Tax Refunds Necessary Because of Court Ruling

Reversal of Attorney General Complicates Matters for Local Officials.

Tax payers of Deaf Smith county are due to receive back from the collector's office, as soon as the correct way to do it has been authorized, a considerable amount of money paid as penalties and interest on delinquent taxes since October 1.

Tax Collector John B. Miller received official word this week to the effect that the state supreme court had over-ruled Attorney General James V. Alford's decision upon the recent enactment of the legislature relative to remitting the penalties and interest upon delinquent taxes paid between October 1, 1931, and February 1, 1932.

On October 1 the state legislature enacted a special law authorizing the cancellation of all penalties and interest on delinquent taxes and unpaid 1930 taxes, should the past due tax be paid before February 1, 1932. Attorney General Alford ruled that the legislature had no authority to permit or release from payment the interest or penalties of taxes for the years before 1930 nor the ten per cent interest charged on 1930 taxes unpaid after last February 1, before October 1, 1931. He ruled that the legislature could only remit or release from payment the penalties and interest on all taxes as accrued between October 1, 1931, and February 1, 1932, and for that period only.

Consequently, in accordance with that ruling, all delinquent taxes paid in Deaf Smith county since October 1, have included the penalties and interest that Mr. Alford's decision called for. Now, in compliance with the supreme court's overruling of the attorney general, the individual amounts of penalties and interest upon delinquent taxes paid since October 1 must be refunded by the tax collector to the taxpayers.

The supreme court ruling was made Wednesday of last week, and provides for the refunding as noted above, with the exception of delinquent taxes upon which judgment has been given following suit brought for the collection of taxes. The refunding applies, of course only to delinquent and 1930 taxes paid after October 1, and before February 1, 1932.

Explicit directions for the proper method of making this refund have not been received by Tax Collector Miller from State Comptroller George H. Sheppard, and until such instructions come, local tax officials cannot make the refunds. The penalties and interest payments collected by them since October 1 have been distributed to their respective state and county departments, and will have to be returned to the tax collector before he can give them back to individual taxpayers.

County Library Shows Healthy Annual Growth

Miss Lillie Hostetler, librarian of the Deaf Smith County Free Library, gave out the statement this week that reading interest in the books distributed continued to grow steadily. In comparison with the number of books read over the county last year, when the amount was considered phenomenal, an increase of more than 1,000 books per month are now being given out regularly.

Periodicals and magazines are being used to a great extent at present, says Miss Hostetler, to furnish new and fresh reading matter, and donations that are brought in by different interested and public spirited citizens when they have finished reading their magazines have given delight to thousands of eager readers over the county.

Jack Wright Wins Prizes On White Rocks

Jack Wright of the West Texas Feed & Seed Company was the only local poultry breeder who exhibited birds in the show at Perryton December 17-18-19, but his White Plymouth Rocks gave a good account of themselves, even without Jack being present to look after them.

There were 80 White Rocks in the show and Jack was sent first and second prizes for hens and second and fifth prizes for cockerels, and he says he is well pleased.

SANDSTORM TOO MUCH FOR THE WHITEFACES

The high school basketball team either did not get going or could not catch up with the fleet tactics of the Amarillo ball tossers here Tuesday evening, and the local went down by a disastrous score. Definite figures were not reported, but 47 to 17 is not far wrong from the final count.

SHERIFF TAKES TWO BOYS TO REFORM SCHOOL

Sheriff John B. Miller and son, R. V., left Wednesday for Gatesville with two boys, Norman Griffin of Cleveland, Ohio, and Pat Chamlee, to put them in the state training school for boys.

The boys were sent there by official court action as the result of an alleged hi-jacking escapade wherein they attempted to hold up W. F. Harle of Vega long Twenty-Five Mile Avenue, October 9, according to a signed confession given County Attorney John Coffee by the Griffin boy. Being frustrated in the attempt, the boys fled through fields until run down by pursuers and captured, the Chamlee boy suffering wounds in the head from a shotgun before surrendering.

The two youths are reported to have been but 15 years of age.

LIONS HOLD IMPRESSIVE NEW YEAR'S PROGRAM

Lion John McLean was in charge of Wednesday's luncheon program and began it by placing the obligation upon each member present to stand and make his New Year resolution aloud, and in conclusion pay tribute to the Lion sitting next on his left by telling what the speaker considered his neighbor Lion's best characteristic. Lion McLean asked that the usual levity and hilarity please be left out of the remarks made.

The response was contagious and some of the finest thoughts for the best interests of the city and community and noblest personal aspirations conceivable were brought forth as the Lions made their respective talks, and it was heart-warming to hear how those fellows could brag on each other. There was no foolishness in that part of the program, and it is to be regretted that Hereford as a whole can never know just how fine and impressive the talks were. So true and fitting were the tributes paid and so near to what the club as a whole felt toward each Lion that the program became a veritable love feast. Hereford will feel the effects of this week's Lion meeting for years to come.

Jo Ann, vivacious little daughter of Boss Lion Prentice Rosson, was his guest and sat at his left, highly elated with the proceedings, and soon was roasting with the Lions mightily. Mayor E. S. Ireland, who becomes a Lion cub by virtue of entering the club next week, was present. J. C. Parker, picture show magnate, will break into the den next week, also. Two Lions have been appointed to achieve proper ceremonies of welcome for them then. The club also has in the making a Ladies' Night Program to be given in honor of wives and friends within a few weeks.

Are We Going to Give the Little Fellow a Chance?

WARD COMMUNITY MAN KILLS BIG RATTLESNAKE

One of the most unusual circumstances in local history during the past week as reported to the Brand, was the killing of a three-foot rattlesnake by F. R. Stivers of Ward community, on December 23.

The melting of an average 12-inch snow just preceded the finding of the snake, which makes its appearance all the more unusual, despite the time of year.

H. D. BLYTHE RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FIRE

One of Hereford's better old-time houses was lost early this morning in a fire that completely destroyed what is familiarly known as the J. B. Phillips place in North Hereford. It had been the family residence of H. D. Blythe for some time, and the flames made an almost clean sweep of their home, their clothing and very little of the furniture being saved.

F.T. ASSOCIATION TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY

The first regular session of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held at 3:30 p. m. in the auditorium of Central ward school next Tuesday, January 5. Mrs. Harry Fritz is in charge of the program and all members are urged to attend, while a cordial invitation is extended to all patrons and citizens.

M. L. Steele was home to spend Christmas in Hereford.

Garcia Lake Location Brings Deaf Smith Really Deep Test

The deep test for oil in western Deaf Smith county, known as the Garcia Lake location, is down 100 feet and work will go steadily forward after the first of the year, according to Edward H. Blood, who gave the Brand a thorough report on the well this week.

The drilling site is at the center of the northwest quarter of section 15 in township 3 north, range 2 east, the rig standing near the outlet of the draw that comes into Garcia Lake from the northwest. The location is 35 miles west of Hereford, reached by following Harrison Highway west some 28 miles, then north on the newly graded road that leads almost directly to the well.

The test was made possible by the untiring work of Mr. Blood and Samuel H. Roberts of the Capitol Syndicate Company, who have been at the task of assembling leases around the site for the past several years. Promotion of the well is now under the direction of Harry F. Geiswold, of the Western Union Oil Company of Fort Worth, and drilling operations are under the management of George W. McFann of McFann & Price of Shamrock.

The company holds some 20,000 acres of leases surrounding the site, most of it owned by the Capitol Syndicate Company of Chicago, and R. M. Cook of Kansas City, with the adjoining lands of nearby property owners making up the remainder. The exact location was made last September, drill rig and working equipment transported out and set up, and the spudding in or beginning of actual drilling operations was on November 15. No exploitation of the possibilities of the well, or the usual bombast incidental to the beginning of a deep test, was permitted.

The contract for drilling specifies a 4500 foot hole to be completed by October 1, 1932, beginning with 20 inch casing at the top and finishing with 8 inch casing at the bottom, with continuous work until the test is completed or production reached at a lesser depth. There have been 80 feet of 20-inch casing set, and the 15-inch pipe to join on at that depth is expected by the time the drillers resume work after the holidays.

The equipment consists of a standard rig, powered by a Bessemer engine burning distillate. Some $25,000 worth of working material is on the premises now, and more in the shape of casing, etc. is being transported out as fast as it is needed. The block of leases will be turned over to the promoting company when a depth of 1,000 feet has been reached.

The Garcia Lake test is a real opportunity for Hereford and Deaf Smith county to learn whether or not there is oil under the promising formations that have been looked toward so expectantly by all geologists who have gone over this region. It is an accepted theory that there must be oil somewhere out there—the only question has been to strike the right spot and secure a large enough block of leases to finance the sinking of a really deep test. Garcia Lake has been acknowledged as one of the most favorable spots for the location, and the accumulation of the 20,000 acres in leases has made a 4500-foot test there a reality.

One thing is sure: Garcia Lake is one of the most peculiar land formations in this part of the Panhandle, and probably has more historic interest than any other spot in the county. The high, precipitous bluffs overhanging the north and east sides of a natural lake several sections in size, in an otherwise comparatively unbroken prairie is an unusual sight, and the draw leading down into the lake from the northwest has some very peculiar natural spring formations. There is no outlet from Garcia Lake.

That the site was noted in local history, even before the coming of white people, is evidenced by the signs of former habitation by the Indians along the draw and upon the bluffs on the north side of Garcia. Circular formations of stones evidently used to firmly anchor lodge poles gives rise to the idea that the lake was a place of permanent residence of Indian tribes, going back nobody knows how long into the prehistoric period of America.

Chamber of Commerce Takes Lead In Promotion

R. O. Dunkle to Resume County Agent's Work

Tomorrow morning R. O. Dunkle, extension worker and former county agent, will again assume the authority of his office and take up the task of organizing the work for the coming year. In reality, Mr. Dunkle has never been absent from the work during the few months he was out of the county employ, as so many unfinished parts of the 1931 work needed completion and the answering of a great number of inquiries for assistance took up more than his full time.

According to the arrangements made by District Agent John R. Edmonds with the county commissioners court at the suggestion of Mr. Dunkle, he will be with the Deaf Smith county work but during the month of January, after which he will be transferred to other work and a new agent come here.

THREATENING WEATHER WAS CLEARED AWAY

Blustery winds that began from the southwest and ultimately swung around to the northeast, have kept Deaf Smith county people wondering just what was coming Wednesday afternoon an overcast sky and rapidly lowering temperatures as evening drew near made weather prospects anything but promising, yet this morning the clouds had cleared away and warmer conditions are in evidence. Very little, if any, freezing temperatures were recorded during the night, but the weather looked bad and a heavy snow would not have come unexpected.

FREAK CALF EXHIBITED IN CLOYD MARKET WINDOW

The peculiar double-calf recently dropped by a Jersey cow belonging to John Cunningham, an account of which was previously printed in the Brand, has been stuffed and mounted and has been on display in the window of the Cloyd Market this week. While unpleasant to the sight of some perhaps, the specimen is undoubtedly a most remarkable one, and well worth observation.

A question arises whether the calf was a he or them. Two perfect bodies were joined to the back of one head, the neck gradually spreading until separating to form each of the bodies. The two "inside" front legs are folded back to stand above the shoulders, both perfectly formed, and the remainder of the two bodies are normal. An X-ray picture taken of the carcass revealed bone structures of two well formed bodies whose vertebrae united at the base of the skull.

It was reported "it" was alive at birth, the neck getting broken at that time.

WILBORADO WELL REPORTED TO BE DOWN OVER 3000 FEET

A driller working on the Wilborado oil test well located about eight miles northeast of Vega is reported to have told in Hereford Monday that the depth of the hole has reached 3,005 feet, and was drilling in a limestone formation so hard it took the bit eight hours to go three feet, and that all fires had been extinguished in anticipation of the moment the bit may break through into the gas supposed to lay immediately beneath the lime. The well is the promotion of a firm of Amarillo business men.

Mrs. Ed East and daughter, Virginia, and son, Henard, with Chas. Simpson and Noel Bryant motored to Memphis Saturday and returned Monday evening, visiting Rev. J. M. Fuller and family. Henard East preached at the Methodist church in Memphis.

Time and Conditions Indicated Favorable to Completion of Highways.

Next Monday noon at its regular monthly luncheon the Hereford chamber of commerce will present a program designed to make Deaf Smith county paved highway conscious. Diligent work and much investigation during the past month have brought forth facts and figures relative to highway possibilities and construction economies, ranging all the way from routes and types of construction to the cost thereof and the bond issues necessary to accomplish them, not to mention the ascertaining of what other places are doing, why they are doing it, what the effect will be on Deaf Smith county and what local interests should do about it.

The very best informed persons available will be present to give first hand facts from their own observations and experience to those who attend the luncheon. So far as possible all points of important interest involving a Deaf Smith county road program will be covered thoroughly in a competent manner as easily understood as they can be made.

C. E. Mauldin, member of the New Mexico state highway department, has been invited to talk of caliche roads, with and without penetration tops. For many years Mr. Mauldin has been a contractor of highways in New Mexico, has built untold miles of the very type of structure in which this county is interested, and now he is inspector of all highway building in the eastern and southern parts of the neighboring state. Mr. Mauldin is an absolute authority on caliche roads, and his knowledge embraces all phases incidental to materials, types, stability, costs, maintenance, and to suitability for kinds, weight and amount of traffic, as practiced in the most recent road building methods.

W. F. Lampke, of the Amarillo chamber of commerce highway department, has been invited to attend Monday and discuss ways and means other counties over the Panhandle have used to organize their road possibilities and bring highway programs to successful conclusions. Mr. Lampke has been in contact with more road bond issues on the Plains than any other one man in the territory, knows how and where national, state, county, community and district road interests meet and the way to make them serve each other's purpose, what kinds of road programs are practical and how to go about accomplishing them most economically, and his knowledge is based on what has actually been done. He has made it his business to know estimates and figures relative to every highway project of recent occurrence in the Panhandle and he can give those numbers like firing a machine gun.

P. S. Bailey, state highway engineer, has been invited to be here and tell just what cooperation the county can expect from the state in a road program, and what must be done to secure that help. He will probably have something to say, also, concerning the analysis of the caliche deposits of Deaf Smith county, a subject of much concern to some local citizens who have expressed doubt of its suitable texture or composition.

Wilbur C. Hawk, manager of the Amarillo News-Globe, who is also a member of the recently met committee on organization looking toward the successful completion of a state-wide bond issue to eventually pay off all county highway bonds, has been invited to be present Monday to give what ideas concerning the work of that committee he may be privileged to discuss for local benefit.

Local speakers with compiled statistics will be prepared to tell

In these days when it seems everybody is wondering what is coming next, it is singularly appropriate that the item headed,
 "The Lesson of the Day" should be read and seriously taken to heart by every American citizen.

THE LESSON OF THE DAY
 The following article is reprinted from Harper's Weekly--Vol 1, page
 642--of the issue dated October 30, 1887.

74 Years Ago.
 "It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years-- nor in the lifetime of most men who read this paper--has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed to incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is universal prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow-citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment, and without the prospect of it.
 "In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs, as usual, like a cloud, dark and silent, upon the horizon of Europe; while all the energies, resources and influences of the British Empire are sorely tried,
 and are yet to be tried more sorely, in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed
 relations in China.
 "It is a solemn moment, and
 no man can feel an indifference (which, happily, no man pretends to feel) in the issue of events.
 "Of our own troubles no man can see the end. These are fortunately, as yet, mainly commercial; and if we are only to lose money, and by painful poverty to be taught wisdom--
 the wisdom of honor, of faith,
 of sympathy and of charity--

Twenty-One Years Ago In Hereford

(From Files of The Brand of January 6, 1911.)

Editor's Note.--A slight break in the records of old Brands permits
 the printing during January of two years' earlier history of Hereford than has been done for the past year.

Two of the new Santa Fe Mallett
 engines went through Hereford enroute to Albuquerque where they were to be tried out. The old-timers will remember those big long fellows that looked like double-headed.

Alex Thompson was running a lumber yard on North Main and advertised horses and mules for sale.

The Brand was advertising a one year's subscription and a copy of Hicks' almanac with the magazine, Word and Works, for $1.50.

The Brand believed that 1911
 would be a prosperous and happy
 year for this community. The year previous had not brought the crop and financial returns all had hoped for, yet all absolute necessities
 of life had been supplied, and it thought valuable lessons in economical practices of living had been learned.

The women's clubs of Hereford had stood up valiantly against the menfolk of the town in a "spelling bee" to secure an even tie--
 "valiantly" being the unspelled
 conqueror of all present.

Members of the Bayview club had entertained their husbands at

the Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Rolson home.

Those with their fruit trees well irrigated were advised they could expect a full crop of fruit the next fall.

E. B. Posey had been elected second assistant cashier of the First National Bank at the annual directors meeting.

The Brand carried a story of two men killed in aviation, one at New Orleans and the other at Los Angeles. Airplanes were not very popular those days. It was worth a special story that the county commissioners had ridden
 in an automobile to Canyon to see the new court house fixtures just installed there.

no man need seriously to despair. And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this widespread calamity, has also tended to destroy the moral forces with which we are to resist and subdue the calamity."

Just see how world affairs stacked up then, what the leading minds of the country thought about conditions then, and recall for yourself what glorious accomplishments have been achieved by people since that time.

It happened then as it has in the past year or so, a lack of confidence in our fellow beings resulted in calamities ultimately reflected upon everyone, that a little forethought and consideration would have prevented. A lack of confidence in leadership can be just as disastrous to a community,
 state of nation, as lack of confidence in a local business, bank,
 or any organization that has to do with finances, crops and manufacturing. Leaders can do nothing without followers, and if those who should follow scatter their efforts promiscuously, no concerted action is possible and all the advantage of the unity of forces is lost.

Just because some person of national importance makes a hair-brained statement relative to affairs in general, there is no occasion to get excited and follow blindly after his thoughts. Nor is it necessary to stir up strife, to "get even" with him. Mistakes are common to everyone and the great are no exception. The error is effective when the great person has not the moral courage to acknowledge his fault, but through stubborn pride or other motive contends for his view despite the disastrous result it may have on his community, state or nation.

An example that aptly illustrates the point is the insulting remark Senator Moses made concerning other senators who did not hold his views, and their subsequent efforts to get back at him
 even at the cost of delaying important national decisions, making the whole country unnecessarily suffer because of the schoolboy pastime of spitting at each other.

The adde-pated ones will be removed from the affairs of civilization just as they have always been. They merely make a ripple on the smooth surface upon which progress sails. No thought and no movement that is not ultimately to result in benefits to the world can stand for long. It has always been the way as far back as history reaches, and will continue so. That which is best for the greatest number, will count
 for most.

Let us have confidence in ourselves, our community, our state our country and civilization. Forget the black clouds of doubt and distrust that are flung across our horizon by those whose vision is limited or have lost their own confidence in the eventual rightness of affairs. There have always been leaders who guided aright

 and enough to follow them to bring about great accomplishments,
 and there are now or will be again.

Don't forget the luncheon of the chamber of commerce next Monday noon. That hour should be the nucleus of the finest New Year's gift Deaf Smith county can give itself. Composite details of a contemplated highway program will be explained as definitely as will be possible in one hour's time,
 and all citizens own an obligation
 to themselves and their community
 to attend.

Those favoring an immediate road program should come to learn more about it and be prepared to tell others, for it will take all working together to accomplish the good hoped for. Those who now feel opposed to a highway program should be there to know at first hand the possibilities and manifold benefits to be derived from road construction in Deaf Smith county right now. I don't believe dissent can stand in the face of present arguments for road
 bonds.

It has been told so many times
 just what the advantages will be to put over a road program now,
 that it should be hardly necessary to recount them. It will supply labor for men and trucks through a period of unproductiveness; it will bring paved highways to the county at the least cost ever thought of, and less than will be probable for years to come; because of using materials natural to this county, very little of the money voted will go for anything outside of this county; two-thirds of the cost of 22 miles of the program would be paid by state and federal funds, bringing within the county still more money to be spent locally; it will be made impossible for any except local labor and hauling trucks to be used; it will have a road program under way should a state bond issue be voted to assume all county road
 issues, thus assuring Deaf Smith
 a highway program while paying for it, and not have to pay for road bonds all over Texas and have none here; it will provide highways with the financial assistance of state and federal capital that can never be obtained should the state and national highway associations get tired of waiting for Deaf Smith county to build roads and decide to reroute
 the present established lines of travel to go around this county
 through Dimmitt, Tulla, Muleshoe, Plainview, Vega, etc., and leave Deaf Smith county alone, where, believe me, it would remain forever after.

state as the county's part of the cost of building a state highway and the state department will add its part to what the county has already spent, at any time that route will in the future be designated a state highway.

The two highways across Deaf Smith county are needed for rapid and economical transportation in all kinds of weather for the greatest number of people to get from one side of the county to the other or any intermediate points between, and the federal highway
 should be paved at this same time because it will bring in twice as much money to be spent locally
 in building the road as it will cost in Deaf Smith county cash, it will pave our part of a trans-continental route and will be maintained

free of cost to the county at all times thereafter.

Nothing should be left undone
 to get our highway program under way and construction started as soon as possible.

The ideas on routes and construction mentioned above are not opinionated, but are based on thoughts contributed by many individuals of widely different locations, views, resources and vocations, given with the principle in mind of the best service to the greatest number. The Brand has tried to make a composite group of those thoughts in presenting its idea as above, yet at that they are not unchangeable, but subject to alteration as further investigations helps us reach a better understanding of the situation.

Some Real Farm Helps On Our Calendar
 Something novel in the way of a farm calendar for 1932 is being distributed to our customers. It is designed to make farm bookkeeping simple, easy and accurate. It also points out, in sound, well-written editorials, how to improve farm income and profits by good farming. Time was when the farmer's only index of his net worth was often only the cash balance he had left at the end of the year. Farmers now know that no business, especially the farming business, can succeed under modern conditions, without clear, concise, accurate records of every deal and sale. This new calendar provides spaces for a simple system of accounts, which can be kept from day to day. Every sale, every expense item is recorded. A summary for the whole year is also provided, and a simple form for making a statement of net worth and for inventory. Spaces are also given for the breeding record of the farm animals, with a handy breeding calendar. This calendar is also unique in a series of editorials on good farming. It is curious to notice that some of the methods known as "modern farming", such as crop rotation, growing of legumes or clovers to rebuild the soils, "summer fallow" and spreading fertilizers are as old as the ages. There are helpful suggestions to the farmer who grows single crops like wheat, cotton, potatoes, hay or others, and wants to make more money. The "way out" for wheatraisers on "wheat sick" soils is shown.

Watson, whose residences are unknown, by making publication of this citation, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Deaf Smith County, Texas, to be held at the Court House in the City of Hereford, on the First Monday in February, 1932, being the 1st day of February, 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 30th day of December, 1931, the file number of which is 1932, in which suit Guy R. The Cause of action alleged in said petition is substantially as follows, that:

The defendants, Elmer C. Holland and wife, Bernice J. Holland, executed and delivered to defendant, The Godfrey Investment Company, payable to its order, on the 1st day of May, 1935, a real estate first mortgage bond, dated April 15, 1925, said bond bearing interest from May 1, 1925, to maturity at the rate of 6 1/2 per cent per annum, interest payable annually, on May 1, 1926, and on the 1st day of each May thereafter until maturity of said bond, and as evidence of said interest installments said defendants, at the time said bond was executed and which were attached to said bond, executed and delivered to said defendant, The Godfrey Investment Company, payable to its order, ten interest notes or coupons, each for the sum of $292.50, said interest or coupon notes maturing, one on May 1, 1926, and one on May 1, of each succeeding year thereafter until and including May 1, 1935, and that said bond and each of said coupon or interest notes provide that it shall bear interest after maturity at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and said bond provides that if default be made for ten days in the payment of any sum, either principal or interest after due, then the holder thereof, at his election, may declare the entire amount of said bond due and payable and that such election shall be made and evidenced by written notice thereof, transmitted to the makers thereof by registered mail, and said bond provides that if it be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, after its original or expedited maturity, the makers thereof shall pay the legal holder thereof, as attorney's fees, the additional sum of $450.00.

That as security for the payment of said bond, defendants Elmer C. Holland and wife, Bernice J. Holland, executed and delivered to J. A. Huser, as trustee, a deed of trust, dated April 15, 1925, recorded in Deed of Trust Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in book 28, at pages 287 to 290, conveying to said trustee, all of the following described lands situated in Deaf Smith County, Texas, to-wit:

The N 1/4 and the SE 1/4 of Section 80, Block K-4, Certificate No. 1-359, F. S. & F. Survey, containing 488.8 acres.

That on April 15, 1925, said defendants, Elmer C. Holland and Bernice J. Holland, executed and delivered to J. A. Huser, as trustee, a second deed of trust on said land, which is recorded in Book 28, at page 290, Deed of Trust Records, Deaf Smith County, Texas, to secure payment of two notes for the respective sums of $100.00 and $75.00 each, executed by the defendants, Elmer C. Holland and Bernice J. Holland, and payable to the order of the defendant, The Godfrey Investment Company, said notes dated April 15, 1925, and due May 1, 1926, and May 1, 1927, respectively, and said deed of trust specified and provided that it was subordinate and inferior to the said deed of trust lien on said land securing the payment of said bond for $4,500.00.

That after said bond for $4,500.00 was so executed and delivered to defendant, The Godfrey Investment Company, it, for a valuable consideration paid by the Citizens Saving Bank and Trust Company, a corporation, endorsed, sold, assigned and transferred and assigned the said deed of trust lien on said land securing said bond, to said Citizens Saving Bank and Trust Company; and thereafter, before May 1, 1931, for a valuable consideration paid by plaintiff, to it, said Citizens Saving Bank and Trust Company sold, assigned and delivered said bond and all interest installments notes or coupons to plaintiff, who is the legal and equitable owner and holder thereof.

That after said bond and said two deeds of trust had been executed, filed and so recorded, defendants, Randolph Holland and Edith Bergh Holland by a written instrument, dated April 15, 1927, recorded in Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in book 56, at page 113, for a valuable consideration paid by defendant, Leigh F. Watson, sold and conveyed to said Watson, all right, title, interest and estate in and to a 1-82 royalty of all the oil and gas produced and saved from the following portions of said lands so covered and conveyed by said deeds of trust, to-wit:

An undivided Northwest quarter of the Northwest-quarter of the Northwest quarter of said section 86.

That on February 5, 1930, by deed of that date, recorded in Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in Book 63, at page 535, defendants, Elmer C. Holland and Bernice J. Holland, Randolph Holland and Edith Bergh Holland, sold and conveyed to Karl D. Engle all of said lands covered and conveyed by said two deeds of trust, but in said deed they reserved and retained an undivided 1-8 of all the oil and gas and other minerals in and under said North one-half of said Section 86, and as part of the consideration for the purchase price of said land, the said Engle executed and delivered to defendant, Randolph Holland, payable to his order seven notes, all dated February 5, 1930, one for $1150.00 due May 1, 1930, and six for $496.00 each due on or before 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 years from their date respectively and in addition to the vendor's lien retained in said deed to the said Engle to secure the payment of said notes, said Engle executed and delivered to J. E. Hill, as trustee, a deed of trust on said land, which is recorded in Deed of Trust Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, in book 33, at page 603.

That by deed dated April 10, 1930, recorded in book 64, at page 373, Deed Records of Deaf Smith County, Texas, said Karl D. Engle and wife, Hazel J. Engle, sold and conveyed all of said lands covered by said two deeds of trust to defendant, W. E. Stevens, and as part payment thereof said Stevens assumed the payment of said bond for $4,500.00, which assumption was recited in the said deed of conveyance and executed and delivered to defendant, H. W. Engle, payable to his order, seven notes, each for the sum of $652.28, all dated April 10, 1930, and due 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 years from March 22, 1930, and a vendor's lien was expressly retained in said deed to secure the payment of said notes.

That the defendant, The Godfrey Investment Company, is claiming a lien on all of said lands included in said deed of trust securing said $4,500.00 note; defendant Randolph Holland is claiming a vendor's lien and deed of trust lien on said land to secure the payment of said notes executed by said Karl D. Engle; defendant O. H. Peterson is claiming some interest in said notes; defendants Elmer C. Holland, Bernice J. Holland, Randolph Holland, and Edith Bergh Holland are claiming some interest or title in and to an undivided 1-8 of all the oil and gas and other minerals in and under said North one-half of said section 86, by reason of said reservation in said deed from them to said Engle; defendant H. W. ## OTRA VEZ CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon was hostess to the Otra Vez Bridge club Wednesday afternoon, December 23, when she entertained with a lovely Christmas party. A large Christmas tree formed an appropriate setting, and the rooms were festive with the Yuletide motif, which was carried out in refreshments, tallies and favors. After the games of bridge refreshments were served at tables centered with tall red candles. Scores went to Miss Frances Oberthier, Mrs. E. M. Wiltshire and Mrs. J. M. Posey. Those playing were Misses E. J. Carter, Roger Corbett, J. C. McCracken, Ivor McClelland, J. C. Parker, J. M. Posey, B. M. Wiltshire and C. J. Krump; Misses Frances Oberthier, Emma Jeanne Donald, Martha Duncan and Gladys Seigler.

BUSY BEE CLUB MET DECEMBER 10 WITH MRS. CLYDE KIBBE

The Busy Bee Sewing Club met in the home of Mrs. Clyde Kibbe December 10. The afternoon was spent piecing a quilt for the hostess. Delicious refreshments were served to ten members. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Carrie Kropff on January 14, at two o'clock.

Mrs. Joe Hudson and little daughter of Seagraves spent Christmas in Hereford visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Alexander.

Calling on New Year's Morning

THE young matron was looking back over some old magazines early before the holidays, when she ran across a picture showing an old-fashioned New Year's day reception. A great steaming bowl of hot fruit punch stood on one table and on another a pot of hot coffee. New Year's callers stood about, with glasses and cups held high, exchanging good wishes and toasts for the New Year.

What a Pretty, Friendly Custom That Was!

"Well, let's revive the custom," suggested her lord idly, through his lips. "Let's send out a general alarm that we'll hold open house all afternoon. I'd like that."

"All right," agreed the young matron enthusiastically. "I'll have a big bowl of that wonderful orange punch on top and Mary can make some of her amusing little Swedish decorated cookies to go with it. You know she makes snappy little wafers on which she puts lighted candles, evergreen trees and crimson winter berries."

"We'll invite the entire neighborhood, all by telephone, of course, and just have a regular old-fashioned New Year's 'at home.' We can start the custom this year and perhaps keep it up every year. I'd possibly some of the others will allow suit. I think it is too bad to lose sight of those charming old-time traditions. We have revived the custom of having our children dress up as 'waits' and sing Christmas carols through the snow-covered streets on Christmas eve, and we go out and cut down our own Christmas trees now. Why not add a pleasant old fashion of calling 'New Year's day'?"

METHODIST EPWORTH LEAGUE PARTY

One of the nicest parties of the Yuletide was the Epworth League party given in the basement of the Methodist church Monday evening. Majorie Golden had charge of the entertainment and kept things going all the time. Many merry games were played and all kinds of contests were held. One of the most interesting features was a contest where the crowd was divided into four groups and each put on a stunt. Mrs. S. L. Easley's group won the prize for having the cleverest stunt. Lovely refreshments were served to the thirty guests present.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENTERTAINED WITH CHRISTMAS TREE

Christmas Eve, after the program at the Methodist church had ended, members of Mrs. Easley's Sunday school class and friends were invited to her home to another Christmas tree. As the guests entered they matched for partners and were formed into groups by distributing papers which had all kinds of jingles, cheers, bells and Santas on them. Each group performed something suggestive of Christmas. Everything represented the Christmas spirit. Later a sacred program was given. As the program ended there was a knock at the door and a telegram from Santa Claus was presented to Don Allred, president of the class, explaining that he could not be there, and wishing all a Merry Christmas. Presents were then distributed from a loaded tree. At a late hour refreshments were served and all went home to welcome Christmas Day.

Present were Opal McMahon, Sarah Agnes Bryant, Lueta Borden, Ruth Marie Mounts, Louise Jacobson, Theda Lou Wilson, Mary Alice Daniels, Elaine Newell, Glenn Curry, Alberta Davis, Byrdie Dee Scheibagen, Mary Elizabeth Stanford; Don Allred, W. ## MRS. S. L. EASLEY ENTERTAINS CLASS WITH CHRISTMAS DINNER

Pupils of Mrs. S. L. Easley's Sunday school class of the Methodist church were cleverly entertained with a Christmas dinner Tuesday evening. Long tables were arranged in both the living and dining rooms with tiny Christmas trees as center pieces. The Christmas color scheme of red and white was carried out even to the nut cups and napkins. Turkey and all the trimmings were served. After dinner tables were cleared and the rest of the evening was spent playing games.

Present were Henard East, Marvin Thomas, Paul Conaway, Billy Hawkins, W. R. Scheibagen, Clay Hughes, Bruce White, Chris Jacobson, Spaulding Bartley, Noel Bryant, W. B. Mrs. C. E. Bentley, secretary of the chamber of commerce, has been ill with influenza this week.

The New Leaf

By CHARLES F. WADSWORTH

KENTON MARSAYE sat in a big red leather chair in his club looking over the evening paper.

As he finished and folded it up to replace on the table, his eye caught the cartoon on the front page. It was of a little figure representing the New Year turning a leaf of a big book. At the top of the page was "January 1," and the rest of the page was blank except for a question mark in the center.

Marsaye looked at it momentarily and tossed the paper aside.

"A new leaf?" he said to himself contemptuously. "Hokey!"

Walking to the window, he looked down upon the street. He seemed restless. To friends who spoke to him and wished him a happy New Year he returned an unenthusiastic reply—almost casual.

Seating himself, again he took up the paper and noted the cartoon. The paper lay across his knee as he sank into a thoughtful mood.

"That You, Sally?"

"People make a big fuss about turning over a new leaf at New Year's," was his comment to himself. "But why should I turn over a new leaf? I am not a swindler nor a cheat; people seem to respect me, and I try to do to others as I should like to be done by."

When he got to the last part of his soliloquy he seemed more thoughtful. Things popped into his mind. There was LaLand, his bookkeeper, whom he had criticized caustically the morning he was late last week. LaLand had taken the censure without a word, but Marsaye had learned later that LaLand's wife had been ill and it had been necessary for him to be at home for a while. But LaLand had not been given a chance to explain. Ought to have done so, I suppose.

Then there was Mrs. Mellong, who cleaned his office. He had bawled her out for a seeming neglect. She had meekly taken the abuse. Now Marsaye knew that she had had neuritis in her arm and it had been painful to her to do as well as she had. Funny how things are sometimes, and a fellow not know anything about it!

The time Miss Haseltine, with tears in her eyes, had asked to go home, after he had upbraided her for mistakes necessitating the re-writing of several letters, he had thought a streak of carelessness which he could not tolerate. He had

New Year Lullaby

MERRILY the bells are ringing
Sleep, my baby, sweetly sleep;
Glad the message they are bringing,
While my vigil here I keep.
Low and sweet the song I'm singing.
In the flickering candle light;
While the New Year bells are ringing,
Sleep, my baby, sleep tonight.
Cheerily the bells are ringing,
Sleep, my baby, smiling sleep;
Joyous bells, their notes are ringing,
Over plain and woodland deep.
Prayers and praise are upward winging,
Stars are shining clear and bright,
While the New Year bells are ringing,

not known then that the girl had had a serious quarrel with her young man which affected her almost to the point of incompetence. But he knew now.

By George! And I have not apologized to any of them! I wonder what they think of me? But Sally, now—the break with her was her own fault. Why, she was stubborn! that's what she was! But was she, though? Sally may have her side of the story, too. I wonder what it is? We were getting on so famously, and I was just about ready to ask her all about it. Got the ring and everything.

I wonder what Sally would think if she knew I was here with no one within a thousand miles, spending New Year's eve all by myself—thinking I am the perfect gentleman, and knowing I am not by my own testimony?

A smile crept over his face and his eyes sparkled. In the telephone booth he called Sally's number.

"That you, Sally? . . . I have decided to turn over a new leaf. . . I thought that new leaf stuff was a lot of blah, but I have been sitting here at the eloh thinking it over. . . Well, I have found myself guilty of impetuosity—of taking snap judgment without knowing the facts—without enough consideration for others. . . And I want to apologize to you, Sally. I was wrong and I am sure you were right. . . Do you really mean it? . . . I'll be right out!"

The receiver crashed on the hook. Another glance to see that the ring was safe, and the elevator opened for an elated lover with a new resolve.

All Right With Him

He—Did you swear off anything for the New Year?
She—Yes, I'm going to stop petting promiscuously.
He—Don't know the fellow. But as long as you don't cut it out with me, it's O. K.

Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

January 3, 1932.

THE SON OF GOD BECOMES MAN

John 1:1-18

1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2. The same was in the beginning with God.
3. All things were made through him; and without him was not anything made that hath been made.
4. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.
5. And the light shined in the darkness; and the darkness apprehended it not.
6. There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John.
7. The same came for witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him.
8. He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light.
9. There was the true light, even the light which lighteth every man, coming to the world.
10. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not.
11. He came unto his own, and they were his own received him not.

12. But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on his name:
13. Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us (and we beheld his glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father), full of grace and truth.
15. John beareth witness of him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He that cometh after me is before me; for he was before me.
16. For of his fullness we all received, and grace for grace.
17. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
18. No man hath seen God at any time; in the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

Golden Text: He that hath seen me hath seen the Father.—John 14:9.

Time: John preached in the wilderness of Judaea and baptized at the fords of the Jordan, north of the Dead Sea.

Introduction. The purpose of the Gospel of John, as stated by the writer himself, self, is "that we may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life through his name." While this is held as the keynote of our study, the quarter's lessons also offer an outline of the entire Gospel in its historical aspects, and it is hoped that the Book will be read at home and summarized in the teaching.

The aim of this course of lessons is to bring the pupils to a deeper appreciation of Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, and to win them to acceptance of him as their personal Saviour; also to strengthen the faith of those who already trust him and to quicken their zeal in winning others to Christ and in accomplishing his purpose in the world.

The Gospel of John.
Dr. Philip Schaff declared: "The Gospel according to John is the most original, the most important, the most influential book in all literature. It is simple as a child and sublime as a seraph, gentle as a lamb and bold as an eagle, deep as the sea and high as the heavens."

This gospel, written much later than the other three, in John's old age, omits much that is found in them, as being already recorded, and adds a wealth of truth which they do not give us. It has been estimated that ninety-two per cent of the Fourth Gospel is peculiar to it. It omits Christ's birth, baptism, temptation, transfiguration, and ascension; it leaves out all mention of lepers, demons, children, scribes, Sadducees, publicans; it does not give the Sermon on the Mount or the parables. Instead it is rich in Christ's private conversations (fourteen in all) and his most precious discourses about himself.

The Apostle John.
The writer of the Fourth Gospel was a humble fisherman of Galilee. How impossible that such a man, if uninspired, should have added to literature a work far surpassing the greatest works of genius, those of Shakespeare, Milton, Goethe and Dante! In his humility John does not name himself in his Book, nor any of his relatives. When he must refer to himself it is with the beautiful designation of "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (John 19:26; 20:2, 21:7, 20).

Tradition says that John was the youngest of the Twelve. He long outlived the other disciples, dying about A. D. 100, at the age of more than ninety years. John's father was named Zebedee and appears to have been a man of substance. His mother was Salome, a sister of Mary the mother of Jesus, so that John and Jesus were cousins. James and John, with Peter, constituted the inner circle of the Twelve, they alone being admitted by Jesus to such sacred scenes as the transfiguration, the raising from the dead of the daughter of Jairus, and the agony in Gethsemane.

The Deity of Jesus Christ.
"The Word was with God, and the Word was God." Here we enter at once the mystery of the Holy Trinity; Christ was one with the Father through all eternity. As he said, "He that hath seen me hath seen the Father" (John 14:9).

"All things were made through him." "The universe was created by the Father through the agency of the Son"—Cambridge Bible. "By him, not as a subordinate instrument, but as a coordinate agent, God made the world, not as the workman cuts by his axe, but as the body sees by the eye."—Matthew Henry. "The famous question put by Bonaparte to his atheistic generals in Egypt, 'Sirs, who made all that?' as he pointed to the starry splendor of the midnight sky over the pyramids, has been a question always weighing heavily upon the heart of man."—Rev. W. J. Dawson, D. D. The answer to that question is Christ, the Creator brought near and disclosed to men.

John the Baptist.
"There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John." John the Baptist was the herald of the Light of the whole world. He was sent from God to point men to the Son of God. He thus turned John the apostle from following him, and sent him to the divine Teacher. John the Baptist was sent ahead of the Christ to prepare his way, and every Christian is to be a path-maker for the Saviour.

Children of God.
"But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on his name."

"The Christian life is not merely a receiving and being done with once for all. It is a state the blessedness of which corresponds to the nearness of the fellowship. The Christian life is ever a 'becoming.' Christ enables his brethren to become the sons of God."—Prof. Hugh Black. "Years ago, this whole nation was stirred to admiration and homage by the visit of a mere boy, not remarkable in himself, but the son of the Queen of Great Britain. How many thousands envied his lot! Yet such sonship is insignificant as compared with being a son of the King of kings and Lord of lords."—Prof. Marvin R. Vincent. "His name is always, Jesus, Saviour. As soon as the soul believes this, regarding him as a Saviour given by God for himself, the sinner receives him."—Andrew Murray.

The Word Became Flesh.
"And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us." "This coming in the flesh is the Advent fact. It is the regeneration of our race. There is a new creation. There is a second Adam."—Bishop F. D. Huntington. "That such a personality as Jesus Christ should have appeared at all is a wonder until you learn what God is like."—Bishop William F. McDowell. The incarnation is "the link which binds humanity to its eternal destiny; it is the pledge of the good will of God concerning us."—Rev. Donald Macleod, D. D. "Christ is a man—therefore we can get to him. He is God—therefore when we are in him the shield of his omnipotence is our defense."—William M. Taylor.

Grace for Grace.
(Grace Upon Grace.)

"For his fullness we are receiving." "His fullness! an inexhaustible reservoir. Our filling, an illimitable endowment. Beloved, the river of God, which is full of water, can well supply the little canals that are fed from such a fountain with grace for grace."—C. H. Spurgeon. "And grace for grace" (margin, "grace upon grace"). One grace after another, a glorious succession of graces all flowing from Christ.

"For the law was given through Moses." The Old Testament law was given by Jehovah through his servant Moses. "The chief significance of the world's religious experience was concentrated, for some 1600 years, in Judaea, and human progress ran on through the channels of Hebrew nationality."—Bishop F. D. Huntington. "Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ." God's revelation through Moses was of law and penalty; through Christ it was a revelation of love and forgiveness. Both were true, but Christ's was an infinitely higher truth, not opposed to the law, enlarging it and completing it.

No Man Hath Seen God.
"No man hath seen God at any time." "No man hath seen gravitation at any time. Who knows what gravitation looks like? No man has seen heat at any time, nor electricity, nor magnetism. No force is visible to the naked eye.

God is the supreme force of the universe; why should we expect to see him when even lesser forces are hidden from our eyes?—Rev. Charles B. Jefferson, D. D. "The only begotten Son, He hath declared him." "In the thrilling story of his rescue of Emlin Pasha, Stanley gives a moving description of the great African forest, thru whose glooms he and his followers toiled month after month, buried alike from civilization and the sun. His men captured some of the natives of the forest tribes, and asked them eagerly how far it was to the plains country, where the sun was ever shining and the cattle grazing on the green pasturelands. There is no such land as that," replied the forest people. "Neither we nor our fathers nor our fathers' fathers have ever heard of this wonderful land." "But," said Stanley coming up, "I have seen this wonderful land, and I am leading my people to it. Come with us, and we will lead you also to this land of beauty." For answer the jungle people shook their heads and plunged once more into the dark recesses of the trackless forest. So Christ has come into this trackless waste of sin and suffering and death, to tell us of that other land, his own home country, the land of endless days. Shall we not take him at his word—accept the revelation he brings us of its glories, its mysteries of beauty, and trust him who knows the way to lead us safely home?"—Rev. Neal L. Anderson, D. D.

MORE HEAT and LESS GAS

There is only one suggestion for the better use of a radiant type Gas Heater, beyond having a good flame, proper connections, keeping burners and heating elements clean and general care in not burning gas needlessly.

This suggestion is to watch the flame so that it does not go OVER THE TOP of the radiant grid which throws out the heat. This wastes heat and gas, besides not giving you all the heat there is in the gas that is burned. The flames should be just high enough to heat the grid or other radiating material and no higher.

The principle of this radiant type heater is incandescence, the use of a small amount of gas to produce a great deal of heat, practically all of which is utilized.

Simply turn on enough gas to make the entire grid glow—and no more.

Nothing is more symbolic of family cheer and contentment as the passing of a home that is brilliantly lighted on a dark night. It has the appearance of all the family being at home, enjoying themselves around the fireside, reading, playing games and perhaps entertaining a friend or two.

A home like this binds the family more closely together as years go by, and evenings like this live in the memory of each member.

C-C Luncheon

In dollars and cents just what a bond issue of satisfactory size will cost each piece of property each year, according to its assessed valuation. Others will present advantages to be gained by the county undertaking a highway program just now, and again there will be told what and how much the county will irrevocably lose by delaying to begin road construction at the earliest possible moment.

The directors of the chamber of commerce, at their meeting Tuesday evening to arrange for next Monday's program, decided to make a diligent effort to have a 100 per cent representation of the city's business interests present at the luncheon. Hereford has always been the envy of other towns because of the excellent attendance given chamber of commerce meetings, but next Monday is an extra special occasion and not a responsible person should be absent for any reason whatever. An attempt will be made to sign up the business firms pledging full attendance, and so important is felt to be the day that a longer time is planned to be spent at the luncheon, using 30 minutes more than the usual hour. The meeting will begin promptly on time at 12:00 o'clock, those who are late will miss much, for the program must start without delay.

All chamber of commerce members will receive cards entitling them to attend the luncheon without cost, and special invitations will be issued urging folks who are felt to be most deeply interested, to surely be present.

The chamber of commerce directors have been notified by the county commissioners it is up to the commercial organization to take the lead and its board is doing so. The directors realize there are some in Hereford who are not awake or are as yet indifferent to the possibilities of serving the county as a whole with a county-wide road program stretching from side to side and from end to end, and next Monday's luncheon is intended as an eye-opener for them. There are those who contend that the southeast part of the county, containing practically half of the taxable values, should organize a road district and build only the transcontinental highway across the southeast corner, but the directors unanimously have agreed that the service of the chamber of commerce is to the whole county and all its citizens and have determined to promote the program on a county-wide basis, put all-weather highways where they would serve the greatest possible number of Dear Smith folks in the best possible manner in the most used directions.

One hundred and fifty plates will be laid for the luncheon and it will be at the First Christian church. The time is 12:00 sharp, and those who arrive a little ahead of time will be helping mightily to give Monday's meeting the success it deserves.

BACK TO SCHOOL MONDAY MORNING

Two weeks of play, relaxation recreation and social activities incidental to Christmas school holidays will close Monday, and teachers and students will again resume the orderly ways of education at Central and the high school. Many of the teachers and a considerable number of the pupils took advantage of the interlude to visit friends or relatives living away from Hereford, and will come back refreshed with thoughts and ambitions received during their trips.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherrieb visited in Amarillo Tuesday.

New Dodge Sixes and Eights Announced by Ireland-Beavers

Ireland-Beavers Motor Company are this week announcing advance models of the new Dodge cars to be shown for the first time next Tuesday. These latest creations of the automobile company that has through its many years existence justly earned the title of DEPENDABILITY and RELIABILITY by virtue of the general excellence of its product as testified to by the travelling public, proclaim the most startling achievements in new cars.

Dodges will come in sixes and eights, will have the "floating power" feature that set the auto world agape when first produced in the Plymouth car by the Dodge interests this fall. A brief description of the new Dodge could not possibly leave out the word SILENT. That achievement has reached its climax in the engine, the gear-shift, the second gear, the body and the brakes. So freely is the new Dodge handled that a special slogan has been coined to describe that feature alone. "Effortless Motion—Effortless Control. An Entirely New Motoring Experience."

If anything so new as free wheeling could be said to be modernized, the new Dodges have done it. The very last word has been added in an automatic clutch that, if preferred, takes away all use for the clutch pedal. Bridge-type construction in the frame has added new strength not heretofore known in automobile construction and the famous Mono-Pierce Dodge bodies of solid steel are still further improved. New weather-proof brakes of larger size provide the ultimate in safety, ease of operation and powerful action. Side-sway when turning corners has been almost entirely eliminated by such low swung construction that the new Dodges have actually been tilted to an angle of 55 degrees without overheating.

The final word in Dodge's description of their new models is "you don't have to drive this car—simply guide it—it will drive itself."

The eight is motored with a 90-horsepower engine, and the six with a 74, and so thoroughly does the rubber mounting of the floating power eliminate vibration, that the engine of neither the six or eight can be heard when the accelerator is pushed down to the floor boards.

COMMUNITY BIBLE CLASS HOLDS WATCH PARTY

The Community Bible class will meet from 9:30 till 12:00 tonight in the basement of the First Christian church to hold a New Year's Eve watch party for its members and specially invited guests. A program has been arranged and refreshments will be served.

First Christian Church.

Rev. M. J. Johnson, pastor. Bible school at 9:45 a. m. A. M. Jones, general superintendent. Morning worship hour at 11:00 o'clock. Next Sunday's subject will be, "New Year's Resolutions." Evening hour services will be based upon the sermon subject, "How An Anti-Christ Was Saved." The public is most cordially invited to attend any or all of our services. A hearty welcome extended the stranger within our city.

Will Stay With Poultry.

A profit of $362.92 from an average of 243 hens this year by Mrs. W. B. Jones, poultry demonstrator for the Foard County Home Demonstration club, as reported by Dosca Hale, Foard county agent. Besides her profit, Mrs. Jones has a flock of fine white leghorn pullets for 1932. Mrs. Jones said: "In spite of the low prices, my flock has paid me well and has more than paid our grocery bills for 1931. I expect to do poultry work again the coming year and expect to realize more profit because I am planning to improve my poultry house, some things that have increased my profits in the past are well balanced rations, fighting poultry pests, and cleanliness—my houses are cleaned very thoroughly every week."

FIRE HAZARDS GREAT ON RANCH AND FARM FROM TUMBLEWEEDS

The high winds of the past week have been rolling tumbleweeds over ranges and farms, and because there was more vacant farm land from less wheat being sown this fall, there are more of the tumbleweeds than usual.

They have filled the fences and where the high winds have full blast at them the fences have been swept away in places. That is a serious condition for farms and ranches alike, but a far more critical circumstance lays in the possibility from fire accidentally set by a carelessly thrown match or cigarette. All persons are warned to be exceedingly careful of fire hazards in the open country, or around town for that matter, for the next several months.

So obnoxious are the tumbleweeds that they have in places piled high and rolled over highway fences and completely blocked passage by filling the roads full of weeds from side to side as high as the fences.

REV. C. T. WHALEY VISITS SON AND FAMILY HERE

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. T. Whaley and daughter, Miss Wanda, came Tuesday to spend part of this week visiting their son and brother, H. K. Whaley and family. Many Hereford folks will pleasantly remember the Whaleys from their visit here during the summer, and will be glad to welcome them here again. They expect to leave Friday for their home in Weatherford, where Mr. Whaley has been pastor of the First Baptist church for several years.

OF A RANGE ROUSTABOUT

Wal, dog bite my hide, of here aint another year done gone by. Yu kno' it jest seems like them pitchers of 1931 bein' a little baby was hangin' round jes' tother day an' now they're usin them same pitchers for 1932. Guess that's one thing this here depression thing couldn't stop. Yu kno stop time from goin' by. Wal let 'er go Gallagher, like the boys usin' say. Cant say that we want old 1931 round here any longer now. We'll all wake up Friday mornin' in 1932 and go right on livin' like always. Yu kno about this here depression business of 1931, guess w'll jest have to forget it and look ahead an' see where we can make sum munny in 1932. The ways that I look at it a feller never made any munny by lookin' back 'cept to not let the same feller gyp yu in the same way. 'Y yu kno, that of the people 'round here what have sum munny, wether Ma in their sock or in the bank would loosen up an' spend sum of it, an' the feller they spend it with would spend it an' then the nex' one an' so on, we'd have good times here in Hereford, befor this here bunch of politicians in Congress could quit talkin' how they was goin' to help us an' we wouldn't need their help. Who wants help when he has a job, anyway? huh? 'Y dog bite my hide, the never was a WHITE AMERICAN wanted sumone to give him anything. He wants to work fer it an' not hev sumone cum aroun' an' say feller I give yu sonasno an' now yu do sonasno. Its all right to help sum one fer like pullin' bog. Yu wouldn't let a critter die cus it was bogged down, but jes watch that critter git up an' after yer get her out of bog. We want to help one what needs help, but it will do more good of yu give um a job. PUT SUM ONE TU WORK IN 1932 an' it will shore be a HAPPY NEW YEAR.
