City Opens Doors For Mahon

Wednesday Proclaimed 'Mahon Appreciation Day'

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says it's easier to be brave if there's no place to run.

Home is the place a child must be helped to learn from his mistakes, not to be forced to suffer from them—Bruenberg.

Deaf Smith County Hospital District is the recent recipient of a generous gift, thanks to service by the hospital and staff and the compassion of other Hereford citizens.

It was announced this week that Mrs. W. Ralph Jones of Kansas City, Mo., has presented the hospital district with a gift, in memory of her late husband, in the form of corporate stock valued at almost $10,000.

J. Edward Line, president of the hospital district board, said the gift would be used for the purchase of equipment, which will be designated and selected by the directors. Mrs. Jones made the contribution, according to Line, "in appreciation for the care and companionship received when her husband suffered a heart attack in 1962 while passing through Hereford." Mr. Jones returned home after hospitalization here, and died some time later.

Line said Mrs. Jones commended the hospital, doctors C.E. Hicks and A.T. Mims, and Mrs. W.F. Dameron and others of the First Christian Church.

In expressing appreciation for the gift, Line wrote Mrs. Jones: "It is nice to be remembered, but better still, it is good to be reminded by your generous gift that there are such people as yourself who give gifts in order that nameless people in the future may be helped. Thank you not only for your gift, but also for the inspiration it gives us to do a better job in the delivery of health care to every patient who comes our way."

Suspects Held In Odessa

Two of the four persons being sought in connection with a robbery here several weeks ago, were arrested in a raid in Odessa last week on charges of narcotic violations.

The two, one man and one woman, were arraigned on charges in Odessa and information from Hereford was relayed there and bond was recommended at $10,000 each on the charges stemming from the armed robbery here.

Arrested were Pablo Marrquin, 26, and Margie Castellion, 31.

The two are expected to be returned to Hereford to face charges of armed robbery of Billy Hightower of Bovina. Two other persons are being sought in connection with the robbery and they too are believed to be in the Odessa-Midland area.

The four are charged with taking some $1,900 from Hightower then leaving him bound and gagged in a local motel.

An informal "Mahon Appreciation Day" has been planned in Hereford Wednesday for the visit of the Honorable George H. Mahon, U.S. Congressman from Lubbock.

The city's civic clubs are sponsoring a joint luncheon meeting at the Bull Barn, where the general public will be invited to hear Mahon speak.

Rep. Mahon, whose 19th Congressional District will pick up Deaf Smith County in January, is appearing here on a non-partisan, get-acquainted visit. The county is presently in the 18th District where Rep. Bob Price of Pampa represents the constituency.

Local civic leaders have arranged a full day for the veteran Congressman, beginning with a high school assembly program at 10:30 a.m.

The barbecue luncheon at the Bull Barn is set for noon, the tickets are $2 each. Mahon will tour points of interest from 1:15 to 3 p.m., hold a press conference from 3 to 3:30, and will visit the public during a reception from 3:30 to 4:30 at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Mahon will be accompanied by his wife, Helen, and she will be honored at a coffee which is scheduled from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at Deaf Smith County Museum. All ladies are invited to attend the coffee and meet

Mrs. Mahon. Melvin Jayroe, C of C president, will serve as master of ceremonies for the noon luncheon, and Clint Formby, KPAN radio, will introduce Rep. Mahon. Kiwanians will be in charge of the invocation; the Rotary Club will have the flag salute, and Lions will lead the singing as the meeting follows a civic club format.

Mahon, Democrat from Lubbock, has been a member of the U.S. House of Representatives since his election to the 74th Congress in November, 1934. The 19th District was created at that time, and Mahon has been re-elected at two-year intervals since then.

The 19th District has been composed of 17 counties in the South Plains. Under the new alignment, Mahon will pick up Deaf Smith, Bailey, Castro, Hale, Lamb, Parmer and the northeast part of Ector County. He will retain Andrews, Cochran, Dawson, Gaines, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Midland, Terry and Yoakum counties.

Mahon is chairman of the House Committee of Appropriations, the largest committee in Congress and one of the important posts in government. This committee annually screens requests for the operation of the Federal Government. He has held the

Budget, Enrollment Top Board's Agenda

Clark Andrews, a farmer in the Frio community, was appointed to fill a vacancy on the Hereford Independent School District Board during a special meeting of trustees Thursday morning.

In other business, the board approved amendments to the past year's school budget, reviewed an enrollment report, discussed a proposed FFA school farm project, and accepted one teacher resignation and elected a new teacher.

The six trustees went into an executive session to discuss the selection of a new member to replace Raymond White, who recently resigned. Following the closed-door conference of about 25 minutes, board president Ed Loerwald announced that Andrews had been appointed.

It was not reported how many names were considered, but it was presumed that unsuccessful candidates in the April school board election were on the list. Andrews was not one of the candidates in the election. His term will last until the next election.

The enrollment report showed a total of 5,520 students in school through Wednesday. This reflected an increase of more than 1,000 students since initial enrollment last week. Supt. Roy Hartman said he expects the figures to continue to rise until after Labor Day.

A breakdown on the enrollment showed 2,847 students in grades 1 through 6; 1,291 in the two junior high (grades 7-8-9), and 936 in high school.

A breakdown on the elementary schools has Northwest leading the way with 572 students, followed by Aikman, 541; Tierra Blanca, 505; Bluebonnet, 468; Shirley, 426; and Central, 335. A difference of only 13 is noted in the junior highs, where Stanton lists a total of 652 and La Plata 639.

The enrollment figures climbed over the 5,550 mark as of Thursday, a later report from Hartman indicated.

Richard Robinson, director of vocational education, reported to the board on the proposed school farm. He said a site near the Bull Barn has been tentatively secured on a lease basis, with the rent to be returned in the form of a scholarship.

Estimated cost for materials and equipment to set up the pens and fences was estimated at $2,291. Boys in the vocational ag program would accomplish the construction. The board asked Robinson to secure further information, and all the trustees apparently were pleased with the proposal.

The board accepted the resignation of Bill Penn at high school, and elected Marvin Hunter, a former teacher, to fill the position.

In reviewing the 1971-72 school budget, it was noted that total expenditures had been below the total budget. However, the early purchase of two new buses on the past year's budget pushed the amended budget up $1,100 over the total.

Andrews Named To Board

Clark Andrews, a life-long resident of Deaf Smith County, was named to the Hereford Independent School District Board of Trustees during an executive session Thursday morning.

Andrews, 40, was born in Hereford and has lived here all his life. He is engaged in farming at the Frio Community some seven miles south of Hereford. He attended schools here and was gone for military service from 1952-54.

"I feel privileged to be selected by this group of people to work with them. It is my desire to be able to represent every citizen in the district in a fair manner," Andrews said of the new position.

Tannery Is Proposed By California Firm

Arrangements are being completed for a Los Angeles company to open a tannery in Hereford before the end of the year, according to a press release received by The Hereford Brand Saturday from Sonoma International.

The announcement came from Donald D. Smith, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Sonoma International, whose principal subsidiary is Los Angeles Tanning Co.

The announcement came as a complete surprise to local officials and civic leaders who were contacted Saturday morning. Officials at Armour & Co. and Missouri Beef, on being contacted Saturday, said they had no knowledge of the proposed plant.

The press release stated that "the all-new buildings and facilities at Hereford are being provided by a local group of cattle and packing house people on a 10-year lease."

Smith was quoted as saying that "after the initial start-up period, the operation will be processing about 1,000 raw hides per day from packing houses in the area." He said it would represent a dollar volume of about $6 million annually.

Mayor Jim Sears recalled that officials of Los Angeles Tanning Co. had visited Hereford a year or more ago, but no further communications had been received from the company.

Jim Lindsey, executive vice president of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, said the announcement was a surprise to C of C leaders but "we are naturally happy to learn of this." He added that he would be in contact with the company Monday.

The press release reported that operations of the proposed plant would be under the direction of Ralph Scheinholtz, president of Los Angeles Tanning Co., and a member of a family which has been a leader in the tanning industry for several generations.

The announcement added that Sonoma International acquired Los Angeles Tanning last October as the first move in HIGHWAY TALK—Representatives from Texas, and New Mexico met Friday night at Dickie's Restaurant to discuss a proposed 400-mile interstate highway system that would connect Amarillo with Las Cruces, going through Hereford.

Gorrell Named Juvenile Officer

Leon Gorrell, 32, a deputy sheriff here for the past four years, was named to the post of juvenile probation officer during Wednesday's meeting of the Juvenile Board.

The seven-member board interviewed four applicants for the position which has been resigned by Billy Hodges. The board met for almost four hours before it made its selection.

Hodges announced his resignation in late July, effective Sept. 3. He served as juvenile probation officer for two years before making the decision to resign and attend college.

Gorrell, born in Taloga, Okla., went to high school at Weslaco. He has been in law enforcement work for 10 years and likes only two points to achieve his intermediate certificate, which is the next to the highest certificate for officers.

Gorrell's appointment becomes effective Sept. 1.

"He came to Hereford from Canadian where he was chief of police for about six months.

Gorrell holds a teacher's law enforcement certificate to teach law enforcement classes, is a member of the National Sheriff's Association, the Texas Narcotics Association, the Texas Forgery Association, and the Hereford Kiwanis Club. He has coached boys baseball here, has served as a Cub Scout master and as an adviser for Explorer Scouts.

"I have worked with the younger citizens for many years and it is nothing real new," Gorrell said of his new position. "The only difference now is that it will be full time.

Public Meeting Slated Here To Discuss Interstate Proposal

A meeting will be held in Hereford within the next two weeks to feel out the opinions of the citizens in regard to a proposed interstate highway system through Hereford that would connect Amarillo and Las Cruces, N.M.

A date has not been set, but officials pushing the project indicated they would attend in order to discuss the project with the people of Hereford. Representatives from area towns met in Hereford Friday night with New Mexico officials "to see what kind of interest there is on the Texas end of the proposed 400-mile route." Friday's meeting was the second such meeting in the past month.

John McLelland, a contractor from Roswell, and officers from the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce headed up the meeting which is aimed at getting an interstate highway system to connect Amarillo and Las Cruces. The new interstate route would be to connect I-10 and I-40 along with proposed I-27 which will run from Lubbock to Amarillo. The interstate route would connect Amarillo, Hereford, Friona, Clovis, Portales, Roswell, Alamogordo and Las Cruces.

The first meeting held earlier this month was to present the idea to the towns along the proposed route. The meeting Friday was to regroup and get an indication of the feelings of towns in Texas.

All towns along the route in Texas expressed optimism about the proposed interstate system, but Chamber of Commerce executive president

Jim Lindsey informed the gathering that a public meeting is planned in Hereford to get a better idea of how the townspeople feel.

"There are quite a few businesses on U.S. 60 now and some of them might go out of business if an interstate is routed around Hereford," he said. "Some of the small businesses I have talked to are definitely against it, but there are some that are definitely for it."

"I can't say if we are for it or against it. We have good highways between here and there," he said. "But, the roads between here and New Mexico certainly could use some improving."

Lynton Allred of Hereford, who has been involved in projects for U.S. 60 and Highway 385 which intersect in Hereford, said the feeling toward the interstate system

Woman Dies In Friday Accident

Deaf Smith County recorded its second traffic fatality of the year late Friday when a local woman was killed in a one-car mishap just south of town on Highway 385.

Killed in the accident was Alice Berryman, 31, who was thrown from the vehicle after it collided with several mail boxes along side of the road.

Injured were Linda Warren, 24, 523 Irving, who was listed in good condition at Deaf Smith General Hospital; Charles Berryman, 12, Route 5, who was also listed in good condition at the local hospital; and Lane Warren, 7, 623 Irving, who was listed in extremely critical condition at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

The accident occurred at 8:25 p.m. Friday about two-tenths of a mile south of the Hereford city limits. Mrs. Berryman, who was the driver of the 1967 Chevrolet, apparently lost control of the vehicle and the car hit several mail boxes just off the road. Pieces of the mail boxes and posts came through the car window, injuring those inside.

Mrs. Berryman, the former Alice Marie Inman, was born Sept. 15, 1941, in Hereford and married Charles Richard Berryman Sept. 15, 1961, in Amarillo.

She is survived by her husband; four sons, Charles Wayne, Richard Alan, Mark and Randy; her mother, Mrs. Zoe Inman of Hereford; three sisters, Dora Gilley, who lives in Africa, Margaret Jordan of El Paso and Fredia Snow of Tonkawa, Okla.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Gililand Funeral Home.

"Honorable" in front of the lawmaker's name.

The Honorable George Mahon will visit Hereford Wednesday and we hold him to be the type of man you'd want to call "Honorable", whether he happened to be a U.S. Representative or still a farmer around Colorado City.

It has been our privilege to know this gentleman for many years, and we never cease to be amazed at his remarkable memory, knowledge, ability, and—at the same time—a down-to-earth quality that draws respect and admiration from everyone he meets.

chairmanship since 1964, following the death of Rep. Cannon of Missouri.

Mahon is chairman of the joint Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Federal Expenditures, and in 1968 he served on the President's Commission on Budget Concepts. He is also a member of the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institute.

Born at Mahon, La., on Sept. 22, 1900, Mahon was one of eight children born to John Kirkpatrick and Lola Brown Mahon. The family moved to Loraine in West Texas in 1908. He was reared on a cotton farm and has been engaged in farming all his life.

In 1924 he received a B.A. degree from Simmons College, now Hardin-Simmons University, and in 1925 he received a law degree from the University of Texas Law School. He began the practice of law in Colorado City and was elected county attorney of Mitchell County in 1926. A year later he was appointed as district attorney, and then was elected to that office four times. When the 19th District was created, he became a candidate for U.S. Representative and was elected in 1934.

Mahon was married to his high school sweetheart, Helen Stevenson, in 1923. They have one daughter, Daphne, who is married to Duncan Holt. The Hols, who reside in Tulsa, Okla., have three children. When Congress is in session, the Mahons live in an apartment in Arlington, Va., simply and far from the social whirl of the Capital City. Mrs. Mahon is not an office employee, but she actively assists her husband in the discharge of his heavy responsibilities.

Booster Meeting Set For Monday

The Hereford Booster Club will hold its first meeting of the new year Monday night at the Community Center, according to James Higgins, president. All sports fans interested in joining the organization are invited to attend. Higgins also noted that women are invited to attend and join the club.

On the program Monday night will be a film of the Super Bowl game, which was won by the Dallas Cowboys.

The club will also make plans for an ice cream party Tuesday evening, following an intra-squad scrimmage. Football players, families and fans are invited. Persons are also invited to bring a freezer of ice cream, Higgins reported.

Mary Shipp Top Cowgirl

Mary Shipp of Hereford was named best all-around cowgirl at the Junior Rodeo held in conjunction with the Perryton Celebration over the weekend. Perryton and Spearman won the girls' and boys' team championships, but Hereford's high school team shared in the winners' circle. Roy Hawkins of Spearman took the best all-around cowboy title.

Hereford winners in the rodeo included: Bud Kendrick, first, and Mike Arnold, third, in bareback riding; Arnold, third in calf roping; Jeff Shipp, sixth in bull riding; and Mary Shipp, fourth in goat tying, second in pole bending, and fourth in barrel racing.

The rodeo and celebration was highlighted with the crowning of the "Wheatheart of the Nation", Lucia Miller, 17, of Buffalo, Okla.

New ASCS Officer Announced Locally

Don A. Tatum has been named the new executive director for the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office.

Tatum, 37, replaces Jack Vanderberg who has resigned to accept a post as district director of District I which includes 11 counties to the north of this one.

Tatum will take over the director's position Sept. 5. He comes to Hereford from Ft. Stockton where he was county executive director for two years.

Field Day Is Slated In Knox City

A field day will be held Sept. 13 at the Soil Conservation Service plant materials center Knox City, State Conservationist Edward E. Thomas announced this week.

The center serves Texas and Oklahoma.

Livestockmen, seed dealers, sportsmen, and other interested in the search for improved plants are being invited to attend the field day.

Harvey Davis of Temple, executive director of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board, will be the principal speaker.

New grasses, forbs, legumes and other plants under evaluation at the center will be discussed during the day. Some 1200 strains of 325 plants are being grown at the center.

Chief goal of the SCS plant materials work is to find new strains of plants that will solve specific conservation problems. Sincer livestock and wildlife co-exist on the same land, the search extends to grasses, legumes, forbs and shrubs which have dual values. Such plants are needed by landowners and operators for including in range seeding mixtures, for use in travel lane seeding, in border plantings, or for other uses.

Strains that appear promising at Knox City are then grown and evaluated under field conditions on farms of soil and water conservation district cooperators under a wide variety of conditions. Selections that prove superior to other plants available, com-mercially are then released by conservation districts to seed growers. These producers then grow seed and sell it to the public.

A new grass variety, Mason sandhill lovegrass, was certified and released earlier this year as a result of work done at the center in cooperation with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Selection 75 kleingrass was released in 1968. Other grass strains proven and put into use by SCS include El Reno, Uvalde, and Vaughn sideoats grama; King Ranch bluestem; green sprangletop; and Grenville switchgrass.

Some of the groups who cooperate with SCS in its plant materials work in Texas include Agricultural Research Service, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Texas A&M University, Texas Tech University, Prairie View A&M, Abilene Christian College, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Corps of Engineers, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, and soil and water conservation districts.

Blood Bank Due Here Wednesday

The Coffee Memorial Blood Bank will be in Hereford at the Community Center Wednesday to take blood donations for Hereford's supply in Amarillo.

Barbara McCrary, local chairman of the blood bank donations, said the local supply is down near zero now and possibly even lower. She said the response has been very poor during the last two visits made by the blood bank and because of this, the local supply is low.

Anyone who would like to give a pint of blood should contact Mrs. McCrary prior to Wednesday so an accurate account can be taken as to how many persons will show up.

HERD GRID CAPTAINS—Named to lead the Hereford Whiteface football team as captains this year were three senior lettermen. From bottom to top in the photo are Winston Short, Dale Hollingsworth and Keith Kitchens. Short, a linebacker and guard, and Kitchens, quarterback, were all-district performers last season. Hollingsworth, center, is a returning regular starter.

Footballers Get Pads; Start Contact Work Friday

After a week of conditioning drills in shorts and football shoes, the Hereford Whitefaces were allowed to put on the pads and start hitting Friday.

The contact work was preceded by "press day", as sportswriters from Amarillo and Lubbock joined The Brand photographer in taking pictures of the Herd Friday afternoon. The contact work continued for the Whitefaces Saturday, with workouts at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The team will have intra-squad scrimmage Tuesday, and is will be followed by a Booster Club-sponsored ice cream party. Parents and boosters will bring ice cream, meet the gridgers, and join them in consuming the refreshments.

The action Tuesday starts at 6 p.m. when the junior varsity holds an intra-squad scrimmage. The varsity scrimmage follows and the ice cream treat is set for about 8 p.m., according to Coach Larry Dippel.

The Whiteface mentor was pleased with the first week's drills, commending the gridgers for showing fine attitudes in the tedious and tiring business of getting into physical condition for the fast approaching season.

The big question mark in the Herd camp is still the defensive line, which is inexperienced and untested. Dippel sees fine potential at the key spots, but none of the "down" men have seen varsity experience in those positions.

The Herd's defensive experience is centered on returning starters Winston Short at linebacker and Barry McNutt at halfback. However, Danny Harris teams with Short to provide top-notch performers at the linebacking berths. And, the secondary appears strong with cornerman Terry Champ, halfback James Harris and free safety Keith Kitchens, or newcomer Steve Nieman.

joining McNutt and providing plenty of speed.

Both the running attack and the passing game have had bright spots in the offensive drills. Kitchens has been delivering with pin-point accuracy in the passing department, and Wesley High has been coming on strong in the rushing department.

With a couple of 200-pounders already checking in uniforms, the Herd will be fielding a relatively small team for AAAA competition, but the quickness and desire offsets a lot of poundage.

Sports Committee Views Recreation Film

The Sports Committee of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce met Friday at Dickie's Restaurant for a luncheon meeting, with a film on community education and recreation presented for the program.

Larry Dippel, chairman, presided at the meeting, and Richard Robinson, school director of vocational education, was in charge of the program and film.

The film outlined a community education program which has been initiated in Flint, Mich., and Robinson-told of making a trip to that city to view, firsthand, the progress and success of the project. The sports committee has been studying plans to start some type of summer recreation program in Hereford.

Primary message of the film was that school facilities can be used to much more benefit through community involvement in various programs, and in offering these programs 12 months of the year instead of 9 months.

Dippel announced the committee would meet again next month at the Country Club.

A PROUD HERITAGE-

Early in this century, Hereford became known as the "Windmill City" because some 400 windmills, busily pumping, were a dominant part of the landscape.

Water - and - The First National Bank, have always played an important role in the development of Hereford.

FCA Chapters Hold Joint Chicken Supper Thursday

Two chapters of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes held a joint chicken supper Thursday night at the Community Center, with a program featuring reports from boys and coaches on the FCA camp in Ft. Collins, Colo.

Earl Stagner, president of the adult chapter, reported that about 90 athletes and men attended the supper. Mike Mayberry, high school chapter president, and David Duval gave reports on attending the summer camp, as well as coaches Ron Mayberry and Jeff Smart.

Mayberry, the "huddle group" leader, urged as many athletes as possible to start making plans to attend the FCA conference next summer. He said the high school chapter was making fund-raising plans in order to offer the trip to as many athletes who wanted to go.

Stagner invited other men in the community to become members of the adult chapter. Dues are $10 per year. Men can join the organization by contacting Stagner, Bed Eades, or Harlan Vander Zee. Or, if desired, dues can be mailed to Vander Zee at Hereford State Bank. Checks should be made out to "F.C.A."

Mayberry reported that the huddle group hopes to have regular meetings during the school year. The major fund-raising project for the group is the annual FCA Golf Tournament and banquet.

Horse Owners Place In Different Shows

Three horse owners from Hereford placed recently in two American Quarter Horse Association shows.

Whimpy's Ace, owned by Harvey Rowland, was second in the show in Bovina in the 72 stallion class while April Showers, owned by Bob Hughes placed fourth in the 72 filly class. Cutie, owned by DeWayne Robbins, placed fourth in mare class.

In a show in Flomont last week, Whimpy's Ace placed third, April Showers placed first and Cutie placed fifth.

Coffee Welcomes AAUW President

An informal coffee for American Association of University Women in Hereford Country Club Saturday morning gave members an opportunity to become better acquainted with their state divisional president, Mrs. William C. Pool of San Marcos.

Mrs. Pool was in Hereford as a part of a visit to AAUW branches in the Panhandle area. She has previously visited the Hereford branch in its first year.

Orientation for the members, almost all of them new to the AAUW, was given at the coffee in a talk by Mrs. Pool. She was introduced by Mrs. Colby Conkright, president.

After holding various AAUW offices culminating in the state presidency, Mrs. Pool is a nominee for vice president of the Southwest Central Region. Guests at the coffee were greeted by Mmes. Austin Rose Jr., Si G. Darling, W.J. Gililand, Jimmie Gillentine and Richard Barnard.

Serving coffee were Mmes. Gene Hutsinger, Jim Conkright, John Winder and Robert Hickman.

The table, placed across east windows in the Terrace Room, was covered with a green cloth and centered with an epergne arrangement of yellow snapdragons and carnations with miniature lilies in apricot shade.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

Credit purchases have become a way of life with most of our Texas families. When the debtor refuses or is unable to meet his payments when due, his account often is turned over to a collection agency.

Most of these agencies use reputable collection methods but unfortunately some agencies choose to resort to other means which are unethical and sometimes illegal. This article will deal with abusive collection tactics.

Collection is generally initiated with a letter mailed to the debtor. This letter informs him that the account has been assigned to the agency for collection and that payment in full is demanded.

The first letter is usually mild, but subsequent letters become progressively threatening. Also, the intervals between such letters also become shorter.

After a while, the collector may do any or all of the following: (1) he may send telegrams and registered letters; (2) contact the debtor's employer; (3) send messages that suggest legal documents; or (4) make direct personal contact with the debtor by telephone or personal visit.

Frequently, a form or printed letter is used which threatens the addition of court costs, attorney's fees, and interest in addition to the principal sum unless full payment is made.

Representing that a law suit will be brought unless prompt final payment is made constitutes debt harassment unless legal action is actually initiated. This method of collection is deceptive since it is designed to collect without the necessity of bringing a lawsuit.

The use of any printed form or letter which simulates actual court papers or bona fide legal documents is illegal. Collection letters which have the tendency or give the appearance of emanating from a court or other source of authority are deceptive under our law.

Such forms cannot be used to collect debts even where the debt is just and valid because it tends to coerce and intimidate the debtor into paying by means of deception and false representations.

A commonly used deceptive practice is arbitrarily increasing the amount of the debt by the collection agency. This is done to invoke quick response, and naturally places the agency in a more favorable position of collecting.

Many times employees are instructed to use fictitious names when telephoning accounts. Behind this cloak of anonymity, the use of threats of bodily harm, bombing of property, injury to children or wives, or spreading the reports that the debtor is a "dead beat" to his employer or friends may be engaged in by the collector. As an extra harassment, these calls may be made in the middle of the night.

The law, of course, does not condemn debt collection per se. Collection simply must be conducted legitimately, without harassment, coercion, or intimidation, or by the use of any means which are deceptive. Even delinquent debtors are entitled to know the source of letters which are sent to them, and while they may owe money, they deserve the protection of the law just as do other citizens.

Anyone who has knowledge or reason to believe that unlawful debt collection practices exist should contact my Consumer Protection Division at Box 12548, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Boxing Meet Scheduled

Boys interested in joining the Hereford Golden Gloves boxing association are asked to be at the Bull Barn on Sept. 11 and to bring with them a photostatic copy of their birth certificate.

Harold Wheeler, manager of the local boxing association, said applications will be presented to the boys at the Sept. 11 meeting and these applications should be notarized, filled out, signed by a parent, and returned to him. No boy will be allowed to participate in practice or matches unless the application is completed.

Hereford will enter its first full year of Golden Gloves competition after just getting into the Amateur Athletic Union box-offs late last spring. Their first match is scheduled Sept. 30 in Levelland with teams from Amarillo, Lubbock and Hereford comprising the visiting teams.

Other matches will see Hereford at Lubbock on Oct. 7,

Small Talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Woman's Editor

IT MUST BE FALL, at least the beginning of that season, if you want to believe the nice cool days we had lately and the fact that school is in session, instead of believing the calendar.

So it's fall, and time for fall housecleaning which we've been doing a little bit down here at the office. That activity at home always turns up things you've thought you'd lost, and it's no different in an office. Desk drawers yield interesting items.

One of mine had a collection of recipes acquired over the past year, certainly too good to throw away even though there wasn't room for them at just the time we got them. So here they are:

CHERRY CRUNCH
1 can cherry pie filling
2 tsp. lemon juice
1 pkg. white cake mix
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup melted margarine.
Spread pie filling in the bottom of a 9-inch square pan. Sprinkle with the lemon juice. Combine cake mix, nuts and margarine, and sprinkle this crumbly mixture over the pie filling.

Bake at 350 degrees 40 to 45 minutes, until top is golden brown. Serve topped with ice cream or whipped cream.

THAT IS ONE OF Mrs. Jack Nunley's recipes, who says she doubles the amounts when she is cooking for her whole family. It is so simple to prepare that she likes it for dessert when the Nunleys go on camping trips and she does the cooking in the camper.

Homemakers who must consider a diabetic's diet in preparing meals will be interested in this recipe, from Mrs. Lynn Pittard:

DIABETIC APPLESAUCE

CAKE
1/2 cup butter
1 lb. liquid sweetener
1 egg
1 cup dates, sliced fine
1 1/2 cups applesauce
1 cup chopped nuts
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. cloves
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups flour

2 tsp. soda
Mix all ingredients, bake in buttered loaf pan an hour at 350 degrees.

A TREAT FROM TWO centuries ago, a recipe which originated on Nantucket Island off the coast of Massachusetts was found in a magazine by Genevieve Miller, who vouches for its excellence:

CHEWY DATE BARS
1/2 cup butter (or margarine)
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 cup finely cut dates
Heat oven to 350 degrees.
Grease and flour 9x9x2-inch pan. Beat butter til light, add sugar, eggs and vanilla and beat until well blended. Stir in flour and blend well. Add dates, mix.

Spread in pan. Bake 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Cool on wire rack and cut into bars. Makes 18 bars.

FINALLY, HERE IS Mrs. Dean Jones' pound cake recipe which sounds mighty good and a little bit different; it's made with buttermilk.

POUND CAKE
2 sticks butter with a little salt
2 cups sugar
1 cup buttermilk with 1/2 tsp. soda stirred in 3 cups flour

4 eggs
1 tsp. butter flavoring
Vanilla or lemon flavoring
Cream butter and sugar, add beaten eggs, then add buttermilk alternately with sifted flour. Mix well and bake in buttered and floured pan at 350 degrees for an hour.

MRS. OWEN ANDREWS Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan left Monday for Galveston, where Mrs. Ogan went to John Sealy Hospital on Wednesday for a routine check up. She has been progressing in her recovery from burns, since coming home from the hospital, arriving here on July 17. They spent one night each way on the trip at the home of Mrs. Tom Hatchett, Mrs. Ogan's aunt, at Stephenville. If there are no changes in their plans, they expect to be at home the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews and family, Mrs. E.B. Berryman and the Wallace White family, of Biloxi, Miss., spent Sunday at Wellington visiting relatives. The Whites have been visiting the relatives here for several days and were on their way home.

Mrs. Ben Dean, of Dallas, came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. B.H. Baldwin, for a few days. Mrs. Dean's son, Bobby, was attending a church meeting at Glorieta, this week, and Mrs. Dean accompanied him this far for the visit here and is to return Tuesday. Bobby is a Baylor Student as is the Dean daughter, Debbie. She is a freshman, this year. The older son, Jimmy, lives in California.

Mrs. Derrall Culp and sons, of Wilcox, Ariz. are visiting several days with her mother, Mrs. J.E. Warrick and others of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Billy Warrick and Eugene Warrick went on Sunday to Valliant, Okla. upon hearing that Mrs. Warrick's mother, Mrs. Addie Bingham was seriously ill, having suffered a stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Manion, Billie Faye, Kim and Jay returned home Sunday from a week-long trip. They went in the camper and visited Possum Kingdom and other lakes, also took in Six Flags and went on to McAlester, Okla., where they visited Manion's parents and other relatives.

Among students leaving for college are Cheryl Cole to O.S.U. at Stillwater, Okla., Bill Cole to S.M.U. Dallas, Billie Faye Manion, who will be a freshman at W.T.U., Genie Robbins, a freshman at Texas Tech and Eugene Warrick a sophomore at W.T. Royce Waldrip will be going to Dallas Fashion Merchandising College. Monte Gripp plans to attend Animal Science School at A&M. and Norman Harder will be completing work on his B.S. degree at W.T.U. this semester.

Kim Gripp plans to enter Hobbs Junior College, having been awarded a full Rodeo scholarship of that school. He will start on Monday, Aug. 28. Dean Gripp will be a freshman at John Tarleton College, Stephenville. J.D. Harder will begin his senior year at W.T.S.U.

The Earnest Harders were attending a Fleming family gathering at Cordell, Okla., during the weekend. The Flemings are the family of Mrs. Harder's father's people.

Edgar Kreiger, of Lawrence, Kansas, visited his cousins, the Earnest Harders and Leonard Schmidts, Thursday and Friday of last week. He is a teacher in the school system there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harder and daughter, Diane, of Reedley, Calif. visited Tuesday until Thursday in the home of his brother, Earnest Harder and family.

Todd Taylor, who has spent the summer with his father, Dee Taylor, grand parents, the Jim Brooks and Dueward Taylors of Friona, returned to his home at Memphis, Tenn., last Saturday night. Dee took him to Oklahoma City where he boarded a plane for the remainder of the trip.

Among those attending the summer graduation of W.T.S.U. seniors, Thursday Aug. 17, were the family of Mrs. Clayton Jobe. She is at teacher in the Hereford School System. Mrs. E.H. (Marcia) Little, of Texline was also graduating. Family members attending were Mrs. Nanette McMurray, and Mrs. Gary Mason and Mindy, Mrs. Weldon Stephan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins, E.H. Little and Becky Little and Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Robbins. They all went to the Gene Duvall home, in Amarillo, to a gathering after the graduation. Mrs. Little is a first grade teacher at Texline.

The Garry Hathoways were among those attending W.T.S.U. graduation. Her brother, Bill Glidewell, of Dimmitt, was among those awarded degrees.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Harris and her grandmother, Mrs. Flora Wallace, of Ardmore, Okla. came during the weekend to visit Mrs. Wallace's sister, Mrs. G.W. Parker, and the Yandell and Parris families. Mrs. Wallace stayed for a longer visit here, while the Harrises went on to Colorado for a mountain vacation.

Here to visit her mother, Mrs. Laura Littrel, during the weekend was Mrs. Earl Allgood and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leona Craven, both of Fresno.

Calif. Others of the relatives visited with the ladies while they were here, also.

Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Vogler, their daughter, Mrs. Lynn Fisher and baby daughter, left on a trip this week. They were to go to Lamesa, where the Harold Voglers were to accompany them on to Houston to visit the Leon Voglers and part of the Harold Voglers family also. At Gidding, they planned to attend a Jacobs family reunion, relatives of the two Voglers.

A get-together at the Weldon Stephan home on Tuesday evening honored Royce Waldrip, who was leaving for college. Guests included Patti Robbins, Gene Robbins, Jerry Robbins, Rocky Andrews, Kathy Waldrip, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Waldrip.

Jana Bruns, Muleshoe, was a guest of Jill Stephan on Friday and Saturday.

Sunday guests of the Stephens were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moody Stephan, Mrs. Charles Moore, Stephanie and Mitchell. Also Terri Hetzel, Shirley Head, Susan Wartes and Patti Robbins.

What gums up our budgets is yearnings outstripping earnings.

Businesses, Students Benefit From VOE

VOE PROGRAM—Teacher-coordinator for Vocational Office Education, Joyce Wartes talks with employers about job placement for students. VOE features both classroom and on-the-job training in office skills.

BY LORI HOPSON
Staff Writer

Stressing individual instruction, Hereford High School's Vocational Office Education program provides classroom and on-the-job training which prepares the student for employment after he finishes high school.

Begun in 1968, Hereford's five-year-old program is a relative newcomer to the school's vocational department. "VOE is an excellent training program for office workers," said Mrs. Larry Wartes, VOE teacher-coordinator. "It is a training program to provide competent office employees who will be ready to assume full-time employment upon graduation from high school."

Open to senior boys and girls who have training in skill subjects such as typewriting, shorthand, and bookkeeping, VOE makes the student eligible for general clerical, junior secretarial, and bookkeeping jobs. The students spend one-half day in a regular school program and the remainder in on-the-job training.

Mrs. Wartes stressed the advantages of VOE to college-bound students as well as those who plan to assume the responsibilities of full time employment when they finish high school.

"The VOE program is designed for students who plan to go to college as well as those who plan to seek full-time employment upon graduation. It is possible to complete the requirements for graduation and participate in VOE as well," she said. "This is something many of our high school students don't realize." Students who are at least 16 years of age, classified as seniors in high school, and have had a minimum of one year of typewriting instruction are eligible for participation in the VOE program. Good attendance and conduct records, and attitude are also stressed. Providing practical training in skills learned in the classroom part of the course, VOE stresses the benefits of its on-the-job training to the community's businessmen, students, and school itself.

The businessman is provided with part-time workers who are at an age where they learn more readily, and whom he may retain as full-time employees after graduation.

VOE also creates a pool of experienced office workers for the community and correlates job training with classroom instruction.

Mrs. Wartes also stressed the importance of the community's businessmen to the VOE program.

"In order for the program to function properly, we must have the co-operation of the businessmen of Hereford," she said. "With their participation, we can help students to become trained office workers who will go into Hereford offices when they finish high school."

"OEA is an important part of the VOE program. It is a youth leadership organization which helps to develop leadership, responsibility, and provide social and educational values," said Mrs. Wartes.

Activities include the annual Employer-Employee Banquet and Area and State Youth Leadership Conferences which include a variety of competitive events.

With a pre-requisite of one year of typing, VOE lab is a pre-employment training course for students who plan to take the co-op course as Seniors. VOE lab is taught by Mrs. Elizabeth Wills and features training in the operation of electronic, printing, and rotary calculators; ten and full-key adding machines, offset printing machines, transcribing and mimeograph machines, the fluid duplicator and the electric typewriter. These skills are also included in the Co-op program.

"It is desirable for a student who plans to take the Co-op program to take the pre-employment training," said Mrs. Wartes. "But it is not required. However, for either course, students must have a year of typing."

With only five years behind it, Mrs. Wartes says that the Hereford VOE program can be termed a success. The program now has an enrollment of 50 students, 24 in the Co-op class, and 26 in the Lab. "We hope that each of these students will join OEA and become active in this organization," added Mrs. Wartes.

As teacher-coordinator of the program, Mrs. Wartes talks with employers, supervises the students at their training stations and consults with the employers whenever they may have questions, in addition to teaching the classroom portion of the program.

She stressed individual instruction as a major factor in the program's success, along with the participation of Hereford businesses.

"The program could not function without the businessmen of Hereford," she concluded.

Rhodes Remain In Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Rhodes, 131 Ave. D, remained in High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo late Wednesday, recovering from injuries suffered in a one-car accident last week.

Mrs. Rhodes was said to be in critical condition while Mr. Rhodes was listed in serious condition in the intensive care unit of the hospital. The Rhodes were injured in an accident Sunday about five miles north of Black in Castro County. The couple failed to negotiate a dead-end intersection and the accident resulted.

The Rhodes are the parents of Troy and Tex Rhodes and Mrs. Jack Ward Jr., all of Hereford.

MISS GOODIN TO WED — Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goodin of 430 Star announce the engagement of their daughter, Ginger Lynn, to Joe Neal Wallace son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace of Sonora. The couple plans an October 21 wedding in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church. Miss Goodin is a 1971 graduate of Hereford High School, and has attended West Texas State University. Currently employed at Pitman East, Wallace is a graduate of Sonora High School and Texas State Technical Institute in Amarillo.

Funeral Services Scheduled

Funeral services for Benny Glenn Carr, 7, will be at 10 a.m. Monday, at Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral home by the Rev. Prentice Smith, pastor of Greenwood Baptist Church. Burial will be at West Park Cemetery.

Survivors include his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carr of Hereford, one brother and one sister, James and Donna Carr both of Hereford, both grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Carr of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. William Mill Holland of Paoli, Colo.

Dowell Installed As Club Official

"It's quite an honor to have the job," says Bartley Dowell, newly installed Lieutenant Governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district.

Dowell was installed in a recent ceremony in Abilene. His duties as Lt. Governor will include overseeing and helping direct the Kiwanis clubs in his division.

Newly-formed Division 33, one of 35 in the Texas-Oklahoma district, includes Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Parmer, Castro Swisher, Briscoe, Bailey and Lamb counties.

Dowell will visit each of the nine clubs in his division at least three times during his term. He will be present for the installation of officers in each of these during late September or early October.

President of the local Kiwanis club in 1954, Dowell later served as secretary, and will complete a term as treasurer in October.

"Kiwanis is a real worthwhile organization," says Dowell, "I've gained a better outlook on my fellow men and on life in general. I've enjoyed the association with members, not only locally, but over the whole district."

Dowell has also served two terms on the Hereford City Commission, but did not seek re-election, because "I felt this job would take much of my time."

Dowell is the fourth Hereford Kiwanian to serve as Lt. Governor in the 22 years the club has been included in the district. His years as a Kiwanian also number 22.

"We're out to become the Number One division in our district," he says. "We want to build at least three new clubs in this division—one more Key

Ex-Resident Earns Masters Degree

A former Hereford resident, Mrs. Jerry Jacobs of Canyon, received a masters degree in commencement exercises at West Texas State University last week. Daughter of Mrs. H.E. Miller, 428 Star, and the late Mr. Miller, Mrs. Jacobs grew up at Dawn and started to school there.

She is the former Wilma Jean Miller. Her husband is superintendent of Canyon Public Schools.

Presenting the degree, WTSU President Cornett noted that Mrs. Jacobs holds a bachelors degree from West Texas, and also graduated from junior high and high school in the demonstration school which the university, then West Texas State College, formerly maintained.

HINDENBURG-HITLER
On Aug. 2, 1934, German President Paul von Hindenburg died; Chancellor Adolph Hitler assumed the presidency.

Bartley Dowell

Beware of the shoe salesman who measures only one foot.

He's incompetent. He doesn't know the first thing about children's feet, and he knows next to nothing about their shoes.

If he did, he'd realize that a child's right and left foot aren't always the same size, width or shape. That's because they're different, they have to be measured and fitted individually.

And he'd know the frightening consequences of a poor fit.

A child's foot bones are so soft and moldable they'll bend to the shape of a bad shoe without any pain at all. Your child's feet can grow up all wrong, and you won't know it's happening.

Other shoe stores may ignore these facts, but we don't. Our salesmen are trained in every aspect of measuring feet and fitting shoes precisely.

But a good salesman is worthless without a good shoe to sell, so we carry Jumping-Jacks shoes for boys and girls from tots to pre-teens.

They're constructed with every safety feature a growing foot needs.

With the supplest leather. Most with no linings. So they're that much lighter and softer, freer and more flexible.

Jumping-Jacks let a child's foot breathe. And when you put your child's feet in the hands of our salesmen, you can breathe a little easier too.

Jumping-Jacks

Most feet are born perfect. They should stay that way.

AAUSTIN, TEX. — Lt. Governor-elect Bill Hobby called for an era of "getting together and working together to solve Texas' problems" at his fund raising dinner in Austin. "We have been through some of the most turbulent campaigns in our recent history—campaigns that left some wounds," he stressed. "We need to see to it that those wounds heal without leaving scars. "State governments are resuming their roles as vital members of the federal-state partnership," Hobby added. "Our federal system cannot work unless the states and the local governments perform their functions responsibly and effectively."

Hobby told the audience of Democratic leaders that Texas has something to give the nation — simple virtues of courtesy and neighborliness. He talked of the "new mood now running the tidal proportions throughout the state," and said he believed the entire nation could find hope and an example here in Texas.

"Only history will record whether or not Texasans invested the conscience, the commitment and the effort to create a humane and just society in our state," Hobby concluded.

Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, estimates that statewide traffic accidents over the 78-hour Labor Day Weekend will claim 48 lives.

The Labor Day holiday, as designated by the National Safety Council, extends from 6 p.m. Friday, September 1, to midnight Monday, September 4.

At the close of the Labor Day period last year, a DPS tabulation revealed 41 persons had died in 34 traffic accidents in the state. Late deaths pushed the toll to 43 persons killed in 36 accidents.

Speir said the DPS and local law enforcement agencies will be taking all possible steps to reduce the holiday death toll. A special "Operation Motorcade" will be in progress over the Labor Day weekend and urban fatalities on rural and urban roads will be reported to the news media of Texas three times daily.

As is customary on major holidays, says Speir, all available highway patrolmen will be placed on duty throughout the state. They will make full use of radar and breath testing instruments in an effort to curtail the major cause of fatal accidents — excessive speed and drunk driving.

Joining law enforcement officers in the effort to reduce loss of lives during the holiday period will be about 500 Texas National Guardsmen who will operate jeep patrols to assist motorists and to ride partners with DPS patrolmen.

The guardsmen, all volunteers, will concentrate their efforts in 107 Texas counties in far east, central and south Texas.

Speaking of "Operation Motorcade", Colonel Speir said, "these educational and enforcement programs will have an impact, but a great deal of the responsibility for accident reduction rests in the hands of individual Texans."

"I am appealing to all our citizens to join with us in saving lives by 'Driving Friendly', both during the holiday and throughout the remainder of the year," the DPS director said.

GOALS FOR TEXAS CITIES — More than 70 urban experts from across the state met in Austin recently to draft goals which will be used to determine programs the Texas Municipal League will provide Texas cities in the Seventies.

Founded in 1913, the Texas Municipal League now includes more than 720 cities in the state among its membership. Its functions are to disseminate information, inform mayors and other municipal leaders about important pending legislation and to train municipal officials.

Goals for the Seventies which will be widely disseminated among member cities in the state are expected to have "tremendous, long-reaching implications for the future of the cities of Texas," says former Dallas Mayor Erik Jonsson, chairman of the TML Committee of the Future.

Sequin Mayor Alfred Koebig, TML president, commented: "We know from experience that the usefulness of any institution is based largely on its ability to keep pace with present and emerging needs; and it is our hope that the Municipal League's goal-setting process will provide information and decisions so that work to solve urban problems can begin now rather than when the problems become acutely serious."

SIGNS OF THE TIMES — Texas Highway Department has joined a nationwide symbol sign program to bring all highway signing into conformance with the so-called international sign program used in many other nations.

Richard Oliver, traffic engineer for the State Highway Department, recently reported to the Governor's Traffic Safety Committee that the more important regulatory signs such as "Yield", "Do No Enter" and "Wrong Way" are now being installed at critical locations, while other signs are being changed over on a maintenance replacement basis.

He explained the target date for full compliance with the National Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices is January, 1977. Full compliance with the National Manual is expected to cost the State of Texas $6 million for sign installation over the five-year period. Other costs will include $4.5 million for conversion of highway markings and $250,000 for installation of traffic signals.

"A folder describing the signs and new pavement markings is in preparation," said Oliver.

AGING TARGET AREAS ESTABLISHED — The Governor's Committee on Aging has approved 10 urban target areas for establishment of Area Agencies on Aging. Rural areas will be designated soon.

The Area Agencies on Aging will provide the governor's committee with planning for federal nutrition programs and related services, as well as additional programs for the elderly as they develop.

Selected as target areas were the counties of Harris, Jefferson, Orange, Bexar, Dallas, Tarrant, Travis, El Paso, McLennan, Nueces, Hidalgo and Cameron. The areas were selected according to numbers of persons 65 and older, numbers of elderly below the poverty level and proportions of minority groups.

CAPITOL HIT BY STORM — Tornado winds raked the state capitol grounds August 22 ripping several giant elm trees out of the ground, roots and all, and smashing several windows in the capitol building itself. Tourists were sent scurrying from the first floor rotunda of the building when shattered glass from windows in the dome, 260 feet above, came showering down along with a mini-deluge of rainwater.

Capitol employees had windows repaired and the rotunda cleaned of glass and water by the following day, but several days were required to clear debris from shattered trees from the capitol grounds. Fortunately, there were no injuries.

A NOTE FROM THE HUNTER — Recent action by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission requires that any portion of the meat from a deer kill given to a fellow hunter must have a note signed by the hunter making the kill with his name, address, hunting license number and the date and location of the kill.

Game management officers believe the requirement will insure that deer are harvested legally and identified as such — regardless of how many different people get the meat.

House

With

History

DATING FROM 1910, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Davis at 615 Union is one of Hereford's fine old houses which are being restored as residences for modern families. Built by pioneer rancher Rattliff Jowell, occupied by his family and then for many years by that of Mr. and Mrs. Jim evergreens, the house appears today in the photo above, its white porch pillars and trim accenting the grey walls. At left its original walls of wood siding show and the first trees on the lot, locusts, are just starting to grow. This photo belongs to Corinne Jowell Neely, a member of the family that first lived in the house.

ONLY ONE HAND tells the time, approximately, on this clock made in 1738 near Hereford, England. It stands now in the entry of the Davis home, where its owner is admiring the workmanship of its handmade cabinet.

CHERRY DROP-LEAF TABLE in Duncan Fyfe style is handmade, like much old furniture. It was crafted in the United States.

CIRCLING TWO SIDES of the house, the pleasantly shady front porch has white pillars with capitals ornamented in graceful curves.

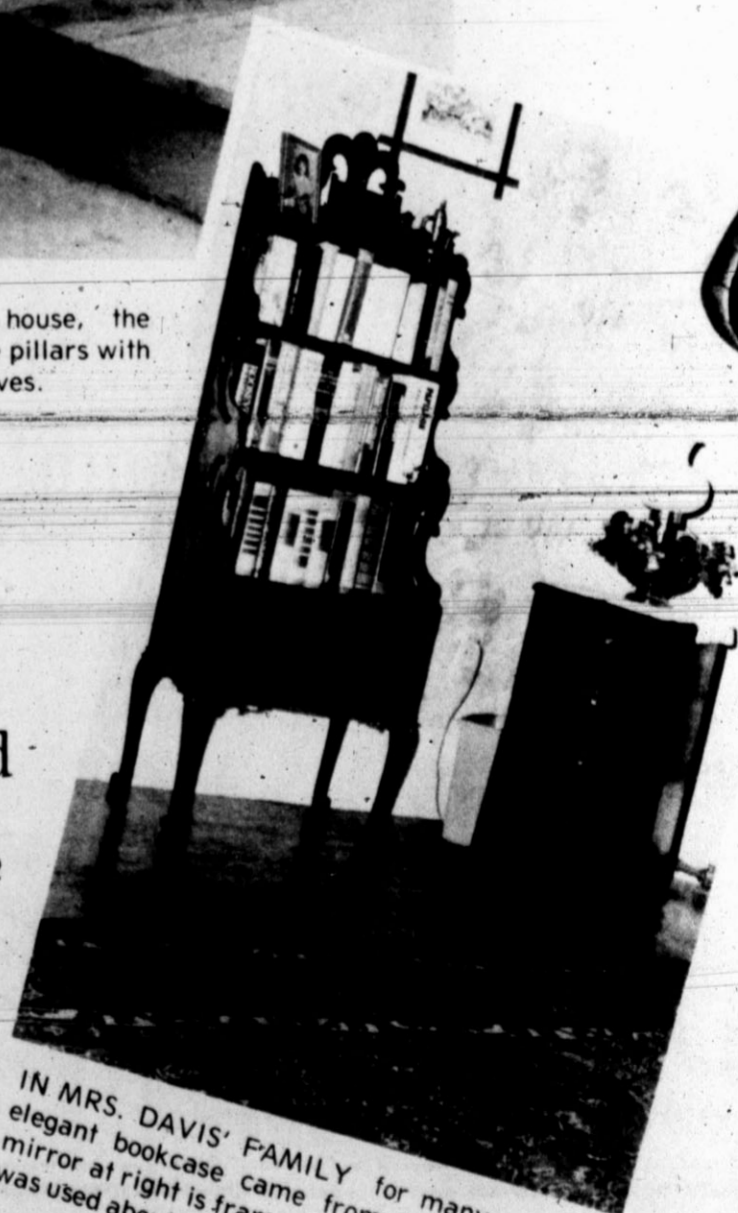

HALL STAIRCASE is one of the spots in the house connected with stories of ghosts. Three persons have fainted with no apparent reason at the foot of the steps. The chair with its handsome back and spindles is about 125 years old, made either in England or Canada.

Present Owner Bought Place For Its Years-Past Appearance

BY LORI HOPSON
Brand Staff Writer
FACING UNION AVENUE from behind its sheltering trees, the Abe Davis home is a reminder of Hereford's beginnings, and spacious homes which knew large families, composed of girls, boys, and even an occasional ghost or two.

When he bought "the old Williams house" about six years ago, Abe Davis did so because "I just like old houses rather than new ones."

Since that time he has spent most of his spare time restoring and improving the house.

WHEN HE ISN'T WORKING at his furniture shop, he's adding a closet to the parlor, and improving the kitchen area, adding a bath upstairs or new paint or wallpaper to the house. Davis' furniture business has been a bonus in restoring the house, since he is able to furnish it in antiques which add to the old-time atmosphere.

His oldest piece, a 30-hour, one-handed grandfather clock made in 1738, was found near Hereford, England, and graces the entry along with a rocker which hails from England.

A cherry table about 100 years old, and an oriental carpet dating from 75 to 100 years back, are featured in the study which opens to the left from the entry.

BUILT IN 1909-10, the house was erected according to a plan by George Ratliff Jowell, and was the first of three homes to be built at about the same time and of the very similar style. The other houses were the Billie Hicks home which featured Jowell's design with a few alterations and is located at the corner of 25 mile avenue and Lake street, and the Troy Womble residence, farther down the avenue.

The Jowell family lived in the house for about three years, then sold it to Jim Williams, who continued to own it until the death of his wife.

When the estate was settled the house was left in charge of an older son, Hez, who rented it for a while before selling it. At one time Mrs. Williams, who lived alone, converted it to apartments.

The house had five bedrooms, three upstairs and two downstairs, says Corinne Jowell Neely, one of Ratliff Jowell's daughters who still lives here.

ALL BEDROOMS HAD clothes closets, which was rare in those days. A large hall at the head of the stairway served as a living-playroom. Davis has added a bath at one end of this hall.

Downstairs, both bedrooms opened off the large entryway. One opened north onto the screened porch which circled two sides of the house and served as sleeping quarters in hot weather. Davis has furnished the first of these rooms as a study.

The kitchen also opened onto the porch, which had an outside door. On the east side of the house was the large formal dining room, which opened into the parlor with double sliding doors.

THE WINDMILL, COAL-AND-WOOD shed, and privy behind the house were replaced by modern fixtures.

Work on the house is continuous, according to Davis, who is still working on the upstairs bedrooms. Before his departure for school and his marriage, Davis' son, Oren, had planned to build another room under the gable in his bedroom.

An opening which was made sometime during the past, leads from the spacious closet to a large space under the gable.

Davis says his son has heard strange noises issuing from this "secret room."

Davis adds that he bought the house because it was haunted, saying, "My son and I maintain that we notice all sorts of strange noises and things happening." In keeping with the rumors that the house is haunted are the mysterious faintings of three people at the foot of the stairs.

DAVIS BEGAN LEARNING his trade of restoring antique furniture as an apprentice under master cabinet makers, first in Amarillo, then under an Austrian master in Miami, Fla. He has been in actual business for 10 to 12 years.

"It takes more than 20 years to learn," says Davis. Though restoring furniture started as a hobby for Davis as a young man, he has been interested and involved, whether professionally or as an amateur for over 20 years.

The house, built of solid wood, is in very good condition, according to Davis, who says "It will probably still be standing in 100 years."

The couple plans to marry November 1, in First United Methodist Church. Both are graduates of Hereford High School, and Miss Barber is a graduate of the Dental Hygiene school at Amarillo College. Curtsinger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O.C. Curtsinger of 610 Bowie and attended West Texas State University.

DE Club Elects Officers As New Year Opens

Thirty-eight Distributive Education students in Hereford High School were present at the D.E. club's Happy Hour or get-acquainted night Wednesday.

Members discussed projects and goals for the club, and officers were chosen.

Debbie Sorrels will serve as the club's president, and will be assisted by Jerry Amaro, vice president.

Other officers are Debbie Sossaman, secretary; Carlieta Vinson, treasurer; Karan Downey, parliamentarian, and Laprell Burns, reporter. Officers will be installed at the club's next meeting.

Levenie Benefield Weds In Abilene Ceremony

Miss Levenie Ann Benefield of Hereford became the bride of Glenn William Hughes in a Friday evening ceremony at Minter Lane Church of Christ in Abilene. John C. Stevens was the officiating minister and Dan Langford organist for the wedding.

Miss Benefield is the daughter of Mrs. J.B. Blankenship and the late Troy William Benefield of Hereford and patents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hughes of Washington, D.C.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, J.B. Blankenship, the bride wore a gown of white crepe with softly gathered skirt falling from a fitted waistline emphasized with a double row of beadwork.

The slim sleeves ended in a band of wide lace at the wrist which was repeated in a bib effect at the throat of the dress. Beadwork outlined the lace.

Three layers of French illusion attached to a Juliet cap featuring beadwork emphasis made the headpiece. Her mother made the gown which was designed by the bride.

The bride carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis on her Sigma Theta Chi Bible. She also carried a handkerchief made by her aunt and carried by Mrs. Blankenship at her wedding.

Hot pink crepe made in a empire style with skirts falling to the floor were worn by the maid of honor and bridesmaids. The dresses were trimmed in light pink and hot pink. Attendants carried colonial style bouquet of light pink carnations tied with lime green, and hot pink ribbons.

Miss Donnell Benefield of Plainview was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Bill Ashby of Houston and Mrs. Mike Terry of Abilene.

Rick Hughes of Washington, D.C., served his brother as best man; groomsmen were Gary Penn and Mike Terry of Abilene. Ushers were brothers of the bride, Johnson and Bill Benefield, both of Abilene.

After the wedding ceremony the couple and their parents received guests at a reception in East Gardner Hall, Abilene Christian College. The bride's mother wore a yellow knit dress in A-line design, with black accessories, while Mrs. William Hughes chose a lime green dress accessorized in beige.

The couple will spend a honeymoon in Ruidoso, New Mexico, and return August 31 to a home at 734 East N. 13th Street in Abilene.

A senior communications major, at ACC, the bride is employed in the college president's office. She completed high school studies in Hereford.

The bridegroom graduated in 1970 from ACC with a bachelor of science degree in psychology.

after high school graduation from Woodward Prep. He is employed by an automobile agency in Abilene.

His parents were hosts for the wedding rehearsal dinner Thursday in the Ponderosa Room of Thunderbird Lodge at Abilene.

Honorable—It Fits

The Honorable George Mahon, who will be Deaf Smith County's representative to Congress starting in January, will be in Hereford Wednesday to start getting better acquainted with some of his new constituents.

If they haven't met Rep. Mahon, it's a good bet most Deaf Smith County residents know the name. And, when you know him personally, the word "Honorable" seems to fit in front of his name quite naturally — Congressman or not.

While it is unique that Mahon has been the 19th District Congressman from Texas ever since the district was created in 1934, the real "record" he has posted lies in the faith and trust which voters have bestowed upon him. He has earned that trust through dedicated and diligent service to the people of the 19th District.

As a member of Congress, Mahon has been interested in all legislation, but he has always been a champion of the farmer and rancher. Since he was reared on a cotton farm near Loreine and his district is one of the nation's top producers of agricultural crops, this has been a major concern in representing West Texas.

Congress, too, has recognized his unusual abilities and he ranks as one of the most influential leaders of the House. As chairman of the powerful House Appropriations Committee, Mahon has been an advocate of economy and pay-as-you-go policies. At the same time, he has long been a leader for a strong national defense program.

In short, Mahon's service to Texas and the nation has earned him the respect that makes him one of the country's top leaders. We join other Deaf Smith County citizens in welcoming George — and his gracious wife, Helen — to our community, and we are proud to be a new member of his district!

Strange Times

These are strange times. One of our great national political parties is now in the grip of people who insist that the way to make business healthy again is to punish it for being sick. And the way to cure poverty is to cripple the source of our wealth.

I don't think the American people will buy that nonsense. The record speaks more loudly than the noisiest demonstration: From 1960 to 1971, nearly 15 million Americans were lifted out of poverty. In 1960, 40 million, or one in five, were below the official poverty line. By 1971, the total had fallen to 25.6 million, or one in eight. That's a 37 per cent improvement in 10 years. If we can continue that kind of progress, today's young Americans will live to see the conquest of man's oldest problem.

But we must not lose sight of the source of progress. It was the growth of the American economy that helped those people, not some magic government formula for the redistribution of wealth. The creation of wealth is prerequisite to its distribution. It is the private economy that pays the bills for public progress and private progress alike.

And it is the incentives, or rewards provided by the private enterprise system that stimulate the private economy.

We did our best to explain these facts to the Democrats. Now, we are again in Miami Beach, to make the same points to the drafters of the Republican Platform.

We will tell them that the way to make American business more dynamic, more flexible and more responsive to the needs of the consumer is to place greater emphasis on the incentive mechanisms of the private economy, rather than less.

And the way to cure joblessness and poverty is to cure what ails the source of jobs and wealth.

To do that, we must, at a minimum, accomplish four things.

1. We must control inflation. Success in this effort is basic to the resolution of virtually every other problem facing the nation.

2. We must have a fair, equitable tax system that preserves economic incentives.

We suggest lowering the income tax rate for both individuals and corporations. Excessively high tax rates discourage individual initiative, lead to inefficiencies in business operations, and impede economic progress.

3. We must re-establish a fair balance of power between labor and management.

It is neither just in the public interest for the large unions to take precedence over the basic rights of individual workers, small unions, employers and the general public.

4. We must make our products more competitive in world markets. These are the four most important steps we can take toward resolving the problems we face—notice that not one of the recommendations involves increased government spending. That is not the cure for our problems, but rather much of the cause.

Unquestionably, there are many other national problems that are worthy of attention, but we must understand that none of them can be successfully attacked until we first assure ourselves of the resources necessary for the effort.

There is abroad in the land a widespread and dangerous misconception of the business community as a vast reservoir of money; money which can pay the cost of fighting inflation, protecting the environment, raising wages, eliminating poverty, conquering disease, and lowering personal income taxes.

In time, the competitive enterprise system may well accomplish all of these things. But there is not enough money in the hands of American business, or the American people, or the entire world to do all of this simultaneously and immediately.

Maturity demands an acceptance of reality. Our resources are not sufficient to cover all of our needs and desires. Therefore, difficult choices must be made. Priorities must be set. Costs must be faced.

It is the unhappy responsibility of our public officeholders to make many of these decisions. The burden of such decision-making will not be eased by encouraging people to believe that all things are possible, if they will only vote for the right man.

The candidate who seeks office on such a platform will soon discover, if he wins, that he has made his own bed of nails and condemned himself to lie on it.

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.

Summer Spectacle Set At Whitehouse

By Bert Mills
Washington, D.C. — Summer visitors to the U.S. Capitol in future years may be able to witness an outdoor sound and light spectacle dramatizing the history of one of the world's most famous buildings.

The historical pageant, expected to cost $10 million to produce, would be patterned after the "son et lumiere" shows popular in Europe and elsewhere. There would be two shows nightly on the East Capitol grounds, with seats for 5,000 people.

Planning the presentation is the U.S. Capitol Historical Association, a unique group of history buffs founded in 1962 and headed by Rep. Fred Schwengel (R., Iowa). The Association plans to stage its show no later than 1976, when the 200th birthday of the nation will be celebrated. Fund raising has already begun and seed money is in hand.

No government money will be sought for the project. The Association has always been self-supporting, from membership fees and from the sale of nearly 3 million copies of a book about the Capitol, "We, the People." Rep. Schwengel told an interviewer: "We prefer not to go for tax dollars," to avoid political controls and assure an "independent, objective, and accurate" presentation.

Two Ph.D.'s in history are now at work on research for the project. Later it is planned to appoint a board of consultants to advise of the format for the show. The group will include historians, dramatists and writers. Their problem, as Rep. Schwengel sees it, will be to decide "what not to feature," in view of the 179-year history of the Capitol, since George Washington laid the cornerstone in 1793.

Famed Producers Sought
If the Historical Association's plans materialize, the Washington show will be staged by Peter Arnaud and Andre Weil, whom Rep. Schwengel regards as "the most experienced and talented men in this field in the world today." They have been approached but no deal has been signed.

Arnaud has directed 67 spectacles of the type planned for the U.S. Capitol, including productions seen by many Americans at Versailles outside Paris, in Athens, and in Jerusalem. Andre Weil has lauded the potential of the U.S. Capitol as the subject for the type of show being planned.

The Capitol is more than the place where laws are written. It is also a monument with 540 rooms, an art gallery with hundreds of statues and paintings, and it is surrounded by landscaped grounds comprising 131 acres. Until 1935, it housed the Supreme Court and was the scene of scores of historic decisions.

Twenty-six Presidents have been sworn in the Capitol, starting with Thomas Jefferson.

Twenty-one Americans, starting with Abraham Lincoln, have lain in state on the catafalque in the rotunda. The dramatic possibilities of a show about the Capitol are obvious.

No Legislation Needed
Unlike most Washington projects, the light show will require no legislation. House leaders who control the Capitol have already given their approval and Rep. Schwengel has said the President Nixon has "enthusiastically endorsed" the plan.

The Historical Association is non-partisan and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D., Minn.) is one of its Vice Presidents. The idea for the evening shows originated with another Democrat, Rep. Henry S. Reuss (D., Wis.). Fund raising from the public will be a problem but the Association is seeking counsel from professionals and Rep. Schwengel is confident the "challenge" will be met.

The Capitol belongs to the entire nation and it is fitting that a pageant depicting its history should be a public project. Rep. Schwengel and his associates have a great idea which deserves widespread support.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm makes a sensational claim this week.

Dear editor:

You may not believe this but I've found a man out here who claims he has read every word in both the Democratic and Republican platforms, and I was thinking, don't you think we ought to capture him and exhibit him at a fair or some place?

I suppose the people who struggle for long hours writing a platform and hunting for words with the proper blur must read it, at least the planks they had a hand in producing, but to find a voter who has read one all the way through, not to mention two, is as rare as finding a politician who's not in favor of cutting taxes while he's raising them.

As far as I can tell, a platform, six months after it's adopted, is about as useful a document as the minutes of a year-before-last's P.T.A. meeting.

At nearly every national convention you're always hearing about floor fights over the platform, with television reporters interviewing everybody right and left, but it's usually about like arguing with the referee in a football game.

You might say that adopting a platform is like the pre-game ceremonies at a professional football game when the captains of both teams walk out to the middle of the field for the coin toss and the referee indicates who gets to receive, when actually it was tossed and the receiving side selected an hour earlier when the two teams were still in the dressing room.

I asked this man who'd read both platforms if he'd made up his mind how he's going to vote and he said things are still a little cloudy and it's still a long time till November. Asked me if I had any good books he could borrow.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk Of Texas

By Jack Maguire
BELIEVERS ON THE BEACH—For more than a decade before World War I, as many as 8,000 of the faithful gathered each summer on the coast of Corpus Christi Bay for ten days of religious revival and recreation.

In 1905, citizens of the Gulf coast city donated 13 acres along the beach to the Texas State Epworth League of the Methodist Church to be used for an annual encampment. To help house worshippers, the church built the 66-room Epworth Inn and many communicants built their own cottages. The majority, however, preferred to camp and the Epworth League rented them tents, cots and stools at nominal cost.

The encampment began on a Thursday night with a hymn sing and socializing, then settled into a daily routine that included sermons both morning and evening, an hour devoted to the study of foreign missions and afternoon conferences on a variety of religious subjects. Free time was spent swimming in the bay. Epworth-by-the-Sea closed ten days later with a Sunday night service.

IT'S A FACT—At least seven Mexicans died alongside Col. W.B. Travis and his Texans in the defense of the Alamo.

Historian Thomas Lloyd Miller says that his research has turned up the following Mexican-Texans who were among the Alamo's heroes: Juan Abamillo, Juan Antonio Badillo, Gregorio Esparaza, Carlos Espalier, Antonio Fuentes, Galba Fuqua and Andres Nava.

YESTERDAY IN TEXAS—For four days in September, the Institute of Texan Cultures in San Antonio will re-create on the grounds of HemisFair Plaza life as it was lived on the frontier. And everybody is invited!

The Texas Folklife Festival September 7-8-9-10 will "bring back a bit of nostalgia to the aged and enlightenment to the youngsters," is the way the institute director, R. Henderson Shuffler, describes it. The Festival will bring back a spectrum of pioneer life with such activities as corn shucking, candy pulling, log rolling, house raising, quilting bees and many other "remember when" experiences.

There also will be a frontier toyland, dancers representing a half dozen ethnic groups and a variety of foods served up in pioneer style. Hours are from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. each of the first two days and from 1 p.m. until 10 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

The summer song of August is loud and strong:

The smallest breeze can find a tounge, to sing
While each tiny insect, and big ones too,

Grow teasing with their melodies, and their chewing,
The hot noon time burns and sears, and aids in finishing the termination of vegetables and flowers...for the season.

Yes, when summer begins to wane the gardeners tire and get a bit discouraged, especially if insects and other garden enemies have invaded the garden. Keep a watchful eye for these invaders.

Some have been reporting red spiders. When these attack plants they cause the appearance of rust, turn plants a rusty brown.

Needled plants are attacked by the red spider or spider mite and when they cause the plant to be discolored then it is time to spray consistently for their destruction. Malathion is recommended.

On evergreens, a good thing to do is to eliminate the spider mites to take the water hose and use a fine hard spray on the evergreen; spray up and down and do this thoroughly. Every evening is a good time to so treat the needled evergreen.

Since this garden enemy grows so quickly daily treatment is necessary until they have been eradicated. A tiny web is woven by the spider mites and these hatch every day, therefore the constant need is to treat daily to kill them.

In plants which are to flower, their presence is shown by blasted buds, which turn black. When these appear, measures to control should be used at once.

Even though we can begin to see the end of this growing season there are many thrills awaiting the gardener.

Soon we will be having chrysanthemums in lovely autumn colors, also late gladioli will be flowering.

Their colors are usually more intense as cool weather approaches. Then too dahlias will flower until frost, if properly cared for.

Celosia is making a vivid splash of color with plumed stems and luxuriant clumps of velvet richness. Vinca periwinkle is now in the height of color and flower. The waxy deep green foliage, and the taunting star-like flowers are fascinating.

Géraniums will continue to bloom. If the petunias seem to wane and become too stony, pinch them back or cut with sharp knife, water well and give them a light feeding of plant food. Then they will continue to flower and add beauty.

Marigolds, both the giant, French and the small, will be more colorful as cool weather approaches. Most of the zinnias are just now producing their best blooms. Remember they too should receive extra care in that they will tend to have mildew. Wash or spray thoroughly with a strong suds made with Tide. Repeat often as it will be needed to control the mildew.

If you planned your garden for continued bloom and to have some nice surprises, the red spider lily (lycoris radiata) will be producing crimson flowers. They are surprise plants, as they send up their foliage in the spring and this dies down and then in early September the flower spike grows quickly and the beautiful flower appears.

I added to my garden last fall the lycoris squamigera, which is a pink-flowered autumn lily. Am eagerly waiting for them to produce the flower spikes and give some bloom. To have these in your garden they should be planted in the fall. Plant them four inches deep and where they will have at least a half-day of sun.

Another addition to the garden for fall flowering is polianthes tuberosa, the tuberose, which comes from Mexico. They are hardy and when spring planted in sandy, moist soil and in either fall sun or semi-shade they will add interest and beauty to the garden. I planted some of the tuberose, but they were not properly planted. I misjudged on the location, so am hoping to have better success next year.

Fall crocus is another delightful bulb which gives the garden a lift. They are as pretty and delightful as the spring flowering crocus. Varieties to purchase and plant in spring for fall flowering are crocus zonatus lilac flowered with orange throat; crocus sativus, the saffron crocus, plain lilac or white, vivid orange stamens; also crocus speciosus produces bright lilac blooms. They like deep well-drained loam in half sun. Their spring foliage disappears by midsummer and companion annuals may be grown with them.

Make notations in your notebook or calendar. List some of the above so that you may have some surprises next fall or late summer.

September 12 Mrs. Ross Ferrier Jr., a popular and noted flower arranger will be at the Garden Center in Amarillo to give a lecture. Time 10 a.m., entry fee $2.

In the afternoon Mrs. Ferrier will conduct a workshop, and those wishing to participate are asked to bring plant materials and containers, and she will demonstrate and instruct, also aid in using the materials brought.

Mrs. Ferrier has appeared in Hereford, at an annual District One Garden Clubs Convention and was well received. Some of our men folk who arrange and garden attended her lecture. Recently she appeared as an arranger at the world flower show in Holland. I recommend Mrs. Ferrier, she is a delightful person and a qualified lecturer.

Flower Show School 5 will be taught at the Amarillo Garden Center November 14-16. Mrs. Fred Dowlen and Mrs. Harry Pratt will be the instructors.

Charge for course is $10. For further information call one of the national flower show judges of the local garden clubs.

Mmes. Bill Gentry, O.G. Hill Sr., R.W. Ethridge and Glad attended the annual flower show of the national judges of the North zone September 21. The theme was August Beauty. Staging was interesting and entries good. The Hereford ladies shared well in awards on their entries.

The Hereford Garden Club Center has recently been groomed and is beginning to appear very attractive. This is your garden center too. It is the wish of the garden club members to share the center and to aid in any way that they can to make Hereford a beautiful town and to make the center a place where information on gardening and landscaping can be shared. Really the garden center is Hereford's...and that means you.

Thanks for all who shared in making our garden sale a success. Proceeds used to further the landscaping of the grounds and to repair and paint the building.

Happiness... is sharing with a friend and neighbor.

Veteran's Affairs

Q — My son was killed during military service in Vietnam. Am I eligible for education benefits from the Veterans Administration?

A — No. Parents are not eligible for this benefit.

Q — I hear some national cemeteries have been closed and others will soon close due to lack of space. If the cemetery of the veterans' choice closes, will VA pay an additional burial allowance toward purchase of a plot in a private cemetery?

A — No. The law permits VA to pay only the statutory $250 burial allowance upon the death of a veteran. Insurance and survivor benefits are a matter of individual eligibility.

Q — How long do I have to convert my National Service Life Insurance policy?

A — It can usually be converted at any time the policy is current. However, there are some policies prefixed by "W" that cannot be converted if the renewal date comes after the insured's 50th birthday. In such cases, the conversion must be made before the term runs out.

Mrs. Ferrier has appeared in Hereford, at an annual District One Garden Clubs Convention and was well received. Some of our men folk who arrange and garden attended her lecture. ## Marnell-Shettlesworth Vows Are Spoken Here

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Marnell to Ronald J. Shettlesworth of Hurst was read in an evening ceremony Saturday in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, and after September 3 the couple will be at home at 204 Booth Calloway, No. 105-W, in Hurst.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ed Bezner, Route 1, and the late Joe Marnell of Hereford. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shettlesworth of Levelland are parents of the bridegroom.

With the Rev. Wilfrid Brennan as celebrant for the nuptial mass, Miss Marnell was given in marriage by her stepfather, Ed Bezner. Her sister, Mrs. Mike Brumley, was her matron of honor and Kevin McCrory of Austin best man. Massed bouquets of white snapdragon and blue carnations decorated the main altar with smaller replicas on the side altars. The memory candle was wreathed with fresh English ivy.

Bridal attendants included Mrs. Garry Reed of Tulsa, a sister of the bride; Miss Joyce Bezner of Dallas, a cousin; Miss Sherri Marsh, and Miss Connie Palousek of Austin. Groomsmen were Randy Hoover, Gary Bounds and Jim Hicks of Austin and Stanley Moore of Colorado City.

Acting as ushers were Jim Marnell, brother of the bride;

Mike Stagner of Levelland, Steve Brashear and Steve Pouns of Austin. The bride's cousin, Tommy Marnell, and John Warren Jr. were acolytes.

The vocal soloist, Ben Gollehon, sang "You're My World, I Have Dreamed and Since I've Been Loving You" with Mrs. Charles Jones as organist.

The basque bodice of the bride's crystal organza gown was overlaid with Galloon lace, its motif traced in seed pearls. Lace medallions ornamented the full sleeves, which were gathered to wide lace cuffs, and the back of the circular skirt which lengthened into a train.

Her veil was the one worn by Mrs. Brumley in her wedding earlier this summer. Three tiers of illusion fall to elbow length from a Juliet cap of pearls. She carried a cascade of white roses, blue carnations and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids all wore sapphire blue chiffon and puckered nylon over taffeta, the dresses designed with high neckline, empire waist, Camelot sleeves and softly flowing skirt. Trimming was of Venice lace in bands run with ribbon matched the color of the gowns.

Their bouquets were of mixed blossoms and more of the flowers were worn in their hair.

A reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall followed the wedding. Mrs. Jerry Floyd of Vega, cousin of the bride, and Miss Carla Stengel of Dallas served the bride's cake, four-tiered in colonnade style and decorated with white roses, blue carnations and dove figurines.

Cutting the groom's cake were another cousin, Mrs. Ron Matthews, and Mrs. Tommy Betzen of Lubbock, while Miss Sharon Hagans of Amarillo and Miss Margie Paetzold, also a cousin, poured coffee and tea. Miss Dorothy Marnell of Albuquerque was at the guest register.

For travel, Mrs. Shettlesworth changed to a beige pantsuit with pink accessories.

She received a BBA degree in business education this year from the University of Texas at Austin. She is a 1968 graduate of Hereford High School.

The bridegroom is a management trainee with First National-Bank of Fort Worth. He also is a 1972 graduate of UT at Austin, with a degree in finance, after completing high school work in Levelland.

Wedding guests came from Levelland, Austin, Vega, Dallas, Dumas, Dalhart, Pittsburg, Amarillo, Lubbock, Friona, Tulsa, Albuquerque and Clovis.

For the rehearsal dinner Friday, the bridegroom's parents were hosts at the Caison House. Pre-nuptial entertaining included showers to honor the bride, one in Hereford and one at Levelland.

Not Parents Alone

Youth Organizations Require Adult Helpers

BY SUE COLEMAN
Brand Staff Writer
(This is one of a series of weekly stories about community organizations which depend to a greater or less degree upon the work of volunteers to carry out their programs.)

NOT ONLY PARENTS of the girls and boys involved in youth organizations of Deaf Smith County, but many other residents assist with programs offering a combination of recreation, training in skills as varied as baseball and dressmaking, and development of character and citizenship.

A few paid directors head some of these groups, but all of them rely chiefly, some of them wholly, on volunteer adult leaders.

Community-wide youth groups with the largest memberships are Campfire Girls, Boy Scouts, 4-H Clubs, boys' baseball leagues and the Little Dribblers basketball league.

PARENTS OF THE YOUNG parents of the young are familiar with calls for aid in the programs and most of them respond with more or less willingness to the limit of their time or talents. But there are never enough adults to meet the needs.

This is true, the directors all say, simply because there are always more youngsters wanting to take part, than there are adults able or willing to take the leaders' jobs.

Best helpers for any group are not necessarily parents, and many parents because of business schedules or home demands of smaller children may not be able to assist. Any person who likes to work with or for young people at any age from lower elementary grades through high school, may find an opportunity for service in these organizations.

THERE ARE NEVER enough volunteers to go around," says Nita Lea, executive director of Hereford Campfire Girls and the only paid worker in that program. "Girls enough to form new groups are always waiting to join as soon as adult leaders can be found."

Training is offered those who will serve as leaders or assistants. Mrs. Earnest Langley, who has many years of experience in directing groups of all ages, is training chairman.

Group sponsors, who assist in various ways without direct contact with the girls, are also needed as are persons willing to help occasionally with programs on any of the numerous subjects studied by Campfire Girls young and older.

MRS. LEA SAYS SHE would like to have a list available in her office at the Campfire Lodge, of county residents who would give one or a series of lessons to the girls on outdoor skills such as camping, cooking, on homemaking skills like table setting or cookie baking, on more advanced topics like photography or archaeology which Horizon Club members pursue.

Some of these skills, she emphasizes, may be best taught by men; Campfire leadership is not limited to women. In fact, the entire national program is now being expanded to include boys as members—not of Campfire Girl groups, of course, but of Horizon Clubs which are composed of high school students.

In the local program, a number of aides are men and the camping trips made each year depend on cooperation of a number of men. Also, men serve on the local Campfire Board, which is headed now by A.E. Hodges.

A volunteer selections committee, with Mrs. James Higgins as 1972 chairman, Buddy Peeler and Mrs. John E. Smith as members, has the responsibility of filling board vacancies.

ACTIVITY ENDED for this year, but plans are underway for next year's summer baseball games. Boys Baseball in Hereford includes the Colt, Broncho and Pony leagues. John Bunch is president of the board which directs this program.

A coach and one or more assistants work with each team and umpires are essentials for every game. Bunch repeats the usual story of boys who would like to play if only more men would volunteer to coach teams.

Mothers of the players assist by operating concession stands at the games, sometimes serving as scorekeepers and even announcers.

A NEWER ATHLETIC program for younger boys, the Little Dribblers, is sponsored by Hereford Jaycees during basketball season. As in the baseball leagues, coaches, assistants and umpires are necessary throughout the season.

The Jaycee members give their time for these jobs, but there are not enough of them to go around and they recruit help from the players' fathers and other residents interested in basketball. More help will assure more teams for the coming season, says Bill Johnson, Jaycee president.

Wives of members who are the concession operators and with players' mothers assist in other ways.

TWO MEMBERS OF THE County Extension Service staff head the 4-H Club program here, with local leaders and helpers directing various activities of local clubs.

Joyce Shipp and Robert Devin, assistant Deaf Smith County agents, are responsible for overall operation and county-wide events, backed by an adult leaders council and the 4-H members' council with representatives from each club.

As in the other youth groups, their need is for club leaders and persons who can give programs on special topics. For instance, Gerald Martin, a pilot and flying enthusiast, has conducted studies of aviation which caught the interest of a number of boys, Alex Petersen has given time to coach public speaking a number of years, and many other residents have helped in like manner.

New subjects for the coming year, Mrs. Shipp says, include child care, photography and flower arranging. Club leaders will seek persons to give instruction in these fields and would welcome qualified volunteers, she added. Those who will help may notify the county agents' office.

Volunteers in Boy Scout and Cub Scout work include men and women, teenagers as well as adults. Tom Pettigrew, local Boy Scout executive, says, "We constantly need both men and women, not just Scout troop leaders and Cub den mothers, but committeemen to see that activities are planned and carried out."

Troop leaders must be over 21 years of age and assistants over 18, and American citizens, but those are the only requirements, he adds. Training courses are offered and leaders encouraged, but not required, to take them. Older Boy Scouts assist with the Cub packs, formed of younger boys. Two training sessions a year are usually scheduled for Cub den mothers, who are urged to attend. Qualified instructors here are Mmes. Walter Kreig, Boyd Collins and Ben Plummer. Hereford men serve on district as well as local Boy Scout committees, and at present Nolan Grady is district training chairman. Headed by the district commissioners staff, neighborhood commissioners staffs are responsible for seeing that charters are renewed on time, new charters obtained and other duties.

Visit To Lake Opens Year

Hereford Garden Club members made a trip to Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge Friday morning for their first meeting of the fall.

Milt Suthers, assistant manager, told the women a little of the history of Buffalo Lake since it was built in the late 30's.

The lake which contains about 900 acre-feet of water at the present time, during its history has overflowed three times and been completely dry one time, Suthers said.

Wildlife wintering on the refuge last year included 76,000 Canadian Geese and 84,000 ducks.

Suthers mentioned that the lake personnel aid farmers who have wildlife problems in their fields by going out and using a scare tactic to rid the fields of the birds.

Schedules for the September flower show on September 22 were handed out by flower show chairman, Mrs. Ben Childers.

Fall Fashions Classic Looks

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Fall fashions are looking so beautiful with these cool days. To update the wardrobe or to make or to buy, the classic look is emerging in pleated skirts with blazers to achieve the layered look and the shirtdress will underline classic trends. Too, if you have the skill to mix and match you are in style.

Classics are back in a big way. Seemingly as American as apple pie, styles are comfortable and neat, yet spiced with a softness to give just the right touch of femininity dear to the wardrobes of always-active women.

Classics revive this fall rich in mantling — a variety of vests, elongated jackets and sweaters, pointed lapels and collars, wrap-arounds and tie belts, sweater sets with crew necks. Shades of mid-century emerge in dolman sleeves and swingy, pleated or gored skirts. Treatments of the classics make the difference and mark the fashions for today. For one thing, designs are executed mostly in washable, no-iron fabrics and yarns — every bit as good looking but with the built-in economy and time-saving qualities of easy care. Because of the array of synthetics and blends, save hangtags with laundering instructions and post in the laundry room for quick reference.

Although the framework is there, significant changes make today's classics a really new scene. Softness comes with fluffy, brushed, nappy materials — plus tucks, ruffles and tiny trims. Cap sleeves, as well as traditional cut, mark jumpers that can "go it alone." Others feature deep-cut armholes to accommodate the dolman sleeved underlayer. Skirt lengths, too, have settled to a partial length somewhere around the knee. Exceptions occur in some mid-classics and particularly for the youth market — a showing of six-inch-ish above-the-knee dress. Blazers and shirttail jackets are go-everywhere items, topping pants and long skirts and everything in between.

The newest in pants is wide and cuffed — often with front pleats and high fitted, belted waistline. Jeans go on and on in popularity, now seen with turned-up cuffs on contrasting printed lining or two-tone treatments.

A new phrase, body build-up is the body shirt, blouse or sweater. These all-in-one originated with the body stocking and have become a full-fledged fashion. They come in a seemingly endless variety of styles, patterns and fabrics — and in several different departments of most stores. Bodysuits are designed to go under other layers, go alone, or come coordinated with their own build-ups. For underlayering, pantyhose create a total fashion statement. In monotone coordinates or hues to pick up print or plaid accent colors, a wardrobe of pantyhose links together the mixing and matching of many separate pieces.

A good rule: never add an item to the wardrobe unless it flatters the figure, the eyes, the skin or adds sheen to the hair. A new garment or wardrobe item should make you feel great. If a garment meets more than one of these rules it will fit your needs.

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: AT LAST THEY ARRIVE AT THE HUNTING GROUNDS AND CID POINTS OUT A TRAMPLED AREA. "THE DEER COME DOWN HERE TO DRINK AT SUNDOWN. WE WILL MOOR THE BOAT A MILE DOWNSTREAM AND THE HUNTERS CAN WALK BACK AND BUILD A BLIND."

AFTER HOURS OF WAITING UNDER THE BURNING SUN, THE COOL TWILIGHT COMES, AND WITH IT A SMALL HERD OF ANTELOPE.

VAL AND DASH READY THEIR WEAPONS, WAITING FOR THEIR QUARRY TO MOVE CLOSER. BUT THEY ARE NOT THE ONLY HUNTERS STALKING THE ANTELOPE.

WITH A BURST OF ENERGY, THE LIONESSE LEAPS AND THE HERD SCATTERS IN A CLOUD OF DUST, ALMOST RUNNING OVER THE HUNTERS. THEN COMES A FRIGHTENING MOMENT WHEN THE LIONESSE SEES THE HUNTERS.

NO ONE MOVES EXCEPT JASEN, WHO SLOWLY KNEELS ON THE BUTT OF HIS SPEAR AND PRESENTS IT IN FRONT OF DASH.

THEN THE LIONESSE PICKS UP ITS KILL AND DRAGS IT AWAY INTO THE BUSH, AND THE HUNTERS BREATHE AGAIN.

"WHY DID YOU PROTECT ME INSTEAD OF THE PRINCE?" ASKS DASH. JASEN THINKS FOR A MOMENT. "I GUESS IT WAS BECAUSE THE PRINCE SEEMED MORE CAPABLE OF PROTECTING HIMSELF," ANSWERS JASEN.

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
My kids just can't seem to make it to the clothes hamper in the laundry room, and I was getting tired of going from room to room gathering up clothes from the corners and under the bed! Solution...?

I took an old pillowcase and slit a small hole in the folded edge at the opening of the case. Next, I unwound a wire clotheshanger and threaded the pillowcase on it. Then I rewound the end of the hanger where it was originally. Place your portable clothes hamper on the back of the bedroom door or on the closet door, and I think you will find the results most gratifying. P.S. If the clothes don't get into the portable hamper, just lower the boom!

Vera Kuhn

Well, let's hope you don't have to resort to such drastic measures. I think your children shouldn't have any more excuses for not picking up their dirty clothes. What a "Thinking Mom" you are.
Heloise

TAKES THE CAKE
DEAR HELOISE:
When my husband was overseas, I used to send his favorite chocolate cake once a month. When he got it, he always said it tasted freshly baked. Here is how I did it:

First, I baked it in a tube pan, then put the cooled cake in a cake tin lined with plastic wrap, enough to fold over top of the cake. Then I made the icing, put it in a small plastic bag and tied it shut tight and wedged this in the hole of the cake to keep the cake from crushing inward. All he had to do was cut a hole in the bag and ice his own cake. This doesn't take much time and he enjoyed it so much.
Mrs. G. E. Rivers

How thoughtful you are! I hope your husband knows just how lucky he really is.
Heloise

KNOTTY PROBLEM
DEAR HELOISE:
I am 9-years-old and I like to knit as a hobby. When I'm getting close to the end of a ball, I always get knots in the yarn. So I got some empty paper towel rolls and wound the yarn around that. Not only are there no more knots, but I use the tube to store my needles.
Lynne Joiner

MEAT LOAF MIXUP
backed paper on hand to line the bottoms:

DEAR HELOISE:
I love onions, but my husband's stomach doesn't tolerate them too well. For meat loaf, I mix as usual with a small amount of onion and pack half the meat into one end of the baking dish. Then I mix more onion into the remaining mixture and pack it into the other end, decorating the top of this half with an onion slice. I bake it as one meat loaf, but you can see the line of division even after baking. Just slice from whichever end you prefer. This might also apply to those on low-salt or other special diets.
Smart Wife

DEAR HELOISE:
Recently, when I cleaned out some drawers, I found that I only had clear adhesive-

FOILED AGAIN!
I use the heavy foil tubs that my favorite margarine comes in, to store small leftovers. When it's time to use them, I remove the plastic cover and put tub, leftovers and all in a saucepan with a little water in it. I save dishes this way, and, best of all, I don't even have a pan to wash!
Dorothy Moliterno

DEAR HELOISE:
Recently, while on a trip, I improvised an ice pack for my son's bloody nose by wetting two handkerchiefs and cooling them in front of the air conditioning vents. It sure did the trick.
A Deputy

DEAR HELOISE:
To mothers with little children, I would like to pass on this suggestion from my own experience. When baby wakes up at night and begins to cry, do get up and quietly give the tot a drink of water. Baby's mouth may feel dry and all he needs is a sip of water and to be assured that a loving mother is near.
Grandma Hannah

DEAR HELOISE:
I had many hand-embroidered linen finger towels and no longer used them as they were showing wear and tear. I cut off the best part of the embroidery and sewed it to the hems of plain pillow slips with the smallest zigzag stitch on my machine. Although the width of the towels is less than the width of the pillow slips, it looks as if it was planned that way. I can enjoy pretty pillow slips that have sentimental value and remind me of the lovely people who gave me those towels many years ago.

Sarita

NEW SWITCHEROO
DEAR HELOISE:
While doing some paneling, I had to remove the light switch plate. But, oh, how I always dreaded keeping up with those elusive little screws. I was too lazy at the time to look for little plastic medicine bottles to put the screws in, so I used the first thing near at hand and it happened to be a sheet of heavy paper. I labeled each sheet and simply stuck the screws through the paper. It worked so well that I left them in the paper and used it as a holder while I refinished the screws. It really turned out to be a great idea. The screws were very secure and no amount of shaking would make them fall out. It was no mess at all to spray-paint them.

BULLETIN BOARD

- SPEED WRITING! Some words can be written with a minimum of letters. Some can be written with letters and numbers: For example: NRG, NDN, AV8, MNX. Can you make them out? P.S.: If you can think of some, send them in.
- Challenge Spread out a newspaper and stand two persons on it so that they cannot possibly touch each other. How can this be done?
- Shadow, the football player, was overheard to say: "I weigh 81 pounds and, in addition to that, 27 pounds less than 7.9ths my weight." How much does Shadow weigh? No fair peeking below.

THINK you can memorize the set of figures shown above? It is really very easy if you examine them closely.

The numbers 9, 8, 7 and 6, you will note, are in the same position in each row. The two numbers directly to their left in each case are double their value in the top row; four times their value in the middle row; and eight times their value in the bottom row.

Now, just for fun, see if you can duplicate these figures purely from "memory."

PICK A PATH! Our Boy Scout friends above face a choice of paths, one of which leads back to camp. Which one is that?

SPELLBINDER!

SCORE 10 points for using all the letters in the word below to form two complete words:

ENDEAVOR

THEN score 2 points each for all words of four letters or more found among the letters.

Try to score at least 50 points.

The possible answers: Deep, road.
