City Readies For Extra Cent On Sales Tax Starting Oct. 1

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer
Beginning Oct. 1, residents will get a taste of the one per cent city sales tax they approved by an overwhelming margin in early April. On Oct. 1, all businesses within the city limits of Hereford will begin administering a 4.25 per cent state and city sales tax, which replaces the old 3.25 per cent sales tax.

state sales tax and will be reported to the state in the same fashion as in the past. The various merchants who have businesses within the city limits are required to send in their reports every quarter, but the additional one per cent hike does not mean any additional work on the part of the merchant. Businesses located outside the city limits will not be affected by the increased sales tax, and they will not receive any benefits from the tax.

CARDS INDICATING the tax rate for various purchase amounts were printed last week and will be available at the Chamber of Commerce office sometime this week, city manager Dudley Bayne said. The city will not receive any of the tax money back from the state until early next year, Bayne said, because the state comptroller is allowed at least three months to get the bookkeeping organized and broken down into state and city funds.

"We think we will get around $140,000 back the first year," Bayne said, "and this will probably increase each year as the businesses and population increase each year." Bayne said the city is actually benefiting from the state doing the bookkeeping and administering because of the tremendous cost of the sales tax. He said it will cost the city approximately $2,800 on $140,000 if the state comptroller does the bookkeeping and administering, but that price would be considerably more if the city had to do the work.

which has first voted in a sales tax then voted it out, because they feel they are getting a lot of out-of-state and out-of-county business that is getting taxed also." Money returned to the city during the coming year will, for the most part, be used in paying for the construction of the new fire station and the land on which it was built. From then on, the money returned will be drawn out over a "four or five year period" for improvements on streets, building a park in south Hereford which will include picnic areas, watering system and a dam and fishing hole, and water and air pollution research, police officer schools, employment of additional police and other expenditures.

As New Presidents

Kiwanians Install Brink, Easterwood

By BETTY KOELZER
Staff Writer
New officers of Hereford's two Kiwanis Clubs were jointly installed Thursday at the Civic Club Center.

Earl Stagner as president of the Whiteface Breakfast Kiwanis Club. Some 200 members, wives and guests gathered to salute the officials. Don Lane of Pampa, lieutenant governor of the Texas-Oklahoma region of Kiwanians, installed the officers. The Kiwanis Club gave "workhorse award" to Bobby Owen for service given to the club during the past year. Dean Herring was master of ceremonies. Entertainment was by Jim Hannaford, music director at the First Baptist Church, who sang to his own accompaniment at the piano. John Gilliland performed some magical tricks.

Members of Kiwanis Clubs in Pampa, Amarillo and Vega also attended. Installed as officers of the Hereford Kiwanis Club were Brink, president; Pete Nash and Rodney Laubhan, vice-presidents; Don Lane, secretary, and Bartley Dowell, treasurer. Newly elected directors are Howard Birdwell, R. C. Hoelscher, Bill Devers and Ed Lemmons.

Easterwood was installed as president of the Whiteface Breakfast Kiwanis Club, with Cuby Kitchens and Gene Brock as vice-presidents, Cecil Boyer as secretary and Wayne Williams, treasurer. New directors for this club are Mark Armor, Jake King and Jeff Smart.

CLINIC IN ACTION — The refurbished Public Health Clinic, which opened Aug. 10, treated 306 patients last month. Mrs. Ronnie Owens, far left, clerk-typist handles all the paperwork, while volunteer auxiliary members, such as Mrs. Frank Wilhelm and Mrs. Robert Veigel, above, register the 25-30 patients per day.

Registration deadline for entering the contest is Saturday, and any boy who will be 8 years old on or before Jan. 24, 1971 and who will not be 14 on or before that date, is eligible. The contest will be held next Sunday. Entrants will compete in football, punting and kicking a pass-ball with trophies to be given first, second and third place finishers in each of the six different age groups. Boys will be competing only against boys their own age. Winners of the local contest will be eligible to participate in a higher contest in Canyon and the winners there will go to Oklahoma City for a divisional contest.

any rural area or small town or small city for financing guaranteed loans." Deaf Smith County thus was declared as a "Housing Credit Shortage Area and its veterans authorized to enter into direct loans with the VA. Under the VA loan guarantee program, a lender had to be willing to lend money at 8 1/2 per cent, currently, with a V. A. guarantee up to $12,500. "They (local veterans) just haven't been able to get any money and I've been fighting for this ever since I've been service officer," said Womble. "I've had 50 people in the past year who would want a direct loan, and maybe more than that. In the past, if the veterans were turned down here, then some had to go to Amarillo and even then they weren't getting local money." The direct loan will apply to persons with at least 90 days active service in the Vietnam or Korea areas and other than a dishonorable discharge. Veterans with less than 90 days qualify if they were discharged because of disability incurred in the line of duty. The program creates a ceiling of a $21,000 aggregate total on each loan, except that the aggregate amount may be increased by up to $4,000 more if cost levels so require, in the judgment of the administrator. World War II veterans went out from under the program last July 25. All entitlement will end for Korean veterans Jan. 31, 1975. All loans are subject to VA approval and appraisal. Womble said the loans are for purchase of a home, repair of an existing home, purchase of a business, or for purchase of stock to go into business. "This is not at all set up to buy anybody a pleasure car. I'm sure that would be turned down," Womble said of the possibility of automobile loans.

Vietnam and Korean veterans of Deaf Smith County have been approved for direct loans from the federal government, the county's veterans service officer announced this week. It will mean "at least 50 families" who have been unable to get loans in the past year to buy homes or businesses can now go ahead and carry through with their plans. "This sure ought to be good news to them," said Benny Womble, the service officer. "We have had quite a few people want direct loans and we've fought for this a year and

Registration deadline for entering the contest is Saturday, and any boy who will be 8 years old on or before Jan. 24, 1971 and who will not be 14 on or before that date, is eligible. Since Barnes, as lieutenant governor, is president of the Senate and makes all committee appointments, "to have his blessings and good will is important, I think." His wife, Gene Alice, is a teacher, having taught English at Berger High School, Palo Duro High School and Amarillo College, "and I think this is something that gives me insight, helps me understand some of the things we must face in education."

Soybean Growers 200 Organizations Abound At Tech

Will Vote On Fee

Deaf Smith County soybean producers, along with those in other producing areas of Texas, will decide by referendum Saturday whether a check-off program will be initiated for their commodity.

The check-off will be one-half cent per bushel on soybeans sold and will be deducted at the point of the first sale.

Working under the provisions of the Texas Check-Off Act of 1969, the Texas Soybean Association has petitioned for and been granted permission to hold the referendum, County Agent Justin McBride said.

All soybean producers, including farm owners, tenants and sharecroppers are eligible to vote.

The referendum will be conducted under the supervision of the Texas Commissioner of Agriculture and he will announce the results after receiving the returns from the counties.

The referendum carries if the Commissioner finds that two-thirds or more of those voting voted "yes" or that those voting "yes" produced at least 50 percent of the total production in the area during a designated period. Producers must report their production at the time of balloting for the designated period, noted the county agent.

At the time of the referendum, a producers commodity board will also be elected. Upon notification of election, the board members will meet and organize. One-third will have two-year terms; another third, four-year terms and others six-year terms.

Term lengths will be decided by drawing lots. Successors will hold office for six years. It will be the responsibility of this board to handle all phases of the operation of the program.

The money collected must be used only for developing and carrying out jointly with others or separately programs of research, education, promotion and disease and insect control designed to encourage production, marketing and use of soybeans. This, points out the county agent, makes it a self-help program.

Producers who do not wish to contribute to the program through the check-off may ask for a refund on paid-in assessments. A written request must be made within 60 days from the date of the check-off payment on a form provided by the Producers Commodity Board.

The program may be terminated at any time by a simple majority vote of qualified producers.

McBride said that the voting place for Deaf Smith County producers would be in the lobby of Community Center and that polls would be open from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. with a representative of the Texas Soybean Association in charge.

All eligible producers are urged to cast a ballot in the referendum and the county agent said that those desiring more information on the program should contact his office.

Absentee ballots may be picked up at the County Agent's office, Room 301 in the Court-house. These must be mailed by midnight Saturday.

The County Agent's office will not be a polling place.

ment with politics was between his junior and senior year at Phillips. He was a page at the National Democratic Convention in Chicago in 1952, when Adlai Stevenson was nominated for the presidency and Albert Barkley for the vice presidency. The Republicans nominated Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

In a term paper at Phillips High School, Sherman wrote that he was interested in politics and government — "so I guess you could say I have always had the desire to run for public office, yes."

This year, he took the step, and he won't even take a guess at the number of hands he has shaken since.

"There were 14,000 people at the XIT celebration at Dalhart and Jack Hazelwood, Sherman and his wife left their house at 4:30 one morning to go to Dumas. They started early that morning going to coffee shops, plants, industrial shops. By the time they got back to Amarillo it was 12:30 the next morning.

In Channing once, his wife and 7-year-old son were going door to door and were chased by a pet rook that kept making dives at them. And in Wheeler, Gene Alice "integrated" one of the men's recreation parlors.

"I'm sure she's the first woman that's been in there in 50 years," Sherman laughed.

There are more long days than short days, like the 20-hour marathon in Dumas.

"Some days you get out like that and it's kind of dragging, but the next day you get up and you're fresh again. You meet a lot of new friends, and when you like people this is real enjoyable."

that offer a variety of ways to fill the extra hours.

These organizations include in their scope social, service, spirit honorary, scholastic, and departmental interest groups. Many professional organizations also have collegiate chapters here which afford students an opportunity to meet and work with businessmen who have succeeded in their field.

The 1970-71 edition of the Student Handbook contains a complete listing of recognized campus organizations. Each one is described briefly and requirements of affiliation are given.

The Office of Student Life, Room 171 of the Administration Building, is compiling a list of organizations with the names and addresses of their current presidents and faculty advisors. A copy of this list will be available to every organization.

All campus organizations must be recognized by the University Committee of Student Organizations. The chairman of this student-faculty committee is Dr. Mary Brewer of the English Department. Dr. William Duvall, assistant dean of student life, handles administrative work on behalf of the committee.

One of the student life programs that Dr. Duvall says he wants to see implemented this year is an "Organizational Fair." Each organization would have a booth to inform students about the group.

This program has been tried before but it did not receive a great deal of attention because it was set up during registration, said Dr. Duvall. If organization express an interest in such a project, it would probably be held during the first few days of classes.

Dr. Duvall, who feels that campus organizations make up a very important part of college life, said, "There is an out-of-class education value to be found in working with groups of people with like interests. These organizations help in the overall development of personality in that they encourage meeting and working with people."

While he encourages membership in one or more groups, Dr. Duvall warns against going overboard and becoming so involved in clubs that other work suffers.

Mrs. Charles Weatherford of Hereford was elected president of Area 1, Young Homemakers of Texas, for the next term, and outstanding chapter awards went to Ralls Young Homemakers and Friendship Young Farmers of Texas at the joint area convention here Saturday.

Jerry Cluck of Dimmitt was winner of the Star Young Farmer award, top achievement for an individual, with Jerry Dale Williams of Lockney and Tummie Wages of Abernathy as runners-up.

Dimmitt took the radio and television award for the Young Farmers, while Silverton was first and Dimmitt second in publicity awards.

For Young Homemaker chapters, Roosevelt was second and Muleshoe third in designation as outstanding; Cooper was in second place for Young Farmers.

Awards were all presented at a dinner Saturday evening in Hereford High School cafeteria, where Bill Sarpallus of Canyon, past state president of Future Farmers of America, was the speaker.

Plagues, electrical appliances and cash were awarded the winners, given by Southwestern Public Service Co., Production Credit Association, Pioneer Gas Co. and Sears Foundation.

Mrs. David Prewitt of Ralls, completing her term as YHT area president, presented the awards to the women's group and Glenn Odum of Dimmitt made the YFT presentations. Jimmy Myers of Silverton, YFT president, was master of ceremonies.

Roy Hartman, Hereford school superintendent, greeted convention visitors after the invocation by Jimmy White of Muleshoe. Buster Terrell of Plainview introduced guests.

Mrs. Ben Holcomb of Dimmitt, retiring state officer of the YHT, paid tribute to area officers whose terms are ending.

Separate business meetings and daytime programs were conducted by the two organizations. Mayor Jim Sears extended the city's welcome to Future Farmers who met at Community Center, and Jerry Don George, Hereford High School principal, welcomed the Future Homemakers.

The latter group had its business session in the morning, naming officers including Mrs. Jimmy Roberts of Dimmitt as state officer, Mrs. Wayne Stephens of Silverton and Mrs. Robert Hunt of Muleshoe as vice presidents, Mrs. Pete Laney of Hale Center secretary-treasurer.

Get More Money Buying Power Higher Here Disabled Veterans Than In Most Other Areas

The Veterans Administration has reported that a bill the President signed last month will increase monthly compensation payments for most of two million veterans who incurred disabilities during military service.

Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson said the 8 to 12 per cent increases will be retroactive to July 1.

Veterans received their regular monthly checks for August on September 1, computed at the old rate. Later, this month, most veterans were to receive another check reflecting the retroactive increases for July and August. The following month, on October 1, regular monthly checks will include the increases.

The new law also permits restoration to compensation rolls the remarried widows of veterans whose remarriages end in death or divorce. This provision becomes effective next January 1.

The VA Administrator said another provision, which would affect comparatively few veterans, would presume certain illnesses of former prisoners of war during World War II, the Korean Conflict, and the Vietnam era to be service-connected for purposes of compensation payments.

Deaf Smith County, on the strength of its business activity during the past year, is given a high rating in a new survey of buying power.

The figures show that it was above-average retail market in the year. Local residents earned more and spent more, per capita, than people in most other areas of the country.

The study shows that, in Deaf Smith County, the relatively strong consumer buying produced a sales volume in local retail stores of $55,656,000.

From the standpoint of population alone, this was more than should have been expected. Figured on that basis, local retail business should have amounted to only .0105 percent of the national, since that proportion of the total population lives in the area.

Actually, however, it went above that amount, accounting for .0160 percent of the national volume.

Although consumer spending was at a higher level locally than in most communities, it was distributed differently than in other years. More money went for soft goods and services and less for the high-price durables than usual.

With inflation still rampant and with no quick end in sight in Vietnam, people were more cautious in their spending and anxious to keep their installment debt down.

From the standpoint of income, 1969 was a good year for most local families, the figures show.

Net earnings of Deaf Smith County residents, after payment of their taxes, came to $51,197,000, topping the previous year's $46,519,000.

It was equivalent to $8,258 per household, an average obtained by dividing total income by the number of households.

Since more was spent than was earned locally, it is apparent that some of the shopping is done by people from other areas.

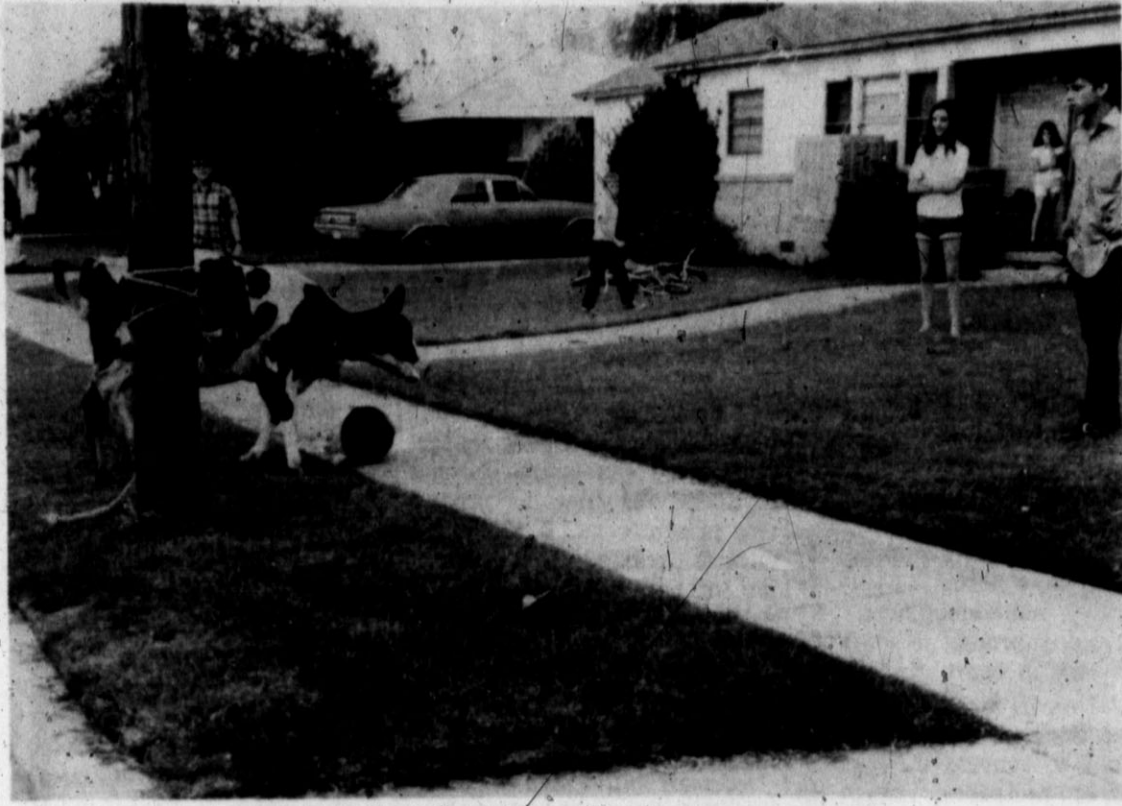

Just how one community compares with another in buying power and business vitality is revealed in the survey through an "index of sales activity."

Deaf Smith County is given an index rating of 152, placing it 52 percent above the national average.

Eggers Proposes 21 Point Anti-Crime Program

Paul Eggers, Republican candidate for governor, has announced a 21-point program he said is designed to deal with the rapidly rising crime rate in Texas.

The program is part of the Republican gubernatorial candidate's position paper "Crime and Law Enforcement" announced at a press conference at the State Capitol.

"The primary function of our criminal laws is deterrence of crime," the paper said. "The strongest deterrent of crime is the swiftness and certainty of punishment. Justice in America is no longer swift or certain." "This can be attributed, in part, to badly overcrowded court dockets. However, crowded dockets are not the only problem. Many thoughtful citizens now feel that the balance of the law has been tipped too far in favor of the accused criminal and against society's right to self-protection. While we must, of course, work within the limits laid down by court decisions, there is no reason for us to impose rules of law that go beyond Constitutional requirements and interfere unnecessarily with law enforcement.

This is the situation in Texas today." To enable our courts to deal more efficiently with crime and still abide by federal Constitutional guarantees, Eggers proposes the following changes in Texas law that would provide for better administration of justice.

—Proposed legislation amending the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure to make oral confessions admissible in Texas courts, Texas is the only state that requires a confession to be in writing before it is admissible as evidence in court except when the confession leads to the fruit of the crime.

—Proposed legislation that would allow felony defendants who have more than one indictment pending to be tried in a single trial.

—Proposed legislation that would allow a criminal defendant waiting appeal of conviction who cannot make bond to be moved from a county jail and be transferred to the state prison system pending appeal. This would enable the prisoner to spend his time in productive prison work, it would reduce the public expense of caring for him and it would provide our overcrowded jails with more room so that young first-offenders can be effectively segregated from repeat-offenders.

—Support amendment to the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures to provide the assessment of sentences, except in capital cases, to be the sole responsibility of the judge.

—Support amendment to the Texas Code of Criminal Procedures to allow the judge to have access to a pre-sentence investigation report to assist him in reaching an informed decision about the proper sentence.

—Support a constitutional amendment to permit defendants to waive indictment and proceed to a prompt hearing of their case in court.

—As an initial step in reducing trial delays in metropolitan counties, more district judges with light caseloads should be assigned to hear cases in cities on temporary duty. The presiding judges of the Administration —As Governor, I will continue to support the statewide campaign to improve the quality of our state and local police," Eggers stated in the paper. "The object of this campaign will be to attract, train, and keep on the police forces the most capable individuals available." In addition the paper discusses the need to continue upgrading technology in the fight against crime, improvements in the state's correctional procedures, and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

Many Hereford Students Go On To Attend College

Over half of the 1970 graduating class of Hereford High School decided to continue their education through either a two or four year college or a vocational school.

Wilma Braddy, high school counselor, reported in a follow-up study of the 1970 class, that 148 transcripts were sent to colleges which students were considering attending. This number represented 54 per cent of the 270 seniors who graduated last year.

Almost 90 per cent of the class had their transcripts sent to either West Texas State of Texas Tech, or both. Some 60 students indicated West Texas State and 20 showed interest in Texas Tech, with several indicating both.

Transcripts were also sent to Eastern New Mexico University, Texas State Technical Institute, Amarillo College, University of Texas at Arlington, South Plains Junior College, University of Houston, Brigham Young University, Baylor and SMU.

The follow-up study was first undertaken with the 1969 graduating class and the complete report was made available by Mrs. Braddy.

From the entire number attending school, 74 were making As, 128 were making Bs, 184 were making Cs, 62 were making Ds, 9 were making Fs, and 11 reported they were married and unemployed. Two of the employed seniors were graduates of the high school cosmetology class and are hairdressers.

"What we are interested in," she said, "is how well our high school programs prepare kids for college."

Some 22 students were reported to have dropped out of college. The report summary indicates the study shows 75 per cent of the students made "C" or above in their college courses.

"You can also see the strength and weaknesses in our programs because if the kids all fail college English, then it is evident something is wrong with our high school English program." Mrs. Braddy said the students at the top of the graduating class had a tendency to make A's in college too and those who took accelerated courses in high school "came nearer making A's than the others."

The students of the graduating classes were sent a card to be returned to Mrs. Braddy, which gave information concerning the school they were attending or their current occupation and their future plans. The colleges the students were attending were asked for transcripts showing the record of each student for the first semester of college work.

OVERALL FOR HEALTH
SANDTON, South Africa — A by-law requiring women's hairdressers to wear overalls at work is being enforced by local health inspectors. Hair stylist Ronnie Dreger, who came here from London last year said:

"It's the most ridiculous thing I've ever heard of. Never once in the 16 years I ran a salon in London was I required to wear an overall."

The national secretary of the South African Hairdressers' Employees Industrial Union, J. Daniel, supported the council and said: "Hairdressers who do not wear pocketless overalls tend to put combs and scissors in their pockets instead of in sterilizers."

CLEAN CAMPAIGN
SYDNEY — Charles Gerrard Logue tossed a soft drink bottle from his car while driving at East Maitland.

The local deputy engineer spotted the throw, took Logue to court where he was fined 53 Australian dollars ($80 US).

Australian authorities have been campaigning for the past two years to keep highways clean.

"THOSE CRAZY EPISCOPALIANS"

ARE THEY SORT OF A PRIVATE CLUB... JUST FOR THE RICH?

Ha! You should be around when the nearest Episcopal parish is trying to finalize its annual budget. You'd know better.

Actually, this church did acquire a bit of snob appeal during the early days of our nation. English colonists introduced their own Episcopal version of The Church of England. It was only natural that many of these "first comers" became the wealthy landowners, the merchants, the gentry of this young nation. George Washington, Alexander Hamilton and — indeed — three-fourths of the signators to the U. S. Constitution were Episcopalians.

But today, the Episcopal Church represents an exceptionally broad cross section of the nation: people of every vocation, social status, race and political persuasion gathered under one roof.

You see, Episcopalians believe strongly that the church is a proper meeting ground for men's differences. Christianity, they say, represents the world's greatest hope for reconciling the divisions between one man and another.

You don't have to agree with your fellow man; you only have to live with him: Your nearest Episcopal minister may have some very good thoughts for you on that ticklish subject. There's no obligation on your part if you care to pay him a visit.

Auction Can Be Good Or Bad, Chamber Advises

An auction can offer real bargains or it can be a source of defective merchandise represented to be new or in good working condition, warns the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Bill Thompson, Manager of the chamber, said that although the auction is an established and legitimate business practice, it is no better than the auctioneer who conducts it.

He pointed out that some auction firms specialize in certain kinds of products, such as automobiles, jewelry or household goods.

He said the Council of Better Business Bureaus, with which the chamber is affiliated through membership, has advised the chamber that auctions offering office equipment have been the source of recent complaints.

In one city, said CBBB, some purchasers complained that typewriters with foreign language keyboards and odd voltage requirements had been sold without prior disclosure of these conditions. It also was charged that defective equipment had been doctored to make it appear workable.

In business the club voted to provide Kings Manor residents one month's transportation.

Messenger Club Surveys Styles

Confusion over a fashion change is evident in fall fashions, Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, told Messenger H. D. Club members at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. S. N. Thweatt, and women have the widest choice of hemlines in history.

"The furor over skirt lengths has affected designers, manufacturers, retailers and women themselves — not to mention men", Mrs. Draper said as she advised each woman to choose the length most becoming to her.

Purchase of a bedspread and curtains for a room at Girlstown, which a group from the club will take to that home near Whiteface, was reported by Mrs. Bill Page and Mrs. Gene Bradley.

Mrs. Page conducted business, including plans for serving lunch at a farm sale to benefit the club treasury.

The next meeting, Sept. 25, was announced for the home of Mrs. A. P. Hagan.

Bud To Blossom Clinic Is Held

First of two workshops to prepare for Bud to Blossom Club's fall flower show Oct. 17 and 18, an arrangement clinic was conducted Friday in Community Center, followed by a luncheon. Mrs. Hubert Stoerner was hostess.

Mrs. R. L. Ethridge, a master judge who is a member of Hereford Garden Club, was guest speaker for a lesson in Elements and Principles of Design.

Mrs. Wayne Porter showed numerous examples as she spoke on containers for flower arrangements and mechanics used in making arrangements. Plans were completed for the club's part in hostess duties for the County Federation of Women's Clubs meeting Sept. 29 for a covered dish luncheon at Community Center.

Another pre-flower show workshop is scheduled for 9:30 a. m. Oct. 2 at Community Center with a salad luncheon afterward.

The annual show will be staged during Community Fine Arts Week this year, at Deaf Smith County Bull Barn. Its theme is Flower Power.

Constitution Is DAR Topic

No other single paper is as valuable to an American as the Constitution, Hereford attorney Wesley Gulley told Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, as he spoke at the beginning of Constitution Week observance Thursday.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Roy V. Smith. The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Stan Knox, DAR program chairman for Constitution Week, after Mrs. Jeff Smart led the opening ritual and Mrs. Joe Reinauer the singing of The Star-Spangled Banner.

"The Constitution is the backbone of our nation that cannot be changed by a whim of either minority or majority groups.... a fundamental primer to promote public welfare and maintain justice," Gulley said. "Since it was written some 183 years ago it has been amended only 25 times and this includes our Bill of Rights."

The Texas Constitution was discussed, with the seven proposed amendments to be voted upon this fall.

Mrs. L. W. Norvell, chairman of national defense, reviewed an address by Robert Morris, president of the University of Plano, at the DAR Continental Congress last April, on the subject, "We Cannot Become a Second Class Power."

Morris stressed the moral crises in America and the need of American power to prevent world conquest by Communism, Mrs. Norvell said; he urged all citizens to stand up for the defense of America and to elect legislators who will keep the nation strong.

Negro Sorority Begins 1st Year At Texas Tech

LUBBOCK — Delta Sigma Theta is beginning its first year on the Texas Tech University campus.

This nationally-known group is the first black sorority to colonize at Tech. While the membership is not restricted by race, the sorority has a history of being for black women.

"We do not want to separate ourselves from the rest of the campus but we do feel that everyone needs some group to belong to," said Ria Blount, president of Delta Sigma Theta. "There are very few black students at Tech now. We hope that our organization will encourage more blacks to come here because they will have a group with which they can identify."

Delta Sigma Theta is "a public service sorority intended to form a closer union among college women and to establish and maintain high cultural, intellectual and moral standards among its members."

"Our sorority is dedicated more to community service than to social activity on the campus," said Miss Blount. Each month the girls have a project which they hope will benefit the community, she said. This month they worked with the Jerry Lewis Telethon.

The national organization of Delta Sigma Theta was founded at Howard, a negro university in Washington, D. C. On the occasion of its 50th anniversary, John F. Kennedy, the late president of the U. S., addressed the convention and complimented members on their service to the nation.

The sorority is based on a five-point program to promote mental health, housing and urban development, community and international involvement, educational involvement and economic development.

Since the sorority is new on campus, it will not participate in a typical rush operation this year. Instead, members are planning a get-acquainted tea to which all interested Tech women are invited. The tea will be scheduled for some time late in September. The present active membership is 12 girls.

In order to pledge, a girl must be a sophomore, have a 2.0 grade point average and have a desire to work to help others, said Miss Blount.

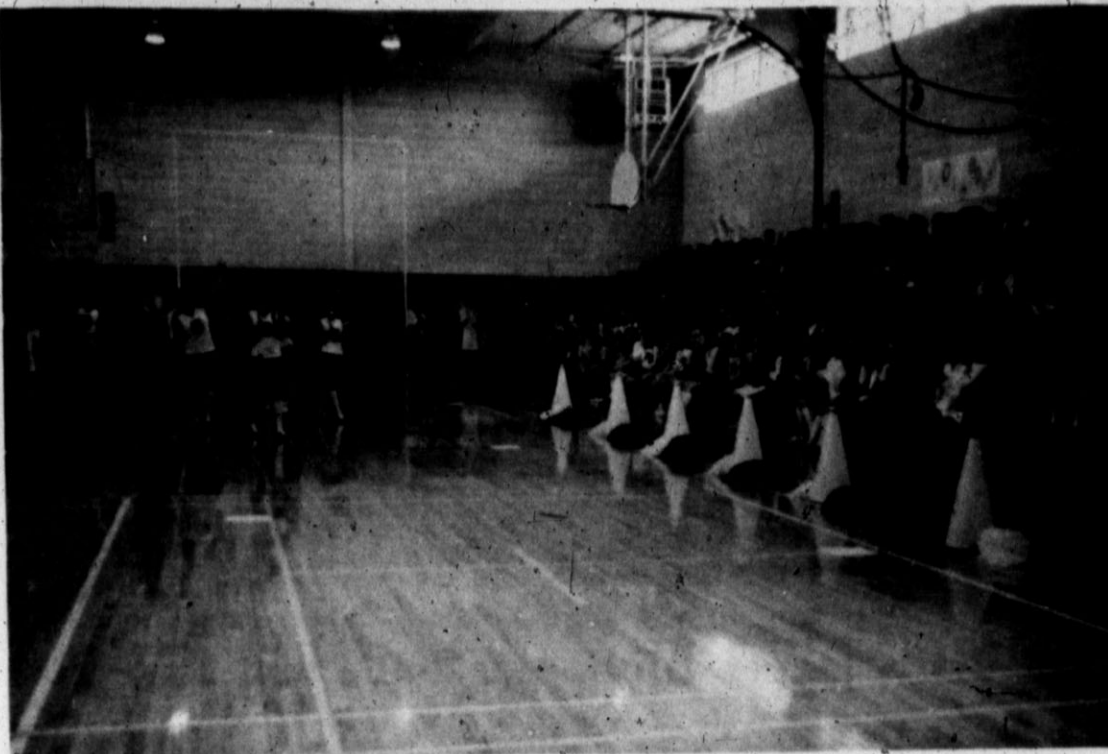

Pledges will become members of the Pyramid Club, which covers the transitional period between pledgeship and initiation into the active life of the sorority.

The sorority works closely both with its faculty sponsor, Mrs. Erlinda Clark, part-time instructor in economics and business administration, and the alumni sponsor, Mrs. Willie Lusk Lubbock.

The motto of Delta Sigma Theta is "Intelligence is the torch of wisdom." Its mascot is a duck. Officers for this year are Miss Blount, president; Susan Metters vice-president; Virginia Edmondson, secretary; Stephanie Williams, assistant secretary; Brenda Harvey, treasurer; Karen Johnson, journalist and historian; Bobby Diamond, chaplain; Roslyn Williams sergeant-at-arms, and Sharon Patrick, parliamentarian.

La Plata Frosh Seek To Match Stanton Victory

The La Plata Mavericks, fresh off a season-opening win over the Pampa ninth grade will travel to Dumas Thursday for a 4 p. m. encounter with the Imps.

The LaPlata eighth grade will also open its season Thursday when it meets the Dumas eighth grade in Dumas.

While La Plata won its opener with Pampa Lee, 14-0, Dumas met a bitter defeat Thursday at the hands of the Stanton Dogies, 12-6.

Wayne Schumacher and James Waits accounted for the only two Maverick scores at Pampa, with Schumacher scoring on a two-yard plunge in the second quarter and Waits bursting loose from the 35 for the other touchdown.

James Harris, who averaged 6.5 yards on 28 carries, scored a two-point conversion from eight yards out to end the scoring for the visiting Mavericks. Waits carried the ball seven times for 65 yards, quarterback Jim Marsh carried 12 times for 47 yards, Schumacher had 95 yards on 19 carries and Harris was the leading rusher with his 153 yards.

The Mavericks got 14 first downs and although they failed to make any yardage by passes, the offense put together 300 yards rushing.

Scoring: LaPlata — Wayne Schumacher 2 run (run fails)

LaPlata — James Waits 35 run LaPlata — Wayne Schumacher 2 run (run fails)

LaPlata — James Waits 35 run (James Harris run)

Washington Senator pitchers hurled only five complete games in the first 76 games the American Leaguers played this season.

If At First You Don't Succeed . . .

Wesley High broke loose and headed down field for a 80-yard touchdown in Thursday's junior varsity game with Borger, but a holding penalty nullified the score and the Longhorn's Bruce Barrett had to punt the ball away.

. . . Try, Try Again

But, on the next Hereford possession, High got the call again and this time went 74 yards for another touchdown on the same play. Again, the run was followed by a kick, but this time for the extra point, by Wm Short. —Photos by Tommy Koelzer

Hereford JV's Bulldoze Over Borger, 46-7

LEADS ATTACK — Micki Ward (40), Stanton running back, picks up yardage against the Dumas Imps in a game Thursday which the locals won 12-6. Ward accounted for both of the Stanton touchdowns.

Sophomore running back Terry Champ scored on long-distance passes of 42 and 60 yards from soph quarterback Keith Kitchens and raced 83 yards with a kickoff for another touchdown to lead the Hereford Junior Varsity to a lopsided 46-7 decision Thursday over the Borger JVs.

The Longhorns, whose next game is at 4 p. m. Thursday against the Palo Duro JV's here, rolled to a 34-7 halftime lead before letting up the pressure. Linebacker Win Short, pulled in a Borger pass and went five yards for one touchdown and kicked two extra points, all in the first half.

Kitchens, in addition to his two TD tosses to Champ, combined with Bruce Barrett for a two-point conversion pass after Short's interception return. Charles Allison connected with Ralph Waits on a 23-yard scoring strike.

High both broke loose for long scoring runs. Rodriguez went 50 yards to send Hereford into an early 7-0 lead.

In the third quarter High went around left end on an 80-yard TD journey, but the play was called back because of holding and the JV's had to punt. On the next possession, High got the call on the same play, however, and this time he went 74 yards and it stood up.

Stanton, Behind Micki Ward, Trim Dumas Freshmen

The Stanton Dogies will pursue their second victory in as many outings at 5:30 p. m. Thursday in a game at Whiteface Stadium against the Dimmitt freshmen.

Stanton's seventh and eighth grades will open their seasons week after next — on Tuesday, Sept. 28 — in games here with Plainview Estacado White, that start at 5 p. m.

Micki Ward's touchdown runs of 19 and 8 yards led the Dogies to a 12-6 victory over Dumas last Thursday. Two defensive plays by Chip Guseman played a key role in the outcome.

Guseman's interception deep in Stanton territory with only 48 seconds remaining killed off the last Dumas hope.

It was also Guseman who recovered a fumble on the Dumas 29 in the fourth quarter that set Stanton up for its first touchdown after a scoreless first half. The Dogies marched in to the 19, where Ward took a pitchout and broke for the score. A pass try to Ward for the extra points failed.

On the next Dogie possession, Ward ran eight yards for the touchdown. Again, the extra points pass attempt was no good, and Stanton led 12-0 with only 4:29 left in the game.

Dumas scored its only touchdown from 16 yards out with 1:22 remaining. The Imps came back with another threat moments later but Guseman ended it.

Alfalfa Should Grow Well Here, Specialist Says With the upswing in cattle feeding in this area in recent years, alfalfa has also come into great demand because of the use of the crop in cattle rations. According to a report by Ed Garnett, area farm management specialist, and Frank Petr, area agronomist, many feedlots are presently including alfalfa in the ration. The experts say the area is missing out on a good opportunity for investment because much of the alfalfa being used in area feedlots is being imported from outside the Texas Panhandle - mostly from Colorado and New Mexico. Because of the extreme water requirements of the crop, farmers should take caution in considering growing alfalfa in the cropping rotation, the specialists say. Alfalfa requires almost twice as much water than crops such as grain sorghum or cotton. Production of alfalfa offers a number of alternatives to the producer because it can be produced for hay, silage, green chop, dehydrated feed, pasture or seed. Recent development of labor-saving equipment has also added to the interest in growing alfalfa. Commercial companies are now contracting for standing or windrowed hay and this makes it possible for the farmers to produce alfalfa without the large investment in harvesting equipment and with a minimum labor requirement. A number of varieties have been developed which are suited to the climate and conditions of the Panhandle. They are Cody, Buffalo, Lahontan and Zia. Earliest reference to rodeo activities is 1847. Place: Santa Fe, New Mexico. B-11-23-fc

School Toured By Club

A close look at the new Terra Blanca Elementary School building, with its equipment for non-graded teaching, was taken by LaPlata Study Club members at a recent meeting when Mrs. Philip Shook, wife of the school's principal, was hostess.

Shook conducted a tour of the building and answered questions after Mrs. Shook had explained the use of this type of school, and what educators hope to accomplish with it.

Mrs. Tom Harkey, president, directed a business meeting in which members voted to join other women's organizations here in supplying transportation for Kings Manor residents.

Mrs. Shook served refreshments from a table centered with fall flowers arranged in an owl-shaped ceramic container. Twenty members were present.

H.D. CHATTER
1888 Book Interesting
By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

The county delegates to THDA State Meeting report a very good time at Galveston, but admit being concerned over the high water and wind.

Judge "Hank" Williams let us borrow one of the most interesting books. It is the report of the Commissioner of Agriculture 1887, published by the Government Printing Office in 1888.

There is a section on irrigation, to quote, "When available supplies of water are exhausted there is still a resource that should command the early consideration of Congress — the building of reservoirs among the mountains for the storage of an immense volume of water which is now wasted in spring floods, causing in part, the spring rise in the Lower Mississippi, sometimes so disastrous.

Thus would the resources of the cultivators of the Rocky Mountains slopes be doubled, and the destruction of hundreds of thousands of acres of corn and cotton be obviated by the same beneficial measure, attesting its utility as well as its nationality of constitutionality."

These comments were made two years after Deaf Smith County was created and two years before the organization in 1890. When the pioneers wanted to separate Deaf Smith from its attachment to Oldham County, for judicial purposes, there were 180 signatures on the petition. Little did these 180 persons realize that water availability in 1970 would be a grave matter.

Thanks, Judge, for letting us enjoy this yearbook of Agriculture.

To J. M. Posey and others who like descriptive names for cats: we still miss Old Brother Black who served the Draper's household for 17 years.

It seems that one of Brother Black's nine lives has returned to us. He has been christened Little Black who has already shown signs of becoming a character. He evidently adopted a pen of pigs for his family as he eats pig chow and sleeps with the hogs.

Last week Jim Combs of Gallup, and formerly of Hereford, visited here. He commented on a Siamese cat that blessed their household.

The cat who kept his kittenish ways for years was named Kit T (initial only) Cat. He'd hide and jump out from behind doors and scare people as well as bite and bluff his way just about everywhere. He handled the family in the exact way he wanted them to behave and gave the family squishy feelings about what he was thinking and planning to do to torment them.

He served a long useful life and entertained the family well. Too, he didn't show favorites as he seemed to have enough love and affection for all family members.

We were very happy to visit

Some people can always top a good story. One of those persons is Roberta Campbell, who in giving a hostess report at Home Demonstration Club told that she has sold 15,000 ears of sweet corn and 200 bushels of black-eyed peas.

Mrs. H. D. Fowler is entering decorative arrangement of sorghum grains at the Tri-State Fair. This is always a large section and the competition is high, also the prizes. The arrangements can be natural color or tinted.

The members of the Sweet & Fancy Club are taking cakes to the Fair. They are very good as they are so interested and spend time in perfecting their decorations.

Congratulations to Rev. Gene Brock who was nominated as Rural Minister of the Year. We hear from state office that he is being sent a certificate to be presented to him. The Bippus Community was very glad to nominate their minister to give recognition for a job well done by their minister.

Needle Club's Guest Presents Book Review

Humor and good common sense in the book, Gee Whiz, I'm Old, entertained Mothers Needle Club members Thursday afternoon when a guest, Mrs. Hardy Benson, reviewed it at the meeting in Mrs. Ralph Paul's home.

Mrs. Benson conveyed the author's gift of comedy along with advice on adapting to the advance of age as painlessly as possible.

The hostess was presented birthday gifts from her club and other friends.

Cookies and punch were served to the guests and Mmes. Earl Cole, A. H. Cook, Haskell Benson, Adam Flowers, W. T. Gunstenson, C. N. McClure, Cordie Battey, Jewel Awtry and J. L. Shirley.

Ambrosia is a word from the Greek language meaning immortality. It was the food of the Roman and Greek gods.

John Sublett, Bride At Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Wayne Sublett are at home in University Apartments 12, Canyon, after a trip to Colorado and New Mexico which followed their recent marriage in Stratford. Mrs. Sublett is the former Miss Cynthia Mae Close of that city.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Sublett of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Close of Stratford.

The wedding was solemnized in the Church of Christ with Dean Morgan officiating. Miss Linda Waldrop was the maid of honor and Troy Sublett of Hereford his brother's best man.

Ushers were Dan Rahlf and Mike Goad.

Mark Pond and Fred Goad, cousins of the bride, lighted tapers in a central candelabrum and larger candelabra on either side, which were twined with smilax and stephanotis. Basket of bronze and yellow mums completed the altar setting.

Wedding music was by Miss Lorraine Mehner, soloist, and a cappella chorus.

A gown of satin and lace was worn by the bride, with a band of lace around the high neckline and down the front opening which fastened with tiny buttons to the hem. Lace edged her bouffant veil which extended to form a train. She carried a bouquet of white mums and English ivy.

Her attendant's dress was of yellow nylon with long skirt gathered to a high waistline. Her flowers were bronze and yellow mums.

Miss Kathy Sneed of Lubbock registered guests at the reception in the church fellowship hall. Miss Marka Coble, Mrs. Horace Sneed and Mrs. H. H. Caraway served the wedding cake and punch at a table appointed with gold and crystal and decorated with mums.

The bride attended West Texas State University and Panhandle State College after graduation from Stratford High School. She pledged Zeta Tau Alpha last spring.

An employe of Southwest Feed Yards, the bridegroom is a graduate of WTSU with a degree in agriculture business. He was graduated from Hereford High School. His fraternity is Phi Delta Theta.

His parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding, at Koni Kai Restaurant in Dumas.

Farm-Ranches Told Of Trip

Excitement and pleasures of her recent trip to Hawaii were shared by Mrs. W. B. Nunley with other members of Farm and Ranch Club at a luncheon Thursday in the home of Mrs. Phillip Miller.

The club began meetings after the summer vacation, and welcomed a new member, Mrs. J. B. Odum.

Mrs. Nunley described island scenes and told of travel experiences. The trip was made principally to visit two sons, Ronnie, who is stationed in Hawaii, and Ricky, who was on leave from the Viet Nam combat area, but there was time for sightseeing also.

Mrs. W. W. Thomas, president for the new season, conducted business and announced that Mrs. Nunley will be hostess for the next meeting, Oct. 15.

A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. The hostess gift was presented to Mrs. J. V. Perrin.

Others present were Mmes. C. T. Douglas, J. E. Sorrels, Paul Rudd, Jack Weaver and John E. Hill.

Bay View Begins Year With Tea

Civic activities of a new club year interested members of Bay View Study Club at their reassembly tea Thursday in the home of Mrs. Homer Powell. Others on the social committee, Mmes. Si Darling, Bruce Burney, Ansel McDowell and Jack Wilcox, assisted as hostesses.

Financial aid to the planned parenthood program of the new County Free Clinic here was voted in a business session with Mrs. Colby Conkright presiding.

Members also decided on more substantial assistance, personal and financial, to Elu Canda Horizon Club, a Camp Fire group which has been sponsored by Bay View Club several years. Mrs. Earnest Langley, a Bay View member, is the group leader.

A letter from Palmer Norton, president of Deaf Smith County Historical Society, was read to thank members for conducting educational tours of the county museum last year. This work will be continued by the club.

Mrs. Tom Sawyer, chairman Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine and Mrs. H. L. Benefield, members of the program committee, presented the 1970-71 yearbooks and Mrs. Sawyer outlined the program for the new season, titled Women's Role in the 70's.

Tea was served from a table brightened with gold mums.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. E. J. McMillan, a former member who has moved back to Hereford from Lubbock; Mrs. Ruth Budlong, Mrs. Buz Gillentine of Dallas and Miss Ro Ann Humphrey.

Mrs. A. M. Jones, an honorary member who is the only charter member still on club rolls, was present as were Mmes. J. R. Allison, Herman Ford, W. J. Gilliland, James T. Hull, Wilson Humphrey, W. S.

Informal Party Given Friday

An informal neighborhood party was given Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. S. N. Thweatt in the Garcia community in far western Deaf Smith County. The hostess served homemade doughnuts, coffee and tea.

Mrs. Gail McMullen and Mrs. Leo Webb of Amarillo, Mrs. John Jones and Mrs. H. C. Muse of Hereford were guests with Mmes. John E. Hill, Phillip Miller, Bill Page, Gene Bradley, Eldred Brown and Jerry Northcutt.

CARD OF THANKS

Please let us take this means to express our thanks and gratitude to all of our friends and neighbors who were concerned for Tom's welfare. We would especially thank the doctors, the kind nurses and the entire hospital staff.

DSCF Board Meets

Final plans for the fall meeting of Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs on Sept. 29 were made at a board session Thursday in the home of Mrs. C. D. Kelton, president.

Mrs. Kelton emphasized that the meeting, a covered dish luncheon at 12:30 and program afterward at Community Center, will be open to all women of the county, and newcomers are especially invited. Membership of clubs and individuals in the Federation is also open.

Hostess clubs for Sept. 29 are Bud to Blossom, with Mrs. Bill Nelson as president; La Afflubus Estadio, Mrs. A. H. Cook president, and Music Study Club, Mrs. Dale Young president.

The program will feature a talk by Joy Miller Dones, former Hereford resident who has lived abroad at stations of her husband, an Air Force officer. She will tell of experiences in Libya while the big U. S. air base in that North African country was being closed.

Board members also discussed business to be presented to members at the general meeting.

Area Civic Clubs Name Sweethearts For 1970-71

By JANIE REINART
Staff Writer

PATTY NOWOTNY KIWANIS CLUB

Area civic clubs each year nominate candidates and elect a high school girl to serve as their Sweetheart for one year. She is usually a musician who plays piano at each meeting and does secretarial work when necessary. She is required to attend all meetings and special events sponsored by the club.

Miss Patty Nowotny, 17-year-old senior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Nowotny of Route 4, was selected from five candidates as Kiwanis Club Sweetheart for 1970-71.

She says she enjoys attending the Kiwanis meetings each Thursday. She plays the piano, contacts committees when necessary and visits sick members of the club. Patty is secretary of the Youth Council at First Baptist Church. High school activities include choir, FTA and Tri-Hi-Y.

The Nowotnys moved to Hereford last year from Gulf Port, Mississippi. Patty was born in San Antonio and has a younger brother and sister.

She plans to attend junior college in San Antonio next fall.

SUZANNE SOLOMON EVENING LIONS CLUB

This year's Evening Lions Club Sweetheart says she is glad to have the chance to know the Lions and feels they are a great bunch of men.

Miss Suzanne Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Solomon of 500 Star, meets with the Evening Lions every Monday evening.

A 17-year-old senior, she takes active part in Tri-Hi-Y and National Honor Society. She is co-editor of the Roundup and is one of seven HHS twirlers.

Miss Solomon attends Wesley Methodist Church regularly and teaches first, second and third grade Sunday school classes. She is president of the United Methodist Youth organization and plays piano for the church.

Born in Memphis, Tex., Suzanne came to Hereford in 1961 from Andrews. She plans to major in elementary education at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, Okla. next year.

SAMMIE VINSON KIWANIS WHITEFACE BREAKFAST CLUB

Following in the footsteps of her sister, Edlana Vinson who was sweetheart in 1968, Sammie Vinson attends weekly Friday morning meetings as Kiwanis Whiteface Breakfast Club Sweetheart.

Miss Vinson is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Vinson, 227 Star.

Her duties as sweetheart include playing piano at meetings and reminding directors of meeting on Monday mornings.

She is a senior, was recently elected SCAT, and is a member of the Spiritual Swingers singing group of First Baptist Church. She is also in choir at high school.

AN IMPORTANT SEMINAR On MIND CONTROL and "ALPHA DYNAMICS"

For Everyone Interested In Developing Mental Power

On April 2nd, NBC Television carried a Science News Special—"The Unexplained," narrated by Rod Serling—in which one of the most fantastic breakthroughs in modern psychology was discussed. This new science deals with the conscious control of brain waves—the electrochemical activity of the brain. This new science is called Alphasenics, and concerns itself with the Alpha Rhythms of the brain. Dr. Joseph Kamiya, researcher at the University of California, demonstrated on national TV how students can learn to control their brain waves and discussed some of the phenomenal capabilities of man with self-control of his brain waves.

There are four principal brainwave rhythms: the Beta-wave, associated with the outer conscious levels, tension, anxiety, physical activity, etc.; the Alpha-wave, associated with inner-levels of mental activity, tranquility, inspiration, creativity, E.S.P., healing processes, memory, learning, day-dreaming, and other phenomena; Theta-waves, which is related to deeper inner meditation, mental control of pain, and finally the Delta-waves, which are found in deep sleep or total unconsciousness.

Exploration of this almost unknown continent—the human brain—has been pioneered by a soft-spoken parapsychologist, Jose Silva, of the Institute of Psychorientology, of Laredo, Texas. This sincere, dedicated scientist has been training people to control their brain waves for many years.

"Twenty-five years ago Silva and his associates began their research in Mind Control, to see if it was possible to increase a person's I.Q. factor. Amazingly, Silva discovered that not only could I.Q. be increased but a person trained in this technique could even control certain areas of the Autonomic Systems, heart beat, respiration, body temperature, etc. The implications of this breakthrough with regards to health and disease was staggering. With Mind Control, it was found that a person could banish pain, accelerate healing, eliminate insomnia, migraine headaches, as well as untold psychosomatic problems.

As research continued, an amazing discovery was made. Volunteer students were found to be surprisingly sensitive to the feelings and emotional attitudes of others. In other words they became more intuitive. In-depth studies revealed that anyone with a normal brain and sufficient training could develop so-called E.S.P. and clairvoyance. Alpha Brain Wave Control actually enables anyone to become a superior human being.

ALPHA BRAIN WAVE CONTROL—Three years ago, the directors of the Institute of Psychorientology, decided they were ready to release their findings to the general public, and offer the M. C. Training Program to everyone interested in developing a better mind.

10,000 GRADUATES—COAST TO COAST—Now there is no longer any doubt as to the great value of this astounding method of self-improvement. Techniques had been improved and refined to the point that only a few hours of classroom instruction were all that was required to train a truly effective person. LEARN SPECIFIC TECHNIQUES—Once you have mastered Alpha Wave Control you can totally relax anytime you desire; banish insomnia, anxiety, tension, have greater artistic ability, eliminate pain; enhance your learning capacity; have more vitality and energy; be more successful in your business and personal life; eliminate bad habits, create good habits; control your weight, smoking, etc.; improve your self-confidence and assurance, and become truly happy; learn techniques to help your loved ones in a dramatic and effective way regardless of their problems; be a better student, parent, employee, or boss; become a truly effective problem solver; and much, much more.

SILVA METHOD OF MIND CONTROL—Alpha brain wave control literally opens the door to the "Promise Land"—the kingdom within. Through simple, easily learned techniques you can have your heart's desires, be the person you want to be.

RESULTS GUARANTEED—It sounds almost too good to be true, yet the facts are that with Silva Mind Control "Almost Nothing is Too Good To Be True." Learn how to use the key that unlocks the door to your inner-conscious mind and release the abundant wealth, power, and possibilities within.

PORNOGRAPHY REPORT CREATES LARGE DEBATE

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The majority report of the President's Commission on Pornography has sparked a lively debate here with significance that extends far beyond the question of dirty books and movies.

The commission, appointed three years ago by President Johnson, found "no evidence" linking pornography to sex crimes or to a "detrimental impact upon moral character, sexual orientation or attitudes of young people." Therefore, the commission called for the repeal of laws controlling exposure of pornography to adults.

But while the commission was probing pornography, a congressional subcommittee was probing the commission and its investigation. To put it mildly, the congressmen did not like what they found.

In the words of one congressman, "This was a tragic waste of $2 million of taxpayers' money."

Dr. Victor Cline, professor of psychology at the University of Utah, charged in testimony before the House Postal Operations Subcommittee that the commission's report in an almost Alice in Wonderland type of distortion of the actual evidence.

He said the commission had deliberately omitted evidence favoring traditionalist views on pornography and that the amount of time given to actual experiments was far too brief to reach valid conclusions.

SIXTEEN ERRORS—He offered 16 specific examples of major errors in the commission's investigations and conclusion. A discussion of one alleged fault is typical.

In the commission report it quotes a researcher for the Kinsey Sex Research Institute as saying his study found sex criminals were sexually unresponsive to stories of rape, violence and torture. But Dr. Cline points out that the commission ignored or refused to state that the Kinsey researcher was referring only to one type sex offender out of 21 types studied by the institute. And this research, Dr. Cline revealed, was based on a "verbal self report" by the sex offenders, uncorroborated.

When the professor examined the original Kinsey Institute data, he found that certain types of sex offenders score "extremely high on being sexually aroused by pornography." But this data will not be found in the commission's report.

Dr. Cline contended that the commission used "mother-type" middle-aged housewives who had no experience in asking questions on sex as interviewers in certain studies.

Where Does An Attorney's Public Responsibility End?

The publicity this week over the pay received by court appointed lawyers brings up the age old question of where an attorney's public service responsibility ends and at what point the citizenry as a whole must contribute.

Attorneys are now being paid the minimum fee of $25 per case when appointed by the court to represent clients, usually juveniles. The attorneys feel that the $25 fee is out-of-line and the result is that county and district judges are having difficulty in finding attorneys "available" to represent clients. Certainly, a judge has the authority to appoint any attorney he wishes and the attorney is obligated to serve regardless of his desires but most judges try to cooperate with attorneys in this matter and few want to force the issue. An attorney's time, after all, is his "stock in trade" and it isn't reasonable to mire an attorney in public service work at the expense of his private practice. Also, in years past, it has been the practice to appoint young attorneys who are in the process of "building" their trade thus exposing them to the public as well as giving them an opportunity to try cases in court.

But young attorneys, like other citizens, must earn a living and it's extremely difficult to maintain an office with all the related expenses and to provide for himself and his family on $25 when they could be earning more in their private law offices. On the other hand, if the fee were raised to $50 per case as the County judge attempted to do recently, the situation would ease considerably and the courts would likely find more attorneys willing to serve. The cost then would be spread among all county citizens and the local attorneys would no longer have to bear the brunt of the load.

A Well-Deserved Honor

Too often in our fast moving society the efforts of an individual to help his fellow citizens and to better the community in which he lives will go unrecognized. But this week the members of Kings Manor Founders Association awarded a life membership in the organization to a local citizen who has served as president since its beginning in 1966. That man was Hugh Clearman.

But Hugh Clearman's service to the community did not start with Kings Manor Foundation, nor will it end there. He has been in the middle of worthwhile community activities constantly since coming to Hereford in the mid-40s and has always been willing to offer a helping hand when needed. He is currently serving on the Hereford Independent School Board of Trustees, is active in church work and has been an inspiration to fellow workers in Kings Manor Foundation. And the list of youngsters to whom he has given help and guidance during his many years as County Agent would probably fill these columns many times over.

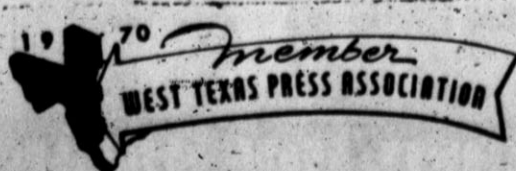

We join with members of Kings Manor Foundation and add our sincere "thanks" to Hugh Clearman. He has been an outstanding citizen.

Over and over again, things are being done in the same routine way because very few people ever ask, "Why can't we find a new or better way? How can it be done at less cost?" It isn't easy to look at one's own job with a fresh new look. It's sometimes difficult to look at a job in a different perspective, but it's very rewarding when you do. Little ideas and subtle changes become obvious, and you wonder, "Why didn't I think of that before? It was right there in front of me!" More people are looking for excuses why not to try a new approach than are looking for new approaches. We cannot simply respond to change. We must initiate it.

Incentive Works Best

Appeals to the individual instinct of self-preservation are far less effective in accident prevention than the application of the incentive motive. This appears to be the only conclusion that can be drawn from the spreading practice of business firms to offer employees tangible rewards for maintenance of accident-free work records.

With many firms, trading stamps have become popular. accident-prevention incentives. Since most U. S. families save trading stamps, stamp giving in the cause of accident prevention has a double appeal to the family breadwinner. The way the idea works, in the case of one large trading stamp company, is comparatively simple. A firm has 200 employees may have a high accident rate. It decides to do something about it.

A bulletin is sent out to all employees and wives stating they will receive 1,000 stamps each month for no lost-time accidents with a bonus of 1,000 each third month. In addition, each department as a team will divide 5,000 stamps if no lost-time accidents occur. Reportedly, these incentive-type accident prevention programs, based on the ubiquitous trading stamp, are proving highly productive: accidents are cut, and insurance rates are down.

Accident prevention, via trading stamps, shows once again the virtues of voluntarism. Ten thousand regulations and an army of government rule enforcers are no match for little pieces of paper that offer something instead of nothing for the simple act of practicing caution at work. And so it is with the entire free market with its promotion and advertising. Voluntary action, based on incentives, is a master spring that keeps the mechanism running smoothly with consumers having the final say by exercising their right of free choice.

Shocking Arrogance

A new high in official arrogance came to light when the sharp eyes of news reporters and commentators spotted a provision in a new law levying an excise tax on airline fares and forbidding travel agencies from showing the tax on tickets.

The law also dictated a $100 fine for any airline employee or travel agency telling a customer of the tax. This is indeed shocking behavior from the same holier-than-thou legislative body that has bills we have heard about in recent years.

Not only did a majority of congressmen seek to hide the truth, but they acted as well to muzzle the exercise of free speech. This particular instance of the arrogance of officialism is an affront to the sensibilities of every citizen and demonstrates once again the meaning of that timeless expression, eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

Public servants who seek to hide the truth from the people who have elected them to posts of responsibility in government are not to be trusted.

Shoplifters will soon learn to steer clear of the meat counter. What with today's prices, they're likely to find themselves facing the more serious charge of "theft over $50." — Ottawa Journal

MAIN STREET, U. S. A.

California Liberal Proposes New Constitution For U.S.

Washington, D. C. — America's 153-year-old Constitution is out of date and needs to be rewritten, some deep thinkers in California have decided, and after years of study they have come up with a new draft they hope will serve as the starting point for a new Federal charter.

Principal author of the drastically revised Constitution is Rexford G. Tugwell, a 79-year-old ex-professor who was a key member of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's "brain trust" in Washington back in the 1930s. He is now a senior fellow of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions in Santa Barbara, Calif.

An earlier generation of editorial writers labeled Tugwell as "Rex the Red." However, he was never a party line Communist and denounced the regimentation of communism and fascism. To be sure, he was and is an advanced thinker, with ideas far to the left of most Americans. As Assistant Secretary and Undersecretary of Agriculture during his days in Washington, Tugwell became one of the most vilified officials of his time.

Tugwell is not one to pay homage to respected institutions and traditions dear to most Americans. For example, his redraft of the Constitution would abolish the Supreme Court and replace it with a lesser body whose decisions could be overridden by a new all-powerful Senate.

U.S.A. Would Become U.R.A. Even the name of our nation would disappear under the Tugwell plan. Our basic philosophy of a nation of sovereign states would be scrapped in favor of a United Republics of America. Instead of states, there would be 20 or less regional "Republics," each with at least 5 percent of the national population.

Boundaries of the "Republics" would change as population shifted. "Republics" would have powers similar to the states, but if the Senate decided the government of a "Republic" was corrupt or inept, that government could be removed by Senate edict.

The Senate would differ greatly from our present Senate, and would resemble the British House of Lords. Under the Tugwell plan, Senators would serve for life, and its members would be former high officials such as ex-Presidents and Vice Presidents, plus men named by the President the judiciary and the House of Representatives.

The House would be reduced from 435 to 400 members, and 100 of them would be elected at large on a national basis. The other 300 would represent geographical areas as at present. Committee chairmen would be selected by the leadership and none could serve longer than six years. The Senate could veto all House bills except the annual budget.

Professor Tugwell would have the President elected for a single nine-year term, but the electorate could unseat him if dissatisfied after three years by a 60 percent repudiation vote. He would concentrate on directing foreign and domestic policy, and would have no responsibility over administrative agencies.

Two Vice Presidents would be elected. The President would designate which one ranked first in succession, and which would be in charge of general affairs and which would direct internal affairs. The Supreme Court would be replaced by a High Court of the Constitution, High Court of Appeal, and several special courts. A Principal Justice would head the judiciary but instead of a life term he would serve for 12 years.

Planner Tugwell would provide for planning in the Constitution, with a Planning Board to be appointed by the President to prepare not only annual budgets but six-year and twelve-year development plans. Regulatory agencies would be appointed by a regulator who would head a national board to make rules.

Amendments to the Constitution would be proposed by a council of judges, approved by the President and Senate, and ratified by a majority in a national election. After five Presidential terms, the entire Constitution could be rewritten, subject to ratification in an election.

Tugwell said most of his Santa Barbara associates endorse his major recommendations, but that more drafts are planned. He hopes for a public reaction to his plan. Chances are he will get it and it will be negative.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Texas' first capital was located in Louisiana, near the present town of Robeline in the land of the Adae Indians!

Its founder was Louis Jicheau St. Denis, a French officer who had left Mobile in 1713 to promote trade between the French and Spanish. En route to Texas, he founded Natchitoches, the first settlement in Louisiana.

After arriving at Presidio Del Norte on the Rio Grande, he met and married Manuela de Sanchez Ramon, granddaughter of the post commander, and decided to throw in his lot with the Spanish. In 1717, he guided a Spanish expedition back toward Natchitoches to promote trade with the French. At Robeline, only 12 miles from the French post, he stopped and built the Mission San Miguel de Linares de los Adaes.

Ironically, this Spanish post, which was designed to prevent further French expansion to the west, owed its founding to a Frenchman.

In 1719, war broke out between France and Spain. The command of the Natchitoches post attacked Los Adaes and the Spanish abandoned the mission. Two years later, the Spanish returned, rebuilt the mission, added a fort and named it the headquarters and capital of Mexican Texas.

It remained so until it was abandoned in 1733 and San Antonio de Bexar became the new capital.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? — Bronte, Coke County, was named for the English novelist, Charlotte Bronte.

THE POSTMASTER AND THE PRESIDENT —

Among the problems facing President Benjamin Harrison in 1890 was that of finding a Republican to replace the Democrat who was postmaster of Redwater, Bowie County, Texas.

President Grover Cleveland had named E. T. Page, a local banker, storekeeper and civic leader to the position and Page had served well. But no Republican president could afford to keep a Democrat in charge of Redwater's mail and President Harrison was looking for a successor.

Then on January 8, 1890, Postmaster Page's wife gave birth to quadruplets and the family found itself on page one of every newspaper in the U. S. The baby girls named Faith, Hope, Charity and Patience by reporters before the parents could christen them — were a sensation. Gifts and money poured into their northeast Texas home and goodwill messages came from everywhere.

In the White House, President Harrison heard about the quadruplets and forgot all about political expediency. He decreed that Mr. Page's political loyalty was of no matter — he would stay on as postmaster of Redwater.

SONG OF NORWAY — In all of Bosque County there isn't a single mountain or fjord, but it is home to the largest settlement of Norwegians in the state.

Norse, the first Norwegian community in the county, was established shortly after the Legislature created Bosque County in 1854 and offered 320 acres of free land to any family who would settle there.

R. N. Mounts and J. H. Kelley, two of our foremost stockmen, broke this season's record on last Saturday when they delivered to Fagan & Wright of Kansas 662 head of yearling steers at the 6) high figure of $19. . . . On Thursday morning of last week, between the hours of 6 and 7, fire broke out in the hardware store of Guy Gamble at Texico and soon passed beyond the control of the local fire boys, consuming the building and its contents. The fire is supposed to have originated from the explosion of a lamp.

Superintendent Fertsch announced Monday night that on Monday, the first day of school for the new term, a total of 604 pupils were enrolled by the teachers at the High and Central schools. This is 57 more than last year. Captain John Estes, whose left arm was broken recently, went to Amarillo Monday and had an ex-risy examination made of the injured member. The accident which caused the trouble was a peculiar one. Captain Estes was standing on the street talking to friends when two big dogs, frolicking about ran pell-mell against him, upsetting his balance and causing him to fall on the cement sidewalk.

Six thousand finger-length fish were placed in Tierra Blanca Creek near Hereford, Monday brought from the state hatchery at Wichita Falls. The batch included calico bass, a member of the crappie family, bream and channel cat believed to be the first of this type ever brought here. The ranch home of E. W. Womble near Wildorado, was ransacked between 9 and 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and numerous articles of value were reported missing. Officers were searching for a gray pickup truck and two men, who were believed to have been involved in the robbery.

The First Methodist Church is paving a parking lot the old-fashioned way — with the help of its members — and getting it done fast. Since Bruce Miller was appointed chairman for the project by the board of directors, the ground has been leveled, stumps removed and 150 cubic yards of furnace tailings have been hauled from the smelter at Amarillo and unloaded on the ground. Adrain had quite a scare Friday about 11 a. m. when the alarm was given that the men painting the inside of the city water tank had been overcome by the fumes of the paint. Dee Bales had just come out to get fresh air and was talking to John Horton. Horton failed to answer and Bales knowing he could do little alone, went for help. W. C. Briggs rushed up the ladder and got Horton out, but in doing so passed out himself. Lewis Johnson was still in the tank and he was brought out where it was observed they all three were deathly sick.

Hereford once-again stands out as the fastest growing city in Texas as a state-wide survey of new construction during the first half of 1965 place this city at the top of the list on per capita basis. . . . U. S. Representative Walter Rogers was presented a 1965 auto by area farmers and businessmen at the Easter Pre-Harvest Festival Saturday night. Rogers, who has represented this congressional district for many years, was presented the auto "as a token of appreciation for his outstanding service to the district he represents." The surprise presentation highlighted the chicken fry dinner at Easter.

It Takes A Lot To Raise A Child

YHT To Give Cash For Local Day Care Work

Gifts to the new Day Care Center were voted by the Hereford chapter, Young Homemakers of Texas, at a recent meeting in the homemaking rooms of LaPlata School. Members were reminded that annual YHT Week begins Sept. 20.

Mrs. Carlton Richardson was hostess and Mrs. Conny Rountree was in charge of the program. Mrs. Bud Thomas presided for business, which included the decision to help provide transportation for residents at Kings Manor for shopping trips.

Members voted to give $25 to the Day Care Center now, and add the proceeds of a bake sale scheduled Nov. 25.

The program guest was Peggy Norman of Amarillo, who presented in interpretative movement the YHT Creed. Slides showing The Young Homemaker Story were also a part of the program.

In Deaf Smith County, under present conditions, how much does it cost to raise a child from birth to age 18?

Most parents have no idea of the overall amount. Beyond recalling that at certain stages along the line the costs were unusually large, sometimes staggeringly so, they have never thought about their total expenditure.

The finding is that the amount spent by parents in rearing a child varies from family to family but, in general, is closely related to income.

In some families, the outlay in the 18 years is equivalent to as much as 3.6 years of earnings, after taxes. In others, as little as 2.9 years of earnings are so spent. The average is slightly more than 3 years.

In Deaf Smith County, where net income per family is currently in the $8,000 to $9,000 range, on average, the cost per child comes to approximately $28,900.

With one exception, this financial burden is spread out over the years. The exception is the very first outlay — for the birth of the child. This averages $580. Medical needs thereafter are

Clothing expenses per child are figured at $3,790, making allowance for the fact that hand-

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

This has been a busy, busy week, but a very happy one. Visited several gardens, and received numerous phone calls, all of which makes me GLAD.

I visited the fern bed of Mrs. John Jacobsen Sr. and found it most interesting. The botanical name of the plant which she is growing is Achillea millefolium. It is a perennial plant, and does well in our area. The name of the variety is Achillea Millefolium Cherise Queen, and is known for its lovely ferny foliage and the clusters of pretty cherise florets.

They grow wild in Europe, and probably came to our country via Europe. I picked some of the fern fronds, also a sprig of the beautiful coleus (so colorful) and have a very pleasing bouquet on my window sill.

Have found that the fern is a good keeper, and very dainty and useful. Really when I visited the garden I was reminded of my mother, who also grew the same plants. Am going to watch the tiny plants which were coming up in the round beds by the front walk.

The cacti garden of Margaret Newell was most interesting. She has numerous beautiful, sedums, ground covers, and cacti. The one which was so unusual is very prominent in the garden, and is called Peruvian Monster. It came to Mrs. Newell from Peru, via California. Fascinating just to look at and study. It really looks like a monster, ready to spring or spread out.

Blooms only once, and that is at nighttime. Made a date to be present for the night watch-party when it gets ready to bloom. Landscaping at the Jorde Home was charming and I was delighted to see the entire design. Beautiful flowering roses, and petunias, the maroon petunias were so rich in coloring and texture.

An unusual tree which I always enjoy seeing is the Tylop tree at the Newsom home. The foliage is luxurious and the color of the trunk is very pretty. It is always delightful to see the roses, and did so enjoy making arrangements out of the lovely ones Mrs. Newsom shared with me. Soon there will be a bower of beautiful Fuschia Fairy chrysanthemums in bloom.

This chrysanthemum is one of the best growers of our area. Is dainty, good for border planting, and the color is most pleasing.

Other trees which are grown well in Hereford are the Willows. There are several varieties. Some of the most beautiful willow trees are at the Hilton Higgins home on 25 Mile Avenue (urban). I never go by this charming country home without slowing down to enjoy the willow trees. Their grace is an added attraction to home grounds, or for civic plantings.

The indoors garden of potted plants, and fountain at the Gaylord Newell home, was most interesting. There was a very sweet double violet (two-tone) that I noticed especially, as well as the wonderfully grown Rubber Plant.

September gardening chores: For indoor winter bloom, include some of the annuals growing in the garden. Such as Calendulas, Marigolds, Impatiens, (Sultana), Nasturtiums, Petunias (have tried these and they are very satisfying), Ageratum and Portulaca (Moss Rose). The last named is very effective when used in with large plants making a border planting for them.

Perennials recommended for potting are: Geraniums, Begonias, Amaryllis and miniature roses.

Life from garden soil now, carefully pot, keep shaded and spray lightly with tepid water until they have recovered from the shock of transplanting. Place where there will be in, at least half sunlight, cool temperature, and free from frost. When fully established take to place they are to winter.

Small Talk

By SUE COEMAN, Women's Editor

People who knew Jean Chapman when that English girl was an American Field Service student in Hereford High several years ago will be interested in news told in a letter which Mrs. Edgar Telchik lately received from Jean.

IT'S ABOUT THE BIRTH of a son, Mark Nicholas, on Aug. 3 to Mr. and Mrs. Chris Burton of 56 Lebanon Gardens, London S.W. 18, England. Mrs. Burton, of course, is the former Jean Chapman.

She lived in the Telchik home when she attended school here, and has kept in touch with her Hereford "parents" and other friends. When Mrs. Bob Wilson was on a tour of England some time ago, she had the pleasure of a visit with Jean in London.

THE CHURCH WHICH Katie McGehee joined as a child back in 1891, marked its 80th anniversary with a reunion of former members last weekend, and Katie with her daughter and son-in-law, Helen and Ross Stark, was among those present.

It is First United Methodist Church of Floydada, which was organized in 1890. Katie and her family were among the early members.

She enjoyed meeting a number of the former pastors as well as other acquaintances whom she had not seen in years — and also friends in Floydada whom she has visited in recent years.

A visit with her brother in Plainview was included in the trip southeastward. She had gone to a country home near Floydada the previous weekend as a guest at a golden wedding celebration of friends.

AFTER HAVING HER for a two-week visit, Mary Williamson took her mother, Mrs. Marla Ruffe, back to her home in Sun City, Ariz., this week. At the age of 82 Mrs. Ruffe enjoys visits with relatives all over the country, and recently traveled to Cincinnati.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS which added their charm to homes open on the tour sponsored Tuesday by Kings Manor Auxiliary, were made by members of two garden clubs, I've just learned.

The arrangers were Cora Gentry and Patricia Robbins of Bud to Blossom Club, Gladys Manjeot and Mozelle Childers of Hereford Garden Club.

Hand Care: When you come in from the garden with stained or grubby hands, put a teaspoon of salt into the soap lather as you wash. It cleans hands almost instantly. To keep nails in good shape, cream hands carefully, and push a good amount of the cream under the finger nails before starting garden chores.

At The Library

California In 1848

Available at the Deaf Smith County Library this week is the story of the people in California before and after the gold rush, of 1848. This novel tells why these people living in California before 1848 were there if not for gold. Also available is the story of a robin, unlike any other robin you've heard or read about. Check into them today.

CALICO PALACE
BY Gwen Bristow

Calico Palace is a story of men and women who lived in California at the time of the gold rush. But they were not the 49ers. They were the people who were there when it all began. They were the 48ers.

The gold of California was discovered in the early part of 1848; it took nearly a year for the news to reach the states on the Atlantic side of the continent. But the 48ers were in California already. They heard - and doubted - the first rumors of gold that drifted into the village of San Francisco (population 900 persons). When they could no longer doubt the rumors, they went up to the hills and came back staggering under the weight of the treasure they carried. They began the transformation of San Francisco from a frontier shantytown into one of the most brilliant cities in the world. They created the legends of the golden days.

The 48ers had not come to California looking for gold. Why then were they there? Why had they left their own civilized communities to make a dangerous journey five or six months long, with nothing at the end of it but a mudcaked settlement out at the end of the world?

Every one of them had a different reason. Often they were reasons they did not talk about. There was Kendra, who came to California because her stepfather was an army officer assigned to duty in San Francisco, and Kendra had come along with her mother, because while she knew they did not want her, nobody else wanted her either.

There was Ted, who said he had come West because he was bored with working in a law office in New York; Hiram, who had worked his way out as a sailor but did not say why; a pleasant fellow named Pocket, who had left a rich farm in Kentucky to join a wagon train, but did not say why either; Captain Pollock of the Cynthia, who had never loved a woman but was in love with his ship.

And Marny, an audacious redhead with a talent for card games, who went to the mining camp called Shiny Gulch to set up a gambling tent called the Calico Palace.

This story tells about these people and many others, people who left home and walked right into one of the most spectacular adventures in the world's history.

They saw the first samples of gold brought to the office of the army quartermaster, who officially said they were flakes of yellow mica. They were there when men who said they had seen gold in the creeks were laughed at and called "crack-brains."

They were part of it all from the beginning, and they laid the foundation of the golden empire before the first 49ers got there.

Some of them could not meet the demands of this strange new world, and crumpled up before it; others grew stronger, and shared the greatness of the country they had helped to build. Calico Palace tells about them all.

MR. TWEEDY

BY Anne Marie Schilling
One day in May 11-year-old David Schilling found a newly hatched robin - a not too pretty frog-like creature the size of a walnut. Nursed to health by hourly feedings of pre-chewed eggs, in one week Mr. Tweedy was a furry butterball.

From that day to the spring morning two years later when he followed the call of a little Mrs. Tweedy-to-be, the robin added joy and innumerable adventures to the lives of his adopted family.

When it came time for the family's planned trailer trip to Arizona, the question of what to do with Mr. Tweedy arose. In Mother's words, "I couldn't think of a single not-too-intelligent person whom I would dare ask to robin-sit."

That left only one alternative: "take him with us!" What they didn't know at that point was that this trip with a marvelous little traveling companion would change the course of her life.

Read in this venturesome tale how Mr. Tweedy turned groups of people who were strictly of the mind-your-own-business type into laughing, friendly neighbors.

Read how he taught himself to sing to the car radio, how he saved the family from carbon monoxide poisoning in a Buffalo parking lot; how he seemed to know instinctively when danger was imminent.

The Schillings knew that a day would eventually come when Mr. Tweedy would set out on his own and leave his family behind. What they didn't know, however, was that he would make several false starts. The day did come after two memorable years.

But at the end of the book,

Area Rally For TOPS Clubs To Be Held Here

North Plains Rally Day, expected to bring 400 TOPS Club members here as guests of the two Hereford clubs, will be on Oct. 3 with meetings in the high school auditorium.

A special guest to appear will be Mrs. Frank Short, former Hereford member who now lives in Tulsa, Okla., and has been designated the International KOPS Queen for this year. Gil Lamb of radio station KMUL at Muleshoe will be the principal speaker.

Comprising the North Plains Area are clubs over the Panhandle and as far southeast as Abilene. An international organization, TOPS takes its name from initials of its slogan, Take Off Pounds Sensibly.

Members who achieve their goal of weight reduction and then maintain the desired weight for a specified period are listed as KOPS, Keep Off Pounds Sensibly.

The local groups which will be Rally Day hostesses are Sugar Blues, with Mrs. Woody Mc Dermitt as leader, and Calorie Patrol, headed by Mrs. Melvin Jayroe.

Mrs. Leroy Williamson and Mrs. McDermitt have been designated as co-chairmen of Rally Day preparations, with Mrs. Elmore Rainis as program chairman and Mrs. Willis Dugan as corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Glenn Watts is chairman of decorations and Mrs. Richard Sims of awards.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. in the high school cafeteria, where coffee will be served for an hour. Programs, business sessions and a luncheon will fill the day. Mona Spencer of Plainview, area supervisor, will preside.

Theme for the day's programs is Make America Beautiful.

Vast Changes Cause Increase In Pensions In Deaf Smith County

The amount of money flowing into Deaf Smith County each month in the form of Federal retirement pensions has increased considerably in the last few years.

Because of the vast changes made in the social security law, the number of local beneficiaries and the size of their checks are greater than ever.

According to the official figures covering the past year, retirement and disability payments are now going to 1,663 persons in the local area, as compared with 1,105 four years ago.

Most of them are retired workers or their widows, children and parents. The others are disabled workers and their dependents.

The findings are contained in the annual report of the Social Security Administration. It lists, for every county in the United States, the number of people on the retirement rolls and the payments to them, as of the beginning of this year.

Nationally, there are more than 25 million men, women and children receiving benefits as against less than 21 million in 1965. They are collecting nearly $27 billion a year.

In Deaf Smith County, pension payments at the close of the year were at the annual rate per beneficiary of $851, in contrast to the 1965 rate of $750. A further increase is in effect at the present time, by virtue of legislation boosting benefits by 15 percent across the board.

Just how much a person or his dependents receive in retirement benefits depends upon the amount contributed to the social security trust fund, through payroll deductions, during the worker's active years.

Now, with pension checks larger than in the past and with more people covered, the influx of cash into the local area from this source has grown in importance. It represents a sizeable part of the money in circulation.

Deaf Smith County residents, as a result, are now collecting a total of $1,416,000 a year, a marked increase over the $830,000 they were receiving four years ago.

Social security taxes have generally been going up proportionately, although no change is expected this year, despite the 15 percent increase.

Son Arrives At Home Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Albracht, 410 Avenue J, announce the arrival of an infant son by adoption.

He was born July 31 in an Austin hospital and weighed 7 lbs. 15 oz. He joined the Albracht family Thursday.

Local Car Owners Still Have Big Debt

Car owners in Deaf Smith County have a long way to go before they finish paying their share of the 42,500-mile Interstate Highway System.

They have been contributing to the cost of construction, via taxes on gas, oil and tires, since 1956, when the project began.

Currently, their annual payments amount to approximately $239.00.

The matter comes to the fore at this time because Congress is debating a new extension of time for completing the system, which has nearly 14,000 miles to go.

The proposal would establish a new deadline -1978 instead of 1972. During that added period, the average Deaf Smith County car owner would be contributing close to $180 in highway user taxes.

Some Congressmen, however, are strongly opposed to the whole principle of using these taxes, which run well over $5 billion a year, solely for road building. They contend that there are more important priorities.

They would use some of the money for refurbishing our railroad lines, especially with regard to commuter service, for providing aid to bus lines and for other forms of urban mass transit.

Meanwhile, the highway system, which was to have been completed by the end of next year at a cost of $41 billion, will need upwards of $75 billion before it is finished.

The bulk of this money comes from the 4 cents-a-gallon fuel tax and the taxes on auto accessories.

This revenue goes into the government's Highway Trust Fund, which pays 90 percent of the construction costs. The rest is paid by the states out of their own auto-use taxes.

For the average Deaf Smith County driver, who does 10,000 miles a year and gets 14 miles to the gallon, the annual cost is about $30, according to the Bureau of Public Roads.

Taking into account the 7,960 passenger cars in the local area the total contribution is $239,000 per year.

If Congress extends the construction date to 1978, as is indicated, local car owners can expect to pay at least $1,433,000 more into the fund, based upon the number of cars now in use.

FILIBUSTER
PROVIDENCE — The Democratic minority in the 1923 Rhode Island Senate, led by Lt. Gov. Felix A. Toupin, staged a 41-day filibuster to force a vote on three measures in the party's platform. When the Republicans finally consented, the bills were defeated.

Mrs. Vernon Inmon and the hostess giving the program. Special guests were Mmes. B. B. Breeding, Cora Bentley, Myrtle Allmon and J. M. Langford.

WMU Observes Week Of Prayer
A luncheon featuring Mexican food was one of a series of meetings for Temple Baptist Women's Missionary Union, observing an annual week of prayer for state missions. Theme of the programs was Sound of the Seventies.

Funds raised each year during this week are used for scholarships for Latin-American students, aid to small churches and summer youth programs in the Rio Grande valley.

Another meeting of the series was in the home of Mrs. J. L. Bozeman, with Mrs. Brice Glass,

Just say "Charge it" at Wards

Regular tube

New Black Surrounded Tube

Here's how the new picture tube works:
Color TV pictures are made of thousands of tiny color dots on the inner side of the picture tube screen. (See blow ups above.) By surrounding each color dot with black, we turn up the "brightness" of the picture without causing the colors to fuse together. We greatly reduce the amount of outside light reflected back to the viewer. You get a brighter, livelier picture and less annoying glare.

Hereford Journeys To Land Of Enchantment

Herd Hits Field With Problems

Hereford went into its football sessions. game with Palo Duro Saturday night at less than full strength, with versatile Jeff Loerwald stated for only partial duty.

Palo Duro, reigning 3-AAAA champion and expected to repeat, was a two-touchdown favorite.

Loerwald, the Whiteface's kick specialist and backfield starter on both offense and defense, was held out of contact all last week because of an ankle injury he suffered in the season-opening 24-22 defeat to Pampa.

Alan Railey started in Loerwald's place at both spots. Trainers put Loerwald's ankle through hot and cold treatments all week in an effort to get it in shape.

Donny McDermitt injured a shoulder in the Pampa game and also was going at less than top speed in the week's prac-

With two games of Class AAAA ball under their belts, the Hereford Whitefaces test New Mexico power Clovis Friday night.

The game is scheduled for a 7:30 p. m. start, equivalent to 8:30 p. m. Hereford time since Clovis is in the Mountain time zone.

The Wildcats top player is Ronnie Williams, a 180-pound senior tailback, who ran for 13 yards and scored twice in Clovis 28-8 tie with Albuquerque, Del Norte, in the first game of the season and then scored the one touchdown in Clovis 6-0 victory over Canyon a week ago.

Clovis, the No. 6-ranked team in New Mexico, played Tucumcari Friday night.

The quarterback is 6-1 senior Randy Hatley, a 160-pounder. Del Norte held him in two completions in 10 passing tries for 26 yards in the first game and intercepted two. He had 36 yards rushing in the game on six carries.

Also in the backfield are fullback Pat Miner, who is primarily used as a blocker, and wingback Ronnie Hubby. Miner carried only five times in the first game for 11 yards, although he scored a touchdown on a one-yard plunge. Hubby, a 185-pound junior made only 22 yards in nine carries against Del Norte but returned a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown.

Bob Brack, 175-pound tight end, and Terry Moberly, the split end, are the receivers.

On the line, the mainstays are 150-pound center Buddy Hubby, considered an excellent blocker, on offense and 205-pound end John "The Monster" Parker on defense. Defensive guard Terry Martin also is rated high.

A linebacker, 185-pound Jackie Linton, recovered a fumble on the Canyon 24-yard line that sparked Clovis to its 6-0 victory over the Eagles last week. Miner quickly went 22 yards and Williams scored the next play.

Dawson's 221 Tops Bowlers

Reese Dawson rolled a 221 high individual game scratch to lead play in this week's action of Major League bowling.

Randy Jorde had a 588 high three game individual scratch while the Ink Spot had high team game of 1015. The Piggy Wiggly Pigs won the high team three game honors with a score of 2928.

Piggy Wiggly picked up four games from Worley and Robbs; E-Z Way Grocery won four from Athletic Shirts; Sunset Lanes shut out Missouri Beef Packers; the Ink Spot won four from Boyd Machine; Orval Watson Ford and Team No. 9 split action with two wins each and the Elks and Team No. 6 did not play.

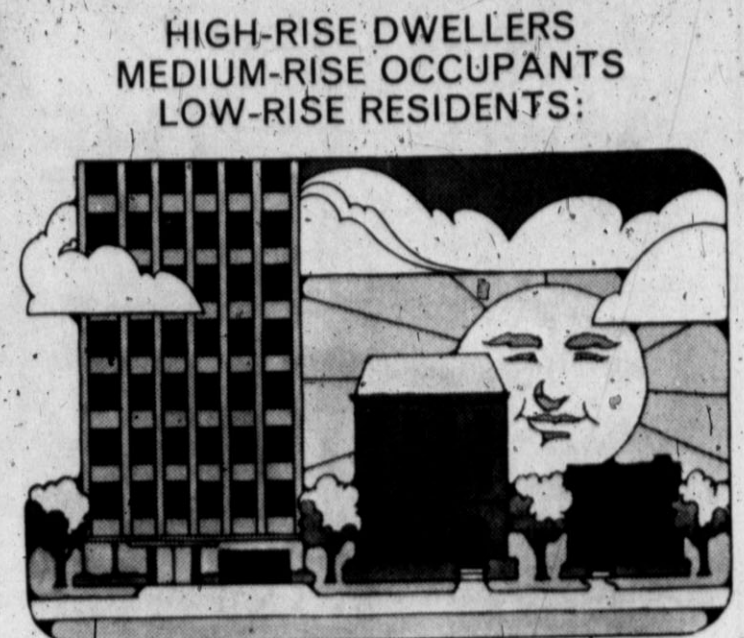

Ink Spot holds the lead in Major League action with a 6-2 record, followed by Piggy Wiggly Pigs, 5-3; E-Z-Way Grocery, 5-3; Orval Watson Ford, 5-3; Team No. 9, 4-4; Sunset Lanes, 4-0; Boyd Machine, 3-5; Worley and Robbs, 3-5; Athletic Shirts, 2-6 Elks, 2-2; Missouri Beef Packers, 1-7 and Team No. 6, incomplete.

ZOO NAME
Louisville, Ky. — The city Zoo Commission looking at possible names for the new facility several years ago, were open to suggestions from all sources.

Eugene Alvey, former city law director, had an idea.

"We've got Cherokee Park, Iroquois Park, Shawnee Park and so on," he said. "How about Sioux Zoo?"

The suggestion was never voted on.

THDA Names Mrs. Hodges

New State President Foresees Busy Year

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

President of one of the state's largest organizations for women, Mrs. A. E. Hodges returned Friday from Galveston after being elected to head the Texas Home Demonstration association for the coming term.

THE HEREFORD WOMAN, active in Home Demonstration Clubs since 1952, was advanced to the top office in the state after serving two years as vice president and a similar term as state treasurer.

She and three delegates elected from Deaf Smith County H. D. Clubs attended the THDA convention in Galveston Wednesday and Thursday.

Now she is launched in a job which will call for all the energy and sense of humor which Nell Hodges' friends know she possesses, leading the THDA in a year when the Texas women are to entertain the national convention of H. D. Clubs.

SHE IS LOOKING forward to it all with the same enthusiasm that caused her to tackle a wartime job in Washington, D. C., just after graduation from high school.

As Nell Bell she grew up at Amarillo, where she was born, and was an Amarillo High School student during World War II. Representatives of the U. S. Navy Department came to the school when she was a senior to urge the soon-to-be graduates to fill job needs in the nation's capital.

After passing Civil Service tests, she was one of six Amarillo girls who worked in Washington for a year.

"It was quite an experience," she says, with a characteristic grin, recalling the frenzy of work and her life among the "government girls" in wartime months.

MRS. HODGES WAS employed by Producers Grain and at Amarillo Air Base after the war, until her marriage in 1950 when she came to Hereford.

Nell and Aubyn Hodges lived on their farm southwest of the city until about five years ago, then built the home they now occupy on Country Club Drive. They have a daughter at home, Kiska, a seventh-grader.

Their older daughter Deborah, is now Mrs. Craig Fuller of Lubbock and their son, Aubyn Jr., is also married.

IN ADDITION TO H. D. Clubs, Mrs. Hodges has given time to her church, First United Methodist, and to activities concerned with her children, including school and Camp Fire Girls.

She has been a member of North Hereford H. D. Club since 1952 and served in all its offices, then in all offices of Deaf Smith County H. D. Council. After two years as THDA chairman for this county, she was director of District I, THDA.

In previous state offices, Mrs. Hodges has become accustomed to travel over the state, attending district meetings and state conventions, judging 4-H club girls' work for THDA scholarships and otherwise caring for business of the association.

AS VICE PRESIDENT, she was advisor to the 12 district directors. Association with them and with other women and 4-H club girls in all parts of Texas she regards as the most rewarding part of her work.

Not only in this state, but at national conventions she has become acquainted with women from other sections of the nation who, like her, are interested in making better homes for their families.

She went to one convention in Puerto Rico, was in charge last year of the Texas delegation's transportation to the national meeting in Blacksburg, Va., and is looking forward to the next one in Los Vegas, Nev.

in a great personal appearance... The Johnny Carson Wardrobe

Let Johnny himself tell you about it: "I like uncomplicated clothes and that's what we've designed. I went into men's wear because I think the mature male ought to have a choice between square and hip. That's what this collection is all about."

The Big Picture: Johnny Carson Suit. Six-button double breasted styling takes on a new shape. Pure wool; alternating maroon and chalk stripes on Blenheim Blue.

"I'm enthusiastic about it as you'll see when I wear these ideas myself."
