

68TH YEAR — NO. 26

Trucks Bid

Budget Hearing Set

County Commissioners Court spent much of their time in regular session Monday morning studying bids for the purchase of four new 2-ton trucks (one truck for each precinct) and looked into a problem of routing cattle trucks into the property owned by Southwest Feed Yards Inc.

In the afternoon session, the Deaf Smith County Commissioners set Monday, July 28, at 10 a. m. as the time and date for the reading of the 1970 county budget.

They also voted to renew an amount of $14,000 in the R. O. W. Interest and Sinking Fund with an addition to it of $10,000 for a period of six months.

Accepted on all four trucks was the base bid of $3,578.90 each (with trade-in) on Internationals from Oglesby Implement Co. of Hereford. Other bids, submitted by Orval Watson Ford and Orsborn Chevrolet-Olds, were less than $100 higher.

These trucks are to be used for the hauling of caliche, etc., equipped with hoists from American Trailer Co.

The board of directors of Southwest Feed Yards with president Bill Gentry as spokesman told of problems they have encountered with truck traffic coming into their property, which they maintained would increase prior to the time the Texas Highway Department has set the paving completion date in December or January. Gentry reported that cattle should be coming into their yards beginning in mid-July.

Commissioners decided to build a caliche road up to the Southwest Feed Yards alley, beginning next week, which they felt would solve the problem until such time as paving could be completed on the state road project.

Services For Katy Kendall Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Katy Kendall, 92, of 710 E. 3rd in Hereford, were held Wednesday in the Summerfield Baptist Church where she was a member. The Rev. Merle Weathers, pastor, and the Rev. Gerald Mann, pastor of the First Baptist Church officiated.

Burial was in West Park Cemetery directed by Gilliland Funeral Home.

Casketbearers for the funeral were six of her great-grandsons.

Mrs. Kendall died at 8:30 p. m. Monday at Deaf Smith County Hospital following a long illness.

She was born March 20, 1877 at Columbia, Tenn. and came to Deaf Smith County in 1908 from Eldorado, Okla.

She married Lee Kendall in Collin County on March 18, 1894. She is survived by a son, Joe of Hereford; seven grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren.

Cornelius Youth Is Satisfactory

Johnny Cornelius, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cornelius, 202 Fir, was listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday morning at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo after suffering head injuries in a fall Monday.

Cornelius, on his first day on the job at Pitman Grain Elevators at Milo Center, apparently lost his footing while standing on a four-foot ladder and fell, striking his head.

The accident occurred around 9:45 a. m. and Cornelius was rushed to Deaf Smith County Hospital and immediately taken to the intensive care unit at St. Anthony's.

CUTTING, DIGGING AND WEEDING — A lot of work came with the drier weather in the Hereford area as farmers were finally able to go to work harvesting wheat, digging potatoes and weeding sugar beets.

Large amounts of moisture over the past few weeks had halted much of the harvesting and other agriculture work, but things seem to be getting into full swing now. —Staff Photos.

Unemployment; Insurance Low

Texas Employment Commission manager Lester Rape reported that unemployment in Deaf Smith, Castro, and Parker counties is currently at an all time low and has released equally startling information regarding unemployment insurance claimants in the area.

Current unemployment total is less than one per cent.

"Of this percentage," he stated, "only 16 people have filed for unemployment insurance in the past thirty days. This total includes seven from Deaf Smith, four from Castro, and five from Parker. From the total of 16, three are from states other than Texas and 13 are female."

He explained that the personal qualifications for unemployment insurance, the person must have previously worked for someone who pays the unemployment insurance tax and be unemployed through no fault of his own. "They must also be available and able for work and must make an active search for employment during this time. And the amount that anyone qualifies for is dependent upon how much they have made in the first four of the last 5 completed quarters."

For an employer to be required to pay the unemployment insurance tax, he must employ four or more employees, excluding the owners. "However, there are a number of employers who are exempt from paying the tax," Rape explained. "Anyone engaged in farming or ranching; also city, county and state employees; schools, hospitals and other non-profit organizations."

Rape also stated that unemployment insurance is not a relief program.

"However, with the expanding economy in this area," he said, "it is expected that unemployment will continue to decline in these three counties."

Rape added, "Anyone who is interested in working is encouraged to come by the Texas Employment Commission office and register. We have openings for a number of different kinds of jobs at this time."

TEC is located at Seventh and 25 Mile Ave.

Holly Outlines Expansion Plans

COLORADO SPRINGS — Steps being taken by Holly Sugar Corporation to improve the profitability and efficiency of its sugar business along with its diversification plans were given to stockholders attending the Corporation's 64th annual meeting last week in the Broadmoor Hotel.

Among the steps listed by President John B. Bunker in his remarks were the increase in factory beet slicing capacities by installing new and larger equipment; research to develop superior, disease-resistant beets, and enlarging bulk and liquid sugar storage facilities to improve the Company's marketing efficiency.

"When all the presently planned improvements are completed by March 1971, and at a cost of nearly $22 million, we will have achieved a capability to process more beets in a shorter period of time — by about 15 per cent," Bunker said.

"This is the equivalent of building a new plant, but at about one-half the cost which a new one would require. I think more importantly, we will then have a chain of strategically located production facilities as modern and as profitable as any in the world," Bunker explained.

Bunker also said that the sugar beet industry's growth is about twice that of population growth. He predicted beet acreage restrictions will be necessary on the 1970 crop because beet sugar inventories will become excessive.

Touching on Holly's diversification plans, he told about acquiring three food companies from Schenley Industries and the creation of Holly World Foods, Inc. as a wholly-owned subsidiary to operate these companies. Holly World Foods is now the fourth largest company in the gourmet food industry, Bunker pointed out.

Following Bunker's report, stockholders re-elected the present board of directors, reappointed Haskins & Sells as auditors for the current fiscal year, voted to amend the certificate of incorporation by increasing stockholder voting requirements from two-thirds to four-fifths in connection with certain mergers.

In the Gilberts' proposal approved by stockholders, Holly would prepare a post-meeting report containing a summary of the discussion, the actual vote in terms of shares for and against resolutions and important shareholder questions and management answers.

Chairman John L. Loeb, Jr., presided and answered questions from the floor.

Other points of planning included an increase in efforts to provide education about alcoholism within quasi-public and public organizations such as service and study clubs, public schools, and churches. A reorganization of the council so that it includes a broader sweep of the community; an investigation of the possibility toward including neighboring counties and communities, sponsor counseling and referral services on a more intensified level than presently available; sponsor public information meetings, books, posters, etc. for giving information about alcoholism — both its causes and therapy.

Also considered are the sponsorship of seminars and workshops for people in professions which are subject to encounters with alcoholism, such as police, doctors, nurses, clergymen, lawyers, social workers, etc.

An additional point was to "avail ourselves and learn about being open to the ongoing research and findings of research in the field of alcoholism."

Rev. Howard pointed out the importance of including more council members and stated that we are not a prohibitionist group — we are composed of both wets and dries. We have nothing to do with alcohol but alcoholism.

Planned are future monthly meetings primarily for the purpose of information and education for everyone in the Hereford area invited and not for merely council business meetings. Filling the term of vice-chairman, vacated when Gene Fooks, former minister of Central Church of Christ resigned to accept a church in Artesia, N. M., was Hardwick.

A directorship, in place of Rev. Ronald Harpster who has also resigned as pastor at the Avenue Baptist Church here to become associate pastor at Stamford, Tex., has been postponed for announcement until the next meeting. The council decided that this directorship should be filled by a member of the local Alcoholics Anonymous chapter, since all alcoholic referrals are made by the council to that organization.

Rev. Howard is to investigate this possibility.

Funds To Help Baird Children

A fund for the Lawrence Baird children, injured in an accident last Friday which took the life of their mother, has been started.

Two funds have already been started, one at the First National Bank and the other at the Hereford State Bank. Contributions have already been made by a number of people and those still wishing to contribute are asked to do so at one of the two locations.

Three of the four children that were in the pickup at the time of the accident were listed in critical condition immediately following the accident and all three were taken to Amarillo hospitals where they are still under care.

Injured were seven-year-old Cynthia Christine Baird, four-year-old Stephanie Baird and three-year-old Melinda Gay Baird. The oldest of the three children received lacerations about the head and the younger two sustained internal injuries. Their condition was listed as satisfactory early Wednesday morning.

Bagwell Resigns

Al Bagwell, patrolman for the Hereford Police Department for the past eight years, resigned his position, effective Monday, it was announced.

Bagwell, who came to Hereford as a patrolman eight years and two months to the day of his resignation, will move to Plano where he will work as a security officer for Texas Instrument in Richardson.

Prior to coming to Hereford, Bagwell served in the United States Army for 20 years, of which 14 were spent as a military policeman in the European Theatre. He retired as a Staff Sergeant.

He and his wife Dorothy, and son Tony and granddaughter Lorrie, expressed thanks "to all the people of Hereford for cooperation, and we feel we are leaving a lot of good friends we will never forget."

Don Brush, chief of police, who has worked with Bagwell for the past eight years, said, "We regret losing him as he has always done an excellent job and has always been a fine officer."

CAC Meets Tonight

Community Action Committee has scheduled an open meeting at 8 p. m. today at the Hereford Community Center for the selection of a bilingual coordinator and permanent officers of the new organization.

Roland Barton has been temporary chairman with Mrs. Rita Huckert as secretary.

Purpose of the committee is to centralize the efforts of all local organizations toward a self-help program through the Office of Economic Opportunity for under-employed and unemployed persons in Deaf Smith County in future roles in the economy and toward greater understanding between the people.

Teenagers Need Summer Work

High school and college-aged applicants have continued to register for summer jobs at Texas Employment Commission through the YES Program here, TEC manager Lester Rape reported, but the "job situation for them is slow."

Rape has asked all businessmen and housewives who might have some type of summer job to contact the TEC offices at 364-2776 so that these youth applicants can find work this summer.

50-Voice Choir Will Sing Here

Avenue Baptist Church in Hereford will present the 50-voice Lancaster Park Youth for Christ Choir at their Sunday morning services on the final day of sermons by Rev. Ronald Harpster, who recently resigned as pastor here to become associate pastor at the First Baptist Church in Stamford, Tex.

The choir, who will travel here from the Dallas-Fort Worth area, will appear during morning services only. Rev. Harpster will speak at both the morning and evening services.

The Avenue church has issued an open invitation to all people to attend both services.

Increases Budget Alcoholism Group Sets Expansion

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism has increased its budget request from the United Fund over last year's allotment, has issued a long-range plan for membership study "for more effective aid toward combating local alcoholism," and elected additional officers and a new committee as an assist in carrying out the program.

Rev. Fred Howard, chairman of the council, reported at their meeting Tuesday at the Chaparral in Sugarland Mall that $1,800 is the amount requested for operation during 1970, although the actual program will begin in September of this year.

Amount requested from the United Fund last year was $750, of which the council received 80 per cent following donations.

Rev. Howard explained that the "sharp increase" would be to the "effect that we will be busy on a number of projects" which have not been expounded upon in past years.

Among these items were a total of four people instead of one "who usually work with alcoholics" to attend the scholarship program during the summer for a broadening of their scope in handling alcoholism here, increasing the literature volume on the subject, starting a film library "not just rental but ownership," expanding the public workshops and information weeks, and increasing the public relations program and advertising.

In the issuance of the long-range plans, Rev. Howard explained to the council that "this is a starting point. They are to be used as study and reported upon for further study during our next meeting."

Agreed upon at the Tuesday meeting, however, was the publication of a brochure stating in summary the purpose of the council, aimed toward the future enlistment of local people as members of the alcoholism group. A committee was appointed to prepare this brochure for publication prior to September with Earl Moseley as chairman, Francis Hardwick, Mrs. Jewel Smith, Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., and Rev. Howard serving as ex-officio members.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Readers Are Asking . . .

WHAT is meant by the "gold" treatment for arthritis?

For years, many physicians have been enthusiastic about the use of gold as a form of treatment for rheumatoid arthritis. However, there are just as many doctors who seem to lack enthusiasm for this form of treatment. Over the years, gold treatment has come and gone, only to return again because some successful results occur.

In the light of the fact that this form of arthritis occurs so frequently and is often so difficult to control, the use of gold injections has had some advantage. The important thing that must be remembered is that not all cases of this form of arthritis should be treated in this manner, because there are some disadvantages and side effects to its use in certain people.

Physicians who use gold, very carefully choose the cases and limit its use to those who definitely have rheumatoid arthritis, rather than another form of it.

Gold alone is never used without all the additional forms of treatment that have some value in alleviating pain and controlling disability. Proper diet and high vitamin intake, with the use of cortisone, are used in conjunction with carefully adjusted doses of gold.

Physicians who use it keep their patients under constant observation and discontinue it if there is any suggestion of unusual toxic reaction.

How can one tell if their child is emotionally disturbed? There is such a wide range between the normal emotional upsets of a child, and the abnormal behavior pattern, that only a well trained physician should dare make the diagnosis of emotional disturbance in children. When I say a well trained physician, I mean one who has had specific training in psychiatry and who is able to study and evaluate the complex behavior of the child.

For a parent to label a child as being emotionally disturbed because his behavior is temporarily unusual, or because he is difficult to handle, is to do him a great injustice. The emotional stability of the parent, who is so intimately involved with the problems of his child, is too often affected by intense personal interest.

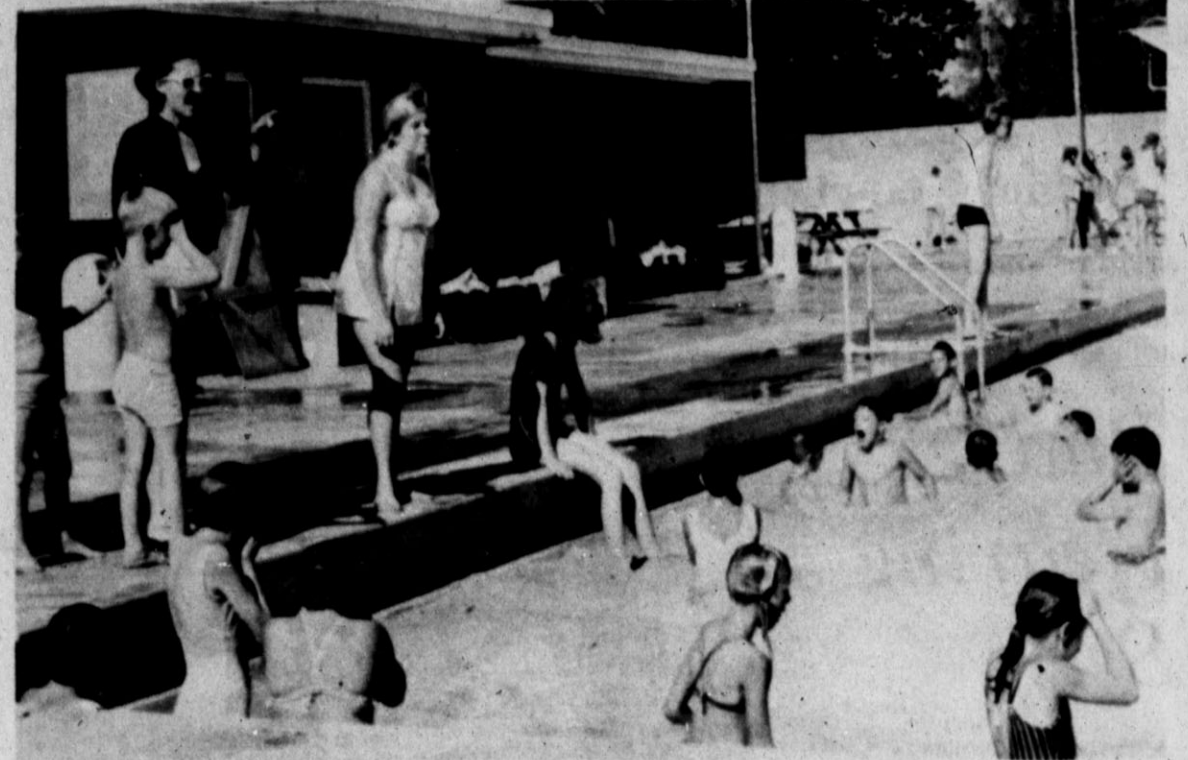

There is no guesswork in diagnosing emotional disturbance, just as there is no guesswork in diagnosing a heart or lung condition.

Parents, who would not hesitate for a moment to seek the advice of a doctor for a physical ailment, become their own psychiatrists when it comes to the complete understanding of the tensions of their children. A psychiatrist can readily evaluate the child's condition and suggest simple remedies that would clarify these problems for the parents. A visit to the psychiatrist is a wise investment in the emotional health of any child who seems disturbed.

Swim Program Began Tuesday

American Red Cross summer swim classes are now underway at the city pool. One hundred-seventy-eight children and adults have thus far enrolled and Mrs. C. E. Rush, water safety chairman, said before the term has ended 550 will have enrolled in the classes.

Water safety instructors for the summer are Elaine Clark, Connie Brumley, Pat Fisher, Jean Jagels, Shelley Rush, Diane Springer and Doris Rojek. Youngsters wishing to learn water safety skills must have had one year of schooling before they will be allowed to enroll. Competent swimmers ages 11 to 15 take Junior Life Saving and after that Senior Life Saving.

Mrs. Rush said 25 adults have enrolled in the first session for evening classes, and more are expected.

Seemingly dry earth conceals more fresh water than there is in all the nation's rivers, ponds, reservoirs and lakes, including the Great Lakes.

OLD STONE FORT Nacogdoches

The Old Stone Fort standing on the campus of the Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College at Nacogdoches is generally believed to have been built during 1779 or 1780.

It has been held and garrisoned at various times by Spain, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States.

It was truly an outpost in the wilderness!

Nacogdoches itself, one of the four oldest civilized settlements in Texas, was named for the Nacogdoches Indians. Here in 1716 the Spaniards established Mission Nuestra Senora de Guadalupe around whose deserted buildings Nacogdoches was permanently established in 1779.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Mods' Oldtime Snacks

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food
Editor

MOD CLOTHES sure, but when it comes to eating, teenagers love an old-fashioned snack. Popcorn! Isn't that a relief?

They'll gobble up popcorn, by the handful, just plain. But for a party, they won't mind a bit if it's all dressed up. And that's what we suggest. Popcorn, with butter, bacon and cheese. Who could resist?

Like us, you may not have one of those electric corn poppers. So if you have to pop corn on your range, here are special directions. We stick by them. Pop two batches of the corn, one batch at a time, so that you have the three quarts needed for the bacon and cheese production.

NEVERFAIL POPCORN
Measure out one-third cup popcorn (white or yellow) so that you have it ready. Get out a heavy, wide, straight-sided 3-to 4-quart saucepan; do not use a kettle with bail handles. Pour 3 tablespoons of corn oil into the saucepan. Over medium heat, heat the oil for about 3 minutes; it must be hot enough so that a kernel of corn dropped into it pops. Add popcorn. With one hand shake almost constantly and with the other hand hold a cover on the saucepan so it is slightly ajar; do this until the popping stops. Turn out popped corn. Makes about 1½ quarts.

BACON AND CHEESE POPCORN
1 pound bacon, at room temperature
¼ cup butter
3 quarts freshly popped corn, unsalted
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Separate bacon slices and place in a single layer on a wire rack set over heavy foil (with turned-up edges) or over a very shallow pan. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until brown and crisp—about 10 minutes. Remove bacon to brown paper or several thicknesses of paper to weling to drain. If bacon is baked earlier than serving time, it may be reheated (on foil or in shallow pan) in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for about 5 minutes. Break bacon slices into about ½-inch pieces.

Melt the butter and gently mix it with the freshly popped corn; sprinkle with Parmesan and mix; add bacon and toss to

Past Matrons Elect Slate

Mrs. C. P. Worthan was named president along with other elected officers to serve for the next two years when the Hereford Past Matrons Club of Order of Eastern Star met for their quarterly meeting Monday at the Chaparral Restaurant.

Other officers named who will be installed at a September meeting are Mrs. O. R. Sanders, vice-president; Mrs. R. B. Hutson, secretary; Mrs. Horace Hershey, treasurer; and Mrs. Tom Major, reporter. Mrs. Alex Thompson, retiring president, was hostess for the meet.

A lovely arrangement of lilies decorated the table.

Mrs. Art Manjeot presented the program, using flowers and plants as her topic, showing man's need of them for enjoyment and support of life.

Others attending were Mmes. J. B. Noland, John Patton, Lee Curry, O. G. Hill Sr., Charles Noland and Vernon Darden.

 Mr. and Mrs. A. J. "Major" Schroeter and Dr. and Mrs. Milton C. Adams will be leaving Saturday morning for Tokyo, Japan to attend the international convention of the Lions Club. The first stop will be in Honolulu Saturday night, we understand. From there they will continue to Tokyo where they will attend the convention next week — courtesy of the local Lions Club.

After the convention, the two families plan to spend a few more days touring Japan and will then fly to Bangkok, Thailand; Hong Kong; back to Manila and then will return home by July 25th. It should be a wonderful trip for them.

It has been the custom of the local Lions to send their president and secretary to the international convention each year if they can go. Schroeter is president and Adams is secretary.

We'll bet they have a wonderful time.

 Davis Implement Company is now open for business in its new location, 409 East 1st St. This will be the first move for the pioneer implement firm since 1939 when J.C. McCracken and W. L. Davis, Sr. moved into a new building just constructed at the corner of Miles and 2nd. Prior to that, the men had conducted their business from the old Hereford wagon yard. The partners first founded the Minneapolis-Moline dealership around 1933, making this the oldest implement firm in Hereford under the same ownership, or perhaps we should say family ownership.

McCracken decided to retire in April 1958 and the men dissolved their partnership. Davis passed away in December of that year and his son, W. L. Davis, Jr. took over active management of the firm with his mother as silent partner. In 1967 he purchased her interest becoming sole owner.

Actually, the men are still working to get everything straightened out in the new building and there is some work to be done yet, including blacktopping the parking lot, but for all practical purposes, they're ready for business. It will take a little time to get accustomed to the new surroundings we're sure, but we know they will enjoy the new building. There will probably be an open house held later, but in the meantime, the first order of business is to take care of their many customers who are trying to get wheat harvested and sundry other farm tasks accomplished during this busy season.

 Dr. Noble Ballard and Steve Conaway have announced plans for the opening of Hereford's first driving range, to be located on Austin Road, one block east of South Main. Though still incomplete, the range is expected to be finished within the next two weeks. The hold-up now is with the lighting equipment.

The range will be 300 yards long (and plenty wide to accommodate people like me, according to Ballard) and driving will be to the north.

We wish the men every success in their new venture. Hereford has needed a driving range for some time and we believe the response will be great.

 Understand that Lloyd Pool has won an all-expense-paid trip to Canada through his insurance company sales. Could not reach him by phone Tuesday so am assuming that he was out selling more insurance to take care of the expenses not included in the "all-expense-paid" deal. We've been on those before.

Washington Report

From Congressman
BOB PRICE 10TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
1223 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 225-2706

As one of his last official opinions as Chief Justice, before retirement, Earl Warren's decision on the Adam Clayton Powell case was characteristic: he ignored the Constitution which it was his job to interpret. In a 62-page opinion written by Warren, the Court ruled that the House exceeded its authority in refusing to seat the Harlem Congressman whose repeated violations of court orders and erratic behavior in office are public knowledge.

I say the Court ignored the Constitution for this reason: Article I, Section 5 states that "Each House may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior and, with the concurrence of two thirds, expel a member." I do not see how it could be stated any more clearly. But the Court resorted to a strange reading of its own that the above section applied only in cases of dispute over age, residency, and citizenship. In both spirit and exact wording, it seems to me, the Constitution is very specific on this point.

In a few days the present Chief Justice will retire and Judge Warren Burger will assume office. I have great confidence in the past record of Judge Burger. He comes to this great office at a time of loss of public confidence in the Court, but he has a great opportunity to invest the court with the impartial and objective majesty upon which rule by law depends. I have confidence he can accomplish this.

THE MAJOR LEGISLATION considered by the House this week was the Public Health Cigarette Smoking Act. It was passed on Wednesday by a voice vote after defeat of an attempt to recommit the bill to committee. This was what I could call "iceberg" legislation in that the issue was bigger than what appeared on the surface. Looking at the bill itself it appeared merely to extend present requirements that cigarette packages contain a warning to the effect that cigarette smoking may be dangerous to one's health. There were no violent objections to this on the part of the cigarette industry.

What was important, however, was a section of the bill which warned the Federal regulatory agencies that Congress intended to hold sole prerogative to decision making with regard to the advertising of cigarettes. The Federal Communications Commission had indicated earlier that it intended to ban all advertising of cigarettes on radio and television stations, and the Federal Trade Commission had publicly announced its intent to require its own health warning of cigarette packages. So what Congress' action this week amounted to was a warning to the FTC and the FCC that it intended to write public policy on the cigarette controversy and it didn't need the regulatory to get into the act. We don't grow tobacco in the Panhandle, of course. But this issue is of great importance to the agricultural industry. Once the regulatory agencies have had their fun with cigarettes, will other agricultural products be next: high-cholesterol products for instance? I think it is extremely dangerous to establish a precedent whereby a Federal regulatory agency can dictate which law-abiding businessmen may advertise their products and which may not. If cigarette smoking is dangerous there are other ways of taking care of it without relegating such life and-death economic power to the Federal bureaucracy.

Earlier this week the House Agriculture Committee met to consider legislation designed to help more rural communities finance water and sewage disposal projects. During the course of testimony by Jim Smith, the new Administrator of the Farmers Home Administration, the subject of H. R. 11547 and H. R. 11604 came up. These are bills I introduced this session to improve FHA loan program. The first bill would increase from $60,000 to $100,000 principal indebtedness limitation for farm ownership loans; and increase from $35,000 to $50,000 the limitation for operating loans. In view of changed economic agricultural conditions, I believe the proposed new ceiling would be more realistic.

H. R. 11604 provides that FHA operating loans will be insured in the same manner as other FHA programs.

I was glad to have the chance to discuss this legislation with Mr. Smith and to call it to the attention of the committee.

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

MINIGARDENS
An old adage that I remember hearing my mother repeat, when talking with friends, was, "I would rather be dead than not be in style."

Well, we can all be in style, because we can raise minigardens.

A friend sent me a copy of a Home and Garden Bulletin No. 163, which is put out by U. S. Department of Agriculture. It is entitled Minigardens for Vegetables, and some of the bits of information contained in it are: "You'd like to be a gardener, but you live in one room, an apartment, or a townhouse. . . and you think you have no place for a garden. But if you have a windowsill, a balcony, or a doorstep you have enough space for a Minigarden."

Growing vegetables in a Minigarden can be fun for youngsters as well as for the "not-so-young." You don't need to be familiar with growing plants, not if you have the patience to follow a few instructions.

The basic materials needed for minigardening are containers, synthetic soil, and seeds or plants.

CONTAINERS

You will need a container large enough to hold the plant when it's fully grown. You can use plastic or clay pots, an old pail, a plastic bucket, a bushel basket (both the large and the miniature), a wire basket, or a wooden box. Most any container is satisfactory. . . from tiny pots for your kitchen windowsill to large wooden boxes for your patio.

The size and number of containers can vary with the space you have and the number of plants you want to grow. Six-inch pots are satisfactory for chives and parsley. Radishes, onions, and a variety of miniature tomatoes (Tiny Tim or Porter) will do well in 10 inch pots. (The tomato plant will have to be pruned as it grows, so shape it for the space you wish it to fill.)

For average patio, 5 gallon plastic trash cans are suitable. They are easy to handle and provide enough space for large or vegetable plants. Half-bushel or bushel baskets also work well if you have room for them.

Ready-made containers of metal, wood or plastic, are widely available. It isn't really necessary to build your own containers. Just use what you have. However, if the minigardening is a family project, perhaps the menfolk would like to make the containers. Plastic laundry baskets are attractive and can be modified by lining them with plastic sheeting or the wastebasket liners. Solid plastic containers should be so planted that there will be good drainage. Space holes along the sides, near the bottom of container. Then, for further drainage, put about 1/2 inch of coarse gravel in the bottom of each container instead of coarse and broken clay pots. (Break or crush so that they will fit rather close together.)

Wooden or metal containers will last two to three years. Paint and decorate with decals or painted motifs. Daisies are very popular, so use some of them.

SYNTHETIC SOIL

You can buy a soil substitute or synthetic soil prepared from a mixture of horticultural vermiculite, peat moss, and fertilizer. This mixture, sold by seed dealers and garden supply centers, comes ready to use. However, if you use large quantities of soil, then it might be more conservative to make your own mix. For this use vermiculite, peat moss, limestone, superphosphate, and 5-10-5 fertilizer. To one bushel each of vermiculite and shredded peat moss, add 14 ounces of 20 percent superphosphate, and 8 ounces of 5-10-5 fertilizer. Mix thoroughly. If the material is very dry, add a little water to it to reduce the dust during mixing.

Use this also to loosen the soil ces of 5-10-5 fertilizer. Mix thoroughly. If the material is very dry, add a little water to it to reduce the dust during mixing.

SEEDS

Much of the success of the minigarden, will depend on the seed or plants selected. Vegetable seed envelopes are stamped with the year in which they should be planted. So check the seed packets. Do not use year-old seed. Old seed never germinates satisfactorily. Plants grown from them often produce plants that are weed, and those which grow will not produce well.

Miniature plants are best for minigardens, viz miniature roses, french marigolds, etc. (if using flowers). In checking seed or plants learn whether they are disease resistant, also mildew resistant.

LIGHT

Most vegetables and plants grow better in full sunlight than in the shade. Some plants require only half-day of sunlight and will do well. Leafy vegetables (lettuce, cabbage, mustard greens) can stand more shade than root vegetables (beets, radishes, turnips, and onions). For quick growth it is advisable to start plants inside, then later transplant (when all danger of frost is past) to the outside containers. However, some can be grown the entire cycle, indoors, if light and other conditions are favorable.

FERTILIZER

Apply one level teaspoon of 5-10-5 fertilizer per square foot of soil about 3 weeks after the plants have reached the two-leaf stage and again every 3 weeks. Mix thoroughly into the top soil and water in carefully. This will add greatly to their growth and productivity.

WATERING

Your minigarden will need water supply equal to about one inch of rain every week during growing season. The control of this is in your hands. Do not overwater. More plants grown indoors or in containers are killed from overwatering than any other way. During hot dry weather the need for watering will be increased, perhaps once a week.

CULTIVATING

Use same method for minigardens as you do for the potted plants. Keep out weeds or other foreign growths. Pull by hand or small hand weeder. Use this also to loosen the soil and remove the weeds. Be careful not to injure the roots while cultivating.

To start out with, why not try some radishes? They are very easy to grow and are very crisp and delicious when forced a bit with quick growth. Another interesting and pretty plant would be to grow a cabbage (purple) in an attractive container, and some pearly-white onions in a small basket (like the bushel baskets). Salad bowl lettuce produces many curled, wavy, bright-green leaves. For color grow the ruby variety. This is very colorful and bright. Beets would also make an attractive growing vegetable, and they can be served so many ways. Try some with pineapple. yum good! All of these will add interest to your home, and I assure you will be good conversational pieces.

Parsley and chives are popular for minigardens, and are just right for the windowsill. A nice thing about them they can be clipped and used for a number of weeks. For seasoning and decorating they are excellent. All of these would be an addition at any time during the year, especially during the shut-in-days of winter.

THRILLS

Want to have some thrills? Well just search out some of the beauty spots in Hereford. Last week I attended two lovely parties in the country and enjoyed every minute. Some of the highest moments and thrills were when I saw the beautiful trees (large) at the Johnson and Higgins homes. The silver leaf maples and elms were lovely. So wonderful to stand near their spreading branches and look into the height and depth of the spreading trees. The magnificent trunks of the trees, and the luxurious foliage. the visiting birds and the shelter was thrilling.

Another proud and thrilling moment was when I went to town on Flag Day. I was delighted at the display of the beautiful USA Flag. Was proud of my home town! I just had to stop and watch the flags unfurled and waving in the air, so stately and beautiful. I really get a lump in my throat, and my heart beats a bit faster everytime I see our loved flag. Do you have a USA Flag? If not, get one by July the 4th, and help make Hereford one of the leading towns in Texas displaying the country's colors. It will deepen patriotism and appreciation of our nation (and we need this so much). Let the children or the family assist in selecting the flag and in displaying it properly.

Other thrilling moments were mine when I visited with Bill Bradleys and he showed me some of the beautiful color slides he had made of the spring roses, the cacti, and other garden flowers. Lovely, lovely! Thanks, Bill, for this extra happiness, and thrills.

Bright spots in Hereford: The geraniums at the Ray Seale home, Thames Pharmacy, Centre St., and the First Baptist Church on Main (there are four colors blooming beautifully there. The Tritoma (red-hot-poker) at the Doc Roberson home on 5th St., the tall stately pink hollyhocks at Mrs. Willie Gilliland on 6th St., and the many pretty cheerful daisies coming out to say howdy in many gardens.

"SPEEDY GONZALES" — The name chosen for this papier mache horned toad, constructed by Mrs. Wynell Hutson, at the Greenwood Baptist Church Sunday, in advance of their Vacation Bible School which begins July 5, was "Speedy Gonzales" by 7-year-old David Baum. Mrs. Albert Eggers of Dimmitt chose the semi-finalists names which were drawn for the winner. The toad is to be used as an attraction throughout the Bible school. —Staff Photo

Scott, High, Mays To Attend Meeting

Three Hereford youths have been selected by the local chapter of the National Association For the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to attend the fourth annual Summer Youth Citizenship Conference, sponsored by the Texas AFL-CIO.

Selected were Andy Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scott, Sr., Percy Mays, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Mays, and Wesley High, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley High, Sr.

The conference is scheduled to begin Sunday at St. Edward's University in Austin and conclude on Saturday, July 5.

Over 150 young people of various ethnic origins will attend the conference where they will participate in intensive instruction classes of equal employment, human and community relations, war on poverty, political action, organized labor and responsible citizenship. There will be lecturers and guest speakers of state and national stature on all subjects. The three Hereford youths were selected at a dinner last week at Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. The local chapter of the NAACP will provide the $50 per student fee which will include room, board and tuition, plus transportation to and from Austin.

Recreation facilities of the university will be available to the 150-plus students including activities from a juke box for dancing to table tennis and basketball. One afternoon will be spent away from the campus for games and swimming. In the evening there will be a Western barbecue and the annual Amateur Nite.

Driving Range To Open Soon

Dr. Noble Ballard and Steve Conaway recently announced plans for the opening of Hereford's first driving range, to be located on Austin Road, one block east of South Main.

Though still incomplete at the present time, the range is expected to be finished within the next two weeks. Ballard stated. The present hold-up is the delay in getting the lighting installed and other equipment shipped in.

Letter To The Editor

Dear editor:
In Sunday's Brand you had a very nice page of the Little League teams. Did you know Hereford also has four PeeWee teams of 8 to 10-year-old boys? I did not see one picture or a word written for them.

These boys and their coaches have had to work much harder than the older boys, because they have much more to learn. Nearly all of these boys got their very first baseball glove this year, most of them didn't even know how to use it.

These little Pee Wees will (be) the boys the minor coaches will be looking for next year, but without these coaches and without the hard work the boys themselves put in, they wouldn't have these boys next year. I have helped with some of these and watched all of them play and they deserve to be noticed.

They didn't get to play at the Little League field. They didn't get baseball uniforms and they use the practice fields at Aikman's play games — that is unless the major teams are practicing. Then they must move to the other side of the lot where they play.

The team's parents and coaches were able to get shirts for them. These boys need to feel important too, if they are to continue to play ball. Not just this year (but) in years to come.

So in this letter I would like to invite you, the people of Hereford, the coaches and teams of the minor and majors to come to Aikman field and see our boys, the Hereford Pee Wee teams, play ball. They will give you a ball game you will enjoy. Thank you, Mrs. Alice Berryman, Hereford.

Tennis Tryouts Slated Monday

Glenda Whisenant, Hereford High School tennis instructor, announced this week that tryouts for the high school tennis teams will be held Monday.

Tryouts will be for the varsity and sophomore teams and all students are urged to attend. Those interested in trying out for the teams are asked to be at the high school tennis courts at 6:15 p. m.

Red Raider Day Is Set For Tuesday

Texas Tech and Red Raider fans will have an opportunity next Tuesday to meet and get acquainted with members of the Tech coaching staff when Red Raider Day is observed here in Hereford.

A delegation of some 22 coaches and officials of the athletic department from Texas Tech will make a one-day stop in Hereford as a part of their annual Panhandle tour to promote their school. Headlining the tour stop here will be an afternoon of golf on the local course and an evening reception and dinner at the Hereford Country Club.

The reception will be at 7:00 p. m. with the dinner to follow at 8 p. m.

On the program for the evening dinner will be a discussion by head football coach J. T. King on the past and upcoming seasons and a talk by Bob Bass, newly assigned head basketball coach. Leete Jackson, Red Raider Club Executive vice-president, will also present a talk on the Red Raider Club.

Those scheduled for the trip to Hereford include, Ed Smith, Red Raider Club president; Jackson; Polk Robison, athletic director; King and Bass; Berl Huffman,

Also, John Conley, Gene Henderson, Elwood Kettler, Bradley Mills, Jess Stiles and Tom Wilson, all assistant football coaches; Ralph Carpenter, sports information director and Bob Condon, assistant sports information director.

It was pointed out that due to previous commitments, there would be several of the coaches listed that would not be able to attend some of the tour stops.

Parties Honor Paula Waldrep

Miss Paula Waldrep, whose marriage to Jimmy Kassahn is to take place Saturday, was complimented with two prettily planned parties recently, a kitchen shower and a miscellaneous shower and luncheon, both held at the Country Club.

Hostesses for the brunch kitchen shower were Mrs. J. H. McCrary, Mrs. Kenny Gearn and Mrs. Richard Jagels.

Receiving guests with the bride-elect were her mother, Mrs. Bill Waldrep and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Delbert Kassahn.

The serving table which held a crystal punch bowl, was laid with a yellow cloth. Baskets of daisies hung from the ceiling over the table. Miss Karen Jagels served the punch.

The individual brunch tables were also covered in yellow, centered with bouquets of daisies.

Miss Nelda Norton attended the bride's book.

Corsages presented to the honoree, her mother and the prospective bridegroom's mother, were of white daisies.

Daisy topiary trees decorated the entrance, adding to the decor of the room.

At the buffet salad luncheon on courtesy held Friday, approximately eighty close friends of the bride-elect and several out-of-town guests attended.

The bride's table held a sterling epergne with an arrangement of white daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath.

The serving tables each held a single burning taper arranged with yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Baskets of daisies hung from the ceiling over the attractive gift tables. Presiding at the guest book was Miss Shyla Thomas.

For the afternoon, the honoree wore a white pique three-piece suit with white accessories. Her corsage and the corsages presented to her mother and her fiancé's mother, of Shallowater, were yellow roses.

Other out-of-town guests included the prospective bridegroom's sister, Miss Jan Kassahn of Shallowater, the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. T. W. Ferguson and daughters, Miss Betty Ferguson and Mrs. Bill Henderson, all of Albuquerque.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. Ivan Block, Ben Childers, Alton Fraser, O. G. Hill Jr., Gene King, Ansel McDowell, Hap Cavness, Bill Davis Jr., Jimmie Gillingent, Elmer Kimball, Earnest Langley and Wayne Thomas.

When Top Knight won the Flamingo Stakes at Hialeah in March he ran his earnings to $430,121. When the 3-year-old colt won the Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park 26 days later, his earnings reached $511,121.

IN WASHINGTON — Rep. Bob Price posed with Mrs. Shirley Barber, Jean Barber, Gene Ann Shipley, and Mrs.

die to live

The Book says this earthy body must die IF it is to live. How cheerfully the farmer plants his corn! He knows it must die, but he also knows that 'death' is part of the process of life. Immediately after the seed is buried in mother earth, all the ministries of God are set in motion to work a miracle. For it is said, that to make one little yellow grain, requires the sunshine and the rain, the hoarded riches of the sod — and God. It is all the miracle of Life. The hull rots and falls away much like the sins of a man being reborn of God. It is the Lord's way of carrying on His creative process to multiply the sustenance of both man and beast. Then thank God for life that is born of death. The fruit of summer and of autumn waits upon this death-to-life miracle of a good God, as a reborn soul waits to be used of his Lord. Then, there is no death... what seems so is transition. Come with me to church this week.

TEXAS To Begin 4th Season Friday

CANYON — The "TEXAS" staff of actors, dancers, singers and technicians are preparing for the fourth season of the musical romance production of Texas Panhandle history which opens Friday evening in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

Opening night on Friday will be a Gala International Celebration, honoring the 69 countries represented on the guest register last year. The 1969 season will end on Labor Day, Sept. 1.

The cast and the crew include persons trained in more than 17 colleges and universities. They come from five states and have had work with numerous private instructors.

Rehearsals in the early stages take place in the air-conditioned Branding Iron Theatre in the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State University in Canyon. Performers in the "TEXAS" production receive summer theatre credits at the university.

Rehearsals last for a month, eight hours a day, six and a half days a week. They have two purposes. One is to prepare polished performances of the great spectacle attracting nationwide attention. The second is to build up enough endurance among cast members so that actors can run the great distances backstage at the amphitheatre and reach their places on stage without being breathless.

The entire company starts each rehearsal with warm-up exercises, proceeds through choral placement drills and blocking using the whole cast for overtures and finales and then separates or rehearsals with the small orchestra, acting coaching, stage movements of small groups, technical rehearsals and costume fittings.

For information and tickets, write "TEXAS," Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Concerning Veterans

The Veterans Administration today completed its grocery shopping list for the summer and fall of 1969 — 35 million pounds of fruit, vegetables, and juices, according to Maurice Z. Cooper, M. D., Director of the VA Hospital in Amarillo.

The VA, buying for its 166 veterans hospitals, will require 347 railroad cars to haul its purchases to three national depots, in Bell, California, Hines, Illinois, and Somerville, New Jersey.

The VA summer-fall shopping list includes 179,000 cases of dietetic fruit and vegetables, 293,000 cases of fruit and vegetable juices, and 433,000 cases of No. 10 cans of regular fruit and vegetables. VA buys these products at prime canning time each year, Dr. Cooper pointed out.

The grocery list of fruit and vegetables is just one phase of VA buying to feed veterans in the largest hospital system in the world.

Locally, he pointed out, the hospital buys annually 24,752 pounds of fresh produce; 7,828 gallons of whole and skim milk; 5,364 pounds of poultry and fish; 8,400 dozen eggs, and 4,576 loaves of bread.

At The Library The Civil War Set Him Free

New at the Deaf Smith County Library this week are two interesting stories of the cruelties of love and how the Civil War set a man free. Check into them today.

THE LONG WHIP

Annually, in addition to the current list, VA buys nationally 6,428,000 pounds of sugar; 2,579,000 pounds of coffee; 2,988,000 pounds of flour, and 3,466,000 pounds of meat.

To avoid the shopping cart traffic jam for these purchases, VA will utilize 155 additional railroad cars to distribute the chow to its kitchens and cafeterias across the U. S.

GOSSIP GETS GO SIGN

MADRAS, India — A sizeable number of employers said here gossiping is essential for staff contentment.

Gossip is a pressure valve without which work suffers, they told an interviewer.

Others threw up their hands in despair and said it is a necessary evil. A "NO GOSSIP" board only aggravates the evil, they said.

By John Hicks

A powerful body and lusty good looks were Ben Franklin's ticket to a better life. Born a slave, he was raised to be a stud and then purchased as a bodyguard by the influential liberal Creole Etienne LeGrand.

LeGrand trusts Ben with his life, educates him, and defends his word against that of Claudette Latham, who accuses Ben of rape. Ben clears himself but not without realizing his physical appearance attracts whites as well as blacks: Claudette had wanted Ben to seduce her.

When the Civil War begins, Ben is further confused by the new concepts of freedom stirred by the election of Lincoln. Why not stay forever with LeGrand in the magnificent New Orleans town house and sprawling plantation? Why not stay close to the starting beauty of the octoroon Odette, whom he loves?

But Odette leaves him to live with an infamous slave dealer. War begins, and Ben is granted his freedom. Rising to the rank of Union Colonel, he finds himself fighting for identity against those who have given him what little identity he has. At the moment when life and freedom become precious, he must face the reality of losing both.

A TURN TOWARD HOME

By Michael Arnold

There is a very special torment reserved for those whose beauty and accomplishments become an affront to the gods. And in this contemporary love story, two inhabitants of privilege and power come to know that torment in all its exquisite intensity. Against a backdrop of the purlieus of aristocracy, the private offices of the United States government and the United Nations, Michael Arnold weaves a tale which discloses deep insights into the cruelties of love and the no less cruel dilemma of those facing the loss of dreams, and the reversal of ideals and values; a timely parable of the inescapable plight of the man of principle confronting a pragmatic world.

H. A. Cavness

Dr. Cavness Is Eye Bank Prexy

Dr. H. A. Cavness, a prominent Hereford Lions Club member, has been elected president of Hi-Plains Eye Bank Inc. with his term beginning July 1.

An active supporter of the eye bank for some time, Dr. Cavness, a local dentist, was previously secretary-treasurer of the organization. Early this year he was successful in having Gov. Preston Smith designate March as Eye Bank Month.

Hi-Plains Eye Bank is sponsored by approximately 70 Lions Clubs in the Panhandle area. Administrative offices are located in the Herring Hotel at Amarillo. Purpose of the eye bank is to act as a clearing house between the person donating his eyes and the individual ophthalmologist who will perform the sight-saving operation.

Major Schroeter, president of the Hereford Lions Club, reported that there are a number of Panhandle residents who have had corneal transplants through these services and are now able to see. Motto of the eye bank is, "He who gives his eyes never really dies."

Eye donor cards are available from any member of the Lions Club.

Miles Made Holly Vice President

COLORADO SPRINGS—George W. Miles Jr., a veteran of 35 years in the sugar business, has been elected vice president of the Holly Sugar Corporation. He will also continue as general superintendent, a post he has filled since 1967.

Announcement was made by Holly president John B. Bunker. Bunker said that Miles is following in the footsteps of his father, who had been employed by Holly Sugar 28 years upon his retirement in 1954 while he was factory superintendent at their Hamilton City, California plant.

Prior to that time, the younger Miles had "tramped the sugar beet fields" in several states with his father. Miles Jr. attended elementary schools at Huntington Beach and Santa Ana, Calif. and was graduated from Torrington, Wyoming High School, where he was listed as an outstanding athlete. After one year at the University of Wyoming, he transferred to Stanford University, graduating with a degree in chemical engineering.

While at Stanford, Miles worked at the Hamilton City and World War II interrupted his work and he joined the Army Air Force in 1940. Miles advanced through the ranks to lieutenant colonel at the time of his separation in 1946. He then rejoined the Hamilton City plant as a beet end foreman prior to being transferred to Holly's Brawley plant in 1947.

At the time Miles left to join Spreckels' Sugar Co. in 1954, he was assistant superintendent at Brawley. Auto Mechanics On "Go" Signal Auto mechanics class will definitely start in Hereford on July 7, Texas Employment Commission manager Lester Rape reported. He said that the 15 students necessary have been enrolled.

However, farm equipment class now has only three student applicants. They will also need 15 enrolled prior to July 14 before this program can be definitely set.

The auto mechanics class will be conducted at Hereford High School's auto shops with Bill McDowell as instructor.

Both classes are under the Manpower Development and Training Act in cooperation between the TEC and Hereford Public Schools. Qualifications are that the student applicant must be 18 years of age or older with at least an eighth grade education. Some applicants will qualify for a training allowance under the program—payment of expenses as they learn.

Rape said that the possibilities are good that the farm equipment mechanics class will also start on schedule. The local TEC office and other area offices are still "beating the bushes" for recruits.

Redbirds Outlast Canyon; Are Victims Of Tascosa

Hereford's American Legion baseballers survived a ninth inning rally by the Canyon team Saturday for a win, but pitching fell apart for them Sunday as they were bombed by the league-leading Tascosa Sheriffs, 15-5.

Tascosa chalked up two runs in the top of the first frame when lead-off batter Max Snipes slapped out a double, and a n d with two out, clean-up batter Jim Albracht hit his first of two homers of the day.

Hereford's Redbirds took the lead in the bottom of the second inning when they came up with four runs. John Sparks, Redbird first sacker, connected for a single, was followed by base-on-balls to Gary Crume and Donnie McDermitt, and two runs scored when lead-off swinger Randy Ragan slapped out his second double of the day. McDermitt and Ragan scored when Sid Shaw smashed another double.

Tascosa knotted the score up at 4-4 in the top of the third inning when Albracht lashed his second homer of the day, following a double by the Sheriff's catcher.

The score remained tied through the sixth frame, then Tascosa busted loose for three runs in the top of the seventh when a double and an error on the Redbird short stop, followed by another circuit smash, gave the visitors a lead of 7-4, which they never relinquished.

Ragan narrowed the Tascosa lead to two runs in the bottom of the seventh when he led off with a round tripper, but the Sheriffs continued to smash the local's pitching staff, getting five more runs in the top of the eighth on two base-on-balls and four singles plus a double. They held the locals scoreless in the bottom of the eighth and ninth frames, while putting three more runs across in the top of the ninth on two doubles, two singles and an error on the Redbird left fielder.

Ragan, Shaw and Tom McGowan led the Hereford effort, each getting three for five for the day. John Sparks also contributed to the losing effort, getting two hits in four at-bats.

In Saturday's game, Hereford stopped Canyon in the ninth, as they got their third win of the season, 12-11.

Jim Loerwald provided the spark in the slugfest, as he made the rounds with a single, a double, a triple and a homer. Ragan also contributed a homer as did Shaw.

The Redbirds failed to score in the first three frames, and Canyon took advantage of the lull in hitting to score six runs of their own in the top of the fourth. Hereford came back with two in the bottom same frame to close the gap to 6-2. Canyon scored two runs in the sixth, two in the eighth and one in the ninth, for the remainder of their 11 runs, while the host

Garcia Awarded Commendation In Vietnam

Spec. 4 Manuel D. Garcia, who was employed by the Carl McCaslin Lumber Co. here prior to his entry into the armed forces, has been awarded the Army Commendation Medal with “V” Device for heroism in the Republic of Vietnam. Spec. Garcia's wife, Gloria, is meter maid for the City of Hereford.

Garcia's citation reads that he “distinguished himself while serving as a rifleman in Company C, 2nd Battalion, 327th Infantry, near Phu Loc.” The Department of the Army described the action, which

ARMY ROCKET TO THE MOON
Most people think of the Army as all brown and no brain. But how many realize that the big Saturn 5 rocket which is the launch vehicle for America's man-on-the-moon project began as a dream on the Army's drawing boards?

The Army Ballistic Missile Agency did the early design work on the rocket. Then, in October 1958, when NASA was organized, the project was turned over to the civilian space agency. When man reaches the moon, hopefully this year, the men and women in the Army will be their missile that launched the lunar vehicle.

MISSILE OPPORTUNITIES
While the Army is not directly involved in space rocketry at this time, we do have many exmen currently in civilian life. They include electronic maintenance and operational work on Pershing, Sergeant and Hawk missile systems. Experience is not necessary since we will train you. For further information, visit us at 205 E. 5th Ave., Amarillo, or call us at 373-4214.

FACTS ABOUT THE ARMY
— Did you know — That the Army is purchasing electronic goggles that will enable soldiers to see objects and people in virtual darkness.
— That military pay has increased by approximately 40 per cent since 1962.
— That all Army nurses receive their first assignment at Fort Sam Houston, Tex.?

QUESTION OF THE WEEK
What is the enlistment term or Officers Candidate School?
A person enlisting in the Army for OCS must agree to enlist for a period of three years; however, upon graduation from OCS and commissioning as a Second Lieutenant, an obligation of two years is incurred, meaning a total active duty commitment of 2 years, 10 months is possible.

ARMY DRAMA AWARDS
Bet you didn't know that the Army annually sponsors several valuable scholarships and awards established by university drama schools and professional companies of performing arts. They are open to soldiers who occurred on Feb. 4, as a night ambush operation on a suspected enemy infiltration route.

“Approximately 2040 hours, an element of the first platoon engaged a numerically superior enemy force. Spec. Garcia, with complete disregard for his own safety, moved through the intense rocket and automatic weapons fire to reach a position from which he could place more effective fire upon the enemy force. As a result of his courageous actions, the platoon killed eleven enemy soldiers, captured two prisoners, a 9-millimeter pistol, ten AK-47 rifles, and a B-40 rocket launcher.
“Spec. Garcia's personal bravery and devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit, and the United States Army.”
Mrs. Garcia reported that she was able to join her husband in Hawaii last month while he was on his rest and recreation period there. “It was a wonderful ten days,” she said.
Garcia has been in Vietnam since late 1968.

Governor Submits Plans To Fight Crime In Texas Cities

BY VERN SANFORD

Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Biggest organized plan in Texas history to fight crime — is in the approval stage, with early approval anticipated.

Plan was submitted last month to the U. S. Department of Justice by Governor Preston Smith's Criminal Justice Council.

With approval will go $1.1 million in action grants to state and local units of government to brand new approaches to the war on crime.

An initial planning grant of $830,350 started the action, and $235,000 more was freed for the purchase of riot control equipment. If this program is successful and continued, $11 million more in federal aid will go to Texas in federal fiscal year 1970.

Plans of cities and regions were cleared through the Criminal Justice Office for inclusion in a statewide approach. Experts in crime prevention, apprehension, trials, sentencing, corrections, pardons and paroles participated in the drafting of the overall program.

Work proceeds under federal Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets acts of 1968.

Urban Coalition and Urban America Inc. groups recently criticized the program. Private organizations doubted the ability to spend money effectively and complained that the U.S. Justice Department did not give states enough guidance on planning. Also it was contended that private citizens were not sufficiently involved.

Texas Council insists that the best job possible was done in the close time framework available for initial planning. Criticism, the Council contends, should be held up until there is an opportunity to measure action.

This effort is the first attempt to pull together courts, law enforcement and correctional institutions, in a mass movement against crime. Only time and experience can measure results.

MENTAL HEALTH FUNDS UP
Texas spending for community mental health facilities has risen from zero to $3.5 million a year in two years, bringing Texas from the bottom to sixth in the nation for total aid to such centers.

State actually ranks 15th in per capita spending, with an average of just 32 cents per person per year, according to a study by the National Association of State Mental Health Directors.

A national survey showed only New York, California, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Michigan spent more for local mental health services last fiscal year. New York spent $43.5 million or $2.41 per capita, California $30.6 million or $1.59 per capita.

One or more community centers now are operating in Amarillo, San Antonio, Belton, Dallas, El Paso, Houston, Edinburg, Beaumont, Austin, Lubbock, Texarkana, Fort Worth, Waco, San Angelo and Corpus Christi. A center in Midland is expected to open in the near future. Wichita Falls and Galveston have submitted plans and requests for state grants-in-aid with which to finance their centers on September 1.

Community center planning contracts are in effect in 15 other communities and Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation has contracts for services to provide community treatment in 10 more. Still other programs are being put in effect in rural areas through nine state mental hospitals.

LIQUOR STORE CHANGES ORDERED

Under a new law, all drug stores and discount houses which sell liquor must physically seal off the departments and provide access only through separate entrance from streets.

Liquor Control Board so advised package store permit holders in a new bulletin. About 300 of the state's 3,000 package store permittees will have to do complete remodeling jobs on their stores by September 1 to comply, LCB estimates.

A "sleeper" provision appeared in the liquor law revision bill. Former Gov. John Connally vetoed a similar provision in 1967. Before 1965, liquor could be sold only in package stores. Legislation in 1959 authorized discount and drug stores to set aside part of the floor space for liquor sales. Legislation this year deleted that authorization. LCB will spell out new requirements in an additional directive by July 15.

APPOINTMENTS, HONORS
H. A. Foerster will succeed William J. Burke as executive director of State Board of Control, the state's purchasing agency on August 31. Burke is retiring.

Governor Smith appointed Edwin R. Van Zandt, managing editor of the Beaumont Journal, to the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation. He succeeds Dr. Raleigh R. White of Temple.

Smith picked Dr. William F. Baber of Vernon to Texas Board of Optometry. He succeeds the late Dr. Ira Woods of Grapevine. Baber will serve until August 11.

Laredo oilman John C. Hurd is President Nixon's nominee as ambassador to Venezuela.

Oscar Griffin, who won a Pulitzer Prize as a Pecos newspaperman in 1963, has been appointed deputy director of the office of Public Information for the U. S. Department of Transportation.

Mrs. Betty Andujar of Fort Worth is contesting Mrs. Malcolm Milburn of Austin for vice chairman of the State Republican party.

GAS RATE INCREASE ASKED

Lone Star Gas Company wants to increase gas rates nearly 24 percent in 512 East and North Central Texas cities and towns.

Railroad Commission recessed hearing on request to give municipalities an opportunity to protest. Decision is expected to be delayed six months or more.

Lone Star says it needs a rate increase from 35.4 cents per 1,000 cubic feet to 44.8 cents. Last increase was granted the company in 1960. Company claims increase, with inflationary pressures, will give it a yield of eight percent on its property investments.

Texas Water Rights Commission advised Governor Smith to ask more time to study multi-million projects proposed by U. S. Corps of Engineers for Edwards Underground Reservoir. Strong protests from the Uvalde area were lodged at the June 11 hearing. Commission said there is now no governmental agency to manage water resources proposed for development, or to repay $51.6 million in reimbursable non-federal costs. It suggested that Smith ask the Corps to remain "active for further consideration and recommendations."

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

A defendant summoned before a grand jury must be advised of his constitutional right to legal counsel, says Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin. His opinion spelled out other guidelines for processing and disposing of felony complaints.

In other opinions, Martin concluded that:

"All money due for cigarette tax stamps must be considered as revenue available during the fiscal year. Opinion cleared up the status of some $8 million in late August stamp payments.

"Wholly-owned Texas Corporation and subsidiary of a parent savings and loan association may acquire outstanding shares of permanent reserve fund stock of Fort Worth Savings and Loan Association.

"State Board of Education may not require textbook authors to sign a loyalty oath as a prerequisite to consideration of a textbook for state-support schools.

"A justice of the peace must keep a docket reflecting all criminal matters that come to his attention in both magisterial and judicial duties.

SHORT SNORTS
Governor Smith has signed the $1.25 an hour minimum wage bill.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall, beginning his campaign for lieutenant governor on the assumption that Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes will run for the U. S. Senate or for governor, is shopping for a state headquarters site here.

A group has formulated plans to save Austin's historic Driskill Hotel which dates back to 1886 from demolition.

Business interests seek charters for Commercial State Bank of Texas City and Commerce Bank, Texas City.

GENERATION SPAN — Four generations of females were together last weekend, visiting in the home of the Bill McKinneys, 511 Schley. Seated is Mrs. Mary Brashear of Hereford with her great-granddaughter, Dianne Bohm, her daughter, Mrs. D. S. McKinney, left, of Tucumcari, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Merilyn Bohm of Aurora, Ill. Also visiting were Mrs. Bohm's son, Marty; Bill McKinney's aunt, Mrs. Betty Rice; and his father, D. S. McKinney.

Rotarians To Host Ladies Thursday Night

Hereford Rotarians will host a Ladies Night and installation of officers at 8 p.m. today at the Country Club.

Master of Ceremonies for the occasion will be Herman Ford, with entertainment by Robert M. Wert and Mrs. Bill Deavers.

The program will include a speech by Dr. Harry Vanderpool, minister of the Polk Street Methodist Church of Amarillo.

Rotarian Leo Forrest, formerly of Hereford, will act as installing officer, with 1968-69 Rotary Club president Troys Carmichael presiding.

Incoming officers are Charles Frye, president; Roland Barton, vice-president; John Myer, secretary; Herman Ford, treasurer; and Board of Directors: Jonny Cloud, Jack Nunley, and Cliff Trotter.

Thinking Aloud

By BARBARA SWIMMER

Tomorrow night is the last ballgame for the pee-wees, minors and majors of the Little League, and if the All-Stars do not continue on and on, we are gonna have a lot of nothing to do in the evenings.

The antics of the cute little pee-wees are a joy to watch with the seriousness of their do-or-die attitudes.

I remember watching a game when a very small tyke stepped up to the plate like he was going to send one over the fence. The ball was pitched and the youngster swung at it and missed it completely. Another boy, standing nearby, cupped his hands and yelled — "runnnn!" So he did. . . He made it to second base before they stopped him.

Another incident that happened was when a small boy had gotten on base and finally made it to third. The batter hit the ball and the coach yelled at the tiny runner on third to go on in to home. . . He was nowhere to be found. . . They finally found him out behind the bleachers, answering nature's call.

What you run on. Your toes are what always get stubbed. This is all there is of you except what's inside and I never saw that."

What would we do without them???

The graduating class of 1929 had a great time Sunday when they had their 40th anniversary reunion at the Chaparral. Seventeen out of 44 turned up for the occasion, and for several hours, time on the old clock turned back and they were a bunch of kids again. They all took turns telling what they had been doing through the years, and of course, showing photographs of their children and grandchildren.

Speaking of photographs, I really boo-boomed. I took pictures for the paper, but when they were developed, they were blank. I'd like to blame it on the camera, or the developer, but . . . I just believe I will blame it on the camera. . .

Another group of exes will hold a get-together this weekend. The classmates from 1944 are planning a reception and banquet Saturday at the Community Center. Reservations have already been received from graduates from Texas and six other states. Others are still coming in. Looks like they'll have a good time.

I spoke with Mrs. L. J. Iwig recently, of the Ford Community and she said Mr. Iwig was released last week from the hospital at Wichita Falls, but became ill again when he got home and is now in room 107 at Deaf Smith County Hospital.

BLOWN BEYOND THE REEF

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Hurricane Colleen was an ill wind that did some one some good.

It swept across the Southwest Pacific in February and ravaged parts of Noumea, New Caledonia; but it was a savior for the little New Zealand freighter Matipo, 398 tons which had been stranded on a reef 40 miles from Noumea for nine months. Her owner, Capt. Athol Rusden, said that the force of the storm had lifted the Matipo clear of the reef.

Steve Hunt, 6-foot-7 cent er from Westwood, Mass., is playing his third varsity season for West Point's basketball team.

In 1968, 76 per cent of the appeals for variances before zoning boards in the nation's major cities were approved.

Wreck Victim Funeral Held

A field labor contractor for vegetable farms, Mr. Zepeda had lived in Hereford since 1954.
