Civic Committee Organizes For Scenic Drive Building Campaign

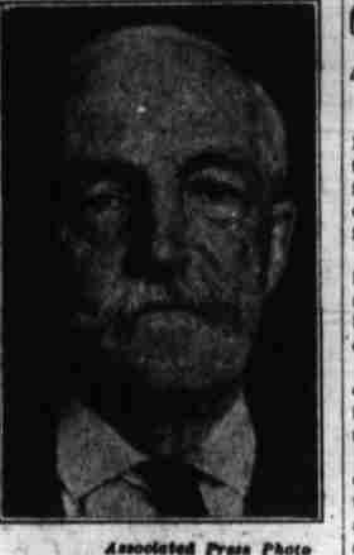

HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy
Told you the other day something would be done about improving the Scenic Drive road, now that B. F. Robbins and his civic committee have hopped onto the project. Last night's meeting, at which organization to obtain money and labor to do the trick, was formed, was held none too soon.

SATURDAY TIME FOR REAL WORK

Cash Or Labor Sought That Park May Be Beneficial
Plans for a city-wide campaign to raise funds with which to repair Scenic Drive before the Oil Men's Jubilee in July, were adopted at a meeting of the civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, held at the Federation Club house Monday night, and presided over by B. F. Robbins, chairman. About 20 attended the meeting.

DENTIST GIVEN COAT OF TAR AND FEATHERS

HAMMOND, La., May 27 (AP)—Dr. S. L. Newsom, prominent dentist of Hammond, was tarred and feathered today by a mob and dumped out of an automobile in front of an all night restaurant. The dentist was given until daylight to leave Hammond and at 5 a. m. he left town in an automobile without announcing his destination.

Robbins Heard By Rotarians

When commitmen call for donations to the fund to provide a smooth, pleasurable driveway to the summit of Scenic Mountain, receive them graciously and give a day's labor at least, B. F. Robbins, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce civic committee, asked members of the Rotary club Tuesday noon.

PLAN OCEAN HOP IN HUGE PLANE

It has been reported that Clarence Chamberlain, trans-Atlantic flier, is building a huge airplane of unique design in which he will attempt a record-breaking trans-ocean flight this summer with Ruth Nichols, prominent aviatrix of Rye, N. Y.

Howard Proration Committee Called

The Howard-Glassecock proration advisory committee will meet in Fort Worth next Friday morning, according to notices received by members from M. B. Sweeney of the Sun Oil Co. at Dallas, chairman.

But, the figure will help a lot directly and all indirectly.

It serves right off to give the city the recognition it has waited long enough for. The 1930 census was, you might say, a day of reckoning, when all cities had to let facts displace claims. And, thank goodness, the facts for Big Spring were better than the claims.

We keep harpin' on this census figure mainly in an effort to convert some more people to the knowledge they actually live in a city and not in a 1920 town.

Here's an editorial from Sunday's edition of the Fort Worth Star Telegram, for which we happened Monday to have the opportunity of thanking the publisher of that paper, Amos G. Carter:

A WEST TEXAS TYPE
As a sample typical of the real growth of West Texas in which the occasional oil "boom" are but passing incidents, the census figures for Big Spring may be cited. Ten years ago Big Spring had more oil interest than it has today, but, of course, less oil to be interested in. In those days the oil fever drew to every town in the region a large floating population, drawn from the ends of the earth, and this population, figuring in the census for that year, operated to discount the showing of real population gain in the 1930 census in the case of many West Texas towns. But Big Spring came through with a sustained development which gave it the proud record of a 321 per cent increase in the 10 years.

The 1930 census shows Big Spring to have a population of 13,731, placing it among West Texas leaders. And this population is built, not on a boom factor which is liable to vanish at any moment, but on a versatile basis that assures not only permanence of the present population but sustained growth in the future. Big Spring has responded to the demands of a great section, rich in oil and gas whose real development along these lines has come since the last census, but also rich in agricultural resources which have, as yet, but begun their development.

Agricultural resources mean sustained support for a variety of industries and for a large urban population. Big Spring has these, and it is on the cards that the city will continue to grow.

SPUDS TAKE SHREVEPORT FOR FOURTH

Cats Cop From Steers In Only Other Tilt Of Day

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Hauling up their long-range artillery late in the game, the Wichita Falls Spudders slugged out their fourth straight victory over Shreveport yesterday, 4 to 3, and took a firmer grasp on the Texas league leadership.

Fred Vincent, Spud righthander, won his own game when he hoisted one of Morrell's slants over the fence in the seventh to break a 3-3 deadlock. In the previous inning, Bettencourt and Kloss had parked the ball to pull their club up on even terms. It was the second straight day the leaders' long-distance hitting had wrecked the Sport defense. Storti's two homers having proved decisive in the Sunday doubleheader. Bettencourt's smash pulled him up into a tie with Bill Kelly of Fort Worth for the homer leadership. Each has 12.

Profiting by the Sports' reverses, the Cats advanced to within a half-game of the first division by making it three out of four from Dallas, 4 to 1. It marked the seventh victory in eight games for the Snydermen.

Henry Hardaway, young righthander who toiled for the Herd last year, turned in another spectacular performance for the Panthers, holding the Steers to six scattered hits. Had not Cox fallen and knocked himself cold while trying to field Willingham's fly in the eighth Hardaway would have scored a shutout. As it was, the batter reached third and scored on a sacrifice fly. Kelly and Eddie Moore each smacked a double and single to lead the winners' attack on Wachtel.

Only two games were played, the other league teams having gotten scheduled games out of their systems in double bills the previous day.

Fort Worth and Dallas play one more at Dallas today before taking their separate ways and the Spuds have a parting shot at Shreveport. Houston opens a three-game series at Waco, theoretically. The fact is, they will play in the McLellan county metropolis today, but Wednesday and Thursday will move over to Brenham for a pair as part of the maifest celebration. The San Antonio Indians are at Beaumont for a pair.

ORIOLES SCORE 24 TO BEAT BEARS

BIRDS RAP OUT SIXTH STRAIGHT VICTORY, 24 TO 6

The Orioles went on a batting spree to score 24 runs off the defenses of Kasterson and Underwood and to win their sixth straight game. Hutchins was on the mound for the victors and kept the Cubs scoreless until the seventh inning, when the cellar occupants scored eight runs.

Hutchins, Martin and Blevins led the attack for the Orioles. Underwood featured the batting of the Cubs.

Tuesday's picked team from the Sunset league will play Coahoma an exhibition match after which the Jellies will meet the Cubs in a scheduled game.

Van Area Will Get Pipe Lines

GRAND SALINE, May 27 (AP)—Production in the Van oil field is increasing to such an extent that the one pipeline leading to a tank farm five miles away cannot care for the output, work was started on another eight inch line from the farm to the field.

Independent operations are attracting interest. Since the 44 producing wells in the Van area operated on their oil plan by the Pure Oil company, oil men are looking for the bringing in of an independent well to stimulate activity.

A number of wildcats are being drilled near Grand Saline.

WOLF BOUNTIES
SAN SABA, May 27 (AP)—Nearly $800 was paid within 10 days by the San Saba Wolf club as bounties on wolf hides. W. H. Hinyard, secretary-treasurer of the club reports. A bounty of $10 is paid for each wolf pup hide and $65 for the hide of a grown wolf.

Among the trappers who received the largest amounts were O. T. Woodward, 10 pups; Henry Galloway, seven pups; J. M. Wilson, three pups and one grown wolf; J. T. Holden, seven pups and two grown wolves.

A SIMPLE STEP TOWARDS HEALTH

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a Daily Essential and Millions Know Its Effectiveness in Relief of Constipation

Perhaps the one simple thing you are not doing to guarantee permanent health is having sufficient roughage in your food. Absence of this roughage is the direct cause of constipation which results in so many other ills—headaches, listlessness, general depression, indigestion and, sometimes, serious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is roughage. It is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation or the purchase price will be refunded. Two tablespoons daily (in serious cases, with each meal) is the proper amount.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also helps you to health in other ways. It is rich in iron, practically all of which goes into the blood, bringing red, healthy color to the complexion. It helps prevent anemia. Be sure to include it in reducing diets.

Many eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with cream or milk added. It is a delicious addition to cereals, fruits and soups. In cooked foods, such as bran muffins, it is just as effective in the relief of constipation. Recommended by doctors. Ask your grocer for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

EDUCATIONAL TOUR
TAYLOR, Texas, May 27 (AP)—Plans for a four-day educational tour to enterprising points on Texas have been completed by the Future Farmers club of Taylor. The tour will be made in August. Representatives from other Future Farmers Chapters in Holland, Granger, Bartlett, Round Rock, Manor Elgin and Thrall have been invited to go on the tour, which will include inspection of the experiment station at Temple and visit to the model dairy farms near Hillsboro and the feed mills and packing houses at Fort Worth. Model farms between Dallas and Fort Worth also will be visited.

$25,000,000 Pipe Order Entered For Gas Main

CHICAGO, May 27. (AP)—The Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line Company announced today that contracts have been let for immediate construction of a $25,000,000 natural gas pipe line to transport gas from the Texas Panhandle field to industrial communities of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky.

The National Supply Company of Toledo, Ohio, has been given orders for $25,000,000 worth of pipe and other materials for the line, which will be 1,250 miles long, running from Texas to Indiana via Kansas City, Springfield, Ill., Terre Haute and Indianapolis. The line will connect with the Missouri-Kansas company's Kentucky pipe line system near Evansville, Ind.

Frank P. Parish, president of Missouri-Kansas, said the Illinois Power and Light Corporation and the Missouri Power and Light Company, subsidiaries of the North American Light and Power Co., have contracted with the Panhandle Eastern Company, subsidiary of Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line Co., for the purchase of Natural Gas for all the cities in Illinois and Missouri which they now serve with artificial gas.

"TRY CARDUI AGAIN"

Mother's Advice to Daughter Was Followed, and She Soon Got Better.

North Little Rock, Ark.—"Shortly after my marriage, my health wasn't very good," writes Mrs. W. E. Burch, 315 West Second Street, this city. "I had severe cramping spells and at times I would have to go to bed. This would be very weakening."

"I took about five bottles of Cardui at this time and my strength came back. I did not have any more trouble for some time."

Several years later, Mrs. Burch found herself debilitated by heavy home responsibilities, and she explained: "I seemed very slow in getting my strength back. I was too weak to do anything but just sit around. I would get very nervous over my condition."

"My mother told me I ought to try Cardui again. I did, and soon was getting better. When I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I was able to do my work again, and haven't had to take it any more."

If you are run-down, nervous, or suffer every month, take Cardui, a medicine used by women for over fifty years. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of others who have praised Cardui for the benefits they have felt after taking it. Get a bottle, today. CARDUI

Census Figures

GALVESTON, May 27. (AP)—Census figures for Jefferson county's two cities, Port Arthur and Beaumont, have gains over the 1920 figure.

The 1930 population of Beaumont was announced as 57,483, making it the larger city, but the rate of increase, 42.2 per cent was not so great as the 120.7 per cent gain which sent Port Arthur's population to 49,107.

Another South Texas city with an unusual per cent of gain was Harlingen, population of which had increased from less than 2,000 to 12,124.

BROWNSVILLE, May 27. (AP)—The urban population of the Rio Grande valley, including 17 towns, is 92,874, an increase of almost 150 per cent over the 1920 figure, reports released today by census headquarters showed.

Section has made rapid strides in truck and citrus fruit growing the past decade. The urban population in 1920 was only 37,227.

Collin county, 46,171, decrease of 3,429 or 7.4 per cent.

Navarro county, 60,494, increase 9,870.

Atascosa county, 15,653, increase 2,651.

Waller county, 9,523; decrease 760.

Fayette county, 30,704; increase 739.

Colorado county, 18,129; increase 116.

Austin county, 18,900; increase 13.

Brownsville, 22,050; increase 10,206 or 87 per cent.

San Benito, 10,789; increase 5,719.

Donm, 4,107, increase 3,523.

Palo Pinto county, 17,575; decrease 5,856; or 25 per cent.

GERM PROCESS

CONOCO

... Endows CONOCO with Unusual Advantages at Every Deciding Point in Pike's Peak Test

Germ-Processed, unusual name, identifies this startling new motor oil. This process sets a new gauge on all motor oils with the announcement that this oil really penetrates metal surfaces in your motor, and so provides a clinging lubrication and combats the destructive wear in "boundary lubrication."

This characteristic is called, by engineers, "Penetrative Lubricity." The Pike's Peak tests proved the friction-freeing values of this CONOCO feature so conclusively that now we honestly believe and say to you:

"Germ-Processed oils are safest of all oils for you to use!"

76.4% Reduction in Motor Wear Assures Film Strength

Friction resistance ability of any motor oil is summed up in those two words: "Film Strength." No reasonable person can fail to be convinced of the advantageous properties of this new oil now. For, in operating performance with three nationally-known and popular American oils in the Pike's Peak tests, Germ-Processed showed such a superiority in Film Strength that motor wear, by micrometer measurements, was lowered by 76.4 per cent.

Film Strength Seals Piston Power and Reduces Compression "Blow By"

The price that CONOCO paid to obtain the exclusive rights to the Germ Process for North America was justified in these Pike's Peak tests. In the test supervised by the AAA, Germ-Processed Motor Oil triumphed on every count. Notable to the AAA observers, who checked every test, was the Film Strength in this oil. To further prove the effect of Film Strength on compression, a test of all oils was made with cold motors, using tested meters. A graphic chart resulted, showing better compression in the engines with Germ-Process film.

Film Strength, by Reducing Friction, Lowers Motor Operating Temperatures

Test thermometers, installed under the supervision of AAA observers, showed that water temperatures were lower when CONOCO Germ-Processed Oil was used than with the other oils used.

The use of CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil resulted in an average of 76.4 per cent reduction in motor wear over the course of these Pike's Peak tests. Final calculations showed a reduction in gasoline costs per mile and oil costs per mile . . . and a more nearly perfect compression seal with Germ-Processed Motor Oil. Come, fill your crankcase at the Sign of the Red Triangle.

IMPORTANT! Send for the Free Booklet, "Pike's Peak Tests Confirm Conoco's Challenge," which gives a detailed narrative of these tests with illuminating charts and photographs.

KONJOLA ENDED NEURITIS AND KIDNEY TROUBLE

Well Known Waco Photographer Enthusiastic About New Medicine. "Proven Wonderful Remedy," He Says

MR. H. O. BRUBAKER

"I suffered for six years with neuritis, kidney trouble and constipation," said Mr. H. O. Brubaker, well known photographer, residing at 623 1-2 Austin avenue, Waco.

"Much to my surprise, I began to get immediate results after taking this medicine. The swelling left my ankles and limbs and I became stronger. I can now go about my work without stopping to rest."

Konjola is sold in Big Spring at Collins Bros. drug stores, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

HOW'S YOUR HEALTH Edited by Dr. Inge Quindlen, Academy of Medicine

BOTULINUS POISONING Botulinus poisoning is a serious and often fatal form of so-called food poisoning. In the United States, where the disease botulinus is less common than in Europe, the fatality record is sixty-two per cent.

"What's all this?" he demanded. Flaque showed him the remains of the ancestral tablet and explained what had happened. "And so," Flaque finished, "had it not been for the good right arm of M. l'Antiquaire you would have had another trouble on your hand."

"Why did you attack Flaque?" "The hut of a poor man is the temple of his ancestors," he explained. "You objected to him being here?"

"M. Flaque perfumes the air with his goodness," Lum We continued, and his eyes came to rest uneasily on the lacquer box, "but the spirit of my father has walked on slender swords—and a devil invaded me."

"You broke it and returned it?" "He had extinguished the tablet of my father's spirit."

"You stole the phoenix—you killed Parados; then you got scared and returned the phoenix broken." You might as well come through.

"It is broken," Flaque murmured gently, "but Lum We still burns the incense to the soul of his ancestor."

"Thank you, my friend," Flaque gasped. "My little victory made me forget that he would come. It would have been most disagreeable, that knife."

"And why should I change my mind?" Flaque inquired, flinging out his hands. "The murder was un-premeditated. This would have been the crime of passion. There is a difference. But here is M. Samuel."

Oklahoma City's Oil Field Brought Nearer To Limits

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 27. (AP)—An amazing pool of black gold was brought today to Oklahoma City's very edge. Stifling fumes from a new oil well in the south city field assailed even the business district.
 While a sizeable crowd with burning cigars and cigarettes and running automobile motors created a fire hazard, the Hall and Briscoe company extended the pool more than one-half mile northwest at its number 1 Holmes, just south of the city limits of Capitol Hill, south residential district.

Raines Reaches Second Round In Golf Meet

BROWNWOOD, May 27. (AP)—Budley Raines of Stamford, 1927, champion, today advanced to the second round of the West Texas Golf Association tournament beating Buster Hill of Brownwood, 2 and 1.

Penrose Metcalf, veteran San Angelo player, also remained in the championship flight running by winning from John T. Yantis, another Brownwood entrant, on the nineteenth hole. Yantis and Metcalf each took a 79 on the first 18 holes. The San Angelo golfer captured the nineteenth with a par four as Yantis missed his putt by inches.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

Little Neck, L. I.
Is it not true that religion originates in man's fear of the future and his inability to explain the present? What has Christianity done to solve this problem?

There is no doubt that fear played a conspicuous part in primitive religions. But it was not fear of the future so much as of malefic and mysterious powers acting in the present. Yet fear was by no means the only element in even the earliest religions. They were often expressions of joy over the fecundity of the earth and the conquest of tribal enemies. Hence the introduction of the dance as part of their rites. For dancing was a pronounced ritual of piety before it became a social habit. In this connection read J. G. Fraser's "Golden Bough" and Hopkin's "Origin and Evolution of Religions."

It may be freely admitted that modern religion has some basis in our inability to explain the present. And since science has now forfeited final certitude, that inability is still more pronounced. Christianity enters the scene, however, as a working philosophy of life; a spiritual monism which unifies the diversified elements of Nature and civilization in the God whom Christ revealed. Your question implies that a religion based on mystery is for that reason defective. But this does not necessarily follow.

There are only two possible attitudes towards life's ineffable mystery: we can accept it and do nothing or we can try to solve it. Many religions are offered to the world, and all have their merits and demerits. But I do not agree that the Christian solution is lacking either in intelligence or in reasonableness. Personally I believe that the supreme Truth of the whole issue is found in the revelation made by Jesus as the Christ of God.

Marion, Ohio.
I read all I can get about genetics, psychology and science in general. But they seem to me to fall short of the main issues in my own life and leave my pretty much where I started. They are interesting, but not very helpful. Possibly I have not read the best authors on these subjects. Yet I feel those I have read fall short of the requirements for the daily life of the average man. What is the reason?

They do no sort of justice to life's actual significance. We are prone to exaggerate the authority of those who speak with a pontifical air in the name of science. Their tact and open assumptions are treated with a deference which sometimes discredits the public intelligence. They often ignore the spiritual realm in which our personality most really and deeply exists. This one-sided treatment by radical scientific theorists starts them off on the wrong foot and headed in the wrong direction. So they travel from the man to the beast, instead of from the beast to the angel. Personally I concur with Disraeli, who declared for the angel as against the ape. No study of man or his social problems is likely to prove beneficial if it begins by denying the supremacy of the spirit which rules in us all. For this dominant aspect of the issue you must turn to religion, to the type of character it is intended to produce, to the place and influence of that character in history. In brief, to the facts in the case, which, though paramount, are either ignored or denied by a species of the so-called scientific mind. Human nature contains an imperious element no purely physical processes can measure, leave alone explain. Many eminent scientists admit the presence of that element, not only in man, but in the universe.

Read on the problems that trouble you "The Learned Knife," by Laurence Hyde, and the works of Professor A. S. Eddington, one of the world's most distinguished scientists.

Cosden Refinery Rallies To Beat Out Bankers 9 To 7

The Bankers almost won a ball game Monday afternoon. But Bob Middleton, the skipper of the Treasury and Mike Herringer, the same of the Hill Protectionists, didn't reach an agreement on whether it was a five-inning or a seven-inning ball game. Had it been a five-inning game, there would have been a bunch of Bankers cavoring around the miniature golf table this eve and a few others even. Being not so, Cosden got the grapes and the seeds went into the safety deposit boxes of somewhere. Such is life in base ball. Such it is.

Now comes Doc Cauble, passing up such worthy so-and-soes like ourself and Tiny Reed, and presenting Bruce Nesbitt, umpire, with a whisk broom. If there is anyone else that has conceived the idea of showering down gifts at the Dusty D. if he will drop around and converse with the secretary we can soon tell him where to rain. However, Nesbitt, umpire or no umpire, is welcome to the whisk broom. We've nothing to whisk, not even a home plate. A whisk broom isn't much good out there, however. What the umpire needs to keep the dust off that home slab is the city street sweeper.

We see by the Range Times, presided over by none other than Boyce House, Incorporated, that "Ham" Bacon has resigned as coach of the Caddo Cougars. We wouldn't be in the least place either, with Ranger and Breckenridge fighting over the football crop, each advising the aspiring young backs and linemen to "go west" but down separate highways. Might as well be coach at German or Stephenville, old Cisco strongholds. Or Mineral Wells, maybe, recently acquired trade territory of Ranger.

Should be a fair fray this afternoon in the City League. Ricocho comes to town to have a mid-air collision with the Bankers, and we'll say that if Ricocho doesn't play better baseball this afternoon than he did Sunday afternoon Ricocho will "retire" his steps in the same fashion. The Bankers are tougher than tough at the present time, and Ricocho is short on hurriers. If it wasn't for Dorton we don't know exactly who would pitch for the Ricocho squad. The big fellow has hurried ever since we migrated to this metropolis. With Hoshin on third, Clark at short, Cook at second, and Morton on the initial, however, the Bankers are going to have to hit them out of that infield. It's almost as good as a strikeout to pop one anywhere in the rance of that quartet of ball buggers.

And Texas and Pacific stands a good chance of making it three in a row tomorrow afternoon when Lefty Baker's aggregation meets the Cosden artillery face to face. It is possible, so we hear, that Lefty himself will assume that plot of ground known as the pitcher's box, and should be do so it is quite probable that Cosden will have a nice battle on the calendar. With the railway team on its pedal extremities and doing a bit of marching, that makes about five teams in the race that are good for fast ball games any day of the week. In our opinion the Bankers have been showered with hard luck in big chunks. Bob Middleton has a nice bunch of ball players together, but it seems that every time they seem on the way to a fast win something happens to turn it into a slow loss.

Cosden, incidentally, beat the Mexican Tigers Sunday afternoon. It was the first loss of the year for the Cats. The Mexican team is open for engagements, and can furnish plenty of fast baseball. In fact they are pretty good.

There has been a little talk of doing away with the Sunday schedule of the City League altogether and importing a fast team from alien ports to battle with a picked team each Sunday. That would, we believe, give the treasury a decided boost, but would it tend to cut out a little of the interest in the city league itself. As we see it, the City League is not a commercial scheme any more than it is compelled to be. What we mean is that it takes a certain amount of cash on the salt barrel to operate it, and that cash must come from somewhere. A Sunday game, we imagine, would draw better if an outside team was imported. It is a good idea and worth some discussion. We'll refer it to the board of directors. Maybe the constitution and by-laws will allow them to talk about it, but we're not sure.

LARRIMORE POUNDED IN 6TH

Potter Relieves Wilkins In Third To Cop Hot Contest

A slender hurrier by the name of Larrimore hurled wonderful ball against the hard-hitting Cosden aggregation for four frames, but was as ineffective during the other two as he was brilliant in the four, and Cosden defeated the Bankers in an exciting contest 9 to 7, Monday afternoon.

Two former high school all-district centers, Anthony, Cisco sensation of three years ago, and Barley, Steer captain of last year, supplied the most timely punches of the game. Anthony's was a double down the left field foul line that scored three men while Barley started the Banker rally in the second and doubled against the left field boards to send Hutchins across the plate with the run that terminated the Banker scoring until the seventh.

Lefty Potter, who has spent the last few years in leagues varying from the American to the West Texas, went to the rescue of Wilkins in the third inning and set the Bankers down with a string of zeroes to receive credit for the victory. Larrimore went the route for the Bankers.

The Shylocks hopped on Wilkins for five runs in the second. Barley and J. Payne singled. Hurt filled the bases when West had some difficulty fielding his ground. Larrimore demonstrated his value by singling to center scoring Barley. And Stevens had fanned. F. Payne singled and Thurman slammed one to left for two bases, scoring two men. Madison and Hutchins went out to retire the side.

Three Walked

The Refinerymen came right back at them. Larrimore walked three of the first four men to face him, managing to get Baker out during the interlude. Anthony brought the trio home with a double down the left field foul line that swept two of the cover off third base. Wilkins disapproved the old adage that pitchers cannot hit by bringing the Cisco gridiron star home with a long single to center. Adams was safe on Thurman's bobble but Martin and West went out to end the immediate Cosden scoring.

The Bankers tallied their sixth run in the third when Hutchins singled, went to second on a wild pitch, and scored on Barley's drive up against the left field boards. The appearance of Potter cast a damper on Banker enthusiasm for the next man. J. Payne, hit into a double play when he lined to center field and Barley was caught off second. Hurt went out, Morton to Baker. Larrimore recovered from the wildness of the second inning to shut the Refinerymen out in the next three frames. Cosden almost scored in the third when Morton walked and was thrown out trying to score on Baker's double. They went out in order in the 3rd, and threatened again in the fourth. A Bill Stevens error, a hit, and a fielder's choice put two men on but Baker fouled out to Thurman, and Clothier watched too many pass by.

Five or Seven

The Bankers were displaying the same disinclination to score. Two men were stationed on the banks in the fourth because of Larrimore's single and a refusal of the Cosden infield to cover second when Payne grounded to first. Thurman rolled out, Potter to Baker.

In the sixth, after Manager Herringer convinced Manager Middleton that seven innings was the proper length for a ball game, the Cosden put the contest in the bag. Anthony was safe on Steven's mistake on the ground ball. Potter went out but Adams slammed a two base hit to left field that sent Anthony to third. Martin filed out to center field, Anthony scoring after the catch. West received a free pass to first due to Larrimore's inability to put one over the base. Harris singled to center scoring Adams and the hit escaped Hurt's fingers to allow West to cross the plate and Harris to reach second. Morton singled, sending Harris to third. The Cosden centerfielder reached home on Larrimore's wild throw. Morton taking second. Baker drove one through the box and Morton tallied. Clothier filed out to Madison to end the orgy.

Field Laurels

The Money-Changers made a brave attempt to rally in the seventh. F. Payne led off with his third hit of the day and went to second on Thurman's sacrifice. Madison scored. F. Payne with a long single to right but Hutchins and Barley whiffed to end the contest.

At least two of the Bankers aftered Larrimore brilliant support. Madison accepted six chances in left field and some of them sent him racing from the foul line to the boards. Hutchins robbed Potter of a clean single by knocking a line drive down with his gloved hand and touching first.

First Major American Loss In British Amateur Meet

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 27 (AP)—Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, Ore., member of the American Walker Cup team, was eliminated in the second round of the British amateur golf championship today by William Spark, Scottish golfer, 2 and 1.

Dr. Willing's defeat was the first major American casualty in the current championship. His elimination reduced the American contingent to fifteen where 24 were in the field when play began yesterday and Howard C. Davis of Salem, Mass., was put out earlier today.

Willing fought gamely all the way, but from the first hole where Sparks shot a birdie at him the Portland dentist couldn't get the touch of the raging greens nor solve the problem of stiff, cross-grass winds.

Willing was ahead only once during the match and then only for the duration of one hole's play. Trailing by one hole at the turn, the American won the eleventh to square the match and the twelfth to take the lead, but the Scotsman won the thirteenth to even the match and then went into the lead again at the fifteenth where Dr. Willing needed five. The sixteenth was halved in fours but the match ended on the next green where Dr. Willing's best was a six.

On the first nine, Spark opened with a birdie three at the first hole but Willing squared the match at the third. The sixth and seventh were evenly divided leaving the match all square, but Spark went into the lead on the short eighth with a par three and rounded the turn with a one hole lead.

Throughout the match Dr. Willing found trouble on the greens. He missed several putts of from five to ten feet, distances at which he usually is deadly. The wind and the sun had made the greens lightning fast, and putts which were a little too strong rolled yards past the hole.

Roger Wethered, one of Britain's stalwarts, eliminated Robert Methieson, former Oxford star, 5 and 3. Wethered played the fifteen holes in even fours.

George Von Elm, of Edtoit, former American amateur champion, eliminated Dr. Gardiner Hill of St. Andrews, 4 and 2, in a second round match.

Roland MacKenzie of Wilmington, Del., had a walk-over into the third round, his second round opponent H. M. Cairns of Ireland, defaulting.

J. B. Gwaltney of New York, defeated E. L. Archibald of Haggis Castle Club, 2 to 1.

R. E. Foster, an American business man living in London, defeated W. E. Dobbs of Prestwick, 2 and 1.

John Nelson Smith, British Walker Cup player, eliminated Col. H. A. Boyd of Ireland, 4 and 2.

Major C. O. Heale, another British hope, defeated E. C. Millard of the Royal Wimbledon Club, one up.

Roper Hot? Just Ask Bobby Jones About Young Sid

By O. B. KEELER
For The Associated Press

ST. ANDREWS, England, May 27 (AP)—The trouble with the British amateur championship as I now see it is that there are so many good golfers in it who are not in the book.

Five minutes after Bobby Jones walked in from his bout with Sidney Roper I stood in Bobby's room at the Grand Hotel and asked him about it.

"They told me this bird was not so hot," Bobby said. "I can tell you one thing. If he had been two degrees hotter I could not have handled him."

I asked about Bobby's hot test start on record.

"Lucky for me," said the open champion, "he shot par for the first four holes and then a birdie and was three down. I never was able to gain another hole on him going out. Did you ever see a chap stick the way he did?"

The answer was "no." I had seen Bobby "hot" before, but I never saw anybody stand the heat and show no signs of folding up.

"They said he would shoot five at me," added Mr. Jones. "He shot fifteen fours and one five according to my count."

Sid Roper started at the bottom of the procession and worked up. He learned his golf on the public course at Bulwell Forest, a few miles from Nottingham, the place where Robin Hood used to operate an opulent travelers and remove juries from them. I told Mr. Jones this.

"He was dazed near removing me from this tournament," he rejoined.

The biggest first round gallery I ever saw witnessed the shot the American open champion confessed was the best he ever produced—the 130 yard pitch from a bunker into the hole for a deuce at the 427 yard fourth hole—Bobby's gigantic drive had rolled into it, an amateur photographer unobserved for action. Bobby played.

"Please don't make a picture just now," he requested. The request was observed. What a picture that would have been for the book!

SENATORS DEFEAT YANKS

Washington Continues To Head Pack By Four Games

By HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

While their highly touted brethren falter and stumble, the Washington Senators proceed blithely on their victorious way in the American league much as the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Robins, "dark horses" both, are doing in the National.

Picked in advance predictions to finish no higher than seventh, the Senators, under great leadership by Walter Johnson, were leading the pack by four full games today and giving no signs of cracking under the amazing pace they have set.

Yesterday they scored their sixth successive victory and their 15th in 19 games, beating the New York Yankees, 10 to 7. Stealing a lead from the Yanks' own book, the Senators won on home runs. Joe Judge and Goose Goslin hit successive home runs in the fourth and repeated the feat in the fifth, accounting for six runs. The second blast from the Washington batsmen was the high spot of a seven run rally that swept Vernon Gomez off the mound and won the ball game. The Yankees held a two run lead going into the fifth, Gehrig driving in four runs with a double and a triple.

Cleveland bounced back into third place with a double victory over the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 3 and 5 to 2. Wes Ferrell outpitched Red Faber by a wide margin in the opener and Clint Brown had an edge on Cecil Caraway in the night-cap.

Lefty Grove chalked up his sixth win without a defeat as the Athletics beat Boston 8 to 5. Grove had only one bad inning, the eighth, when the Red Sox bunched hits for four runs.

The Detroit Tigers made good use of eight hits to beat St. Louis, 7 to 3, and moved into sixth place while the Browns fell back to seventh.

If the National league, Brooklyn and St. Louis each recorded victories to keep the Cardinals on top of the league standing by half a game. They gave their metropolitan rivals, the New York Giants, their fifth straight defeat, 7 to 0, as Dazzy Vance turned in his best effort of the year. Vance gave the Giants only two hits, one a scratch, and permitted only two men to get as far as second base. Fred Fitzsimmons gave only six hits and two runs in the seven innings he worked, but the Robins hopped on Parmelee and Lucas for five more runs in the eighth. The victory was Brooklyn's 13th of its last 16.

The Cardinals turned back Pittsburgh, 10-4, for their eighth straight win and their 17 in 35 games. The cards shelled Jess Petty off the mound with a four run rally in the fourth while Lindsey, relieving Sherdel in the sixth, was a puzzle to the Corsairs.

Despite Hack Wilson's 13th homer of the year with one on, Cincinnati beat the Cubs, 6 to 2. Jackie May gave the Cubs only six hits.

TIGERS BEATEN BY COSDEN BATSMEN

A four bag clout by Clothier, with two on the sacks, gave Cosden Refinery a 9 to 7 victory over the Mexican Tigers Sunday afternoon. The winning blow came in the seventh inning and shoved the game into the refrigeration process.

MAYOR ASKS FOR SOME SUGGESTIONS

PHILADELPHIA—(INS)—Now comes a mayor who is frank enough to admit he doesn't know all about how a city should be administered.

Mayor Mackey here is requesting first-hand information today from those who know more than he does about any phase of the city administration which will enable him to improve his municipal activities.

When Spring Breezes Cease... Then is the time to get an Electric Fan

Hot summer days and uncomfortably warm nights have arrived. This typical Texas weather will continue from now until the latter part of September, or almost four months.

When natural breezes cease, an electric fan brings freedom from heat, in the home, in the office, in the store.

Economical to use (two full hours for less than one cent) and built for long service (20 years of average use) an electric fan adds to human comfort and relieves summer fatigue.

A wide range of electric fans of well-known manufacturers can be seen in our sales office. A fan will be delivered to your home for a small down payment, the rest payable in monthly installments with your electric service bill. Fans are priced from $5 up.

John Brady Free On $5,000 Bond

DALLAS, May 27 (AP)—John W. Brady of Austin, former high court judge, was released on $5,000 bail today after District Judge C. A. Pippen had overruled his motion for a new trial.

Brady was sentenced to three years imprisonment by a jury in Judge Pippen's court upon conviction of the murder of Miss Leahia Highsmith, Austin court stenographer, November 9. He will be out on bond pending action of his appeal.

The former Austin jurist had been in jail since the stabbing. He said that he and Mrs. Brady, who has stood by him throughout, would visit friends here for several days after which they would return to Austin.

Sureties for the bond were W. H. Head, utility official, and John Morrissey and W. J. Harris, capitalists, all of Dallas.

Brady's first trial at Austin ended in a hung jury. He was sentenced here May 17.

should be created on the 80,000 acres of fertile lands now owned by the state and used for prison purposes.

Mayfield opposed a state highway bond, presenting statistics to show that revenue now available from present sources is more than ample to meet the state highway needs.

Highways

"I am absolutely opposed to the policy of redesignating or straightening highways so as to miss the smaller towns, and thereby impair, if not actually destroy the financial interests of the citizens of these towns. I am in favor of an elective highway commission," he declared.

"The state government should interest itself in impounding the waters of rivers, for irrigation in the West, flood prevention in the east, and development of power to serve Texas industries in all sections," he said. "If elected governor I would give my enthusiastic support to such legislation."

He advocated liberal appropriations "to make Texas' public school system the best in the United States.

Speaking of chain stores, Mayfield declared, "if present conditions, as brought about by the chain store system continue, the destruction of independent retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers, hopeless before monopoly, will soon be at hand."

We should regulate the sale of merchandise in intra-state commerce to preserve "individual enterprise and honest competition."

Mr. Mayfield recommended a commission of course reform, and suggested regulation of public utilities be placed in the hands of the Railroad Commission.

Earle B. Mayfield, Jr. accompanied his father to Big Spring. The former senator was introduced by Judge J. B. Littler.

Mayfield spoke at Lamesa Monday afternoon. He will speak at Colorado this afternoon and Sweetwater tonight.

Prescription Department Outstanding Feature Of New Store

E. M. FRANCIS, FORMERLY OF SOUTH'S LEADING PHARMACY, EMPLOYED BY COLLINS BROS.

FOURTEEN YEARS' EXPERIENCE IN DRUG BUSINESS FITS FUTURE MANAGER OF LOCAL STORE TO GIVE EFFICIENT SERVICE.

Having decided to open a drug store which would be equipped and stocked to provide prescription service of the highest type Collins Bros., began to look for a man to put in charge of that department.

They found him. He is E. M. Francis, who has been with the Medical Arts Pharmacy in Dallas, a store which it is declared by druggists, fills more prescriptions annually than any in the south.

Before going to Dallas Mr. Francis was prescription man in the Kingston store, Denison, recognized as the leading prescription house in North Texas.

SALES VOLUME TRIPLED WITH HERALD SPACE

"We tripled our advertising in The Herald, and in doing so we tripled our business," A. R. Collins of Collins Brothers, declared Tuesday morning.

Asked the principal reasons for the success of the partnership in the drug business here, he declared that the unbending policy of the firm's guarantee behind every article sold and consistently extending service and courtesy to customers has made those customers return.

It is a standing offer that the person who buys anything from Collins Brothers and leaves the store without being thanked may have the price of his purchase refunded.

But, Mr. Collins was asked, how have you brought these customers into your stores in growing numbers?

"By advertising in The Herald. All other advertising we consider donations," he replied. "We tripled our space. We offered week-end specialties that really were special bargains. We've certainly been made confirmed believers in the power of Herald advertising to sell merchandise in Big Spring and its territory."

7400 DIFFERENT PLANTS IN INDIANA

CHICAGO (IS)—There are more than 1,400 different kinds of plants growing on the Indiana Dunes at the southern end of Lake Michigan.

Among them are some 25 species of wild orchids, and such other rare flora as the pitcher plant, tamarack, gold-thread and bunchberry.

These facts are revealed in "Flora of the Indian Dunes," the only book in print containing description of all the flowering plants of the Dunes regions.

The book, just issued by the Field Museum of Natural History here, is the work of Donald C. Peattie, writer and botanist, formerly on the staff of the United States Department of Agriculture, who has devoted considerable time to exploring the Dunes and collecting and studying their flora.

The Dunes area has long been known as one of the richest and most interesting botanical regions of the United States, but never before has a complete record of all its plants been published.

Many of the plants described are found also throughout the Chicago area, and the state of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

HARD LUCK!

Every person connected with Collins Bros. will be happy Wednesday over the opening of Petroleum Pharmacy—but one of them will be sorely disappointed.

Mrs. Pearl Pegues, the pleasant, kindly, accommodating woman who will preside over the cosmetics department of the new store, will not be on duty for the formal opening. She was forced to go to a hospital last week.

Mrs. Pegues has been with Collins Bros. about nine months. She has been connected with drug stores here for the past six years.

These Big Spring Boys Have Become Business Leaders

DICK COLLINS

A. R. COLLINS

Brothers, Who Own Store, Are Well Trained

The owners of the Petroleum Pharmacy are Big Spring boys. Alfred R. and Dick Collins have resided here since 1913 and in Howard county since 1909. Their father, Dr. T. M. Collins, is a practicing physician.

Alfred Collins, born in Fannin county, came with his parents to Haskell county where his younger brother, Dick, was born. The family resided in Andrews county on a ranch for three years after leaving Haskell, going from there to Coahoma for four years, thence to Big Spring.

Both are graduates of Big Spring high school. Alfred attended Abilene Christian College three sessions, becoming one of the outstanding college football players of West Texas. He spent a year in California and went to the University of Texas School of Pharmacy in Galveston, where he completed requirements and passed the state board of pharmacy examination to obtain his license to practice pharmacy. He then returned to Abilene, attending Simmons university to complete requirements for the degree of bachelor of arts. He, however, transferred his credits to A. C. C., which institution awarded him the degree. Later he attended the medical branch of Baylor University in Dallas for a year, studying medicine. About that time he came home for a visit, fell in love, and on May 16, 1926, was married to a Howard county girl, Miss Bessie Adams of Coahoma. With their fine young son, A. R. Jr., born November 16, 1929, they reside in a beautiful new home in Edwards Heights.

Dick Collins attended Washington State College after finishing Big Spring high school. He studied pharmacy and related subjects there and after returning to Texas passed the state board's pharmaceutical examination to obtain his license to practice the profession.

Alfred then sold Dick a half interest in the store at Second and Runnels. They still are 50-50 partners. Dick went to Houston and, as an employe of Walgreen's, a large retail drug concern, studied store decorations and advertising. He also worked with leading Louisiana druggists before coming here.

24-FOOT SODA FOUNTAIN ATTRACTIVE FEATURE

All Dishes And Utensils To Be Sterilized; Sandwiches, Other Dishes, Offered For Every Meal

The 24-foot White Knight fountain in the Petroleum pharmacy sets a new standard in West Texas for fountain facilities and service.

The fountain counter is finished in decorative tile, a wide foot rest being provided. There are ten cushioned stools for customers. That, however, is but one phase of the strong points of this fountain.

There are Frigidaire compartments for ice cream and sherbet—with total capacity of ten full pailers. Syrups also are electrically refrigerated.

There are two draft arms. In other words, this fountain is so long and complete that two dispensers may work at the same time, serve the same drinks, and still not use the same cream compartments, draft arms, syrup containers, sterilizers or anything else used in operating the fountain.

And, the sterilizing. There is running hot water at both ends of the fountain. There are specially designed glass washers and sterilizers. And all utensils and dishes used at this fountain will be sterilized, the management declares.

There is a large steam table, where salads, sandwiches and hot drinks of all kinds are prepared.

Another unusual feature is a Frigidaire salad cabinet, in which to keep meats and other foods. There is a large coffee urn. There are facilities for serving three meals each day, with definite and complete menus. There will be special breakfast, with waffles, coffee, grapefruit and other things folks like for breakfast. Each of the other meals will be handled similarly.

The most amazing piece of fountain equipment is the All-Toaster. This machine operates automatically. It will cook any sort of sandwich in the manner wished. If you want deep brown toasted bread you may have it. If you want the meat well done or rare it may be had without any trouble.

The fountain is located with reference to the Scurry street entrance so that the curb service will be facilitated materially. There is an abundance of parking space here and prompt curb service is to be stressed.

Fine Stationery Carried In Store

Fine stationery is a source of pride to the owners of Petroleum Pharmacy.

Montag's is featured in this store. The latest creation in stationery, Montag's historical series, is being shown for the opening of the store.

This stationery comes in handsome boxes, enclosing fine etched reproduction of the historical scene which shapes the motif of that particular box of paper. The historical scene is visible in each sheet when it is held in the light.

FINE TOBACCO

One of the largest tobacco display cases in the city is the chief feature of that department of the Petroleum Pharmacy. The stock is all clean, and fresh. A feature of the opening day program will be free distribution to men of Fendrich cigars, with compliments of the dealer, the manufacturer and the jobber.

DISPLAY WINDOWS

Seven large display windows make the Petroleum Pharmacy an even more attractive store.

Two of the windows face the sidewalks, one on Second and the other on Scurry street. The others face the two main ground floor corridors of the Petroleum building.

NEW SIGN

A large Neon sign has been erected at the corner of Second & Scurry streets by Collins Brothers for their Petroleum Pharmacy. Signs along the tops of the outside windows are done in unusually artistic manner.

MRS PRimm HAS GUESTS

Mrs. Ingram Broadbent of Brownwood and her little son are the guests of Mrs. Fred Primm at her home on Dallas street.

Personnel Is Strengthened

The personnel of Collins Brothers' organization has been strengthened and enlarged very rapidly. This was made necessary by the increased volume of business.

There are now five registered pharmacists.

The Messrs Collins both are registered men. E. M. Francis, head of the prescription department in Petroleum Pharmacy is a licensed man. Cecil Long, another member of the group who is well-known here, and who is manager of the suburban store in the 1400 block on Scurry street, is the fourth. Wilson Norman, who was with the firm for some time prior to going to Pharmacy school about eighteen months ago, has returned with his license and will be stationed at the Second & Runnels street store.

The fountain of the Petroleum Pharmacy will be in charge of Granvil (Red) Coots, former Big Spring Steer grid star.

Mrs. Pearl Pegues, well and favorably known to most everybody hereabouts, will preside over the cosmetics, perfumery and stationery departments of the new store. The little lady who keeps up with the cash and does a thousand-and-one details that have to be done is Miss Rosalynde Adams, cashier of all stores, who will be stationed at Petroleum Pharmacy.

Assisting Cecil Long at the suburban store is Virgil Reed, an experienced drug man who came here from the Davis Drug company in Sweetwater.

Dick Collins, who will be at the Second and Runnels street store, will have two fountain men, in addition to Mr. Norman.

Agfa Kodaks Part Of Regular Stock

Agfa all-weather kodaks are carried by the Petroleum Pharmacy. A complete line of kodaks as well as film is offered at all times.

Delivery Service Is Made Speedier

Arrangements have been made to assure all patrons of the Petroleum Pharmacy prescription department instant delivery service. Realizing the stern responsibility resting upon them, Collins Bros., have recognized a service designed to speed delivery of each prescription to the patient and thus to eliminate added minutes that often mean a turn for better or worse, or which, might even mean life or death for a sick person.

SIX TABLES

Six tables, with comfortable chairs, will accommodate 24 persons at one time in the Petroleum Pharmacy. This is an additional feature of the fountain service. Tops of these tables are of a special rubber material. A glass dropped onto them will not break nor will a lighted cigarette injure the finish.

CUSHINGS ON RANCH

Mrs. W. F. Cushing and daughter Virginia left last week for their ranch where they will spend the summer.

WHAT'S THAT!

Can you beat this? Its one for Ripley, no foolin'. The Petroleum Pharmacy's All-Toaster, part of the fountain equipment will, it is declared, do some strange things. You may put a slice of ice cream between two pieces of bread, put the sandwich into a toaster, turn on the heat and let 'er go. Take it out and the bread will be toasted but the ice cream will not be melted.

Then, put hamburger meat between slices of bread, turn on the heat in a different way and you may thoroughly cook the meat without burning the bread. Now, you tell one.

HAMBURGERS

Hamburgers are declared to be the best selling article of cooked food known to the great American public's appetite.

Drug stores, however, have refrained from serving hamburgers because the smell of hamburger does not blend well with those of choice perfumes and other more aesthetic things found in a drug store.

But now, because a machine has been invented to keep the odor from getting outside of the machine itself, hamburgers may be served. They will, in fact, be served in the Petroleum Pharmacy. The All-Toaster, one of the many features of the fountain, will be used not only to serve hamburgers but many kinds of sandwiches and other dishes.

PERFUMES AND COSMETICS ARE FEATURED HERE

Featuring Du Barry beauty preparations, created by Hudnut, the cosmetics and perfumery department of the Petroleum Pharmacy includes an unusually complete stock.

All the Du Barry preparations are offered. Jonaire, already very popular with Big Spring women, is another featured line. Martha Lee, and all types of Richard Hudnut preparations are included.

The finest of perfumes also are offered. High priced perfumes kept in stock and very artistically displayed are "Gushie, Blue Orchid, Jonaire, Christmas Night, Lucretia Vanderbilt, Richard Hudnut, Coty's, Heubigant, Black Narcissus, Djer Kiss and others. Mrs. Pearl Pegues will be in charge of this department.

WEDNESDAY TIME FOR FORMAL OPENING OF UNUSUALLY FINE STORE AT SECOND & SCURRY

COLLINS BROTHERS' LATEST VENTURE ECLIPSES ALL PREVIOUS EXPANSIONS; PRESCRIPTION DEPARTMENT IS FEATURED

Another bright chapter in the history of a wonderful partnership of two brothers—Alfred R. and Dick Collins—will be written tomorrow when the Collins Bros. Petroleum Pharmacy is opened formally at West Second and Scurry streets, in the six-story Petroleum building.

The store will open at 9 a. m. and the opening day activities will end promptly at 9 p. m.

Numerous bargains will be offered opening day. All visitors are asked to sign the guest register.

Souvenirs and favors will be given away. They will include miniature packages for ladies, cigars for the men. Ice cream will be served free with compliments of the Snowwhite Creameries. Saylor's candy also will be given away.

Opening at Second and Runnels September 19, 1927, Collins Bros. followed July 5, 1929 with a suburban store at 1403 Scurry street. Now, they have opened a pharmacy which not only is a striking testimonial to their success and enterprise but which raises the standard of the drug business in Big Spring and West Texas and affords the city another ultra-modern store in which the community may find justifiable pride.

Petroleum Pharmacy is just what the name implies, as a very complete, all new and clean, stock of prescription drugs has been installed in an unusually modern building, with especially designed fixtures. Mr. E. M. Francis, who has been in drug stores for 14 years and comes here directly from the Medical Arts Pharmacy in Dallas, is in charge of this department.

Of unusual interest to the public is the fountain and lunch service afforded in this store. It eclipses anything available in all West Texas in the observation of the writer. Cosmetics of many kinds and types, a complete stock of high priced perfumes, latest in stationery, tobaccos, a handy magazine department, and every attribute of the modern drug store are offered.

Mailander Is Fixture Designer

Fixtures in the Petroleum Pharmacy were designed and built especially for this store by The Mailander Company of Waco, one of the most popular and well-known manufacturers of store furnishings in the south.

The fixtures are in substance, with specially designed cases, display shelves and other compartments for each line of goods.

Men Don't Know How To Choose Right Cosmetics

By CATHERINE OGLESBY In The American Druggist

Whenever I happen into a drug store and see two men scratching their heads and standing in an attitude of intense bewilderment before a perfume counter I know what's happening. . . . It's a druggist and a customer trying to select a present for some woman who is having a birthday, a week-end party, a bridge party or a child. Or it is the night before Christmas or the day before Easter.

To witness scenes such as I have just described does inspire me with pity for Suggester and Selector, as well as consternation for the woman who must not pay but who must receive. (It's often worse.) So I have given this subject serious study and believe I have brought together a group of methods, proven successful by gift-shops and department stores, which readily adapt themselves to the drug store.

Mist men go, or prefer to go to the corner drug store to buy presents. It's quicker, easier, less embarrassing. It saves minutes and maybe hours. But when it's time to give gifts many of them develop a complex. They become as nonplussed as fish, and consequently go where there's help to be had.

"It's amazing the amount of money that men leave in our store in a half hour," an executive of an important department store, confided to me while I quizzed her regarding their gift-selecting methods during one of our recent two-hours-for-lunch periods.

"But they don't just dash to counters and buy, do they?" I queried with the most commendable (readily curious) innocence.

"Oh, no, we have personal shoppers to help them," she replied. "What do they do?" and she graciously proceeded to enlighten me. "Well, they never ask a question. . . . Druggists please take note.

Many a time I have seen a man walk into a drug store and make a simple remark like, "I have to get a birthday present for my wife." Whereupon some sales clerk submits him to a third degree that goes something like this: "What does she like? Is she fond of her home or is she a business woman? Does she go in for sports or bridge? Is she going away? How tall is she? Blonde or brunette? How much do you want to spend?"

And the poor man gets so muddled that he takes anything or nothing. Which of course means that he will stop at the next corner or the cross-the-street department store when it's time for another present.

But let's return to the luncheon. "We never ask questions," my informer repeated with due emphasis. "You see it only fuses them and then they sometimes get to thinking that the present is too important for them to pick out. So instead of quizzing we show them merchandise with a remark like, 'Well, let's look around and see what we can find.'"

"Then we show them a bottle of perfume and say, 'That's something new, a wonderful Oriental perfume.' My wife is a blonde, do you think it will suit her?' The man usually volunteers the information. Or we show him a bridge set in red leather which invites the remark, 'My wife is very fond of blue.' So before many minutes have passed the Personal Shopper has a good picture of the wife and her likes and dislikes and there've been no annoying questions put to the gift-prospector. A suitable gift is selected and it isn't returned."

Another shopper who deals in the problems of the man-to-woman gift says that the greatest help she has been able to devise is a gift counter. On that counter she gathers from all parts of her store everything that a woman would like to receive. When the male shopper comes in she says, "Just look these things over and I will be with you in a moment."

Alone and quiet the customer looks them all over and makes his selection in peace.

Very much the same method is employed by a gift shop of national renown. Gifts are gathered on tables and when you come into the store you are not greeted by a solicitous clerk who follows you around as if he were a detective. You are never made to feel, "I can't get out of here without buying something." Instead you are allowed to browse about. Considering. Rejecting. Accepting. When you linger long before an object the clerks are instructed to come forward with the remark, "Have you found something suitable, sir?"

And then there's that important subject of price. Is there anything less helpful and more embarrassing to be asked first pop, "How much do you want to spend?"

The same gift shop that has devised the Browse Method has solved this difficulty too. Gifts are arranged according to price. On each of the display tables or counters there are signs (not too conspicuous) $3.50 gifts, $5.00 gifts, $7.00 gifts, $10.00 gifts, and so on. The man who thought of that was a psychologist, not a sales clerk.

Now there isn't an idea here that can't be worked out easily by any druggist. It wouldn't be difficult to have a tactful woman clerk and make her known as a gift-advisor. A mention of her name in your advertising, a sign in your windows, would serve as a flag of hope to many a bothered gift-giver.

Then a gift counter with or without signs can easily be arranged. Just put on it every thing that is expensive and that women won't buy for themselves. Be sure to save a fair share of it for bridge prizes.

Edison Boys Of Texas To Meet In Austin Soon

AUSTIN, May 27. (AP)—Eighty-four boys, representing the best talent in as many high schools, will compete here June 10 for the right to represent Texas in the second annual Edison scholarship contest. Ages of the boys range from 15 to 20 years.

Two 15-year old boys are entered, Lem Bradford of Ft. Worth Politecia and Joe Johnson of Woodrow Wilson, Dallas.

Carl Williams To Tour Texas

DALLAS, Texas, May 27. (AP)—Four widely separated sections of Texas will have opportunity to hear Carl Williams, cotton member of the Federal Farm Board, discuss the "new era in cotton marketing," when he fills speaking engagements at Abilene, Paris, Waco and Corpus Christi the latter part of May early in June.

He will speak before the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Abilene on May 29; address the mass meetings of Paris on May 31; at Waco June 2; and at Corpus Christi June 3.

The Corpus Christi engagement will formally open and intense campaign in that area for the new Texas Cotton Cooperative association which has been set up in line with federal farm board plans to reach more directly and effectively the individual producer. The federal farm board purposes, plans and policies will be outlined.

In Texas board's program will be channeled through the T. C. C. A. which has superseded the Texas Farm Cotton Association. Under the new organization seven district organizations are being set up, with some forty or fifty branch offices, and a large number of receiving agent stations. In this manner it is said a direct contact will be possible with the individual member together with greater membership services, more prompt and complete settlement and the utilization of many local facilities.

BENEDICT SPEAKES

AUSTIN, May 27. (AP)—Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University of Texas, will be the speaker at the 45th annual commencement at Allen Academy at Bryan, May 29. The exercises will be featured by military maneuvers and drills.

A Bigger and Better Big Spring
Merits A Modern Drug Store in its Modern Office Building...

Collins Bros. Third Store Open Tomorrow in the Petroleum Building

PETROLEUM BUILDING

Less than three years ago the first Collins store was established in Big Spring. Last July the second store... and the first neighborhood drug store... was opened in the 1400 block on South Scurry. Now less than a year later we are pleased to announce the opening of a third store in the Petroleum Building.

The new store is thoroughly equipped in the most modern manner. Fixtures were made to order by the Mailander Company of Waco. A special feature of the store will be the Prescription Department in which a registered pharmacist will dispense prescriptions of the highest order.

We Want You To Call
Tomorrow
and
To Form the Habit of Dropping In—

Both fountain drinks and dishes and light lunches will be served from the 24-foot fountain in the new store. For the man or woman who has but a minute to spare comfortable, leather upholstered stools are provided at the fountain. Dispensers able and courteous will be in charge at all times.

The new store is designed to serve the Big Spring of today... and tomorrow. A city of 13,731 deserves the best of mercantile establishments. It is this that we have tried to give Big Spring. We invite your trade at our Petroleum Building store as we have enjoyed it at our other stores. It will be a pleasure to serve you.

At eight tomorrow we will open the new store. Special merchandise values will be offered. Music, gifts, ice cream, cigars and candy will be offered our visitors. Please come to see us.
