Special Events Highlight "United Fund Day"

"United Fund Day" will be observed in Hereford throughout the day Saturday, as members of local and county civic organizations, women's clubs and UF workers have joined forces to raise the final $5,000 needed to reach the goal of $37,100.39.

Means of raising the funds include a "bucket brigade" at seven key locations in the city; bake sales at three supermarkets, wrestling matches Saturday night at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn, and sale of a Shetland pony.

Drive Chairman Johnny Clark Jr. had enlisted the help of the civic organizations and UF board members last Friday when it appeared this year's drive was bogged down at approximately $32,269. Enthusiasm was instantaneous and has continued to mount this week.

The Hereford Lions Club, which already had contributed $398 to the UF as proceeds from the wrestling matches Oct. 5, first agreed to again donate the proceeds from this week's matches. Other organizations quickly offered to help sell concessions during the matches in an effort to boost the proceeds.

Ray Moore, Lions Club president, urged local residents to attend the matches Saturday night "for some real entertainment. This is fun for the entire family and it's all for a good cause."

BUCKET BRIGADE PLANNED

The "bucket brigade" will be manned from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Saturday by civic club members, who will be stopping cars and persons on the street to get donations.

Melvin Jayroe, who has organized the "bucket brigade," said the Paisano Lions Club members will handle the intersection at First and Main; the Easter Lions Club will be at Second and Main; Hereford Lions Club will be at Third and Main and Fourth and Main; Optimist Club will man Ft. and Main; Rotary Club members will get donations at Harrison Highway and Park Avenue, and Kiwanians will be located at Park Avenue and Avenue F.

Jayroe explained that four members will work for one hour at each corner during the day. He said a few more club members are needed to help, and those able to work are urged to call him so that a schedule may be worked out.

BAKE SALE PLANNED

Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., a member of the UF board of directors who was placed in charge of arrangements for the bake sale last week, reported Wednesday that "there is a lot of interest and its coming along real fine."

Mrs. Hill said goods will be sold at three locations — Cooper's on Park Avenue, Piggly Wiggly on Main Street, and Furr's Super Market in Sugarland Mall — throughout the day Saturday.

An appeal was made by Mrs. Hill to the Camp Fire Council Monday night, and the response there was tremendous, she said. "They're going all out to help with the bake sale," Mrs. Hill stated, with the mothers who cannot bake goods for sale Saturday donating money instead.

Anyone who would like to contribute goods to be sold Saturday are urged to contact Mrs. Hill. Also, any person able to work sometime during the day at the booths is asked to contact

Mrs. Hill so that a schedule may be worked out to keep the booths fully manned at all times.

Mrs. Hill urged local residents to make a special effort to purchase some of the baked goods during the day at the three locations, or at the wrestling matches in the Bull Barn Saturday night. She pointed out that many goods can be frozen and put away for Thanksgiving or Christmas.

PONY FOR SALE

Bids still are being taken on a Shetland pony which was donated to the United Fund by Martin Wagner. Charles Bell, who is in charge of selling the filly, said the top bid by Wednesday was $25 submitted by Tom Harkey.

All bids submitted on the pony will go into the United Fund, with the top bid receiving the animal. The winner will be announced during the wrestling matches Saturday night. Bids may be made by calling Bell or Debbs Knox at the Hereford Bakery.

MAYOR ISSUES PROCLAMATION

"United Fund Day" was designated by Hereford Mayor J. B. Pool, who stated, "WHEREAS, with all the worthwhile services that benefit from this fund, it is the responsibility of every citizen of the county and city to support and maintain the Deaf Smith County United Fund, Inc." Pool urged that "every citizen and organization cooperate with the United Fund to put them over their goal for the year 1968."

When he enlisted the help of the civic organizations, Clark pointed out that the amount of money raised at that time was more than any previous total in the history of the United Fund, but stressed that the goal had not been reached last year and some organizations had been forced to curtail their activities. "Some of them can't afford to do this again," emphasized Clark.

More than 3,000 young people are participating in the various organizations sponsored by United Fund, the large number making it necessary to raise this year's budget 22 per cent higher than that of 1966, when Deaf Smith County residents raised their goal faster than any other spot in the state.

10 ORGANIZATIONS

The 10 organizations listed in this year's budget and the amount of money they are to receive from UF — if the goal is reached — include Camp Fire Girls, $6,369.25; Boy Scouts, $7,200; Pony League, $2,025; Little League, $1,250; Colt League, $1,250; Salvation Army, $4,800; Red Cross, $11,000; Cerebral Palsy Center, $100; Council on Alcoholism, $750; U.S.O., $475, and local United Fund expenses and the Texas United Fund, $1,150.

UF officials have often stressed during their meetings that individuals in the city have not done their part in the campaign, as most have given the same amount they did in previous years and did not take into account that the budget had been increased so much.

A special plea also was issued to rural residents and parents of all young people in organizations that are financed by contributions made through the United Fund to do their "fair share" in supporting United Fund.

67TH YEAR — NO. 46

HEREFORD, TEXAS, 79045, THURS., NOV. 14, 1968

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

In Light Session

Right-Of-Way Purchase Is Approved By Commission

With the formal motion already approved on the $225,000 warrants for the 4-lane highway construction on U. S. 60 from the Hereford city limits west to Castro County line (approximately 6 miles) in a special Wednesday session of County Commissioner Court, the commissioners had a light session in their regular Monday meeting. No announcement has been made as yet as to the starting date of construction or the date that right-of-way purchases will begin. Texas Highway Department officials pointed out at the commissioner's last regular meeting that such purchases could not be made under the law until state approval is received. The time was estimated at about a month for the state offices to make such approval.

Judge H. C. Williams stated that it will be necessary for County Commissioners Court to originally pay the whole amount for the right-of-way purchases, but the state will reimburse the county for 50 per cent of the amount later. Therefore, only slightly more than $100,000 in warrants will actually be used by the county in the long-run, he estimated.

The commissioners decided on the warrant issue in place of a tax bond election for the highway construction from what they considered lack of time for organization of the election. Told that the highway construction funds already allocated by the state could be used in other counties at this time should the need be postponed here, they acted on the warrant issue through what they termed as an "urgent need" for Deaf Smith County. They based their decision on the construction of the new Wilson & Co. plant in that section of the county in addition to the increased traffic already stemming from the Holly Sugar plant.

Commissioners also pointed out that the debt of the county is presently "in fine shape" compared to the debt index of other Texas counties, which is "a little more than $1-million." The warrant issue was based on this report, they indicated.

Reports were received from the Justice of the Peace indicating that fines and fees for the month of October reached $7,782.50 — slightly under the record of the previous month. The Sheriff's department also issued a report showing their collections in the courts for October, in the amount of $713.35, with a total brought forward of $5,021.88.

Approved was a motion to pay $9,300 for a Gallon maintainer through the Road Machinery Warrant Fund. The new maintainer is a replacement for a 1966 model which was described as "faulty" and was traded last month through Plains Ma-

COMMUNITY NIGHT AT DAWN

Community Night for residents of the Dawn neighborhood is scheduled at Dawn Community Center Friday evening. All families of that area are invited. Games of 42 and cards will be part of the entertainment, and refreshments will be served. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Gold Star Winners Selected

Winners of the 1968 4-H Gold Star Awards are Tommy Bezner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bezner of the Dawn community, and Jane Witkowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Witkowski of 215 N. Texas.

The two were honored during the annual Deaf Smith County Achievement Banquet Saturday night. Some 60 other awards were presented to 4-H members for their achievement during the past year. All are listed on the ABI (Agriculture, Business and Industry) page of this issue.

PROGRESS REPORT — Work at the site of Wilson & Company's new meat packing plant west of Hereford is continuing at a rapid clip. The top photo shows the immense basement where cement will be poured this week or early next week for portions of the foundation. Approximately 20 persons are now working at the site, and more will be hired as work progresses. The bottom photo shows the work being done by Santa Fe Railroad to put in a spur for the meat packing plant. This shot was taken while the men worked on a bridge along the railroad.

Cancer Society Group Plans To Meet Friday

An organizational meeting of the Education Committee of the Cancer Society will be held at noon Friday at the Hereford Country Club, according to John David Bryant, committee chairman.

During the meeting, a Committee Secretary will be appointed, objectives and goals reviewed, public education materials studied, and job assignments detailed.

Herman Ford, Deaf Smith County Cancer Society Chairman, has announced that programs will be presented today at the Kiwanis Club and next Wednesday at the Lions Club.

Committee Chairmen are Tom Harkey, schools; Dale Young, utilities; Irene McKinister and Gene Huntsinger, financial institutions; Bryant, civic clubs; Mrs. Henry Sears, women's study club; Wesley Gulley, mobile unit; Tom Porter, newspaper publicity, and Don Chaney, radio publicity.

Monday Busy Day For Local Firemen

Members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department were summoned to the scene of two building fires and two grass fires Monday afternoon.

Around 5:13 Monday afternoon, firemen received a call and were summoned to Bob's Hickory Pit where they fought a blaze for about an hour. Damage to the building was estimated at over $4000 when the fire began from an undetermined source. It was believed that the blaze originated from either a hot grille or from electrical wiring.

Prior to the fire at Bob's Hickory Pit, firemen were called to the Dawn Community where they fought a grain building fire for about two hours before getting it under control. Damage to the grain and building was not estimated as it would take a few more days to check how deep into the building the damage went.

The fire was believed to have started as a result of workmen burning grass outside the building and the fire spreading into the building. Terry Hale, Fire Marshal, said that the fire had actually started about a week ago when the grass burning was done, but when the blowers were turned on in the building Monday, oxygen was fed to the smoldering grain and the fire blazed.

Later Monday afternoon, the department was summoned to two grass fires near Irving St., but they were quickly extinguished.

Housing Survey Launched

Members of the various committees of Operation "Housing Survey" met Tuesday at the Country Club and were issued the challenge of improving the housing conditions in Hereford.

Some 52 members of the committees were present at the session where briefing of problems and functions of each committee was held. There are eight task force committees consisting of about 70 persons.

Chairmen of these committees include Bruce Coleman, overall housing needs; John Douglas Pitman, labor camp — survey for future; Roy Hartman, upgrading existing housing; Raymond White, public housing; Dr. Joe Whitley, private enterprise housing; Jeff Carlile, financing; Jim Sears, locations, zoning and construction standards; and Neil Cooper, coordinating.

Objectives of "Operation Housing Survey" are to "appraise, survey and study various means of improving the housing and environmental conditions in the city and to use the talent of concerned, responsible community leaders to survey and initiate or recommend action on the findings of the several task forces."

Agencies Have 70 Per Cent Of Local Taxes

Tax collections by the three local agencies — city, county and school — have surpassed the 70 per cent mark.

A spot check with the agencies revealed that each had collected at least 70 per cent of their total by the end of October.

Henry Benson said the City of Hereford had collected a fraction over 76 per cent of its taxes through October and expect to collect 96 per cent before the deadline April 30. Benson said collections are running at a normal pace.

The school had collected 74.76 per cent of its taxes by the end of October, about the same as last year. However, there is now more property and more money is coming in, it was reported. School taxes will become delinquent Feb. 1.

Nell Miller, Deaf Smith County tax assessor-collector, said about 70 per cent of the county taxes are in now, as compared to about 68 per cent at the same time last year. The county usually has collected from 94 to 97 per cent by June, and the taxes go delinquent July 1.

Beet Harvest Looking Good

Beet harvest is about 35 per cent complete, with the sugar content of this year's crop being the best since 1965, Bob Ginn agricultural manager for the Holly Sugar Corporation plant here, said Wednesday.

Ginn said the harvest for this area will be 35 per cent complete by the end of this week, just as had been scheduled. Up until now, the plant had scheduled enough beets coming in to keep the plant operating and a reserve of about two days at all times.

Beginning Monday, plant personnel will start piling the beets in the yards as the quotas are increased about 4½ times.

Plans Near Completion For School

By EARL MOSELEY Staff Writer

Various plans for the new elementary school building to be constructed in South Hereford were shown to the Hereford Independent School District board of trustees at their regular meeting Tuesday night, which took much of their time in the 5-hour session that included reports from five junior high English teachers and three principals on other subjects.

From drawings submitted by Brasher, Goyette and Rapier Architectural Engineers of Lubbock, trustees and administrators favored two designs — one hexagon type and one circular type — both on the team-teaching ultra-modernistic phase for school construction.

No definite selection was made between the two designs, pending additional investigation, but superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. reported that teachers already on school staffs locally had made their recommendations earlier which favored the concepts included in the two favored designs.

Trustee President Olin W. Parris indicated that a special meeting would be called at the earliest possible date for the plan selection. Plans for the football stadium improvements will not be forthcoming until after the school plans are completed, Clark reported.

Due to the normal decline in the harvest season here, school enrollment has dropped 51 students in the past two weeks — "but not in the right places," Clark pointed out. He reported that the major decline had come from the upper grades and had not relieved the overcrowded situation which has prevailed in the elementary schools. To the contrary, he said that 18 more students had enrolled at Northwest Monday and that a new teacher will be assigned to Central. Additional prospect for transferring more students to other local schools is also planned.

Total enrollment in all phases throughout Hereford stands at 5,250. At Northwest, 823 are listed.

Clark said that on the basis of Average Daily Attendance, "we would qualify for 17 more teachers now than at the same time last year. But we only have five new teachers."

With no teacher resignations, Kay Claypool was elected as a new teacher.

State approval has been gained on the additional bus route the schools had already placed into operation, but the administrators were instructed by the agency to "consider buying 66-passenger buses (or larger) in the future."

Dorothy Mercer was appointed Census Trustee. Approval was also given to transfer securities now held by the First National Bank.

A favorable report was given on the advanced standing credited to local students entering college from the school system here, and it was revealed that there are 39 students of the 283 enrolled in Adult Education Classes now who were enrolled last year.

Clark made a report on the McAllen Migrant Conference. See SCHOOL Page 2

Legion Plans Annual Banquet

The annual Thanksgiving banquet of American Legion Post 192 will be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the American Legion Hall at Veterans Park.

Speaker for the banquet will be the Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor of the First United Methodist Church. Navigator of a B-17 in the European Theater during World War II, Rev. Trotter will speak on the "American Heritage."

Legion members are furnishing meat for the banquet, and Auxiliary members are preparing the meal.

Meeting Planned For Discussing Charity Clinic

A meeting to discuss the possibilities of establishing a charity clinic in Hereford will be held at 8 p. m. Nov. 26 at the Community Center.

Dr. C. E. Rush said talk of setting up such a clinic has been going on for years and local physicians and other interested residents feel that a meeting will get the idea before the public.

"There are a lot of facets to be explored and we need to get the reaction of the people on this idea," said Rush. He explained that letters are being mailed to persons known to be interested in such a project, but physicians would appreciate any resident coming to the meeting and expressing his feelings toward a charity clinic.

Talk of Texas

TRAVELING TEXAS — One of the best museums in Texas is not a museum at all but a Monahans club. In the late 1930's, Joe Farr began collecting every authentic relic he could find. These range from what is probably the best private collection of Indian artifacts in the Southwest to the world's first known vacuum cleaner. Included is priceless statuary and paintings as well as music boxes and nickelodeons from Mississippi River boats. Farr displays the stuff at his J&J Club in Monahans, in deep West Texas.

BEFORE CIVIL RIGHTS — In 1861, white carpenters and mechanics of Harrison County in East Texas petitioned the Legislature for a law that would allow Negroes to work only as farm field hands. The petitioners claimed that the Negroes in the county were competing with them for building contracts.

Knowing Your Manners Helps Victim Of First-Dance Fever

NEW YORK — First dance time soe 2x24 knowing your fever grips lots of young people early in the school year. What is the right thing to do at a dance? An 18-year-old sister of a 14-year-old and four of her girl friends were heard advising the younger girl on how to get along with boys. Their advice, they say, boiled down to this: Avoid conflict, be sincere, treat him like a man! The girls are cool types, although their advice might sound a little old-fashioned.

Should you accept a last minute date to a dance? (Why not assume you are the first he called, they told her. After all, don't talk yourself out of fun.)

What do you do when you finish a dance with a boy at a school dance? (You thank him as he returns you to your friends.) If he returns with me to my friends, should I introduce him. (Not obligatory, the girls say, but if he lingers you might say, do you know Joe Smith or whatever his name is.)

What do I do if my partner is such a terrible dancer that I can't bear it? (You must continue to finish the dance, they advised. It's the price you pay for being a lady. If he comments about it, pretend you haven't noticed. The girls advised that this kind of consideration can lead to dates, and he will not be embarrassed to ask you to give him a few private dance lessons.)

They also suggest that as time goes on a girl must cultivate the knack of dislodging herself from a partner who inconsiderately continues to ask for dances even though he can't dance.

Suppose some idiot asks me to dance and acts crazy on the dance floor? asked the 14-year-old girl.

(Give a high sign to a friend on the stag line, who should understand. You do this with a doe-eyed look, they suggest.)

If a boy you don't know invites you to go out after the dance, what do you do? (This answer required lots of cogitating. The consensus was that if you've arrived with a group, you go home with it. . . that you shouldn't ever leave a dance with a stranger. And if the boy is really keen about you, he'll telephone you for a date. Above all, don't act too eager, they said.)

Rites Held For Former Resident

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday in Santa Barbara, Calif., for Homer Gilliland of that city, who died there Sunday. He was a former resident of Hereford, who moved to California in the 1920's. Born and reared here, he attended Hereford schools while he was growing up. He was an uncle of Marlin and W. J. Gilliland of this city, a brother of Mrs. Reed Williams and Pink Gilliland of Amarillo. His wife, a daughter and son survive him.

Mr. Gilliland had frequently visited in Hereford since leaving here, and attended a number of the Deaf Smith County pioneer reunions.

Sam And Dave On WT Program

Sam and Dave are booked for a "soul concert" at 8 p.m. Monday at the Field House of West Texas State University at Canyon.

Tickets may be purchased in Amarillo at Cooper-Melin Music Store in Wolflin Village; Brown Book Store, near Amarillo College; Go-Low Record Shop, 506 S. Polk; and at the Student Union Building on the WTSU campus.

No tickets will be on sale in Hereford, the sponsors announced. Sponsors are the Student Activities Council (SAC). Admission is $3-and $2.25 with student I. D. card.

In the spring of 1967, Sam and Dave played in England and on the continent as stars of the Stay-Volt Revue, where they built up a European following as enthusiastic as their legion of fans in the United States, SAC reported. Their first gold record was earned in the fall of 1967 with their recording of "Soul Man."

Other hits include "Hold On, I'm Coming" and "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby." Sam and Dave originated in 1961 at Miami, Fla.

Luster Added To Carpeting By New Fiber

COLLEGE STATION — A new fiber which adds silky luster to carpeting has been developed by an American chemical company. Commonly called "Source," it is the first new man-made fiber in seven years, reports Extension housing specialist Bonny Lay.

The fiber appears to have a sparkling, silky luster with a dramatic light and dark interplay of color, says Miss Lay. Because of appearance, the fiber presently is found mostly in luxury lines of several carpet manufacturers. Miss Lay predicts it will be available in other home furnishings items in the future.

"Source" is a biconstituent fiber made of two fiber-forming chemical compounds, a polyamide and a polyester. The percentage of these two polymers can be alternated to obtain the properties desired for a certain use, says Miss Lay.

Egypt Sets Park Aside For Kiss

CAIRO — In the arid landscape of Egypt's sternly puritanical regime, there is one oasis where a guy can kiss the girl in public without getting nabbed by the cops.

This is a Nilebank park in a long-suffered sector northwest of Cairo where the government hopes to exploit the romantic river to give tourism a badly-needed shot in the arm. It is called "The Barrages," from a French word for dams. By official edict, it is a sanctuary for Romance.

Here, usually tough Egyptian morality police have been instructed to close their eyes to lovers. Elsewhere in Egypt, public kissing is strictly forbidden, as many foreign couples have learned to their chagrin on being swept off their feet by the enchantment of the pyramids or the sphinx on a moonlit desert night. But thanks to the tourist bureau, couples can kiss in public at the Barrages; in theory at least, they can even rent a houseboat or a motel room.

DUPLICATE CLUB CANCELS
Weekly games of Hereford Duplicate Club will be suspended this week because of a tournament beginning in Amarillo that evening, Mrs. Bill Dye, secretary, announces. Several members from the Hereford group are expected to enter tournament play in the neighboring city.

School . . .

Continued From Page One which nine teachers and administrators attended from Hereford last month, and said that "it was by far the best conference we have ever had." He said that nearly 1,500 were registered for the study of migrant programs mainly from South Texas and Rio Grande Valley schools and felt that it is very important that more schools in this area attend them in the future.

He also reported that a movie about migrants had been photographed partially in Hereford last week by a crew who had come from California and were now in the Rio Grande Valley. Scenes both interior and exterior were filmed here pertaining to the migrant program in the schools with scenes also included of the Labor Camp. There is a possibility, he indicated, that the Hereford school system will receive a print of the subject for showing upon release.

Clark also discussed the Texas State Teachers Association convention where he said the Governor's Report was the principle subject. Appointment was made of the Textbook Committee here which is automatically chairman under the law — with sixteen local teachers.

LINGUISTIC SERIES
Assistant Superintendent Robert Holman presented 5 junior high school English teachers for a discussion of two different linguistic series now under instruction here — both with the inductive approach.

Speaking on the Roberts Linguistic Series were seventh and eighth grade teachers Margaret Bell, La Plata; Mary Hale, Stanton; and Opal Jones, Stanton. Reports on the ninth grade Nebraska English were given by Ann Prichard, La Plata, and Martha Tipps, Stanton.

Spokesmen for the Roberts series were in complete accord in their approval of the series and enjoy teaching it. Two of the teachers read excerpts from student comments on the new English teaching method and were almost equally in accord with their own approval. Only a few of the "B students still prefer the old style," they said.

Mrs. Bell said, "I see a light shining in some of their eyes (during the course.) Every day is a teaching day. We do not have much time for review. But we have had the highest set of grades of any first six weeks — only one didn't pass. . . I do not say it is good because it is new. I say it is good because I can teach it to my children."

On the Nebraska series, the teachers passed out literature to the administrators and trustees and illustrated their discussion with several books, including "Animal Farm," which they also recommended as "good reading."

They agreed that this series "takes more thinking" than the old English method — "and you may have more than one answer. But you have to be able to back up your answer!"

In reports from secondary principals regarding the State Convention, G. W. Michael, the high school principal, pointed up the case for "the beginning teacher" with a skit narrated by English, Speech and Drama teacher Imogene Anderson and students Jan Turrentine (portraying a beginning teacher) with Earlene Deaz and Deborah Hodges (troublesome students) which turned out to be highly comical — and appeared to have hit "close to home" for the administrators.

But Michael concluded it with a blend of seriousness, summing up the problem and offering encouragement if not a solution on all sides for a young teacher who has only recently entered the profession.

Both junior high principals were delayed by the football games played on the same night between their schools, but did make their reports on the same convention. Don T. Martin of Stanton and Jerry Don George of La Plata gave varied summaries. One was on the subject of Sex Education.

Candy For Holidays

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Election of Mrs. J. G. Gandy to the presidency of Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Council in 1969 gives the Hereford housewife one of the few jobs she has not already held in H. D. organizations. She was elected last month and will take office in January for the calendar year.

HER ASSOCIATION with H. D. Clubs began in the early 1940's, when she joined Wyche Club. The Gandys moved to Capulin, near Raton, N. M., and she transferred her membership to that community, served in various offices and as a 4-H Club leader.

Back in Deaf Smith County, she became a member of Cultural Club, where she is still enrolled, and as its representative became active in the County Council. Altogether, she has held practically every office and committee post in the club and council.

Perhaps her most rewarding experience was the work as 4-H Club leader at Capulin when her older children were 4-H members. She won a trip to a state training school for leaders one year when three girls in her club won county awards in clothing projects.

HER DAUGHTER, Pat, now Mrs. Melvin K. Shaw of Amarillo, was one of the three and was an award winner not only in the home county but in district competition. Mrs. Gandy's success in teaching the girls to sew was a reflection of her own interest in that skill.

She makes her own clothes, sews for her daughters and grandchildren; she also likes to knit and, a new interest, work with needlepoint. In H. D. Club workshops, she has taken courses in tailoring and enjoys that more difficult form of dressmaking.

Her younger daughter, Elizabeth, a high school sophomore, is the only one of her children at home now. Son Eddie lives in Canyon and John in Coolidge, Ariz. There are four grandchildren in the family now, two of them in Amarillo where they can visit the Gandys often for their grandmother's pleasure.

MRS. GANDY ALSO holds offices in other groups of which she is a member. She is secretary-treasurer of the American Legion Auxiliary here, and of the Friendship Club, a social organization. She attends First Baptist Church.

The Gandy family likes outdoor life, from cookouts on their own patio to camping and fishing trips made in the camper which was Gandy's Fathers Day gift several years ago.

"It isn't as elaborate as the new campers, but it serves our purpose and we have made some very enjoyable trips in it, one to Arizona and into Utah two years ago, and another to Arizona last spring," Mrs. Gandy relates.

SHE JOINED HER husband for fishing in their boat, but claims no great success as a fisherman herself. She and Elizabeth do most of the work on the attractive lawn at 414 Star Street, giving most attention to the back yard where they do a good deal of summer living.

Mrs. Gandy was born at Ende, N. M., a member of a pioneer ranching family in that just-across-the-line community. They moved to Lubbock when she was 12 years old.

"My dad was a farmer and I was a tomboy," she explains. She was a junior in high school when the family moved to Hereford. She and all her children have graduated from Hereford High School, except Elizabeth who expects to follow in their footsteps. Her mother, Mrs. J. D. Love, still lives here.

BECAUSE HER grandparents were residents of Sherman, Mrs. Gandy attended Austin College in that city.

Foods, as well as clothing, has been a subject which always interested her in the Home Demonstration program and she has served as leader for 4-H Club foods groups also.

A recipe from a book compiled when she was at Capulin is one of her favorites for making candy, and she looks it up about this time every year to make Christmas candy.

"I have a brother who won't believe it's Christmas if he does not have some of my candy," she laughs. "This is an easy recipe for some delicious fudge, so I use it every year."

SHORT-BOIL FUDGE

2½ cups sugar
5 tb. cocoa
1½ lb. syrup
½ cup milk
6 tb. margarine
1 tsp. vanilla
½ cup pecans
Mix sugar and cocoa well before adding syrup, milk and margarine. Heat slowly until mixture boils; when it is boiling in center of pan, boil rapidly 1 minute, or to the soft ball stage.
Cool before beating. Add vanilla and chopped pecans and beat until creamy. Pour into pan — a wax paper-lined pan is more satisfactory for this than a buttered one. When firm, cut into squares.

Club Votes Projects To Help Girls

Sponsorship of a Camp Fire Girl group was voted by Garden Beautiful Club as a project for this season, at a recent meeting in Mrs. Homer Newton's home. Mrs. N. D. Bartlett was co-hostess.

Another benefit for girls was planned, as members agreed to bring canned food for Girlstown USA to the annual club Christmas party instead of gifts to be exchanged. The holiday party will be the next meeting, at 3 p. m. Dec. 7 in Mrs. Roger Brumley's home.

Reports were made on the Tour of Homes sponsored by the club in October to raise funds for various activities of the year. Mrs. Deward Robertson, chairman of the flower show committee, and Mrs. Bartlett, ways and means chairman, were in charge of the tour.

In a program arranged by Mrs. Tom Carter, Mrs. Robertson spoke on the culture of spring-flowering bulbs. She listed varieties which grow well in this area and gave suggestions for their planting, propagation and cultivation.

AWARD RECEIVED — Miss Claudia Loerwald, Hereford student in the school of radiological technology at St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, was the recipient of the Mallinckrodt award for the outstanding student of 1968, given at the graduation banquet for the fall class Saturday evening. Miss Loerwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loerwald and a Hereford High School graduate with the 1967 class, is in her second year at St. Anthony's, and will complete her training period in another six months.

Week Of Revival To Begin At Temple Baptist

Rev. James L. Bozeman, new pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Hereford, will begin a week of revival services there Sunday. A noon meal will be served each day following a short message. Evening services will begin at 7:30. It has been announced that the nursery will be open daily for mothers with small children.

Rev. and Mrs. Bozeman now reside at 311 Star here. He was pastor of the First Baptist Church at Plains for seven years prior to accepting the pastorate in Hereford, and has been in the ministry for 19 years. Rev. Bozeman is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

The Bozeman's have one daughter, Mrs. Larry Heard, whose husband is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Matador.

During revival services here, Bill Devers will be in charge of the music. Temple Baptist Church is located at 700 Ave. K.

Show, Sale Of Ceramics Scheduled

A show and sale of ceramics made by Hereford women who are members of Ceramics Arts Club will be held this weekend in the downtown building at 133 West Third St. Mrs. Sam Morgan, president, announces.

The show will open at 1 p. m. Friday and continue through that afternoon, and until noon Saturday.

Numerous pieces suitable for gifts will be on display by the club members, who are organized for study and practice of all the steps in making and decorating ceramic ware for home decoration.

'Sick' America Denied In Talk

Pictorial evidence was presented as a negative answer to his question, when Dr. C. L. Kay of Lubbock spoke on the subject, "Is America Really Sick?" at the Pioneer Club luncheon Tuesday. It was guest day in the club, and approximately 50 persons heard the speaker.

Dr. Kay, assistant president of Lubbock Christian College and widely noted for award-winning addresses on Americanism, showed colored slides of pictures taken on a tour he made with a group of U. S. educators at the invitation of the Secretary of Defense, to installations of the nation's various military services.

Modern military equipment and the trained leadership in charge of the country's defense were demonstrated, but the pictures and Dr. Kay's words repeatedly focused on the role of the ordinary serviceman.

He quoted high military leaders as describing today's fighting man as more alert, more highly disciplined and more dedicated to a purpose than those of past wars.

As for the ordinary citizen, Dr. Kay said he can best back these defense efforts by supporting the military. "Honor the veterans, respect and assist the man presently in service," he concluded.

Pioneer Study Club was complimented by the speaker for its annual project of assistance to patients in the Amarillo Veterans Hospital, and its continuing project of keeping a U. S. Flag flying daily at Mothers Park on North Main. Items for the Veterans Hospital, and its continuing project of keeping a U. S. Flag flying daily at Mothers Park on North Main. Items for the Veterans Hospital's Christmas gift shop were brought to the meeting by club members.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. B. E. Brumley, program leader. Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. read An American Creed, by William T. Page, as a prelude to the address.

Mrs. W. C. Hromas led the group in the Pledge to the Flag and Mrs. A. L. Manjeot gave the invocation. Mrs. Ray L. Johnson, program chairman this year, made introductory remarks to this program on Americanism.

Table decorations were in Thanksgiving motif, arranged by the hostesses, Mmes. R. L. Wilson, Wirt Phillips and Johnson. Mrs. Delmar Stigle, club president, presided.

Mrs. Kay and Mrs. R. W. Watts accompanied the speaker here from Lubbock and were among guests introduced. Others included Messrs. and Mmes. Johnny Clark, Elmer Patterson and Stan Knox; W. C. Hromas; Mmes. C. N. McClure, T. W. Roberson, George Olson, Don Davidson, J. T. Gilbreath, Charles Hood, Leo Buschur, Jack McKinster, Ann Knox, Dale Young, C. J. Mountz, Norman Gray, and Miss Thornton Shirley.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank the many people in Hereford who offered help and assistance to our son, Vernie, when he was injured in the scooter accident. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

Fashions In Cotton To Be On Parade At Dawn

Fashions for women and children from the National Cotton Council at Nashville will be paraded in the Cavalcade of Cotton sponsored by Dawn Home Demonstration Club in Dawn Community Building at 2:30 p. m. Friday.

All women in the area are invited to see the style show, says Mrs. Dick Golden, club president.

Members of the hostess club and other H. D. Clubs of the county, and their children, will act as models to show the costumes for various age groups. In addition to the garments from Nashville, some made by the club women will be on display also.

Mrs. Ira Ott will comment on the models parade, and musical entertainment will be by the Spiritual Swingers, a girls' singing group from Hereford High School.

Mrs. H. D. Fowler is general chairman of arrangements for the cotton cavalcade, which will present winter fashions in the fiber which is more often considered a material for summer clothing.

This is the second such style show to be held at Dawn by the H. D. Club; a similar fashion parade last spring presented summer costumes.

ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED — Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Manning were honored on their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at their home, 325 Avenue B. Their sons who live in Hereford, Jim, Harold and Bob Manning, and their families gathered at the home to celebrate the event. Mr. and Mrs. Manning were married in the home of her parents, the Russell Daniels, early residents of this area, and except for a short time when they lived in Iowa and Arkansas, have resided here since. They have two other sons, Glenn Manning of Lubbock and Roy Dale Manning of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Green Is Leader Of Music Club Program

Music by Russian composers made up a program given in the Music Study Club Monday in the home of Mrs. H. K. Fox, where Mrs. Wilton Green, program leader, spoke on the history of Russian music. Mrs. Bill Devers was co-hostess.

Mrs. Paul Lyons and Mrs. J. R. Allison played as a piano duet a waltz by Misha Levitzki; Mrs. Buddy Peeler presented two numbers by Moussorgsky, Humoresque and The Oprhan Girl; Mrs. Joe Hacker played a Rachmaninoff composition, Prelude in G Minor; the club chorus sang Carol of the Russian Children with Mrs. D. W. Palmer as director and Mrs. A. J. Schroeter as accompanist.

Mrs. Green noted that Russian culture, including music, developed slowly and it was not until the nineteenth century that musicians turned the attention from works of French and German composers to their own people.

Two schools rose, she said, one on the foundation of other European music and on Slavic folk music. She spoke particularly of the composers Moussorgsky, Tchaikowski and Rachmaninoff.

In the business period, with Mrs. Dick Godwin presiding, reports were made on the district convention in Borger Nov. 8 and 9, which was dedicated to a member of the Hereford club, Mrs. A. O. Thompson. Music Study Club was cited for publicity given by the Hereford Brand and Radio Station KP-AN.

Mrs. R. Schroeter was introduced as a visitor. Other members present were Mmes. W. T. Carmichael, S. F. Clements, B. Y. Crosthwait, Wesley Fisher, J. C. McCracken, C. J. Mountz, T. W. Roberson, Lowell Sharp, J. T. Gilbreath and Tom Burdett.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

This is the time of year when Fall really lives up to its name; at least the leaves do, and you can see considerable raking of lawns as you drive over town.

ME, I'M ONE of those autumnal gardeners or whatever you call those who don't believe in disturbing the balance of Nature. When leaves fall on the grass, let them lay where Nature put 'em, unless Nature blows up a norther and rolls them into the gutter. They're supposed to fertilize the yard as they decompose there, I believe. There may be flaws in the theory, but I don't want to hear about them until next spring, say.

ANOTHER NATURE note: There's a clump of iris up at Mrs. C. B. Miles' place that was blooming away, just like spring, until the freeze nipped it Sunday night.

I tried taking its picture with Jeffrey Bussey, Mrs. Miles' three-year-old neighbor, but that was one of the times my camera skill was at a low ebb. No picture.

It wasn't a variety of iris that is supposed to bloom in the fall, Mrs. Miles says, and it had already had its spring blooming season but was apparently just in the mood to celebrate our recent Indian summer spell with some flowers. Pretty cream-colored blooms they were.

IT WAS BAD to learn that Mrs. Miles, who keeps flowers blooming most of the year in front of her house at 463 East Fourth, is having to stay indoors with a cast on one foot, because of a fractured bone.

She was visiting a sister in Arkansas when the foot was hurt, and didn't realize the injury was serious until she got home and it began to cause enough pain to send her to the doctor for x-rays. She is unhappy because the cast may have to stay on for six weeks.

But she is glad it didn't happen earlier in the summer, to keep her from some pleasant visiting. She spent some time with relatives in Oklahoma, then went on to Washington where she has two brothers — living at opposite ends of the state.

Whitefaces To Host Tulia As District Race Picks Up

Hereford will be seeking their fourth district win and fifth consecutive win of the season when they play host to the injury plagued Tulia Hornets this Friday at Whiteface Stadium at 7:30 p. m.

Still holding a share of the district lead with the Dumas Demons, the Whitefaces are looking for a win this Friday for themselves along with hoping that on the same night, Dumas may fall to the still highly regarded Perryton Rangers. Dumas will travel to Perryton on the same night the locals meet the Hornets.

Tulia, who has yet to win a game this year, has suffered a great number of injuries that have taken their toll on their top-notch players. When the season began, the Hornets were expected to be in contention for the crown because of the fact that they had 10 returning lettermen back from last year's squad. The injury bug then hit them and they have lost to the point where they have only around 25 boys still able to compete. At one time, it was reported that the active player list for the Hornets was as low as 17 boys, but the number has increased as injuries have slackened somewhat.

Spearheading the Hornet game in the early part of the season, were several key players with senior guard Bruce Whisenhunt (60) providing the spark and being assisted by 213 pound senior end, Mike Henthorn. Whisenhunt had his ankle broken earlier in the year and is not expected to play against the locals this Friday. Henthorn, on the other hand, is still around and is expected to prove himself a thorn to the Whitefaces. Hornet back, Jerry Dickens, another returning letterman, has been on and off the injured list for most of the season, but will be ready for some action in the game this week.

With injuries that have kept the ball club from developing, Tulia is still considered an obstacle in the district road for the Whitefaces. Coach Larry Wa-rites said that due to the fact that the Hornets have not won a game all year, and also that there are only two games remaining in the season, they will be more than determined to make a mark on the left side of the won-lost record. Tulia will have one of their chances this week against the locals and their last chance will be against Canyon. Wartes said, "They will be wanting to win real bad and since their number of games remaining is small, they are going to be a little tougher."

The head mentor said that back around the early part of September, things were looking up for the Hornets because of the number of returning lettermen (10), then the injury bug hit them and hit them hard, causing them to lose a lot of their talent plus the boys that were the nucleus and provided the leadership for the team. "This has hurt them," he said, "but they are still very capable of winning. Just like a lot of the teams, they have been improving the past couple of weeks."

In comparison to the hard hitting Muleshoe team that the Herd faced last week, the Hornets Wartes explained, are not quite as big a bunch of boys, but they are fairly good sized. Where Muleshoe was lacking in speed, the Hornets have a somewhat speedier group. Wartes feels that they are even as quick or quicker than many of the teams that the Whitefaces have played all year.

"Right now, we have some ill's, and's, but's and if's we have to work out and get rid of," Wartes said, "We have been hit a little bit hard by the injury bug ourselves lately, and we have to get rid of these things-and quick."

Tulia, for the season, has fallen victim to all eight of their opponents thus far, allowing them to amass a total of 325 points while they have been held to 52 for the year. This averages out to 40.6 points per game against them while they have averaged only 6.5 points per outing. The Hornets only scoring has been done against Plainview (seven points), Dalhart (26 points), Muleshoe (seven), and Floydada (12 points). Their worst defeat of the season came at the hands of the Perryton Rangers, 66-0 while Andrews also let loose on them, 54-0. These two games account for over one-third of the oppositions scoring against the Hornets.

In district play so far this year, Tulia has been defeated 33-0 by Dumas, the 66-0 score by Perryton, and 14-7 by Muleshoe. They will close their season against the Canyon Eagles.

Game time for the Hereford-Tulia tilt is 7:30 p. m. and is the final home game of the season for the Whitefaces. They will meet Dumas next week in the district decider.

Tulia Hornets

Walcott Cagers Play In Tourney

Walcott school's boys and girls basketball teams, who participated in the Adrian Basketball Tournament last week, wound up with each taking home a third place trophy.

Walcott, who for the first time in the history of the school, has been accepted to a basketball district, competed against five other area schools. Entered in the tournament were Adrian, Hartley, Bushland and Highland Park. Adrian won the tournament in the girls division of the meet, while the Adrian boys wound up fourth in their classification.

Participating in the boys division were Amistad, Hartley, Adrian and San Jon.

Trophies for the tournament were donated by Adrian Service Center, Jesse Cafe, Tommy's Cafe, Loveless Oil Company, Adrian Merk, Adrian Wheat Grower and classes of the Adrian School.

Football Contest Change Is Made

An error was made in the listings on the Football Contest for the final week concerning the Oklahoma University game.

The University of Oklahoma is scheduled to play Missouri instead of Oklahoma State playing Missouri as was indicated by the forms. Oklahoma State will play Iowa State as listed.

In marking the game, entrants are asked to decide as if the form were Oklahoma University vs Missouri.

Shorthorns Win 7th Game; Longhorns Fall To NMMI

Friena was the seventh victim of the Shorthorns as they fell, 32-22 last Thursday night, and the Junior Varsity felt the sting of the New Mexico Military Institute, 25-20 on the same evening.

The Shorthorns, after suffering their first defeat of the season recently against the Canyon team, bounced back in their contest against the Friena eleven to bring their record to 7-1 for the season. Spearheading the Shorthorn's attack, were Mike Wartes, Alan Wagner, Ricky Ward and Paul Samaniego who all got in on the scoring.

Hereford scored twice in the initial period of play with quarterback Wartes carrying the ball for the two tallies. On the local's first possession, Wartes, getting good blocking all the way down field, carried the ball into the end zone for the TD on a 50-yard scamper to grab the lead they never relinquished. Samaniego added the PAT for a 7-0 lead.

Wartes got the ball rolling again later in the first quarter when he generated the team to the Friena two-yard line then took the pigskin over for the touchdown. The point after attempt failed and the locals held a 13-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Friena closed the score gap with a 10-yard TD scamper plus a one-point kick, but that was all they were able to do in the first half.

Wagner, slippery Shorthorn back, put another second quarter score on the board for the "B" team when he scored on a 10-yard run. A two-point conversion pass from Wartes to Ward was good and the score went to 21-7 when the first half ended.

Ward got his seven-pointer for the night in the third quarter when he scored from 12-yards out. Samaniego booted the PAT for a 21 point lead.

Wagner finished the scoring for the Shorthorns in the third stanza when he picked up his blockers and rambled 65 yards for the touchdown. The Shorthorns then attempted a two-point pass conversion which was completed to Harold Schumacher, but then nullified by a penalty.

Friena rallied in the fourth quarter for two touchdowns, but it was stopped there and the score ended 32-22 in favor of the Shorthorns.

New Mexico Military Institute after gaining the lead in their game against the Longhorn team, then having it taken away until the final period, salvaged a 25-20 win over the locals, in last week's game.

The New Mexicans jumped out front in the game in the first quarter as they rambled for a seven pointer, but Longhomer Paul Loerwald bulled his way into the end zone on the locals possession to cut the visitor's lead. The point after attempt failed and the Longhorns found themselves trailing, 7-6 at the end of the first stanza.

Paul Hendon, Longhorn signal caller, guided the locals to the visitor's end of the field in the opening minutes of the second quarter, then carried the pigskin over from the one for the go-ahead TD. The point after failed.

The NMMI team came back quickly to regain the edge as half time ended with the visitors leading by one point, 13-12.

Hereford took the lead again in the third period when Johnny Wall took the ball across from the two then Willard Black added two more points via a conversion run.

Trailing 20-13, the Military Institute squad rallied in the fourth quarter for two touchdowns for the win. Their first scoring drive in the final period, resulted from an intercepted pass and the winning TD came when the Longhorns fumbled on their end of the field and the visitors recovered then went on in for the touchdown.

The Longhorns will play their last game of the year today when they host the Tulia Junior Varsity at 7:30 p. m. and the Shorthorns will go to Lubbock to play.

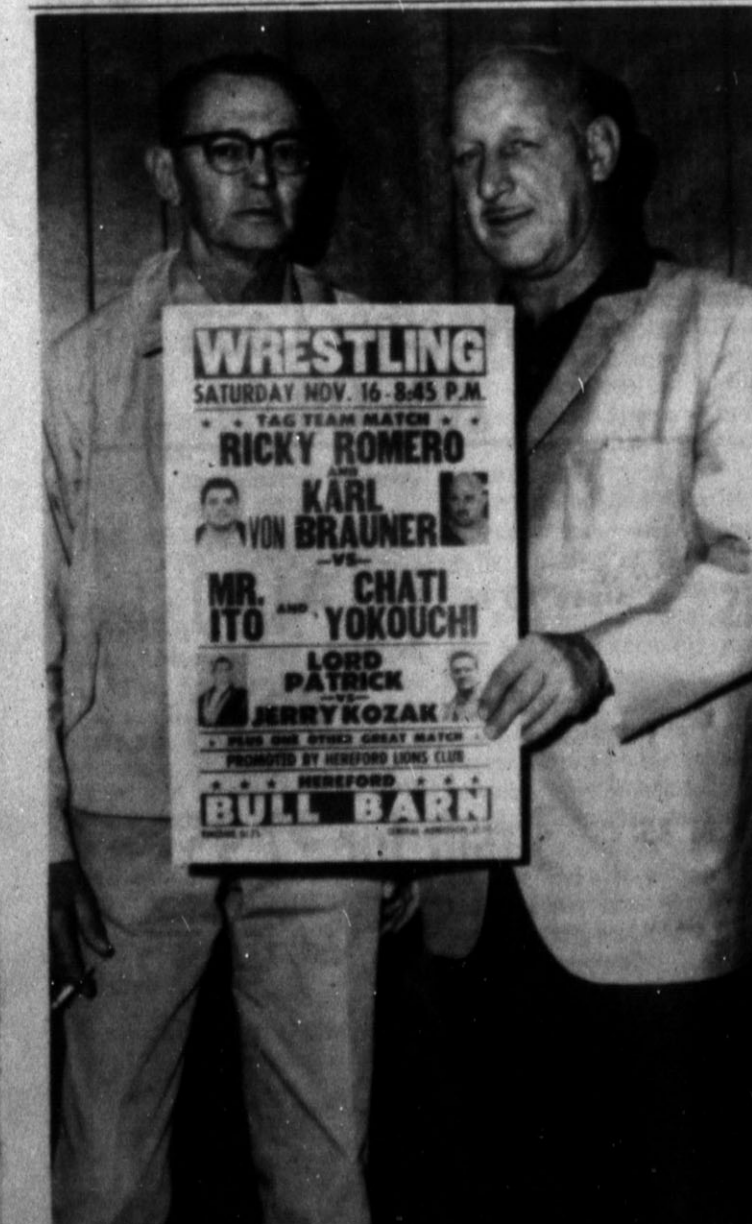

The Shorthorns, who were originally scheduled to play Lubbock High today, have rescheduled the game for Saturday at 2 p. m., at Champan Field in Lubbock.

Gorman, Massie Are Selected As Players Of Week

Jeff Massie, Whiteface guard, and Tony Gorman, Herd defensive tackle, were singled out as "Players of the Week" for the game against the Muleshoe Mules last week.

Massie, 182-pound senior, played what many consider his best offensive game of the year, throwing key blocks in critical situations and clearing the way on numerous long yard gains by the backfield.

Gorman, 240 pound junior, was recognized for his efforts on the defense. He led the team in the Hereford-Muleshoe game with 15 total defensive plays - three unassisted tackles, 10 tackles and assists, one fumble recovery and one pass defense play.

ON THE CARD? Nope. Neither Debbs Knox nor Dory Funk Sr. will appear on this week's wrestling card at the Bull Barn, but the two men have teamed up to help boost attendance for the benefit show. Profits from the wrestling Saturday night will be donated to United Fund in an effort to reach the 1968 goal. Knox is president of the UF organization. -Staff Photo

Wrestling Profit Will Go For UF

The Hereford Lions Club has announced that all proceeds from this Saturday night's wrestling matches will be donated to the United Fund in seeking to help the fund meet its drive goal.

Featured on the card for the night will be the tag team match of Ricky Romero and Karl Von Brauner going against Mr. Ito and Chati Yokouchi. Also on the card will be the match between Lord Patrick and Jerry Kozak plus one other.

Matches are held at the Hereford Bull Barn with admission set at $1.75 for ringside and $1 for general admission.

Gun Club Plans Turkey Shoot

Gene Cope, president of the Hereford Gun Club, has announced plans for a Turkey Shoot to be held Sunday at the Gun Club building near the Hereford Airport.

The shoot is scheduled to begin around 1:30 p. m. with everyone invited to participate, Cope said. The shoot will be divided into groups of five shooters who will compete for the turkey prize.

Entry fees will be put up and the money collected there will go for the turkey. A definite amount has not been set for entry fee, Cope explained, but it is expected to be about $2 per person.

Tommy Bezner, Jane Witkowski Honored As 4-H Gold Star Boy And Girl

Tommy Bezner and Jane Witkowski were honored as 4-H Gold Star Boy and Girl Saturday night during the annual Deaf Smith County Achievement Banquet at St. Anthony's School Auditorium.

Presentation of the two top awards climaxed the banquet, during which some 66 achievement awards were presented to 4-H members for their work during the past year.

Bezner, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bezner of the Dawn community, has been active in both local and county 4-H activities since he became a member seven years ago. A Hereford High School sophomore, he is currently serving as president of the Ford 4-H Club.

Among his projects are livestock, public speaking, field crops, beautification of home grounds, swine, tractor and leadership. He also was a member of the 1968 Deaf Smith County Livestock Judging Team which won in District 1, and attended the State 4-H Roundup.

Bezner presented demonstrations at District 4-H eliminations in soil and water conservation, public speaking, tractor operators contest, and was a member of the Junior Livestock Judging Team three years. He also was a delegate from Deaf Smith County to the 4-H Electric Camp.

GOLD STAR GIRL

Miss Witkowski, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Witkowski of 215 North Texas. A senior at Hereford High School, she has been in 4-H activities for eight years.

Miss Witkowski has served as a junior leader in foods and clothing project groups and is the 1968 County 4-H Council Chairman. Her projects have included leadership, clothing food and nutrition, electricity and photography.

She has participated in the 1968 State 4-H Dress Revue and has attended State 4-H Roundup in the Clothing Educational activity.

ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Joette Hanna served as mistress of ceremonies during the banquet, with Steven Olson giving invocation and Martha Ann McBride welcoming members and guests to the event.

Larry Justice made the introduction of special guests and Kenneth Justice introduced the speaker — Connie Goeringer of Hereford, an officer in the Toastmasters Club and former Extension Service employe for the state of Oklahoma.

Next on the agenda was presentation of County Awards in the different areas of achievement. Receiving AGRICULTURAL awards, which were donated by International Harvesting Company and presented by Ben Plummer, were Donna Woodward, Steven Olson, James Lee and Pat Cooper.

BEEF awards, donated by the County Leaders Council, were presented by Mrs. Thurman Atchley to Charlot, Bezner, Julie McNey, Donna Olson and Rodney Brooks. Receiving the BREAD award, donated by Standards Brands Incorporated and presented by Jack Nunley, was Layne Young.

Susie Shirley and Carmela Burges received FOOD-NUTRITION awards donated by General Foods Corporation and presented by Nunley. CLOTHING awards were presented by Cleo Cortis, in behalf of Coats and Clarks, Inc., to Cheryl Cole, Martha Ann McBride, Darla Payne and Debbie Armstrong.

DRESS REVUE awards from Simplicity Pattern Co., presented by Bob Hamman, went to Monica Herring, Lynette Clearman and Mary Kay Wagner.

Winners of the ENTOMOLOGY awards from Hercules Incorporated went to Mickey Ginn, Jim Goheen and Rex Lee. Hugh Clearman made the presentation. Jane Witkowski and Joette Hanna were presented HOME ECONOMICS CONSUMER ED-UCATION awards from Montgomery Ward by Mrs. Billie McDowell. Receiving HOME MANAGEMENT awards from Mrs. McDowell for Tupperware were Glenda Dodson, Suzie Hickman and Beth Bezner.

Kathy Jagels and Jimmy Clark received HORSE awards from Neil Cooper, in behalf of Merck and Company. HOME IMPROVEMENT awards from the S&H Foundation, Inc. were presented by Mrs. McDowell to Kay Atchley and Beverly Cole. Cynthia Hanna, Charles Atchley and Tommy Bezner received LEADERSHIP awards from Mrs. Harvey Hammett, in behalf of Sears-Roebuck Foundation. PHOTOGRAPHY awards were presented to Christine Marnell and Dennis Goheen by Bill Bradley, in behalf of Eastman Kodak Company.

Larry Justice and Nina Gilleland were recipients of PUBLIC SPEAKING awards, presented by Goeringer in behalf of Pure Oil Company. Kevin Douglas received the TEXAS SHEEP AND WOOL ANGORA GOAT AND MOHAIR award from the Texas Sheep Raisers Association, with Goeringer making the presentation.

LOCAL AWARDS

Receiving BEEF awards in Record Competition were Bill Cole, John McNey and Jim McNey. PUBLIC SPEAKING awards in Record Competition went to Kenneth Justice, Don Fortenberry and Carla Crist.

DRESS REVUE winners in County Contests were Linda Scumbato, Linda Ginn, Joanne Wagner, Patsy Paetzold, Diana Egbert, Jeanine Bradley, Debbie Stringer, Twanaha Kendrick, Sandra Stallings, Sandy Fry and Wineta Hill. County winners in METHOD

DEMONSTRATIONS were Jerry Sublet, Rodney Goheen, Joyce Bezner, Teresa McAndrews, Tamona Swindell, Melissa Miller, Jamie McAndrews, Jim Marsh, Twig Rose and Jimmy Christie.

Gary Goheen received the ENTOMOLOGY award in County Contests and David Cooper the HORSE award in County Contests.

TOP AWARDS EXPLAINED

Purpose of the Gold Star Award is "to recognize outstanding achievement, leadership and contribution to the County 4-H program and to stimulate Gold Star winners to further achievements and encourage others to participate in the county 4-H program. This is the highest county award provided by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service."

Requirements for being eligible for the Gold Star Award are that the club members must be at least 13 years of age as of January 1 of the current year, the club member shall have completed at least three years of club work including the current year, the club member must be an active 4-H member during the current year, and a club member may receive this award only one time.

A county committee composed of three to five members selects the winners. This year, the group represented on the committee were Farm Organization, 4-H Committee and County Home Demonstration Council.

The members' 4-H records are considered on the basis of 4-H Projects and activities, 4-H leadership, and personal development.

Sears On Panel At Lubbock Meet

The Next Ten Years in the Beef Industry" will be the topic of a panel discussion at Lubbock Monday afternoon, with Henry Sears of Hereford to be a member of that panel.

The discussion will be a feature of the 1968 annual meeting of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association, which will begin at 2:30 p. m. at the Ko Ko Palace.

Jack Carrothers of Friona, president of the association, explained that a short business session will begin the meeting, and the panel discussion will follow. Dr. L. S. Pope, associate dean, College of Agriculture, Texas A&M University, will be moderator.

On the panel with Sears will be Kenneth Anderson, Anderson Cattle Company, Emporia, Kansas; Dr. Charles Deyhle, Clearendon Veterinary Clinic; H. C. Hitch Jr., Hitch Ranches, Guymon, Okla., and Wade Lacy, Arizona Cattle Feeders Association.

Continuing Tuesday, the morning session will include a discussion of "Genetic Influence on Feeder Cattle Performance" by Dr. T. C. Cartwright, Texas A&M University, and a first hand look at the differences in carcass value. A panel discussion of "What Kind of Beef Do We Want?" will complete the morning program Tuesday.

Joe Easley of Hereford, second president of the association, is chairman of the morning session Tuesday.

At 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, Dr. Herrell DeGraf, president of the American Meat Institute, Chicago, Ill., will speak on "Will the Beef Industry Meet the Challenge of Tomorrow's Demands." Congressman W. R. Poage, chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, will speak on "Government and Agriculture — 1968."

Concluding the afternoon session Tuesday will be a panel discussion on "What Kind of Feeder Cattle for the Feedlot," with George Ellis Jr., general manager of the Coronado Cattle Company of Midland, serving as moderator.

A business meeting will follow the panel and a reception is planned at 6:30 p. m. A dinner dance will begin at 7:30 p. m., with music by Mark Anthony Orchestra.

C. R. Anthony

Anniversary Is Celebrated By C. R. Anthony Co.

It was forty-six years ago that Mr. C. R. Anthony opened the first C. R. Anthony Company store in Cushing, Oklahoma. This was the beginning of what is now a chain of over 300 stores located in 21 states and employing thousands of people.

The principles upon which C. R. Anthony established all of these stores was to give everyday thrifty prices, dependable high quality, fashion's newest styles and friendly, courteous service to all customers.

To pay tribute to this man who has spent his lifetime building and helping others, the entire Anthony chain decided the best way would be to have a special Founder's Day Sell-a-bration based upon the principles that are so strongly adhered to by C. R. Anthony. The event begins Thursday, November 14, and all are invited to visit the Anthony stores and join in honoring the Founder and the 46th Anniversary of the C. R. Anthony Company.

By MELVIN YOUNG
Officials of the Deaf Smith County United Fund Board, its drive chairman and workers will be making a final effort Saturday to put the fund over the top. This year's goal is $37,100 and about $32,500 has been raised to date. Bake sales will be held in at least two of the major grocery stores as well as at Sugarland Mall. Understand also that some baked goodies will be sold at the wrestling matches Saturday night and Lions, Rotarians, Kiwanians and other civic group members will be standing on street corners trying to get a few more dollars for the drive. Proceeds from the wrestling matches Saturday night will also be donated to the United Fund.

Thinking that a burglary was in the making, local police units rushed to the scene and "caught the culprits by surprise", still nailing away at the Christmas decoration.

"I nearly fell off that ladder," Harvey said, but added, "we do appreciate the fast work of the police department."

Spangler, by the way, was home in bed when the local dispatcher called. He was a little "shook-up" too, but was pleased to learn later that it wasn't a burglary after all.

By the way, Friday night will be the last time this year the Whitefacs host another team on the home grounds. The Whitefacs meet Tulla in conference play at Whiteface field and next week will journey to Dumas to play the dangerous Dumas Demons. Let's all turn out Friday night to boost the team. We have an excellent chance to win the district conference championship and could well come in undefeated in conference play. Let's not let down now.

Don't forget to shop Hereford this weekend for bargains galore. The Hereford merchants, both downtown and Sugarland Mall, are combining efforts to bring area shoppers the widest selection of merchandise available anywhere at the lowest possible prices in this week's Appreciation Day Sale. You'll be the winner if you shop in Hereford this weekend.

J. W. Robinson, Jr., Hereford, Texas, a member of Southland Life Insurance Company's Amarillo Agency, was in third place in the entire agency organization of Southland Life in volume of new paid business during the month of October. This announcement was made by Gilfred L. Daigle, CLU, vice president and director of agencies.

Robinson has been a member of Southland Life's field force since June of 1949.

FIRST FREE SHOW — Namu, six-ton, 26-foot "star" of "Namu, the Killer Whale," which will be the first free "Shop and Show" matinee sponsored by the First National Bank at the Star Theatre in Hereford, on Friday, Nov. 29, is the only killer whale ever captured and "tamed" by man. Idea of its enormous size is conveyed by man clinging to his fin.

First National To Sponsor Matinees

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer
First National Bank in Hereford is sponsoring three "Shop and Show" matinees, free of charge for children, at the Star Theatre so that their mothers can shop in the local stores prior to Christmas.

The first free show will be "Namu, the Killer Whale" booked for two showings the day after Thanksgiving, at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Francis Hardwick, manager of the Star, stressed that the free matinees are being sponsored by the First National Bank in an effort to entice the shopper to spend his money in Hereford itself, instead of going into the larger cities for their Christmas shopping.

The local arrangement, Hardwick said, would benefit local merchants in both the downtown area and Sugarland Mall and make him "Deaf Smith County's biggest baby-sitter."

He estimated that this service would keep $20,000 to $30,000 from being spent elsewhere during the Christmas shopping season. He felt that the money spent here would not only benefit the merchants but the laboring man as well.

The First National Bank is paying all expenses for the feature bookings and the added overhead.

Anniversary Is Being Held By Cowan Jewelry

The 17th anniversary of Cowan Jewelry, 217 N. Main, is currently being observed by Kenneth "Doc" Cowan and his wife, Anne, who bought the business on Jan. 1, 1952.

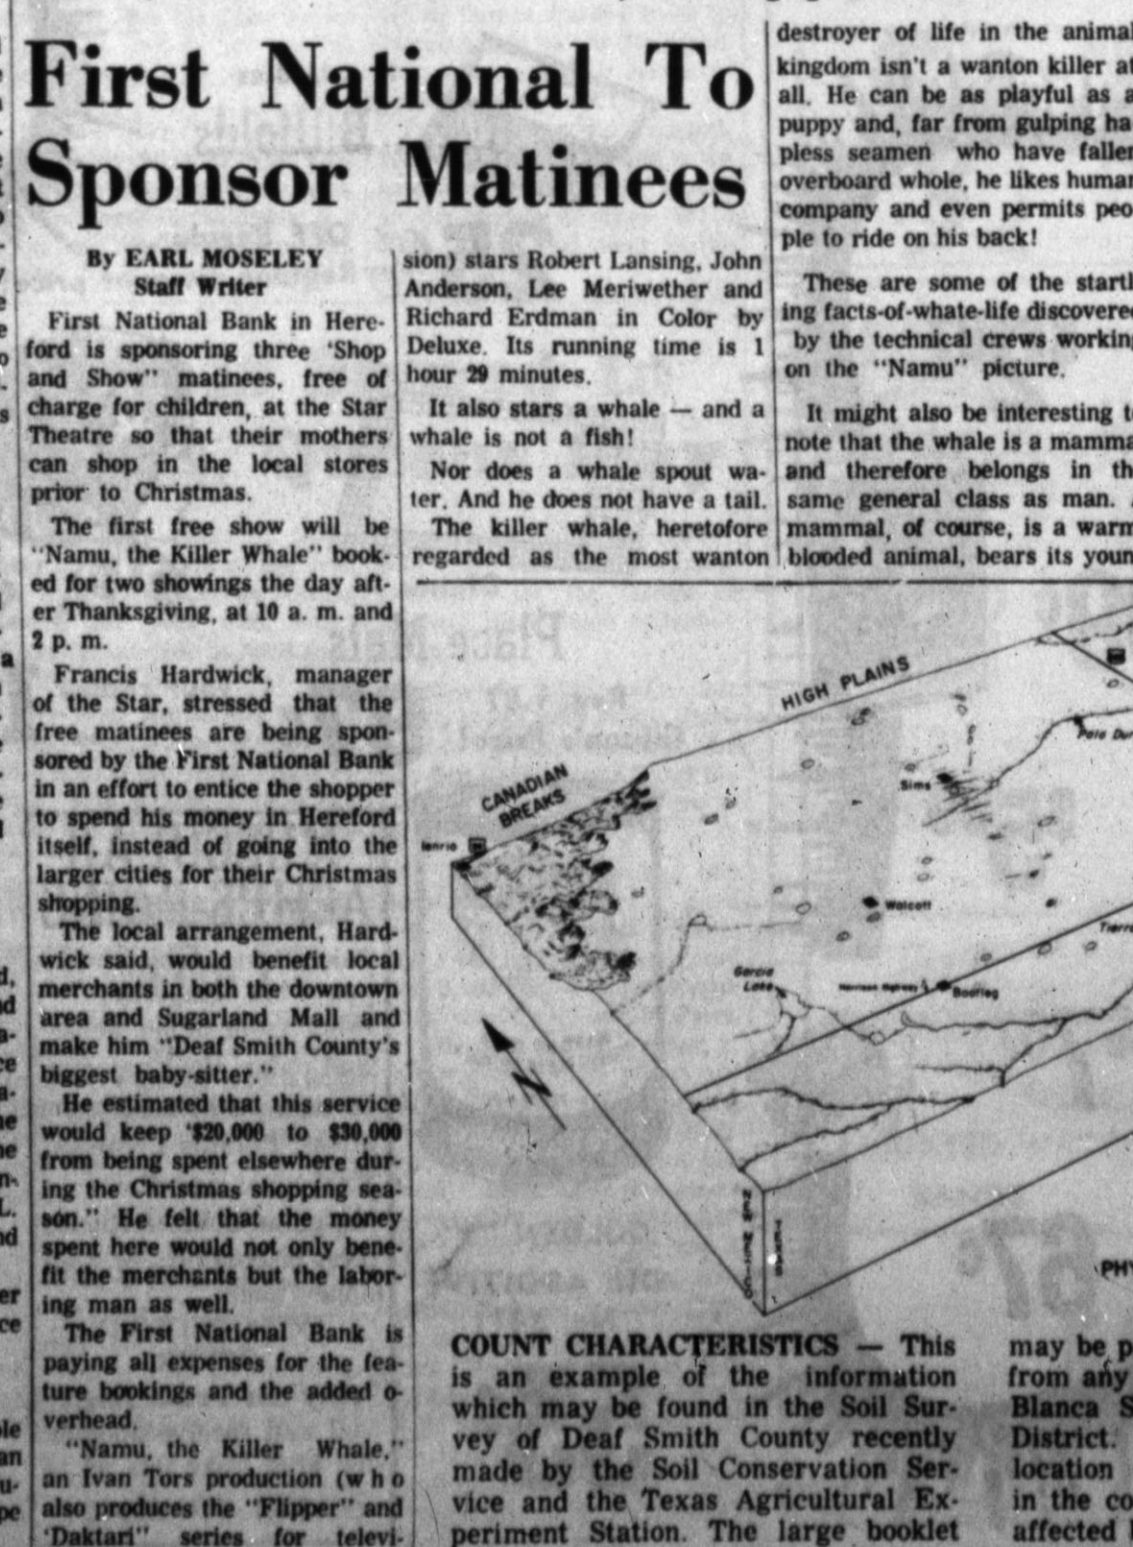

The couple started their first business at Throckmorton in 1937, and have expanded through the years so that there are now six full time employes, including themselves. The employes include their daughter, Virginia (Mrs. Charles Skinner), Skinner himself, Mrs. Carol Duvall, Jim Hawkins.

Cowan does much special designing and manufacturing work, is a certified gemological counselor and has many diplomas in diamond grading, evaluations and other jewelry techniques. He also is an insurance appraiser.

That warm-blooded business is responsible for the fact that the spout which causes whalers to shout the traditional "Thar she blows" is not water, but vapor.

Also on the same program is a 3 Stooges comedy.

The other two matinees will have "Clarence, the Cross-Eyed Lion" on Saturday, Dec. 21, at 10 and 11:50 a. m. and "Battle Beyond the Sun" on Monday, Dec. 23 at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

destroyer of life in the animal kingdom isn't a wanton killer at all. He can be as playful as a puppy and, far from gulping hapless seamen who have fallen overboard whole, he likes human company and even permits people to ride on his back!

These are some of the startling facts-of-whale-life discovered by the technical crews working on the "Namu" picture.

It might also be interesting to note that the whale is a mammal and therefore belongs in the same general class as man. A mammal, of course, is a warm-blooded animal, bears its young alive, and the young are suckled by the mother.

That warm-blooded business is responsible for the fact that the spout which causes whalers to shout the traditional "Thar she blows" is not water, but vapor.

PHYSIOGRAPHY, RELIEF, AND DRAINAGE OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY, TEXAS

COUNT CHARACTERISTICS — This is an example of the information which may be found in the Soil Survey of Deaf Smith County recently made by the Soil Conservation Service and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The large booklet may be picked up at the SCS office or from any board member of the Tierra Blanca Soil and Water Conservation District. The illustration shows the location of draws and larger lakes in the county and the areas that are affected by these features.

Shooting The Bull At HHS

The ladder of success is reached by climbing only one step at a time, and so it is with the expectations of the football team. Our fighting varsity has worked from the bottom of the ladder and has made rising progress toward the top — district. They are reaching for another step tomorrow when they host Tulla at 7:30.

HHS
Tri-Hi-Y has really grown with the addition of 17 new members. These are Carolyn Betzen, Debra Bowers, Denise Daniels, Lynn Fisher, Janet Frye, Betty Hodges, Connie Hoover, Dawn Hopson, Ann Mims, Teresa McAndrews, Gayle McCutchen, Ann Priddy, Dell Sealy, Sabra Traeweck, Sharon Watson, Charlene Weaver, and Jan Turrentine. Formal initiation of these new members will be Nov. 21 at 6:30 in the First Christian Church sanctuary. Informal initiation will be prior to this date.

HHS
Tri-Hi-Y will be presenting two programs this month to help convey the true Thanksgiving spirit. They will present an assembly for the student body Nov. 26, and will also present a program to Kings Manor later.

HHS
Another challenge presented this year is the Voice of Democracy Literary Writing Contest, sponsored by the VFW. The contest is open to all high school students, and the entry deadline is Nov. 25. All of the entries need to be turned in to your English teacher by this time. The themes will be judged locally, and the top 12 local finalists will tape their speeches. The tapes will then be sent to West Texas, where the top three winners will be decided. Last year's prizes included a $25 savings bond, various medals and plaques.

HHS
Coming up soon — band party.

HHS
Preparations for "Oklahoma" tryouts are still in the process. A group of approximately 50 choir members and their friends will journey to Levelland to view the "Oklahoma" musical as presented by the Levelland choral department. The bus will leave at 4:00 Sat. afternoon from the east parking lot.

HHS
A new addition was added to the coat paraphernalia this week when the choirs received their sweaters and jackets. When asked how many were ordered, Mr. Devers replied, "Oh, I don't know. Just bunches!"

HHS
Kill two birds with one stone tomorrow night — support the juniors and satisfy your appetite by attending the Junior Class Supper. Since people have such varied tastes, the supper is Smorgasbord, and your appetite is guaranteed to be pleased. The high school cafeteria is the place; 5:30-7:30 is the time. Tickets are $1.00, and may be purchased from any junior. Preschoolers are admitted free. Come support the junior class and their annual queen candidate, Mary Sue Neff.

HHS
Members for the All School Play, "Pillow Talk," were selected last week. These are Santry Rush, Jan Turrentine, Anne Bennet, Lynn Fisher, Marilyn James, Betty Hodges, Dawn Hopson, Suzanne Oglesby, Richard Lyons, Gary Crume, Mike Kemp, John Cockerham, Deborah Hodges, Theo ten Have, Souad Malouf, Lynn Rudd, Judy Hollingsworth, Jeanie Devette, Rosie Rogers, Teresa McAndrews, and Sharon Watson. The play will be presented Dec. 5 and 6, at 8:00 P. M. in the high school auditorium. Sponsor for the play is Miss Anderson.

HHS
The next edition of the "White-face" will be Nov. 22.

HHS
The FFA boys are at it again. A 40 lb. box of grapefruit or oranges may be ordered for $4.95 from any FFA member. The fruit will arrive approximately Dec. 16, and the order deadline is Dec. 1.

HHS
The Southern Belles, a popular singing group, sang at the First Christian Church last Sunday afternoon for a youth fellowship. If you would like to have them as your entertainment, just contact any of the members: Suzanne Oglesby, Jan Turrentine, Chris Loerwald, Lynn Fisher, Kerri Dameron, Joette Hanna, Teresa McAndrews, and Martha Kate Aiken.

HHS
Another popular group, the Spiritual Swingers sang at the weekly noon luncheon of the Kiwanis Club last week. Scheduled for this week is a program at Dawn for the Home Demonstration club.

HHS
Since Christmas is only about a month away, start your Christmas shopping by purchasing cookbooks from the FFA girls or homemaking department. On sale are foreign foods, meats, casserole, salads, and vegetables cook books for $3.00 each.

HHS
Another good Christmas gift is the assorted Christmas candy that the National Honor Society will be selling soon. The National Honor Society has planned a bake sale before the Thanksgiving holidays. Kathy Hooks, president, urges all NHS members to pay the $1.00 dues quickly.

HHS
Key Club is also trying its best as salesmen. A HEREFORD WHITEFACE license tag may be purchased from any member for $1.50. The next Key Club meeting is Mon. night, 7:30, at the Hacienda.

HHS
Two assemblies are scheduled for the next two weeks. The girls' choir will present the assembly Nov. 21, and Tri Hi Y will present the assembly Nov. 26.

HHS
Hereford High School Student Council wishes to thank the many persons who made Homecoming '68 such a great success. The school, the town, and the community, deserve a great pat on the back for a job well done. Special thanks also is given to Mr. Ray Barber, Student Council sponsor, who gave much of his time.

HHS
The Jr. Varsity Longhorns host the Jr. Varsity Tulla Hornets tonight at 7:30. The B team Shorthorns journey to Lubbock tonight to meet their opponent. Best of luck to both teams.

HHS
On the scene tomorrow night will be The Underground Press to provide after-game entertainment. The dance is 9:00 to 12:00 (or thereabouts), and admission is $1.00.

Will Report On Ticket Sales

Ticket sale reports are to be made by the Hereford Community Players at a membership meeting in Stanton Junior High Auditorium, beginning at 7 p.m. today. The place was set so that rehearsal of the play, Blithe Spirit, can be held immediately afterward.

Members who are selling tickets for the production of that comedy next week, are asked to be ready to check in money taken in, also tickets not sold. Plans for final advance sale of tickets will be made, and also arrangements for selling tickets at the door next Thursday and Friday evenings when the comedy will be presented in Stanton auditorium.

Future productions of this season are to be discussed and a tentative schedule set.

Rehearsals for Blithe Spirit, a comedy by Noel Coward, are making progress under direction of Imogene Anderson, high school speech and drama instructor. The cast of seven is putting final polish on the scenes and backstage crews are completing arrangements for the staging, lighting, costumes and makeup.

Volunteers for house drew duty on the two evenings of the play will be assigned their tasks at tonight's session, which is to be held early so there will be time afterward for a complete rehearsal.

Jehovah's Witnesses Members Plan To Attend Pampa Convention

Information has been received by George Humphries, the local presiding minister of Jehovah's witnesses about the different departments that are already operating in preparation for the three-day convention to be held in Pampa, Nov. 22-24 in the Robert E. Lee Jr. High School Auditorium.

Humphries announced the appointment of Robert H. Barnett and Jerry Johnson to have oversight of two of the 21 departments managed by ministers from the area with a convention staff of 100 to 150 volunteer workers, necessary in carrying out the details of the convention organization.

Humphries indicated that time is being spent not only in the organizational arrangement but also by those who have been given program assignments, in rehearsals and research as they prepare for Bible talks, discussions and dramatizations that will be featured during the sessions.

He likened it to the preparations that the Israelites made three times a year to share in the assemblies that the Bible indicated they were required to attend. "Spending three days in Pampa will mean much advance planning for the families that are scheduling their time to be there," Humphries reported. "Finances, clothing, time off from their work all require advance preparations. Some 700 delegates will be in attendance for the seminar including some 20 from Hereford," Humphries added.

"The purpose of the program," he mentioned, "is to aid Christians in carrying out their ministerial responsibilities both as students of the Bible and as teachers of it, so we want all to benefit as it promises to be spiritually upbuilding to everyone."

The main subject to be discussed at the meeting will be "God Is Love."

WILL HOST DANCE

Fooks Speaks To Rotarians

Members of different churches and faiths need to get together on the "grass roots level," and show a united front to the world," or "it is going to pot," the Rev. Eugene Fooks said during a meeting of the Hereford Rotary Club Monday.

Fooks, who spoke on his book "Fellowship of Believers," stated that no one group has a market on truth and "that's why we need to help one another."

He said the most important meeting place is on the "grass roots level" where "we can help one another to reach toward the ultimate truth."

Fooks suggested that church members and pastors get together with other churches and "talk about these things. We're not trying to convert anyone in this situation. We don't even have to give our convictions."

People today, Fooks said, think of Christianity as a non-entity. "The world isn't paying much attention to us," he said. People are losing faith, he explained, because the churches are so divided and so open in their division. "We must work together in some way so that people will pay attention and we can accomplish something."

Fooks said he felt stress should be placed on agreements between the different churches and the disagreements minimized. "In many instances, those in disagreement can agree 70 to 80 percent of the time."

He pointed out that the meetings must be on a "grass roots, man to man" basis. Although he emphasized the need for members of different churches to have discussion and fellowship among them, he stressed that "man must be left free to choose for himself in the matter of religion. But to be able to choose, they must have both sides of the story."

In closing, Fooks stated "if we don't work together, I believe there is coming a time when Christianity will be as bad off as it was during the middle ages. We're going to have to make a dent in this world or it is going to pot."

her book, The White Cliffs, which won wide popularity when it was new and which club members agreed is worthy of becoming a classic.

In poetic style, it tells the story of a young American woman who marries an Englishman while she is visiting England, is widowed in World War I but remains in England to bring her son up in the traditions of his country, only to face the death of the son in another war.

Bits of the history of U.S.—British relations through the years are woven into the story. Mrs. Formby, a club guest, was introduced by Mrs. Jim Bookout, program leader for the day. The opening devotional talk was by Mrs. Ray-Suits.

In the business session with Mrs. Hardy Benson presiding, a letter was read from the club's "adopted" child at Girlstown USA, thanking members for clothing sent her earlier this fall.

Others present were Mmes. V. E. Dodson, S. S. Williams, S. A. McCathern, Vivian Major, C. D. Kelton, John Jacobsen Jr., Jim Higgins, Floyd Dunavant, Ila Chapman, Bruce Brown, R. G. Blue and Glenn Witherspoon.

Local Couples To Attend Legion Meet

Commander and Mrs. S. T. Wiseman of Hereford American Legion Post 192, with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ott, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Williamson, Robert Betzen, and possibly Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna, will attend the 18th District American Legion Convention at Memphis on Nov. 16-17.

William C. Doyle, National Commander of the American Legion, will speak on Sunday afternoon. Doyle recently returned from an official visit to Vietnam and is expected to report on his findings, including his opinion regarding the bombing halt now in effect there.

The convention will get underway on Saturday with registration beginning at 10 a. m. After a full day of business, the annual convention dance will begin at 9 p. m. There will be a banquet for the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Xmas Party Set By Rotarians

The annual Rotary Club Christmas Party and Ladies Night has been set for Dec. 20 at the Jim Hill Hotel.

Rotary President Troys Carmichael said more details on the event will be announced soon.

State President To Be Here For District Meet

Mrs. Jackson Craven of, Kemah, state president of the Ladies Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be the honored guest at the convention of District 13 here Saturday and Sunday. VFW and Auxiliary members of this district will hold their joint annual convention in Hereford.

Mrs. Henry H. Murrell, president of the local Auxiliary, and L. H. Lookingbill, post commander of the VFW, head the host groups who have planned the two-day meeting for business session, programs and social events.

Mrs. Craven was elected state Auxiliary president at the state convention in Fort Worth last June. She is a member of the Dickinson Memorial Post of District 16, and is eligible for membership through overseas service of her husband in World War II.

She has served in various local and district offices, including the district presidency in 1963-64, and has held department chairmanships. Americanism in schools has been a topic she emphasized, and she has broadcast skits and talks which she prepared on the subject of Americanism.

This work was recognized by Woodmen of the World Lodge, which presented her a bronze honor plaque for commendable service.

She is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Kemah Methodist Church, and is a charter member of the Ladies Auxiliary to Kemah Elks Lodge. She is also a charter member of the Woman's Pavilion, a permanent part of HemisFair which will become the home of the Inter-American Institute.

Mrs. Henry Murrell local VFW Auxiliary president

During World War II she was employed three years at Ellington Field Air Base, the only woman to work on the "pre-flight" line, a position of much responsibility.

Mrs. Craven has chosen as her watchword for the year. Loyalty — loyalty to U.S. combat troops, to the flag, to the VFW and Auxiliary, and loyalty between members in promoting loyalty in communities, schools and churches.

TO HOLD FESTIVAL

The Pep Community will be celebrating their 23rd annual Thanksgiving Festival on Thursday, Nov. 28, with country sausage and turkey with trimmings from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. and from 5 to 7:30 p. m.

Prices are reported as $1.75 per plate for adults and $1 for children. The program will also include carnival attractions, prizes, an auction and a dance, with music by a Western band.

Pep is located on Highway 303 southwest of Littlefield and northwest of Levelland.

Past, Future In County Are Viewed In Club

Facts about the past in Deaf Smith County were given at roll call in West Hereford Home Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon, and members recalled the Sulphur Springs picnic ground which was once popular, and the building of the courthouse, the only marble courthouse in Texas, among other items of history.

Looking to the future, Argen Draper, county H.D. Agent, spoke on plans for bringing water to this area from eastern streams, and also mentioned new developments pointing to a change in cookery methods.

A Thanksgiving dinner was planned for noon on Nov. 26 at the home of Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr. The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Carl Schroeder, who gave a report of the recent County H. D. Council meeting.

Also present were Mmes. V. Pierce, Wes Bradley, Vern Witherspoon, D. R. Grimes, Jacobsen, N. B. Hood, Alice Cox, Blanche Hardin, W. A. Waters, Roy Boyd, Robert Boyd, W. H. Awtrey; Misses Mary Brady and Evelyn Bell.

Adrian News

By ANN BEAVERS
Brand Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Lane request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Joan Marie to Mr. Sammy Lee Hobbs on Saturday the twenty-third of November, six-o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist Church in Adrian, Texas.

The United Methodist Men of Adrian are gathering toys for underprivileged children. These toys will be taken to the Amarillo Fire Department for repairs and distribution.

Any toy broken or unwanted please leave at the Fire Station or Call 538-4916 for pickup.

A 58-year old Adrian man was admitted to St. Anthony's Hospital about 5 p. m. Friday as the result of a two-car, one-house accident in the 300 block of W. 34th. in Amarillo.

Farris A. Kromer, being held in the hospital for observation, was the driver of an eastbound car which struck a parked car belonging to Ida Henley of 313-B W. 34th. The Henley vehicle was then knocked into an apartment occupied by James Jenkins.

Jenkins, who said he was near the door at the time of the crash, was not injured.

Both vehicles and the dwelling received considerable damage. When the wreckage was removed, one witness said, the house had a hole in the wall "large enough to crawl into the living room."

The Adrian P. T. O. held its regular monthly meeting, Monday night in the school cafeteria. The program was a very timely one on Election Special by the American History Class and the Teacher Mrs. Patsy Burnam. A large crowd attended. Host for the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gruhkey, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gruhkey, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman McCown, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Peters and Mrs. Irene Brown.

Miss Jean Lane was honored with a Bridal Shower, Friday afternoon at the Methodist Church Parlor. Hostess were Mrs. Howard Engle, Mrs. Lorin Creitz, Mrs. Don Travis, Mrs. E. N. Jacobson, Mrs. Leland Burns, Mrs. N. L. Jacobson, Mrs. Jim Cavin, Mrs. Jim Perrin, Mrs. Kenneth Zaring and Miss Martha Gruhkey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Roberts and Peggy of Sebeitha, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gilley and family of Vega and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Goodenough and family of Amarillo visited during the weekend with Mrs. Billie Morrell and Charlie Pulliam.

Pat Patterson is in the Deaf Smith County Hospital last week and this week.

Miss Valarie Johnson and Miss Pauline Parker visited Saturday with Mrs. Imogene Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Maupin and family of Santa Rosa spent the weekend with the Earl Brown family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ostrander of Amarillo visited Sunday with the Jim Cavin family.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Johnson visited in Canyon, Sunday with the Bill Sterling family and the Bill Johnson family, after they all attended the Sausage Festival at Umbarger.

Mr. Marion Ferguson and Gene and Calvin Peters spent Sunday afternoon at Clarendon at Greenbelt Lake.

Lee Thompson was honored on his birthday, Friday with cake in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Ferguson. Mrs. Ina Sue Thompson of Hereford was there also.

Mrs. Ray Brown and Mrs. Sam Brown visited last week with Sam Brown, stationed at Fort Leonardwood, Missouri.

Mike Horton and Christy Rickart of West Texas State University, and Doris Horton and Janet Crow of Texas Tech spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Horton.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bryant are in Ft. Worth for the Baptist State Convention, Monday thru Friday.

John Skaggs attended the Sausage Fete at Umbarger, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Allen visited Mr. T. R. Allen in Amarillo, Wednesday.

Kent Manley of Channing and formerly of Adrian was in the Amarillo Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Chamlee of Mobile, Ala. spent the weekend with the Lorin Creitz family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Creitz and Melanie, Mr. and Mrs. Al Chamlee visited Thursday with Henry Creitz in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis of Lazbuddie visited Mr. and Mrs. Terry Creitz and Stacy one day last week.

Mrs. Bill Gudgell and family and Mrs. Lena Gudgell visited Mrs. Jerry Conner and family in Amarillo, Saturday.

Mrs. Lewis Spinks visited Friday with Mrs. Jerry Conner and family in Amarillo.

Mrs. Emma Bales received word that her niece Linda Rife in West Virginia was seriously injured in a Car wreck. Miss Rife is a former Hereford resident.

All City bills can be dropped in a box that is at the Adrian Merck.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brownlee

LIONS ARE HONORED — Lions Club members Cawthon Bryant in top photo and Herschel Black received certificates for their efforts in raising membership during October. Card Game Bride Subject Of Book

The story of a young girl, won as a bride at a card game, and a unique murder plot are just two of the many books that can now be found at the Deaf Smith County Library.

LYONESSE ABBEY, by JILL TATTERSALL is a new book in the best tradition of Victoria Holt and Dorothy Eden for suspense and romance. It was an eerie place to be brought as a bride — especially as a bride who had been won in a card game by a dark, piratical looking stranger.

But Tessa Tregaron, nee Howard, was at first undaunted. She was only seventeen, and rew through the years, their burden of family disapproval was heavy. For Tessa had innocently caused her mother's demise by being born, and was consequently unforgiven by father, brothers and elegant sister alike.

Therefore, it was with excitement and pleasure that she faced her new life with Damon Tregaron, imagining herself as lady of a great manor and sure of her affinity with the wild reaches of the Cornish landscape.

But despite her unworlidity Tessa soon realized that a wife should not be treated like a sister; that the familiarity of their nearest neighbor, the beautiful Mrs. Pentyre, was closer to impropriety than the desire to be helpful; and that there were unaccountable happenings in the parts of the Abbey sternly forbidden to her.

And what was driving Damon Tregaron to such lengths of furious industry that Tessa rarely saw him? What, indeed, she finally asked herself, was the secret of Lyonesse Abbey?

The proposition was simple and startling. This timid girl from Boston walked up to Chris and offered him fifty thousand dollars to marry her. The book THE VALENTINE ESTATE, by STANLEY ELLIN.

It was the magic number. Nine years before, Chris Monte, Wimbledon champion, had rejected an offer of fifty thousand dollars to turn tennis pro. He was holding out for more when a leg injury ended his career. Now he helps run the tennis shop at Cobia Spa in Miami Beach, dead-broke on the Gold Coast, wary of man-hungry guests who hope to hire him for fun and games.

But Elizabeth Jones assures him it is strictly business: She must have a husband to collect the million-dollar Valentine estate, after which there will be a quick divorce. No problem at all. Except, as Chris comes to learn after the wedding, for the mysterious Mookerjee who kidnap Chris in a high-powered yacht; for the strangers who trail him and the thugs who beat him up; for the girl herself, who does not seem to understand what is meant by a marriage of convenience.

In a story which plunges headlong through a maze of international intrigue and corruption, the author reveals the enormous, terrifying — and sometimes comic — dimensions of a diabolically unique murder plot. Stanley Ellin is hailed as a master of suspense. In the Valentine Estate, he again shows why.

The Veterans Administration reports that the last Revolutionary War veteran died 85 years after the war officially ended.

High school training taken under the G. I. Bill does not reduce eligibility for advanced training.

CYO Meeting Is Postponed

The ordinary business meeting usually held by the Catholic Youth Organization was withheld this week only with a Mass of folk hymns sung by the members of CYO of St. Anthony's School Wednesday night in its place.

Music for the Mass was provided by Larry Kuper of Summerfield and Connie Walker of Hereford, who played guitars. Other songs were provided by the Southern Belles. Hymns sung were taken from the "Hymnal for Young Christians."

Mass was held in the school auditorium where an altar was set up. In addition to presenting the wine and bread to be used at the Offertory Procession, the senior members of the club placed their rings on the altar for Father's blessing. Other members carried different articles symbolic of the things used by teenagers today.

Arrangements for the services were planned by Wendell Albracht, Diana Fangman, Jane Zinser, Steve Dziuk, Carol Turrentine, and Brother John Ponia.

Father Simeone Heine offered up the Mass. Brother John conducted the ceremonies.

Decorations To Be Topic Of Chamber Group

The Christmas Decorations Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will meet at noon Friday at Ward's Restaurant, 215 South 25 Mile Avenue.

Buddy Bloomer, committee chairman, said many details are to be worked out, including date that the decorations are to be installed and when they are to be taken down.

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

Each year when frost comes and winter approaches, I am reminded of William Cullen Bryant's poem:

"The melancholy days have come,

The saddest of the year,
With wailing winds and naked woods,
And meadows brown and sear"

Today the winds have blown, the trees have lost their leaves, and they have fallen fast and drifted hither and yon. They rustle as I walk upon them scattered on the grassy lawn. Yes they mean extra work, as they should be raked off the grass. If left they will mat, and tend to choke out the grass, especially if we have wet weather.

Don't waste those leaves. . . . Nothing is so rewarding to a gardener as a nice pile of compost ready for use in the spring. Making a compost heap can be as simple or as complex as a gardener chooses. A hollowed out place somewhere out of sight in the back yard can serve as well as anything else for making compost of the leaves that are to be raked off of the lawns. If you wish to make it a bit more substantial, then build a base of ten or twelve inch boards, and lift out the top soil and pile near the frame work. This could be built outside the fence, in a protected area near the gate. Either way you choose, level off the ground upon which the compost pile is to be placed, then add sand. Completely cover the area with three or four inches of good coarse sand, so there will be good drainage. Add a thick layer of leaves, wet down thoroughly with the garden hose, then cover lightly with the top garden soil before the next layer of leaves is added. It is suggested that when the leaves are added, they should be tramped or shredded a bit so that decomposition will start more readily. Follow this routine until the pile is as large as you want it to be, making a layer of leaves, then a layer of soil, completing the compost pile with a top layer of soil. If no rain or snow falls in winter, it will be necessary to wet the pile with the garden hose to aid the rotting of the leaves. The purpose of the layer soil in with the leaves is that leaves are prone to resist or shed water, therefore the soil will hold the moisture and the process of decay will be more thorough. Next spring there will be need for every bit of the fine black composted material and you will be glad the leaves were not wasted or burned.

Care should be taken in placing leaves or other vegetation into the compost pile, be sure that no diseased materials are added, these should be burned. Also do not add cuttings from rose bushes, long canes are harsh and hard to work with and are not worth the time it takes to break them up, they are also slow in decaying as are stems and sticks from trees or shrubs. However lettuce leaves, parings from fruits, and any other waste from kitchen, except those that would have any part of oil or grease on them, are good to add to the compost. Many of us put these through the disposal, when they should be made into compost.

GROOMING FLOWER BEDS: This cold front will probably bring the low temperature we have been expecting for sometime, if so it will be time to groom the flower beds. Annuals should be pulled up, perennials cut back, and beds raked and cleaned. If time permits the soil should be lightly spaded or at least roughened so that the winter winds will not blow it too much, before it is spaded scatter a slow-acting superphosphate thoroughly over the beds, then mulch. This will serve to collect and hold moisture during a possible dry winter, and aid in making good conditioned soil to prepare for planting in the spring.

Autumn Rose Care: Many have called and asked if the Hybrid roses should be pruned this fall. NO, it is not advisable to do pruning now, however if there are long dead canes these should be removed, but leave the real pruning for spring. If the roses have been diseased, Black Spot or mildew, then all leaves when they have fallen should be raked, carefully lifted and burned or destroyed by other methods.

Rosarians suggest that climbing roses can be pruned a bit in the fall. Long canes which will whip, should be cut, and also the canes which are dead. Do not remove all of the long canes in one cutting, leave some for the next year, as this tends to strengthen the plant, and it can also be shaped in a more attractive way.

LAWN CARE: Most gardeners treat lawns for weeds in spring because then the weed blossoms are so noticeable. It is much simpler to prevent spring dandelions and other lawn enemies by using weed killers in the fall.

Some have inquired about new lawns. Are they rugged enough to endure winter? Should the weeds be killed before winter sets in. In reading after experts I find that they believe there is little danger of lawns being frozen out, if they have been properly planted, and if they are not allowed to become extremely dry. If young seedlings are deeply rooted, they are not likely to be dislodged or killed by a freezing or thawing cycle. If soil becomes dry, and the grass is exposed to wind for several days or a week while the ground is frozen, then some kill can be expected.

BULBS: Pioneer Study Club members are making their first deliveries of bulbs for spring planting. Since we have had such a warm autumn, it is good that the bulbs have not been planted. However the soil should have been prepared by spading deep, adding mulch and bone meal, so that now the bulbs can be planted. Plant the small bulbs such as crocus and grape hyacinths first, then the daffodils, and lastly the tulips. I have planted bulbs as late as the Christmas holiday season, and had beautiful blooms. The quality of bulbs being received and delivered is excellent. We have a good selection of King Alfred, and Unsurpassable Daffodils, & some few choice tulips, also a small amount of Dutch iris and crocus bulbs, if you want either of these call 364-1343.

Have an invitation to attend the Dedication Ceremony of The Amarillo Garden Center. Mrs. E. O. Barton of Houston, President of Texas Garden Clubs Inc. will give the dedicatory address. Other memorials will also be dedicated.

The Garden Center is certainly a great asset to our District One Garden Clubs, as well as to Amarillo and the many clubs there.

Congratulations to The Yarbro for having the Beauty Spot in November, in the residential class. Those of us who have worked with the grounds at the First Baptist Church are also delighted that it received the non-residential Beauty Award. Very soon we plan to have the dedication of The Memorial Rose Garden, the bronze plaque is now ready to be placed. It is our sincere wish that all who pass by or pause and meditate in the Rose Garden will enjoy its beauty, and receive a blessing.

Our hats are off to Louis Brown the custodian for his excellent care of the church grounds. THANKS Louis and Congratulations!

All who enjoy nature's beauty are—GLAD, and spread Happiness.

Craft Ideas Heard

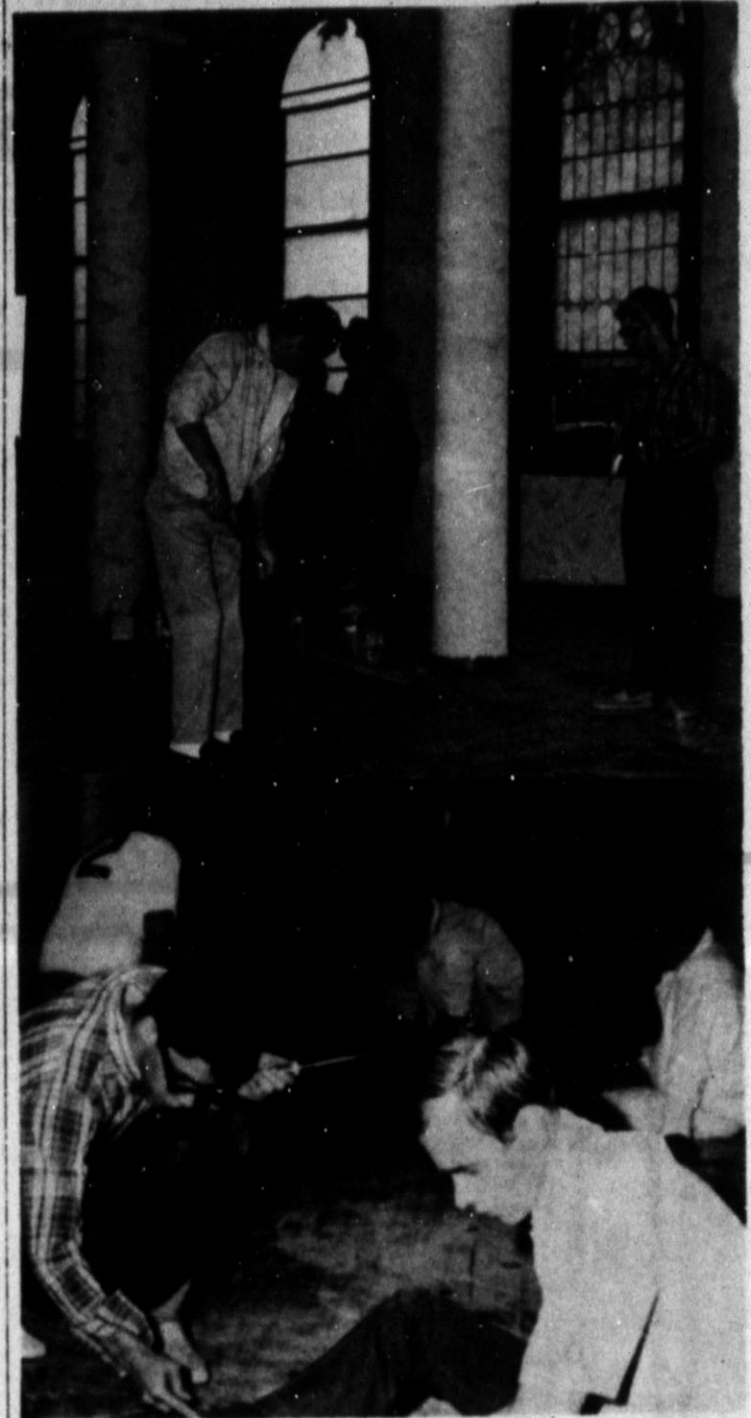

Ideas for holiday gifts were presented on the program of Young Mothers Study Club Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Jim Arney and Mrs. Howard Hunter were hostesses in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co. Mrs. Glen Watts was program director.

She showed ceramic pieces, decoupage and "frosted" glass as examples of decorative items which may be made for Christmas giving. Methods of making the items were described also.

The club scheduled its Christmas party for Dec. 18.

Mrs. Van Horn was welcomed as a guest. Members present included Mmes. Bud Thomas, Lynn Pittard, A. T. Griffin, Raymond Gerk, Larry Dobbs, Don Brush, David Brunley, Lewis Block and Travis McPherson.

NEW FLOOR CONSTRUCTION — Twenty-two men from Cannon Air Force Base at Clovis, New Mexico, under the leadership of Chaplain Maj. John Benda and Sgt. Joseph Pardomo, broke out the old floor and replaced it with a new one in tile at St. Joseph's Mission Saturday. Father John Broderick, pastor, reported that it was a joint project — not all the volunteers were Catholic — but had come here on appeal "to do something good." —Staff Photos

Texas Highway Commission Angry With Federal Agency

AUSTIN - The Texas Highway Commission today leveled a blast at the U. S. Department of Transportation, charging the federal agency with cynical disregard for the safety, the wishes or the welfare of the American motorist through continual delay of and interference with the Highway Program. Commission Chairman Jack Kuitgen of Waco accused the DOT of "acting in bad faith" in announcing a group of proposed regulatory policies which will have the effect of law on November 22 if not withdrawn by the agency. "These policies ostensibly were proposed to give the people a greater voice in highway planning," Kuitgen said. "However, they are a threat to the entire highway construction program."

Kuitgen urged motorists throughout the nation to wire their Congressmen - both U.S. Senators and Representatives - to express forcibly their opposition to the proposed establishment of a new Part 3 to Title 23 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Federal Register). He stressed the need for immediate action. The regulatory proposals call for two public hearings before a highway may be constructed. Any person or group of persons could bring a halt to further progress on the highway project at either hearing or afterwards by citing any of the regulatory points in opposing the proposed construction. Kuitgen was vehement in his criticism of the proposed regulations. He declared: "This is absolutely and completely contrary to any intelligent approach to highway planning. It places the inexperienced judgment of laymen against the combined professional judgment and experience of the entire highway department engineering and administrative staffs. If these regulatory policies are permitted to stand, any disgruntled individual or special interest group could forestall a highway project indefinitely - for years. Meanwhile, motorists by the score could be dying on an inadequate, overcrowded facility which the new highway would replace."

"Although the Commission and the Highway Department have tried to be eminently fair in our dealings with the public, we already have had instances where a few individuals in a community have been able to stall a highway project in the face of overwhelming community support. "Imagine, if you will, the chaos that would result if the Federal government encourages litigation by individuals or special interest groups while one person - the Federal Highway Administrator - proposes to pass judgment on every controversial highway problem in "Some of them are just going to have to get the hell out of their cars and use other means of transportation." "It is hard to see this action in any other light than an indirect move on the federal highway trust fund. DOT planners are obsessed with the prospect of mass transportation media - and they will force it down the throat of the American motorist regardless of whether he wants it, or that it will wreck the national economy in the process." Morris commented: "The Texas Highway Commission has encouraged the appearance before the Commission of interested citizens, groups, or other local officials, to fully discuss and explore transportation problems and needs in the various cities, counties and communities of the State of Texas. "We have enjoyed the confidence and trust of the people of Texas insofar as highway design, construction, location and maintenance are concerned. All of the Department's endeavors are directed toward the development of a highway system which would be a source of pride to all citizens of the State, and at the same time meet the economic, social and environmental needs of the people of Texas. "These proposals by the Department of Transportation would destroy the orderly process of highway planning, design and construction in Texas and will usurp for the Federal Highway Administrator the policy-making responsibilities of the Texas Highway Commission," he said. Morris continued: "Although the Commission and the Highway Department have tried to be eminently fair in our dealings with the public, we already have had instances where a few individuals in a community have been able to stall a highway project in the face of overwhelming community support. "Imagine, if you will, the chaos that would result if the Federal government encourages litigation by individuals or special interest groups while one person - the Federal Highway Administrator - proposes to pass judgment on every controversial highway problem in the United States." "DOT says that the American motorist's fantastic love affair with his automobile is dead. From now on - they propose - he will own it, drive it and park it as he is told. This may be his last chance to defend his fifth freedom - freedom of mobility. He should write or wire his Congressman today!"

The Highway Commission will practice what it preaches. The Commission approved a resolution bitterly attacking the DOT regulatory proposals. The resolution will be sent to all members of the Texas delegation in Congress and to others vitally interested in highway programs.

COLLEGE STATION - Medical authorities recommend immunization shots for influenza, especially for people older than 65 years. People with chronic illnesses and those in nursing homes or comparable environments should make a special effort to be immunized, says Minnie Bell, Extension family life specialist for aging at Texas A&M University. Ideally, the shots should be completed by early December, says she. Two types of influenza vaccines are available. Each fights a type of flu which usually occurs every several years. Some localities have free flu shots. For details, Miss Bell suggests contacting Senior Centers, local hospitals, county health offices and clinics.

Influenza Shots Should Be Taken

Beret In Height Of Fall Fashion

PAU, France — "Bonnie and Clyde" has stood the French beret industry on its head.
 The Faye Dunnaway movie has set a new style for women's headwear, sending females all over the world out in search of a beret "a la Bonnie." One beret manufacturer calls it "a miracle."
 For, just last January, the Pau Chamber of Commerce, in its annual report, pronounced, what sounded like an epitaph for the industry.

 "After a 16 per cent decline in sales last year, sales of the basque beret are going to be still worse this year," the report said.
 But then came Bonnie and production of berets is up 1,000 per cent. Crosnier, one beret maker, is now turning out 1,500 berets a day, instead of 200, its 1967 average. Lauthere, another manufacturer, reports a daily production of 8,000; up from 280 a day last year.

For God So Loved The World

as you would

...continuing with the Golden Rule. And it is doubtful if any words of Jesus have been quoted more and with approval. It strikes our conscience and our reason. Therefore, "As You Would." That puts the Rule on a very personal basis... better take a look at yourself before you look at your neighbor. Do you know your mind? What do you want for yourself... health, wealth, honor, knowledge, favor and forgiveness of God? If you had three wishes that would be granted, how would you select them from the myriad claims upon your devotion? Paul lists the ends for which he strove... "love, joy, peace, patience, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control." Was he wise? Would you put material values above these personal virtues? What goods are necessary and which of them could you do without? Perhaps it would help to reflect on your record. Actually, it will be decided exactly... "AS YOU WOULD."

Details Given For Gun Registration

DALLAS — Detailed procedures for registering machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, sawed-off rifle, silencer, deactivated war trophy and other destructive devices were announced today by B. Frank White, Regional Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the Southwest Region. The Gun Control Act of 1968 requires that weapons and devices of this type must be registered with the Internal Revenue Service by December 1. White said that copies of Registration Form 4467 are available at Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and other IRS offices.

The forms are prepared in three copies, two of which should be mailed to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 2024. The third copy may be kept by the owner of the fire arm or destructive device.

Firearms or destructive devices should not be brought to an IRS Office to be registered, White said.

Under the new law all firearms and destructive devices requiring registration must be identified by a serial number. If a firearm or device does not have a serial number, the owner should phone, visit, or write the nearest IRS Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Office and a number will be assigned.

After obtaining the number, the owner is responsible for affixing it to the firearm or device before completing the registration form. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the nearest Alcohol and Tobacco Tax or other IRS Office.

City Man's Son Gets Promotion In War Zone

LONG BINH, VIETNAM — James W. Blakey, 21, son of Mrs. Marcella Blackwell, 5206 Eisenhower, Great Bend, Kan., was promoted October 22 to Army first lieutenant in Vietnam, where he is serving with the 44th Signal Battalion.

Lt. Blakey is a team leader in the battalion's Area Signal Support Company near Long

Dr. Kephart To Speak At Meet

Dr. Newell C. Kephart will speak to parents and teachers at 7:45 p. m. Friday on the subject of learning and motor disabilities, according to Robert Holman, assistant superintendent of the Hereford schools. Dr. Kephart, a nationally-known speaker on these subjects will speak at Stephen F. Austin Junior High School at 1808 Wimberly in Amarillo, Holman said. Afterward, Dr. Kephart will speak to physical education teachers, special education teachers, counselors and administrators at 9 and 10:45 a. m. Saturday in the ballroom of the Student Union Building of West Texas State University in Canyon.

The flame of life burns so low in a hibernating hedgehog that one taken to a laboratory survived a 22-minute immersion in water.

High School Has Hair Workshop

Two color technicians representing L'Oreal Products of Paris held an all-day workshop for the cosmetology students in the cosmetology department at Hereford High School Friday. Demonstrating new methods of bleaching, coloring and the basics in tones were Donna Pratt of Amarillo and Sandy DeFreece of El Paso. Mrs. Pratt is the district representative for L'Oreal Products and Mrs. DeFreece represents the El Paso, New Mexico area. The students consulted the two technicians on permanent waves, hair treatment, conditioners, shampoos and sprays. The cosmetology classes are made up of junior and senior high school girls who are working toward their beauticians license. The girls were excused from all other classes on Friday so that they could spend the entire day at the workshop. L'Oreal is a complete line of products, and the Southwest Beauty and Barber Supply of Texas in Amarillo supplied the products for the demonstration. The cosmetology girls and their instructor, Mrs. Jack Thurlow, would like to invite the public to come by, during school hours, and see some of their work.

KING'S NAME SAKE

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Although George Rogers Clark founded Louisville, the city is named after King Louis XVI of France. The Virginia Legislature made that decision in 1780.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Texas Democrats Feel Swell Following General Election

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN — General election day was a rosy one for statewide Democratic contenders.

Not only did Texas endorse liberal presidential candidate Hubert Humphrey, but also all statewide Democratic standard bearers. No incumbent congressmen lost their jobs and the partisan lineup in the state legislature remained just the way it is.

Preston Smith of Lubbock won the gubernatorial race with about 57 per cent of the votes over his opponent and first-time candidate GOPer Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls.

Ben Barnes, 30, of DeLeon will become the youngest lieutenant governor in history by virtue of his overwhelming triumph over Republican Doug DeCluitt of Waco. Barnes was the top statewide vote-getter on the ballot.

All incumbent statewide officials seeking re-election won handily.

In congressional races, three Republicans seeking new terms had no great trouble, but none of their colleagues seeking to unseat incumbent Democrats was successful. Congressional lineup remains 20 Democrats to three Republicans.

Eight Republican state House members were elected — four incumbents, four newcomers. Three incumbent GOPers were defeated. Two GOP state senators were re-elected. Lineup remains 142 Democrats to eight Republicans in the House, 29 Democrats to two GOPs in the Senate.

Boasting that no other state can compare with Texas "regarding its support of, loyalty to, victory for the Democratic party," former State Democratic Committee Chairman Will D. Davis observed:

"Texas is the most populous state to have a Democratic governor and only one of 10 largest to have solid statewide Democratic administration."

"Texas was the only one in the southern and southwestern regions to give Humphrey plurality; and only Texas, Washington and Hawaii west of the Mississippi voted for the Democratic presidential nominee."

MOST AMENDMENTS DEFEATED — Voters showed they are in an economy frame of mind in their decisions on 14 proposed state constitutional amendments.

They voted November 5 to cut out the state property tax, but they refused to go along with raising the state's public welfare ceiling from $60 million to $75 million a year or to increase legislators salaries from $4,800 to $8,400 annually.

Approved were changes in state employees' pension system, university fund investment liberalization, removal of the $504 a year ceiling on contributions to teacher pensions, wiping out the property tax and clarification of a legislator's eligibility to run for other office by virtue of the termination date of his elective term.

Texas turned thumbs down on tax exemptions for warehouse-stored property, El Paso local governmental consolidations, Dallas road bonds, tax aid for Texarkana tobacco merchants, state contract changes, tax benefits for anti-pollution equipment purchasers and industrial bond issues.

NEW JOBS ANNOUNCED — Gov.-elect Preston Smith announced as his first staff selection James P. Oliver, formerly of Caldwell, to serve as executive budget director after the new administration takes over in January. Oliver currently serves as assistant director of the Legislative Budget Board.

Walter N. Corrigan of San Antonio is new chairman of Texas Research League. C. I. Wall of Amarillo is vice-chairman, and Grogan Lord of Georgetown was renamed secretary-treasurer.

C. C. Miller of Dallas is chairman of University Interscholastic League Legislative Council and B. E. McCollum of Fort Neches is vice-chairman.

Glenn Biggs, formerly of Abilene and one-time executive assistant to House Speaker Barnes, has been appointed president of National Western Life Insurance Company.

HILL-BURTON FUND APPROVED — Forty-two applicants received allocations of $15,198,504 in federal Hill-Burton hospital construction modernization funds through State Board of Health.

Biggest allocations of $1 million each went to hospitals in Houston, San Antonio, Dallas, Bonham, Irving and Fort Worth. Memorial Hospital of Uvalde received two grants totaling $865,000. Atlanta City Hospital received $900,000; Brownfield's Terry Hospital District $650,000; Hotel Dieu at El Paso $885,000; Johnson City Hospital $390,000; Community Hospital of Brazosport in Freeport $242,090; Ballinger Memorial Hospital $300,000; Highland General of Pampa $321,190 St. Joseph's of El Paso $594,313; Seton of Austin $375,000; Denison Memorial $210,000; Newton County Memorial $320,350; and Mornside Manor (home for aged), San Antonio $700,000.

Smaller amounts went to facilities in Waco, Lone Star, Jacksonville, Floresville, Hempstead, El Paso, Robert Lee, Coleman, Sterling City, Midland, Greenville, Corpus Christi, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Houston and Fort Worth.

Hill-Burton funds pay up to half of the cost of construction-modernization work.

ATTACK REDIRECTED — Texas Animal Health Commission has changed its attack on hog cholera in Texas by de-emphasizing the cure which has turned out to be a cause of the disease.

Commission has been depending on the modified live-virus vaccine to combat the disease. But statistics show that, in 1967, 31 per cent of the hog cholera cases were traced back to the use of the MLV.

In 60 per cent of those cases, the vaccine was improperly used. But in the other 40 per cent, it was not. Texas statistics showed that 33 per cent of the cases were caused by use of the MLV.

So, the Commission approved a new requirement that all hogs leaving a market for destinations other than slaughter be inoculated with inactive serum. Then, if the owner wants to use the live virus, he may.

Secondly, the Commission amended its regulation that all hogs entering the state must have been treated with the modified live-virus vaccine. New requirement will be the use of the inactive serum alone.

TEXAS GETS RECREATION FUNDS — Texas is due to get $1.7 million of $45.7 million in funds for acquisition and development of outdoor recreation facilities approved by Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, U. S. Department of Interior.

Allocations are made largely on basis of population, federal resources and programs and out-of-state visitor use. States must match the grants 50-50.

BLUE LAW SUIT — Texas Supreme Court has heard the first arguments for and against Penal Code Article 286a, which prohibits the sale of certain listed items — covering just about everything — on consecutive Saturdays and Sundays.

Suit is the State vs. Gibson's Discount Center of Midland, which — the State contends — tried to get around the law by staying open the legal six days then "leasing" its facilities and stocks to another company — created and owned by Gibson's — for the seventh day.

At the local level, a district court judge upheld Gibson's move by saying that the "Blue Law" is unconstitutional, because the items listed in the statute are vague and indefinite.

In its arguments before the court, Gibson's concentrated on allegations that the state's appeal — directly to the Supreme Court from the district court — was improper and should be refused.

High Court will rule on the jurisdictional question before it gets into the substance of the case.

LOAN BONDS SOLD — Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System sold $12 million in student loan bonds to Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago at .8673 interest.

Money provides assistance to needy students. So far, 29,480 have benefitted from it.

Board also approved fine arts programs at nine schools and administrative reorganization of arts programs at the University of Texas at Arlington and West Texas State. Construction of a $1.5 million physical education complex at San Angelo State College got authorization, as did the plan for participation in federal aid to campus building.

On December 3, board will make key decisions on dental education, medical education and North Texas higher education needs.

COTTON GIN RIDER DUMPED — A controversial appropriations bill rider twice vetoed by Gov. John Connally was stricken from a budget draft on motion of Lt. Gov.-elect Ben Barnes.

Barnes got some opposition from House Speaker-designate Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham and Rep. W. S. Heatly of Paducah, but Gov.-elect Preston Smith held his motion carried on voice vote.

Rider sought to keep funds from being spent to police air pollution by cotton gins. Muscher said the problem is insignificant and is used by politicians to "decagogue." Connally has maintained that the problem caused by gins is major. Barnes argued that the rider is unneeded and is simply a "political factor."

"Plenty of time during the legislative session to work it out," Smith said in sustaining

ROTARY EVENTS — Lewis E. Wygant, at right in top photo, was introduced as a new member of the Hereford Rotary Club last week by Rotarian Don Baugous. Speaker for the noon meeting was Earnest Langley, president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. Langley described the chamber and its activities.

Presiding judge in each precinct has responsibility of determining validity of irregular ballots, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

Conditions are right for record quail harvest this year, according to Parks and Wildlife Department experts.

Eighth grade students across Texas will get a closer-than-usual view of their government a how it works with a new 16 class-hour unit on "You and the Law," developed by the Texas Education Agency.

Savings and Loan Commissioner has set hearings on applications for new loan concerns, one for February 11 on a Longview application and one February 18 on a Brenham application.

Farm Bureau Delegation Attends Meet

At least six official voting delegates from Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau attended the 35th annual meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau Sunday through Wednesday in Dallas, according to Bill Walden, president of the county organization.

Representing this county were Walden, Guy Walser, Joe Reinauer Jr., Steve Clements and others who had tentatively planned on going.

More than 800 voting delegates from 203 organized county Farm Bureau adopted policies to guide the farm organization next year. They also approved recommendations on national issues to be forwarded to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation Dec. 8-12 in Kansas City.

County delegate strength to the state convention is based on membership. Deaf Smith County FB ended its fiscal year Oct. 31 with 577 member families enrolled.

Convention headquarters in Dallas were at the Baker Hotel. Some of the general sessions and special events were scheduled for the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

Sunday's program included state finals in the young people's Talent Find and Discussion Meet competition. Monday highlights included an address by TFB President Sidney Dean of Victoria, administrative report by Vice President M. F. Frost of McAllen, and financial report by Secretary-Treasurer Steve Lilly of Nacogdoches.

Also scheduled Sunday was a recognition program for county Farm Bureaus, special conferences, district caucuses and ladies' luncheon. The finals of the TFB queen contest were that evening.

Guest speakers are featured on the Tuesday morning program. They included Lieut. Gov. Preston Smith, State Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria and American Farm Bureau Federation President Charles B. Shuman. Arthur Holst, Peoria, Ill., nation ally-known after dinner speaker, was to address the banquet that evening.

Domestics In One City Trying To Upgrade Their Profession

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — At dawn her own children must be ready for school so she can catch a city bus for a 30-minute ride across the city.

Then she can take over the cooking, washing and child tending chores for someone else.

She's a Negro woman, not young, in her late 30s or 40s. She's one of an estimated 6,000 domestics in the city of Charlotte and considers herself lucky to draw a dollar an hour, more or less, plus bus fare and lunch each work day. Some housewives employing domestics will disagree and say they can't find help. They usually are the ones wanting someone only one day a week. Domestics would prefer work at the same place each day.

In an effort to get better wages, some domestics in Charlotte are trying to help themselves. They've set up Domestics United, a group believed to be the only one of its kind.

With an $8,000 grant from the North Carolina Fund, a privately financed antipoverty agency, DU has opened a small office for the 600 members who have paid 25 cents a year in dues.

"We would have more members but some don't want to identify themselves as domestics," said Mrs. W. R. Adams, the group's part-time executive secretary and only employee.

"And this is what we want to correct," she continued. "We want to upgrade our profession, yes, it is a profession."

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director,
209 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.
Q — I wish to apply for a conscientious objector classification? What does the law provide on this?
A — A conscientious objector, according to the law, is a person "who by reason of religious training and belief" is conscientiously opposed to participation in war in any form. The term
"religious training and belief"

does not include essentially political, sociological, or philosophical views, or a merely personal moral code. So, to obtain recognition, a man must have a position recognized as "religious." The local board has the responsibility of deciding. This is subject to appeal, provided the objector claimant files his appeal timely within the period allotted him to do so.
Q — I'm not in college with a
II-S classification; however, I am planning to apply for a I-O classification as a conscientious objector. Should I apply now or wait until I've graduated from college?
A — You should apply now.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q — My baby is due the end of the month. When can my husband start taking another withholding exemption?
A — As soon as the child is born. The full $600 exemption for a dependent may be taken on your tax return for a child born any time before the end of the year.
Q — My company paid the plane fares and hotel bills for my wife and me when we went to look over the city I'm being transferred to. However, I noticed that taxes were deducted from the reimbursement. Why was that?
A — The amount you received is classified as wages subject to withholding and not a reimbursement for deductible moving expenses. When you actually move to the new location,

the unreimbursed cost of transporting you, your family and your household goods may well be a deductible moving expense.
The cost of meals and lodging while traveling to your new home may also be deductible.
For further details, ask your
IRS district office for Document
5014, "Employees' Expenses, Educational Expenses."
England consumes five times as many pounds of tea as it does coffee, while the American people drink 25 times as much coffee as tea.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE
DOWN MEMORY LANE — When television and radio flashed returns in the presidential election Tuesday gather at the local newspaper office to find out who was elected?
Before radio, virtually every newspaper of any size put up a large screen on an adjoining building on election night and projected up-to-the-minute results as fast as they were received in the newsroom. Such "election parties" often were exactly that — complete with music, dancing in the street and refreshments served by backers of the winning candidate.
THE PASSING PARADE — With a non-Texan moving into the presidency next January 20, will Houston's Astrodome continue to maintain its special hookups to the White House "hot-line" telephones?
Presumably there have been only two other places with a direct tie-in to the White House's world-wide communications. These are the LBJ Ranch and Camp David, the presidential vacation retreat in Maryland.

The Astrodome's White House lines were installed in anticipation of a visit by President Johnson. A special suite above the stadium's right field scoreboard was built especially for them. Thus far, the Johnsons' haven't used it.
HISTORY QUIZ — Who was the first Texan nominated for vice-president of the U. S.?
No, it was not John Nance Garner. It was Dr. J. C. Cranfill, physician, Baptist minister and free-lance journalist. In 1892, he was the choice of the Prohibition Party for the second spot on that ticket.
CITY OF DISASTER — It's a wonder how San Antonio ever lasted long enough to become a city.
In 1816, the little hamlet almost was depopulated following political upheavals in Mexico. Three years later, the San Antonio River flooded and destroyed most of the buildings. Indian raids constantly took a heavy toll in lives and property.
In 1834, the population had reached about 2,000 when a cholera epidemic reduced it by half. Two years later, Santa Anna destroyed the Alamo and its defenders. In 1842
the town was invaded and plundered by the Mexicans.
No other city in Texas has faced disasters like San Antonio and managed to survive.
