

Three Men Seriously Injured In Series Of Auto Accidents

Trio of Wrecks in Hereford Mark Thanksgiving Week-end

Three persons were seriously injured and considerable property damage, involving at least two trucks and four passenger cars, was caused in a series of wrecks here during the Thanksgiving week-end.

The injured were: O. V. Winninghame of Morton, Texas, severe cuts and bruises. Bob Holder of Littlefield, serious head injuries. Tom King of Littlefield, back injuries, broken nose, cuts and bruises.

Winninghame was the victim of an accident on Highway 60 Saturday night when the car which he was driving crashed into a parked truck near Harry's Cafe. The accident occurred at about 7 p. m.

Winninghame was taken to the Deaf Smith County hospital, where he was reported by hospital attendants to be 'getting along satisfactorily.'

The truck, which was parked at one edge of the highway, was reported to be without lights, but according to local officers, since it was inside the city limits, the owner of the truck was violating no ordinances.

Highway Patrolman Bill Fowler and City Marshal Bruce Woodell pointed out that the city has no traffic ordinances prohibiting parking in this manner along the highway within the city limits, although several serious accidents have resulted from the practice in recent months.

Crash Sunday Sunday afternoon at about 1:30 p. m., a car driven by Winninghame's son-in-law, Burley Cecil Locke, also of Morton, collided with a 1942 Chevrolet sedan driven by J. T. Carroll of Hereford at the intersection of 10th Street and Avenue B.

No one was injured, but damage to the two cars was considerable, amounting to about $200 damage to each machine, officers estimated.

Locke, who had been summoned to visit his father-in-law, Winninghame, at the hospital, was driving east on 10th street, and Carroll was heading south on Avenue B. The two cars collided at the intersection.

After the accident, Locke began looking for the truck which was to have followed him from Morton to haul back the car which his father-in-law had wrecked the night before, intending to return to Morton with the truck driver. Then he discovered that the truck had been wrecked on the way to Hereford.

Wreck Sunday Night Last and most serious in the series of accidents was a car-truck crash on Highway 51 just south of the Highway 80 intersection Sunday night.

Tom King, 26, of Littlefield, driving a 1939 Chevrolet Coupe, and his passenger, Bob Holder of Littlefield, were both seriously injured when the coupe crashed into the rear of a 1937 Ford truck driven by Raymond Salceda of Hereford.

Holder suffered critical head injuries, and was rushed to the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford, where this condition Wednesday was said to be improving.

King received a broken nose, severe cuts and bruises, and a back injury. He was taken to the hospital in Littlefield.

According to officers who investigated the accident, Salceda was backing his truck onto the highway when he saw the approaching truck and stopped. The truck, officers said, extended about four feet onto the highway. The coupe struck the back of the truck, and the right hand side of the coupe body was crushed by the impact.

There was little damage to the truck, and no injury to the driver, but the coupe was badly wrecked.

Nightwatchman Foils Robbery Attempt at Canning Plant Texas and New Mexico police departments are still on the look-out for two men who attempted a robbery at the Deaf Smith County Food Products Company canning plant 3 miles west of Hereford last Friday night.

The robbery attempt was followed by John W. Vines, nightwatchman at the plant, who said he believed that he had wounded one of the men, a Mexican, in the leg when he fired twice with a .45 calibre revolver.

Vines narrowly escaped critical injury himself when the Mexican attacked him with a razor, slashing his clothing to ribbons, according to Worth Ware, manager of the canning plant.

Vines told Ware that he had observed two men, a Mexican and a white man, back a truck up to the plant at about 10:30 Friday night.

Vines approached the scene to order the men off the property, and was struck on the side of the head by the white man. Dazed but not knocked out, Vines swung a heavy electric lantern which he was carrying and knocked his attacker to the ground.

Turning to look for the other man, he said he saw the Mexican coming at him with a razor. The Mexican slashed with the razor, ripping his clothing across the chest and stomach.

Vines, who was wearing several layers of clothing, said that the razor was deflected when it struck a spectacle case in his jacket pocket, and believed that that probably saved his life. The razor cut downward, ripping through his clothing and cutting his belt, but leaving him unharmed.

Vines then drew his gun and fired at the Mexican, and said that he believed that two bullets had struck him in the leg. He said the white man had gotten up by that time and dragged the Mexican into the truck and sped away.

Police were notified and given a description of the truck and the two men.

Annual "Messiah" Program Is To Be Presented On Sunday

New Directors to Be Elected By Hereford C. of C.

Ballots are being mailed this week-end to members of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce, Inc. for the annual election of directors, E. B. Posey, secretary, has announced.

Four new directors are to be elected to take office on January 1, Posey said. Four members of the board of directors are hold-overs, with one year yet to serve.

Four directors are to be selected from a slate of eight names prepared by the nominating committee. They are: Francis Hardwick, Oscar Easley, Frank Cogdell, Dudley Green, Louis Woodford, Mrs. Dorothy Ross, Bob Wilson, and Dr. Lewis B. Barnett.

In addition to the names listed on the ballot, space is provided for members to write in the names of other candidates for the offices.

Retiring members of the Board are Wayne Evans, Chamber of Commerce President; Howard Gault, and Bill Davis.

Under the terms of the charter and articles of incorporation adopted by the Chamber of Commerce early this year, eight directors are to be named to the board instead of seven as in the past.

Hold-over members of the board of directors are Glenn Snyder, Homer Bramley, Lyle Blanton, and George Heard.

On the nominating committee to select the candidates for the four offices to be vacated were D. C. Kinsey, chairman, C. T. Guseman, W. E. Dameron, H. A. Close, and Robert Thompson.

Ballots are being mailed a business-reply post cards, with the request that they be marked and returned to the Chamber of Commerce office as soon as possible, Posey said.

Ballots must be returned not later than December 20. Approximately 175 local business men who are members of the Chamber of Commerce will vote in the election.

Directors will be elected for a two-year term.

Some 20 members of the Hereford Lions Club have accepted an invitation from the Rotarians to attend the luncheon and a number of other visitors are expected to be present.

Delegations from Canyon, Friona, Bovina and Farwell have been invited to attend the meeting here.

Glasser will discuss problems relating to U. S. Highway 60, with a view toward renewing interest in the route and getting the few remaining un-paved gaps completed.

He is on a tour of Highway 60, conducting meetings with local boosters enroute, which will take him to the national convention at Los Angeles on December 14. Meetings are scheduled at Pampa and Hereford in Texas.

Glasser has advised Chamber of Commerce Secretary E. B. Posey that he "has a world of information to be given in these meetings."

Randall Ball, District Young Peoples Leader of the West Texas district, Assembly of God Churches, will conduct services both morning and evening Sunday at the local Assembly of God Church, Rev. S. E. Eldridge, local pastor, has announced. Services are at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m.

Chorus of 150 Voices To Sing Famous Oratorio

"The Messiah", Handel's famous Christmas oratorio, will be presented by the Hereford Civic Chorus at the auditorium of the First Baptist Church Sunday evening at eight o'clock.

The Civic Chorus will be joined by more than 50 singers from the Amarillo Chorus, plus a number from other cities, and members of the Amarillo Philh. music orchestra to form a cast for the oratorio expected to include nearly 150 voices, according to Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, the director.

Emil F. Myers, director of the Amarillo Civic Chorus, will be guest director for the presentation here on Sunday.

The public is invited to attend this performance, Miss Swisher said. No admission will be charged.

The presentation of "The Messiah" at the Christmas season has become traditional in Hereford, with an annual presentation made here until the war intervened. Sunday's performance will be the first post-war presentation of the famous oratorio in Hereford.

Wayne Evans is organist for the Civic Chorus, and Nellie Earhart of Amarillo will be the guest organist. Mrs. J. C. McCracken pianist, will be assisted by Mrs. Emil F. Myers and Mrs. Clifton Janak, both of Amarillo, as guest pianists.

Miss Mattie Mae Swisher is director of the chorus, with Sam Allen as assistant director.

Rev. R. H. Cagle, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation at the opening of the performance Sunday, and Mrs. Norman Harris will be presented in a violin solo for the offertory.

The Hereford Civic Chorus now numbers 88 members, Miss Swisher has announced. New members who joined the group this week were Mrs. Norman Whisenand and Mrs. Uel D. Crosby.

Airborne Hunters Spoiling Sport of Local Nimrods Hunting Duck, Geese

The modern age of aerial warfare is playing havoc with the ancient art of hunting.

Local Nimrods, scouring the Plains lakes for duck and geese, have been loud in their complaints since the opening of the season on November 23, that a

One hunting party reports that, last weekend, a light plane flew low over a lake where they had decoys spotted, took the decoys for ducks, and circled over the lake in what was apparently an attempt to signal. The party, deciding the plane had scared off any game birds that might be in the area, took in its decoys and was preparing to move to another location when two car-loads of hunters came racing up to the spot, guns ready for the kill.

Game laws specifically provide that "migratory game birds may not be hunted or taken with or by the use of automobiles, aircraft, sink-bombs (battery), motor boat, sail boat, or any craft in tow of same."

The season for duck and geese is open until January 6. Hunting is permitted, under the law, from one-half hour before sunrise until one-half hour before sunset.

Petition City Commission to Study Street Paving Plans

A petition urging the city commission to begin investigations preparatory to launching a street paving program in Hereford is being circulated in the city this week.

The petition which appeared Wednesday morning and was rapidly gathering signatures late yesterday, requests the city commission to employ an engineering firm to determine the cost of paving the streets of the city of Hereford.

"We call to your attention the dire need of paving of a good many of our streets, and find that the people and property owners are not only able to pay for such paving, but wish it done at this time," the petition states, "and we believe that conservatively there are at least 50 to 75 blocks of paving to be done in Hereford at this time, and the people would like to know the cost of same."

The petition specifically requests the city commission to employ engineers to determine the cost of paving streets with 6-inch compact caliche base and triple bituminous topping.

Mayor W. E. Dameron, when informed unofficially that the petition was being circulated, expressed his hearty approval.

"The City Commission has already been studying paving programs in other Panhandle cities," Dameron said, "and I am happy to have this movement originate with the citizens themselves."

Dameron said that the city officials have already received some information in regard to paving projects recently completed in this area of the state, and that costs generally have appeared to be quite low for this type of work, in spite of the high cost of labor.

Improved methods and machinery have made street paving operations considerably lower in cost than they used to be, he stated.

Senior Class To Stage Carnival At High School

Seniors of Hereford High School are sponsoring a carnival at the high school building tomorrow night (Friday) opening at 7 o'clock.

In addition to the usual carnival features, boxing and wrestling matches are scheduled at the high school gymnasium, and some short moving pictures will be shown on the screen in the high school auditorium.

The Senior Class has just purchased a new movie projector as a gift to the schools, Mrs. Dalton Criswell, Senior sponsor, announced yesterday; and the new projector will be used for the first time tomorrow night in showing the movies as a carnival feature.

Proceeds from the carnival will be used to help pay for the Class Gift.

The gift this year is unique, Mrs. Criswell said, in that the Senior Class is presenting it to the school without any aid from any other class or school group.

Formal presentation of the projector to the school will be made at an assembly program next week.

A wrestling match between Jim Worrell and Bob Davis will be staged in the gymnasium as a feature of the carnival. Two boxing matches are also slated. One will match Gayle Rogers and Earl Griffith, and the other will feature Bobby Owens and Johnny Anderson.

Construction Is Started Monday on Part Of Quarter Million Dollar Rural Electric Job

Embargo on Parcel Post Mailing Goes Into Effect Friday

If your Christmas gift packages fail to reach their destination, blame John L. Lewis.

A drastic nation-wide embargo on parcel post shipments goes into effect tomorrow, Postmaster Jim Lipscomb warned local Christmas gift mailers today.

Effective at one minute after midnight tonight (Thursday) the Post Office will be unable to accept parcel post packages weighing more than 5 pounds, or measuring more than 18 inches in length or 60 inches in length and breadth combined.

The same embargo will apply to railway express and freight shipments.

These drastic measures have been ordered by the Federal Government to conserve fuel in the face of the coal strike. Passenger mileage on coal burning trains has been slashed another 25 percent, and the Interstate Commerce Commission, in ordering the embargo, declared that rail service "can be prolonged only by most careful husbanding of remaining coal stocks."

Livestock, food, feed, newspapers and magazines are exempt from the general embargo.

Construction was started Monday on part of the quarter-million dollar 245-mile extension of rural electrification lines for which the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative let bids last May.

However, the contractors had on hand only enough materials for the construction of about 50 miles of line, and unless additional materials are secured, completion of the project will be further delayed.

Representatives of the Walco Construction Company of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the successful bidders on the project at $253,476.85, were in Hereford Saturday conferring with project manager Leo Forrest prior to starting construction.

Construction will be started first on the short extensions scattered through Deaf Smith and Castro counties.

The big part of the projected 245-mile of extensions is in the Bethel-Flagg community area in Castro county, and cannot be built until more materials are available.

The project also calls for construction of two substations, one a 30,000 KVA station to be located south of Hereford, and the other a 600 KVA station located south of Dimmitt.

The Deaf Smith Cooperative now has in Washington awaiting approval pre-allotment maps of an additional 216 miles of single phase line. Most of this extension is designed to fill existing gaps in the network covered by the Cooperative in Deaf Smith, Castro, and Pecos counties. (Continued on Page 8)

Forson was placed under arrest following the fight, and was released from county jail late Friday under $5,000 bond after charges of "assault with intent to murder" were filed before County Judge Fred W. Baird as examining magistrate. Charles Newell, son of the sheriff, signed the complaint and charges were filed by County Attorney Carl Gilliland.

Batteries ARE SELLING FOR $45

in Amarillo and other places:

—and with the present scarcity of batteries in mind, we offer you the following suggestions to help you conserve and get the most possible service out of the battery you do have.

1. Have the battery case examined for cracks and leaks at the top where the cells are sealed. Test the battery for charge — if necessary, have the battery brought up to full charge. (Even a fully charged battery has only 40 per cent of its energy available at zero temperature.)

2. Make sure that the battery cables are not corroded or frayed and the insulation is not eaten away. Cables should be tightened solidly on the battery posts and the battery firmly fastened in the hanger.

3. Have the generator inspected to be sure that the brushes are seating properly and not cutting into the armature, so that the generator will be able to furnish sufficient current to keep the battery fully charged.

4. To reduce the battery current required to start the car, have the spark plugs cleaned and the gaps set to specifications. The spark plugs' wires should be inspected — if the rubber insulation is oil soaked and spongy, some of the current that should be going to the spark plugs will be lost.

5. Distributor points that are pitted and burned will use more battery energy also.

They should be filed or replaced and adjusted to the proper setting.

Remove excessive drag in the engine and transmission by changing the oil and grease to winter grade. (Two and one-half times as much energy is required to turn the engine over at zero temperature than at 80° with S. A. E. 20 oil.)

7. Practice starting the car with the clutch disengaged so that the battery won't have to turn the gears in the transmission as well as the engine.

8. When starting the car make sure the headlights are off as they draw between 35 to 40 watts of energy which the battery must furnish in addition to the energy required to start the car.

9. Finally, it is important at all times to keep the battery filled with water to the proper level. Only the approved battery electrolyte or approved water should be used. (In freezing weather the car should be used immediately after the water is added to the battery to insure its mixture with the electrolyte and thus eliminating the possibility of freezing.)

Streu's Diary

DEAR DIARY:
The Yuletide Spirit is upon us! It is positively amazing the way things change immediately after Thanksgiving. It is also amazing the number of smart shoppers who are doing their Xmas shopping early. Our lay-away shelves are rapidly filling, and we are mailing packages daily.

And speaking of shipping—we will gift wrap, and pack for mailing merchandise PURCHASED HERE, the cost of which exceeds $3.00. Wish we could extend this service to anyone, but we don't have the materials or the help to do so this year. On purchases of less than $3, we will have to make a small charge for gift wrapping and packing for shipment. Of course, we gift wrap any purchase large or small, at no extra charge.

If you want to gift wrap your own, we have a swell selection of wrappings—including paper, ribbon, and special Xmas scotch tape. Our stock of Xmas cards is still very good.

People took me seriously about that half-price table on toys and games. Many were surprised to find so much really good merchandise. While there are some holes in the display, there are still plenty of bargains for smart shoppers.

Coming—a few Coleman gasoline lanterns—ideal presents for fishermen and campers—twelve dozen pocket knives—priced from $1 to $2.50—and lots of other items.

Just off the truck—a nice shipment of Dearborn natural gas heaters—they won't last long, so select yours now. Also a few cheaper heaters in the natural gas—no butane.

In these days just before the end of a hectic year, we, along with most of you are puzzled by political and economic conditions—we hardly know which way to turn—what to do. Are prices going on up—are they going to break downward—will we be able to replace stock—should we continue to buy—or convert stock into cash and hang onto the cash?? Good questions, but no one knows the answers.

Reckon we will just go on trying to keep one of the best stocks of hardware in the Panhandle—to serve our customers the best we can, and hope for the best.

John L. Lewis seems to be having considerable difficulty in running the country at the present.

Construction

Jack Monroe, superintendent of construction for the Walco Company, was in Hereford Saturday supervising the preliminary phases of getting the current construction project underway. Monroe said the chief hold-up now is in securing materials, particularly wire and transformers.

The plan is, however, to go ahead with as much construction as can be completed with the materials at hand. The 50-miles of construction for which materials are now available will be used up in completing some short gaps and tie lines, but the local office did not indicate what sections would be completed first.

NAVY WEAPONS OF THE FUTURE

The first peacetime Navy Day in five years emphasizes the Navy's preoccupation with scientific advancement as a means of preserving the security of the nation it fought to insure between Pearl Harbor and V-J Day. Highlighting the development of offensive and defensive weapons and devices accelerated by World War II are robot aircraft such as the "Globe," "Gordon," and "Gargoyle," heralds of a supersonic age in which only the mind of man can match the speed of the deadly creatures his genius has conceived. Largest member of this trio is the "Globe," or glider-bomber (above). The LBE-1 is a television-controlled aircraft which will stand 300 miles an hour in a four-G dive. (Official Navy Photograph)

Balloting In ACA Election to End Next Thursday

Balloting by mail is already underway in the 1946 election of County ACA committeemen, F. G. Collier, secretary, said this week, and the rate at which ballots are being returned indicates a heavy vote.

December 12 (Thursday) is the official election date. Polls will be open at the County ACA office in the court house from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. for the benefit of all farmers who wish to cast ballots in person, Collier said. Next Thursday will be the final day for casting ballots. Ballots may be mailed to the county office until that day, but all ballots must be in the office not later than 5 p. m. on the closing date.

Five county committee places are to be filled in this election. Nestor Gass, present chairman of the committee; Paul S. Mathers, vice chairman; Hartland H. Caraway, first alternate; and J. C. McCracken, second alternate; have been nominated for re-election.

Earl Springer has been nominated for election as regular member of the committee, replacing J. T. Gilbreath, present incumbent, who is ineligible for re-election this year.

No community committeemen will be elected this year, under the new plan of organization which makes this county a one-committee county. The County ACA committee will serve as both county and community committee.

All farmers, and their wives, who have taken part in any phase of the ACA program during the past year are eligible to vote in the election. Ballots have been mailed to all eligible voters in the county.

National Polio Foundation Reports Emergency Fund Wiped Out in 1946

In a letter to W. B. (Woody) Wilson, local chairman, Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis advises that the four million dollar Epidemic Emergency Fund at national headquarters has been completely wiped out by the severe polio epidemic of the summer and fall of 1946.

"Our chapters received $8,000, 000 from the 1946 March of Dimes," O'Connor reports, "But the incidence of infantile paralysis was so high during the year, 24,000 cases, that national headquarters had to add an additional four million dollars from the emergency fund to insure all patients adequate care. We were able to do this only because of setting aside $2,000,000 in each of two previous years."

The Deaf Smith County chapter, itself, has spent well over a thousand dollars this year to aid five polio cases, Wilson reports. In case No. 1, doctor's fees, hospital fees, physiotherapy, nurse's fees, and hot packs provided for treatment by the county chapter amounted to $947.50.

In Case No. 2, $50 was provided by the county chapter for a check-up. In Case No. 3 $25 was provided. In Case No. 4, no bills have been received to date, but complete treatment has been provided. In Case No. 5, expenditure by the county chapter to date has been $75.

"The Deaf Smith Chapter, Wilson said, has, in addition to providing financial aid to polio victims, provided vocational help and guidance wherever possible.

Preparations are being made already for carrying out the 1947 March of Dimes drive to provide funds for combatting infantile paralysis through another year.

Dr. Ples Harper Will Speak For Federated Clubs

Dr. Ples Harper who was the first person from this country to be granted a Ph.D. from San Marcos University in Lima, Peru, and who worked five years from 1941 to 1945 as director of the Peruvian-North American Culture Center in Lima, will address the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs at the regular luncheon meeting to be held Friday December 13.

Dr. Harper is now head of the department of modern languages at West Texas State College Canyon. He is an ardent internationalist and he will discuss North and South American Relations as well as Peruvian-North American understanding. He was awarded Peru's highest decoration, the "Order Del Sol" for distinguished contribution to the improvement of Peruvian-North American understanding.

The luncheon meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church with Mrs. Ray Johnson in charge of the program.

Around Town

here at a later date, according to team manager Earl Stagner.

General Roger Ramey, now commander of the 8th (Atomic) Air Force at Fort Worth, the man who commanded the Air Forces at the Bikini Atomic Bomb tests (operation crossroads) last July, was reportedly in the Hereford vicinity Friday and Saturday hunting ducks with a (non-atomic) .410 gauge shotgun. General Ramey was visiting his brother, Seth Ramey, in Amarillo, and came to the Hereford country in search of a bit of quiet hunting. The thought of General Roger Ramey, who was once chasing Japs in a B-25 over Rabaul (in his days with the 5th Air Force), drawing the sights of a .410 shotgun on a speeding goose over Umberger appeals to us as a first rate sign of the Return to Normalcy.

Saturday is December 7. It has no special marking on the office calendar but for many millions of Americans, it should be marked as the reddest of red letter days. Remember?

BOARD MEETING

The executive board of the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the county court house. Mrs. Herman Ford, president, urges all members of the board to attend the meeting.
