Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcolite (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

The Chiropractor and You

No. 13 of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of Chiropractic

YOUR SPINE AND HEALTH—Vigorous health results from normal function of the forces within your own body. The Chiropractor has been trained to locate the place of nerve interference in the spine, and to adjust the vertebral subluxation creating such interference, thus allowing the normal transmission of vital nerve energy thruout the body. Keep your spine in normal condition, and you will enjoy good health.

Chiropractic does not depend upon awe-arousing names for illness, or upon mysterious potions and drugs for its promotion and maintenance of health. It contends that the cause of disease is in the person afflicted. We know that the function of every organ in the body is controlled through the brain, by mental impulses, which are transmitted over the nervous system. We know that with the use of scientific methods we can now determine the exact place and position of the vertebral-subluxation that is producing pressure on nerves, and the mechanical art of adjusting that vertebral subluxation can now be checked with the same scientific methods for the purpose of determining whether the adjustment of the vertebral subluxation has released the pressure on nerves and in what degree.

CASE HISTORY No. 671. A man of 34 now enjoying freedom from hay fever after 27 years of suffering. The condition first showed itself when he was four and returned every succeeding year on August fifteenth. Having strained his back at work he visited a Chiropractor to obtain relief from that condition, and much to his surprise learned that hay fever was attributed chiropractically to nerve pressure. On August 4th he took his first spinal adjustment and "August 15th passed without the semblance of an attack in the intervening three years the annual "season" has passed without any sign of distress.

Key Figures In 'Duel In The Sun'
Have Taken Many Film Prizes

Gregory Peck and Jennifer Jones. Principles in "Duel In The Sun"

David O. Selznick has earned more than an average share of the awards and citations bestowed on Hollywood's outstanding motion picture makers, and his latest film, "Duel in the Sun" claims a spectacular honor roll of past Academy-Award winning stars. Figuring that the big studios made about 40 pictures a year each year during the lush period since 1928, you get a total of 680 pictures. Yet one independent producer who made only 12 pictures, or about one-third of one per cent of the total, won 12 per cent of the prizes. That producer is David O. Selznick, whose "Gone With the Wind" and "Rebecca" both won Oscars. Selznick's current offering is "Duel in the Sun," which was adapted from the Niven Busch novel of the same title. It is now playing at the State Theatre. Co-starring in this Selznick International Picture are such high-powered players as Jennifer Jones, who won the Oscar in 1943 for her sensitive portrayal of the French peasant girl in "The Song of Bernadette," Gregory Peck, Joseph Cotten, Lionel Barrymore, Lillian Gish, Walter Huston, Herbert Marshall and many others. This adds up to an all-star film if there ever was one. Besides Jennifer's Oscar and Selznick's laurels, Gregory Peck was cited by the "Film Daily" for his performances in "The Keys of the Kingdom" and "The Valley of Decision." Joseph Cotten was hailed by the same poll conducted by the "Film Daily" for his performance in "Love Letters."

Lionel Barrymore has more prizes than he can count, his most notable being the Academy Award for his wonderful acting in "A Free Soul." Walter Huston, another veteran, received the "New York Film Critics' Award" for the best male performance in 1936, when he did "Dodsworth." Lillian Gish starred in the prize-winning "Orphans of the Storm," a while back.

Even the director of "Duel in the Sun," King Vidor, has a host of trophies. His films have constantly been among the best picture of the year, with such triumphs as "Northwest Passage," "The Citadel," "Street Scene," "The Champ," "Last of Mrs. Chaney," "Big Parade," and "The Crowd."

"Apparently history has taught nothing to Turkish reactionaries," said A. Anatoliev, author of the Ivestia charges in a "letter from Ankara."

Air Guard Makes For Real Safety

Local tests of the new US Royal Air Guard tube have produced results far more impressive than earlier performance reports indicated, Ted Phillips, owner and manager of the Phillips Tire Co., 211 East Third street, announced today.

Phillips, whose firm is Big Spring's retail outlet for US Royal products, decided to conduct the tests himself after he received the first shipment of the new type tubes. An Air Guard tube was installed in the tire of an automobile and then pierced with two nails. The car was driven extensively for 18 days before it was necessary to repair the punctures.

Phillips still operates a complete tire and tube repair service, and he gives trade-in allowances on sales of new tires. The company also has efficient personnel available to check tires and tubes for defects when automobile owners are in doubt about their condition.

Nalley Funeral Home Stressing Staff Training

Recognizing that staff is as fundamental as plant adequacy, C. O. Nalley is building in that direction for the Nalley Funeral Home.

Now associated with him in the operation of the mortuary at 906 Gregg street are J. C. Pickle and Marcus Smith.

Pickle has been associated with Nalley for several months, while Smith has more recently joined the service institution. Both assist in the general operations with Pickle devoting a large measure of his time to managing office affairs.

In August he plans to enter the Dallas Mortuary School for a nine-month course of training which is required for an embalmer's license. He is also due to come out of the school with a license as funeral director.

If Smith does not enter in August, he plans to enroll subsequently in the Dallas school, said Nalley.

Experienced assistants will be retained to serve on the staff while one or both of these men are in special training. The goal of the training program, said Nalley, is to improve the background and scope of service for all staff members.

Milk All-Purpose Food, Facts Show

Thirty-three interesting questions concerning milk are answered in a booklet which has been published by the Banner Creamery and distributed to local customers and visitors to the Big Spring plant.

The informative report was compiled through information furnished by Thurman B. Rice, M.D., chief of the bureau of health and physical education for the Indiana state board of health.

Among the questions as to what is milk, how does the cow produce and what makes milk white, the physician states that milk is a mixture of a wide variety of things, including lime protein, fats, sugar, vitamins and others. These substances are held in suspension as a very fine emulsion in the water of the milk. As light strikes an emulsion it is reflected from the myriads of tiny particles and under such conditions the emulsion looks white even though the various ingredients are colorless.

He states that milk tastes slightly sweet because it contains a considerable amount of lactose. This sugar is not nearly so sweet as is that found in the grocery, but it is even more nutritious and is very easily digested. Rich in calories, it makes an important item in the food value of milk.

To the question, "does milk make people fat?" the doctor says, "That depends on the manner in which they use it; how badly they need it and how much they use of it. The healthy person may drink all the milk he can without becoming fat. If he should eat a great deal of other things and milk as well, and by that means take more nourishment than he can excrete, he will store up some of the food as fat. When an invalid is greatly in need of good food and begins to take milk, he will rapidly gain weight because he is resting and is being well fed."

"Doctors often prescribe milk as a reducing diet because it is so well balanced and yet is not fattening. If one who wishes to lose weight will drink a glass of milk shortly before going to the table it will tend to dull the appetite and so cause him to eat less of the really fattening foods at the table," Dr. Rice states.

People often ask what is homogenized milk and to this question, the doctor says, "In the process of homogenization the milk is forced under tremendous pressure through extremely small holes. In this way the fat globules are broken up and made finer. The fine globules will stay in suspension much longer and as a result 'homogenized milk' will hardly show any cream though all the cream is there. The effect is not unlike the grinding of grain into meal or flour. Since the cream stays distributed throughout the bottles and since the total surface of the fat globules is enormously increased by this process the milk tastes much richer and creamier. Likewise the milk in the bottom of the bottle is just as good as that at the top. This milk is more like human milk and digests much easier."

Reds Threaten Shansi Capital

NANKING, May 6. (AP)—Chinese Communists threatened the Shansi Province capital of Taiyuan from all sides today following occupation of Showyang, 30 miles to the east. The Reds moved into Showyang after a "strategic withdrawal" by government forces. Occupation of the town strengthened the Communist hold on the narrow gauge railroads now held four-fifths of railway to Eastern China. Reliable reports said the Communist 105 divisions. The Nationalists acknowledged the Reds had captured 17 towns in South western Shansi in their latest drive. Communist seizure of ferry crossings on the northern bank of the Yellow River was conceded by Nationalists today. Loss of these points will hamper the flow of government reinforcements from Honan.

Rural School Aid Bill Up To Senate

AUSTIN, May 6. (AP)—The rural school aid bill was before the Senate for further attention today. It was originally passed by the House to give rural schools $19,500,000 a year for the next two years. The Senate began work on the measure yesterday with opinion almost evenly divided on the question of trimming the appropriation to $17,500,000 per year. The larger House expenditure was designed for distribution to schools having less than 2,000 scholars. The Senate committee substitute would give rural aid only to schools with less than 1,500 students. By way of comparison, the annual appropriation of $14,000,000 voted by the previous legislature went to schools with less than 1,250 students.

Yesterday's debate revealed two classes of opposition to the committee substitute. One group of Senators sought retention of 2,000-student eligibility figure carried in the House bill. The second group said witnesses testified at hearings on the $55 per capita bill that if the increased per capita apportionment went into effect, rural aid for teachers' salaries could be slashed in half. An amendment to make schools with less than 2,000 students eligible for rural aid was killed. Also killed was an amendment to allow the counting of students attending parochial schools in determining rural aid eligibility. Awaiting action when the Senate convened today was an amendment to increase transportation aid to schools in sparsely settled counties from $4 to $5 per student. While the Senate was dealing with one of the big money bills which must be passed before the legislature can adjourn, the House struggled more than three hours over the controversial "basic science" bill.

The measure was voted final passage, 82 to 33, after Speaker W. O. Reed accepted a motion to halt debate. He told the House it was "obvious a filibuster is being attempted." Members of the chiropractic profession have fought the bill bitterly. The final vote by which the House sent the measure to the Senate was delayed more than an hour when enough opponents of the bill left the hall to deprive the House of the quorum required to transact business. The House waited while the sergeant-at-arms searched Austin for missing members. Sponsored by Rep. Jack Ridgeway of San Antonio, the bill would require all persons desiring to practice any of the healing arts to pass an examination on anatomy, physiology, chemistry, pathology, bacteriology, hygiene and public health. The House killed an amendment to exempt persons licensed to practice chiropractic. Ridgeway said the attorney general had ruled such an exemption would make the measure unconstitutional. The measure was previously amended to exempt chiropractors who have practiced the past three years and who have resided in Texas the past two years immediately preceding the effective date of this law. An additional amendment yesterday exempted veterans who had practiced chiropractic and resided in Texas before entering military service.

Woman Jailed Again 13 Years After Escape

MARYSVILLE, O., May 6. (AP)—Margaret Ann Martin, 39, who said she "just got tired waiting to get out" and walked away from the Ohio Reformatory for Women here 13 years ago, was behind bars again today to do some more waiting.

Sgt. Margaret Slater of the Toledo Police force said Mrs. Martin apparently led a crime-free life since her escape, which interrupted a one to 20-year sentence imposed at Portsmouth, O., in 1931 for forger. After she returned to her native Toledo, she worked as a night club waitress and a store clerk made new friends, kept her affairs to herself and led a law-abiding life, the woman fugitive told Sergeant Slater. "Many times I thought of going to a lawyer to see if things could be straightened out, but I never could go through with it," the police woman quoted her as saying. The Parole Board, meeting in June, must decide how much of her sentence Mrs. Martin still must serve and whether or not the customary two-year penalty for escape will be imposed. Detectives at a Toledo store where Mrs. Martin was a saleswoman recognized her through a picture as a fugitive and arrested her Saturday.

Revenue Prober Testifies At Trial Of Eastus

DALLAS, May 6. (AP)—Detailed figures purporting to show income for 1942-46 was given here yesterday by C. W. Hearne, intelligence unit investigator for the Internal Revenue Bureau, in the income tax evasion trial of J. D. H. Jones, former government attorney in Dallas. Jones and a former United States Attorney, Clyde O. Eastus, are under indictment for alleged income tax evasion in 1942-43. Jones' case was the first called to trial and opened yesterday. Hearne testified that the partnership return of Jones-Eastus in 1942 from their civil law practice showed that Jones reported $3,118 as taxable net income. Hearne said this was $4,163.39 less than it should be. On the 1943 partnership the net income was reported as $9,964 (joint and undivided) but it should have been $16,210.06, Hearne said. He testified that in 1942 Jones and his wife reported a taxable joint net income of $3,000.88 when, after government corrections, it should have been $12,070.23. Defense Attorney James Martin, on cross-examination of Hearne brought out that Jones had filed an amended income tax return in February 1945, covering taxes and income in the years 1942-43. Hearne also said on cross-examination, that since filing the amended return, Jones would not owe the government any money if the deductions Jones listed on the amended return had been allowed. Martin asked "the only reason Jones owes now is because the government disallowed some of his deductions?" "Yes, that is correct," Hearne said. Numerous other figures purporting to legal fees, loans and an oil venture loss by Jones, Eastus and Maury Hughes, of Dallas, were given by witnesses. The trial was scheduled to be continued today.

Trial Reviews Nanking Rape

TOKYO, May 6. (AP)—The military prosecutor for the Japanese force which executed the "Rape of Nanking" in December, 1937, told the international war crimes tribunal today that approximately 120 Japanese soldiers were punished for crimes there. "I remember there were a few murder cases, but have no memory of having punished incendiaries or dealt with mass slaughter criminals," Hirotsugu Tsukamoto testified at the trial of 25 Japanese wartime leaders. Tsukamoto said he had never heard of events described by prosecution witnesses, who told of the raping of thousands of women and the slaughter of hundreds of Chinese after the fall of the city. The witness testified he heard Gen. Iwane Matsui, commander-in-chief of Japanese forces in Central China, warn his officers that events on the march to Nanking had indicated a tendency of Japanese soldiers to loot and rape. Matsui, now in Italy, ordered his officers to exercise strict discipline, he said.

Exes Announce Support Of A&M Veterans

COLLEGE STATION, May 6. (AP)—Ex-students of Texas A&M college will stand behind veterans at the school in "every way we see fit," A. E. Hinman, new president of the ex-student association said last night. Speaking at a meeting of the veterans group on the campus, Hinman said "the exes will be behind you in every way we see fit." He explained a resolution the exes adopted expressing full confidence in the board of directors. "The quicker troubles can be smoothed over and forgotten, the better it will be for the school," Hinman said. "We're going to have to give things and take things." The veterans group has gone on record as having "no confidence" in either college President Gib Gilchrist or the school's board of directors. A legislative investigation stemmed from this and other action at the school concerning college administration. E. O. Courtade, a student member of the exchange store committee, told the veterans that manufacturers would not stock the store unless standard prices were charged. He explained that with most business done with the Veterans Administration, and with few cash sales, the store was able to show a big profit. The veterans group last month

BACKFIRE FROM IRATE TAXPAYER

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 6. (AP) A firecracker which was exploded in the courthouse corridor by a group celebrating a lodge convention, gave county collector Clifton Hurst a scare. Several days previously, Hurst said, an irate taxpayer had told him: "I'm going to come back here and blow up the entire south end of the courthouse." "I thought he had done it," Hurst said.

10 Condemned For Aiding Guerrillas

ATHENS, May 6. (AP)—Dispatches from northern Greece reported today that a military court at Lamia had condemned 10 persons — including a woman — to death and sentenced 16 others to life imprisonment for aiding anti-government guerrilla forces. An official announcement in Larissa declared that the guerrillas had executed nine priests during the past two months in the second army in northwestern Greece.

asked why the store had made a $34,000 profit last year. Sam S. Williams, treasurer of the veterans group, asked each veteran on the campus to contribute 50 cents to a dollar towards a "clean-up fund," which is financing the anti-Gilchrist movement.

China Asks Million Tons Of Jap Shipping

SHANGHAI, May 6. (AP) Spokesmen for the Chinese Ship Owners Association said today the Allies, if they want to play fair, must give China 1,000,000 tons of Japanese shipping as reparations. They protested against the Far Eastern Reparations Committee's recent rejection of this demand in Washington.

Economy That May Switch Off Truth

The appropriations committee has worked a 23 per cent cut in the recommended budgets for three key departments of the government. Doubtless a hue and cry will go up from many quarters where the cut is felt. That is always the case, but where economy can be achieved safely, it ought to be achieved.

One exception to that might well be the funds which last year were provided for foreign language broadcast. The appropriations committee apparently is of a contrary mind, for in its report it tartly suggested that the state department get out of the "news business."

It is noteworthy to observe at the time this action was taken that Ilya Ehrenburg, Moscow's foremost journalist-spokesman, was losing a blast in his own country against the state department broadcasts. He charged that they were not worth listening to because they are filled with lies, were dull and anti-Soviet. This is ample evidence that the broadcasts are finding an audience behind Russia's iron curtain. Moreover, a notable volume of letters is coming out of Russia from listeners, who run the risk of OPGU reprisals, are writing the US to say they like the radiocasts and hope they will be continued.

Similar evidences are coming in from other quarters, among them China. From all over the world, the department receives about 10,000 letters monthly from listeners who take time to write.

Apparently people all over the world are eager to hear about and from the United States. It may be that the US will engage in some propagandizing, but by and large the news casts reflect an objective type of reporting and one that is apt to present the truth as we are able to get at it. The extension of truth to all quarters of the globe may be more effective investment even than extension of aid to countries where we hope freedom and democracy can be established.

Just Who Is The Goat In Accidents?

From the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce Safety Council comes a brochure entitled: "Are You the Goat?"

The entire piece raises the question of who is the goat in the case of penalties or lack of penalties in traffic mishap cases. Several instances are cited to establish the premise that the public is the goat in many instances, and that you, as a member of the great public, suffer because of your lack of interest in enforcement of traffic regulations and your all-too-modest support of law enforcement agents.

Here is a case in point cited by the pamphlet: Abner Lewis, a member of the board of pardons, wrote the Lubbock Jaycees a letter explaining a policy of liberality toward offenders in which he said "this board has no intention to refuse most applications for pardon . . . in great many instances the public and a man's family suffers considerably more than the subject himself in the revocation of his license." On the heels of this the question is raised in view of an actual case: "Does a man's family suffer worse for six months' suspension of license than does the family of the man who is killed, leaving a widow with a six months old baby to raise and educate without the income of a husband or the help of a father?"

Yes, who is the goat in this sort of thing? Who is the goat in the acceptance of flimsy and sometimes improbable excuses for "accidents"? Who is the goat in those instances where the case is put off and put off successfully until it wears itself out on the docket?

If you become the victims of one of these "accidents" some day, perhaps you can answer the question: "Who is the goat?"

Strike For And Against New Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—The telephone strike that has dragged on for four weeks can best be explained as a struggle for and against the birth of a new and strong national union.

This struggle overshadows the wage issue. From the start it has been more than likely that all or most telephone workers would get pay raises of one kind or another.

The contest is between: 1. The Bell System, a group of over 20 companies controlled by the American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

2. The National Federation of Telephone Workers, a loose organization of 49 semi-independent unions.

The NFWT is trying to convert itself into one big strong union to be called the Communications Workers of America.

NFTW affiliates held a convention at Denver last November and decided to become one union not later than June 10.

As a part of the drive toward a stronger union, the NFTW wanted to bargain in the present dispute as a national unit, across the table from the Bell System also acting as a unit. It also wanted any wage increase to be uniform throughout the country. And it wanted to continue the strike until all parts of it were settled.

Bell officials don't like the trend toward union centralization.

They wanted separate negotiations with each union. They wanted any wage increases to reflect the differences in wage levels that now exist in different regions and communities. They wanted to sign contracts with the separate unions without having the NFWT pass upon the terms.

One Bell official says, "If you were running a blacksmith shop you wouldn't want somebody a thousand miles off telling you that you had to raise wages a certain amount regardless of conditions in your community." While the AT&T has financial control of the Bell companies, Bell officials say that the companies act independently in their labor relations, and each company is responsible for operations in its own territory.

The union is scornful of this contention. Union officials say that AT&T pulls the strings for the whole network of companies, and that no company can make a move without getting a go-signal from 193 Broadway in New York City.

Stalin Invites US To Be Optimistic

The interview which Generalissimo Stalin accorded former Minnesota Governor Harold E. Stassen is on the face of it an invitation to America and the other Western democracies to hope that the serious differences between Russia and themselves may be solved amicably.

Stalin declared that the conflicting economic systems of Russia and America can exist in harmony together if there is a will to cooperate. The question of the will to cooperate strikes me as being the key-note of the whole situation. The Soviet leader put it like this:

"It is necessary to make a distinction between the possibility of cooperating and the wish to cooperate. The possibility of cooperating always exists, but there is not always present the wish to cooperate. If one party does not wish to cooperate, then the result will be testimony. . . . I want to bear testimony to the fact that Russia wants to cooperate."

Well, the Western Allies for their part have stated time and again that they desire to cooperate. Thus both sides want to cooperate—so they say. Still, the conflict of words and deeds between the Russian bloc and the Western bloc continues to grow.

What then is wrong? It would be easy to draw the conclusion that one party to this mutual declaration of desire to cooperate is telling a whopper. As a matter of fact that conclusion is being drawn by many observers. However, if we are to apply cold logic to the situation we must I think, make allowance for the possibility that doubts and suspicions—perhaps on both sides—have short-circuited the desire for cooperation. We shouldn't jump to conclusions without having seen a few more developments—a bit of watchful waiting, with emphasis on the "watchful."

Having said this, it must be admitted the odds are that somebody lacks the desire to cooperate. That coat will in due course be donned by the one whom it fits.

The generalissimo made the further point that calling each other names and engaging in propaganda will not lead to cooperation. That is an undisputed truth, and one which is being uncomfortably impressed upon the publics of both the Russian bloc and the western democracies.

Kilroy Second Fiddle To Mystery

Signs of the Times: Kilroy is a has-been. In Tyler, the pinball machine called Kilroy used to be the most popular of the lot. Today, it plays second fiddle to one named "Mystery" which, in addition to flashing lights, offers a glamorous picture of a Salome-like maiden.

The manager of a Dallas finance company said repossessions of mortgaged automobiles have doubled in the last year.

A Dallas woman named Mary C. Collett has launched what she calls the "red-letter service," for a nominal fee, she reminds you of important dates in plenty of time for you to buy gifts or write congratulatory cards. Subscribers merely fill in the list of dates and occasions they wish to be reminded of, and she does the rest. (One man said "What I want is someone to help me forget a lot of dates. What will that cost?")

The Katy Railroad announces that railroad excursions are back. It said its special excursion rates to San Antonio's Battle of Flowers was the first in the Southwest to bring back the popular pre-war excursion trips.

Some prices are down, others are up, to wit: A Dallas motor company advertised they would, for $1, lubricate 30 points of your chassis, lubricate all fuel controls, grease water pumps, oil generator, oil starter motor and controls, lubricate door handles and locks, check battery water, grease battery terminals, etc. It went on and on—all for $1.

But: Another firm advertised disjuncted roost goose, $3.32; Sauterne Mushrooms $1.35; Wild Pheasant giblet pate, 3/2 ounce, $1.15; rolls and flats in jars $1.75 up to $4.75; Branded cherry sauce $3.95; Strasbourg stuffed prunes $1.17.

Something new? "Guard against 'hous-tosis' (Household odors)." Texans didn't have a hometown horse to root for at the Kentucky Derby this year, but they turned out in droves anyway. These were announced as derby boxholders from the Lone Star state: C. Andrade, 111, Dallas; G. W.

Chipman, San Antonio; E. B. Cox, Dallas; T. H. Heard, Beeville; B. H. Jester, Austin; R. J. Kieberg, Jr., Kingsville; R. Lacy, Longview; L. Sage, R. S. Dallas; J. W. Mitchell, Fort Worth; K. Murchison, Dallas; L. B. O'Neil, San Antonio; J. T. O'Neil, San Antonio; T. C. Tilford, Nacogdoches; E. P. Waggoner, Vernon; H. H. Weinert, Seguin.

Washington Taking Lead In Television

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The capitol soon will become the nation's leading televising center, an RCA Victory distributor predicted today.

"By the end of the year, Washington should have more television broadcasting stations in operation than any other city in the country," according to W. E. O'Connor, chief of RCA Victory television distributors in Washington.

The capitol now has one television station WTTG, in operation. O'Connor said another, WNBW will be completed soon and two others later this year.

Living In 'Hatchery'

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—The other wives at "The Hatchery"—campus nickname for Indiana's trailer home community for war vets—just couldn't understand the viewpoint of little Mrs. Vivian Bolinger.

"I wish George would stay for a year of graduate work after getting his degree," she said. Wonderingly the word swept through the other remodeled wartime trailers, lined up in neat rows by the hundreds west of the university stadium. "Vivian wants George to stay another year."

Most veterans and their wives, particularly those with children, want to move on as soon as the family head wins his sheepskin. They want to leave their cramped quarters and get started somewhere in new homes.

Vivian—she is pretty and re-haired and her husband calls her "Curly"—is an exception. Life is crowded in their small $25-a-month trailer but it has been happy.

"And I just hate the thought of trying to find another place to live," sighed Curly. Like the wives of many veterans she has an outside job to help eke out the government educational allowance of $90 a month. She doesn't mind working.

Most veterans to remain in school have had to borrow from relatives or spend their wartime savings.

Curly's husband, a journalism student who worked in Gary Steel Mills before spending 18 months in the Pacific, is 29. He's anxious to get started in a newspaper career. So is his pal, Joe Gingery, 24, Indianapolis, a former airforce gunner in the European theater, who shares a $32.50 trailer with his wife, Pamela, and their three children. Nelson is 4 years old and the twins, Walter (Red) and Joe (Blue) are two. Walter is dressed in red and Little Joe in blue so each can tell himself from the other.

The three Gingery children swarm over the 18-by-20-foot trailer like a trio of healthy, husky bear cubs. Their mother, a large friendly girl of placid temperament, has to pack them off to the community nursery when she wants to do house-cleaning.

Wallace's Wandering Embarrassing

WASHINGTON. — Henry Wallace's European barnstorming trip caused some slight embarrassment among those who love him most — his immediate family.

Henry's sister is the wife of the Swiss Minister to the US, popular Charles Bruggmann. It was behind the spacious Swiss legation residence that Henry used to tend his vegetable garden in the days when he did not have to commute back and forth to the new republic in New York. There has always been a close bond between Henry and his sister — still is.

But when diplomatic friends asked Mrs. Bruggmann what she thought of her brother's European speeches attacking the Truman foreign policy, Mrs. Bruggmann smiled wanly.

"Mother wishes that he'd come home," she said.

Note—Henry Wallace's mother lives in Des Moines, Iowa, and will be 80 years old next month.

WANDERING WALLACE

Notes on Henry Wallace's observations abroad: England, Norway, Sweden and Denmark are just as strong against communism as the USA, but anxious to maintain friendly relations with Russia. . . . European leaders told Wallace they were weary over US support for European reactionaries. American ambassadors mingle with extreme right-wingers rather than moderates. . . . The French feel the US embassy in Paris is backing de Gaulle. . . . Wallace said he saw no evidence of this, but nevertheless French government leaders believe it. De Gaulle started his current machinations immediately after the announcement of the Truman doctrine.

Many Frenchmen, Wallace said, feel France is headed toward civil war. The British don't agree. They think France will pull through — despite de Gaulle's operations. . . . The French are not worried about native communists, of whom they have many, but are worried about the Russians. The middle-of-the-road parties in France, Wallace says, get along well with French communists. . . . Wallace praised British morale and self-discipline. They are determined to solve their problems. . . . He spent an evening with British cabinet members in which they did all the talking; found them candid, refreshing. . . . The French people have more pep than the British — more militant and vigorous. . . . Nothing decadent about them. . . . Ablest leaders in France, Denmark and Norway, Wallace found, are former leaders of underground resistance. . . . The Swedes are scared stiff about another war. They are afraid of a clash between the east and west, with Sweden in the intermediate battle-ground.

INSIDE THE KKK
Minutes of the Ku Klux Klan

In Hollywood—Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The public has dictated swabbing roles for Douglas Fairbanks Jr. whether he likes it or not.

Young Doug, who is now the producer-star of "The Exile," says he took a poll to determine what roles the public wants for certain actors. Opinions were divided on all actors but Doug, the vote was two to one for dashing costume dramas for him. So, as Charles II of England in his current film, he is making 15-leaps and hanging from windmills. And why doesn't he defy the public and do less strenuous films?

"I don't dare argue with them," he told me. "I've got everything I own mortgaged in my company."

Butch Jenkins as cupid? It's as hard to imagine as Lou Costello playing Don Juan. But the rambunctious youngster will be patching a love affair between school teacher and her boy friends in a film at MGM oddly titled "Virtuose."

The Olivia De Havilland — Joan Fontaine feud may be fanned over "Pursuit of Love," the English novel which Enterprise owns. It's a romantic drama, which is what each sister is seeking. So far Olivia is winning.

Rumor travels swiftly in Hollywood as it does in any small town. Rex Harrison sold his house through an agent to a man who remained unnamed. The party moved in and observed. He claimed it was King Carol of Rumania. The report spread like wildfire and was printed in several places. Now it turns out the buyers was William Powell, who wanted to remain anonymous so the purchase price wouldn't go up.

The "Road To" trio may be broken up, if Dorothy Lamour doesn't re-sign with Paramount, as is reported.

Coal Company Sends Bosses To School

CLEVELAND (UPI)—The Hanna Coal Co. wants supervisory employees to be educated and if they aren't the company sends them to school.
Since few of its bosses were able to attend high school or college, the company sends them to adult classes. Late this spring they will be awarded a giant letter "E" to signify improved "experience and efficiency."

—Klavern No. 1 Atlanta, Ga., April 14: Because of leaks a new card system was announced so no Pearson agents can smuggle themselves inside Klan meetings.

Each Klansman will be given a card with a number and letter, such as N-18, while each Klavern will maintain a master ledger allocating a number and letter to each Klansman's name. The ledger will be kept in strictest confidence and the Kilgraff (secretary) of each Klavern will be held responsible.

Members announced with glee that if Pearson, Stetson Kennedy or one of his agents should present themselves in disguise at a Klan meeting they could be detected by checking the bearer's card against the master ledger — even if they gave the proper password.

Klansmen were urged to write their senators and congressmen, to oppose the return of 5,000 Negro babies from England to the United States. These are the babies born of white wives when American Negro troops were in England.

A city policeman rose to say that in one Atlanta police station a list had been posted of the fathers of these babies and he was surprised to see that hundreds of the babies were fathered by ex-governor Ellis Arnall, Drew Pearson and Governor Thompson. The policeman kept a straight face and some of those present seemed to believe him.

Cliff Vitturs spoke at length on complaints received in several Klaverns regarding Atlanta professors and teachers making derogatory remarks about the Klan. He urged each Klansman with children attending Atlanta schools to find out the names of teachers who had talked against the Klan. Vitturs claimed he has the names of several teachers who are devoting a few minutes each day to criticizing the Klan and he proposed having them fired.

Mr. Ransom, custodian of the Candler building, who presided as acting Exalted Cyclops in Grand Dragon Green's absence, said he believed this anti-Klan educational program is being put on without the knowledge of the school board. Ransom spoke at length on the danger of planting hate in children's minds against the Klan. If this instruction were allowed to continue, he said, it would be impossible to get the younger generation to join the Klan. This problem seemed to frighten Klansmen more than anything else that has arisen lately. They listened even more carefully than during Hoyt Gwiner's attack on Henry Wallace.

UNDER THE DOME
Ex-ambassador to Moscow Joe Davies' former chauffeur has written a highly critical book on Russia called, "Backstairs Mission to Moscow." It's the story of how the lower echelons in the Soviet Union live. The American mission to administer the Greek loan will be composed of at least 200 technicians. . . . Commerce Secretary Harriman has been meeting with top officials of the National Association of Manufacturers and the US Chamber of Commerce to secure backing for President Truman's price-slashing program. . . . Dr. Edwin C. Nourse, head of the presidential council of economic advisers, speaks in a rare whisper, keeps his desk clean and his temper down.

DIPLOMACY
Back from Moscow, General Marshall has a lot of accumulated problems piled on his desk. One is the important question of US ambassadors to France and Italy.

Hosses Stretch Loop Lead By Clouting Vernon, 10-3

Continued Rains Posing Problem For Club Owners In Big Leagues

By The Associated Press

If it doesn't stop raining soon those deep furrows on the foreheads of the baseball magnates are likely to become permanent.

This is the time of the year when hope springs eternal with the fans. Even though their favorite teams may be in the second division there isn't too much of a gap between last place and the select first division.

Thus the customers are ready and eager to beat a fast pace to the ball parks.

Rains which washed out the entire Giants' series with the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs at the Polo Grounds is estimated to

Stasey Bashes Third Homer

A four-run outbreak in the third inning paved the way for Big Spring's 10-3 victory over Vernon's Dusters before a sparse crowd here Monday afternoon.

The triumph enabled the Hosses to stretch their Longhorn league lead over second-place Vernon to 4 1/2 games.

Vernon's gang worked with several handicaps. The Dusters, climbed off a bus and came right to the field. Their regular catcher, Bob Huntley, hobbled about with a bad leg. Others were not up to hard.

In spite of all that, however, the visitors gave the Cayuses a run for their money until the locals powered four tallies across the dish in the sixth round.

Manager Pat Stasey's three-run round-tripper — his third in three games — pushed the resident nine to a 5-0 lead in the third. The Steeds had accumulated that margin despite the fact that the invaders executed four double plays in the first four innings.

Huntley put the North Texas back in the ball game in the sixth with a home run that scored Earl Kott ahead of him. It was as close as Vernon ever got, however. At the end of the sixth inning, Big Spring had increased their margin to 9-3.

An error plus Stasey's single in the eighth — his fourth of the afternoon — enabled the Broncs to add another tally before checking their bats.

Joe Traspuesto had his troubles on the hill for Big Spring because his curve ball wasn't working but he limited the foe to seven hits and seemed to always right himself at the correct moment.

The victory proved costly to Big Spring. Andy Viamonte, star shortstop, exited from the bout in the sixth after earlier crashing into Mario Vasona, left fielder, in a run for a fly ball. Viamonte suffered a twisted knee.

Tony Traspuesto, the burly catcher, also had his bad moments. He hurt his fingers trying to flag one of his brother's fast balls but managed to remain in harness.

Looking 'Em Over

With TOMMY HART

Construction work on the Big Spring high school baseball park may be held up for an indefinite period due to a lack of funds. The drive for $15,000 to finish the stadium fell short. Solicitation is still going on but slowly.

Material for the grand stand's roof has arrived but the capital isn't in sight to get it up.

Meanwhile, Lou Baker and Joe Langston have plunged into the task of selling the fence signs. The decorations will be $4 a running foot and all space save about 40 feet in dead center field can be rented.

From the looks of things at the present time, Big Spring will be the site of the Longhorn league's all-star game in July.

Perhaps Odessa would be a better spot in which to hold the bout. The Oiler park will seat almost three times as many persons as will the local plant.

Local high school cage coaches have been invited to attend a coaching clinic in Fort Worth June 9 to 12, inclusive. Jack Gray, Texas university's astute mentor, Clair Bee of Long Island university and Hub McQuillan of TCU will serve as instructors of the school.

All classes will be held at Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. Tuition will be $10 for coaches and $1 for players.

More football fans can be crammed into TCU's stadium next fall, according to dispatches from Cow-Town.

Some 5,000 seats are being added to the east-side stands, says J. Willard Ridings. An item that will probably interest the average reader not at all is the fact that the press box at the Frog plant is being increased by half.

When Southern Methodist surprised Baylor in a baseball double-header last weekend, Doak Walker, the football back, was one of the big guns in the attack.

Walker collected two singles in four official trips in the first game and returned in the aftermath to pound out a triple and a double in three tries.

Track Coach Mule Stockton of Our Town will be aiming for two state titles in 1948.

Both Leon Leopard, who finished third in the 880-yard run at Austin last week, and James Fannin, ace miler, will be back then. Leopard ran his fastest half-mile in the state show but lost to Bill Graff, a long legged youngster who had beaten him in the Southwest Recreation show at Fort Worth.

Leopard has been a marvel in his first competitive year of athletics. He cleaned up on all competition out this way, took titles in the San Angelo and Lubbock games besides winning the Area and Regional games. He would have won the 880-yard event in the Big Spring Relays but for the fact that he competed in the wrong heat.

Stockton figures he has a champion in Fannin. If he can make ace miler, will be back then. Leopard ran his fastest half-mile in the state show but lost to Bill Graff, a long legged youngster who had beaten him in the Southwest Recreation show at Fort Worth.

Robb, the high school's all-conference football guard and co-captain elect of the 1947 Steer team, is having to take it easy these days.

Robb suffered a knocked-down shoulder in a minor auto crash last weekend. He should be ship-shape by September, however.

BS Motor Nine To Meet Ackerly

The Ackerly softball team will call at the City Park diamond tonight to do battle with Big Spring Motor in a game called for 8:18 o'clock.

It will be the Ackerly team's first appearance here. They played the Motormen several times last season, but all games were on the Ackerly diamond.

Glenn Bredemeyer will do the pitching for the Ford crew.

Dick Metz Ends Corcoran Feud

CHICAGO, May 6. (AP)—The Dick Metz-Fred Corcoran feud had officially ended today after a three-hour hearing of their altercation by the executive committee of the Professional Golfers' Association of America had been climaxed by a hand shake.

Ed Dudley, PGA president, said the two clasped hands following a closed session of professional golf's governing body yesterday. The hearing was called at Metz's request after Corcoran asserted the golfer hit him four months ago without even yelling "fore." Metz, one of the country's top-ranking golfers, said he did not strike down the PGA tournament bureau manager with a foul blow and asked for the hearing to have the facts straightened out.

What went on at the hearing was kept a family secret by the PGA.

In addition to announcing that the two "shook hands," Dudley said Corcoran will assume new duties as publicity director for all activities of the association.

Corcoran, who left for New York to open his "publicity bureau," said he regarded the position as "a promotion and a better proposition."

Until another tournament bureau manager is selected, a committee will carry on consisting of tournament Chairman George Schneider, Salt Lake City; Ben Hogan, Lloyd Mangrum, Jimmy Demaret, Sam Snead, Ellsworth Vines and Jimmy Thomson.

Metz will join the touring pros for tournaments in Houston and Fort Worth, Texas, Philadelphia, the Goodall match play in Boston and the Capital Invitational in Maryland before going to the US open in St. Louis and the National PGA in Detroit.

Dudley said the executive committee will continue its study of prospective Ryder cup team members. The US team, which will meet a British squad this fall probably in Florida as the war-suspended Ryder cup matches are resumed, will be announced, following the PGA tournament June 18-24.

The state of Maine has a weed-control project on northern grass, the common horseradish, and trees which are considered as weeds when they grow in blueberry fields.

While the sequoia trees of California are estimated to be between 3,000 and 4,000 years old, the famed "Cypress of Tule" in Mexico is believed to have lived between 4,000 and 6,000 years.

Panthers Claw Beaumont Nine, Dallas Loses

By The Associated Press

You can't accuse the Texas League of not giving the cash customers a run for their money. Fifty-four is plenty, but there could have been a lot more yesterday.

Sixty-eight men stood on the bases and waited for one of 80 hits to send them home. They might as well have sat down and made themselves comfortable. Nobody obliged.

Shreveport came through with a 7-5 victory over Dallas, and Oklahoma City defeated San Antonio by the same score. Houston whipped Tulsa, 11-8, and Fort Worth kicked Beaumont around, 8-3.

Ray Clark's wildness proved directly responsible for Shreveport taking the final game of the Dallas series. He loaded the bases in the seventh inning and the Sports came through with three runs to break a 3-3 deadlock. Another tally in the eighth offset the two Dallas made its final half of the ninth.

Houston apparently has found the strength it was supposed to have displayed earlier in the season. The Buffs were able to spot Tulsa a five-run lead, then bounced back with a five run rally in the fourth and go on to win going away. Relief pitcher Clint Echols received credit for the victory.

Fort Worth and Beaumont kicked the lead around three times, but the Cats made five runs in the eighth inning count in a big way. A pair of triples by Fort Worth Manager Les Burge proved the vital factor. The first started a rally that tied the score in the sixth and his second began the spree in the eighth.

Bob Misteal and Leonard Gilmore combined to hurl five-hit ball for Oklahoma City and in token of their regard, Indign mates rapped out 15 off Mission pitchers.

San Antonio goes into Oklahoma to take on Tulsa, while Houston is playing at Oklahoma City. Dallas gets a chance to show before the home fans again, playing host to Beaumont. Shreveport comes out of its Louisiana lair to invade Fort Worth.

Day Games Slated Today, Wednesday

Joe Langston, general manager of the Big Spring baseball club, said Monday that it was quite improbable that the Broncs would be able to play their opening night game during their current home stay, which ends Wednesday.

Work is still going on on the are system and the lights may be tested tonight.

Meanwhile, the Hosses will continue to play day games with the Vernon Dusters. The locals will be seeking their 11th straight win when they challenge the North Texans today.

Pat Patterson may go out after his third victory in today's bout, which was to start at 3:30 o'clock.

Loboes Beaten By Blue Sox

By The Associated Press

Things are beginning to tighten up in the West Texas-New Mexico League, with first division teams being content with narrow margins of victory.

Last night league-leading Lubbock pumpeled out Pampa, 5-2. Second place Amarillo fell before Borger, 11-8, and Abilene took a slim 4-3 decision over Lamesa. Albuquerque bested its New Mexico rival, Clovis, 9-7.

Afield, the eight clubs are still having early season trouble. No less than 23 errors were committed last night in the four games.

Tigers Nudged By Midlanders

Yves Yancey's Tigers, a local semi-pro baseball club dropped a 4-3 decision to Midland in an exhibition played here Sunday afternoon.

Tony Cruz dented the platter for the visitors in the ninth inning to turn the tide.

Armando, Midland starter, limited the Big Springers to five scattered hits and held them scoreless until the fifth when T. Rodriguez scored on L. Subia's triple and Subia then came home on Elias Gamboa's long fly.

Midland solved the slants of Ramos. Big Spring twirler, for only four hits but used them to the best of advantage.

GAS ALMOST CHOKED HIM

"My stomach swelled with gas until I could hardly breathe," said one man living near here. "I couldn't sleep, in fact had horrible nights. Was always constipated. I got Inner-Aid. Oh! what relief! It worked so much gas from me that my stomach reduced 4 inches. Can breathe freely again. Sleep soundly now. Bowels also have been given a Great Cleansing."

INNER-AID is the new mixture of 12 Juices from Nature's Herbs. It has relieved many people who had never been really helped before by any medicine. Taken shortly before meals it mixes with your food, thus eliminating the poisons that foster stomach trouble. It will cleanse the bowels, clear gas from stomach, enliven liver and remove old, sickening bile from the system. So don't go on suffering! Get Inner-Aid. Sold by all drug stores. (adv.)

Mail Service From Angelo To Here Operative

Mail service between San Angelo and Big Spring, on a star route which now is up for renewal bids, is operative, Postmaster Nat Shick explained today.

Shick's statement was prompted by an editorial in The Herald Monday, which contained errors in fact in view of previous elaboration of the service. Although the mail does not come to the Big Spring postoffice, said Shick, it is pouched separately so that the local office gets delivery of the Big Spring package at the T&P depot.

In addition to this, at Shick's request, postal authorities made the service even more elastic so that pouches for Lamesa, Tahoka and Lubbock are left at the depot for dispatch over the truck route to those points early each day.

There is no return service to San Angelo, he said. The editorial argued that this would increase benefits to San Angelo.

What effect drastic appropriation clashes will have on local office operations remains to be seen, said Shick. Many larger offices have indicated that they will have to curtail service to stay within reduced budgets. Several of these services mentioned in news accounts will be handled on a basis which the Big Spring office has handled them in the past to permit the widest possible application of service.

It is possible that the fund cut may mean only one delivery a day by foot carriers. Regarding the status of additional mounted carriers, recently approved by inspectors, Shick had no statement pending word from Washington.

Next Move In Pardon And Parole Investigation In Hands Of House

AUSTIN, May 6. (AP)—The next move if any in the investigation of pardon and parole practices in Texas today was in the hands of the House of Representatives.

The Senate's general investigating committee's report charging there have been "gross abuses" by the board of pardons and paroles and "laxity" in the governor's office and demanding the resignation of Chairman Abner Lewis, was laid on the speaker's desk late yesterday.

The House, in the midst of a deadlock on another matter, took no immediate formal cognizance of the committee's report. The committee recommended the report be presented the House "for appropriate consideration and action."

Lewis, taking sharp issue with the committee's accusations, stood firm in his flat refusal to resign.

Meanwhile, from San Angelo, former Lieutenant Governor John Lee Smith jumped into the fight. He said he had sent a telegram to Sen. A. M. Aiken Jr., chairman of the committee, protesting what he characterized as the "silly and evasive" report of the committee. He used the term "whitewash," charging that the committee report "concealed the truth."

"If you want Texas to have the truth, then throw open the hear-

Broad Summer Recreational Plan Shaped Up By Salvation Army

Preparations for an anticipated summer recreational rush are shaping rapidly at the Salvation Army youth center, according to Capt. Olyv Sheppard.

Membership in the youth center, at W. 4th and San Jacinto streets, now totals around 400, said Capt. Sheppard, and with approximately 900 children residing within a 10 block area in proximity to the playground, he anticipated a membership approaching 1,000 by the end of the summer. In view of this, he said he would not be surprised if overflow crowds become commonplace.

He will supervise activities with J. L. Franklin, Charles Wright

Second Tour For HCJC Pioneer Week Underway

A second tour of high schools in this area got underway Tuesday with college students, officials and chamber of commerce representatives extending invitations to schools south and west to participate in senior day of Pioneer Week at Howard County Junior college on Friday.

In the group were members of the college ensemble accompanied by Eddie Lou Haug, head of the department of music. Included were Ernest and Raymond Moore, Charles Sherwood, Bill Hix, Letha Holcombe, Coleen Davidson, M. J. Fields, dean, accompanied the group as spokesman, and chamber representatives extended invitations on behalf of the community.

Monday some 130 seniors in five schools to the east were contacted by a delegation. Wednesday the tour will swing northward with the HCJC orchestra furnishing the entertainment.

Negro League's Show Tomorrow

The Colored Civic League of Big Spring will present approximately one hour of musical entertainment as a benefit program in the Municipal Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday.

All Negro churches in the city and pupils of the Lakeview school will be represented on the program.

Included will be quartets of both men and women and group singing by members of the various Negro churches. Several vocal solos also will be included on the program, and a choral group under direction of E. M. Watson, principal of Lakeview school, will present several numbers.

Frank Miller, chairman of the league, will be master of ceremonies.

No admission fees will be assessed at the door. However, an offering will be taken during the program, with proceeds to go to the benefit fund.

New Members Told Of Church Agencies

New members of the church were told about the various agencies of the church at a meeting of the First Baptist Brotherhood, laymen's organization, Monday evening.

John Coffey, president, explained the objectives of the Brotherhood to the men. Ernest Hock explained the program of the Sunday School and choir; Wayne Williams the training union; Joe Pickle the board of deacons; Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, sketched the cooperative program of Baptist churches with other churches in associational, district, state, South-wide, and international conventions. A men's double quartet furnished music for the occasion.

WALL STREET
 NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Further profit cashing on five successive rising readings put most of today's stock market leaders in the losing cause.

Dealings fairly active from the start, slowed at intervals but declines of fractions to 2 or more points predominated.

Selling largely by professional speculators based on the idea that the list had achieved a normal technical recovery and now would have to depend on real bullish news to keep going. Good earnings and dividends propped a few issues. Wall Street, however, was notably cautious pending more light on European political and business outlook and taxes.

Bonds and cotton futures were mixed.
