NFO Gains The Support Of USDA

75 New Members Added To Roll In Chamber Of Commerce Drive

The membership drive of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce last week brought 75 new members into the local organization, Manager Bill Thompson said Wednesday.

The drive was staged concurrent with one by the Dumas Chamber of Commerce, with each chamber competing to outdo the other. Hereford won.

About $6,000 in new income was realized by the drive, Thompson said, with several applications still pending.

"We anticipate we will reach our goal of $7,200 when it's all in," he said.

In individual competition within the local drive, Virgil Marsh won honors as the top individual salesman and won a quarter of beef. Irene McKinster was second and won a steak for two. Carroll McDonald won a pound of hamburger for third place.

Various workers within three units pooled their new memberships to make the battle for individual honors a three-way race.

The Deaf Smith County National Farmers Organization has given the NFO a foothold in the nation's highest agriculture office as a result of a recent face-to-face meeting of two local NFO members and Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin.

Ron Crist, secretary of the state NFO and a member of the local organization, and Gerald McCathern, president of the county group, told a gathering of about 125 people Tuesday night that an apparent lack of communications has been overcome and the Secretary of Agriculture has been made aware of the situation facing farmers.

The two men related their trip to Washington, D. C. and the conference with Secretary Hardin during the first National Farmers Organization Harvest Festival held at the Bull Barn. Some 125 members, wives and guests attended the banquet and business session.

Crist and McCathern, with the assistance of Congressman Bob Price of Pampa, were able to schedule a meeting last week with Secretary Hardin in Washington, D. C. to discuss farm problems and the recent Commodity Credit Corporation's untimely release of grain on the market.

"When we went up there, at first we thought we might fail you people, but after about 30 seconds I felt real good," McCathern told the people. "As soon as I found out they put their pants on just like we do, it was all right."

Crist supported McCathern's statement that the farmers have gained a foothold in the nation's capitol. He said he felt the farmers have gained a "great support in both Secretary Hardin's office and in Bob Price's office."

Secretary Hardin told the men, after hearing their arguments, that he was completely unaware of the release of grain by the CCC, with its unfavorable effect on area market prices, but he said he would take the time to go over the suggestions presented by McCathern and Crist.

"He said he would consider the recommendations but could not for about 20 days until the farm bill was taken care of and sent out to ASCS offices," Crist said.

"Gerald had a report of about two or three pages that was real critical, and even rank, in some places," Crist said. "He had this prepared for the conference, and right at the end was a list of about seven recommendations."

"When John Jamison, the secretary of the agency, heard of this report he asked if he could read over it first and when he finished he suggested we start right at the back where the recommendations were," he said.

Crist said McCathern's first word of the conference — parity — had not even gotten out of his mouth when Secretary Hardin threw up his hands and said parity was out-dated, a thing of the past.

"This was when we got down to the real business," Crist said. "Gerald said 'Okay, then, let's talk about the old pocket book.'"

One of the main reasons for the meeting was the recent flooding of the market with CCC grain at a time when farmers were putting their crops on the market.

CCC, which stores surplus grain for the government, released the crop at a lower price than had been reported.

"Gerald had evidence we needed in any argument and I feel we kept them on the defensive. Everything was denied immediately but we had proof and I'm sure we gave them a better understanding of our problems that we have back home."

Herd Looks Good, Bad In Split With Dumas, Dimmitt

The Hereford Whitefaces took on a pair of the top basketball teams in West Texas this week at LaPlata Gym and — playing with startling contrast — broke even.

The Herd played what many felt was their best game in several years in defeating highly-regarded Dumas Monday night, 73-67. The same team then hit the floor Tuesday night with what Coach Ron Mayberry said frankly "was our worst game as a group since I've been here."

Perennial Class AA powerhouse Dimmitt made Hereford its third straight victim of the 1970-71 season, 61-48.

The Herd then dropped down to 2-1 for the year, with a road game Monday at Phillips the next encounter.

Hereford never trailed in its 73-67 victory over Dumas. Most significantly, the team showed it could play against taller players.

Facing a trio of Demon players that ranged 6-foot-7, 6-5 and 6-4, and with only one player as tall as 6-4 in its own camp, Hereford took a decisive edge in rebounding over Dumas. During the time Hereford was on offense, it got 20 rebounds and Dumas 18. When Hereford was on defense, it got 28 rebounds and Dumas got 19, for a total rebounding edge of 48-37.

Further, Hereford hit 43.6 per cent of its field goal attempts (24 of 55) and 66 per cent of its free throw attempts (25 of 38). The Whitefaces committed only 12 turnovers against Dumas, and forced the Demons to turn the ball over 21 times.

Mike Wartes paced the Herd scoring with 25 points, but just as large an accomplishment was the way he kept the tall man he was guarding from getting the ball very often.

Dana Rush scored 11, with David Myers and Blake Arnwine adding 10 apiece.

John McNeely an Myers both pulled down 11 rebounds against Dumas. Keith Kitchens and Wartes both got six steals and McNeely got four. Kitchens was credited with four assists, Wartes with three.

But everything that looked good Monday night took a turn for the worse on Tuesday.

Hereford converted only 32 per cent of its field goal tries (17 of 53) and only 43.7 per cent of its free throw efforts (14 of 32). It committed 20 turnovers. When Hereford was on offense it got 14 rebounds and Dimmitt 24. When Hereford was on defense it got 21 rebounds and Dimmitt 21, for a total Dimmitt rebounding edge of 45-35.

"They came ready to play. We weren't. They were more aggressive and they just took the challenge to us. The best way to describe it is we just got whipped, real bad. We've got to go to work," Mayberry said.

Dimmitt controlled the scoreboard in the first half with margins from four to nine points, the largest at 23-14 with 6:20 to play in the second quarter. The Bobcats led at the half, 32-24.

The visitors settled the matter in the third quarter. After three minutes of the third quarter, Hereford had cut the margin to 36-32, only four points back.

Dimmitt then reeled off 17 straight points, in a long stretch that saw the Bobcats thoroughly dominate both backboards and employ a pressing game that forced Hereford into turnover after turnover. When the Whitefaces shot at the goal it was as if somebody had put a hood over it. Even free throws wouldn't drop. The score raised to 53-32.

Finally Jeff Loerwald hit a jump shot with 41 seconds left in the third quarter to snap the long drought and Myers followed with a short field goal that made it 53-36 after three quarters.

Hereford outscored Dimmitt, 12-8 in the fourth quarter but the game was already decided.

Wartes again was top scorer, with 14, with Myers the only other player in double figures, with 10.

Wartes added one assist, four steals and three rebounds. Myers was the top rebounder with eight, and also had three steals.

Kitchens, who left the game early in the third quarter with a badly sprained ankle, had four assists, three steals and four rebounds. Rush had two assists and three steals; McNeely had one assist, three steals, four rebounds; Loerwald had three steals.

The act sets a ceiling of 50 cents tax per $100 valuation. It authorizes the Hospital directors to call an election to raise the ceiling to 75 cents.

In both the manner of selection of directors and the tax ceiling, the commissioners and Hospital Board felt that the act should be set up to allow the alternatives without having to go through the Legislature again to get them.

The Columbian Securities Corporation of Amarillo, represented by Bob Davis, drew up the proposed act. It is closely parallel to the enabling legislation for other hospital districts.

The act provides for the possible future annexation of additional territory to the hospital district. That would be subject to presentation of such a petition by residents of the area desiring to be annexed. A majority of voters both within the existing district and the district desiring to be annexed would have to approve the request.

The Deaf Smith County Hospital District itself is not authorized unless county voters approve it by majority vote.

After the legislature approves it, assuming it does, the county judge can call an election. He must call it upon the presentation of a petition signed by at least 100 qualified property tax-paying electors of the area of the proposed district.

The election could be held not less than 35 days nor more than 60 days from the date the election is ordered.

Members of the six-man Hospital board of directors would serve two-year terms with no pay, except for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The directors then would elect from among themselves a president and vice president. A secretary also would be elected, although that office would not have to be filled by a director.

Neither the hospital administrator nor an employee of the district would be eligible to be a director. Board members also would be required to be residents of the district, property owner and a qualified voter.

Mrs. Ollie C. Forbus, 74, of 1013 Park Ave., died Monday evening as a result of an accident near her home.

Mrs. Forbus, after making a small purchase at E-Z Way Market at 910 Park Ave. about 6 p. m. was in the process of walking across Park Avenue near the intersection of Avenue I, when an automobile driven by Ernesto Garza of 515 Knight struck her.

After striking Mrs. Forbus, Garza's stopped vehicle was struck in the rear by a pickup driven by George Schulte of 119 Ranger, which was in turn struck by a third vehicle driven by Stanley Hudson, 505 Roosevelt.

Mrs. Forbus, taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital by Gilliland Ambulance Service, died at 9:50 p. m. from multiple injuries. No one else was injured.

Schulte and Hudson received citations for following too closely. Officers continued their investigation.

Hudson's 1970 model automobile suffered the only vehicle damage, estimated at $700.

Mrs. Forbus, born in Coal Hill, Ark., on Oct. 17, 1896, married Carl Forbus in 1916. He preceded her in death in January, 1928.

Mrs. Forbus came to Texas in 1943 from Oklahoma and to Hereford in 1946 from Amarillo.

Until early this month, Mrs. Forbus owned and operated the Green Hedge Cafe on East 1st. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Hereford.

Survivors included one son, Dr. Bill Forbus of Dumas; four sisters, Mrs. Wanda Lytal of Hereford, Mrs. Eria Edwards of Amarillo, Mrs. Era Warren of Portales, N. M., and Mrs. Ila Mitchell of Wolfe City, Tex.; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were at 10 a. m. Wednesday in the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Gerald Mann, pastor, officiating. Interment was in West Park Cemetery.

Boards Look For Fast Austin Action

By CHARLES RICHARDS
News Editor

A proposed act to set up a hospital district in Deaf Smith County won the final approval Tuesday of the county commissioners and the Hospital Board.

The document, approximately 6,000 words in length, now will go to the Texas Legislature, for its consideration when it opens its next session in January.

Ed Line, Hospital Board chairman, will ask State Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake to use his influence in getting the matter through the Legislature.

The boards expressed the hope the legislature will give prompt approval of the act, paving the way for a vote by county residents in early 1971.

If the legislature approves the act, the county would have up to five years to give its approval.

If the hospital district is approved, the Hospital Board will assess a tax to pay off its bond issues and to support its operation, above and beyond what its own revenues are able to produce.

At the same time, residents no longer would be paying any taxes to the county to go for the hospital. Because a portion of all money collected by the county goes to the state, residents would in the future be saving the part that previously has gone to Austin out of the money taxed for hospital bonds.

The Hospital directors would be appointed by the county commissioners. The act contains a provision, however, that residents could petition for an election that would change the selection of the Hospital Board from appointment to election by the people.

The act sets a ceiling of 50 cents tax per $100 valuation. It authorizes the Hospital directors to call an election to raise the ceiling to 75 cents.

Judge Plans Change In Court Policy

County Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams, under fire for the recent dismissal of a number of criminal cases in County Court, Wednesday told the Brand that future dismissals will be handled "in the court room" and no longer will any dismissal or a continuance be granted from the Judge's chamber. It has been a practice in past years to dismiss cases, usually where a lack of evidence is apparent or a lack of prosecution is evident, without calling in a jury and having the attorneys appear in court.

Williams, in answering critics of his action in dismissing some 48 cases, said that he could "no longer afford the luxury" of this type cooperation with the attorneys. "In the future the court will set cases for trial giving ample time for preparation of cases and in the event an attorney needs a continuance or the county attorney feels the case needs to be dismissed, he will be required to appear in open court and show cause."

The precedent for mass dismissals was set many years ago in this county, Williams indicated, and the system has worked well until this year. In 1963, 59 cases were dismissed, 29 of these on one day (1-8-63). In 1964, 163 cases were dismissed; in 1965, 41; in 1966, 126; 1967, 120; 1968, 94; 1969, 92 and this year 124 have been dismissed in all. Of these 124, 39 were dismissed at the request of present County Attorney Andy Shulval.

Due to the adverse criticism of his action, Williams has indicated that future cases will be dismissed only in "open court" and the attorney will be required to appear and "show cause."

"I have always tried to work with the attorneys," he said, "and it is unfortunate that they must be subjected to the inconvenience of appearing in court when there is obvious good cause for either a continuance or for a dismissal, but it appears that many people, including the officers who have worked on the cases, do not understand the reasons involved."

Of the court cases recently dismissed by Williams, the state was unable to locate 16, there was apparent lack of evidence on 14 and a lack of prosecution on 15. Three others were dismissed because the defendant agreed to make a restitution in one case; was in the penitentiary already in another case; and was in a mental hospital in the third case.

Williams was also criticized this week for having signed a death certificate without having seen the body. In the absence of Justice of Peace Bill Rowland, Williams was asked to come to the hospital Friday night to act as coroner and to sign the death certificate of a traffic fatality. He did not go to the hospital but asked the mortician present to contact a doctor. "I was ill at the time," he said, "and the local mortician assured me that the deceased had been examined and pronounced dead by a physician."

Williams signed the death certificate the following morning.

"The primary purpose of a coroner's examination," Williams said, "is to determine whether or not there is evidence of foul play. The man in question had been killed in a traffic accident. It's a routine thing and I felt that no man was more qualified than a local doctor to determine whether or not the man was dead or that he died as a result of the accident."

A check with a local clinic by a Brand reporter verified the fact that a doctor was in attendance at the hospital and did examine the deceased, pronouncing him dead at the hospital. "That was sufficient for me," Williams said, "and I signed the certificate."

In further comment on the criminal case dismissals, Williams indicated that he had worked with eight different county attorneys and had relied heavily on their recommendations concerning dismissal of cases. "Until recently, there has been no criticism of it," he said. "From now on however, the county attorney will be required to appear in open court on the trial date set by this court to ask for dismissal," he said.

Williams readily admitted Wednesday that some of the dismissals were made without consulting with either the attorney or the law enforcement officers involved "simply because they have been on the docket too long." In reference to the case concerning former Chief of Police Marshall Padgett, he said he had offered to set aside his dismissal and bring the case to trial if the city officials were ready. "They indicated they were not," the judge said, "therefore I let the dismissal stand."

Hardin swayed to the other side of the argument.
"If we wait we will probably see a few heads roll. Maybe it will be in the background. Secretary Hardin was not aware of the CCC action and I think it was just because of a lack of communications," McCathern said.

McCathern, in reviewing the trip and its results, said the National Farmers Organization has done more in the past two years than in the past 100 years.

"We have put the word 'price' into farming. We don't have a book to look at and say this is how it is done; we are the ones writing the book. We start a new year in January when we elect officers again and I hope each one of you give the new officers the support you have in the past," he said.

Edna Marnell, office secretary for the county NFO, received a plaque from McCathern and the NFO chapter as the "Outstanding NFO Worker" for the past year.

"There is no one who has given and contributed more to the efforts of NFO than Edna Marnell," McCathern said in presenting the plaque.

Lingerie Shower For Gail Rusher

An informal lingerie shower honoring Miss Gail Rusher, weekend bride-elect of Terry Hall of Tulsa, was given Sunday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mrs. Bill Johnson, 112 Avenue D.

Misses Diana Hickman and Becky Jesko hosted the courtesy.

Punch, coffee and cake squares decorated with purple bows and pink roses were served from a table laid with pink doilies in pink rose design. A purple chrysanthemum potted plant centered the table.

The honoree was presented a purple baby chrysanthemum corsage.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Shannon Torgler of Ordway, Colo., and Mrs. Robert Horton of Canyon, both sisters of the honoree.

Young Mothers Plan Project

Parts which Young Mothers Study Club members are to play in a community program for measles immunization were assigned at the business meeting Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Bud Thomas. Mrs. Don Beard was co-hostess.

Aim of the immunization project is to have all pre-school children in the county and those in the first three grades at school, protected against measles.

Members of Young Mothers Club and Young Homemakers of Texas Chapter will cooperate in the preliminary work of having children registered, and will aid doctors and nurses at the time the immunizations are given, Dec. 8 and 9.

A guest speaker, Dr. D. E. McBrayer, was introduced for the program before the business session Tuesday. His subject was Child Psychology.

He stressed that children learn more from their parents than any other source in their pre-school years. Most parents, he said, hope to see their children be what they themselves wished to be but were unable to attain. Effect on the child of parents who simply ignore their children was also discussed.

Two new members, Mrs. Harvey Milton and Linda Newton, were received in the club. Others present were Mrs. Travis McPherson, Burt Spears, Tommy Updyke, Don Samuels, Don Hendrix, Raymond Gerke and Charles Brown.

Rites Conducted Here Wednesday For Mrs. Jesko

Funeral services for Mrs. Lucy Frances Jesko, 59, of Muleshoe were conducted Wednesday afternoon in St. Anthony's Catholic Church by the Rev. Norman Boyd of St. Ann's Catholic Church at Bovina. Mrs. Jesko died Monday morning in an Amarillo hospital.

Gilliland Funeral Home directed burial in St. Anthony's Cemetery where her husband, Alexander John Jesko, was buried in March of 1968. His death occurred while the couple was visiting relatives in Hereford.

The family requests that memorials be made to the American Cancer Society fund.

Mrs. Jesko was born Dec. 30, 1910 at Canyon, a member of the William Schmitz family. She married at Canyon Feb. 14, 1933, and has lived in Parmer County since then.

Survivors are four daughters, Mrs. Billy Gene Glenn of Amarillo, Elaine and Deborah Jesko of Muleshoe and Judy Jesko of Albuquerque; five sons, Lee, Wayne, Larry and Kenneth of Muleshoe and Donald of Burleson; three sisters, Anna Erwin of Amarillo, Mickie Gerald of Dallas and Marie Vorwald of Wisconsin; a brother, George Schmitz of Amarillo, and 13 grandchildren.

JV's, Sophs Win Easily In Cage Action

The Hereford junior varsity team won two games and the sophomores one game in early-season basketball activity this week.

The JV's defeated Dumas 71-57 on Monday and Dimmitt 76-38 on Tuesday. The sophomores thumped Canyon 79-19 Tuesday. David Hicks poured 37 points through the hoops in the JV victory over Dumas. The next closest scorer for Hereford was Larry Roberts with 11. Terry Champ had 7, Terry Scott 6, Danny Charest 6 and Steve Leasure 4.

The guards consistently hit Hicks in the middle to allow him to score the easy basket. Leasure was credited with six assists.

In Tuesday's JV triumph, it was Leasure and Champ who led the way, each with 18 points. Charest and Scott added 12, Hicks 10 and Rod Hopson 6.

Hereford took a 15-14 lead over Dumas Monday after one quarter, and kept the one-point edge, 32-31, at the half. The third quarter, the Longhorns broke loose to take a 55-44 advantage and then coasted in for the 71-57 triumph.

Tuesday, the Longhorns led 16-10 after one quarter and 26-16 at the half. The last two quarters they put it all together. In the third quarter alone they scored as much as they did in the first half, and the 26-point explosion put them into a 52-28 lead over Dimmitt. Hereford outscored Dimmitt 24-10 in the fourth quarter to make it a 50-point second half and a 76-38 victory.

In the sophomore game Tuesday night, the Shorthorns had little trouble in getting their 1970 season off right. Barry McNutt led a parade of four Hereford players in double figures. McNutt had 17 points, Gary Hicks 16, David Duval 15 and Mike Mayberry 10.

Frank Mercer Serving In Highly Skilled Unit

Specialist Five Frank Mercer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Mercer of Hereford, is serving as one of 27 highly trained technicians working with the 82nd Signal Detachment in Korea, whose job it is to install and maintain switchboards throughout Korea.

Mercer attended Caprock High School in Amarillo and entered the Army in April of 1968. He completed basic combat training at Ft. Bliss and arrived in Korea in May of last year from Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

The 82nd, a component of the 304th Signal Battalion, Korea Support Command, is the only unit of its type in Korea. At times the men of the 82nd have installed additions or entire switchboards for the Navy and Air Force, as well as for Army units scattered around the peninsula.

The detachment is manned by 18 enlisted men and nine Korean civilian employees under the command of 1st Lieutenant Henry Luddecke.

In recent years the unit has taken empty buildings at Camp

Carroll, Camp Humphreys, Camp Page and in Yongdongpo and installed complete dial systems. Working from the floor up, the men installed the basic angle iron to hold the switches and cable, put in the various switches and dial devices, strung the wires and plugged the switchboard into the military system.

Presently the men of the 82nd are at work at Camp Red Cloud in the I Corps area and at Osan Air Base adding rotary out dial trunk switches, devices which help the caller find an empty circuit in the system. When the work is completed the phone system in Korea will be more flexible and the user will hear fewer busy signals.

Walcott Preps For Bushland Tourney

The Walcott Wildcats, coming off a disappointing showing last week in the Adrian Basketball Tournament, look for a fresh start when they go to the Bushland Tournament on Dec. 17.

The Walcott girls finished last in the tournament and so did the boys.

The girls lost to Vega, 35-14 then fell to Umsted, 37-11. In their final game they defeated the Vega seventh grade girls, 21-16.

The Vega boys duplicated the feat of their girls in trouncing the Walcott team, 41-10. Walcott then bounced back to defeat Umsted, 23-22 before falling to San Jon, 43-41.

In the girls division of the six-team tournament, Adrian captured first followed by Bushland, Vega, Channing, San Jon and Walcott.

Vega won the boys title followed by Channing, Adrian, Bushland, San Jon and Walcott. Members of the Walcott girls team are Brenda Duggan, Sharon Homfield, Millie Blassingame, Beth Duggan, Linda Fortenberry, Tina Self, Sylvia Torres, Sherri Blassingame, Rhonda Hall, Colette Hartley, Brenda Robison and Rene Russell.

Members of the Walcott boys' team are Dennis Brown, Robert Mungia, Bruce Robison, David Torres, Bill Blassingame, Ruben Chavez, Jeff Coleman, Scott

Hall, Bill Homfield, Thorton Monroe, Bret West, Joe Monroe and Gabriel Mungia.

Tech Christmas Tradition To Feature 25,000 Lights

LUBBOCK—Christmas carols a black-out, then a burst of light as 25,000 multicolored bulbs flash on — this is the Texas Tech University Christmas tradition, the Carol of Lights.

The lights will be turned on this year on Dec. 3 and will remain on through New Year's Day. The program in the Science Quadrangle on the campus will begin at 6:45 p. m. with music by the Brass Choir.

This is the eleventh celebration of the Carol of Lights, sponsored by Women's Residence Council (WRC), a group composed of the president and vice president of each of the women's dorms.

Randy Brillhart, president of Saddle Tramps, Tech spirit organization, will deliver the invocation and Judy Storm, president of WRC, will welcome the spectators to the program.

Music will be provided by the Tech Choir and the Brass Choir. A residence hall choir, composed of men and women from the dorms on campus, will present two Christmas sel-lections. The audience will do more caroling than in previous programs.

At 7:15 p. m. the lights will come on. Strung on almost seven miles of electrical wiring they will outline 11 buildings on the Tech campus.

The first bulbs for the Carol of Lights were presented to Tech by Harold Hinn, former member of the Board of Regents. This year, 20 Lubbock merchants, most of them representing firms just off the Tech campus, have undertaken a campaign to raise $5,000 to defray the expenses of the program.

In addition to the lighting program, the campus streets will be lined with luminaries placed by Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity.

Here's a watertight statement about Vanguard's rubber gasket joint.

It won't leak

The idea of using a rubber gasket joint in Vanguard PVC plastic pipe was revolutionary. It meant no more bands or solvents. Easier, faster, trouble-free installation. But that was just a beginning.

Next we put the pressure on. We hydrostatically tested it. We put it through all sorts of temperature tests. We twisted it and turned it. Then we field tested it. We gave it more punishment than you or those inevitable ground shifts could ever hope to.

Just as we anticipated — the rubber gasket held.

So, whatever your needs for plastic pipe, Vanguard is it. Bend it any way you want. We'll make a watertight statement about Vanguard's rubber gasket. It won't leak. Just be reasonable.

Vanguard is available in 1/2 to 15-inch diameters.

Special Education Pauline McDonald Students Enjoy 'Chute Training

Ninety Special Education students from Hereford's five public elementary schools participated in a new unusual physical education program Friday. Charles Warford from the Amarillo State Center for Human Development met with the students shortly after lunch in the Shirley School gymnasium.

Warford brought with him various equipment that brought squeals of delight from the children, while they were learning motor development, coordination and direction following. A large colorful and shiny parachute, stretched flat between the students a long continuous fabric "rope" tumbling mat, a tape playing machine, small three-wheeled "scooters," bamboo poles and other such equipment provided fun and exercise during the 1½ hour program.

Warford's agency receives government grants for presenting such programs to area schools. From these presentations the classroom teachers gain suggestions for conducting daily physical education programs.

Members of the Newcomers Club furnished refreshments to the students and teachers after the program.

Lunch In Theme Of Thanksgiving Given By Club

A Thanksgiving luncheon an annual occasion in West Hereford Home Demonstration Club, entertained members Tuesday noon in the home of Mrs. Jewel Awtry.

Miss Mary Brady, club president, read a poem in the holiday theme, titled Let Us Give Thanks, to open the program after lunch. All the members present had a part on the program, as each showed an article she had made, telling how it was made. Most were items suitable for Christmas giving.

Lunch was served to Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent, Miss Evelyn Bell, Mmes. E. M. Cox, Robert Boyd, Roy Bots, John Jacobsen Sr., Blanche Hardin, D. R. Grimes and Miss Brady.

ART EXHIBIT
CHICAGO — The Art Institute of Chicago has scheduled a major exhibit to show painting in Italy in the 18th century. It is on view from Sept 19 through Nov. 1

The display comprises over 100 paintings by 80 artists representing works from six major schools of Italian paintings. They are from the areas of Venice, Liguria, Piedmont Lombardy, Bologna, Emilia, Tuscany, Rome, Naples and Southern Italy.

Previous exhibits featured the Venetians with little attempt to compare their work with other Italian artists.

The works will come from public and private collections in the United States and Europe. It is being organized in collaboration with The Minneapolis Institute of Arts and The Toledo Museum of Art.

Highlights and Sidelights From Your STATE CAPITOL by Vern Sanford

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN, Tex. — Heads of Texas Education Agency have set priority goals for public schools during the next two years. They estimate additional state and local costs at more than $362 million.

Highest priority must be assigned to implementing those major educational acts of the 1969 Legislature, says Dr. J. W. Edgar, Commissioner of Education. He listed these acts as the 1969 salary compensation (long-range teacher pay raise) plan, a kindergarten program for five year-olds, comprehensive special education programs, expansion of technical-vocational programs and refinement of the teacher retirement act. Programs are projected over a three-to-seven-year period.

As desirable as new or accelerated programs may be, says Edgar, the State Board of Education feels more experience is needed with the 1969 acts and more opportunity should be allowed to invest available resources in presently authorized goals.

"Next priority," says the Commissioner, "goes to carrying out recommendations of a committee studying changes in school finance formulas, with a view to equalizing funds assigned as the local share of foundation costs."

More than $2 billion will be spent for public elementary and secondary education this year. Estimate for next year is $2.6 billion.

About 2,728,000 pupils now are enrolled, and 2,760,000 will be in classes next year.

Cost of existing programs for next year alone will increase $156 million, while new programs will require an estimated

Virgil Barber of Hereford was elected president of the Texas Iota chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity which was officially chartered Saturday on the Texas Tech University Campus.

An installation banquet and dance was given at the Red Raider Inn Convention Center. Fraternity Grand President J. E. Zollinger of Richmond, Va. delivered the keynote address, with assistance for the installation by Jack A. Wheeler of North Texas State University, district governor of the fraternity.

"The Texas Iota chapter intends to be a friendship group which accents education and personal leadership development," said Ken Schneider, public relations chairman for the group.

COURTS SPEAK — Texas Supreme Court will hear arguments on January 13 as to whether a narcotics case can be under joint jurisdiction of criminal and probate courts through the mental health code. In the case at point, a mother tried to commit her daughter who had been convicted of a narcotics violation to a hospital for addiction treatment.

In other recent cases the High Court:

*Slated arguments for January 20 in a $35,000 damage lawsuit brought by parents of a young Houston boy struck by a car on Galveston Beach four and a half years ago.

*Directed the Houston Tour and Charter Service Inc. to stop out of city bus routes operating without a Railroad Commission certificate.

*Directed retrial of a Wheeler County case involving whether a Texas Tech student received "general injury" in an oil rig job accident.

*Ruled that Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 (or other political subdivision) are without power to levy a special assessment against veterans land tract forfeited to the state by the buyer.

*Found that an Arizona carpet firm which did business with a Texas manufacturer on building projects in the state can be sued in state courts for debt. LAWMAKER AID, CURBS URGED — Subcommittees of a blue-ribbon committee studying legislators' duties, responsibilities, compensation and ethics are beginning to formulate recommendations.

One proposed an expanded publicity staff for lawmakers and a health or first aid station for the capitol. Another urged an end to the practice of legislators' lending their names to clients or defendants in legal cases just to delay trial.

On December 9, all sub-panel findings will go to the full committee of 150 named by House Speaker Gus Mutscher.

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. Preston Smith named District Judge Clarence A. Guitard of Dallas as associate justice of the Fifth Court of Civil Appeals, effective January 1. He succeeds Judge Claude Williams who moves up to chief justice of the Fifth Court.

Smith designated Dallas Attorney Fred S. Harless to succeed Guitard as 14th district judge.

Memphis attorney Robert E. Montgomery was picked by the Governor as judge of the 100th district effective January 1. He replaces Judge Charles L. Reynolds, who was elevated to the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals.

Rep. Charles Patterson of Taylor and Round Rock was selected by the U. S. Department of State to participate in a North Atlantic Treaty Organization briefing conference in Brussels, Belgium on November 22-24.

Smith appointed Dallas F. Jordan of Dallas, who is a Rear Admiral in the U. S. Naval Reserve, the Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz Memorial Commission.

M. A. Genaro of Dallas was elected president of National Beer Wholesalers Association.

OIL, ALLOWABLE CUT — State Railroad Commission ordered a cut in December statewide oil allowable to 83.5 per cent of potential, from the high 87.3 per cent factor.

Action followed four consecutive monthly increases. December limit would allow a maximum production of 3,615,962 barrels of crude daily. That is a reduction from this month's 3,954,193-barrel maximum.

Three of the 14 big crude buyers requested additional allowable for December. Ten wanted the same figure and one less. U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast a 3,525,000-barrel daily demand for December. Written nominations by major purchasers totaled 3,425,531 barrels.

CRUDE PRICE HIKE ENDED — Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes told the federal Office of Emergency Preparedness that an announcement by two major oil companies of intention to raise crude oil price 25 cents a barrel is "completely justified."

Lieutenant Governor said reserves of petroleum are lower than during wartime, and a price increase is mandatory if they are to be increased.

ALTERATION TAX POSSIBLE — You can be taxed for alteration charges on clothing where the charge is made at time of purchase, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has held.

However, Calvert said, charges are not subject to sales tax when they are not part of the sale.

"If the alteration is made on a garment prior to acceptance by the customer, the alteration charge is considered a service which is part of the sale and the charge for such alteration is taxable to the customer," said Calvert in an interpretation of sales tax provisions. "Alteration charges on clothing are not taxable when not a part of a sale."

Golden Wedding Reception Set

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Robertson's Golden Wedding anniversary will be held from 2 to 5 p. m. Sunday at their home on South Sampson St. Friends of the couple are invited to call during open house hours.

Hosts will be children of the Robertsons, their wives and husbands: Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Marchman of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Robertson of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Killenson of Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Graf of Amarillo. Actual date of the wedding anniversary is Dec. 2. Miss Maudie Rebecca Raney and Roy Robertson were married on that day in 1920 at Altus, Okla. They moved to Hereford in 1943.

In addition to their children, the family includes 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Residents Attend Church Meeting

Several families from Hereford were among those who attended a regional meeting in Lubbock last weekend of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Among the estimated 1,200 in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Proctor, the Jerry Johnson family, the Allen Mayo family, the J. D. Baze family, Nell Fenimore, Mary Ponder, Katherine Bennett, the John Powers, Mrs. Alton Powers, the Jim Williams.

They met in Fair Park Coliseum and heard a talk by L. M. Dugan, district minister from the world headquarters of the Witnesses.

Margaret Collins Is Star Kegler

Margaret Collins was named Bowler of the Week in recent play of Strike Outs League when she won 29 pins over her average for a score of 453.

She also rolled the high game of 187 while Connie Levering had the high series of 472.

Hereford Flying Service rolled a 752 for the high team game then came back and rolled a 2123 for the high team series.

In play last week, Weatherford Gln lost one-half game, Hereford Flying Service won four from One Hour Martinizing, and Deaf Smith REC won three from Earl's Cafe.

Standings have Weatherford Gln, 31½-12½; Hereford Flying Service, 27½-12½; One Hour Martinizing, 23-20½; Deaf Smith REC, 15-25; and Earl's

Lantern light in the pioneer dugout replica and the railroad caboose on the grounds of Deaf Smith County Museum added to the authentic atmosphere when Valeda Study Club members made an after-dark tour of the museum Tuesday.

Guided by Mrs. Juston McBride, the group saw the exhibits on the grounds as well as those housed in the building, where the history of the county is brought to life by displays of articles actually used by pioneers.

Cafe, 10-34.

THIS THANKSGIVING

That's what this day is all about. Originally the Pilgrims took this day to give thanks for a good harvest and their lives after facing a hard year.

We have come a long way since that first Thanksgiving Day, but really the only thing that has changed is the fact that we have so much more to be thankful for.

Rare Hijacking

Hijacked aircraft is rather routine - but one hijacker had a unique plan. Read about it at Deaf Smith County Library this week.

Hijacked

By David Harper

The instructions were found written in bright orange lipstick on the mirror of one of the restrooms. The note was direct and unequivocal: This is no joke! I've hidden a bomb aboard this plane. I can set it off any time with a radio. . . . A few minutes earlier Trans-America Flight 901 had been a routine flight from New York to San Francisco.

But now the 707 under the command of Captain Michael O'Hara and his crew had joined the growing armada of hijacked aircraft - a list which had become so long that it almost seemed routine, except that the hijacking of Flight 901 was unique.

Neither the passengers nor crew had any idea which of them was the hijacker, or what final destination the hijacker had planned for the flight.

For the next several hours officials of the airlines, the FBI and other federal agents on the ground would join with the passengers and the crew in the air in an attempt to discover and thwart the hijacker.

But the experience of coping with other hijackings would be of little use in forecasting the course of destination of Flight 901.

INVOLUNTARY JOURNEY

TO SIBERIA

By Andrei Amalrik

The author of that astonishingly bold document Will the Soviet Union Survive Until 1984? here gives a rigorously exact, dispassionate account of his vicissitudes as a nonconformist intellectual in Soviet Russia. His interest in avantgarde art and his contacts with foreign journalists and diplomats led to a police search.

With graphic and engrossing precision Amalrik describes the events leading up to his imprisonment and trial, and his subsequent exile, on a charge of "parasitism," to a collective farm in Siberia.

The unadorned veracity of the writing, the uninhibited comments on the true reality of Soviet life, produce in the reader a rare effect of participation. Amalrik's evident concern is with the truth, whether he describes the trials of life in Moscow in an apartment shared by spying, hostile neighbors, or the abysmally low living condition to which agricultural workers are doomed.

As no one before him has done he gives a sense of the apathy and ignorance of the dispossessed peasants, who make up approximately one half of the Soviet Russian population.

This autobiographical account is absorbingly interesting on several grounds; Amalrik is an accomplished writer with an original mind; he reports without bias, without illusions, without resentment, and above all with total fearlessness.

He seems uncrushable, in spirit and person; while in exile he managed to marry a gifted and handsome painter; he returned to Moscow without proper release papers; and he insists on publishing his work in the West under his own name, stressing his rights under existing Soviet laws. He represents a new breed of Soviet man.

Lesson Brought From State Meet Presented To H. D. Club Members

Relaying information she received in a workshop at the Texas Home Demonstration Association convention, Mrs. Joe Gonzales of Ford H. D. Club conducted a training period for reporters from H. D. Clubs of Deaf Smith County Monday afternoon.

Reporters met before the November session of the County H. D. Council in the county courtroom, Mrs. Gonzales, one of three delegates from this county to the state meeting, listed points to remember in club publicity for newspapers or radio.

At the Council meeting, members were reminded that Dec. 14 is the date of the annual Christmas party for all H. D. club women of the county. The party will be given in Community Center.

Announcement was made that the THDA convention next September will be held in conjunction with the National H. D. A. convention, which Texas clubs will host in Dallas. Mrs. A. E. Hodges of Hereford, new state president, will lead preparations for the national gathering which will bring women from all states.

Mrs. S. N. Thwait read verses titled A Farmer's Wife and with other Messenger H. D. Club members directed a game for the opening program. Mrs. J. G. Gandy, Council president, was in charge of business.

Others registered were Mmes. Tom Morgan and T. J. Parsons of Progressive H. D. Club; Mmes. Paul Corbett and M. W. Sumner, Cultural; Mmes. C. F. Newsom and Wayne Jones, Wyche; Mrs. Blanche Hardin and Miss Mary Brady, West Hereford.

Also Mmes. Leroy Johnson and H. D. Fowler, Dawn; Mmes. Jimmie D. Bradley and Wayne Sifford Bippus; Mrs. Roger Williams, North Hereford; Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent; Mrs. Raymond Smith, Ford.

BRIDGES REMAIN

FRANKFORT, Ky. - Seventeen covered bridges remain in Kentucky. There were 45 a couple of decades ago, but many have been lost to fire.

SAFE EGGS

DENVER - After Mrs. Ralph Schwartz discovered a robbins' nest with four eggs in a flower pot on the front porch, her husband roped off the porch until all the eggs were hatched safely.

According to National Geographic, some scientists suspect many things are right for the birth of life on Jupiter. They say the same circumstances and elements are present there now that existed on earth 4 1/2 billion years ago.

GM Gives School Automotive Parts

Students in the high school automotive class will be getting better training in the maintenance and repair of the latest automotive parts and equipment because of a recent presentation of component parts by General Motors.

E. W. Masters, zone service representative, Buick Motor Division, presented a 1970 General Motors V-8, 350 transmission with a brake assembly, to the class.

Other equipment presented was a steering gear and pump, carburetors and other fixtures and special tools.

Masters, in making the presentation, said this contribution was part of General Motors' continuing aid to education and was one of many such donations throughout the nation to help train young men in the field of auto mechanics.

"General Motors provides grants of financial aid for research, provides special fellowships, scholarships and instructional assistance to high school and vocational teachers of auto mechanics," Masters said. "its expenditures in recent years have exceeded $12-million annual toward the over-all support to higher education."

COUNTERFEITING ON RISE NEW DELHI - The Reserve Bank of India received 6,000 counterfeit bills including one rupee (13 cents) note in 1967-68 as compared with 4,947, the year before, an official report showed. The report also showed the counterfeiting of Indian coins is on the rise. More than 18,000 counterfeit coins were destroyed in 1967-68 as opposed to 9,514 the year before.

Hereford Nuns Attend Religious State Conference

Four sisters of St. Anthony's Catholic Church of Hereford were among the 4,000 laymen and educators who participated in the recent Texas Congress of Religious Education in Dallas.

Those from Hereford attending were Sister Emma Oswald, Sister Audelia Bustamente, Sister Genevieve Montoya and Sister Viola Baca.

The Congress featured nationally known speakers on topics ranging from mass media religion, teenagers, and contemporary Church music to Biblical interpretation, psychology of religion and ecumenism.

The Congress was hosted by the Catholic diocese of Dallas for the five-state region of Texas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

This was the second session of the Congress. The first was held in 1968 in San Antonio.

Hereford Study Club Plans For Holiday Season

Holiday activities were planned in Hereford Study Club's recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Garland Solomon, with Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon as co-hostess. The annual Christmas party for members and husbands was set for 7:30 p. m. Dec. 3 in Hereford Country Club.

Club members will take residents of Westgate Unit of Kings Manor retirement home out for rides to see Christmas decorations about mid-December.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seale gave the program on Christmas decorations, demonstrating with arrangements of greenery and colorful accessories. Seale also demonstrated the making of a gay Christmas corsage, which he presented to Mrs. Solomon.

CARD OF THANKS
WE would like to thank those of you who were so kind and thoughtful to us in our recent loss of our father and father-in-law. We thank you for your calls, cards, flowers and visits and most of all knowing you were there. May God bless and keep you. We sincerely thank you from our hearts.

Mr. & Mrs. Barnell Landers and the entire family of the Rev. Thomas Davis of Tom Oklahoma and Son, Staff, Sgt. Charles Davis of Ft. Riley, Kansas.
Peace and unity for all mankind.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to express our deep appreciation for the many kindnesses during the loss of our loved one. Thank you for the flowers, cards, calls, visits and prayers. May God bless each of you.

by MELVIN YOUNG
Glyn Bilbrey, accountant at Dick Norwood Chevrolet, got a hole in one at the local golf course last Saturday. The first one since he starting play in golf many years ago.

Bilbrey, playing with Walter Seed, Worth Covington and Roy Boyer, aced No. 2. The distance was 175 yards and he was using a No. 4 iron.

Saturday, by the way, was the day the wind was blowing so hard — and also the day the Hogs were taking out their vengeance on Tech's Red Raiders — so there were very few golfers on the course.

A dedicated golfer however, will play in almost any kind of weather.

—HB—
Bob and Marcy Hughes, avid Razorback fans, have recently been presented a wall plaque by Ray Moore, Bruce Miller and other Hog backers, with the inscription "Red Hog Inn" at the top, and the ugliest, meanest looking Razorback you have ever seen in the middle. The Hughes own and operate Bob's Barbecue located at Park and Avenue I. It's a well known hang-out for Razorback fans.

—HB—
Gee, it's tough to be the youngest in the family as Cheryl Easley, 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Easley will attest.

Cheryl, recently told by her father that she was too little to invite friends to go ice skating like her sisters had, looked up at her father with tears welling-up in her eyes and remarked: "Daddy, I'm awfully tired of being little."

—HB—
And for the benefit of those parents who have youngsters in college, we're reprinting the following from the Texas Tech University Daily.

The Tech Catalog for 1970-71 reads in part: "Each student should have approximately $400 available at the time of his first enrollment."

When Al LaBlock finished registration in August he was surprised and delighted that he had $27 left over. It would have probably gone unnoticed except he bragged about it to a friend in the University Center and was overheard by an undercover campus policeman posing as a janitor.

An emergency meeting was called by the Vice President in charge of the High Cost of Education (VPHCE).

He pounded on the table and glared at the Comptroller. "You'd better have a good reason why a student got past your fee-fixers with $27 left over!"

The comptroller was indignant. "Now just a minute. We don't know for sure if he had the money left over when he left the coliseum or when he left the book store."

"Don't try to pass the buck to me," said the book store manager. "I've checked with all the Deans and every one report that students are required to have 50 per cent more text books than last year."

"I'm having a security check made now with the FBI," reported the campus policeman leaning on his mop. "An honest man would have let us know he had money left over so we could have adjusted his fees."

The VPHCE said, "Think-of the precedent this will set. You let one student have money left over and next year no telling how many will try it."

"We could raise the price of tickets for football games but that would cut out students on scholarships," said the athletic director.

"I can get $27 in just one day on towing charges alone," said the policeman.

"Couldn't we install any pay booths in toilets?" asked the cleaning lady waiting for the meeting to end.

"Gentlemen, please," said the VPHCE. "That's not the point. The naked truth is that a student enrolled at Tech and had money left over. There must be a loophole somewhere."

Just then the telephone rang. The Vice President in charge of the High Cost of Education answered it.

"Hello? Oh, excuse me sir, I had no idea you'd call. You've heard about the $27? Sir, let me explain. . . Sir? Yessir, he could be a communist but. . . No, sir, the A-J hasn't heard about it yet. He has? I had no idea former presidents took. . . Would we like his recommendation? Oh, yes indeed, sir. . . His hand trembled slightly as he hung up the phone. "Let's see. Not counting the cleaning lady, there are six of us. Six into $27 is $4.50 each."

Ensign Miller Commissioned Naval Officer

Navy Ensign Bruce L. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce L. Miller, and husband of the former Vickie Inman of 418 Star St., all of Hereford, was commissioned an officer in the Naval Reserve upon completion of a phase of training at the Naval Aviation School's Command, Pensacola, Fla.

The course included instruction in naval history and world affairs, naval justice, leadership, naval orientation, pre-navigational-seamanship and military instruction.

He was a 1965 graduate of Culver Military Academy in Culver, Ind. and a 1969 graduate of the University of the South in Seawane, Tenn.

WHY ... Do Stores Start Christmas Before Thanksgiving?

That's a question that's often asked and it deserves a sincere answer!

Your newspaper appreciates the spirit that prompts many of the objections to early Christmas shopping promotions. However, when the reasons for the urge to "Shop Early" are examined, the most critical agree it's MORE than a problem for stores alone.

So we're happy to take this opportunity to present some of the problems that confront all stores at holiday time.

Every successful store directs its best effort toward perfecting a helpful service to ALL its customers. And since many customers ask stores to make it easier for them to complete their gift shopping before the crowded post-Thanksgiving period, Christmas merchandise and displays are brought forward early to accommodate them.

And scarcely a major store in the nation could cope with the store traffic that would be generated if any part of early Christmas shopping was postponed until after Thanksgiving. Even under present circumstances most stores are strained to capacity during the peak of the season, to maintain the kind of store service all shoppers have learned to expect.

When you recall the extremely crowded conditions of stores the final two or three weeks before Christmas the problems becomes evident.

If no early Christmas shopping were done this condition would be multiplied many fold. (Actually there would not be enough room behind store counters for enough sales people to serve shoppers during this period between Thanksgiving and Christmas.)

The same condition exists in regard to the children's visits to Santa Claus. Thousands of children and their parents look forward to their annual visit with him, and unless he makes an early appearance, many hundreds would be doomed to disappointment, simply because it's physically impossible to reach him in a shorter time.

Those in the store business know that an extremely large percentage of the Christmas gifts that are selected are items that are in plentiful supply the entire year.

If you were to ask the thousands of retail employees—(and as a group they represent one of the largest employee groups in Hereford they would tell you that much of the stress and strain of their Christmas would be relieved if the shopping public would anticipate Christmas shopping throughout the year. (Then you'd seldom hear your friends in retailing remark, "I'm simply worn down to my knees by Christmas Eve.")

Granted that the problem is not a one-sided one it should be recognized that stores are faced with the problems of convenient service to customers, of maintaining helpful employee relations, of providing a place where those of the public who can not, or do not, plan ahead may select the traditional gifts for their loved ones and friends.

We are sure that if all of our storekeepers could chat with you, personally and informally, that you would be convinced of their sincerity, and that in the true spirit of Christmas they would not be criticized for their efforts to perform a helpful service to their shopping public.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Farm Food Is For Men

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

The current president of Dawn Music Club isn't musical at all, she says. Doesn't sing; doesn't play an instrument.

"I'M THE MEMBER who listens," Mrs. Alfred Smith explains. She does like to hear music and to follow the club's study courses which add to her appreciation of good music. Otherwise, her only training in the subject was that received in public schools.

She has been a member of the Music Club 8 years, and before that was in a study club at Dawn which has since disbanded. Interest of a sister who last year became a DAR member in Washington, D. C., led Mrs. Smith to join the local chapter when it was formed recently, and she is its secretary.

Active in Hereford Garden Club the past five years, she serves this term as correspondent. Her liking for gardening is shown in the yard of her home northeast of Hereford, where the fenced lawn is farmed by rows of tall trees, shrubs and vines border the house and roses fill a plot and beds along the fence in the backyard.

ONE OF HER GARDENING habits she admits is unorthodox.

"There's probably not another garden club member in the world," she chuckles, "that digs a bed to set out a plant with a posthole digger!"

That tool is her favorite when the earth is to be dug deeply, and Corene Smith supposes it's because she dug postholes for ranch fences when she was growing up.

As Corene Cammack, she was born in Obar, N.M., a town no longer in existence, and lived on a ranch until she was married after finishing school at Nara Visa, N.M. She helped her father with various ranch chores including fence-building, and "grew up riding a horse."

OLDEST OF FOUR sisters, she also learned to help with household work and especially liked to sew. That is still a favorite pastime, and after making dresses for her three daughters while they were at home, she now sews for granddaughters.

There are 10 grandchildren in the Smith family now; Mrs. Smith enjoys being near the children of a daughter, Ginger, Mrs. Bob Jones, who lives at Amarillo, and those of their son, Mrs. Pat Smith, who farms at Dawn.

Not so often she is with the children of the other daughters, Sara, Mrs. Ronald Graham of Ohio, and Jeannette, Mrs. Tony Benson whose home is in California.

The Smiths have lived in the Dawn community 20 years, and before that for all years just west of Hereford. With clubs to keep her in touch with community activity now that her children are grown, Mrs. Smith never thinks of life on a farm as lonely.

WORK IN HER YARD where one corner is set aside as a vegetable garden each summer, in the kitchen where meals are prepared for men who do the farm work, at her sewing machine and in helping to tend the small animals of the farmyard, keep her well occupied.

"In case I want company I just go out and visit the dogs or kittens or chickens or calves in the pen or even the fish in the tank," she laughs.

Man-style cooking is the kind she has done most on the ranch and farms where she has lived, and Mrs. Smith insists her best results are on plain meat with gravy and potatoes or a hearty pot of beans.

But she has a favorite recipe for a dessert that goes especially well with heavy holiday meals because it is light and tart and delicious.

LEMON CHIFFON PIE

1 tsp. gelatine
¾ cup water
4 eggs, separated
1 tsp. grated lemon rind
1 cup sugar
¾ cup lemon juice
¾ tsp. salt
1 cup whipping cream, or 1 envelope dream-whip.

Mix gelatine and water, let set. Mix half-cup sugar, lemon juice, salt and beaten egg yolks; cook over low heat to form a custard; add rind and gelatine.

Beat egg whites until stiff and gradually add remaining sugar; beat again. Fold into custard mixture, fold in whipped cream and pour into two pie shells. If desired top with whipped cream.

MRS. SMITH PREFERS graham cracker crust for this pie, but pastry may be used.

Post-Nuptial Shower Compliments Mrs. Day

Mrs. Marshall Day, the former Miss Kyle Carter, was honored at a post-nuptial shower Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Joe Frank Clark, 135 Cherokee.

The couple was married Thursday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Guyrene Carter of Hereford and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Day of Andrews.

Co-hosting the courtesy with Mrs. Clark were Mmes. Opal Hefley, R. E. Doughman, Bill Waldrep, Kenneth Halbert, Inez Clark, Lonnie Swimmer and Miss Janie Reinart.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Clark and received by Mrs. Day, her grandmother, Mrs. G. K. Horton and her aunt, Mrs. J. F. Martin.

Miss Beki Edelman registered guests at a table centered with a miniature bride and groom.

Sheri Wagner served cake and Mrs. Don Spearman ladled punch from a table laid with white embroidered linen cloth in flower design. An arrangement of white roses in a crystal and silver vase centered the serving table.

The honoree was given a white sweetheart rose corsage. Her grandmother wore an orchid corsage.

For the evening Mrs. Day wore an empire waist lace frock with blue trim on cuffed sleeves and rounded neckline.

Husbands Guests At Messenger Club Supper

Husbands were guests of Messenger Home Demonstration club members for a Saturday evening Thanksgiving supper at the Calson House.

Following the supper couples went to the Elmer Northcutt home for a domino party honoring Mrs. S. N. Thweatt on her birthday.

Couples attending were Mr. and Mrs. Thweatt, Mr. and Mrs. Northcutt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Page, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Bradley and sons, Todd and Zay, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hagan, Mrs. N. A. Brown and Floyd Brown, M. and Mrs. Tom DeShazo, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garnett.

Sgt. Lineweaver Now At St. Louis

Air Force Master Sergeant Kenneth J. Lineweaver, son of Mrs. Viola M. Lineweaver, 1017 East St., Grinnell, Iowa, has arrived for duty at Headquarters, Aeronautical Chart and Information Center in St. Louis.

Sergeant Lineweaver, an education and training technician, previously served at Blytheville AFB, Ark.

The sergeant, whose father, Kenneth D. Lineweaver, lives in Brooklyn, Iowa, graduated in 1953 from Brooklyn Public High School and attended Southern Baptist College, Walnut Ridge, Ark. He also studied at Eastern Washington State College and Boise (Idaho) Junior College.

His wife, Estela, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gonzales of 141 Bennett, Hereford.

TWO NIECES OF Katie McGehee came up Sunday for a short visit, returning home Monday. They are Ruth Gaudier of Lubbock and Inez Yates of Olton.

WOVE HANGING GREELY, Colo. — Richard F. Ball, professor of art at the University of Northern Colorado, wove a large wall hanging for the 100th anniversary of Emanuel Lutheran Church in Seymour, Ind.

—Small Talk—

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

It was her husband who told me about it, very proudly, and I'm sure Julie Wert is quite proud of her accomplishment too. — or at least very pleased, if she has more than an ordinary share of humility about her work.

ONE OF HER... ARRANGEMENTS of music for a handbell choir has been accepted for publication in a 20-page collection of such musical arrangements, by Hope Publishing Co. of Chicago. Only six composers and arrangers are represented in this collection.

It is the first publication of music entirely for handbells ever to be issued by Hope Publishing Co. — which is an indication of a growing popularity for this rather recently revived type of choir.

Julie's selection to be published is an arrangement of an old American folk melody to which the hymn, Awake, Awake to Love and Work, is sung.

SHE HAS BEEN the arranger for the handbell choir at First United Methodist Church here, directed by her husband, Bob, so Hereford people have heard many examples of her work whether or not they were recognized as such.

As a teacher of music and director of musical programs in the elementary school system here; as a church choir member, soloist and sometimes substitute director; as a vocalist, alone or in groups, on various community programs Mrs. Wert is well known in musical activities of the city and it's nice that she has achieved recognition in wider circles.

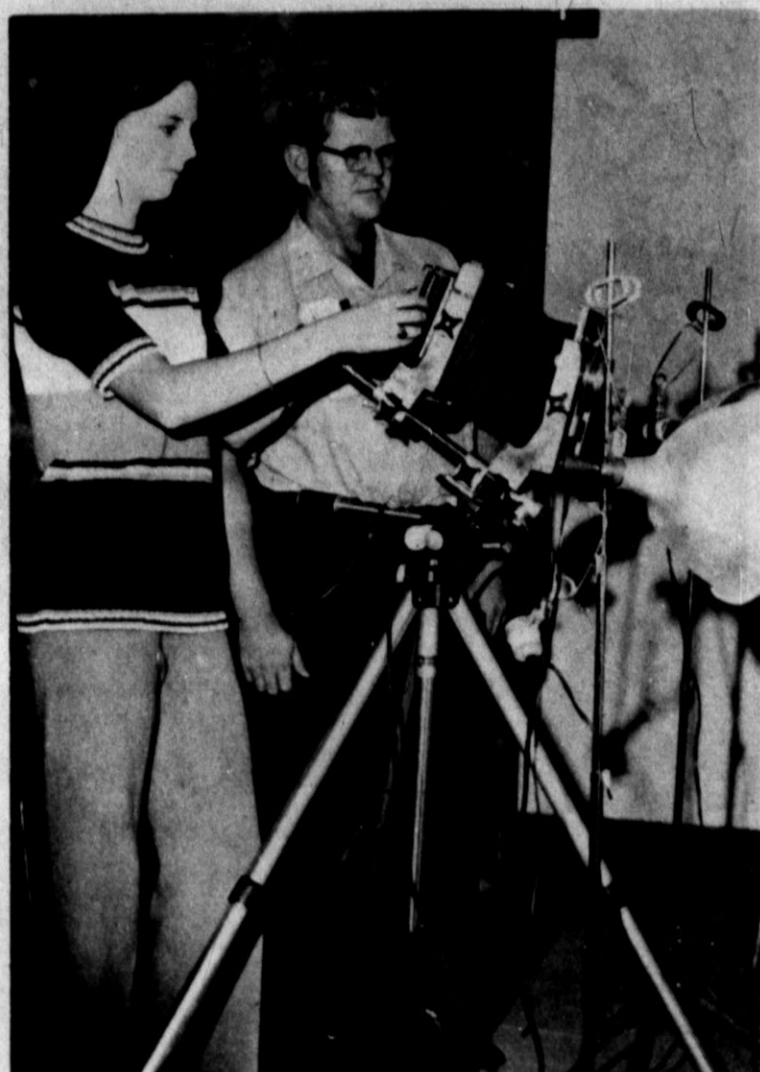

stute director; as a vocalist, alone or in groups, on various community programs Mrs. Wert is well known in musical activities of the city and it's nice that she has achieved recognition in wider circles.

THERE ARE THINGS happening to people, though, that you don't like to hear about. Like the accident that put Helen-Miller in a hospital for a few days, and is keeping her in bed a while.

She was driving homeward when a tire went down during a rain on the highway near Jackboro, I understand, and the car hit a tree when it swerved off the road. A broken ankle, cuts and bruises were mentioned in the list of injuries.

But she does have a phone beside her bed so her friends can reach her that way as well as by visits. Kathryn Benefield reported after she had been over to see the invalid. And considering the possibilities in such a highway mishap, Helen is probably thankful this Thanksgiving that she is in no worse shape, and improving.

AND DID I TELL you I had visitors on the weekend? It was fun having my brother, Doyle Vinson, and his 10-year old son drop in for a short stay. Nothing like a boy about Lee's size to liven up the place for me and Sam, the dog.

ICT STUDENT OF THE WEEK — Industrial Cooperative Training student this week is Miss Lisa Williamson, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Williamson of Route 4. Miss Williamson is photographer at Bill Brady Photography Studio and is shown above with Brady. She is a senior at Hereford High School and plans to attend Tech University. —Staff Photo

Review Is Given By Mrs. Formby

Mrs. Clint Formby was the program guest of El Llano Study Club Monday evening to review Alice Duer Miller's book, The White Cliffs. Mrs. Gerald Mann and Mrs. John Jacobson Jr. were hostesses in the Mann home.

Mrs. Formby presented dramatically the moving story in verse, written during early months of World War II when Britain was under siege by the Nazi air force, of an American woman who had married an Englishman, lived and brought up her son in an English home, then saw his life claimed in defense of the land which was hers only by adoption.

The reviewer was introduced by Mrs. Jim Bookout, club president who had arranged the program.

Also introduced were two new club members, Mrs. Harold Bierman and Mrs. Virgil Merriott, and three guests, Mrs. Tommy Braddy, Mary Hale and Mrs. R. L. Ethridge.

Thanksgiving symbols decorated the table from which refreshments were served.

Other members present were Mmes. R. C. Hoelscher, Elmer Kimball, Raymond White, Boyd Foster, Ben Childers, Pete Caviness, Ivan Block and Labry Ballard.

WT Landed Perryton Star

CANYON — Much water ran under the bridge between the time little Scott Doores wrote an eighth grade English paper and the time a 6-5, 200-pound Scott Doores started looking for a college to attend after completing his athletic eligibility at Perryton High School.

Playing in District 1-AAA, he almost singlehandedly destroyed Hereford two years in a row in basketball. He was Perryton's outstanding player while the Rangers were powering their way to the state AAA finals, where they finally lost by one point in the state championship game.

When Doores completed his three sports (football, basketball and track) during his senior year he had three choices among colleges to play basketball.

"Texas Tech, SMU and West Texas State were the only three schools who waited on me," said Scott. "Others were interested in me after football and still others talked to me after basketball, but wanted me to sign then."

After playing football and basketball, he qualified for the regional track meet in three events—120-yard high hurdles, pole vault and high jump. Several colleges contacted him concerning track, but he decided to pass up that sport for basketball.

"I visited West Texas first, was impressed and decided to come to school here," he said.

Last year, during his freshman season, Doores tallied 18.5 points per game for the well-balanced club and helped the team to a 21-5 record. A non-major, he maintained a B average in his classroom work.

During the summer, Scott stayed in Canyon and worked for a construction company. On a weekend visit home to Perryton, he was looking through some of his school papers. Among the papers he found his eighth grade English paper.

"We were asked to write an autobiography in the class and tell what we expected to do in the future," Scott said. "I wrote that I wanted to play basketball at West Texas State."

Another factor for Scott in his decision to join coach Dennis Walling at West Texas was that his uncle, Marvin Smith, played football for the Buffaloes and was a member of the 1950 winning Sun Bowl team.

Doores followed in his uncle's footsteps in being a standout football player. He earned all-district honors on both offense and defense as an end for Perryton High his senior year when the Rangers were ranked as the number one Class AAA team in the state for eight weeks.

He averaged 18 points per game in helping lead Perryton to the state basketball tourney that same year and again earned LONGMONT, Colo. — A. T. Semple of Longmont spent 12 years writing a book called "Grassland Improvement" before finishing it in his 75th year. Then he began work immediately on a second edition, designed, he said, "to bring the first one up-to-date."

CROYDON, England — More than 50 police spent five hours searching Croydon when four-year-old Lisbeth Bastrod from Norway disappeared. She was found enjoying a soak in a bathtub in another guest's room in the hotel where she was staying.

ed all-district honors. In track he high-jumped 6-2, ran the hurdles in 14.8 and pole-vaulted 12-4.

Hours of practice this summer with former Perryton teammate Bob Gobin (a potential basketball starter at Texas A-M this year) aided Doores in his play this fall. It was the first summer he worked only on basketball.

"In past summers I had spent time throwing a football around," said Doores. "Playing basketball in the evenings has given me additional confidence this fall."

Doores is in a battle for a starting forward berth on the basketball team with fellow sophomores Keith Batiste and Jerry Christian.

Holiday Decor To Be Featured On Homes Tour

Decorations of the Christmas season will be featured in the Tour of Holiday Homes which La Madre Mia Study Club will stage Dec. 6 to benefit its fund for service projects. Each of the six homes open to visitors that afternoon will be decorated by a Hereford flower shop, and the decorative arrangements will be for sale. Also on sale will be handmade items suitable for gifts, in a bazaar at the Dean Herring home.

That home, north of the city on Highway 385, and the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hacker on Fifteenth St., will be decorated by Clark's House of Flowers.

A new flower shop, Mr. G's, is responsible for the holiday arrangements in the James Gentrys' home, 547 Willow Lane, and that of Mr. & Mrs. Bobby Owen, next door to the Herring's.

Park Avenue Floral will decorate the homes of the Herschel Blacks, 1536 Brevard, and the Ben Scotts, 136 Juniper. Except Mrs. Hacker, hostesses at the homes on tour are La Madre Mia members.

People who cook with pride cook with GAS. Mrs. Rolan Simpson does.

Some of the world's best cooks are found in the kitchens of America, and they give themselves every cooking advantage, like gas range cooking. Good cooks like Mrs. Simpson and nine out of 10 professional chefs agree that precise temperature control makes the difference in good cooking, and with gas you get exactly that. Gas also gives immediate response and constant temperature, so important in oven cooking.

So, give yourself every advantage and cook with gas. Remember, people who cook with pride cook with gas.

Here's one of Mrs. Simpson's favorite recipes.

A Mother, A Father

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following two poems were written by a Hereford High School student, Ronnie McDonald, and subsequently were printed in a regional publication.)

WHAT IS A MOTHER?

Somewhere between the youthful energy of a teen-ager and the golden years of a woman's life there lives a marvelous and loving person known as "Mother."

A mother is a curious mixture of patience, kindness, understanding, discipline, industriousness, purity, and love.

A mother can be at one and the same time, both "lovelorn counselor" to a heartache daughter, and "head football coach" to an athletic son.

A mother can sew the tiniest stitch in the material for that dainty prom dress, and she is equally experienced in threading through the heaviest traffic with a station wagon.

A mother is the only creature on earth who can cry when she's happy, laugh when she's heart-broken and work when she's feeling ill.

A mother is as gentle as a lamb and as strong as a giant. Only a mother can appear so weak and helpless and yet be the same one who put the fruit jar cover on so tight that even Dad can't get it off.

A mother is a picture of helplessness when Dad is near, and a marvel of resourcefulness when she's all alone.

A mother has the angelic voice of a member in the celestial choir as she sings Brahms lullaby to a babe held tight in her arms; yet this same voice can dwarf the sound of an amplifier when she calls her boys in for supper.

A mother has the fascinating ability to be almost everywhere at once and she alone can somehow squeeze an enormous amount of living into an average day.

A mother is old-fashioned to her teen-ager; just "Mom" to her third grader; and simply "MAMA" to little two year old sister.

But there is no greater thrill in life, than to point to that wonderful woman and to be able to say to all the world, "That's my Mother!"

WHAT IS A FATHER?

When you are small, a father is two large hands. These hands pick you up real easy, and help you cross the street. They put worms on hooks better than any other hands in the whole world.

A father is the man who sits at the head of the table. He gets two pork chops. You get one. He is nice to be near when there's thunder and lightning. Or other big trouble.

A father understands when you think you're too old to be kissed goodnight. He is the one who teaches you how to tie your shoe laces. He buys your first razor, and gives you permission to take the car. . . sometimes, and then comforts Mother when you aren't home on time. Sometimes he helps you fail algebra and geometry.

A father spends most of his life reaching in his pocket for money to give someone for something. His favorite words are, "Now, when I was your age. . ."

A father is the person you want to be like when you grow up especially when he takes you fishing or lets you sit on his lap and help steer the car when you are little, or lets you have the keys to the car when you're a little older.

A father is someone you can ignore; but you can never forget him. Sometimes a father gets angry and hollers real loud; but he never stays mad very long. All in all, he's a pretty good guy. I think he likes me more than he ever says. . . I can tell by the way he looks at me, or pats my head, shakes my hand or gives my shoulder a squeeze every now and then.

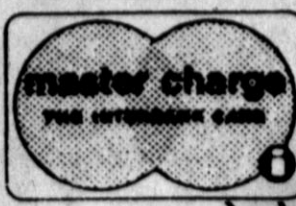

A father is a small boy grown taller and wiser. He works hard to make sure Mother and we kids will always have a house to live in, food to eat, shoes to wear, and that we kids all get to finish high school. . . sometimes even college.

LANGUAGE PROBLEMS

MBABANE, Swaziland — The national airline of this tiny state decided to print tickets in Swazi instead of English and ran up against some tricky linguistic problems. Technical terms are non-existent in the unsophisticated tribal tongue. The official translator gave up trying to translate such officialness as "unless expressly so provided, nothing herein contained shall waive any limitation of liability of carrier. . ."

A committee was formed but soon bogged down in disagreement. Swazi Air still does not have its vernacular tickets and even when the translation is done, admitted managing director Rene Lion-Cachet, "the Swazi themselves will probably have to turn to the English version of the ticket to find out what the Swazi version means."

Strict flag etiquette provides that the only occasion the Stars and Stripes legally can be burned, is when the flag is tattered and worn-out. In that case, the flags are supposed to be taken apart, the blue field and stripes burned separately and the ashes then buried.

reasons

To Be

Thankful

Read the 150th Psalm for a clue.

It begins and ends with a call for all men to praise God.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Perhaps we would do well to follow David in this matter of being Thankful. Our Pilgrim Fathers did. They put God right in the center of every Thanksgiving day. It was the Lord's Day . . . not just another day void of work. Then just what is there about Thanksgiving, about God, that makes me glad? What is it that lifts my face to Heaven when I am sad and when I am glad? Too many times we find the weak, the hungry, the sick and the sad way out in front with their Thanksgiving to God for His fairness, His kindness and His goodwill.

Certainly the Great God goes beyond justice to establish love as the central virtue. He gave up His Son to prove it to us beyond a doubt. He calls on us to be very Thankful for health, if we have it — for wealth, if we own it — and for that friend who can turn us on when our way is dark.

He invites all of us to live like women and men who know very well about God, . . . to be grateful for the few days He gave us which have been full of the trouble He promised. Don't ever let us say a final farewell to dear ones, but let us be Thankful for His promise that we may find them again.

Thank you, Lord, for these reasons and many more. Amen.

WANT COMPUTERS

LONDON — Britain's public libraries lent over 600 million books during 1969, the Municipal Journal reported. The Journal urged that computers be introduced to cut down on time-consuming, monotonous tasks.

EDUCATION GROWTH

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Growth in Kentucky's public colleges and universities the past decade has exceeded the national average considerably, the state council on Public Higher Education reports.
