

Awards Presentation Highlight Annual Event

By MARSHALL DAY
Sports Editor

Presentation of awards, recognition of athletes and an inspiring talk by John Niland highlighted the second annual All-Sports Banquet which was held at the Bull Barn Monday night.

A crowd of nearly 600 saw the presentation of the News Service Award from radio station KPAN and the Hereford Brand, to one outstanding athlete in each of the seven sports which represented Hereford High School during the past year. Recipients of the awards included, Sheldon White, baseball; Dusty Duncan, basketball; Elgin Williams, football; Sharon Cash, volleyball; Russell Phillips, golf; Steve McAndrews, track and John Stagner, tennis.

Some 147 athletes, from each of the sports, were recognized by head football coach and athletic director Larry Wartes. Clint Formby, owner of KPAN and president of the Texas Association of Broadcasters, served as master of ceremonies for the banquet.

Niland, offensive guard for the Dallas Cowboys, sprinkled his talk with anecdotes and jokes throughout the program, as he centered his talk around "a true professional." "A true professional," he said, "is the person who gives 110 per cent, 100 per cent of the time, whether he be a football player or any other type of business man."

"You have professionals throughout, but seldom do you find a true professional," Niland stated, "one who is willing to go on. I'm sure a lot of you football players have worked until you thought you couldn't any more, but have you ever gotten to the point where your legs ache, your mouth is dry and your body can't seem to take any more?"

"A true professional is one who starts working when he gets to that point. Pain is one of the quality ingredients of a professional. He thinks to himself that then is the time to try harder," he pointed out.

Niland stated that there is a select group of beings called the "uncommons" who have what it takes to be a true professional. "I consider myself one of those uncommons," he said, "and I believe there are a number, though a very small hand full, here in the audience tonight. You may not realize it, but there are, and if I can reach and make just one of those realize they are one of the uncommons it will be good enough."

"I remember one-time last season when we were playing up north and Don Meredith was having a particularly bad day, but not through his own fault," Niland recalled, "Our offense wasn't holding or blocking and Don just had a hard time. Well, the fans, some 70,000 of them, began booing him. Those people in the stands probably considered themselves professionals in their work, but they paid little attention when Don was having trouble. Don's only fault is that he is a human being. Human beings make mistakes... even the true professionals."

Niland, concluded his talk with the story of the boy who had the pride, courage, desire and all the other qualities of a true professional. The boy had been an average player on a football team, was no outstanding competitor, but he was always trying though he never was given a chance to play the game.

Finally it came down to the big game and a few days prior to that game, there was death in the family of the young man and he asked his coach for a few days off, promising he would be back in time for the game, regardless of whether or not he would play.

Niland recalled the story, which is a true account, was that the day of the big game the boy returned and asked the coach if he could play.

The coach put the boy in and he played one of the most outstanding games ever witnessed by the coach. He blocked, was in on almost every play, and stopped one of the nation's top players on several occasions.

"After the game was over, the coach approached the young man," Niland related, "and asked him what had happened. How had he been able to play such an outstanding game?"

"The boy said, 'Coach, remember I had a death in the family this week? Well, my father died. He was blind and he never had a chance to see my play until today,'" Niland ended.

Shriners Schedule Childrens Clinic

Plans for the annual Oasis Shrine Children's Clinic, to be held here May 17, have been announced by C.P. Worthan, Oasis Shrine president.

This year's clinic, which will be the fourteenth year it has been held, is sponsored by the Oasis Shrine Club, which includes Shriners from Deaf Smith, Castro and Pomeroy Counties.

Specialists in speech audiometry, radiology, neurology, pediatrics, cardiology, ENT, plastic surgery, orthopedics, dentistry and optometry will be on hand to conduct the clinic. Those specialists include Dr. Don Ryan, of Denton; Dr. Dean Harris of Dallas; Dr. J. E. Miller, Dallas; Dr. Tom Nash, Dallas; Dr. Maurice Dyer, Amarillo; Dr. Robert Leachman, Houston; Dr. Norman Wright, Amarillo; Dr. W. C. Sellman Jr., Dallas; Dr. C. E. Hicks, Hereford; Dr. J. E. Loveless, Lubbock; Dr. Richard Shirley, Dallas; Dr. James Bertz, Dallas; Dr. M. W. Nobles, Hereford and Dr. Milton Adams Hereford.

Children with known or suspected physical, dental or visual problems can pre-register for the clinic by contacting Shrine members or their doctors. If this proves inconvenient they may use the pre-registration form printed inside this paper. If the form is used, it may be mailed to the Hereford Clinic or to a Shriner.

Children who are brought to the clinic can be checked by all specialists in one building so that the children's parents will not have to spend a great deal of time or money to take the child from one specialist to another in different cities.

Registration is to be held in the Hereford Community Center, beginning at 8:30 a. m. May 17. Children, those registering that day and those who have been pre-registered, are checked at the Center by doctors who recommend that they see one of the other specialists. After the child is checked, he is then taken to Hereford Clinic where he will be directed to one of the specialists.

Children 18 years of age down to infants will be accepted at the clinic, free of charge for the check-ups and diagnosis. On the average, between 300 and 400 children receive these check-ups during the one-day clinic and often many of their problems are helped or even eliminated.

Those specialists who work during the clinic, and the volunteers who contribute their time, receive nothing for their day's work. Many who help consider it one of the best opportunities to see children who would otherwise not get the medical attention they need.

Beauty Spots Are Announced

Central Church of Christ and the Marvin May home, 401 Westhaven, have been selected as the non-residential and residential beauty spots for the month of April, according to Mrs. T. J. Carter, chairman of the selection committee.

Members of the committee, which is a sub-committee of the beautification of the Women's Division of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, make the selections each month. Selections are made on a percentage basis, using score cards which indicate points in various categories: Neatness and cleanliness count 20 points as does relationship of planting. Color and eye appeal each count 15 points and balance and unity, harmony of architecture and eye appeal all count 15 points each.

Mrs. Carter stressed that beauty spots need not be elaborate or expensive as some small homes and businesses often win the award.

Children who are brought to the clinic can be checked by all specialists in one building so that the children's parents will not have to spend a great deal of time or money to take the child from one specialist to another in different cities.

Registration is to be held in the Hereford Community Center, beginning at 8:30 a. m. May 17. Non-Grazing Date Has Been Changed

The State ASC Committee was notified on Wednesday of an additional option that could be used relative to the period of time that grazing could be permitted on cropland acres diverted or to be diverted under the 1969 annual wheat and feed grain programs.

After consulting with county ASC committees in the areas of the state where it is common to graze small grain crops such as wheat, oats, rye and barley, the non-grazing period for annual program diverted acres has been set between the dates of May 14 and October 15 for the following 48 counties:

Armstrong, Baylor, Callahan, Carson, Castro, Childress, Clay, Coke, Collingsworth, Concho, Coryell, Crosby, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Dickens, Donley, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Gray, Hale, Hansford, Hardeman, Hartley; Hemphill, Hutchinson, Jones, King, Knox, Lamb, Lampasas, Lipscomb, McCulloch, Moore, Motley, Ochiltree, Oldham, Potter, Randall, Roberts, San Saba, Shackelford, Sherman, Sterling, Swisher, Throckmorton, Wilbarger and Young.

Earlier, producers had been informed that the non-grazing period for such acres in 1969 would be between the dates of April 30 and October 1.

The non-grazing period for annual program diverted acres for all other counties in Texas remains as announced earlier, between the dates of April 30 and October 1.

Friday And Saturday Scout-O-Rama To Have Top Scout

By EARL MOSELEY Staff Writer

Scout-O-Rama and rodeo to be held in the Tri-State Fair Coliseum at Amarillo Friday and Saturday will have Alden G. Barber, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America, as its guest, according to District Scout Executive George Ochs.

The three rodeo performances and two Scout-O-Rama shows, which will also include the livestock buildings in the fair grounds, will have Jim Shoulders as guest star. Shoulders is holder of 16 world champion rodeo titles, was five times World Champion All-round Cowboy, seven times World Champion Bull Rider, and four times World Champion Bareback Bronc Rider. Performances are set to begin at 7:30 p. m. Friday and 1:30 and 7:30 Saturday (with the matinee free for all Scouts).

Scout-O-Rama will consist of demonstration booths conducted by each pack, troop and post in the Llano Estacado Council.

Reported as the first combination Scout-O-Rama and rodeo ever presented, it is jointly sponsored by the American Junior Rodeo Association and the Boy Scouts of America.

Barber assumed the post of Chief Scout Executive on Oct. 1, 1967. He heads an organization dealing with 6,058,508 boys and adult leader members in 169,451 Scout units in more than 95,000 chartered institutions.

Born and educated in Chico, Calif., he is an Eagle Scout and has served as an assistant Scoutmaster and a summer camp staff leader.

He attended Chico State College in Chico, Calif. After four

Measles Vaccine Today

The measles immunization clinic is scheduled today, from 2:30 to 5 p. m. in the Hereford High School cafeteria at 700 Union, according to committee chairman Mrs. Larry Dobbs.

Measles vaccine is free, Mrs. Dobbs stressed. However, it is not considered charity. Contributions will be accepted.

But the main point is to have the child vaccinated, she stressed. However, it is only made available for children of all origins who reside in Deaf Smith County.

The child does not have to be preregistered for the vaccine. However, the child must be accompanied by his parents. If the child is under a doctor's care, the doctor's permission (merely go by his office) must be secured.

Sponsors are Young Homemakers and Young Mothers clubs.

Tornado Tests Set For Monday

Terry Hale, City Fire Marshal, announced that the city will be testing its tornado warning whistles Monday to determine if they are in proper working order.

Tests will be run beginning at 10 a. m. and Hale pointed out that if any faults are found in them, the testing might run as long as two hours, depending on the nature of the fault.

All city residents are asked to cooperate with the tests.

Local Schools Rate High At Industrial Arts Fair

By MARSHALL DAY Staff Writer

At the West Texas State University Industrial Arts Student Fair held in Canyon last weekend, Hereford High School, Stanton and La Plata Junior High Schools, wound up with numerous top awards in competition against schools from throughout the Panhandle.

Hereford High School tied for first runner-up in the fair in total points while Stanton swept the junior high championships and La Plata took second in the same division.

This was the first time in the history of the junior high division that a Hereford school has taken the top honors.

Manuel Gallegos and Ross Baird won division plaques in Research with their small engine dynamometer and David Campos took another plaque in Power Mechanics with his lawn mower engine overhaul. Robert Gordon, Jeff Massie and Larry Kuper, with their flying saucer, captured the Model Division honors and David Jesko won the division plaque in Foundry.

Getting first place ribbons for the high school were Campos, Gallegos, Gordon, Jesko and Kay Euler in Ceramics. Second place ribbons were won by Kevin Patton, with his cross bow; Steve Jones, Power Mechanics; Gary Goheen, Metals written test; Pat Brinkman, Woodwork; Linda House, Ceramics and Roy Reinart, Metals.

Third place ribbons went to Harold Schmucker, Woodwork; Francisco Perez, Metals; David Cupell, Power Mechanics, Larry Kuper, Blued Gun; Pat Brinkman, Metals Written test; Sam Haschke, Metals; and Schmucker, Woodwork.

Stanton's winning combination resulted from entries by six youths who won first place honors and one that took a second.

FBN Director To Speak Here

Jason Hand, director of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs for a number of years, will speak in Hereford at the First Baptist Church at 9:45 a. m. Sunday for junior and high school-aged young people and at 3 p. m. to parents of teenagers.

On Monday, Hand is scheduled to speak in general assembly at Hereford High School, and Stanton and La Plata junior highs.

Rev. Gerald Mann, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has issued an invitation to all people in the area to hear Hand speak on the subject of various forms of narcotics which have recently been taken into practice by some young people in many areas of the nation.

Rev. Mann stated that the narcotics director "will explode the myth that marijuana will not hurt you."

Bond Election Set

County commissioners agreed Wednesday afternoon to set the Deaf Smith County Hospital bond issue election date as May 20 and announced that, upon passage, taxes would be increased approximately 7 per cent here.

County tax assessor-collector Nell Miller reported that 1,332 persons had signed petitions here for the $500,000 bond election and an incomplete count showed that more than ten per cent of them were qualified voters.

Hospital administrator T. E. Seigler reported earlier that there is a definite need for the new addition at this time, due to overcrowding. Bob Davis of Columbian Securities Corp. of Amarillo, present at the Wednesday meeting, stated that the sooner the election is called the better "because of the rising construction costs. It will definitely cost them more later in view of rising union labor wages and materials prices throughout the country."

However, the hospital addition bond issue will represent about 7 cents per dollar more than the voter's current tax payments, David reported. Moreover, it will mark the first of three bond issues in Hereford during the past ten months that has asked for a raise in taxes.

Richard Guynes took first in Woodworking and was Division winner in General Shop while Jesse Escamilla was first in Silkscreen Printing and first in General Shop Electricity. He was also Division winner in Graphic Arts.

Tommy Petty carried off first in Woodworking examination and was division winner for woodworking examination. Gordon Gearn, with his project in General Shop Power Mechanics, took another first for Stanton.

First was also taken by Allen Lemons in Recreational Weapons while Tommy Koelzer was second in Woodworking examination and Blanche Torres was first in General Shop Metal.

La Plata, who finished second in the overall junior high division with 55 points as compared to Stanton's 6, collected three firsts, three seconds and four thirds in the fair.

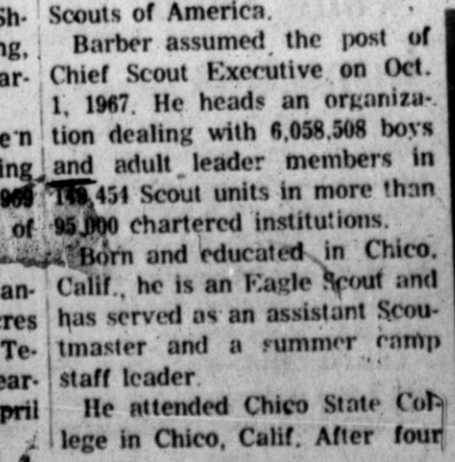

Paul Rudd was first in Woodcraft with his project gun plaque; Robert Newso mwas first in Metal Work; and Owen Dull was first in Metal Work, examination. Taking seconds were Ruben McGilvary, woodworking; Ricky Locke, drafting and Wayne Koenig, Metal Werk examination.

Koenig also took a third in Metal Project and Ronald Johnson was third in Woodcarving. Also getting third place ribbons were Ricky Goodwin, Woodwork and Jerry Eaton, Metal examination.

Accompanying the representatives were Harvey Penner high school; Steve Thomas, Stanton and P. M. Miller, La Plata.

BRAKE FAILURE — An estimated $550 damage was reported to the box office of the Star Theatre Monday night. A car driven by Bill Amaro, 606 W. 2nd St. attempted to park in front of the theatre when his brakes failed, causing the accident. Amaro then backed the car to W. 3rd St., jumped the curb and struck the Ben Franklin Store, a block away. —Staff Photo

Charley's Aunt To Be Staged Friday, Saturday By Players

Curtain time is 8 p. m. for Friday and Saturday performances of the comedy, Charley's Aunt, by Hereford Community Players at LaPlata School auditorium. Tickets are on sale by members, and may be bought at the box office on play nights.

Settings and costumes of the turn-of-the-century era have been provided to add to the flavor of the vintage-comedy, which was first produced back in the 1890's and in recent years has enjoyed a revival of popularity in numerous amateur and professional performances. A few years ago it was a hit as a stage musical and also in the movie version with Jack Benny starred.

Written by Brandon Thomas, the play is set in students' rooms of Oxford University, and the plot involves three students in a scheme to have one masquerade as the elderly aunt of another, to chaperone a tea for young lady visitors.

Appearance of two men who pursue the "aunt" with designs of marrying her for her supposed fortune, then entrance of the real aunt and a girl admired by the supposed aunt, complicate the action.

John Gilliland and Bessie Wood are directing; John Claypool and Dale Moore are in charge of staging and lighting. Joyce Haug as costumes chairman has made many of the dresses to be worn by women in the cast.

Lucy Cooley made posters to advertise the show; Alice Gilliland and Sue Coleman have worked on publicity. Work on sets has been done by Mary Howard, Amy Gilliland and cast members.

Included in the cast are John Murdock, Rodney Laubhan, Gilliland, Deborah Baker, Carole Byers, Lorene Johnson, Viola Moore, Ed Schroeter, Bill McDonald, Chick Holbert and Fred Howard.

During 11 years as football coach at Notre Dame, Frank Leahy's teams compiled an 87-11-9 record.

Kim Oswalt Is Our Little Miss

Kim Oswalt, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Oswalt, won the title of Our Little Miss at Hereford's first Our Little Miss Pageant. She won the title Saturday night at the high school auditorium with the song, I Must Have Been Out of My Mind, as her talent number.

First and second runners-up were Patricia Hendon and Melinda Watts.

Dee Anne Caison, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Caison, was the talent winner playing Chinatown, Blue Hawaii and San Antonio Rose on the organ.

The title of Miss La Petite was given to Holly Veigel, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Veigel. First and second runners up in this group were Cindy Gay Hodges and Tammy Verschelde.

Directed by Rosalind Rush, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Rush, Our Little Miss Pageant was really a parade of beauty for 30 Hereford children.

There were 11 participants in the Our Little Miss Pageant, 7 to 12 age group, and 19 in the La Petite pageant, 3 to 6 age group.

Out-of-town judges included Dudley Layne, Stuart Sebastian and Miss Becky Holcomb from Fort Worth and Miss Peggy Matlock from Abilene.

Mike Kemp, a senior student at Hereford High School, was the lighting technician.

Kim, Dee Ann and Holly are now eligible to compete in the stage pageant to be held in Irving in June.

DRESSED FOR STAGE — Top-hatted Ed Schroeter, with a dressed-up lady on each arm, strikes a pose on the stage of La Plata School where Hereford Community Players will present the comedy, Charley's Aunt.

Jim Cramer Is Trophy Winner

Jim Cramer, president of the Hereford Gun Club, was the winner of the all-round trophy shoot held at the gun club range last Sunday.

Cramer hit 45 of 50 birds for first place honors while C. J. Lance and Sam Lesley tied for second with 38 of 50. Paul Lyons and Joe Lyons were tied for third with 37 of 50 birds.

The Crazy Quail trophy was also won by Cramer as he hit 10 out of a possible 10 against 19 other shooters.

This Sunday Paul Lyons will defend his Quail Walk trophy in another shoot. All interested persons are invited to attend the shoot and participate if they wish.

Any shooter who wins the trophy three times in a row will keep it permanently. Entry fee for the shoot will be five dollars. Cold drinks and shotgun shells are available at the Club House, according to Jim Lassiter, Hereford Gun Club secretary.

Wynn Alex Buck Wins Fellowship

Wynn Alex Buck, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Buck, 310 Union in Hereford has been awarded the Thomas W. Folbre Junior Memorial Fellowship at Austin College in Sherman, Tex. The $400 fellowship is awarded to history students after their junior year as an outstanding history student.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

That white stuff floating thickly in the air these days isn't snow, Jasper, even if it does drift down with the breeze and lie in drifts on the ground.

ALL GOOD WEST Texans recognize those flakes as Chinese elm blossoms, dried, each with a little seed from which a small Chinese elm tree is likely to sprout up in the summer and have to be pulled out of a flower bed. The crop surely is a good one this year.

ANOTHER horticultural note: Two tulip blossom stems which are quite unusual were on display at the First National Bank Tuesday—after Charlie Holt brought them in.

The red flowers were blooming, four on each stem. Usually tulips have one blossom to the stem, so these are in the nature of quadruplet bulbs. Holt told some of the flower-loving employees at the bank that the tulips were grown from bulbs bought from women of Pioneer Study Club, who sell them each year as a money-raising project for the club.

SPEAKING OF Pioneer Club bulb sales reminds me of Ann McCullough, who is chairman of that project and a mighty good salesman. But I saw her Tuesday in another role, as guest at the County Federation luncheon, where she introduced her sister-in-law, Mrs. John McCullough, a visitor from Arizona, as an out-of-town luncheon guest.

DEE ANN Caison, one of the young piano students on the luncheon program, was dressed just right for her appearance, in a tucked and lacy pale pink dress, matched by pink slippers tied with big ribbon bows.

Family Musical Groups To Appear In Program

At the beginning of National Music Week, a Sunday afternoon program will be sponsored by the Dawn Musettes, junior music club of that community, at Dawn Baptist Church. The public is invited at 3 p. m.

Other piano numbers will be by Sylvia and Mark Betzen, Mrs. Lester English and son Paul, Mrs. Lester English and Rhonda, Cristi and Mary Husmann, Mrs. Eldon Owens and Terry, Mrs. Pat Miller and Melissa, Mrs. R. T. Stewart and Bette.

Mrs. Stewart will accompany her son, Jerry, as he sings. The Brillhart brothers, Denny and Danny, will sing a duet. A flute solo will be contributed by Cathy Carter, and organ and piano duo by Mrs. Carl Wimberley and Mrs. Stewart.

Polan To Become Army Instructor

Army Pvt. First Class Glen Ray Polan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Polan of 119 Kingwood, has been assigned to Fort Sill at Lawton, Okla., as an instructor in the missile field following his tour of duty in Vietnam.

During his Vietnam tour, he received two Purple Hearts for wounds received in connection with combat against a hostile force. His mother reported that he received shrapnel wounds to the face in one instance.

He has also been credited with saving a number of lives during action there. His second Purple Heart was awarded with a gold cluster by the 25th Infantry Division. Polan served with Company C, First Battalion, Fifth Infantry.

While living at Dawn, Polan was extremely active in 4-H Club work, where he received a number of championship ribbons. He attended the 4-H Club Electrical Camp at Cloudcroft, N. M. and served as host at the National 4-H Club Convention one year at Amarillo. A Leadership Workshop certificate was awarded him in 1968 from Texas A&M University and he was recipient of an Outstanding Citizenship certificate from the Deaf Smith-Oldham County Farm Bureau.

Glen and his brother raised 22 calves as a 4-H project at one time. "They made a profit on them when the cattle market was low," their mother said.

Polan also participated in a number of public speaking events and won awards. He has a second place trophy from the Optimist Oratorical Contest. His mother said that he had taken voice lessons.

He had also been instructed in the piano and was a member of the Dawn Musettes. He had received two superior and one excellent rating in music festivals.

Now nineteen years old, he was born at Dumas and attended Hereford High School.

Pvt. Polan entered the service in February 1968. After completing his basic training at Fort Bliss near El Paso, Texas, he was transferred to Fort Benning, Georgia. He was shipped to Vietnam in June 1968.

Church Women Go To Dimmitt For Meetings

A trip to Dimmitt for their latest meeting was made by the Mission Crusaders of the Hereford Church of the Nazarene. They met in the home of Mrs. Leon Gilliland of that city. Preceding that session, they visited a nursing home in Dimmitt and presented a program of songs, devotional talk and prayers.

In Mrs. Gilliland's home gifts were exchanged by secret pals, and refreshments were served during a period of informal visiting.

Martin's Film Set To Open

"The Battle of Britain," the Harry Saltzman production which Hereford Flying and Agricultural Service owner Gerald Martin went on location in Spain for an appearance as a German pilot last year, is finally set for release in the United States.

United Artists Corporation has announced simultaneous openings of the $9,600,000-budgeted picture in nearly every major U. S. city on October 22.

However, there is no set date as yet as to when the picture will be booked for showings in Hereford. United Artists plans to show it on extended engagements in the larger cities prior to making it available to the smaller ones. The theater nearest Hereford to have been selected for a playdate at this time is the Majestic Theatre in downtown Dallas.

"The Battle of Britain" was produced by S. Benjamin Fisz and directed in Panavision and Technicolor by Guy Hamilton. It stars Sir Laurence Olivier, Sir Ralph Richardson, Michael Caine, Kenneth More, Trevor Howard, Susannah York, and several other top British film personalities.

Actually, all scenes in which Martin and his fellow "colonels" in the Confederate Air Force appeared were filmed prior to the time the stars were signed for the picture. Martin returned to Hereford a year ago.

Listed as one of the all-time big-budget English-made films, it concerns a time in their history when the German air raids upon Great Britain were devastating, to a point where the Royal Air Force turned the tide in 1940 — prior to the entrance of the United States into World War II.

Martin said the film's producers went to great effort and expense to keep the production complete.

He said that he had no definite plans at this moment toward seeing the finished picture — but he certainly planned to do so.

ELECTED BY MON AMIS — Officers for next season in Mon Amis Study Club were chosen recently, and will be installed at a social meeting in May. Mrs. Dale Christie, seated left, was chosen president. Others seated are Mrs. Richard Sims, vice president, and Mrs. J. D. Greeson, who with Mrs. Jack White, standing left, is on the telephone committee. Mrs. David Hutchins, center back, is historian. Not pictured are Mrs. Raymond Wiley, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Roy Bodkin, this year's president who will serve as parliamentarian.

Season Closes For Federation

The spring fine arts program of Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs, closing a year for the organization; was given at a luncheon in Community Center Tuesday.

Theme of the program was "A Time to Look and Listen." Visual aspects were emphasized in a display of work by members of the Ceramic Arts Club, and in arrangements of spring flowers by Mrs. R. L. Ethridge of Hereford Garden Club.

Music was by two young piano students and members of Music Study Club. Mrs. W. S. Fisher was in charge of arrangements for this section of the program. A vocal ensemble from the club presented "Four Sacred Songs of the Night," composed by Dr. Houston Bright of West Texas State University.

An aria from Puccini's opera, Manon Lescaut, was sung by Mrs. R. C. Godwin with Mrs. D. W. Palmer as accompanist. Dee Ann Caison's piano solos were Puck, Scherzo and Rondo, and Kevin Young played two selections, Autumn Leaves and Galloping Comedians.

Mrs. Sam Morgan, president of Ceramic Arts Club, and a group of members presented small ceramic pieces as favors to luncheon guests. Tables were ranged down one side of the room to hold the exhibit of ceramics for inspection before and after the meal.

Mrs. W. T. Carmichael presided for business. The group voted to replace dishes at Community Center, to maintain the service of 100 pieces, also to investigate other possible needs for building maintenance, a project of the Federation.

The Federation will meet next in September.

The So-Anga-Ta-Ha campfire group will sponsor a garage sale Saturday and Sunday at 416 Ave. 1.

The sale will run from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday will run from 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward a group trip.

HOW DO YOU measure UP?

All through life we are being measured and we wish people would use longer rules. But maybe the amount of quality they find don't justify a longer rule. Ancient men found 613 rules in the Bible to measure by. Moses gave us the Ten Commandments; Jesus provided the Beatitudes; others suggest St. Paul's ideal principle of love, but still others chose ideal persons to measure by; George Washington, Abraham Lincoln or Helen Keller.

But someone has well said, "a man measures tallest when he stoops to touch the life of a child." Jesus said we must become as little children. Surely, He is our best example to measure by.

District H.D. Meeting To Come Here In 1970

Hereford will be host to the 1970 convention of District I, Texas Home Demonstration Association, it was announced at the meeting of Deaf Smith County H. D. Council Monday afternoon in the county courtroom. The district comprises H. D. Clubs of the 21 Panhandle counties and its annual convention is held around April 1 of each year. The 1969 convention was in Amarillo March 26; a large group of delegates and visitors went from Deaf Smith County to present its invitation for the next meeting. Mrs. N. A. Brown, County THDA chairman, read the letter Monday announcing the selection of this city as the convention site. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. J. G. Gandy, County H. D. Council chairman, will be in charge of plans for entertaining the scores of Panhandle H. D. club women who are expected to attend.

Mary Brady and Mrs. Carl Schroeder, West Hereford; Mrs. Wayne Sifford, Mrs. C. F. Homfeld and Mrs. Jimmie D. Bradley, Bippus; Mrs. Roger Williams and Mrs. Paul Hoff, North Hereford; Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent.

Organ-Piano Pupils Play In Recital

Mrs. Bill Brady presented two groups of piano and organ students in recital Sunday afternoon in First Baptist Church. A varied program of selections from the classics, folk and popular tunes were performed as solos and ensembles.

Participating in the first group were Dana Hutchins, Barbara Brumley, Jana Wiley, Jeff Hampton, Jeff Wiley, Margaret Brumley, Nickie Stipe, Jeannie Hair, James Ricketts, Linda Dickenson, Rhonda Holbert, Beverly Willis, Nelda Norton and Sandra Willis.

Those who performed in the other recital were Wayne Woolsey, Karen Fox, Horace Gomez, Jamie Oakes, Sina Sims, Jeanine Jobe, Kevin Fox, Joe Priddy, Ted Diefel, Roy Watson, Mary Oakes, Teresa Oakes and Lynn Gay Wiley.

Boren and her fiance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Dutton. Hostesses for the shower were Mmes. Bill Ott, Joe Hy-singer, Bill Hutson, Davis Sawyer, Dale Hallows, Jack Williams, Ray Simpson, Bill Roberts, Clifton Robison, Clifford Hutson, Ted Royal, Clancy Worthan and Jack Coleman. The couple plans a June 13 wedding.

Miss Boren Is Honoree

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Teresa Boren, bride-elect of Bill Dutton, was held Saturday evening in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

Punch and cake were served from a table covered with white and decorated with blue flowers.

Miss Boren was joined in the receiving line by Mr. Dutton, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred

National FMC Reports Heard

Reports from the National Federation of Music Clubs' convention, which they attended last week in Albuquerque, were given to Music Study Club Monday afternoon by Mrs. R. C. Godwin, president, and Mrs. A. O. Thompson, a member who is on the state board of Texas Federation of Music Clubs.

The two Hereford women took advantage of the unusual opportunity to attend a national meeting in a nearby state, and brought interesting reports of its activity to their home club, which met in Mrs. J. R. Allison's home.

A guest welcomed by the club, Mrs. Charles Pollock of Fargo, N. D., was on her way home after the Albuquerque convention. She is the house guest of Mrs. Dolson Palmer, Music Study Club member who is a former resident of North Dakota, a friend of Mrs. Pollock, who is now president of the North Dakota Federation of Music Clubs.

Barrett of Pittsburgh, Penn., who is visiting here in the home of her brother, J. C. McCracken, and was Mrs. McCracken's guest at the meeting.

Featured on the musical program was a young guest, Angela Grubbs, who played two piano compositions of Chopin, Nocturne in E Minor and Waltz. Mrs. A. J. Schroeter at the piano and Mrs. Keeling at the organ, played another selection by the famed Polish composer, Val-se Brillante.

The entire club sang the hymn of the month, Beneath the Cross of Jesus, with Mrs. McCracken as accompanist. Mrs. W. S. Fisher was in charge of the program.

It closed the season's series of study. The year will end at the annual installation lunch in the Caisson House May 12.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Allison and Mrs. Billy Penn to 21 members and the guests.

sits for household help should be made by April 30. Anyone who paid an employee cash wages of $50 or more for household help during the past calendar quarter (January, February, March) is responsible for reporting these payments to IRS on Form 942 and paying the tax due.

Q — On my 1968 return the surcharge is shown as 7 1/2 percent, although I've heard it referred to as a 10 percent surtax. What is that?

A — Although the surcharge is generally described as a 10 percent tax, the law did not become effective until April 1, 1968. The law therefore provided for a 7 1/2 percent surcharge on the tax based on all of the 1968 income, rather than a 10 percent surcharge for April through December 1968.

Q — I'm considering a job overseas. If I take it will I have to pay U. S. income tax?

A — Income earned overseas by civilian or military employees of the U. S. government is fully taxable. Those who work for a private concern overseas may be able to exclude all or part of their income from U. S. tax.

Circus Lingo; Definitions By Ringling & Co.

Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus are bringing their "Greatest Show on Earth" to Amarillo Friday through Monday, May 9-12. But Ringling Brothers' executives are of the opinion that first-time backstage visitors would have quite a time understanding what is being said — if they had the opportunity to see the show from that angle. Circus personnel have a lingo all their own, they maintain. For those who might get backstage privileges, here are definitions of some of the dialog they might hear:

Spec: The major production number, complete with performers, animals and flojis, which closes the first part of the circus.

Pie car: The dining car on the circus' private train.

Web girl: One of the young ladies who performs in the aerial ballet. They work on what's called a Spanish web, hence their moniker.

Ringstock: Horses that are used in the show. In the old days, horses that didn't perform but which labored around the lot were "workstock."

Cats: Lions, tigers, leopards. They work in the "cat act," directed by the "catman."

Cherry pie: Extra work for which any personnel is not contracted.

Runs: The railroad siding where the circus train is spotted.

Double-trap: Any trapeze act that involves two performers.

Doors: The cry that goes up a few minutes before the general public is let into the arena.

Bulls: Although almost every circus elephant is female, they are called bulls. Their handlers are called "bull men."

Crumb box: A wooden box

where a man keeps his clothes, personal possessions and tools.
Bally broads: Girls who appear in circus production numbers.
Menage: The horses or elephant production number.
First of May: A beginner in the circus world.
Blow-off: Grand finale.
Liberty Act: A precision drill using a ring of beautiful horses.
Risley: An act in which an acrobat uses his feet to juggle objects or people.
Top spot: To stand near any dangerous performance.
Mechanic: A wide leather belt attached to a high pulley, and worn by performers during the perfection of a difficult trick.
Backyard: Any area of the arena that is behind the scenes.
Cut-up jackpots: To sit around and discuss "the good old days."
Walkaround: A clown number when they all get together and display their individual routines in the hippodrome track.
Workingmen: Riggers, property men, and other workers who keep the show on the road.
Windjammers: The circus band.
Joey: A circus clown.

Constitutional Amendments Ready For August 5 Ballot

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Nine proposed constitutional amendments, headed by a recommended boost in the welfare ceiling from $60 million to $80 million and a $3.5 billion water bond proposition, are ready for an August 5 ballot.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. supervised drawing to determine ballot positions as soon as the legislature cleared the measures.

Here are the amendments as they will appear on the ballot:

HJR 3 — to delete obsolete provisions from the constitution.
HJR 9 — to authorize a $3.5 billion water revenue bond issue for financing the state's share of a $9 billion statewide water plan.

SJR 31 — to raise the present $4,800 a year salary of state legislators to the state-paid maximum level of district judges ($18,000) and give the lieutenant governor and house speaker half the pay of the governor (about $20,000 a year).

SJR 6 — to exempt non-profit water supply corporations from taxation.

SJR 8 — to raise the public welfare outlay limit from $60 million to $80 million a year.

HJR 7 — to raise the constitutional interest rate limit on some state government bonds.

HJR 4 — to provide for assistance payments to survivors of volunteer firemen, police and Texas Youth Council employees killed on duty.

HJR 50 — to authorize an additional $200 million in Texas Opportunity Plan student loans.

HJR 8 — to provide for annual legislative sessions.

Voters last November rejected a raise in the welfare ceiling to $75 million (which has resulted in two cuts in benefit payments) and a hike in lawmaker pay to $8,400 a year.

LEGISLATIVE ACTION — Controversial constitutional amendment to legalize sale of liquor-by-the-drink in Texas has been cleared for statewide vote on November 3, 1970.

House voted 101-44 for submission of the issue approved by the Senate last month.

House passed a bill to comply with the federal law and provide mandatory inspection and regulation of livestock slaughtering housed by the State Department of Health. Bill by Sen. Jim Bates and Rep. Rayford Price already had passed the Senate but since the House added two amendments — to define legally "inedible animal product" — and to allow "over-time fees" for inspections — the bill went back to the Senate for approval of the amendments.

House also completed action on its $5.7 billion budget bill, moving it to conference committee to resolve differences with the Senate's $5.8 billion version. Major interest centers on House riders, including proposed withholding of funds for largely-Negro Texas Southern University Law School and a curb on use of helicopters by Department of Public Safety for traffic policing.

Among other major measures cleared by the legislature were: HB 117, making Texas governmental units (except school districts) liable for damage suits due to negligent acts of personnel; SB 5 and SB 6 permitting criminal misdemeanor prosecution of corporations for air and water pollution.

BILLS When the Supreme Court ruled the existing law on dangerous-drugs out, Rep. Jack Ogg of Houston introduced a bill to ban the use of LSD and hallucogenic drugs. Ogg's bill provides for a jail sentence from 30 days to two years for the use of those drugs — or a fine of up to $3,000.

Approval by Rep. Bill Healy of Paducah would allow students who graduate from an accredited Texas law school and have already gained a bachelor's degree to not have to take the bar exam before practicing. Bill is in a subcommittee of the House State Affairs Committee.

Bill by Rep. Grant Jones of Abilene was given a favorable report by the House Judiciary Committee. It would keep any facts of settlement of a claim from being admitted into evidence in lawsuits involving personal injury damages arising from the same occurrence.

Rep. Carl Parker of Port Arthur has five bills to update and fortify the workmen's compensation laws. Four bills deal with compensation for employees of Texas A&M, Texas Tech and the U of T system. Last deals with municipal employees. All are in subcommittee for further study.

Senate has knocked a farm workers' exemption out of the $1.25 minimum wage bill by Sens. Joe Bernal and Jim Bates. An amendment by Sen. Jack Hightower would have exempted all farm workers except those that do piece work. Bill went to the House.

CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING — Anticipating U. S. Supreme Court orders that Texas must redistrict congressional districts to "mathematical exactness" after that court ordered the state of Missouri to do just that, Governor Preston Smith asked the Legislature to create a 7-man fact-getting committee and present them to the 1971 Legislature. Committee will be headed by Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr. and will include three state senators and three House members.

Governor said he had been assured 1970 federal census statistics would be available in November of 1970 on computer tapes and proposed a committee budget of $225,000 which would include data computer rents.

He reasoned that this preparation would enable the 1971 Legislature to redistrict realistically. In case the state is ordered to redistrict before the 1970 census, Smith said the committee would have current information, ready for legislative use in a special session.

PUBLIC EDUCATION — A survey of public opinion on proposals by the Governor's Committee on Public School Education, including the controversial consolidation recommendation, was made at the request of Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston, and the committee learned that big school districts liked their ideas, but small districts didn't.

Survey showed "substantial support" for the committee proposals among school districts with more than 1,500 enrolled in which more than 82 percent of Texas school children are attending, and some support among school districts with less than 250 children, with less than 4 percent.

Among the 325 responses from school districts of less than 1,500 enrollment, 176 favored consolidation; 142 opposed it, and 7 were neutral; 142 were for a kindergarten program, 168 against, and 15 neutral; 136 for summer schools, 160 against, and 29 neutral; 95 for guaranteed free adult education, 206 against, and 24 neutral.

COURTS SPEAK Third Court of Civil Appeals concluded in an eviction case that a vending machine firm's concession lease at an Austin tavern violated principles of fairness.

Supreme Court, by divided vote, concluded that parents of Fort Worth students who attacked constitutionality of a law banning secret student societies were entitled to hearing.

High court, on third time around, decided to hear the appeal in an Amarillo case that the "reasonable doubt" rule used in criminal trials must also apply in juvenile delinquency proceedings.

Court declined to take another look at a land developer's suit to enjoin the city of Farmer's Branch from holding property rezoning hearings.

OIL ALLOWABLE SOARS Texas Railroad Commission issued its May oil proration order, with the market demand proration factor at 53.8 percent, designed to provide allowables of 3,746,706 barrels a day and estimated actual production of 3,155,762 barrels a day, the highest in a year.

This would be an increase over the April order of 195,612 barrels in allowables and 119,123 barrels of actual production.

APPOINTMENTS Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin ended the controversy over appointments by former Gov. John Connally by holding that three University of Texas regents were properly named on January 10. Governor Smith, who thought the appointments should have been left to him, accepted the ruling.

Smith announced these appointments: "Dr. Charles H. Brown of Wichita Falls, Dr. Emerson Emory of Dallas and Mrs. H. E. Butt Sr. of Corpus Christi (re-appointment) to Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

"C. L. Cooke of Fort Worth and C. Truett Smith of Wylie to Texas Industrial Commission. "Kenneth E. Esmond of Odessa and Dr. John R. Bradford of Lubbock to State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers.

KIWANIS SPEAKER — Steve Gergendi, head of physical education in the public schools of Amarillo, was the guest speaker at the noon meeting of the Kiwanis Club last week. Also on the program was Larry Driver, winner of the recent Boy's Oratorical Contest which he won. —Staff Photo

Don't know if you realize it or not but the Department of Defense runs a school system for the children of servicemen stationed overseas.

In most parts of the world, a soldier going overseas can bring his family along. At present, there are more than 300 elementary and secondary schools in 28 countries including Pakistan, Turkey, Libya, Ethiopia, Japan, the Philippines, the Bahamas, Iceland and Labrador, as well as several nations in Western Europe.

More than 16,000 students are attending classes in these schools. It may not be the biggest school system in numbers but it certainly takes in the largest area.

Public Invited For Unusual CWU Meeting

Parents and other adults interested in youth of this community are invited to the May luncheon of Hereford Church Women United, to be held at 12 noon Friday in The Generation Gap, teen discotheque at 603 E. Park Ave.

A dialogue between young Herefordites and parents, with Charles Frye as moderator, will feature the program which will include music by a local youth band.

Tickets for the luncheon are on sale at McDowell Drug, Harold Close Drug and the six churches affiliated with Church Women United: First Presbyterian, First and Wesley United Methodist, St. Thomas Episcopal, First Christian and St. Anthony's Catholic.

Officers of Church Women United, of which Mrs. John Douglas Pitman is president, and Phil Scumbiato, manager of The Generation Gap, have arranged the special program.

INTELLIGENCE
Looking for a job that is exciting, intriguing and provides plenty of adventure? The Army can offer all of this and more in its military intelligence career program. Qualifications include being a high school graduate or its equivalent, a U. S. citizen with high moral standards, and to have no police record.

Following a number of special tests and basic training, it's on to one of the Army's Intelligence Schools.

Graduates are encouraged to learn a foreign language and also go on for more advanced training. Intelligence specialists, by virtue of their training and experience, can hold important positions in or out of the Army. Call us at 373-4214 in Amarillo or drop by to see us at 205 E. Fifth Ave., Post Office Bldg. Room 322, Amarillo for further information.

FOR THE BIRDS
Flocks of birds on airfield runways can be a serious problem to aviators.

Birds have been known to fly into windshields and propellers or be drawn into the jet intake of aircraft.

However, a private at Hunter Army Airfield in Georgia thinks he has a solution. It occurred to him that birds of prey could be trained to chase harassing birds from the runway and so he submitted a program for training falcons to discourage large gatherings of birds at Hunter.

It's too early to tell if the program will work but the Army Board of Aviation Accident Research is hoping for the best.

Washington Report

From Congressman BOB PRICE 10TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

Dear Friends: Because of the alarming increase in the traffic of obscene materials, I am devoting this newsletter to a review of my efforts in Congress to fight pornography. The following is taken primarily from my remarks on the Floor of the House of Representatives as recorded in the Congressional Record, April 28, 1969.

PORNOGRAPHY
The United States Post Office Department estimates that more than $500 million worth of obscene material is sold to young people through the mail each year. J. Edgar Hoover, the Director of the FBI, warned more than a year ago: "The publication and sale of obscene material is big business in America today. . . It is impossible to estimate the amount of harm to impressionable teenagers and to assess the volume of sex crimes attributable to pornography, but its influence is extensive." FBI statistics show that sexual violence is increasing at an alarming pace, and Mr. Hoover states that pornography in all its forms is a major cause of sex crimes, aberrations, and perversions.

A factor complicating the legislative attempts to deal with the increasing flow of pornography has been the uncertainty in the law caused by the U. S. Supreme Court decisions in the area of antiobscenity legislation. State legislatures do not know, and the U. S. Supreme Court has not stated with certainty what legislative regulations will be upheld.

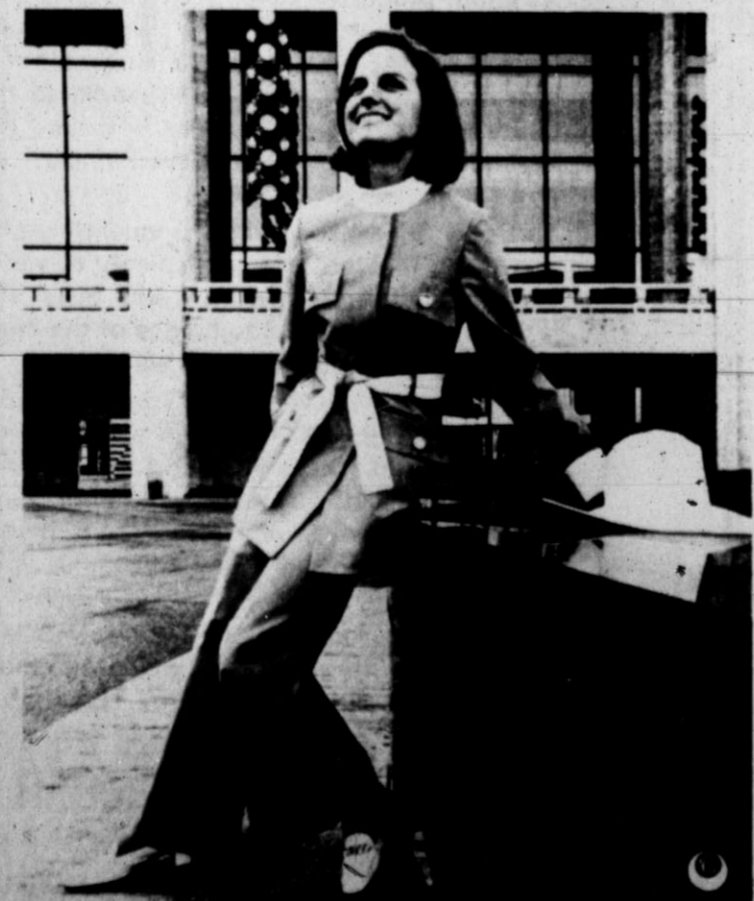

Since obscenity is not protected by the first amendment of the Constitution and since Congress has a responsibility to protect the public interest, I believe there are compelling reasons for Congress to take the initiative and deal with the problem. It is for these reasons that I introduced a bill on Monday, April 28, 1969, to suppress traffic in obscenity, particularly pornographic material that is sent to young people through the mail.

The bill I introduced makes it a Federal crime to disseminate through interstate commerce or the mails obscene matter to minors under the age of eighteen. Moreover, to protect families my bill prohibits the unsolicited mailing of obscene material to people with minor children living with them. Presently, adults are protected under the pandering advertisement statute (39 USC 4009). Under this statute, adult patrons decide for themselves what they consider is necessary for their publications, and legal orders are issued directing the mailer to remove the complaining patron's name from the company's mailing list.

To enforce its provisions, my bill provides a penalty much higher than in similar bills introduced by other Congressmen. A penalty of not less than $1000 nor more than $5000 and imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than five years is provided for the first offense. For each additional offense, the penalty is not less than $3000 nor more than $20,000 and imprisonment for not less than three years nor more than ten years.

My bill would further bar Federal courts from hearing appeals of local jury findings on obscenity cases. Thus, under this provision, if a movie, a theatrical production, or publication were found obscene by a jury under local law, no appeal could be taken to the Federal courts. This provision still retains the right of appeal on questions of law to protect "due process." Moreover, the Congress is clearly within its constitutional powers in so limiting the appellate jurisdiction. Senator Everett Dirksen recently introduced a senate bill containing a similar measure to bar such Federal court appeals.

FUN DAYS AHEAD...

'69 VERSION OF THE PANTSUIT—Maid of Cotton Cathy Muirhead steps out in a sun-bright green pantsuit by Samuel Robert. In cotton canvas, the dashing ensemble is tied at the waist and edged at the neck and cuffs in white leather. Capturing the today look are sidewalk-skimming wide leg pants.

Two Assistants Out, Clark In

Hereford Schools assistant superintendents Roy Hartman and Robert Holman left Tuesday to attend the International Reading Association convention at Kansas City, Mo.

The convention will conclude Saturday.

Superintendent Johnny Clark Jr. returned to his office Monday after completing his tour of schools in Russia and the Scandinavian countries.

I am hopeful that committee action can soon be taken on his proposal so that the youth can be protected from the ever-increasing traffic in obscene materials in this country.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Sister Cooks For Baby

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

No doubt about it, Mom has to pay attention to feeding the baby. She not only has to get his food ready, but she has to see that he downs it.

SO WHILE Mother feeds Baby his daily supper and prepares the rest of the family's meal, what happens to the preschooler who's big enough to have supper later with Daddy and Mother? It's just at this time that the older child is likely to get jealous of the attention Mother has to give Baby; the preschooler wants some solitude, too.

One way to keep everyone happy is to welcome the preschooler into the kitchen around suppertime to do some "grown-up jobs."

One mother we know with a baby boy and a four-year-old daughter lets her older youngster "help" in various ways. The small girl calls this "cooking" and gets a big bang out of doing what Baby Brother obviously can't accomplish. If you try this scheme, keep your own child's particular age and abilities in mind and suggest jobs she is capable of. Here are some tasks a little girl likes to do.

1. TAKE BABY'S pretzels out of the package — a new product for teething toddlers — and "arrange" some for him and herself on a paper plate.

2. Set the table. This means putting on place mats, napkins and silverware.

3. Decorate cookies that are to be baked. If Mother slices a roll of refrigerator dough and has the slices ready on a cookie sheet, small Daughter can sprinkle them with sugar or add a garnish of raisins, nuts or gum drops.

4. PEEL HARD-COOKED eggs. These may be wrapped and refrigerated for use next day.

5. Tear lettuce or other greens for the salad bowl.

6. Crush crackers (plain or graham) with a rolling pin for crumbs for Mother.

7. Make a miniature centerpiece for the dining table.

8. SHAPE hamburgers. After Mother portions out the meat, the preschooler enjoys shaping it into patties.

9. Wash dishes. You'll have to provide a broad-based stool so she can stand in front of the sink. Her washing can consist of sudsing and rinsing such unbreakable "dishes" as metal or plastic measuring spoons and cups and bowls and an egg beater. This will occupy her for a long time because nothing is so much fun as "water work."

10. Get Baby's last course ready. The preschooler will enjoy spooning out a baby-foed treat and probably will want to spoon out some for herself.

Miss Barbara Langley Honored At Luncheon

Miss Barbara Langley, whose marriage to Chris Todd of Lubbock is planned for May 31, was honored with a pre-nuptial luncheon held Saturday at the Country Club.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. J. R. Allison and Mrs. Mack Cansler.

The bride-elect's chosen colors of blue and green were used in the decor of the room. The table was centered with a bouquet of blue carnations and greenery, accented by blue bows. Parasols in colors of green and blue, hung from the ceiling, adding to the motif.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Langley, the honoree chose for the afternoon, a lovely trousseau frock of burnt orange.

Guests for the event included Mmes. John Aikin, Roger Albracht, Dudley Bain, Allen Cansler, Pete Caviness, Ronnie Gray, Elmer Kimball, C. E. Leasure, A. T. Mims, Wayne Thomas, Dale Tinnin, Dan Wall, Glen Williams, Misses Sidney Camille and Carolyn Langley, sisters of the honoree, Mrs. Earnest Langley, mother of the bride-elect and Mrs. D. M. Todd of Lubbock, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

More than a million kangaroos are slaughtered every year. The meat, most of it gamy and coarse, is eaten by people in some countries and by pets in others. The hides make fine glove and boot leather.

BABY WEEK is here, April 26 to May 4, so Big Sister is checking up on Small Brother.

Charges Filed On Dog Owners

Several complaints have been filed on dog owners in Hereford in recent weeks with fines administered at $25. Dogs have been allowed to run loose consistently, according to city police, and the department has urged citizens to keep their dogs contained.

The City ordinance 340 states that a dog must be in a pen, on a leash or under the master's control at all times, according to City Judge Jim Neill. Judge Neill said that fines of up to $200 could be given if so warranted.

Bill Mazerowski of the Pittsburgh Pirates has played 1,866 games at second base, a National League Record.

lieve, be beneficial to the American taxpayers as a whole.

I expect the Congress to give careful consideration to the details of the President's tax reform proposals, and I intend to study these proposals in more detail myself in the immediate future.

As a matter of fact, I am particularly interested, of course, in those proposals which might effect the strength and viability of our great Texas oil industry, which has been so vital to the economy of our state.

I also want to consider in more detail the effect of ending the seven per cent investment tax credit, which President Nixon asked be retroactive to April 21st of this year.

But overall I believe the administration's request for a tax reform is well founded and should gain the general support of the Congress:

Sen. Tower Believes Tax System Reform Is Over

TAXES

I agree with President Nixon's statement this week that reform of our federal income tax system is long overdue.

It seems eminently fair that low income families who are already suffering at a poverty level standard of living, not be required to pay federal income taxes.

Taxes collected from such families merely further reduces the standard of living for those families so that they must receive additional welfare support from government. That additional welfare costs more to provide than it would cost to simply leave money in the hands of the poor and not collect it in the form of taxes.

It is important also to lighten the tax load on our vast majority of middle income families. As President Nixon noted, middle income American families bear too much of the tax burden.

A recent study by the Tax Foundation shows that the average American works 117 days each year to pay his tax obligations to his federal, state and local governments combined. He works 86 of those days to pay taxes, in various forms, to the federal government.

The President's tax message called for reduction of the income tax surcharge to five per cent effective January 1970. This would provide tax relief on a broad basis and would greatly benefit middle income families.

The current 10 per cent surcharge would of course remain in effect through this year. I believe the surcharge will prove to be one of our most effective means of fighting inflation.

Between 1960 and 1968, the cost of living in this nation rose 16 per cent. That means that your dollar last year purchased one-sixth less of the goods and services than the same dollar purchased for you in 1960. It means that if your family income increased over that 8-year period by 16 per cent, your pay raises were exactly keeping pace with the rising cost of living. They were not improving your family's standard of living any at all. Thus it is clear to me that inflation is hurting the average American family far more than will the 10 per cent income tax surcharge for this year. If we can reduce that surcharge to the proposed five per cent in 1970, and use it this year to effectively reduce inflation, then it will prove to be a great benefit for every American family.

The President's tax proposal also would tend to equalize the tax burden by insuring that the wealthy pay some tax.

In 1967, 155 persons who earned more than $200,000 in annual income legally paid no federal income tax. This was possible because the federal tax laws provide — and quite properly provide — tax benefits for certain investments and charitable contributions. These tax benefits are designed to make it more attractive to wealthy persons to make these investments and contributions. And the result of this tax incentive is generally good for our national economy.

The Nixon proposal would not eliminate these tax incentives. But it would set a 50 per cent limit on the amount of income which can be deducted under the existing tax laws.

In other words, a taxpayer earning $200,000 during the year, would only be able to make legal tax deductions up to one half of that $200,000 income. He would pay federal income taxes on the remaining $100,000.

The President's proposal would continue the tax free status for state and municipal bonds. These bonds pay low interest rates, sometimes less than four per cent, and would not be attractive to investors if it were not for their tax free status. Raising the interest rates on these bonds would cost more money to the taxpayers who must provide the revenue to their state and local governments from which the interest on these bonds are paid. I support continued tax free status for state and municipal bonds.

I was pleased to see that President Nixon's tax proposals include no plans to reduce the 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance which is of such vital importance to Texans. I know there were those who were urging a reduction in the oil depletion allowance but President Nixon stood by his campaign pledge to Texans to protect it. The general effect of the President's tax package will, I be-

SUPPORTING YOUR TOWN

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man".

P. S. How many new residents and out of town shoppers saw your name and business today; this week?

3 Local Youths Are Indicted

CANYON - Three Hereford youths were indicted on the charge of rape stemming from an incident which allegedly oc-cured in Amarillo on April 19. Charged in the assault were Juan Pena, 19, Eddie Castillo, 17, and Enemencio F. Barrantez, 17. The three are being held in Randall County jail in lieu of $5,000 bond each. They were among five youths arrested following a high-speed automobile chase in Amarillo on the Saturday in question. When officers stopped the car, a young Amarillo girl reportedly told them that the three youths had raped her as the other two held her.

In court Monday the other two youths entered a plea of guilty to charges of being principals to rape. They were sentenced to two years' probation.

Dinner And Travelogue Given Class

A progressive dinner entertain- ed members of Adult I class of Temple Baptist Sunday School recently, and the evening was climaxed by a showing of slides from African and European countries by Mr. and Mrs. Ger- ald Haak.

Dinner began with appetizers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Moore. Salad was served at the Tommy Crawford's home and the main course at the Wayne Jones'. The finale was dessert at the Don Waters' home.

The Haaks', who taught a year in Benghal, Libya, showed scenes from that and nearby North African countries, as well as from Spain, Germany and Hol- land, where they traveled.

Games of bridge ended the e- vening. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bean were guests, and mem- bers in the party were Mrs. Ja- ne May, Messrs. and Mmes. By- ron Grover, Troy Gandy, Bill Lamm, J. L. Boseman, Gary Price Don Gipeon, Bill McKin- ney, Don Cocanougher, John- ny Holbrooks and the host cou- ples.

Give some people an inch, and they want another inch. Before you know it, they've become rulers.

Bore: a man who spends so much time talking about himself that you can't talk about yourself.

Our pioneer forefathers wouldn't set off across the continent unarmed. Today's families wouldn't start the same trip without their credit cards.

They're only half serious about getting married. She is and he isn't.

Livestock Premium List Ready In May

DALLAS — A grand total of $103,313 in livestock premiums will be waiting for senior and junior exhibitors at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas next October 4 through 19, Ray W. Wilson, State Fair livestock manager, has announced.

"The total is $1,495 higher than that of 1968. It provides $76,608 for the Pan-American Livestock Exposition, October 4-12, and $26,705 for the Junior Livestock Show, October 13-18," Wilson said.

Pan-American's beef cattle show, October 4-7, will offer $43,400 in premiums to exhibitors of nine breeds — angus $7,500, Brahman $6,000, Brangus $3,000, Charolais $4,000, Hereford $10,000, Polled Hereford $6,000, Red Angus $1,400, Santa Gertrudis $3,000 and Shorthorn $2,500.

In the dairy cattle show judging, October 9-12, four breeds will compete for $19,700 in premiums — Brown Swiss for $4,000, Guernsey $4,000, Holstein $6,700 and Jersey for $5,000.

The breeding swine show, October 4-12, will offer $6,500 in premiums for seven breeds — Berkshire, Chester White, Duroc, Hampshire, Poland China, Spots and Yorkshire. Premiums will be awarded on a sliding scale in individual and group classes, with $455 allotted for Pan-American's annual Quality Pork Contest.

In the sheep and goat shows, October 4-12, $6,358 in premiums will be offered to seven breeds — junior Delaine and Rambouillet sheep $548 each, senior Delaine and Rambouillet sheep $696 each, Columbia and Hampshir sheep $696 each, Southdown sheep $761, Suffolk sheep $921 and Angora goats $796.

Premiums offered in the Junior Livestock Show include $3,200 for dairy heifers, $1,475 beef heifers, $9,060 junior steers, $3,775 barrows, $3,750 lambs and $445 to exhibit awards.

KFDA-TV Sets Beet Program

A documentary type farm program of special interest to beet farmers in the area will be broadcast May 6 at 9:30 p. m. on KFDA-TV by the Hesston Corporation, Hesston, Kan. in cooperation with B&B Oliver Company of Hereford. Entitled "Special Crop Report — Sugar Beets '69", the half hour program compares beet acreages, harvest methods and machinery in six major beet producing areas of the United States, including this one. Along with the film from the various areas, the program will feature an interview with James Lott, a representative of this area for the sponsoring company.
