

Pioneer Cited For Safe Work Record

Employees of Pioneer Natural Gas Company serving in the Hereford District have passed the million man hours mark without a single lost-time accident.

The Hereford District of the company's service area includes the communities of Canyon, Dimmitt, Friona, Vega and Bovina, as well as Hereford. Some 57 employees work in the district.

From May 13, 1960, through Feb. 5 of this year, 1,000,122 man hours were registered without an employee being involved in a work-related accident which caused him to be unable to work for any period of time.

For their safety record, employees of the Hereford District were honored Thursday at a dinner hosted by Pioneer at Dickie's Restaurant in Hereford. Plaques from both the National Safety Council and the Southern Gas Association recognizing the safety accomplishment of the employees were presented at the dinner.

Burton P. Smith, company president, presented the National Safety Council Plaque and K. Bert (Tex) Watson, executive vice president, presented the plaque from the Southern Gas Association.

Manuel B. Edquist, vice president, presented each of the employees with a gift certificate in appreciation of their safety record.

Dale Young, Hereford district manager, pointed out at the dinner that the Hereford district employees have logged an additional 25,270 man hours without a lost-time accident since Feb. 5, bringing the total to date to 1,025,392.

and Shirley Elementary addition.

The drawings will not be made available to contractors, and bids will be opened at 7 p.m. May 29.

Discussion of construction design for a new elementary school and a possible survey to discover the opinions of school staff and faculty members, was another subject for board members.

The board decided to conduct a survey of all teachers and administrators to find out their opinions on the new elementary school. The board also decided that surveys should be conducted to this group before other major decisions are made by the board.

The final topic discussed by the board was the regional workshop of the Texas Association of School Boards which will be held Wednesday at the West Texas State University Activities Center.

Roy Hartman, Hereford School Superintendent, will lead a group discussion on "Communications," at the workshop.

mospher would aid those who are unable to hold a job without special training.

In addition, and unlike the present set-up of the city's satellite school, Wooldridge said that the center would switch the emphasis from pre-school students to a remedial or pre-vocational program for those students who might be unprepared for the sheltered workshop atmosphere, but who could not be helped through a public schools program.

"What we're talking about," he said, "is switching emphasis from pre-school to a vocationally-oriented and consulting service program."

The May 14 meeting will hopefully result in an assessment of the community's needs, and give an indication as to whether the state-sponsored program would or would not be plausible in the Hereford area.

be named as a player on the North All-Star basketball team which plays the South All Stars on Aug. 1 at the Texas High School Coaches Association School.

He was a three-sport letterman this past season, earning honors in football, basketball and golf, and for the past two years has been recognized on the district, area and state level as one of the top football and basketball players.

Although he broke a foot during the past basketball season, Kitchens was still recruited by a large number of colleges as either a football or basketball player. He recently signed a letter of intent to play basketball at Texas Tech University.

The broken foot led to Kitchens' first try at the golf team, since he was unable to prepare for the track season, and he would up as the No. 3 golfer in the district. He was named last week as the outstanding football and golf player at the All Sports Banquet.

Kitchens was selected by coaches as "Player of the Year" in District 4-AAA in both football and basketball as a junior, and tied for the honor in football the past season. He was named on various area "super" teams the past two years, and Texas Football Magazine picked him as one of the "blue-chip" quarterbacks this season.

Mays and High were named for the monthly awards for earning berths in the state track meet May 4-5. Mays will be a half-mile competitor, and High is going in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles. Mays, a senior, set a school and district record this year in the 880. High is a junior.

Miss Bolinger was recognized for outstanding achievement in volleyball after being chosen an "all-district performer." She also made an all-tourney team and was named by coaches as the most valuable player in the district.

Knox and Stagner were cited for "outstanding support of school athletic programs and the community" when receiving their achievement certificates. Both men have been active in the booster club here for many years, and avid supporters of Whiteface teams.

Cumpton was cited for his successful track program, which resulted in a district championship this year, and for "dedication and loyalty" to other athletic programs. He was director of the Deaf Smith C of C track meet this season.

Wright.

James Hull, general manager, reported that there are now 2,334 members in the Deaf Smith REC. He also reported that because of weather conditions this past year, the Coop suffered a $46,800 loss in repairing lines and poles.

Because of the increase in wholesale power rates, and the government's decision to eliminate the REA direct loan program, a resolution dealing with mortgages and loans was adopted at the meeting. Langley pointed out that since 1944, the REC's interest rate has been 2 per cent but is now up to 7 per cent. The Deaf Smith REC was fortunate to obtain one of the last loans approved in 1972 by REA under the direct loan program.

Alton Higginbotham, general manager of Light House Electric in Floydada, representing the National REC, presented a safety re-accreditation certificate to the Deaf Smith REC. Eldred Brown, a director, accepted the award on behalf of the cooperative. It was pointed out that this was the second year for the cooperative to receive the award. Brown expressed appreciation to the employees who made the award attainable.

A.W. Anthony, Jr. gave the board of directors' report for the year. "We feel our three major problems are in financing," he said. "In our opinion they are wholesale power cost, interest rates, reserves and capital credits," he pointed out. The REC buys its power from Southwestern Public Service.

"The new contract calls for a 12 percent increase, which we feel is fair," he said. He went on to say that since the REC was organized in 1937, rates have not been raised but have been lowered. He said the board feels that there could be an eight percent increase in rates this year, but it has not been decided yet.

Anthony also pointed out to the crowd that there possibly would not be any patronage refund checks at the annual meeting next year. "Most neighboring cooperatives have not paid refund checks in several years," he said. "In the past we have had one million dollars in reserves for disasters and now our reserve is down to $400,000," he reported. "We now have plant investments of approximately $10 million with projections that show continued growth in 1973," he said.

Door prizes were given throughout the afternoon with Mrs. R.L. Dodson, 406 McKinley, Hereford, being the winner of the grand prize, an electric clothes dryer.

Tourist Dollars Provide Boost To State's Economy

AUSTIN—Last year auto visitors from other states and nations spent money in Texas equivalent to $136.40 for every resident Texan. The Texas Highway Department's annual Visitor Industry Report, released today, revealed that out-of-staters left $1.6 billion in Texas during 1972. Calling tourism an "industry without smokestacks," Tom H. Taylor, director of the department's Travel & Information Division, described tourist dollars as "new" money. "Those dollars that are earned elsewhere and dropped whole in Texas," said Taylor, "are a prime reason for the current strength of our state's economy."

Throughout last year the Highway Department tallied 16.6 million visitors who came to Texas by autos, campers, and other motor vehicles. Although the total was only about one per cent more than the previous year, the daily rate of spending increased by 21 per cent. Taylor also commented on the benefits of tourist dollars in relation to state taxes. "The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research calculates that 8.9 per cent of every visitor dollar goes to state taxes," he said. "That means those out-of-staters paid more than $141 million of our taxes last year."

The detailed report indicates that more than half of all auto visitors came to Texas for vacation reasons. That proportion of pleasure travel has changed only slightly in recent years. However, the report notes that business visits—including conventions—have mushroomed by nearly 600 per cent since 1968.

Another factor that bears upon greater visitor expenditures was an increase in the average length of stay. The typical auto visitor party spent 6.0 days in Texas during 1972. For nightly accommodations, hotels hosted 46 per cent. Hotels, camping, trailers, private homes and other facilities shared the remainder. Continuing a trend noted in recent years, last year's tourists demonstrated that they are a wide-ranging breed. On the average they traveled 1,222 miles in Texas.

The report also indicates the relative affluence of Texas visitors. Nearly half enjoy incomes about $12 thousand a year, and another 29 per cent earn from $8 to $12 thousand annually.

Other details in the report list visitor age groups, destinations, average size of party, expenditures per day, what tourist dollars buy; and elements of the Highway Department's overall promotion program. More than 38 thousand questionnaires from actual traveling groups were used in compiling the report. The questionnaires were supplemented by more than 10 thousand hours of visual and mechanical traffic counts on the highways.

DPS Accepts Applications For Patrolman Positions

AUSTIN—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today the DPS is accepting applications for appointment to the post of patrolman.

And for the first time since the State law enforcement agency was created in 1935, female applicants will be considered for patrolman positions.

Also, the DPS director noted that the department has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to patrolman positions and said efforts in this direction will continue.

Speir said general qualifications for DPS patrolmen are these: Applicants must be 20 through 36 years of age (inclusive); good moral character; excellent physical condition; height not less than 68 inches nor more than 76 inches; weight not less than two pounds nor more than 3½ pounds per inch of height; visual acuity no worse than 20-40 correctable to 20-20; and a citizen of the United States. Educational requirements are a minimum of 30 semester hours of college credit.

Persons selected as cadets will be assigned to Austin for an 18-week training school beginning June 26 at the DPS Academy. The salary during training will be $600 per month, and room and board during this period will cost the cadet approximately $55 per month.

Speir said upon being commissioned a patrolman, the salary is automatically raised to $743 monthly. Patrolmen receive additional longevity pay for each five years of service to 25 years. They are also granted a monthly uniform cleaning allowance, and receive travel expenses when away from their station.

Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee, and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Patrolmen participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees.

Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol, License & Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service according to the needs of DPS and consideration of personal preference.

Patrolmen are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for appointment to positions in the Criminal Law Enforcement Division, which includes Narcotics, Intelligence, Motor Vehicle Theft and Texas Ranger Services as vacancies occur.

Speir said applicants should contact any DPS office or patrolman for an application. The completed application form should then be taken to the nearest regional, district or sub-district DPS office where the competitive examination is given.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to beginning of the June recruit school.

Herd Edged By Plainview, 3-2

The Hereford Whitefaces lost a close, 3-2, extra-inning baseball game at Plainview Friday as the Bulldogs pushed across a run in the ninth frame. The well-played contest was knotted at 2-2 after the regular seven innings, then Plainview put together three singles to score the deciding run in the ninth. Stan Branham's third hit drove in the winning run for Plainview.

Singles by Ricky Peters and Carey Black had pulled the Herd even at 1-1 in the second frame. After Plainview took a 2-1 lead, the Whitefaces knotted the score again in the fifth on Terry Poindexter's double and Dwayne Davison's single. Ricky Locke absorbed the mound defeat, yielding 10 hits but walking only one and striking out six. Eddie Hen-

If a leaky faucet, leaking at the rate of 90 drops per minute, is on your hot water line, you waste 279 cubic feet of natural gas on the water that drips away.

New Owners Happy About Move

Sunny's Mister Shop, 319 North Main, is now open for business under new ownership, it was recently announced by the store's new owners, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Frazier.

Formerly of Indiana and later Amarillo, the couple is optimistic about their new home and business in Hustlin' Hereford.

Mrs. Frazier is a former Hereford resident, and grew up and attended schools in the city. After finishing through her sophomore year in high school here, she moved with her parents to Clarksville, Indiana.

Frazier said that the store will celebrate a grand opening under the new name, Abbie's Mister Shop, which he takes from his wife. He said that the grand opening will take place in about a month, after expected new merchandise arrives.

"We're waiting for new merchandise right now," he said. "We plan to add fashion style and continued quality."

"We were looking for a good business," he said, "and this was the best we found."

Mrs. Frazier is equally optimistic about the venture, and about the move back to her home town.

"It's good to be back," she says. "There's no place like Hereford."

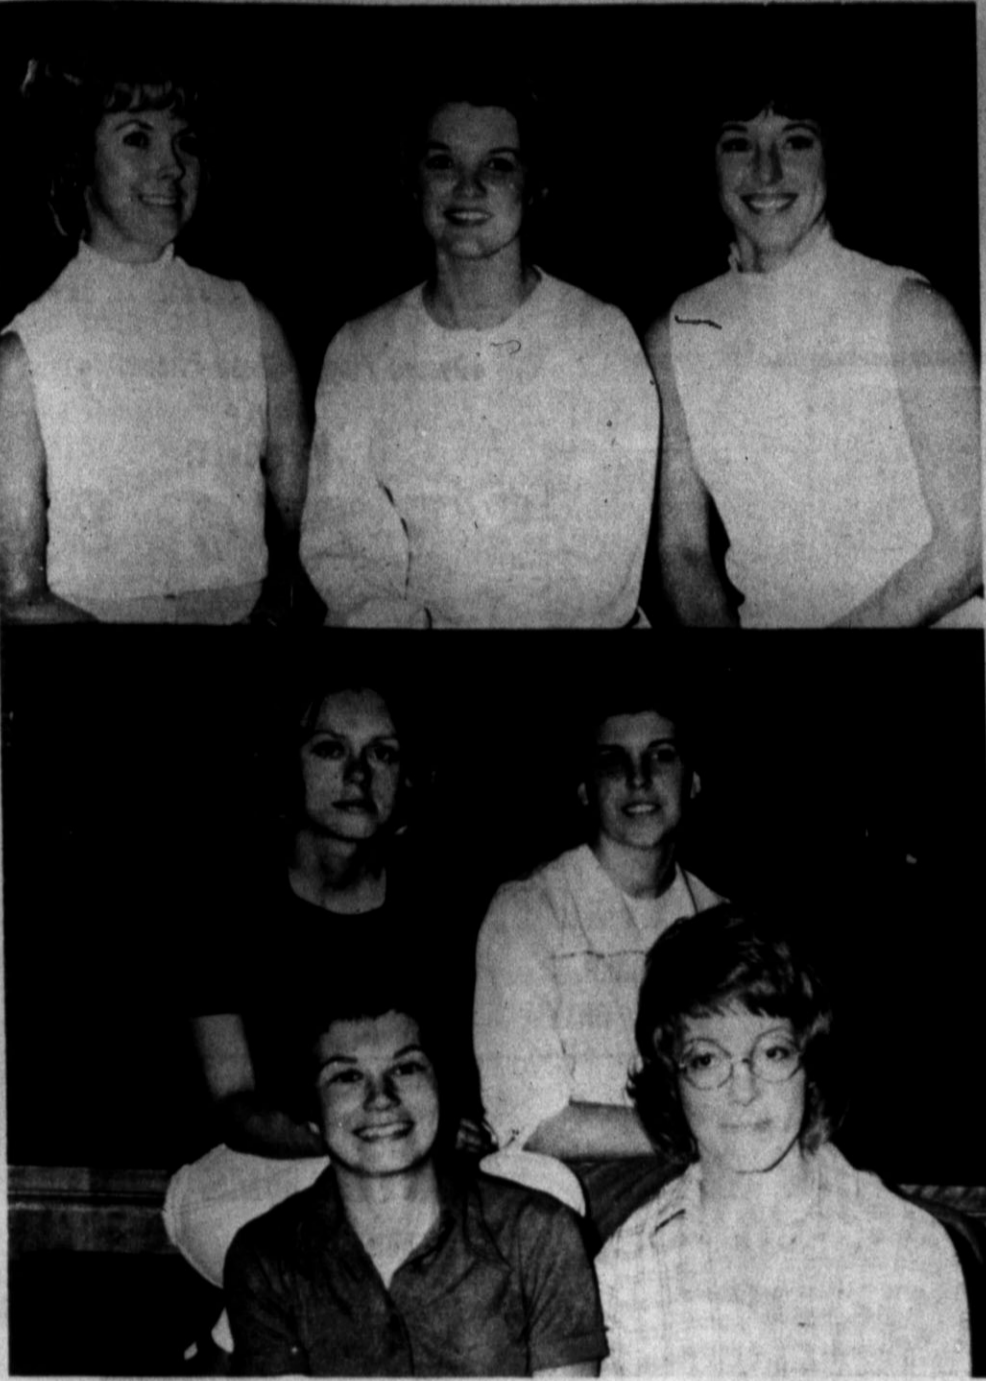

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Frazier

747 wing design is an efficient one

A 747's wing is so efficient that the superjet with all four engines idling can travel 17.3 miles forward for each 5,280 feet it descends. This 17.3-to-1 glide angle is even better than that of modern light planes (up to about 12-to-1), but the glide speed is higher — Mach .825

'Special Dividend' For Vets Is 'Hoax'

Benny Womble, Veterans Service officer for Deaf Smith County, has a message of utmost importance for all veterans of World War II. This message concerns a false report that is currently circulating across the country, urging veterans to apply to the Veterans Administration for their "special" insurance dividend.

Thus, any veteran who applies for the "special" dividend mentioned in these reports is in reality wasting his time his efforts, and the money spent for postage.

Any veteran who is legally entitled to an insurance dividend from the Government will receive an official individual notice of the amount of his entitlement, and no heed should be paid to the false "special" dividend rumor.

A law passed last year makes it a federal offense to tamper with an odometer. Now, anyone selling a car in the U.S. must say whether he can vouch for mileage on the odometer, says Mrs. Doris Myers, homemanager specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

The story is completely false, and is nothing more than a cruel hoax, since no such legislation has been enacted by the Congress.

A special dividend was paid in 1949 and 1950 to veterans who carried National Service Life Insurance during World War II. This was only a one-time payment, although annual dividends are still being paid to those veterans who have continued to keep their old GI insurance in force.

This false story seems to surface every two or three years, and all veterans are urged to recognize this "special" dividend rumor as a hoax. The Congress, in 1970, passed a "Stale Claims Act" which relieves the VA from the responsibility of processing claims which might be made as a result of this false story.

Social Security

Retirement is a most delightful time for many people. It is thought of as a time of leisure and freedom from day to day responsibilities of a job.

Unfortunately, it is still necessary to comply with other responsibilities connected with retirement, according to Travis C. Briggs, social security manager. For example, the social security office should be notified promptly if any change occurs which may affect monthly payments — such as change in mailing address or going to work for more than $2100 a year. Reporting is necessary when beneficiaries become unable to manage their own funds or die.

Dependents and survivors receiving benefits under social security should also report marriage, divorce, adoption, change in school attendance, etc. Reports may be made by mail, in person, or by telephone. A "Reporting Card" may be obtained from any social security office.

"Failure to make these reports timely could result in overpayments which would have to be paid back to social security," Briggs concluded.

Q. I understand the recent change in the law provided for Medicare coverage for people under 65. Is this correct?

A. Yes. The change in the law provided for Medicare coverage for some disabled persons under age 65.

Q. Who is eligible for Medicare under this recent change?

A. Those persons who have been receiving social security or railroad retirement disability checks for two years or more will be eligible. Coverage cannot begin before the 25th month of entitlement to benefits, or July, 1973, whichever occurs later.

Joycelyn Aven and Kevin Sanders are entrants in public speaking for girls and boys. In the junior division are Lee Ann Umstead, clothing, Julie Chapman and Kelly Scoggins, natural resources, Gina Inman, food and nutrition.

"HELP"—The beautification committee of the Women's Division of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce is crying out for help from residents to aid in beautifying Hereford. A community-wide clean-up campaign, sponsored by the C of C women, began last weekend and continues through next weekend. During this time, the committee urges individual property owners to tidy up their grounds. Keeping alleys and vacant lots clean is the property owners responsibility, not the city's.

Key Club Goes To State Meet

Hereford Kiwanians sent 30 Key Club members to the district convention in Houston this weekend, with Bobby Owen and Lloyd Crume representing the Hereford Kiwanis Club and Betty Owen going as sponsor for the club sweetheart.

The group left Thursday night and will return Sunday night. The youngsters were scheduled to see Astro World Friday night.

Funds for the trip were raised at the Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper, and the group went by chartered bus.

regular hours at the CableVision office, located on East Third at the site of the former chamber of commerce office, have not been set up.

"Regular office hours will probably be set up in a few weeks with individual sign-up and hook-up to follow soon after," Formby said.

Due to the wet and windy weather, the underground installation of strand and cable has been delayed, but according to Formby, work in the northern part of the city installing the underground system will begin Monday.

Lesson In Making Bread Given Club

Making cinnamon rolls, the mainbread for entry in this year's county 4-H Bake Show, was demonstrated to Merry Maidens 4-H Club at a meeting this week in Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

In the business session members gave a vote of appreciation to everyone who helped make the first annual 4-H Bean and Cornbread Supper a success last weekend. They expressed thanks to all who worked on the supper and those who attended it.

DSC Museum Workers

Will Attend Seminar

Mrs. Austin Rose and Mrs. George Turrentine, officers in the Deaf Smith County Historical Association, plan to attend a seminar on basic principles of museum operation in Lubbock Friday. The seminar is sponsored by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.

More than 100 persons involved in planning or operating museums in the Lubbock area are expected to attend the program to be held in the Museum of Texas Tech University beginning at 8:30 a.m.

Top-ranking museum professionals will speak on how to form museum collections, documentation and research in the museum, exhibit techniques, educational programs, conservation of artifacts and documents, and operating a historic house museum.

Mrs. Turrentine and Mrs. Rose have been actively working with the Deaf Smith County Museum since it was founded.

LionsHear Telephone Talk At Club

Roy Wickerham, science demonstrator for Southwestern Bell Telephone, presented a special program for the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday at Civic Club Center.

Wickerham outlined the improvements and progress in telephones and communication, and illustrated what research is planning for the future. Mike Patrick, local SWBT manager, introduced the program. James Hull was program chairman for the week.

During the club's regular weekly luncheon meeting, president Nolan Grady announced that the annual Pancake Supper netted the club $1,881. Members voted to give the proceeds to the Camp Fire Girls and Boy Scouts, based on the number of tickets sold by the groups.

Pam Whitley and Kent Ellis were recognized as the "students of the six weeks" from La Plata Junior High.

A.J. Schroeter announced final details for the district convention being held in Hereford, and Bill Lamm had signs and banners for members to place in business windows.

Grady also announced that the board had approved increasing the amount of the Lion scholarship from $300 to $400. Directors also voted to increase the amount of travel expense to the International Convention from $300 to $400.

County Club Federation Lunch Slated

All women of this county, whether or not they are members of clubs in the Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs, are invited to the spring meeting of the Federation at noon Monday in Community Center.

A covered dish luncheon will precede the program, to be given by members of Hereford Community Players. Anyone interested is invited to bring a dish for the lunch and come to the meeting.

Hostess clubs are Summerfield Study, Ceramic Art and Garden Beautiful. Mrs. Jim Bookout is program chairman and Mrs. L.H. Lookingbill Sr., president, will conduct business.

Protests Pay Off On Program

Protest petitions, court action, and political pressure paid off for farmers this week when the Farmers Home Administration announced the reopening of the Disaster Loan Program. Hundreds of farmers in over two hundred Texas counties who suffered crop losses as a result of drought between January 1 and June 19 of 1972 are now eligible to apply for the $5,000 Disaster Loan at a low interest rate with a forgiveness provision. Texas Farmers Union president Jay Naman of Waco hailed the announcement of the program reopening as a "great victory for farmers." Naman said that farmers were successful in accomplishing the reopening of the important program because of their organized efforts using political pressure and court action.

"Hundreds of family farmers who were stricken by disaster last year will now have a new lease on life and will be able to get the financing that they need to continue farming," Naman said. "Farmers Union never gave up when President Nixon announced the cancellation of the Disaster Loan Program. Texas farmers organized petition campaigns to show the Administration and members of Congress the need to restore the program. Minnesota Farmers Union coordinated successful legal action that was brought by a group of farmers in that state against the Secretary of Agriculture and Farmers Home Administration officials. The court action plus the organized political effort of farmers was responsible for the restoration of the Disaster Loan Program.

"We urge that all farmers eligible for a disaster loan make application at their county Farmers Home Administration office before the May 8 deadline.

BARBRA STREISAND plays an off-beat San Francisco girl in Warner Bros. Technicolor comedy "What's Up, Doc?," which was produced and directed by Peter Bogdanovich. The Saticoy production also stars Ryan O'Neal.

'What's Up Doc?' Comedy Coming To Star Theatre

Having proven herself a touching and sometimes funny actress in four spectacular motion pictures that together cost around $45,000,000, Barbra Streisand is now appearing in her fifth. It is a high-spirited comedy, full of word gags, sight gags and Barbara Streisand. It is Warner Bros. "What's Up, Doc?" which opens on May 2 at the Star Theatre.

In "What's Up, Doc?" Miss Streisand plays Judy Maxwell, a San Francisco girl with an encyclopedic mind, a capricious way of thrusting herself into other people's lives, and enough idiosyncrasies to make your head swim. Ryan O'Neal co-stars as a musicologist on convention with a traveling case full of primitive rocks. "What's Up, Doc?" was produced and directed by Peter Bogdanovich from a screenplay by Buck Henry and David Newman and Robert Benton.

AEC predicts nuclear energy boom in U.S.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission recently forecast that nuclear generating capacity in this country will grow to 1.2 billion kilowatts by the end of this century — over 80 times the present level of about 14.7 million kilowatts. The commission also predicts that by the year 2000 breeder reactors will account for about one-third of the nation's nuclear capacity, or about 400 million kilowatts — approximately the amount of all electric generating capacity installed in the United States today.

Export Situation Key To Outlook On Grains

COLLEGE STATION—The export situation is the key to the long-term outlook for feedgrains.

"If export sales continue at our near current volumes, above average prices are anticipated at harvest," says Roland Smith, grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "However, if the U.S. returns to a low level of export marketing, prices of grain could be sharply reduced."

Massive grain purchases by the Soviet Union beginning last July are having a major impact on the current U.S. grain situation. Soviet wheat imports are projected to be four times that of 1971 and the U.S. will supply most of this trade. U.S. exports of corn, grain sorghum and soybeans are up due to production problems in many foreign countries.

"Domestic grain usage has gone up as well," points out

Smith. "Increase in livestock numbers is the primary cause. Cattle on feed last fall were up 19 per cent in the Southwest—30 per cent in Texas."

Severe cold, wet weather this past winter also brought increased livestock feeding, according to the specialist, thus adding to the demand for grain. What about the supply situation?

"Production should reach near record levels in 1973," contends Smith. "Nationwide, feedgrain acreage should increase about seven per cent. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's decision to reduce the 'set-aside' acres for the feedgrain program has promoted increased plantings."

"Grain sorghum acreage in Texas should be up about 10 per cent over 1972 while soybeans should show a phenomenal 56 per cent increase," says Smith.

"About 125,000 more acres will be planted to soybeans this year as a result of skyrocketing prices in 1972 and indications ahead. However, except for soybeans, acreages are still expected to be below 1971 levels."

Sun: 3 - 6 p.m.

So you've decided to sell your own house. Here's a little basic reading you should do first.

You might start with "Real Estate" by Husband and Anderson, 868 pages of theoretical (and rather stuffy) real estate principles. Then you really should read "The Real Estate Handbook," a definitive volume of the basic ABCs of real property sales and management. And of course "Advertising Real Estate Successfully" and "Mortgage Lending" cover a few of the specialized areas that will be important to you. And naturally, if you hope to get top dollar for your home, you should at least browse through "The Power of Creative Selling."

Or, you can phone a local Hereford area Realtor. He's probably already read all these books. More important, he's practiced what they preach. It's his business to know local and state codes, salesmanship, money availability and the hundreds of other things necessary for successful real estate practice.

Think about it: doesn't it make more sense to trust your valuable property to a professional?

The wedding will take place June 30 in Northway Christian Church of Dallas. Miss Roach, now director of physical therapy at Lubbock Medical Center Hospital, graduated from University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston in 1970 with a degree in physical therapy. She had attended Texas Tech after graduation from Hereford High School. Lt. McMahan returned recently after a tour of duty in Southeast Asia. He completed undergraduate pilot training at Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock, in January, 1972, and received a bachelor degree in mechanical engineering from Tech in 1970.

Cookbook Co-Authored By Hereford Women

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

DEAF SMITH COUNTRY Cookbook is the title of a new volume compiled by two Hereford women in collaboration with an Austin writer on foods, which will be reviewed Monday at a benefit tasting brunch in Amarillo College's new Art Center.

Mrs. Frank Ford and Mrs. Roger Hillyard worked with Mary Faulk Kooch, author of The Texas Cookbook, writer of foods features for some of the state's larger newspapers and conductor of Television foods programs, in preparing the new book which will reach bookstores next fall.

Mrs. Kooch will give the review Monday at 11 a.m. and again at 1 p.m. At 12 noon the brunch featuring food prepared from recipes in the book, will be served to persons from the audience of both reviews.

Admission is $5, with the money going to the Art Center. Reservations may be made today with Mrs. Ford.

PUBLISHED BY THE MACMILLAN Company, the book has recipes for all types of dishes for all meals, emphasizing grains and other foods produced in this area. It is to be presented by the publishing firm at the national booksellers convention in California in June and go on sale a few weeks later.

Somewhat surprised to find herself an author, Margie Ford says the book "just grew" from her husband's business, Arrowhead Mills. The firm frequently is asked for recipes to use the natural foods it produces, and also receives recipes from customers who have discovered new ways of using the products.

"Gradually, we had quite a collection, and we put some of the recipes in brochures sent out by the mills," Mrs. Ford says. She and Mrs. Hillyard, who now lives in a San Francisco suburb, had tried many of the recipes and evolved some of their own.

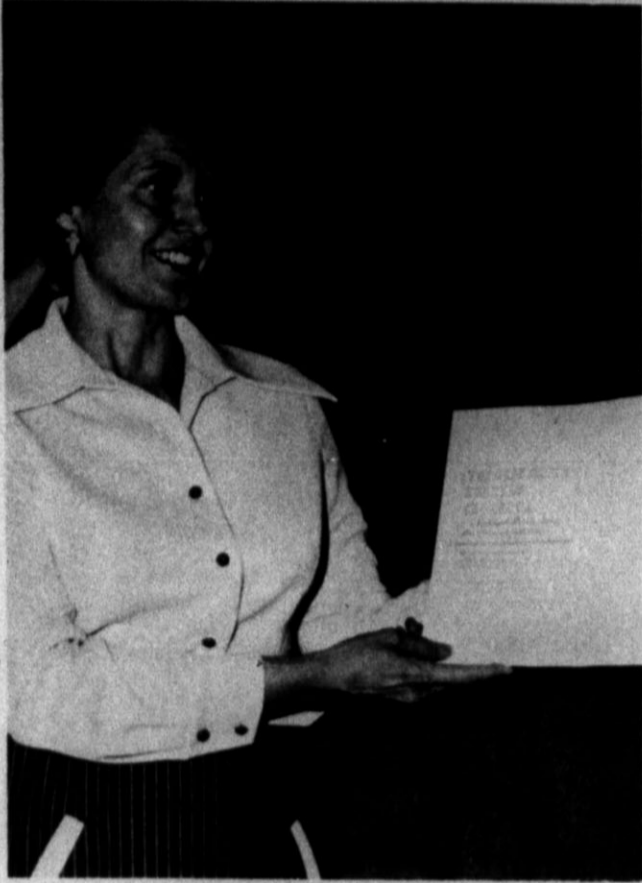

THE COOKBOOK IDEA actually began when Ray Sokoloff, food editor of the New York Times, visited the mills and wrote a feature about them and about Deaf Smith County food products, which drew a large response from Times readers.

"If I'd known who he was, I would have been scared to invite him to a meal," Mrs. Ford laughs, "but I served him some food he liked, and talked to him about recipes."

"After his article, we were contacted by publishers about a cookbook, and we liked the MacMillan offer. Mary Kooch got involved because her husband, interested in natural foods, had helped in distribution of our mills' products around Austin.

"We hoped she would write the book; she said she didn't know enough about natural foods but would work with us. All of us experimented and tried out all the recipes. All three of us wrote parts of the book, but decided it should be written in one style, so I did that."

"WE TRIED TO AVOID really odd dishes; the book is aimed, at ordinary cooking

Mrs. Frank Ford
...with proof of title page

although it has recipes for unusual things such as dishes made with mung and soy beans, and ordinary food used in unusual ways such as boiled wheat.

"The introduction tells who Deaf Smith was and why this county was named for him. His name was used in the title because the publisher feels it will appeal to readers, and they will want to know something about him. There is also a section describing the grains, beans and vegetables grown in this area."

Work on the book began about a year ago, Mrs. Ford said, and it went to the publisher in November. The authors give credit to Mrs. George Warner for much assistance, especially in testing recipes.

Small Talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

THEY SAY SANDY AND CINDY needn't worry about their laurels as Misses Hereford and Teenage Hereford, but a bunch of women from Central Church of Christ who staged a mock beauty pageant at the Ceta Glen church camp near Happy this week had a lot of fun.

They were attending a retreat but they mixed recreation into their program and enjoyed hiking about the canyon, as well as performing the skit.

When someone pointed out that their banners looked a little frazzled, and they considered discarding them, some ecology enthusiast suggested an alternative—recycling. So safety pins and glue were called into play and they went right on.

Who the winners were, I never found out, but Hereford women at the camp were Mmes. Dale Young, Alton Hollingsworth, Duane Wiley, Bob Hicks, Stan Knox, Norene Stallings, Jim Ward, Charles Minchew, Lynn Jones, Jigger

Rowland, Mike Robinson and Tom Burdett.

A SON, SCOTT ALLAN, born last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Parker of Orlando, Fla., is a person of consequence to Hereford folks because he is the grandson of the M.J. Koelzers, 611 Knight.

Mrs. Parker is the former Vicky Koelzer. Paternal grandparents of the new boy are the George Parkers of Orlando. Oh yes, the baby weighed 6 pounds 7 ounces at birth.

ON THE "A" HONOR roll for last semester at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches is the name of Margie A. Grady, senior from Hereford.

She was one of these top-ranking students who were honored recently at a banquet given by the Nacogdoches Boosters Club.

JIMMY CAROLYN JOHN- SON of 126 Ironwood, a senior in VELEDA OFFICERS NAMED—Elected this week to serve as Veleda Study Club officers next season, these six will be installed May 8. Mrs. Frank Zinser, standing right, is the new president and Mrs. Bill Walden, left, treasurer. From left, lower row, are Mrs. Gwynne Owen, correspondent; Mrs. John Poindexter, vice president; Mrs. Gid Brown, historian, and Mrs. Hugh Clearman, secretary. The election was held at a meeting in the Clearman home.

Golden Spread Chorus To Perform Tonight

The award-winning Golden Spread Chorus will make a special appearance tonight at the Music Stand beginning at 8 p.m. under the direction of Dale Neff, it was recently announced by Music Stand management.

The chorus is composed of approximately 25 area men, and is affiliated with the "Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc." All proceeds from Golden Spread Chorus performances are donated to the Institute of Logopedics, and the chorus' slogan is "We Sing That They May Speak."

Harold Close, owner of Harold Close Drugs in Hereford, is a member of the chorus, and a West Texas State University, was an initiate into Kappa Delta Pi, honor organization in education, this month. She majors in elementary education at WT.

Already much honored at WT, another Hereford girl, Martha Morgan, was presented the award as outstanding woman student in the school of business administration this week.

She was cited by Phi Gamma Mu, national business fraternity, at the annual convocation on the Canyon campus. The daughter of the Myron Morgans has made a 2.6 grade average on a 3.0 scale.

No admission will be charged for the performance, and the public, as well as Music Stand members, are invited to attend.

This little switch turns ON Texas.

Through this little switch last year there passed a war, a peace, three Presidents, a volcano, several earthquakes, the Candidates for State and National office, fireworks, Santa Claus . . . and Bruce Bruin's dalmation.

Little Bruce believed that his pet was a fire dog, so he set fire to his bed and waited for the dog to put it out. Damage was minor.

The Texas State Network carried the story of Bruce and his dog, through the microphone switch pictured here, to its 130 affiliated stations all over the state because we don't believe that all of the news has to be about violence, natural disaster, or politics.

No Turning Back

Part of the long range planning, and certainly one of the answers to a food problem, lies in the growing shortage of water in the Plains area.

The crisis will not come overnight, but solutions can't be found overnight, either. Any solution to the water problem has to be found years in advance.

We in Texas are not willing to accept the report of the Mississippi River Commission and Bureau of Reclamation who found that "Although there may be Mississippi River water available for diversion during some month of the year, the cost of diverting water to the High Plains is excessive."

In addition, "environmental impacts to the Gulf area and along the diversion route could be significantly adverse." Even worse, "in the absence of supplemental water supplies, the High Plains area will likely return to the type and extent of agricultural production existing prior to the introduction of irrigation in 1944, with crops and agricultural practices being limited to those that withstand the annual precipitation rates of about 20 inches."

In plainer English, the committee says when the water runs out, farmers in the High Plains will have to make the best of it by going back to strictly dry land farming.

Underlying the entire committee report is the fallacious assumption that providing irrigation water for the High Plains is merely boosting production of crops that are already in surplus and which cost the government a lot of money in subsidy payments and storage costs.

The commission needs to get updated. It is true that the cotton farm produces a crop for which there is not much demand. But irrigation farms in the High Plains area also produce a lot of other foodstuffs, notably corn, milo, wheat, soybeans, sugar beets, onions, lettuce, carrots, potatoes and many other food items that members of the commission no doubt expect to have on their table in plentiful supply from now on.

Maybe Texans can turn back to conditions in 1944 and go back to dryland wheat farming. But it will certainly be a step backward.

In Deaf Smith county, irrigation has meant a stabilization of crop income, and the milo produced under irrigation has fueled a giant cattle feeding industry here.

Take away the irrigation and the crops grown under irrigation, and we will indeed return to less costly farming practices, but also to a lot less income.

It will not serve anyone's best interest to let West Texas dry up, or to move West Texans to water, as some dreamers have suggested. More than economics or ecology is involved. We are dealing with people, rooted to the land and producing food for a hungry nation. We can't turn back the clock.

Clear Air

TODAY, it seems, nearly everybody up to and including the President's preacher is advising him to get the Watergate thing out in the open and over with. Regardless of the various motives behind it, we believe this is good advice, not only for the administration but for the country.

Last year, during the election campaign, the American voters rightly recognized the incident itself as a trifling example of political skulduggery and focused their attention on the crucial decision before them: Setting the future course of the nation. They did not forget Watergate, but they put it in perspective.

Since then, however, Watergate has not faded. It has grown in the public's attention. There is little point in decrying now the self-serving interests of the President's critics in the press or the opposition who have seized upon it, for this is natural in American political life. The President, who has spent most of his adult life in politics, surely knows the ways of the game and cannot be unduly surprised.

As a veteran politician, he must also know that nothing so excites the public's suspicion as an apparent cover-up by those in high places. That being the case, it should be clear that the administration's actions have probably had as much effect as those of the opposition in keeping this sordid little snafu in the forefront of the national scene. Smoke-screens have served chiefly to convince the public that there must be a fire somewhere.

And that situation has already existed for far too long to serve our national interests, to say nothing of the administration's own partisan sensitivities. It must be ended. The facts must be found that the guilty must be punished, so that the government can get back to the business of governing.

To an extent greater than most conservatives like, the White House now is the government. The strong presidential form of government that has grown up since the days of FDR may not be the ideal form, but it is the form upon which we now depend for leadership. Like it or not, the presidency is not the primary arm of representative government.

With the Congress weak, divided and irresponsible, Americans have come to depend on the presidency to translate their wishes into policy and action. Today the preoccupation with the Watergate incident is crippling the ability of the chief executive to fulfill that function, endangering the confidence of the public upon which he must rely.

The President cannot afford to let this mess drag on. Neither can the country.

"Okay—now toss me another one!"

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Twenty-five thousand tourists visited the U.S. Capitol on that recent day when the House voted to spend $68 million to extend the West Front of the Capitol by 80 feet, thus writing another chapter in a controversy that has raged for more than a decade.

A few hundred tourists were in the House galleries to witness the debate. They saw the closest vote of the year. When the new electronic voting system reached the deadline for voting, opponents of the extension led by a single vote only to have ditched votes allow passage by 195 to 189. The result was confirmed the following day when a recom-mittal motion failed, 215-185.

For the benefit of the millions of other taxpayers who were not at the Capitol, here is what the battle was all about. The issue was whether to spend at least $15 million to reconstruct and preserve the last remaining exposed exterior wall of the Capitol, built in the days of President George Washington and a survivor of the 1814 fire.

Alternatively, the proposal was to spend at least four times as much as restoration would cost to construct a brand new marble facade and add 270,000 square feet of office space, giving the Capitol a new look from the Mall side.

Not only do traditionalists abhor changing a national shrine but they figure the cost at a fantastic rate of $368 per square foot. Modern office buildings cost about $20 per square foot but of course these commercial commercial prices do not apply to Uncle Sam. Even proponents of the addition concede a cost of $80 per square foot. That would be a new world's record, topping even the $68 estimate for the still unfinished F.B.I. building now under construction a few blocks west on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Senate Majority Leader Thurgood Marshall has been scheming to extend the West Front for years and have never gotten as far as they are today. But the issue is not decided yet. The Senate must concur and has been unfavorably disposed in the past. A Senate vote is weeks away.

Arguments in favor of extending the West Front have changed over the years. Originally the claim was that the present sandstone wall is crumbling and repair is not feasible. That idea was quashed when Congress ordered an engineering study which showed restoration was possible, at a cost of $15 million.

Next the argument was made that expansion was necessary to accommodate tourists. There is a shortage of toilets for visitors, not to mention eating facilities. Then Congress decided to turn Union Station into a Visitors Center, with plenty of facilities including parking not available a few blocks away at the Capitol.

Nowadays tourists are not mentioned as a reason for extending the West Front. The extra space is now urgently needed for more offices. Opponents termed these "hideaways" for Congressional leaders, convenient to the floor. Veteran Senators now enjoy such second offices and ranking Representatives would like to be similarly privileged.

Actually, no floor plans for the new area have been made public. It has been officially disclosed that there will be a document room in the attic, the tally clerk's office on the fifth floor plus offices for other clerks, committees and the press. Apparently there will be no third or fourth floors because of high ceilings. On the second floor there will be auxiliary cloakrooms, reception and conference rooms. The Appropriation Committee will have space on the first floor, with members' offices in the basement.

Congressional Image Will Suffer

Congress does not enjoy a high reputation with the public. One reason is self-indulgence at taxpayer expense. Veteran Congressmen seem to forget they are public servants, not monarchs entitled to tap the till at will. The Capitol belongs to all Americans, not only those temporarily employed there.

The crumbling walls should be repaired at whatever cost is necessary to do a proper job. The historic design of the Capitol should be preserved, not altered so that Congressional leaders can get more office space. The need for extra space should be critically assessed by non-political experts with no axe to grind.

At last count, Congress had 362 committees and sub-committees, all with offices and staffs. A little paring here and there would end the need for more offices and more employees. That makes more sense than extending the West Front.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Dear editor:

Notes from a spring house-cleaning of my desk: I'll never understand politicians. Here some of them are trying to get a law passed giving reporters the right to refuse to tell what they know, whereas in some cases they'd be a lot better off with a law keeping reporters from telling what they know.

Despite the fact the economy is booming, there are six major railroads now bankrupt. Such a statistic is bad for national morale. Why doesn't Washington get the six to merge and then we could claim we have only one bankrupt railroad?

A new word has come out of Washington that I'm in favor of. On finding what he'd been saying for weeks was wrong, a press secretary explained to reporters that from now on all those other statements are "inoperative." I hope you will do everything you can to spread the use of this word. I'd like to be able to get by with telling my banker that my promise to pay that note six months later is now inoperative.

Some cities, trying to whip traffic congestion, are considering passing a law making it illegal for a commuter to come into the city in a car by himself. He's got to have three or four passengers with him or he won't be allowed in. This might reduce the number of cars, but not the number of people. What a choice: having to decide whether you want to be swamped by cars or people.

You can't get ahead of scientists. They've announced they're going to attempt to predict earthquakes, but I notice they've picked a spot where earthquakes have occurred periodically for years. If weather forecasters were as smart they'd stick to predicting the weather in the Sahara desert.

This doesn't quite clean off my desk, there're still some more things stacked on it, but I've learned, even if the Watergate people haven't, it doesn't pay to dig too deep.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY—The cork leg of Mexican General Santa Anna might have been returned to Mexico years ago except for an act of the Illinois Legislature.

The artificial leg (the second that the Mexican dictator is known to have lost in war) was taken during the U.S.-Mexican War when members of Company G, Fourth Illinois Infantry, captured Santa Anna on April 18, 1847 at Cerro Gordo. They took the leg as a war prize and it has reposed most of the time since in a storage vault at the Illinois capitol in Springfield.

According to "Riding Line," publication of the Southwestern Historical Association, a group of Democratic Illinois legislators wanted to return the leg to Mexico. In January, 1942, they introduced a resolution to that effect. Republican legislators objected, however, and added an amendment stating that "this action may leave the Democratic Party in this Special Session without a leg to stand on."

The resolution failed and Santa Anna's leg remains in Illinois. Now there is a movement to have the leg transferred to Texas for display either at the Alamo or at San Jacinto.

THE SHOW MUST GO ON—When Lillie Langtry, the actress whom Judge Roy Bean worshipped from afar, brought her troupe to Dallas on April 28, 1888, she was upstaged by a Texas-sized gully-washer.

The old Dallas Opera House had a tin roof, and one of the heaviest rains in the city's history hit just as "The Jersey Lily" began her role in "A Wife's Peril." The rain falling on the roof literally drowned out most of her lines, but the crowd minded not at all.

Miss Langtry was at the pinnacle of her career at the time—her fame due, in part, to the fact that Judge Bean, "the law west of the Pecos," named his Langtry saloon after the actress he admired but had never met. The name he painted on his watering place, however, was incorrect. She spelled it "Lillie," she was known as "The Jersey Lily" and it came out on Bean's saloon sign as "Lilly."

ADOPTED TEXAN—Senator George McGovern, the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for president of the United States last fall, is from South Dakota but once lived in Texas.

During World War II, he did his pre-flight training at San Antonio's Randolph Field. While stationed in Texas, he married Eleanor Stegeberg in a South Dakota ceremony, but brought his bride to Pampa, Gray County. The newlyweds lived there while McGovern was winning his wings at the Pampa Army Air Field.

IT'S THE LAW—In Texas, the crime of rape applies equally to both sexes.

While it is rare for a woman to be charged with rape, it does happen. In recent years, three women have been found guilty of the crime in Dallas County.

"A lily flower, the old Egyptian's emblematic mark of joy immortal and of pure affection." Wadsworth.

White lilies, symbolizing purity, have long been used to decorate church altars and homes at Eastertime. What reaction do you have to a beautiful, stately Easter lily? The parentage of the lily is most interesting.

Sally Hopkins, researcher, in writing about findings relative to lilies, states that the many trumpet-shaped Easter lilies grown in the U.S. today are descended from plants brought here from Bermuda, China and Japan.

It has been my experience that a study of the parentage of any of our plants is always interesting and often exciting. All Sometimes surprise one when they learn from whence the beautiful flowers originated.

For instance one would really not think of an onion when looking upon the loveliness of the lily. The lily family includes some interesting and surprising kindred. The onion, leek, garlic, and asparagus are all related to the lily.

One can enjoy Easter potted plants long after the happy day has passed. The fragrance and delightful sheen of the waxy lily blossoms can still bring delight to the recipient of an Easter potted lily. They can be kept alive and blooming.

Though grown as a forced bulb, the lily is a true perennial and can survive outdoor winters even in New England and Hereford. I have lilies which flower each year, and they were gifts to me at Easter. Some of the bulbs have been planted for nine or ten years.

Keep your flowering plant as long as there is promise of opening buds, and it is in flower. Place it in a sunny place and keep it moist. A cool and even temperature is conducive to keeping qualities. Room temperature should be kept at approximately 60 degrees.

As buds open, they yellow antlers should be snipped. These are the yellow sacs on the ends of long wands protruding from the center. By removing them you keep them from staining the petals, and also prevent pollination which would cause the bloom to fold up quickly. After all flowers are gone, keep plant growing actively in a sunny window.

When the plant has spent its blooms and the foliage begins to wilt it is time to replant in the yard.

A lily is a living plant—it is never truly dormant like a daffodil, tulip or any of the so-called dry bulbs. They should be planted when they are fresh. The soil should be well prepared. It should be neutral to slightly acid, fertile, with a large humus content.

To make ready to plant, dig a hole in good garden soil large enough to provide well for the bulb. Mix a cupful of superphosphate with peat moss and soil and fill the hole. Leaf mold and compost may also be used. Pack well.

Set the bulb which has been severed from the plant stalk, in the prepared soil. Pack firmly to avoid air pockets or water pockets. Use care to not bruise or crush the bulb, injury may permit disease to enter.

Do not plant bulb too deep, never more than four to six inches, depending on the size of bulb. As a rule the bulbs find their own best level. The roots pull the bulb down to the depth they prefer but they cannot push up.

After planting and tamping the soil, a mulch should be put on and maintained the year round as it keeps the soil cool and moist and that is how the lily bulb really likes it. A mulch can be made of leaf mold, a mixture of peat moss, vermiculite and or well rotted manure.

Since lilies are good eaters, a small amount of sulphur should be sprinkled over the soil and water in well. The market offers a special fertilizer for lilies.

Lilies do well in our area, and if you haven't grown them your garden is missing something which will add glamour, fragrance, and beauty. Regal lilies, rubrum, tigrum splendens, lycoris squamigeria (magic lily), madonna, and there are many lovely selections from the hybrids.

Lilies can also be grown from seed. Mrs. R.L. Wilson is a lover of lilies and grows excellent specimens.

HYDRANGEAS—Just as the lily likes food, the hydrangeas are great drinkers of water. The large-leaved plants with great heads of white, pink or blue flowers need lots of water. One grown in a 5 or 6 inch pot can well need water twice a day. Flowers break down when the plant dries out.

If the leaves wilt, you can prolong the blooms by setting the plant in bright light but not direct sun. It is well to have the potted plant in a shallow pan and water from the bottom.

If plant becomes badly wilted, sink the pot into a container of water and let it become saturated (do not cover foliage with water) and it should come back if it has not become too dry.

Hydrangeas can also be replanted outside, after having spent its bloom period. However often they do not bloom, but they do make pretty plants because of the foliage.

For winter they should be well protected. In years past I have had several plants to grow well and some have bloomed, but they too need extra feeding and attention.

Sympathy flowers.

Should you give them?

While giving flowers in time of loss may seem like a very natural thing to do, it's an act that has absolute, positive and concrete worth, too. For one thing, sympathy flowers are an immediate expression of sympathy. If you've ever tried to write a sympathy letter, you know how difficult it is.

Secondly, sympathy flowers can have a positive effect on the bereaved. Psychiatrists say people who undergo great personal loss have to do "grief work." Or, they must work out—by themselves—past relationships, the present loss and what the future will be like.

Sympathy flowers are a basis for such "grief work." Because by actually helping to place the arrangements and by reading accompanying messages, people make tangible, positive efforts to honor the deceased, and build for the future.

Flowers also fill a very human need for sentiment. Sentiment isn't pure emotionalism, but it isn't the opposite of rational thinking, either. It's a complex set of ideas, feelings and instincts. And flowers can add to sentiment by creating a background of warmth, beauty and, above all, life.

There are other contributions sympathy flowers make. And they're all positive ones.

We can help you with all kinds of flowers. By designing a personal, thoughtful floral tribute. Or by even suggesting alternatives to the traditional sympathy arrangement.

So we hope that when you want to give a sensitive, positive expression of sympathy, you'll consider flowers.

And that you'll consider us to help you with them.

Dear Mr. Farmer:

WE HAVE SOMETHING SPECIAL TO OFFER YOU THIS YEAR ON YOUR WHEAT INSURANCE...

Hail insurance on wheat is being written at present time. We are able to write this now at a considerable savings, (as much as $1.15 per $100.00).

We are writing milo insurance at the same rate as last year. This means about a 20 per cent cheaper rate than the 1972 normal rates.

Now is the time to insure; when you plant your crop. By doing so, it will assure you coverage when your milo comes up, and you will not have a forty eight hour waiting period to be covered. Also, it will give you a 6 per cent re-plant clause; which would pay you to re-plant your crop, if it is hailed out. Your cost will be no more now than if you wait until May, June or July.

In the past, we have not been able to provide adequate coverage in various townships, and consequently some of our hail insurance customers were unable to purchase their wheat and milo insurance at a discount. Therefore, we suggest that you act now in order for us to provide you with maximum coverage for a minimum cost.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We would like to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to everyone involved in making the 4-H Bean and Cornbread Supper a huge success.

People in Hereford, Deaf Smith County and the surrounding area are just great when it comes to supporting community organizations and their projects. Without the help and support of these people, the Bean Supper could not have been made possible.

Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves at the supper. They also enjoyed the fine entertainment. Many thanks to the groups that performed for us.

Those who were lucky enough to draw a door prize, we say Congratulations! For the unfortunate ones, we hope you enjoyed your meal, visiting with your friends, relaxing in a casual atmosphere and listening to the talent groups.

Again, may we say "Thank You" for supporting the 4-H Clubs of Deaf Smith County in our big project.

We would like for you to know that our gross for the supper was $1,800. Our net will be approximately $1,500; which is one-half of our county goal. We've already given a check for $1,000 to the State 4-H Center which is due by June 1 of this year.

We'll need to raise the balance of our $3,000 quota by June, 1975. We hope that we can count on you for continued support of our projects.

We'll strive to make Deaf Smith County 4-H members number 1 in Texas.

Sincerely yours, Deaf Smith County 4-H members, leaders and agents.

1,250 Ate At Bean Supper

By Argen Draper

Home Demonstration Agent

Thanks, folks for your cooperation in making the Bean Supper a success. In thinking over the events, we're convinced more and more that working together like all of you did Tuesday night in pinpointing the thing that makes Hereford great. This community will help groups that make honest efforts to do worthwhile things. So-o-o-a great big thanks to each person on each committee—those who did the biggest or littlest thing to put it over.

The food we tasted was superb. And the cobbler, Tom Draper learned he bid on, was delicious. That was one of the best we've ever tasted. All the cobbler looked good and there was every kind. People have varied ideas of fruit cobbler. The most accurate count, we have: 1,250 were served; gross $1,800; net approximately $1,500. When the luncheon was attended in Amarillo, the day after the bean supper, you would have been pleased at the attention Hereford 4-H received. Linda Welty gave the report and Homer Garrison, with a flourish, presented Harold Dunn a check for $1,000, for the State Center at Brownwood. Others at Amarillo to add to the success story were Jigger Rowland, chairman of Leaders Association, Emily Ogle, 4-H leader and the Extension agents.

In conclusion, 4-H has made the 1973 payment on the State Center.

Instant milk drink recipes have been worked out for the serving of one glass at a time and so each person can have his favorite milk drink by mixing one glass. These recipes were worked out so children coming home from school can have a nourishing drink and for persons who live alone. In fact, these drinks are good for everyone.

Get your quota of milk by carefully checking your meals and snack between meals. The non-fat dry milk is used for convenience. The non-fat creamer is added to improve flavor of the instant milk and to aid people who need to take animal fat from the diet. After making the mixes, please alter them to suit your family's taste. They are a bit sweet for us, but many like them as they are. Let me know any variations you make to these recipes.

Deluxe Garage Sale Planned

Abandoned Treasure is the name picked for a sale to be sponsored by Kings Manor Auxiliary June 1 and 2 in carpools which face Sunset Drive on the Manor grounds. The glorified garage sale was planned at a luncheon at Hereford Country Club Thursday.

Storerooms at Kings Manor retirement home are to be cleared of numerous items no longer needed there, and they will be placed on sale with other abandoned treasures donated by Auxiliary members and area residents.

China, glassware, silver, cooking utensils, appliances, furniture, bedding and other household equipment; toys, records, costume jewelry and children's clothing are wanted for the sale, but no adult clothing.

Any items for the sale may be taken to Kings Manor, where they will be stored in a garage adjoining the main building.

Posters to advertise the sale will be made at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Don Martin at 1:30 p.m. May 17.

Plans for the sale originated at a recent executive committee meeting and were developed at the lunch where Auxiliary committee chairmen and resident aid committee members met. Mrs. Bill Davis, Auxiliary president, conducted the discussion.

More fund-raising activities for next fall were approved.

Dates have not been set for a fall style show in the Manor Garden Room, and an evening 42 tournament.

The money is used in the Auxiliary's program of making life more pleasant for residents of the retirement home. An immediate need is for curtains in some of the rooms at Westgate, the hospital unit, it was announced by Mrs. A.T. Mims, sunshine committee head.

Mrs. Wes Fisher, social activities chairman, reported that dates are filled for the remainder of 1973 for birthday party hostesses at Westgate; various organizations volunteer to give the parties each month. The luncheon invocation was by Mrs. Don Davidson.

Participating in the city's Diamond Jubilee celebration next August was discussed by Uniformed Volunteers of the Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter, at their recent April luncheon in K-Bob's Steak House.

Plans were also made for the birthday party May 2 for residents of Westgate Unit, Kings Manor retirement home, at which this group will be hostess.

Members at the luncheon reported a total of 68 hours of volunteer community service in April.

Aerosol liquid nylon, when sprayed on fabric, fills spaces between fibers and prevents raveling. Invisible, it dries almost instantly yet doesn't change the hand of the fabric, according to Vivian Warminski, clothing specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

The 1972 highway death rate of 4.5 per 100 million miles of motor vehicle travel was the lowest in U.S. history, the Highway Users Federation report.

In comparison, the rate was 4.7 in 1971; 5.3 in 1962; 7.4 in 1952; and 15.1 in 1936.

Cheap air conditioning is no bargain.

Servel Gas Air Conditioning is a Bargain.

The bargain comes in smaller utility bills, fewer maintenance calls and the longer life of a Servel system.

But you'll never buy one cheap.

The Servel goal has always been: "Build it like the Swiss." That's why the units are precision-made. And that's why they contain more stainless steel than any other air conditioner on the market. They're built to last and to perform dependably. This and the economy of natural gas energy saves you every month.

Quality construction is the reason you pay more for Servel initially. Because quality doesn't come cheap. Long, economical operation is the reason you'll save in the long run. Because quality pays off.

Most people can afford quality when they know all the facts. Especially when they're concerned with a cool, restful, healthy home environment — when home has a permanent meaning.

Think long and hard before you invest in central air conditioning. Then install Servel.

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: WHEN, UNDER THE WRECKAGE OF THE CORNICE, THE PRESUMED BODY OF PRINCE HEIDMAR IS FOUND, THERE IS GREAT CONSTERNATION.

WHEN GRIMMER HEARS THE TRAGIC NEWS HIS "GRIEF" IS SO GREAT HE CAN HARDLY SUPPRESS A GRIN.

BUT HE PROVES HE HAS THE QUALITIES OF KINGSHIP BY ORDERING THE IMMEDIATE EXECUTION OF THE WORKMEN WHO REPAIRED THE CORNICE. THEY ALONE KNOW THE CORNICE WOULD NOT HAVE FALLEN WITHOUT AID.

FRIEDA, HIS BRIDE-TO-BE, APPROVES THE DEED: "IT IS FOR THE GOOD OF THE KINGDOM THAT ANY SOURCE OF SCANDAL BE SUPPRESSED IMMEDIATELY," SHE AFFIRMS.

FROM THE STEPS OF A TAVERN, HEIDMAR VIEWS HIS OWN FUNERAL WITH SATISFACTION. EVERY DETAIL IS EFFICIENTLY CARRIED OUT, EXCEPT THAT THE SHATTERED BODY IN THE COFFIN IS NOT HIS.

THE PRINCESS FRIEDA, DRESSED BECOMINGLY IN BLACK, RIDES BESIDE GRIMMER, THE HEIR APPARENT. BY HER POISE AND THE SET OF HER CHIN IT IS EASY TO GUESS WHO WILL EVENTUALLY RULE THE KINGDOM OF HOLVIK.

PRINCE ARN RIDES OUT AMONG THE HILLS TO ESCAPE THE ENDLESS FORMALITY OF THE COURT. HE HAD BECOME FOND OF HEIDMAR AND GRIEVES FOR HIS SUPPOSED DEATH. BUT AS THE REPRESENTATIVE OF KING AGUAR HE MUST STAY FOR GRIMMER'S CORONATION.

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
There are long, thin brown paper bags used by many stores for cartons of cigarettes, single beverage bottles, etc.
They aren't too useful otherwise, but I do not discard them.
I shorten the tops with a pair of scissors—not straight across but in a curved fashion (like a single scallop curving out).
I put these bags in my desk with my writing paper! And

I refer to them as my "brown bag envelopes."
The next time I wish to send a thick letter, newspaper clippings, snapshots, etc., to

LETTER OF THOUGHT
DEAR HELOISE:
Instead of asking, "Why am I here?" or thinking "My life has no meaning," ask instead, "What can I do today to make the world a little better?"
Whether you decide to simply pick up a piece of litter, smile at a frowning stranger, write a letter to your congressman, do volunteer work, or strive for a better environment, you will find yourself happily occupied for the rest of your life.

DOGGONE GOOD
DEAR HELOISE:
Here's another new use for nylon net:
We didn't want our new puppy in our living room, but it was very difficult to close off because the opening between the living room and dining room was an archway.
We measured the width of the opening and cut a piece of nylon net to size (one width is sufficient for height). We took two strips of molding, approximately the same measurement as the width of nylon net, and stapled the ends of the net to each stick (molding).

Then we put hooks (one on each end of the molding) and hung one on each side of the doorway.
It's airy and you can see through it.

... and so can your little canine buddy! Maybe that's why he is content to remain on the outside looking in.

IT'S NO BUNK!
DEAR HELOISE:
Here is an idea that may interest mothers who have children with bunk beds (or any child's bed actually).
I found that the beds are hard to make and usually look rumpled after a few minutes of the children's activities, or the top spread is always hanging down over the bottom bunk.
I finally purchased two of periodically and save getting bored with the same old thing.

My kids think it's the greatest!

I agree. Let's hear it for all you clever-thinking moms.

HAPPY SUNDAY!
DEAR HELOISE:
Being a Sunday School teacher, having your pupils arrive at class on time is very important.
On the opening day of Sunday School I presented each of my pupils (all girls) with a name tag which consisted of a circle of cardboard with a smiling clock face pointing to the time when Sunday School begins. The name of the child circled the head.
I punched a hole at the top, and through the hole inserted a ribbon that was fastened loosely around the child's neck.
On the opposite side of the clock face was printed a Bible verse, "I was glad when they said unto me, 'Let us go into the house of the Lord.' Psalms 122:1."
My girls enjoyed their necklaces very much.

To give the sauce a richer flavor I sometimes use powdered coffee creamer in place of the powdered milk.
Your sauce has no lumps made this way and it really makes a very smooth cream sauce.
Mrs. Chas. Carlson
Could be you might like this sauce so well that you would make it this way even if you have plenty of time!
You would get all the best from the vegetables by using the water they were cooked in.
