Work has kept more out of trouble than all the laws conceived by society.—Douglas Meader

Monday is a national holiday, according to Congress, but it is not one that has been accepted by everyone around our nation. In fact we discovered that not everyone in Hereford knows what holiday it is!

It is one of the three-day weekend holidays established by Congress a couple of years ago. It is Veterans Day, but is so far removed from Nov. 11 that many people don't connect it with that observance.

Many veterans' organizations around the country—including those in Hereford—still hold their observance on Nov. 11, the old Armistice Day. As you'll note in a news article, the business community is also divided on whether to close for a holiday.

The Herd sustained a disappointing loss to Lubbock Monterey Friday night, with the rain spoiling what otherwise might have been a real exciting grid contest. Most Whiteface fans feel the result might have been different on a dry field, an opinion that was reflected by even some Plainsmen backers.

Press box observers, before the game started, speculated that the rain might be an equalizer for the Plainsmen. Said one Monterey man in the press box: "Hereford should be favored, but the rain makes it an even match. If we can control the ball, we might win." His prediction proved true.

Not only did the stunning defeat knock Hereford from the ranks of the unbeaten, but it pinned an 0-1 record on them at the start of a AAAA action. The Herd is not out of it, but Monterey definitely took over the driver's seat. Maybe several of the district coaches were right this week when they said the champion of the loop would not go undefeated!

It was our pleasure this past week to be among newsmen and other friends who paid tribute to Douglas Meador, "the sage of Matador." Meador has had a distinguished career as a newspaperman and writer, and his "Trail Dust" column is one of the most quoted in the country. He could have walked among the giants of literary prose, but instead chose his native Matador.

A historical marker was dedicated to the 71-year-old cowboy turned scribe, and tributes poured in from many places extolling the humility and talent of the man. His lyric description and narration are without compare—he is a poet who writes prose. His "Trail Dust" have been published in a book form, and here are a few samples:

"Necessity is forever preventing us from taking the brides off our dreams and allowing them to go toward the clouds that touch the mountain peaks."

"Love asks so little, and gives so much that no poverty can prohibit it. Still, wealth is seldom sufficient to afford it."

"John Barleycorn can number among his friends some of the great, who did not permit the acquaintance to become close."

"Profanity leaves a stain upon the heart like a piece of white linen that has been touched by unclean hands."

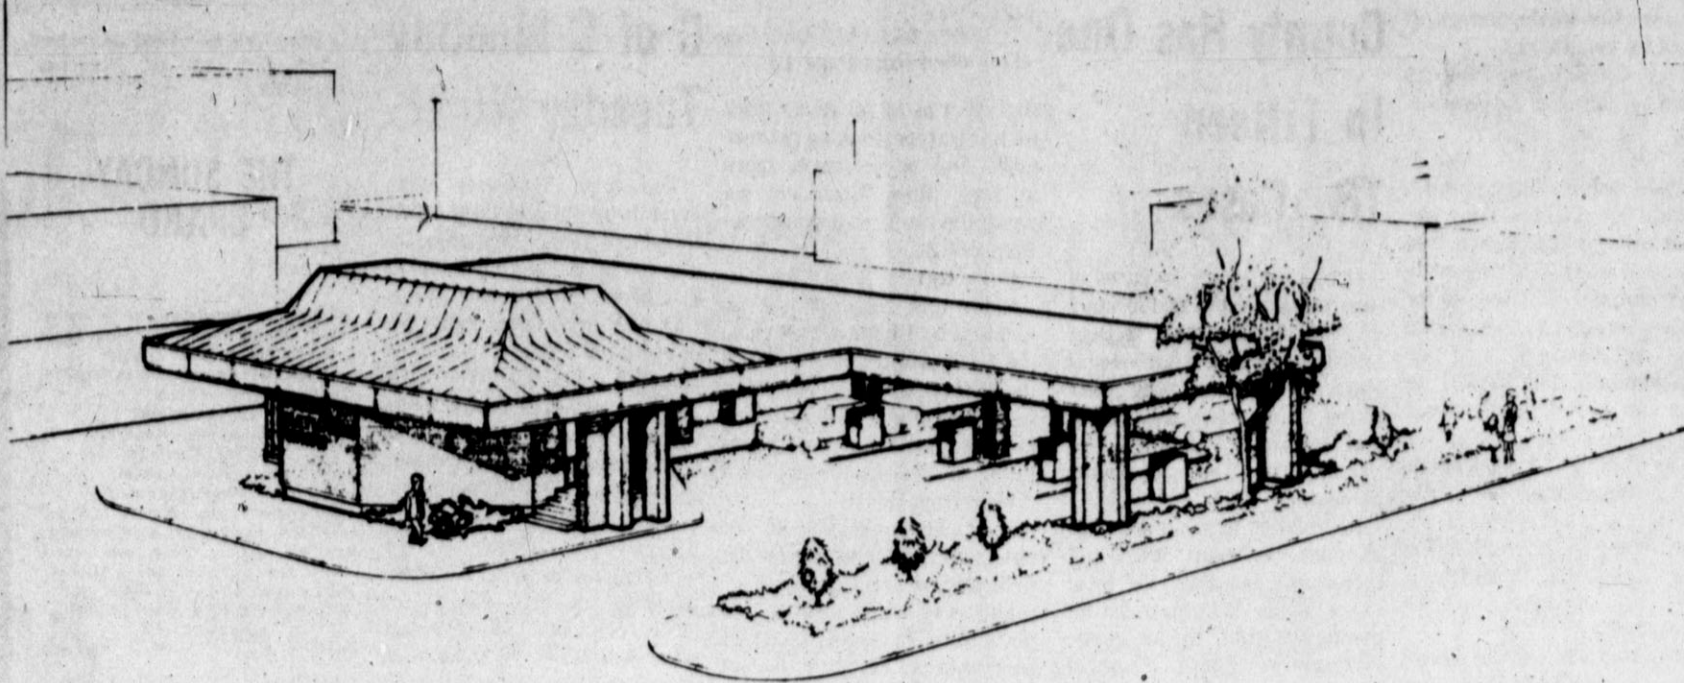

"Fathers of boys have known the advantage of seat belts long before they became an automobile safety feature."

"About the only thing in favor of procreation is, when exercised with diligence, it precludes the necessity of doing anything."

"When I think of war, I think of a mother screaming. A shabby railway coach and awkward youths of various heights—lined up to face the bitterest hour. There was no splendor in the martial music that could drain away the terror of that departure."

EXPANSION PROPOSAL—This architect's drawing shows the planned expansion at the First National Bank. The new drive-in teller windows will be located on the northeast corner of the block that houses the main bank building. Construction is expected to begin sometime in late November or early December on the $190,000 facility.

Some Businesses To Close Monday

If you have bank business to transact Monday, forget it. If you have city business to conduct, forget it.

But, if you have county business go right ahead.

The maligned Veteran's Day holiday, traditionally observed Nov. 11, will be even more maligned locally, when some businesses observe it this Monday while others have decided to wait.

Most grocery stores and retail businesses will remain open for the Monday, Oct. 23 "un-traditional" observance of Veteran's Day. Also, the county offices, Pioneer Natural Gas, the Credit Union, and Hi Plains Savings and Loan will remain open for the holiday.

Southwestern Public Service, Southwestern Bell Telephone, city offices, both banks, and the post office will observe the Monday holiday by closing their offices.

The American Legion and Veteran's of Foreign Wars will not observe the upcoming holiday until its traditional date of Nov. 11. At that time, the two organizations will have their annual breakfast at the American Legion Hall in Veteran's Park, beginning about 6 a.m.

Flags will be distributed on Nov. 11 in observance of the holiday.

For the post office, special delivery and box service will be provided.

1st National Bank To Expand

Expansion plans for the First National Bank took on definite outlines last week with the announcement by bank president Jim Sears that a new "autobank" facility will be constructed.

Construction on the $190,000 facility is expected to begin sometime in late November or early December.

The new "autobank", or drive-up window service will be located northeast of the main bank building and will occupy the parking lot behind Star Theatre. The school tax office, housed in another building adjacent to the parking lot, will be torn down and that space also used for the new facility.

The drive-up window service will provide four windows with room for expansion to eight. Not following the traditional line of drive-up windows, the new facility will have no close contact between the tellers and the customers. The tellers will be able to see the customers, but that will be from a distance and from behind bullet-proof glass.

Deposits and withdrawals will be handled with the use of a pneumatic tube located a short distance away from the teller windows.

The drive-up spaces will be covered with a 12-foot high canopy, large enough to take pick-ups with campers and other large vehicles. There also will be a night depository and the area will be landscaped.

Entrance to the "autobank" will be from west and exit will be on the east onto Sampson Street.

The single-unit teller area will sit above ground and will feature a basement that will connect the facility to the main bank building. Underground there will be a lounge, a coffee and kitchen area, and toilets and access to the teller windows will be by means of a square, spiral stairway.

First Shut Out In Eight Games

Plainsmen Drop Faces From Undefeated Rank

The Monterey Plainsmen pushed across a lone touchdown early in the second quarter of Friday night's game against the Whitefaces and made the score stand up as the Lubbock team upset the Herd, 7-0 in the district opener for both clubs.

A small crowd watched as the two undefeated teams were hampered by a steady downpour at Lowrey Field which prevented the expected high-scoring in the "quarterback confrontation."

The loss was the first by the Whitefaces this season and the first shut-out since the 10-0 upset by Lubbock High last season. Hereford was tabbed a 10-point favorite going into the game Friday night, but could not get its high-octane offense moving at any point during the game.

The Whitefaces won the game on the statistics, but never penetrated beyond the Monterey 16-yard line. That scoring drive was halted by a pass interception—one of three errant aerials picked off by the Monterey secondary.

Hereford led in total offense with 183 yards to the Plainsmen's 181 and collected 11 first downs to Monterey's 10. The Whiteface defense stopped the passing and running of Monterey quarterback Glen Yarbrough and held the host team to only two first downs in the second half. However, the damage already was done after the lone touchdown was scored with 6:05 left in the second period.

Monterey started its scoring drive on an interception at its own 25-yard line. It came after Hereford had moved to the 16 and then was penalized 15 yards for having an illegal receiver downfield.

Trying to make up the lost yardage, Hereford quarterback Keith Kitchens went to the air and Monterey's Tim Botkin stepped in front of a pass at the 25 and returned it to the 37.

From there, Bobby Pipkin, who was Monterey's leading rusher with 88 yards in 29 carries, ground out seven just as the first period ended.

Moving from their own 44,

Monterey used rushing plays by alternating backs to shove the ball down to the 32 before they were called for clipping. The 15-yard penalty took the ball back to the 47 with a second down situation facing the Plainsmen.

Yarbrough, who completed only one pass all night, did it at

Bank Deposits Show Record Increases

Deposits and loans reached a record high for both the Hereford State and First National banks in the October quarterly bank call, according to bank personnel.

Total deposits at the Hereford State bank now stand at $16,852,246.89, topping even the March record high of $15,735,194.42, and up over three million from last year's total of $13,080,846.41.

Bank loans also increased, with total loans now at $11,867,846.51 for Hereford State Bank. This is up over 87 thousand from March's record high of $10,990,330.27. It is also an increase of over two million over last year's total of $9,650,134.00, according to Wayne Williams, Hereford State Bank.

"It's just been a steady increase over the past few years," he said. "The call was a little later than it usually is, and a little more farm income has come in."

Deposits at First National Bank now stand at $33,321,916.65, an increase of eight million over last year's total of $24,458,957.07 for the same quarter. It is also up $8,095,201.39 over the July total for this year which stood at $24,626,715.26.

Loans are also up, at $20,478,773.55, a record high. This figure is up $29,849,225.57 over last year's total for the same quarter, and is over 2 million up from the June total of $17,995,670.99.

"This is a tremendous increase," said Helen Smith of the First National bank.

Traffic Count Flunks Test

The effort to get a traffic signal installed at the intersection of Moreman Street and U.S. 385 remained a question mark to city officials after a count was made recently.

City Manager Dudley Bayne said the Amarillo officials who conducted the count said there was insufficient traffic to warrant a traffic light control, but there still is a possibility one may be installed.

"The Amarillo people notified us that the count was not high enough for a signal, but they did forward the request on to Austin, with the recommendation that it be approved," Bayne said.

Bayne added that it is not known when a decision will be handed down from the Austin office.

Amounts Vary Across Area

Gentle Rains Pelt County

Slow, drizzling rains and some ice drenched Deaf Smith County Thursday, Friday and Saturday with reports from various parts of the county placing rainfall within a range from one to two and one-half inches.

Some 1.65 inches of moisture was reported in Hereford for the week, bringing total rainfall for the year to 17.02 inches. This included a trace of rain which fell Wednesday and 1.25 inches Thursday. Another four-tenths of an inch fell on the city Saturday.

The overall outlook of the rain is beneficial, especially to area wheat crops, according to county agricultural agent Justin McBride. He said the only detrimental aspect of the moisture would be its effect on the local beet harvest.

"There should be no change if the weather remains cool," he said. "But sugar content in the beets could drop if we went into a warm or hot growing period, after this moisture."

Bob Ginn, agricultural manager of Holly Sugar Corporation, said that the local plant now has enough beets to run through early Wednesday.

"It looks like we won't get any beets in until Tuesday," he said. "Some farmers may try to dig some Monday, but we expect some fairly good loads Tuesday if it doesn't rain any more."

McBride said the rainfall should be beneficial, particularly to the area dryland wheat crop, and to the wheat crop in general.

"It was a lifesaver for the dryland wheat, and overall grazing conditions should be improved. Some of our dryland wheat was really beginning to suffer for moisture."

He continued to say that grain sorghum and corn harvest would probably be stopped for a few days, but this delay would cause no great damage.

J.D. McCabe, who resides east of the Dawn community, reported one inch of rain for the three days.

"It will help the wheat," he said "but it sure won't help the crops they're trying to get out that point as he hit Ricky Burk for a 14-yarder. Pipkin got four more and on a fourth down attempt, Mike Boyer got six yards for the first down at the Hereford 23.

From there it went like this: Boyer got three to the 20 followed by Pipkin with five to the 15. Pipkin got four more to the 11 then was stopped for no gain. Pipkin got his fourth call in a row and moved four yards to the seven before Botkin took it over from there.

Mike Anderson kicked the ball through the uprights for the final tally of the night. Monterey had several opportunities to score, one just moments after their initial touchdown. They recovered a fumble at the 32 of Hereford and moved down to the 14 before being stopped. Anderson attempted a 21-yard field goal that looked good, but officials ruled it was wide to the right.

A similar situation occurred early in the final period when, again Hereford fumbled, this time at their own 29. Monterey moved the ball four yards in three plays then Anderson attempted a 41-yard field goal that had the distance by at least 10 yards, but again the officials ruled it was off to the side.

Hereford had one other drive during the game, that one in the third period. They got the ball on a punt at their own 21 and moved downfield to the Monterey 26 before a fourth-and-seven pass attempt fell short. That drive was the only time the Herd made it across the mid-field mark in the second half and only the second time in the entire game. They did make it to mid-field on one short drive, but the drive stalled and Hereford had to give up the ball.

C of C Meeting
Tuesday Night

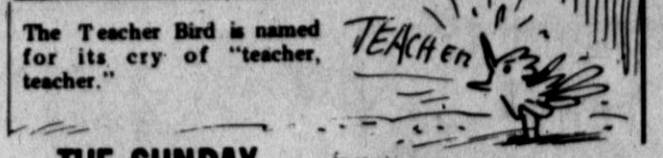

The third quarterly membership meeting of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce is scheduled Tuesday night at 7:30 at Hereford Country Club.

Dick Montgomery, industrial committee chairman and program director for this meeting, reminded that the dinner session is open to all C of C members, as well as spouses. Dinner charge is $3.25 per plate. "Local Industry Speaks Out" will be the theme of the meeting, with several Hereford industrial leaders slated for brief remarks. Rex Eastwood will serve as master of ceremonies for the event.

C of C president Melvin Jayroe initiated the quarterly meetings this year in an effort to better inform members on the Chamber's program of work and to seek more participation in the organization's activities.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Competitive auto and homeowners insurance rating legislation failed to clear the special session, but Gov. Preston Smith claimed the gathering served a purpose. Smith, disappointed at a logjam in conference committee on the session's windup night, declined to call lawmakers back to work as he had hinted he might. He said he and legislative leaders decided another session now would be fruitless.

The Governor announced he will make recommendations for "through reform" of the insurance regulatory system before he leaves office in January.

He cited these accomplishments of the session in addition to those which had been wrapped up in addition to those which had been wrapped up earlier:

Establishment of the Texas Offshore Terminal Commission to define the role and responsibility of State government in developing a deep draft offshore port for supertankers.

Relaxing of trailer and brake lighting requirements for trailers.

An increase in funds by $1 million for the Anderson County junior college occupational extension center.

Defining the legal age at which both male and female youth offenders can be tried as adults.

Appropriation of $211,372 for a citrus and vegetable training center and improved beef production programs at Texas A & I University

The Legislature also passed a bill to lower rates in the hurricane windstorm insurance pool for coastal areas. It petitioned Congress for a constitutional convention on an anti-busing amendment.

ALLOWABLE MAINTAINED — For the eighth straight month, the statewide oil allowable will be retained at 100 per cent for November.

Production is expected to be slightly more than 3,500,000 barrels a day.

Major oil buyers requested 3,753,065 barrels of crude daily next month, a decrease of 23,538 from the October record.

The East Texas field, where an 86 per cent production figure was set, is an exception to the 100 per cent and Big Wells at 80 per cent.

Only one of the 15 major crude buyers requested more oil next month than this month, while 11 asked the same amount and three asked less.

Texas crude stocks totalled 97.6 million barrels on October 6, a decrease of 4.2 million from the October, 1971, level.

DEATH PENALTY RESTORAL OUT — A bill to restore the death penalty for certain cases of murder started too late to get through the Legislature in special session.

It was knocked out in both the House and Senate because it had not emerged from committees until the last 72 hours of the session.

The legislation sought to permit the death penalty (outlawed by the U.S. Supreme Court) in cases of atrocity murder, murder by hired assassins, murder of prison guards, intentional homicide during kidnapping, rape, burglary, robbery or arson, murder of a policeman or fireman and killing during prison escapes.

COURTS SPEAK — The Texas Supreme Court upheld lower court verdicts that a Bowie County couple would collect damages due to an explosion at Lone Star Ordnance Plant which damaged their home.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals at Austin affirmed the State Savings and Loan Commissioner's orders permitting creation of savings and loan associations in Bay City and Hallettsville.

AG OPINIONS — A school district may not sell land to a company in which a school trustee is interested, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin said in a new opinion.

The same opinion stated a school district may not lawfully purchase supplies or services from a company in which a trustee owns nearly 10 per cent of the shares. The district can contract with a company which receives its supplies from another in which a trustee owns an inappreciable number of shares.

In another opinion, Martin concluded election code provisions are applicable to water district elections where they are not inconsistent with special statutes controlling the district or the water code.

COMMON CAUSE OPENS SHOP — Common Cause, the national lobby for citizens, announced opening of its first state organizational headquarters in Austin.

Randall Wood of Austin, former head of the Texas Secretary of State's election division, will head the state group which has 5,000 members and seeks 15,000.

Wood said Common Cause will seek four legislative objectives next year: wider disclosure of campaign finances, better public access to information, a code of ethics requiring full financial disclosure by public officials and a strict law requiring lobbyists to tell who hires them and pays them.

APPOINTMENTS — Clyde C. McCollough Jr. of San Antonio was named by the Governor to the board of trustees, Texas Municipal Retirement System. Smith appointed Robert Joseph Pesek, Erwin Joseph Bucek, Leon Louis Kahanek Jr. and Alred Neumeier Jr., all of Hallettsville, to the Lavaca County Flood Control District No. 3 board of directors.

SHORT SNORTS Presidential candidate George McGovern received an exceptionally warm welcome to the Texas capitol during his last visit to Texas.

Efforts to raise hunting and fishing license fees failed in the House of Representatives. Another try will be made next year.

Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville will head a national campaign for a constitutional convention to prohibit forced busing to achieve racial balance in public schools.

A $48,000 national grant will help Texas A&M Agricultural Experimental Station finance a study of the Gulf shrimp industry.

Sen. John Tower advised Texas farmers and ranchers who suffered crop, livestock or property losses from natural disaster since June 30 they may be eligible for federal assistance.

A charter is being sought for Heritage Bank in Montgomery.

Dogies Defeat Clovis

Stanton's eighth and ninth grades halted the Clovis Yucca teams in action Thursday while the seventh grade was resting up for its game this week against Canyon White.

The eighth grade Dogies rambled to a 22-8 win over the Clovis team with Gilbert Rodriguez and Barry Acton accounting for the scores. Rodriguez scored twice—once on a 66-yard punt return and again on a 20-yard scamper—and Acton went for paydirt from 30 yards out.

Acton scored first in the eighth grade game on his 30-yard jaunt then he turned around and ran across the two-point conversion. The score stood at 8-0 at the half, but in the third stanza Rodriguez got his first TD.

The fourth period saw Rodriguez' punt return put the game safely away while the Dogies' defense time and again halted the Clovis team. It was not until the final period that the defense allowed a Clovis score. Gilbert Mendoza scored on a 10-yard run in the first period and Alfonso Gamez scored on a 5-yard run in the first period before a defensive struggle began in the ninth grade. The two six-pointers were helped with a conversion pass from Albert Gonzales to Harvey Torres that made the score 14-0 at the half and at the end—in favor of Stanton.

The seventh and eighth grades travel to Canyon this week to meet Canyon White in a 5 p.m. Tuesday beginning time. The ninth grade is off this week.

THE HISTORY OF HALLOWEEN

You may not know it, but Halloween has been celebrated on October 31 since the year 834 A.D.

Though it wasn't called Halloween then, that's the day the ancient Celts celebrated new year's eve—a time for calling up the spirits of the dead!

When did the holiday come to America? Probably during pioneer days, when there was a great influx of Irish immigrants, who brought their colorful Halloween customs with them.

Trick-or-treat goes back to ancient times, too, when adult Celts went masked into the night to honor a mythical figure called Muck Olla.

What about witches and black cats? They come from 16th-century Europe, where witch cults held black masses on the Eve of All Hallows. But don't let that scare you because—even during Halloween—there are just no such things as real, live witches. Are there?

CRIME REPORT

In 1971 there were 2.4 police employees per 1,000 inhabitants in the United States. This was a 4 per cent increase over the rate of 2.3 per 1,000 inhabitants in 1970.

Work On Lunch Occupies Club

Red, white and blue posters to call attention of Hereford folk to the Election Day benefit lunch of L'Allegria Study Club, were made at a workday meeting Thursday morning in Mrs. David Gibson's home.

Decorations for tables at Deaf Smith County Bull Barn where the lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Nov. 7, were also made by members who completed menu and serving plans. All food served at the lunch will be prepared by club members, who have earned a community-wide reputation as good cooks in previous events of this type. Funds for the club's service projects are raised in these yearly luncheons, to which the public is invited.

Mrs. Bill Warrick is L'Allegria president this year; Mrs.

Gibson and Mrs. Dennis Farley are co-chairmen of the finance and project committee.

Other committee members are Mmes. Jim Carnahan, Wes Gulley, Dennis Lomas, Danny Martin and Alex Schroeter.

Aid to the County Health Clinic was the club project of the past two years. Contribution to loans for Hereford students through the Opportunity Plan at West Texas State University, and support of a Girltown, U.S.A., resident who required back surgery, have been among projects of the past.

When the annual benefit luncheons began, they were served in Community Center ballroom, but several years ago they outgrew that facility and were moved to the Bull Barn. Tickets are on sale now by club members.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

A planning committee for the 1968 Hereford High School class reunion will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Scout room of Community Center.

DECOR
Break up walls with light color

By BARBARA HARTUNG
 Copley News Service

Q. What colors could I use for sheer curtains and the wall to make my living room come alive a little more? I have beige carpeting, beige drapes and beige walls which is a little too much for me. I have one long wall on which I have installed two long panels of orange burlap framed in white wood. On these I have candelabras. This does add a little color to the room. These could be changed in color if necessary. My sofa is a white and brown figure print, one chair is dark green and the other chair is dark green and orange in a stripe. I am using orange, ashtrays and accessories. I must keep the carpet and drapes but would like to use sheer curtains if possible to change decorations a little. I would like to tie my drapes back. - J.P.A.

A. Instead of painting your walls a bright color to liven things up, I think an off-white for the walls and off-white sheers would be a good start.

Add tie backs and bind your beige drapes with strips of orange, green and white. Add an area rug with oranges, greens and browns. Add more accessories in oranges and lively shades of green and brown that blend well. This could give a considerable amount of color which can be repeated several times in the room.

Q. Is it possible to dye a white nylon high pile carpet on the floor as a do-it-yourself project? - T.W.

A. I have seen carpet dyes on the market but I have never had personal experience with them. I would shy away from trying to do a white high pile nylon because dyes are extremely tricky and different materials have different ways of taking the dye. I think this is a place where a professional should be used.

Q. Is a bombe chest of French extraction? - W.Y.

A. The term bombe is French meaning swollen or bulging. However, the bombe chest or other furniture with a rounded or protruding front or sides doesn't have to be French although it often is. Chippendale designs are also found to include a baroque treatment of this form.

The four-foot river dog of the Nile is a voracious fish with sharklike teeth.

After all is said and done, money is really the only jack of all trades.

Holiday Greeting Time Not Far Off

PROJECT CHRISTMAS CARD is being launched this month by Hereford Medical Auxiliary, sponsor of the annual community campaign which adds needed equipment to Deaf Smith General Hospital and also supports a scholarship fund for student nurses.

GOAL OF THE PROJECT is to have residents contribute the amount they would spend for cards and postage to convey holiday greetings to friends in the community, and in lieu of these messages, a full page greeting in the Christmas edition of the Hereford Brand will carry the names of all contributors.

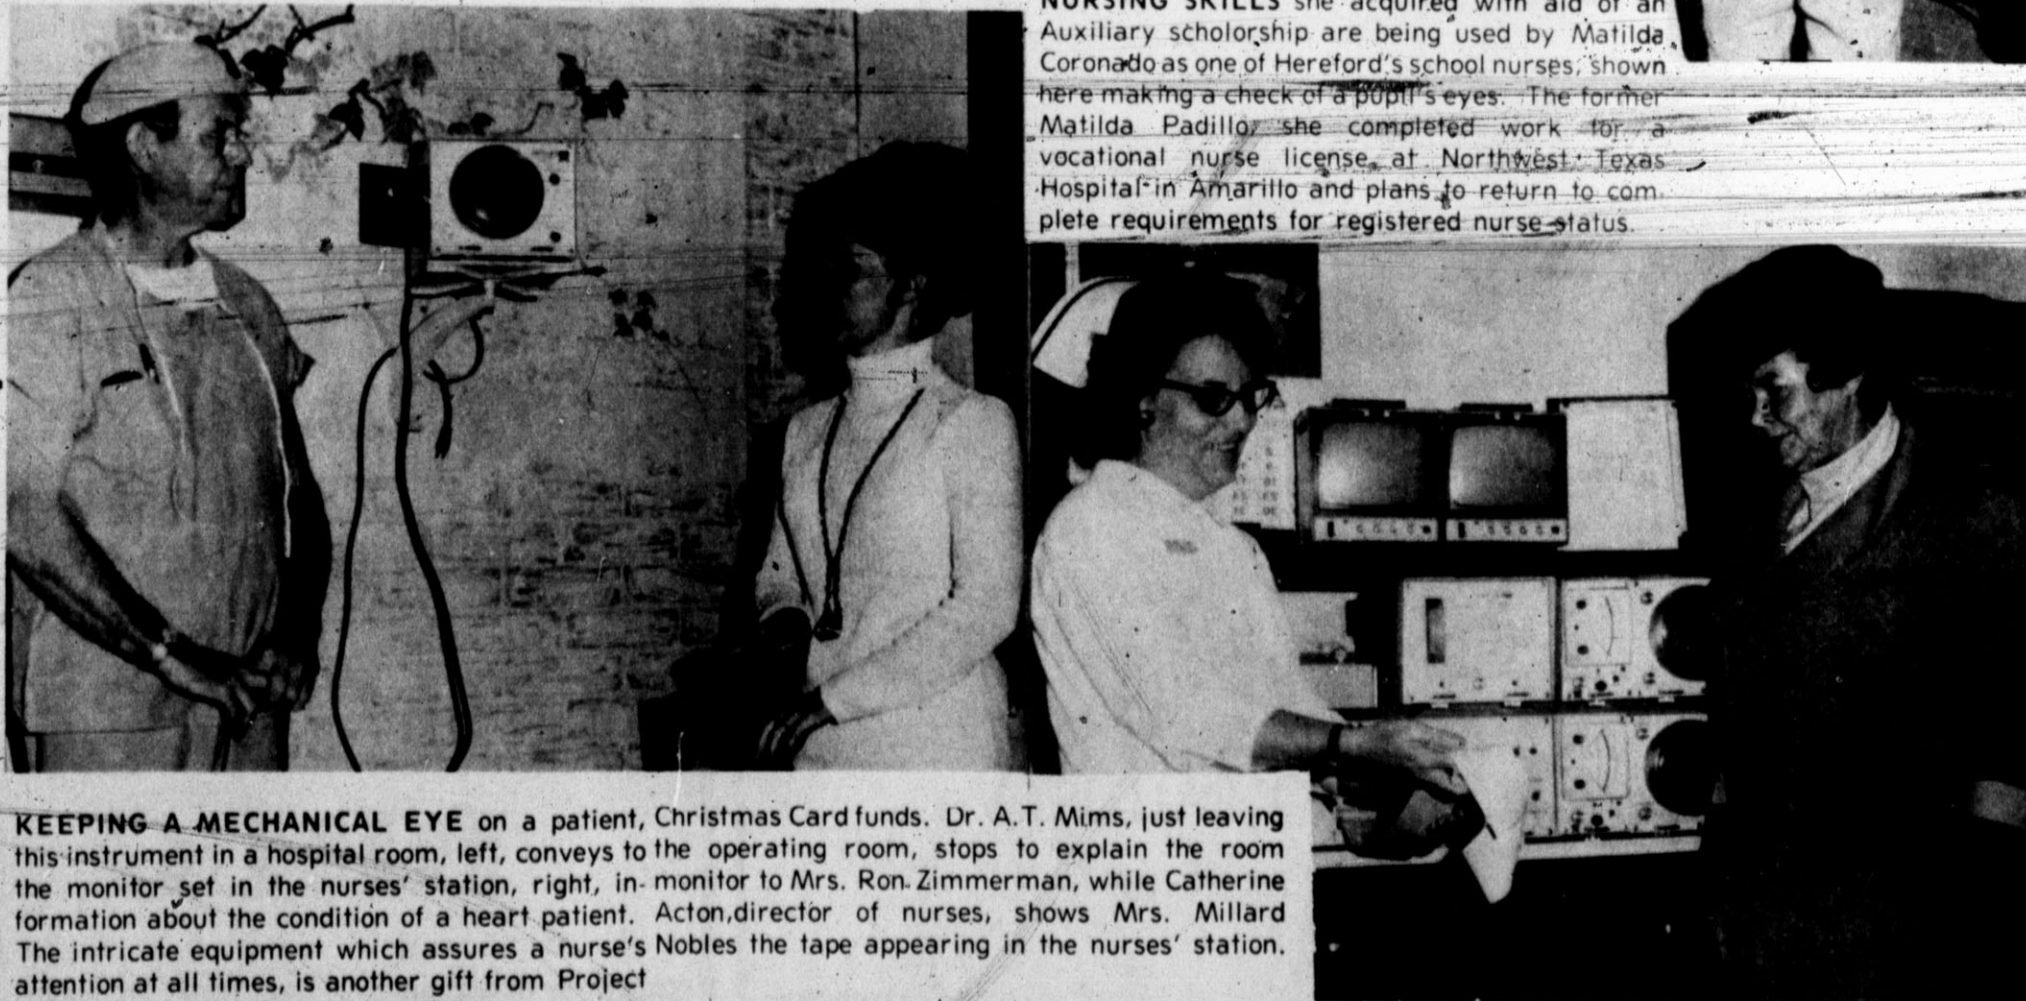

LAST YEAR'S GIFT to the hospital, a portacrib for the nursery, is shown here with Mrs. J.H. McCrary and Mrs. A.T. Mims; both former Auxiliary presidents and both active in the current campaign.

NURSING SKILLS she acquired with aid of an Auxiliary scholarship are being used by Matilda Coronado as one of Hereford's school nurses, shown here making a check of a pupil's eyes. The former Matilda Padillo, she completed work for a vocational nurse license at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo and plans to return to complete requirements for registered nurse status.

FROM OPERATING ROOM to kitchen of the hospital, equipment given in past years through this project is in use — all items which could not have been purchased through the regular budget. Several graduates of Hereford High School have used the scholarship fund to study nursing; they are beginning to come back to serve this community in their profession.

A NEW FORM OF LISTING for merchants who send greetings to customers and friends through the project will be used this year. Instead of placing their names in the general list on the page of greetings in The Brand, a separate space for firm names will be arranged.

KEEPING A MECHANICAL EYE on a patient, Christmas Card funds. Dr. A.T. Mims, just leaving this instrument in a hospital room, left, conveys to the operating room, stops to explain the room the monitor set in the nurses' station, right, in monitor to Mrs. Ron Zimmerman, while Catherine formation about the condition of a heart patient. Club Takes Home Tour Blended old and new furnishings which make a distinctive interior in Mrs. Jack Renfro's home were admired by Farm and Ranch Club members who toured the residence on Harrison Highway Thursday afternoon.

They met first in the home of Mrs. W.W. Gilbreath, which was decorated in Halloween colors, and had a covered dish lunch. After a brief business session they went to Mrs. Renfro's home and she conducted them through the house, telling the history of some pieces of furniture.

Welcomed as new members were Mrs. Joe Wagoner, who is returning to the club after a move back to Hereford from Dumas, and Mrs. Toby Cunningham.

Others present were Mmes. W.B. Nunley, J.V. Perrin, J.B. Odom, Elton Sorrells, W.W. Thomas, Jack Weaver, Paul Rudd and G.V. Hall.

Family Members Here To Assist With Reception

Relatives in Hereford will have a part this afternoon in a reception at the Community Clubhouse in Shallowater honoring Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker on their golden wedding anniversary. They are the parents of C.W. Walker of Hereford.

Daughters and daughters-in-law of the honorees will receive guests and granddaughters will serve refreshments at a table appointed in gold and white.

The Walkers married Oct. 24, 1922, at Vernon, home of both their families. Mrs. Walker was Anna Laura Maynard. They moved to a farm near Shallowater in 1940.

Their children in addition to the son here are Mrs. Ted Taylor, Mrs. M.L. Potter and Tevis of Shallowater; Mrs. G.W. Broadus of New Deal, Mrs. James Rogers and Fred Jr. of Lubbock and Helton of Samuels, Ida.

Travelers Talk Of Europe

A double travel program, combining views of picturesque Spain with a local couple's impressions of sugar beet production in half a dozen European countries, interested members of Hereford Study Club Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Garrison told of their trip with a group of American sugar beet producers and Mrs. R.N. Yarbro spoke of travel in Spain, which is not often on the path of tourists.

The Garrisons observed farm operations as well as sugar processing plants in Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Holland, Germany and France; their photographs and comments were of especial interest to residents of this sugar-producing area.

Mrs. Yarbro described historic spots and the rugged landscape of Spain, also the modern cities.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. Cawthon Bryant with Mrs. Merlin Kaul as co-hostess. Others present were Gladys Selliff and Mmes. Bob Word, Ed Wilson Jr., Maurice Tannahill, Art Stoy, Joe Story, Don Robinson, Sam Long, Noble Howard, Roy Hartman, O.Z. Golden, B.F. Cain and T.E. Braddy.

Unusual Holiday Package Wrapping Shown For Club

Road maps, funny papers or grocery bags all can be attractive wrapping for holiday gifts. Mrs. Gaylon Bryan showed members of North Hereford Home Demonstration Club Thursday at a meeting in Mrs. T.E. Brisendine's home.

She demonstrated the professional way to wrap gifts and showed various ways to decorate packages, some using material found in the average home but not often employed for decoration. Each member made a tissue flower at Mrs. Bryan's direction.

She also displayed home decoration items, a styrofoam wreath trimmed with red ball fringe, a doorknob cover and bells made of folded felt.

Present were Mmes. Iva

Saltzman, O.L. Williams, Paul Hoff, J.C. Crofford, A.E. Hodges and Miss Roberta Campbell.

The expression "eating crow" was coined after an English army captain made the soldier who shot his pet crow dine on the bird as an act of repentance.

Wildlife Refuge Official Speaks

A program on Conservation: Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge was given by Milt Souther, assistant manager of the refuge to Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, Thursday evening.

Souther said "The refuge is an important resting and wintering area for many migratory waterfowl. Many of the western and eastern bird species intermingle here. During late fall and winter as many as a million ducks and 40,000 geese make use of the refuge, many of them spending the winter."

He also said that a winter visitor tour program which includes banding demonstration is conducted annually. Tour dates, bird lists and other information are available upon request, Souther added. Mrs. Carroll Newsom and Mrs. V.O. Hennen were hostesses to the chapter in Mrs. Newsom's home.

A brief business session was conducted by the regent, Mrs. Earl Holt. The chapter voted to contribute to the gift shop at Amarillo Veterans Hospital for Christmas gift items.

Official dedication of the Freeman Plantation and Texas Historical Marker, a state-DAR project, will be Nov. 4 in Jefferson, it was announced.

Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr. was asked to report on ceremonies at Texas Tech Ranch Museum last week, when the Reinauer family made the presentation of the old XIT Escarbada Headquarters building to the museum.

Mrs. Reinauer noted that preservation of local history is an objective of preparation for the DAR's observance of the U.S. Bicentennial in 1976; she is Bicentennial chairman for Las Ciboleros Chapter. Members present were Sue James, Mmes. Bruce Carter, Jeff Smart, L.W. Norvell, J.J. Durham and L.C. Davis, the latter a new member.

Wyche HD Plans Holiday Dinner

Joyce Shipp, assistant County Home Demonstration Agent, presented the program on foiling to Wyche HD Club Thursday at Community Center. She also showed Christmas items that were handmade.

Mrs. G.W. Duncan was hostess. For opening exercises Mrs. Duncan read A Country Girl's Creed and directed recreation.

over the business, during which time a holiday dinner was discussed. Mmes. Jack Herald, Paul Jones and Wayne Jones are to plan the menu.

Collier-Lange Wedding Friday Evening Event

A wedding ceremony at twilight Friday was conducted for Miss Patricia Darlene Collier and Thomas Edward Lange of Dimmitt, with the Rev. Eugene Brink, minister, officiating in First Christian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Collier, Route 3, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lange of Nazareth. The couple will be at home after October 25 at 100 East Grant, Dimmitt.

Only wedding attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Straskulie. Candles at the altar were lighted before the service by Ferris and David Collier, brothers of the bride.

Candelabra were placed between bouquets of white chrysanthemums and lilies-of-the-valley. Bows of orchid ribbon marked the bridal aisle where her father escorted Miss Collier to the altar.

She wore a sheer white gown, floor length, over white satin. Cut on simple lines, it was designed with empire waistline, high neck frilled with lace, and sleeves gathered fully to wide cuffs.

Her fingertip veil held by a headpiece in bell design, was the one worn by a friend, Mrs. John Meisenbeck of Tampa, Florida, as a bride. The lace-covered Bible she carried belonged to Mrs. John Hunter. It was topped with a cluster of orchid-tinted carnations, small white pompons and babybreath. As luck pieces she carried her mother's wedding ring and borrowed from her sister, Mrs. Jim Harris, a penny to wear in her shoe.

The matron of honor wore a purple skirt and orchid bodice, styled like the bride's dress but with lower neckline. She carried a single orchid carnation.

Wedding music was by Mrs. Frances Parker who played organ selections and also her own accompaniment as she sang Twelfth of Never and We've Only Just Begun.

After the ceremony a reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, 237 Avenue H, honored the couple. Miss Sandi Collier, sister of the bride, registered guests.

Mrs. Bobby McIntosh served punch and Mrs. Leslie Holman of Amarillo the cake, assisted by the bride's sister, Miss Marolyn Collier, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Doyal Collier.

Roses and pompons in shades of orchid decorated the tiered wedding cake, topped with bride-and-groom figurines backed by a ring. The table was covered with lace over an orchid cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lange left for a few days in New Mexico and Colorado. For travel the bride wore a white and orchid suit with white accessories.

She is a graduate of Hereford High School and has been employed by Taylor and Sons Market.

Lange, with Killingsworth Builders Supply at Dimmitt, was graduated from high school at Nazareth. Out-of-town wedding guest included his family, also Leslie Holman of Amarillo.

Preceding her marriage, Miss Collier was complimented with a shower Monday in the home of Mrs. Darlene Passmore. Other hostesses were Mmes. Cieta Passmore, Tex Rhodes, John Hunter, Wanda Tice, Roy Brittain and Don Houle.

Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Drerup married 40 years

Reception To Mark 40th Anniversary

The 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Drerup will be observed today with a reception from 2:30 to 6 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Hosts for the party will be the couple's 15 children, all of whom will be here for the occasion.

Residents of Hereford since 1948, the Drerups have lived in the Panhandle since their marriage Oct. 19, 1932, in St. Anthony's Catholic Church here. Mrs. Drerup is the former Agnes Bezer.

Their children who live in Hereford are Catherine Cortez, Mary Brinkley, Paul, S.F., Gary and Louis. James is a resident of Dalhart, Louise Soto, Gene and William of Amarillo.

Coming from other states are Ruth Talkington of Duncan, Okla., Henry of Enid, Okla., Dorothy Stellman, Leroy and Robert of San Francisco.

Wedding Is Set

Mr. and Mrs. J.O. Payne of Lubbock, formerly of Hereford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Vickie Diane, to Gerald Douglas Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Cannon of Floydada.

The wedding has been set for January 6 in Ford Memorial Chapel, First Baptist Church of Lubbock.

Miss Payne is a 1969 graduate of Canyon High School, a junior medical technology major at Texas Tech University. She is employed with the Tech Computer Center.

African Travel Experience Told

Her African safari a few months ago was described by Mrs. H.L. Benefield to other members of Bay View Study Club Thursday afternoon. This was one of a series of programs in the club's fall schedule given by Hereford residents who have traveled to unusual places.

Mrs. Benefield visited Italy and the Greek islands after the trip through Africa, saw historic ruins and museums in Athens, and was present in an appearance of the Pope in Rome.

She went in a tour party from New York, flying to Rio de Janeiro and across the South Atlantic to Kimberly, South Africa. In that area, in Capetown and through the big game country of Kenya. Mrs. Benefield recorded the trip in photographs which were shown to the club in slides.

She spoke of various peoples of the African continent, mentioning the four groups with which she came in contact: Europeans, the native blacks, the mixed and the immigrants from India who were brought to Africa as laborers and whom some African governments are now trying to return to India.

Souvenirs and pictures from her trip were displayed for members to examine. Those present included Misses Keith Simmer, R.B. Miller, Juston McBride, Robert Josseland, W.H. Griffin, John Gilliland, Howard Gault, Homer Garrison, Herman Ford, R.W. Eades, Colby Conkright and Bruce Burney.

Autumn Setting Created For Goodin-Wallace Vows

Autumn shades of gold, bronze and teal blue appeared in the floral background for the marriage service of Miss Ginger Lynn Goodin and Joe Neal Wallace of Sonora, solemnized Saturday evening in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church.

Dr. Gerald Mann, pastor, conducted the ceremony at an altar where candle light gleamed on bronze and yellow daisy mums, copper pompons and yellow gladiolas. Candelabra were based in green foliage and more greenery was arranged around the white bench where the couple knelt for the benediction.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goodin of 430 Star, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wallace of Sonora.

Miss Vickie Samford of Lockney was Miss Goodin's maid of honor and Miss Jane Wallace, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Ray King of Higgins, best man, and the bride's brother, Gary Goodin, attended the bridegroom.

Ushering guests were Brian Goodin and David Wallace, brothers of the couple, Steve Whitaker and Greg Whitaker, cousins of the bride.

Sheri Whitaker was the flower girl, a younger brother of the bridegroom, Drew Wallace, carried the rings.

Mrs. Gene Streun played an organ prelude and the marches, and accompanied Misses Mona Gale Gibson and Carol Scott. Principal musical selections were Godfather Waltz and Kings.

Daisy lace edged the wedding ring neckline of the bride's satin gown, outlined a panel on the bodice and circled the natural waistline and toetip hemline. Bishop sleeves were also trimmed with touches of the lace, and it edged the veil.

Spreading into a chapel train, the illusion veil was attached to a lace headpiece above the bride's forehead. Her bouquet was a cascade of white carnations with a cluster of white roses in the center. She wore her grandmother's sapphire lavaliere.

The maid of honor was dressed in teal blue, the bridesmaid in bronze. Their satin frocks were in the same style of the bride's and their corsage bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Bride's and attendants' bouquets were laid at the base of gold candelabra on the table at the reception, which was held in the church hall. Mrs. Rick Tennant of Dumas served the wedding cake and Miss Judy Robinson the punch.

Miss Donnell Benefield assisted and Miss Martha Ann McBride was at the guest registry.

Leaving for a trip into South-west Texas which will include a visit with the Wallace family in Sonora, the bride had changed to a black-and-white-striped jumpsuit for travel. After the trip the couple will be at home here.

Mrs. Wallace has attended

West Texas State University a year since her graduation from Hereford High School and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Crescents.

Employed with Pitman West in Hereford, Wallace is a 1972 graduate of Texas State Technical Institute at Amarillo and of Sonora High School.

A number of guests from other cities attended the wedding; after the reception there was an informal supper in the Goodin home for family members and those visitors.

The Rev. Wm. R. Fleming of St. Stephen conducted the ceremony. Wedding guests attended a reception in the Candlelight Room at Holiday Inn West.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rudd of Amarillo, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Reed, also of Amarillo. Her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R.A. Wells of Wheeler, are former Hereford residents.

Her father gave the bride in marriage and Miss Ruth McMinn was the maid of honor. Lex Guinn was best man. Ushers were Terry Burns, Lennie Monson, and Kit Rudd, brother of the bride. Flower girl was Elizabeth Rudd of Hereford, a cousin of the bride. The ring bearer was Joey Reed.

Wedding music selections were Close To You and We've Only Just Begun, sung by Mrs. Valerie Sanders. Mrs. Tom Haney accompanied her.

The bride wore white satin peau de soie in empire style. Juliet sleeves had lace and pearl trim and lace appliques were around the bottom.

A long illusion veil was caught with a floral bandeau at the headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations with white roses in the center.

Miss McMinn wore purple velvet with empire waistline, and scoop neckline, with long white gloves. Her headpiece was a white carnation bandeau.

At the reception, guests were registered by Miss Lynn Ann Rudd and Miss Cheryl Rudd, sisters of the bride. Mrs. Clay Reed served the cake, made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Raymond Wells.

Mrs. Beverly Latham of Amarillo served punch. The three tiered cake was on a pedestal, with white doves for the top decoration, also with lilac roses and sugar bell decorations.

The couple left for a trip, with Mrs. Reed wearing a purple velvet pantsuit. They will be at home at 1914-B South Harrison, Amarillo, after October 23.

The bride attended Hereford Schools through her sophomore year, and then graduated from Tascosa High School, where she was active in the Home Ec. Club and Future Nurses Association.

Reed graduated from Alamo High School. Both have attended Amarillo College and are now enrolled in West Texas School of Nursing.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

A garden friend calls his backyard the garden of Weedin. This name could well have been given to gardens during the fall cleanup campaign.

Have just talked with Mrs. Marice Tannahill, relative to the cleanup. Her report was that the co-operation of the young people in the poster contest was most gratifying.

Their response was good, and the posters portrayed what the youth were thinking about. Purposes of the poster contest are to publicize the campaign and to educate children and gain their help in making our town cleaner and more beautiful.

In the promotion of such a measure it is always good to remember that next time it will be better, and more people will respond.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

One of the questions I have been asked is, what do plants need, and what are the nutrients of plants.

The following are plant nutrients. I suggest that this list be kept, and listed in your garden notebook. Do hope that many gardeners are keeping such a book; was delighted when Billee Ray Hansen mentioned her garden notebook and the importance it is to a gardener.

Calcium - Function: Neutralizes organic acids in soils.

Deficiency signs: Tips and edges of younger leaves yellow and are often scalloped.

Iron - Function: Catalyst in production of chlorophyll.

Deficiency signs: Veins of leaves green but yellow shown between veins of youngest leaves.

Magnesium - Function: Aids the production of chlorophyll.

Deficiency signs: Veins of leaves green but rest of leaf blotched grayish brown or yellow, starting with lower leaves.

Manganese - Function: Enhances uptake of phosphorus.

Deficiency signs: Chlorosis between veins of leaves.

Molybdenum - Function: This is associated with nitrogen.

Nitrogen - Function: Promotes chlorophyll and vegetative growth.

Deficiency signs: Stunted growth, yellowish color leaves starting at bottom of plant.

Phosphorus - Function: Plant growth, hastens maturity, increases quality of fruit (or bloom); increases disease resistance, especially important at seedstage.

Deficiency signs: Mottled yellow between leaf veins turning dark bluish green with tints of bronze or purple, thin stalks - small leaves, limited lateral growth, delayed maturity, premature defoliation.

Potassium - Function: Increases yield and general plant vigor, improves drought resistance, reduces water loss, gives stronger stems, helps retard diseases, acts as an "anti-freeze".

Deficiency signs: Slow growth in an uneven pattern, leaf margins scorched starting first on older leaves, stalk weak, seed or fruit small and shriveled.

Some of my gladoli showed these signs of deficiency, especially after the long spell of rain, when I could not tend them as they should have been.

Especially noticed this condition with the lilac and chasteuse glad. Blossoms were small and looked old when they first bloomed.

I had grown this glad before and was real disappointed that these were not as good. The last to flower were better, in fact I have a beautiful spike on the desk. The later one had better treatment. Pays off to give care and attention carefully.

Sulphur - Function: Acidity soil, component of protein.

Deficiency signs: Deficiency is rare; lower leaves become yellow green. This deficiency often shows up in roses, and many of the shrubs around town have shown this also.

Zinc - Function: Linked with iron and manganese in formation of chlorophyll.

Deficiency sign: Decrease in stem length with resetting, terminal small.

This list really makes one think this is a lesson on mining. We should study plants and soil. Should be extra careful in the preparation of the soil.

It would be a good thing if we would each have our soil analyzed. As we put our gardens to bed for the winter would be a pertinent time to attend to this.

Would also advise that we should be cautious when purchasing fertilizers for gardening. Always note the content of the product, and check carefully for the above mentioned minerals.

Be sure and read the numerals, which show what the content percentage of nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium are. This is usually shown on the package or container with three numerals in line with each other. Their value is shown as listed above.

It was delightful to visit in Mrs. D.N. Garner's rose garden last week when the Hereford Garden Club met with her. She had some of the best grown roses that I have seen this year. Also a pleasure to be able to read the name tags, and learn the name of roses growing. She is an excellent gardener. Lawns, shrubs and other plants showed tender loving care and good gardening measures.

Reminds me of a conversation I had with a new gardener. She told me that she loved gardening, and that she talked to her plants, and really tried to give them good care... really loving tender care.

Is always good to make new friends via the medium of the telephone. Thanks for the many calls received this week.

The following is a clipping taken from the garden magazine: Californians have compared results of growth of chrysanthemums with and without music and those grown in a greenhouse with night long music averaged six inches taller and had more intensity of color.

Have also been told by authorities that music when played in the dairy barns, causes cows to give more milk. Well why not? We all like attention, and pleasant surroundings.

HAPPINESS... is being kind and thoughtful.

Volunteers Count Hours Of Service

Cakes made for birthday parties at Hereford Day Care Center, time spent in aid to Meals on Wheels and in teaching English to foreign-born residents, were among reports given at the October luncheon of Red Cross Uniformed Volunteers Thursday at K-Bob's Restaurant.

A total of 166 hours of community service were recorded by the 11 members present. Genevieve Miller, executive secretary of the county Red Cross chapter, reported 52 ditty bags filled with small gifts were shipped this month from Hereford to go to Vietnam for distribution at Christmas to U.S. servicemen. A number of these were made by Volunteers. Mrs. Tommy Crawford presided at the meeting. Members decided to have a salad luncheon in her home, 234 Douglas, for their November meeting on the third Thursday of the month. Present were Debbie Buechler, Isabell Martinez, Mmes. Ralph J. Molina, Ray Berend, Gilbert Yosten, John Birkenfeld, Sam Morgan, Emil Dittman and Jim Culpepper.

Palo Duro Club Practices Crafts

Palo Duro Home Demonstration Club had a program of crafts at their recent meeting in the home of Mrs. David Owens.

Mrs. Ted Coleman, president, presided over the meeting, while Mrs. Ralph Warren gave a full craft demonstration. Every one tried her luck at foiling an article after Mrs. Warren gave helpful hints.

Other members present were Mmes. Dick Kendall, Robby Day and Chuck Cogdell. The next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 30, in the home of Mrs. Ralph Warren.

Hall Is Elected To Post At WTSU

Small Talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Woman's Editor

A LEADING ROLE in the Texas Tech production of the musical, Carousel, has been assigned to Sherry White, Hereford student who incidentally is Miss Hereford of 1972. All leads in the show are double-cast, and Sherry will appear Saturday evening as Carrie.

To be staged in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium at 8:15 Friday and Saturday, this is an unusual production for the Tech musical department, which presents an opera each year but not previously a musical comedy.

Sherry says the settings, costumes and such incidentals will make it worth seeing; then there is the durable plot in addition to lovely music. She shouldn't feel a stranger in the production, after singing leads in several memorable high school musicals here.

A LOT OF BONUS publicity for Hereford resulted from the Reinauer family's gift of the historic old Escarbada Headquarters Building of the XIT Ranch to the outdoor museum at Texas Tech last week. Not only Lubbock papers, but others of West Texas covered the story with big headlines and pictures.

It is a noteworthy contribution, announced with fanfare at the third annual meeting of the ranch headquarters association which manages the outdoor museum. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr. were at the meeting with two of their sons, Joe Jr. and Art, and the former's wife, Linda.

In addition to an account of the presentation ceremony, which occurred on Ranch Day in Texas as proclaimed by Gov. Preston Smith, the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal had in its Monday morning issue a long story about the Reinauers, their acquisition of the XIT ranch land where the house is located, and present operation of the ranch.

JOE REINAUER SR. was associated with his brothers, John, now of Oklahoma City, and the late Fred Reinauer, in purchase of the land in 1941.

They had previously bought farm land in this county when many owners were selling out during dust bowl days in the 1930s, because they remembered seeing bountiful wheat crops here as they drove through on fishing trips to New Mexico, and felt sure there would be rainy years ahead.

Irrigation farming assured them of crops even in dry years and they continued to produce feed on the farms for cattle on the ranch. Before he came to this county, Joe Reinauer and his brothers operated a garage in Oklahoma City for years.

They were members of a family that pioneered in Wisconsin and then Oklahoma, just missing the famous Oklahoma "run" of settlers for land. Joe delivered telegrams from two cents apiece when he was 13 and later worked in auto repair shops. He was an aviator in World War I.

He lately relinquished active management of the ranch to Joe Jr., when the younger Reinauer came home from military service in Viet Nam and settled in Hereford.

Baird's Bread Is Now Sold Here

Mrs. Baird's Bread has come to Hereford. The loaf that had its beginning in 1908 in a home-kitchen bakery, and has since become the favorite loaf in Texas, is now available at local grocery stores.

The story of Mrs. Baird's Bread is a family story and truly one that could happen only in America. It began in 1908, in the home of Mrs. Minnie L. Baird, a lady who had earned a reputation in her neighborhood for baking good bread. In those days Mrs. Baird did all the baking for her family and often gave extra loaves to neighbors as gifts. Many of them asked her to bake for them, too.

When her husband became too ill to work, Mrs. Baird decided to go into the baking business to support her family of eight. She bought an oven from a hotel, enlarged her kitchen, and made every day baking day. Each afternoon after school, the boys delivered the freshly baked loaves on their bicycles.

The fame of Mrs. Baird's

COINS Medal honors farmer

By PAUL J. WEIS
Copley News Service

The 97th commemorative coin medal issued by the National Commemorative Society, pays tribute to the American farmer. This issue marks the 47th commemorative issue in Series II of the society.

This medal was sculptured by Norman Nemeth. The face of the medal shows a pensive farmer with his horse and plow. The reverse depicts a farmer scything wheat along with the words of Daniel Webster — "when tillage begins, other arts follow. The farmers, therefore, are the founders of civilization."

The West German government has released a fifth major coin issue — a 10-mark piece — to mark the 1972 Olympic Games held recently in Munich.

The obverse of the coin features the five Olympic rings and flame, along with the official emblem of the games. The reverse portrays a stylized eagle of the state. The edge of the .625 fine silver coin bears the inscription "CITUS ALTIUS FORTIUS" — Latin for "faster, higher, stronger."

Like the four previous issues in the series, including the recently released second variety of the first issue, this coin has been produced at each of the four West German mints: mint mark "D" for Munich; mint mark "F" for Stuttgart; mint mark "G" for Karlsruhe; and mint mark "J" for the Hamburg mint. The appropriate mint mark is just above the right talon of the eagle on the reverse.

The Eisenhower dollar will be added to the U.S. proof sets next year, it was announced by Mrs. Mary T. Brooks, director of the U.S. Mint. The announcement was made by Mrs. Brooks during a luncheon address before the Young Numismatists.

The dollar to be included in the 1973 sets will be the cupronickel specimen and not those struck in 40 per cent silver which are offered for sale singly as proof and uncirculated coins. The decision to add the clad dollar to the proof sets was made in response to a suggestion that all six of our circulating coins be in the sets.

Other coins in the 1973 sets will be the customary cent, nickel, dime, quarter and half dollar. The dollar piece, because of its face value, larger size and hand work required for a proof specimen, will necessitate an increase from $5 to $7 for each of the sets.

Mrs. Brooks expressed hope that coins made in both the Philadelphia and Denver mints, including the dollar, and the cent produced at the San Francisco assay office, can be included in the 1973 uncirculated sets. A number of details must be worked out before a firm commitment can be made.

The mint also contemplates changing the packaging of the 40 per cent silver Eisenhower proof dollars — which are sold individually — in 1973. It is likely that a smaller, airtight container for the commemorative 1/2 dollar will make its appearance.

Scuba divers probing the wreckage of the sunken sidewheeler, Winfield Scott, sunk near Anacapa Island off Ventura, Calif. on Dec. 3, 1853, have been turning up small quantities of privately minted gold coins.

An article in the September issue of Argosy magazine reports that the gold coin search has been under way since 1965. Though an $800,000 gold shipment was recovered from the ship before she went down, divers have been finding occasional gold coins and other items in the wreckage of the ship, the article reports.

Hunting Season Is Time For Extra Precautions

They're here — those crisp, cold days which mean only one thing to almost a million people in Texas: it's hunting season. Dove season brought a gleam to the eyes of hunter, but it is November which puts that extra bounce in their step, sends them into the hills and valleys and into marshes and timbered country for deer, javelina, duck, geese, quail and turkey. Previews of the season have already been obtained by bow hunters, who took advantage of the special archery season which began in October. In addition to the hunting season, most real fishermen are keeping their gear in shape for the excellent fishing which continues through the fall and winter in Texas. What you have in Texas now — in addition to the exhilarating thrill of being out in the open hunting, camping and fishing — is the chance for accidents. Good health and hunting safety go together, says the Texas

State Department of Health. While most hunters look on themselves as Daniel Boones, far too many should never leave their television sets and comfortable arm chairs. They are the people who are out of shape, out of practice in handling their rifles and shotguns, and out of touch with good safety habits. Safety in the field is a vital part of any hunting trip, and it takes some thought and planning to make sure that your trip doesn't end in tragedy. How many people do you know who carry loaded guns in their cars...climb into their deer blinds with guns loaded...walk around with the safety of their rifles or shotguns off and a shell in the chamber...point their weapons at others...bring their loaded guns into the camp-house... Caution is something which all persons should exercise throughout every day of the year, but extra precautions against injury — and perhaps death — should be taken when you're outside of your natural element. Safety authorities strongly recommend the use of blaze orange clothing as a safeguard against becoming a statistic. Too many hunters are mistaken for game by over-anxious, careless hunters. You can follow the following safety rules: When handling and demonstrating a gun, treat it as if it were loaded. Keep the muzzle pointed in a safe direction. Remove the clip if there is one. Open the action and leave it open. If you're practicing with an empty gun, be sure it is actually empty. Check every gun you pick up. Even with empty gun, aim at a safe backstop. When cleaning a firearm, the same safe handling rules apply. Keep others away when you're cleaning a gun. In transporting guns, break them down whenever possible.

Keep guns in a case or securely wrapped. Carry all ammunition separately. Always transport guns unloaded. In practicing, know the potential of your gun. Make sure you have an adequate backstop. Keep the firing line and shooting area restricted. Always store guns out of reach of children, unloaded and uncocked. Store ammunition separate from firearms and also out of sight. Keep the gun safety on until ready to shoot. Agree beforehand on the area each hunter will cover. Unload gun before crossing a fence and pass gun under first. Never climb into a stand, a tree or over obstacles with a loaded gun. When duck hunting from a boat, two hunters should face in opposite directions. Never lay a loaded gun in the boat. Fall is a wonderful time of the year in Texas. And you can make it a productive one and a happy one by thinking safety — first, last and foremost.

THE FAMILY LAWYER Wife in Name Only

During their courtship, Hannah spoke soulfully to Jim about the joys of raising a family. But right after the marriage, she changed her tune. In fact, she refused to have sexual relations with him. Finally Jim sued for an annulment. "She is a wife in name only," he complained in court. "She deliberately misled me with all that talk about raising a family. The marriage was based on fraud."

"Maybe I was less than honest," Hannah conceded. "But if people had to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth before the wedding, there would be mighty few marriages."

Nevertheless, the court granted Jim an annulment. The judge said Hannah's deception involved no minor matter but an essential element of matrimony itself. It is true that the law will overlook a certain amount of what it calls "the deceptive arts" in courtship. But deception about the intent to have sexual relations is usually considered too vital to be condoned.

This is so even if the subject of sex is never mentioned before the wedding. Courts say that the sexual relationship, even if not discussed, is nonetheless considered, by common consent — to be implied in the contract of marriage.

On the other hand, lying about something less important will not ordinarily justify an annulment. For example: A disgruntled wife sought a decree on the ground that her spouse had lied about having a college education. But the judge decided this was not adequate grounds to annul the marriage. "Surely every representation leading up to a marriage cannot be material," said the judge. "The fact that a brunette turned to a blonde overnight, or that the beautiful teeth were discovered to be false, or that the ruddy pink complexion gave way suddenly to pallor, or that a woman misstated her age, would lead no court to annul the marriage for fraud. The fraud must relate to something vital."

Issue honors SPCA
By PAUL J. WEIS

To celebrate the centenary of the Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in South Africa and South-West Africa a stamp has been issued. Advance notice for first-day cover collectors was lacking and it will not be possible to order covers on this issue. The stamp is beautiful, featuring the design by Gordon Cunningham showing two beautiful cats, one black and the other a Siamese. The background is in two shades of blue.

The stamp is of 5-cent value, printed by photogravure on Harrison phosphorescent paper by the government printer in Pretoria. The stamps will remain on sale at all post offices for three months, both in South-West Africa and Republic of South Africa.

The oldest SPCA in southern Africa, known as the Cape of Good Hope SPCA, was founded in 1872 and still serves the Cape peninsula.

Boxers Schedule November Meet

Hereford Boxing Club will sponsor its first meet of the 1972-73 AAU season on Friday, Nov. 3, it was announced this week by Harold Wheeler, coach. The boxing meet, with about 20 bouts on the card, will be highlighted by an exhibition match between two young professionals from Clovis, N.M.

The special event will match Tony Romero against Ernest Vann. Romero, who has fought five times in the Forum at Los Angeles, was the state Golden Gloves champion of New Mexico five times. He fought against the lightweight champion of the world just eight months ago in Honolulu.

Vann has had only two professional fights, scoring knockouts in the first round of each bout. He was the Western AAU champion two years ago. Wheeler said Clovis now has five professional boxers on the circuit.

Hereford Jaycees are now selling tickets for the local boxing club bouts, with a season ticket costing only $5. Four boxing meets have already been scheduled here. Proceeds are used for the Hereford Boxing Club.

Tickets for the Nov. 3 program can be purchased at the door—priced at $1.50 for ringside, $1 general admission, and 75 cents for students.

Believe it or not, there are American Indians who still make "smoke signals." The Indians are the Pima and Maricopa tribes of Arizona, but the "smoke signals" are not the old fire and blanket variety that warned of the advancing U.S. Cavalry. This time the Indians are making brand new communications devices—for the Army. The devices are the multi-colored smoke grenades used for signaling or for marking targets and landing zones. Some 35 Indians are employed on a 20-acre industrial site adjacent to the Gila River Indian Reservation at Coolidge, Ariz.

Did you know you can become a do-it-yourself home repairman in the U.S. Army? For homebodies at Ft. Buckner, Okinawa, the Army has opened a Self-Help Training Center. In classes, soldiers are taught to perform minor maintenance and repairs on their own living quarters. Among the families living in the 3,000 dwellings in the five housing areas on Okinawa, there has been a considerable savings in home repair bills. Since August, a savings of $15,000 has been reported, and the total is growing. Besides the savings, it's probably a good idea for the soldiers to fix their own roof leaks and plumbing. Did you ever try finding a home repairman in the yellow pages on Okinawa?

Did you know?
 —That the Army is testing a system of credit cards that would enable a soldier to use his dining credit privilege in other Army dining halls, besides the one at his home station.
 —That the Army makes annual awards to the command with the most effective accident prevention program.

How can a soldier improve his chances for promotion in the Army?
 A good way for an enlisted man to better his chances for promotion is to seek duties requiring a high degree of leadership and responsibility. It's also a good idea to become qualified in more than one Army job, and to make sure that your records are in good order, complete with awards, decorations and letters of commendation intact.

Admittedly there aren't many horses in the U.S. Army. Air Defense Center these days. But if any do show up, there'll be no problem fitting them with shoes. Not while Maj. Gen. Raymond L. Shoemaker is the Commanding General at the Center. Gen. Shoemaker is one of the few people in the Army that still is a bona fide horseshoer. The general's unusual military occupation became known in small talk at a reception for officers taking a training course at the Center. It didn't take long for the 47-man class to respond. On the eve of their graduation, Gen. Shoemaker found a surprise on his front lawn. A brand new freshly-painted sign read: "Expert Horseshoeing Done In the Grand Old Army Style. Reasonable Rates...Inquire Within."

Pioneer Natural Gas To Join Houston Firm

Managements of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, of Amarillo and Houston Natural Gas Corporation, of Houston, have agreed in principle on a merger of Pioneer Natural Gas Company into Houston Natural, it was announced Wednesday.

Burton P. Smith, President of Pioneer Natural Gas Company and Robert R. Herring, President of Houston Natural Gas, said that the proposed terms of the merger called for the exchange of one share of Houston Natural common stock for each 2.25 shares of Pioneer common stock.

They said that the merger, which could be consummated as early as January 1973, would be subject to satisfactory mutual investigations, the approvals of the directors and stockholders of both companies, and other conditions.

Consolidated operating revenues for the 12 months ended June 30, 1972, were $94.3 million. Net income was $9.6 million or $1.28 per share.

Houston Natural's primary business also is natural gas. It serves more than 345,000 customers in Houston and 116

Amendments Are Club Discussion

Hazen Woods Jr., Hereford attorney, reviewed the 14 proposed Texas Constitutional Amendments when he appeared as guest speaker for the regular weekly luncheon of Hereford Lions Club Wednesday at the Civic Club Center.

Woods briefly explained each of the proposed amendments, then gave short comments made by those who favor the amendments and those who oppose them. Texans will vote on the amendments in the November election.

Nolan Grady presided at the club meeting, with several guests being recognized.

LaPlata Takes Two Victories

La Plata's 7th and 8th grade gridders captured victories at Muleshoe this week, while old man weather was the winner in a scheduled freshman game.

The Maverick 8th graders posted a 28-14 triumph with Terry Brady and Archie Crim scoring two touchdowns each to pace the scoring attack. Crim tallied on a 20-yard run and Brady on a 6-yard run as La Plata took a 14-8 lead in the first half. Russell Harkins sped 60 yards on a reverse to set up Brady's touchdown run.

Brady broke up the middle and raced 60 yards for a score in the third period, then Crim tallied on a 15-yard run to finish the scoring. Roy Martinez ran for two points after one score, and Crim passed to Rowan Alexander for another conversion.

The 7th graders used a strong defense, which caused some fumbles, in posting their first win of the season by a 24-0 count. Two fumble recoveries led to La Plata scores in the first period. Steven Cortez scored from 12 yards out for the first touchdown, then Lane Allen went 10 yards for the second one.

Late in the second quarter, Cortez scored on a 35-yard jaunt, and La Plata took a 18-0 lead at halftime. The Mavs held for eight downs inside their 15-yard line in the second half. After a scoreless third quarter, Cortez broke on a long 77-yard touchdown run in the final period. The 7th grade team now has a 1-3-1 record.

Both teams play Canyon White here on Oct. 31. The 9th grade game was called off, and the freshmen are slated to play next at Canyon on Oct. 26.

If You're Serious

We have just returned from a three week series of meetings in Europe with European and American businessmen and officials. The trip took us to London, Paris, Frankfurt, Bonn, Brussels, Zurich, Geneva, Milan, Rome and Madrid.

We made the trip because of the growing significance of international trade to the American economy, and because we are well aware that the new European Community will be an economic superpower capable of dealing with the U.S. as an equal.

We had two objectives. First, we wanted to warn the Europeans that the threat of protection should not be taken lightly; that strong pressure groups in the U.S. are pushing restrictive trade legislation such as the Burke-Hartke bill, and that it will be a tough fight to hold it off. Second, we wanted to learn from the Europeans and from our own businessmen abroad: What do they see as the major trade problems? What should the U.S. do to help solve them? What are the opportunities for improved cooperation?

As usual, looking at things from "the other guy's point of view" proved helpful.

One of our major findings is that Europeans are not convinced that we in the United States are serious about trade negotiations. They would like to see concrete evidence that we really mean business. Thus, our main task now is to secure a broad mandate from Congress that will allow the U.S. to participate meaningfully in trade negotiations next fall.

Until now our main effort at home has been to prevent protectionist legislation of the type contained in the Burke-Hartke bill. That is not enough. We must obtain from Congress new negotiations — the tendency of the Community to make special preferential agreements and to follow other practices harmful to America's economic interests will increase.

Detailed recommendations will be included in our report to the President and Congressional leaders, following careful study. Tentatively, recommendations among the following lines seem imperative:

1. That the U.S. Congress enact a trade bill empowering our government to enter into effective negotiations for new trade agreements next fall. This bill should grant the President authority to negotiate tariff reductions and eliminate nontariff barriers. It should include broad negotiating authority in both industrial goods and agricultural commodities.
2. That a system of generalized tariff preferences on U.S. imports of manufactured goods from developing countries be instituted in concert with other industrialized countries.
3. That U.S. antitrust laws be revised to give U.S. companies exporting and investing abroad more freedom to operate competitively.
4. That domestic American companies develop a wider export consciousness and improved export techniques, rather than relying largely on export services by U.S. Government personnel abroad.
5. That negotiations begin immediately to harmonize national environmental control policies to minimize inequitable effects on trade flows of different national standards.
6. That we continue to provide a climate for nondiscriminatory tax treatment for American exports and investors overseas.

— U.S. Chamber

The Soviet Deal

While the trade agreement just concluded between the U.S. and Soviet Union is an important political milestone in relations between the two countries, it may well come under some fire from Congress next year.

Some of the congressional reservations will have merit. In suggesting liberalization of U.S. tariffs ought to depend on repeal of the exit fees Russia has started to charge Jewish emigres, for example, Senator Jackson raises profound questions about how to deal with a totalitarian nation. Other congressional outbreaks may be chiefly protectionist tics, but the principle of Soviet-American trade is important, enough that every legitimate effort should be made to overcome whatever obstacles do arise.

One pragmatic reason is that the Russians apparently want and need U.S. goods — an eager buyer puts any seller in fortunate position — and are willing to make some concessions to obtain them. The Soviet willingness to pay $722 million on its World War II lend-lease debt, not far below the $800 million the U.S. asked, could be regarded as such a concession. A debt incurred by a wartime ally for materials used in a common cause does not, after all, entail quite the same repayment obligation as other forms of debt. The payment term, 30 years, is long and the repayment may be offset partly by trade credits the U.S. will offer, but, on balance, the agreement doesn't sound unreasonable from the U.S. point of view.

As to the question of the Soviet Jews, Secretary of State Rogers expressed hope that it could be handled through the normal channels of diplomacy. And since congressional approval of most-favored-nation tariff treatment of Russian exports to the U.S. may hang in the balance, there would seem to be a good chance that the Russians will relent.

There will be the problem of what the Soviet Union can find to sell to the U.S. to earn foreign exchange for the many things it would like to buy. Most favored-nation treatment will certainly help the Russian prospects but Russia has not been extremely successful in selling manufactured goods to industrialized nations. The Russians may have to rely on items such as vodka and perhaps fuels and other raw materials. Despite this and the fact that the trade agreement contains protections against dumping Russian goods in the U.S., some U.S. protectionist sentiments may become aroused.

These are particulars that will have to be overcome, just as the particulars of the grain deal proved to be somewhat troublesome and embarrassing to the Nixon administration after they came to be better understood.

World peace is after all, ultimately at stake in the East-West relationship. The trade agreement is only a beginning; with little guarantee of mutual benefits to come, but a beginning that needed to be made. Making it succeed will require some hard work, but success, if it does come, could be well worth the effort.

Powell Memorandum Finally Made Public

BY BERT MILLS
Washington, D.C. — Supreme Court Justice Lewis F. Powell wrote a memorandum for a business committee back in 1971, before his nomination to the court, which was entitled "Attack on American Free Enterprise System."

The memorandum was prepared at the request of the Chairman of the Education Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States and was not made public either when written or when the U.S. Senate considered the nomination of Powell to the Supreme Court. Powell was confirmed by a vote of 89 to 1.

Now the memo has been made public, thanks to columnist

Jack Anderson and Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr., the Independent from Virginia. Anderson obtained a copy of the Powell memo and wrote two of his expose-type columns charging the document "raises a question" about the fitness of Powell to serve on the Supreme Court and to help decide "any case involving business interests."

Senator Byrd, a friend of Powell's, has come to his defense with a Senate speech and published the full text of the Powell memo in the Congressional Record on October 10. From the standpoint of businessmen and other defenders of free enterprise, belated publication of the Powell memo is fortunate because it expresses a viewpoint that deserves public discussion.

The fundamental premise of the Powell memo, as expressed in its concluding sentence, is that "business and the enterprise system are in deep trouble and the hour is late." Powell contended that the American economic system is being broadly attacked by articulate minorities representing "perfectly respectable elements of society."

This assault, Powell wrote, comes "from the college campus, the pulpit, the media, the intellectual and literary journals, the arts and sciences, and from politicians." The media, particularly television, give "unique publicity" to these "attackers." One of these attackers, according to the author, is Ralph Nader, described as "perhaps the single most effective antagonist of American business."

Others mentioned as attackers are William Kunstler, the attorney for leftists, and Charles Reich, the Yale professor who wrote "The Greening of America."

The Powell memo called for a counterattack by business, spearheaded by the U.S. Chamber. First target would be the campuses, were social science faculties "tend to be liberally oriented, even when leftists are not present." The author suggested the Chamber "should consider establishing a staff of highly qualified scholars in the social sciences who do believe in the system."

Powell made a long list of other suggestions, including evaluation of textbooks, a campaign to seek "balancing of faculties" to include proponents of free enterprise, monitoring of the media and insistence on the right to answer unfair attacks.

Another proposal would urge business firms to devote 10 per cent of their advertising budgets to promoting the American system.

Chamber Undecided

The U.S. Chamber has reached no decision on accepting the suggestions of Justice Powell. Obviously a lot of money would be required and business would have to support the Chamber as never before, in terms of high-level management participation as well as dollars.

But the man who started it all, Eugene B. Sydnor, Jr., of Richmond, Virginia, Chairman of the Chamber's Education Committee, has expressed hope that publicity on the Powell memo "may wake up businessmen all over this country to the pressing need for prompt and effective implementation of these sound suggestions."

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Dear editor:

According to an article I found in a newspaper yesterday the cities of the United States spent one and a quarter billion more dollars than they took in last year.

Revenues of all city governments in the country totaled 37.4 billion dollars last year, a gain of 4.7 billion over the previous year, but the cities spent 39.1 billion. In other words, they're going in the hole.

I got to thinking. That's exactly the shape farmers were in when there used to be a farm problem. It was costing them more to produce a crop than the crop was bringing in, and the problem was wrestled with on all levels until it finally was shipped.

The way it was whipped was simple: farmers mostly just disappeared. From 55 per cent of the population they dwindled to 40 per cent, then to 20 per cent, and now, finally, they're down to less than 7 per cent.

When you're only 7 per cent of the total population, with only 7 per cent of the vote, you're no longer a problem.

Now with cities, I don't know. If they're taking in more money than ever before and still not making ends meet and still not meeting the needs of their citizens, the supposition might be, let nature take its course, what worked with the farm problem ought to work with the city problem, but there are some perplexing questions going unanswered.

For example, what do you do with a city that gives up? Tell its citizens to move to town and get a job? With an abandoned farm, you can always put it in grass and run cattle on it, but with a city, there's so much pavement and cement I'd feel sorry for the man who tried to graze it. Oh, there're some lawns you might run goats on, and backyard swimming pools would make fairly good stock tanks, but on the whole I'd say the range conditions in Amarillo or Lubbock would be of a very poor quality and hardly worth fencing.

I'm sorry, I just don't have the answer to this problem. I will try to work on it some more later.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk Of Texas

BY JACK MAGUIRE

Footnote to History—Texas have all but forgotten the slim, quiet man who for seven years probably wielded more power and influence on world affairs than any other human being.

His name was Edward Mandell House, and most encyclopedias give him as much space as Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin combined. Yet most Texas history texts fail to do him justice and some barely mention his name.

Col. House (the "colonel" was an honorary command in the Texas Militia given to him by Gov. James Stephen Hogg) was the "Kingmaker" of his time. He elected and managed the political fortunes of four Texas governors, founded the modern Democratic Party in this state and is credited with electing Woodrow Wilson president of the United States.

Born in Houston to wealthy parents and educated at Ivy League schools, House got his first taste of politics when he rescued James Stephen Hogg's campaign for governor from almost certain defeat and won the office for him. He continued to dominate state politics for some years, then moved onto the national scene. He succeeded in getting Wilson the Democratic nomination for president, directed his successful campaign and became his closest advisor.

House was Wilson's secret envoy to Europe who attempted to avert World War I. When war came anyway, it was House who represented the U.S. at the armistice talks at Versailles. Wilson, in fact, would make no decision without first consulting the mild-mannered Texan.

After Wilson's death, House retired to Austin. He died March 28, 1938.

REMEMBER WHEN — The usual cure for a chest cold was to rub the area with a mixture of olive oil, butter and goose grease? The sufferer then was kept under heavy blankets to sweat out the germs.

SWEET FALL — It's that time of the year again, and soon the little mule-powered mills in East Texas will begin turning out their annual quota of ribbon cane syrup.

There aren't many farmers left who make the golden liquid that is so tasty with hot biscuits, pancakes and butter. By late this month, however, a couple of dozen mills should be at work.

Ribbon cane, or sorghum, syrup is a delicacy that the big food companies have never been able to mass produce. It is made by squeezing the stalks through a press and then evaporating the juice the same day by cooking it. It requires about six and a half gallons of sorghum cane juice to produce one gallon of the tangy brown syrup.

Most of the presses that retrieve the juice from the cane still are powered by mules. And connoisseurs swear that unless the juice is evaporated over a wood fire, the syrup isn't the best. Butane gas, however, has replaced wood at many of the syrup mills today.

INTERNATIONAL CREDIT UNION WEEK

"IT'S WHERE YOU BELONG"

This year, you'll be hearing "Join Your Credit Union; It's Where You Belong," on Oct. 1 if you happen to be a football fan. Baseball fans will hear it too, a few days later during the World Series.

It's part of a national credit union advertising program, the first of its kind. This year the theme will lend important support to International Credit Union Week, but will continue beyond, urging present members to make more use of their credit unions and seeking new members among millions of listeners.

During Credit Union Week, some 38 million members around the world celebrate the 123rd birthday of the credit union idea. Originally celebrated as a single day, the third Thursday of October, the movement's holiday has enlarged to a week-long program — and in some places, observances fill the whole month of October.

"It's Where You Belong" is also the theme of Credit Union Week which celebrates credit unions for safe investments, financial counseling and equitable loans, and people helping people.

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources
Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Texas agriculture continues to be punished by the screwworm, fire ant, citrus black fly, and cattle fever tick.

Programs are underway to eradicate or control these pests. Screwworm eradication officials at Mission continue to urge livestock producers to check all livestock regularly, treat wounds on livestock for screwworm control, and submit suspected screwworm samples to the fly laboratory for verification. Plans are being made now for 1973 eradication program. Knowing the exact whereabouts of the screwworm and the intensity of its infestations will be a big help in mapping the sterile fly-drops for next year.

Cattle fever center at Alice reports progress is being made in controlling the spread of that pest. Because of the reproductive ability of the fever tick, it could take two years before the pest is eradicated. Complete cooperation of cattle producers in the affected area—in South Texas—will be needed to eradicate the fever tick.

Plans to combat the fire ant in Fort Bend County are now underway. State, federal, and county officials are working in a county-wide campaign against the fire ant.

Mirex ant bait is being used throughout the county on about 95,000 acres. All necessary precautions are being taken to assure safety. Federal and state officials will constantly check the progress of the program.

Citrus black fly continues as a threat to the citrus industry in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. The pest has been centered in the Brownsville area in home orchards, but recently it was detected in Mission.

Infested trees are being sprayed in an effort to eradicate the pest.

Sixteen, One, One, Twelve. This is not a quarterback calling football signals. It is the rankings of Texas in various field crops for 1971 as compared with the rest of the nation. Texas, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service is:

First in rice production; first in grain sorghum production, second in hairy vetch seed production, third in peanut production, fourth in broomcorn production, twelfth in production of all hay, fourteenth in sugarbeet production, sixteenth in corn production, twenty-seventh in soybean production.

The top ten counties in grain sorghum production are Hale, Parmer, Swisher, Deaf Smith, Castro, Floyd, Lamb, Hidalgo, Nueces and Hansford. Top hay producing counties in the state are Grimes, Leon, Lamar, Hopkins, Red River, Wilbarger, Fannin, Cooke, Kaufman, Gaines.

Top peanut producing counties are Comanche, Frio, Eastland, Atascosa, Wilson, Erath, Mason, Fannin, Houston and Gaines.

If you want complete information on 1971 crop production in Texas, write to the Texas Department of Agriculture, Box 12847, Austin Texas 78711 and ask for 1971 Texas Field Crop Statistics.

Oct. 22 is final date of the State Fair of Texas. And when you attend, be sure and visit the Food and Fiber Pavilion. More than 1.5 million Texans are expected to visit the pavilion this year. You'll see new ways in which Texas agricultural products are being promoted.

Oct. 23 is final date for voting in the statewide pecan check-off referendum. Ballots may be obtained from your county agent. The referendum is being conducted by the Texas Pecan Growers Association.

Kiwanis Governor Stresses International Theme

Share Your Life, the 1972-73 international Kiwanis theme, was stressed by C.T. Bush, Governor of the Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis district in an address given during his official visit to Division 33 Thursday evening.

Over 160 Kiwanians and their wives were present at the Hereford Bull Barn for the address and visit of Governor Bush. Club members from Hereford, Amarillo, Dimmitt, Canyon, Friona and Tulia were present to Bush speak on the Share Your Life Theme.

Governor Bush stressed the importance of setting goals and following through with action. He also emphasized the sharing of ones life in service, in the home, through association, through recreation and through exploration.

"We need to share our lives more than we ever have before," said Bush.

"Our country needs us as a team—not for the present, because the present is ours—but for tomorrow, because tomorrow is theirs." He continued speaking of the leadership of today's young people.

Governor Bush concluded, saying that sharing is a law of life, love and growth.

"It's not how much we have kept for ourselves that will make a difference in the final analysis, but how much we have given away," he said.

Gene Brock, president of the Whiteface Kiwanis Club, called the meeting "order and was followed by Stan Knox who led the group in singing America. The pledge of allegiance was led by Howard Birdwell.

Earl Stagner gave the invocation, followed by Hereford Kiwanis club president Don Lane, who welcomed and introduced guests.

These included Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna, Roy Faubion, representing KPAN and Lori Hopson from the Hereford Branch.

Following the governor's address, the installation of new members took place under his direction. Melvin Jayroe, president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, presented the Governor with the traditional "Bull Award" and the closing scripture was given by J.T. Marlin.

Gene Campbell presented the evening's entertainment, along with Mrs. Bill Devers, Ricky Long and Lee Line.

Price Appoints Texas Land Use Committeemen

House Speaker Rayford Price today appointed an interim committee to study land use management in Texas.

Representative Bill Clayton of Spring Lake was appointed Chairman and will be joined by Representatives Ray Lemmon of Houston, Bill Braecklein of Dallas, Frank Calhoun of Abilene and Tony Dramberger of San Antonio.

In releasing the appointments at the close of the Fourth Called Session, Speaker Price said, "I feel it is necessary that this committee be activated immediately because of the short time remaining before the next regular session. I can foresee the need of a state initiated program to operate in conjunction with the federal and local governments in the area of land use management."

This committee is created by the Speaker's initiative and will report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session to convene in January.

Chemise back, but different

Like other returns to fashion, the chemise is a little different this time around. It has a hint more shaping in cut and often becomes decidedly body-conscious in the movement of fabrics. The tube which stood away from the body in firm materials and the controversial sack are not part of the care-free designs of 1972-73.

The new easy dress is darted or cut for a bit of comfortable fit at the top, shaping toward a raised or natural waistline. When the chemise is in lightweight knit or woven fabric, the figure is pronounced in the subtle cling of the material. Most designers have included optional belts to help women make a gradual return to the easy look. The slight shaping avoids too much bulk gathered beneath the belt. Button-front coat, or shirt dresses are chemise favorites for day.

THE INFORMED CONSUMER

BY CRAWFORD C. MARTIN
Attorney General of Texas

Each time you take your child riding with you in your automobile. You should be concerned about car seats. Infants and toddlers especially need protection from quick stops or sharp turns.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration suggests you consider the following guidelines when buying a new car seat or in evaluating one that was previously purchased.

Although many people still use them, seats that hook over the back of the seat of your car are usually not safe. Besides the possibility that this type of seat may not stay attached if you come to a quick stop, normally it does not give the child protection against whiplash injury.

The child's seat should give protection from front and rear crashes, cushioning the child and preventing him from being thrown free. The seat's restraint belts should be at least 1 1/2 inches wide. The child's upper body should be restrained by belts or an impact pad.

Watch out for any seat constructed of easily bent, flimsy. Bare metal strapping or padded only with thin sponge rubber. This type of seat often is extremely hazardous! Also avoid any seats made with sharp or pointed hardware that is not protected.

Make sure you use the right type of restraining system for the size and age of your child. Infants up to nine months can be placed in an infant car seat or infant carrier. Children eight or nine months up through four years will be safe in a child car seat or a child harness. Vehicle lap belts and shoulder belts should be worn by children four to five years old who are at least 55 inches in height.

A very informative booklet concerning the purchase of car seats entitled, "What to Buy in Child Restraint Systems," is available for 20 cents. Write to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402.

And while you're checking to see if your children are safe, make sure to buckle up your own lap and shoulder belt. You'll set a good example while insuring your own safety.

More Quick Candy Recipes

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

THE QUICK AND EASY candy recipes have been very popular. Here are more recipes for quick sweets and for good pineapple cookies. They are fruit flavored and stay moist. They will freeze well, if they last long enough to get to the freezer. Mrs. Connie Urbanczyk served pineapple at the club meeting the other day and they are quite good. These will be good too.

QUICKEST YET CANDY
Large Marshmallows
Hot cream or evaporated milk
Vanilla

Dip marshmallows in hot cream, flavored with vanilla, until outsides of marshmallows are soft. Roll in finely ground pecans or other nuts, moist shredded coconut, or chocolate decorates; flatten slightly. Chill.

CHOCOLATE PEANUT BUTTER PUFFS
2 C. miniature marshmallows
1 - 6 oz. pkg. (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1 1/2 c. chunk-style peanut butter
2 lb. butter or margarine
Arrange marshmallows in a square cake pan (8x9x2"). Melt chocolate pieces, peanut butter and butter over low heat in a saucepan, stirring constantly. Pour chocolate mixture over marshmallows and smooth into the crevices. Refrigerate and cut into pieces. Remove candy to room temperature about 30 minutes before serving. Yields: 3 dozen pieces. You could use large marshmallows, if you prefer.

PINEAPPLE DROP COOKIES
Cookies:
1/2 c. butter or margarine
1 c. brown sugar
1 egg
1 tsp. vanilla
2 c. sifted flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. baking soda

2 lb. soft butter or margarine
Yellow food coloring
3 lb. pineapple juice
Mix ingredients. Tint icing with yellow food coloring. Yields: 5-6 dozen.

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: JACQUES AUGUSTUS, THE TROUBADOUR, CANNOT LEAVE THE LADIES ALONE AND ONCE MORE HAS TO BE RESCUED AND PRINCE VALIANT IS ANGRY. "ONE MORE OF YOUR SILLY ESCAPADES AND WE LEAVE YOU ASHORE!"

WHEN THE SHIP ROUNDS CAPE FINISTERRE JACQUES WISHES HE HAD BEEN LEFT ASHORE, FOR THEY ARE NOW IN THE BAY OF BISCAY AND MEET THE USUAL HEAD WINDS AND WINTER STORMS.

THEY TAKE SHELTER IN A SAFE HARBOR FOR REPAIRS AND SUPPLIES AND A MUCH NEEDED REST.

NEWS OF THEIR ARRIVAL REACHES THE LORD OF THE PROVINCE AND HE INVITES THEM TO THE CASTLE. FOR IT IS A GREAT HONOR TO ENTERTAIN A PRINCE AND KNIGHT OF THE ROUND TABLE.

DOWN THE DUSTY ROAD THAT LEADS TO THE TOWN COMES A GROUP OF TUMBLERS SEEKING EMPLOYMENT FOR THEIR SKILLS. AT THE CITY GATES THEY HEAR THAT THE LORD OF THE PROVINCE IS PREPARING A FEAST AND IS IN NEED OF ENTERTAINERS.

PRINCE VALIANT AND ARN ARE THE HONORED GUESTS AND THEY BRING JACQUES ALONG, AND JACQUES LOSES NO TIME IN DISPLAYING HIS ART. HE IS SUPERB, AND VAL HAS TO ADMIT THAT HE EVEN EXCEEDS HIS BOASTINGS.

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
If you have lightweight, mostly unframed pictures that you wish to hang temporarily (maybe the kids' art work), here is a dandy little tip using the glue-backed tape that so many people use when wrapping packages for mailing.

Take a piece of the tape (make sure it's the tape you have to dampen on the glue side to stick) and cut off a piece about two inches long. Fold this piece in the middle with the glue sides together (not dampened.) Then, using a hole punch, make a hole in the center of the tape near the folded end.

Then take the end of the tape opposite the fold and turn back a half-inch so that the sticky side is sunny side up.

Wet this sticky area showing and apply to the back of the picture, and you have a made-to-order hanger in no time at all.

If your picture is rather large—use a larger piece of tape.

Mrs. Marjorie Craig

Marjorie, that is a pretty nifty little idea! I'd say your little invention is worth its weight in gold when "hanging" is the name of the game.

Thanks ever so much for tipping us off.

Heloise

LETTER OF THOUGHT

DEAR HELOISE:
When I have a problem with the children I turn to my husband.

When I have a problem with my housework I turn to Heloise.

But, when I have a spiritual problem, I turn to God!

Mrs. Gordon Henslee

CONTAIN YOURSELF!

DEAR HELOISE:
I save all those little miniature plastic containers with lids that you sometimes get at the drive-in filled with catsup, taco sauce, etc.

I fill them with salt and put them in the picnic basket when we go on an outing.

Just before we eat I punch a couple of holes in the top of each container and every one has an individual saltshaker.

It's especially good when having corn on the cob and there is no more pleading, "Hurry up with the salt!"

Weezy Wilson

ONLY ON SUNDAES

DEAR HELOISE:
I crush peanuts with my rolling pin and add to maple syrup.

It is marvelous over ice cream for a special treat.

Mrs. E. M.

EASY AS CAKE!

DEAR HELOISE:
I recently read a hint in your column where the lady took batter when baking and made a sample cake.

I thought this might be another idea: Make a couple of small sample cakes each time you bake and then give them to an elderly person in your neighborhood who might not bake much any more.

I know they will love your thoughtfulness and you'll feel better for having done it.

Hilda Patch

A TAXING PROBLEM

DEAR HELOISE:
For years I have kept a record of all prescriptions for the year.

I have taken a sheet of notebook paper and drawn vertical lines on it. I mark it off in eight columns. The column-headings are: patient, month & day, doctor, prescription, number, amount, and pharmacy.

This comes in handy at income tax time.

Kansanite

PULL UP YOUR SOCKS!

DEAR GALS:
Men, you may disregard this!

When you put on a pair of those fantastic nylon panty hose, did you ever have trouble pulling them up so that the panty part fits and they don't bag?

I sure do...!

After they are on and you want some more pull to make them fit—just run your hands under the water faucet—shake 'em only a little bit and grab your ankle.

Then run both hands up your leg as if you were giving yourself a "rub-up" (down?) and the hose will give beautifully... fits as if you were poured into them, gals.

Skinny Legs Heloise

TODAY IS BLUE

DEAR HELOISE:
Here's another hint for scraps of orlon (not wool) yarns.

I use the colorful scraps to tie around the hangers of dresses that I want to find in a hurry.

As a working girl, dressing is such a chore and this saves lots of time. You could use different colors and manage a system of your own.

They brighten up the closet too.

Kit

SUPPORTING CAST

DEAR HELOISE:
How about using small gold cup hooks for supporting the philodendron vine and similar vines? They screw beautifully into those wooden posts.

They suit the purpose to a T and also add a bit of color.

Catherine Lucy

GROW A DIARY

DEAR HELOISE:
Our little ones grow up so fast. We love to cherish each day of their lives and be able to remember each moment. That, I know, is impossible.

I went to the dime store and bought a current year book. It cost about one-dollar. Each night before I go to bed, I write down what the children have done all day—as well as myself and their Dad.

You know kids. They are always into mischief, saying something very funny or very tender and loving. I want to remember as much as I can.

I thought other mothers might like to do the same for their children. Don't you know the kids will have a ball reading it when they are grown?

A Loving Mother

TURN AN OLD LEAF

DEAR HELOISE:
Recently, I bought some of those large lawn-and-leaf-sized plastic bags.

Without a stand, it would take four or more hands to use them. However, I only have two, and the leaves needed raking, so I took the stand from one of my TV trays, put the large bag down through the center and folded the top over the outside of the stand.

This keeps the bag open and ready for grass and leaves.

● FARSIGHTED? So far as is known, there is no such thing as a RISCO. But, put two letters in front of it and the same two letters after it and you'll really come up with a sight to behold. What two letters are needed?

● Suppose you are an artist painting a picture. What colors should you use for the sun and wind? Give-up? Why, the sun rose and the wind blue.

● How is it possible to put nine pigs in four pens so that there is an odd number of pigs in each of the pens? Try it with pencil and paper.

● Tongue Tester: Two turtles tickled a toad as six snakes snickered. Repeat as fast as you can.

ESP, ANYONE? Ask a friend to be seated. Turn your back toward him. Tell him to cross one leg - you'll discover which - over the other and to raise the corresponding hand (i.e. left leg, left hand).

After a few seconds, ask him to uncross his leg and to place both hands before him, palms down (see above). Now, looking at his hands, it is perfectly obvious which hand was up - and therefore which leg - for the blood will have drained from the hand that was raised causing the skin to be pale.

Try it on yourself, first, then see how many of your friends you can impress.
