

Annexations, Zoning, Sewer Lines Dominate Monday Commission Meeting

A variety of subjects came before the Hereford City Commission during its regular meeting Monday night, with topics of discussion including annexation, zoning, sewer lines, street sweepers, a new addition and golf carts.

First item on the agenda was the official swearing in of Roland Barton as new commissioner. Mayor J. B. Pool, who Barton has replaced on the council, handled the swearing in ceremonies. Pool, who had been mayor pro tem, became mayor following the resignation of Ray Cowser Sept. 10.

Barton, general manager and vice president of Shur-Gro Liquid Feed Inc., had been selected by commissioners to fill out Pool's term on the commission. There are about 18 months left on the term, while Pool has some six months to go on the mayor's term of office.

Public hearings on annexation of two tracts of land — one in South Hereford and the other in the north portion of the city — will be held Oct. 21, commissioners decided.

Annexation of eight blocks in South Hereford had been set previously, but commissioners had overlooked the date of the public hearing at that time and legal proceedings had to be started again. The annexation petition calls for annexing all of Blocks 1 through 8 in the Ricketts Addition. The property faces Austin Road on the north and South Main Street on the west.

The property to be annexed in the north part of the city lies between Fifteenth and Sixteenth Street and Avenue I and H in the Stark Addition. (See Legal Notices in this issue for details.)

descriptions of the annexations.)

Commissioners annexed land in the La Plata Subdivision on a request by Ralph McCullough. The land, some 50 feet wide and 420 feet long, as Centre Street as the east property line. There are no other property owners.

H. B. Jordan and Co., Inc., of Amarillo was low bidder on 2,000 lineal feet of sewer lines and all necessary equipment. The company's bid of $3,314.30 includes all of the labor, material and equipment necessary for the work in the Northridge Addition.

The job will be paid for by N. D. Bartlett Jr., developer of the property. Other bids submitted for the work were from Novak Construction Company of Amarillo, $4,184.50, and J. T. Brodie Construction Co. of Amarillo, $4,274.

ZONING CHANGES

A request from F. Y. Moreman that a part of Block 5 in the Welsh Addition be rezoned from a "B Residential District" to "E Central Business District" was approved by commissioners. The request had been previously approved by the city zoning commission.

Much discussion was held on a request from Ralph Owens that all of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and the east 22 feet of Lot 6 in the Bluebonnet Addition be rezoned from "A Single Family District" to be a "B Two-Family District."

Discussing the rezoning with commissioners was Rev. Homer Goodwin, pastor of the Assembly of God Church. Rev. Goodwin, who was accompanied by several of the church members, told commissioners that they had bought the land from Owens for the purpose of building a new church and church facilities.

The Zoning Commission had recommended that the City Commission deny the request. Attorney for the city Earnest Langley pointed out that he had advised Owens that he (Owens) had two things to do — get the property rezoned by the city and get all of the property owners in the Bluebonnet addition to go along with the rezoning.

During discussion, Goodwin pointed out that the church was buying the land for only one purpose, to build new facilities, and that the land would not be sold to anyone else for any purpose. He also pointed out that there were already other churches in the immediate vicinity.

Barton said he felt the commission shouldn't let a zoning problem stand in the way of the church people since there are other churches in the vicinity, and "the people will have the final say."

Commissioner D. C. Kinsey said he felt the matter should have come from the people instead of Owens in the zoning change request. Kinsey asked Rev. Goodwin if there had been any objections by persons at the Zoning Commission hearing on the rezoning request.

Rev. Goodwin said "there were those concerned about the church being able to resell and duplexes put on the property. But they don't have anything to worry about. We wouldn't do that. We're not that kind of people."

Commissioner agreed to table the zoning request until Owens has submitted names of property owners in the Bluebonnet Addition.

er model to take care of the expanding city. Commissioners agreed to advertise for bids, and would reject them if they were too high. Bayne said he felt he could make a good deal with the trade in.

A resolution from Santa Fe Railroad allowing the city to lay a pipeline under the tracks at the site of the proposed Wilson & Co. meat packing plant some 3 miles west of Hereford was approved and signed by Mayor Pool. The resolution makes the city liable for accidents during the work and after it is laid.

In final action, commissioners passed a paving resolution which allows the paving contractor to begin collecting for work done on New York Avenue, and discussed the use of private golf carts on the John D. Pitman

STREET SWEEPER DISCUSSED

City Manager Dudley Bayne reported to commissioners that the city's three-wheel street sweeper, which is only four years old, is becoming a major item of overhaul and "is just not holding up."

Although it is not in the budget, Bayne said he would like to advertise for bids and trade in the current sweeper on a newer model. He estimated that the sweeper had cost the city nearly $5,000 since it had been bought and would probably cost another $3,000 by the end of the year.

Bayne also told commissioners he would like to get a larg-

Balloting Set For Friday On Elementary School, Stadium

Rev. Gene Naugle

Services Set For Rev. Naugle

Funeral services for the Rev. Eugene Naugle, 77, retired Methodist minister who served churches in West Texas and New Mexico for 35 years, will be conducted at 2 p. m. today in First United Methodist Church, of which he was pastor two years beginning in 1951.

The Rev. Naugle died unexpectedly Tuesday at Kings Manor, the Methodist Retirement home here in which he had lived about two years.

The family of the widely-respected minister has asked that memorial donations to favorite charities be made in his name.

He came to Hereford in 1957 from Plains, and was pastor of both First Methodist and Wesley Methodist Churches. The funeral service will be conducted by Dr. Don Davidson, executive director of Kings Manor, and a former First Methodist pastor, and the Rev. Herschel Thurston of Ute Park, N. M., also a former pastor here.

Burial in Rest Lawn Cemetery will be directed by Gilliland Funeral Home. Ray Todd, Bartley Dwyer, Charles Duvall, Dean Herring, Bobby Owen and Jim Arney will serve as pallbearers.

Before he entered the ministry the Rev. Naugle was a teacher, in a family tradition which extended over three generations. His parents were teachers and his only child, Mrs. Richard A. Batson of Lubbock, is a counselor at Monterey High School.

He was born July 16, 1891, at Prosper in Collin County, attended high school and North Texas Normal, now North Texas State University, at Denton. He was a postoffice employe while a student there, and was licensed to preach in the Methodist Church at that time.

Later studies in Polytechnic College at Fort Worth and Southern Methodist University in Dallas completed his preparation for the ministry. He married Bess Griffin, whom he had met in Denton, Sept. 23, 1914 at Dallas. Both taught for a number of years.

Balloting on the $600,000 bond issue for a new elementary school here and the football stadium improvements of $150,000 is set for tomorrow at the Hereford Community Center at Park and Ave. C. Polls will open at 8 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Reported as a bond issue that will not raise local taxes, the school and stadium propositions will be included on the same ballot but must be voted upon separately:

PROPOSITION NUMBER 1

"The issuance of $600,000 bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof (elementary school buildings)."

PROPOSITION NUMBER 2

"The issuance of $150,000 bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof (stadium improvements)."

Trustees reported that the School District's current financial condition will enable them to enter the entire building program without placing an additional tax levy on the taxpayers. Trustee president Olin W. Parris issued the statement that "the bond issue is for public approval of the building program. The school and stadium propositions have been separated so that the voter will be given the opportunity to make individual decisions on them."

Pointing out the revenue bond issue for water improvements in July (which carried in Hereford overwhelmingly with a vote of 1,997 to 44), Hereford school superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. said he felt that was a "real fine way for the people to show their confidence in the coming of the Wilson and Company plant. But this bond issue is no less important. It will show a concern for the children who are already here." He strongly urged all Hereford voters to go to the polls on this basis.

Clark reported that some quarters had misunderstood the provision in the original motion regarding zones and transportation. "There will be no major changes in school zones," he pointed out. "The trustees discussed only the bussing of migrant students. There are no plans to bus students living within the city."

School records indicate that the total enrollments in the elementary schools through Tuesday are Aikman, 585; Bluebonnet, 680; Central, 480; Northwest, 755; and Shirley 477. According to Clark, each school enrollment represents a record this year. In most cases, he said the buildings were not constructed to "comfortably house" this number of students.

At the present, Whiteface Stadium has a seating capacity of 2,600. Plans are to expand it to 5,000 seats with room for additional expansion later, when the need arises.

Strange Name Will Appear On Ballot

Deaf Smith County Clerk B. E. Cole has pointed out to local residents that the name of S. Marvyn Griffin will be listed on the Nov. 5 election ballot as the running mate of American Party presidential candidate George Wallace.

Cain explained that due to deadlines in the naming of candidates, that the American Party had on Sept. 20 authorized the Secretary of State to place Wallace on the ballot as candidate for president and Griffin for the vice presidency post. The Secretary of State, Roy R. Barerra, is authorized to place national, state and district candidates on the ballot.

On Oct. 1, soon after Wallace announced that his mate would be Gen. Curtis LeMay, Cain received a letter from the secretary's office which stated: "Recent newspaper articles concerning the selection of a vice presidential candidate for the American Party have prompted many county clerks to inquire whether they should delay the printing of their ballots for the general election until a further announcement was made."

"Yesterday the State Chairman of the American Party of Texas reconfirmed that S. Marvyn Griffin is the vice presidential candidate whose name will appear on the ballot for the American Party of Texas. In response to our question, we were informed that the county clerks should be advised not to delay the printing of the ballots on account of a possible change in name."

United Fund Drive Gets Good Start

With advance donations totaling $5,277.20 — largest amount known to have been turned in to begin a campaign — the 1968 Deaf Smith County United Fund drive appears to be living up to its theme song, "Up, Up and Away."

A check on how the drive is going will be made when money is turned in during a meeting at 10 a.m. today at the Hereford State Bank. At that time, Joe Shollenbarger will tabulate contributions and the results will be placed on a bulletin board on the lawn at the Post Office building by Fred Fox. Workers and captains also are urged to check periodically with majors to see if they are making their goals.

Drive officials have expressed enthusiasm that the county will go past its goal of $37,100.39 by Saturday and be hailed again as the "fastest" city in Texas. This was the title pinned on Hereford in 1966 when workers reached their goal faster than any other city during the United Fund drive.

United Fund President Debbs Knox kicked off the drive Monday morning at a meeting in the Community Center when he and Drive Chairman Johnny Clark Jr. went over last minute plans with the eight drive majors and their captains.

Meat Packers Convene Here

Regional meeting of the Western States Meat Packers Association will be held in Hereford at 3 p. m. Saturday.

However, Pete Caviness, who is handling arrangements for the meeting, has requested that the men who wish to tour the area feedlots and the Holly Sugar plant "should please be at the Hereford Country Club prior to that time."

Caviness reported that while the men are on tour, the ladies will be entertained with a tour of various points of interest in the city.

Caviness is head of the Caviness Packing Company here. A reception will be held at 4 p. m. at the Country Club with dinner being served at 7:30.

Speakers will include Lloyd Bergsma, secretary, and Jack Carrothers, president of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association. WSMFA board chairman Harold Kummer and president Blaine Liljenquist are also expected at the meeting.

Director of the meeting will be Earnest Langley, president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

WSMFA has invited all meat packers, cattle feeders, livestock auction owners or managers and their wives to attend.

GOLF CARTS
 Commissioners, after discussion on the use of private golf carts at the John D. Pitman municipal golf course, decided to wait until their next meeting Oct. 21 before making a decision.

City Manager Dudley Bayne told commissioners that the problem of private golf carts has been discussed by the commission and a golf course committee for several years. Present rules call for golf professional Bob Baker, who is in charge of the golf course, to rent golf carts for $3 per nine holes. A green fee also is charged.

It was brought out that about five persons own private golf carts and some of these "loan" out their carts to friends. Commissioners felt that by allowing this, they are cutting into Baker's business of renting the golf carts. Bayne said Baker had bought several privately-owned carts himself to alleviate this problem.

Commissioners Bartley Dowell and Dick Barnard said persons had suggested to them that the city should outlaw private carts on the course and give owners certain length of time to sell or move them from the storage barn.

Charles Skinner, who said he had attended the meeting to hear commissioners discuss a zoning change, discussed the matter at length with the board. Skinner asked commissioners if they would wait until more golfers could be contacted on the matter before any action was taken.

Commissioner agreed not to make a decision until the next meeting, Oct. 21.

 ber of years and the Rev. Naugle continued to fill preaching appointments as he had done as a student. He also farmed.

His first appointment as a minister in Texas was to a circuit of four churches in Castro, Hale and Swisher Counties, which he reached by traveling in a buggy. He and Mrs. Naugle had taught at Hayden, N.M., and he was pastor of the church there, then they went to Greenville, N.M. for a time.

In 1924 they returned to Texas and he was a minister in the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference, serving in various cities. He was pastor of First Methodist Church here two years, helping to organize Wesley Methodist Church and serving as its first pastor.

Later he was assigned to Bippus-Westway circuit, then retired but continued to preach at Bippus after it had no regular pastor. From 1956 until the first of the year, he and a Baptist minister alternated in holding Sunday services in that community in the far western part of Deaf Smith County.

The Rev. Naugle was honored by Bippus residents at their annual community homecoming day in August, one of many tributes paid to him by church and club organizations of which with tension, resulted in controversy over the location of the new school. A standing vote indicated that almost an equal amount of the 200 to 300 people who attended supported the school site in South Hereford and the site in another part of the city. Consequently, President Parris issued the statement that the site of the school would be "definitely announced" prior to the election.

On Oct. 4, the trustees again met, to make the site selection. Gentry made his motion for location in South Hereford and received a second from Clearman. The motion was passed unanimously, after Gentry informed the guests present that "the trustees had spent many hours discussing the new school's site."

Guests at the site selection meeting included four of the Hereford public school administrators, Mayor J. B. Pool, City Manager Dudley Bayne, and three of the four city commissioners.

Mayor Pool pledged his support to the limit "in the interest of the bond issue." The commissioners were unanimously agreed in this action. Bayne brought up the point of possible consideration of a joint park project in South Hereford with the schools, after assuring them there would be no problems with city services in locating their proposed school in that area.

Trustees voiced opinions that "we can and will operate a suburb school there. With the new types of school construction and teaching methods, it is felt that South Hereford might well prove to be one of our best schools."

The school system has plans to "bus" migrant students to all schools, at a reported cost of $3,000 to $5,000 per year. The trustees reported, to "fairly distribute students in the elementary schools, to prohibit an unfair overload of migrant student on any campus."

he was a member.

Last year 'Gene Naugle Day' was observed in Hereford to recognize his contributions as a citizen of the community.

Kiwanis Club members have named him Kiwanian of the Month and Kiwanis Workhouse for his work in that service club. He has also been a Lions Club member and a Master Mason.

terest in United Fund, he pointed out. He told the majors, captains and workers that during solicitation for funds they should emphasize that persons are 'giving THROUGH the United Fund, not TO the United Fund.'

He urged workers to carry a list of organizations which will be receiving funds through the campaign and to show persons they are asking to contribute.

It is also important to remember, Clark said, that this is a local project and practically all of the funds will go "to help our own. If we fail, we'll be letting down over 3,000 kids."

"It takes the entire community to make it (United Fund) a success," Clark continued. "It gives us a chance to serve our community." He said workers should show enthusiasm and pride during the drive.

In closing the meeting, Knox said it would take "work, organization and push" to go over the goal fastest in the state again.

Majors for the campaign and their division are Bill Gentry, rural area, $6,100; B. F. Cain, city, county, state and federal agencies, $3,000; Cleve Corlis, Commercial "A," $6,000; Calvin Goodin, industrial division, $7,000; D. C. Martin, Hereford school system, $2,600; Melvin Jayroe, advance money, no set amount; Leo Forrest, Hereford utilities, banks, savings and loan association, lawyers and accountants, $6,000; Charles Bell, Commercial "B," $6,400.

During the noon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday, Boss Lion Ray Moore presented Clark with a check for $398 for the United Fund. The money was well received from the regular Saturday night wrestling program at the Bull Barn.

Also during the meeting, B. F. Cain, major for the city, county, state and federal agencies, reported that the Texas Employment Commission had been the first group in his division.

Sheriff's Office To Be Featured In Magazine

The Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department will be featured in the December issue of "The Texas Lawman," official publication of the Sheriff's Association of Texas, Inc.

Holly Osborne of Austin, public relations representative of the magazine, was in the county early this week gathering material and taking pictures for the article. It is part of the magazine's coverage of departments throughout the state.

Miss Witkowski Returns From Dress Revue

Jane Witkowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Witkowski of 215 N. Texas, returned Monday from the 1968 4-H Dress Revue which was held over the weekend at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. With her was Mrs. Rita Huckert, assistant Home Demonstration Agent for Deaf Smith County.

Jane's mother said that her daughter "had a good experience there and a very nice time," although she did not place in the contest.

She was one of 46 Texas teenage girls who participated in the revue.

Mrs. Huckert said that she and Miss Witkowski had driven to Dallas in her car, along with another girl and her mother from Dimmitt and two others from Dalhart.

"Of special interest to the girls was the Fashion District Center of J. C. Penney's," Mrs. Huckert reported. "We were with the Dress Revue most of the time but finally did get to see the fair before returning to Hereford."

Finalists registered Thursday at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel in downtown Dallas' north side Thursday. Two public revues were presented Saturday at the Women's Building Auditorium at Fair Park in South Dallas.

Miss Witkowski and Mrs. Huckert returned home Sunday.

the nominee, as no change is anticipated."

Deaf Smith County Attorney John Aikin talked with the Secretary's office Tuesday morning and no other details were available as to another candidate.

"We just want the people to understand what has happened so there will be no confusion when they come to vote and find the name of Griffin on the ballot," said Cain.

Wes Owens, chairman of the Deaf Smith County American Party, explained that Griffin had knowingly let his name be placed on the ballot since the party had to meet the deadline in naming a running mate for Wallace. Votes cast will go to Wallace and Gen. LeMay.

Absentee voting will begin Oct. 16 and continue through Nov. 1, four days before the election.

Cain said Tuesday that 75 applications for voting already had been received from servicemen. Arrangements have been made so that postage will be paid both ways on ballots for servicemen.

Vocational Office Education and Welding will be the two Adult Education classes scheduled to meet tonight at Hereford High School, in the final week of enrollment.

High School Group Will Wash Windows

Members of the Texas Association of Careers in Health, formerly known as Young Nurses, at Hereford High School will have their final Window Wash Saturday, according to Judy Ward, president of TACH. The first two dates of the project have already been successfully completed.

This series of three projects has been in an effort to raise money for various TACH projects.

Members will be washing standard windows for 20 cents each and picture windows for 35 cents. Persons wishing to have their windows washed are asked to call 364-0119 or 364-1603 and make an appointment.

TACH also advises that all students male and female who are interested in careers in health or medical fields are invited to join the organization.

Tuberculosis Cases Reported In County

Positive cases of tuberculosis have been reported in Deaf Smith County by the Top Of Texas Tuberculosis Association.

The popular myth says that TB is whipped and should no longer be considered a public health problem, according to TOT executive director Charles McIntosh. "The truth is that a total of 3,209 new active cases of TB were reported in Texas in 1967 — seven of them were from Deaf Smith County."

He said, "The 1967 figure is highly interesting in view of the fact that there have been 13 new cases reported in Deaf Smith County thus far in 1968 — with an additional two-and-a-half months remaining in the year for the figures to go still higher."

McIntosh said that the public attitude toward tuberculosis is distressing, as almost any attitude based upon ignorance of the facts is distressing. "There are several facts about TB that people not only in Hereford but in the rest of the country should know and take to heart."

A number of ladies representing churches, civic clubs and individuals have already been busy in Hereford "stuffing envelopes" with TB material which will be in the mails by Nov. 1, McIntosh reported. "We are very grateful for their support and help in this matter."

Top of Texas Tuberculosis Association reveals that 370 deaths were reported from TB during 1967 in Texas, with over 8,000 TB deaths occurring throughout Santa Claus."

In the past, the VFW has used the old American Legion Post House as its warehouse. But it was not possible to do so this year because the Lewis Larrymore Dance Studios now occupies the site.

VFW issued a call for other warehouse space and report that their request has been filled. They are now in the market for discarded toys.

HemisFair Trip Made By Couple

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Smith made a trip to the HemisFair last week and visited her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pharr. Mrs. Smith also has a brother and sister-in-law who live in San Antonio.

They reported a fine time at the Fair and attended it three times during the week they were there. The highlight of their trip was the elevator ride to the top of the Tower of the Americas and the scenic view of all the attractions of the Fair from the 622-foot tower.

Sirens will sound throughout the city today as the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department observes National Fire Prevention Week by giving local elementary school children a ride on the fire trucks.

Fire Prevention Week Is Being Observed Here

Fire Chief J. W. Dickerson Jr. advised the Brand that sirens will be sounded for the benefit of the kids and hoped that residents would understand. In past years, a few persons have complained to the City Manager and Police Department about the sirens.

Dickerson also reminded club officers that members of the department are available to present programs on fire prevention and fire safety. They may set up the programs by calling Dickerson or Bob Spaulding.

Various Items Are Discussed In Long Board Meeting

Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees discussed future building plans "on the positive side" and reported on a letter received from the Texas Education Agency regarding the accreditation of the Hereford schools, at their regular meeting Tuesday night in the board room of the School Administration Building.

Aerospace Science teacher Lynn McLarty filled in at the last minute with a report on his classes. Originally scheduled were Margaret Bell and Mary Hale for a report on Roberts Linguistic Series, which had to be postponed due to one of the teachers having been called out of town.

School superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. reported that they have been working on the school building plans within the school system, but due to the current activities with the United Fund campaign and pressing school business that they have not had a chance to get into the stadium bleacher plans, which are both scheduled for decision on a bond issue election at the Community Center Friday.

He demonstrated how the administrators had made copies of various elementary school building plans and circulated them to the principals and teachers in the schools here already in operation, for their suggestions on additional improvements "and what they feel to be important toward the best environment in student instruction."

These suggestions had been returned from all schools Tuesday morning and a list was made of these suggestions, he said. "One of the suggestions included the construction of a school without windows. Also included was the plan to place water fountains outside the building — which was done in the past. I don't know why this was not continued, but it is a good idea. The children now have to re-enter the building to get to the fountains — which could disturb the students in their classes."

Also under discussion with the proposed construction were highway and street safety features termed as necessities "prior to the opening of school" in the South Hereford area.

H. E. Phillips, director of the Division of Accreditation of the Texas Education Agency in Austin, informed the administrators here that the report and recommendations of the accreditation visit with the Hereford schools during the spring "were presented to the State Board of Education... and both were formally approved."

The second step toward this valued accreditation will come through the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. It was reported that the local school system has already "more than met their qualifications."

Another report from TEA and the Texas Medical Association indicated their joint request for a medical consultant for all Texas schools. Clark reported, "We are doing essentially what they have requested with Dr. Noble Ballard here. I have not attended a meeting where this was discussed, but I feel this could be a factor in the future for our consideration." Explained was the need for medical examinations for football players and migrants.

Also from TEA was the outline for a new course to be included in the school systems over the state on the subject of Good Citizenship, a 16-hour course which the agency has yet to supply the necessary materials. However, it will reportedly begin in the spring semester which will not need the board's approval, Clark described it as "a real good inclusion" for the schools.

programs in our public schools today, and we are glad that they ask us about our new program."

The young instructor, formerly band director at LaPlata Junior High, freely admitted that he was excited about the program himself. "Aerospace Science, as defined to the students enrolled in the course, is a complete and comprehensive study of aircraft and spacecraft as they relate to our modern and highly technological society that we live in today. We feel that it should be a part of the modern-day high school curriculum because of the immediate need for trained and knowledgeable persons to enter into and take jobs in the aerospace field and other related industries."

"It is our desire that upon completion of the Aerospace Science course at Hereford High School, all of the trainees will have a better background in the many fields that would directly or indirectly relate to a possible career in the aerospace industry."

McLarty listed commercial pilot's salaries at $70,000 per year. He later gave the starting salary of $5.50 per hour for aircraft mechanics, with an investigation into a second-year course here to include mechanics and a possible Adult Education class.

He explained the current course units as Aviation History ("It started in 4000 B. C. with a Chinaman jumping out of a grainary — up to the present"), Basic Aerodynamics and P-R-Flight Facts ("The construction and control of aircraft"), Power Plants and Systems ("Past and present types, for student or professional pilot"), meteorology ("To teach them to become junior weather predictors"), Navigation ("Both visual and by instruments"), Air Traffic Control and Communications Procedures ("Try to work in union with the airline pilots) Federal Aviation Regulations ("The background of it"), Rockets and Missiles ("Present and proposed systems"), and Careers in the Aerospace Industry — which he listed approximately 70 of all types.

McLarty said that Hereford High School is the third high school in the state of Texas to offer Aerospace Science. The other schools are located in El Paso and Dallas.

"The course has met with overwhelming interest and approval, both on the part of the general public and the students who are enrolled. Sixty students originally indicated an interest to enroll in the course. Of this sixty, eleven were unable to make proper schedule changes, and four students moved away during the summer months. We now have 45 students enrolled in the course."

"Eight of the 45 are working toward obtaining their private pilot licenses."

He said that the Federal Aviation Administration Private Pilot Examination will be administered by government personnel during the last month of the school year. "It is hoped that all of the students will successfully pass this examination and will continue flight training."

He also explained — with

Amusing Best-Seller Reviewed For Veleda

The delightful best-seller, Sam Levinson's story of his family titled "Everything But Money," was reviewed by Mrs. Billy Wayne Sisson for Veleda Club members at a meeting in Mrs. Gid Broynnd's home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Sisson told of the family which lived in a slum which Levinson says would today be called a "disadvantaged area" but was the location of a home where the parent "cursed the darkness and lighted candle — to study by."

parental consent — "At least two orientation flights are being planned during the year for the students, to allow them to see and do in a lab-type situation some of the things that they are now studying."

McLarty also reported that the "necessary steps are being taken toward receiving an Air Agency Certificate from the FAA. Upon receiving this certificate, the course will be designated as an approved ground school, and students will receive state-approved credit for course participation."

He said that some of the students have had the mistaken impression prior to enrollment that they would be required to learn to fly an airplane first. "But this is not a flying course necessarily," he said. "It covers many fields."

The author writes of his own and his brothers urge for an education which would — and did — lift the family out of the slum, and gives full credit to his parents' love and strict discipline.

"Mama had to contend with a bad environment," he writes, "but the environment also had to contend with Mama," and she attacked it with soap, water and a strong arm. Levinson gives his opinions of modern education and the direction he thinks it must take to produce a generation of strong Americans.

Mrs. Brown served punch and cake from a table appointed all in white and centered with flowers.

Mrs. Bill Barkley, who came to Hereford recently from Austin, is the president. Mrs. Mel Charest first vice president, Mrs. Jack Hughes second vice president, Mrs. Mack Kemp secretary, Mrs. Robert Bradbury correspondent and Mrs. Marcus Hoelscher treasurer.

A meeting was set for 12:30 p. m. next Tuesday at Community Center, to go on a tour of the Holly Sugar plant west of the city and to plan holiday activities.

Among those present were Mmes. Bruce Kellogg, F. W. Yeager, Henry F. Wommack, Neil E. McCaslin, Allen B. Parson, W. L. Anderson, Quentin Martin, Homer Crim, Charles Stevens, Charles Critchlow, Earl Lewis, John Loveall.

Also Mmes. Thomas W. Kendrick, Jim Hamilton, Walter Lewis Jr., Lea Smith, Sheppard Townsend, Gene Steers, Wilson Humphrey, Dean Avara, Dale Smalts, P. R. Clough and Jack McKinster.

Introduced as guests were Harlan VanderZee, president of First State Bank, and Melvin Young of The Hereford Brand. The bank was host for the lunch.

BAND ASSIGNMENT

The board acted upon a request from Col. Luther C. Bogard, wing commander of the Civil Air Patrol, for the Hereford schools (through high school band director Ben Golehon) to supply the CAP with a band for four events: The Texas Wing Cadet Summer Encampment, The Texas Wing Annual Conference, The Texas Wing Effectiveness Tests, and the Texas Wing Cadet Drill Competition.

It was explained that the Hereford High School band was the first in the state to be made such an offer, and that they would be flown to fill these engagements by the Air Force.

The board agreed with this honor, with reservations: Band participants would have to have parental consent, it would not conflict with school activities and would be placed on a voluntary student basis.

It was pointed out that these trips would represent no expense to the school district.

School tax assessor-collector Orpha Click reported that tax collections in the new school year just begun "are coming in fair." He said that $57,000 had come into the tax office in a five-day period. But his report on delinquent tax collections was "real good."

The schools accepted a low bid for a Chevrolet Impala at $3,097.02 — with delivery promised prior to the Oct. 15-17 date for nine Hereford school representatives who are set to attend the sixth annual Migrant Workshop in McAllen. Bid was also accepted on a Buick for $1,450 (difference on trade-in).

Two teachers were elected by the trustees. Patricia Ann Manney was set for kindergarten classes at Central and Mary Ann Payne will teach fourth grade at Alkman. There were no teacher resignations.

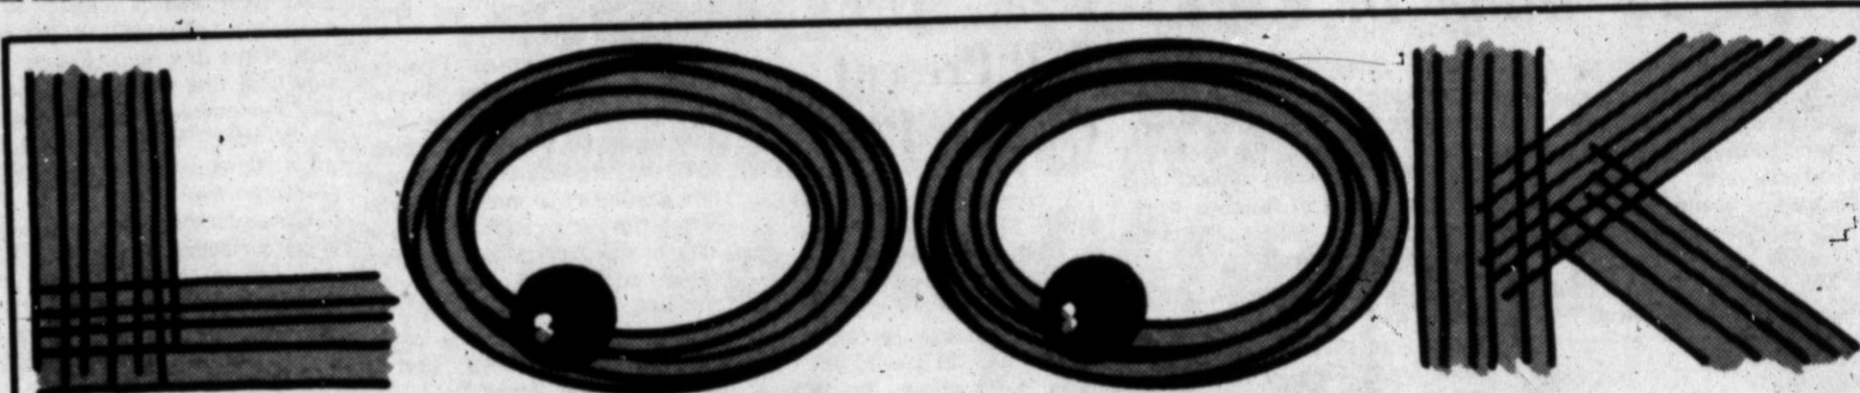

A report was made on Adult Education. (For details see separate story in this issue.)

AEROSPACE SCIENCE

Instructor M. L. McLarty distributed a prepared text concerning the new aerospace instruction now included in the high school curriculum and then answered many of the questions of the course that have been asked since the beginning of school.

"Aerospace Science. What is it? Why do we incorporate it into the high school curriculum? What benefits will the student enrolled receive from the course?"

McLarty reported that these were common questions about the course "we have been asked since the inauguration of Aerospace Science into the curriculum here. People are always interested in new educational Plans were furthered for a guest day tea Oct. 22, when Lone Star club will honor Pioneer Study Club in its 60th anniversary year, and will invite L'Allegre Club members as guests also. This party will be given in Community Center with the social committee, Mmes. Floyd Dunavant, Jim Higgins and Ed Warren as hostesses.

Clothing for the club's "adopted daughter" at Gristown USA, six-year-old Kim, was discussed and will be purchased. Mrs. Hardy Benson, president, was in charge of the business period.

A change in the meeting place for the Nov. 12 meeting was announced, as Mrs. Thelma Chisum and Mrs. Homer Hensley will be hostesses at the home of the former.

Rotarians Are Urged To Help In UF Drive

Member of the Hereford Rotary Club were urged to join in the 1968 Deaf Smith County United Fund Drive Monday as they heard from campaign officers and the UF band.

"We have to have a great effort from all the workers and citizens of Hereford if we are to have a successful United Fund drive," Debbs Knox, president of the United Fund, told Rotarians.

Entertaining the Rotarians was the UF band directed by Ben Gollehon of Hereford High School. A skit which explained the UF purpose was presented by Roy Hartman and Bob Holman.

Drive Chairman Johnny Clark Jr. solicited the Rotarians to help in the drive. "We want to give everyone a chance to serve," said Clark. "It can only be successful through the united efforts of everyone in the community."

Members of the Rotary Club were presented a list of the organizations which will receive funds from the UF budget. "You give through the United Fund," Clark emphasized. The organizations included in the budget represent the needs of over 3,000 young people, he pointed out. Clark also reminded Rotarians that many of the summer recreation programs suffered because of insufficient funds this year and "we can't afford to do so again."

Will Present Comedy Play

A comedy by Noel Coward, Blithe Spirit, was selected for the fall production of Hereford Community Players at a called meeting of the acting group Tuesday evening at Community Center. Nov. 21 and 22 were tentative dates chosen for its presentation.

Imogene Anderson, speech and drama teacher at Hereford High School, will direct the comedy, and has set 2:30 p.m. Sunday for the first tryout session for actors. That meeting will be in the parish hall of St. Thomas Episcopal Church.

Mrs. John Gilliland presided for the business meeting Tuesday. The choice of Blithe Spirit as the initial production of the theater group, which was organized in the summer, was made with a decision to postpone a proposed staging of the farce, Charlie's Aunt, until later in the season.

Blithe Spirit, with its merry plot based on the premise that the spirit of a dead wife may return to make her successor miserable has been a popular stage play and motion picture in both England and America.

Shorthorn Sale Is October 19

Vandalism Done At Local School

Charles Duvall, principal at Northwest Elementary School, reported to local police that someone had shot out four windows at the elementary school.

Police indicated that the vandalism was done with a .22 calibre pellet gun has they had found several of the pellet fragments in the building.

Damage to the windows was estimated at around $100.

The largest species of the dolphin family is the killer whale.

Our attention is frequently called to special dates, and many weeks have been declared important. October 6th through the 12th has been declared Garden Planting Week, by the National Spring Garden Planting Week Committee.

This may seem a bit strange, as most of the garden planting is done in the early spring and summer months, but in making this announcement, the Committee brought out that many preparations can be made the first week in October, to assure more beautiful gardens next spring.

October is the time to plant bulbs for Spring blooms, and there are many bulbs for the gardener to choose from. There is nothing quite so beautiful as a planting of Emperor, red tulips with a background of yellow King Alfred daffodils. The Emperor, (which is an early bloomer) can be also purchased in yellow and white. Some of the loveliest blooms in Hereford last spring were the yellow Emperor tulips.

For sweetness and sheer beauty a mass planting of Hyacinths is loveliness plus. The color is the planter's choice as they come in a variety of colors, and the pastel colors are dainty and very fragrant. One of my favorite places in the springtime, is a bed of pink hyacinths which I can see from my kitchen window.

The Spring Garden Planting Week chairman is Mrs. Warren G. Magnuson, wife of the Senator from the State of Washington, she urges all homeowners and gardeners to make a special effort during October 6th, and 12th to plant or to at least purchase some bulbs for spring planting. In doing this it will be good preparation for a more beautiful neighborhood, and a more beautiful America.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if every home in Deaf Smith County would make a planting for Spring? This is a worthy goal and one we can all work towards and have a share in. If you do not have bulbs or have not ordered or purchased some, The Pioneer Study Club will have some extra bulbs for sale and by contacting any of the members you can secure information relative to kinds and colors available. Call 364-1343, and I will be glad to assist you in any way I can.

PEONIES
October is also the month to plant peonies. Mrs. Vera Deason the garden columnist of The Amarillo Daily News urges all who will to plant peonies. She also states in her column that in purchasing roots for peonies, one should first survey the planting area, and not overplant because in a small garden the peonies are often out of scale. The blooms are so large and the plants themselves require so much room that they should be used sparingly. If you have only space for one, be sure and get good quality roots and plant one. There is much satisfaction in growing beautiful peonies. They only bloom once a year, but they are very satisfying, and then after the blooms are gone the foliage of the plant is very pretty and makes nice green background for other plants.

There are many varieties of the peonies, and the range of color though limited, is nice. It is possible through careful choosing to have a continuous bloom in the garden, over a period of approximately six weeks. This of course would need much garden space. The Japanese peonies are very lovely, and they do real well in our area.

POTTED PLANTS

The time is fast approaching when we will be bringing plants into our homes for winter. There are many lovely geraniums in town, and they make good winter house plants. The best method for using these as potted plants is to make rootings from the main plant. If however this has not been done, then select one or more of the better plants, preferably one that is not too large. Pot it in a good potting soil, and make it ready for your Indoor Winter Garden.

Coleus make colorful house plants, if you have a sunny window to place them in. The color depends on the sunshine. Break off our cut some cuttings from your outdoor plants, and place them in water, and soon they will form roots. Do not let the roots get too long or heavy before potting. Pot these in a good potting mixture (1 part garden top soil, 1 part peat moss 1 part sand, mix in a good fertilizer (not too much) mix well, place pebbles or bits of broken clay pots in the bottom of the pot in which you are to plant the rooted plant. Fill with the soil mixture and place your plant in the soil. Carefully tamp soil around the roots. Water well. Place the potted plant in a cool place. Under a shrub or other shade. When well rooted bring into the sunshine, and then later into the house for winter.)

At the Symposium, we had a lecture on Miniature Roses. They were recommended for winter houseplants. The miniature roses have the same characteristics of regular roses, and are usually one foot in height. Stems are thin and wiry, the foliage is small, dainty and interesting. It is 3 and 5 leaflets averaging 1/2 inch wide and 3/4 inches long, or less. Flowers may be single or double and less than 1 1/2 inches in diameter. They are borne singly or in small terminal clusters not exceeding 10 buds and lowers. The buds are usually darker in color than the full open blossoms. And the minute buds are darling. The climbing miniatures are most interesting, they climb like other climbers, but the trellis are made in scale to the miniature roses. Most any good garden soil will be good for the growth of the miniature rose. Usually they are sold in pots. However, they do well in the outside garden, they do require good light and it should be a continuous light for the greater part of the day light. Fish emulsion is a fine organic fertilizer. Just remember in growing miniature roses, that you must always think "little." If transplanting roses from pot to the outdoors location they should be planted deeper in the soil than they are in the pots. When potting for indoors, be sure the pot has been thoroughly disinfected, and cleaned with warm soapy water, Cloxer or Purex are recommended for this purpose. Clay pots are good for indoor roses, however plastic pots are used, if they are be sure that they have a drainage hole. This is a must. Roses of any variety never likes wet feet. Good drainage is very important.

Malathion is recommended for a golf ball.

spraying the roses for insects and diseases. Dust with sulphur or an all-purpose dust for mildew and also for leaf spot. However when purchasing may I suggest that it is advisable to purchase mildew-resistant varieties. Some of those which are recommended are: Easter Morning, Yellow Doll, Cinderella, Eleanor, Baby Darling, June Time, Little Buckaroo, Jet Trail, and Beauty Secret. After the purchases have been made, the roses grown, and enjoyed then is another pleasure for the grower. His to share with his friends. They can be propagated by cuttings just like the Hybrid Teas and other roses. Those that were exhibited at The Symposium had all been grown from cuttings by a local grower. I really became interested in them, and I think I will just have one potted for winter, to watch it grow and bloom.

INSTANT GARDEN

One of the new phases in gardening is Instant Gardening. Just open the can (container) of your favorite spice or herb. Place in a sunny window, add 4 d tablespoons of water daily and in a few weeks your garden will grow. Parsley, chives, dill, Lavender, Mustard, and grass are fun for an indoor gardener.

HAVE YOU NOTICED the pretty vines growing this summer? They are pretty, and often have just the effect one wishes for a certain part of the garden. The White Morning Glories at the Deward Roberson home, corner of Union and Ave C are very pretty. Art and I have enjoyed very much the Cardinal Cypress this summer, one of the thrills we had was, that we had for several days some humming birds. They fed on the tiny trumpets of the scarlet flowers. Late evening we would watch for them, and quietly we would watch them come. Usually they came about sundown, and the rich colors of the fading sun, and the birds and flowers was very pretty.

Idea are funny things. They don't work unless YOU DO. GLAD.

Watermarks, first used in paper in Italy, were in the form of flowers, animals and various other figures.

A 17th-century caddie in Scotland was hanged for stealing a golf ball.

Facts On Adult Education Program Issued By Schools

Betty Priest, secretary to assistant superintendent Robert Holman of the Hereford Public Schools, has issued facts on some of the current Adult Education classes and the enrollment figures which have caused some of them to be divided.

"The number who have enrolled in Basic English, Typing I and Vocational Office Education has necessitated our dividing the three classes into six," she said.

Basic English reached a total of 40 students — 30 men and 10 women of whom 37 are Latin, 2 are Anglo and one is Negro. These classes now meet on Monday night at 6 and 8.

Vocational Office Training (VOE) will meet Monday at Thursday at 7 p. m. It reached a total of 26 students — 2 men and 24 women of which 4 are Latin and 22 are Anglo.

The second class of Typing I has not been set as yet, according to Mrs. Priest, but will be by next week. It has 37 students — 2 men and 35 women, 12 of Latin descent and 25 Anglos.

"Anyone wishing to enroll in any of these classes may do so by meeting with the class at the next regular class meeting," she said. "Not only these three courses but any of the other classes offered."

Bookkeeping has 18 students, Furniture Upholstery and Repair has 10, Shorthand, 18; Spanish, I, 24; Speed Reading, 34; and Welding 14.

Mrs. Priest said that the classes in Irrigation Motors, Pumps and Equipment and Auto Mechanics will be offered later in the year — possibly around Dec. 1. "This will allow a number of people to attend who have expressed a desire to do so, but were so busy engaged in farming activities at this time that they could not attend."

Anyone desiring to enroll in either of these two classes beginning in December may do so now by contacting Holman or Mrs. Priest at 364-0606.

Instructor for Basic English is Mrs. Lovelyn Hughes, Room 23, Stanton Jr. High School. Bookkeeping instructor is Albert Cupell, Room 201, Hereford High School. Harvey Penner is Furniture. Repair instructor, Room 131, HHS. Shorthand instructor is Mrs. Irene Coneway, Room 105, HHS.

Mrs. Joyce Morse teaches Spanish I in Room 115 and-or Room 214, HHS. Typing I is taught by Maarki Beblis in Room 109, HHS. VOE is also taught by Albert Cupell in Room 120, HHS. John E. Smith is Welding instructor in Room 133, HHS.

All classes meet on Monday except Bookkeeping and Shorthand which meet on Tuesday. Welding meets on Thursday.

Light Damage In Tuesday Wreck

A citation for negligent collision by following too closely was issued by local police officers following an accident which occurred on Ave. J, Tuesday afternoon.

The 1964 Dodge driven by William Riggins sustained about $175 damages and the other vehicle, a 1968 Plymouth driven by Rebecca Bell, also received an estimated $175 damages.

The accident occurred when one of the vehicles attempted a right turn into a driveway and the driver of the other vehicle, apparently not seeing the other driver turning, ran into the rear of the car.

To the voters of the Hereford Independent School District!

In answer to some questions that have been asked concerning the upcoming bond issues to be voted on Friday, we would like to present the following facts:

FACTS ABOUT THE STADIUM

1. Some have gotten the impression that the location of the stadium will be changed. This is not true. The bond issue is for additional seats and other improvements at the present site.

2. The new seats will be virtually maintenance free. They will be of fiberglass construction and we will be able to eliminate much of the maintenance cost now being spent by the district.

3. Some have asked about the advisability of trying to have a Revenue Bond rather than Tax Bond. This cannot be done since our athletic gate receipts do not exceed the overall cost of the athletic program.

FACTS ABOUT THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

1. We will make an effort to more equally distribute the migrant children by bussing from the labor camp to other schools at School District expense.

2. No plans are being made to bus any student now residing within the city limits. We feel the problem can be handled without resorting to this.

3. At this time, we do not contemplate major changes in present school zones.

Also... it will not be necessary to raise taxes to retire these bonds!

We urge you to go to the polls Friday and

UF Drive Pushed By Young People

This year's United Fund campaign has had the assistance of many young people with some behind the scenes work and some in the spotlight being done by children and teen-agers. A band of varying size has performed at several service club programs and has recorded background music used with spot radio announcements on KPAN. Representatives from many of the agencies sponsored by United Fund were on hand Monday morning to add interest and color to the annual kick-off breakfast. Colt and Pony League Players were there in uniform as were Scouts and Bluebirds who were representing Camp Fire. Ages of this group ranged from 7 to 18. Camp Fire Girls under the sponsorship of Mrs. Earnest Langley have made posters expressing appreciation for United Fund support. Posters were also made and distributed by the Horizon Club

Old Furnishings Viewed By Club

Antiques of value, and articles of small value which have been made into interesting decorative pieces, were examined by Young Mothers Club members when they paid a visit to Mrs. H. V. Fields' home Tuesday evening. Mrs. David Brumley and Mrs. Howard Hunter were hostesses. The club met at First National Bank Community Room for a brief business meeting before going to the Fields home. They voted to sponsor the Bluebird Group which a member, Mrs. Travis McPherson, leads, and also voted a contribution to the United Fund. Mrs. Fields has made a hobby of collecting old household utensils, dishes and other items as well as furniture, and adding her own imagination and hand-work to make attractive pieces used throughout her home. Some would not qualify as true antiques, but are things no longer in common use as they once were, so they add quaint touches to the rooms. Club women who toured her home were Meses, Bud Thomas, Homer Rudd, Ray Simpson, Chesley Johnston, Lynn Pittard, Raymond Gerke, Larry Dobbs, Don Chapman, Don Brush, Charles Brown, Don Beard, Jim Arney and the hostesses.

Balloting has been set for Friday for the important school bond election and school officials are hoping for a big vote on the two issues. In question will be a $600,000 bond issue for a new elementary school to be located in South Hereford and a $150,000 issue for football stadium improvements.

School officials point out that the additional growth since Bluebonnet School was completed is more than enough to fill the new school. Elementary schools throughout the city are now becoming overcrowded and if the town continues to grow as we anticipate with the beginning of construction of the Wilson & Co. plant, the situation will become critical by this time next year.

The football stadium improvements are long past due. However, we cannot take issue with the school board for not acting earlier on the stadium, since the problem of keeping adequate school rooms was

Gospel Meeting Continues At Avenue Baptist

Rev. Bob Harris, currently pastor of the First Baptist Church at Killeen and former pastor of the Avenue Baptist Church here, will continue his revival services at the Avenue Baptist along with Pete Nunez, noted gospel singer, through Sunday, according to Rev. Ron Harpster, the present pastor of the church.

Services are held daily at 9:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Rev. Harpster has issued an invitation to the public to attend each service. He also reported that the church nursery will be available.

more pressing at the time. However, it is time to do something about the stadium, and we feel that the Board will try to get the most for the money spent.

We believe that both bond issues should pass and would urge each and everyone eligible to go to the polls tomorrow and cast an affirmative vote.

Congratulations to Clint Formby, manager of KPAN, upon being named President of the Texas Broadcasters Association. This is perhaps a first for a town the size of Hereford, since most of the officials of the TBA generally come from the metropolitan areas.

However, Clint has been quite active in the Association and we understand that he has been quite effective in his work on the board.

—HB—

May we extend our sincere welcome to the members of the Westers States Meat Packers Association who will be holding a regional convention in Hereford this Saturday. Pete Caviness, owner-manager of Caviness Packing Company will be the host and we understand that Chamber of Commerce President Earnest Langley will MC the affair. We're betting it will be a good one.

Hereford has become known far and wide for its fine hospitality. In spite of its small size (convention wise), we just almost always wind up with the "most talked about convention" ever held by the visiting association. And that's pretty good.

—HB—

About the time the weather cools off, politics heat up.

—HB—

And then there's the story, reported by the Wall Street Journal, about the weary voter who whispered to his friend: "I'm thankful that only one of them can be elected."

4-H Party Will End Special Week

Some 150 members of the five 4-H clubs in Deaf Smith County will climax national 4-H Club Week Saturday night at the Hereford Community Center with a County-Wide 4-H Club Party.

Sponsored by the 4-H Council, the party will have the theme "HemisFair '68," and will begin at 8 p. m.

Observance of the special week began for county 4-H members Sunday when they attended services at the First Presbyterian Church. Gov. John Connally, in designating Sunday through Saturday as 4-H Club Week in Texas, said "The development of responsible citizens and leaders for America is the high purpose of 4-H Club work."

The five 4-H clubs in Deaf Smith County are the Merry Maidens, Willing Workers, Happy Hustlers, Ford 4-H and the Dawn 4-H. At the last count of the membership in May, there were about an equal number of boys and girls in the five clubs, officials explained.

The 4-H leaders, who have the overall responsibility of organizing the club activities and keeping them going, are Mrs. Hugh Clearman, Mrs. Floyd Cole and Mrs. Juston McBride of the Willing Workers; Mrs. F. A. Marnell and Mrs. Leo Witkowski of the Merry Maidens; Mrs. Thurman Atchley and Mrs. C. T. Goheen of the Happy Hustlers; Mrs. A. J. Bezner of the Ford 4-H Club and George Olson and Mrs. Daisy Elliston of the Dawn 4-H Club.

Working with the leaders are Mrs. Rita Huckert, assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, and Juston McBride, County Agricultural Agent.

During this week, posters prepared by the clubs explaining their purposes and activities will be set up in various businesses in downtown Variety Park and at Sugarland Mall.

LEARN BY DOING
Four-H members are widely known as "doers." As a matter of fact, 4-H pioneered the "learn-by-doing" method of informal teaching.

Today an estimated 3 million boys and girls between 9 and 19 years of age are engaged in some 50 different projects.

These projects have been developed over the years by the Cooperative Extension Service which supervises all 4-H work. The majority of the projects — or programs — are suitable for urban as well as rural 4-H'ers.

For example, agricultural projects such as livestock, crops and marketing are designed for farm youngsters who make up about 39 per cent of the national enrollment. Projects and activities in science, consumer education, home and money management, home economics, health, safety, leadership and mechanics are suitable for all 4-H members.

The projects are set up so the 4-H'er can advance in an orderly fashion under the guidance of volunteer adult leaders and experienced 4-H junior leaders.

When projects are completed, 4-H'ers are encouraged to evaluate their own achievements. Not only is it possible to compete with other 4-H'ers engaged in like projects, but there is a special program called "achievement" which considers progress in their total 4-H efforts.

It is the national 4-H Achievement program sponsored by the Ford Motor Company Fund. Annual awards are offered for the best overall records submitted in county, state and national competition.

Last year, for example, nearly 9,000 members in 50 states, qualified for county medal awards. The top state award is a trip to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago the week after Thanksgiving.

From the 1968 state winners, 12 will be chosen for national $500 scholarships. A special award of an engraved silver serving tray, presented in the name of the President of the United States, will be given to the highest ranking girl and boy from among the national winners.

Ford officials are hosts to the achievement award winners and leaders during the national Congress, and also at a luncheon for the entire Congress delegation of some 2,000 persons. Ford has supported the 4-H program for the last two decades.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor: I would like to present some information for your readers which I hope will aid in the passing of the school bond issues facing the people of Hereford. I feel that the bond issue for another elementary school will encounter no serious opposition or objection, and will pass by a large majority. I am convinced that the people of Hereford are vitally concerned about the education of our children, and realizing the crowded conditions we face at the present, and the expected growth of Hereford, will vote in favor of the school issue.

However, because of some comments of opposition I have heard, I would like to speak in favor of the bond issue for a new football stadium. I am a tax-paying home owner, employed as a teacher in the Hereford School system, and am very proud of both our community and our schools. It has been my pleasure in the two years of living in Hereford to entertain other people of my profession, as well as from other walks of life, in my home. Many of these have come to Hereford to consider Hereford as a place to seek employment and a place to live. My wife and I have happily given these visitors a "grand tour" of our city. With pride, we have pointed out our beautiful downtown section, our lovely community center, our parks, our several schools, our many churches, our wonderful museum, our ultra-modern hospital, and our modernized Sugarland Mall. But, when we pass near Stadium Drive on Morman, and point out our stadium, the response is always the same — i.e. "What! That's your football stadium? A town and school this progressive, and that's your stadium?" Well, I certainly have to agree that it is not in keeping with all else that I had pointed out to the visitors in "selling" Hereford and Hereford Schools. I believe our town and our school is modern and progressive, and I hope the citizens will continue to express their desire to take pride in all that effects our city and vote for the stadium bond issue.

Punt, Pass, Kick To Be Held Sunday

Boys 8 through 13 years of age, are reminded that Saturday is the last day for registration in the annual Ford Motor Company's Punt, Pass and Kick Competition, scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 13.

The annual event, sponsored by Orval Watson Ford Company and the Whiteface Booster Club, will have 18 trophies to be awarded during the local competition with gold trophies going to the first place winners in each age group and silver trophies to be given to the second place winners and bronze for third.

The contest will be held at the high school football field beginning at 1:30 p. m. Sunday and will involve no physical contact. Boys will be divided into groups where they will compete against boys their own age in the three basic skills of football — punting, passing, and kicking. Competing or winning of the trophies will in no way affect the boys' amateur standing in the future.

Signing up for PP&K competition can be done at Orval Watson Ford and boys must be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Each entrant will receive a free booklet of tips written by Bart Starr of the Green Bay Packers, Billy Lothridge of the Atlanta Falcons, and St. Louis' Jim Bakken and a free PP&K lapel pin. No special equipment is needed for the competition.

A national program sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League, the winners of the Punt Pass and Kick Competition's local contest, will go to Zone, then possibly District, Area, Division and National contests. Trophies and certificates will be given to the winners and runner-up at each of the levels of competition with the winner and his dad going to Division competitions held in NFL team stadiums. Division winners will go to Miami, Florida with their mother and dad for the National finals during the Orange Bowl on Jan. 9th. All national finalists and their parents will also go on a "Tour of Champions" in Washington, D. C. on Jan. 6th and 7th.

LED IN STATISTICS — The Whitefaces led in every statistical category in their game against Phillips Saturday night, but came out on the short end of the contest by a 16-0 score. Blackhawks Rout Herd In 16-0 Win

The Phillips Blackhawks made it 17-out-of-21 times that they have defeated the Whitefaces, when they shut the locals out Saturday night, 16-0, before a capacity Phillips homecoming crowd.

A tight defensive game from the very start, the Whiteface-Blackhawk tilt saw no score through the major part of the first quarter, as both teams gave the ball up on numerous occasions because of sturdy defensive play on both sides.

Hereford relinquished possession of the ball on the first series of plays after they had driven to their own 45-yard line before being stopped by the Phillips line. They, in turn, held their host to no gain on their possession, forcing them to punt.

Beginning on their own 20-yard line, Herd quarterback Randy Ragan, seeing his second contest of the year after becoming eligible last week, called on halfback Elgin Williams to carry the pigskin on the first play. Williams twisted, turned and drove his way to the 45-yard line, picking up the second first down of the game for the locals. The Blackhawk defense again became rigid and held them for no gain on the next two plays, then threw the Whitefaces for a nine-yard loss, forcing them to give up the ball via a punt situation.

After holding the Blackhawks to slight yardage, the Herd dropped their safeties back to receive a fourth and punting play. Apparently misjudging the kick, Ragan, filling in at safety, let the ball go over his head and into the end zone after having tipped it with his hands.

Blackhawk players then surrounded Ragan and the ball in the wild scramble in the zone, giving them a safety plus two points and the lead in the contest.

The Whitefaces threatened on one occasion in the second period when after receiving a punt on their own 30-yard line, bounced back from a 22-yard loss play to their 42, then on to the Blackhawk 29 on a series of plays. Two incomplete passes again put the Herd in a punting situation as they relinquished the ball, after having their drive halted.

A merry mix-up on passing on the next series of plays, gave the locals the ball on an interception, then Phillips turned around and intercepted the first pass thrown by the Whiteface field general. The interception set up the first TD of the game as Blackhawk Kelly Cooke, predicted by Whiteface coach Larry Wartes to be the key to the Phillips team, drove steadily at the Whiteface line, and with 26 seconds left in the first half, hauled in a pass and scampered into the end zone. Cooke then added a finishing touch as he ran the two-point conversion over for a commanding 10-0 lead at halftime.

Coming back from the dressing room after half time, the Whitefaces took the opening kickoff and chucked up four first downs on the series of plays before they were halted on the Phillips 40. Being too far out for an attempted field goal, and being just short yardage from a first, the Whitefaces selected to go for the first down, but failed and gave up the ball on downs.

Phillips then attempted a pass play and Ragan, playing deep, intercepted the ball in the end zone. A screen pass and short yardage runs pushed the ball out near midfield for the Herd before they were again halted by the determined Blackhawk defense.

Blackhawker Cooke again manned the guns for Phillips on their final scoring drive as he ground the Whiteface defense for two first downs and a ball position on the Herford 12-yard line. Switching plays, the Blackhawks managed to carry the ball to the Herford one then the Bird quarterback plunged over for the final TD. The point after attempt failed, and the score stood at 16-0 for the remainder of the game.

In overall statistics, the Whitefaces led the Blackhawks as they completed three of 13 passes for a total of 38 yards in the air to 15 for Phillips. In rushing the locals had 122 yards as compared to 120 of the host team's. Hereford executed 65 plays during the game to 49 for Phillips, garnered 11 first downs to 10 for the Blackhawks, and both teams intercepted two passes.

The next game for the Whitefaces will be this Friday when they play host to the Dalhart Wolves. Gametime is 8 p. m.

Tailback, Tackle Are Selected As Player Of Week

Elgin Williams, the twisting, driving little 142 pound, Whiteface tailback has been selected as the offensive "Player of the Week" for the second week in a row, and Rodney Dearing, a 177 pound tackle, was named the defensive "Player of the Week" for their efforts in the Hereford-Phillips game last week.

Williams gained only 44 yards in 19 carries last week, but his performance was termed as the "hardest, smartest and quickest" he has moved all year. Coach Larry Wartes said that he thought Williams ran his best game of the year and was hitting the holes and blocking better than he had all year.

Dearing's play was considered "spectacular" as he assisted in many key tackles. He was credited with three unassisted tackles while being in on four others. His position on the line also allowed him to be in on numerous line "gang tackles" during the contest.

Rodney Dearing... defensive player of week.

Elgin Williams... offensive player of week.

Farmers Elevator Is Holding Lead In Kings, Queens Bowling League

For the third week of bowling action in the Kings and Queens League, Farmers Elevator is presently holding a one game advantage over the second place Sunset Keglers as they sport a 9-3 record.

Clark Urges Passage Of Stadium Facilities

At the regular Monday night meeting of the Whiteface Booster Club, Johnny Clark, superintendent of the local schools, outlined the needs for passing of the bond issue for football stadium improvements.

"This is the golden opportunity we have been waiting for to pass a bond issue for stadium improvements without anticipating tax increases next year," Clark stated.

Clark explained that the Board of Trustees have looked into the situation from every conceivable angle and have come up with what they term as "definite needed improvements." They have been taking pictures and obtaining drawings and figures from various stadiums throughout the area, trying to come up with the most desired, low-cost stadium. Their present plans are to improve the stadium to the extent that the bond issue will allow, and if possible, come back at a later date and make more improvements.

Included in the $150,000 bond issue for improvements, Clark said, is mainly seating, possibly lighting improvements of some sort, a fence around the playing field, a new type track, press box improvements, rest rooms, possible dressing room facilities and concession stands.

With the lighting proposal, the board is hoping to make whatever improvements are needed, as they have considered using the poles now at the field and making them higher or adding more lights to the present flock or even adding both poles and lights. The fence surrounding the field is an official University Interscholastic League rule, and Hereford has been requested to put one up, so in compliance with this rule one is positively going to have to be put in, he explained.

The cost of maintenance for the present cinder track, has caused concern in that direction and the board has stated that if enough money is available after the seating situation is taken care of, then it is hoped that they will be able to get a "grasstex" track which requires very little maintenance work. "It looks to me like a worthwhile investment," Clark stated.

With the possibility of television making it's appearance in Hereford in the next couple of years, new and additional press facilities are needed at the field. Hereford has been requested by the UIL to make some improvements in their press facilities due to the controversy caused by the Dumas coach last year when they had such difficulty filming the game here.

Rest rooms and concession stands will also be added to the improvements if the money is available, Clark said.

Clark urged the members of the club to do their best in seeing that the bond issue is passed and to get out themselves and vote in the election which is to be held Friday at the Community Center.

Texas' "Winnigest School" Invades Hereford Friday

Friday night, the winningest football school in the state of Texas over the past five year period, will come into Whiteface Stadium seeking to keep their 1968 record unblemished.

Through four games thus far this season, Dalhart has netted a total of 182 points against one AA opponent, one A opponent and two AAA opponents, while allowing them only 53 points between them. In their opening contest against Guymon, Okla., they shut the Okies down 66-7 then mauled the Class A Stratford team, 43-0. Tulia and Canyon, both 1-AAA teams, have scored more points against the Wolves than any previous teams with Tulia scoring 26 and Canyon, 21, but both fell victim to the powerful Class AA squad.

Sporting the winningest record in high school football over the past five years, covering 1963 to 1967, Dalhart is looking to make their record read 52 wins six losses and one tie in Friday night's contest.

Coach Larry Wartes feels that Dalhart's playing game will be similar to that that the Whitefaces met last week in their game against the Phillips Blackhawks with the exception that the Wolves are probably a slightly larger team. "They appear to be a tough offensive team, though they have been having their problems in the past couple of weeks as Tulia and Canyon have scored considerably against them. Their defensive 11, seem to be losing momentum as does their offensive unit, and I feel that there is the possibility of a change being witnessed in their playing game here this Friday," he said.

Spearheading the Wolf attack will be senior fullback Gary Moore, who has proved himself a deceptive runner since the Dalhartans opened their season four weeks ago. Moore averaged 7.9 yards per carry in his first year on the Wolf varsity, and has proven again this year that he has not lost his touch as in last week's contest against the Canyon Eagles, he netted over 270 yards rushing alone.

Aiding Moore in the Backfield will be quarterback Fred Cozy who is termed as a "funner, thrower and a faker among the best," and a junior back, Kenneth Pack. Pack scored three TD's in the Wolves' first game of the season as he

Burges Wins Grid Contest

Lee Roy Burges, of Country Club Drive, and Dorothy Mercer, of 112 Aspen, both predicted 15 of the 16 listed football games for last week's football contest, but Burges missed the tie-breaker by fewer points to win first place prize money.

Burges received the $8 first place money when he missed the tie-breaker by a mere seven points. Mrs. Mercer collected the second place prize money of $4 by missing the tie-breaker by nine points.

Receiving third place money was Bill Dirks, of 208 Ave. J, who guessed 14 of 16 correct. There were 144 entries in last week's contest.

Perryton Remains On Unbeaten List

Perryton pulled another game out of the bag last week to remain in the number one spot in the Panhandle ratings and also keep their slate clear of losses as they breezed past the 1-AAA Amarillo Caprock team, 27-8 Friday night.

Now holding a 4-0 record with one week left before district competition begins, Perryton strengthened it's hold on the top spot after swamping the Amarillo team, and remained the only undefeated 1-AAA team in the district. Perryton has registered wins over three AAAA teams now and one Oklahoma team. Falling to the Rangers this season have been Caprock, Borger, and Pampa from the AAAA classification and Woodward, Okla.

Canyon fell for the third time this year as the Dalhart Wolves dealt them a 27-21 loss last week. A steadily improving team, Canyon is expected to pick up even more as district action opens against the Whitefaces for them on Oct. 25.

Fourth time this year as they were clobbered by the highly respected Denver City Mustangs 36-0. The Mustangs, rated number nine in the state by Texas Football Magazine at the early part of the season, forced the Mules into the losers bracket again with one week remaining before district play commences. Other victors over the Muleshoe team include Dimmitt, Abertathy and Dimmitt, all AA teams.

Another first was registered last Friday night when the Borger team trounced the Dumas squad 54-15, in dealing the Demons their third loss in four outings. Defeating Dumas in the earlier part of the year were Palo Duro, Tascosa and Borger. Their only win came over the hapless Pampa Harvesters.

Tulia was open for last week's action.

Each of the five district teams will have one more week to attempt to boost their won-lost record as Perryton will go against Liberal, Kan.; Dumas meets Phillips; Canyon is open, Tulia travels to Andrews; and Muleshoe hosts Portales, N. M. The Whitefaces will meet Dalhart before taking their open date the week of Oct. 18.

Drinking Driver In For Some Surprises

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Drinking drivers run a new risk of being nabbed — through a tell-tale scientific breath analysis device going into use in Texas.

Col. Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, Department of Public Safety Director, announced that 90 new "breathalyzers" have been purchased by the DPS and 450 highway patrolmen trained to operate them. Device will test a suspect's breath to determine the percentage of alcohol in the bloodstream.

Instruments, simple to operate and read, will be placed in 90 of the state's most-populous counties, at fixed locations and used under strictly-controlled scientific conditions.

Suspects who consent to the test will blow into a tube and the percentage of alcohol in their blood will register on indicators. About 15 minutes' waiting time is allowed before testing begins and actual test takes only five minutes. Experts report a direct relationship between alcohol content in blood and breath.

Drinking, according to DPS statistics, figures in 40 to 50 percent of Texas' traffic deaths — perhaps more than 1,600 of last year's 3,367 highway fatalities. Over the nation, use of alcohol leads to annual traffic death toll of 25,000 and 800,000 vehicle accidents — the largest single factor in fatal crashes.

A driver with 0.15 per cent blood alcohol content by weight is 25 times more likely to be involved in a wreck than a non-drinking driver. Average person achieves that danger point after consuming five ounces of 100 proof alcohol an hour without eating, DPS chemists figure. Consumption leading to intoxication, of course, varies with weight, time between drinks and amount of food eaten.

Tests will "clear" drivers suspected of being drunk who are actually driving erratically due to illness or other reasons.

"It is hoped the DPS breathalyzer project will hit hard at the problem and help reduce the traffic death rate in Texas," Colonel Speir said.

COURTS SPEAK — Tragedies, race horses and wild elephants provided grist for the State Supreme Court's mill as it ground out more than 130 cases following a summer recess. High court decided that:

A Houston widow whose husband was killed by mistake while entering the wrong house cannot collect accidental death benefits.

Damage suit filed by a widow following the death of her husband in an auto wreck can be maintained although it did not meet the filing deadline.

Damage award payable to the estate of a Bowie County boy run over by a car should be upheld.

Employee of a Waco department store is entitled to $50,000 damages due to an escalator accident.

Rio Grande Valley circus owner can collect damages from an animal dealer who delivered him a wild female elephant instead of a tame one as ordered.

The race horse, Benedicte, who won $90,000, was not covered by a $5,000 Lloyds of London insurance policy when he died.

A Harris County mother who went to India to study Yoga should not regain custody of her two sons from their grandparents who took them in after a 1963 divorce.

A lower court verdict ordering Pinehurst to pay a water company $29,000 under a contract should be reversed.

A Henderson County real estate man's claim that he was denied proper commission on the sale of a ranch for a Boy Scout camp is entitled to review.

City of Roma's claim to a share of revenues from the border toll bridge operated by Starr County should be retried.

BLUE - LAW TEST — State Supreme Court has agreed to hear an appeal from local officials stymied in their attempts to enforce the state's newest and most far-reaching Blue Law Article 286a of the Penal Code prohibits the sale of certain listed items — covering just about everything — on consecutive Saturdays and Sundays, which requires retailers to choose between the two days.

However, Gibson's Discount Center of Midland got around it by leasing its store and stock to another corporation.

Midland County 142nd District Court agreed with Gibson's that the Blue Law violates the State and national constitutions, and the local officials appealed. The case is set for hearing before the high court on November 6.

SALES TAX GOES UP — Texans started shelling out another penny for state sales taxes on October 2. That made it three per cent statewide — and four per cent in those cities which levy local option sales taxes.

Extra one per cent for the state was voted by the Legislature in special session last June. Session also approved a one-per-cent jump in car sales tax and a 50 cent hike in the franchise tax. Revenue estimates are about $175 million in new state revenue during the next 11 months. Legislature in 1969 may have to raise $300 million or more in additional money.

APPOINTMENTS — House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed the five public members to the Governor's Committee on Physical Fitness, which was created by the Legislature in June to study the problem and make recommendations.

Members are: Tom Stohand-ske, San Antonio attorney and former A11-American football player at UT; Mrs. Joe Long of Austin, holder of a doctorate in physical education; Dr. Stanley Burdham, physical education professor at UT-Austin; Dr. Kenneth Cooper, U. S. Air Force Medical Corps major at San Antonio; and Dr. Jay Stanford, professor of internal medicine at the UT Southwestern Medical School at Dallas.

BILINGUAL EDUCATION — Texas Education Agency is utilizing the experience of six visiting teachers from Mexico to improve the bilingual-education program it administers.

Teachers, all from Nuevo Leon, will spend the current school year in Texas teaching Spanish to already Spanish-speaking children in the pre-school and elementary grades.

"This program," a TEA official said, "is an attempt to enhance our bilingual teaching and to involve ourselves in international programs. Also, we want to see how well Mexican-national teachers can work in our public schools."

HOSPITAL PLAN OPEN TO STUDY — New 1969 state plan for construction and modernization of hospitals and related medical facilities now is available for public review at State Department of Health office.

Plan is the basic document which the State Board of Health uses to make its recommendations for federal Hill-Burton grants.

Sixty-nine applicants are applying for $28,825,466 under the federal matching fund program for hospital aid next year.

RIOT LOSS PLAN REVIEWED — Plan of insurance companies to spread riot losses got State Board of Insurance review but was sent back for redrafting following new federal rules.

It must be approved by October 29 to qualify companies operating in Texas for federal reinsurance under new housing act. Plan will have to be acceptable to U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Funeral Is Held For Area Banker

Funeral service for Harry S. Wilbur Sr., 90, of Canadian, father of Mrs. Russell Carver who formerly lived in Hereford, were conducted in First Baptist Church at Canadian Tuesday. He was a well-known Panhandle banker.

He began his banking career as managing officer of a bank at Grady, Okla., then moved to Perryton in 1919 as co-founder of a bank. He was associated with First National Bank of Canadian from the early 1920's until his retirement last March. He was a past president of the Panhandle Bankers Association, also of the Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce at Canadian, past potentate of Khiva Shrine Temple and a deacon in First Baptist Church of Canadian.

A native of Kansas, he died Saturday night in an Amarillo hospital. In addition to Mrs. Carver, now of Amarillo, he is survived by his wife and two sons, Harry Jr. of Canadian and Earl of Dalhart; a brother, a sister, five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Dalhart's starting units are composed mostly of seniors, with a few scattered juniors among the elite. The offensive team has a three-down line of juniors plus one back while the defensive squad is evened out about the same.

"We have had had breaks in every game this year that have kept us from winning and we are playing better ball than our record indicates," Wartes stated in regard to the past games, "but the loss last week really hurt us. The boys were hurt more mentally than they have been this year and this is going to hurt us even more than a lot of people realize if we can not bounce back like we should."

Friday's game is scheduled to begin at 8 p. m. at Whiteface Stadium.

Ford Raps LBJ; Ramsey Clark

The Republican candidate for State Representative in the 72nd District, Frank Ford of Hereford, pointed out this week that crime in the United States has nearly doubled since Lyndon B. Johnson attained nation-wide office eight years ago.

"Much of this tragic increase in personal crimes and general breakdown of law and order," said Ford, "must be traced to the fact that LBJ, and lately his fellow Texan, Ramsey Clark have either been unable or unwilling to come to grips with the problem of organized crime and general disrespect for the rights of others."

"Our nation cannot afford any more products of one-party monopoly in Texas such as LBJ and Attorney General Ramsey Clark," Ford continued. "A two-party system, and the honest, open competition it will provide, will bring forth better candidates from both parties. In this

Clayton Calls For Updating School Programs; Salaries

The importance of education and qualified teachers was underscored by Rep. Bill Clayton, who is seeking re-election in the 72nd district for the Texas Legislature. "The future of Texas and this nation depend upon updating our educational programs and teachers' salaries. If we do not provide the proper facilities and opportunities for learning, and attract new teachers and keep the ones we have, then we cannot expect to maintain and improve the position of Texas in the field of education," Clayton commented.

From a legislative standpoint, Clayton said that he has been very concerned and active in trying to raise educational standards in Texas. He was co-author of a bill creating the "Coordinating Board of Texas Colleges and Universities System." In the last few years, coordination and increased appropriations from the Legislature have caused Texas colleges and universities to become recognized throughout the United States as schools of excellence. According to Clayton, this is a continuing program to make Texas schools of higher learning second to none. Clayton testified before the House Education Committee favoring two junior college districts in our area instead of one because the coordinating Board did not consider the economic and population growth here when they suggested only one district.

Clayton emphasized that in the field of public school legislation, he has voted in favor of every teacher pay raise that has come before the House, and to back it up, has voted for taxes to foot the bill. "Responsible legislative effort," said Clayton, "means providing the money to support the programs you want. Pay-raise for teachers would be ineffective without sufficient appropriations, and this means that leadership is necessary to the job. There are all kinds of programs competing for tax monies. The teacher salary and other education needs have to compete, and this is where experience and influence are especially important."

Clayton said he worked behind the scenes during the last regular session to help obtain as much money as possible for teacher pay raises. He also voted for a state-wide Teacher Sick Leave Bill the last two sessions of the Legislature, but the bill failed to become law.

"What a lot of people don't realize," said Clayton, "is that comparatively, West Texans do not have much voting power in the legislature, and the recent redistricting worsened the situation for us. Population is going more to metropolitan areas. The only thing we have to make up for less votes is more leadership. This means getting along with people and gaining the res-

Ditty Bags Due Tuesday

Deadline for turning in ditty bags for Christmas presents to servicemen in Vietnam is Tuesday, Mrs. Genevieve Miller, executive secretary of the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has reported.

Mrs. Miller said the local chapter had committed itself for 250 of bags filled with various articles. "We've had marvelous cooperation from local home demonstration clubs, church groups, individuals and school organizations," she said. "If the county quota is exceeded, she explained, provisions have been made for the ditty bags to go to hospitals this year."

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 200 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q— My high school counselor told me my age of liability for military service is 18½ through 25. My neighbor says that if I accept a deferment for college, my age of liability will be extended to 35. Is this true?

A— Yes. If you request and are granted a II-S student deferment, your liability is extended to age 35.

Q— I have a II-A classification. How long is this good for?

A— It can be good for as long as one year, but a local board may grant a lesser period. If you change jobs, there is a change in your job, or anything happens to change your job status, this could terminate your classification in II-A. You are obligated to report any change.

Q— I entered college this fall. Another student told me I would have to carry a minimum number of hours to be deferred as a student in class II-S. What is the minimum number?

A— You should make normal progress toward your baccalaureate degree. Determine how many semester hours of work it takes to attain your degree. If this degree is normally attained in four years, you should earn one-fourth of the credits the first academic year, which would include the fall and spring semesters and the next summer term. If you earn 25 percent by the end of the spring semester, there is no requirement that you attend summer school unless you want to get ahead faster.

Baptist Church here through Sunday night, according to Greenwood pastor, Rev. Al Baum.

Rev. Lincoln, a native of Huntsville, Ala., had made his plans to be a career man in the Air Force after serving in World War II. With 23 months in the Southwest Pacific in the war with the Japanese, he spent eight years in the service. But he said that he was converted while stationed at Roswell, N. M. in 1949, and felt that he had been called to preach.

He has been in the ministry 19 years. A graduate of the Bible Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth in 1952, he said his first two churches were at Roanok and Lindale, Texas. But he transferred to the Panhandle in 1955, when he became pastor of a church in Sunray. In 1959 he took a church in Borger.

But Rev. Lincoln returned to the Dallas-Fort Worth area in 1962 - to Grand Prairie - before he took the Caprock church in 1966.

He said that he now has a son in the seminary at Springfield, Mo., but has a wife, 2 other sons and a daughter still at home.

With Rev. Lincoln is Howard Jewell, a tenor soloist from Riverside, Calif. Jewell has traveled throughout the United States as one of the foremost gospel singers of today, Rev. Baum said. His career began as a boy singing along with his preacher father in Salvation Army work.

Guitar Quartet Is Unique In Concert Field

A unique family musical group, the four Romeros who will present the first concert of this season Monday evening for Hereford Community Concert Association comprise a father, Celedonio Romero, and his three sons, Celin, Pepe and Angel.

Called by Time Magazine "indisputably the best guitar ensemble around," the Romeros play in the Spanish classical style, concerts which win praise from critics for technical excellence and emotional variety.

Appearances with symphony orchestras have been made since the quartet won fame in its own concerts over the nation, and this year the Romeros played with the San Antonio Symphony under Conductor Victor Alessandri at the HemisFair in San Antonio.

Their number was a concerto for four guitars and orchestra by the Spanish composer Joaquin Rodrigo, commissioned especially for the Romeros. The work is titled Concierto Andaluz.

They have also appeared with the Esterhazy Orchestra in Carnegie Hall, with the Dallas, Honolulu and Cleveland Symphony groups.

Tomatoes Make Sauce

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Tomato harvest is at its peak in many backyard gardens, and with frost expected almost any time, many women are hurrying to can tomatoes or make relishes before the season ends. Mrs. Roy Manning, 325 Ave. B, has a recipe for chili sauce which makes a tasty finish for some of the tomato crop.

THE MANNINGS grow tomatoes and other vegetables in a garden plot beside their house which attracts attention of passers-by because flowers are usually blooming among the vegetables. From iris, which make a showy display in early spring, to the last fall rose blossom, there is almost always something blooming in the garden.

Manning does the gardening, his wife says and she puts the produce on the table, in jars or the freezer — all that isn't given away.

Relatives and neighbors who benefit from the garden include families of the three Manning sons who live here, Harold, Bob and Jim. The oldest son, Glenn, lives in Lubbock and another, Roy Dale, in Miami, Fla. And Mrs. Manning claims "the most delightful bunch of daughters-in-law!"

WITH FIVE SONS, Mrs. Manning is fortunate that she shares the men's enjoyment of fishing and camping; she has always liked to fish and be outdoors. In a camper which Manning built and fitted up, they often take trips, sometimes to visit relatives in Iowa and sometimes to the nearest fishing spot.

Mrs. Manning was born in Deaf Smith County and has lived here practically all her life. She was Earline Daniel, daughter of the Russell Daniels who came to Hereford early in this century.

After attending Hereford schools, she went to Denver and Austin for training in work as a florist — "I've always been a nut about flowers," she admits. She operated a florist shop for 20 years, and hers was the first shop to open in the Jim Hill Hotel when it was built here.

SEVERAL HOBBIES share her interest, and she calls cooking "maybe the least of my hobbies." She had really rather paint, mostly in watercolors with flowers and birds as her favorite subjects, or sew or crochet or play the violin.

Her work in the Rebekah Lodge might be described as a hobby also. She joined the lodge, an auxiliary of the Odd Fellows Lodge to which her husband belongs, when she was 18 years old, and except for a few years while her children were small, has been very active.

Now district deputy president of District 5, she visits other lodges in the area in addition to working with the Hereford group in which she has held all offices.

THE MANNINGS are members of Temple Baptist Church. Mrs. Manning is also a member of Dawn Music Club, as is her sister, Mrs. R. E. Curtis.

Their violin and piano numbers on club programs are echoes of family musical sessions while they were growing up. Their mother played the organ and saxophone, their father the violin, a brother the horn and bass violin.

Violin lessons began for Mrs. Manning when she was a child, and she also plays the chord organ. When there is spare time she likes to read, and if she ever finds time she wants to write a family history. But to take care of a tomato crop, here is her recipe for a relish that she varies by using more or less of the seasonings and peppers.

CHILI SAUCE

1 gallon ripe tomatoes
2 cups chopped onions (or as much as 4 cups to taste)
2 cups red sweet peppers, chopped (half may be green peppers)

1 pod hot pepper
1 cup sugar
3 tb. salt
1 tb. mustard seed
1 tb. celery seed
3 tb. mixed spices (or 1 tb. each: cinnamon, cloves and all-spice)

2½ cups vinegar
Wash and drain vegetables. Scald, peel and chop red-ripe tomatoes. Peel onions, remove seed from peppers, chop and measure. Mix all ingredients except spices and vinegar.

Boil 45 minutes then add spices, tied in bag. Boil until very thick, add vinegar and boil until as thick as desired. Pour boiling hot into jars and seal.

Mrs. Roy Manning she painted watercolors of birds.
