

For Visiting Officials Friday

Agriculture Committee To Issue Farm Recommendations

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

The 13-page brochure compiled by the Deaf Smith County Agriculture Committee composed of members of Farm Bureau, Farmers Union, and National Farmers Organization, which will be presented to touring members of the House Agriculture Committee and officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture during their luncheon at the Hereford Country Club during the noon hour Friday, will include a report "from the standpoint of a commercial country bank dependent wholly upon agriculture" by a Hereford banker, cost production charts for major commodities on both irrigated and dryland farms in the county, problems of prices vs. costs, international problems in grains, and recommendations for consideration "in the development of forthcoming legislation." Gerald McCathern, president of the local NFO, reported that to date there have been six meetings here between the three farm organizations toward the compilation of this brochure and stated that "we have always been able to come up with a unified answer." He also reported that Kathy Tubbs has her gratitude for preparing the original brochure manuscript and the

Hereford State Bank and First National Bank for duplicating the material for distribution. McCathern and Jerome Friemel representing the NFO, with Bill Walden and Bill Kalich of Farm Bureau, and Leo Witkowski and Alfred Smith of Farmers Union, will join the official group at Dimmitt prior to their arrival in Hereford, and will continue with them after the dinner for a tour of the local vegetable processing facilities and the Holly Sugar plant. The officials are to arrive from Washington some time during the evening at Amarillo and are scheduled to examine various points throughout the Panhandle and High Plains until Sunday, barring any last-minute changes due to unfinished business in Washington. In such case, it was reported that the tour would reach Hereford Sunday. In the brochure's introduction to the House Agriculture Committee members, the Deaf Smith County Agriculture Committee has emphasized "the situation that has plagued the farmer for so many years, that being low prices. This situation has been compounded many times in the last two years due to the inflationary spiral which has caused costs of production to advance steadily, while we have witnessed not a stable farm price structure but a declining income price structure, due to lower and lower prices received for our commodities. As you can see, the agriculture producer is caught in a cost-price squeeze which is strangling him and putting the entire farm economy in jeopardy." They also point out that "the consequences of a falling agriculture can be very drastic for our nation as a whole. We realize, and hope you realize, that agriculture is the keystone of our economy — if it fails, our nation will fall with it. We say that it is important that safeguards, be devised which will assure the agriculture producer that when he plants a crop and invests these thousands of dollars in expenses — and if he does a good job of growing — there will be a profit when the crop is harvested." Harlan Vander Zee, president of the Hereford State Bank, has listed seven points for the agriculture group which McCathern said is supported by Henry Sears, president of the First National Bank. The points include the farmer's bargaining position, the position on farm subsidy payments, farm debt and profit margin, the opinion on corporate farming, and the position of the rural banker toward agriculture interests. The brochure will give the committee members a review of the farm operation price breakdown, comparing costs of 1947 against 1967 costs, with figures from the USDA-ASCS fact sheet. It points out that, in the export market, "the farmer is most vulnerable to loss." Their recommendations will include: Production: We recognize the fact that if the farmer is left free to produce at his maximum capacity, that he will ruin our price structure completely by producing more than is needed. A system must be used to control production whether it be massive, long-term land retirement or year-to-year diversions. Methods must be devised for curtailing new lands from being put into production, whether these new lands are through development of Bureau of Reclamation projects or through individual investments. It would seem foolish to pay one farmer for retiring his land from production while another is allowed to expand productive areas to no end. If long-term land retirement is the method used, we recommend that you would consider seriously that land would be "retired" in relation to its productive capacity in order. See COMMITTEE, Page 2

Clark To Leave August 15

Hartman Is Superintendent

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

The resignation of Johnny Clark Jr., assuperintendent of the Hereford Independent School District was accepted with reluctance by the board of trustees early Wednesday morning in a meeting which was begun four hours earlier under a continuous wave of suspense — and tension mounted more so during the following two hours as the seven board members discussed the selection of a new interim superintendent, Roy Hartman.

Clark, who had been superintendent here since 1965, submitted his resignation effective August 15 in order to become superintendent of the Goose Creek Consolidated School District at Baytown, one of the state locations (in the greater Houston area) described as offering top advantages in the administrator field. He had accepted the position at $26,000 per year on a three-year contract.

Hartman, 34, who has been assistant superintendent here for the past two years, was appointed at a yearly fee of $21,614 ($14,364 paid by the state for his 13-year service length in education, $5,000 from the district, and $2,225 travel allowance) which was reported by the trustees as approximately $2,000 more than the fee being paid previously here and approximately $2,000 more than currently being paid the superintendent at Hale Center, a town of one-third the local school enrollment.

Moreover, in view of the board's previous ruling which prohibits the local superintendent's wife from teaching within the district, Mrs. Maxine Hartman, librarian at La Plata Junior High School, will be relieved of her duties. Trustees considered this point for two hours during their decision — loss of teacher pay income as opposed to the compensation for the superintendent. They reported a slight loss on the part of Hartman's acceptance in monetary value due to the superintendent-teacher ruling.

However, it was pointed out by trustees at the beginning of the superintendent assignment session that "due to the present operation of the schools, we favor someone already employed in the district as superintendent." They voiced their concern over the many new programs which have been highly publicized throughout the state that are now in operation here and felt that they would be afforded "better protection" toward the continuance of these programs with someone who is familiar with them.

Hartman accepted the assignment as interim superintendent with the understanding that he would have full power as a previous superintendent. "I'll give it all I've got," he said. Hartman is originally from Sayre, Okla. He received his BS degree at Panhandle State College in 1956 and received his ME at West Texas State University in 1959. But he had begun teaching in Hereford upon entrance into WT — as teacher and assistant principal at Central. In 1959, he became principal at Northwest and the following year moved to Shirley. He became principal at Bluebonnet in 1965 but in January 1966 was promoted to PESO Area Coordinator. Afterward, he received his assignment as assistant superintendent of Hereford schools. He has two daughters, Angela, 9; and Genell, 3.

Reluctance on the part of the board to accept Clark's resignation stemmed from the close relationship which has existed between him and the trustees, not only through what they have described as accomplishments toward building a solid school system but on a personal basis. "There ought to be some way we can impress upon the people our sense of loss," White said. Clark replied, "We have a real healthy situation here. I hope I am doing the right thing by leaving here. It is simply a professional assignment. I have learned a lot since I've been here. I want you to know that I have really appreciated it."

Two board members, Olin Parris and Hilrey Aven, could not be present at the meeting due to business reasons. A quorum was reached with White, Dr. A. T. Mims, Ed Loerwald, Hugh Clearman, and Lowell Scharp attending.

LOOSE ENDS COLLECTED
Although Clark will remain in Hereford for two future school board meetings — a special meeting set for Tuesday, August 5, for a hearing of the new budget and a reading of the current amended budget, and regular meeting on the following Tuesday — he tried to clear up as many loose ends as possible during the July board meeting so that he could leave for his new assignment with no carry-over business.

Part of these proceedings included a report on the reserved-seat options at the new football stadium which are to be paid for by the option holders within the next ten days, under notice. He told the trustees that a method would have to be devised — possibly a lottery arrangement — for the final selection of these reserved seats by the option holder. "It could be done with numbers," he said, "giving each person a fair chance at his selection as his number is drawn."

Approximately 274 seats (charity-type) have been optioned at this time of the 300 total, secondary coordinator W. R. Phillips reported. Also reported for the stadium was additional lighting, other seats, and a sound system. Clark said that the new Tierra Blanca Elementary School construction plans were moving. See HARTMAN, Page 2

In Lengthy Session

County Commissioners Here Endorse Local CAC Plan

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Following a one-hour discussion involving a presentation of the operational procedures of a Community Action Committee program locally and in one of the busiest Deaf Smith County Commissioners Court sessions in recent months, the four county commissioners agreed unanimously to place their endorsement upon the Office of Economic Opportunity's War on Poverty plan for Hereford with the statement that it is an endorsement without financial responsibility.

Commissioners also expressed the opinion that the CAC program, after beginning operation here, should be a step in the right direction toward breaking down the communications barrier which has existed between the underprivileged and the more fortunate citizens of the community.

Commissioner Marcus Latnam, who has been on the CAC board since its original meeting here in April, is to remain on the board as county commissioner representative.

He and city commissioner Roland Barton reported to the CAC meeting at the Community Center Thursday night that they could not represent either of the commissions on the board pending approval of their governing bodies.

Meade Michael, area coordinator of the Community Action Corporation in the 26-county Panhandle area, and Argus Burnett, executive director of the Texas Panhandle CAC, who appeared before the county commissioners in last Monday's session, will appear before the city commission meeting this Monday at 7:30 p. m. where they will offer their assistance toward gaining approval there on the same basis.

Appearing with the area CAC executives in County Commissioners Court were six local representatives of three church organizations and the Mexican-American and Negro communities who expressed their opinions toward a need of such a program here.

Carnival Plans Told

Plans are now underway for the annual Hereford Lions Club Carnival to be held July 24 through August 2 at the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn grounds, according to Ray Moore, general chairman for the event.

Aimed at raising funds for various club projects throughout the year, the carnival will feature 16 booths, including inside and outside concession stands, bear pitch, basketball pitch, glass pitch, coke bottle, bingo stand, cork gun, balloon darts, cigarette board, doll rack, number darts, keg pitch, golf ball roll, cotton candy booth and an Exchange Student booth to be operated by the Hereford High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America.

Ray Moore, who is in charge of setting up the carnival, reminded persons who plan to attend the carnival to make it a point to stop by the Exchange Student booth for a snack of some sort. "Their pies are the best in town," he said. Proceeds from the FHA booth go toward sponsoring the trip to Hereford for one of the two Foreign Exchange Students who come here each year. Cost of the trip is $850 for one student and the Lions Club provides the space for the booth at the carnival for the club while the FHA members themselves furnished the food.

As has been the case for the past several years, S. B. Rhodes will provide entertainment for the young and the young at heart with his amusement rides.

Starting time for the carnival has been set between 7 and 7:30 p. m. each night with closing time around midnight during the week and around 1 a. m. on Saturday nights.

The annual carnival, the largest fund raising project by the club, will see its work and proceeds go for various projects through the coming year. "The proceeds are not earmarked for any specific projects, but the club has several standing projects which are helped every year," Moore stated.

Little Leaguers Win Area Title; Head For District

By MARSHALL DAY
Sports Editor

Mike Crim and Mike Munnerlyn combined pitching and catching duties Monday and Tuesday night in Dimmitt to lead the Hereford Little League All-Stars to wins and a berth in the District Tournament slated in Borger Monday.

Crim was called on for starting duties on the mound for the locals in the Area Tournament opener against Castro County and came through in typical style, pitching a no-hitter to win 8-0. In Tuesday's championship game against Dimmitt, Munnerlyn threw a one-hitter as the All-Stars chalked up an 8-1 win.

Crim was credited with 11 strikeouts in his no-hitter while Munnerlyn sent five Dimmitt batters to the dug-out.

In Tuesday night's championship battle, the local All-Stars jumped on the opposition's pitching for one run in the first frame when leftfielder Dave Charest singled and went home on back-to-back-to-back singles by Crim, Harvey Torrez and Doug Charest.

Neither team scored in the next three frames, but Hereford erupted for four runs in the fifth when Dave Charest singled, was followed by a hit by Doug Charest and a double by Crim. Torrez then unloaded the bases with a two-run circuit smash over the centerfield fence.

Dimmitt managed their lone run in the bottom of the fifth but the locals got it back in the final frame when Albert Gonzales and Dave Charest scored on a double by Crim.

In Monday night's opener, Hereford's All-Stars opened the game up with a homer by Dave Charest in the first inning. Castro County threatened in the first inning when they loaded the bases, but Crim came through to strikeout the side to end the threat.

Hereford got two additional runs in the third inning when Dave Charest singled, stole second and scored on another single by Crim. Crim then scored on a single by Torrez to make the score 3-0.

Hereford got its final runs in the sixth frame to ice the game over when Munnerlyn singled, scored on a single by Dave Charest and Gonzales, who had reached first via an error on the Castro County shortstop, scored on a double by Doug Charest. Both Charest boys then scored on consecutive singles by Crim and Torres, and Crim scored on another single by Lance Martin.

Leading the batting barrage for the locals during the area tournament was Dave Charest who went six-for-eight at the plate. He was closely followed by Crim and Torrez who both went five-for-eight.

 "as expected" and discussion was offered on land owned by the schools in the north section near Moreman Street which is soon to be platted by the city.
 Announcement was made that Paul Abalos, formerly special education teacher at Stanton and assigned as assistant principal at Central Elementary School.
 Teachers elected were Charles P. James Jr., Mozelle Fillingim, James Dee Anthony, Eddie Ray Whitener, Wayne Woodward, Juanita Myers, Linda Wilhite, Gayla Sue Wilburn, Nancy Jean Jones, Carol Elliott, Julia Kendrick, Beth Dent, Judith Miller, W. C. Osborn, Don Hooper, Betsy Canfield, and Renee Batard.

Batard, a former Foreign Exchange student from France who came to Hereford on this program and later returned to his own country to complete his military service before returning to WTSU, has been assigned to teach French at HHS. Hartman reported that at the present Batard and his new wife are now in France, but will return when school begins here.
 Teacher resignations accepted were Rose Mary Ramaekers, Ann B. Sawyer, and Mary Jones.

"We are in pretty good shape teacher-wise," Clark reported. He said that teachers currently needed are one half-time orthopedic instructor, one junior high math and one music teacher. Also, three teachers already under contract are as yet to be assigned.

Trustees approved the salary schedule for the office employees in the schools and administration building, affording them a raise. Other auxiliary employees are to be considered at the next meeting, Clark said.

Officially approved was the transfer rule recently passed under state law which makes it possible for the district to accept transferring students in the district superintendent's offices. Prior to this law, all transfer students were required to go before the ex-officio county superintendent of schools.

Also under discussion was a new law (S. B. 199) which has passed that requires public school to be taught not less than seven hours per day, with each teacher receiving 45 consecutive minutes planning and preparation time daily. Clark said this law would make it an added cost to the districts because the state had passed this item with no funding attached to it. But in order to make this law possible in schools, additional teachers or teacher aides may have to be hired to fill the time at district expense.

First National Bank in Hereford was again voted the school's depository bank with no competitive bid from the Hereford State Bank. Depository money will draw 4, 4½, 5 per cent (depending upon length of time money is left on deposit) with a borrowing rate of 7½ per cent.

Senate Bill 206, which prohibits closed meetings of governmental bodies, also requires that meeting notices are mandatory at the courthouse at least three days prior to such meetings, except in cases of emergency.

gency meetings where notices can be posted "at least prior to the start of the meeting," Clark noted that this practice is to be followed here after September 1.

He said that he would be in Austin later in the week for a stop at the Texas Education Agency offices to check on the approval of two additional bus routes here which will use 48-passenger buses.

Tax assessor-collector Orp h Click reported on the school tax collections which are on par for this time of the year. Commodity distribution for the school lunchrooms were also set tled, and a reappraisal of the school's 80 per cent co-insurance program will also be accomplished for the protection to cover any increased values of property.

 up through guidelines of any kind by the OEO and is strictly operated by the people of this community for its own individual needs. Although 80 per cent financed by the federal government (with 20 per cent in-service equivalents made up here), a board made up of local people and a local coordinator, whom they will hire from local ranks, is to operate the program on their own initiative for the initiative of the community, they said. "The control is here," Michael said. "It is Hereford's baby."

City commissioner Barton, who did not appear in County Commissioners Court, announced last week that the hiring of a coordinator and the permanent assignment of board members here would be discussed at an 8:30 p.m. meeting in the Hereford Community Center next Thursday night, pending outcome of the commission bodies.

CAC here had not asked for financial support of the court. It was stated that they were seeking moral support only. The court agreed to offer this support with the hope that the program will have a worthwhile meaning here.

In the morning session, a bid was accepted from Orval Watson Ford for a 1969 Mercury Monterey 4-door sedan for the sheriff's department, with a 1967 Chevrolet trade-in. Net cost is $2,100 — which is $8 more than the second bid, also for Watson, for a Ford Galaxie 500. However Sheriff Ed Roberson reported that the Mercury has a weight of 400 lbs. more than the Galaxie and felt that it would better serve the purpose of his department.

Nick Hobbs of Hereford Growers and Shippers told the commissioners that he and other local sheds are in the process of trying to find a place to do away with their potato culls now that the feed yards no longer take them and asked the help of the court for the location of a pit where they could be buried. The commissioners reported that they are in sympathy

Government loan: We recognize the fact that the farmer must have a method of retaining control of his commodities after harvest so that, through his marketing organizations, he will be able to bargain for fair prices. If he is forced to sell and place a year's supply of his commodities on the market at harvest time, it can have only one effect — lower prices. Most rural banks, who finance the major portion of farming operations, do not have the capital to finance over one year's farming operations. They must have the money which is owed them at harvest time in order that they can start financing the next year's operation. Most farmers in our area will owe an average of $50,000 when they

with the problem but that they actually owned no suitable property here which they could make a deal for such a pit disposal. Hobbs was advised that his only recourse was the location of suitable private property in the county — that the county only owns the Bull Barn and a small piece of ground where the highway department formerly had their headquarters here, both within the city limits. Hobbs agreed to pursue the individual property owner angle.

Dr. Noble L. Ballard was again appointed to a one-year term as County Health Officer.

Fire department report for the month of June revealed that there were eleven county blazes and 13 within the city.

Gas and water line crossings were approved in Precinct 3 for Joseph Hill of Hill Farms.

Deaf Smith County Hospital Administrator T. E. Seigler and architect Oscar Schilling of Amarillo appeared before the commissioners with final plans for the $500,000 hospital wing here before being submitted to the state for approval. Seigler said that target date for construction bids to be let was Sept. 15. Schilling said that his guess was that construction would take from 12 to 14 months.

The court paid Schilling $12,200 as per his contract at this point.

The New York trip set by the commissioners and Bob L. Davis of Columbian Securities Corp. in behalf of the sale of the $500,000 bond has been set for Aug. 7-10.

Hearing on the raise of percentage on county property from 22 to 24 per cent because of the passage of the hospital bond in May has been set at 10 a.m. on July 23 and 24 with post a 1 cards to this effect mailed to all county taxpayers on Tuesday (still no tax raise pending the lowering of the state tax here).

harvest their crops, so you can see how important it is that we would have some method of meeting our financial obligations without being forced to dump all of our commodities at harvest.

Bargaining: We recognize the fact that the stronger the bargaining position of the farmer the less the cost will be to the government for farm supports. Therefore, it is absolutely necessary that agriculture producers be allowed to bargain for the price they will receive for their production. We favor any type of legislation which will strengthen the farmer's bargaining position.

Conservation: We recognize the fact that our natural resources — especially water and land — are vital to our nation's future. Many of the conservation practices which are needed to carry out a successful program of conservation are prohibitive for the individual landowner, if he is required to finance the program by himself. We feel that conservation is a national problem and that the results of a successful conservation program will benefit our future generations. We ask that you would consider these facts when formulating any new legislation which will effect conservation.

Exports and World Markets: We recognize the fact that the high standard of living enjoyed by our nation and the high cost of production of our commodities in relation to that of other nations makes it impossible for the American farmer to compete price-wise in world trade. If our nation needs our agriculture commodities to maintain a balance of payments, then we recommend that a method be devised whereby the American agriculture producer will receive cost of production plus a reasonable profit for those commodities which move in world trade, as well as those which are used domestically.

Although a complete list of the touring officials has not been compiled at pre-stime, it is reported that the group will include Clarence Palmy, assistant Secretary of Agriculture; James Smith, national director of Farmers Home Administration; Kenneth Frick, national director of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service; Clyde Graham, Texas director of Soil Conservation Service; Len Futch, Texas director of FHA; and David McElwraith, executive director of the state ASCS.

Rep. Bob Price reported that eighteen to twenty officials would probably join the tour here.

Other points on the visiting group's schedule include a tour of feedyards at Canyon during the early morning hours of Friday and viewing of REA presentations and agricultural potentials of interest in Tulsa.

United Fund Sets Budget Request

United Fund board of directors approved its 1969-70 budget of $38,000 to cover various agencies here and made several changes in officers at a Wednesday morning meeting at the Caisson House which saw the largest turnout in some time.

Eighteen board members were in attendance for the breakfast session, Johnny Clark Jr., whose resignation as Hereford Schools superintendent had been accepted by its board of trustees only a few hours earlier, had requested their attendance on an emergency basis. He offered his second resignation as president of the United Fund due to his leaving Hereford on August 15 to become school superintendent at Baytown.

Calvin Goodin of Hereford Butane, who had been first vice-president, was automatically elevated to president with Hereford High School principal Jerry Don George stepping up a notch as Goodin's replacement. Joe Shollenbarger local CPA, was elected second vice-president.

Clark also reported that he had been unable to appoint a drive chairman for the campaign. Therefore, Goodin a ppointed a committee to investigate prospects to fill this assignment, and the board gave them the power of appointment.

Serving as chairman on the drive chairman committee is Debbs Knox, with George, Pauline Howard, Ivan Block, and Clint Formby as his aides. Knox reported that they would announce their choice as soon as possible.

Elected to fill two board vacancies (Mrs. Jim Monroe also resigned) were Harold Close and Darrell Rose. Alternates are Jonny Cloud and Virgil

Marsh.
 Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., chairman of the budget committee, reported that she and board members Knox, Goodin, Shirley Garrison, and Mrs. Howard had held two meetings to go over the requests of the eleven agencies for the 1969-70 campaign and found that the largest increase had been requested by the Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism. They had requested $1,800 which amounted to $1,050 over their request for last year. However, the committee pared the total down to $1,250.

However, Mrs. Hill said that most of the other requests were about the same as last year's requests and that the Red Cross had even subtracted $500 from their previous amount.

Last year's total budget was $37,100.39. The increase between the two years was pointed out to be $889.61. Approximately 95 per cent of the budget has been contributed here for the 1969-69 campaign.

Camp Fire Council total this year is to be $7,214. Cerebral Palsy is $150, Colt League $1,023, Boy Scouts $7,400, Little League $2,750, Pony League $2,125, Red Cross $10,500; Salvation Army $4,000, Texas United Fund $175, and USO $475. The local United Fund expense fund is $938.

Board members closed their meeting with a compilation of names as drive chairman prospects, which were turned over to Knox and his committee for further investigation.

Mrs. Jackie Lee Davey
nee Rachel Lucille Arnpriester

Former Hereford Girl Is Married In Kansas

Miss Rachel Lucille Arnpriester of Louisburg, Kansas, formerly of Hereford, became the bride of Jackie Lee Davey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davey of Louisburg, in a recent ceremony at the First Christian Church of that city. Officiating for the double ring service was the bride's father, the Rev. Noah Arnpriester, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Louisburg and her brother, the Rev. Marvin Arnpriester, assistant minister of the Linwood United Methodist Church at Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Lois Arnpriester was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Merrill of Hereford and Miss Karen Long.

Gary Sturm was best man and groomsmen were Darrell Caldwell and Steve Rogers. Bill Richards, Rocky Elliott, Jerry Bickham and David Arnpriester were ushers.

Rings were carried to the altar by Larry Davey, brother of the bridegroom.

Candles were lighted by Arlene Arnpriester, sister of the bride, and Bobby Davey, brother of the bridegroom, preceding the entrance of the bridal party. Flower girls were sisters of the bride and groom, Teresa Arnpriester and Nancy Davey.

A program of wedding music was presented at the organ by the Rev. Archie Echols, brother-in-law of the bride, and he accompanied Mrs. Echols as she sang "O Perfect Love," "Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest."

Seven branched candelabrum, entwined with greenery, formed the background for the altar decoration of baskets of white and yellow gladiolas. Burning tapers marked the family pew on the bride's side. Following the reading of the marriage vows, the bride and groom lighted a Memory Candle.

White satin and Venetian lace made the bride's gown which was fashioned with long sleeves and rousing neckline. Her veil was one made and worn by her sister, Mrs. Echols, as a bride. Falling from a heart-shaped crown of seed pearls, it extended cathedral length, scalloped at the edge with Chantilly lace. The bridal bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid, was carried on a bridal Bible covered with white satin and Venetian lace.

The feminine attendants wore formal gowns of bridal satin with empire styling and elbow length sleeves. Each wore short white gloves. Miss Arnpriester's gown was royal blue and Miss Merrill and Miss Long wore gowns of yellow. Their headpieces were matching bows and nylon tulle and each carried three long-stemmed yellow roses.

Mrs. Jimmy Bell of Hereford, sister of the bride, registered the guests at the wedding.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church basement. A lace cloth, lined with yellow, covered the bride's table and the three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a silver cross. Mrs. Charles Woodrum served the cake assisted by Miss Lois

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

BEAUTY SPOTS

There is so very much we can learn from flowers. Candance Wheeler expressed it this way: "I find children of the garden more consistent in their behavior than the children of men; they have not unlearned the great law of obedience. Each individual and family and tribe has its standard and rule of conduct and lives by it, and when we grow to recognize it, we have the peace which comes from our confidence in the behavior of a tried friend. Some lift their heads high, as if being defiant, others are small and demure, others more beautiful and useful when planted mass. However they grow, there is beauty to be found."

I am a bit loath to mention "beauty spots" which I think are pretty, but very numerous. But you make a list also, then maybe we can compare notes. Since petunias are the official flower to grow for this year, it won't be difficult to pick out some really lovely ones, which are indeed creating 'spots of beauty'.

Since the colors and names vary, I am not going to undertake to give the name of the petunia grown. If interested, then call the person whose name is given.

REDS: Some of the most picturesque and lovely ones are those grown at 620 Westhaven Drive. This is the new home of The Hulls, and they have combined the red petunias, with the evergreen plantings in the planter boxes, so that it is very attractive. Then the crushed red rocks at the front tie in with the color. All united makes a 'beauty spot.'

Mixed red are used in the corner planting at the R. L. Etheridge home, 400 Western, and they really make an attractive splash of color for the entry way.

Pinks in many shades are being used throughout town.

The combination of the rosy ones with white allysum, in the planter boxes and other accent plantings at the Dr. Wesley home, 109 Douglas St., are very dainty. The pink or rose colored petunias used in several various plantings at the Orval Watson home, 216 Northwest Drive, are striking. A mixed planting, featuring reds, purples, and pinks are very showy at the Thomas home, 109 Centre.

Ordinarily I much prefer one color for effect, but these are very pretty. On our patio, one of the brightest spots is the red, large Commanche petunia. They are placed that we can enjoy them from most any room in the home, as is also true of the delicate 'apple blossom' (pink) petunias in the hanging basket and the planter box. That is one of the advantages in using petunias. They are very adaptable to most any setting, and fill in many spaces that need that 'something special.'

If I were to give an award, I would most certainly place a nice long, blue, First Award ribbon on the beautiful white petunias that are going so very beautifully and effectively at Cottage D, King's Manor. I think I have never seen lovelier, larger, or better grown white petunias. The substance, the green foliage, and the lovely, lovely sheen of the white blossoms are almost breath taking.

Many other pretty and well grown white petunias are doing their bit to 'create spots of beauty' in Hereford. Some of these are at the Woods home, 336 Northwest Drive (this is a new home, oo.)

Fitting in with the architectural design, and color of the house and yard furniture, are the pretty white petunias at the Nash home, 48 Mimosa. These are bordered by the miniature marigolds, making color harmony, and relationship very good.

There are many, many lovely petunias growing in town, but I find in trying to cipher my notes, written hurriedly and when I was really excited and a bit weary, that they are illegible. So, later, we will make mention of other lovelies growing. Last week we made mention that it is always good taste to have some white flowers in the garden. A lovely planting featuring white was seen on Elm St. The main plant is an Althea (Rose of Sharon), and was flanked on either side with a very lovely Elder Berry shrub. The flowers on the Althea are the largest I have ever seen, and they are just perfect in formation. The whiteness is bright and clear — really lovely. I was real thrilled to take a close up look at the Elder Berry, as I had not seen one growing in many years. The intricate white clustered blossom is beautiful to look at, and the foliage is very nice. When the berries mature, they make very tasty jelly (and in the long ago, the housewives made wine of the Elder berries.)

These were growing at the A. E. Etheridge home on Elm Street. Mrs. Etheridge said the only special attention the shrubs had received, was when the lawn was fed. Then, they gave a feeding to the shrubs.

"We owe a long debt of gratitude to the daisy; if we undertook to pay it all, we should have written such a book as is never very likely to be written. . . a journal of numberless happy, full hours, filled with childhood memories." Daisies are really very lovely this summer, and many homes are graced with their beauty. Those growing at the Gault home on Sunset Drive with pretty graceful white petunias near by, truly makes a spot of beauty.

Many lovely roses still grace the gardens. They have had a bit of rest, and the showers of rain have brought out new blossoms. Some noticed while driving around are: The Duncan home on Beach; Mrs. G. W. Newsom's rose garden, 130 Ave. C; the Orval Watson home, 216 Northwest Dr.; the border roses at 248 Northwest Drive, as well as the other pretty roses there.

Another planting of roses that gave me a thrill was the planting at Dr. Adams' office, 335 Miles. They are this year's planting, and have as a background, evergreens.

Wish more businesses, professionals and others would take an interest in making the grounds around their places of business clean and pretty. The shrubs at the Bryant Bros. Pipe Co., always give me a good feeling each time I pass their place of business. I have also been pleased to see the

Readhimer Admitted To Rice

Accepted for admission to Rice University for the fall semester of 1969 is Marvin Leo Readhimer, son of Mrs. Dennis Williams, 213 Aspen. Readhimer is among more than 600 students who have been admitted to the University for the fall semester, giving the University its largest entering class in its 58-year history. More than 200 of these were accepted in November, 1968, under the University's Early Decision Plan.

Rice seeks the students with a record of scholastic achievement, intellectual potential and a wide range of talents and interests. The criteria used in an attempt to predict these qualities are (1) high school record, (2) scores on the Scholastic Aptitude and Achievement Tests administered by the College Entrance Examination Board, and (3) evaluation made by high school teachers and counselors and University representatives in personal interviews.

It doesn't complicate your life.

Maverick is the simple machine—simple to own, simple to repair, simple to service, simple to drive.

It doesn't cost a lot.

With prices everywhere going sky-high, Maverick comes along with a down-to-earth price—$1995.*

It doesn't have a tiny trunk.

Maverick gives you 10.4 cu. ft. of trunk space—nearly twice as much as the leading import. Now the whole family's luggage can go along for the ride.

It doesn't squeeze you in.

Some big people live in this country. That's why we made Maverick bigger than the imports. Lots of legroom and shoulder room.

It doesn't squeeze you out.

It's great for parking, great for handling, great for zipping through traffic.

It doesn't cost a lot for maintenance.

You can do most maintenance jobs yourself, if you want. If your mechanic does it, he can do it in a lot less time. Great when time is money and the money is yours.

It doesn't need a lot of service.

Maverick oil changes and chassis lubrication come less often than in the leading import. (Isn't it time you started seeing less of your mechanic and more of your car?)

It doesn't burn a lot of gas.

Maverick gives you the kind of mileage you'd expect from a little import—even with a powerful six-cylinder engine.

It doesn't hold back on power.

Turn on the engine and turn loose 105 horses—nearly twice as much as the leading import. This means highway power, passing power. The kind of power you need.

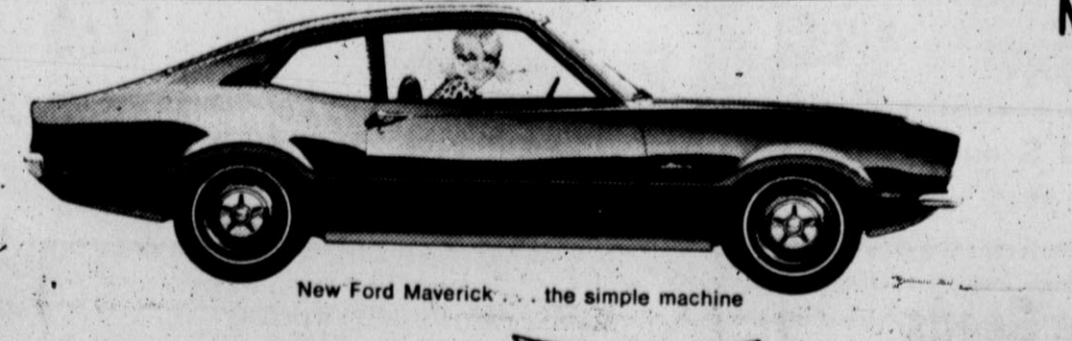

It doesn't handle like a kite.

The road might be wet and the wind strong—but Maverick's tread is wider than the car is high—great for stability. (Most economy imports are higher than their tread is wide.)

It doesn't follow the herd.

Maverick's new, different. A bright idea with bold, new colors. See your Ford Dealer for the rest of the story. Find out why Maverick is the hottest selling new car to come along since Mustang.

Cheaper by the doesn'ts.

Luncheon Honors Mrs. Miller

Miss Vickie Inman, whose marriage to Bruce L. Miller III took place on Saturday, July 12, was honored with a bridal luncheon held Friday in the home of her sister, Mrs. Dale Williams, Friona.

The bride's chosen colors of white and yellow were used in the decor of the luncheon table which was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of daisies in a milkglass container. White satin streamers inscribed with "Vickie and Bruce, July 12, 1969," flowed from the arrangement onto a yellow overlay cloth. A buffet salad luncheon was served.

Attending the luncheon were bridal attendants, Miss Sue Pinnell of Union, Mo., Miss Joyce Hopfer, Columbia, Mo., and Miss Kathy Miller, sister of the bridegroom.

Also attending were Miss Marie Phillips, St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Pamela Miller, another sister of the bridegroom.

Assisting with the courtesy was Mrs. Bruke Inman Jr., sister-in-law of Miss Inman.

Church Play Set

The second annual First United Methodist Church summer music workshop began Monday. The workshop, consisting of children ranging from 1 through 6 grade, meets each morning to rehearse for a musical production entitled NOAH AND THE ARK, under the direction of Robert M. Wert.

Thirty-three children are participating in the play, which will be presented Sunday evening, July 20, at 7 p. m. at the church.

The public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Last Rites Held For Ex-Resident

Funeral services for Nathan Guy Thomas, 68, a former Hereford resident, were held Tuesday in Burnet with memorial services held Wednesday in Lubbock. Burial was in Resthaven memorial Park at Lubbock. Thomas, who moved to Lubbock from Hereford about seventeen years ago, died at a Burnet Hospital Monday following a brief illness. He was a member of the Church of Christ and lived on the Royal Oaks Estate in Kingsland at the time of his death.

Survivors include his wife, Della; two sons, Fred Dwaine Thomas of Jacksonville, Fla. and Nathan Lee Thomas of Houston; a sister, Mrs. Clarine Collins of Clovis; two brothers, George Thomas of Arleta, Calif. and F. P. Thomas of Grady, N.M.; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. J. A. McWhorter, the former Helen Ann Pitman, parred the course at the local John Pitman Municipal Golf Course this week and set a new course record for women at the same time.

Mrs. McWhorter, playing from the men's tee-boxes, carded an even par 71 for the 18 holes. Also playing in the foursome were her husband, her brother John Douglas Pitman, and Owen Seamans.

We didn't ask, but have an idea that Mrs. McWhorter shot low score for the foursome. The McWhorters live in Dallas and have been visiting friends and relatives here.

Texans, on August 5 will determine the course our state into the next century when they cast their ballots for, or against, Amendment No. 2. This amendment will authorize the Texas Water Development Board to issue $3.5 billion in bonds to finance Texas' share of the cost of the Texas Water Plan. This money is not to be used to provide gifts or grants, but will provide temporary financing which will be repaid by water users. The amendment also removes the 4 per cent ceiling on Water Development Bonds.

The objective of the Texas Water Plan of course, is to provide for the importation of water for use not only in agriculture, but for Texas' expanding industrial complex, for recreation and for future needs of our cities. This is probably the most important vote that Texans have been asked to cast this century, and its outcome will affect the lives of all 11 million Texans, plus the millions more who will come along in the next 50 years. Texas must have additional water and we must also provide for the full development of our own water resources. State officials estimate that the population of Texas will be over 30.5 million by the turn of the century.

Cost of the $3 billion Texas Water Plan — Texas' share is estimated at $3.5 billion — will be shared by local, state and federal governments, with those who ultimately use the water paying much of the costs of the Plan.

Out here in West Texas, we think of the need for additional water for agricultural purposes, but this is really just a drop in the bucket to the overall picture. By the end of this century — in just 31 years — Texas will not have enough water to supply its growing cities, its expanding industry as well as its irrigated agriculture. To assure an adequate water supply, the state has prepared a plan for the full development, management and use of its water resources — and an imported water supply from the Mississippi River — to serve Texas to the year 2020 and to assure all Texans water to meet their needs.

Recreation will be served as well. Additional Lakes created by the water importation will provide additional fishing, boating and water skiing for the sports-minded and probably additional golf courses will appear around the lake areas such as you now find in other areas where large lakes provide ample water for the courses. The possibilities for recreation are unlimited, and of course, the water for our agriculture, industry and cities is a must. We've got to have it and we can't wait another thirty years.

Keep these things in mind, and be sure to turn out on August 5 to vote. Your future depends upon the approval of Amendment No. 2.

Bridal Shower Honors, Miss Short of Friona

The Friona home of Mrs. Vernon Roberts was the setting for a pre-nuptial courtesy Saturday honoring Miss Marie Short, September 1 bride-elect of Wayne Pate of Denver City.

Hosting the courtesy with Mrs. Roberts were Mmes. Grover Goggans, Bee Westbrook, Hop Lewis, Buck Farwell, G. B. Buske, E. H. Bradshaw, L. R. Hand, Bill McGloflin, Carl Schlinker, A. L. Outland, Eric Rushing, Robert Taylor and C. W. Tannahill.

Receiving the guests with the honoree was her mother, Mrs. Charles Short and her fiance's mother, Mrs. Malcolm Pate of Denver City and her grandmother, Mrs. B. B. Noyes of Hereford.

The lace covered serving table was centered with an arrangement of daisies with accents of white and mint green, the bride-elect's chosen colors. Appointments were in silver. Miss Janis Goggans presided at the guest registry.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Denmon Pate of Denver City, Mrs. Wilbur Keener and children of Clovis, N.M., Mrs. Richard Bull and Keran of Hereford and Mrs. Gary Hand of Canyon.

4-H CHARM SCHOOL UNDERWAY — Five local 4-H clubs, Dawn, Ford, Merry Maidens, Willing Workers, and Happy Hustlers, attended charm school Monday at the mall and Tuesday at the Community Center under the direction of 4-H leader Mrs. Leo Witkowski, Mrs. Joe Frank Huckert, Associate Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Juston McBride, a 4-H leader and former professional model. Pictured in the top photo is Mrs. McBride, left, helping some of the girls with a posture exercise. The girls are, from left to right, Beverly Cole, Monica Herring, Brenda Owen, Lynette Clearman, Vivian Martin, Karen Fox, and Linda Ginn. Shown in the bottom picture during Mrs. McBride's lesson on how to model correctly, are from left to right Carmela Burges, Joann Wagner, Patsy Paetold, and Jane Witkowski with Mrs. McBride, right.

Bridge Tournament To Open Tonight

The Harvest Festival Bridge Tournament opens tonight at the Community Center with a 1 session Mens and Womens Pairs beginning at 8 p. m. Play will continue Friday at the Knights of Columbus Hall with a 2 session, (1:30 p.m. and 8 p. m.) in a 3 session Saturday (9:30 a. m., 1:30 p. m., and 8 p. m.) and will end with a 2 session Sunday (1 p. m. and 6:30 p.m.).

To enter the tournament you must be a member of A. C. B. L. Memberships may be purchased at the door. Entry fees are $2.50 for mens and womens pairs and all side events $3 per session for all other events.

Sandwiches will be served after Friday's game, a light meal after the game Saturday, and dinner between sessions of the open on Sunday.

Free coffee and donuts will be available Saturday morning. Trophies will be presented to all first place winners at that time.

Tuesday night's regular session has been cancelled.

Last Rites Held For Sister Of Hereford Woman

Funeral services for Mrs. Pearl Virgin, sister of Mrs. Willie Burgess of Hereford, were held at 10 a. m. Tuesday in Schooler-Gordon Colonial Chapel in Amarillo. Officiating was Billy Jones, pastor of the Olsen Park Church of Christ. Burial was in Llano Cemetery.

Mrs. Virgin, 66, died Sunday morning at St. Anthony's Hospital. A native of Warren, Okla., she had been an Amarillo resident for 35 years.

She is survived by her husband, A. H. and her sister.

Ex-Resident Is Buried Tuesday At Clovis

Last Rites for Ray Leslie Singleterry, 64, of Clovis, a former Hereford resident, were held Tuesday in the 16th and Pile Street Church of Christ at Clovis.

Officiating was Bob Hawkins, pastor. Burial was in Lawnhaven Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Singleterry died Sunday night in the Clovis Memorial Hospital. He had been in the hardware business in Amarillo and Hereford before retiring and moving to Clovis from Hereford.

Survivors include his wife, Bennie; a son, Joe of Borger; a brother, Pearl of Texico, N. M.; sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Tuckness of Amarillo, Mrs. Velm a Billingsley of Yucaipa, Calif., Dessie Rutledge of Clovis, Mrs. Faye Wilson of Friona and Mrs. Gladys McDonald of Texico and one grandchild.

A host of plants, as well as animals, carry their own tiny lanterns. One species of umbrella-shaped fungus turns into a facsimile of a small night lamp.

Youth Sentenced On Drug Charges

A 20-year-old Hereford youth was sentenced to two years in the county jail Tuesday by County Judge H. C. Williams on charges of possession of dangerous drugs.

Paul R. Arnpriester, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Noah Arnpriester of Kansas City, Mo., was arrested June 27 at his apartment at 503 S. 25 Mile Ave. by county sheriff's department and city police department officers. Found in his possession were small quantities of Darvon tablets and birth control pills.

Arnpriester pleaded not guilty to the charge at the time of his arrest, but changed his plea to guilty before appearing before the County Judge Tuesday.

An ex-Air Force buck sergeant, Arnpriester was discharged from the service in late December of last year. While with the Air Force he was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal for a system he devised for computers.

A 1966 graduate of Hereford High School, Arnpriester entered the Air Force inactive reserve in September 1966 and went into active service in December of the same year.

First Baptist Bible School To Begin Soon

The First Baptist Vacation Bible School will begin July 28 and last through August 6. Classes will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. each morning for children ages 4 through 12.

Teen Time is for 7, 8, and 9 grade children.

Enrollment in the school is extended to all children in the community regardless of their race or church affiliation.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the hospital staff and all the employees and the nurses for the kindness they showed me while I was in the hospital, and also for the good food they served. I will thank Dr. Payne and Dr. A. T. Mims. I thank Mr. & Mrs. Charles Weatherford, they are sweet persons. And I thank the nice friends who came to see me. I pray the Good Lord will bless all and everyone of them.

Exercises Set For 17 Nurses

Capping exercises and a reception will climax 17 weeks of pre-clinical work for 17 student Vocational Nurses Friday night at 8 p. m. at the First Christian Church.

The 17 students have completed the required 17 weeks of pre-clinical study and will now advance to clinical study. During the year-long Vocational Nurses program, students are required to do hospital work and participate in theory classes. All work done by the students while enrolled in the LVN program goes toward their final testing by the state board for the registered license.

Speaker at the capping exercises will be Wayne Thomas, and the public is invited to attend the exercises and the reception which will follow immediately.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank Dr. Johnson and all the nurses who were so nice to me while I was in the hospital. Also my friends and relatives who sent cards and flowers.

June Callaway

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity in thanking the doctors and nurses at the Hereford Medical and Surgical Clinic and the Deaf Smith County Hospital for the care and kind treatment, a special thanks to Dr. Hicks, good and kind neighbors and friends during the time we both were hospitalized. May God bless each and everyone of you is our prayer.

Thinking Aloud

By BARBARA SWIMMER

"This is the beginning of a new day. God has given me this day to use as I will. I can waste it or use it for good. What I do today is important because I'm exchanging a day of my life for it. When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving in its place something that I have traded for it. I want it to be gain, not loss; good, not evil; success, not failure — in order that I shall not regret the price I paid for it." Heartsill Wilson

I talked to Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, (better known as Glad) last week and she and other members of the Hereford Garden Club are thrilled beyond words that we are finally going to have a garden center. I understand the plot of ground where the old Camp Fire Hut is located at Park Avenue and N. Main was offered to them for the purpose by the city commissioner. The club voted unanimously to accept the offer and they are making plans for the center.

Glad says this is a dream that they have had for a long time and it will now become a reality. They are making plans for a test garden and hope to set up a plant exchange in the near future.

Hereford Garden Club has as their main project, the beautification of the new Camp Fire Lodge, in North Park, and they have done a great job landscaping the grounds.

With projects like this and plans in the making for our very own garden center, how can we miss being the loveliest city in the area. . . ?

Out of the mouths of babes. . . I overheard two of my babes (Van-son and Scott-son) discussing their lives and what they were going to do with their futures. With a very serious air, Scott-son said he thought he would save up a fortune, about four thousand dollars, he said, and buy him the biggest ranch in Texas.

Van-son, the older of the two dreamers, said he thought he would go to Hawaii with his best friend and get stranded on a 'desert island' with two-pretty girls, but not until he was old and mature. Sixteen or seventeen years old, he says. Boy. If things could only stay that uncomplicated. . .

The Harvest Festival Bridge Tourney starts at 8 p. m. today at the Community Center. There is one session today, and continues on through Sunday with two and three sessions each day. The play on Friday, Saturday and Sunday will be at the KC Hall. Meals will be served on these three days, so leave your apron behind, girls, bring your husbands and play bridge.

The Hereford Major League All-Stars made everyone very proud of them Monday and Tuesday nights when they captured the area championship. Monday night they beat the Castro County All-Stars by a score of 8-0 with Crim pitching a shut-out game while Munnerlyn was behind the plate. Tuesday the 'terrible twins' exchanged places and repeated their performance by winning over the Dimmitt All-Star 7-1.

Course, they didn't do it by themselves. The great team effort of the whole bunch enabled them to take the title of champs.

Next week they will play in the District Tournament at Borger where we hope they do as well. Everyone make an effort to go and cheer them on for the championship. That date is July 21.

Watching the blast-off of Apollo 11 yesterday morning reminded me of a day (back in the olden days, as my boys say) long ago when I was just a child, thinking of the future and what it could bring. I remember wondering if we would ever send anyone to the moon. In those days when I thought of the far-off future, I always thought of it as the 1970's. I don't know why, because it sounded so distant and strange, I guess. But I do remember recalling the age I would be, and thinking that I would be so old

Shower Honors Recent Bride

The home of Mrs. Virgil Justice, 219 Ranger Drive, was the setting Monday evening for a post-nuptial shower honoring Mrs. James Harold Davis, the former Kathy Hutcheson.

Receiving guests with the honoree was her mother, Mrs. Elwin Hutcheson, her sister, Miss Carolyn Hutcheson and Mrs. Justice.

Refreshments of punch, finger sandwiches and cookies were served from a pink organza covered table centered with an arrangement of daisies and Queen Elizabeth roses. Appointments were in silver.

and decrepit by then, that I probably wouldn't care. . . Boy, how time flies. . . and I'm still just a kid. . .

Presiding at the table was Miss Marchetta Hutcheson, sister of the honoree. Miss Sharlene Powell was at the guest book.

For the evening, Mrs. Davis chose a pink organza dress with eyelet embroidery trim, fashioned with leg of mutton sleeves. She wore matching pink shoes and the corsage presented to her and members of the house party and receiving line were of pink carnations tied with white streamers.

Co-hosting the courtesy with Mrs. Justice were Meses. John Sever, Art Stoy, Francis Euler, Charlie Burke, Steve Powell, Elaine Chapman and Miss Virginia Curtinger.

For God So Loved The World

Do you find it hard to read? Is its language too out of date? Have you imagined it contradicts its self? Are you of the opinion God's love for us is a paradox? Do you think if God really loved us He would let us be sick, experience pain and suffer death? Is the Bible actually hard for you to understand? If your answer is "yes," then you should enroll in Sunday School, start going to church regularly and join the band of honest, serious seekers after God's own will in your life; the true interpretation of His word. To the believer the Bible makes sense, it is easy to understand and in it there are no contradictions. It is really the Book of Life.

DIFFERENT HORS D'OEUVRE — A Rice Torta that comes from Northern Italy.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Rice Torta From Italy

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

The best hors d'oeuvre we have come on lately hails from Italy. It's a delicious combination of rice, spinach, cheese and eggs that's baked in a fairly shallow pan. Cut in small pieces, it's great to offer with late-afternoon or before-dinner drinks. All our tasters asked for the recipe.

This torta comes from Piacenza, a town in Northern Italy where rice is a staple and sauces are likely to be made with butter, eggs and cream. In Italy the rice torta goes to the table at the end of the meal along with fruit and cheese. It's so highly regarded that it is usually served on holidays or other festive occasions.

The recipe was contributed by a friend who borrowed it from her Italian-born mother. Our friend says: "I've made a departure from the Italian service of torta because I use it as an hors d'oeuvre nearly every time I entertain a dozen or more friends. It's a perfect do-ahead dish and inexpensive. Recently I served my torta to my mother who pronounced it just right. Although she scorns any spinach that isn't fresh, she didn't even guess that I had used the frozen kind!"

JENNIE'S RICE TORTA
1/2 cup water
1 package (10 ounces) frozen leaf spinach
3 cups cooked rice
1/2 pound ricotta cheese
1 cup freshly grated Parmesan cheese
1/4 teaspoon salt
One-sixteenth teaspoon pepper
4 large eggs

Olive oil
Fine dry bread crumbs
In a saucepan bring the water to a boil; add spinach; break up with a fork to thaw and bring to a boil; boil about 1 minute. Drain thoroughly; chop fine; squeeze out any excess water.

In a medium mixing bowl stir together the spinach, rice, ricotta, Parmesan, salt and pepper.

In a small mixing bowl beat together 3 of the eggs until yolks and whites are combined; fold into rice mixture.

With olive oil, grease the bottom and sides of a square cake pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches). Sprinkle bottom and sides with enough bread crumbs to coat. Turn rice mixture into pan.

Beat remaining egg until yolk and white are combined; with a pastry brush, brush over rice mixture.

Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until firm — about 30 minutes.

Run a small spatula around the sides to loosen edges; cut into 1 1/4-inch squares; remove with spatula. Serve warm as an hors d'oeuvre.
Makes 36.

Note: If any of the torta is leftover, cut into large sections; with a wide spatula, loosen carefully and remove; wrap in foil and refrigerate. To reheat, bring to room temperature and then reheat in the foil in a 350-degree oven just until warm — 5 or 10 minutes. Recipe may be easily doubled and baked in a 13-by-9-by-2-inch pan at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

Universal Dream Comes True

New this week at the Deaf Smith County Library are two serious novels. One tells of the perils and joys of life in the woods for two city people and the other tells how a romance complicates a man's search for his style of life.

A PLACE IN THE WOODS

By Helen Hoover

To escape from the city, to live close to nature in the beauty and quiet of the wilderness, to try to find within oneself a pioneer resourcefulness of spirit, mind, and hand — it is an almost universal dream. Helen Hoover and her husband made it come true for themselves, and this is the richly told story of how they did it.

As she demonstrated in The Gift of the Deer — a book greatly loved and praised — Mrs. Hoover has the gift of sharing with readers her own profound feeling for the wilderness she has made her home and for the wild animals whom she makes her friends, without destroying the integrity of their wild lives.

But she was not always at ease with nature. And she tells how she and her husband, leaving behind everything that was familiar to them, bridged the infinite distance in life-style from Chicago, where they had lived, to a cabin on the fringe of Minnesota's northernmost wilderness.

Neither of them had so much as a Cub Scouts' experience of the woods, and their first year was punctuated with near-disasters. They quickly discovered that a long-time desire for the simple Thoreauvian life was not enough. The obstinance of inanimate objects — the crumbling stone foundation, the leaky roof, the unruly double-bitted ax that must be mastered when you depend on a woodburning stove at thirty below — was new to them.

The changing seasons astonished them not only with surprising loveliness, but with unexpected crisis of survival. But they managed, despite their trials, to rebuild their primitive cabin. And, as they worked and learned they built for themselves, little by little, a rewarding relationship not only with the sparsely settled community but with a marvelous succession of their closest neighbors: wild weasels and jays, squirrels and shy fishers, even bears in the

IOOF Grand Master To Be At Friona

Claude Morris, Grand Master of Texas Odd Fellows, has scheduled his official visit to District 4 of the Independent Order of Oddfellows of Texas in Friona Tuesday, according to Billy Gene Zachary.

The Grand Master is to conduct a special session of Grand Lodge for the purpose of conferring the Past Grand and Grand Lodge degrees.

Zachary reported that the meeting is for all Oddfellows in the area.

Synthetic rubber's share of total U. S. rubber consumption is expected to be about the same as 1963, or 77 per cent, according to the International Institute of Synthetic Rubber Producers.

Scorpions once claimed as many as seven lives a year in Arizona before antivenins, public education and improved extermination reduced the threat, National Geographic says.

Jennifer, Mrs. Sue Andrews, Ray Deon Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Callaway.

Out-of-town realtives were Mr. and Mrs. Calude Gillean and Mr. and Mrs. James Gillean, all of Clovis; Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Jasper of Amarillo, Mrs. Bettie Stockett and children from Claude, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tumlinson and Clarice of Seminole, Mr. and Mrs. Cap Cocanougher of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gore and children of Friona and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Gore and family of Amarillo.

The reunion planned for next summer will be held the second Sunday in July.

basement.
The reader experiences it all, the hardships and joys, the gradual feeling of becoming connected to earth and the elements, of belonging. This is the special delight of Helen Hoover's warm, evocative, and sometimes extremely funny account of the way in which two city people made for themselves A PLACE IN THE WOODS.

WITHOUT A CITY WALL

By Melvyn Bragg

"There was a major novel to be written around such an aspect of a contemporary crisis and Melvyn Bragg has written it." So writes the London Times about this book — a serious, ambitious novel about a young man's attempt to free himself from the meaninglessness of contemporary.

Without a City Wall is set in the remote Cumberland Village of Crossbridge. It is there that Richard Godwin, at twenty-four disenchanted with London and his successful career, has chosen to isolate himself, wishing to find a style of life in which he can believe. His search is complicated by the presence in Crossbridge of a beautiful and disturbing young woman — Janice Beattie — whose intelligence and single-minded drive toward independence make her irresistibly attractive to Richard. But her drive is to escape from the rural isolation which he finds liberating. Their conflicting purposes, their passionate involvement with one another, and the consequences — for their lives and for the people they are bound to love or concern are told in a powerful, urgent novel that has confirmed Bragg's place as one of the most important young writers in England.

Jimmy Christie To Get Santa Fe Trip

Eight young West Texas area Future Farmers are among 16 winners of achievement and college scholarship awards provided by Santa Fe Railway, George Hurl, director of agricultural education, Austin, has announced.

All winners will be presented award certificates during the Texas FFA convention at Fort Worth today by K. M. Fogg, executive representative for the Santa Fe, Houston.

Winners of achievement awards, which enable the recipient to attend the national convention at Kansas City this fall are Jimmy Christie, Summerfield; Randy Jordan, Pampa; Billy Dixon, Memphis; Brend Snodgrass, Dell City; Terry Robinson, Snyder, and Doug Upshaw, Roby, Tex.

The remaining eight winners are located in other sections of Texas beyond the west Texas area.

Two $50 college scholarships winners are Forrest Burnham, Ralls, and Gil Lain of Hamlin, Tex.

Fogg also will present the railroads check for $3,125 contributing to the support of FFA for 1969, to Bill Sarpalus, president of the Texas association. Winners, who are certified by state FFA officials, were selected for outstanding agricultural production, leadership and scholastic achievement.

The Santa Fe has supported the Future Farmers of America since its inception more than 40 years ago and will also honor its winners at a dinner at Kansas City during the national convention in October.

Concerning Veterans

High school dropouts who enter the service may return to get their diploma under the GI Bill, according to Jack Coker, Manager of Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco.

The VA will pay veterans up to $130 a month (if single and they are fulltime students — more if they have dependents). Those attending adult evening school will be enrolled at half-time rate.

Adrian News

By ANN BEAVERS
Brand Correspondent
Lee Ann Warren of near Albuquerque, Monty Dixon of Morse, Tex., and Kathy Ballantine

These payments will not reduce their college or on-the-job training benefits, Coker said.

A number of colleges and universities have embarked on new programs for returning veterans who do not possess a diploma but do desire a higher education. However, such veterans must meet certain qualifications established by the institutions and the VA.

Upon discharge, veterans should file at the nearest VA office for certificates of eligibility even though they may not

Major Changes In Cattle Slaughter

COLLEGE STATION — Dramatic things are happening in the Texas livestock industry! Among them, according to Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist at Texas A&M University, is the shift in the slaughter of cattle and calves during the past few years.

He cites as very important factors in the shift the tremendous increase in demand for feeder calves by feedlots producing heavy fed beef and rising incomes of consumers, particularly those in the South, and an increased preference for "beef" rather than "slaughter calf."

With these two overall effects acting on the market at the same time, the retail food stores have found less slaughter calf beef available for purchase and thus at a higher price, Uvacek explains.

During the first four months of 1969, the economist reports that commercial slaughter of calves in Texas was down 22 percent from the same period a year ago. These same months also recorded the smallest slaughter of calves on record for the state, he notes.

Another interesting part of the change in slaughter classification is the average weights of animals slaughtered, says Uvacek. Average liveweight of calves commercially slaughtered in the first four months of 1969 ranged between 493 and 528 pounds. The lowest weight recorded during this season of the year since 1960 was 516 pounds, he notes.

Feedlot requirements have dipped deeply into calf crops for their supplies of feeders; thus, drastically reducing the number of calves available for slaughter but increasing very materially total cattle slaughter in the state.

Uvacek says this trend can be expected to continue for the next several years and could mean a substantially changed demand for the type of calves required in the future.

Up Insurance On Teenagers

COLLEGE STATION — Parents of teen-age drivers, especially boys, should be prepared to pay up to triple their regular rates for auto insurance.

The cost of an under 20-year-old boy who is the principle driver of a second or third car in the family runs about three times the adult rate, even though the car is registered in the parent's name, according to an Extension home management specialist.

The rate is about double the adult cost if he merely drives the family car "with permission," Linda Jacobsen adds.

Records show that youthful drivers are more careful of the family car than their own, and during this period they can build up a good record which will be an advantage with later rates.

Girls aren't quite as expensive: a policy covering a 17-year-old girl as principle driver costs about 50 percent more than the standard adult rate, going down to 10 percent excess at age 20. But surveys indicate that girls are getting more careless at the wheel, the Texas A&M University specialist says.

For boys, penalty premiums start to drop at age 20, decreasing annually to 10 percent at age 25. Miss Jacobsen adds that teenagers who have taken an accredited driver education course save about 10 percent.

Car Insurance Rate Hike Causing Stir At Capital

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — Stiff resistance is forming to a proposed 11.4 per cent average private auto insurance rate hike.

Gov. Preston Smith promised a "full scale" investigation of soaring rates after State Insurance Board rate experts recommended the new increase. Smith said the proposal "borders on catastrophe" and the car insurance situation "has become intolerable for many of our citizens." Governor announced an early meeting with insurance company executives and said he is considering appointment of a select panel of citizens outside the industry to make a thorough study and recommendations.

Board rate-authorities blamed the increase on the number and cost of auto accidents. Labor cost for repairs, in particular, was emphasized.

Recommendations and testimony at the public hearing will be reviewed by the board before August. New rates will take effect with policies written or renewed on or after September 1.

*Liability rates, under staff recommendation, would go up 3.5 per cent. (Bodily injury coverage actually would be reduced 3.7 per cent, but property damage would increase 21.4 per cent.)

*Collision insurance would increase 17.5 per cent.

*Comprehensive coverage for physical damage would climb 24.9 per cent.

Commercial vehicles, with better safety records, would get lower rates. Figuring all classes of vehicles, the statewide average increase would be 9.2 per cent under staff recommendations.

Insurance company spokesmen urged even higher increases, but AFL-CIO spokesmen argued for reduction, rather than raise.

"An automobile is an absolute necessity in our current society, and, I, for one, do not intend to sit idly by and see it priced into a position of being a luxury," said Smith.

TREASURE HUNT CAUSES RUCKUS — A story which began in 1553 still is one of the state's headline items.

Lawsuits, sharp exchanges between state officials and threatened impeachment proceedings raged over what should be done with the treasure recovered from a Spanish galleon which sank in a storm off Padre Island more than 400 years ago.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler incurred the ire of a legislative committee earlier when he declined to cooperate with members probing his agreement with the Gary, Ind., firm of Platoro, Inc. Sadler's proposal was to salvage artifacts from the sunken ship and divide the loot 50-50 with the state.

Sadler announced that he had recovered all the articles taken from the galleon by Platoro and has them in his custody. He got a court order temporarily restraining Platoro from further operations which firm, according to Secretary of State Martin Dies, engaged in the Padre treasure hunt without the proper state permit.

District judge at Corpus Christi postponed a hearing on disposition of the treasure until after the special legislative session. Meanwhile, he named a committee to determine if the Gary salvage firm still has some of the treasure and, if so, how to get it back. Serving on the committee are Col. Wilson E. Speir, director of the Department of Public Safety, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin, and Ed Harte, Corpus Christi publisher.

State Rep. Jake Johnson of San Antonio threatened impeachment of Sadler over his contract with Platoro.

DEER HUNTING LONGER — Longest deer hunting season yet has been set by the Parks and Wildlife Commission.

Season will open on the morning of November 8 and continue until sunset on January 1, 1970.

Commission agreed to reduce the white wing dove season drastically. Shooting will be permitted only on one weekend in September, since experts reported the dove population down 20 per cent from last year.

ELECTION FILINGS COMPLETE — Nine candidates filed for the House of Representatives in District 73 in the July 22 special election to pick a successor to Rep. R. G. (Randy) Pendleton of Andrews.

Candidates for the Andrews, Dawson, Gaines, Lynn, Martin and Youakum counties spot are: Raymond G. Burton, Jim Clack, Jack R. Cook, and Jerry D. Mitchell, all of Andrews; E. L. Short of Tahoka; Ray Trent of Denver City; Delbert R. Warren of Seminole and S. W. Wheeler of Stanton. Applications of two others, who did not file within the deadline, were rejected.

COURTS SPEAK — A patient can still collect on a hospital insurance policy, even if most of his expenses are paid by Medicare, says the State Supreme Court in agreeing with the appellate court in an Abilene case.

A serum company is liable for damages in the death of 25 registered calves in Ochiltree County, says the Supreme Court in backing a trial court. Court found that antibiotic given the calves for a respiratory ailment was unfit for use.

A Waco seed company's failure to protest its tax assessment before the board of equalization did not deprive it of the right to challenge the valuation in court, the High Court said in a decision upholding the Waco Court of Civil Appeals but reversing the trial court.

Supreme Court has agreed to hear an application by the El Paso Times on a libel case by a former UT-El Paso professor. Dr. Richard Trexler claims he was libeled by a letter published in the Times. Trial court found no actual malice or damages, but the appeals court said the jury got the wrong definition of actual malice and ordered a retrial, which the Times appealed.

Court upheld an appeals decision that Deaf Smith County landowner Vada White and others would have to start over in a land condemnation suit involving Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America.

Dallas man, convicted of slaying a school girl, got a new trial by order of the Court of Criminal Appeals, because his lawyers were not given an advance list of prospective jurors.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed conviction of a Galveston man for possession narcotics paraphernalia because the trial court permitted testimony on information given the police by a drug buyer.

APPOINTMENTS — Norman F. Newton, 27-year-old aide to

Sen. John Tower, is the new executive director of the Republican Party of Texas.

Governor Smith named to the new Credit Union Commission Wilfred S. MacKinnon of Baytown, Robert W. Mitchell of Longview, Pete G. Gooch of Fort Worth, R. C. Morgan of El Paso, Walter V. Duncan of Richardson and Glenn D. Johnson of Houston.

Smith is setting up a 27-member Governor's Health Advisory Committee to work with the Texas State Comprehensive Health Planning Agency and has arranged a two-day orientation program.

Ralph Rettig of El Paso was named by the Texas Water Development Board to fill a vacancy on the board's weather modification advisory committee. He replaces the late C. B. Ray of El Paso.

Governor Smith named six legislators to attend the Southern Regional Educational Board's legislative advisory council meeting in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Senators named were Bill Moore of Bryan, Jim Bates of Edinburg and Jack Hightower of Vernon. Representatives were Hillary B. Doran of Del Rio, Don Cavness of Austin and Frank Calhoun of Abilene.

SHORT SHORTS — Texas Aeronautics Commission included hearings on the application of Rio Airways to link the Rio Grande Valley with Laredo, Corpus Christi, Houston, San Antonio and Austin in new small plane flights.

A "Nine for Texas Committee" is organizing to campaign for passage of all of the nine proposed constitutional amendments on the August 5 ballot.

Governor Smith proclaimed July 20-26 as Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Week and called on rural residents to use the new slow moving vehicle emblem on agricultural equipment moved over the state highways.

Sen. Murray Watson of Mart was "Governor for a Day" on Saturday, July 12.

House Appropriations Committee plans to recommend a biennial state budget similar to the one it first agreed to last April.

Federal grants of $100,250 and $23,950 will go to park improvements in Wichita Falls and Brenham, respectively.

State tax revenue from smoking and drinking increased $1.2 million last month over June, 1968 — from $12 million to $13.2 million.

Request of a Waco man to the City of Waco for maintaining cemeteries is exempt from the inheritance tax, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held, but a bequest made to a city out of the state is not exempt.

Governor Smith told business leaders he will not recommend a chemical industry tax at the special session.

State Board of Education adopted a policy on bilingual education and approved a request by 20 South Texas school districts to continue a six-month extended day migrant school program.

Texas Fine Arts Commission, if its budget is approved, will have $40,000 available to help bring professional entertainment groups to the state's smaller communities.

CHILDREN MUSICAL TOKYO. — Piano companies in Japan say 500,000 youngsters — 10 per cent more than in 1967 — took piano lessons in Japan in 1968.

They attribute the increase to schools which encourage students to learn to play musical instruments.

Stretch Summer Pastures Advised

COLLEGE STATION — The continuing hot and dry weather is taking its toll of grazing crops and pastures. Growth has been greatly reduced on most temporary pastures and stockmen are advised to "stretch" this source of grazing.

Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist at Texas A&M University, says this is the kind of weather that requires the use of good management in order to get the most from summer temporary pastures.

Limiting the grazing can increase both the amount of forage available over such periods as not exists and the amount of meat and milk produced, he adds. Limited grazing means that animals are permitted to graze just long enough for them to get their required nutrition. They should then be removed to an adjoining pasture or field for shade, water and rest. This practice, he notes, prevents unnecessary trampling, droppings and spoilage of good quality forage.

The importance of adequate fertilization and liming really shows up during the hot and often dry summer season, he emphasizes. Pastures receiving little or no fertilizer are the first to show signs of dry weather stress, he notes.

McBride Upped To Colonel

FORT WORTH — Justin T. McBride of 411 E. Fourth in Hereford has been promoted to colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve.

Col. McBride received the promotion at Sandia Base in Albuquerque, N. M., where he recently served on active duty for two weeks with the 4159th Fort Worth U. S. Army Reserve School.

The promotion was announced by Col. Henry G. Creel Jr. of Fort Worth, commandant of the school.

Col. McBride served as an instructor in the Command and General Staff College Course, a program to train officers for high-level staff and large-unit command positions.

For the past three years, he has been a C&GSC instructor for the Amarillo satellite of the Fort Worth school.

In civilian life, Col. McBride is county agricultural agent of Deaf Smith County. He is a graduate of Texas A&M University, a member of the Hereford Kiwanis Club and a deacon in First Baptist Church. His military career extends 27 years, including three years active duty during World War II with the 1252nd Engineer Combat Battalion in Europe.

NEW COLONEL—Justin T. McBride, right, of Hereford has been promoted to colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve. Also promoted to colonel were, from left, Robert K. Long and Robert K. Cline, both of Amarillo. The promotions were announced at Sandia Base in Albuquerque, N.M., where Col. McBride recently completed two weeks' summer training with the 4159th Fort Worth U.S. Army Reserve School.
