Father And Son Awarded Sportsmanship Plaques

Al Lee

Serving
the Magic Triangle

Close father and son relationships are seldom seen today with the different time schedules people have to cope with, but some still exist.

Al Lee and son James of 706 Cherokee Drive are two of these few who are engaged with their hobby of horse showing and riding which they do the year round.

Besides sharing in participation they now share the Sportsmanship-Citizenship Award they were presented last Saturday at the district club meeting at the Rolling Hills Riding Club in Amarillo. Al was awarded the Senior Men's plaque while James received the intermediate boys plaque, both for district II of the American Association of Sheriff Posses and Riders Clubs. They were named this by being judged highest in their sportsmanship conduct in riding events for the year.

The Lees have lived in Hereford for the past fourteen years. During this time they have competed off and on in various horse shows and playdays events. When not showing horses Al is found busy working with the local Soil and Water Conservation Service.

According to Lee, he and his son were chosen by a committee appointed by the president of district II out of a possible number of 60-70 contestants in each category. He said, "Each year this committee selects a male and female for the Sportsmanship-Citizenship Award in the groups divided as senior, intermediate, junior, and pee wee.

Lee said that he and his son do not compete in rodeos, only playdays events and pony express races. They like the playdays and express races better because, as he put it, "A man and animal are not competing against one another but together against other men and animals."

There are approximately nine national association approved playday games in the United States today, he explained. With only this many they cannot be held very often.

Pony Express races occur more often in the year, depending on the teams, Lee said that these races are a type game that a lot of teams are needed to participate. They are sometimes held as a special attraction at rodeos, but more often special Pony Express Tournaments where they will sometimes have what is called a round robin. This is when each team participating competes with every other team.

James, a senior at Hereford High School, claims he's been steadily riding horses for about eight years. He is a member of the Hereford Riding Club, as is his father, and participates in about nine events. They include riding the barrels, poles, flags, potato race, rings, wagon race, baton relay, ribbon race, and the key hole.

Last year James was selected all-around intermediate boy. He won this by receiving five of the six plaques given to this age group of boys for the year. A plaque represents winning the all-around contestant for that day.

Entering his horses in shows have been James' biggest success with his animals. Two years ago he participated in the Vega Youth show, entering three horses. He placed first in the poles and sixth in reining. This same year he traveled to Ft. Worth, where he came out ninth in halter and guidings in heavy competition.

At the Amarillo Tri-State Fair, James entered one horse which received a sixth rating in reining. He pointed out that this was the largest youth show ever held in the United States.

In his playday experiences, he has represented district II at the National Finals in Ft. Worth. In this 1968 event he placed a second and fifth in rings and potato race.

James has served his 4-H horse club in the past as president for two years and secretary for two.

Outside of 4-H and his riding activities, James has been a member of the Hereford Whiteface marching band.

James' future plans include attending West Texas State University and striving to be a dentist.

Commissioners Ok Sale, Resignation

County commissioners, in their regular meeting Monday, acted on two issues brought before them, one being the putting up for sale of county property and the other the acceptance of the resignation of Wayne Thomas from the local hospital board.

The commissioners, following a lengthy discussion, decided to put the county land located on west Highway 60 up for sale. The land, which the county deduced to the U. S. Highway Department in June 1940 for "use and benefit of the State Highway Department, for the purpose of buildings, maintaining and carrying on a warehouse, storage depot, and offices, used in connection with and for the purpose of maintaining building, and caring for State Highway's of state of Texas, only."

The land to be put up for sale will be Lots, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, and 73 and the portions of Lots 74 and 75 of Higgins Subdivision, Block 9, Womble Addition to the town of Hereford, not lying within the right of way of U. S. Highway 60.

Commissioners elected to appoint a commissioner to handle the sale of the land.

In a letter to the county court from T. E. Seigler, Deaf Smith County Hospital administrator, it was reported that Wayne Thomas, Hereford attorney with Witherspoon-Aiken-Thomas & Langley law firm, had asked to be relieved from his duties as a member of the Board of Managers of the local hospital after his term expires on December 31 of this year.

In his letter to the court, Seigler stated that he could see why Thomas "would ask for relief at this time. His recent appointment by Governor Preston Smith to the State College Coordinating Board is another in a long list of Boards, Committees, etc. that he is being asked to serve on and has served on. There is a limit to which any man can stretch himself in serving his fellow man and still have time left to make a living for his family."

Thomas was first appointed to the Board of Managers on January 1, 1954 and has served as a member since that time. It was during 1956-67, the year he served as president of the board, that the community-wide drive for funds to match the Jim Hill Estate offer to build a children's wing was successful. The drive was successful to the point that a $130,000 wing with no cost to the county or taxpayers was constructed.

Also during Thomas' term as president of the board, the local hospital became the first county hospital for a town this size in the Panhandle to become accredited.

Thomas was just last week appointed to the state College Coordinating Board.

The commissioners expressed their deep regret in accepting the resignation of Thomas.

Deposits Are Up

Total bank deposits for the two local institutions at the close of business October 21 showed a total of $35,519,464.77 in deposits with the Hereford State Bank boasting $11,211,878.91 of this and the First National, $24,307,585.86.

This combined total is up almost $4-million over the June 30 call this year of $31,425,696.74, and some $3,204,634.24 over the October call for 1968. The call at that time indicated that the combined total of the two banks was $32,314,830.52.

Resources at Hereford State Bank as of October 21 totaled $12,316,487.22 with deposits reaching $11,211,878.91. At the First National Bank of Hereford, deposits amounted to $24,307,585.86 and total resources were $27,422,243.82.

This total deposits is more than $2-million under the record high in deposits registered during the state and federal bank call at the end of 1968. The total then hit its peak at $38,172,573.21 as of December 31, 1968.

In October of 1968, the First National Bank showed deposits of $23,061,702.92 and resources were to $25,259,592.00, taking this year's total considerably higher than last.

At the Hereford State Bank, deposits were listed, in the October, 1968 call, at $9,253,127.60 and total resources at $10,270,977.78.

End, Back Named Players Of Week

A speedy 158-pound and a 194-pound defensive back were named players of the week for the 13-0 win over the Canyon Eagles last week.

Mark "Woody" Woodward, the Whiteface senior end, took offensive tokens for the game with his two receptions from quarterback Mike Warton for 67 total yards. One reception, which covered 47 yards on a first down play, was hauled in by Woodward for the first Hereford touchdown which broke open the game.

His other reception, for 20 yards, netted the locals a first down.

Dearing, another senior Whiteface, was over par as usual in a Hereford-Canyon game, getting eight unassisted tackles in leading the defensive unit. This marked the second year in a row that Dearing was the big boss in the Canyon game.

Besides nailing the runners and receivers, Dearing was credited with several downfield blocks on punt returns for the Whitefaces.

IT HAD TO COME — For centuries men have been fighting drought but as it appears now rain will be the future foe. For a couple of weeks off and on periods of rain have hit the area. Rainfall content for last week was reported at two and 14 one hundredths inches while thus far this week there has been 75 one hundredths of an inch. —Staff Photo

Herd Seeking Repeat Of '68 Ranger Game

By JERRY ODOM
Staff Writer

One year ago an event known as a football game was played in the town of Hereford between a visiting team, considered the best of its size in the state, and a group of hometown fellows who were tired of being underrated and never seeing a district crown. To the self-confident visitors it seemed to pass swiftly when they fell behind and were endeavoring to regain their lead. To the home folks it appeared to last for days when they needed the clock to run out.

These two teams were, of course, the Perryton Rangers and the Hereford Whitefaces who contested with one another on November 1, 1968, in Whiteface Stadium. The Rangers were favored to run away with the match by a margin of 28 points but the result was far from what was predicted.

Perryton was in the lead at halftime 12-7 but a 97 yard drive to paydirt in the second half boosted a hometown lead of 13-12 and the biggest upset in the State of Texas for the year.

The scene of the 1969 Whiteface-Ranger encounter will be a complete flip-flop of the one in 1968. This time it will be a Perryton Homecoming and a hometown crew with an eye-full of revenge. They will be the underdogs tomorrow night, predicted by most authorities to lose.

Coach Larry Wartes hasn't forgotten about last year but he knows his team will have to be ready and tough no matter what has happened in the past. He commented, "Perryton will probably be the best all-around team we have played this year besides Plainview." Danny Schackelford and Gene Dougherty are both returning starters and both dangerous, playing both ways.

Wartes said, "They also have a good rushing offense with two good running backs in David Flowers and Tom Lofland." Flowers booms the opposition with his 190 pound frame while Lofland leads the district scoring department for the year with eight touchdowns. Danny McWhorter, brother of last year's all-district field general, is trying to keep up the family tradition at the quarterback slot this season. His receivers include Jerry Settles and Sandy Vandergriff.

Perryton is supporting a 4-2 record this year having lost to two AAAA teams, Pampa and Borger. Pampa may have found their weakest spot when they pounded the Rangers with passes all night long.

Wartes feels that the Rangers will have more going for them than most people expect. Besides a roused-up crowd they have come through the past four or five years with excellent "B" teams. These younger boys, not greatly experienced in varsity competition, will be definitely sure of what to do every situation.

After the first week of district play the outlook appears about the same as to who will be in the run-off for the title. Dumas clouted the Muleshoe club to stay well in the race with Perryton and Hereford who picked up wins over Tulia and Canyon, respectively.

Outstanding Art Exhibit Planned

"The 40 Best Show" will arrive in Hereford this weekend with the exhibit of paintings and sculptures by outstanding area artists being viewed, without charge, from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Saturday and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Sunday in the Lobby Room of the Community Center. One of the 40 works of art is an oil painting, "Dedie Hunda," by Mrs. Justin McBride of Hereford.

Other works by artists well known in this area include two oil paintings by Ben Konis, Amarillo artist, who has displayed his works here in the past, and instructs local artists.

His works include a Taos Pueblo and Indian Figure.

The art works will be brought here from Borger, where they have been shown the past weekend. They were also displayed in Dumas and Amarillo earlier this month, after Malcolm Alexander, artist and critic from Taos, N.M. selected the 40 best works from nearly 300 entries.

Alexander, co-owner of an art gallery in Taos, attended the Art Center College of Design in Los Angeles and the School of Fine Art at the University of California at Los Angeles. His teachers have included Lorser Feitelson, Emil Bistram, Audubon Tyler, and Luis Danziger. He credits artist Leon Gaspard and Doel Reed, N.A. as having most influenced his work.

He has spent much time traveling about the world, sketching and painting — working, he says, in a varied but always romantic style.

Oklahomans Tour Area

A group of forty one persons known as the Southwest Oklahoma Livestock Growers Association from Stephens County, Oklahoma, arrived in Hereford last Monday to tour the various industries in the area. The tour was arranged by Stephens County Agent, J. D. Lockwood.

After leaving Duncan, Oklahoma, early Monday morning they stopped off at the Calson House Restaurant for lunch where they were greeted by the Hereford Hustlers. Around 4:30 in the afternoon they traveled to Southwest Feed Yards to view the new modern-day feeding operation.

Their next point of interest was the Missouri Beef Packing Plant in Friona which they took in on Tuesday morning. From there they returned to Hereford for a quick lunch before leaving for Duncan.

Former Resident Dies In Accident

Marvin Grady Tisdale, 50, a Hereford farmer, was killed and an Olton truck driver was injured in a collision that occurred about ten miles west of Dimmitt on Highway 86 Monday afternoon.

Bill D. Nafzger Is Buried Here Wednesday

William "Bill" Daniel Nafzger, 65, of Route 4, a Hereford resident since 1927, was dead on arrival at Deaf Smith County Hospital Sunday morning. Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Wednesday in Gilliland Funeral Home Rose Chapel, with the Rev. Herman J. Schelter, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, officiating.

Burial was in West Park cemetery.

Mr. Nafzger was born in Monroe, Wis., and came to Hereford in 1927 from Olton. He was a farmer and a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

He married the former Grace Garrett in 1935 in Olton. Survivors included his wife; a son, David of Hereford; a daughter, Mrs. Dana Woolsey of Hereford; his mother, Mrs. Margaret Nafzger of Giddings; brothers, Arthur and Paul, both of Olton and Ralph of Plainview; sisters, Mrs. Ester Springer of Hereford and Mrs. Lilly Krugler of Giddings and two grandchildren.

Tisdale, who was driving a pickup truck west on Highway 86, apparently did not observe the other vehicle, a tractor-trailer truck, approaching, and pulled into its path when he attempted a left turn. Tisdale was traveling west and the other vehicle was traveling east.

Carl Ray Motley, driver of the tractor-trailer truck, was taken to High Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt where he was treated for minor injuries and released. Tisdale was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Avenue Baptist Church with Bill Taylor, minister of the Dimmitt Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in Rest Lawn Memorial Park Cemetery in Dimmitt by Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford.

Mr. Tisdale, who lived 12 miles west of Dimmitt, moved to Castro County in 1964 from Hereford. He was born in Dodson.

He is survived by his wife, Alva Mae of the home; daughters, Mrs. Sammie Lytle of Dimmitt, Mrs. Wanda Williams of Cordell, Okla., Mrs. Peggy Sebel of Meade, Kan., Mrs. Dolores Morris of Hereford and Miss Nancy Tisdale of the home; a son, Jerry of Hereford; sisters, Mrs. Mary Shipley and Mrs. Otis France, both of Hereford; brothers, Jess of Amarillo and Roy of Wellington, and 13 grandchildren.

Belief In Youth Needed

"We must believe in young people."

Pat Sullivan, former teacher with the local system and presently head of the English Department at West Texas State University in Canyon, expressed these words to a group of some 26 persons connected with the newly-formed 4-H parents and adults organization.

Speaking on "Communication With Children," Sullivan, who was a resident of Hereford some 23 years ago and is capable of seeing the changes that have taken place during the past few years, told the group that the problems of working with other people's children is that there is a failure to communicate between the adult and the child.

"There are three important things we must remember involved in communicating with children," he said, "They are, number one, we must know what we are; number two, we must know what we know, and we must know what we do."

In what we are, he told the group, the most important thing is that young people should have strict codes of justice and honesty with the adults always remembering that the youth is impatient with them if what the adults say is different from what they do. "We must be genuinely fond of young people. We can't," he said, "hide our attitude toward them. We must be happy with our work, we must have a sense of humor and we must respect the rights of all humans."

With the youth the main subject of his talk, Sullivan also pointed out to the adults present that they themselves must learn their own roles. "We must never laugh at the errors of youth," he said, "youth needs to experience itself and one of the best ways for a child to do this is through 4-H organizations."

"What we do," according to Sullivan, "is determined through what we know and what we are."

"What we do depends on how much we know about the youth. What makes them tick in short," he said.

"We must be interested in them. Laugh with them not at them, plan with them not for them and learn to talk to young people as equals and help them become more responsible citizens," he said.

"But, most important of all," he concluded, "we must believe in young people."

Sullivan received both his bachelor and master degrees from Texas Technological University and his PhD from the University of Texas. He previously taught at the University of Texas and Texas A&M University and began at WT in 1963.

Herd...

(Continued from Page 1) Hereford fans, roses are blossoming for the Whitefaces as much or more than ever before. The Herd is pitting one of the best defenses in the state which has seldom been damaged by opposing offenses. They have skunked three of the five teams played this season and allowed only six points to one of the others. Against Canyon, Hereford held the Eagles to one first down and only 68 yards rushing, which is probably the best so far. Offensively Hereford still has crippled running backs but showed some passing talents in last week's encounter.

In fact, their passing exhibition was the big key to victory last week when the first Whiteface touchdown came via the air Junior quarterback, Mike Watts, unloaded the pigskin on his own 46 yard line to nifty Woody Woodward for the play of the night.

Marsh Pitman was on the shooting end of yard — gaining passes also as he found end Santry Rush a tempting target frequently.

This week's game with Perryton will be considered the big game for the Faces because of the old football belief that the next one is always the biggest. But as most Hereford fans know the countdown has begun. The days and weeks are being tallied till that final AAA showdown with Bill Span and his Dumas Demons on November 21.

To summarize just how strong the Whitefaces are at the present one might say that massive Tony Gorman is back into action, scaring the district contenders as much as tackling them.

ti-freeze, plow packer, saw sharpener, baby swing, console black and white TV, wooden dining chairs, two car tires and a portable black and white TV.

Donations to the sweepstakes raffle include: lawn fertilizer, encyclopedia set, oil painting, transistor radio, and stuffed animal toys.

Featured at the white elephant antiques booth will be a large candleholder and candles from Thailand. Other contributions include crystalware, oil paintings, Mexican art work, decorative bric-a-brac, holiday centerpieces and antique kerosene lamps.

The highlight of the event will be the drawing for the money, raffle at 7:30 p. m. First prize will be $275.00, second prize $125.00, third prize $75.00 and fourth prize $25.00.

Proceeds from the Carnival and Bazaar will be used for general expenses for the school.

Cubs Receive Scout Awards

Twenty seven young men received their official Bobcat award in the monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 51 held at St. Anthony's Cafeteria last Tuesday night. Edwin Axe, cub master, and Hawk Kreig, assistant cub master, presided at the meeting and presented the awards.

Also involved in the presentation ceremonies was Tierra Blanca District Chairman, Nolan Grady, who encouraged the parents to keep up their work with these boys and asked for a few adults to volunteer for Webelos leaders.

Attending the ceremony were the six dens of cubs and one den of Webelos, which make up pack 51.

Den five presented the flag and for entertainment Den one gave a skit entitled the "Growing Machine."

Besides the Bobcat awards, numerous patches and badges were presented to certain boys. Five recruiter patches, two wolf badges, three golden arrow points, one silver point, nine Webelos athlete awards, one naturalist, and one sportsmanship award were received.

A presentation was made to an adult at the meeting as well as the scouts. Grady presented

By MELVIN YOUNG

A publisher friend of ours confessed recently that he had committed what some "feds" might consider the "unforgivable sin," but in so doing, had given an industrious young man the tools with which to earn the necessary funds to assure himself a college education.

The youth of whom we speak is now enrolled at TCU, working on the side, drawing over $4.00 per hour working at a Fort Worth printing firm.

To regress a bit, we might add that our friend was not as familiar with the letter of the law concerning the employment of children or he would never have hired a youngster at the tender age of 12. To top it off, he was probably paying the young man substandard wages as well. However, while the youngster was on his payroll, he not only learned a skilled trade but through the encouragement of the employer was instilled with a desire for something much better. That desire, of course, led to the University. The craft he learned is now helping to pay the way.

Had the publisher been checked by officials charged with regulating the wage and hour laws, as applied to child labor, no doubt he would have paid a stiff fine. Fortunately for him and the employee as well, he was never bothered.

He now realizes the error of his ways and will never again allow a worker under the age of 18 to bend the bristles of a broom in his little newspaper composing room. After all, he's a law abiding citizen and wants to do the right thing. Besides, he's scared to death of the "feds."

It seems rather ironic however, that while we're fretting about the lack of higher education among many of our citizens and spending millions of dollars building vocational schools wherever possible, we are closing the doors to the best training schools on earth — the actual on-the-job training situation in our nation's small businesses — and at the same time denying many young men and women a background that will enable them to at least contribute a portion of the cost of their education. We're living in an affluent society, we're told, but some families still cannot afford the high cost of education without some help from the student.

So what do we do. Well, we continue accepting grants from the federal government (our own money less administrative expenses) to teach those trades in vocational schools that we could have taught better in our own businesses.

We're not against the vocational schools. Heavens no! They're doing a wonderful job. And we might also add that the people planners are beginning to see the light, putting their blessings on such school programs as Distributive Education, Industrial Cooperative Training, etc. And you can hire youngsters between the age of 16 and 18 in mechanical departments, provided you're working in cooperation with the school programs and get the necessary exemptions.

But businesses resent being bound up in so many federal rules and regulations and some prefer to by-pass not only the school programs but any training program of their own because of it. This is unfortunate, but it is another example of the results of governmental "cradle to grave" regulating of our lives. And frankly, it will probably get much worse before it gets better.

—HB—

Some economists are now saying that the Nixon administration has succeeded in "cooling off" the nation's economy to the point that we may soon see a mild recession and some unemployment. However we see no signs of it in this part of the country. Businessmen generally report sales as good, although there may be a trend to be a little more careful about the spending of money. We would imagine that the high interest rate would certainly make people look twice before buying something they don't need and can't use.

—HB—

Realtors report that the demand for housing is still good which is an indication that Hereford continues to grow. We would imagine that it will grow even faster after the Wilson & Co. plant begins operating in January. There is, incidentally, a big demand for apartments, both furnished and unfurnished, at this time and this demand will increase with the opening of the plant.

—HB—

There is one thing to say for being poor: it's inexpensive.

Red Cross Class Forms Waiting Wives Club

The recently completed Red Cross orientation class of four women will receive their certificates and pins in the near future.

Those taking the six-hour course include Mrs. Ralph Owen, chapter disaster nurse; Mrs. David Parmer, nurse; Mrs. Andrew Kershen, housewife; and Mrs. Jerry Curtsinger, the wife of a service man.

They have chosen, as a project, to organize a Waiting Wives Club for the wives of service men.

Several clubs of this kind have been organized in area towns and have met with success.

Any serviceman's wife is eligible to join the club and there will be no fees or obligations.

Anyone interested in the club may call Mrs. Corinne Neeley or the Red Cross office.

Other members of the committee who may be contacted are Mrs. Jerry Curtsinger, Mrs. Richard Slaughter, and Mrs. Jerry T. Curry.

MRS. SHEPPARD VISITS RELATIVES

Mrs. Edith Sheppard recently returned from a week's visit with her grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells of Houston.

Accompanying her on the trip were Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wells of Amarillo, formerly of Hereford.

Hereford WHITEFACES

1968 RECORD 5 WINS 6 LOSSES

Friday, OCTOBER 31, 1969
GAME TIME 7:30 P.M.

A 4-1 record for this year will be enough to convince the Whitefaces that they are capable of tallying another victory for their district cause. Favored to win will probably not overconfidence the Herd because 165 miles is quite a trip to lose because of too much self assurance.

A top-notch Hereford defense will be out to halt those talented Perryton runners and maybe knock down another one of those McWhorter boys playing quarterback.

With a revenge hungry Perryton crowd and a district seeking bunch of Herefordites this contest could turn out to be the most exciting match in district 1-AAA competition for the year.

Perryton RANGERS

1968 RECORD WINS LOSSES

Support Your Home Team RANGER STADIUM THIS FRIDAY

Desperate revenge will be the thought of Ranger fans over in Perryton land tomorrow night as they will be all out to redeem themselves from last year's big loss to the Whitefaces. Perryton head coach Don Smith will be the most anxious man in the stadium to win this game after losing his number one rating in the state in 1968 by a defeat of 13-12 handed them by the Herd.

Although losing a large number of their starters, they will still be plenty of competition for Larry Wartes and his Faces when they send 170 pound halfback Tom Lofland into the Hereford defense time after time. This talented young man happens to be the leading scorer in the district with 8 touchdowns to his credit this season.

This will also be the big homecoming night in Perryton which is the same scene as appeared a year ago in Whiteface stadium. The visitors will not be of a number 1 rank this time but Perryton will be playing as if they were.

Bufs Will Attempt To Hike Record

CANYON, Tex. — West Texas State University's Buffaloes, attempting to push their season record above the 500 mark, tackle the offensive-minded University of Texas at Arlington Rebels Saturday evening.

The Buffaloes, who have given up 1,043 passing yards through six games, face another good passer in the Rebels' Ronnie Faulkner in the game at Arlington.

Faulkner, a 6-3 senior from Wichita Falls, has completed 66 of 142 passes for 1,054 yards and six touchdowns. Eleven of his passes have been intercepted.

He has four principal targets for his passes in Danny Griffin, Mark Lowery, Mike Buchanan and Ronny Lucas. Griffin and Lowery have 12 receptions each, while Buchanan and Lucas have each caught 11 throws.

Tailback Marc Griffin leads the club in rushing with 300 yards and Griffin has 277 rushing yards.

Arlington has one of the nation's standout kickers in Skipper Butler, who holds two national collegiate kicking records. His 40 career field goals is a record and he has kicked for 213 career points.

This season Butler has 14 of 14 points after touchdown and seven of 15 field goal efforts true. He has also a 42.1-yard per average on punts. The 195-pound senior has a 60-yard fieldgoal to his credit and has kicked them as long as 65 yards in practice. His other long field goals in games are for 54, 53 and 51 yards.

Arlington carries a 4-2 mark into Saturday's clash, while the Buffs stand 3-3. Against common foes the teams are near equal, with West Texas holding the edge.

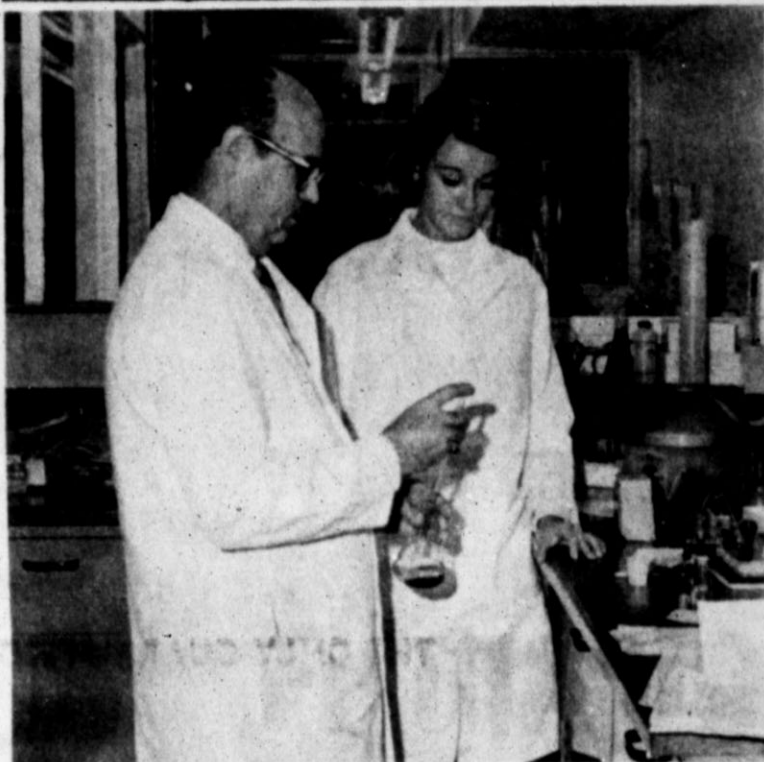

San Diego State defeated West Texas, 24-14, and Arlington, 27-10. The Buffaloes edged New Mexico State, 17-16, while Arlington fell to the Aggies, 16-7.

The Buffaloes of coach Joe Kerbel have a balanced attack between running and passing. Duane Thomas paces the ground game with 525 yards and half-back Olan Thompson had added 384 yards.

Clarence Pedic has completed 40 of 82 passes for 590 yards. In addition he has rushed for 193 yards. The Rebels will pose a big threat for Redie's passes as they have picked off 20 opponent passes thus far this season.

Herman C. Rider, Cleveland, became 56th president of ABC on Aug. 1, 1969.

The American Bowling Congress is in its 75th season of service to male bowlers.

ICT STUDENT OF THE WEEK is Ann Mims, 17-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Mims, 609 East 5th Street. KEEP THE CROSS BEFORE YOU

Whether of wood, or gold, or other material, The Cross is symbolic of our highest living. It tells of both sacrifice and life at its best. It is a symbol of God, a symbol of Christ, a symbol of the Christian church you attend every week. What would the church be without The Cross! Where might your steps lead were you to forget the Crucifixion! What might happen to your family and to the families of all your friends were it not for the influence of the allumined Cross in their lives. If you would have tomorrow remember you; if you would have your golden years filled with peace and hope... then Keep The Cross Before You Every Day.

Cotton Program Explained Here

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced on October 1, 1969 a revised national marketing quota of 16,008,333 bales (standard bales of 500 pounds, gross weight) and a revised national acreage allotment of 17 million acres for the 1970 crop of upland cotton. This represents an increase of 941,666 bales in the quota and an increase of one million acres in the allotment from that announced on October 1, 1968.

The increase is brought about by the declining 1969 crop prospects caused primarily by abnormal weather conditions throughout much of the Cotton Belt. The September 8 crop report, on which the original determinations were made, indicated a 1969 crop of 10,984 bales. The current report indicates production of 1,428,000 bales. The increase in the quota and allotment is necessary in order to assure the maintenance of adequate stocks in the United States to provide a continuous and stable supply of the different qualities of cotton needed in the U.S. and in foreign cotton-consuming countries.

The Revised State allotments for the 1970 crop will be announced within a few days.

Also announced on October 15, were the following additional provisions of the 1970-crop program for upland cotton.

Domestic Acreage Allotment
For the 1970 crop, the farm domestic acreage allotment has been set at 65 percent of the

Skip-Row Rules
The skip-row rules which were in effect for the 1969 crop will be applicable to the 1970 crop. In general, under these rules, only the land actually planted to cotton is counted as county land in determining compliance with program provisions.

Lease and Sale of Allotments
The final date for filing applications for the transfer of cotton allotments is December 31, 1969. Producers in 381 cotton-producing counties in the U. S. have approved for 1970 the transfer of allotments to farms outside the county. Allotments, however, cannot be transferred from one State to another.

Projected Yields
A projected national yield of 500 pounds per acre has been established for the 1970 crop, a reduction of 45 pounds per acre from that set for the last three crop years.

The reduction announced on October 15 reflects the failure of cotton yields to realize the levels expected on the basis of trends a few years ago. The projected yield for 1967-68-69 crops was established at 545 pounds because of previous upward trend. During the past four years, yields have been leveling off and have trended down since 1965. The 1970 national projected yield is based on 1964-68 harvested yields (497 pounds average per acre), adjusted for abnormal weather, for trends, and for changes in production practices.

Projected State yields will be announced within a few days.

SWISS APPLE CUSTARD TART — Delectable dessert and easy to roll out the pastry for it when you use a pastry cloth and a knit cover on your rolling pin.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Swiss Apple Custard

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

We love good old American apple pie; but we also love Swiss Apple Custard tart. And we don't feel a bit traitorous to the most famous of all American desserts.

American apple pie is for both family and guests. Swiss Apple Custard Tart, calling as it does for three eggs and a cup of heavy cream, is wonderful when you want to put your best foot forward for a company meal.

Use one of those great pastry cloths framed with wooden and steel bars and a knit rolling-pin cover when you roll out the pastry. We've said this before and we're saying it again. We don't want cooks accusing us — yes, they do! — of not telling them about these superb aids. We'd hate to bake pie without these non-stick helps — perfect also for rolling cookie dough. We think you'll agree with us once you try them.

SWISS APPLE CUSTARD TART

1 package (11 ounces) free flowing pie crust mix
2 tablespoons finely chopped blanched almonds
6 medium (1½ pounds) McIntosh (or similar type) apples
½ cup sugar
3 eggs
1 container (8 ounces) heavy cream
2 tablespoons butter, melted
Make up pie crust mix according to package directions; use two-thirds (about 1 cup) of the pie dough for this Tart; use the remaining pie dough for another dish.

On a floured pastry cloth, with a knit cover on your rolling pin, roll out the 1 cup dough to a 14-inch round. Fit into a round pizza pan (12 inches in diameter and ½ inch deep — the pan must be this deep). Roll edges under so that edge of pie dough is even with edge of pan. With dull edge of a knife, make diagonal creases in edge of pie dough. Sprinkle bottom with chopped almonds.

Core, pare and halve an apple; place the cut side of one half down on a cutting board and slice crosswise straight down in ¼-inch slices. Leaving the apple half intact, lift it and place in the pie dough shell close to the edge so that slices are parallel to edge; similarly place second apple half in shell. Repeat this process with the remaining apples, evenly spacing 18 apple halves around edge — like daisy petals — and 2 apple halves in center. Sprinkle apples with 2 tablespoons of the sugar. Bake in a preheated 450-degree oven until pastry is lightly browned — 10 to 15 minutes.

Meanwhile, with rotary beater beat eggs until yolks and whites are combined; add cream and beat to combine. Reduce oven heat to 325 degrees. Leaving pan or oven rack, slide rack out and pour eggcream mixture around apples in pastry shell. Continue baking until a knife inserted in custard near the center comes out clean — about 30 minutes longer.

Remove tart from oven. Sprinkle with remaining sugar. Drizzle with melted butter. Place tart under broiler until sugar melts and surface is spotted with brown, adjusting either broiler rack or broiler temperature so that this takes about 10 minutes; check often to avoid overbrowning. If apples begin to get too brown, cover with small pieces of aluminum foil.

Serve warm or cold. Cut into wedges so that each serving includes one apple half and a little of the center portion. Makes 10 servings.

La Madre Mia Will Lead Mother's March

The announcement that members of La Madre Mia Study Club will lead the Mothers' March scheduled for January, was made at a meeting Thursday in the home of Mrs. Lynton Alford, with Mrs. Carl Carlie as co-hostess.

In a brief business session, conducted by Mrs. Waldo Baxter, members voted to act as chauffeur for King's Manor residents for a one-month period.

Mrs. Ray Don King presented the program, a book review, entitled "Between Parent and Teenager," written by Dr. Ham Glott.

The author specializes in the behavior of children.

Club members are again reminding the public that they are collecting used Camp Fire uniforms to be used by young girls who are unable to purchase them. Anyone wishing to donate one may call any member of the club for pickup.

Others attending the meeting included Mmes. Richard Ward, John Smith, Dave Hopes, Herschel Black, Don Walser, Gerald Martin, Wayne Lady, Eugene Sparks, Jerry Don Glover, Terry Hodges, Don Lane, Harvey Penner, Charles Frye, Charles Watson, Dean Herring, C.D. Adams and Bobby Owen.

The next meeting, scheduled Nov. 13, will be guest night, when each member may bring a guest.

The program will be conducted by Margaret Logan, of KVII in Amarillo, who will direct exercises and gymnastics at Northwest Elementary School gym.

Pre-Nuptial Shower Fetes Arsenia Cano

The Community Room of the First National Bank was the setting Sunday for a pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Arsenia Cano, bride-elect of Israel Catano.

Guests were received by Miss Cano with her mother, Mrs. Jesus O. Cano and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Magdalena Catano.

Ecru lace draped the serving table which was decorated with wedding bells. The wedding bell theme was repeated in the decoration on the cake which was served with coffee from crystal appointments. Presiding at the table were Miss Rosemary Her-

Crop Stubble Is Good Land Aid

Wide spread rains throughout the Texas Panhandle have stopped all farming operations for nearly two weeks. Now is a good time to consider how to handle the milo residue left after harvest.

Soil Conservation Service records show that last year was a record low year for land damaged from soil erosion by blowing. J. C. Brown, District Conservationist with the local SCS office, says that proper management of crop stubble was the key factor in preventing severe dust storms last year.

Many Deaf Smith County farmers make crop residue management a vital part of their overall conservation program.

Anyone interested in our natural resources could not overlook the need for protective cover for game birds during the winter months. Standing stubble makes a good habitat for pheasants when cover and food is in short supply.

Brown points out that all soils need plant residues in order to maintain organic matter or humus. Humus keeps soil in a condition where it can take in rain-fall or irrigation water.

Forensics Team In Tournament

Three members of the Hereford High School Forensics team reached the semi-finals in tough competition recently in Snyder, as they competed against 12 schools, of which most were of Dust Bowl days proved that the best way to manage stubble was to leave it on the surface of the soil. Sweep and chisel type equipment make this possible.

In a time such as this when the cost-price squeeze is so critical, Brown says that good stubble management results in savings to the farmer. Less tillage saves soil moisture. Fewer trips are required over the field. Soil with some stalks left on the surface will not need a sand fighter setting on the turn row.

TOASTMASTERS LADIES NIGHT

The Hereford Toastmasters Club entertained their wives and area officers in observance of the 45th anniversary of Toastmasters International and the local's 19th anniversary, at a buffet dinner held Thursday at the Chaparral Restaurant.

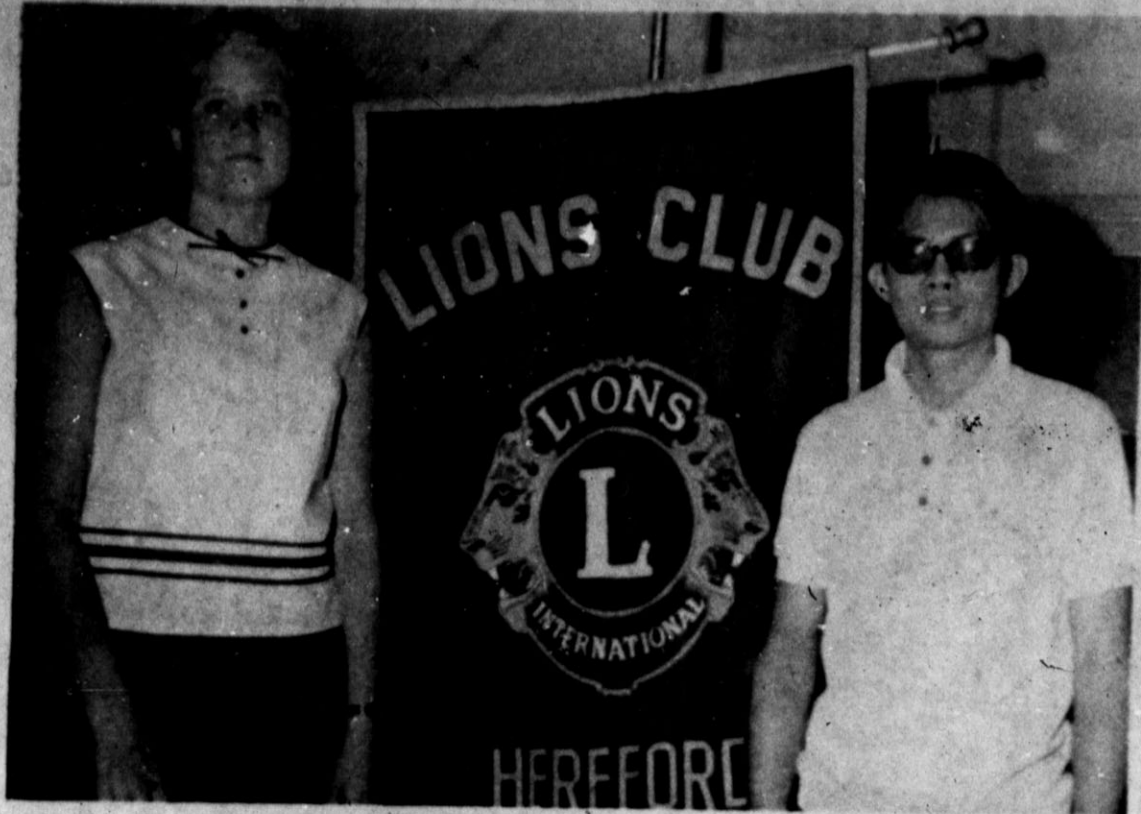

The Club is composed of eighteen members who meet together each Thursday evening to try and help each other improve their ability to speak before groups and organizations.

Members also learn to listen as well as speak, think critically about what they hear, develop the ability to accept evaluation and the role of leadership in the club activities and personal business.

Toastmasters is a non-profit organization which has more than 3,500 clubs in 47 countries in the free world, and was founded 45 years ago in October, 1924.

Amarillo Man Is Assigned To Post

Southwestern Public Service Company is expanding its area development department in an effort to offer additional services to communities and industry-seeking organizations in its service area.

The electric company has named Elvin Schofield of Amarillo to the post of industrial development consultant. In his new assignment, Schofield will develop industrial prospects for the service area on the basis of research data showing what types of industries can best utilize the resources, natural and human, of the region. In addition, he will work with the various communities served by Southwestern to help them keep up-to-date the statistical data which is of interest to prospective industries. Schofield joined Southwestern Public Service Company in Amarillo as a sales representative in 1963. For the past few years he has been responsible for the sales of electric commercial cooking equipment in the company's Panhandle Division. He is presently serving as secretary-treasurer of the Panhandle Chapter of the Texas Restaurant Association.

A 1959 graduate of West Texas State University with a bachelor of business administration degree, Schofield received the Wall Street Journal Student Achievement Award that year as the outstanding WTSU business student. He is a May, 1970 candidate for a Master of Business Administration degree at WTSU. Schofield is a captain in the U. S. Army Reserve and served for more than 5 years as the commanding officer of the 974th Repair Parts Company, USA-R, in Amarillo. He is also a director of the San Jacinto Lions Club in Amarillo.

Southwestern Public Service Company's area development department includes, in addition to Schofield, R. K. Owen, area development manager; Larry Milner, industrial development manager; and Sam A. Thomas, Jr., agricultural development manager. All members of the department are available to work with the communities and industrial development organizations in the company's four state service area.

In 1964 the St. Louis Cardinals won the National League pennant by one game over the Philadelphia Phillies and Cincinnati Reds.

Corn Borer Now Big Threat Here

Corn has become an increasingly important cash crop on the Texas High Plains and with it has come a menacing insect, the southwestern corn borer.

However, certain cultural practices this fall can be effective in reducing overwintering populations of this insect pest, points out Dr. Bill Clymer of Lubbock, area entomologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Shredding stalks can destroy large numbers of the corn borers as they spend some time in the base of old stalks before moving down into the tap roots where they spend the winter. This, combined with a thorough job of plowing under refuse, can greatly reduce the number of overwintering larvae, says Clymer.

Looking at next season, a combination of early planting and use of early maturing hybrids will aid in reducing damaging populations of the insect later in the year.

The southwestern corn borer begins damaging young corn plants in late spring by feeding on the leaves. Later the insect bores into the stalk and begins tunneling up and down the pith. This action causes the stalk to weaken and lodge or fall, thereby inflicting substantial grain losses.

There are from one to three generations of the corn borer each year, explains the entomologist. The adult female moth emerges from the pupal stage in mid-spring and lays from 300 to 400 eggs on the underside of corn leaves. The young larvae go

During this past week, House debate and voting focused on the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1969. This act provides a one year extension and authorizations for the continuance and improvement of existing federal housing programs.

The Act passed the House by a vote of 339 to 9. I voted for the Act. The chief reason why I did so was because I believe the extension of the Housing and Urban Development Act to be absolutely essential if our oft-stated national goal of providing a decent home for every American family is to be fulfilled at the earliest possible time.

Although our housing problem is a nation wide one, nowhere in America is the need for decent housing more critical than it is in rural areas. In its report approving the bill, the House Banking and Currency Committee, spotlighted this need by stating, "Rural America suffers from a chronic shortage of adequate housing." The Committee went on to advise that it is, "imperative that every effort must be made to marshal the resources needed to meet rural housing needs, which are far more severe, on a proportionate basis, than those of urban centers." A rough measure of these needs is demonstrated by the fact that while rural America has only 30 percent of the nation's population, it has half the nation's substandard housing. Hundreds of thousands of farm and country families live today and try to raise their children in inadequate homes, many of which have primitive plumbing facilities and insufficient utilities.

The 1969 Act meets rural housing problems head on. It takes the existing financial handcuffs off the Farmers Home Administration by removing the $100 million ceiling on the amount of unsold mortgages that can be held by the Secretary of Agriculture. At present, this ceiling undermines their destructive cycle in the following months and then overwinter in the full-grown larval stage.

Clymer advises in-season control where the corn borer is present in damaging numbers. Timing of spray applications is critical since satisfactory control can only be obtained early in the season before the larvae bore into the stalk.

Additional information on controlling the southwestern corn borer can be obtained at the local county Extension office.

necessarily limits the scope of FHA activities. The bill also creates new FHA financial procedures which will permit home builders to engage in volume construction projects, create cost savings by operating in bulk, and pass the cost savings on to the home buyer in the form of reduced purchase prices.

A new addition in the 1969 Housing and Urban Development Act gives the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development the authority to discourage any efforts to place restraints on the use of new technology and materials in new housing programs. This provision gives Secretary George Romney a much needed weapon in his battle to end the construction trade unions to modernize their operating methods in a joint effort to produce less expensive and more durable housing for the nation.

This year's Act recognizes that an ever growing number of American families are turning to mobile homes as a source of lower cost housing. A recent survey conducted by the Bureau of the Census for HUD revealed that mobile homes contribute significantly to the national housing supply, and that an estimated 5 1/2 million people live in about 3 million mobile homes across the country. The 1969 Act strives to make the purchase of mobile homes easier financially, by increasing the maximum amount of a mortgage which may be insured per space in a mobile home court. It also sets a maximum term on mobile home mortgages of 2 years, and renames the mobile home insurance program to promote greater accuracy within the mobile home

This year's Housing and Urban Development Act also takes a new approach to the housing problems of the cities. At present, a city can start an urban renewal program in which large numbers of ghetto dwellings are destroyed without realistic provisions being made in advance for locating or creating new housing for the ghetto dwellers. As a result, many urban renewal projects have created a group of dispossessed families at the same time the inner city was receiving a face-lifting. This practice has benefited neither the families concerned nor the community affected. Some of the displaced families move in with friends, thereby adding to already overcrowded living quarters and ghetto pressure — others live like gypsies, and scavenge on the margins of society.

This year's Act puts a halt to this deplorable practice. It requires any urban renewal project to include as many units of low and middle-income housing as the area had included when it had been a slum. In this way, our nation's cities will truly benefit from urban renewal.

The Housing and Urban Development Act has many parts in addition to those I have just discussed. While I do not agree with the Act in its entirety, I believe that the benefits it will bring to the Panhandle and the State of Texas far outweigh its objectionable features. I hope you feel likewise.

Santa Fe Railway's Coast Line Receives New General Manager

Ray H. Adams of Chicago, will become general manager of Santa Fe Railway's Coast Lines at Los Angeles, Nov. 1, succeeding John N. Landreth who is retiring after 45 years of service.

According to announcement made by Larence Cena, vice president-operations, Chicago Adams will be succeeded by Donald G. Ruegg of Topeka, Kan.,

as assistant to vice president-operations.

A native Californian, Adams entered service as a switchman at Los Angeles in 1941, advancing through the ranks until his promotion to trainmaster at Barstow, Calif., in 1954. He filled various operating department positions at Winslow, Ariz., Argentine, Kan., San Francisco and Los Angeles prior to his promotion to assistant to vice president-operations at Chicago last year. As general manager, Adams is chief operating officer over a jurisdiction that extends from the Pacific Coast as far east as Belen, N.M.

Ruegg was born at La Junta, Colo., and began his rail career in the superintendent's office at Pueblo, Colo., in 1942. Following service in the U.S. Navy in World War II and graduation from Dartmouth College, he returned to the railroad in 1946. He held operating department posts at numerous points on the system, including trainmaster at Pueblo, until his promotion to assistant to vice president-informal systems at Topeka in 1967.

Landreth, who is a native of Oklahoma, entered service as a telegrapher at Slaton, Tex., in 1924. He was promoted to chief dispatcher there in 1941, and acting superintendent of the Slaton division for a few months in 1945. He served as superintendent of the Plains division at Amarillo from Aug. 1, 1947, until June 1, 1948, when he moved on in a career that ultimately took him to Los Angeles as general manager.

Thoroughbred racing was introduced to Pennsylvania in 1969 at Philadelphia's Liberty Bell Park and at Shamrock Downs, Wilkes-Barre.

Amarillo Will Host Russian Evangelist

"Americans, and the world, are being hoodwinked into believing that the 'warmth' of President Nixon's recent reception in Rumania was spontaneous," says Russian-born Christian evangelist returned from secret meetings with underground Christian church leaders in Iron Curtain countries.

Voronaef, sponsored by Christian Crusade, the anti-communist ministry of Dr. Billy James Hargis, will present his views on present-day persecution of Christians behind the Iron Curtain, as well as a report on political conditions in Soviet-dominated countries, at special rallies to be held in Amarillo on Monday, at the Grace Baptist Church, 4003 South Bonham Street, and in Wichita Falls on Thursday, November 6 at the Holiday Inn in the Kemp Room, 8th and Scott Streets. He will be joined on the speaker's platform by Christian Crusade Evangelist Charles Secrest. The meetings will begin at 7:30 p. m., and the public is invited, free of charge.

"The President" reception was contrived, rehearsed and enacted by professionals, throughout his stay in Rumania," says Voronaef, a naturalized American citizen who resides in Indianapolis, Ind.

"It was pure fakery, and was especially hypocritical since no nation, other than Russia and Red China, has imprisoned more Christians and Jews than Rumania," and thousands of these people still remain in captivity."

Voronaef will show films from Soviet Russia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia which show the bloody and ruthless communist brutality, death in the streets and the anguish of those whose freedom has been lost.

A refugee from Soviet Russia himself, having escaped to the United States after a prison term in Siberia for Christian evangelism during his student days at Moscow University, Voronaef first gained national attention in 1959, when he crashed a reception in Washington where Soviet government workers were greeting Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then visiting the United States. Petitioning the former premier for the release of his imprisoned mother, who was arrested for similar evangelistic activities, Khrushchev refused to discuss the matter with him at the time. Her release was later effected through efforts of President Eisenhower, then Vice-President Nixon, and several U. S. Senators.

Secrest will be speaking on "Sex Education and SIECUS... School or Home?" and acting as chairman of the rally. His message will pinpoint his opposition to sex education in public schools, which is taught "without any moral restraints." He was severely critical of the National Education and SIECUS (Sex Information and Education Council of the United States) programs. These programs begin sex education in the primary grades, and according to Evangelist Secrest, "present no moral or ethical arguments against promiscuity, perversion or other immoral sex practices. "When the Holy Bible and prayer were banned from American public schools, moral and ethical teaching seem to have departed as well. To teach young people about the mechanics of raw sex, without distinguishing between right and wrong, is a travesty on the American home, as well as our educational system."

Secrest is a native of Portsmouth, Ohio, and served as pastor of churches in Portsmouth and in several Kentucky communities before joining Christian Crusade several years ago. He now also assists Dr. Hargis in leading the Christian Crusade overseas study tours to Europe and the Holy Land.

Barley Diversion To Be 20 Percent

Minimum diversion for barley in the 1970 feed grain program will be 20 percent of the farm's barley base acreage, Frank J. Bezner, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee reported. This is the same minimum diversion that was required in the 1969 program.

The 20 percent diversion also will be required of producers of malting barley who participate in the feed grain program, as it was in 1969.

Participants in the 1970 program who substitute wheat for oats-rye will also be required to divert 20 percent of their oats-rye base. In 1969 the diversion requirement was 15 percent.

Mr. Bezner said these provisions of the 1970 feed grain program were being announced now to aid producers of winter barley in their farm planning. Other provisions of the 1970 feed grain program relating to corn, grain sorghum, and barley will be announced soon.

If your cream pitcher drips after each use, try buttering the underside of the spout and it will quickly put an end to the dripping.

Western Frontier: Vast Untamed Land

A POCKETFUL OF RYE
By A. J. Cronin

Dr. Laurence Carroll is a familiar character to those who read and enjoyed A. J. Cronin's last book, A Song of Sixpence. He emerges again in A Pocketful of Rye — feckless, irreverent, living in the moment and squandering a not inconsiderable medical talent in a sinucular post in a small Swiss clinic. But the events which occur and the people that Dr. Carroll meets along the way serve to lead him back to himself, to the revelation of a truth, and to a surprising resolution — through roads never before imagined.

As physician in charge of the Maybelle, a small clinic outside of Zurich, Dr. Laurence Carroll had little to deal with from day to day. The Matron, also in charge, sometimes eyed Carroll with suspicion — her button eyes filled with a glint of that jocular malice that so often passes for humor. But he ignored her, and they operated the Maybelle at a respectful and amicable distance from one another.

Young children would come to the clinic for treatment and would leave, some expressing their thanks — most not bothering to or knowing how. These, too, were dealt with indifferently by the doctor and quickly forgotten. All except a young boy named Danny Davigan. Arriving with his mother Cathy, whose beauty and vivaciousness had brightened Carroll's youth in Scotland, young Danny Davigan becomes the focus of a startling, almost devastating truth. Cathy and Danny take up residence in the Maybelle's guest Chalet. They weave about themselves a web of circumstance that makes A Pocketful of Rye an unusual novel of cunning and conscience, life and the struggle to continue living, and the sadness of love all but forgotten in the wake of days gone by.

DOWN FROM THE

By Louis Charbonneau

Set against the sweeping mural of the vast untamed land that was the Western frontier, this is a tale of high adventure, desperate men and the strange conflict that confronts one of them.

Time was running out for the wagon train. If they could not cross the mountains before the first snow, they would not cross at all. When their leader was killed, some of the wagons turned back. Those who stayed on elected Gage Pardee to lead them the rest of the way.

Gage was only nineteen but his brash self-assurance inspired confidence. He had grown up in the shadow of his dead father's legend, of a strong honest man who died a hero's death. He was determined to be worthy of that man. Hardships and danger quickly provided harsh tests of his courage and ability, while the rivalry of a warmly passionate older woman and a strong-minded girl of his own age brought about other disturbing complications.

When he chose to lead his wagons over a narrow, little known and treacherous mountain pass in a gambling race with winter, defying threats of mutiny and Indian attack, Gage came face to face with another train — and with his past. It was an incredible situation: one train he had to give way — one would be caught in the snow.

Down from the Mountain brings these complex forces into shattering collision and to a stunning climax, in which legends crumble and youthful idealism is tempered by the grim reality of the West as it was.

Told with compassion and honesty, the story combines a wide ranging knowledge and love of the frontier adventure with a mature novelist's craftsmanship to create a major novel of the Old West, touched with surprisingly contemporary overtones.

Recommendations For Use Of Rubella Vaccine

Editor's Note: This is the last of a four-part series furnished by Darrell W. Morris, regional representative of Texas State Department of Health, on rubella.

The Public Health Service Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, with concurrence of the American Academy of Pediatrics, recommends that rubella vaccine be used in these ways: Administered to boys and girls between the age of one year and puberty; children in kindergarten and the early grades of elementary school should receive priority because they are commonly the major source of virus dissemination in the community; vaccine should not be given to pregnant women because it is not known to what extent infection of the fetus could result; women of child bearing age may be considered for vaccination only when the possibility of pregnancy in the following two to three months is essentially nil. In this situation, the doctor will need to take several precautions before acceding to a patient's demands for vaccine: A test should be performed to see that the woman is not pregnant, her susceptibility is determined by a reliable laboratory test, and she takes reliable precautions against becoming pregnant if the vaccine is administered.

Getting rid of rubella cannot be a job for one group or one foundation or one agency. It must be a concerted effort of many people and many organizations. The tragedy of rubella is real and the fight against it must be earnest. Because children are the reservoirs of infection and form the chain of transmission, they are the logical ones to receive the vaccine. In this way the route of infection from child to mother will be broken and mass immunity will cause the disease to fade away. There are a number of ways that voluntary and professional groups and associations can join in the rubella fight:

1. By producing, acquiring, and distributing informational and promotional materials on rubella to radio, television, and the news media, and by spreading the "word" in every possible way.

2. By helping to organize rubella immunization programs in the community, and working with Medical Societies, health departments, schools, and other groups.

3. By raising money and contributing funds to support immunization clinics in schools and neighborhoods, especially in deprived areas.

4. By seeing that your own children are immunized and by encouraging friends and associates to have their children immunized.

Health authorities say that it will take four or five years to

Marine Sergeant To Arrive Here

GySgt Bill Buchholz, a Marine Corps recruiting sergeant will be in Hereford on Monday to interview applicants for an enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps. While in Hereford Sergeant Buchholz will be located at Selective Service Office between the hours of 9-11 am.

Sergeant Buchholz announced that the marine corps is currently offering an enlistment for "Marine Corps Aviation duty only". When a young man is qualified and enlists for this program he is assured of spending his entire enlistment in Marine aviation. Upon completion of his "Recruit Training" he is sent to Jacksonville, Florida to the Basic Airmans school. Upon completing Basic Airmans school he will then receive schooling in either Aviation electronics or mechanics school.

Sergeant Buchholz also stated that the Marine Corps has a "120 day delayed enlistment" program that is quite popular. Under this program a young man may enlist in the Marine Corps Reserve with the agreement to go on active duty within 120 days. During this 120 days the young man has no drills or meetings to attend and this time counts toward his longevity pay.

Young men who may be interested in contacting Sergeant Buchholz while he is in town can get in touch with him at Selective Service Office between the hours of 9-11 am Monday.
