Two Arrested In Burglary Friday

One Hereford man and an escapee from Kansas were arrested by local police department authorities Friday morning about 3:30 on charges of burglary of Pitman Grain Company.

Though no names were released, officers indicated that the two men arrested were a 21-year-old from Hereford and an 18-year-old escaped prisoner from Johnson, Kansas.

The arrests were made early Friday morning when officer Oscar Martinez, while on patrol, spotted an early model car crossing the railroad tracks on South Lee St. with its lights off. After following the car for a short distance, Martinez saw what he thought to be a large amount of office equipment in the rear of the car.

Martinez stopped the vehicle and radioed officer Gary Gillespie who was also on duty. Upon his arrival, the officers searched the car and found nine adding machines and calculators, one coffee maker, and one television set. Estimated total value of the items was set at $2,700.

At the time of the arrest, officers did not know where the items had been taken, but a quick check of the area disclosed that Pitman Grain had been burglarized. Entry had been gained through the west-northwest door of the building when the burglars tore a mesh-type covering off of the outside of the door and broke the window.

Bonds Receive Rating Increase

Bob L. Davis, vice president of Columbian Securities Corporation, Amarillo, reported in a letter to the County Commissioners Court, that Moody's Investor's Service of New York has raised the rating of Deaf Smith County from an "A" to "A-1", for the $500,000 hospital issue.

The new rating was given following a trip to New York by school superintendent Roy Harman, Davis and commissioners Donald Hicks, Earl Holt and Bruce Coleman. The commissioners and Harman attended the meeting in New York to give their versions of the local economy toward the county bond rating.

In their letter to County Commissioners, Columbian Securities Corporation explained that the reason for the delay in announcing the rating was the fact that "it is so close to being a "AA" that it took considerable time for the Board to make its decision."

Such ratings are a necessity toward receiving the best possible rates when bonds are placed on the market.

Treatment Essential

Cerebral Palsy - No Age Limit

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Damage to the brain which causes cerebral palsy can occur at any time during a person's life.

Sometimes the damage occurs before birth, due to infection, disease, accident, or some other factor that affects the baby through its mother. It may result from difficulties and injuries during birth.

However, brain damage in later life may result from infections, fevers, asphyxiations, injuries received in accidents, or from strokes.

Cerebral palsy, therefore, is not confined to children. And those who do suffer the affects of this disease from birth or early childhood, they, too, grow into adulthood.

Cerebral Palsy is a United Fund agency in Hereford. The amounts collected in the drive campaigns here allotted to cerebral palsy is sent to Amarillo, where the only Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center is located between Houston and the West Coast. Hereford residents have received treatment there and will continue to do so.

Cerebral palsy is a condition in which control of the muscles is impaired or lost by injury to the cells in the motor area of the brain. It is not a communicable disease and is not inherited.

The damage to the brain cannot be repaired, but careful training can help any victim gain better control of his muscles.

About 500,000 persons in the United States are handicapped by cerebral palsy.

The extent and location of the injury to the brain determines the kind and severity of muscular loss of control. It may be so mild that the muscular action is only weakened, or so severe that the person is completely paralyzed.

Although all persons with cerebral palsy have physical handicaps, most of them are normal in other respects. They should be treated as normal persons who have such a handicap.

They often require careful training to overcome this handicap in order to be able to obtain the things they need. This training is best supplied by a group of specialists.

Physical therapy trains the large muscles, thus patients can learn to walk and move about more smoothly and easily. Occupational therapy trains the smaller muscles, such as those of the hands and fingers, so the patient can learn to write. See PALSY, Page 2

Booster Club Meets Monday

The Whiteface Booster Club will launch its 1969-70 meeting season Monday at the Community Center, according to Ted Higgins, president.

Scheduled to be held in the ballroom, the meeting will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Due to conflicting time schedules between the coaches and their workout sessions in the afternoon and the meeting, the club has set their meeting back one hour from past years. The extra hour will allow most of the coaches to attend the meetings.

Council To Meet Tuesday

Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism, a United Fund member agency, will conduct its regular monthly meeting at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday in the Chaparral at Sugarland Mall.

All members of the council are requested to be present. Visitors are welcome. Rev. Fred Howard is chairman.

Red Cross Asks Aid For Victims

American Red Cross has sent Hereford chairman Bartley Dowell an urgent message regarding Hurricane Camille damages and a quota for this area to aid in its disaster relief work there.

Emergency message from E. Roland Harriman and James F. Collins of ARC read:

"Hurricane Camille packing winds up to 150 miles per hour struck the Mississippi Gulf Coast last Sunday. Tidal surge following the devastating storm is causing additional extensive damage from Bay St. Louis to Pascagoula.

"Preliminary surveys confirm that Red Cross has a major disaster relief operation to aid disaster victims.

"Costly operation this early in the fiscal year plus our limited disaster revolving fund require the assessment of minimum quotas to all chapters with the objective of raising at least $6-million.

"We will appreciate the cooperation of your chapter in raising $441 as your share of the

Sen. Yarborough Says Viet Pullout Not In Balance

Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, in Hereford on the third day of his five-day tour of the Texas Panhandle, made state meetings concerning the feed grain program, Vietnam, the US Post Office Department, and interest rates, from questions posed by members of a Deaf Smith County Bull Barn audience which numbered more than 100 people.

On the feed grain program, the senator, who has been a member of the US Senate for the past 12½ years, told his audience Wednesday night that he realized from area travel there is a need for price support controls and explained that the Senate had voted a 4-year extension on the present feed grain program, but the House of Representatives had vetoed it.

"The House agreed to a one-year extension," Sen. Yarborough said. "But the Senate is now trying to write a new farm bill, which has been agreed upon by 18 or 19 farm organizations."

He pointed out that 74-million acres are now under consideration for retirement. "But this plan will ruin many of our small towns, and the farmers will be forced to move into the large cities. However, a feeder has been put out that livestock can be placed on this land. But when this happens, livestock will be placed into competition with grain feeders. It would ruin the price on grain."

Sen. Yarborough, who said that he is not on the Agriculture Committee but is a member of the Agriculture Appropriations Sub-committee, stated that he is constantly fighting to return to the January budget. "Agriculture legislation is now stalled. Wheat allotment has been cut — this means less jobs and many others will suffer. Bankers are in a bind. When they loan money on crops, they must know when they will get their money back. They do not know at this point."

The subject was changed to a focus on the war in Vietnam. Sen. Yarborough stated, "We have more troops in Vietnam now than we had during the previous administration." He quoted no figures on the troop deployment but said that the current troop withdrawal "has been greatly publicized, but nothing has been said about the larger number going into Vietnam."

He had said earlier that he believed President Nixon would have to use the same phasing-out plan which had been outlined by former President Johnson.

A man in his audience identified himself as an employee of Bell Helicopter and reported that he has seen many of the aircraft upon its return from combat. He wanted to know, "Why the Marine Corps winds up with obsolete equipment?"

The senator replied, "I cannot answer why the equipment is obsolete. Congress has the money for good equipment. There is $5,200,000,000 in the budget for war materials. But the real cost is in lives, although the monetary cost is also high."

Yarborough reported that he had been in the Army during World War II. "In a few more weeks, we will have lost as many men in Vietnam as we did in World War I. Vietnam has become our 'longest war in history'. It is an unwise military war. I previously served under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who said, 'Don't ever get bogged down in a land war in Asia'. Another general later made the same statement. But we didn't pay any attention to either of them. I believe this was a mistake."

He reported that there are now more US Air Force bombing raids "on the Vietnam trail than we have ever had," but the long strips for take-offs are based in Thailand. But he said that he is not qualified to answer Air Force technical problems, that his experience has been with the Army.

But he did voice his opposition to the Anti-Ballistic Missile system, and tagged it, "America's biggest mistake."

Sen. Yarborough said, "The ABM is a gimmick, as I look at it. We had extensive briefings on it on both sides of the question prior to the vote. Many of the scientists said it would be obsolete before it was built."

He said that it was President Johnson's plan for the ABM to "be around industrial complexes. But President Nixon's plan is to situate it in Montana and the Dakotas where it would only protect Spokane, Wash."

On the long-pending question concerning the continued civil service operation of the Post Office or to turn it over to private enterprise, Yarborough stated, "There are more bugs in the Post Office bill than in the wood I used to move near the Neches River at my home in Henderson County."

Sen. Yarborough also pointed out that there have been three interest raises in the past seven months by the government. He said that he believes this

First Baptist Youth Organize Relief Program

A Mississippi Disaster Relief, sponsored by the youth of the First Baptist Church, has been organized here, and all local residents are asked to assist with the program by donating needed items.

Some 30 youth of the church met last week to organize the program which will aid the victims of the recent damages incurred by hurricane Camille at Gulfport, Mississippi.

A truck has been rented by the church group and they will take all the items to Gulfport, personally.

Residents are urged to donate as much as possible toward the relief program and items needed the most are baby food and baby clothing. All other types of items will also be taken, it was added.

Though sponsored by the youth of the First Baptist Church, the program is also seeking help from all other churches throughout the city.

Though indefinite at the present time, it is believed that the youth will take paper sacks around town and leave them and return next Tuesday to pick them up.

Anyone wishing to help the program are asked to contact either Jud Nowotny at 364-3590; Ed Lane at 364-3597; Kathleen Robinson at 364-0010; or Benny Wombie at 364-0632.

Help Needed In "Patterning"

Pattern exercises for children will begin each day at 2:30 p.m. when school starts and three ladies are needed to aid in this instruction.

Mrs. Charlene Brownlow reported that volunteers may contact her at 364-0630. The exercises are performed at First United Methodist Church.

"If the ladies can volunteer one afternoon per week, it will be appreciated," Mrs. Brownlow said.

Patterning is an exercise for the young retardate.

Miss Caison Wins Best All-Around Musician Trophy

Miss Dee Anne Caison, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Caison Jr., 147 Liveoak, was among the top ten talent winners in the music division of the World Little Miss Pageant held in Dallas August 17-20.

Out of 100,000 entrants, Dee Anne received a trophy for being the world's best all-around musician in that division with her organ talents.

Preliminaries were held at the Royal Coach Inn in Dallas with finals being staged at the Apparel Mart.

The entire Caison family accompanied Dee Anne to the contest. They returned Thursday night.

Voters Urged Out For ASC Election

Every eligible voter is urged to participate in the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) community and county committee elections, County ASC Committee Chairman Frank J. Bezner stated.

Palsy . . .

Often, braces are used to control the legs while the person learns to walk. In other cases, surgery may be used, or drugs to help the muscles to relax.

The speech muscles of many persons with cerebral palsy are disturbed so that it is difficult for other persons to understand what they say. Speech corrections try to help these patients learn to use the muscles better so they can speak more clearly.

The education of children with cerebral palsy is determined by their intelligence level. If the child's intelligence is normal or above, he takes the same studies as any other boy or girl of similar age or ability. On the other hand, if he is mentally handicapped, his education is adjusted to his abilities, just as it is in classes for other mentally handicapped children.

Parents and other older persons sometimes make the mistake of not helping them at all — or else of doing many things for them which the children will learn to do for themselves.

A child who has cerebral palsy needs some help, but it should be the kind of help that makes it possible for him to learn to do things for himself. This child may or may not ever have the opportunity to join a Little League, Pony League, or Colt League baseball teams, become a Boy Scout or Camp Fire Girl, but he can be trained for a life as normal as is possible under his particular circumstances.

And there are the adults with cerebral palsy — and those in the future who might become its victims. Such training enters the picture again.

In the Hereford area, it is done in Amarillo through the United Fund.

eves, Route 3, Gene Fooks, pastor of Hermosa Drive Church of Christ at Artesia, N.M. and formerly of Hereford, officiated for the double ring service. Arrangements of white and yellow gladiolus were illuminated at the altar area by burning, cathedral tapers in spiral candelabra. Miss Vickie Payne of Muleshoe was maid of honor and best man was the bridegroom's brother, Glenn Ray Reeves of Ft. Worth. Ushers were Darrell Fiood and Robert Hewett. Candles were lighted by Miss Nicki Stipe. Robert Bell, organist, played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Max Stipe as she sang "Because," "Climb Every Mountain" and "Whither Thou Goest." Given in marriage by her father, the bride's formal gown of traditional silk organza was styled with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt with a scalloped lace panel falling to the hemline with a double row of lace panels terminating in a cathedral train. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a caplet of silk organza rosettes. She carried a cascade bouquet of white pompon chrysanthemums centered with gold sweet-heart roses. Her only jewelry was an heirloom cameo belonging to her great-grandmother. Miss Payne wore a formal gown of yellow chiffon and lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She carried a nosegay of yellow pompon chry-santhomums centered with a white rose. Miss Stipe wore a yellow frock trimmed with lace. Miss Kay Nell Reeves of Irving, Tex., sister of the bridegroom, registered wedding guests at the reception which followed in the church Fellowship Hall. The serving table was laid with ecru lace over yellow, centered with the bridal bouquets flanked by candelabra. The four-tiered wedding cake which was made by Mrs. Ray Harrison, sister of the bride, was surmounted by wedding bells. Presiding at the table were Miss Gay Womble and Miss Deborah Gholson, sister of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Ray Harrison. Other houseparty members included Mmes. Lewis Les, Ray Watson, Ervin Robinson Jr., W. H. Gholson of Quanah and Mrs. Sam Gholson of Muleshoe. Following a wedding trip to New Mexico the couple will be at home at Alameda, Calif. after Sept. 1, where he is stationed as a parachute rigger with the navy. The bride's traveling costume was a brown and white print linen dress and coat with white accessories. The bride and groom are both graduates of Hereford High School. Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gholson, Mr. and Mrs. John Payne, Muleshoe; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gholson Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott Jr., Mrs. Rena Gholson, all of Quanah; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ray Reeves, Ft. Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

WHAT'S IN A NAME — Saint Jo, in Montague County, got its name because one of its founders had a thing about drinking alcoholic beverages.

The townsite was laid out in 1873 by Captain I. H. Boggess and his partner Joe Howell. Legend has it that Boggess, who liked his liquor, did the actual surveying of the site after he had belted down a few drinks. As a result, the town's streets do not run exactly north and south or east and west as Boggess intended they should.

At any rate, Boggess built the Stonewall Saloon (now restored) as the town's first permanent building. Joe Howell expressed his displeasure at his partner's profiting from strong drink and asked Boggess what he planned to name his sinful town.

Boggess thought the question over, looked at his partner and replied: "Since you're so high-minded, I think we ought to name it after you. We'll call it Saint Joe." It's still named that — without the final "e".

MYSTERY MAN — For many years following Texas' war for independence, a prominent and successful rancher near Goliad was a man named George Skull.

Skull was not his real name, however. He had been a soldier in the Goliad massacre and had been wounded in the head. He escaped death — a miracle that he attributed to his hard head. He decided to change his last name to Skull and used it until he died.

HEAR THE TRAIN BLOW — For the first time in years, there's a new passenger train operating in Texas.

Since May 30, the Texas Central Railroad has been operating "The Goober Special" between Dublin and DeLeon daily except Monday and Tuesday. The train leaves Dublin at 3 p.m., takes an hour to travel the 12 miles to DeLeon, then lays over an hour while passengers visit the Texas Railroad Museum in the local depot.

The Texas Central, built originally in 1888 from Waco to Rotan, was one of the first railroads to own and operate sleeping cars. Since 1950, it has had no passenger service of any kind until this summer.

WIDE-AWAKE TOWN — Houston citizens, convinced that it would take careful teamwork to make their hamlet into a city, organized a Chamber of Commerce 129 years ago!

65 YEARS AGO — 1904.

For some two or three years past, Hereford has been talking of having a picnic. This season's talk began early last spring and has been kept up pretty well all the summer, with no prospects of a picnic in sight. At the farmers' meeting Saturday, it was definitely arranged to have the festival in Hereford Saturday, September 3rd, and that there might not be anything overlooked which would make the occasion a success, the following were appointed to make all necessary arrangements: G. A. Hughes, chairman; A. H. Elliston, F. Herron, R. H. Norton, T. M. Coulson, T. J. Graves, and E. B. Black.

50 YEARS AGO — 1919

In addition to taking up the matter of holding a 1919 fair, the Chamber of Commerce directors last Friday resolved to work up another banquet and membership meeting of the Chamber soon after the fair closes, and ask the membership to elect another board for another year. If an unexpected hitch does not occur, the Hereford Light and Power Co. will soon be pumping the water used locally by the Santa Fe railroad.

35 YEARS AGO — 1934.

Deaf Smith County's relief needs for the next five months will equal or exceed that of the same period a year ago, according to an estimate prepared in the relief office this week. At a meeting yesterday of the county relief committee and a number of citizens, it was decided to recommend to the legislature and relief department that the estimate be considered as the absolute minimum. Hereford schools will have a maximum of $45,597 to spend next year. The figure was set at the public hearing on the budget last week.

20 YEARS AGO — 1949

The farmers who appeared in the interests of grasshopper control didn't even get to bat Monday in the County Commissioners meeting although the court did award the Road Bonds for the proposed farm-to-market paving program, agreed to open a new farm road and transferred $960.04 from other funds to make up a deficit in the Officer's salary fund. Fire completely destroyed George Heard's alfalfa warehouse at the mill two and a half miles east of town Monday night. The fire started from an unknown source some time before midnight.

5 YEARS AGO — 1964

With one phase of the summer vegetable season nearing its finish and with carrots just coming into the market, area crop producers Saturday paused to take a look backward and at the same time to plan ahead for the busiest part of the harvest season yet to come. Prospects for a big year are bright, agriculture men agreed. At the Tower Drive-In Theatre: Darryl F. Zanuck's "The Longest Day." Due to the length of the picture it will only be shown one time each night at 8:15 p.m.

Secondary Advantages

Since the Mackenzie water project was first conceived, we have deliberately confined our remarks to its primary purpose... providing municipal water for Tullia, Silvertown, Lockney, and Floydada. All four towns are going to need surface water in the foreseeable future. Silvertown must have it day before yesterday!

Obviously, there are other aspects to this project... specifically, recreation. But we haven't thought it wise to talk recreation lest someone get the idea that we really don't need the water, the promoters just want a place to go fishing!

Our water needs are much too serious to risk a misunderstanding among the people... so we have simply been presenting our water needs... period.

It might also be said that ultra conservatism has been practiced in every phase of this proposed project. In determining whether there would be enough water to serve the four cities, it was assumed that rainfall in the Tule Creek watershed would be the lowest on record. And it was discovered that even in a year with minimum rainfall, there would be sufficient water in the lake to make the project feasible.

It has been assumed, for financial reasons, that the only income would be from the sale of water and taxation. These are the only sources of income sufficiently guaranteed to satisfy those who buy the bonds.

We all know that there will be other income, primarily from recreation.

Americans are recreation mad! They patronize recreational spots such as Lake Meredith, Buffalo Lake, and all the others, even if they don't have grocery money. Minor spots such as Burson Lake are crowded. The Mackenzie project will provide one of the best recreational spots in the area. There will be fishing, lake front acreages for sale for cabins and summer homes, all of which will bring in revenue, not only to the authority but to the area towns involved.

This income from recreation will be just as real as that derived from taxes and the sale of water. There are other possibilities.

In the case of a similar project south of here, an oil company came along and contracted for enough wa-

'Acid' Generates Sleep

Occasionally there appear exceptions to the generation gap.

The other night they had a rock-and-roll show at the Mid-South Coliseum featuring acid, which has been defined as "a lot of noise and a lot of flashing lights." Midway through the evening reports one of the teenage boys present, the youngster sitting next to him went sound asleep.

And that indicates either boredom or an appreciation for slumber, one of the finer things of life. Maybe there is hope. —Memphis Commercial Appeal ter is in the area, no available water gain, this is income we can't borrow money against; nevertheless, it is a very real possibility. As scarce as water is in this area, no available water supply is going begging. A number of towns, including Tullia, tried to get in on the Canadian River project, but all were turned down.

Who knows... the time may come when towns not so fortunate as Tullia, Silvertown, Lockney and Floydada may be begging us to sell them water.

Nothing would please us more if somehow our underground water fooled the experts and we continued to have enough to supply our needs, making it unnecessary to draw on water from the Mackenzie project. It would be there like a million dollar insurance policy, ready to quench our thirst if and when we needed it. We would still enjoy the recreational advantages.

But we all know this is wishful thinking... as any irrigation farmer in the area knows, our underground water is being depleted and inevitably the day will come when we must look to another source.

Someone may feel that eventually we'll have water from the Mississippi River and won't need the Mackenzie water. In fact, before the recent election someone asked us, "If the amendment carries, we won't need the Mackenzie project, will we?"

It is only common sense to recognize the fact that we can get water from Mackenzie much more economically than we could from the mouth of the Mississippi River.

The fact is... water from both Mackenzie and the Mississippi... is a must!

A vote for the Mackenzie project on Sept. 6 will be one of the wisest votes we ever cast.

It's Tough All Over!!!

In reply to your request to send check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to the Federal Laws, County Laws, City Laws, Corporation Laws, Liquor Laws, Mother-in-Laws, Brother-in-Laws, Sister-in-Laws, and Outlaws.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, school tax, gas tax, water tax, service tax and excise tax. Even my brains are taxed. I am required to get a business license, car license, truck license, driver's license, not to mention a marriage license and a dog license.

I am also required to contribute to every social and organization which genius of man is capable of bringing to life. To women's relief, unemployment relief, flood relief, gold diggers relief. Also to every hospital and charitable institution in the city, including the Red Cross, the black cross, the purple cross and double cross.

For my own safety, I am required to carry life insurance, property insurance, liability insurance, unemployment insurance, old age insurance, theft insurance, flood insurance, compensation insurance and fire insurance.

My business is so governed that it is no easy matter for me to find out who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, disrespected, rejected, dejected, examined, reexamined, cross-examined, informed, required, demanded, fined and compelled until I provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race. Simply because I refused to donate to something or other, I am boycotted, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am almost ruined. I can honestly tell you that except for the miracle that happened I could not enclose this check. The wolf that comes to many doors nowadays just had pups in my kitchen. I sold them and here is the money.

MAIN STREET, U. S. A.

Postal Service Likely To Be Reorganized This Fall

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Hearings on postal reform have been completed by a House Committee and it is apparent that some sort of bill to reorganize the postal service will be reported to the House floor early this fall.

Whether the bill will call for a government corporation to operate the postal service, as has been proposed by the Nixon Administration, remains to be seen. However, there is no longer any doubt that some sort of postal reform will be enacted, although it may be another year before final action comes.

Postmaster General Winton M. Blount seems to have made a sale, at the committee level at least. He may not get his government corporation but he seems sure to achieve something close to it. If so, it will be the most far-reaching reform in the history of the mail service. A few months ago, this result did not seem possible.

When hearings began last April before the House Post Office Committee, Messrs. Nixon and Blount had not even made up their mind whether to endorse the corporate blueprint inherited from a study group established by Lyndon Johnson. Even the most ardent advocates of a corporate structure conceded publicly that reform would take years to achieve. Now it looks like a strong possibility for 1970.

UNIONS REMAIN OPPOSED

Earlier pessimism on the postal reform issue was based on the strong opposition of the postal unions. These unions, particularly the carriers and clerks, have a long record of successful lobbying in Congress. They are happy with the present arrangement by which they persuade the legislators to raise their pay and improve their working conditions, usually every year.

The unions are still opposed to a government corporation, which would mean that wages and working conditions would be a subject of collective bargaining, much as in private business. This shift would bring a marked change in the operation of the unions, which are geared to lobbying rather than to bargaining.

The unions have asked that they be given the right to strike, if a postal corporation is established. Few members of Congress are willing to go that far, the spectre of a national mail strike being most unpleasant to contemplate. It happened in Canada, but U. S. business could be brought to a virtual standstill if the mails did not move.

Postmaster General Blount, and his three immediate predecessors at the helm of the Post Office, have all urged that the lot of postal workers would be improved under the corporate structure, partly because mechanization would bring greater opportunities for advancement. There is some suspicion that the leaders of the postal unions may be thinking more of their own future than that of the rank-and-file in opposing a corporation.

WOULD ABOLISH CABINET POST

A key provision of the corporate plan is to abolish the post of Postmaster General as a Cabinet member. Instead, a hired executive would run the postal service, guided by a Presidentially-appointed Board of Directors responsible to the public. Politics would be banned by making all appointments and promotions on a merit basis.

After a five-year change-over period during which the postal corporation would continue to be subsidized by Congressional appropriations, the service would be required to operate on a self-sustaining basis, except for public service costs set forth by Congress and met by general tax revenues. The present law earmarks more than half of the annual operating loss as public services.

Mail rates would be set by a board of experts within the postal service, subject to a Congressional veto. Capital funds for modernization and mechanization would be financed by the sale of bonds by the corporation. This bond provision has been a major point of contention but Blount is convinced the system will work.

The proposal is admittedly drastic but the proponents have made a good case for what the Postmaster General has termed "this historic legislative effort."

THE BOOTLEG

—Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson-grass farm reflects on various dull jobs this week, mostly from a theoretical viewpoint.

Dear editor:

I was reading a three-weeks-old copy of The Amarillo Daily News yesterday, when a man is confronted with the job of fixing a fence in the middle of August he'll read anything he can get his hands on, and ran into an article that said that "picking grapes in the blazing sun is one of the dullest jobs a man can have."

I have never picked grapes, unless you count pulling off one or two from a bunch in the grocery store just to sample, and don't intend to do a lot of things around this Johnson-grass farm, on the theory that a public-spirited man, recognizing that everybody is entitled to a job, will leave some work for the next generation.

But I got to thinking. What is the dullest job a person can have, in or out of the blazing sun?

Even if it is out of the weather, I've never been able to imagine a monotonously duller job than acting two afternoons and six nights a week in the same Broadway play for three years on end.

I know people who'd choose grape-picking every time over proof-reading, especially editorials, and proof-reading over playing golf, and playing golf over selling insurance. As much as I manage to avoid it, I'd take going up one row and down another on a tractor to follow a candidate for three months and listening to the same speech three times a day.

Crawling under a low-slung house to fix a leaky pipe is so dull I've let one go for months without doing anything about it.

I've heard returned-soldiers say grape-picking would be delightful compared with the monotony of army life. Some bachelors say the same about married life and some married people say the same about bachelorhood.

But I believe I'd nominate for first place the job the space scientists are planning for some astronaut. They say that by mid-August of 1981 they'll have a man leaving for Mars, arriving there after 12 months of sailing through nothing, spending three months on the planet, swinging past Venus in 1982 and returning to Earth in 1983.

It's afraid spending two years in a capsule millions of miles out in space with a computer as a companion is going to make grape-picking sound exciting.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Miss Suzanne Oglesby Marries James Myers

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oglesby, 114 Fir, was the setting for the pretty wedding of their daughter, Suzanne, to James Henry Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Myers, 312 Centre. The Rev. Sam Ogan, pastor of the Frio Baptist Church, officiated for the 7:30 double ring ceremony Friday evening.

Marking the place of ceremony in the den were arches of votive candles and greenery centered by a bouquet of pink and white roses in a sterling compote.

Mrs. Bill Penn, pianist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Bob Nelson as he sang "How Deep is the Ocean" and "If Ever I Would Love You." Selections presented by Mrs. Penn before vows were exchanged included "Whither Thou Goest," "True Love" and "The Twelfth of Never."

Miss Oglesby was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Miss Martha Kate Aiken and Wayne Miller served as best man. David Myers, brother of the bridegroom, was usher.

Michael Oglesby, brother of the bride, was ring bearer and the groom's brother, Tom Myers, lighted the tapers. White silk chiffon made the bride's formal gown with a full rose point ace cage gathered at the back to form a chapel train. A tiara of seed pearls and rinstones held her elbow length veil of illusion and she carried a white glamelia bouquet on a bridal Bible.

Her only jewelry was a string of pearls with matching earrings.

Miss Aiken wore a formal empire styled taffeta cerise gown with a matching headpiece and bouffant veil and carried a bouquet of pink glamelias.

A reception followed the ceremony where Miss Cathy Myers, sister of the bridegroom, registered the guests.

Lace draped the serving table which was centered with an arrangement of pink lace flowers brought from London, England, by the bride. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with wedding bells. Presiding was Miss Becky Oglesby, cousin of the bride.

For a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride's traveling ensemble was a black and white suit with black all-gator accessories. Her corsage of glamelias was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home after August 28 in Lubbock where they will both attend Texas Tech.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mrs. J. H. Myers, Miss Ethel Myers, Mrs. Archie Shelton, all of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Berry and Mrs. H. J. Oglesby of Amarillo.

The workshop is sponsored by the Amarillo Diocesan co-ordinators of Youth Work. The session will include lectures and discussions on "Your Vision of Youth," "A Christian Leader" and "Youth Leadership in Liturgy", concluding with the celebration of Mass and a supper.

Five years; Laverne Carlile, six years; Bessie Saulcy, seven years; Ronda Curtsinger, a volunteer pin; and Jerrye Jackson, also a volunteer pin.

A Combined Service Territory meeting will be held September 17 in Pampa. Each member is encouraged to attend.

Kentucky remained largely uncharted and unknown until 1750 when Dr. Thomas Walker and a small band of surveyors entered the territory.

Texas Water Plan Clayton Out For Overall Approval

AUSTIN — State Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake has taken the first step pointing toward ultimate approval of an overall water plan for Texas, proposing a joint interim study committee to look into all phases of the Texas water situation.

Clayton made the proposal in a resolution which would set up the committee comprised of three members from the Texas House of Representatives, three members from the Senate, and three members to be named by Gov. Preston Smith. The committee would report its findings back to the 62nd State Legislature which convenes in Jan., 1971.

The committee stems from failure of Constitutional Amendment No. 2 at the polls on Aug. 5. The proposal, which would have provided the financing for implementation of the Texas Water Plan, was defeated by less than 6,000 votes.

The water plan, proposed by the Texas Water Development Board, would come under the scrutiny of the special interim committee, and, the committee would look into the ecological effects from implementation of the plan.

As proposed by Clayton, the committee would hold fact-finding hearings throughout the state, explaining the water plan and consider alternate proposals from legislators and from the public.

The resolution calls on the Texas Water Development Board, the Texas Water Quality Board and the Texas Water Rights Commission to cooperate with the committee to the end that a comprehensive picture of the Texas water situation can be obtained.

The committee's work could lead to another statewide vote on the Texas Water Plan or on a similar proposal calling for importation of water into the state, and from areas within the state where surpluses exist to areas which lack adequate water.

Cross Volunteer Luncheon Held

The American Red Cross Volunteer luncheon was held Thursday at the Chaparral Restaurant.

It was announced that the Ditty Bags were to be filled and returned by September 15 as they had to be packed and shipped by September 30.

Deaf Smith County's quota for Hurricane Camille was announced as $441. Each member present gave a donation toward this goal.

Service pins were awarded to Bea Hutson, one year; Ora Morgan, one year; Rosie Wall, two years; Nell Culpepper, Craftwork Displayed

Displaying their hand-made craftwork after each of the Sunday masses at St. Anthony's Church last Sunday were children from the Catholic Children's Home of Panhandle.

Since the children share in the return from the sale of the articles of ceramics, woodwork, sewing and knitting, they were pleased to dispose of 85 percent of their supply.

Accompanying the children, Gloria Hernandez, Lynda Cooper, Sammy Rodriguez and Benny Martin, were Sisters Martin and Valentina.

Following the piano numbers, Mrs. Hamilton entertained the audience with moving pictures featuring the Home, its residents and their activities in June 1968 through July 1969. The audience was again favored with three organ and piano duos and one piano duet by Mrs. H. K. Kendrick and Mrs. Hamilton. The selections were "Almost Persuaded", "The Angels Serenade", and "The Lord Is My Shepherd", followed by the piano duet, "The Dance of the Demon", an added pleasure and gaiety to the program.

Mrs. Don Davidson gave a short but inspiring closing as she expressed appreciation to those who had given us such a pleasant evening.

Mrs. G. E. Hamilton attended the wedding of her grandson, Harry Hamilton, to Adrienne Smith at Lubbock Saturday. She also attended the rehearsal dinner Friday.

By MELVIN YOUNG

A representative of the Texas Highway patrol spoke to the Hereford Lions Club last week and told a couple of jokes that have apparently jogged the memory of a lot of the local fellows and a raft of stories (supposedly true) have come forth since.

Jim Freeman, a patrolman for the Texas Department of Public Service told the yarn about the trucker, barreling along a Nebraska Highway at 80 miles an hour, who, when finally stopped by the highway patrol, gave the following explanation:

"Well officer, you know I've got 83,000 lbs. on this truck and I don't have any brakes. It's sure hard to stop this rig. Soon as I get home I'm going to have them fixed though. I live in Dallas."

The highway patrolman was almost speechless. Here this driver was heading down the road at 80 miles an hour with an 83,000 lb. load on his truck and no brakes. It was almost unbelievable. "What would you have done," he asked the trucker, "if you had topped a hill and discovered a bad wreck up ahead?"

"Well sir" replied the driver. "I'd reached back and woke up Leroy. You see, Leroy ain't never seen no real bad wreck before."

Which reminds us of the story about the fellow who was driving about 90 on the expressway between Amarillo and Canyon when he suddenly realized that he was about to pass a highway patrolman. Thinking fast, he started honking his horn and waving at the patrolman as he went around, then slowing up and pulling off the road. Jumping out of his car and running back to meet the bewildered highway patrolman, he said: "Gosh you guys are hard to catch. There's a drunk on the highway about 5 miles back and he's going to kill someone if you don't stop him." The patrolman turned around and started back the other way in search of the drunk driver while the speedster went on his merry way. A bit slower than before however.

And then Lloyd Pool tells the story of being stopped by a patrolman down south. "What's the hurry", the patrolman asked.

"I'm late", Lloyd said.

"Late for what", the patrolman asked.

"Late for supper in Abilene", Lloyd replied.

It was a good story, but Lloyd got a ticket anyway.

G. S. "Mutt" Wheeler noticed an advertisement about a fire truck for sale out in California, and just for fun, he submitted a bid. It may have been the only bid submitted, but regardless, "Mutt" bought the fire wagon.

There was nothing left to do now but go to California, pay for the truck, and bring it home. He did. And coming back through Arizona, "Mutt" was stopped for speeding. Upon questioning by the patrolman, "Mutt" explained that he was going to a fire. "Where is the fire?" the patrolman asked. "In Texas", Wheeler replied. He got a ticket.

By the way, he finally got that fire truck home and sold it. We presume he made enough profit to cover his speeding ticket too.

Tom Roberson, who farms out north of town, told us the other day to quit worrying about the lack of birds around the house. "They're all out at my place eating my milo."

Hadn't thought about that, but apparently the pickings are better out in the country than in town, and not nearly as many cats to worry about.

The snail, an unusually hardy animal, survives temperatures from 48 to 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and can tolerate highly polluted water.

Bangaway with earnings of $84,439 was the top money-winning trotter in 1949. In 1968, Nevada Pride topped the list with $427,440.

Farmers Still Low In Income Bracket

The most recent report on farm income and the projections for 1969 are more encouraging than previously anticipated, but the agricultural economy is still well beneath levels of comparable economic segments; according to the chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Frank J. Bezner.

He said, "Per capita income of farm people lags 25 percent behind that of nonfarmers. Yet farm productivity has been increasing more than 5 percent a year which is about twice the rate for industry."

"Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin pointed out recently that the foundation stone on which free enterprise rests is that increased productivity and efficiency will bring commensurate economic rewards. But this has not been the case for agriculture. Increased productivity has sometimes meant less income."

Chairman Bezner said that many nonfarm people do not realize how much their own income depends on agriculture. He commented that agriculture is a $50 billion customer in the American economy, that the farmer buys more petroleum than any other industry, more electricity than all the people and industries of Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Baltimore and Washington D.C. combined, and buys annually products containing more than 6.5 million tons of steel.

"Everybody has a stake in agriculture," he said. "The food we eat, the clothes we wear, frequently the jobs we hold — all depend on a productive, prosperous farm economy."

"But a healthy farm economy in turn depends to a large extent on increased understanding by all Americans of agriculture's problems, needs, and contribution. The development of sound, effective and acceptable farm programs for the 1970s is a responsibility of all Americans," the ASC chairman concluded.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

Q — I was billed for additional income taxes. Can I pay this off in installments?

A — Full payment is due by the date stated on the bill. There is no provision in the law for paying these taxes on an installment basis.

Q — I lost my refund check and filled out a form for a new one over a month ago. What is holding it up?

A — Before another refund check can be issued, a thorough search must be made of Treasury records, the Post Office and other sources to see if the missing check can be located. When this search is completed another check can be issued.

Q — I made a profit when I sold my vacation home. Can I postpone paying tax on this if I put all the money into another summer place?

A — No, the provision in the tax law that permits the postponement of tax on the profits from the sale of a personal residence only applies to the taxpayer's principal residence. A second home, or a vacation home, is not covered.

Q — I sold some standing timber on my farm to a lumber company. Is this regular income or a capital gain?

A — Such a sale is usually reported as a capital gain or loss. For details on when sale of timber is treated as a capital gain, send a post card to your District Office requesting IRS Publication 544, Sales and Exchanges of Assets.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ: If the credit men's association had an annual award for the outfit that collected the greatest percentage of accounts, there wouldn't even be a contest. Internal Revenue would have to be declared the winner by a wide margin every year.

It sounds like the tax folks are fumbling around when you read the stories about the millions declared "uncollectible." When you take a look at Internal Revenue's record of 2-10 of 1 percent declared "uncollectible" out of $168 billions collected, it looks a little different.

However, getting on the "uncollectible" list is only a temporary blessing. If Internal Revenue has your tax account marked "uncollectible," about the only way that you can keep it that way is to die - or never earn any more money - because as soon as you become able to pay, Internal Revenue is usually able to collect.

farming operations, provide for the return of dollars invested in the crop when failure occurs, enhances credit ratings and allows secured borrowing, Jordan said.

FCIC Insurance Deadline Near

New applications for Federal Crop Insurance on the 1970 wheat crop must be filed by August 31, 1969, according to an announcement by FCIC State Director Ben A. Jordan, Jr., of College Station.

Jordan said that insured farmers in the state are sharing in an estimate of $5,750,000 in loss payments for the 1969 crop when excessive moisture, drought, wind, freeze, plus other natural causes damaged their crops.

Federal Crop Insurance helps eliminate the uncertainties of weather or other natural hazards to the crop by providing cash payments to farmers when yields fall below policy guarantees.

Photography Is Added In High School Class

With the opening of this school term instruction in photography will be added to the Graphic Arts course.

The vocational department of Hereford High School was already offering a wide range of printing trades under the supervision of J. Marvin Hunter, who has spent many years in the newspaper and commercial printing business.

As an introduction to the "steps into photography" Hunter will assist his students in processing pictures taken on vacations this summer. The accompanying photographs are an example of some Hunter made on a trip this summer, one in the National Arches mountains north of Moab, Utah, and the other at Vallecito Lake near Durango, Colo.

After the pictures are finished they will be made into decoupages and placed in the display window at the classroom.

While attending the Coordinated Vocational-Academic Education workshop in Fort Worth early this month, Hunter learned that Hereford is far ahead of other vocational schools in Texas in the field of teaching the printing trades.

"Here the school not only meets the requirements for the CVAE course in office duplication practices, but it offers the student guidance in preparing for a successful and satisfying career in a broad field of the graphic arts," Hunter said. Here the student may excel in one or more of the printing trades, from spirit duplication and mimeographing, to bindery, to letterpress and offset techniques.

The knowledge of photography can be helpful in any or all of these operations, Hunter pointed out.

U. S. synthetic rubber consumption in 1969 is expected to reach 1.95 million long tons, compared with 1.86 million long tons in 1968, nearly a five per cent increase, according to the International Institute of Synthetic Rubber Producers.

HHS DE Class Numbers 35 Now

Distributive Education instructor G. C. Graves of Hereford High School reported that HHS has 35 DE candidates this semester.

"Businessmen have really been cooperative in placing them on jobs here," Graves said. "We now have only eight applicants who have not been placed." He said that prospective employers who have job openings at this time should call him at 364-4456 or at his home in the evenings at 364-1254.

Harvey Penner Earns Degree

Harvey J. Penner, Hereford High School instructor, received his master's degree of education with a major in industrial education in commencement exercises held Thursday evening at West Texas State University.

Penner resides at 210 Hickory in Hereford with his wife, Ann and two daughters.

He has taught power mechanics and drafting at HHS for the past five years.

Penner earned his bachelor's degree from Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla.

Clark Andrews And Family Weather Hurricane Camille

(Editor's note: Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews of Frío were in Biloxi, Mississippi, during the devastating Hurricane Camille, whose toll has risen to approximately 300 people at last report. On vacation, the Andrews family arrived there on Thursday of last week and remained until Tuesday, for a visit with Mrs. Andrews' sister and husband, the Wallace Whites, formerly of Hereford. Back in Frío now, Mrs. Andrews has written an account of her family's Camille experiences.)

Eye-Witness Report
By MRS. CLARK ANDREWS
Upon arising last Sunday morning in Biloxi, Miss., we found ourselves in a situation we had never faced before — and we hope never again.

As we went about our regular morning routine of preparing breakfast we noticed the small grocery store behind us was doing a landslide business. We discussed all the people being out so early getting supplies as we ate breakfast.

Having satisfied our hunger pains, gathered Sunday School books, Bibles, and the right number of people that were going along, we started out to ready ourselves for Camille.

We were going first to the First Baptist Church of Biloxi, which is located one block from the beach. However, it was about four miles from where we were and across the back-bay bridge.

Driving along Highway 90 with rain falling and people hurrying about, it was really no different than any other morning in Biloxi.

As we neared a large supermarket, we noticed the parking lot was almost filled to capacity and decided that maybe we should get some groceries and wait a while before taking the girls across the bay bridge to church.

Upon entering the market, the most obvious sight to witness was a completely empty bread rack! Not one loaf of bread could we buy. This was one grocery shopping spree when we could not stand around trying to decide what to buy, compare prices, etc. Everyone knew what they wanted — and much to our sorrow everyone wanted the same things.

My sister had taken the grocery basket to get some milk and I went by the shelves which contained Vienna sausage, sardines, tuna, etc. Standing there a second, I realized that everything was disappearing before my eyes. So I picked up eight cans of Vienna sausage and hoped my sister would return before everything was completely gone.

We noticed the length of the waiting lines at the check-out counters. One brain wave came through and quickly our basket was put in line, with other members of our family commuting back and forth into other parts of the store.

Clark decided we should get some gas. He left us at the store and drove to a filling station. On this trip, he discovered that the back bay bridge was opened so that shrimp boats could enter for protection.

Having missed Sunday School because of grocery-buying, the bridge opening also eliminated the worship service.

We returned home and listened to pleas through the local television station for the people in all low-lying areas to evacuate by mid-afternoon, and for those who remained to fill their bathtubs and other vessels with water.

Having complied with these emergency measures, we were satisfied that we were ready for Camille. After our noon meal, we settled down to watch T.V. more closely.

The Mayor of Biloxi pleaded with the people several times to evacuate or go to specified shelters. Over and over he stated that Hurricane Betsy in 1965 had only 8-foot tidal waves, the hurricane in 1947 had 11-foot tidal waves, but the forecast for Camille was 15 to 20-foot tidal waves.

By this time, we were beginning to have a few tugs of fear and called to get the elevation of the particular housing district where we were staying. We were told it was somewhere between 18 and 20 feet above sea level. This sounded safe enough, so we taped our windows, completely boarded the picture window, and waited.

Rain was still falling and it was really a lazy Sunday afternoon. Someone suggested that we play a few games of 42 — which is our family favorite when we get together. We started playing — and the wind started blowing! There had been more breeze than usual all day, but around mid-afternoon on the "breeze" became considerably stronger.

As we sat at the table watching the tall pine trees touch the ground, we never knew whose bid it was — and we forgot to mark the 42 score! We just played automatically when it came our turn and hoped it was the right thing to do.

I hurriedly filed my nails, fearing that if I didn't, they too would be lost in Hurricane Camille.

The wind was constantly getting stronger and the waves higher as Camille became the most unwelcome tourist in Biloxi in a number of years.

Local television and radio stations are housed in the large Buena Vista Motel, located on the beach, and from time to time the T.V. camera would show waves splashing on the piers — while the announcer was pleading with people to clear the streets.

An 8 p.m. curfew was placed on Biloxi as the winds intensified. And, at about that hour, the electricity failed. Our T.V. viewing was over.

Having had enough forethought for the purchase of batteries for the transistors in the house, we quickly switched over to them. (We decided later that the electricity must have been turned off as a safety precaution.)

After losing the Biloxi radio station broadcasts about 10:30, we listened to a New Orleans station for the remainder of the night.

About eleven, the winds became so strong that we placed two cots in the hallway as a seat. This became a coward's refuge. The thing that was so frightening was — not knowing what to expect.

There were many questions in our minds. Among them, had the eye hit land? Would we be in the direct path of the eye? How wide is the eye of a hurricane? Does the eye vary in size or is it just the winds around it that vary? How quickly do the winds diminish following one?

Some time during the night (we all had watches, but who cares what time it is during a hurricane?) looking out the window, we saw what appeared to be four people walking down the highway. We asked another question: Why in the world would anyone be out walking in such a storm?

Cars began to come from the south and down the highway. Were they having to flee at this hour? This added to our fears of the unknown.

Would daylight ever come? (Do you know how long our nights are? They seem to be twice as long as the days.)

About 4 a.m. with our transistors at our ears, we finally laid down to rest.

Reports came in that Gulfport and Biloxi had been completely demolished! This was hard for us to realize because we were safe and it was apparently over for us. Winds were gradually dying down at daybreak.

When morning light came, we soon realized the reports were indeed a reality for many people along the coast.

Offering thanks to God for our home, clothes, loved ones, and food, we ate a bowl of cereal apiece and had our orange. Then we set out to see what had happened around us throughout Sunday night and Monday morning.

Walls of the school where our nieces and nephews had attended were gone. One house had floated almost onto the highway. Some houses were completely gone. Others had brick laying crumpled around the foundation. Trailer houses were toppled. Cars had floated into an angle in carposts. Trees were down everywhere. Utility wires were a tangled mass.

We stopped to visit one of my sister's friends and listened to her tell how much they loved their home — and watched her throw away pictures, Bibles, and other treasures that cannot be replaced. Our sympathy went out to her. Yet, words could not convey our feelings.

Driving nearer to the back bay, we came upon a rooftop which had washed across the road. The house had belonged to a family who had been on our nephew's newspaper route.

The wife of the owner of the house, a school teacher, appeared and told us she had found a dresser which was still in one piece. Clark decided that he could transport it in the trunk of our car. They managed to get the dresser to my sister's garage, along with a coffee table she found later. No other furniture could be found there.

Our nephews had 23 paper customers south of old Highway 90, near the bay, and at least half of them had lost everything.

After surveying the damage — which we could see only in a half-mile radius of the White home and realizing that the hurricane had covered an area from 70 to 100 miles wide — we felt almost guilty returning to a safe, dry shelter.

As we gathered around the table at noon, we tried as best we could to express to God what we had felt in our hearts all morning.

Getting into Biloxi proper — which is on a peninsula — was impossible by car. The bridge had been open for boats when the power went off and there was no way of closing it. And, the bridge between Ocean Springs and Biloxi had shifted, so it too was impassable. Highway 90 from Gulfport was destroyed.

We drove to Pascagoula that afternoon and found that they had also had a power failure. We saw one grocery store and four filling stations in operation.

People who had relatives across the bay had no way of knowing what had happened to them.

After seeing as much as we did, we can more readily realize the horror of what must have been and still is going on in Biloxi and Gulfport.

Perhaps you are wondering why we stayed there 'all day

Sunday, when we had a chance to leave?

Well, had we left, we would still be wondering if our family was safe — or among those we are now seeing on T.V.

And, knowing that we were at least ten feet higher than the shelters there, we felt that we were safe.

After all, the old-timers there were not alarmed.

Why should we be?

Her headpiece was a matching bow with a brief veil and she carried a single stemmed carnation tied with blue satin streamers. A reception honoring the couple was held following the ceremony at the Ivan Block home.

An arrangement of chrysanthemums with burning tapers centered the serving table which was laid with a white cut-work cloth over blue. The two-tiered wedding cake was surmounted by the traditional bride and groom.

Highlights And Sidelights

Welfare Benefits To Rise

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Legislature is roaring through the final full week of a called special session with accomplishment of its major goals — adoption of a budget and a tax bill — in sight.

Senate scored a major breakthrough on its tax bill after a four hour floor debate and days of gloomy predictions of a deadlock.

Here are how tax bills passed by the House and Senate stack up, pending conference committee adjustment:

SENATE — An increase in the tax rate from three to 3.25 per cent with the levy extended to beer-liquor and telephone-telegram services; four cents a pack increase in the cigarette tax, from 11 cents to 15 cents; 50-cent raise in corporation franchise tax rate (to $3.25 per $1,000) with base for computing the tax expanded to include 25 per cent of out-of-state sales; boost in the natural gas production tax from seven to eight per cent and addition of a new documentary stamp tax of 50 cents per $500 value on land transfer documents.

HOUSE — An increase in the sales tax rate to 3.5 per cent; a new services tax of the same amount on telephone and telegraph, professional entertainment, auto, appliance and jewelry repairs, parking, laundry and dry cleaning; a five cents a pack raise in the cigarette tax and a 10-cent transactions levy on sale or purchase of stocks and other securities.

Total yield of the House bill was calculated at about $325 million. Senate bill originally figured at $360 million, but a delay in its effective date may reduce the take sharply.

Senate bill would share with those cities levying a local option sales tax the new income from tax on telephone and telegraph and alcoholic beverages. House bill did not propose such sharing from services levy.

Differences in the $1.2 billion Senate and $1.1 billion House general revenue budgets also are being hastily adjusted.

WELFARE BENEFITS TO RISE
Proving that what comes down eventually will go up, state welfare benefits will increase September 1.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), sharply reduced May 1 due to fund shortages, will rise at least 50 per cent.

Maximum grants to the aged also will increase from $110 to $125 a month. Aid to the disabled maximums will go up from $84 to $100 and aid to the blind from $96 to $110.

Increases were made possible by voters' August 5 adoption of the constitutional amendment to raise the welfare spending ceiling from $60 million to $80 million a year.

Public Welfare Board authorized an increase in AFDC to 75 per cent of budgeted family needs. AFDC checks were reduced May 1 to 50 per cent of budgeted needs.

New level of assistance will represent a 30 per cent increase over the average AFDC grant as of Jan. 2, 1968, effective date of a federal requirement that by last July 1 amounts used to determine needs in the AFDC program must reflect regular cost-of-living increases.

PRIVATE CLUB RULES STAND

An Austin district court has refused to block Texas Liquor Control Board from enforcing new rules for private clubs effective September 1.

Club operators asked the Board for a delay pending their appeal, but the Board said its rules appear clear enough and will be enforced pending an adverse court order.

Primarily at issue are sections of the rules which would require that club guests be personally introduced by a regular club member or accompanied by a member and that bills incurred be sent to and paid by a member. Latter would ban cash sales by clubs.

LCB member Joe Burkett Jr. of Kerrville told complaining club operators they may be needlessly "gun-shy". Agency said Burkett, is not interested in making a warranted arrest and prefers a "warning system" to a "complaint system."

"The Board has no desire to be punitive," said Chairman Tom Gordon of Abilene. "But it is our duty to enforce the Texas liquor control law... and that is precisely what we intend to do."

APPOINTMENTS

Gov. Preston Smith named Joe Frazier Brown of San Antonio as executive director of Criminal Justice Council in his office. Council met last week to consider $1.1 million in action grants to implement the state's war on crime.

Smith appointed to the new Polygraph (lie detector) Examiners Board San Antonio Police Sgt. Gene Ralph D. Nash; Hyden Allen Albert of Austin, supervisor of Texas Department of Public Safety polygraph section; Bobby Harvell Musser of Houston; James Davidson Williams of Dallas; William Dodge Starcher of Lubbock and Dee Estes Wheeler of Fort Worth.

Dr. Billy R. Walker, Ph. D., of Abilene was named Saturday as superintendent of San Angelo Center for Mentally Ill and Mentally Retarded. He has been assistant superintendent of Aoiene State School since 1967.

DPS promoted to Texas Ranger captains Sgt. Bill Wilson of Austin and Sgt. J. F. (Pete) Rogers of Houston. Wilson will command Company B in Dallas, and Rogers Company C in Lubbock.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

State Board of Insurance can consider insurance company investment income in setting auto coverage premium rates, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held in a new opinion. But Martin said he could offer no advice as to whether the Board should take investments into consideration in rate making.

In other recent opinions, Martin held that:

New theft-of-fish law may be enforced by Parks and Wildlife Department officers if the offense is committed in their presence or view and fish taken from the fish farm have value in excess of $200. Otherwise, enforcement lies with regular peace officers.

Dimmitt Feed Yards Inc., a custom cattle feeding lot, is not obligated to furnish to county tax assessor a list of the names of those owning cattle located within its confines on January 1.

WATER STUDY
Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake introduced a resolution creating a legislative-citizens study committee to take a full look at the Texas Water Plan, now that the voters refused to approve the $3.5 billion state bond issue to help finance the 50-year program.

Committee would be composed of three private citizens, three senators and three representatives. They would investigate other possible ways of financing the state water plan. Opponents of the bond issue raised the question, that the effect of 67 reservoirs and two large canals on the ecology of the state had not been given enough consideration by the Texas Water Development Board. Committee would hold hearings over the state on that.

Recommendations would be made to the Legislature in 1971, thus making it possible for a new election to be held that year or in 1972 on a finance plan.

pleased and I would be flattered.

Resources listed or hinted in this column are time, energy, money, space, ability, knowledge, organization, effort, determination, youth, experience, decision-making, family values, and wit. What others?

We had some 17 year-olds in our family marry this past week. All of us thought that is slightly young, but we didn't get to vote. When we saw they were serious, we cooperated. All material on budgeting, management, etc. from the office was showered on them. The prize comment from the groom was: "Thanks for the material on budgeting. When we run out of money, we'll read it!" Oh, well, we can't win 'em all!

How do I think people are doing in management? Just wonderful. Someone should congratulate them on their ability and seriousness, so I will. Congratulations!!

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa — One local school's unofficial initiation for new boys is called "hammer and nail". Ferdi Linde, 13, broke his arm in two places by acting as "nail" recently. The ceremony consisted of two upper class students swinging another boy as "hammer" against the crouching Ferdi.

READ THE WANT-ADS TODAY

Management is using family resources to get what each family member needs and wants. This is the purpose of all the planning, working and management people do to accomplish life's purpose. However, people have limited ideas about resources; all people consider money and time as resources, but do all consider energy, space, and abilities and others as very vital and very essential resources?

The evaluation has been completed on the management home study course that was presented in the county and in twelve other counties of the Panhandle. Those of us working closely with the Panhandle Economic Program, County Program Building Committee, Family Living Committee, Home Demonstration Council and 4-H Leaders Council feel the efforts, (yes, effort is a resource, too) extended to present the courses were very much worthwhile. There were six lessons, with references in the course.

What we found out: People learn through home study courses. Thirty-four of the 53 persons enrolled were young families. We consider a young family one who has pre-school or school children. Home study courses is a method of offering information to persons who could not attend group meetings.

The women enrolled reported the biggest change in shopping habits was in impulse buying. The biggest family change after taking the home study course was in the whole family making decisions on purchases.

All who reported on the evaluation stated that they had done more careful study of magazines, bulletins, and booklets, advertisements, and labels.

To me, the most important change of all reported by the enrollees was their learning to recognize their own values, that which is important to the individual or family. Individual values determine what we are willing to plan for, and work for in our life.

Marriage and Money, a talk we were asked to make to a church group, is in the office. If you'd like to read it or like a copy, naturally, the Family Living Committee would be

"The Army Green"

By Sfc BERT PINALES

U. S. Army Recruit

One thing about Vietnam is that the GI over there never knows what to expect.

Take the group of soldiers who heard noises coming from a clump of dense bamboo. The sounds came in from a semi-circle and the troops thought they were being surrounded. They called in for some mortar illumination rounds to light up the area. As soon as this was accomplished, the troops saw the "enemy."

He was a long-armed orangutan leaping from tree to tree. "When he saw us," one trooper said, "he began jumping around and clapping his hands as though he was happy to have company in the jungle."

MILITARY MUSIC

Here's this week's music lesson. It is on the history of military music which dates back to ancient times.

All armies used a horn or trumpet as a call to battle. Drums, probably the oldest musical instrument, were used by the Roman armies to beat cadence. The Romans also used horns, trumpets and cornets. The Swiss were the first to march in step with fife and drum.

Military music was played by the Turks and Arabs during battle so that the troops would know that all was going well.

AIRCRAFT REPAIR

Next to the Air Force, the Army has the largest fleet of fixed-wing aircraft and helicopters of any other service. Naturally, we also need many mechanics and other skilled persons to keep the aircraft in top shape.

There are several good training programs for men interested in aircraft maintenance and, as you can appreciate, chances are good for lining up a good civilian job if you decide not to make the Army your career. Call us at 364-1697 in Hereford or visit us at the Local Board on Tuesday for further information about these exciting ground crew opportunities.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

How often will I get paid in the Army?

Once a month with pay day falling on the last week-day of the month. Since food and board and almost everything else is free, you should not have too much trouble budgeting your money.

FACTS ABOUT THE ARMY

Did you know — That the practice of carrying military flags into battle ended with the Civil War?

— That the history of military chaplains dates back to the crusades?

RECREATION CENTERS

How many of you realize that the military operates recreation centers for servicemen and their families in Berchtesgarden, Chiemsee and Garmish, Germany?

Each center offers, at reasonable cost, every type of recreation imaginable, along with some of the best hotel accommodations and dining facilities available in Europe. The centers, which catered to 679,000 military vacationers last year, are run by the Armed Forces so that servicemen and their families in Europe can have a place to relax, ski and enjoy all types of sports.

Incidentally, the facilities are also available to servicemen stationed throughout the world, providing they make their own travel arrangements.

Junior High Physicals Set

Physicals for boys who plan to participate in the Stanton Junior High School athletic program will be taken this week, according to school officials.

Athletes will take their physicals Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Hereford Clinic.

Due to various reasons, La Plata athletes will take their physicals Tuesday, Sept. 2, also at the Hereford Clinic. It was originally scheduled that La Plata athletes would take their physicals this Tuesday, but plans were changed.

Concerning Veterans

Jack Coker, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, said he is as anxious as any campus GI over education checks arriving on time this fall.

He said the number of payday delays would be reduced drastically if veterans and schools will do the required paperwork and do it on time.

If the veteran was in college during the spring or summer semester and followed instructions by returning his Certification of Attendance at the end of the term, he has nothing more to do before his checks start arriving this fall. Assuming the college registrar follows through and promptly returns his new fall enrollment certification to the VA.

Veterans who did not return their Certification of Attendance to VA in June should do so immediately.

Veterans who have lost their Certification of Attendance card should obtain another one from the VA office that issued it and mail it in forthwith, Coker said.

Veterans who are enrolling for the first time this fall, or who have changed college or son, Robert, one daughter, Mrs. Edgar Vinson, both of Hereford, two sisters, Mrs. Alma Daniel, Winters, and Mrs. Flora Vestal, Mexia, and eight grandchildren.

Her Hobby Is Children

By BARBARA SWIMMER
Women's Editor

Mrs. Eugene Edens, 128 Cherokee, who recently moved here with her family from Lubbock, says her children, three-year-old Mike and Anne-Marie, who is just six-months old, are a full-time hobby for her. "Sometimes I feel like moving has been my hobby," she said, "because we have moved twice since Anne-Marie was born."

The Edens lived at Lubbock for three months in order for Edens to take several courses at the University. Prior to moving to Lubbock they resided at Temple where he owned and operated a business.

Edens is employed by Chemical Company of Texas in the animal health division.

Betty Edens says they are enjoying Hereford, with such friendly people, especially at the Central Church of Christ where they attend.

Another hobby Mrs. Edens enjoys is working with ceramics, which she says has come in handy at Christmas time. She has made many nice Christmas gifts with her talents, "in fact," she says, "I have given almost everything I've made, to someone else."

St. Anthony's Registration Number Down

St. Anthony's School registered over 230 students August 21, compared to last year's total registration of 232, according to Sister Protasia, principal.

Aiding the teachers with the registration were Meses, Vincent Gallagher, Israel Vera, Walter Paetzold, Walt Warren, Bill Faetzold and Alvin Schmuher. Registering for PTO membership were Meses, Duane Albracht and Raymond Schlabs.

Mrs. Edens was reared at Midland and he hails from Hillsboro. They met during their college years at Abilene Christian College where he received his bachelor's degree in range management.

Her role as homemaker is a very enjoyable and rewarding one for her, she says, and she loves cooking and sewing but admits she hasn't done much of the latter since Anne-Marie was born.

She says her husband likes to fish and has done quite a bit of deep sea fishing. He also has his student pilot's license and enjoys flying.

Wildlife Needs Helping Hand

The wildlife population in Deaf Smith County could be greatly improved if people were conscious of the different ways they can help improve our wildlife habitat.

A few rows of unharvested grain sorghum or corn left around the edges of the fields can do wonders for the game birds. This practice provides food but even more important it provides cover for the birds.

When fall harvest is over and the plant residue is plowed into the ground, very little protection is left for the birds, unless conservation minded people help them out by leaving some cover.

O. W. Harrison, who farms 15 miles northeast of Hereford, is giving the wildlife on his place a helping hand by double fencing two of his native grass pastures which will leave strips of tall ungrazed grass for the birds to use for food and cover. These "Wildlife areas" provide excellent nesting places.

GSPA Reports Sales Upswing

LUBBOCK — Elbert Harp, executive director of Grain Sorghum Producers Association, reported that export sales and local market prices moved up simultaneously during July, reaching peaks for both for the first time since February 1968.

Harp said that 18,167,000 bushels of grain sorghum "were sold into the world trade last month, which helped to strengthen the overall demand and local prices, with some elevators paying as high as $1.95 per hundred this week."

Major part of the sales were to Japan, Israel, and India. Harp pointed out, "These sales are equal to the total production of Parmer County, the nation's largest producer of grain sorghum — or the combined total production of Sherman, Hansford, and Oldham counties." He said that it would also take the total production of Youkum, Terry, Gaines, and Dawson counties to fill these shipments.

Harp said, "The more demand that can be developed either locally or overseas, the better the prices will be to our producers."

GSPA is sponsoring a referendum in early October in which the grain farmers of the High Plains and Panhandle will decide if they want to expand

Miss Linda London Weds Mr. Bomar of Silverton

In one of August's most beautiful weddings, Miss Linda Margaret London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter London Jr. and Robert Allan Bomar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Bomar Jr. of Silverton, pledged their marriage vows on Friday at First Christian Church with the Rev. Jeremy Main, officiating.

Among the large assemblage of wedding guests were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Jim Higgins and Mrs. Walter London Sr., both of Hereford and the grandparents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hyatt and Mrs. W. V. Bomar Sr., all of Silverton.

The chimes of the organ heralded the bride's entry into the candlelight sanctuary on the arm of Mr. London. Then to the strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Joe Hacker, they preceded down the bridal aisleway, decorated with white satin bows and streamers attached to the pews.

The double ring vows were exchanged at 8 p.m. before an altar setting of branched candelabrum holding crystal votive lights entwined with greenery. Centering the nuptial setting was a sunburst arrangement of yellow gladiolas and white chrysanthemums.

An impressive program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Hacker and she accompanied Des. Collehan as he sang "One Hand, One Heart," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Linda's formal length gown and mantilla which formed a cathedral train was exquisitely fashioned of white linen and Venice lace. It was designed with a line skirt, empire waistline defined by lace and portrait neckline. The Venice lace was repeated on her mantilla of silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses centered with white gardenias entwined with English ivy.

To carry out the traditional "old, new, borrowed and blue" she carried a lace handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother, wore a blue garter and carried a shilling in her slipper which was brought from England by her father.

Mrs. Paul Hubbard served her sister as matron of honor and maid of honor was Miss Patsy Stoy. Bridesmaids were Miss Becky London, sister of the bride; and Misses Laquita and Deborah Bomar, sisters of the bridegroom.

Wylie Bomar was his son's best man and groomsmen and ushers were Steve Jenkins of Amarillo, Mike Chaffin, Lubbock; Garner Garrison, Silverton and Paul Hubbard.

The feminine attendants wore formal gowns of yellow linen fashioned in princess lines with empire bodice accented with matching Venice lace. Their headpieces were double Dior bows appliqued with lace and they carried nosegays of yellow and white pompon chrysanthemums tied with avocado bow and streamers.

Mrs. London chose for her daughter's wedding, a pink silk dress and matching accessories.

Mrs. Bomar, mother of the bridegroom, wore a banana silk dress and accessories and both wore shoulder bouquets of gardenias.

A reception honoring the bride and groom was held immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church where Mrs. Hacker offered a program of organ music.

The bride's and groom's tables were laid with white satin and draped with yellow satin swags, caught at the corners with satin bows and streamers with white wedding bells and Lilly of the Valley. Appointments were in silver and crystal with yellow roses and tapers in an epergne. The three tiered bride's and groom's cakes were decorated with yellow roses. Members of the household included Mrs. Carlton Richardson, Mrs. John Stokes of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Mrs. Ronnie Owens and Mrs. James Perkins.

Miss Sharon Wortham registered wedding guests who were each presented with scrolls engraved with a "Thank You" poem tied with yellow ribbon, from the bride and groom.

For the honeymoon trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a two-piece brown and bone dress with matching accessories and her gardenia corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

They will be at home in Lubbock where Bomar will graduate from Texas Tech in December.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Comer, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Comer, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hendrick, Granite, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray London, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Von Kohn, Ft.

Worth; Mrs. Ethel Stone, Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. John Stokes, Mt. Vernon, Wash.; Mr. and

Mrs. Harold Morton, Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jenkins, Amarilo; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Chaffin and Mr. and Mrs. James Perkins, of Lubbock.

Cherrie Morgan Weds In Lubbock Ceremony

St. John's Methodist Church of Lubbock was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Cherrie Morgan of Lubbock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morgan of Hereford to Larry E. Tinkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Tinkler of Mereta, Tex.

The 7 p.m. double ring ceremony was conducted by Dr. Burgin Watkins, pastor.

Mrs. Vernon Sivage, organist, presented a program of nuptial music and accompanied Miss Jean Anderson as she sang "The Greatest of These is Love" and "Lord's Prayer."

Teresa Rudd Ends Stewardess Stint

FORT WORTH — Five selected Civil Air Patrol Cadets climaxed their one week stay at American Airlines Stewardess College with a special reception and wing-pinning ceremony Friday.

The stewardess college, in a cooperative program with Civil Air Patrol, plays host each year to selected girls in the CAP program to further their interest and understanding of the various phases of aviation.

Miss Mille Alford, director of the American Airlines Stewardess College, listed the five as follows:

Teresa Carol Rudd, Hereford, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rudd. Miss Rudd is a graduate of Hereford High School, and lists hobbies as singing and training horses as well as Civil Air Patrol activities.

Theresa Karen Tout, Fort Worth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Tout. Miss Tout is a graduate of Arlington Heights High School and was honored as a member of the Dean's List at Tarrant County Junior College. She lists hobbies as flying, sewing, and membership in drama clubs and Future Homemakers of America.

Kathy Ruth Herrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Herrington, North Little Rock, Ark. A student at North Little Rock High School, Miss Herrington is a National Honor Society member and is active in Y-Teens, Red Cross, science and drama organizations, as well as CAP activity.

Judith Roxanne Hazen, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Rupert E. Hazen, Tempe, Ariz. Miss Hazen is a first-year student at Arizona State University and a graduate of Tempe High School in Tempe, Ariz.; she is active in church youth groups and was president of the Future Nurses chapter in her high school.

Senior escort for the five cadets during their stay at American Airlines Stewardess College is Miss Sue Norris, a Civil Air Patrol major, of Oklahoma City. She is in her fourth year as a CAP escort; she has worked as a records clerk in Oklahoma City's police department for the past 10 years.

During their visit to the American Airlines Stewardess College, CAP visitors see firsthand the most intensive and longest stewardess training in the airline industry. Candidates for stewardess wings are instructed in more than 100 different subjects, ranging from American famous grooming course to aircraft identification and emergency procedures.

While they're at the college, the CAP visitors live an almost-identical study and recreation schedule for one week observed by the stewardess candidates throughout their full six weeks course. They take observation flights, participate in emergency procedures, and enjoy receiving personal beauty care by the college's grooming staff.

committee assignments. Here is a statement concerning his plans for this period.
"During the Congressional Recess, except for one short trip to the district, I intend to stay in Washington to review material presented to the Agriculture Committee and the Committee on Science and Astronautics, of which I am a member, and to continue to answer correspondence, meet with my constituents who may be in Washington, and in general pursue my official duties.

"In the field of agriculture, we are trying to devise a rational and equitable farm program and there is a great deal of information and testimony which I want to review before the Committee reconvenes and takes up this important matter in earnest this fall.

"In the area of space, we must now turn our attention to our long range goals and national priorities. There is now much new and exciting information becoming available and I intend to use this short recess to delve into this data and relate it to possible future programs.
"Also, as always, I look forward to visiting with residents of the 10th District who may be in town on vacation or business, and I extend, again, a cordial invitation to any of you who may be able to do so to stop by my office at 507 Cannon House Office Building.

"I will be coming home to the district early in September for several speaking engagements. I will also be in my Amarillo and Pampa offices some of the time to meet with constituents."

At The Library

Odds Are Against The Illegitimate

At the Deaf Smith County Library this week are three novels which tell of a daring transplant operation, a king whose life is marred because of illegitimacy, and the common past of mankind pursuing their fates.

SURGEON'S CHOICE

By Frank G. Slaughter
A daring transplant operation, the dramatic success of experimental surgery in a high pressure chamber, a visionary plan for a hospital of the future—these are the main elements of Dr. Greg Alexander's plan to convince the Board of Trustees that the clinic should be completely rebuilt. Arranged against him are a Texas millionaire who opposes change in principle, a group of doctors who cannot understand modern technology, and avaricious businessmen who want to build highly profitable apartments on the clinic's land.

Swirling around this central conflict are scores of smaller intrigues: a jealous wife plotting with her husband's mistress, a wily newspaperman looking for a big scoop and a modern clinic, and an independent minded son trying to prove himself to his domineering father.

Once again, Frank G. Slaughter has combined a prophetic view of tomorrow's medical technology, a series of fascinating characterizations, and a remarkable gift for dramatic narrative to produce a masterful broad-canvas novel.

ORLANDO KING

By Isabel Colegate
In her new novel Isabel Colegate charts the dazzling rise—and widely noted fall—of a young man of mysterious origins against the background of the complex fabric of English life in the period between the two world wars.

Orlando King was an illegitimate child who had been brought up by a recluse in the British Channel Islands. In 1931 he came to London, which at that time was having bread riots and hunger marches, and quickly and effortlessly found an important highly paid position in industry, a wife—one of the great beauties of the era—and finally a seat in Parliament. Then the war came, and with it a revelation about the secret of Orlando's birth which put an end to all he had so easily conquered.

Miss Colegate's meticulous attention to detail not only evokes the thirties in all their richness, but also makes convincing Orlando King's progress through the formal gardens of the Cliveden Set. With beautiful precision, Miss Colegate etches a character, a landscape, and a time that are as fresh as they are familiar.

THE SEEKING

By Robert S. Elegant
A turbulent novel, sweeping and violent as the wind that blows out of the Himalayas across the great plains of Central Asia, The Seeking carries the reader into the ancient world of the Nongol kingdoms and their savage horsemen.

Harrap, Prince of Kamardol, is caught in the net of murderous intrigue woven by his half-brothers, the Co-Kings, following the death of their father. To escape the cruel snares of these contenders for the throne, Harrap sets out on an ancient religious pilgrimage, following The Horse, avatar of the Gods—Their vessel and Their essence. The year-long rite of The Seeking, successfully ended with the return of The Horse to Kamardol, promises the kingdom supremacy over all the realms He has traversed.

The Horse takes the road north, into the vast arena of Central Asia, where old and new civilizations are vying for power. As the tale is told by his chronicler, Yakir, Harrap's small armed band, its actions circumscribed by the religious discipline it grudgingly accepts, contends against the peoples of the great migrations and the settled powers of the heart of the continent. Returning finally with the remnant of His escort, The Horse meets His preordained fate in a kingdom radically altered by the ineffable influence of The Seeking. Harrap's mistress, the courtesan Ambiala, and Yakir's, a daughter of the old nobility, tell of their own survival amid the surprising loyalties and grotesque treacheries evoked by the conflict between the Co-Kings. The tale ends, as all true tales must, with death—and the promise of rebirth.

This panoramic story evokes the common past of all mankind, and portrays passion a teeming and women pursuing their fates, while beset by the caprices of Fate, in a transition of age as tumultuous, as violent, as bewildering as our own.

The weapons are swords and bows, rather than guns and grenade-launchers. The issues are the confused clash of dying and burgeoning religions—and cultures, rather than the cold confrontation of ideologies. But the human soul and the human predicament alter little:

worldly ambition contends with immutable faith; compulsive cunning is held in check by awe of powers greater than mankind—and the powers within it.

Rodeo Tickets Still On Sale

A new attendance record is expected to be set for the annual Boys Ranch Rodeo at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch over the Labor Day weekend.

This is the 25th year for the rodeo that is believed to be the only one of its kind in the nation in which the only contestants are boys competing under RCA rules on professional rodeo stock. The Ranch's nearly 350 boys have been preparing for the rodeo for about three months, making their qualification rides on broncs, Brahma bulls, steers and calves.

All of the boys will participate with approximately 180 riding as contestants. Trophies will be awarded riders with the best times in each division. The two-day performance will be climaxed by the naming of the Senior and Junior All-Around Cowboys.

"We believe this will be the most exciting rodeo the boys have ever put on," Ranch president Virgil Patterson said. "The barbeque beef sandwiches will be sold for $1 again this year, so there will be plenty to eat for those wishing to picnic at the Ranch."

Among those attending the rodeo will be many of the more than 2,500 boys who have lived at the Ranch since its founding by Cal Farley in 1939. A special section of bleachers have been reserved for them and their families. Rodeo highlights will also include the initial appearance of the Boys Ranch Band and the crowning of a rodeo queen.

Tickets for the rodeo are on sale at the Boys Ranch office at 600 West 11th St., 372-2341, Amarillo. Reserved box seats are $2.50, and $1.50 general admission for adults, and 75 cents for children and servicemen in uniform. The dates are August 31 and September 1st. Each performance will begin at 7:30 p.m.

HEAVY SHARK

GUERNSEY, Channel Islands—Desmond Bougourd fought for 2½ hours to land a 430-pound shark and now he's claiming a British record. The heaviest shark previously caught off Britain weighed 324 pounds.

Active volcanoes steam from Colombia to Chile, and Ecuador has an avenue of some 20 live and dormant volcanoes. Some extinct cones in the Andes shelter ruins of prehistoric Indian temples.

I DON'T LIKE YOUR GOING IN THE JUNGLE, REX— BUT I GUESS YOU'RE SAFE WITH TOM AND JOOMBA AND KATEENA!

UNCLE WALKER, CAN WE CROSS OVER TO EDEN?

MAYBE—KEEP YOUR FEET OUT OF THE WATER OR YOU'LL LOSE YOUR TOES! PIRANHA!

HMM, A MESSAGE WITH A PHOTO FROM COLONEL WOROBU—

JUNGLE HEADQUARTERS

To Command Jungle Patrol From Colonel Worobu, C.O.S.P.—

On July 9—a Dr. Franz Weber and his daughter Elaine asked to fly to High Mts. region. Permission denied. Enclosed photo of them.

"I EXPLAINED THE REASONS."

WE MUST GO THERE. WE HOPE TO MAKE A FANTASTIC DISCOVERY!

A REGION OF BANDITS. TRAVEL FORBIDDEN! SORRY!

COLONEL, YOU CAN'T FORBID US! YOU HAVE NO AUTHORITY OVER THAT AREA.

I CAN WITHHOLD THE LICENSE TO FLY FROM HERE. THINK OF YOUR DAUGHTER.

I CAN TAKE CARE OF MYSELF!

"TWO DAYS LATER THEIR COPTER WAS GONE— TO WHAT I BELIEVE IS CERTAIN DEATH—"

FANTASTIC DISCOVERY?

DADDY-O MEANS ALL RIGHT, CHICK— BUT HE JUST CAN'T SEEM TO BRIDGE THE GENERATION GAP—

I'M GETTING TIRED OF THAT HIPPIE ALWAYS TALKING ABOUT THE GENERATION GAP—

OH, YOU'RE MUCH TOO SENSITIVE!

YOU SAID YOU'D TAKE ME TO THE ZOO, AUNTIE! LET'S GO TODAY—

I CAN'T DO IT NOW, DEAR-- SOME OTHER TIME—

AUNTIE MAGGIE WOULDN'T TAKE ME TO THE ZOO.

SHE'S PROBABLY TIRED! REMEMBER, THERE'S A GENERATION GAP BETWEEN YOU—

AND IN HER CASE IT'S A LONG GENERATION GAP!

TRIPPER, I NEVER NOTICED THAT GAP IN YOUR TEETH BEFORE—

IT'S SOMETHING NEW—

I RECKON I'LL TAKE A WEEK TO CROSS NADUWA TERRITORY, TYLER —

IT CAN BE DONE IN THREE DAYS EASILY, MISTER GIBBS —

WELL, NOW, IF BUFO AND I DON'T PICK ANY FIGHTS WITH YOUR PRECIOUS LEOPARDS AND CROCODILES, WHAT'S THE HURRY?

YOU'RE WELCOME SO LONG AS YOU DON'T HAVE TO USE YOUR GUN IN "SELF-DEFENSE" —

THAT'S A FUNNY ATTITUDE!

YOU VALUE THE ANIMALS MORE THAN YOUR GUESTS!

NO — WE WANT TO PROTECT BOTH!

WHY SAVE AN UGLY OLD CROCODILE?

FOR ONE THING, THE CROC EATS THE BIGGER FISH THAT DESTROY THE FOOD FISH THE NATIVES DEPEND ON —

HUH! LOOK AT THAT VIEW OF THE RIVER! BIG TREES, BIRDS... SUCH A PEACEFUL PLACE TO SPEND THE NIGHT!

SPUD, GIBBS PICKED THE WORST POSSIBLE CAMP SITE. WE'RE IN FOR A NIGHT OF TROUBLE!

HOW WAS YOUR CHERRY CHOCOLATE SUNDAE?

YUMMY!

HOW ABOUT YOUR BANANA SPLIT AN' TACOS?

THE BEST!

I CAN STILL TASTE THAT SECOND CHEESEBURGER!

WELL, THANKS FOR BUYING MY LUNCH, DONALD!

DON'T MENTION IT!

COME ON IN...

AND I'LL FIX YOU A PEANUT BUTTER AN' JELLY SANDWICH!

EVERYONE TAKE A DEEP BREATH

NOW EXHALE. I HAVE TWO MORE MEN WHO HAVE TO FIT IN THERE

I FINALLY GOT THEM ALL IN, SIR

GOOD. NOW WHERE'S BEETLE WITH THE JEEP?

LET'S SEE... HOW SHOULD WE DO THIS?

WE HAVE A MAJOR, A CAPTAIN, A LIEUTENANT, A SERGEANT AND A DRIVER

THAT'S FIVE AND WE ONLY HAVE ROOM FOR FOUR! ONE OF US HAS TO RIDE IN THE TRUCK WITH THE MEN

OBVIOUSLY, THAT WILL BE SARGE

WHY OBVIOUSLY SARGE? THERE'S NO ROOM FOR ME IN THE TRUCK, BUT YOU MIGHT SQUEEZE IN, SIR

I HAPPEN TO BE AN OFFICER, AND YOU HAPPEN TO BE THE ONLY ONE HERE WHO ISN'T!

WHAT ABOUT BEETLE?!

HE'S THE DRIVER!

COULDN'T ONE OF US DRIVE?

I ALWAYS HAVE A DRIVER

MAYBE IF WE ALL STOOD, WE MIGHT--

ME? A MAJOR, STAND ALL THE WAY BACK TO CAMP?!

I'VE GOT AN IDEA, SIR

THAT'S IT, SIR-- YOU WORK THE PEDALS AND I'LL STEER

THIS IS KINDA SLOW

THAT'S OKAY. DOING THINGS THE PROPER ARMY WAY IS WHAT COUNTS

FLASH GORDON

ON THE OUTER FRINGES OF OUR SOLAR SYSTEM, A VERY ALIEN STARSHIP CRUISES...

THE WARPERS HAS TESTED OUT PERFECTLY THIS FAR! WE RUN ONE MORE TEST... THEN ATTEMPT A LANDING!

THE PLANET WHICH CALLS ITSELF EARTH SHALL HAVE TO BE OUR HOME!

THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT THE WARPERS CAN THROW THE PLANET EARTH INTO CHAOS! BUT WE ARE A MERE TWO HUNDRED STRONG...

WE CAN'T PRESUME TO TAKE OVER THEIR ENTIRE WORLD?

IT IS THAT... OR PERISH! WITH OUR STAR-GYROS DAMAGED, WE CAN NEVER REACH HOME AGAIN!

WE MUST ATTEMPT A LANDING!

WHILE, ON EARTH...

CAREFUL, FLASH! THE RADIATION COUNT ON THAT THING IS TERRIFIC!

NO DOUBT OF IT, FLASH! EVERY LAB TEST SHOWS THAT GADGET WAS NOT MADE HERE ON EARTH!

THEN IT MUST BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE FREAK CATASTROPHES, ZARKOV!

WHY WAS IT PLACED HERE? WHERE ARE THE ALIENS? ARE THEY HERE, TOO?

OR DID THEY DROP THIS... TO SOFTEN US UP FOR AN INVASION?
