

County Discusses Money Items

Library Funds Approved

BY O.G. NIEMAN

Deaf Smith County Commissioners, in regular session Monday, formally approved the use of general revenue sharing funds for the construction of a new county library—an action that had been anticipated for some time. Commissioners also passed a new policy on the employment of county personnel, requiring applicants to take a physical exam before being hired by the county.

Williams called a private conference with commissioners Donald Hicks and Marcus Latham. He explained that it involved "personal matters" which needed to be discussed.

THE COURT had generally agreed that revenue sharing money would be used for the new county library, but a formal intent was passed Monday. The motion stated "that all revenue sharing money received to date, plus interest, will be designated for the construction of a new library."

He also pointed out that city officers receive a $20 per month clothing allowance and receive pay hikes each year for longevity. Some other sheriff's departments also receive uniform allowances, he stated. Commissioners took the request under consideration.

to commissioners showed expenditures—salaries and office operating expenses—of about $22,000 in 1969-71. The total was shown as $46,000 since June, 1971. It was pointed out, however, that this was not a true comparison since other factors

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says the first sign of intelligence is to appreciate those who do not agree with you.

In the game of life—as in football, you can't win any battles in the huddle... you've got to get out of the huddle and go to the line of scrimmage.

This was one of the thoughts presented here Monday night at the FCA rally by John Westbrook, former Baylor grid star. The guest speaker had a real thought-provoking message, but the attendance was very small.

Another thought which was new to us: God has no stepchildren or grandchildren—we're all children of God!

We are pleased to introduce, in today's Brand, our new editor, Don Richards. He comes to us highly recommended and we think he will be a real asset to the newspaper and the community. We hope you have opportunity to meet him in the near future!

Graduation time is near, and The Brand will have special pages next Thursday on this year's graduating class at Hereford High. With some 280 graduates, we've noticed a lot of shoppers selecting graduation gifts. It brings back fond memories for many of us, because this special event has to be one of the high points of any young person's life!

With the recent publicity on the beef industry, someone brought us a poem entitled "Farmer and the Feedlot Blues". We thought it worth passing on to our readers. It was written by D.R. McLean of Dundap, Iowa.

When the farmer gets a break, as the price begins to rise, Some begin to cuss him, and blast him to the skies. As he's stuck over in the feedlot, in mud up to his knees, Just the butcher's latest markup, is what the housewife sees.

As the farmer plants his seed, he cannot make it sprout, 'Cause it takes a Higher Power, to start the seedling out. When the farmer sells his good, he sells at wholesale prices, He has to buy at retail, pay a profit fat and nice.

He gambles that the rains won't wash his land away, Or the searing summer sun won't burn his crops by day. He gambles with the weather, and with the prices, too, Placing food upon your table, it's always good for you.

And as he buys a new machine, or maybe some new part, When he starts to pay the bill, sure makes him lose his heart. Don't bite the hand that's feeding you, is good advice today.

All is not gold that glitters, 'bout all that I can say. Go follow him in the feedlot, in your twenty-dollar shoes, Try to keep up for an hour, and you'll get the feedlot blues.

Now I'm just a small-town lowan, with a little bit of news, Don't always blame the farmer, till you walk in feedlot shoes!

TWO MATTERS, not on the agenda—both concerning money—came up for discussion. One was a request from Sheriff Travis McPherson to consider what he termed "much-needed salary increases" for deputies. The other topic concerned the costs of operating the criminal district attorney's office since the county and district jobs were combined here in June, 1971. No action was taken on either matter.

Under routine business, the commission approved two road easements for water and electric lines; heard several reports, and approved monthly bills.

At the close of the regular agenda, County Judge H.C. Williams called a private conference with commissioners Donald Hicks and Marcus Latham. He explained that it involved "personal matters" which needed to be discussed.

Shriner Clinic Planned

The 17th annual children's diagnostic clinic, sponsored by the Oasis Shrine, will be Saturday with 11 specialists from across the state expected to participate.

A kickoff breakfast for Shriners will be at 6:30 a.m. with registration beginning at 8 a.m. in the Southwestern Public Service Co. building, according to Jerry Payne, Shrine president.

The specialists, from fields of cardiology, pediatric neurology, audiology, speech pathology, orthopedic surgery, pediatrics, ENT, oral surgery, plastic surgery and radiology, will examine patients and recommend treatment for the more than 100 children expected to attend this year's clinic.

Local doctors, optometrists and dentists and their assistants, as well as laboratory and x-ray personnel, will assist with the clinic.

Youngsters up to 18 years of age are eligible for the free clinic. The children to be seen during the clinic are those with handicaps, though not necessarily crippling handicaps.

Lunch will be served in the high school cafeteria for the children and their parents. The food and the meal will be provided by the Hereford Lions Club. The Shriners will provide transportation to and from the noon lunch.

Maroons Vs. Whites

Scrimmage To End Spring Training

Hereford football fans will be exposed to a small case of "Friday Night Fever" this weekend as the Whitefaces complete spring training with the annual Maroon-White intrasquad game.

Kickoff for the full-game conditions scrimmage is scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday in Whiteface Stadium. The junior varsity game will start earlier at 6 p.m. There is no admission charge.

The number one spectator at the game will be Athletic Director and Head Coach Larry Dippel, who will abandon his unusual spot along the sidelines for a seat in the press box.

TAKING UP the chores of coaching the two teams in each game will be the assistant coaches.

"The scrimmage will be four 12-minute quarters under regular game conditions," Dippel said. "We also will have game officials."

The head coach said the Maroon and White teams are matched as evenly as possible on both the varsity and JV game.

"We will try to get all the players in the game so that we can get a look at each one," he said. "This will finish up our spring training program this year and hopefully it has answered many questions we have had."

"WE HAVE HAD two controlled scrimmages and have been pleased to an extent with the progress we have made. Our defense has looked good in places and has made improvements from just a week ago."

Dippel also said the offense moved the ball well at time "but is not consistent." "Our kicking game has looked good, although we don't know too much about it yet."

Dippel said the basis of the Whiteface offensive attack this year will be built around the running game.

RUNNING OUT of the winged-T formation and the slot winged-T, the Whitefaces' offensive attack is expected to be much weaker than last year's team.

"Last year we had a very high-scoring spring training game," the coach said. "This year if we even score we will be happy."

Dippel, who has eight lettermen returning from last fall's team, said Lubbock Monterey will be expected to be the frontrunner in District 3-AAA.

"Hereford and Plainview probably were hit hardest by" graduating seniors," he said.

The junior varsity game at 6 p.m. will feature this year's freshmen from Stanton and La Plata junior highs who will be entering high school next fall. The varsity will consist of the entered into the picture. When the offices were separate, the state paid the D.A.'s salary, and now the county bears that expense.

D.A. Andy Shuval was not present during the discussion, but he had appeared earlier with some good news on expenses. He said the Legislature had passed a bill, which awaited the governor's signature, that would provide for the state to pay the D.A.'s salary.

OTHER comparisons on the sheet revealed that the caseload was about the same, commissioners pointed out. In 1968-71 there were 600 cases filed in county court and 563 disposed of, compared to 617 filed and 380 disposed of since June, 1971.

DRINK DETERRENT

Muslims in Pakistan-held Kashmir who drink liquor or use narcotics will be publicly flogged as the result of a government decree, it was learned in Srinagar recently.

The comparison on district court cases was 200 filed and 179 disposed of in 1969-71, and 240 filed and 181 disposed of since June, 1971.

During their discussion with road superintendent Chuck Eppler, commissioners passed a motion requiring all persons to have physical exams before being employed by the county. The court also recommended Eppler post sick leave and vacation policies in all county shops. He reported the county now had 22 road employees.

EASEMENT to cross a county road with a water line was granted to Pitman Industries, and Deaf Smith Electric Co-Op was granted permission to go under a road with an electric line. Both easements were in Precinct 2.

After a brief discussion, commissioners agreed to raise the rent from $35 to $50 a month on two county houses, located in Donald Hicks' and Bruce Coleman's precincts. County road employees reside in the houses, and have the responsibility of watching over equipment and property at the locations.

Judge Williams notified commissioners that the cost of a generator, for emergency use at the county courthouse, and a truck to be used for Dawn volunteer firemen was $960.81. Commissioners had approved purchase of the government-surplus items previously.

A monthly fire report showed the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department had answered six county alarms and five city alarms during April. The court also heard a report on welfare expenditures from Jewell Smith, county welfare officer.

The court approved the transfer of $12,000 from the right-of-way fund to the machinery warrant fund in order to pay for a new main-tainer. Commissioners approved purchase of the $28,869 machine last month.

Steaks Getting 'Rarer'

That next steak you eat may be "rarer" than you think.

"Regardless of the way you like your steak cooked, you're getting a 'rare' commodity," emphasizes Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Why is steak, or all beef for that matter, so rare?

"It's a simple matter of time," points out the Texas A&M University specialist. "It takes two-and-a-half years to produce a steak."

Uvacek explains it this way. A cow produces only one calf in 12 months. The calf is weaned at six months of age and turned to pasture for another four to six months. Then it goes to a feedlot for six months to be fattened on a high grain ration. Finally, at about 1,000 pounds of weight, the animal is sold to a packer for slaughter.

Well, at least that's a thousand pounds of beef, you say?

"Not by a long shot," Uvacek hastens to point out. "A lot of weight from the animal is lost in slaughtering and processing. A 1,000-pound animal produces only about 48 pounds of sirloin steaks."

A 1,000-pound steer that grades "choice" will produce about 600 pounds of carcass. Take away the fat, bone and waste and only about 444 pounds of edible beef remains.

The specialist is concerned that consumers today are not aware of the time and costs involved in beef production.

"Increased production has made beef available to more consumers now than ever before. Back when only the wealthy could afford expensive cuts of beef, there was little concern over prices."

Workshop To Be Offered In June Term

A workshop in career education for elementary and secondary school teachers will be offered by the industrial education department the first summer session beginning June 4 at West Texas State University.

Career education implementation, IE-495-3, is scheduled for the second session starting July 16.

Pet cruelty hinted

Ogonyok, a Soviet magazine, is campaigning for a new law to cover cruelty to animals and hints that such offenses are increasing.

The weekly magazine, attempting to show there is a link between ill-treatment of animals and crimes of theft and violence, reports that out of 135 criminals, including robbers and rapists, 118 admitted that when they were children they burned, hanged and stabbed domestic animals.

New Court Not Included For Deaf Smith, Oldham

The omnibus court bill was reported out of the Judicial Committee without including a new court for Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties. Representative Bill Clayton stated, "We encouraged the committee and its chairman to give the area a new court because of the case load, and size of the present Judicial District. It would have provided for speedy trial in criminal cases and quicker determination in civil cases."

Chairman of the Committee, L. DeWitt Hale said: "It is regrettable that we could not include a new court for Deaf Smith and Oldham Counties; however, as Chairman of the committee I encouraged the committee to take such action for the following reasons: (1) Statistics from the Civil Judicial Council for the year 1972 do not indicate need for a new court. (2) As Chairman of the Committee I received many letters, telegrams, and phone calls in opposition to the Court from members of the City Council, Commissioners' Court, Chamber of Commerce, lawyers and other interested citizens." (3) This was the only Court Bill considered by the committee in which opposition was substantial. It was difficult for our committee to vote against the wishes of our good friend Bill Clayton. It is hopeful that the Court can be justified and passed at the next regular session of the Legislature."

Cotton Official Raps Farm Bill

The cotton section of the farm bill reported May 8 by the Senate Agriculture Committee "is a far cry from an extension of the present program, which has industry-wide support," says Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., Lubbock, "and it has features we will not want to support without careful study."

Prior to the Committee's going into executive session, Senator Herman Talmadge, democratic committee chairman from Georgia, repeatedly voiced the intent and belief that the Committee would report a simple extension of the current law. Therefore no one outside committee membership had any advance notice or opportunity to comment on the Committee's May 8 action, Johnson points out.

Full details of the bill, which Talmadge hopes to get on the Senate floor by June 1, are not yet known to PCG. But it is understood that price support payments for cotton would be the difference between a 43-cent "target price" and the average spot market price for Strict Low Middling 1 1-16 inch cotton, 3.5 to 4.9 micronaire, for the first five months (August through December) of the cotton marketing year.

PCG's calculations for the years 1966 through 1972 show that High Plains producer income from allotted acreage would have averaged slightly better under this formula than under the flat 15 cents per pound payment in effect under the Agriculture Act of 1970.

"But there are several reasons why these calculations might be misleading," Johnson cautions.

"For example," he says, "whatever past averages may show, there isn't necessarily any direct relationship between the August-December average price quotations for Strict Low Middling 1 1-16 inch cotton and the average price paid to farmers for High Plains cotton."

"Therefore it is conceivable," he continues, "that under the Senate's bill the High Plains crop, which averages about Strict Low Middling Light Spot 31-32 inches and normally carries a micronaire discount, could sell for 14 or 15 cents per pound, and because of the price structure for the longer staple, higher grade, earlier sold cotton, qualify for little or no support payment."

Johnson also notes that the 43-cent "target price" is only the "first offer" from the Senate Committee and that the ink was hardly dry on the committee print before knowledgeable sources were reporting that committee members might later be willing to compromise on a target as low as 35 cents.

With a target price of 35 cents, even the unreliable averages compiled for 1966 through 1972 would indicate a drastic reduction in producer returns on the High Plains. Quoted price average for High Plains cotton, 1966 through 1972, was 20.08 cents per pound. The five-month average quotation for SLM 1 1-16 inch cotton for the same year was 25.75 cents.

The cotton loan level under the Committee's version of a new farm law, according to presently available information, would remain at 90 per cent of the average world market price, with the Secretary retaining authority to make adjustments as he might see fit.

Minimum base allotment would be set at 10 million acres, the same national allotment as that of 1973, but first reports indicate the Secretary would be given new authority to restrict plantings above the base allotment should he anticipate a carryover above 7 million bales.

Other program provisions, including set-aside requirements and payment limitations, may or may not be in accord with language known to be under discussion by the committee, Johnson stated, and further comment "had best be reserved until a final draft of the committee report is available."

"We have called a meeting of the full PCG Board of Directors for May 29," he advised, "at which time we will go deeper into the entire bill and discuss a course of action."

Cash Bonus Offered Recruits

For years, the Army has been telling young people to stay in school and graduate. Now, it's putting its money where its mouth is by offering a $2,500 cash bonus to qualified high school graduates who enlist for four years in one of 23 specified skills.

The cash bonus for high school graduates is part of the Army's continuing plan to raise the quality level of its volunteer force. It is paid to new recruits as soon as they successfully complete basic military and job training.

Young people in the bonus plan will be able to select the training of their choice from the 23 courses offered. They also can select from the widest range of travel options ever offered by the Army.

These include guaranteed assignments in Europe, Alaska, Hawaii, Korea, the Canal Zone and several different locations in the continental United States.

Army trainees start at $307 a month, before taxes, and receive free meals, free housing, complete medical and dental care and more than four weeks paid vacation every year.

Career areas available under the new bonus program include electronics, missiles, intelligence, radar, infantry, artillery and armor.

Additional information about the Army's $2,500 cash bonus enlistment plan is available locally from Sergeant Charles Barton at 376-5151 Ext. 2182 collect.

NAM opposes federal aid to strikers, families

A blanket prohibition against the use of tax revenues to provide welfare benefits to strikers and their families has been urged by the National Association of Manufacturers.

In a statement filed with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, the NAM said that collective bargaining is seriously undermined when the federal government assumes a supportive role to one of the sides in a labor-management dispute.

WTSU Streets Named For Vets

CANYON—Families of 11 former West Texas State University students killed in the Vietnam war were guests of honor at street-naming ceremonies on campus Saturday.

Eleven unnamed streets at WTSU were designated a memorial to each of the servicemen.

The servicemen's families and the sponsoring Greek social sororities and fraternities participated in the erection of street signs at 10:45 a.m. A luncheon attended by approximately 100 persons followed in the East Dining Hall.

The Student Senate proclaimed Saturday WTSU Honored Veteran's Day.

A plaque engraved with the names of all former WTSU students killed in the Vietnam war will be placed in the Activities Center.

"Since no branch of the armed services keeps a roster of servicemen according to the college or university they attended, it was impossible to get a complete list of all WT veterans who died in Indochina," student sponsors of the street-naming project said.

"Finally 18 names were uncovered. Contact was attempted with all 18 families. The first 11 to respond and agree to let us use their son's name for our dedication ceremonies were the ones we are using," they added.

"No matter what individual name appears on the street sign, the street is dedicated to all men who gave their lives in the war."

Attorney General Warns About Tricky 'Hit-And-Run' Operators

BY JOHN HILL
Texas Atty. Gen.

Now that the weather's nice, and you're spending more time outdoors, you may be noticing that the house could do with a little fixing up.

That kind of thinking might make one susceptible to a home improvement salesman's suggestions for a new roof, aluminum siding, or a remodeling job.

But, be very cautious about agreeing to any construction work until you are certain you are dealing with a bona fide contractor who makes a specific work proposal, complete with plans, specifications and cost estimates. There are literally thousands of Texas builders who can be depended upon for a workmanlike job.

Too often, homeowners have been fast-talked into unwanted, unneeded and unsatisfactory "improvements," only to find that the so-called contractor has flown the coop, leaving the homeowner with an expensive, long-term installment note which had been sold to a financing company.

In the legitimate construction trade, these home improvements fly-by-nights are known as the "hit-and-run variety." Both the Texas Association of Home Builders and the National Home Improvement Council provide advice telling you what to expect in dealing with a reputable builder, and how to avoid involvements with the type who offices only out of the truck of his car.

Through complaints handled by members of the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division staff, we have learned that the "hit-and-run" operators prefer to zero in on low-income neighborhoods, but may turn up anywhere.

They know that the folks who find money hard to come by have great pride in home ownership. And they play on that pride.

The typical gambit is to show the man or lady of the house a photograph of a pretty cottage finished with fancy siding. If he protests that he doesn't have the funds to remodel, the salesman counters with an "easy-payment" installment proposal.

If the customer still resists, saying that he already is overloaded with payments, he may be tempted with a plan to "consolidate" his bills and the improvement cost under one installment note.

One easy way to tell the unscrupulous home improvements salesman from the contractor you can count on is his insistence on getting you to sign on the dotted line right away.

A regular contractor will expect the homeowner to get bids and estimates from three or four firms, and will present exact plans and specifications for your consideration. Also, he will tell you which financial institutions usually make loans for his company's home improvements, and ask if you would like to go through one of them.

A fast signing with one of the hit-and-run fellows usually leads to heartbreak and heavy expenses. In one case, a homeowner realized several months after accepting a "siding" job that the material used was so thin, it bent on touch. He refused to pay any more installments on the $4,000-plus note, only to learn that the note had been sold within 24 hours after he had signed it to another company which had a holder-in-due-course defense against his complaints. Since the papers he had signed included a mortgage on his house, his refusal to pay any more resulted in his home being sold out from under him. By then, the fly-by-night had flown.

The best advice for avoiding that type of problem is:

- 1) Make a double check on anybody who is selling "home improvements" door to door. Remember that auto or pickup truck has four wheels. Look to see if it has Texas license plates.
- 2) If the salesman asks you to go with him to a notary, or pulls out a notary seal, he probably is asking you to mortgage your property to him as security on the note. Are you sure that this is what you want to do?
- 3) Under the Federal Truth-in-Lending law, anyone planning to take a second mortgage as security has to disclose to the buyer in writing that he has the right to change his mind within 72 hours after signing. If the purchaser is not given that notice, he may rescind the contract at any time.

4) Under the Texas Consumer Credit Code, the contractor must obtain from the consumer who signs a retail installment transaction a certificate of completion, imprinted with these words: "WARNING TO BUYER—Do not sign this certificate until all services have been satisfactorily performed and materials supplied or goods received and found satisfactory." And, the financial institution who buys the note must give the consumer written warning that he has purchased the note, and the buyer has 30 days in which to file a complaint about the goods or service.

RECEIVES PROMOTION—Air Force Colonel Ralf M. Miller, husband of the former Miss Mary S. Postelle of Hereford, was recently promoted to his present rank at the U.S. Naval War College in Newport, R.I. A 1950 graduate of Norman High, Norman, Okla., and a 1962 graduate of Southwestern State College in Weatherford, he joined the Air Force in 1955. He is presently a student in the Department of Naval Warfare.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Word to the Wise Consumer

"Beyond any doubt, the greatest engine ever invented for the discovery of truth."

John Henry Wigmore, famed legal authority, was not talking about such modern devices as the lie detector or truth serum. He was talking about the ancient art of cross-examination—that is, the use of careful, patient questioning to get at the facts.

Great A WINNER! THE BEST

You as a consumer can put this "engine" to good use every time you go shopping. Asking the right questions about a product can do wonders toward helping you get your money's worth.

But one vital distinction should always be kept in mind—the distinction between questions of fact and questions of opinion. This distinction is a key to your legal rights as a consumer.

Suppose you ask, "How much weight will this water bed support?" This is a question of fact. The seller is legally bound to give you accurate information.

But suppose you ask, "What do you think of these water beds?" That is a mere question of opinion. The seller can say, "They're just great!" or "They make you feel 10 years younger!" without incurring any legal responsibility at all. The law assumes—realistically—that a seller is likely to exaggerate his enthusiasm and that a buyer is likely to take such statements with a grain of salt.

Sellers are well aware of the difference between the two kinds of questions. The stockbroker who assures you that a certain stock "has a terrific potential" (matter of opinion) will probably choose his words more carefully when you inquire about the company's dividend record or outstanding debt (matters of fact).

Consider an actual case. A customer buying a short-wave radio asked the salesman whether it would get broadcasts from Rome. The salesman assured him it would.

But it wouldn't. The customer demanded his money back, and a court ruled in his favor.

"The radio, so far as getting Rome is concerned, is a failure," observed the judge. "The warranty is breached."

New Biology Course To Be Offered In Summer At WTSU

Theories of human genetics and their practical applications will be offered in a biology special topics course to be offered the second summer session starting July 16 at West Texas State University.

Dr. Horace H. Bailey, biology department chairman, says the new course will introduce "the behavior of chromosomes and their associated genes during mitosis, meiosis and recombination during fertilization."

Topics of discussion will include trait inheritance, the consequences of consanguineous marriages and the use of biochemical techniques to show that various medical disorders are a consequence of gene malfunction, he says.

"The application of genetic concepts and statistical analysis to family medical histories as used for genetic counseling of prospective parents will be presented."

The course, Biology 399, will be taught by Dr. David LaBrie, assistant professor of biology.

Small Talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

THIS IS THE GRADUATES' month and now is the time to offer them congratulations, whether they are completing kindergarten or college.

Graduation ceremonies mark progress in the everlasting business of education, so graduates have earned commendation for having come so far. They have my best wishes because they have come to a milestone in life even if it only points to the first grade.

Maybe it's just the viewpoint I occupy now, but it seems to me that high school graduates are much more biased about their accomplishment than kids of the past — say before World War II.

THE CAUSE MAY BE the generally negative outlook that teenagers are credited with today; or the fact that practically everybody graduates from high school now so it's no big deal, while fewer people used to have that privilege; or maybe because even kindergartens have public programs with the five-year-olds in gowns and mortarboards so why get excited about that?

Whatever it is I'm sorry, because completion of high school study is no small achievement and should be valued enough for a celebration.

So I hereby heartily congratulate the HHS graduates of '73, all of 'em, whether they are happily excited or bored with the whole business.

ALL THEIR CHILDREN and families were Mothers Day visitors in the Ansel McDowell home for dinner Sunday.

Although the occasion honored Elizabeth McDowell, the show was probably stolen by the Dan McDowell's baby daughter, making her first visit here.

Of course Elizabeth gave the new granddaughter most of her attention, too, so I'm sure there was no rivalry!

Dr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell and children, from Perryton, Dr. and Mrs. Dan McDowell and daughter, from Odessa, came to Hereford Saturday and spent the night in the Ansel McDowell home. The Jim McDowell family joined the group for the Sunday dinner.

APPARENTLY A LINE or two of type got dropped out of a story in Sunday's paper, about the dance recital which pupils of the Larrymore Studio will give at 8 p.m. today in the high school auditorium.

That would account for names of Doug Owens, Kim White and Kim Claypool being left out of lists in the program. But all three of them are to be among the dancers.

By the way, a demonstration of karate by Lupe Crox will also be a part of that program. It is open to the public, free.

Formerly 'unmotivated,'

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The following article and artwork appeared in The University Daily, student newspaper at Texas Tech University. Clint Formby, with Hereford's KPAN Radio Station, is a regent at Texas Tech and was interviewed by the student newspaper.)

By LAYLAN COPELIN
Editor

If you were a Lubbock citizen in the early '40s, you may remember a Tech student, dressed in his finest tuxedo, thumbing a ride back to Tech every Sunday morning.

Just another Tech 'hell-raiser' on his way home after a wild Saturday night?

Hardly.

It was just Clint Formby coming home from his custodial night job.

Actually, he worked as a file clerk and janitor for the U.S. Employment Office.

"On Saturday nights when I didn't have a date—and as a freshman there were more times I didn't than I did—I would rent a tuxedo for $3.50 and hitchhike to the dance at the old Hilton Inn," Formby said.

After the dance, he would then change into coveralls and wax and mop the offices.

Later, he would change clothes again and catch a ride with Lubbock families on their way to church.

"I had many a sermon on how the young were going to the dogs and the evils of carousing. And when I would try to explain, nobody would believe me."

Formby originally came to Tech in 1942 as an "unmotivated, marginal pre-law student barely making my grades."

After a three-year interruption in his college career because of World War II, Formby returned a more mature 22-year-old veteran "seeking more student involvement in the administration and decision-making."

He had toyed with the idea of transferring to the University of Texas but two days of the "humidity and unfriendliness" changed his mind.

"There was a great change in student attitudes when I came back, because of the returning veterans. In fact, that is when hazing quit. You didn't haze a freshman because some of these boys had been Rangers or commandos.

"And we (students) didn't get at odds with the administration too much, but then again, you suddenly had a different breed of cat.

"The Women Libbers might be upset but not much had been happening on campus during the war when the vast majority of students were female. The veteran changed all that."

At Tech Formby reported the university president's beat for the twice-weekly Toreador but now admits "we (reporters) never got in trouble with the administration because we did not dig into a story. The editor did that; he was the one in the crosswind. Traditionally, we did our in-depth articles about the food in the dorms."

His senior year Formby ran unopposed for student council presidency of the 6,000-member student body.

It was at that time that Formby met his future wife, Margaret, a former Miss Texas Tech, who served as secretary of the student council.

Ms. Formby, who had been dating the student council vice president before she met Formby, recalls, "I had been in a speech class with Clint a couple of years earlier but he never knew me. It always made me so mad when he would stroll into our 11 o'clock class midway through the lecture—having slept late that morning—and the teacher would always stop the discussion just for him. He was always a teacher's pet."

Did she ever ask him what he had been doing the night before? "I didn't know him THAT well," she says.

As student council president, Formby's main project was to get a student on the disciplinary committee.

"In retrospect, I don't think naming a student to the committee made that much difference...because of the pressure it put on that one student. But sometimes you have a feeling that if only you were represented..."

Formby and his uncle, Marshall Formby, own radio stations in Hereford, Temple and Levelland, Tex. He also is involved in cable television and an automated beef feeding lot in Hereford.

Formby has served as president of the Tech Ex-Students Association, National Association of Broadcasters board member and president of the Texas Association of Broadcasters.

He flies more than 100,000 miles a year from his hometown, Hereford, for such activities.

Asked if he had ever envisioned himself as a regent, Formby says, "Never. In fact, student council presidents never met the entire board. We would visit the chairman in the president's office."

Now Formby, as regent and father of two Tech students, must react to student demands.

"I feel like student government meant more when I was a student than it does now. I am surprised at the flak that I read in the UD (University Daily) and hear from others

"I am not saying that student government does not speak for the students...because I don't know that."

Although Formby recognizes students as more demanding today, he has been surprised at the lack of contact between regents and students.

"I don't know how you can get more input. But sometimes I wish I knew or could talk to more students. I am not implying in any way that the administration is creating a chasm between us."

Formby said he knew "quite a few" professors but admitted "I haven't even met ten Tech professors as a regent. And sometimes I don't know how they would feel about some topic."

"I probably feel stronger about this than some other regents, but then again a board needs a certain amount of insulation because you become so personally involved you cannot make an objective decision."

He said the "times we live in"—rather than any drastic change in students' attitudes—is the major factor of public pressure on the regents.

"When I was a student, off-campus fraternity housing would be out of the question. But last summer we passed such a rule, and do you know, nothing happened."

"I was surprised we heard nothing—good or bad."

When the board eliminated the freshman women's dorm hours this spring, Formby received only one telephone call. "And it was from my freshman daughter who thought 'was our best decision yet.'"

Early Schooling May Harm

By DR. WILLARD ABRAHAM
Copley News/Service

Q. I recently read that someone doing research with young children said that early schooling can be very harmful. Do you agree?

A. Sure, early schooling can be dangerous for some children — if it's in a fly-by-night nursery school with unskilled adults in charge, if the equipment, physical setting and materials are inadequate, or if the child isn't ready for the activities imposed on him.

High-pressure, over-eager parents and teachers can create problems for young children — of course, but to conclude that all early education is "bad" is unfair — and not in line with the experiences of many thousands of youngsters.

In skilled, professional hands their interests, vocabulary, toy involvement and preparation for reading can all expand. A sound nursery school environment provides more play space, more plentiful equipment, other children to play with, a chance to develop language and communication skills, and many other strengths, all under qualified supervision.

Such settings are obviously not a substitute for home or parents, but if carefully selected they offer great enrichment for most children.

Q. We were just down in Mexico and bought a valuable set of Talavera pottery in Puebla. It's beautiful and was really quite expensive. We hate to keep it hidden away, but feel we have to because of our 2-year-old. He's very destructive. What do you recommend?

A. Seldom are choices as obvious as they are here — display the pottery and get it broken, or keep it hidden away and preserve it. If you don't mind having an incomplete set, do the first.

But an easy compromise is to put it away, and bring out individual pieces to show guests who will appreciate them. Or use the pottery for occasional dinner parties.

Enough restrictions have to be imposed on active, normal 2-year-olds without adding to their burden. Time passes quickly, and it won't be long until you can display your Talavera treasure comfortably.

I don't blame you for guarding this beautiful pottery, but it's not worth creating additional emotional problems for either you or your youngster.

Q. We joined a tennis club, and our teen-ager spends a lot of time there. In fact, he's there every spare minute aside from school, meals, and studying. I don't want to spy on him, but I wonder whether he does things there other than playing tennis. I trust him, of course, but I'm worried just the same.

A. If you're concerned, perhaps there's a basis for it. Do you have any clear-cut hints of problems related to drugs, sex or anything else? If so, check in with his school counselor for next steps to follow.

If not, why not get off the kid's back? You might be right — he may not be playing tennis all the time. He might be drinking a coke, calling his girl friend on the telephone, chewing the fat with his friends, or reading a magazine in the club lounge. None of those activities is necessarily a basis for concern.

Former Resident Takes Position

In Tyler Church

Jason Lee (Jerry) Luck Jr., a native of Hereford, and grandson of Mrs. W.W. Hill, has resigned as high school director in Roswell, N.M. and as music and youth director of the Bethel Baptist Church of that city.

Luck has accepted the position of music and youth director of the Queen Street Baptist Church in Tyler. He attended Central Elementary School and Stanton Junior High as a youngster in Hereford.

Club Hears Talks On Citizenship

Good Citizenship was the theme of Progressive Extension Club's program Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. T. J. Parsons. Three members were speakers.

Mrs. Tom Morgan stressed that elected officials are the key to the quality of public service in a county, as she discussed the topic, Your Key To The Courthouse. Mrs. Pete Carmichael explained how a jury is formed and Mrs. H.L. Hershey told what jury service entails.

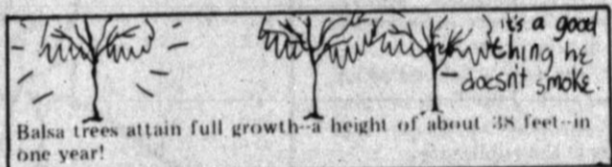

Plans were begun for an out-of-county trip to be made at the next meeting, which will end a club year.

Other members present were Mmes. E.C. Hammett, Dean Stallings and Floyd McGee.

A graduate of Eastern New Mexico University, Luck holds both Bachelor and Masters degrees in Music Education. He is a licensed minister, and has been music director in churches in Portales, N.M., and at three Roswell churches.

He has served as choral director at Roswell High School for five years, and under his direction, his choirs have received 28 superior ratings at festivals, and some 98 of his students have been selected for New Mexico state choirs.

Luck attended First Baptist Church in Hereford, and is the nephew of the Charlie Hills, Francis Hill and the Roy Bodys, all of Hereford, and the Forrest Hills of Amarillo.

Future Show Plans Topic For Players

Tentative time for Hereford Community Players' fall production will be during an area convention of Beta Sigma Phi here in October, members decided at their May meeting in Community Center Monday evening.

Plans were also discussed for a children's show in the summer, but no date was set. Last year's summer show was a dramatization of a fairy tale, The Frog Prince, and other such plays have been given in the past.

Twelve members of the Players went to Amarillo Friday evening to see that city's Little Theatre production of My Three Angels, which had movie and television actor Andy Devine as guest star.

Mrs. Marie Ratcliff

After 30 years of teaching, Marie Ratcliff, junior and senior English teacher at HHS has decided to retire.

Mrs. Ratcliff, who has taught in the Herford school system for 17 years will retire at the end of the school year. She has taught in the junior high and high schools in Kress, Amarillo, Stinnett and Herford.

She received her Bachelor of Science and Master's of Education degrees from West Texas State University. She has also attended Amarillo Junior College and Eastern New Mexico University.

When asked if she could recall some memorable event during her career of teaching, Mrs. Ratcliff replied, "I remember when we moved from Stanton to the new high school building in 1956-57. We just carried our papers and personal things from one building to the other. We were so excited about the new high school."

After her retirement Mrs. Ratcliff plans to become more active in her church work at the First Presbyterian Church where she is a member. She enjoys gardening, playing bridge and hopes to catch up on some reading. She also plans to travel and would like to visit her sons, Joe who lives in Houston, and Richard, who is now living in Central America and working with the United States Embassy.

Also retiring this year along with Mrs. Ratcliff is Mrs. Mozelle Neill, Herford High School librarian. Mrs. Neill has taught 23 years, 18 of which has been in Herford. She has taught English, and Spanish classes at Van Horne and Higgins, Tex.

She received her Bachelor of Arts, Masters of Education and Certification in Library Science degrees. Her B.A. and M.A. degrees were received at West Texas State University and her C.L.S. degree was received at Texas Womens University at Denton.

Mrs. Neill, a graduate of Herford High School has taught 3rd, 4th, 5th and 8th grades. She postponed further teaching until World War II when she returned because of a demand for teachers.

She returned to Herford in 1955 and has served as librarian for the past 10 years. After retirement she has plans of becoming more involved in civic activities, enjoying reading, playing bridge and spending more time playing the organ.

HHS Teachers Plan Activities

The end of school scheduled for May 25 finds Herford High School teachers formulating their summer activities.

Mrs. Gerry Hodges plans to go to Weatherford, Tex. for two weeks to visit, and during July she is going to take a trip with her daughter to Yellow Stone National Park.

"I'm going to play for the rest of the summer."

During the past summers Mrs. Hodges has gone to school and has not had much time for summer activities.

Mr. G.C. Graves will not have much time for restful activities because he is going to work in the Distributive Education training program and will be finding new training stations. He also will be working with new students.

After he is finished with the D.E. program he is going to work for the Newton Manufacturing Company and also will take a trip to the mountains for a short rest and then to Austin to see his daughter.

Coach Aaron Bourland will be attending West Texas State University and when he is not doing this he is going to coach American Legion Baseball.

Mr. J. Marvin Hunter Jr. and his wife are going to go to Bandera for a few days and then will take their 31-foot Holiday Rambler on a trailer trip through Colorado and then on to Casper, Wyo. and Vancouver, Canada, returning to their Bandera home for Christmas.

Mrs. Karen Chapman is going to West Texas State University to work on her masters degree in English.

Mrs. Dorothy Brink will spend her summer vacation camping. She and her husband are going to take a young group of children from the First Christian Church on a ten day hiking trip to the Pecos Wilderness which is near Santa Fe, N.M. After this, if they can schedule enough time before school begins, the Brinks are planning to go to the mountains or to Galveston Island and do some writing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wills will attend classes at the University of Texas at Austin to study Library Science, in which she will be engaged at Herford High School Library next year.

Mrs. Sue Painter and her husband plan to go to the lake and spend some time in their cabin.

Mrs. Joyce Wartes will attend West Texas State University. Mr. John Claypool said he is going to do a lot of flying over Texas, Colorado, and Kansas during the summer. He will be accompanied by his wife.

There are many members of the faculty who were not asked about their specific plans who are planning trips, attending school and participating in a various number of other interesting things.

May Lunch Ends Club Year

Music Study Club participation in Hereford's Diamond Jubilee next summer was planned at the traditional May lunch Monday ending a club year. It was held in the home of Mrs. Wesley Fisher, who was completing a two-year term as president.

As one of the women's clubs dating back longest in the history of the city, the 57-year-old group will enter a float in the Jubilee parade and members will assist in other phases of the celebration. Officers for a new term were installed at the luncheon.

Piano Student To Appear In Evening Solo Recital

An original composition by piano student Philip Zinser will be included on the solo recital program he will play at 8 p.m. Friday in Ward Parlor of First United Methodist Church. The public is invited to hear the program.

In the eighth grade at La Plata Junior High, Zinser is a piano pupil of Mrs. Joe Hacker and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zinser Jr.

He recently was named alternate in the annual Amarillo Symphony auditions for student pianists. In that contest he played Youth Concerto (Kabalevsky), which will be one of his recital selections.

He will also play Four Bach Inventions, the Beethoven Sonata Pathétique, a Chopin Ballade, Elegy by Rachmaninoff and Bernstein's Toccata Francaise.

The young pianist has consistently earned high ratings in Junior Music Festivals sponsored by district Federated Music Clubs, and in National Piano Guild auditions for students. He has been working with composition the past few years.

Jam Session Sponsored By Rebekahs

Musicians will be admitted without charge and spectators at a dollar for adults and 50 cents for children, at a Western

Jamboree which the Rebekah Lodge will sponsor at 8 p.m. today in the IOOF Hall. Anyone who wants to make music or sing is invited to appear for the informal jam session. Soloists and groups will be on the program. There will be some square dancing, too, by members of Merry Mixers Club.

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Daring more federal court challenges, the House Reapportionment Committee has advanced a "redistricting" bill that makes virtually no changes in present representative districts.

The Committee bill, approved 12-8, would retain multi-member House districts in all but the three metropolitan counties of Bexar, Dallas and Harris.

Rep. Joe Wyatt of Bloomington, the sponsor, said he would accept an amendment on the House floor to give Tarrant County single-member districts like those in the three larger counties.

Chairman Rep. Fred Head of Troup favored dividing all urban counties, which now have two or more representatives, into single-member districts. Committee action, in effect, took control of the bill from Head on the floor.

A three-judge federal court in January, 1972, ordered single-member House districts for Bexar and Dallas counties and gave the legislature until July 1 to rewrite a 1971 reapportionment scheme.

Representatives were warned before the vote that if the U.S. Supreme Court upholds the 1972 ruling, it is likely to order single member, individual House districts in all urban counties.

The bill as advanced further did not meet federal court disapproval of a 9.9 per cent population spread between smallest and most-populous Texas House districts.

However, Wyatt contended the Supreme Court in a Virginia case later upheld a 16.4 per cent deviation.

UNNECESSARY "ENERGY" ADS

The House Natural Resources Committee held a hearing on HSR 131 last week — a measure that requests advertisers to "not use advertisements to urge the public to use more power or energy than is reasonably necessary."

House authors are Representatives Ben Grant, Marshall, and Woody Denson, Houston.

Grant testified before the Committee that his bill was not intended regulate advertising of energy companies in Texas — but to urge advertisers to "teach or persuade the public to conserve or decrease the use of energy and to avoid all wasteful uses of power."

He cited some of the copy used by Conn Edison — a major utility in the East.

A spokesman for the Southwest Electric Power Company told the Committee that his company was against the bill because they did not feel the state should "get into the business of curtailing advertising."

"We have a surplus of power," he said. "Conn Edison has a shortage. We need to urge our consumers to use more electricity in the winter for heating purposes. We have the power available, and we need to sell it in order to pay for our bonds."

"Our consumers use our power supply in the summer when air conditioning is needed," he continued. "But we need to 'sell' them on winter-time power consumption through our advertising programs. We don't think the state legislature should get into advertising controls in Texas."

Grant said he was merely trying to encourage advertisers to avoid waste of energy, and that he would oppose "mandatory" regulations also.

The bill was sent to the Oil and Gas subcommittee of the Natural Resources Committee.

VENDING MACHINE FIRMS EYED

The attorney general's office and 14 other government agencies are investigating operations of 11 vending machine corporations in five cities.

Visitorial letters were served on the firms requesting that books and records be made available for inspection.

The Department of Public Safety, State Comptroller, State Securities Board, Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission and law enforcement agencies in the cities are cooperating in the probe, coordinated by the Attorney General's Organized Crime Strike Force.

Firms are located in Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth, Grand Prairie and San Antonio.

Details of the investigation were not disclosed. Refusal of a Grand Prairie concern to allow inspection of records resulted in filing a misdemeanor complaint in Dallas County Criminal Court No. 2.

DISASTER AID AVAILABLE, LIMITED

The federal Small Business Administration will make disaster loans in Hale, Navarro and Frio Counties as a result of April 15 tornadoes.

CONVENTION DISCORD RAISED

Senate planners for the 1974 constitutional convention were angered by House efforts to dominate the arrangements committee.

The House adopted a resolution calling for 16 members of the convention planning committee and only five senators. Senate spokesmen said the proposal will never be accepted.

Meanwhile, House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. said he does not condone circulation of a petition endorsing him as convention chairman. Both Lt. Gov. Hobby and Daniel have acknowledged they are interested in the chairmanship, although they say they are not campaigning. Several House members have endorsed Daniel.

SHORT SNORTS

A proposed constitutional amendment providing for annual legislative sessions and a $15,000 salary for lawmakers has been cleared for a November 5 statewide election.

Both houses of the Legislature also have agreed to a bill overhauling workmen's compensation laws and raising maximum benefits to $63 a week starting September 1.

The House passed bills to restore the death penalty for certain crimes, to lower the first offense penalty for possessing up to an ounce of marijuana to a misdemeanor (punishable by up to six months in jail and $1,000 fine), and to allow competitive auto insurance rates.

Legislation giving 18-20-year-olds full majority rights was amended in the House to restrict drinking and abortions until age 21.

Bail bond reform has been approved by the Senate.

Girl Forced To Find Happiness

A Single Girl and Redman in White Moccasins are new novels being featured this week at the Deaf Smith County Library.

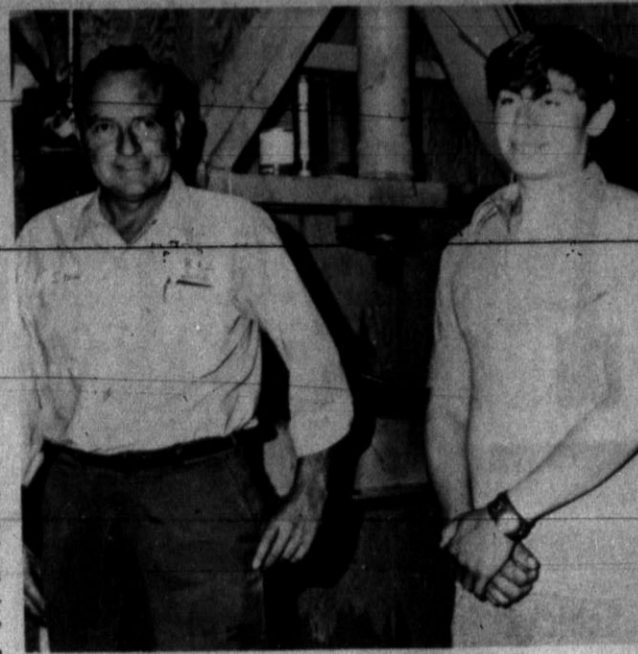

London is the setting for the novel A Single Girl. The story focuses on a young girl that is forced to find a medium between the permissiveness of her present life and the strict standards of her background.

Redman in White Moccasins is a novel of human compassion. Tom Little Bear is taken in by a rancher who believes everyone is entitled to fair treatment. The Indian returns the rancher's kindness through a strange turn of events.

The library is open to the public free of charge, weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday until noon.

Tom was no ordinary Indian. The first weeks of Tom's life as a cowhand weren't easy for anyone concerned. But Tom's sure and quiet skills carried him through, although it took many months and many challenges, including a flash fire, rustling and an emotion-charged rodeo, for the other ranch hands to appreciate the courage and strength of the red man.

And soon after he was finally accepted as the equal of any white man, Tom found himself able to repay Ben's faith and humanity in a strange turn of events no one ever expected.

DE STUDENT OF THE WEEK—The Distributive Education student of the week is Johnny Jimenez, son of Mr. and Mrs. M.S. Jimenez of Rt. 3. He is employed with K & S Sales under the supervision of Marion Treinen. After graduation, Jimenez plans on attending college.

DPS Reports 10 Local Accidents

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 10 accidents on rural highways in Deaf Smith County during the month of April, according to Sergeant W.E. Wells, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in no persons killed and four persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1973 shows a total of 38 accidents resulting in no persons killed and 14 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety, Region No. 5, for April, 1973 shows a total of 544 accidents resulting in 24 persons killed and 283 persons injured as compared to April, 1972 with 445 accidents resulting in 44 persons killed and 232 persons injured.

This was 99 more accidents, 20 less fatalities and 51 more injuries in 1973 at the same period of time.

The veteran officer reminds you that the accident rate has increased about 20 per cent in the 60 counties of Region No. 5. We have more than seven million licensed drivers on Texas Highways. Summer vacation time is approaching and more people will be using the roads.

The traffic deaths for the month of April, 1973 occurred in the following counties: Crosby, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn and Sherman, two each, and Clay, Floyd, Garza, Gray, Hartley, Oldham, Palo Pinto, Parker, Potter, Randall, Terry, Wichita, Wise and Wheeler, one each.

Roman wall section found in Jerusalem

The archaeologist Maen Broshi has discovered a section of the ancient Roman wall of Jerusalem, built by order of Emperor Hadrian in the 2nd Century A.D. on Mount Zion.

Broshi says it is fairly certain that the wall was part of Aeli Capitolina, the city built by Hadrian on the ruins of Jerusalem after the suppression of the revolt of the Jews under Bar Kockba in 135 A.D.

A SINGLE GIRL
By Mary Danby

In this first novel by the great-granddaughter of Charles Dickens, Mary Danby leaves no doubt that she has what it takes in her own right to perpetuate the distinguished literary tradition of her family.

Critics in England have already agreed that she has fashioned a provocative and highly readable novel dealing with youth and inexperience, and the problems created by the confusion of values in contemporary life.

Set in London, the story revolves around Jane Carpenter, a naive and protected young English girl whose American fiance is killed in Vietnam.

Out of a sense of guilt at having denied him because of her conventional upbringing, and in a perverse attempt to make up for it by throwing herself with complete abandon into a maelstrom of meaningless relationships, and experience—including drugs—Jane is ultimately forced to find for herself a balance between the permissiveness of her present life and the rigid standards of her background.

With great skill, sensitivity and wit, Miss Danby focuses on the problem of values and brings them to the center of her book, revealing in A Single Girl her keen eye for observation, a strong sense of humor, and a no-nonsense use of the English language.

REDMAN IN WHITE MOCCASINS
By Glenn R. Verman

It might have been a different story for Tom Little Bear if he hadn't had the good luck to meet Ben Duane, a rancher in northern Wyoming who worked on the idea that everybody deserved an even break, which was why he picked up Tom and gave him a job after a cheating farmer had pushed the young Indian off a moving train rather than pay him three months back wages.

The time was not too far removed from Custer's massacre and the average white man had little love for the Indians.

But Ben Duane was no ordinary man and, as it turned

Supper To Begin Summer Schedule

Wet grounds in the ranch country west of Hereford forced postponement of a picnic lunch and tour of the old XIT Escarbada Headquarters on the Reinauer Ranch Tuesday, so an indoor business meeting of Hereford CowBelles was held instead.

After lunch in Community Center, Mrs. Bob Josseland presided for business concerning summer activities and reports of recent projects.

A Dad's Day barbecue June 12 will officially close the CowBelles' first year. A catered barbecue supper will be served at 8 p.m. to members and their husbands.

Ballots were cast at the lunch to nominate an honorary CowBelle who will be recognized at the barbecue; his identity will not be announced until that evening.

The barbecue will occur in Beef-for-Fathers-Day week, to be promoted by a CowBelles' committee headed by Marn Tyler. She reported plans for publicity in this county, and said beef tidbits will be served in grocery stores here June 13.

Entry of a float in the city's Diamond Jubilee parade late in the summer is planned, and Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr. reported that Ranch Life Then and Now will be its theme.

On the float committee are Mmes. Ed Reinauer, W.E. Dameron, Genevieve Guseman, Ron Crist, Wake Northcutt, Thurman Deas and Carl Klusken.

Mrs. Reece Lawson summarized the visit here last week of a Beefmobile where CowBelles served as hostesses to distribute literature and recipes to shoppers, and announced that the Big Texan steer figure will be loaned by an Amarillo cafe for use in the Fathers Day promotion and the Jubilee parade.

Mrs. Dick Coupe reminded members that napkins with area cattle brands printed on them will be sold here, and ranchers who want their brands and names included may arrange to have them.

Fay Bullard was appointed to represent the Herford group on a state constitution revision committee, and Mrs. Tyler as a nominee for a committee to choose a Texas CowBelle of the Year.

A large stuffed felt figure of Ferdinand the Bull, received by Mmes. Richard Ottesen, Pete Caviness and Virgil Marsh as a door prize at the state CowBelles convention in Lubbock last month, was presented to the local group as Mrs. Ottesen told an amusing revised version of the story of Ferdinand.

Hostess arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mmes. Joe Reinauer, Eldred Brown, Josseland and Ottesen. It was announced that the trip to the Escarbada location will be made at a drier date in the future.

CO-OPERATION

the joint action having survival values. How awful to be a foe, —against everything good. If you would build a greater church; a finer society; a better world... cooperation is necessary.
If progress is expected, teamwork is a must. Thank God for power which increases with effort. Don't break up the meeting when the majority votes against you... join hands for the common good. Pool your efforts for the glory of God. Rivalry must give way to progress, to constructive cooperation.
Let us work together for good, for God,— for the night cometh when on man can work.

Young Homemaker Has Time For Church, Club

By SUE COLEMAN

WORK IN THE HOUSE, yard and vegetable garden at her home eight miles north of Hereford, where she has lived the past year and is "still getting it fixed up" occupies most of Mrs. Bud Kelley's spare time, but she has some left to give to church and club. She does not count as spare-time activity her work as leader of a Bluebird group and scorekeeper for Little League games, or time spent in family recreation; those are routine things to do with her children. Games the whole family can take part in are a part of that recreation, and so, are excursions to nearby places of interest, such as parks and museums.

A RECENT DAY IN the museum on West Texas State University campus was fascinating to the children, Janis Kelley says. The Kelly youngsters are Kevin, 10, Kellie, 9, and John, 8.

Music has been a part of Mrs. Kelley's life since she was had piano lessons then, and still plays that instrument, serving as pianist at her church, Greenwood Baptist. She enjoys playing accompaniment for singing, by a few or a whole congregation.

A member of the Whiteface Band the first year that high school musical group won sweepstakes awards in the district, she was in the clarinet section.

Her daughter is a piano pupil now, and she hopes all three children will enjoy music in school as she did.

THE KELLEYS MOVED to their home in the country after living in Hereford, and like the new location for themselves and for the children. Kelley is employed with Holly Sugar.

A Hereford native, Mrs. Kelley is the former Janis Medley, who has spent practically all her life here "and wouldn't think about leaving." Three months residence in Dallas convinced her that she prefers a small town, "where it's so nice to know everybody!"

Her liking for housework, cooking even to making her own bread, canning and freezing produce of her own garden, and sewing for herself and her children, is reflected in her membership in the local chapter of Young Homemakers of Texas, in which she has been elected president for next year.

THIS YEAR SHE IS SERVING as area parliamentarian and she has filled various local offices in her four years of membership, as she did in Future Homemakers when she was in high school.

Young Homemakers is an extension of the schools' FHA; it assists the FHA program and each year chooses an FHA member as the chapter's Little Sister to enter district and state contests in homemaking skills.

Janis Kelley began learning those skills at home and her mother was her first teacher in cookery.

"Just now I'm finding that I have a very patient mother," she says with a laugh, "because I want to teach my daughter to cook too, and I'm sure the messes she makes in the kitchen are the kind I made when my mother was helping me learn."

The recipe for a favorite cake in the Kelley family came from Mrs. Kelley's aunt, Mrs. W.P. Epperson. It is quick and easy to mix and bake, and delicious to eat, Mrs. Kelley says.

Clayton Fears Bill May
Let Dope Pushers Loose

The bill as passed by the House to reduce penalties for possession of marijuana could let some dope pushers out of prison and back on the streets, State Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake said today.

Clayton voted against the bill which passed the House by a 97-38 vote Monday. Under the measure, approximately 700 persons now serving time for possession of marijuana must be re-sentenced, Clayton added, and noted that many of these men were sentenced for simple possession, but were in fact pushers and in possession of substantial amounts of the weed when arrested.

These men must all be re-sentenced at high cost to the state under terms of the new bill, and many will be released, he said.

Clayton was also in favor of reducing the amount of marijuana for first time possessions to one-half ounce instead of one ounce, as the bill calls for.

"A half-ounce of marijuana will make 10 to 15 cigarettes, and if they have more than that number on them, I feel like they are not one of the innocent first time offenders this bill is supposed to make allowances for," Clayton added.

Convention Plans
Close BSP Year

Invitations to 87 chapters of Beta Sigma Phi in this area were mailed by the Hereford BSP Council after its meeting Monday evening, asking members to come to the annual area convention here in October.

Various convention plans were discussed at the council meeting in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. The four Hereford chapters will be hostesses at the fall session.

New and retiring members of the council met together Monday for a salad supper, the final meeting of the regular season. Officers were elected and installed to serve for 1973-74.

Mrs. Max Stipe took office as president, Mrs. Ken Walsler vice president, Mrs. Bobby Jones secretary, Mrs. Johnnie Burkhalter correspondent, Mrs. Ken Wiley treasurer and Mrs. Tom Bullard reporter.

Mrs. Jim Cramer, whose term as president closed with the election, installed the new officers.

Others present for the supper were Mmes. Jerry Shipman, Delbert Bainum, Kenneth Ruland, Harold Beauchamp, Howard Gore, Bill Drake, Lonnie Coffey, Clyde Whitaker, Gerald Sledge.

Also Mmes. Fred Ruland, Archie Dwyer, Hicks Roberson, James Shearer, Richard Williams, Fred Mulkey Jr., Davie Sorrells and Nolan Grady.
