City to Begin Crack Down On Abandoned Auto Problem

Due to the large number of abandoned cars and trucks being left on streets and street right-of-ways, city commissioners, in a Labor Day meeting Monday, approved a recommendation that action be taken to dispose of these vehicles.

Dudley Bayne, city manager, told commissioners that he had observed a very large number of vehicles parked throughout the city that were immobile or damaged beyond repair. While the city does, and has had for a number of years, have an ordinance prohibiting parking vehicles on city streets, right-of-ways, alleys or even private property, for over a 24-hour period, Bayne stated that the situation has gotten to the point where it is a "disgrace."

"We will have to, now that the situation has gotten so bad," Bayne said, "begin picking the vehicles up without notifying the owners."

"For cars and trucks left on private property for a lengthy period of time," he said, "we will just have to start filing in court."

All vehicles hauled away by the city, will be taken to Bob's Wrecking and owners will have to pay for storage.

Also discussed at the meeting was the report on golf course revenues for past years. Reports indicated that, during the past nine years, the golf course has had an increase in yearly totals. Since 1960, when the total revenue, including green fees, cart fees and locker fees, was $12,967.99, the total has risen to $24,731.32 at the close of the 1968 calendar year. For the first seven months of the year, the total has already reached the $15,241.20 mark, and if the trend continues, this will be another record year for the course.

Bayne also disclosed at the meeting that the proposed beautification of the underpass on U. S. 385 has been rejected by the highway department. Plans had previously called for $38,000 for fixing up the underpass with greenery, provided the city would furnish water to keep the foliage growing, but the highway department notified the city last week that this will not be done.

The $38,000 was to be expended for placing concrete riprap slope protection on the fills at the Santa Fe Underpass and adding beautification to the slopes. The beautification will be eliminated from the plans, but the concrete riprap slope protection on the fills will be installed, as previously planned.

Commissioners also approved a zoning recommendation for annexing Lots 6, 7 and 8 of the Westview Subdivision, up to Columbia St. and changing it to an E-central business district.

Martin's Flying Exploits Will Be Televised Sunday

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Gerald Martin, who went on location in Spain more than eighteen months ago as a pilot in action scenes of the forthcoming movie "The Battle of Britain," may be seen in action at 9 p.m. Sunday on the nationally-televised special, Battle of Britain, produced by the National Broadcasting Company.

The special will be shown here over KGNC-TV Channel 4. Martin reported this television special was filmed during the course of the movie. Whether there will be any close-ups of him in action remain to be seen, but the prospects are favorable toward his flying shots being included in the showing Sunday.

Owner of Hereford Flying and Agricultural Service, Martin was selected by the United Artists Corp. to be one of the pilots directly involved in the filming of the historical production recreating England's "finest hour" during the early stages of World War II.

The movie, which is scheduled to have its United States premiere with showings in major cities on Oct. 22, has also been booked to open in Hereford for a one week's showing on that same day, through the efforts of Star Theatre manager Francis Hardwick.

Hardwick reported that "The Battle of Britain" will not have its first Amarillo showing until one week later — on Oct. 29.

It was explained that the Battle of Britain television special is similar to the recent D-Day Revisited, which was broadcast in June on the 25th anniversary of the Allied invasion of the Normandy beachhead and merely used scenes from the motion picture, "The Longest Day." In this instance, only selected scenes from the motion picture "The Battle of Britain" are to be shown, along with background on how the story was developed and the picture made.

One of the several stars of the movie, Michael Caine, is scheduled to narrate the TV special. Another star, Rex Harrison, will also appear — in an interview with former RAF Commander-in-Chief Hugh Dowding — the man he plays in the picture.

The German side is also set to be explored. Air Field Marshal Erhard Milch will tell why he advocated an immediate invasion of England following that country's great losses at Dunkirk.

It is interesting to note that Martin was among both the "good guys" and the "bad guys" in the picture. He flew a Messerschmitt 109 as a German officer in the picture for the most part, he reported, but also spent some time flying English Spitfires too.

The story line in the motion picture production concerns the beginning of World War II in Europe on Sept. 1, 1939, when Germany invaded Poland. In 1940, German troops overran western Europe. British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain resigned and Winston Churchill took his place.

The British prepared for an invasion at any moment. They tore down street signs and destroyed direction markers to confuse the enemy paratroopers. German air raids (the part of Martin's assignment) damaged many British cities between September 1940 and May 1941 — prior to the U. S. entry into the war.

At the time, Churchill inspired the British people by telling them this was "their finest hour." Parks, lawns, and grazing areas were planted with food crops. In London, many people slept in subway stations and underground shelters. There was a strict "blackout," and the only lights at night came from anti-aircraft guns and the burning buildings lit by German bombs.

The entire world wondered what kept Britain from falling. The movie proposes to answer the question — with its spirited people and the Royal Air Force.

With a cast of predominantly British actors — most of England's top stars, in fact — it is

Regional Plan Committee Meet

Elected city and county officials from a 25-county Texas Panhandle area have been invited to attend a meeting in Amarillo to discuss the forming of a regional planning committee today.

The forum will be held in the Amarillo Civic Center Auditorium from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Speakers will include Melvin Munn of Dallas, Sen. John G. Schmitz of California, Tom Vandergriff, Mayor of Arlington, Tex.; and Dan Petty from the Governor's office in Austin. A question and answer session is to be included in the forum.

Golf Tournament Plans Changed

Cal Garrett, pro at the local golf course, announced that there has been a change in plans for the annual Hereford Invitational Golf Tournament, which was scheduled for this weekend.

Original plans had called for the tournament to be held this Saturday and Sunday, but difficulties occurred, causing it to be set back until Sept. 20 and 21.

Further details on the tournament will be released when they are worked out, Garrett said.

New Rules For Grid Contest

The stage is set and the actors are priming themselves for their debut. The plot is the same — pick the winners — but the rules take on a different look this year.

As the 1969 football season's kickoff next week, fans will be putting their own talents to work for cash prizes in the annual Hereford Brand Football Contest which begins next Friday. Those entering the contest this year will be given a new set of rules, completely different from rules used in past contests.

This year, entry forms will be published in only three issues of the Brand — today's issue (see page 6); Sunday, Sept. 7 and Thursday, Sept. 11 — and persons wishing to enter the contest will be required to have their form in before Friday, Sept. 12. The forms will list 23 high school and college football games and the person who gets all 23 winners correct will receive a grand prize of $100 cash. The person getting the closest to 23 will get $25 first place cash prize and the next $15. The third place finisher will receive $10 cash.

The games will not be based on final score outcome, but rather on just the game's winner. In case there are several persons who tie for the first place money, a tie-breaker-type system has been worked out. This tie-breaker will consist of the total number of winning points which Hereford will get in the games this year and scores.

For instance, Hereford wins nine games this year and scores only seven points in each of these: They will have a total of 63 winning points. The number of points scored against Hereford when Hereford wins does not have any bearing on the total. If Hereford defeats Canyon 7-6, then Hereford will still get seven winning points.

The person with the closest guess to the winning total points, in case there is a tie, will win the $25 first place money. Winner of the contest will be announced November 30.

The contest is open to any person, with exception of employees of the Brand and their families.

UF Meet Friday

United Fund drive chairman Cleto Corlis reported that the majors meeting scheduled at 10 a. m. Friday in the Scout Room of the Hereford Community Center will include all majors, captains and other workers scheduled to aid in the United Fund drive campaign this year, which has a kickoff date of Sept. 17. Corlis and UF president Calvin Goodin have put out a call to all "interested people" to attend this meeting, including officers and directors.

of Masons, Kiwanis and Chi Alpha.

Hugh Clearman, president of the Association of Founders, will conduct a business session during the meeting which is expected to host about 355 members of the association.

The dinner is not open to the public, however, the public is encouraged to become members of the Association of Founders. This is done by donating $10 or more to the operation of Westgate-Kings Manor. All people who wish to attend the dinner must contribute a minimum of $10 toward the program and a donation of $1,000 gives the donor life membership.

speculated what its American appeal will be at the theatre box offices?

United Artists has pointed out that it originally released another such picture in 1930 under the title "Hell's Angels." This picture had nothing whatever to do with the current motorcycle gang craze in various parts of the United States, but was, instead, the story of England's air battle against Germany during World War I — prior to this country's entry into that war.

But there were certain differences. "Hell's Angels" was the first production of Howard Hughes, president of Hughes Air Craft and Hughes Tool Co. and now of Las Vegas enterprises. Hughes had begun shooting the picture in 1927 as a silent film. But talking pictures came into being about that time and he decided to junk all the footage he had previously photographed and remake it with sound.

Furthermore, he cast three unknowns in the picture, Jean Harlow, Ben Lyon and James Hall, and they became stars after "Hell's Angels" was released.

"Hell's Angels" was released as the first multimillion dollar picture after the Depression had begun. Yet, Hughes ran up a big profit on its United States bookings.

It was pointed out that some oldtimers still rate it as the best aircraft picture ever made. They remember the huge German dirigible that Hughes pictured going down over London in flames — after it had been "dive bombed" by a single RAF pilot. And the numerous dogfights between the British flyers and the Germans — including the scene where two planes crashed head-on.

Actually, Hughes spent about $1 million in those days to make the picture.

Now, with veteran producer Harry Saltzman (who created the James Bond movie series among other films) spending $9,600,000 and using an all-star cast, United Artists reported they feel "perfectly safe" with its American bookings.

Sept. 17 Kickoff Set

Barnes Accepts; To Be Keynoter

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes has confirmed his appearance in Hereford on Sept. 17 as kickoff speaker for the local United Fund campaign.

Clint Formby, owner-manager of Radio Station KPAN, reported he has received a letter from the lieutenant governor to this effect following prior telephone calls to his Austin office extending the invitation.

Formby, who had been appointed by United Fund president Calvia Goodin and drive chairman Cleve Corlis early last month to approach the lieutenant governor for this engagement, said that the letter had been received at his office here last week while he was out of the city and that Lt. Gov. Barnes had replied that he would be here about 10 a. m. on that midweek date (Wednesday).

Goodin and Corlis stated that the kickoff of the drive will begin at 9:30 a. m. in the Hereford Community Center and that the meeting is open to the public.

His schedule and arrival time is not definite at this time, Formby said. "Lt. Gov. Barnes said in his letter that these details will have to be worked out later."

Formby is to be in charge of all local arrangements for the lieutenant governor. A special reception is planned for him following his appearance.

The Department of the West, he became ill in Syracuse, N. Y., while visiting his daughter. As he lay dying, he asked for a glass of wine in order to drink a toast in honor of the America he loved and had fought for.

In Father Stanley's biography of Sumner, he depicts the influence he had on military history, as well as the political history of Michigan, Wisconsin, Kansas, and New Mexico.

Gen. Sumner was also instrumental in founding a number of Army posts, west of the Mississippi to the Pacific. Sumner, Kan., Fort Sumner, N.M., and several other places are named for him.

Father Stanley's biography of the historic general's career is reportedly the first book-length story of his life.

Barnes, who is 31 years old, is a native of DeLeon and Gorman where the title "Peanut Capitol of the World" still stands. He was previously in Hereford during March 1968 "on the campaign trail" and has a high voting record in Deaf Smith County.

But his appearance in Hereford this year will have nothing whatever to do with politics, the Lt. president and drive chairman said, "but to spark the coming campaign for our fund drive."

United Fund officials here are "well pleased" with the lieutenant governor's acceptance of their invitation. "He is a fine man personally and we feel that he is an excellent springboard here toward reaching our goal."

Their goal this year is $38,000 for eleven member agencies. The agencies include Council on Alcoholism, Cerebral Palsy, Colt League, Pony League, Little League, Camp Fire Council, Boy Scouts, Red Cross, USO, and Salvation Army, as well as United Fund.

The campaign kickoff date has been pending here throughout August until Lt. Gov. Barnes' confirmation could be received. It was reportedly held up due only to the adjournment of the Texas Legislature. It appears now that Barnes will be available on Sept. 17.

The campaign kickoff date is early this year, Corlis pointed out. Usually it falls around the first of October, but Corlis and other local United Fund officials felt that the backing up of the date this year would be to their advantage "because the merchants are busy during October with business operations."

But Corlis also emphasized that plans are to make this year's fund drive "more of a community-at-large effort not centered entirely upon the merchant. After all, the United Fund is a benefit to the entire community."

All majors have been named for the forthcoming campaign, he reported, which includes representatives in all the area communities.

Goodin and Corlis were optimistic toward pushing the goal "over the top" this year.

Last year's campaign was approximately 95 per cent collected.

United Fund officials have urged all area residents to hear Lt. Gov. Barnes' speech

IT IS YOUR MONEY

You have a right to know these facts

You spend a lot of money for auto insurance. You have read wild statements about insurance costs and companies. If you would like some plain talk, here it is.

They say... Auto insurance companies are guaranteed a profit.

FACT: Before insurance companies can make a profit they have to first pay to have wrecked cars repaired or replaced, pay hospital and doctor bills for folks injured in auto accidents, pay for stolen or stripped cars, pay for cars damaged by hail, fire, wind or flood waters, pay wages or commissions to 95,400 Texans who give service to policy holders in every county in the state, pay taxes and operate their companies. If there is anything left after all these payments have been made, it is profit.

They say... Texas auto insurance rates need to go up 11.4 percent.

FACT: The evidence is very clear. Accidents are up. Medical costs are up. Repair costs are up. Auto thefts and vandalism are both up. All this forces rates upward. Facts and figures prove that a 17 percent increase is needed now.

They say... There is nothing you can do to lower your auto insurance costs.

FACT: You can't lower labor and medical costs. You can't lower automobile and parts costs. You can help reduce the number of traffic accidents and crimes against automobiles. The accident that doesn't happen does not boost the cost of auto insurance. The car that isn't stripped or stolen does not increase the cost of your auto insurance.

Let Governor Smith, your Mayor and your County Officials know that you want a stop put to Texas' growing traffic accident and crime tolls... that you want the law enforced. Good law enforcement can reduce accidents and crimes against cars.

Lower accidents and crime rates can mean lower auto insurance rates for you. Isn't this worth a little effort on your part?

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Monieot

BEAUTY IS CREATIVE
The other morning I was out in the garden, and before I returned to the house I stopped to read a garden marker which I have near one of my favorite roses. This has engraved upon it a very meaningful poem for a gardener. I had read it many, many times, yet this early morning in the beauty of the garden I had an entirely new conception of beauty.

The marker reads of inspiration. Later in the day I had some errands to do. In doing them I was in many parts of town. I did see beauty, and I was made to feel it anew.

One of my errands was to stop at the First Baptist Church and leave my own contribution for the youth of the church who were packing for the unfortunate, homeless, and sick of the stricken areas in Mississippi.

When I entered the hall of the church, I was greeted by a good looking youth. He courteously accepted my package — thanked me for it — and told me that the gifts were coming in real well, that probably there would be at least a large truck load.

As he talked I saw a new beauty. It was expressed in his eyes because it came from his heart. Sincerely, I got a full new meaning of love, and beauty, and their creativeness.

Summed up it is service and sharing. And this is exemplified in the work of the garden clubs. New year books are being planned, new projects being adopted, and new zeal being shown.

Mrs. H. B. Horn, the new president of The Texas Garden Clubs Inc., set the key for us when she challenged us with her theme, which is, witness for happy gardening. God has given us the good earth, and it is in our power as gardeners to make our part of the good earth a beautiful garden, by working and by sharing. She further challenged us to be good gardeners, happy gardeners, and to not only cultivate our gardens but our living.

HEREFORD GARDEN CLUBS MAKE PLANS
All of the garden clubs have their yearbooks ready to go. Hereford has three garden clubs. They are The Garden Beautiful, Bud to Blossom-Garden Club, and The Hereford Garden Club. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr., is the president of The Garden Beautiful Club. Mrs. Ray Cowser is chairman of the year book committee, and the theme for their study is Landscaping. Major projects for the year deal largely with landscaping, in that they are to continue their work with King's Manor and the Deaf Smith County Hospital grounds.

The Garden Beautiful has majored on these two projects for several years. To make their money for investment for plantings, they have the Tour of Homes. This is one of the highlights of our city.

Mrs. Bill W. Nelson is the president of The Bud to Blossom Garden Club. Their comprehensive study is to be on roses. They will continue to assist in the beautification of the grounds at King's Manor, and the care and planting of peonies at the Community Center. Their new project is to make the floral arrangements for the tables at the Founders' Dinner.

Founders' Dinner is an annual affair given by and for King's Manor and Westgate. Mrs. Sam Long heads the program committee for this club.

Mrs. L. W. Norvell is the president of The Hereford Garden Club, and Mrs. Ray Johnson served as year book chairman. Now — Is Time to Garden For Beauty, is the theme. Continuing project will be toward landscaping the grounds for the new Camp Fire Lodge. New project will be the developing of plans and work on the Garden Center.

The Garden Center will be located at 208 Park Ave., where the Camp Fire Girls originally met.

The Hereford Garden Club is really overjoyed that Hereford is to have a garden center. To many, it is a dream come true.

For further developments which Glad's Garden. It is my wish that as we garden club members enter into the new year's activities we will all remember that our National Garden Club president, Mrs. William H. Barton has encouraged us to garden because to each of us there has been given the art of creativity, that all of us cannot be clever of commanding. Most of us are only average and unknown — life can be winged and wonderful — and full of music, love, sharing and beauty.

if we have faith to love and to hear and do.

Gardening should fill our hearts with love, because that is where the beauty blooms.

CLUB COURTESIES AND ETHICS

1. President should start all the meetings on time.

2. Business sessions should be held orderly. (Members may assist the president by being cooperative and orderly.)

3. Members should, if at all possible, be on time.

4. Every officer and member should accept assigned duties and perform them to the best of their ability, cheerfully.

5. Minutes should be concise, yet contain a record of all proceedings pertaining to business.

6. Always remember it is your club too, and its measure of success or failure you will share. Cooperation is the key to this.

7. Program chairman or leader of the program should see that all programs reflect the wishes of the president, who is responsible for all club activities.

8. In the absence of the program chairman, and if one has not been previously notified, the past program chairman should preside and perform these duties.

9. In making arrangements for a special speaker, contact her well in advance — preferably as the year book is being planned.

a. In the first contact, give details of the meeting, the approximate number of members, if there is to be guests, age level, organization objectives, and theme for year.

b. Inquire as to transportation. Also charges.

c. On the day of the meeting be sure that the speaker is met at the proper place or where the meeting is being held. Be courteous, thoughtful, and considerate. Introduce her to the president and to the other members.

d. In making the introduction for the lecture, make it concise yet meaningful.

e. If slides are to be used, test lights and all equipment, and ascertain if darkness is sufficient to make the pictures clear.

f. If speaker is arriving by car, make room for her to park near the entrance. If she is giving a demonstrated lecture and has extra materials, etc., appoint one or more to assist her.

Finally — but important — make all arrangements by letter, and firm, so there will be no misunderstanding. If there are charges, have the treasurer make out the check and present it to the speaker in a quite yet polite manner.

10. Be very sure that the speaker knows the address of the place of meeting. Send directions on the location — it is helpful to send a map (facsimile).

i. Graciously, yet briefly, thank the speaker orally and then by a written note later.

10. Be a cooperative, thinking, helpful member. Have pride in your organization. Speak a word of encouragement occasionally.

BEAUTY SPOTS

One of the most beautiful hedges in Hereford is at the Howard Gore home, 148 Centre. It shows good care, and has very good color, foliage of fine quality. The interesting factor about it is the design used in trimming it. (I understand that Mr. D. Kinsey started the care of the hedge). I drive up this street frequently to see the hedge. It thrills me, it is so pretty.

Another lovely spot in that block is at 106 Centre at the J. W. Harding home — its lovely yellow mums.

Speaking of bright color, the gorgeous marigolds at the museum are very striking and add much to the beauty of the grounds. The Deaf Smith County Museum is located at 400 Sampson. We are so proud of it and most grateful to those who have been the steering committee and officers.

Beautiful roses at the F. H. Flood home on 139 Liveoak, and at The Seventh-Day Adventist Church, also the rose hedges which are so very attractive at the Donald Clark home on Walnut Street.

An attractive and a bit unusual tree is the olive tree that is in the front yard at 716 Irving and the elm tree at 517 Irving.

Always there is the beauty at the homes of Mrs. Munoz, 230 Ave. D, and Mrs. Turridus, 232 Ave. D. Their flowers certainly do receive tender loving care and the neatness and cleanliness adds to the beauty of the homes.

A beautiful splash of vivid color is the bed of cannas at the Ray Conaway home, 118 Rio Vista Drive. I not only see beauty in the flowers, but the red coloring reminds me of the scattered love.

Speaking of Santa, a summer Santa visited our house. Thanks! for the delicious pie, vegetables, fruits, melons, and the collection of magazines — dear friends.

Love shared is truly beauty. ... Glad.

OLD SAYING

NEW DELHI — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's New Year greeting cards contained a couplet from the Yajurveda, an ancient Hindu book of religion.

The Sanskrit verse is followed by an English translation which reads: "May I be able to look upon all beings with the eye of a friend. May we look upon one another with the eye of a friend."

SAGE SOLONS
CHICAGO — The stereotype of a Congressman as not being very brainy won't stand up against the record. Commerce Clearing House says more than 400 of the 485 Representatives have college degrees, over half, 218, have law degrees, 33 have at least master's degree, and 13 have earned more than one advanced degree or a doctorate.

Readers Are Asking

HOW CAN a child's fear of dogs be lessened especially when it interferes with all outdoor activity?

Children are born into this world without fear of any kind. Soon the do's and don'ts begin and before long the fears of the parents are transmitted to the child before he has built up any defense of his own.

Almost always fear of animals reflects the attitude of a parent except when a child has been bitten or hurt and develops his own. The proper teaching of a child's approach to dogs may prevent the first bad experience, which sensitizes him and makes him fearful. There are some excellent rules that a child should be taught. He should learn never to approach a strange dog without the owner's permission. He should never approach a dog that is chained or one which is eating, even if the dog is not an entire stranger. These are good preventive methods to avoid instilling the fear of animals.

When once a child lives in terror of animals and avoids any outdoor exposure to them, it may be necessary to actually restrain him in his relationship with animals. It may even be possible that these fears are only the outward evidences of other fears which should be handled only by a psychologically trained person in an effort to uncover the basis for his anxiety.

Introducing a small animal like a hamster, or a bird, and then gradually progressing to a small puppy may break down a child's fears. It is imperative to choose a dog carefully because so many adorable looking animals may turn out to be the wrong one with which to accomplish this purpose.

Shaming a child because of his fear may either amplify or hide it to the point where it becomes deeply hidden and untreatable.

With all the tissue transplants will it ever be possible to substitute a new pancreas to cure diabetes?

When one says "will it ever" be possible to transplant a pancreas, I can only recall how preposterous it seemed a few short years ago to think that a heart, lung or spleen might be taken from one human and given to another.

When once the scientist really understands why some organs are rejected and why others are accepted, the possibility of every type of transplant can be looked forward to in the future.

The most complex matching of blood and tissue groups is being studied in an effort to unravel this single crucial answer to the successful transplantation of organs. Certainly the pancreas presents no greater improbability than any other organ.

The pancreas, its function and its position, seems to be unclear to many readers. It is a pear-shaped gland which lies behind the stomach and close to the vertebrae of the spinal column. It produces hormones and in the islets of Langerhans lie the cells that produce insulin, so important in the control of diabetes.

The prophecy of things to come in medicine can be summed up by an old concept. If man can think about it, he can and will at some time accomplish it.

Introducing a small animal like a hamster, or a bird, and then gradually progressing to a small puppy may break down a child's fears. It is imperative to choose a dog carefully because so many adorable looking animals may turn out to be the wrong one with which to accomplish this purpose.

Please accept our thanks for all the wonderful things done for us this last month. To the local hospital staff, you were so wonderful to me. To Drs. McCrary, Mims and Rush, you are tops. I do not know who all made blood donations, but thank you so much. The hospital was in need for the same type for another patient is the reason they took so much. For the many calls asking about our daughter, Sandra, thank you. She is now back in Houston teaching. Most of all, thank you for your prayers.

Q. I am 68 and receiving social security. Since I do not have any relatives in the United States, I would like to move to Mexico where I do have relatives. Can I move to Mexico and still receive my social security payments?

A. Yes. Your social security checks can be sent to you in Mexico. Before you leave, be sure you contact your nearest social security office and fill out the necessary forms.

Q. Is the $1,680 exempt amount in the social security retirement test the total before or after all deductions are made?

A. The $1,680 figure is the total earnings before any deductions for income or social security taxes.

Q. My son and I recently began receiving social security payments after my husband's death. My neighbor says that if the two of us together earn more than $1,680 a year, our checks will be stopped. Is this correct?

A. No, each of you may earn as much as $1,680 a year and still receive all of your checks.

Q. I have had doctor bills in two different states. The total bills add up to more than $50. Are the bills added together to meet the $50 deductible for Medicare, or is there a deductible for each state?

A. There is only one deductible regardless of where you receive covered medical services.

Legend Of The Devil's Daughter

Available at the Deaf Smith County Library this week are two fascinating tales of the frightening Cold War and the legend surrounding the Devil's daughter.

THE DEVIL'S DAUGHTER

By Eleazar Lipsky
San Francisco in the 'eighties—the days of the Barbary Coast and the Comstock Lode, when fortunes were made and spent overnight, when the veneer of newly bought sophistication lay thin and sparkling over the raw passions of the frontier. Into this turbulent scene came Jessica Roux, auburn-haired, sensuously graceful, with emotions so tempestuous and a personality so enigmatic and alluring that she was known as the "Devil's Daughter."

Her adversary was ex-Senator Lew Hagerman, powerful and ruthless. One of California's multimillionaires, he was, she claimed, her husband by a secret marriage. Her charge against him was adultery with a seventeen year old girl.

Pitted against the powerful financial and political figures that surrounded Hagerman was former State Chief Justice Mark Trumbull, a giant of a man. Reluctant at first to defend the Devil's Daughter, he found himself yielding to an attraction he could neither comprehend nor withstand.

In a legal battle of increasing bitterness and drama, the testimony piled scandal onto shock. The colorful parade of witnesses ranged from the pinnacles of San Francisco society to the dregs of the dock-area underworld, penetrating even into the dark workings of sorcery and voodoo. The outcome was ruin for some, triumph for others. Justice, truth? The reader must decide what was fact and what was fantasy in the swirling excitement of the legend surrounding the Devil's Daughter.

A PLACE IN THE COUNTRY

By Sarah Gainham
Night falls on the City, a stunning novel and international best seller that enthralled millions of readers with its searching portrait of war-torn Vienna, was conceived as the first of a Viennese trilogy. A PLACE IN

THE COUNTRY is the equally magnificent sequel set in Austria in 1948, a crucible of fear and superstition, tense with the stirrings of the Cold War. This novel features many of the wonderful characters of Night Falls on the City and introduces a fascinating new one, the young English Officer, Robert Inglis.

It is Inglis who, in the bitter cold of the Austrian winter, helps George Kerenyi from a van in which he and a motley assortment of half-dead men have traveled across Europe. Like the others in the van, Kerenyi is suffering from frostbite, starvation, and putrid, crowded conditions; unlike many of the others, he survives. This unlikely meeting of these two talented, complex men sets the stage for Inglis' involvement in the world of Julia Homberg, beautiful leading lady of the Viennese theater. At Julia's "place in the country," a haven for all those weary from the war, Inglis meets Lali von Kasda, Julia's tragic and lovely ward, and is confronted with the rich theatrical and intellectual life of middle Europe. With the return of some sort of normalcy, the action shifts to the Cold War intrigue of Vienna in the 1950's. The plot develops to include a double agent working for the Russians as well as Julia's own growing love for Kerenyi, a truly memorable character of contemporary fiction.

The theme of A PLACE IN THE COUNTRY, and of the whole trilogy, is the responsibility of the characters to one another and to their war devastated country. As in Night Falls on the City, Sarah Gainham reveals in this novel a profound insight into human nature, into the weakness, heroism, and capacity for self-deception of all human beings.

What is the A.B.C.?

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers.

Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulations of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insignia is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report published by ABC — the report literally tells us what our circulation is.

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinions.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report, yet we want you to know one is available anytime you are interested in the quality and quantity of our circulation audience — the audience, for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of assuring you that you get full measure for your advertising dollar in this newspaper.

Thinking Aloud

By BARBARA SWIMMER

What a great Labor Day weekend. It's a little difficult to get back to work after laboring all weekend. The maid at our house (that's me) cleaned my house from top to bottom. I wasn't very excited, but thorough.

My sons and I took in the Boys Ranch Rodeo on Sunday and it was really something. Cloudy skies and intermittent rain drops threatened the entire performance but luckily, that was all. I waited for the bottom to drop out of the clouds hanging lowly overhead (doesn't that sound fierce) knowing for sure if they did, I'd be in bad shape. My car was parked about half a mile away and my hair is the kind that could fall off if it gets wet — real wet.

Crowned as Rodeo Queen for the event was the lovely Mrs. Sherman Harriman, daughter of the late Cal Farley. Her grand entry into the arena was made in a surrey drawn by two confused little mules. They announced when they came in that the little critters weren't trained very well and it didn't take long for them to prove it. They jack-knifed the surrey and the queen was a lot braver than I would have been under the circumstances. There were a few anxious moments until all was straightened out and everyone breathed a sigh of relief. Needless to say, they didn't make any extra trips around the arena after she was crowned. She was then whisked out of the arena and the performance continued as scheduled.

The cutest part of the rodeo were the little three and five year-olds riding the barrel race on the most ferocious stick horses you have ever seen. One little tyke, that looked barely big enough to walk, much less ride a bucking broncho, lost his hat as he bounced into the arena, made a few trips around the barrels, then rode back by the hat and swooped it up with the dexterous skill of a pro.

After the rodeo was over we made a mad dash for the car, then waited an hour for the millions of cars to get out of my way. Cars were lined for miles bumper to fender and after we had nearly made it to the gates, we heard a commotion that wouldn't quit. I looked up and it was none other than the dumb scared little mules havin' a cowboy runaway.

There was narry a soul that seemed to be able to stop them and the surrey, with the harness and tongue broken but still hanging on, was swinging back and forth and hitting every car it came near. I just sat there watching dumbfounded, waiting for it to hit my car and veered behind me and went in between two other cars, hitting them both, then up the hill and I did see them anymore. As they went over the hill, I couldn't see anything, but I heard a loud crash and I could see the top of a tree and I just supposed they ran head on.

I talked to Mrs. Frank Smith last week and she was just bustin' with pride of feat accomplished by her son-in-law and grandsons. She had just received a letter from her daughter, in Woodland Hills Calif., telling her about her husband and sons being in a party of ten from the First Christian Church who climbed Mt. Whitney.

Only five made it to the top and three of them were Webers. Joe S. Weber and his sons, Dale and Bruce, were the three who made it to the summit which was over 14,000 ft.

HONOLULU — Gen. Ralph H. E. Haines, Pacific Army commander, has announced plans for a $16 million, 22- to 26-story high rise Rest and Recreation center building here. The structure will be built at Ft. De Russy in Waikiki and will contain 400 hotel rooms and associated facilities such as mess halls, a chapel, theater and other concessions.

IN THE Ten Commandments, which do you suppose gets the larger treatment? Reverent observance of the divine order for a day of rest and of worship gets chief emphasis. A moment's reflection makes the reason clear. The man who does not take time to keep the Sabbath will likely forget to worship the God of his fathers; he who does not reverence God cannot be expected to regard his neighbor and his neighbor's goods. Sabbath observance stands, therefore, at the very center of religion and of morality. Then if you disregard the Sabbath you do it at the peril of your soul!

NOTICE the argument of Moses. God could get His work done in six days, even the creation of a universe and all its creatures. Surely you do not need the seventh day for the lesser tasks of your doing.

YOU are under the command of God; you are a part of His creation; there is nothing more important for you than that you remember God and your relation to Him. The Sabbath is such a time of remembrance. The church bell, the rest from daily toil, the quietness in the busy street, the need of your own soul, unite to remind you of your God and His day. The law giver commanded His people to keep this one day sacred to the Lord; to use it for one's own profit is to rob God of the time which belongs to Him.

HERE is an ancient command, never more important than today. The press of the material and the secular was never more insistent; things want to get in the saddle and ride mankind. Remember the Sabbath; then you will worship God and know that you are the eternal child of the Highest. He who remembers the Sabbath most is most likely to remember to attend his church.

Deadlocked Tax Committee Back For Second Attempt

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex. — With the first special session of the Legislature a failure, Gov. Preston Smith called lawmakers back for a second try at writing a biennial budget and a balancing tax bill. Midnight gavels fell August 25 with neither task accomplished after tax conference committees were unable to break a stubborn deadlock. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes blamed the first session impasse on House refusal to place beer and liquor under the sales tax, House Speaker Gus Mutscher said that was a "smokescreen" masking other reasons for the Senate's refusal to come to terms with the Representatives. A Senate proposal to place food under a 2.5 per cent (reduced rate) sales tax was batted down unanimously (147-0) by the House. Thereafter, negotiations never budged beyond that point. In calling for the second session, Governor Smith laid it on the line. "We have been treated to a spectacle of petty quarreling, jealousies between houses, obstinate and self-serving positions, demagogic rhetoric, childish personalities and undue interference from the lobby," said the Governor, "I believe the people of Texas are sick and tired of it. I know I am." Smith warned that every function of state government would be "paralyzed or thrown into a state of uncertainty and confusion" if the new session failed to come up with a certifiable revenue appropriation by September 1. Legislature responded by banging through emergency 60-day budget proposals which would operate the state government through October 31 while members sought to reconcile differences over long-range finances. SAFETY PLAN RESUBMITTED — Texas failed to meet federal requirements with its traffic safety program, but a new plan now has been submitted. Highway Safety Bureau of the U. S. Department of Transportation is reviewing the second effort. Governor Smith was notified by Robert Brenner, acting director of the bureau, that the plan presented last December, before Smith took office, was incomplete. Comments on the new plan are encouraging, says Smith, but final action is not expected until fall.

Meanwhile, said the governor, safety efforts are continuing through the Texas Education Agency, the State Highway Department, the Department of Public Safety and the Texas Department of Public Health. CRIME RATE UP — Col. Wilson Speir, Department of Public Safety director, says Texas crime rate for the first six months of 1969 was 7.7 per cent higher than the comparable period in 1968. Major crimes increased in all categories except murder and homicide, where the rate declined 8.8 per cent. Greatest increase was in robbery . . . up 31.2 per cent. Aggravated assaults increased 20.9 per cent, auto theft 14.8 per cent, burglary 9.7 per cent, rapes 7.2 per cent and thefts 3.9 per cent. Urban areas experienced the greatest increase — 8.5 per cent. In rural areas, the average hike was less than one per cent. In cities over 100,000, the increase was almost nine per cent. In those from 50,000 to 100,000, increase was 7.1 per cent and in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, 18.8 per cent. Crime clearance rates for the period was 27 per cent. . . the same as 1968. Clearance rate for murders was 84 per cent, for rapes 66 per cent and robbery 39 per cent. DPS noted that statistics show a major crime every one and one-third minutes during January-June. LATE HOURS PERMITS ISSUED — Texas Liquor Control Board now is issuing special late hours permits for taverns and private clubs in wet areas. A new law, effective September 1, provides that late-hours establishments can serve alcoholic beverages until 2 a. m. However, the statute is effective only in counties of 300,000 or more population (based on the 1960 census) and those where commissioners courts or city councils specifically approve. State fee of $100 is collected from taverns selling wine and beer until the new curfew hour. Private clubs which want to stay open until 2 a. m. must pay $500 for a permit. State Liquor Control Board must issue the permit or license. SADLER CENSURE REFUSED — After lengthy debate, House of Representatives rejected a proposed resolution reprimanding Texas Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler for failing to cooperate with lawmakers. Rep. Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi introduced the resolution (and resubmitted it to the second called session) charging that Sadler misled a House committee inquiring about his handling of salvage operations on ancient Spanish ships which sank off Padre Island more than 400 years ago. Sadler, appearing before the House rules committee, admitted his original testimony on the issue was evasive and misled-

ing. However, he claimed his tactics were necessary because of the delicate nature of the subject under inquiry. ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS — Sale of any alcoholic beverage in Calhoun County Precinct 3 is prohibited under local option vote, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said in opinion requested by County Attorney William M. Day. In an opinion for the guidance of Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar, Martin clarified securities authorized for school depository funds. In a third opinion, Martin said that a new law does not define the practice of psychology as a branch of the healing art. ROAD PROGRAM APPROVED — State Highway Department has approved a $52 million highway safety and farm to market improvement program for 1970. Projects include construction of work on 6,373 miles, to cost $51.2 million; and right of way and relocation assistance totaling $94.7 million. Some $871,000 was reserved for later assignment. About 55 per cent of the work will be on state and U. S. numbered highways. Forty five per cent is assigned to Texas' farm to market road system. Most of the work will serve to increase safety on the highways, and a large portion will go to reconstruction. SECURITIES — Truman G. Holladay, deputy securities commissioner, says the State Securities Board has issued a cease and desist order against Pace International, Inc. of Austin (known as Paceco), prohibiting the sale of securities in Texas. He charged that the company had never been registered, as is required by law, with the board. William King, securities commissioner, also announced that Wayne C. Davison has pleaded guilty to charges that he sold unregistered securities. King was sentenced in Harris County to three years in prison and given a probated sentence. One of the conditions of the probation is that Davison is to make full restitution to the investors. HAULING JURISDICTION — Railroad Commission has agreed to let more than 100 oilfield haulers pool their efforts to get a broader authority for hauling. The 100 companies are asking the Railroad Commission to expand their jurisdiction to include hauling of any "iron and steel articles." If jurisdiction is granted, oilfield haulers could carry any iron or steel material. Common carriers, who have jurisdiction to haul anything, and oilfield haulers with wide jurisdiction to haul iron and steel are opposing the application. INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE — That "no transfer" rule of the University Interscholastic League will be the subject of an interim House study. During the first special session of the Legislature, Rep. Bill Swanson of Houston gained passage of a resolution calling for the study. Swanson said the UIL also thinks there should be some appeal of the one-year bar for athletes who change schools, so the committee will look for an acceptable means. SHORT SNOOTS — Agriculture Department has given Rio Grande Valley cotton farmers in Cameron, Willacy and southern parts of Hidalgo and Starr counties until September 15 to clear fields of stalks under the pink bollworm control program. Attorney General Martin says he will go to Washington to oppose that section of tax bill now being considered by a U.S. Senate committee that would remove the exempt status of municipal bonds. Governor Smith named Austin banker John Simeon Burns to Board of Sale of Judgments Against Insolvency. COMPARISON — The president of India's ruling Congress party, Sidhavana-halli Nijalingappa, has compared communists to an unfaithful wife. "Both have extra-territorial loyalties," he told an election meeting.

Washington Report

From Congressman
BOB PRICE 10TH DISTRICT, TEXAS
1323 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D.C. • 223-2726

With Congress in recess until after Labor Day, and the President on a working holiday at the Western White House in San Clemente, I think it is a good time to review the record of the Nixon Administration during its first months of office.

VIETNAM

The President has announced a comprehensive plan which can leave no doubt of his desire for peace in Vietnam. For the first time in eight years, American troops are beginning to come home. However, although willing to take a risk to gain peace in that part of the world, the President is "unwilling to take part in any disguised surrender."

FOREIGN RELATIONS

In his recent trip abroad, the President clearly improved our national image in the countries he visited. He demonstrated his willingness to go anywhere to store mutual understanding and establish a more peaceful world. In key meetings with various heads of state both at home and abroad, the President has laid the diplomatic groundwork for major new initiatives in our Asian policy and East-West relations.

INFLATION

In fighting the sharply rising cost of living, the Nixon Administration has already created a substantial budgetary surplus. In addition to cutting the fat out of the previous Administration's budget, the President has proposed an anti-inflationary tax program and effected anti-inflationary fiscal policies. Believing that economy begins at home, the President has also reduced funds available for hiring Federal employees and decreed a 10 percent cutback in Federal employees stationed around the world.

TAX REFORM

The President has proposed major tax reforms which would phase out the surtax, remove five million poor from the tax rolls, reduce the tax levied on low and middle income taxpayers, and prevent the very rich from escaping their responsibility to pay federal income taxes. The President's proposals have been incorporated into the Tax Reform Act of 1969 which is now pending before the Senate. While the President's proposals were aimed primarily at the individual taxpayer, the House tacked on several controversial provisions relating to trade and commerce. If the Senate does not agree with the House version, it may modify it or reject it in its entirety. In either event, the House, in conference, will have the opportunity to vote on a new or a modified tax reform measure.

WELFARE REFORM

President Nixon's proposals to reshape the nation's antiquated welfare system appears to be the first significant effort in over three decades to shift welfare emphasis from handouts to jobs and job training. His "New Federalism" domestic policy would continue payments to those unable to work. However, through a system of job incentives and job training under the revamped manpower training program it would become more profitable for an individual to work than to stay on welfare. The poor will always be with us and provision must be made for their care. But, as the President said, what Americans need is not more welfare but more "workfare." Under the President's proposed welfare system, old age assistance, aid to the blind and to the partially and totally disabled would be continued.

REVENUE SHARING

The "New Federalism" policy proposed a revenue sharing plan that will allow local and state governments to combat their problems with federal funds. The plan increases the problem solving responsibility of state and local levels, and at the same time reduces red tape and bureaucratic mismanagement by minimizing long-distance Federal involvement. The Nixon Administration formulated the plan based on its belief that state meet the financial burden presently borne by state and local taxes on the distribution of obligations.

LAW AND ORDER

The Nixon Administration has launched a major attack on organized crime. It has proposed new laws which would facilitate this attack and would strengthen state and local law enforcement agencies. The President has also proposed legislative attacks on the distribution of obscene and pornographic materials and the control of narcotics and dangerous drugs. Both problems have become national scandals, whose origins lie in the general permissiveness which has evolved under previous Administrations.

DEFENSE POLICY

The President has gone on record opposing any cut in our state of military preparedness which would weaken our national defense posture. Realizing the need for a missile defense system, the Administration uncompromisingly put its prestige on the line in favor of the Safeguard System. The narrow approval of Safeguard in the Senate foreshadows its overwhelming endorsement in the House, thus insuring that the President will speak from a position of strength in his attempts to improve East-West relations.

As you can see, the first months of the Nixon Administration have been active ones. A recent Gallup Poll found that 65 percent of the American people approve of the way the President is doing his job. This is from the Texas Panhandle. The also the consensus of a majority of the letters I have received from the Texas Panhandle. The President has worked diligently for a strong measure of approval. By his calm, careful, and well thought out approach to our national problems, the President has earned the confidence of the American people.

For my part, I can best assist the President in his work and can best represent the interests of the 18th Congressional District, if I continue to get the benefit of the views of the residents of the Texas Panhandle. It is for this reason that I am greatly pleased by the great volume of mail I receive, and the large number of constituents who stop by and visit while I am in my Washington and Amarillo offices.

Mrs. Johnnie Albert Price
wed in Amarillo ceremony

Miss Moore Of Amarillo Wed To Johnnie A. Price

The North Amarillo Christian Church was the setting recently for the wedding of Miss Rebecca Jane Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore of Amarillo and Johnnie Albert Price Jr. of Hereford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie A. Price Sr. of Vega.

Following a wedding trip to Mexico, the couple is at home in Hereford where he is manager for Gattis Shoes.

Officiating for the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Jimmy Hays, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Charles Wyatt, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Vega.

Lighted candelabrum entwined with greenery and white satin bows formed an arch for the nuptial background.

A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Karen Hobbs, soloist, and Mrs. Glen Boydston, organist, both from Vega.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal empire styled gown of candlelight satin exquisitely fashioned with imported lace appliques and a circular chapel train. A matching bow held her elbow length veil of illusion and she carried a bridal bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Danny Richardson and bridesmaids were Misses Nancy Ruth Pinto and Jackie May Johnson, both of Amarillo and Miss Sharyn Gayle Oakley of Lubbock.

Serving as best man was Richard Rexroot of Houston and groomsmen were Jerry Hopkins, Houston; Duane McCulloch, Lubbock and Dick Hale, Amarillo.

Ushers were Andy Cepurniek of Tulsa, Charles Gardenhire of Las Cruces, New Mex., Danny Richardson and Jim Luginbelle, both of Amarillo.

The bride's attendants wore identical formal gowns of yellow maril taffeta with matching headpieces. They each carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

Misses Perri Anne and Laura Sue Cepurniek of Tulsa, nieces of the groom, were flower girls. They wore floor length yellow dresses with velvet sashes and matching hairpieces.

Master Kenneth Lee Gardenhire of Las Cruces, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Lighting the candles were brothers of the bride, Mark and Monte Moore.

Friends were received by the parents and wedding party at a reception immediately following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall.

The bride is a graduate of Palo Duro High School and attended Amarillo College where she was a cheerleader, a Student Senate member and was associated with Sigma Phi Chi Sorority.

The bridegroom attended Vega High School and Amarillo College and is a senior student at West Texas State University where he is a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa Fraternity.

The bridegroom's parents were host to the rehearsal dinner at the Colonial Cafeteria Banquet Room where yellow roses with tapers and greenery decorated the serving tables.

Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cassity, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wyatt, Mrs. Glen Goydstun, Mrs. John Hobbs and Karen, Mrs. Roy Harrell, Mrs. Don Harwell, Lee and Jan. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Price Sr. of Vega; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gardenhire Mrs. Andy Cepurniek and daughter of Tulsa; Mr. and Mrs. David Price and Martha of Abilene.

Mr. L. V. Clayton and Dusty of S'ehenville, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Allison, Dublin; Mr and Mrs. Jack Moore, Canadian; Rev. and Mrs. Marvin Roark, White Deer; Mrs. George Paschal, Mrs. Lawrence Bagley and Lester Kirkland of Hereford.

INTERNATIONAL SWEET TOOTH

LONDON — Sweet news for Britain's alling trade figures — the confectionery industry boosted its exports last year by a record 23 per cent to just over 30 million pounds ($72 million).

Exports to dollar-area markets accounted for well over a third of sales at 11.7 million pounds ($28. million).

FOOD SERVICE
CHICAGO — Luncheon service for senior citizens has started at six new centers in Chicago's Nutrition Program for Older Adults.

Robert J. Ahrens, director of the Division for Senior Citizens of the City of Chicago's Department of Human Resources, said the new meal service is part of a planned expansion in the nutrition program which makes meals available at reasonable cost.

The program is expected to be serving 1,500 meals a day in 35 locations by the end of 1969.

The program is administered by the Division for Senior Citizens with the aid of a $194,762 first-year federal grant under the Older Americans Act.

Persons 60 and over may visit the center nearest their homes.

"Our early experience shows that senior citizens throughout the city not only are welcoming the nutritious, reasonably priced meals offered but also the added opportunities for social relationships that are afforded during the luncheons," Ahrens said.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Fancy That Chicken Dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor
 It's an interesting main course, and it's for company — this dish of chicken breasts with a filling of crushed pineapple and orange sections and a delightfully flavored sauce. Perfect with rice as an accompaniment. Add a salad and a dessert to the menu and you're set. Great to serve "the girls" when they come visiting.

By the way, when we tested the recipe some of the chicken was leftover; we found it reheated beautifully in its sauce. So you could make this dish ahead.

CHICKEN FLORIDA

- 1 can (8 1/2 ounces) crushed pineapple
 - Orange juice
 - 1/2 cup orange sections, cut in small pieces
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 3/4 teaspoon mustard
 - 1/2 teaspoon ginger
 - 4 broiler-fryer chicken breasts (boned, skinned and halved)
 - 2 tablespoons butter
 - Cornstarch Mixture, see below
- Drain pineapple. Save pineapple syrup (there should be about 1/4 cup) and add enough orange juice to it to make 3/4 cup; reserve. In a small bowl mix drained crushed pineapple, orange pieces, 1/2 teaspoon salt, the mustard and the ginger; reserve.

Place the breast halves between 2 pieces of foil; pound with side of cleaver or rolling pin to flatten. Remove chicken from foil. Sprinkle with remaining 1/2 teaspoon of the salt. Drain any liquid from pineapple-orange mixture; place mixture on top of breast halves, dividing it equally among them. Fold sides over filling and roll chicken tightly; fasten with toothpicks or skewers. Dry chicken rolls on paper toweling.

In a 10-inch skillet, melt butter. Add chicken rolls and over moderate heat cook until golden brown, turning as necessary — about 10 minutes. To skillet add reserved pineapple syrup and orange juice mixture. Simmer until tender — about 15 minutes.

Remove chicken; remove pickers; keep chicken warm. Strain liquid in skillet; measure and add enough orange juice (or chicken broth if handy) to make 1 1/2 cups; return liquid to skillet and heat. Stir in cornstarch mixture. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened, clear and boiling. Add chicken.

Set bottom of a 2-quart chafing dish, filled with boiling water, over canned heat. Turn chicken and sauce into top of chafing dish. This service is particularly effective if "seconds" are being offered.

Makes 4 to 8 servings — 1 or 2 rolls per portion.

Cornstarch Mixture: In a small bowl stir together 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 2 tablespoons light brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon stir in 1/2 cup orange juice; keeping smooth. Stir again before using as directed above.

CHICKEN FLORIDA — Stuffed chicken breasts in an orange-curry sauce may be served in a handsome chafing dish and kept hot over canned heat.
