Seeks Re-Election

Robert L. Thompson, county clerk, who this week announced his candidacy for a second term in the office.

Thompson Will Seek Re-Election

Robert L. Thompson this week authorized the Brand to announce his candidacy for re-election to the office of county clerk and district clerk, subject to the Democratic Primary.

In making his announcement, Mr. Thompson stated that he was making no claims to being able to do the job better than anyone else would do it. "I believe, however," the candidate asserts, "that I am capable of doing the job as well as anyone else could do it, and that my experience in office has been valuable both to me and to the people of Deaf Smith County whom I serve."

"I have tried, at all times," Mr. Thompson says, "to make the clerk's office an office for all of the people; I have tried to give you the very best service of which I am capable—because, as an office-holder I feel myself to be a servant of the people."

"I have enjoyed my work as your county and district clerk, and I believe I have discharged the job efficiently," Mr. Thompson declares. "In asking for re-election I am standing on my record and pledging myself to continue doing the very best job I can for you, the people of Deaf Smith County."

Sign Registration Card For Fire Fighting Now

Mayor C. J. Paddock this week asked persons who would volunteer as fire marshals in case of any emergency to come by the City Hall and register for the service.

"Of course, we consider air-raids a pretty remote possibility here," the mayor said, "but there could be an emergency where it would be a good idea to have volunteer fire fighters stationed in various parts of the town, so we would appreciate the co-operation of any person who thinks he could perform this job."

The co-ordination of fire fighting with other branches of civilian defense is being worked out in most towns in Texas, the mayor points out.

Hereford Merchants Go Dallas-Ft. Worth Markets

Hereford ready-to-wear dealers are in Fort Worth and Dallas this week attending the annual spring market.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Baer of the Popular Store left Sunday and expect to be back by Friday or Saturday of this week. E. D. Fox and Mrs. C. W. Seed of the Vogue will probably return Sunday or Monday from the down-state markets, and Mrs. W. F. Gillis of the Fashion Shoppe will probably leave the latter part of this week for Ft. Worth and Dallas. Mrs. Gillis delayed her trip because of the illness of Mr. Gillis, who is improving from pneumonia.

125 Persons Attend First Aid Meeting

A group of about 125 Deaf Smith County citizens interested in civilian defense met in the District Court Room Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock with A. J. Schroeter, Civilian Defense Co-ordinator, and J. C. Reese of the Department of Public Safety, who will instruct classes in first aid. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and make plans for a first aid class for those who wish to qualify to give assistance in any war or disaster emergency. A great deal of interest and enthusiasm was expressed by those present.

Mr. Reese pointed out that it is difficult to give the necessary training to a large number of people and that attempting to instruct a class of more than 25 or 30 is unsatisfactory. In view of this fact, it was suggested and agreed upon that a class in first aid for men be taught from 7:30 to 9:30 on Tuesday and Friday nights. Twenty-five men registered for this class.

Davis Demonstrates Fishing Ability In Hoisting Old Glory

A. H. Davis may not be anything extra as a fisherman when it comes to the "little fishy in the brook" brand of the sport; but on a flagpole, fishing for the end of a rope which had taken a fast ride to the top of the pole, he is terrific. Just ask any one of the kibitzers who watched Davis in his high trapeze act Wednesday morning.

It seems that the rope, weighted on the end, got away from Davis and rode to the top of the pole when he started to put up the flag at the post office Wednesday morning—and since flag etiquette—not to mention post office rules—demand that the flag whip the breeze every day, Davis had to use his fisherman instinct and pole climbing technique to get down the offending rope. It took three ladders, lashed together and looking plenty shaky; and after he had climbed as far as he could Davis had to fish for the end of the rope with a fishing pole with a hook attached to the end.

The job looked dangerous, but no casualties were reported except for maybe some cricks in the neck among spectators at the free show.

Light Court Docket in Feb.

Mrs. Hodges To Run For County Treasurer Post

Mrs. Velma Hodges this week authorized the Brand to announce her candidacy for re-election to the office of County Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary.

In making her announcement Mrs. Hodges states she has thoroughly enjoyed working with and for the people of Deaf Smith County; and that she believes her term's experience will enable her to fill the job capably.

"I have tried at all times," Mrs. Hodges said, "to give the people of this county the best work of which I am capable. I will appreciate your support, and will continue to do my best to merit it."

Clubs, Other Groups Can Now Buy Bonds

Postmaster J. R. Lipscomb stated this week that Series "F" Defense Bonds now offer a small ($25) denomination bond available to clubs and other organizations which wish to purchase a bond with treasury funds.

Previously the small denomination bonds could be sold only to individuals and there has been a widespread demand for sale of the bonds to organizations which desire to co-operate with the defense savings campaign.

Allred To Run In Precinct 3

Ernest T. (Dick) Allred this week authorized the Brand to announce his candidacy for the office of commissioner of precinct 4, subject to action of the Democratic Primary in July.

In making his announcement, Mr. Allred said that if the voters see fit to return him to the office that he will do his best to make them a real hand, serving the best interests of the precinct and of the county to the best of his ability. As in the past, he will work toward holding expenses as low as possible at the present time when other taxes are increasing.

"If you think that I am the man for the job, I will certainly appreciate your support and influence."

J. O. Newell Is Candidate For Re-election

The Brand is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. O. Newell for re-election to the office of sheriff and tax assessor-collector, subject to the Democratic Primary in July. Mr. Newell prepared the following statement upon announcing for office:

"In announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of sheriff and tax assessor-collector I do not want to make any boastful claims of what I may have done in the past, nor to make any promises which I cannot fulfill in the future. As to the past I am willing to let the record speak for itself; as to the future, if again elected, I can only say that I will, in the best way that I know, continue with the job you have entrusted to me."

"Between now and election time I shall endeavor to see each and every voter in Deaf Smith County. I may not be able to get around to all for as you know we still have a rather full day's work to do every day. But whether I am able to call on you personally or not, please remember that this is an earnest solicitation of your vote and support at the July primary election."

"These are troubled times. The world is at war. Democracy is on trial. These are statements often heard nowadays; and how very true they are. And these facts should remind us that there will likely be many issues of both local and national interest to vote upon this year. I would like to see every person of legal age in Deaf Smith County qualify himself or herself as a voter. I want to make an especial appeal to the young people, those who may be casting their first vote this year—get your Exemption Certificate or your Poll Tax receipt now, before January 31st, then, at election time go to the polls and vote according to your own dictates. This is the American way."

Poll Tax Due Before Feb. 1st

With only eight more days in which to pay taxes, Tax Collector J. O. Newell today urged that citizens pay the tax this week and avoid the delay of a last minute rush.

Persons who have reached the age of 21 since Jan. 1, 1941, are entitled to an exemption, Mr. Newell said, and should obtain an exemption certificate at the tax collector's office before Feb. 1.

"This is an election year," Mr. Newell points out, "and we urge that all qualified voters pay their poll tax and vote."

The state poll tax is $1.75 and city poll taxes, which are also due this month, are $1.00.

Bond Quota For County Is Set

"This figures around $25,000 a month," he pointed out, "adding that the first half of January was near the quota figure."

For benefit of interested persons, Mr. Ricketts is erecting a large thermometer to be placed in the post office. The thermometer will register Defense Bond and Stamp sales from time to time and will give the public an accurate account of sales made in this community.

Accident Is Verdict In Death of Two

A verdict of accidental death by asphyxiation was turned in Tuesday morning in the death of S. H. Keahy, about 10 years old, of Ben Wheeler, an Zandt County, and Floyd King, 47 years old, of Grand Saline.

The men were found dead about 2:45 o'clock Monday afternoon in their cabin at a Hereford tourist camp.

Keahy, according to members of his family who arrived Tuesday to claim the body, was hauling hogs into the Panhandle section. King had accompanied him for the trip. The two men hopped into the tourist camp between one and two o'clock Monday morning; and R. Schroeter, manager of the camp, noticed that afternoon that the light was still burning in their cabin, which was locked on the inside. He called Sheriff J. O. Newell, who found the bodies.

All windows, as well as the door to the cabin, were closed and a fire was turned high. One of the men had evidently wakened to get up and fallen to the floor.

Officers said that the men were evidently "just not familiar with the danger of fumes from a gas stove in a tightly closed room."

Precautions About Handling NATURAL GAS

In Case Of Air-Raid Alarms!

Natural gas is the safest fuel you could be using during an air raid. BUT, the HANDLING of natural gas is a technical matter, requiring the services of trained men who know how to avoid the hazards involved.

It is therefore extremely important that everyone should study and follow the carefully prepared instructions relating to the handling of natural gas during air raid alarms. If these instructions are not followed, serious consequences may result. Untrained persons should not attempt to turn gas off and on at the meters.

Following are the official instructions which have been approved and adopted by local Office of Civilian Defense. They are simple. Read them carefully. Discuss them in the family circle so all will understand. Cut them out and post them where all can see them. Above all, follow them!

In Case Of An Air-Raid Alarm:

1. Make no attempt to shut off the gas at the meter.
2. Simply turn off all burners which you customarily turn on and off. Do not turn off pilot lights.
3. Only in case the house or building is badly damaged should the gas be turned off at the meter.
4. If, for any reason, the gas is turned off at the meter, do not turn it on again yourself. Call for a trained man.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF RELIGION

Because the publishing of Bibles has come to a practical standstill on the European continent, while the bindery of the British and Foreign Bible Society, in a London suburb, has been destroyed by an incendiary bomb—with the loss of not only the stock, but most of the machinery—the American Bible Society is busy with "emergency projects" to meet some of the calls coming from all parts of the world. Recent undertakings of the Society include 130,000 Spanish Bibles, 10,000 New Testaments and 150,000 gospels in Russian, 50,000 Gospels of St. John for Greek war prisoners, 600 pulpit Bibles for American army chapels, 10,000 Bibles for southern France, and the reprinting of the Slovak Bible.

The President of the United States, by act of Congress, is to be honorary chairman of the Muhlenberg Bicentennial Commission which in 1942 will celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the arrival in America of Dr. Henry Melchior Muhlenberg. Dr. Muhlenberg planted the Lutheran Church all along the eastern coast of the United States, and organized the many scattered churches of the faith which had been organized in America even prior to 1742. His family gave America many of its outstanding early religious leaders, including Dr. William A. Muhlenberg, a Protestant Episcopal clergyman, and founder of the noted St. Luke's Hospital in New York City.

The Board of National Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has made twenty grants totaling more than $40,000 from a special emergency fund to help churches adjacent to defense industries to help care for new situations that need added building or added ministerial or teaching personnel. In some cases specially trained workers have been provided for limited periods; in other cases whole buildings have been remodeled so that they can care for the religious needs of defense workers, their families, and especially their children.

According to Prof. Oliver J. Caldwell, of the faculty of Nanking University and now in the United States on furlough, there are three million Christians in China, more than two-thirds of these being Roman Catholics. "But the influence of the Christian community is much greater than its size," says Prof. Caldwell. "There are millions of sympathizers who follow the ideals of Christianity. Countless others are better Buddhists and better human beings because of their contacts with Christian missionaries—Generalissimo and Madame Chiang Kai-shek are Christians, and so are H. H. Kung, T. V. Soong and others less well known in America. The Christians in the various ministries exercise much power. Many of the most important men in the diplomatic corps are members of the church, as are such influential figures as Chang Chin, governor of Szechwan, and Feng Yu Hsiang, the famous Chinese general. A survey of the Chinese Who's Who reveals that of all the college graduates & lists, more than half were educated in Christian colleges."

Third largest collection of New Testament manuscripts in this country is privately owned by the Rev. L. Franklin Gruber, president of the Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary at Maywood, Illinois. Dr. Gruber was a pioneer in this field and for a long time his collection was the largest in the country. Today the collection at the University of Michigan is the largest; another at the University of Chicago ranks second.

The migration into Free China has affected the hospitals just as seriously as the churches, and the result is even more apparent because medicine and bandages must be bought if the hospitals are to render service.

Automobile Rationing In Effect Soon

Dallas.—Preliminary and tentative details of the program for rationing new passenger automobiles now "frozen" as to sales and deliveries, have been received by William H. Brooks, regional executive officer to the Office of Price Administration here, from the OPA in Washington.

After the extended freeze order expires February 2, the rationing plan will go into effect. Final details of the rationing plan will be made available before that date, Mr. Brooks was advised.

The preliminary details of the passenger car rationing program as drawn by the OPA include:

(1) A rationing plan modeled after that developed recently for the rationing of new tires, to be carried out through the same local boards that are now set up in every county of the country.

(2) Establishment of a list of eligible buyers, including (A) physicians, surgeons, visiting nurses, or farm veterinarians; (B) persons engaged in fire-fighting, crime prevention or detection, enforcement of laws relating to the protection of public health and safety, and the transportation of mail; (C) persons who had purchased as of January 2 new cars then in dealers' hands but who had not been able to get delivery on that date.

(3) Provision that such buyers including government agencies

cies needing cars for the purposes listed, will have to secure certificates from local rationing boards permitting them to make purchases. It is hoped that government agencies falling within the eligible classes will anticipate their new car needs for some months hence, thus tending to move the vehicles out of dealers' hands quickly. In this connection, the rationing boards will probably be instructed to give consideration to future as well as present needs of such governmental agencies in issuing certificates.

(4) In addition, there will be certain "exempt" categories of purchasers who will not have to secure certificates in order to buy new automobiles but who will be required to supply information as to the use of the vehicle. These will include: automobile dealers buying new cars for resale; the following Federal Government agencies—the Reconstruction Finance Corp., the Army and Navy, the Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civilian Aeronautic Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, and the Office of Scientific Research and Development; purchasers for foreign governments under the Lend-Lease Act, and holders of certain high priority ratings.

The auto freeze order applies to automobiles, trucks, buses and trailers until rationing goes into effect. The prohibition of sales applies to all 1942 model vehicles, regardless of the number of miles they have been used, and to all other models that have been used for less than 1,000 miles. Under the order, regularly established dealers may buy and receive vehicles otherwise affected, but cannot sell them under certain provisions. These provisions allow certain sales to the Army, Navy, designated governmental agencies, holders of A-1-J or higher preference ratings for vehicle purchase, and holders of Army and Navy prime contracts assigned an A-1-J rating or higher.

War Dept. Rules No Publication Of No. Men Called By Draft

Since the war declaration, no more definite news of men being examined for, or inducted into, the army under selective service law, has been released in Deaf Smith County, and the local selective service board this week made a formal announcement that such information was being withheld because of orders from the war department.

Many men have been calling at the office to find out when their number will likely be called, Miss Clara Wedel, clerk of the board, said this week. "We understand why these men are interested," says Miss Wedel, "but we simply haven't the authority to publish this information."

Theory behind the war department ruling is that information of the number of men being called might be of value to the enemy.

AAA Sponsors Program Wednesday Night

Three films, "Plows, Plains and Peace," "Grassland," and "Salt of the Earth," were presented Wednesday night to an appreciative farmer audience at the district courtroom.

The program was under the direction of the Deaf Smith County AAA and featured in addition to the pictures, a talk by County Agent A. R. Bateman, stressing the need for farmers to gather up scrap iron and conserve metal in every way to help beat the Japs.

County Judge A. J. Schroeter showed some of the moving pictures which are being exhibited in the rural schools of the county.

First Batch Of Chicks From New Hatchery Due

That his first hatch of baby chicks will come off February 8, was today announced by Jack Wright, manager of the West Texas Feed and Seed Co., where a new commercial incubator has recently been installed. "The first hatch will include heavy breeds, all from blood-tested flocks," he said. "After February 8, we will continue to take off new hatches each Monday and Thursday until further notice."

Mr. Wright says that the hatchery will also do customs hatching, where eggs come from blood-tested flocks.

Aircraft Will Need Employees

Dallas.—Thousands of additional employees will be needed to meet the demand for increased airplane production, North American Aviation, Inc., announced this week. The company's personnel department issued a statement on employment policy to guide prospective aircraft workers in making applications for work in North American's plant here.

The employment policy applies to women as well as men, the company pointed out. Women are being used in productive factory work, and the number of women aircraft workers in the plant will be continually increased.

More than 95 per cent of the employees in North American Aviation's Dallas plant are Texans. The company announced that it will continue to give preference to Texas applicants for work in the Dallas factory.

Principal points in the statement on employment policy follow:

No one is authorized to use the name of North American Aviation in soliciting students for aircraft training schools. The company has not endorsed any school, public or private, and does not intend to.

Pre-employment training is highly desirable. North American Aviation uses an "in-plant" instruction program and each new employee is actually in training under the tutelage of leadmen, supervisors and foremen until he attains prescribed efficiency.

Any competent man or woman who can qualify to meet North American Aviation standards is eligible for employment.

Various aptitude tests are given applicants to determine their ability. Applicants for certain types of work are also required to attend a one-week testing school operated by the company at the plant.

Pre-selection of applicants is handled by the United States Employment Service. With its state-wide and nation-wide system of registration, the employment service is kept continually informed of North American's labor requirements, and is able to refer applicants from its registries, as they are needed, to the company's personnel department.

An applicant's gate is maintained at the west entrance to the plant. Anyone may make application there, but prospective applicants with notices of reference from the United States Employment Service are given preference. Because of limited accommodations in the Personnel department waiting room, applicants frequently have to stand in line outside the gate until they can be admitted to the building.

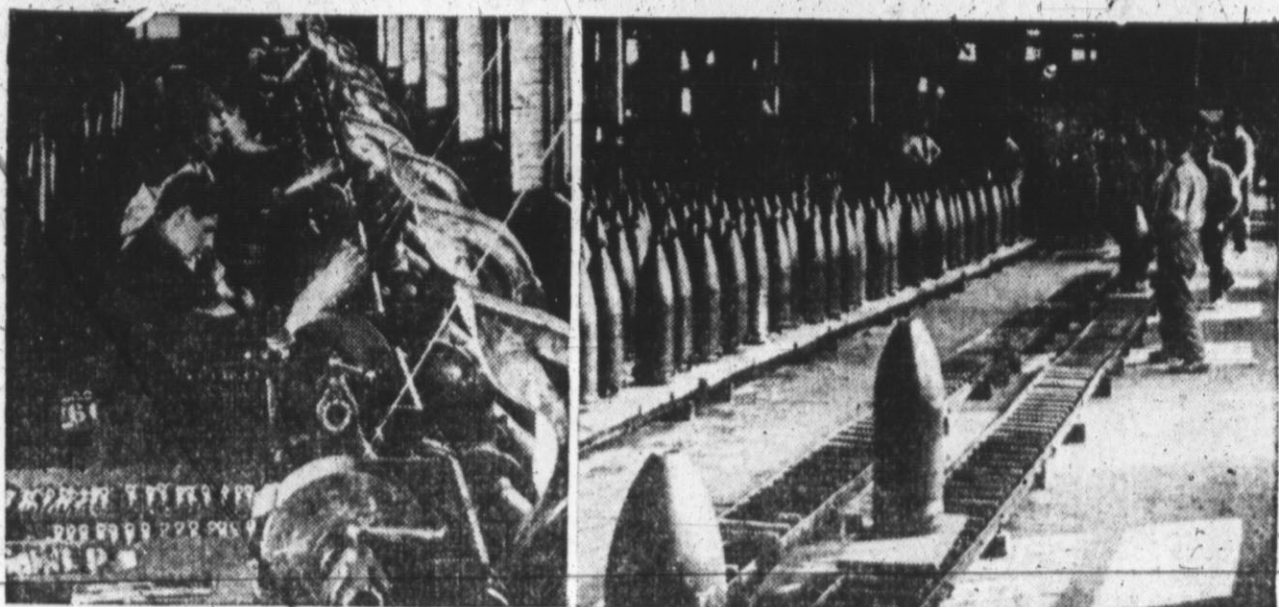

In the employment of women, preference is given to the wives and dependents of men in the United States, military and naval services, all other considerations being equal.

A state registered birth certificate must be furnished by each applicant, before he can even be considered for employment.

Employment by North American Aviation is no guarantee of a man's deferment by his selective service board. The company makes no requests for deferment unless it considers a man's service in the factory vital to aircraft production. And even if a request for deferment is made, there is no guarantee the selective service board involved will grant it.

Construction of freezer locker plants is increasing rapidly in Texas, California, Mississippi, and in Kansas.

... And We Can Do It Again!

NATIONAL UNITY has always been the touchstone of victory for American arms. When the U.S. entered the First World War, nearly twenty-five years ago, isolationists and interventionists promptly united, U.S. industry swiftly mobilized for the gigantic task of arming and equipping the greatest citizen army in the nation's history. Production began immediately on three and a half million rifles and bayonets (left), a quarter of a million machine guns, countless shells (right), fourteen million uniforms and twenty-seven million pairs of shoes (below).

IN THE NATION'S last great war effort, every citizen took part. Through Liberty Loans the American people raised the hitherto unheard of sum of twenty-four billion dollars. By the spring of 1918, the nation had called nearly three million of its citizens into the Army and Navy; another three million men were at work in U.S. industrial plants and shipyards. Drawing a striking parallel between this united effort and America's all-out war program of today, the latest March of Time film, "Our America at War", shows how the U.S. once before met fearful crisis and emerged victorious. A film that is calculated to dispel much of the natural apprehension that always accompanies the first impact of war, this latest March of Time is a pattern for victory. The picture shows how a new united America, rallying around a new generation, can and will "do it again".

Filipinos Want To Fight, But Quirk Of Alien Laws Prevents Enlistment

Washington.—Twenty thousand Filipinos, not citizens, but residing in the United States, would like to fight for Uncle Sam, either in their own native islands or anywhere else, if the American government would only let them.

Their idea is to form one of two divisions, officered in part by Americans and in part by Filipinos, and to get active service after six months of intensive training. And they want particularly to fight Japs, and not be turned into labor battalions or anything of that sort.

But "Filipinos are not American citizens," is the answer. "Filipinos in the United States are in an anomalous position, and they were born here. In that sense, they are American citizens."

Under the Alien Registration act they have to register, just as does a German, Italian or Jap.

The Department of Justice says 83,674 Filipinos were registered in the continental United States and possessions like Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands and Alaska. The census bureau has not yet revealed its figures. But it is estimated some 50,000 Filipinos live in Hawaii and over 32,000 in the United States.

California, Oregon and Washington have the biggest Filipino population. Those who are not students or business representatives, are mainly agricultural workers. In Washington they are mainly taxi drivers and house servants. Many used to be in the United States navy, serving in the officers' mess.

Filipinos in this country have never shown any great longing to go back home to live, although now they are ready to go back there to fight. As an aftermath of the depression, many Filipinos in America were very poor. In July, 1935, a house act provided means for Filipinos to return to the Philippines at of 20,000 was in barracks by the American government's expense. This provision ended Dec. 31, 1940. The authors of the bill estimated that between 20,000 and 30,000 would apply for repatriation. Actually only 2,190 accepted free transportation to Manila.

FILIPINOS WANT TO FIGHT

Right after the treacherous attack by the Japs on American forces in Hawaii, followed by invasion of the Philippines, J. M. Elizalde, resident commissioner of the Philippines to the United States, received letters from Filipinos all over the United States expressing a desire to join up with the American forces. So widespread was this movement, that Elizalde took it up with the war department.

A few weeks ago Secretary of War Stimson wrote back: "Many Filipinos who are citizens of the United States are now serving in our army. Unfortunately, under our present law, a person who is not a citizen of the United States, may not be commissioned or enlisted in the army. Consequently, a change in the law will be required if Filipinos, who are not citizens, are to be permitted service in the armed forces of the United States. The war department has this matter under study and it is hoped that a solution will be found in the near future."

Incidentally, Elizalde's office is issuing certificates of Filipino nationality for protection of his fellow countrymen, who might be mistaken for Japs. Many of them also wear a red button with a white band across it on which is printed in black the word "Filipino."

The stout, fighting Filipinos are doing in their homeland is largely due to the fact that the first act passed by the Filipino national assembly in 1935 was a plan for national defense. It required compulsory service from all men between the ages of 20 to 50. Every year those reaching the age of 20 must register. The plan was for six months training for between 20,000 and 40,000 each half year. The first registration was in April, 1936, and the first group to return to the Philippines at of 20,000 was in barracks by January, 1937, and the second group in July, 1937. This was repeated yearly.

Upon completion of training, the men were taken into regiments. Had peace prevailed, it was foreseen that by 1966, there would have been 1,000,000 trained fighting men. How many Filipino trained soldiers are fighting alongside American troops in the Philippines today is not revealed, but it is probably considerably more than 100,000.

Social Sec. Rates Not Due To Rise Until Next Year

Some employers seem to be under the impression that the old-age and survivors' insurance tax rate was scheduled to be increased on January 1, 1942, said Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo field office of the Social Security Board.

Under the present law tax rate for the worker is one percent on each dollar of his wages. The employer pays one percent of each dollar of his pay roll, making a total of two percent divided equally between the employer and the wage earner. This rate will continue until 1943 according to the law as it now stands, at which time rate will be increased to two percent on the employer's pay roll and an equal amount on the wages of the worker.

It was pointed out by Reed that changes in the Social Security Act by Congress in 1939 removed the 65-year age limit for wage credits and thus made it possible for many workers to continue their employment in covered occupations and build up old-age and survivors insurance benefits. This feature is particularly attractive at this time, owing to the fact that many an older person heretofore unemployed and not having sufficient wage credits was unable to qualify for old-age insurance benefits. These workers are now working and receiving credits for their wages and most of them, it is believed, will be able under present labor supply emergency to continue working until they are able to qualify for benefits.

Anyone desiring information regarding the filing of claims, securing social security account numbers, etc., may write or call the Amarillo Social Security Board Field Office at 324 New Post Office Building.

CHDA NOTES

By Sadie Lee Oliver

The regular council meeting will be held on Saturday, Jan. 24, at 2:30 o'clock in the county courtroom.

A new extension service bulletin at this office has a picture of trees on the Vic Lemke place near Adrian; though the picture actually looks as though it were taken in a real lake country. The bulletin is on "Growing Trees in Spite of Drought and Wind."

Other new bulletins are on "Facts About Freezing Foods," and "Coat Making At Home."

In the new year, the CHDA has met with demonstration clubs at North Hereford, Frio, Messenger, Fairview, Westway and Wyche and with 4-H Clubs at Simms and Ford.

With special emphasis on the use of whole-grain cereals to provide needed vitamins, the meetings have met with much interest and club members seem fully aware of the importance of their work on the home front during the war.

With food prices on the rise,

Texas homemakers can help keep their families healthy and at the same time serve their pocketbooks well by eating the right food, producing all or part of it, buying food wisely and preparing food correctly and attractively.

According to the Texas Food Standard, the Texan's guide to a good daily diet, every person needs one serving of whole grain products and other cereals as desired every day. For the period of a week, one person needs from one-fourth to 1 1-2 pounds of whole-grain products and 1 1-2 to 3 pounds of other cereals and bread.

Here are some tips on buying cereal products. All are endorsed by Grace I. Neely, extension service specialist in food preservation and member of the consumer interest committee of the Texas Home Economics Association, which recently issued a series of leaflets for consumers.

Buy whole-grain flour and cereals in amounts which can be used in a short time. Try to buy them freshly ground.

Store flour and meal in closely covered tin containers in a cool place.

Watch the surplus commodity list. Items on it are usually inexpensive.

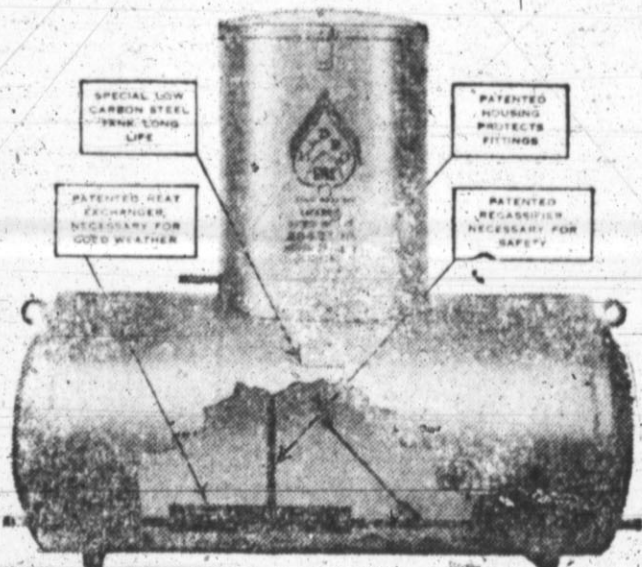

Store bread in a dry, well-covered, ventilated tin container.

Use cereals that need to be cooked. If income is limited, because cooked cereals are cheaper.

Check weight as well as price on packaged flour and cereals.

In Famous Musical

Stars literally pack the cast of "Lady Be Good" screen adaption of the famous Gerswin musical comedy which offers Ann Sothern, Robert Young, Eleanor Powell, Red Skelton and John Carroll in leading roles. Ann Sothern, away from her Maize type, shows she can "put over" a song with the best of them. And there are plenty of good songs to be delivered.

My home it is heatless. My bed it is sheetless. They're all sent to the YMCA. My barrooms are treatless. My coffee is sweetless. Each day I get poorer and wiser.

Osa Johnson Will Present Films In Amarillo Showing

First lady of exploration, Osa Johnson, the Kansas girl who "married adventure", soon will be in Amarillo to present her latest motion picture production, "African Paradise".

This unique film, never before shown to the public, is full of romance and thrilling action, depicting strange peoples and strange animals in strange lands.

"African Paradise" shows how an intrepid pair lived in the midst of savage tribes and vast herds of elephants, rhinos, hippos, lions and all kinds of wild game which had enjoyed undisturbed sanctuary for centuries.

Osa Johnson, widow of Martin Johnson, a genius of his generation, will come direct from San Francisco to appear in person and then take the film to St. Louis, so the only southwest showing will be in Amarillo, Monday, Jan. 26.

There will be only two presentations, a matinee arranged especially for school children and a night show for adults. Both showings will be in Amarillo's municipal auditorium.

There will be no reserved seats, but to prevent a long wait at the box office arrangements have been made to fill mail orders addressed to Elma Curdin of the Amarillo Globe-News. Lower floor seats for the night show will be $1; balcony tickets, 75 cents. Both prices include tax. Return postage should be included with each mail order.

No mail orders will be accepted for the matinee, the price for school children being only 25 cents, including tax. Adults who attend the matinee will be required to pay 75 cents.

Thousands were thrilled recently in Amarillo by pictures of Alaska and the Johnson engagement offers an opportunity to "travel" still farther away to a little known land.

Mrs. J. C. McCracken had entertained the Osa Johnson Club.

Good Grades? Most Of Us Needed Them

Were you disappointed in any of your test grades? Or were you joyous over them? Quite a number of the students did work and make good grades. Others did not try, consequently, they failed. Still there were those who tried, but failed. If this is your case, don't let that worry you, for life is made up of trials. We all know that. Yet, if yours is the case that just didn't try, are you satisfied with yourself? Surely not. Maybe you think that no one cares what you do, but your teachers are willing to help you. If you failed this first semester, then you must bring that up this last half of the school year. You ask how to do this. The first thing is to determine to be at your best. Unless you really want to do better, you cannot. Set your foot down on things you must do. Do not do this with a grudge, either. Did you ever try to see how happy you could be while working? Working brings some of the finest joys ever known; so, when you study, think of all the happiness it will bring you. You will learn more.

All the cases mentioned above have been discussed except the one making good grades. If that be your case, then congratulations!

Oh, It Was All a Mistake

Yes, they were worried and no wonder. They were the Home-making 1B girls. Miss Kathryn Davies passed the Boys' Social Problems test papers to them by mistake.

"Make a color wheel" was one of the questions. About six girls had received such papers before the mistake was discovered. They all began to wish that they had reviewed. They just couldn't seem to remember anything about the answers to the questions. What a relief! Quote Barbara LeGrand: "I just wrote the question and left the an-

Lee Etta Hopson

Dear Miss Hopson:

Miss Tell-it-all

Dear Miss Tell-it-all:
Since I got my date for the football banquet, every time I turn a corner, all the boys are glaring at me, ready to knock my toes through my toupée. I've got to do something, but quick. What?

Dear Worried:

Dear Miss Tell-it-all:
Do you think girls should wear make-up? I don't.

Leroy Suttle

Dear Convinced:
Not when they look like some of our report cards or a four alarm fire, but some make-up is baffle paint and clever camouflage, after all, few girls resemble Venus the Smiler or Hedy Lamarr.

Miss Tell-it-all

Dear Miss Tell-it-all:
Why doesn't somebody start a dating bureau for us unpopular girls who don't ever get any dates?

Bonnie Miller

Dear Bonnie:
It seems no one has started a Date Insurance Company to charge pocket mittens for policy and Available Jones doesn't haunt this neighborhood; so the best thing to do is take a few tips. Can the corny jokes and in-the-corner-you-and-me-buzz but don't get whisper-shy either. Don't be a fish and nibble at every line. Change your war paint to camouflage. Get up to date and you'll get dated up.

THEIR "JOHN HENRY'S"
Names are queer things to carry around. Most of the time we don't even know our neighbors' full name.

In order to become acquainted with Freshman names, here are a few "unknown John Henry's": V. C. Hopson is Vanious Clark; J. W. Robinson is James Wallace; H. V. Stanton, Freshman sponsor, is Herschel Vernon; L. A. McBrayer is silent when asked his name.

Second names are: Grace Juanita Upton, Charles Allan Skelton, and Patsy Ruth Sanders. Marcella Blue can be called Mary Warren in Ragsdale Bailey. Betty Robinson is Elizabeth Jane.

If you don't like your name, you aren't by yourself. Ask someone what his name is. He doesn't like it always, does he?

Mr. Anderson: "What is a prime minister?"
Elwood: "A prime minister is a preacher at his best."

wer blank, because I didn't know anything about it."

The Homemaking 1 girls just hope the Social Problems class knew more about it than they did.

Senior Personalities

With this issue of the "Round-up," an annual feature begins, that of presenting the Seniors individually. This week in the group are Cleon Cawthon, Agnes Albracht, Darrell Blanton, Dorothy Banner and Ruth Temple Hastings. (see picture).

Cleon Cawthon was born in Childress, Texas, November 14, 1925. His one hobby and, by the way, the hobby he enjoys most is attending sports events and participating in sports activities. He has a decided preference for blondes and abhors fat men with bay windows. Cleon has blond hair and blue eyes, is about five and seven inches tall and weighs 130 pounds. He plans to train to be a civil engineer after he has completed high school.

Agnes Albracht was born February 28, 1925, in Dimmitt, Tex. Her hobbies are dancing and singing. She detests "stuckup" persons and murder mysteries. She likes friendly people and good music. A general description of Agnes would be: hazel eyes, chestnut hair, 116 pounds in weight and five feet four inches in height. She was a member of the Glee Club for three years and has been on the staff of the "Whiteface Round-up" for two years. Agnes plans to attend O. L. V. at Fort Worth when she completes her high school career.

In Amarillo, Texas, March 13, 1925, a certain girl was born who showed a senior. This senior was none other than Dorothy Banner. It seems that Dorothy has blue eyes, blonde hair, fair complexion, weighs 118 pounds, is five feet four and one inch to adore. Dot's hobbies are skating and sewing; she likes good music and doesn't like to be called "Proxy."

She is a member of the Pep Club, F. H. T. and Tri-Hi-Y. She was president of the Pep Club two years, Junior football captain of 1940-41, vice-president of her freshman class, and pep leader of the freshman class. Also, when Dorothy was a "fish" she was "Daisy Mae" on Sadie Hawkins Day.

When she was asked what she planned to do after graduation, she said, "I plan to go to California for nurses training."

Well known Darrell Blanton was born in Panhandle, Texas, June 19, 1925. For hobbies, give Darrell any kind of sport. He dislikes English and likes blondes no doubt.

Darrell has black hair, brown eyes, is five feet and eleven inches tall and weighs about 140 pounds. He was a member of the Athletic Association his junior year, a member of the football squad this year, and is going to join the Boys' Hi-Y Club.

Darrell plans to go to A & M and would like to become an aviator.

Around the Camp Fire

Leland R.: "I see you're getting better grades lately. How's that?"
Delmo W.: "Daddy's away on a business trip and I do all my own work myself."

Mrs. Morrison (anxiously): "What made you so late? Have a flat tire?"

Marjorie (dreamily): "No mother, I'd hardly call him that."

Mr. Stanton: "How many make a few?"

Pete D.: "Three or four."

Mr. S.: "How many make a dozen?"

Pete S.: "Twelve."

Mr. S.: "How many make a million?"

Pete: "Very few."

He: "Please—"

She: "No!"

He: "Aw, please—"

She: "No!"

He: "Even if I tell you I love you more than anybody else in the world?"

She: "Positively no!"

He: "Aw, but mother, all the other freshmen stay out after nine."

Coach Ware: "J. W., why do campers punch two holes in a can of milk?"

J. W. Robinson: "Well—one of them is to let the air in, but I don't know what the other is for."

Lotis: "I'm glad I won't be living a thousand years from now."

Alma: "Why?"

Lotis: "Just think of all the history there'll be to study by that time."

Ruth Temple Hastings, better known as "Toots," has been a member of the High School band for four years. As everyone knows, she was drum major this year and she made a very good one.

Ruth Temple was born January 30, 1925, in Hereford. She is five-foot-three, weighs 110 pounds, has blue eyes and blonde hair. Strangely enough, this blonde likes blondes (especially boys) and dislikes kraut. Her hobby is collecting pictures of Sterling Hayden, the movie star.

She was a member of F. H. T. her freshman year and has been in Tri-Hi-Y for four years. Last year she was program chairman for Tri-Hi-Y. Ruth Temple is very well known and has many friends.

Central School has started the second semester with new pep. Here's wishing everyone good luck and better grades for our last half year's work.

King To Direct Music

Hereford High is delighted to welcome a new faculty member to its personnel. The new music instructor is Miss Mary Helen King, who has come to take the place of Miss Thelma McMinn. Miss King is a mid-term graduate of Texas State College for Women. Her home is in Electra, Texas.

Being a music major, her hobby is, naturally, music. She is a brunette and is five-foot six and one-half inches in height; and her eyes are blue. When asked her dislikes, she had to think hard. Finally, she answered, "Students who don't study." Her favorite sports are golf and swimming.

Miss King will teach the High School Glee Club and will instruct music courses at Central School.

Who Broke Cello's Neck

Extra! Extra! Hereford High School Menaced by Black Hood! Entire School Shudders At News of Black Hood's Return! Black Hood Breaks Cello's Neck. Calling all students! Be on lookout for Black Hood! That is all. So scream the terrifying words out of the radio. Squad cars search everywhere. But the Black Hood cannot be found. The Black Hood (Nettle Hood) has gone home and cannot, of course, be found.

The Black Hood, as you may have already guessed, is none other than Nettle Hood, the cellist in the orchestra. Why is every one on the lookout for her? Simply because she committed murder in the first degree Monday morning when she broke her cello's neck. The fatal accident occurred just after Miss Hood had tuned her cello and started to play it. It seems that she left it standing against the piano and it, perhaps of its own accord, fell and broke its neck. Someone always gets the blame for everything that is done, and naturally Nettle got the blame for this accident, for the cello was hers. But the cello is to be repaired, so we hope everything will come out all right. The moral of this story? Never leave a stringed instrument standing! Always lay it flat. It might get broken if you leave it leaning or standing.

Both Teams Come Out With Victory Over Vega

Russell again paved the way for another Whiteface victory with 16-out of 29 points. The Whitefaces defeated the Vega team to increase their games won to six out of nine. The "B" squad won their first game of the season by a score of 19 to 8. Tom Wilson hit the basket five times for a total of ten points. The highlight of the game was the fact that the two managers, Robinson and Williamson, got to play. In the first game the Whitefaces were only two points ahead at the half, the score being 12-0. Coming out at the half, the Whitefaces did not slow down until they got 20 points while holding Vega to 5 points. Foster Hill was also hitting the basket the second half; he made seven points. The Whitefaces journey to the Sudan tournament Friday.

This Is What They Think

You've heard many explanations and remarks about mid-term exams. After asking some of the Sophomore students about this, we got the following conclusions:

Jim Hicks: "They're amazing but confusing."

Mary Ruth Russell and Christine Smith: "We're so dumb we don't know what to think."

Tom Wilson: "They're too hard."

Bobby Jennings: "Do you really want me to tell you?"

Kathryn Acker: "They're O. K. as long as I pass them."

Barbara Robertson: "They're terrible."

Cornelia Hamilton: "If I studied for them, they would be o.k."

Arline Miller: "It wouldn't do to print."

Fern Pittman: "I think they're swell, 'cause I passed." (I hope.)

Billy B. Whitaker and C. J. Lance: "We don't think!"

John D. Dowell: "They're O. K. if you pass."

Lloyd Olson: "I love 'em."

Gerald Smith: "They're all O. K. except Biology."

Marie Moreman: "I'm in great doubt."

Ana Beth Carter: "I wonder what I really do think."

ected from the student body.

The Council discussed the idea of selling scrap paper and donating the money to the Red Cross. This would be a worthwhile movement, and the student body ought to give adequate co-operation.

Constitution To Be Amended

The amendment to the constitution for providing a vice-president to the council is to be placed before the classes. The office shall be filled by a person from either the Sophomore or Junior class and shall be elected by the student body.

Hereford Men In The Service

Pinckert Ferrying Bombers

Ovid Pinckert, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pinckert has been accepted as a ferry pilot and after taking some refresher training at Grand Prairie will be engaged in the dangerous war-time job of ferrying bombers to the Allies.

Pinckert, who was one of the first aviation enthusiasts in Deaf Smith County, has been an instructor in the civilian pilot training program in classes at Portales, and Clovis, N. M., and Okmulgee, Okla.

George Tiefert Gets Rating

Goodfellow Field, San Angelo, Tex.—Sergeant George L. Tiefert, son of Mrs. Jake Tiefert of Hereford, has been rated Air Mechanic, First Class after successfully completing the rigid examination prescribed by the Army Air Corps regulations.

(Editor's Note: We can remember when the likes George made were the envy of all the other kids. May have been good training.)

First War Baby To Join Army Air Corps

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith received word last week that their son, W. J. Smith, Jr., now in school at NTSTC, Denton, has passed his physical examination for entry into Randolph Field, "The West Point Of The Air."

Young Smith, whose father is a World War veteran, was the first Hereford war baby of World War No. 1.

Army Needs Gunmen, So Cooking Is "Out"

Earl Lowry, who is stationed with an Ordnance Training Battalion at Aberdeen, Md., last week wrote to his mother that he "guessed he wouldn't be a cook," as the army seemed to have greater need for men on the business end of a rifle. Pvt. Lowry, after making one trip to New York, had decided that the army takes money.

Leathernecks, Air Corps Get Hereford Recruits

The fighting U. S. Marines last week got another recruit from Deaf Smith County when Jack Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clark, enlisted at the Amador office of the service. He will be stationed temporarily at San Diego, Calif.

Walter Meadows, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meadows of Progressive last week joined the U. S. Army Air Corps at the Amarillo recruiting office.

Army Improves Eyesight

Bob Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Baird of Jumbo, joined the army several weeks ago and has been stationed at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

Bob took the CAA course when he was in college at Canyon and has wanted to see service in the army's air arm, but was turned down because of poor eyesight. Evidently, Bob's eyes have improved since he enlisted, or else the army doctors have had a change of heart because last week he was accepted for training as a flying cadet and expects to be transferred to Barksfield, Calif.

Promoted to Sergeant

Noel Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Higgins of Progressive, last week received his sergeant's ranking, according to a letter received by his parents.

Young Higgins was one of the first volunteers from Deaf Smith County after the defense program started. He is stationed with the 112th Cavalry at Ft. Clark.

Universal Is Making Newsreel In This County

Camermen representing Universal Newsreel are in Hereford this week working up a picture on Deaf Smith County which will eventually be shown in most movie houses in the United States.

The Newsreel is centering around the tooth decay publicity recently received here, and will show farm and city scenes as well as pictures of Deaf Smith County natives and their "perfect" teeth.

Much excellent publicity for the town and county should result from the newsreel. It is pointed out, as it will give some idea of the general possibilities of the region as well as a good advertisement for the low tooth decay rate.

HEREFORD

By Jimmie Gillentine

Bob Thompson has a new salutation, which is very appropriate. When he meets you on the street he says, "Good morning, how are your tires today?"

While some folks bemoan business decreases, others are reporting January sales higher than in 1941. What will happen to business? No one in governmental circles seems to care very much. However, it is a problem well worthy of consideration because of this vicious circle in which we live. If business lags, the sale of defense bonds and stamps will fall down, and if the sale of bonds and stamps drop there will be no money with which to buy guns, airplanes, ammunition, tanks and the like. We won't have business as usual, but the nearest possible to usual means earlier and more complete victory over our enemies. Personally, I think that most lines of business—excepting those influenced by the rubber ban—will see a better year in 1942 than they saw in '41. If this country makes good crops (and we always live on that hope) much, much more money will be spent here than in recent years.

The next year, 1943, is the one to watch for with a twinge of fear. In 1943 commodities will be very hard to get in all lines, just as they are in metal and rubber commodities today.

To me, the morale of this country is remarkable. I always figured that the American people would be eccentric when things went a little bit bad, but it looks like I was wrong, again. The people are taking reverses in their stride, grinning and turning loose in one of the most unified movements this country has ever seen. Anyway, that's how it looks around Hereford, Texas. Folks over-subscribed the Red Cross War Relief fund and in the first 15 days in January this county, with a population of around 6,000 persons, bought $11,775.00 in Defense Bonds, despite the fact that 1941 was a bad year with poor crop yields.

Pack London says he has found out why they are registering the older men in the second call. He says, "They want the gold out of our teeth, the silver out of our hair, and the lead out of our pants."

What do you think about this day-light saving time? I don't like it. It's already causing me trouble. Tuesday night Ernest Medkief called up and asked "If it's 2:00 o'clock now what time will it be when we go on Day-light Saving Time?" Immediately I answered, "3:00 o'clock." Ernest was happy, because he and Gladys were in a big argument and he was saying 3:00 o'clock while she was contending that it would be 1:00 o'clock. All of which didn't bother me much. My real trouble was that as soon as I hung up the phone my wife started the same argument with me. She said it would be 1:00 o'clock—and she didn't even know that Gladys was contending the same thing. This all happened around 8:30 Tuesday night and we argued until after 11 o'clock. Ernest called up one time to report that the evening paper said turn your clocks "up" and the radio newscast said the same thing, but we simply could not convince our wives.

They said that during the summer their radio programs came on one hour earlier. Ernest and I said the idea of the whole thing was to get off work earlier. I called up to explain a new angle to Gladys and she almost convinced me that I was wrong before I could hang up. I'll guarantee it didn't save electricity at the Medkief or the Gillentine houses Tuesday night.

Circulation Of Library Good in 1941

Anyway, I am still saying that 2:00 o'clock, present time, will be 3 o'clock when we go on Day-light Savings. Furthermore, it is going to cause plenty of trouble and confusion in this and similar communities. At first, opening at 8 o'clock under the new time system. However, there's a catch. The schools will probably keep on opening at the same time (which will be an hour earlier. If you expect to go to lunch at 1:00 o'clock (which I contend would be your present hour of 12:00 o'clock) your wife will raise cane, because she has to fix one lunch for the kids and another for you. The railroads will operate on Day-Light Saving-Time, and the post office will also take the new hours, as will the banks and all government agencies. At first I didn't think it would make a lot of difference, but I have since decided that it will cause plenty of confusion and trouble. Watch out for this new time schedule.

If stores open an hour earlier, it simply means that everyone will work an hour longer every day—because this community stays open for the convenience of the farmers—and the farmers go by the sun. A meeting should be called in order that this situation can be worked out in the best possible manner. What do you think? Write in and give us your opinion. I am sure that the business people would like to know what the farmers want to do in this matter. The whole thing keeps reminding me of having two Thanksgivings—or maybe three or four. I got so wrought up about it that I started to write another poem, but decided that would only make matters worse.

Claude Ricketts is fixing up a big thermometer to put in the post office for recording Deaf Smith County's defense bond sales. Watch for it.

It is believed that cork can be grown in South Texas. The U. S. has been importing annually ten million dollars worth of cork.

Collect Iron Scrap, Help Lick The Japs

Collection and sale of scrap iron and steel is only one of the many ways Deaf Smith County farmers can help lick the Japs, the Nazis and the Fascists, according to J. A. Pitman, chairman of the Deaf Smith county USDA War Board.

Growing needs of a nation at war serve to intensify demand for steel and scrap iron to feed hungry mouths of arms factories, the War Board chairman said.

Urgent appeal is also made to the public to gather up steel and scrap and carry it to the nearest dealers for use in charging the nation's steel furnaces. A list of dealers for the county are on file in the local AAA office and may be consulted at any time, he said.

"We're not asking that you give your scrap to your country. We're asking that you sell it at prevailing prices for immediate defense use," Mr. Pitman said in explaining that financial returns cannot be expected to be large but results will be of untold value to farmers in their whole victory effort.

Mr. Pitman explained that prices for scrap vary in different sections since dealers deduct costs of transporting scrap from shipping point to mill, as well as preparation charges.

"It's just another way of saying that we're at our posts on the farm front," the chairman said. "We're in this war to win, and each of us will have to do his part to get the job done."

The first aid books are being ordered and those who registered will be notified when the books arrive.

W. A. Eaton has also volunteered to teach a class in first aid for ladies, and due to the large number desiring the course, the names for this class will be drawn from a basket and the persons whose names are drawn will be notified. Judge Schroeter requests that any person who finds he is unable to take the first aid course at the time his name is drawn should notify him immediately in order that someone else might take his place in the class.

Mr. Reese states that the first aid course requires 20 hours of training, which will include setting broken bones and many other helpful things that are very useful in everyday life.

Only those 17 years of age or above are qualified for the first aid training.

One hen on the R. L. Doss farm, three miles south on 25 mile avenue, certainly did her part to increase the egg production in this country. Mr. Doss brought in an egg which measures 7 by 8 1/2 inches. Incidentally, the Leehorn made the supreme sacrifice. No medals, no citations, but certainly a whale of an effort.

tion on the part of the boys, but it also shows the very fine cooperation of interested housewives, business men and farmers in this area.

Besides making a little money to buy needed equipment, the Hereford scouts have received publicity for their work. They have had their picture in Scouting Magazine, a national publication for scout leaders with a circulation of 50,000 in the United States. "In fact," says Mr. Streu, "Hereford may soon be known as the town of perfect teeth and of paper-gathering scouts."

The Boy Scouts' Oath of "Duty to their Country" is evidently getting something more than lip service from Hereford scouts and cubs.
