SEPTEMBER 13 OPENING DATE FOR DEAF SMITH COUNTY FAIR

FALL MERCHANDISE STOCKS WILL BE DISPLAYED HERE ON TRADES DAY, AUGUST 27

Trade Trips Into Rural Communities Will Acquaint Buying Public With Details of Sales Event; Articles Brought In by Farmers Will Be Sold At Auction. Other Attractive Features Being Planned.

Hereford's first Trades Day, Monday, August 27, will usher in the Fall Opening and Merchants Carnival, according to J. T. Cronin, chairman of the Mercantile Bureau.

The fall stocks of merchandise will be opened up in Hereford's Stores," said Mr. Cronin, "and you will be able to find anything you desire. This day we are endeavoring to make 'Customers' and Good-Will' day in Hereford, and no stores will be left unattended to show the hundreds of visitors to our city every courtesy."

The date has been postponed one week on account of the late arrival of trades day tickets, but these will be secured and made ready for distribution by Hereford merchants by the last of the week, according to Secretary Arnold.

Trade trips into the rural communities are being planned to fully acquaint the buying public with the details of the event and local merchants are vying with each other in offering bargains that day in addition to the "real incentive" which will bring hundreds to the city.

Another unusual feature will be the auction sales at which any article brought in by the rural residents will be sold at auction. This affair as well as the public award will take place on Main Street and the city government will be asked permission to close certain blocks during these features in order that the crowd will not be bothered by traffic.

Customers are urged to ask for tickets when making purchase in order that they may be ready for the big event on August 27.

Those desiring further information are requested to get in connection with the offices of the Chamber of Commerce or any member of the mercantile bureau.

Manager For Gas Company Arrives Here

Assurance of a start in the near future of laying gas mains in Hereford was given this week with the arrival Monday of F. W. Seovell, who will be in charge of the local office of the West Texas Gas Company.

According to the agreement with the gas company, Hereford is to have gas by December 1. Mr. Seovell stated Tuesday that the company would probably begin laying the main pipe line from Canyon about September 1, and that work on the mains in Hereford would be under way by that time.

Mr. Seovell will open an office for the company just as soon as a suitable location can be found. A complete line of gas stoves and accessories will be carried in connection with the office.

The Jordan Construction Company of Plainview, now engaged in the work of widening and resurfacing streets in the business section of Hereford, has been given the contract for the ditch work for the city mains. The company will lay the pipe to the property line. Property owners will be responsible for the connecting lines.

Mr. Seovell has been busy this week checking up on pipe sizes and selecting the pipe for use in the city. His family came with him from Independence and will be permanently located here.

Mrs. S. L. Basley, with her Sunday school class of boys, enjoyed a splendid camping trip last week. Accompanied by Mr. Basley and Mrs. H. E. Hawkins a trip to the Carlsbad Caverns and Cloudcroft, New Mexico, was made. They were gone about ten days, returning Tuesday.

SHIPPING WOOL

Ten Thousand Pounds Stored in Hereford Last Week, Consigned by J. P. Collier, Johnny Kemp and Claude Benton. More Coming.

Hereford is being made a concentration point for wool in this section, and last week about 10,000 pounds were stored here, consigned by J. P. Collier, Johnny Kemp and Claude Benton. The wool will be shipped in carload lots when sufficient quantities have been received.

Allen Bell, pioneer sheep man of this section, states that the present price is twenty-seven cents per pound. However, some of the better grades are priced as high as thirty cents per pound.

Creamery for Hereford Now Being Considered

With the large increase of dairy products in Deaf Smith county, the matter of establishing a creamery at Hereford has been referred to County Agent E. O. Dunkle by the Hereford Chamber of Commerce.

Data compiled on this industry by the county agent indicates that sufficient cream and milk is being shipped out of Hereford to supply a creamery which would make the products into butter. Many dairy farmers who are not at this time shipping from this city have also stated that with a creamery established here, the receipts will in all probability double.

An effort will be made by the Chamber of Commerce to induce one of Hereford's bankers to make a trip through the Southern and Eastern States in a study of the dairy situation as it is handled there and secure data on the establishment of a creamery. This trip is being fostered by the Fort Worth & Denver railroad and will include prominent business men from all parts of West Texas.

In addition to the hundreds of Jersey dairy cattle now in service in Deaf Smith county, has recently been added Guernseys, and many dairy farmers of the county have herds of Holsteins.

Recent tests being conducted under auspices of the cow testing associations of Deaf Smith and Randall counties shows some of the best production records of this county, according to Carl March, official in charge of the work with County Agent Dunkle in this work.

Patterson Atchley Dies At Hereford Hospital

Dean Patterson Atchley, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Atchley, died at the Hereford Hospital August 5, at 11:00 p. m. The boy was nine years, four months and twenty-three days old, and had been ill about six weeks.

Funeral services were held from the First Baptist church Saturday afternoon, August 4, Rev. Thurman Morgan, of the Christian church, officiating. The body of the little boy was interred in the local cemetery.

Fire Siren Installed by Local Department

The fire department has recently installed a larger and louder fire siren and during the past week the new apparatus has been tested several times, causing some amusing excitement on the part of the people, who did not know about the new equipment. The siren is much more effective than the one formerly used, and is loud and persistent enough to wake up the dead when it really gets on the job. A new screen covering for it was being installed Wednesday.

Free Mail Delivery In City Is Delayed

It now looks like September before mail delivery can be inaugurated in the city of Hereford, according to Postmaster E. L. Donner. The delay is solely caused by the indifference of some residents to the necessity for putting up mail boxes. Uncle Sam says eighty-five per cent of these boxes MUST be up fifteen days before the service is inaugurated.

Carrier Christian has been canvassing the town and is making good progress in getting up boxes. But at present about thirty-one more boxes must go in before the word "go" is given. The sooner the householders get busy the sooner will they have mail delivered at their doors.

Contest With Canyon Closes September 13

Just five more weeks to put the finishing touches on Hereford business and residential property and win a victory over Canyon in the City Beautiful contest.

The contest will close September 13, and the judges will begin their work the following day. Announcement of the winner will probably be made on September 15.

"All property owners of Hereford are urged to refer to the score published recently in the Brand," said Mrs. J. P. Slaton, chairman of the City Beautiful Committee, Wednesday. "It would indeed be embarrassing to have experts on city beautification called here to make a score for Hereford and to give them a poor opinion of our city."

The committee wishes to call the attention of those persons responsible for vacant lots, street curbs, public grounds and parks, to the fact that it is time to begin cutting and burning the weeds which give Hereford the appearance of a neglected back yard.

Jim Sanders Now Owner of Palace Meat Market

The Palace Meat Market is now controlled by Jim Sanders who, several years ago, established it in partnership with I. O. Crothwait. Mr. Sanders afterward purchased the interest of his partner and then leased the market to T. A. Campbell.

This week Mr. Sanders announced that he had taken over the business in person and would hereafter conduct it. He will specialize in sausage, but will carry the usual assortment of all kinds of meats and market accessories. He asks for a share of the business here and promises a service second to none.

R. F. Holloway Visits Friends in Hereford

Prof. R. F. Holloway, superintendent of public schools at Ranger, Texas, with Mrs. Holloway, passed through Hereford Monday enroute to Roswell on a vacation trip. The couple stopped here for a few hours, looking up old friends and acquaintances.

Prof. Holloway was formerly a resident of Hereford, having practiced law here. His father-in-law, Randolph Clark, was founder of the old Christian College here, and is alive and hearty, although past eighty years of age. Prof. Holloway was superintendent of schools at Comanche, Texas, when the publisher of The Brand was secretary of the Chamber of Commerce there in 1910 and 1911.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Holloway are most kindly remembered here by residents of long standing, and they were welcomed by Judge John P. Slaton, G. A. F. Parker and other former friends and neighbors.

Leaf Worm Attacks Trees; Spraying Promptly Helps

Leaf worms have attacked some of the Chinese elms in the city, is the report this week. The trees in the school house grounds were sprayed with arsenate of lead. Leafless trees, say the experts, may be avoided by keeping watch and giving them proper spraying and attention.

URGENT NEED FOR HOUSES IN HEREFORD

Reports Indicate that 100 Families Could Easily Be Located Here by First Of September.

Indications that the matter of housing facilities in the city of Hereford would receive considerable attention of the Chamber of Commerce were evidenced at the Monday's luncheon.

Reports emanating from the offices of the Chamber of Commerce as well as realty dealers in Hereford declare that 100 families could be located in this city before the opening of school on September 3, if residences were available.

Drawn to Hereford by her wonderful school facilities, many purchasers of Deaf Smith county farm lands are trying to locate their families in town, but there is practically not a vacant house in the city.

D. F. Ashbrook, chairman of the civic affairs committee of the local Chamber of Commerce, reports that while a considerable number of homes had been built through building and loan associations, there is a demand for many more houses than can be supplied.

Hereford school has 28 credits of affiliation and is a member of the Southern Association, a distinction enjoyed by only 119 schools in the entire state. The Hereford a few years ago, is considered one of the best equipped high school plants in West Texas, and Superintendent Dillehay states that he is very anxious that getting houses for new students be handled. According to merchants of the city, business conditions were never better and with the fine moisture occasioned by recent heavy rains, large grain sorghum and row crops are assured.

Secretary Arnold of the Chamber of Commerce has taken the matter of housing problems up with Northern Chambers who have instituted successfully home building campaigns during the past few years.

Cast Votes Today for City Bond Tax

Advocates of the proposed municipal bond tax, the election for which was set for Thursday of this week, were working like beavers the past week in a determined effort to get out the voters and carry this measure, which means as much for the development of young musicians in this city. The declaration of the city commission that they would not assess more than three-fourths of a mill, or $1.00, or a total of seventy-five cents on the $1,000 valuation, was having a decidedly good effect in the canvass.

WANT AD IN BRAND SAVES JACK PARKER FIFTY DOLLAR LOSS

If you don't think Brand want ads pay, just ask Jack Parker, who has been working in the harvest fields around Kelso the past few weeks.

Last week Mr. Parker came to Hereford and lost his purse, containing $50 in cash, on Main Street. He inserted a want ad in The Brand and the next morning Ulys Pierce brought in the purse, money intact.

Ulys, who is the son of A. C. Pierce, who lives 10 miles west of town, received a reward from the delighted owner of the purse who admitted that he had little hope of recovering his property.

"I will always remember Hereford as a place where honest people live," said Mr. Parker, "and where the want ad column in the local paper gets quick, sure results."

Seigler Interested In Oil Well Near Olney

T. E. Seigler, president of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, is highly elated over the bringing in of a thirty barrel oil well about three miles east of Olney, Texas, his old home, July 30. The golden liquid was struck at a depth of 977 feet and tested out forty-one gravity, about as good as it comes anywhere.

Since the well was completed Mr. Seigler and his associate, Orville Bullington, have made five more nearby locations, and expect to put in a busy fall and winter further testing out the new field. The well is a "wild cat" in new territory, and Mr. Seigler is the man who figured out the structure and pioneered the movement for oil at Olney.

The well proves that his faith in the venture was well founded, and there is much excitement and activity in and around Olney over the prospects. Messrs. Seigler and Bullington have a large block of acreage in that vicinity and are exceedingly optimistic over the future of the new field.

Fire Boys Are C. of C. Guests; Mercer Speaks

Members of the Hereford Fire Department were guests at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday. The fire boys were given an ovation when they entered the dining room at the Cordova Hotel, headed by their chief, Dow Mercer.

"We are always glad to meet with the Chamber of Commerce and enjoy the co-operation and friendship of this body," said Mercer. "We are doing the very best we can and now have modern equipment which has no equal in a town of this size in Texas." Mercer was with the department when the first motor truck was put into use.

Rev. M. N. Beavers, former pastor of the Methodist church here, was a visitor at the luncheon. He expressed pleasure in meeting again with the business men of Hereford and stated that he hoped to make his home in this city at some later date.

In speaking of the shortage of dwelling houses here, President T. E. Seigler called on D. F. Ashbrook for a report from the committee on resident house development. Mr. Ashbrook urged the building of rent houses of reasonable price and pointed out that such buildings offered an opportunity for sound investment.

E. B. Black gave a short report on the meeting of the directors of the Panhandle Plains Development Association, held Thursday in Amarillo. "A period of wonderful prosperity is just ahead," said Mr. Black. "The exhibit now being assembled by Panhandle counties will be shown in at least three Northern States. We can expect immediate and valuable results from this exhibit. More than ever before we are convinced that this is the very heart of the best country in Texas."

County Agent R. O. Dunkle introduced Miss Myra Hartman and Herard East, 4-H club members, who have just returned from College Station where they attended the annual Short Course conducted by Texas A. & M. College. Mr. East attended several of the courses and reported that each trip has proved increasingly profitable. The two club representatives thanked the members of the Commerce body for their help in making the trips possible.

J. H. Olson, new manager of the Rockwell Brothers local lumber yard, was introduced to the Chamber of Commerce. Secretary W. R. Arnold announced a change in the date of Hereford's first Trades Day to August 27.

G. O. P. MEETS

Clarence Smith Is Named County Chairman at Republican Convention Held Saturday at County Court Room. Other Officers.

The Republicans of Deaf Smith county met in convention in the county court room on Saturday, August 4. There were fifty-three in attendance. Mrs. B. F. Guthrie presided as temporary chairman, as is the custom in convention meetings. County Chairman H. H. Boardman turned over the reins to Mrs. Guthrie. The latter made a few remarks pertinent to the political convention and then proceeded with the routine business.

In the election of officers, Clarence Smith was named as County Chairman and L. Baskin as permanent secretary. The latter succeeded N. C. Vogele. W. S. Williams was elected delegate to the State convention, to be held in Fort Worth, and Hugh Ekin of Amarillo as alternate. C. H. Dyer was named delegate to the congressional convention to be held later in Amarillo. A Lowther is alternate to Mr. Dyer. A committee of three was selected to assist the chairman in the general routine of business that comes before the organization from time to time.

Discuss Problems of Marketing Vegetables

The matter of providing a market for garden truck grown in such abundance on the irrigated tracts around Hereford is to receive the attention of the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce, according to bulletins issued at the weekly luncheon at the Cordova Hotel Monday.

Located in the shallow water belt with more than fifty pumping plants for irrigation, pumping as high as 1000 gallons per minute from single wells, the marketing facilities for produce raised has been a draw back, according to information being compiled at this time.

Visits to established canneries are to be made, according to J. E. Hill, chairman of the agricultural committee, and indications are that negotiations will be entered into with interested parties in the promoting of this industry.

The truck gardens of L. Baskin, local realtor and abstractor, which comprises sixty acres, is supplying fresh produce to Amarillo and other nearby markets. Forty-seven varieties of vegetable and garden truck are grown on this acreage, according to Mr. Baskin, and the output from this source of farming could be greatly increased with proper marketing facilities.

Farm Sale Dates

A. D. Wilson, who resides five miles due north of Friona, on the West Road, announces a sale of his entire farm equipment, live stock, household goods, etc., for Wednesday afternoon, August 15. Col. Ray Barber is the auctioneer.

Fort Worth Man a Visitor In Hereford

J. J. Walden, manager of the Southwestern Engraving Company of Fort Worth, accompanied by Mrs. Walden and their three children, J. J. Jr., Ben T. and John Charles, and Mrs. E. A. Murrell of Dallas, paid The Brand a visit Wednesday while enroute to the Carlsbad Caverns on a vacation trip. Mr. Walden inspected the company's plant at Amarillo before reaching here.

The Deaf Smith County Fair will be held September 13, 14 and 15. The date was set at a meeting of the directors and department superintendents at the Chamber of Commerce offices Wednesday night.

Preparations being made by the various department heads indicate Hereford and Deaf Smith county is to have the biggest fair ever held in this city. The condition of growing crops occasioned by recent rains will insure one of the best farm exhibits in years, according to J. P. Robinson and J. T. Cronin, superintendents of this department.

The September dates were selected in order to allow exhibitors to show in the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, which opens September 22.

G. W. Brumley and George Lewis, superintendents of the hog department, promise one of the best swine exhibits ever shown, and arrangements are being made to have Miss Elizabeth Chapman exhibit her eleven Duroc Jersey pigs which have created state wide attention in the Progressive Farmer's ton-litter contest. These pigs at the age of 150 days weighed 2000 pounds. The value of balanced ration feeding is to be demonstrated by Miss Chapman.

Superintendent Jim Lipscomb of the dairy cattle department has been authorized by the directors to go the limit in securing an exhibit that will show the county's progress in the dairy line. Mr. Lipscomb promises some revelations in showing the progeny of some of the circle bulls which are recognized as among the best in the state. A larger premium money appropriation will be allowed in this department than in former years, and competition should be keen.

Egbert Brady, of the beef cattle department, states that a fine showing of beef cattle should be made, as many raisers are feeding at this time and should have their stock in prime condition for the show. Arrangements are being made to allow the show animals to be kept at the sales stadium until ready for the trip to the Tri-State fair. The exhibitors will thus have plenty of time to get their stock in shape for the second showing.

Special efforts are to be put forth in every department, including the merchants' booth, under direction of Superintendent E. B. Black. Space for merchants' booths promises to be at a premium. Other departments, all of which are receiving special attention, include the women's department, community booths, under Superintendent John H. Patton; 4-H club exhibits, R. O. Dunkle, superintendent; vocational department, Harold Hershey, superintendent; poultry department, N. C. Vogele superintendent, and automobile show, A. O. Thompson, superintendent.

Premium lists are being worked out and announcement will be made at an early date of the details of exhibits and prizes. Those desiring to show are urged to get in connection with the department heads, Secretary Arnold of the Chamber of Commerce, or County Agent Dunkle. Tentative judges have been agreed upon and Hereford and Deaf Smith county citizens are assured that every effort is being put forth to put on a real fair.

Entertainment features will include a polo match, this feature having been placed in charge of Bob Sisk. Another feature being sought is a baseball series with the Fort Worth Cats of the Texas League, who will be on a barnstorming tour about that time. Pitcher Joe (Bugs) Pate of the Panthers has written asking for a game with the local team.

Concessions will be handled from the Chamber of Commerce offices, and already several requests have been received.

DEAR FRIENDS:

August 9, 1928.

A FELLOW remarked to the boss the other morning that he wishes he had a valet.

And the boss says, "You have something better. You've got us. We'll keep your clothes in better shape than a valet can, and you don't have to have him sticking around in the way."

I thought that was pretty good. Never thought of it that way before.

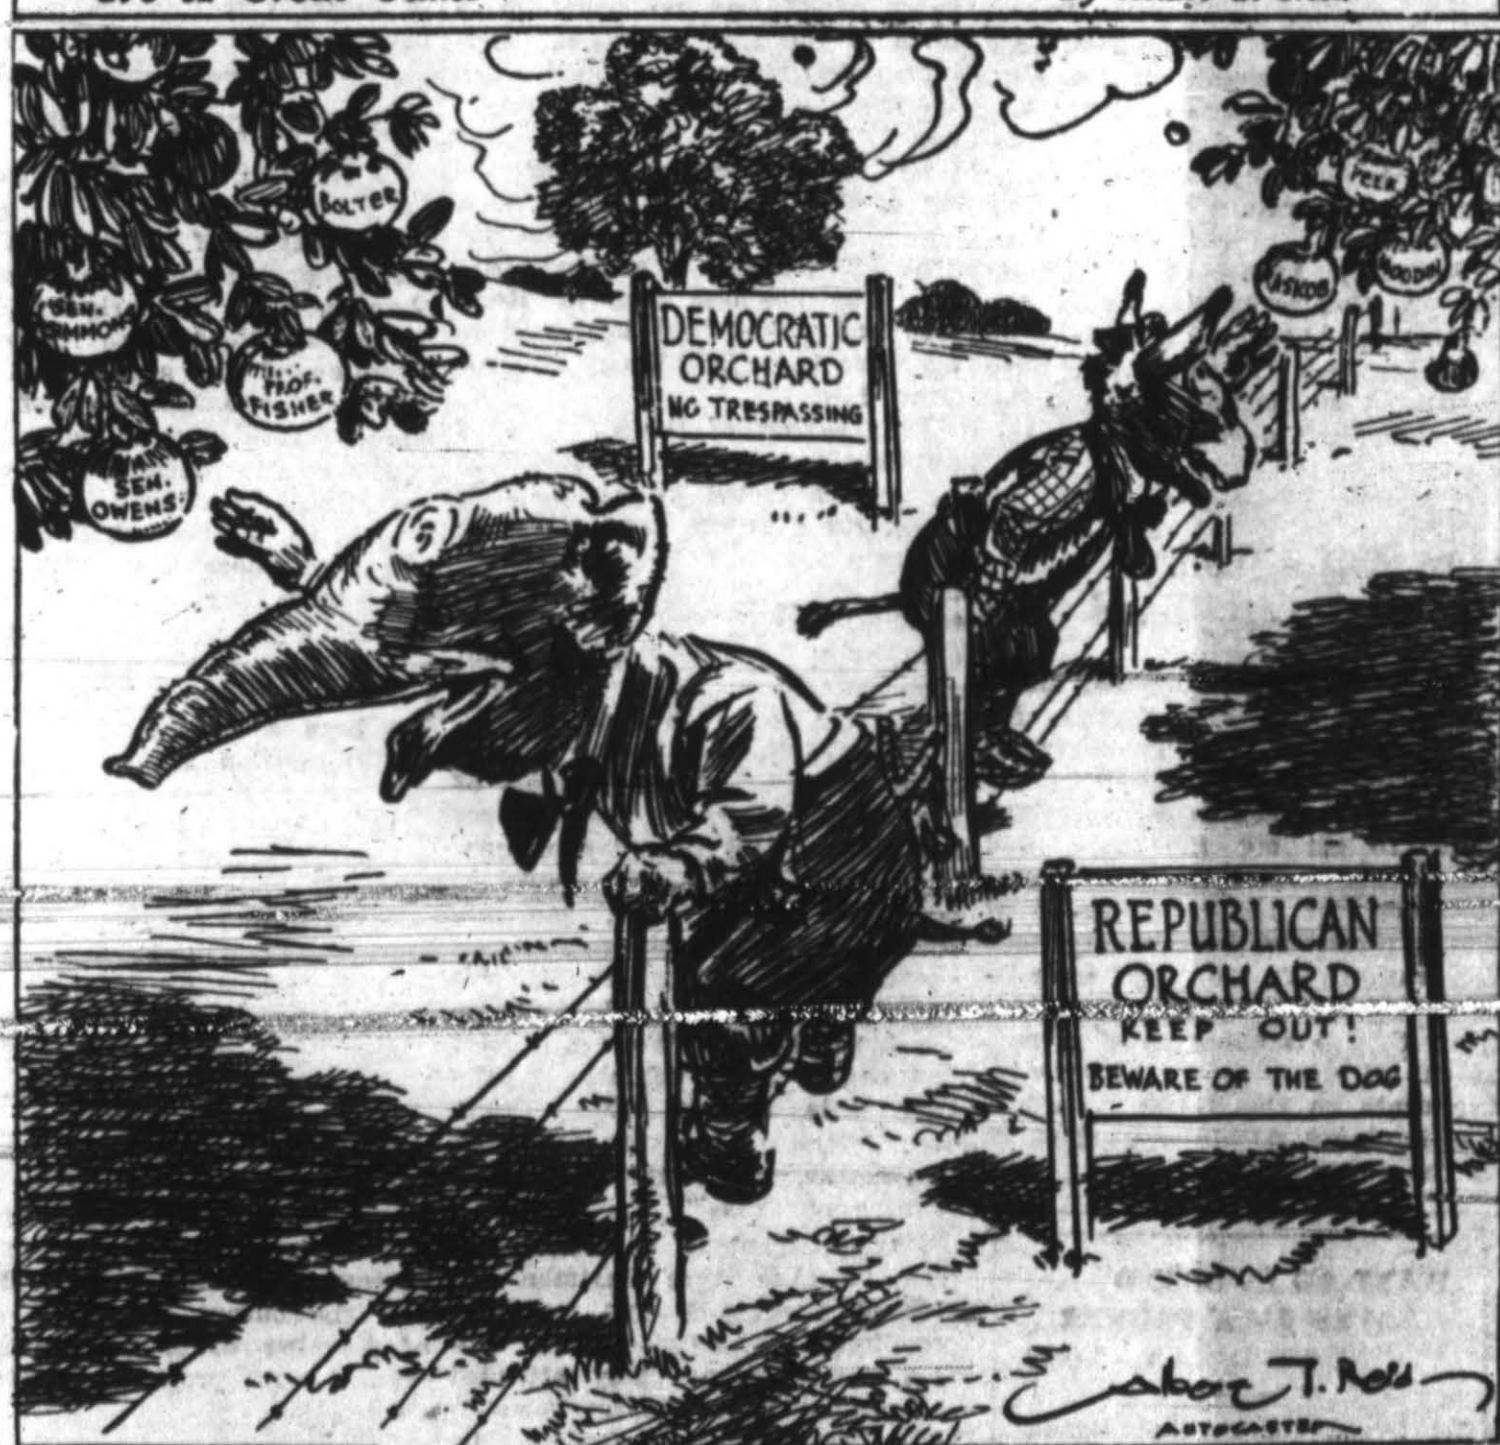

When you want to ring for your valet, just say "Number One-Six."

Hints for the Home

Gooseberry Time!

Ever try gooseberry jam? It's done with roast meats. Measure 4 level cups crushed berries into large kettle, add 1/2 cup water and stir until boiling. Cover and simmer 15 minutes. Add 7 1/2 cups sugar—level—use hottest fire and stir constantly. Bring to full rolling boil and boil hard one minute. Remove, stir in 1/2 cup liquid pectin, skim, pour and seal.

Improves Flavor in Fruit Pies.
Almost any berry pie will be improved if a little salt is added to the filling of the pie.

Makes Eggs Go Farther.
When beating whites of eggs, add a tablespoon of water for each egg and you will have double the quantity of stiffly beaten eggs.

To Keep Bread Box Sweet.
Bread molds quickly in hot weather, so keep containers free from scraps of stale bread, and scald at least twice a week in the summer.

Some Aim.
New York—Policeman David Lenahan, a rookie, shouted after a speeding car:
"Stop or I'll shoot!"
The auto sped on.
Lenahan drew his revolver and fired one shot. His aim was poor, and he wounded himself in the leg. An ambulance took him to the hospital.

Saves Fuel.
Cook as many foods as possible while the oven is burning. Cooking half a dozen articles consumes no more gas than it does to cook one.

A Good Floor Polish.
A small quantity of kerosene applied to hardwood floors and rubbed with a woolen cloth makes a very good and lasting polish. This may also be used on furniture.

Thinking Out Loud!

Why is it that many a girl who goes to court without a leg to stand on wins her case because of her pretty limbs?

The heroes of ancient tales used to go forth to battle dragons that breathed fire and had seven heads, and every time a hero managed to dispose of one of the heads two grew in its place. Modern heroes imbued with the same spirit became prohibition officers and slash at the speakeases.

Tom Heeney lost to Gene Tunney—and made no alibi. That's what we call breaking all traditions.

Heeney, it is rumored, hopes to marry an American girl. His fight with Tunney has evidently whet his appetite for punishment.

Some politicians are greatly pleased with the heat because it makes it hard for all people to think.

The American Bar Association says crime is caused by present prohibition conditions. Why would not the American "Ba" Association say that?

Miss Salome Copeland Married to A. C. Hale

Miss Salome Copeland and Mr. A. C. Hale were united in marriage at eight o'clock Sunday morning, August 5, at the country home on 25-Mile Avenue, of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Copeland. Rev. E. B. Bowen, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony.

J. L. Fuqua, Jr., long-time friend of the groom and Miss Ann Copeland, sister of the bride, were the only attendants.

The house was fragrant with sweet peas from the home garden and baskets of dahlias gave brightness and color to the rooms.

The bride was attired in a becoming navy and beige georgette ensemble with corresponding accessories and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas and rose geraniums. The bride's maid wore orchid and gold georgette with corsage of sweet peas.

Mrs. Hale is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Copeland, and is a graduate of Trinity College, Waxahachie. She taught in the school at Summerfield last year. She is a talented musician and is possessed of a lovely voice.

Mr. Hale is a young business man of our city, being proprietor of the Hale barber shop. He is the eldest son of E. Hale, of Waxahachie, for many years a prominent county official of Ellis county.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale left overland for a brief visit to Dallas, Waxahachie and Waco and on their return will be at home in the British apartments.

Takes Poultry Course At A. and M. College

Ray Conaway, manager of the Hillside Hatchery, accompanied County Agent Dunkle and the 4-H club members to College Station recently and took the Short Course work in poultry while there. He returned the latter part of last week.

Mr. Conaway says the Course was well worth the trip and he not only absorbed a lot of valuable information in his line, but he also met and talked with several practical poultrymen, who gave him pointers. He also inspected the late equipment in incubators and brooders.

Mr. Conaway says the Hillside Hatchery is already receiving inquiries for fall baby chicks. His big Smith 47,000 capacity hatcher may be started up this fall to supply this demand.

Pacific Coast Wrestler May Locate In Hereford

George Barnes, Pacific Coast wrestler who recently pinned the shoulders of Parelli and Kall Pasha in bouts at Amarillo, was a visitor Wednesday and announced that he intended to make Hereford his headquarters from here out, probably secure work, and do his training here for future bouts. It is quite probable, Barnes said, that if the fans in this vicinity desire it, local wrestling matches would be arranged. It will be remembered that Thor Jensen worked out here for several years while he was in this part of the country. Barnes was being shown about Wednesday by Omar Baker, local wrestling enthusiast.

Barnes is scheduled to wrestle Leo Fox at Amarillo Friday night as the climax to a charity bill. The first bout will be between Dutch Mantell and Kall Pashi, this match to be limited to one fall and one hour.

Barnes is a clean cut, friendly chap and brings a good reputation both as a fair man and unusually splendid mat man. Wrestling fans of the city are stirred up over prospects for some exciting bouts in the future.

Mr. Fly is the son of Dr. Fly, an Amarillo pioneer. He will conduct a retail and wholesale business at Vega, but the couple will make their home in Amarillo.

LAWN SUPPER AT HOLMAN HOME

Mrs. Joe Elliston, assisted by Mrs. Seth B. Holman, entertained a number of friends on Saturday evening with a lawn supper, naming as honor guests Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Gooch and Horace Gooch of Amarillo and Miss Marjiam Crawford, of Holley Springs, Miss.

The beautiful lawn of the Holman home was lighted where tables were placed for a delicious plate supper. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing and playing bridge.

About twenty-four young people were present.

Miss Coffin Honored At Tea Given Tuesday

Mmes. E. B. Black and Jesse Stanford delightfully entertained a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon with a seated tea, honoring Miss Minnie Dea Coffin of New York City.

The Black home was beautifully decorated with a variety of garden flowers and during the late afternoon the guests were given opportunity to hear Miss Coffin play.

Miss Coffin was a former piano teacher in Hereford but for the past two years has been making her home in New York City where she teaches and also studies under one of the foremost piano teachers.

An added pleasure was the vocal selection of Mrs. Timothy Tinsley also of New York, who is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Oberthier.

A delicious salad course was served by the hostesses.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Bowe Leave For California

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Bowe left Tuesday morning for Santa Ana California, where they were called on account of the illness of Dr. Bowe's brother.

This illness may make necessary the postponement of a vacation trip to the West which Dr. and Mrs. Bowe have been planning for some time. If the illness does not prove serious, however, the Bowes will return to Hereford by way of Los Angeles, Long Beach, San Francisco, Salt Lake City and Denver, and will visit Yellowstone Park in Wyoming while enroute.

BRIDGE PARTY.

Mmes. Homer K. Fox, George Garrison and Carl Cockrell were charming hostesses to a lovely bridge party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fox.

The home was beautifully decorated in garden flowers making an ideal setting for the games. Nine tables were placed for the players. Mrs. P. W. Price captured high score prize among the home guests and Mrs. T. D. Moss, of Fort Worth, won high among the visitors.

A delicious ice course was served by the hostesses at the conclusion of the games.

MRS. MABEL SHORT FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Mabel Short, who died July 27, were held Saturday, July 28, at the Short home four miles north on Twenty-Five Mile Avenue. Rev. E. B. Bowen of the Methodist church officiated.

Mrs. Short was the wife of Mac Short, well known Hereford farmer. She died at the age of 33 years, four months and twenty-four days. Besides her husband she leaves a family of nine children. The body was buried in West Park Cemetery.

Seven Club Members Return from A. and M.

County Agent R. O. Dunkle, together with seven members of the 4-H club, returned Saturday night from College Station where they attended the annual Short Course conducted by Texas A. & M. College.

According to Dunkle, the course is proving more popular each year and this fact is evidenced by the increased attendance from all sections of the state. The delegation from Hereford was larger this year than ever before.

"I would like to make special mention of the fact that the Santa Fe railroad provided a special train from Amarillo to College Station," said Mr. Dunkle, in speaking of the trip. "The train carried all the club members from the Panhandle, some 300 in number, and made unnecessary the many stop-overs that usually make such a trip very inconvenient."

Besides Dunkle and the seven club members, R. P. Coneway of the Hillside Hatchery, and Horace Hershey attended the Short Course. Coneway took a special course in poultry raising, while Hershey did work in Agronomy and Irrigation Engineering.

Quick Job Service at The Brand

Concert Given Tuesday By Hereford Musicians

The Municipal Band entertained citizens of Hereford with a concert Tuesday night on the lawn of the B. F. Guthrie residence. Director Ralph Smith had planned to give the concert at Mother's Park but inability to secure the necessary lighting facilities made the change necessary.

During the short intermission, Rev. J. T. Ross of the Presbyterian church, discussed the band tax election which is being held today. He pointed out the value of a good band to the city and urged that all voters go to the polls and show their appreciation for the splendid work being done by the band.

Pure Seed Experiment Results In Big Crop

Definite proof of the success of the pure seed experiment being conducted by J. P. Roberson was given this week in a statement by County Agent R. O. Dunkle.

On the George Lewis farm nine miles north of Hereford, twenty acres were planted with pure seed from the Robertson farm. A similar twenty acres were planted with seed of the ordinary kind. In some instances, according to Dunkle, the crop from the pure seed will be double, and the total yield from the pure seed will be materially greater than that from the ordinary seed.

Dunkle is now making plans for a business men's inspection trip to the Lewis farm. It is believed that the results secured on this farm will greatly encourage the use of pure seed in this section.

Elizabeth Chapman Is Winner of Gold Medal

Miss Elizabeth Chapman is the winner of one of the medals given each year by the Progressive Farmers of Dallas to 4-H club members who succeed in raising a ton litter of pigs.

The litter of pigs raised by Miss Chapman weighed 2000 pounds at the age of five months, and averaged 182 pounds. The cost of raising each pig is estimated by Miss Chapman at $11.42.

Miss Chapman is competing for the $75.00 prize offered by the Progressive Farmer for the heaviest litter of pigs in the state, and for the gold medal which is to be given by W. D. Kelleher to the club member in this county who raises the heaviest litter.

Final plans were laid in St. Louis by the newly formed Smith Association of the World for a gigantic party to which nearly two million Americans named Smith will be invited. This will probably be the first party in history at which people won't become embarrassed trying to recall each other's names.

THE TIGER TRAIL

by Edison Marshall

"It is even an intruder's business to be watchful at a time like this. I believe you'd better try to get some sleep."

"Still the doctor—but there are no personal wishes involved this time." She even had the spirit to smile at me.

But I couldn't answer that smile. The scene in the den had struck home too hard.

"Professional interest alone," I told her.

Maybe it was just the effect of the dawn that her eyes seemed to lose their lustre before my gaze. She hurried on up the hall, turning at the door of her own room.

"Thank you for your watchfulness," she called to me. "And I'm sorry I spoke so rudely when you first spoke to me—and I don't expect any other—but professional interest—now. If there was anything that I could say about last night—I'd say it, too. But I know it wouldn't help any."

"I can't imagine that it would."

"But at least—you are not going home today."

"The storm decided that matter for me, I'm afraid. But there may be a chance yet."

The door shut behind her. The early morning hours drew on and the mist that was the twilight of dawn faded like the rain.

One of the negroes had built a little fire in the library and Southey joined me there. And in a moment Ahmad Das opened the door from the dining room.

He stood straight and calm and untroubled, not an expression that the eyes of man could read on his impassive face as he called us in to breakfast.

After breakfast Ernest and I went down to the scene of the murder. It would be several hours before the coroner came and I thought that any obvious clues should be collected and preserved at once. Such things have mysterious ways of disappearing.

We had no difficulty in locating the exact spot where the body had been. Even the rain had not washed away the evidence. My first work was to look about for footprints. There were none to be seen. The place was covered with a rich growth of grass and root-filled turf as a rule does not receive a very clear imprint. Besides, the rains would have washed away any imprint that had been made.

We were no more successful in finding a weapon with which the crime could have been committed. We searched the hillside with the greatest possible care, and even waded a short distance into the swamp. Of course it seemed like that any blunt instrument that could have inflicted the wound could have been easily tossed into the swamp water, from which it could not be recovered until the waters receded again.

Although it was inundated to a depth of six feet now, it was perfectly clear that the isthmus was still above the surface of the water at the moment of the murder. It was not covered until the final wreckage of the levee several minutes afterward. It would have been possible for the murderer to have raced across the isthmus to the opposite high lands before the wall of water came. In that case he was still to be found in the thick jungle beyond.

Since the light had made it possible, we had put a negro in an upstairs window with a powerful pair of field glasses. If the murderer was indeed in refuge in the thick jungle the glasses would reveal any attempt he should make to escape. His only hope would be to keep the plateau itself between him and the house, a feat that would become increasingly difficult as he neared the mainland. And it was true the water was too deep to wade. He would either have to construct a raft or else risk his life in a long, desperate swim.

The watch was kept like the guard of an army camp. It was continuous. When the negro was obliged to leave his post another took his place.

We picked up only a few surface clues.

We found a man's hat, but it was perfectly evident that it was the hat Hayward had worn. I had not particularly noticed it as he went out the door, yet Ernest recognized it as the same expensive felt that he had seen the elder Hayward wearing on many previous occasions. It contained no initials or any other sign of ownership and it had a trademark of a hatter in the state capital.

But the place it lay was somewhat significant. It was ten full paces farther up the slope than the place where we had found the body.

"Couldn't we have dropped it off when we carried the body to the house?" Ernest asked.

"When I lifted the head the hat was already off," I replied.

"Then you see what it means?" He looked at me darkly.

"It means that either part of the struggle occurred higher up the slope, or else some violent action at that point knocked the hat from his head. It seems to me there would be signs—deeper imprints—if the first was the case, and more likely that he saw or heard his enemy for the first time when he

Sunday School Lesson

THE COUNCIL AT JERUSALEM Acts 15:1-11

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D., Associate General Secretary of the World's Sunday School Association.

Paul returned from his first missionary journey to Antioch, in which city he and Barnabas had been commissioned for that special work. The results from Cyprus and on the mainland in Asia Minor were almost unbelievable. Such victories for righteousness elsewhere stimulated the activities of the Christians in Antioch to renewed efforts to make converts to this new Way. It will be remembered that such believers were first called Christians at Antioch (Acts 11:26).

Soon rather complete statements of this general progress came to the attention of the leaders in the church at Jerusalem. They were glad, of course, that Jesus Christ was thus recognized, but they were concerned that each Gentile should receive the Jewish rite of circumcision and they sent a deputation to Antioch to see if this requirement was being attended to religiously.

According to Oriental custom a goodly number started out with the party whose destination was Jerusalem. Thura they speeded the traveler on his way and may have even camped with them the first night before returning to Antioch the next day. Paul and his company made the trip to Jerusalem the occasion of preaching the Gospel en route. As they passed Phoenicia and Samaria they declared their experience on the first journey and announced the conversion of many in each city visited. This "Caused great joy unto all the brethren."

At Jerusalem this same story of conversion was hailed with gladness. They had the vote of the majority from the start. Then some of the Pharisees, who had always stood for a strict interpretation of the laws of Moses, declared that great violence was done to a custom that had been observed by them strictly for the past 1500 years if any were admitted to Christian fellowship without this circumcision.

Peter insisted that his experience had been otherwise and told about the vision at Joppa, when by the vision of the many kinds of animals let down from heaven in a sheet he was led to understand that God loved people regardless of the nation of their birth. He, too, had discovered that righteousness was a question of faith and obedience rather than any outward form in the flesh.

James, the brother of Jesus, and who became a believer subsequent to the Crucifixion and Resurrection, made the harmonizing address, and his recommendations were accepted. A document was written embodying the findings which were in part that circumcision was not an essential in faith. On the other hand these Gentile converts should have respect for the Jews in abstaining from meats offering to idols, from blood, from eating flesh that had been strangled, and, of course, from the immoralities which were so common was on this point of the path."

"He must have been on his way opposite to the driveway then."

"Of course."

"He certainly could not have seen well in the darkness. He might have heard, though, or felt."

"Perhaps he could make out a shadow. Likely he started to run and his hat fell off at the first leap."

"The levee was already breaking then. He must have heard its faint sighs. It seemed likely he must have known that retreat by way of the roadway to the city was already cut off. The why—and the eyes bored mine—'did he run in the opposite direction from the house, rather than toward it? We found the body ten yards farther down the slope.'"

"Men in such terror as he must have been are not particularly careful which way they run. They only want to get away in any direction."

"But the most frightened man won't run in the face of danger. It is perfectly evident that his foe came behind him—between his own position and the house."

"That seems to be indisputable."

"The murderer must have chased him."

"Of course."

"And he must have been unbelievably fleet. It was true that Hayward was a large man physically, and it would not ordinarily have been able to run very fast. But in such terror as he was, he would have run faster than any expert track man. You know, Long, that no man ever really runs until he is in terror. Some reserve power and strength comes to his aid. You remember that from your own boyhood—the way you could get away from a watermelon patch when the owner got out his shotgun. He ran somewhat downhill, so that every condition was with him for a fast flight. And yet his enemy caught up with him within ten yards."

among those who worshipped idols. Further, these converts everywhere were urged to send back offerings for the poor in the church at Jerusalem. These formal conclusions were reported at Antioch and accepted. Thus serious differences were resolved by a conference of those who sincerely desired to agree and then give their combined energy for the great Cause.

Returns $25,000 Worth of Jewels.

CHICAGO.—Carl Tronstead, a taxi driver, found a case on the running board of his cab which contained a glittering display of jewels.

After making the discovery he sat up all night long with a pistol guarding the jewel case.

In the morning he took it to the cab company. An inquiry, and it was found that the loss had been reported to Commander William Heard, U. S. N., en route to Panama with his wife. The gems were worth $25,000.

The most unusual part of this story, some say, is that it happened in Chicago.

Some Appetite.

LEXINGTON, Ky.—One and one-fourth pounds of canned salmon, two and one-half pounds of pork and beans, one and one-fourth pounds of onions, one-half jelly roll, one fourth pound of oranges, one-half pound of crackers, three bottles of "pop" and three glasses of water.

This ten and three-quarter pound supper was eaten at a restaurant by Charles Belt, seven, who suffered no ill effects.

Hot Stuff!

PITTSBURGH.—Edward Fisher was fined $50 for tossing hot pennies among two score youngsters who were serenading a wedding couple. His act resulted in slight burns to several boys and girls.

A woman, suing her husband for divorce, says he threw a cooked chicken at her. Well, the price of poultry being what it is, she certainly can't dispute his generosity.

IT WAS SIMPLY Overwhelming!

—We honestly believed the good people of this community would like our New Bank Building, would appreciate its modern conveniences and its opportunity for even Better Service, But—

WE DID NOT EXPECT A CROWD OF BETWEEN 3,000 AND 4,000 PEOPLE.

—We were greatly embarrassed because our Souvenirs ran out before closing time—we had 2,000 souvenirs, but the gifts for the kiddies ran out at noon and those for the adults at 2:00 p. m., so for three hours thereafter we had to apologize.

—We appreciate this deep interest in our new building and in our bank more than we have the words to express. It shows the people of this community are alert to the opportunities of the hour, to the material things that mean community advancement, and are prepared to show their appreciation in a substantial way.

—We thank you for your attendance Saturday, for your kindly interest, and for your congratulations. We will try to express our thanks in terms of Banking Service, such as you have not had before. We are here to serve this community in every possible way consistent with sound banking principles. If you are not now a customer of ours, we hope you will take us into consideration in the future. Hints for the Home

When we read that, according to statistics, each family spends $25 a year for soft drinks outside the home, we realize a very nice saving could be effected by serving these beverages from the home fountain.

Almost any pungent syrup from canned or preserved fruit can be used with lemon or orange juice base to make wholesome fruit drinks. Malted milk powder added to cold cocoa and well shaken makes excellent chocolate malted milk and the cold cereal beverages can also be combined with cracked ice and milk to make a delicious summer drink.

Not one of the drinks suggested costs more than a few cents to make at home—so in the interest of economy, let's try this scheme of being our own refectory and see if it isn't a success.

Don't Forget the Ice.

In your enthusiasm over ice cream dallies don't forget fruit sherbets are just as tempting and often a better selection for summer meals. To a pint of any crushed ripe fruit add one and a half cups of orange juice and a cup powdered sugar. Cook until sugar melts, cool and freeze.

So much beauty can be given to rooms through the use of attractive slip covers that it seems we should try our hands at making a set for the summer home.

Printed linens, chintz, creonnes in quaint floral patterns are ideal for this purpose and need not be expensive so long as coloring and designs are good.

Lay material over chairs or sofa, tuck well into corners, crease and pin according to the outlines of the furniture. Cut from the pattern you have molded, allowing a half-inch for seams. Fold seams back, lay pieces on furniture again and pin together so they fit snugly. Remove cover, baste and stitch with a welt seam on the right side, allowing a six-inch opening at each side in back so the cover can be slipped on and off.

When Children Become Finicky.

When Sonny and Sister become tired of eggs, prunes, spinach or carrots—four of their most wholesome foods—try preparing them in the form of a fancy gelatin/dessert or salad. Use fruit flavors for dessert combinations, and lemon flavored gelatin for salads. Mold in fancy shapes and see how welcome they are.

Takes Place of Eggs in Cakes.

A dessert-spoonful of vinegar added to a cup of milk will answer the same purpose as two eggs in cake making. Prepared cake flour should be used in this, as in all cake recipes, to insure lightness and uniform success.

Combating Troublesome Ants.

A heavy chalk mark drawn a finger's distance from your sugar box and around containers for bread and cake will keep the ants away.

Ever Try Jellied Soups?
At smart tea rooms and hotels jellied soups are in great favor for summer service—especially this cold tomato soup made by dissolving a tablespoon of lemon flavored gelatin in a half cup of boiling water and adding it to the liquid from a can of tomatoes. First season juice with a teaspoon of sugar, pepper and salt and juice of an onion and simmer for ten minutes. Then add dissolved gelatin and set on ice until cold. Serve in cups with whipped cream, if desired.

PURINA

Are Those Pullets Growing Out As They Should?

This is the critical time in the development of the pullets. If handled right and FED right they will make big, roomy, healthy young hens, ready to shell out the eggs this fall and winter. But if their FEED is not right it will cost their owners heavily in small eggs, and very few of that kind.

Feed Them Purina Mash and Scratch Feeds

and make SURE of a steady, healthy development. PURINA means a BALANCED RATION that gets every last ounce of growth and vitality out of chickens.

Use PURINA and make a profit on your poultry—don't take chances on a financial loss, due to scrawny, undernourished pullets.

Remember This When Preserving.
In choosing fruit for preserving, remember that slightly under-ripe fruit is usually best because it contains more pectin or jellying substance than fully ripe fruit. If modern short process preserving rules are followed, however, this point can be disregarded, as these recipes secure uniform jelly texture through the use of liquid pectin.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT AUTHORIZING LEGISLATURE TO EXEMPT FROM TAXATION PARSONAGES, AND CERTAIN PROPERTY OF ASSOCIATIONS FOR RELIGIOUS, EDUCATIONAL AND PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT.

H. J. R. No. 20.
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION.
Proposing an amendment to Section 2, Article 8 of the Constitution of the State, so as to authorize the Legislature to exempt from taxation any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, and which yields no revenue whatever to such church or religious society, and property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men or young women operating under a State or National organization of like character; providing for an election upon such proposed Constitutional Amendment, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 2, Article 8 of the Constitution be so changed as to read hereafter as follows:
All occupation taxes shall be equal and uniform upon the same class of subjects within the limits of the authority levying the tax; but the legislature may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes; actual places of religious worship, also any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, and which yields no revenue whatever to such church or religious society, provided that such exemption shall not extend to more property than is reasonably necessary for a dwelling place and in no event more than one acre of land; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes and the necessary furniture of all schools and property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men, or young women operating under a State or National organization of like character; also the endowment funds of such institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit; and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been and shall hereafter be bought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages, that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer, and institutions of purely public charity; and all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property above mentioned shall be null and void.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1928, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, exempting from taxes property owned by churches or strictly religious societies for the exclusive use as dwellings for the ministry"; and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas, exempting from taxes property owned by churches or strictly religious societies for the exclusive use as dwellings for the ministry."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Sec. 4. The sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of said publication and election.
