R. F. Cook, employee of Fraser Milling Co., was working as usual today, after a brush with death last week. When he failed to report for work last Thursday morning, company officials called Mrs. Cook, who was in Amarillo. Upon learning that he was not there, they called Mrs. Hattie Rutherford, where the Cooks have rooms. She said that he was asleep. When Mr. Cook still did not appear, Alton Fraser and W. A. Teeter became alarmed and went to see him about noon. They discovered him unconscious from affects of a gas stove which had been burning from the time he went to bed Wednesday. Dr. R. R. Wills was called and revived Mr. Cook, but he had to spend several days recuperating.

At the beginning of the New Year what better food could you serve your family, or special guests if you like, than Kentucky Ham!-delicious in flavor and perfectly cooked. Here is the way Mrs. H. G. Conkwright, who hails from Kentucky, cooks ham. Memories of generations of family dinners go into this recipe, memories too of faithful dark hands creating perfection out of simple things. Memories of sincere hospitality at its best.

It's quite true that the manner of curing ham has a great deal to do with it's flavor and the Conkwright's know how to do that in a wonderful way, but try this way of cooking ham, no matter how it has been cured, and you'll be enthusiastic about it ever after.

KENTUCKY HAM

Clean the ham thoroughly, weigh and place in a container large enough to entirely cover with warm water. Add 1 cup of brown sugar and a handful of chestruts. (If the chestnuts are not available 2 or 3 ears of corn make a very good substitute). Let boil twenty minutes for each pound of ham and when done. peel off the skin and place in a large baking pan. Sprinkle lightly with sugar, corn meal and black pepper and allow to brown in a

This two-bedroom home is located in the South or Southeast, but its functional plan and sound construction make it adaptable to any section of the country. Builders and architects are now teaching the desirability of having a bathroom so located that it is accessible without passing through other rooms, and a plan of that kind is worked out here. A mortgage of $2,500 was insured on this property by the Federal, Housing Administration .. Monthly payments on a 25-year mortgage of this amount, exclysive of taxes and hazard insurance, total about $14.

At the beginning of the New Year what better food could you serve your family, or special guests if you like, than Kentucky Ham!-delicious in flavor and perfectly cooked. Here is the way Mrs. H. G. Conkwright, who hails from Kentucky, cooks ham. Memories of generations of family dinners go into this recipe, memories too of faithful dark hands creating perfection out of simple things. Memories of sincere hospitality at its best.

It's quite true that the manner of curing ham has a great deal to do with it's flavor and the Conkwright's know how to do that in a wonderful way, but try this way of cooking ham, no matter how it has been cured and you'll be enthusiastic about it ever after.

KENTUCKY HAM

Clean the ham thoroughly, weigh and place in a container ge enough to entirely cover with warm water. Add 1 cup of own sugar and a handful of chestnuts. (If the chestnuts are available 2 or 3 ears of corn make a very good substitute). boil twenty minutes for each pound of ham and when done, el off the skin and place in a large baking pan. Sprinkle/lightly th sugar, corn meal and black pepper and allow to brown in a

This two-bedroom home is located in the South or Southeast, but its functional plan and sound construction make it adaptable to any section of the country. Builders and architects are now teaching the desirability of having a bathroom so located that it is accessible without passing through other rooms, and a plan of that kind is worked out here. A mortgage of $2,500 was insured on this property by the Federal, Housing Administration. Monthly payments on a 25-year mortgage of this amount, exclusive of taxes and hazard insurance, total about $14.

Miss Danforth Becomes Bride Of Mr. Kendall in Christmas Eve Rites

Miss Anna Mae Danforth, Former Hereford Danforth, and Ernest Kendall, son of Mr. Henry Kendall, were Resident Marries married at 7:15 p. m. Tuesday net the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Felix Graham of Spring Lake, uncle of the bride performed the ceremony in the presence of intimate friends and members of the families.

Holiday decorations formed a colorful background and red tapers gave lighting for the impressive double-ring service which was read as the couple stood before a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Thelma Ray Gehres of Spring Lake, cousin of the bride, who played the "Lohengrin" Bridal Chorus for the processional.

The bride wore a soldier-blue alpaca dress with dusty rose trim fashioned with a full blouse, dutch collar and bracelet length sleeves. Her accessories were in black and her flowers were briarcliff pink roses arranged in a shoulder bouquet.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained informally. The bride's table was laid in white and decorated with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple. Appointments were in crystal and silver with tall red tapers burning in candelabra. A miniature Santa Claus and his tiny reindeer gave the seasonal touch to the
