HUNGRY HOG - This Barrow apparently got a little bit hungry waiting until it had been exhibited in the Barrow Show Thursday and decided to gnaw a little bit of a sign. The barrow's snout is poked through the boards as he turns his head sideways to get a good bite. - Staff Photo

Lesly In Pugil Art Exhibition

LEXINGTON, MO. - Cadet Thomas L. Lesly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lesly, Route 4, Hereford, a member of the Wentworth Military Academy cadet corps here, appeared on a program at the Lexington Lions Club in Lexington last Tuesday evening.

Lesly, with other members of the pugil group, presented the Japanese Art of Pugil, which was enthusiastically received and many favorable comments were made.

This ancient Japanese sport called Pugil, is conducted under the auspices of MSGT William Parks, a member of the Green Berets of the U. S. Army Special Forces and is a part of the Academy's Military Program here.

DEEP TREAD SPT

Polyester cord winter tire. Thousands of sure gripping traction edges to provide maximum traction in the most severe weather, yet runs smoothly and quietly on dry pavements.

UP TO DOUBLE THE MILEAGE!

Open Groove Traction and Skid Control

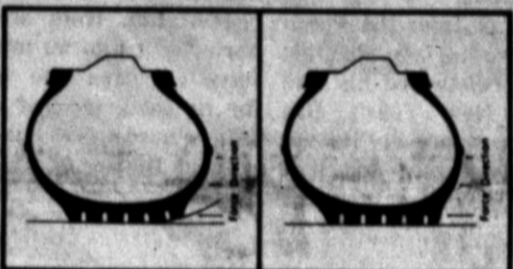

In most tires, tread slots are squeezed open and closed under load, adding to tread rubber wear and seriously reducing traction.

Fiberglass belts hold the slots open, the contour in perfect shape and the tread flat against the road. You get more mileage and improved traction.

Wide Tread Stability - Full Tread Contact

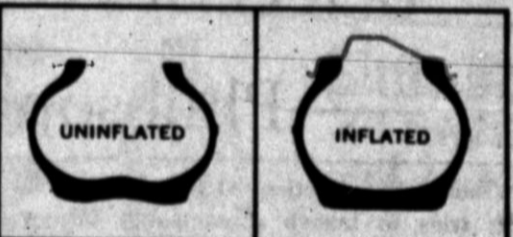

The tread flexes on conventional tires whenever you make a turn, lifting the tread away from the road.

The combined plies of polyester and fiberglass restrict flexing to the sidewalls. The tread keeps the road over its full width.

Reverse Molded Tread

The center of the tread of an uninflated belted tire curves inward, yet comes out straight and flat against the road when the tire is inflated.

This reverse molding technique, used in building racing tires, gives the wide tread structural strength and resiliency.

*Mileage performance is compared with original equipment tires. Actual mileage will depend on the tire size and driving conditions.

New Speed Control Device May Lower Fatality Count

Speeders beware!

The Texas Department of Public Safety this week announced the use of a new electronic gadget that will scientifically measure the speed of automobiles coming from any direction, and predicts that the new machine will cut down measurably on the number of speeders in the area. Hopefully, it will also be a deterrent to the alarming number of traffic deaths on the nation's highways.

Better automobiles with more and more safety devices, wider divided highways and the constant pressure of an alert Department of Public Safety has helped in keeping the number of traffic deaths at a low level. The Department of Public Safety has done a commendable job.

Of course, speed is the key. Along with better automobiles and better highways, the inclination of most motorists is more speed. Automobiles today will travel easily at speeds that a few years ago would have scared the pants off the bravest driver and too often the motorist is lulled into a false sense of security. But the fact is, that with or without the many new safety devices,

We would not presume to offer the president-elect a script for his inaugural address, but certainly he could get some ideas from the second inaugural address of Abraham Lincoln, made on March 4, 1865: "With malice toward none; with charity for all, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace." — Daily Oklahoman

The first task facing the new administration in Washington will be finding a solution to the problem of Southeast Asia, but hard on the heels of that will be the need for re-establishing this nation's position in Europe. — Memphis Commercial Appeal

Maybe America really is losing prestige in the world — the Reds didn't even denounce us during the recent Soviet birthday party. — Topeka State Journal

Both fiscal and monetary measures may be needed to restrain spending, restore price stability and reduce the payments deficit. The success of the new administration's domestic policies problems. — Hartford Courant

If smoking gets you down could it be for the reason you're all faged out? — Windsor (Ont.) Star

An American footwear firm reports that shoe orders would indicate feet are getting bigger. Cynics might say that's what we get for not exercising our feet. — Ottawa Journal a motorist that is involved in an accident while traveling at a high rate of speed is likely to be maimed for life, if not killed outright.

The new VASCAR device (Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder) may do the trick. In the meantime motorists, if you want to travel at 100 miles per hour, take a plane.

Time Of Transition

THE U.S. HAS achieved the immediate purpose of its stand in Vietnam: It has prevented the North Vietnamese from taking over South Vietnam by military means.

On the other hand, the U.S. and its allies have also failed to achieve a military conclusion to the war. Though the allies have taken a terrible toll of the communist troops in the South, the Reds have kept their guerrillas in the field.

The stage is now apparently being set for a new phase of the Vietnam confrontation, the groping, wary effort to work out a political settlement. For Americans, this may be a difficult time because there seems to be no way that such a settlement can be reached except by leaving it to the Vietnamese, North and South, to work out the details and safeguards for themselves.

After paying a great cost in lives and treasure to save South Vietnam, we Americans are likely to find it hard to see the Saigon government bargaining on its own with counters that were paid for, at least partially, in American blood.

YET THERE ARE two things that we would do well to keep in mind during the transition from American military leadership to South Vietnamese political leadership in the confrontation with communism:

First, an imposed political settlement would have about as much chance of survival, not to say effectiveness, as an ice cube in a blast furnace. The only way such a settlement could be imposed under present circumstances would be to resign ourselves to a continuing war on a large scale. The chances are that we might find ourselves fighting the South Vietnamese as well as the North Vietnamese should we attempt to enforce our own political plan.

Second, the long-range goal of the U.S. policy under the past three presidents has been to encourage and protect the independence of South Vietnam. In recent months, the government of President Thieu has shown increasing willingness to act for itself. Though this determination by the South Vietnamese government to make and pursue its own policy has provoked sputtering from Washington and shrill cries of outrage from the U.S. left, this was, after all, the end we sought in going to the defense of South Vietnam.

TWO STORIES in Tuesday's issue of The News report examples of the growing initiative of the South Vietnamese as they begin to take a larger role in both the military and the political aspects of the struggle with the Communists.

At Dak To, U.S. troops turned over to the South Vietnamese army a strong point won in one of the war's bloodiest battles 14 months ago. Along with the strongpoint, the responsibility for holding a large area of the Central Highlands was returned to the South Vietnamese.

In Paris, Vice-President Nguyen Cao Ky disclosed that his government is prepared to meet privately with "the other side" to discuss means for ending the war. "If they are willing."

These developments are by no means signs that the settlement is near. But they are the sort of events that will have to take place, sooner or later, if a settlement is to be reached.

Having worked and fought for so long to protect South Vietnamese independence, they must work out the political settlement, because they will have to live with it. —The Dallas Morning News

Nixon Will Have Problems Replacing J. Edgar Hoover

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — President Nixon has so many pressing problems demanding his immediate attention that he can be forgiven his decision to procrastinate on the FBI and Director J. Edgar Hoover. Back in December, Nixon and Hoover agreed to continue the status quo for another year.

But sooner or later the President will have to face the fact that Hoover celebrated his 74th birthday on New Year's Day and cannot last forever. Hoover is remarkably robust for his years but he is already four years beyond the retirement age for government officials and continues to serve only by special dispensation.

No other Federal official can boast a record that comes even close to matching Hoover's. He is the only Director the Federal Bureau of Investigation ever had. Starting in 1924, he built an organization from scratch and nurtured it into an international force renowned the world over for its integrity and efficiency.

It is hard to imagine the FBI without Hoover at its head. Yet the time is fast approaching when he will have to surrender his post. Almost certainly that time will come during the Nixon Administration, for Hoover will be 78 before the President completes his first term.

Nixon is the eighth President, and John N. Mitchell the sixteenth Attorney General, under whom Hoover has served. He has been a close friend of each President, usually for years before they reached the White House. Hoover's relations with the parade of Attorneys General have varied, and some would have fired him if they had White House backing.

Who Will Succeed Hoover? When the time comes to find a new FBI Director, it will be of crucial importance to the nation that the right man be chosen. Already a debate is in progress, not involving individuals but on principle. The issue is whether Hoover's successor should come from within the FBI family.

While Hoover has a number of veteran aides who are regarded highly, there is no single heir-apparent ready to assume the top spot. Not being ready to step down yet, Hoover has given no hint whom he would recommend for his job. However, it is assumed that Hoover would bestow his blessing upon one of his associates, and not an outsider.

Under a recent change of law, the FBI Director must be confirmed by the Senate. This puts the appointment in the political arena, particularly at a time when there is a Republican President and a Democratic Senate. President Nixon's nominee had better be clearly qualified for the job or there could be a major hassle.

It will be remembered that only last year a Democratic Senate refused to confirm the nomination by a Democratic President of a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Nominations to key posts by a Republican President are sure to be scrutinized at least as closely.

Liberals Seek Change J. Edgar Hoover has many friends of all shades of political opinion, and this has been a major reason for his success. However, the liberal element has been generally anti-Hoover, on grounds his heart is not in the civil rights movement and that his cooperation has been grudging at best. Hoover's denunciation of the late Reverend Martin Luther King has not been forgotten.

If the public has a vote in any hassle about the future course of the FBI, it seems a sure bet that it will string along with J. Edgar Hoover. He has not held his job for some 45 years without earning the respect and gratitude of most Americans. He has earned the right not only to be heard on the identity of his successor but to bequeath to that man his blueprint for the remarkable organization built by Mr. FBI.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Texas might have lost its fight for independence from Mexico if it hadn't been for Captain J. E. Ross who commanded a tiny, wood-burning steamboat named the "Yellowstone."

In April, 1836, General Sam Houston's pursuit of the Mexican Army came to a halt when he reached the flooding Brazos River near Groce's Ferry. For 13 days, the Texans camped on the river bank, unable to get man and supplies across. Then Houston learned that the "Yellowstone" was at Washington, just six miles up the river.

He sent a messenger to Captain Ross promising each crew member "one third of a league of land" if he would use the "Yellowstone" to transport the Texian Army and supplies across the river. Ross responded, hauling more than 700 men, 200 horses, and other supplies across the swollen Brazos by nightfall on April 13. Eight days later, Houston got to San Jacinto and defeated Santa Anna.

Again the "Yellowstone" was pressed into service, first to bring President David G. Burnet and his cabinet from Galveston to the battlefield and then to take them (along with Houston and his Mexican prisoners) to Velasco to sign the treaty of peace.

For their help in winning the war, neither the owners of the "Yellowstone" nor its officers and crew ever received any payment from Texas — an oversight that Houston tried to rectify until his death.

THE SIGNS OF TEXAS — In a Dallas meat market window: "Your friendly used cow dealer."

HOW IT BEGAN — Texas' first television program went on the air 21 years ago this year and lasted exactly 49 minutes. The star was the President of the United States WBAP-TV, Fort Worth-Dallas, was the first commercial television station in the Southwest and the 39th in the U. S. It went on the air at 1:58 p. m. September 27, 1946, from the Texas & Pacific Railway Station in Fort Worth where a special train carrying President Harry Truman was due to arrive 17 minutes later.

The train did pull in at 2:18 p. m. and the station pointed its three cameras at Mr. Truman and his party. The viewing audience was estimated at only 2,000 — far fewer than saw Mr. Truman in person — because there were only 400 television sets in the entire Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area.

TRAVELING TEXAS — San Antonio's multi-million dollar La Posada Motor Hotel is as modern as they come, but the main portion of the 200-room complex is 108 years old!

Originally it was St. Mary's Law School, built in 1852. Architects kept the outside looking just as it did more than a century ago, but managed to put a modern hotel on the inside.

DISRESPECT TO DAVY? — If old David Crockett was still around, he'd likely get out his long rifle and go gunning for some people in Acton, Hood County.

The stones that once marked the graves of his wife, Elizabeth, and his daughter-in-law are now being used as tops for picnic tables. Dallas newspaperman Frank Tolbert discovered this fact recently when he stopped at the little cemetery in Acton where members of the Crockett family are buried.

65 YEARS AGO — 1904

On Saturday afternoon, the farmers of Deaf Smith and Castro counties met at the courthouse to discuss the farming interests of this section. The question which stood paramount in importance was that of securing cotton seed for planting this spring. . . W. B. Dameron has let the contract for the erection of a two-story brick building on his corner lot adjoining the F. Herron building, while T. J. Graves has purchased the three lots adjoining it on the north and will begin the erection of three bricks at once.

50 YEARS AGO — 1919

C. D. Shaw, who has been employed by the Sanitary Barber Shop for the past eleven months, has purchased a half interest with Otho Beene. This partnership business will hereafter be known as Beene and Shaw Sanitary Barber Shop.

35 YEARS AGO — 1934

Fifty-four diplomas have been ordered for use by the 1934 graduating class of the Hereford High School. "But the ones we don't use we can send back," warns Superintendent C. H. Dillehay. . . Approximately 300 contracts between Deaf Smith County citizens and the federal government on the corn-hog reduction programs will be signed, according to Dewey Reed, county agent. . . At the Star: Come early and get good seats. Hereford is the first town west of Dallas to play this big musical! "Flying Down to Rio" with Dolores Del Rio, Gene Raymond, Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire. Also special short subject, Walt Disney's "Three Little Pigs."

25 YEARS AGO — 1944

Lt. George T. Jones, listed as missing in action in the European theatre since Dec. 2, has been certified as a prisoner of war in Germany, according to news received last week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jones of Frio. . . John Douglas Pitman, who is in the Navy V-5 training program, is now stationed at Troy, N. Y. . . Pvt. Hicks Roberson who has been on maneuvers in Tennessee, has been transferred to Ft. Bragg, N. C.

15 YEARS AGO — 1954

This year's March of Dimes in Deaf Smith County had brought in $4,311.17 by Wednesday morning when all the money seemed to be in, according to Wayne Edwards, county chairman for the campaign. . . A loan totaling $123,000 was approved Tuesday in Washington D. C. for the purpose of making rural telephone service available to an additional 500 farm homes in this territory.

10 YEARS AGO — 1959

Several months of local controversy will come to a climax Saturday when Karen Andre goes on trial for murder in 60th District Court. In participation with the current March of Dimes Drive in Deaf Smith County, members of the Thespian Society, honorary speech organization at Hereford High School, will present an authentic courtroom drama, "Night of January 16." Playing the leading role will be Janie Bookout as Karen Andre. . . Dance at the Jim Hill Coffee Shop, Friday at 8 p. m. A band will be there and all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes. Sponsored by the Hereford Jaycees.

Joel Hodges Leads Banking Session

COLLEGE STATION — Three prominent Texas bankers will lead special discussion sessions during the 17th annual Farm and Ranch Credit School Feb. 17-19 at Texas A&M University.

They are Joel A. Hodges, executive vice president of the Hereford State Bank; Arthur Scharlach, vice president and trust officer, Fort Worth National Bank; and Leon Thompson, agriculturist with the Citizens National Bank of Waco.

Hodges will lead the session on "Using the Cash Flow System to Finance Agriculture." "Estate Planning and Bank Management of Farm and Ranch Land" is the topic of the discussion to be led by Scharlach.

Thompson, who has been with the Waco bank since 1951, will head the meeting on "New Concepts and Ideas Relating to Agricultural Financing, Contracting Cows, Labor, Machinery, etc."

Publicity Chairman Kenneth Wolf, Extension Service economist in agri-business at A&M, said all bankers attending the school will be able to participate in the sessions.

A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology conducts the credit school. Sponsors are the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Texas Bankers Association.

Wm. L. Blaylock Dies; Funeral Held Saturday

Funeral services for William L. Blaylock, 85, of 296 Cottage Dr., were conducted Saturday morning in First Methodist Church, of which he was a member. The Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor; Dr. Don Davidson, Kings Manor director, and the Rev. Luther Kirk of Lubbock officiated.

Mr. Blaylock, a resident of Kings Manor retirement home, died in a local hospital Thursday after a long illness. He had lived in this county since 1962, when he moved from Lubbock. He was buried in Rest Haven Memorial Park at Lubbock under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Born Nov. 17, 1883, at Whitney, he married Mrs. E. A. Hammond July 23, 1906, at Borger.

He is survived by his wife; four daughters, Mrs. Mattie Lou Hallway of Levelland, Mrs. Wilma Smith of Muleshoe, Mrs. Christine DeBose of Abernathy and Mrs. Nadine Eagan of San Diego, Calif.; three sons, Hugh Blaylock of Pampa, Otis Blaylock of Muleshoe and Leon Hammond of Corpus Christi; 17 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

The demand for spices was so great in the Middle Ages, the National Geographic Society reports, that rents and taxes were often paid with pepper, and a pound of ginger could buy a sheep.

An ounce of gold can be drawn into a wire 50 miles long.

Services For Arch Dobbins Saturday

The funeral of Arch Dobbins, 79, a resident of Deaf Smith County since 1928, was conducted in the Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home Saturday afternoon. Dr. Don Davidson, director of Kings Manor retirement home here, conducted the service.

Mr. Dobbins was a resident of Kings Manor. He was born July 26, 1889 at Brownwood and died at the Manor Friday. He never married.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and a veteran of military service in World War I. His home was at Clyde before he came to Hereford.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Ida Brooks of Hereford and Mrs. Katherine Jenkins of Abilene, and a brother, Jess Dobbins of Amarillo.

Burial was in Rest Lawn Memorial Park, directed by Gilliland Funeral Home.

merchants' to carry out some of the ideas, Easley said he felt those in the Mall will be aided by the fact that he lives in Hereford and will be available to them at all times.

Investing in the Mall by the men, Easley added, shows the confidence they have in the future of Hereford and the immediate area.

Clete Corlis, manager of Pennys and president of the Sugarland Mall Association, described some of the promotions which are held annually at the Mall, and told the new owners that he felt he was speaking for all the merchants in saying "it sure is good to have a man locally."

Easley said he would be meeting regularly with the merchants association to discuss some of the promotions planned by partners, and ideas which the merchants may have.

There are some 160,000 square feet (or five acres) under one roof at the Mall, with parking space for 800 automobiles. Inside the Mall, the temperature is kept at a comfortable 72 degrees the year round. Music may be heard throughout the Mall as speakers are located in each business and outside each store.

The sale of the Mall was handled by Harold Kids and G.S. "Mutt" Wheeler of Carmichael Real Estate in Hereford.

The reverse side of the 1969 official inaugural medal will feature a sculptured miniature of the crewel pattern Julie Nixon worked for her father. It is the first time artwork created by a member of a President-elect's family will be reproduced on an official inaugural media.

Bruce Rigler of Plainview, Farmer and Dairymen President of the 14-County Plains Irrigation Gas Users Association, will make a report, as will the Association's attorney, John D. Aikin of Hereford.

Robert Hickman, president of the organization, said "the outlook is brighter than it ever has been," in stressing the importance of continued support by all Deaf Smith County farmers. He praised them for their efforts to avoid further increases in the prices of natural gas and the securing of irrigation fuel from other companies at lower prices, and urged that "the continued help and support will pay big dividends."

Other officers of the organization are Deniz Pulliam, vice president, and Tom Robinson, R. C. Godwin and Jay Boston, directors.

During a Board of Directors meeting Jan. 21, Hickman appointed members to two committees for planning the annual meeting. The Planning and Publicity Committee is made up of Garland Solomon, chairman, and Pulliam and Charles Schlabs. Making up the Nominating Committee are A. R. Dillard, chairman, and Frank Zinser Jr., Raymond Higginbotham and Andrew McCathern.

A report on nominating of officers for the coming year will be given Monday night. Hickman urged every member to attend the meeting Monday night and call his neighbors to stress its importance.

Union, Ave. G Scene Of Wreck

Union and Avenue G was the scene of a two-car accident Thursday afternoon which resulted in an estimated $800 damage.

A 1966 Ford driven by Dennis Moseley of Route 1 entered Union Avenue from the Hereford High School parking lot traveling south when it collided with a 1964 Buick being driven east on Union by Monte Vaughan. There was an estimated $400 damage to each vehicle.

One driver received a citation for failure to yield right of way, and the other driver was cited for having no valid driver's license. The accident occurred shortly after noon.

Report Says Deaf Smith Co. 4th In Growth

Would you believe that as of April 1, 1968, Deaf Smith County was the fourth fastest growing county in Texas? It's a fact.

In a just-released report prepared by the Population Research Center of the Department of Sociology at the University of Texas, Dr. Benjamin Bradshaw states that Deaf Smith County is growing at an average of 4.7 percent annually.

The report set the population of Deaf Smith County at 19,300 as of April 1, 1968. That compares with 13,187 in the 1960 census.

Counties growing faster than Deaf Smith, and their percentage are Denton, third, 5.1 percent; Randall, second, 6.8 percent; and Montgomery, first, 6.8 percent.

The world's richest known fossil site is Olduvai, in East Africa.

The nation's first patent was given to Samuel Hopkins of Vermont in 1790 for an improvement in "the making of Pot ash and Pearl ash by a new Apparatus and Process."

Chamber Fete Tickets On Sale

Tickets have gone on sale for the annual Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Banquet, to be held Feb. 13 in the County Bull Barn.

Speaker for the banquet will be Irv Wermont, nationally known humorist, author and educator. Theme of Wermont's talk will be "Laughter... The Secret Weapon." Wermont holds the theory that people would live longer and have richer lives if they would change their worries for laughs.

Highlight of the banquet will be naming of "Citizen of the Year," by the Hereford Lions Club. Retiring directors will be honored and the top membership salesman of the year rewarded.

Catering the banquet will be G. D. Caison of the Caison House, while dinner music will be provided by Elson Clark.

Tickets may be obtained from any director or by calling the Chamber in Hereford, 364-3333.

Social Security Facts

"Sometimes social security beneficiaries fail to notify us of events which should be reported so we can stop their checks," Travis C. Briggs, manager of the Amarillo social security office, said today. "These overpayments are always hard to repay once the check has been cashed."

When an applicant files his claim for social security, he is given instructions on events which should be reported.

Briggs encouraged all who receive social security to be sure they have their reporting cards, and to send them in to the Amarillo office when they wish to report a change. If you do not have your reporting card, a letter or phone call to the office will get you a new card.

The office should be notified when a beneficiary expects to earn over $1680 in a year, or stops work.

Other events which should be reported are:

1. Death of a beneficiary.
2. Leaving the United States.
3. Marriage or remarriage.
4. Divorce or annulment.
5. Adoption of a child beneficiary.
6. Change

Car-Pickup In Wreck On Main

Approximately $300 damage was caused in a pickup-car accident Thursday afternoon on North Main Street, near U. S. 60.

The accident, which occurred at 2:50 p. m., involved a 1969 Chevrolet pickup driven by Gerald Payne of 114 Mimosa and a 1967 Ford driven by Marcos C. Alaniz of Route 4. There was an estimated $150 damage to each vehicle.

Officers said Payne was driving south on Main Street, and Alaniz was legally parked on the west side of Main when the Ford was pulled back into the lane of traffic. A citation was issued for improper backing.

of custody of a person who has someone receiving benefits on his behalf. 7. Return to work of a person receiving disability payments.

The Amarillo office is located at 1006 S. Adams, telephone number is 376-5151. The office is open Monday through Friday 8:15 am until 4:30 pm and until 6:30 pm Thursday evenings.

Construction 'Has Good Start'

Construction got off to a strong start in Hereford during January, as building permits issued at City Hall totaled $364,870 and included 12 new homes.

The only permit issued for commercial construction during the month was for a $37,000 addition to Gibson's Discount.

Included in the 15 permits for residential construction were three permits for additions and improvements. There were permits for a $39,500 home, another for $35,000 and a third for $30,000.

Construction during 1968 totaled $3,228,820 in Hereford, but January, 1968 had only $96,800 in building. The biggest months for construction last year included February, $373,600; March, $565,500; July, $307,650 and October, $318,275.

Time To License Motor Vehicles

Deaf Smith County residents are urged to have their vehicles registered as soon as possible to avoid penalty under the law.

The period for registering vehicles began Saturday and will run through April 1. All vehicles must be registered before the deadline, according to State Law.

Registration may be done at the Deaf Smith County Tax Assessor-Collector's Office, at which time new license tags also may be picked up.

There are 10,000 species of fern ranging from delicate, filmy plants less than an inch high to 80-foot tropical giants with palmlike fronds.

Dyer Services Set Monday

Funeral services for Presley Wayne Dyer, 54, of Route, 5, Dimmitt, will be conducted at 10 a. m. Monday in First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt, and burial will be in Rest Lawn Memorial Park here under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home. The Rev. E. Lee Stanford, former pastor of the church, will officiate.

Mr. Dyer's death occurred suddenly, apparently from a heart attack, while he was visiting Friday in the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Gilliland, 400-

A East Sixth. A native of Castro County, he was the son of pioneer residents Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dyer, and was born Sept. 11, 1914. He married Vondell Brooks June 4, 1937 at Canyon. He was a member of the Methodist Church. Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Judith Hester of Amarillo; four sisters, Mrs. Elaine Scalia of Amarillo, Mrs. Lucile Newton of Texline, Mrs. Mary Gene Collins of El Paso and Mrs. Billy Callihan of Princeton, Ill.; two brothers, Jack Dyer of Perryton and Jim Dyer of Wichita, Kan., and one grandchild.

4,521 Deaf Smith County Residents Qualify To Vote In Coming Year

A total of 4,521 Deaf Smith County residents had registered to vote by deadline time Friday, with a few more applications expected to trickle in through the mail Monday.

Four Sentenced In District Court Wednesday

Four persons received sentences in 99th District Court Wednesday after pleading guilty to charges against them.

Thomas Lewis Johnson was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary for forgery; Raymond Villa was ordered to serve a six-year prison term for possession of narcotic paraphernalia; Lionel Stevenson Taylor received a six-year probated sentence for conspiracy to commit theft, and William Lloyd Folks received a two-year probated sentence for theft over $50.

Residents May Refuse Magazines

Local residents pressured during the past few days by a magazine salesman have been advised by Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce manager W. T. "Bill" Thompson that they are under no obligation.

Thompson said he has received several complaints from residents that they have been pressured by a magazine salesman who will not take no for an answer and states that the persons will receive his magazines anyway.

"The persons have no obligation to pay for the magazines, so long as they do not sign anything," pointed out Thompson. He said the best way to stop the magazines from coming to their home is for the residents to refuse acceptance from the postman or take them back to the post office and say they will not accept them.

HEREFORD, TEXAS, 79045, SUNDAY, FEB. 2, 1969

TO MARRY SOON — Miss Alice Myers will become the bride of Jesse Stone in a Valentine Day wedding at Friona, and the couple will make a home in Hereford. Miss Myers, of the Lynette Apartments, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Myers of Dallas, former Hereford residents. Mr. Stone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stone of Bovina. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Hereford schools and Mr. Stone attended school in Bovina.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Jim H. Auten, 700 North Miles, announce the engagement of their daughter, Henrietta Jane, to David O. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Vaughn, 506 West Fifth. The couple plans to be married late this winter. (Angel Photo)

JUNE WEDDING PLANNED — Mrs. Dorothy Williams, 122 Avenue A, announces the engagement of her daughter, Linda Fay, to Ronnie Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Rogers, 507 Avenue K. The couple plans an early June wedding. Miss Williams is a student in Hereford High School and her fiancé also attended local schools. (Angel Photo)

Davis-Jones Marriage Service Read In Home

The marriage of Miss Edith Stephenie Davis and Kerry Herschel Jones of Groom was solemnized in a simple service Saturday evening in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Davis Jr., 202 Northwest Drive.

Both are students in Texas Technological College and they will be at home after a short wedding trip at Apartment C7, Tech Village, 2902 Third Place in Lubbock.

The Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor of First United Methodist Church, read the marriage ceremony with only families of the couple present. Mr. Davis gave his daughter in marriage. Her sister, Miss Julia Davis, was the maid of honor and Koy Lynn Jones acted as his brother's best man.

White silk made the bride's dress, street length, which was trimmed with narrow bands of white ink at the cuffs and around the circle neckline. She carried a bridal Bible topped by a white orchid with ribbon streamers.

The maid of honor was dressed in teal blue, fashioned on straight lines with a standing collar. Her flower was a single long-stemmed white rose.

Dinner for the members of both families who attended the wedding, was served afterward. Miss Kathy Jones, sister of the bridegroom, assisted Mrs. Davis with hostess duties.

Decoration of the home was featured by a five-branched candelabra twined with white roses and ribbon streamers.

For travel Mrs. Jones wore a gold suit accented with black, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet was a corsage.

She is a home economics major at Tech and a member of her dormitory council. She was graduated in 1967 from Hereford High School.

Mr. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy T. Jones of Groom, is a graduate of Groom schools and an engineering major at Tech. He is a member of Saddle Tramps, campus organization.

Couple Honored Before Wedding With Dinner

A couple whose marriage is to take place today, Miss Keith Ann Howard of Dimmitt and Tim Gearn, were complimented with a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. James W. Witherspoon in an elegant setting at Hereford Country Club Wednesday evening.

Variations on the color theme chosen for the wedding, wine-red and white, were played in decoration of tables in the ballroom and terrace room. Deep rose cloths covered the tables, with white silk cord draped in scallops around the top.

The semi-curricular buffet table was centered with a candelabra arrangement of red roses, white chrysanthemums and fern leaves. Similar arrangement alternated with single candles based on circles of the flowers, on a long table in the ballroom. Guests were seated at smaller tables with the single candle design as centerpieces.

In the entry, tall sprays of pink and white stock filled a vase, with pink ribbons leading to small clusters of wine-hued anemones on either side.

The honorees and hosts were assisted by parents of the couple, the Keith Howards of Dimmitt and the Kenny Gearn, in greeting guests.

Blonde Miss Howard was wearing a sleeveless black dress, ornamented only with a double ruffle of black lace around the skirt.

Her mother chose a pastel pink dress with high ring collar trimmed in sequins, while Mrs. Kenny Gearn wore an off white frock with borders of crystal beads on the long sleeves and at the hemline. Mrs. Witherspoon was dressed in joiqual yellow, simply cut in skimmer style.

Friends from Dimmitt and Hereford were present, and the diners included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Seipp of Plainview.

Miss Howard and Gearn are to be married this afternoon in a ceremony at First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt. Both have been students in the University of Texas at Austin, where he recently received the bachelor of arts degree.

Adventure Story Told In Review

A true story of boat trips made by a mother and her two young daughters on rivers of Western Canada, was told to Lone Star Study Club at a meeting in Mrs. Coy Phillips' home.

Mrs. Thelma Chisum reviewed Constance Helmericks' book, Down the Wild River North, in which the writer details incidents of voyages down the Peace and MacKenzie Rivers.

Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. was hostess with Mr. Phillips. They served refreshments to 13 club members after a short business meeting with Mrs. Hardy Benson presiding.

Book Review Given For Veleda Club

A book review was presented to Veleda Study Club and a guest, at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. Lewis McCushtian. Mrs. Armon Lauderback gave a summary of a book titled Take Time, by Vera Holding.

In prose and verse, the author lists 13 things worth taking time for, and tells how to make time for the little things which are important in life, but which may be crowded out in the daily rush.

Refreshments were served from a table centered with an antique candle-stick circled with fruit and greenery at the base of the candle and again at the base of the holder.

Mrs. Al Lee was welcomed as a guest.

the trip, she must have a doctor's statement that she is able to walk at least four miles a day.

The physical examination and other preparations have been made by the Hereford girl, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Homer Goodwin, 800 Union, who like others in the group called Youth With a Mission, is paying her own way on the missionary journey. She expects to be gone seven months.

Miss Goodwin will not find the experience entirely new, as she made a similar trip last year to the Caribbean area. She has also been in Europe before, studying one semester in a Swiss school while her parents were missionaries in Africa, her birthplace.

The European work will start with study in Switzerland, where use of a hotel as headquarters has been given to the group. Miss Goodwin will brush up on her French, the only European language she has studied, and perhaps learn something of other languages.

WEDNESDAY — Pizza, scalloped potatoes, buttered peas, raisin carrot cake, French bread butter and milk.

THURSDAY — Spaghetti and meat balls, buttered broccoli, plain cookies, rainbow jello with fruit, hot rolls, butter and milk.

FRIDAY — Hamburgers, corn, pumpkin pie and milk.

Both spoke about their homes.

After the schooling session the young people will start out in teams, going to churches throughout Western Europe and finally into the Holy Land. They hope also to go to Yugoslavia and Hungary.

They are from various church denominations, principally from the Assembly of God of which Miss Goodwin is a member; her father is pastor of the Hereford church. They will work through various churches in Europe and countries, living wherever the churches put them; each one is taking his own bedroll so they can stay in church buildings if they are not invited to homes.

Miss Goodwin has completed two years of college since she was graduated from a boarding school in California, one year in Wayland College at Plainview and one in Southwest Assembly of God College at Waxahachie.

Students Give CFWC Program

High school students gave the program for Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs at its winter luncheon Thursday in Community Center. Speakers were students here from Europe under the American Field Service program, and music was by a group from the Whiteface Band.

Business included election of Mrs. W. T. Carmichael as delegate to the annual meeting of Top Of Texas Federated Clubs, to be held in the spring. Mrs. A. J. Schroeter was named alternate.

A contribution to the American Field Service organization here was voted after members had heard the two students now in Hereford High School, Miss Sharon Watson from England and Theo ten Have from The Netherlands.

families and cities and added background information about the government, school systems and churches of their countries. Questions were answered for an interesting postscript to the planned talks.

A woodwind quintet selected from members of the high school band was made up of Joy McCathorn, Patsy McCutchen, Pat Cooper, Janet Denton and Jimmy Haile. Introduced by Ben Gollehon, director of music in Hereford Public Schools, they played Sarabande and Gavotte by Bach and a woodwind quintet composed by Hindemith.

Gollehon also announced plans to bring the Amarillo Symphony here for a concert Feb. 17, and asked cooperation of the clubwomen.

Hostess clubs for the luncheon were Music Study, Garden Beautiful and La Afflatus Estudio. Tables were decorated with spring blossoms in yellow and white.

The quarterly luncheon was preceded by a board meeting in Mrs. Carmichael's home Jan. 25, when a committee was named to check the need for additions to the supply of dishes at Community Center.

Bell Is Officer In Organization

Charles Bell of 212 Northwest Drive has been elected second vice president of the West Texas State University Ex-Students Association, which has some 12,000 members.

Bell, a 1949 graduate of WT, was one of the officers elected during the regular monthly meeting of the organization's board of directors Tuesday.

Other officers are Troy Burrus of Amarillo, president; Duane Byars of Amarillo, first vice president, and Wayne Rankin of Plainview, secretary-treasurer.

TCU Choir To Present Program At Hereford High Tuesday Night

The Texas Christian University A Cappella Choir, composed of 47 singers selected from the University at large, and the Chamber Orchestra of TCU will make Hereford one of their tour cities when they perform here Tuesday at the high school auditorium beginning at 8 p. m.

James Kent Brink, son of the Rev. Eugene Brink of the First Christian Church here, is a member of the choir.

With 10 appearances scheduled over an 11-day period, the choir left Jan. 29 and will return to Ft. Worth for their home concert on Feb. 9.

The group, organized eight years ago by TCU director of choral activities B. R. Henson, will give their first performance in Abilene on Jan. 30. Other concerts have been planned at Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, Andrews, Amarillo, Perryton and Oklahoma City.

The orchestra, directed by Assistant Professor Kenneth Schanewerk, includes persons selected from TCU's musical organizations specifically for the tour.

The A Cappella Choir has gained national recognition by presenting numerous concerts in Texas, many oratorios and concerts with the TCU orchestra and symphony orchestras in Dallas, San Antonio and Ft. Worth.

Heard in "The Church of the Air" on CBS and in some eight broadcasts on NBC's "Great Choirs of America," the TCU organization made a successful debut in Town Hall of New York in 1964 along with an Eastern tour which included concerts in St. Thomas' Church and Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church in New York and the National City Christian Church in Washington, D. C.

Director Henson, in his eighth year as head of University choral activities, held a similar position at Trinity University before going to Ft. Worth. In addition to being choral director for the San Antonio Symphony and McAllen High School, he founded the Valley Civic Chorus in McAllen, the Mastersingers Chorale in San Antonio and the Schola Cantorum in Ft. Worth.

He recently has assumed the position of conductor of the Midland-Odessa Symphony Chorale. In that position he flies to West Texas each Tuesday, and the chorale and symphony members come to a rehearsal hall at the airport — located between the two cities — for mid-week practices.

There will be no admission charge to the performance here and no offerings will be taken.

Bill Clayton Chairman Of Livestock Comm.

AUSTIN — State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has been appointed Chairman of the Committee on Livestock by House Speaker Gus F. Mutscher of Brenham.

In announcing the appointment, Mutscher said that Clayton's service in the Legislature for the past three sessions and his experience as a Chairman of other committees during the 59th and 60th Legislatures will prove to be invaluable to the Committee and to the House of Representatives.

Clayton is the Representative for District 72 which encompasses Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb and Parmer counties and claims that his district is the best in the State.

The 17-man Committee on Livestock will have jurisdiction over matters concerning the livestock industry in Texas. This Committee takes the place of the Committee on Livestock and Stock Raising, as it was called during the 60th Legislature.

The 46-year-old Legislator is a Springlake farmer and business man. He is a Mason, a member of the Baptist Church and a member of the Lions Club. Representative and Mrs. Clayton are the parents of two children, a daughter, Brenda, and a son, Tommy.

"The tremendous amount of cattle and feed grown in Texas make this Committee's activities important to Texas," said Mutscher. "And no man has more interest in its promotion than Bill Clayton."

Wartes Attends Coaching Clinic

Larry Wartes, head football coach and athletic director at Hereford High School, was one of three regional directors handling the Region I Coaches Clinic program which was held in Lubbock Saturday.

The all-day clinic featured discussions by coaches from all enrollment class schools concerning football, basketball and track, with members of the Texas Tech coaching staffs also participating in the clinic.

At the clinic, Donald Jay, president of the Texas High School Coaches Association, spoke to the group and during the afternoon's business session, nominations were made for the August All-Star games and coaching school.

What Color Is Favorite?

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

In February our program began on color for you. Everyone is interested in color for beauty reasons, cosmetics or practical reasons. It is a very difficult subject to understand. However, the program material which the clubs will be using is quite interesting.

I AM ENJOYING the yellow houses and buildings which are appearing in the county. Being raised in a yellow house, I have always admired yellow. Have you noticed the commercial building in yellow out in South Industrial Park? It is an addition to the area and certainly pleasing.

HERE ARE TWO releases from our specialists:

Color can make a carpet easy or hard to keep clean. In fact, color plays an important role in a carpet's soiling performance, according to Bonnie Lay.

Miss Lay, an extension housing and home furnishings specialist at Texas A&M, reports on a recent study made in England.

According to the survey, the lighter the shade, such as gold, peach or sky blue, the worse the performance. The muted and dark colors, such as royal blue, coffee brown and bottle green performed best.

SINGLE COLORS also varied in soil performance according to shade or hue, reports Miss Lay. Royal blue was rated very good in concealing soil; delphinium blue, good; Cambridge blue, fair; Wedgewood blue, poor; and sky blue, very poor. Yellow and white showed soil the most.

The specialist says colors which proved best were dark blues and navy, horse chestnut copper, coffee brown, dark falcon brown, hunter or rattan green, bottle green and green beetle.

EACH YEAR, some colors are "in" and widely used in home furnishings while others are used rarely.

Fiber Birren, one of the world's leading authorities on color, makes some predictions for 1969.

Off-white will continue to be the most popular color in paints and wall coverings and will continued to be used for contrast with bold, vivid colors.

Gold, avocado green and brilliant blue will continue to be used extensively in home furnishings. These colors will continue to become clearer and brighter.

WHITE WALLS, brilliant home furnishings, muted walls are the order of preference in 1969, according to the color expert.

Mrs. Jane Berry, Extension housing and home furnishings specialist, explains what makes color fashion. The consumer establishes color trends through the selections he makes in the market place. Color trends are natural and spontaneous.

Color research experts establish and interpret color trends by analyzing retail purchases in various consumer areas from year to year. Computer analysis of sales records of consumer products including paints,

Social Security Facts

"Sometimes social security beneficiaries fail to notify us of events which should be reported so we can stop their checks," Travis C. Briggs, manager of the Amarillo social security office, said today. "These overpayments are always hard to repay once the check has been cashed."

When an applicant files his claim for social security, he is given instructions on events which should be reported.

Briggs encouraged all who receive social security to be sure they have their reporting cards, and to send them in to the Amarillo office when they wish to report a change. If you do not have your reporting card, a letter or phone call to the office will get you a new card.

The office should be notified when a beneficiary expects to earn over $1680 in a year, or stops work.

Other events which should be reported are:

1. Death of a beneficiary.
2. Leaving the United States.
3. Marriage or remarriage.
4. Divorce or annulment.
5. Adoption of a child beneficiary.
6. Change of custody of a person who has someone receiving benefits on his behalf.
7. Return to work of a person receiving disability payments.

The Amarillo office is located at 1006 S. Adams, telephone number is 376-1511. The office is open Monday through Friday 8:15 am until 4:30 pm and until 6:30 pm Thursday evenings.

carpets, furniture, draperies, accessories, linens, appliances and automobiles also determine color trends.

Plans Made For Water Conference

Importing water to West Texas will be emphasized at the 7th annual West Texas Water Conference in Lubbock on Friday.

Registration will begin at 8 a. m. for the important program of the West Texas Water Institute. It will be held at the Texas Tech Student Union Building, and is expected to be over at 5 p. m.

Speakers include Harvey Banks, president of the California water engineering firm of Leeds, Hill & Jowett, who will talk on water issues facing West Texas. State Representative Bill Clayton will discuss legislation affecting development of water resources. Howard Boswell, Executive Director of the Texas Water Development Board, will speak on the recently published Texas Water Plan.

David Brune of the Trinity River Authority will discuss individual action in better management of water resources. Dr. Herbert Grubb, Texas Tech Professor of Agricultural Economics, and presently working with the State in the Division of Planning Coordination, will talk on water pricing problems.

George Whetstone, acting Chairman of the Texas Tech Department of Civil Engineering, will talk on interbasin diversions from the Mississippi, Missouri, and Canada. Willie Ulch, Chairman of the Texas Tech Agricultural Engineering Department, will report on irrigation efficiency studies.

"This would be one of the most important meetings our people could attend," Charles Hoover, chairman of the Program Committee of Deaf Smith County Water Association, commented. "We can see the water importation plan unfolding before our eyes. We really expect it to be a reality, but are we ready to do our part in making it a reality? It's worth our while to take off Friday and become informed about the project which can maintain and expand the economy of our area."

CHURCH MATE-HUNTING

TOKYO — Most Christian denominations in Japan have "matrimonial agents" who serve to arrange matches for marriage. "Hunting for husbands is a difficult task for Christian girls," one matchmaker told a recent meeting of the family-life committee of the Kyodan, the National Christian Council.

Mainly, the church committees handling the task are volunteers from church women groups. The Kyodan has a committee in each district. In the Episcopal Church, there are "Isaac and Rebecca" groups. The Lutheran Church deals with the matter through its social welfare department.

BIG BUDGET

LONDON — It now costs an estimated million pounds ($2.4 million) a week to staff and maintain the work of the Church of England here and abroad and this figure is expected to reach

62 million pounds ($148.8 million) a year by 1973, according to the financial advisers of the archbishops of Canterbury and York. By far the greatest single item of expenditure is providing for the 12,850 clergy (24 million pounds or $57.6 million), then come social welfare and church schools.

THE CRY of the hour seems to be summed up in the word "change": especially with reference to the churches and christianity.

WHAT WE NEED is not "change" but a "return" to what's always been right, honest and scriptural! Jer 6:16

EVANGELISM, not Ecumenicalism is the need of the hour and the business of the church! II Tim 4:2-3

COULD IT BE POSSIBLE that the churches are so enamored with themselves that they have forgotten the needs of the Sinner?

Mrs. McFaul Is Honoree

A farewell courtesy to Mrs. Carl McFaul, who is moving to Abilene to make her home, was a coffee Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Bill Gilleland. McFaul, who has been employed by Southwestern Bell Co. here, has been transferred to Abilene as chief switchman.

Hostesses for the coffee were Mrs. Robert Betzen, Elmer Reinart, Ed Paetzold, Lester Wagner, Wern Koelzer and Gilleland.

A number of friends called to wish Mrs. McFaul happiness in the new home, and spend a casual hour in conversation.

Jean Chapman

First Exchange Student Writes To Local Friends

Recently married, Hereford's first foreign student under the American Field Service program, Jean Chapman of Surrey, England, has written friends here to thank them for a wedding gift and tell something of her wedding and her present housekeeping arrangements.

Now Mrs. Chris Burton, she and her husband, an accountant and ministerial student, live at 21 Downlease, Stoke Bishop, Bristol BS9 1LU, England. Her letter was to Mrs. J. J. Durham, who with other friends sent a family Bible as their wedding gift.

"Such a wonderful gift," the bride wrote, "but I must admit my mind boggled when we came to the space for names of our TWENTY children!

"We were given lots of beautiful presents," the letter continued. "My cousin sent some lovely pieces of furniture from my uncle's old home so with things our mothers have let us have, the only extra we've needed to buy for our flat (apartment) is a mattress for our spare bed.

"After a miserable summer, weatherwise, of rain, floods, cold and mist, our wedding day was bright and clear from dawn to dusk with a Texas sun putting the finishing touch to all our happiness. And just as Christ has really given us all things richly to enjoy, we felt the service and the reception welcomed and spoke of Him who will be so much a part of this 'big adventure' with us.

"We left the church in a 1926 model Lagonda car which was great fun — but also perfect for confetti throwers. The reception was in an old inn where coaches stopped on long journeys in the 15th and 16th century.

"Most of the original village was built about that time and the houses tend to lean at odd angles where the beams have slipped, so there's a fascinating haphazard appearance to the narrow streets.

"We had three marvelous lazy weeks in a little village on the west coast of Scotland, due west of Inverness if you have your atlas handy, where Chris' mother has a cottage. Chris loves bird watching and this is a paradise for it as the countryside is really wild and barren except for the famous heather.

"The cottage is beside the shore of the sea loch, so we watched the result of the birds' fishing and tried a little ourselves. Net result — one trout between us for breakfast. But oh, it was good!

"And now we're well established in Bristol. Our flat is just five minutes from college for Chris. We have a large sitting-cum-dining room, bedroom, spare bedroom which doubles as Chris' study, narrow kitchen, bathroom and hall.

"I've attempted to make curtains, misjudged the length, arrived back at the flat with them ready cut only to find they exactly fitted with raw edges. Eight weeks later I'm still putting the finishing touches.

By MELVIN YOUNG
This has been a big week in Hereford. First of all, the annual Junior Livestock Show has been in full swing, with a record number of entries and competition stiff all the way. Secondly, Joe Easley of Hereford and his business associates from Cincinnati, Ohio, have announced the purchase of Sugarland Mall from the Lubbock based corporation headed by "Dub" Rushing, and thirdly, J.

W. Robinson Jr. and Charles Cabbiness have announced the merger of their two insurance agencies, as well as the association of Herman Ford and Marvin Coffey as partners in the firm. The new organization will be known as Robinson & Associates.

The folks out at Sugarland Mall are real happy to see a local owner for the big shopping complex, and Joe has said that he will have temporary offices at the Mall soon to take care of problems out there as well as working with the merchants on their promotions, etc. Joe has a college degree in advertising and promotion and it should come in handy now that he owns the mall.

Sugarland Mall has helped to bring in a lot of area trade that would probably have gone to either Lubbock or Amarillo, had it not been there. And as the area continues to expand, it should be even better.

The sale was handled by Harold Kids and G. S. "Mutt" Wheeler of Carmichael Real Estate.

J. W. Robinson Jr. is a hometown boy who started selling life insurance here in 1949 with Southland Life Insurance Company. He still has Southland, but in 1955 he also started a general insurance business. In 1961 he acquired the old John McLean Agency and the business has continued to grow ever since.

Cabbiness came here about two years ago, purchasing Plains Insurance Agency from the Pattons and has been operating here since. The men believe that they will be able to give better service to their customers due to the merger.

"I so love having letters from you all, so please write. I think Chris really hopes one day that we'll come and see you — he hears so much about Texas friends — but I just don't know when."

Beef Cattle To Be Topic Of Meeting

Improved pre-conditioning of beef cattle will be the main subject during a Beef Cattle Producers Meeting to be held Feb. 10 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

The meeting, sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Livestock Committee, will begin at 7:30 p. m. and is expected to last about two hours.

"One of the most serious problems of the industry has been the problem of getting cattle acclimated and preventing diseases that normally are associated with shipping and moving of cattle," explained County Agricultural Agent Justin McBride. "Many thousands of dollars can be saved annually through improved pre-conditioning."

The program Feb. 10 will begin at 7:30 p. m. with introduction and objectives of the meeting outlined by McBride. From 7:35 until 8:05, Dr. C.E. Dylbe, Clarendon veterinarian, will discuss "Pre-conditioning — health aspects."

Dr. Lowell Schake, area livestock specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Lubbock, will discuss "Nutritional aspects of pre-conditioning," from 8:05 until 8:35 p. m.

Following a 10-minute coffee break, Ed Garnett of Amarillo, area farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will speak from 8:45 until 9:15 p. m. on "Economics of pre-conditioning."

The three speakers will make up a panel for a question and answer session from 9:15 until 9:30 p. m.

McBride emphasized that the beef cattle feeding industry is one of the most rapidly growing industries in the High Plains, with around 300,000 head of beef being fed in Deaf Smith County annually.

Feed lot operators and employees, as well as all beef cattle producers, are especially invited to attend the meeting.

Various Christian sects have chapels in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. The major portion of the shrine is held by the Greek Orthodox Church, but the Roman Catholic, Armenian, Syrian and Coptic churches are all represented.

Sinusitis vs. Comfort

What is sinusitis? It develops in the cavities near the nostrils, and it is an inflammation of the mucous membranes lining these areas. Once inflamed, these membranes cannot release the built-up mucus and pressure and pain result.

It is important that immediate attention be given to this condition, for it may develop into something much more critical. A chiropractor is fully equipped to determine the cause of the condition. He knows how the nervous system controls the function of the mucous membrane lining the sinus cavities. By stimulating the working of these nerves to stop the inflammation of the membranes, he can often restore their natural health.

If you suffer from sinusitis, consult a chiropractor. His immediate attention to your problem may return you quickly to good health.

Holly Sugar Buys Three Businesses

COLORADO SPRINGS — In its first move to diversify outside the beet sugar industry, Holly Sugar Corporation announced today that it had acquired, for cash, World Foods, Inc., Julliard Fancy Foods Co., and Alroy Packing Company.

These companies were purchased from Schenley Industries Inc. The purchase price was approximately $1,900,000.

"Purchase of these companies will give Holly a well established entry into the fast growing field of gourmet and specialty foods," Holly President John B. Bunker said.

"This step is part of Holly's planned program to supplement our strong internal growth through acquisition of companies in related fields," Bunker explained.

Julliard was founded 98 years ago and operates in the western United States. The company markets more than 1,900 items under its own labels and distributes for well known imported lines, including Heineken beer, Huntley & Palmers English cookies, Royal Iranian Caviar, Fnicfood of Switzerland, Boral & Sen chutney and Tyne brand products from England.

World Foods imports and distributes fancy foods through national and regional supermarket chains and independent grocers in the Mountain States area. Together the two companies sell through more than 2,500 retail outlets.

Julliard and World Foods will A SHORT MOVE MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Clary Anderson is moving in June but he won't have far to go.

Views On Pastors Getting Together Here Are Given

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Gene Fooks, minister at Central Church of Christ in Hereford and author of the book Fellowship of Believers, has had a second "discussion" before a congregation with First Baptist Church pastor Rev. Gerald Mann. The first one was at the Baptist Church downtown three months ago and the latest at the Church of Christ on the past Sunday night.

Fooks pointed out that in times gone by the ministers of the two denominations had frequently gone into "debate," but the two meetings in Hereford were of a different nature, in one respect.

He said, "The old time debate and the discussion we had at the Central congregation of the Church of Christ last Sunday evening had many things in common. But there is one major difference.

"In the debates of yesterday as in the discussions of today each group chooses a speaker to represent its point of view. The public is invited to a place selected by the participating parties. When the people come together to hear the speakers express their Biblical conviction on given subjects, everyone who wishes joins in singing religious songs and prayer. A cordial welcome is given to all and the subjects are announced.

"The listeners in the audience are left free to weigh each man's statements. In both the debate and the discussion each listener is left free to decide for himself what to accept as truth. He may agree with either speaker, or he may agree with speaking truth. For truth agrees with truth regardless of who speaks it.

"The major difference in the debate and the discussion is in the attitude of the speakers and the audience," Fooks pointed out. "In the discussion we come together in genuine love, forbearance, patience, kindness to understand and to seek truth as revealed in the Scriptures. No one comes claiming to know all truth with the expectation of skinning the other person, getting him told, or showing him up, or even out-arguing him. We come together to share our understanding of the Bible; to break down walls of partitions that divide, to understand the facts about other's convictions straight from the spokesman and not from the grapevine. This attitude creates a congenial atmosphere where sincere convictions can be expressed by believers in Christ without rancor.

"In the two discussions we have had with the Baptists, between 300 and 500 members of the Baptist church and other denominations have gathered to hear what we believe the Lord teaches on baptism, church unity, church government, morals, instrumental music in worship and many other subjects.

"Of course everyone has a right to express themselves in these discussions as in the old debates. But it is our conviction that truth will shine forth regardless of who speaks it. And it is truth that makes us free from error and sin."

REV. GERALD MANN

Rev. Mann, who has been pastor of First Baptist Church here since mid-July, reported that he is not new to appearing for "discussions" in churches of other denominations. Prior to his arrival in Hereford, as pastor of the First Baptist Church at Seabrook, he spoke at St. Paul's Catholic Church at Nassau Bay, across from NASA. He had also spoken at the Episcopal Church.

Rev. Mann said that he is very ecumenical minded, when he first arrived here. He said, "I hope we can come to the point of joint activity with the other churches here. However, I don't think that we will ever come to a one-world church, but harmony is what we have to work for."

Since being in Hereford, Rev. Mann's activity with other churches has been realized.

Another joint meeting was held on the same night as Rev. Mann and Fooks spoke together. Rev. Gene Brink, pastor of First Christian Church, had Rev. Fred Howard, vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, deliver the sermon with Father Simeon Heine, pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, and Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor of First

WINTER VACATIONERS — Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sand Pumping To Be Reduced Soon

A new idea in the design of an artificial recharge well may eliminate or reduce the problem of sand pumping, one of the major problems in multiple-purpose wells.

Studies on an artificial recharge well involving this new design are being conducted by the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, a number one exponent of water recharge as one of the solutions to the High Plains water problems.

In tests conducted on a multiple purpose well installed in January of 1968 northeast of the Barwise community in Floyd County, sand pumping after water was recharged was not increased significantly as with some multiple-purpose wells.

According to Jim Valliant, Foundation soil scientist, no increase in the amount of sand pumped by the tailwater recharge well may be due to the use of a Green Machinery Co. "shutter screen" perforated well casing placed in an inverted position (openings pointed up instead of down) in the middle section of the multiple-purpose well.

Valliant said that samples taken before recharging showed the multiple-purpose well producing .66 pounds of sand per 1,000 gallons of water.

The well was recharged with water containing 3.30 pounds of sand per 1,000 gallons. "One and a half hours after pumping had resumed, water samples contained 2.80 pounds of sand per 1,000 gallons and at the end of five hours the amount of sand being pumped was reduced to .88 pounds per 1,000 gallons," Valliant said.

"This was after 157,000 gallons of water from another irrigation well had been pumped into the multiple-purpose well," he added.

Explaining the workings of the inverted well casing, Valliant said that the sanding problem occurred when sand in the Ogallala Formation was "stirred up" by the force of water being recharged.

"Since most well casing is perforated with vertical slots, pressure exerted by gravity and water falling into the casing causes water to 'jet' into the underground sand formation," Valliant said.

The uniform "shutter screen" perforation perfected by the Green Machinery Co. when installed in an inverted position, offered a possible solution to the "jetting" problem by forcing the water to enter the underground formation upwards 25 to 30 degrees from vertical fall and with reduced force.

"Results from this study indicates that when we were recharging at rates of 655 gallons per minute, with this new well casing, the amount of sand pumped was less than that contained in the recharge water," Valliant said.

Although this "inverted casing" idea appears to have worked well, Valliant said this was the first study and would be repeated this year after pre-plant irrigation and again after this season's crops have been harvested.

And it is only one of several studies in artificial irrigation recharge the Foundation will conduct in 1969 in a continuing program to update the High Plains area economy through farming efficiency.

Complete details of the study will be contained in the annual High Plains Research Foundation report to be released to members in March.

Concerning Veterans

A reminder that war widows are eligible for G. I. Bill-type education and home loan benefits was issued today by the Veterans Administration.

The education benefits are also available to wives of veterans who are permanently and totally disabled as the result of military service.

Under a new law which went into effect Dec. 1, 1968, the widow of a man who died and the wife of a veteran who was permanently and totally disabled as the result of military service is entitled to 36 months of educational assistance from the VA.

An allowance of $130 a month is paid for full-time training with lesser sums paid for part-time training.

Unremarried widows of veterans who served in World War II, the Korean Conflict, or in the Post-Korean period (since Jan. 31, 1955) and who died in service or as the result of service are eligible for VA-guaranteed G. I. home loans.

This eligibility expires July 25,

1970, for World War II widows, with widows of Korean Conflict veterans having until Jan. 31, 1975 to use their entitlement. Generally, widows of Post-Korean service veterans have 20 years from the date of their husband's death or discharge from service to obtain loans.

The VA will guarantee 60 per cent — up to a maximum of $12,500 — of the loan obtained by the widow. Long-term mortgages (up to 30 years) and little or no downpayments remain the principal advantages of G. I. loans.

The VA also listed some other benefits of particular interest to women:

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation: Monthly payments for widows and children of men who died in service or as the result of service.

Payment is generally $120 a month plus 12 per cent of the monthly basic pay now being received by a serviceman whose rank and years of service are the same as those of the deceased serviceman. Minimum payment is $133 a month.

Death pension: Monthly payment for needy unremarried widows and minor children of veterans whose deaths were not related to military service. The amount of the pension is keyed to income.

Reimbursement of burial expenses: Payment not to exceed $250 may be made within two years to the widow, undertaker, or any other person who bore a veteran's funeral expenses.

Children's education: In addition to education benefits for qualified wives and widows, an allowance of $130 a month for full-time college level training is paid to children (under 26) of veterans who died or were permanently and totally disabled as the result of military service.

The VA invites women who have questions about possible benefits to contact their nearest VA office.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Slang expressions can grow right tiresome sometimes before they fade away or become an accepted part of our language, as the case may be.

MORE TIREDSOME to me, though, are some words which have been in the dictionary all time, have been used occasionally, but suddenly are pulled out of obscurity and worn to a frazzle — often with a shade of meaning different to that previously given the word.

For instance, in connection with all the civil rights hullabaloo, it would be nice if someone would find substitutes for a couple of tired words, confrontation and ghetto.

ALTHOUGH "CONFRONT" is an ordinary, familiar word in our language, the extra syllables to make the verb into a noun were new to me when the civil rights began to use it so often. The longer word is not in my desk dictionary, although you can find it in the unabridged; that fact indicates its small use in pre-civil rights days.

Both dictionaries associate "ghetto" with Jews, defining it as the section of a city where Jews live, or where they are required to live.

Its present use is as a synonym for "slum," or to describe any section of a city which needs improvement — you can read about a "downtown ghetto" in a story saying that some city's Main Street is going to be worked over to lure shoppers in from the suburban centers.

Meaning of words do change, and they change faster now that TV newscasters are heard so much, and I'm not trying to stop the change, but it would be a relief to hear some other words just for variety.

A COUPLE OF other word changes that have come in the past few years are associated with romance. To me the changes are for the worse.

One is the expressions "love affair," or just "affair." When you mention it nowadays, everyone assumes that you mean an illicit affair, so when the school-girl reads that Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning were involved in "one of the great love affairs" of their time, she is likely to get the wrong impression about those two fine Victorians.

Then there is the phrase, "making love," which has come to mean sexual intercourse but used to mean sweet talk. With its present association, some of the old-fashioned love songs and stories may convey an absolutely erroneous idea to the young.

WELL, I DON'T know why I got off into the field of semantics today. Maybe it won't happen again.

TANE Award For Alcohol-Drug Stories

The Hereford Brand was presented an award for "outstanding service in Alcohol Narcotic Education," by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE).

A certificate of commendation and recognition was presented for publishing vital information about alcohol and drug problems.

"It is with great pleasure we present this award. This newspaper's influence is great. We appreciate genuine news coverage that presents the facts about the dangers of alcoholism and drug abuse," said Albert F. Tucker, TANE Executive Director.

TANE is a non-profit, educational organization dedicated to preventing problems that arise from the use of alcohol, narcotics, and other dangerous drugs. It is supported financially by Texas churches of many denominations. Programs include publishing, production of audio visual aids, and programs in public schools and churches.

"In the field of alcohol narcotics education, an ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. By helping to get the facts out, this newspaper has helped prevent problems," Mr. Tucker said.

1970, for World War II widows, with widows of Korean Conflict veterans having until Jan. 31, 1975 to use their entitlement. Generally, widows of Post-Korean service veterans have 20 years from the date of their husband's death or discharge from service to obtain loans.

The VA will guarantee 60 per cent — up to a maximum of $12,500 — of the loan obtained by the widow. Long-term mortgages (up to 30 years) and little or no downpayments remain the principal advantages of G. I. loans.

The VA also listed some other benefits of particular interest to women:

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation: Monthly payments for widows and children of men who died in service or as the result of service.

Payment is generally $120 a month plus 12 per cent of the monthly basic pay now being received by a serviceman whose rank and years of service are the same as those of the deceased serviceman. Minimum payment is $133 a month.

Death pension: Monthly payment for needy unremarried widows and minor children of veterans whose deaths were not related to military service. The amount of the pension is keyed to income.

Reimbursement of burial expenses: Payment not to exceed $250 may be made within two years to the widow, undertaker, or any other person who bore a veteran's funeral expenses.

Children's education: In addition to education benefits for qualified wives and widows, an allowance of $130 a month for full-time college level training is paid to children (under 26) of veterans who died or were permanently and totally disabled as the result of military service.

The VA invites women who have questions about possible benefits to contact their nearest VA office.

A RUNNING PATIENT
HIALEAH, Fla. (AP) — Curlette, winner of the Dover Stakes and now stabled at Hialeah for the winter racing season, is owned by five doctors known as the Five D. Stable.

Dr. Richard A. Lewis, who trained Curlette for the Dover, became interested in race horses while studying medicine in Louisville, Ky.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Slang expressions can grow right tiresome sometimes before they fade away or become an accepted part of our language, as the case may be.

MORE TIRESOME to me, though, are some words which have been in the dictionary all time, have been used occasionally, but suddenly are pulled out of obscurity and worn to a frazzle — often with a shade of meaning different to that previously given the word.

For instance, in connection with all the civil rights hullaboo, it would be nice if someone would find substitutes for a couple of tired words, confrontation and ghetto.

ALTHOUGH "CONFRONT" is an ordinary, familiar word in our language, the extra syllables to make the verb into a noun were new to me when the civil rights began to use it so often. The longer word is not in my desk dictionary, although you can find it in the unabridged; that fact indicates its small use in pre-civil rights days. Both dictionaries associate "ghetto" with Jews; defining it as the section of a city where Jews live, or where they are re-

TANE Award For Alcohol-Drug Stories

The Hereford Brand was presented an award for "outstanding service in Alcohol Narcotic Education," by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE).

A certificate of commendation and recognition was presented for publishing vital information about alcohol and drug problems.

"It is with great pleasure we present this award. This newspaper's influence is great. We appreciate genuine news coverage that presents the facts about the dangers of alcoholism and drug abuse," said Albert F. Tucker, TANE Executive Director.

TANE is a non-profit, educational organization dedicated to preventing problems that arise from the use of alcohol, narcotics, and other dangerous drugs. It is supported financially by Texas churches of many denominations. Programs include publishing, production of audio visual aids, and programs in public schools and churches.

"In the field of alcohol narcotics education, an ounce of prevention is worth many pounds of cure. By helping to get the facts out, this newspaper has helped prevent problems," Mr. Tucker said.

quired to live. Its present use is as a synonym for "slum," or to describe any section of a city which needs improvement — you can read about a "downtown ghetto" in a story saying that some city's Main Street is going to be worked over to lure shoppers in from the suburban centers.

Meaning of words do change, and they change faster now that TV newscasters are heard so much, and I'm not trying to stop the change, but it would be a relief to hear some other words just for variety.

A COUPLE OF other word changes that have come in the past few years are associated with romance. To me the changes are for the worse.

One is the expressions "love affair," or just "affair." When you mention it nowadays, everyone assumes that you mean an illicit affair, so when the school-girl reads that Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning were involved in "one of the great love affairs" of their time, she is likely to get the wrong impression about those two fine Victorians.

Then there is the phrase, "making love," which has come to mean sexual intercourse but used to mean sweet talk. With its present association, some of the old-fashioned love songs and stories may convey an absolutely erroneous idea to the young.

WELL, I DON'T know why I got off into the field of semantics today. Maybe it won't happen again.

Along The Frio

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
Brand Correspondent

Frio Homemakers Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Owen Andrews. Argen Draper gave the program, a discussion on Pressures of Modern Living, and invited group discussion.

Attending the meeting were Mmes. T. L. Sparkman Jr., Fritz Smith, Lloyd Schultz, Clark Andrews, Annie Springer, Laura Littrell, E. F. Vogler, Henry Andrews, Marvin Welty, Charles Self, Herbert Bruns, Jim Brooks, Frank Robbins, Eugene Baldwin, Dee Taylor and Miss Alma Andrews.

The next meeting will be Feb. 11, in the home of Mrs. Eugene Baldwin.

Mrs. B. H. Baldwin went on Jan. 21 to San Antonio to spend several days in the home of her son, Robert. His wife has been ill in a San Antonio hospital about two weeks. Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr. and Mrs. Eugene Baldwin took Mrs. Baldwin to the Amarillo airport to fly down. The Homer Wests were through San Antonio last weekend and visited the Baldwins. West had gone down to Crystal City and on to Harlingen on business last week. Mrs. West flew to Harlingen and came back with him, arriving home Sunday.

Jackie Andrews flew home on weekend pass from the Navy, arriving here Friday night from Long Beach. He expected to leave for overseas duty sometime this week.

Mrs. Frances White, sister of Mrs. Cipriano Vigil of Summerfield, died at the home of a sister at Las Vegas, N.M., Tuesday night. She formerly lived near Abernathy and was with her sister here about a month, until last Saturday. She has been seriously ill for several months. Funeral services were to be on Friday at Las Vegas and burial at Tremontina. In addition to the sister here, she is survived by nine other brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson of Amarillo visited the H. F. Bensons Sunday. Also there were the Boyd Vaughns of Tulsa and the Joe Hackers. Mrs. Johnson is Mrs. Benson's sister. The Bensons were helping care for year old grandson Stefan Hacker, the first of the week. He was in the hospital with bronchitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ed Andrews were hosts at a supper Friday evening, following the wedding of Mrs. Verna Frye and Ronald Griffith, both of Lubbock.

The wedding took place at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church in Hereford. The pastor, the Rev. Russell Wingert, officiated.

All the wedding guests came to the supper. They included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brown, Dimmitt; her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Perkins, Amarillo; the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Orville English, Lubbock; Hilton and Shandy Frye and the host couple and their children, Elizabeth, Valerie and Jason.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will be at home at 1510 20th Place, Lubbock. Griffith is a flight instructor associated with Lubbock Airport.

Mrs. E. B. Berryman has been staying with the Clark Andrews after being released from Deaf Smith County Hospital following surgery on Jan. 14. She has improved and is doing quite well.

SIGNING HOUSE RULES — Gus F. Mutscher (seated), Speaker of the Texas House of Representative signed into law Jan. 27 the permanent Rules of Procedure for the 61st session of the House of Representatives.

Witnessing the signing ceremony were Rep. Bill Clayton (left) of Springlake, chairman of the Interim Water Study Committee, and Rep. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth, author of the Rules Resolution.

Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Sr. has been in Hereford hospital since Saturday and was improving the last of the week.

Mrs. John Simpson was released from the hospital Wednesday following a week's stay. She and Mr. Simpson were staying a few days in the home of their son, Robert.

Several relatives of the Dobbins family were here for the wedding of their granddaughter, Ediana Vinson to Wayne Betts last Saturday evening at First Baptist Church, Hereford.

Those who visited the Dobbins during the weekend were her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Belew, Winters, his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. David Dobbins and sons, Kit and Doug, all of Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dobbins of Denver City, Mrs. Doris Reid and Sherry of Abilene, Mrs. Charlotte Robinson and daughters, Leanne and Lynette, Winters.

All of these people and also the Ben Scotts, Hereford, the Joe Scotts, Dimmitt and the Floyd Vinsons, Hereford, took Sunday dinner with the Robert Dobbins.

Also coming for the wedding were Mrs. Betty Gaither, of Phillips and her daughters, Barbara and Judy, of Amarillo. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin, Abernathy and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vinson, Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lindley were improving after injuries suffered in a car accident on the highway near Friona during the dust storm Wednesday of last week. They have been in the Friona Hospital but expected to be released by the last of the week. Mrs. Lindley had extensive facial cuts and both were badly bruised. The car ran into the back of a truck in the blinding dust.

Robin Baldwin celebrated her fourth birthday Wednesday, with her cousins to help her. The party was in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr. Brett Baldwin and the cousins, Kevin, Kirk and Kandi Sparkman, Sheldon Johnston, were present.

FOR BETTER PREACHING
LONDON — Most of the estimated 50,000 sermons preached in Britain's churches each Sunday would be better if the preachers were properly trained, says the College of Preachers, an Anglican foundation which is trying to raise 50,000 pounds ($120,000) to further its work at Elfinward Diocesan House in Sussex. The parsonic voice is no longer "a universal affliction" says the Rev. D. W. Cleverly Ford, director, who aims to teach clergy to speak simply without mannerisms.

Jehovah's Witnesses Planning Special Week Of Activities

Jehovah's Witnesses in Hereford are planning a full week of special activity in conjunction with the visit of a Circuit Representative of the Watchtower Society, Gerald D. Grizzle.

The week's activity will start with a regular meeting Tuesday evening that will be concluded with a Bible talk by Mr. Grizzle.

During the week Mr. & Mrs. Grizzle will accompany members of the local congregation in the house to house ministry. This program of visiting and teaching the Bible at the homes of people is carried on by Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world in 200 lands, including behind the iron and bamboo curtains.

A special meeting on Saturday evening at 8 p.m. will feature a review of Bible topics that have been discussed in the past few months by the congregation. Grizzle and his wife regularly visit the congregation here in Hereford every four months as a part of concentrated program sponsored by Jehovah's Witnesses.

The highlight of the week's activity will come when Mr. Grizzle delivers the public address entitled, "Endurance Leads to God's Approval."

George Humphries, presiding minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, commented on this address, saying, "The public discourse by Mr. Grizzle will be free and open to the public. We want to invite and encourage everyone to attend." The discourse will be given at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 319 Avenue I, at 3 p.m. on Sunday February 9.

CHURCH MATE-HUNTING

TOKYO — Most Christian denominations in Japan have "matrimonial agents" who serve to arrange matches for marriage. "Hunting for husbands is a difficult task for Christian girls," one matchmaker told a recent meeting of the family-life committee of the Kyodan, the National Christian Council.

Mainly, the church committees handling the task are volunteers from church women groups. The Kyodan has a committee in each district. In the Episcopal Church, there are "Isaac and Rebecca" groups. The Lutheran Church deals with the matter through its social welfare department.

BIG BUDGET

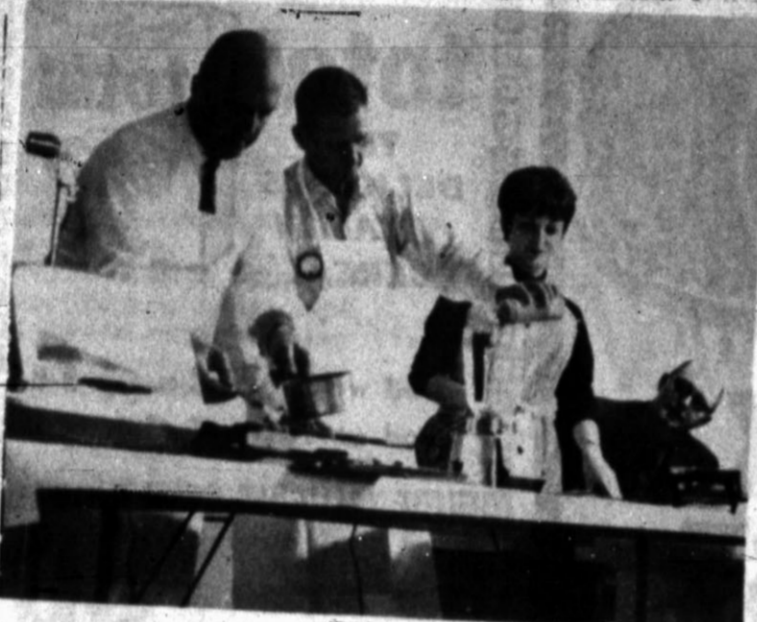

LONDON — It now costs an estimated million pounds ($2.4 million) a week to staff and maintain the work of the Church of England here and abroad and this figure is expected to reach 62 million pounds ($148.8 million a year) by 1973, according to the financial advisers of the archbishops of Canterbury and York. By far the greatest single item of expenditure is providing for the 13,850 clergy (24 million pounds or $57.6 million), then come social welfare and church schools.

A SHORT MOVE

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Clary Anderson is moving in June but he won't have far to go.

After a 25-year career as a coach of various teams at Montclair High School, Anderson will become assistant athletic director, football and baseball coach at Montclair State College in Upper Montclair. He is a former Colgate athlete.

The first U. S. automobile road map is believed to have been published by a Chicago newspaper in 1895.

Callaway Will Get Discharge

Charles Neal Callaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Callaway of 522 Blevins, is expected to return to Hereford this week after serving the past 2½ years with the U. S. Army in Germany.

Spec. 5 Callaway, 23, volunteered for service three years ago, and will be discharged at Fort Dix, N. J. Callaway is a graduate of Hereford High School. He was stationed at Muenster, Germany.

Beaver trappers have more than tripled production in Ontario, Canada, since game management districts were established in 1947. They take about 150,000 pelts a year.

STAUBACH STARS

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio — Roger Staubach, who won the 1963 Heisman trophy as Navy's quarterback, is still in there pitching. Roger threw four touchdown passes as the Pensacola Navy team beat Youngstown State University 58-38.

Reports are that Staubach will join the Dallas Cowboys for the 1969 football season.

ROTARY SPEAKER — Sharon Watson, one of Hereford High School's foreign exchange students this year, described her homeland of England during the regular meeting of the Hereford Rotary Club Monday. Miss Watson was introduced by her American "mother," Mrs. Grant Hanna.

Local Youths Are Planning Entries

Youngsters from Hereford will exhibit their livestock in the Junior Division at the 1969 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, to be held Feb. 19 through March 2.

FFA'ers are Jimmy Christie, Valerie Christie, Otis Robinson, Donna Olson, Steven Olson, Jimmy Clark, James Simpson, Benny Kent, Kim Sealy.

4-H'ers are Bill Cole, Beverly Cole, Cheryl Cole, Beth Bezner, Tommy Bezner, Rodney Brook, Kay Atchley and Caye Clearman.

FFA and 4-H Club exhibitors will be competing for premiums in excess of $133,000. These premiums will be divided among exhibitors of 10 beef breeds, 4 dairy breeds, 11 sheep breeds, 5 horse breeds, 5 rabbit breeds, Angora goats, 22 poultry breeds and 5 swine breeds.

In addition, $38,400 in calves will be presented in the world's largest calf scramble and Texas farm youth will take home an estimated $131,225 in auction premiums above market value.

The largest number of entries, ever, indicates tough competition for the championships, and the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo will have the largest Junior Show in its history, general manager E. C. "Dick" Weekly predicts.

Stars for the Rodeo are: Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, appearing Feb. 19-21; Wayne Newton, Feb. 22-24; The Nashville Sound, starring Boots Randolph and Sonny James, Feb. 25-26; Jimmy Dean, Feb. 27-28, and Jim Nabors as Gomer Pyle, March 1-2.

OAKLAND, Calif.—Shortshop Bert Campaneris of the Oakland Athletics has led the American League in stealing bases four straight years.

Last season the 26-year-old Cuban stole 62 bases in 84 attempts. This was the most bases stolen in the league since 1929 when Sam Rice of the Washington Senators stole 63 times.

Sgt. Smith In NATO Exercise

SPANGDAHLEM, Germany — U. S. Air Force Technical Sergeant Richard D. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith, San Antonio, is participating in the massive NATO training exercise being conducted in West Germany.

Sergeant Smith is a motion picture technician on the Military Airlift Command (MAC) aerial photography team from Ent AFB, Colo., that is documenting the maneuver involving 15,500 U. S. Air Force and Army personnel.

The exercise, conducted as part of the U. S. contribution to increased NATO readiness, emphasizes orderly movement of forces rather than speed and involves the largest overseas deployment of tactical aircraft for training in USAF history.

Sergeant Smith is assigned to MAC's Aerospace Cartographic and Geodetic Service that provides documentation photography for USAF activities around the world.

The sergeant, who has been on duty in Thailand, is a graduate of Jefferson High School. His wife, Ruth, is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma Terry of 231 Star St., Hereford.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — I'm all set to file my return but my W-2 hasn't come yet. What should I do?

A — Wait until your W-2 arrives. The law requires employers to issue tax withholding statements to employees by January 31 so you could receive the statement shortly.

Q — If you don't get your W-2 statement by January 31 ask your employer about it.

Q — Where can I get a copy of the new 1040 ES tax form?

A — About 13 million new estimated tax form packages will be mailed to taxpayers February 1. If you filed an estimated tax declaration last year or owed more than $40 when you filed your 1967 return, you will receive a 1040 ES form, Declaration of Estimated Income Tax for Individuals, in the mail.

The new forms are preaddressed to assure proper identification of estimated tax credits. Be sure to use your preaddressed form when you file. Others filing for the first time should get a Form 1040 ES from their District Director.

Q — When parents are divorced which one gets to claim the children as dependents?

A — Generally the parent who has custody of the child for the greater part of the year is entitled to the dependency exemption. However, if the other parent contributes at least $800 during the year to the support of the child he or she may be entitled to the exemption. There is also a special rule for a parent who furnishes more than $1,200 of support during the year but does not have custody.

These rules apply only if the divorced or separated parents together provide more than half of the child's support and have custody for more than half of the year. For further details get Publication 501, Exemptions and Exemptions for Dependents, from your District Director.

Q — I operate my farm on a cash basis. Does this mean I won't have to figure out my inventories for tax purposes?

A — Farmers using the cash method do not have to report the value of their inventories for tax purposes. However, you should keep good records so that income and expenses can be accurately reported.

Q — If I file my return now, how long will it take for me to get my refund?

A — The normal processing cycle for refunds mailed now is 5-6 weeks if the return is accurate and complete. Send your return to your regional service center.

If there is a delay beyond the usual 5-6 weeks period due to the large volume of returns being received or missing or inaccurate information, you should hear from IRS about your refund within 10 weeks from the time you filed. Taxpayers should wait at least 10 weeks from the time they filed before writing about their refund.

To avoid delays, be sure your Social Security number is entered accurately, all W-2 forms are attached, and the return is signed. Both husband and wife should sign if it is a joint return. Where the wife has income, her Social Security number and W-2 forms must be included.

Q — I'm paying back a loan I took out for my son's college education. Can I deduct these payments on my 1968 return?

A — No, only that part of your repayments representing interest on the loan will be deductible when you itemize.

Q — I can reduce my taxes if I itemize my deductions and my wife takes the standard deduction. Can we do this?

A — No. Married couples filing separate returns must handle their deductions the same way. If one itemizes deductions, the other must also itemize.

Married couples filing separately must also take the same type of standard deduction. If one takes the 10 per cent standard deduction, both must take it.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir,
I was surprised that the Hereford School System would allow such a program as "Oklahoma" in our public schools. The obscene language, loose morals of the peddler and hired hand, fighting and killing. Surely our schools do not encourage such things, or do they?

Printing Teacher At HHS Was "Born Into Business"

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Office Duplication Practices in the Occupational Training Program at Hereford High School could be greatly simplified when described as Printing.

Although the 26 students in the two classes (one in the morning and the other in the afternoon at HHS) do gain knowledge in mimeograph and duplication, they also have a 12 X18 platen press now (donated recently by the Ink Spot in Hereford), learn about type and how to set it, and basic printing procedures in general.

Begun in September, school administrators believed that it will be an important subject in the school curriculum because of the shortage of printers throughout the nation at this time — and printers fall into many different categories, newspapers, job printing, offset publication, photography, etc.

Teacher is J. Marvin Hunter Jr. — who was literally born into the printing business. He was born at Carlsbad, Texas, and the only thing that separated the room where he was born and his father's print shop was a curtain. And in one fashion or other he has remained in the business since that day in 1908.

His grandfather, John Warren Hunter, was a pioneer Texas newspaperman. But as a switch from his grandson, he resigned as a school teacher to enter the business with the Mason Herald. He reportedly took the paper because "it gave him an opportunity to get back at the people he didn't like" in those days, with the publication of scorching editorials. "He eventually did a scorching editorial on every person in Mason and lost all his circulation."

With the circulation down to nothing, J. Marvin Hunter Sr. took the paper from his father. "He started using personal items and was nice to the people, which built the circulation back up. In those days, newspapers were mostly editorials and this probably marked the beginning of weeklies running personal items." Hunter Sr. was a newspaperman and a historian. He wrote and published several books on Western lore, and an autobiography titled "Peregrination of a Pioneer Printer" — which was unusual in format because it was mostly short stories.

MARVIN HUNTER JR.
A 1928 graduate of Bandera High School, Hunter said that his life has strangely gone into eight-and-a-half year cycles. "It was never planned that way, but every 8½ years I have changed locations."

His first stint on his own in the business was the opening of the Fort Davis Dispatch. "It was during the depression and there was no newspaper there at the time. I can say one thing for it" — small as it was — "it never did let me go hungry." For the second 8½ years, he was associate editor of the Humble Refinery Bee at Ingleside (on the gulf coast) for the Humble Oil Company. He was employed there when he and Mrs. Hunter were married. (Mayme Hunter is currently teaching Second Grade at Bluebonnet Elementary School here.)

In his third cycle, Hunter bought the Baird Star. During his tenure there, he received a Distinguished Service plaque from the West Texas Press Association and West Texas Chamber of Commerce. He said that he received it through editorials for a lake at Baird (they needed water badly) and a safer highway through town. "Now they have these things," he said. He was also on the Baird city council.

Hunter also served as president of West Texas Press Association and of the old Texas Editorial Association.

For his fourth cycle, he remained at Grand Prairie for 8½ years with a commercial printing business. Among other things in Grand Prairie, he published books — and served as president of their Chamber of Commerce and Kiwanis Club, and was on the Planning and Zoning Board and Civil Defense.

Before starting his fifth cycle, he said that he and his wife took a long trip first "to see where we would stay. But we went back to the hill country" — which was Kerrville. "I set up sort of a model one-man shop there, and my wife taught second grade in the Kerrville schools. My shop was designed to do the most work with the least effort. I had simplified records for printing written on envelopes. It saved a lot of manpower."

"Later, a man came in and wanted to buy it from me. I then worked for him two years after I sold out."

MOVE TO HEREFORD
"We have a daughter who lives in Hereford — Mrs. Tom Burdett. Last Easter, she had an appointment set up for my wife and I with Robert Holman (assistant superintendent of the Hereford schools.) Holman explained to us what the set-up here would be, and he asked us at the first meeting if we wanted to sign the contracts. We felt if that was the mode of doing business here, we were for it. So we signed the contracts."

(Son-in-law Tom Burdett is associated with the law firm of Witherspoon, Aikin, Thomas and Langley and is assistant County Attorney for Deaf Smith County.)

Hunter said there is no prescribed course for Printing in the schools, and that he has been given six books to select the course of instruction. From these he has retained three — Graphic Arts, The Practice of Printing and Practical Photography.

But he said that he has arranged tests which are given to the students, and that they compile a semester notebook from which they can refer to get the answers. "Hereford High School may be one of five schools in the state that has the Office Duplication Practices, but there are only two or three at this time who have printing." Right now, the class does print jobs for the school only. Hunter reported that at the beginning of this semester the class had only a duplicator to work with. "We had quite a time getting material and things to work with. But we are progressing now."

DEAF SMITH COUNTY IRRIGATION GAS USERS ASSOCIATION MEETING

AT THE HEREFORD COMMUNITY CENTER
7:30 p.m. - Monday, February 3, 1969

Is Irrigation Gas Going Up?

The cost of natural gas has been increased to the cities and towns in this area. Is irrigation gas next? The interest of every irrigation gas user is represented by your Irrigation Gas Users Association — a group of farmers just like you — concerned with getting fuel for irrigation at the lowest possible price.

Your Deaf Smith County Irrigation Gas Users Association is only as effective as you make it.

Plan To Attend Your Deaf Smith County Irrigation Gas Users Association Meeting This Monday Night, February 3, 7:30 P.M. Hereford Community Center.

Players Will Give One-Acts

NEW BOOK OUT — Gladys Miller, right, holds a copy of her latest book, Mama The Preacher, as she greets friends at an autograph party in the Christian Book Store here. The book went on sale Thursday. It is Mrs. Miller's second book to be published; and like the first, Junior Dear, it is a collection of vignettes of family life in a small West Texas town earlier in this century. Mrs. M. L. Simpson is pictured with Mrs. Miller, looking over copies of the two books.

A comedy and a tense drama, with a musical interlude, will make up the program for a Night Of One-Acts, the second production of Hereford Community Players which is scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights at Stanton Junior High Auditorium.

Curtain time is 8 p. m. and tickets will be available at the door. The Community Players, in their first season after organization last summer, were seen in November in a production of Noel Coward's comedy, Blithe Spirit.

Onstage rehearsals will begin Monday for the two one-act plays. Music by an instrumental group from Hereford High School band will be heard between the two productions.

The comedy, Street Of Good Friends, is being directed by Amy Gilliland. Its plot concerns three rather prim teachers on a holiday in Italy, who run afoul of the police because they are on a certain street without licenses.

When they learn that the amount of a fine would be more than the price of a license, they consider the alternatives with the help of their Italian landlady, played by Alice Gilleland. In the roles of the teachers are Diane Roberson, Rose Ann Smith and Joyce Haug.

John Claypool is directing the drama of suspense, The Chess Game, with Bill McDonald, C. Pat Thompson, Al Dziuk and Dale Moore in the cast.

John Gilliland is in charge of set building; Carole Byets, Sylvia Parsley and Mary Howard of props and costumes; Lucy Cooley, Donna Johnson, Bessie

Wood and Sue Coleman of posters. Lorene Johnson has designed the program cover and Fred Howard is in charge of program advertising.

When news of the Confederate surrender reached Union lines, troops began shooting off their guns. Gen. Grant ordered them to stop, saying "The war is over; the Rebels are our countrymen again; and the best sign of rejoicing after the victory will be to abstain from all demonstrations in the field."

Price Announces "Presidential Classroom" For Young Americans

Congressman Bob Price announced today that five courses sponsored by a Presidential Classroom for Young Americans will be held in Washington, D. C., this spring.

"The Presidential Classroom" the Congressman commented, "is open to all American high school seniors and will give them an opportunity for an in-depth, on the spot study of the intricacies of the United States Government. The Classroom is also intended to encourage dedication to and an understanding of the American system, which all too often seems remote, bureaucratic and inaccessible to today's young people." Price said that the curriculum will focus on the three branches of the United States Government — the Executive, Legislative, and the Judicial. Classes will be held in the actual physical location of many of the Government branches, agencies, and departments being studied and the teaching will be supplemented by lectures, seminars, and meetings with key officials from numerous areas within the Government.

Classes will last one full week from 4pm, Saturday afternoon, thru the next Saturday morning and there will be five classes, each of which will hold a maximum of 350 students: (1) Feb. 22 thru March 1; (2) March 1 thru March 8; (3) March 8 thru March 15; (4) March 22 thru March 29; (5) March 29 thru April 5.

Price suggested that all interested high school seniors contact his office in Washington, or the Senior Class Advisor of his or her high school, who has been furnished all available information on the program.

WE'RE HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE THE MERGER OF
PLAINS INS. AGENCY
and
ROBINSON AGENCY
(effective immmediately!)

The New Company Will Now Be Known As

ROBINSON & ASSOCIATES

Sure it's big news. We're indeed happy to announce the merger of these two fine insurance agencies to better serve our customers, and to announce also that Herman Ford and Marvin Coffey will also come into the new firm as partners with Robinson and Cabbiness. The name of the new organization will be ROBINSON & ASSOCIATES, with offices at 218 West Third Street, the location of the old Robinson Insurance Agency.

We're happy to have Charles Cabbiness join the firm. He has been owner of Plains Insurance Agency for the past two years and has done a tremendous job for his customers here. We know he will take as big an interest in the new firm.

We would like to take this opportunity to invite each and every one in need of insurance to visit us at ROBINSON & ASSOCIATE. See J. W., Charles, Herman or Marvin — and you can bet that you'll get the best insurance coverage available.

CROP Receipts Up Million In '68

Chicago, Illinois — CROP receipts in 1968 took a giant one-million-dollar leap forward, due primarily to increased contributions by U. S. industry. Regular CROP canvasses increase increased by some $125,000, or 9 percent, over 1967. This was announced here today at the annual meeting of the National CROP Committee. CROP is the public Community Hunger Appeal of Church World Service.

Valuation of the 1968 CROP Community Hunger Appeal is $3,590,000 — the largest total since CROP's banner year of 1948, when $4 1/2 million was collected in commodities and cash. Not included in this total is a $2,223,000 valuation of the Church World Service Clothing Appeal, now administered by CROP. The combined total (subject to correction and audit) for the 1968 CROP program is $5,813,000.

Illinois today was honored with the "Top CROP State" award, received by Lowell Brown, Illinois CROP Director (of Springfield). Illinois topped the nation with its total of $1,980,000. It last occupied first place in 1962.

The CROP Committee also presented the annual "Order Of The Bucket" award to Mr. Brown, the Illinois director. Given "for service to God and mankind," today's citation, read by the Rev. Roland Huff, National CROP Committee chairman (Indianapolis, Ind.), paid tribute to Mr. Brown's organizational achievement in Illinois and to his special interpretation of national development, growing out of his study-survey in East Africa last year. Previous recipients of the "Order Of The Bucket" were the Rev. Richard H. Staple, Lincoln, Nebraska (1964), and the Rev. J. Joseph Frower, Jefferson City, Mo. (1967).

In the 1968 totals, Indiana occupies second place with $192,000, followed by Kansas $164,000, Ohio ($152,000), and Iowa, $146,000.

CROP canvasses were conducted in more than 100 counties and communities in 25 states. Based upon 1967 experience, it is expected that approximately $30,000 was designated through CROP for other church-related agencies.

High school and college youth participated in a larger way than ever before, both as canvassers in CROP campaigns and in hunger fasts and marches. Major youth canvasses took place in Texas and in Connecticut. Youth in Mansfield, Ohio, gave up Wednesday lunches — "The best meal of the week," they said — and gave the cash to feed hungry people. Greeley, Colorado was canvassed by 500 fraternity and sorority members. Youth in West Hartford, Connecticut held a hunger vigil on the village green, with a fast, followed by a canvass of the city. Modesto, California youth had a hunger march, walking for pledges, and collected more than $3000.

U. S. corporations, food processors, and agribusiness companies contributed products valued at $2,071,000 to CROP last year. The gifts included tools, seeds, processed foods, chemical fertilizers, and pesticides.

CROP Friendship Acres and CROP Friendship Farms provided approximately $75,000 of total receipts. There were 1226 Friendship Acres in 125 counties in ten states. There were 47 Friendship Farms, farmed by volunteers, totaling 1717 acres in 25 counties in four states.

CROP's 1968 shipments included more than $100,000 worth of high protein foods, for hunger victims in Nigeria-Biafra. CROP also helped support the mercy air bridge, initiated by Scandinavian church groups.

In addition to major shipments to forty countries of seeds and food, valued in excess of $1 1/2 million, shipped to disaster areas, institutions, refugees, or for food-for-work projects, CROP funds were also used in specific attacks upon root causes of hunger.

$6000 was sent to the Congo to replace cattle herds in Kwilu Province, establishing a cattle cooperative. $3890 was sent to Taiwan for an agricultural extension project. $4300 went to Haiti for an Agricultural Training Center. $8000 was allocated for a development project in Mali, Greece. $10,000 was provided for family planning projects in Taiwan, Indonesia, and Haiti. $14,000 was sent to a farm school in Nigeria. Additional funds went for specific projects in Vietnam ($1,065) and India ($9438).

Price Named Vice President Of Republican 90th Club Wednesday

Panhandle Congressman Bob Price was elected Vice President of the Republican 90th Club at their organization meeting Wednesday. Rep. James A. McClure of Idaho will be the new President.

New Republican members of each Congress form their own club. All but two Republicans elected to the 90th Congress in 1966 were reelected last fall. The group now represents almost one-third of the Republican membership and holds regular meetings to discuss positions.

"The 90th Club also represents the youngest segment of the Congress," Price said, "and will be influential in initiating and approving the legislative program of the new Administration."

Father-Daughter Dinner Program Is Announced

An annual dinner which is marked with red letters on the Campfire Girls' calendar, the father-daughter banquet, will be held at 7 p. m. Friday in the County Bull Barn. Each girl in the Campfire program is expected to have her father, or a substitute, as a guest.

Entertainment this year will be a presentation of patriotic songs with the general theme Kaleidoscope Of America: Girls from all age groups in the Campfire program will participate.

After an opening chorus, American Heritage, and the flag pledge by the entire group, girls of the Bluebird groups, from second and third grades, will sing Let There Be Peace On Earth, Campfire Girls of elementary grades will present the song, Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor, and the selection for junior high girls is This Is My Country.

Horizon Club members, of high school age, will sing two numbers by George M. Cohan, It's a Grand Old Flag and Yankee Doodle Dandy. All the voices will join in Battle Hymn of The Republic and a closing chorus of American Heritage.

Members of the Campfire Leaders Association are in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Albert Cherry is hospitality chairman, Mrs. David Brumley chairman of seating arrangements, Mrs. Boyd Collins and Mrs. Homer Crim of drinks for the meal, Mrs. Charles Wright of publicity.

Mrs. Glenn Watts is chairman of the association this year, Mrs. Brumley vice chairman and Mrs. Gerald Sledge secretary.

Her hobby, says Mrs. David LaFleur, is her family, consisting of her husband, three daughters and as many sons. The LaFleur family is one of several which have moved here since Missouri Beef Packers plant opened at Friona.

LAFLEUR IS production manager of the plant at Friona and also one at Rockport, Mo., so his job requires considerable traveling. The family moved at mid-December from Jefferson, S.D., and is at home in a ranch-style brick at 123 Mimosa Street.

All the LaFleurs have called Jefferson their home for most of their lives; the parents were both born and grew up in that area of South Dakota, down in the southeast corner near the border of both Iowa and Nebraska, and it was home until the move here. The oldest daughter, Colette, remained at Jefferson to complete the school term, as she is to be graduated from high school this year. Kevin and Pamela are in high school here; Mary, Joe and the youngest, Davie, who is almost eight years old, are in other schools.

THEY ATTEND church at St. Anthony's. Mrs. LaFleur has been active in the Altar Society of her church at Jefferson, holding an office last year. She also was a member of a Mothers Club associated with the school, and has worked with Brownies, the younger girls in the Girl Scout program.

She is making a career of homemaking, and laughingly says that although she talks occasionally about a possible job outside her home, "if there was really an opportunity to get one, I'd turn it down!"

She was employed in the admissions office of a hospital for a short time after her graduation from high school and before her marriage, her only experience as a wage-earner.

SHE LIKES gardening but says she has much to learn about growing plants in this climate, so she had basic planting in her yard done by a professional and now is seeking advice about the remainder.

"Most of the shrubs that were put in our yard are varieties I never heard of," she explains. "The trees are different, too; the maple in our backyard is not the type we had at Jefferson. I'm eager to try growing roses, which I understand are easier to grow here than further north."

A mimosa tree was set in the front yard — "naturally we had to have one of those on Mimosa street!" — and it also is a strange species to the LaFleurs.

ANTIQUES interest Mrs. LaFleur and she likes to add to her knowledge of them, as well as to pick up interesting pieces for her home occasionally. Several decorative items she has collected blend in with the early American furniture in her living room, where a big fireplace is the central feature.

The whole LaFleur family enjoys reading. Fishing is another family activity and vacations are often fishing trips, Mrs. LaFleur says.

Nearby rivers and lakes supplied fishing spots in their former home and now they are surveying this area to find accessible waters in which to try their luck.

INITIATION PLANNED

Initiation of several new members is scheduled at the American Legion Auxiliary meeting in the Legion Hall, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday. Women who have enrolled in the Auxiliary but who have not been initiated are asked to be present for the ceremony.

Some $4 million worth of $10,000 bills were in circulation in the United States in 1967.

Speaker For Crop Clinic Is Selected

Harold Clark, one of the first men in the Texas Panhandle to grow 200-plus bushels of corn per acre, has been named as the guest speaker for the first Hereford Crop Clinic, scheduled for Feb. 11 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn.

Clark yielded a 133 bushel per acre average on 1200 acres in 1968 with test plots yielding nearly 200 bushels. His methods of farming follow modern techniques, using narrow rows, high fertility, proper irrigation, control of weeds and insects and high populations of 30,000 plants per acre finished stand with single cross corn.

He farms in the Dumas vicinity where some 60,000 acres of corn for grain are anticipated for this year. In 1965, less than 100 acres of corn were planted in this area as grain crop.

Selected as the master of ceremonies for the clinic, is Walter M. Buescher, manager of customer promotion services, farm equipment division, Allis-Chalmers, Milwaukee, Wis.

Buescher was named manager of the customer promotion services department in Allis-Chalmers equipment division in 1966. He had been assistant to the division's manager of merchandising since 1963.

Graduated from Valparaiso University, Buescher joined the firm in 1935 at its plant in La Porte, Ind. He later was district representative and in 1944, he was named assistant manager of the Allis-Chalmers branch in Toledo. He moved to the Milwaukee home office as manager of sales training in 1954 and four years later, he became assistant to the general manager for the division.

He is a native of Bremen, Ind. and is now living in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

The clinic, one of five such clinics in Texas, and one of 148 in the United States, will feature talks and discussions by various representatives of the clinic's participants. The participants "buy" fragments of time during the clinic and have a speaker discuss their product and that particular phase of the agriculture industry.

Participants for the Hereford clinic include Deaf Smith County Fertilizers, Behlen Building, Peoples Natural Gas, Dekalb, Valmont Industries, Amchem, Olin Mathieson, Allis-Chalmers, Richardson Manufacturing Company, and the KGNC Farm and Ranch Department.

Plans call for the clinic to begin around 8:30 a. m. with the presentation of an "early bird" door prize. A coffee and "get acquainted" period will then follow with the actual program getting underway around 9 a. m. The various participants will discuss the agriculture industry throughout the day and a free lunch will be served at noon. The clinic is scheduled to conclude around 5 p. m. with the presentation of the grand door prize.

About 1,000 earthquakes a year cause some damage. Some 100,000 can be felt or heard.

CARD OF THANKS
Words cannot express our thanks to all who were so kind and considerate at the loss of our loved one, Marvin Knox. For all the things that were done to bring comfort in our time of sorrow and to each one we will always be so grateful. May God Bless each of you.
The Family of Marvin Knox

APPRECIATION

We wish to take this opportunity to thank our friends, neighbors and all others who helped in putting out the fire at our home. You were so helpful in expressions of sympathy and also in cleaning up the destruction and debris. We sincerely appreciate each one most heartily.

BLONDIE

BLONDIE, I'M SOAKED TO THE SKIN!

YOU POOR DEAR-- WE'LL GET YOU INTO A TUB OF HOT WATER AT ONCE

I'M SO SORRY, DEAR

I'M HAVING CHILLS AND FEVER

LET'S TRY THIS CHEST RUB

I CAN JUST BARELY MAKE IT INTO BED-- SNIFF

I FEEL TERRIBLE-- I MAY NEVER RISE FROM THIS BED

WHERE'S DAGWOOD?

UP IN BED WITH A HORRID COLD

DAGWOOD, THIS IS THE NIGHT OF OUR BOWLING FINALS!

OH, MY GOODNESS, I FORGOT!!

BUT WHAT ABOUT YOUR CHILLS AND FEVER?

I NEVER FELT BETTER IN ALL MY LIFE

WISH ME LUCK, DEAR!

AND THEY SAY THERE'S NO CURE FOR THE COMMON COLD

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN

BY LEE FALK

THE GAMBLERS FROM OUTER SPACE!

THEY FOUND THE CLUE IN THE VOLCANO!

THEY'VE ONLY SEEN IT!

CLEVER! AN ASBESTOS SUIT, TO PROTECT HIMSELF FROM THE HEAT!

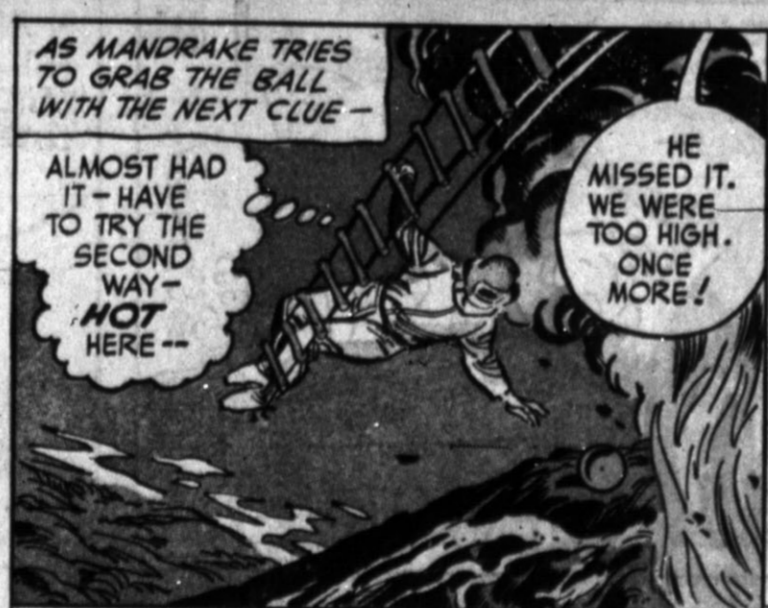

BAH! IF HE FALLS INTO THAT BOILING LAVA, HE AND THE SUIT WILL TURN INTO A CINDER--

--AND I'LL WIN MY BET FROM YOU-- THE EARTH'LL BLOW UP! HE MUST NOT FAIL! GO, MANDRAKE!

THE GREAT HUNT TO SAVE THE EARTH-- LEADS TO A VOLCANO OF BOILING LAVA!

LUA TWICE, HERE'S A TIP YOU'LL BE ROASTED IF YOU SLIP.

AS MANDRAKE TRIES TO GRAB THE BALL WITH THE NEXT CLUE--

ALMOST HAD IT-- HAVE TO TRY THE SECOND WAY-- NOT HERE--

HE MISSED IT. WE WERE TOO HIGH. ONCE MORE!

THERE HE GOES!

OH-- HOLD HIM!

LOWER-- CAN'T LOSE IT IN THAT BOILING LAVA!

THE COPTER BOUNCES ON AN AIR POCKET, MANDRAKE BOBBLES THE BALL!

HE GOT IT! PULL HIM UP!

YOU'RE EXHAUSTED--!

QUICK, LOTHAR-- OPEN THE BALL FOR THE NEXT CLUE! WE'VE A WORLD TO SAVE!

WHAT DOES IT SAY?

NOTHING! JUST A SILLY DRAWING!

NEXT WEEK: THE FOURTH CLUE

The PHANTOM

By Lee Falk

ATOP "WALKER'S TABLE" THE PHANTOM TELLS AN ANCIENT TALE...

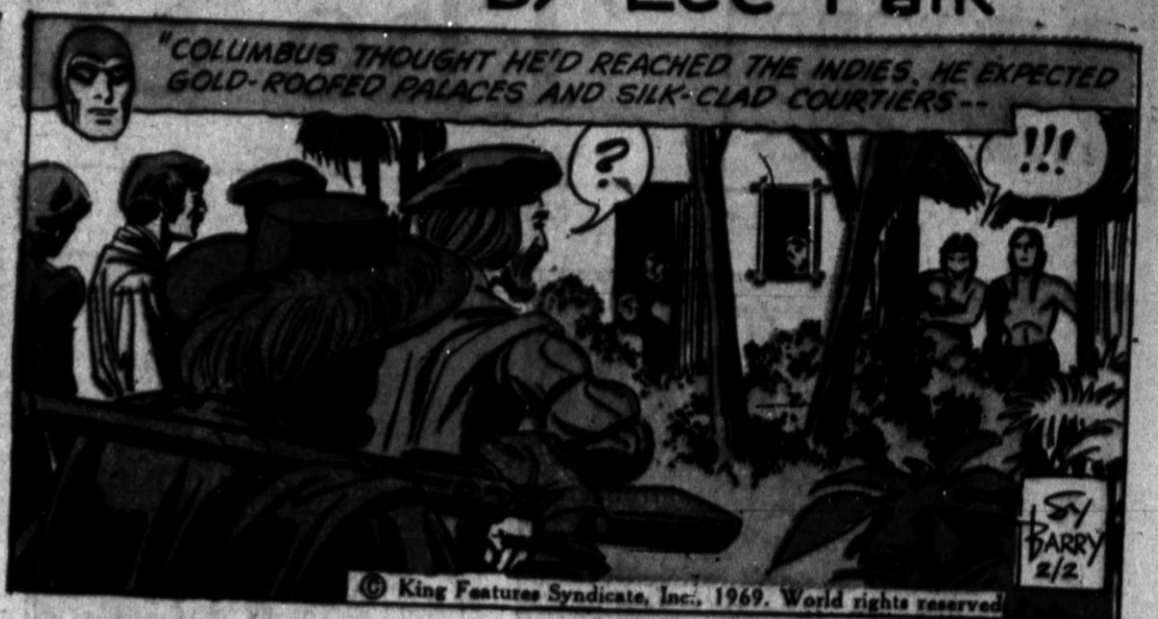

THIS IS FANTASTIC! YOUR ANCESTOR-- FATHER OF THE FIRST PHANTOM-- SAILED WITH COLUMBUS?

YES, DIANA, AS A CABIN BOY--

"COLUMBUS'S FIRST LANDING, OCT. 12, 1492, NOW A BAHAMAS ISLAND."

I NAME THIS PLACE SAN SALVADOR.

"COLUMBUS THOUGHT HE'D REACHED THE INDIES. HE EXPECTED GOLD-ROOFED PALACES AND SILK-CLAD COURTIERS--"

"HE SAILED ON. HE FOUND A LARGE ISLAND HE THOUGHT WAS JAPAN-- CALLED IT CIPANGO-- LATER CUBA."

"STILL NO PALACES-- ONLY RUDE HUTS AND NAKED SAVAGES."

"CHRISTMAS, 1492, WITH THE TIMBERS OF THE WRECKED SANTA MARIA, HE BUILT THE FIRST SETTLEMENT-- NOW HAITI."

I NAME THIS ISLE, HISPANIOLA-- AND THIS PLACE FORT NAVIDAD.

"THE CABIN BOY, WALKER, WAS QUICK AT LANGUAGES. HE LEARNED THE NATIVE TONGUE-- BECAME TRANSLATOR."

MAN-- MAN!

MAN! ME!

SOMEWHERE OUT THERE ARE GOLDEN CITIES. ASK HIM.

OXOGA??

*@- I KNOW NOT.

NEXT WEEK-- GOLDEN CITIES?

BRINGING UP FATHER

by BILL KAVANAGH & FRANK FLETCHER

YOU DID A GREAT JOB ON THIS ESTIMATE, BOSS! I DON'T SEE A SINGLE MISTAKE--

I DOUBLE-CHECKED IT, MYSELF--

BUT I'M TAKING ALL MY WORK PAPERS HOME, ANYWAY-- WHY?-- THERE'S NOTHING MORE TO DO ON THEM--

WELL, MY WIFE THINKS I'M TAKING HER TO THE OPERA TONIGHT--

BUT THESE PAPERS ARE GOING TO HELP ME AVOID THAT ORDEAL--

MAGGIE, I'M SORRY, YOU'LL HAVE TO GO TO THE OPERA ALONE TONIGHT--

I'VE BEEN WORKING ON AN ESTIMATE FOR A BIG CONTRACT, AND I HAVE TO FINISH IT BEFORE MORNING--

IT'S ALL RIGHT, DEAR-- I COULDN'T HAVE GONE, ANYWAY! I HAVE A SPLITTING HEADACHE--

FORGET ABOUT ME, DEAR, AND GO RIGHT AHEAD WITH YOUR WORK! DO YOU MIND IF I LOOK ON?

Hi and Lois

by MORT WALKER and DIK BROWNE

DAD, WHAT IF I THREW A BASEBALL THAT HIT THE BUTTON ON THE STOVE AND TURNED ON THE BURNER UNDER THE TEA KETTLE--

-- AND IT STEAMED AND MELTED THE PAPER-CUP HOLDER OFF THE WALL--

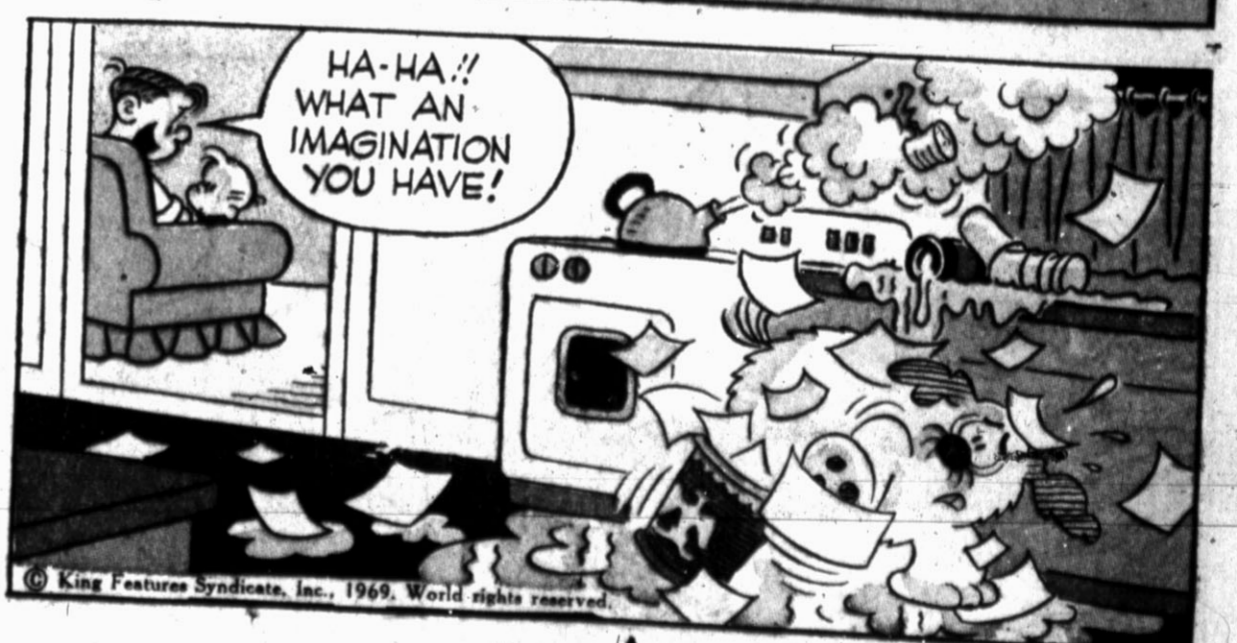

-- AND IT FELL AND HIT A JAR OF GLUE WHICH SPILLED OVER EVERYTHING ON THE COUNTER--

-- AND IT DRIPPED ON DAWG AND HE RAN INTO THE WASTEBASKET...

WAIT A MINUTE! WAIT A MINUTE! AND...

HA-HA!! WHAT AN IMAGINATION YOU HAVE!

WELL, NOW THAT BREAKFAST IS OVER, I GUESS YOU FOLKS ARE ANXIOUS TO BE ON YOUR WAY.

WE'RE ALL PACKED SWEENEY, BUT FIDO'S HAVING ONE OF HIS SPELLS.

WE COULDN'T LEAVE WITHOUT FIDO.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH FIDO?

IT HAPPENS EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE. ALL OF A SUDDEN HE'S TOO WEAK TO STAND UP.

SEE... HE JUST LIES THERE. HE CAN'T EVEN RAISE HIS HEAD.

I BETTER CALL THE VET.

NOW, WE'LL JUST CARRY HIM OUTSIDE AND SET HIM IN THE SHADE. THAT USUALLY BRINGS HIM OUT OF IT.

WELL, WE MIGHT AS WELL DO A LITTLE FISHING, SWEENEY. HE MIGHT STAY THIS WAY FOR HOURS.

UH... OKAY.

BOY, WHAT FISHING! LOOK AT THE MESS O' BASS WE CAUGHT!

HOW'S FIDO?

I'M AFRAID HE'S STILL SICK.

YOU FOLKS MIGHT AS WELL STAY FOR DINNER AGAIN.

HOORAY!

WE'RE STARVED!

WASN'T IT AMAZING HOW FIDO RECOVERED JUST BEFORE DINNER, BROTHER?

HAMPH! THAT 'SICK' DOG ATE MORE MEAT THAN I DO IN A WEEK!

AT A CAMP SITE IN NEW MEXICO...

DAN, HOW NICE TO HAVE YOU BACK WITH US!

THANKS, UNCLE! I'M GLAD YOU AND TONTO COULD MEET ME HERE FOR MY VACATION!

WHY DID YOU INSIST ON MEETING HERE?

BECAUSE I HAVE TO DO A SCHOOL REPORT ON OLD, ABANDONED, SPANISH SILVER MINES!

LATER... YOU CHOSE A GOOD REGION FOR YOUR RESEARCH, DAN! THIS AREA WAS ONCE MINED BY THE CONQUISTADORS!

TILL THEIR INDIAN SLAVES REVOLTED AND DROVE THEM OFF!

AS I RECALL, THE SPANISH RETURNED FORTY YEARS LATER BUT COULDN'T LOCATE MANY OF THE MINES!

NOR COULD THEY FIND THE SILVER BARS THAT HAD BEEN HIDDEN BEYOND THE MINES!

NEXT DAY... WHOA, VICTOR! IS THAT JUST SOME ANIMAL'S DEN-- OR AN OPENING TO WHAT MIGHT BE AN ABANDONED MINE SHAFT?

WELL, THERE'S ONE WAY TO FIND OUT--

LIGHTING A CANDLE, DAN BEGINS TO START DOWN A MYSTERIOUS PASSAGE, WHEN SUDDENLY--

-- A S-S-LIDE! I'M TRAPPED!
