriller of a ball game.

For the first time this season Hereford is definitely at the top of the heap. Here are the conference standings.

TEAM	GP	W	L	Pct.
Hereford	3	3	0	1000
Dumas	3	2	1	.666
Tulla	2	1	1	.500
Dalhart	3	1	2	.333
Canyon	2	0	2	.000

In last weeks games Dumas beat Tulla 40-6 and Dalhart nosed out Canyon 19-18.

Films Entertain Dawn Study Club

An evening of entertainment with Miss Florence McMurry of West Texas State College as special guest was enjoyed by members of the Dawn Study Club and their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley Tuesday evening with Mrs. A. Pictures of the New York Worlds Fair, rural scenes of Kentucky and the campus and activities at West Texas State completed the films shown.

Decorations of fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and the diningtable had a centerpiece of marigolds with brilliantly colored autumn leaves strewn over the lace cover.

CHDA NOTES

By Sadie Lee Oliver

Before Irish potatoes were taken from America to Europe the Jerusalem Artichoke was the popular white starchy vegetable. It is used as a windbreak to protect the garden from hot summer winds at the C. G. Robbins home. When the tubers are not dug they keep better. Tubers for two more windbreaks have been promised to friends for planting in 1941.

Parsnips taste best after they are frozen and for that reason will not be dug nor will they dig the carrots.

Parsley plants have volunteered under the seed producing old plants. Four plantings of these seedlings have been dug to be grown as window plants this winter.

Linnaria seedlings will be ready to share next spring. This yellow flowered perennial has proven its value in local gardens this season. Dozens of seedlings have become well established floriferous clumps of plants as hardy as chrysanthemums.

The foundation has been laid for the bath room being built at
