Area Leaders Meet Friday With Hardin

Gerald McCathern and Don Kimball, two area leaders in the National Farmers Organization, leave today for important Washington, D. C., conference Friday with Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin on the controversial Commodity Credit Corporation grain policy.

U. S. Rep. Bob Price arranged the meeting at the request of a coalition group of several Hereford area farm organizations which joined to fight the untimely release of CCC grain in this area, with its simultaneous bad effect on market prices.

"We have been working on this since around October 1st," said McCathern, president of the Deaf Smith unit of NFO.

Kimball, state NFO president, lives in Amarillo but has a farm near Hereford.

Several other representatives of farm organizations in other parts of the Panhandle may join McCathern and Kimball in Washington.

"I have been greatly disturbed by the effect of the announcement that the sale of CCC feed grain stocks will be made has had on the prices received by farmers of our area," Price said Monday.

"I hope this meeting will result in solving the problem of disposing of government-owned grain in a manner which is satisfactory and fair to all parties," Price added.

"I want to assure all farmers and businessmen of the Panhandle that I share their concern with the ever-present threat of government grain disposal and will be exploring means of changing the law to alleviate this problem if it cannot be solved by administrative action."

The coalition group that has been working toward the meet-

HHS Cage Team Opens Season With Lockney

It will be preceded at 6:15 p. m. by a junior varsity game. The game is the first of three home games starting the season.

MODERN DRUGS
Fortunately for mankind, the mumbo-jumbo miracle drugs. We're proud of the role that pharmacists have played in keeping our nation in the best of possible health!

By MELVIN YOUNG
Sometimes we think the so-called ecologist have flipped their lids, but apparently their raving and ranting, as incoherent as some of it is, has gotten through to big industry.

For instance, we noted a recent television commercial showing cattle on the King Ranch drinking from a stream and in the background could be seen an oil refinery. The announcer tells you that the water these cattle are drinking has just been used in that plant to cool the coils or whatever it is they cool in a gasoline refinery.

Now, we read in Texas Parade an advertisement from the same oil company telling how they "dig a hole and pull it in after." Apparently that's exactly what the company is doing in its Wyoming uranium mining operations. As new sections of the mines are developed, the earth is used to fill old sections. The water the company uses does not leave the mine site. Mine waste is handled so it can't be washed away by rain or escape into the air. Later, the company will cover this waste, plant native grasses over it and leave a small lake. When they are through, they tell us, it will be hard to tell they were ever there.

They go on to tell you that the mine creates new jobs for local people, with the money being spent locally, etc. In other words, this particular company, and perhaps the entire oil industry, is now trying to create more jobs, more wealth and an abundance of resources without upsetting the balance of nature and marring our beautiful America with the residue of normal mining and drilling operations.

Another advertisement in the same magazine tells how an East Texas paper mill is helping to improve and maintain the waters of East Texas.

To date, they say, they have spent more than $3,800,000 in pollution control equipment to help make the streams a good place to fish. And, the ad continues, even with as many fish as East Texas has, that's quite a bit per pound.

Industry is aware of the problems it has caused. It is super-sensitive to public criticism and apparently is trying to do something about it. And that's good.

The pollution problem, and the ultimate criticism, has also hit the cattle feeding industry as most of us in this area are well aware. Cattle feeders (and we might also include the vegetable people), have spent a great deal of money in an effort to keep waste materials from running into the creeks, and for the most part, have done an excellent job. We aren't hearing many complaints these days. Of course, all their efforts may not have an effect on Buffalo Lake, but then we never did think they were responsible for the problems there anyhow.

Ideally, the feedlot waste material should be returned to the soil as a fertilizer, but we suppose the cost of doing so, and the difficulty in handling, discourages most farmers from its use. It's a lot easier to call a commercial fertilizer firm and have them put down anhydrous ammonia, or some form of dry nitrates on the land. Manure spreaders are expensive too.

However, we wonder if the ultimate benefit to the land would not be worth the effort and expense?

Which reminds us of the farmer who opposed the hiring of a County Agent. "I already know how to farm a lot better than I'm doing," he said.

RUNNING IT BACK — Jeff Loerwald heads back down field after picking off a Westerner pass during Saturday's game in Lubbock. Preparing to pave the way for a return is Gary Lemons.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
I have a gripe. It is directed first of all to the Brand, but mostly to the people of Hereford in general.

A couple of weeks ago, the first page of the second section of the Brand said something like HHS Spirit of 70. It showed only the pep squad and the drill team. What about the Band? Personally, I think the Band makes more than half of the spirit at H. H. S. Mr. Gollehon works hard & all the members of the band work hard too. They support the team all the way & they never let down. I know because I was in band until I graduated. I think it was time the people of Hereford gave credit where credit is due.

Other towns make big fusses over their bands. Pampa had it's band on TV the other night because their going to Chicago. Our band goes to Corpus & comes back the best but no big deal. The band works hard but they only get recognized two or three times a year.

Nobody in town seems to care about or really appreciate our band. They go to contest and make a I and everybody says "oh well, I knew they would make it." They don't know that it takes a lot of hard work to make that "I" and that at times you have doubts about making it.

Sure pep squad & the drill team are a good thing, but don't forget the Band. Everyone takes them for granted because they've always been around.

Now I would like to apologize to the Band & Mr. Gollehon and say that although we may not all say so we're proud of our great Band & we're behind them 200 per cent. So Go BAND.

P. S. Please sign me "An Ex-Band Member" and don't sign my name or address.

ELECTRICAL OUTLETS
Househunting families with small children should make sure that electrical outlets in the nursery or children's rooms are controlled by an out-of-reach switch.

This advice is offered by the American Wood Council to help families get the most home for the money. Small hands have a way of investigating dangerous places such as night light outlets. If the home builder has included electrical safeguards in a house it's a good sign he has used similar care in the construction of the rest of the home.

Wartes, Schmucker Sit High In Final 4-AAAA Statistics

The football season is over, and the final league statistics in District 4-AAAA tell the success story for the Hereford Whitefaces.

Mike Wartes, the 5-10, 160-pound quarterback for the Herd, completed 101 of 216 passes for the season. They were good for 1,561 yards and eight touchdowns.

Harold Schmucker, 6-1 160-pound split end and co-captain of the squad, caught 44 aerials for 677 yards and three touchdowns.

Both barged their way to the top of the final standings, and etched their names in the school records as well.

It was the Herd's passing which enabled them to knock down Plainview and Lubbock for a third place finish in District 4-AAAA.

Wartes was more than 500 yards ahead of Lubbock's Larry Williamson in passing, with 26 more completions for the year. Mike, the son of Head Coach Larry Wartes, also won the total offense title. Despite minus 7 yards rushing, he wound up with 1,554 total yards, an average of 155.4 yards per game. Williamson was second with 128.2 and Coronado's Gary Olive third with 127.2.

Wartes' passing heroics established a new passing standard at Hereford. The previous best was 63 completions in 167 attempts for 990 yards by Steve Hodges in 1965.

Both Schmucker and Jeff Loerwald, a 6-0 182-pound senior, made their way into the school's top pass receivers, although Roger Owens' 1965 record of 46 receptions for 755 yards still is intact.

Schmucker finished the season two catches and 78 yards short of Owens in putting together the second best receiving performance over a season. Until this year, the next best to Owens' 755 yards was 290 by Lenny Petrie in 1967.

Now Schmucker is second with 677 yards. Loerwald is third, with 402 yards, gained in 18 receptions.

Wartes' aerial accuracy this season shined. Frank Cain from No. 2 to No. 3. Cain, in 1964, connected on 49 of 113 passes for 644 yards.

The Hereford offensive record of 3,001 yards, established in 1968, was threatened but did not fall. Neither did the second-best total of 2,851 yards by the 1969 team.

Performing in a tougher league, Hereford ground out 1,171 yards rushing and 1,636 yards passing for 2,807 total yards in 1970.

Hereford had other boys among the elite of District 4-AAAA, although they were not the dominating force that Wartes and Schmucker were.

Alan Wagner, a 166-pound senior, was the league's fifth top punter with a 35.3-yard average on 27 kicks and was sixth in interceptions, with three for 33 yards in returns.

Ricki Ward, a 155-pound senior back, was the seventh leading rusher with 317 yards in 77 carries for a 4.1-yard average and three touchdowns.

Loerwald was eighth in punting with a 33.6-yard average; fifth in receptions with 18 for 402 yards, good for a 22.3-yard average and four touchdowns; and seventh in scoring with 38 points on four touchdowns, five extra points and three field goals.

Gary Lemons, 168-pound senior linebacker and also a co-captain, finished second among league tacklers, with 140 in 10 games, and tied for third among conference players with three fumble recoveries.

Also in the tackle category, 155-pound senior linebacker Bruce Battey wound up No. 5 with 106, 175-pound senior Charles Ray Black No. 7 with 99 and 200-pound senior Dan Gorman

Funeral Service Held Tuesday For Woman, 93

The funeral of Mrs. Birdie Bell Kamenzind, 93, of 306 Ave. J, was conducted Tuesday afternoon in the Seventh Day Adventist Church by Hollis A. Morel and Jose S. Espinosa of Amarillo.

Burial in West Park Cemetery.

Funeral Home.

Mrs. Kamenzind died at her home Monday morning. She had been a Hereford resident since 1963 when she moved from Castro County. Born Sept. 12, 1877, in Gernsey County, Ohio, she came to Texas in 1929 from Oklahoma.

She married Louis B. Kamenzind May 5, 1896, in Denison. He died here Nov. 28, 1965. She was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Two daughters, Miss Pauline Kamenzind and Mrs. F. L. Stayton, both of Hereford, survive her with 10 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Raiders, Pigs Head Grid Tilts Saturday

There are some really big shows on the national college football schedule Saturday, and a shootout at Lubbock, Tex., ranks high among them.

Most of the attention in the country is on the Big Ten clash in Columbus, Ohio, this weekend between a pair of unbeaten teams — fourth-ranked Michigan and fifth-ranked Ohio State — for the conference championship.

And the Notre Dame-Louisiana State clash in South Bend, Ind., will also have a lot of attention.

Folks still remember, however, back in 1965 when Notre Dame and Michigan State were playing in what was billed in the "Game of the Century" between the two top-ranked teams in the nation. Those two teams tied when Notre Dame elected to run out the clock in the final minute.

That same day, Arkansas carried an 8-1 record into Lubbock, and planned to beat Texas Tech and go on to the Cotton Bowl. Instead, the Red Raiders whipped the sixth-ranked Razorbacks, 21-16, and knocked the team out of the bowl, in a game that was called the upset of the year.

The same two teams are in Lubbock Saturday, and another sellout crowd will watch it. The Techs have been just in or just out of the nation's Top 20 teams all season while winning eight of 10 games. Arkansas is 8-1. The Red Raiders' weapons are aimed at knocking off the Razorbacks and keeping alive the possibility of playing in the Cotton Bowl, probably against Notre Dame. That would happen if Arkansas knocked off Texas the following week.

Regardless of Saturday's outcome, Texas Tech has a bowl bid in the bag, reportedly the Sun Bowl in El Paso. Arkansas should survive by 19 points.

Michigan should win its big bout with Ohio State by six points and Notre Dame should prove its No. 3 ranking by a five-point margin over 10th-ranked Georgia Tech.

Texas, the No. 1 team in the nation again this week, is idle. Second-ranked Nebraska is a three-touchdown favorite over Oklahoma.

Baylor, which has given Texas and Texas Tech close games in the past two outings, should scare Southern Methodist Saturday before falling by the margin of an extra point, and Rice should edge Texas Christian by seven points. West Texas State should beat Southern Mississippi by 5.

A rivalry that sometimes defies all past records is the annual Tennessee-Kentucky confrontation. Tennessee is No. 6 in the nation, but Kentucky is ornerly. If the Wildcats don't get too out-of-sorts, Tennessee's Volunteers should win by 22.

Stanford can wrap up the Pacific Eight title all by its lonesome with a disposal of California. The Indians, rated No. 10 this week, will bundle up California and the title by 12 points. Undefeated Arizona State, No. 9 in collegiate football, will stop New Mexico by 13 points. Fifteenth-ranked Washington will bomb Washington State by 37 points, and Colorado will upset Air Force by one point.

For God So Loved The World

HIS HAND

On the ceiling of Sistine Chapel, Michelangelo brings to life some of the most spectacular Old Testament depictions. In one panel portraying the Creation, he shows God reaching out His powerful right hand to Adam, thereby sending out that necessary spark of life which began the history of man. In this familiar scene, the figure of God emanates such power and force that it seems to dominate the rest of the picture. It even diminishes the agony and passion of Adam, the embodiment of longing, searching and lost mankind. Yes, if we were to examine the picture more fully, we would see that not only is God reaching out to Adam, but Adam is also reaching out to touch God. He is virtually straining every fiber in his body to affect this two-way interchange. Michelangelo said it all with the deft strokes of his brush. All too often we are aware that the huge, powerful, healing hand of God, is reaching out to us without realizing that His hand won't reach all the way. Just like Adam, we must reach out in return. God's open hand is waiting --- where is yours?

War Hero Rescues His Own Executor

This week at the Deaf Smith County Library are two novels written in the before, during and after setting of World War II. Check into them today.

A GAME FOR HEROES

BY James Graham
Owen Morgan wears no medals. No ribbons. The patch over his dead eye is testimonial enough to his service on some of the toughest missions in World War II. If war is a game, then it's a game for heroes, but for Owen Morgan it's human tragedy and the struggle for survival.

And survival is what concerns him most as this exciting novel of adventure and suspense opens. For Owen Morgan sees all around him the grim evidence of the failure of the desperate espionage mission he was sent to carry out on the German-occupied island of St. Pierre.

As this tale of heroism and divided loyalties moves swiftly to its climax, failure takes a strange and ironic turn, and Owen Morgan finds himself leading an unlikely party into the teeth of a gigantic North Sea hurricane to save the life of a man whose rescue will mean Owen Morgan's certain death.

RICH MAN, POOR MAN
BY Irwin Shaw
It began with dancing in the streets after World War II. It ended with riots in many of the same streets. It was the quarter-century when America grew up, and the American dream grew old.

Irwin Shaw focuses on these years in a novel of epic proportions. Rich Man, Poor Man is the story of Rudolph, Gretchen, and Thomas Jordache, children of an embittered German immigrant.

Hereford Man's Mother Buried

Funeral services for Mrs. Mimmie E. Hamman, 81, of Plainview, mother of Bob Hamman of Hereford, were conducted Tuesday afternoon in First United Methodist Church of Plainview and burial was in Plainview Cemetery.

Mrs. Hamman died Sunday morning in a Lubbock nursing home where she had lived for more than a year. Her home had been at Plainview since 1944, when she moved from Perryton after 17 years' residence.

Born Nov. 27, 1888, at Prairie Grove, Ark., she married Albert B. Hamman there in 1919. His death occurred in 1945 at Plainview.

In addition to the son here, she is survived by two others, Bill of Plainview and Finley of Lubbock, also two brothers, a sister and 10 grandchildren.

POLICEWOMEN
GABORONE, Botswana — Botswana plans to start training its first 12 policewomen in October.

The Chamber of Commerce board of directors meets for two hours on the third Wednesday of each month.

of American success, each pursues the illusion of happiness in his own way, determined to achieve his "birthright."

Starting with their teen-age years in a Hudson River town, Irwin Shaw follows the Jordaches from Greenwich Village to Hollywood, from a small town in Ohio to a luxury resort in the Mediterranean.

In doing so, he presents us with a sweeping panorama of the postwar United States, from the neuroticism of the McCarthy era to the overnight success stories of the post-depression boom.

The story of the Jordaches and the people they love is, in one sense, the story of all of us who have lived through these years. But it is also uniquely theirs; because, as Robert Cromie wrote in Saturday Review, "Irwin Shaw has the gift of all great storytellers; he creates characters as genuine as that odd couple across the street, the curious patrons of the corner bar, the tragic figures from the headlines.

"They are individuals who walk into the living room of your mind, ensconce themselves, and refuse to be dislodged." Rich Man, Poor Man is a master storyteller's finest achievement.

Show By Unique Artist Slated

A one-man show of paintings by a unique artist, whose arms are paralyzed and who paints with a brush held with her teeth, will be presented in the Christian Book Store from 2 to 4 p. m. Sunday, with the public invited.

Work of Carolyn Osborn of Amarillo, who lived in Hereford for a time 17 years ago and attended special classes at Shirley Elementary School, will be on display. The painter and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Osborn, will be present. This art show will replace the weekly book review Tuesday morning at the book store, and will end for a time the series of On-the-Carpet reviews which have been conducted during autumn months.

The series will be resumed after the holiday period, with weekly reviews of currently interesting books by Hereford residents.

Paintings by Miss Osborn, who became seriously interested in painting about five years ago, have placed in the Forty Best Show of Amarillo Fine Arts Society and in the Texas Institute for Rehabilitation and Research Art Show. She has exhibited in numerous Amarillo shows, in Clovis, Borger, Lubbock, Dimmitt, Vega, Panhandle and in the Sister Kenney International Art Show at Minneapolis.

Named the Texas Handicapped Person of the Year in 1966, she also received the Kenneth Mills Memorial Award last year from Texas Rehabilitation Association.

Most of her schooling was received through "homebound" teaching programs, but in her last two years of high school she was "in class" at Palo Duro High School by intercom, and was graduated.

She has studied painting with Larry Hillburn, well known West Texas artist, and is now studying by correspondence on a scholarship given her by Famous Artist School.

Traveling is a favorite activity of the paralyzed girl, and with her family she has seen the United States from coast to coast. Her father is employed at Pantex; she has a sister and brother at home and an older brother living in California.

Born in Alliance, Neb., she spent her early childhood at Denver and then the family moved to Texas. She likes to paint moving figures, people, horses and other animals; landscapes are also favorite subjects, many with mountains.

Memorial Rites Set Friday For Ex-Resident

Memorial services for Mrs. A. R. Andersen, 43, of Oklahoma City, the former Mary Elizabeth Angelo of Hereford, will be conducted Friday at Fort Myer, Va., and burial will follow in Arlington National Cemetery.

Mrs. Andersen, 43, was a native of Hereford, daughter of Clay Angelo of this city. She

Farm Bureau Has Annual State Meet

FORT WORTH — The Texas Farm Bureau elected two new officers, one new director, and adopted state policies and national recommendations at its 37th annual meeting here last week.

J. T. "Red" Woodson of Guber in Fannin County, a grain, and livestock farmer, was named president of the 121,158-member organization, succeeding Sidney Dean of Victoria, Carol G. Chaloupka, Dalhart, was elected secretary-treasurer, replacing H. L. King of Brownfield who remains on the board; and M. F. "Mike" Frost, McAllen, was re-elected vice president.

Dan Pustejovsky, Hillsboro grain and cotton farmer, was elected state director from District 4, a position formerly held by Woodson. Adopted resolutions on matters of national interest will be sent to the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation Dec. 6-10 in Houston. Approved resolutions on state issues become state policies to guide the TFB in 1971.

The 772 voting delegates from 152 county Farm Bureaus adopted a national recommendation which said, "Now is the time to phase out government programs relating to wheat and feed grains since they are not serving the best interest of farmers."

A new cotton recommendation calls for a return to a market-based economy, but stipulates a seven-point transitional program "to lessen the impact of a sudden, or short-term progressive withdrawal of compensatory payments."

Delegates postponed action on a proposal to increase dues to finance a strong advertising-public relations campaign aimed at the urban consumer. This matter is expected to be part of an expanded program to be voted on in a special meeting of the delegates early in 1971.

In other actions, the delegates said every effort should be made to inform the general public that usage of agricultural chemicals is subject to stringent federal and state regulations and that farmers are using these chemicals in accordance with federal and state laws.

"We oppose a complete ban on the use of any agricultural chemical and recommend that continued use be determined on a product-by-product and use-by-use basis," delegates said.

In the field of education, the farmers and ranchers said that students taking part in a school boycott or strike should be expelled, and participating teachers should be fired.

As for taxes, the TFB delegate body recommended that a study be made on "a broad-based tax or some other method of financing education in our state school system so that equitable costs may be borne by a great portion of our citizens."

They recommended that only real property owners be eligible to vote in bond and ad valorem tax elections.

Miss Harietta Capps of Vernon was selected TFB Queen

Pre-Christmas Dance Planned

A holiday dance sponsored by Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, set for the evening of Dec. 18 in the Elks Lodge Hall, was planned at a chapter meeting Monday evening at the Community Center.

Music for dancing will be by Tex Rhodes and the Texas Twisters. Tickets are on sale now by chapter members. Advance sale price is $3, and at the door the price will be $5.

Mrs. Kirk Owsley and Mrs. C. A. Parker were hostesses Monday. Mrs. Gary Tyler enlisted the aid of other members present in giving the program on The Beauty of Nature. She asked each to describe her favorite natural beauty.

Also present were Mrs. Tom LeGate, Kenneth Ruland, Tom Buchanan, Joe Frank Huckert, Carl Skaggs and Bobby Jones.

The bulletin board outside a church at Owensboro, Ky. displayed a philosophical thought: "People are like pins — useless when they lose their heads."

VOE STUDENT OF THE WEEK — Miss Beverly Friemel, who plans a career in the dental field, has been selected Vocational Office Education student this week. She is employed by David Hamblen, D.D.S., in his office. Miss Friemel is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herebert Friemel, Route 4, Hereford. —Staff Photo

State Develops Technical Data For Students

AUSTIN — A statewide research program designed to give high school students up-to-the-minute data on technical training and the community colleges a firm base for developing future programs will get under way in Texas by late this month.

The Specialty Oriented Student Research Program, a three year plan which will involve 7,363 community college students and 27 post-secondary schools across the state, was approved last week by the State Board of Education.

The research program will be developed in two phases. During Phase I, scheduled to be completed by April 1971, the community college students will be asked for opinions about their instructors, training programs, instructional equipment in the schools and their study habits during a series of personal interviews.

Members of the project interviewing staff, who will include some 300 high school counselors selected from all areas of Texas, will also survey the community colleges concerning the kinds of students enrolled in their technical-vocational programs, housing conditions, and part-time employment opportunities.

Phase II will be based on a series of follow-up interviews after students have left the college and/or completed training and been employed full time for at least six months. This information will be compiled by January 1973.

Key points to be covered during the second series of questions and answers will include the number of students completing training programs, number who enrolled for additional training, time lag between training and employment, types of jobs, what students thought of their first jobs after training, and what they thought of their training once they were employed and working.

All students interviewed will be enrolled in classes of 30 or more in community college technical-vocational courses. Results of the survey, which will be directed by Dr. Kenneth Hoyt, University of Maryland professor of education, will be published by the Texas Education Agency for use by both the community colleges and high school counselors throughout the state.

Dr. Hoyt, a specialist in educational research, has directed similar projects in a number of other states during the last 10 years. He will come to Texas later this month to conduct a briefing session for the interviewers, all members of the Texas Personnel and Guidance Association.

The $60,000 project will be financed by federal funds allocated to Texas by the Vocational Education Act of 1968.

Switzerland has not participated in armed conflict since the end of the Napoleonic wars in 1815, National Geographic says.

DALE TURNER wins promotion

Turner Wins Feedlot Position

A former employe of FARR Better Feeds in Hereford has been promoted to general mill manager to oversee mill operations of the three cattle feedlots owned by Stratford of Texas, Inc.

Dale A. Turner, 35, was employed by Stratford Feed Yard as mill manager in 1967. In his new capacity, he will work with the mill managers of Stratford Feed Yard, Dalhart Feed Yard and Cactus Feed Yard of Etter in nutrition and handling commodities to increase the efficiency of the three lots.

Turner, a widower with three children, worked with FARR Better Feeds for 10 years in Hereford and Greeley, including six years in management. He also was mill manager for P.T. Poultry Growers of Nacogdoches, a two-million broiler chicken operation.

Two Televisions LONDON — More than 350,000 homes in Britain have two television sets. By 1974 there are likely to be a million such homes, a survey shows. The reason: some 43 per cent of the people who buy color televisions are retaining their old black and white sets.

ZOO PRICES LONDON — Admission prices to the London zoo have been increased by a shilling (12 cents for adults and sixpence (six cents) for children. The zoo blames the increase, the first since July 1966, on rising costs.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Alex Zotos does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Zotos and nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

CHICKEN OREGANO

Mrs. Alex Zotos, 3622 Maple, Odessa

Quarter 2 fryers. Wash and dry; and squeeze juice of one lemon over pieces. Salt, pepper and paprika chicken on both sides. In large skillet melt 1 stick butter and quickly brown chicken pieces. Place in oblong pan. In butter left in pan add 1/2 cup red wine, 1/2 can tomato paste (3 oz.), 2 cups water, 1 tablespoon celery flakes, 2 cloves garlic. Bring to boil. Pour over chicken. Sprinkle about 2 1/2 teaspoons oregano over chicken. Bake covered for one hour at 350 degrees; uncover last 10 minutes for browning.

Meat and Rice Dressing

Saute 2 onions, chopped, in 1/2 stick butter. Add 1 cup uncooked rice; saute together until golden. Add 1 1/2 lbs. ground round and brown. Add 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon comino, pepper to taste, 2 1/2 teaspoons salt, add 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms, 2 1/2 cups water and 1/2 cup red wine. Cook until done about 20 minutes. When cooked toss in toasted pecans and almonds, if desired. Serve sauce from chicken over all.

SUN-PROOF® FOR THE HUSBAND WHOSE IDEA OF "GETTING OUT" DOESN'T INCLUDE PAINTING THE HOUSE.

Your wife says, "Paint the house before you do anything else this summer." So what do you do? As little as possible.

That's why you need Sun-Proof Latex House Paint. It does as much as possible.

To begin with, it normally allows you to skip priming completely. Further, it stretches and shrinks with your house. Which eliminates cracking and peeling.

Also, a special paint film resists air pollution, smog, and mildew. This all means that your paint will last up to four years longer. So you spend less time painting and more time relaxing.

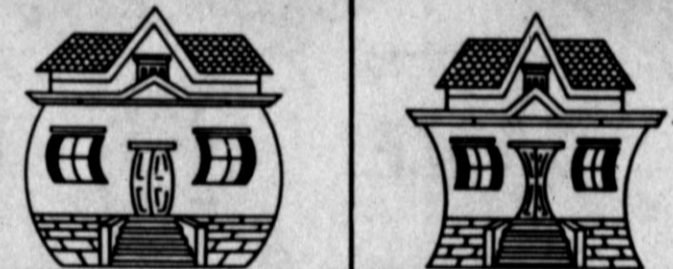

SUN-PROOF®... the husband's easy way out.

PITTSBURGH® PAINTS DO MORE SO YOU NEED TO DO LESS.

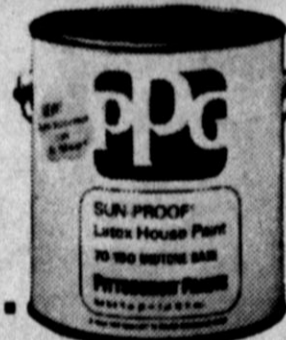

YOUR HOUSE

STRETCHES and SHRINKS

SO DOES OUR HOUSE PAINT!

That's why it lasts longer...

Your house actually stretches and shrinks with variations in temperature and humidity. It's this expansion and contraction that often causes house paint to work loose, crack and peel.

PITTSBURGH PAINTS new SUN-PROOF® Latex House Paint stretches and shrinks with your house... this flexibility enables it to resist the cracking that ruptures an otherwise sound paint film. It has four times the stretch power of other latex paints, and it resists fume staining and discoloration. Available in a wide choice of attractive outdoor colors. STATE CAPITOL

by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN, Tex. — Freshman state legislators received some sobering news in their first orientation conference before the legislative halls open on January 12.

About 30 legislative newcomers turned out for the two-day schooling in the capital city. Major state officials and agency heads functioned in the role of professors.

In addition to warnings that money and legislative redistricting problems lie ahead, young lawmakers got word that welfare cuts are virtually certain early next year.

Welfare Commissioner Burton Hackney reported this grim news on the plight of his agency. He announced that "unless an emergency appropriation is made early in the upcoming legislative session, we still face the prospect of cuts in Aid to Families with Dependent Children and-or medical assistance in the first few months of 1971."

Commissioner Hackney added that "even with an appropriation that would take us up to the annual ceiling on state money for public assistance, we can predict the need for a cut in AFDC grants by June if the rolls continue to grow as they have."

Texas' constitution sets a ceiling of $80 million for financial assistance to welfare beneficiaries. Hackney said he has asked $96 million for fiscal 1972 just to cover the present level of public assistance checks.

House Speaker Gus Mutscher urged the freshmen to utilize the formula of "knowledge, cooperation and understanding" in the work ahead.

Further schooling for lawmakers is ahead at a University of Texas special orientation program.

COURT'S SPEAK — State Supreme Court has agreed with the federal court's finding that three key sections of Texas' obscenity law are constitutional. But it skipped ruling on two other sections and ordered the Wichita Falls court to move ahead with its case against a theater showing "stag" movies.

In other rulings last week, the high court held that: "In spite of mandatory retirement provisions of the constitution, retired judges over 75 may be assigned to hear special litigation and be paid as "visiting judges."

"Appeal of an Abilene attorney whose license was suspended after conviction for conspiracy to defraud should be turned down.

"Judgment of $600,000 favoring a Dallas bank in a loan dispute with a Denton County man is valid.

"It should hear on January 13 the Getty Oil Company appeal from a lower court finding that the firm must lower its pumping units which are interfering with the irrigation system of a Gaines County farmer.

"A Garland widow should get a hearing on December 18 on her suit to collect $20,000 in life insurance on her deceased husband.

"Court of Criminal Appeals refused to lower the 99-year prison sentence given a San Angelo man in a car-bomb killing.

"A Dallas woman should not be jailed for contempt for not complying with a court order to deliver obscene film over which she had no control.

COURT APPOINTMENTS DUE — Gov. Preston Smith soon will have two appointments to make to the state's highest courts.

Judge Clyde E. Smith, 73, of Woodville has announced that he will resign his seat on the State Supreme Court on Decem-

BRIDE-TO-BE—Engagement of Miss Patricia Kay Hendrickson and Mike C. Radke, both of Sidney Montana, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hendrickson of Sidney, former Hereford residents. Radke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Radke of Sidney. A spring wedding is planned. Miss Hendrickson is a senior in Sidney High School, of which Radke is a graduate.

In his letter of resignation, Judge Smith urged state constitutional revision of the judiciary system — or at least thorough overhaul — to make it possible for a central authority to force under worked judges to go where they are needed to equalize caseloads.

After January 1, the Governor also must name a successor to Judge John F. Onion Jr. of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Next year the San Antonio judge moves up to presiding judge of the Appeals Court, vacating the seat he held as a regular court member since 1967.

Two years remain in the terms of both these judges.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES — Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held that a person calling for a local option wet-dry election in a subdivision that has not held one in a year is not required to make a deposit with the county clerk, and any such deposit collected should be refunded.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

"Banking corporation stock, in a firm not doing business in the state on January 1, 1970, is not taxable for ad valorem tax purposes for 1970.

"Texarkana is not disqualified for an airport building er draft call of 489 was announced by Col. Charles M. Duncan, acting state Selective Service director.

Local boards will fill the call with men having random sequence numbers one through 16 — as far as possible. Some with higher numbers may get called by some local boards.

Quota is Texas' share of the national total of 7,000 men, all for the Army. Inductions are set for December 1-17.

On December 31, all men in 1-A, 1-A-o or 1-o with numbers lower than the highest reached during the year by their own local boards will be assigned to an extended priority selection group for call during the first quarter of 1971. Those with a higher number than the highest reached will be assigned to the second priority group for 1971.

SCHOOL FOOD PROGRAMS NOTED — Governor Smith notified 1,182 school superintendents that he wants all Texas pupils to have full access to food programs. He called attention to food services and equipment made available through the National School Lunch Act as mandatory on Jan. 1, 1971. Smith said that hungry children are vulnerable to malnutrition's effect on growth, ability to learn and general intellectual performance.

NEW JOBS ASSIGNED — Marvin F. London of Montague was named by the Governor as district judge of the 97th judicial district, succeeding Louis T. Holland, resigned.

Governor Smith appointed Dr. David Wade of Austin, commissioner of the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, as administrator of Interstate Compact on Mental Health.

SHORT SNORTS — Outgoing Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who banned miniskirts and long sideburns, gave his official endorsement to pants suits as women's of-ice attire. This year's cost of the minimum school foundation school program will top $1 billion, an increase of $233.7 million over last year.

Governor's migrant task force will hold its first meeting here on November 23.

Criminal Justice Council has looked over 29 action grant applications totalling $1.1 million.

Texans' personal income rose three per cent in September, University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

The president of the Chamber of Commerce is the spokesman for the board of directors and represents the Chamber at public functions.
