

Fire Destroys Pickup

Hereford Volunteer Firemen put the final douse to a pickup fire Monday afternoon about three miles north of town on Progressive Road. The pickup was owned by Reese Lawson and was hauling trash to the city dump and the trash apparently ignited and the vehicle was engulfed in flames when firemen arrived. Lt. Paul Hagar rakes clean the bed of the vehicle as Drill Capt. Keith Munnerlyn sprays on water.

County Calls For Bids On Library

The proposed new library for Deaf Smith County moved another step toward reality Monday when county commissioners approved final plans and called for bids on the project.

Commissioners studied the contract plans Monday and made only one slight change. Architect Herb Brasher of Lubbock briefly outlined the plans for the court. Bids are to be opened on July 18 at 1:20 p.m.

IN OTHER business Monday, county commissioners approved purchase of a new sheriff's car, endorsed a regional board for mental health and retardation centers, set county Board of Equalization hearings for July 5-6, took preliminary action to set speed limits on certain county roads, and discussed the county's new unit system.

Money for the new county library, estimated to cost approximately $300,000, will come from general revenue sharing funds. The county formally tagged the funds in a recent meeting. County Judge H.C. Williams reported Monday that the revenue sharing funds received to date, including interest, amounted to $265,042.97.

THE PURCHASE of a new car for the sheriff's department was approved in the afternoon, after commissioners instructed the sheriff to secure bids on different vehicles. Morning bids from Orval Watson Ford and Dick Norwood Chevrolet were for a Mercury and an Oldsmobile. After a brief discussion, the commission asked the sheriff to get bids on a Ford and a Chevrolet.

The low bid of $2,760, plus trade-in, was accepted from Orval Watson Ford for a Ford Galaxy 500. Norwood Chevrolet bid $3,777.43 difference for a Chevrolet Impala, which had a larger engine than the Ford. First bids on the Mercury and Oldsmobile were $3,241.22 and $3,806.70, respectively.

AFTER SEVERAL commissioners discussed damage to some of the county's black-top roads, the court checked into legal requirements in setting speed limits on the roads. Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval reported that an engineer's report would be needed to justify the action, and Road Supt. Chuck Eppler was instructed to make such a survey.

Commissioner Donald Hicks reported that heavy trucks, travelling at high rates of speed, were causing much damage on some roads. The court agreed that the roads were not built to sustain such traffic, and will probably set a limit of 50 to 60 m.p.h. for trucks in the near future. They pointed out it was costing the county too much money to maintain the roads under undue stress conditions.

Commissioner Bruce Coleman explained a plan to form a regional board to administer funds for the Mental Health-Mental Retardation Centers. He said it would give local communities more control over the operation of the centers. Commissioners endorsed the plan and appointed Coleman to serve as the county's representative to such a board.

SITE OF THE library will be the southeast corner of the block directly north of the courthouse. The entrance will front on the southwest and will have a foyer which includes a spiral staircase to the basement. This will permit access to a basement meeting room when the library is closed.

An elevator will also be encompassed by the staircase. Only about one-third of the basement area will be finished in the construction, providing a meeting room with a small stage, and a mechanical and janitorial room.

The main floor will be divided into several areas, including private reading and research sections. The librarian's work room will serve to divide sections of the main floor. Commissioners decided to include a "charge desk" for the librarian as part of the plans, instead of having the desk with equipment and furniture to be purchased.

The exterior of the building will be white masonry, topped by a grey slate-type material. Much of the yard area in front will be of exposed aggregate concrete with several areas planned for planting roses. Sitting in on the review of the plans were two interested ladies—Mrs. Terry Caviness and Mrs. Joe Reinauer Jr.—who have attended other planning sessions.

Hereford was first incorporated as a city in 1903, but it was a hotly contested election and the issue carried by only nine votes. Four months later, voters chose to have the incorporation annulled. The city incorporated again in 1906. Read this story and many more about the history of Hereford, in The Brand's Diamond Jubilee edition to be published Aug. 23!

HUSTLIN' Hereford continues to show signs of continued growth with new commercial and residential construction. Work has started on a new shopping center on West Park Avenue, featuring a TG&Y Family Center and Ideal Food Store; a Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant is under construction on N. 25 Mile Avenue; a Boots West store is near completion east US-60; and it was reported this week that a new drive-in grocery is planned on W. Park Avenue. Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce's industrial committee is still busy on contacts with potential industries. The committee is now seeking a labor survey to help in its efforts to secure new industry.

FARM PAPERS crossing our desk are decrying the unjust coverage concerning food prices. Farmland News, for example, says that the American family now spends only 16 per cent of its income for food today as opposed to 29 per cent for the English, 45 per cent for the Italians, and 80 per cent for those in India.

EVERYONE knows that taxes have gone up in recent years. But how high is up?

One measurement from the Tax Foundation is that the average American spends two hours and 34 minutes of his eight-hour working day earning the money to pay his combined local, state and federal taxes.

That's 32 per cent of his time. About one dollar of every three earned by the average citizen is now utilized for taxes.

Director Tells Regional Role

By O.G. NIEMAN

The role of the Panhandle Regional Health Council was explained to directors of the Deaf Smith County Hospital District during a regular meeting here Tuesday morning with E.L. Melin, director of health planning for the council, making the presentation.

In other business, directors formally approved an affiliation agreement with the new Texas Tech School of Medicine, reviewed the monthly financial statement, heard a progress report on the new hospital wing, and heard a report from Ron Welty, Deaf Smith General Hospital administrator.

THE HOSPITAL medical staff had approved the affiliation with Tech's School of Medicine at the last meeting, and directors formally approved the agreement Tuesday. Dr. J.H. McCrary said the medical staff was "pleased" with the arrangement and it would hopefully provide exposure of Hereford to medical students of the school.

Welty explained the agreement does not bind the hospital to programs of the school, and little expense would be required of the local hospital.

MELIN, in outlining the role of the health council, explained that it was a sub-division of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission. The council is an advisory group which reviews and comments on the health care requests presented to the PRPC.

"Our job is to work with hospitals in the region and help them secure their needs," Melin stated. He said the council was concerned with all aspects of health care—including rising costs, emergency care, preventive care, pre-natal care, and utilization of facilities. "You might call us the voice of the consumer," he added, "since most members of the council are non-medical profession people."

In discussing the philosophy of health care, Melin pointed out that our society is oriented to "sick care." That is, we have to be sick before we get help. Each person is responsible for his own health and is "perfectly willing to abuse it," he remarked.

Melin also referred to a recent state health care report, in which the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) claims that Texas had 3,000 excess hospital beds. The report shows the Panhandle with 150 more beds than required.

IN CONNECTION with Melin's talk, Welty later gave the board an analysis of Deaf Smith General's role in the health care system of the Panhandle. The administrator pointed out that Hereford was designated in the state planning as a service center for Deaf Smith, Castro and Parmer counties.

The state report showed three hospitals in this service area—at Hereford, Friona and Dimmitt—and a total of 169 hospital beds. The survey indicated this to be an excess of 68 beds, pointing to a need for greater utilization of the facilities. There are 77 accredited hospital beds.

Population of the area was listed at 40,533 and the population per physician was tabbed at 2,384. Other statistics revealed 12.5 people per square mile, and the population of age 65 and over represented 6.5 per cent of the total.

WELTY informed the directors that the new obstetrics wing of the hospital has been delayed by light-fixture. A strike delayed delivery of the fixtures, now expected the latter part of the month.

Hereford Is Friendly, But...

Everyone in Hereford takes pride in the city's attitude. However, Mark Roberson probably hadn't intended to be as friendly as others took him to be.

Roberson of 328 Star left his 1973 Datsun pickup parked at a service station near the intersection of 25 Mile Avenue and Morman Street late last Friday night. When he returned he found a note underneath the windshield wiper of his pickup. It read:

"Hey man, thanks for the spare. We like your town. Bye."

Hereford Police officers have no suspects yet in connection with the missing tire, valued at $33.

Unit System Draws Fire

By O.G. NIEMAN
Publisher

Deaf Smith County's new "unit system" for county roads is not progressing fast enough in the opinion of County Judge H.C. Williams and commissioner Marcus Latham.

Their opinions came to light in the regular commissioner court meeting Monday, with the judge urging Road Supt. Chuck Eppler to "get on the ball" and take charge of the countywide system.

Commissioners Bruce Coleman, Donald Hicks and Earl Holt all expressed confidence in Eppler's work, pointing out that it took time for the transition. Hicks said he felt one problem for Eppler came in dealing with precinct foremen, with some of them perhaps resisting the new authority.

Holt added that "perhaps we have tied his hands too closely", referring to Eppler's control over the entire county road system.

DURING THE free exchange of opinions, Judge Williams declared that some county pickups were being used for personal use, and he told Eppler "it's your job to put a stop to it."

Latham reminded that the idea of the unit system was to consolidate use of equipment and crews and to avoid duplication. "I can't see that anything has changed except we have a larger payroll." He claimed that "we still are working as four precincts instead of one unit, and it's up to the road superintendent to make the change or it won't work."

Judge Williams emphasized that he wanted "the unit system to work" in checking with counties who have gone to the system, he reported, "none of them have ever reverted to the old way." Both the judge and Latham stated they were not implying the road superintendent should be dismissed, but both did ask for action in moving into the unit system.

WITH HICKS, Coleman and Holt calling for more time to give the system a chance to work, the discussion ended.

The county voted to change to the unit system in October, 1972, and the road superintendent was hired Feb. 1 this year. Judge Williams had backed the plan for several years and viewed it as not only "an economical move but one that would strengthen the commissioner's court."

The unit system, or "Optional County Road Law of 1947," is designed to place all county road work under the supervision of one man. It is also designed to avoid duplication of equipment, in four parts of the county, and provide more efficient administration of the road and bridge department.

WHEN THE county approved the system, Judge Williams stated: "I have no reservations about the unit system being far superior to the conventional system. It is only a matter of the county judge and four commissioners working together and causing it to work."

In similar statements, commissioners agreed that the only way to find out would be to give the system a reasonable trial, and that it would take the cooperation of all members of the county court.

'No Suspects' In Reported Theft

Hereford Police were investigating Wednesday into the reported theft of more than $1,800 in cash and checks from a local food store.

Gaylord Newell, owner of Piggy Wiggly, reported the theft to officers Tuesday morning after an employee discovered the loss late Monday night. The money was apparently taken from a money bag intended for night depository at the bank.

Police Chief Don Brush said there were no suspects in the case as of Wednesday, but added he did not believe it was an "outside professional job."

Newell told officers the theft apparently occurred between 7:10 and 8 p.m. Monday night. He said the money was placed in a cash drawer to be deposited later in the bank deposit. The money was then discovered missing about 8 p.m. when another employee prepared to deposit it.

Officers reported the building apparently had not been burglarized. A tabulation of the missing money revealed $1,815.05 missing — mostly in cash with a few checks.

City Tables Request For Motorcycle Trails

By DON RICHARDS
Brand News Editor

A request to establish motorcycle trails for Hereford cycle riders was tabled Monday night until City Commissioners can study the request and the proposed area for the trails.

The commission, meeting during regular session in City Hall, decided to postpone action on the matter after listening to Deaf Smith Asst. County Agent Robert Devin make the request in behalf of local 4-H students.

Members of the commission discussed the request and generally agreed that a designated place for motorcycle riders would be better than "Having them running around the streets."

Devin assured the commissioners that safety would be the main concern in creating the trails. He had requested the old gravel pit just north of the Friona Highway and across from the Caviness Packing plant.

"There are more motorcycles on the road today than ever before," Devin said. "Youngsters need to know something about safety, maintenance and operation of cycles and the responsibilities that go with the driving of them."

"We don't want the trails for any high-powered or dangerous events. We just want to hold safe, recreational events."

Ernest Langley, city attorney, told commissioners that the city would face the risk of liability in letting the 4-H use the gravel pit because other unsupervised groups would use the pit and "the possibility of someone getting injured is there."

"However, the attorney said the risk of liability would be the same as is now observed in the playground areas of city parks.

Mayor Jim Sears suggested a short-term daylight-hours-only lease be negotiated with the 4-Hers for use of the pit. He also suggested that police officers could drive by occasionally to police the motorcycle trails.

Commissioner Frank Barrett then moved to table the matter until the city can inspect the gravel pit and study the problems and beneficial factors of the motorcycle trails at the requested area.

"I hope I have at least sold you on the idea of a need for motorcycle trails in the city," Devin said. "I want to teach responsibility and safety and all the 4-H members will help with the building of fences or other things necessary if you let us use the gravel pits. We just want a safe place to ride."

Commissioners Dub Boyd and Paul Abalos also generally agreed with the idea of providing riding space away from the public roads, but commissioner H.A. Cavness said he would "back off" from the voting because he was prejudiced concerning motorcycles.

In other action before the commission, Jim McAndrews was given a five-year lease of 6.5 acres of city property near the old city dump for use as waste-water ponds for his feed yards.

The city had discussed the lease agreement at the meeting with Ray Cowsert, attorney for McAndrews. Cowsert appeared before the commission again Monday night requesting final approval of the request.

The commissioners accepted Cowsert's offer of $50 per acre as rent for the land as long as it was used for a feed yard. Cowsert also promised the city McAndrews would obey the ordinances of the nearby city airport, Texas Water Quality Control Board and the Clean Air Act.

Bill Phipps was appointed as city building inspector at the recommendation of Dudley Bayne, city manager. Bayne was on vacation and was absent from the meeting.

Commissioners also appointed Drs. Howard Johnson, M.D., and Ken Hunt, M.D., as local representatives on the board of directors of Region 3 Mental Health-Mental Retardation Center, Panhandle Regional Health Center.

Lloyd McGee was scheduled to appear before the commission to discuss closing of an alley, but canceled his part of the agenda before the meeting.

Firemen Suspect Arson

Hereford Fire Marshal Jay Spain said he suspected arson as the cause in one of six fires extinguished over the weekend.

"We are still looking at it," Spain said. "But it looks like arson is a strong possibility."

The suspected fire Sunday involved the residence of Paul Sanchez at 327 Avenue E. The General alarm fire apparently started on the outside of the house and burned out a window seal and the back side of the house. Amount of damage in the blaze was not determined.

In other action firemen extinguished a grass fire south of U.S. 60 on the Dimmitt cutoff about 6:15 p.m. last Friday.

About 5:30 Sunday a truck fire was reported by Ronnie Hathaway in Poorboy Wrecking Yard. The pickup truck seat apparently ignited from sparks from nearby welding and the fire resulted in the total loss of the vehicle.

About 3 p.m. Sunday volunteer firemen answered a general alarm truck fire near the Tower Drive-In Theater.

The truck, belonging to Felix Estrada, caught fire from nearby burning trash and major damage was done to the two rear tires of the vehicle.

Mrs. Reese Lawson reported another truck fire about three miles north of Progressive Road shortly before 3 p.m. Monday. The pickup-truck was carrying trash toward the city dump and was ignited by an undetermined cause. The vehicle was a total loss by the time firemen were able to reach the blaze.

The sixth fire, and 14th reported fire alarm of the month, came Monday about 8:30 p.m. when the right-of-way grass caught fire near the Santa Fe Railway line. Firemen quickly extinguished the fire and reported back to the station within a few minutes.

Kiwanians Hear Of Wiretaps Bugging

A former FBI agent and now security advisor for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company talked of "bugs," wiretaps and of the $34 million loss of the telephone company to fraudulent practices during Hereford Kiwanis Club regular noon meeting last Thursday.

Robert Wimmer, formerly with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Army counter-intelligence agency, spoke to Kiwanians as a weekly program brought by Deaf Smith County Sheriff Travis McPherson.

Wimmer explained the problems faced by the phone company through fraudulent practices of individuals or groups. He said the phone company probably spend more now to fight these frauds than the frauds actually cost the company.

"However, you just can't allow these frauds to continue or they would grow larger and larger," he said.

Wimmer said the biggest problem of the phone company is the nuisance call. He said these type of calls were against the law and urged people to report them first to the police or district attorney and to the telephone company.

Wimmer said tracers are then placed on the phones to discover the origination of nuisance calls.

"Be sure to log the calls, what time you get them and the number of calls you get," he said. "This is a legal wiretap and can be used with your permission."

Wimmer then explained the difference between wiretaps and "bug."

He said bugging was the implanting of a microphone in a room or anywhere to listen to conversations. Wiretapping, he explained, concerns telephones specifically.

"James McCord planted bugs inside telephones in the Watergate case, thus creating wiretapping in addition to bugging," Wimmer said.

"But it is my duty to protect the telephone company's assets and to also protect the public through the use of the phone company's assets," he said. Glancing at his watch, Wimmer said, "Within an hour, a wiretapper will be arrested in a city within your (Hereford's) division and will be in custody of law officials."

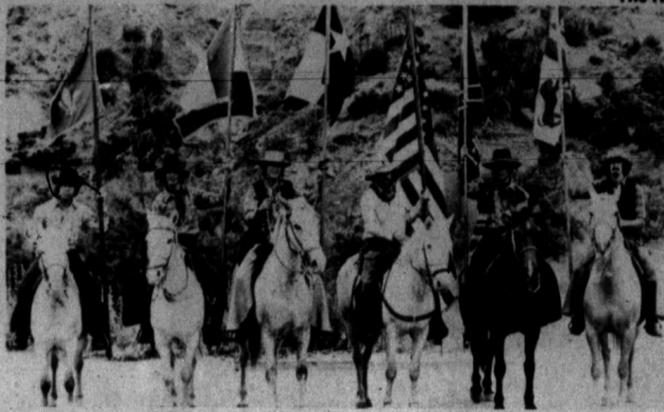

You have a right to the private use of your phone and I'm here to try to give you that right," he said. "Wiretapping has to be unknown to either party on the phone. If one person knows a third party is listening then it is not wiretapping. Both parties have to be unaware of the third party."

Rites Set Today For Ex-Resident

Funeral services are to be held today in Shawnee, Okla., for Mrs. George Hunter, a longtime resident there who formerly lived in Hereford. Mrs. Hunter died Monday in retirement home at Plainview.

She was the former Dot Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Owens; she spent her childhood in Hereford and was graduated from high school here, moving to Shawnee after her marriage.

Mrs. Jack Roberson of this city is her sister, and Mrs. A.H. Manjeot a niece. Mrs. Roberson is attending the funeral.

Opens 8th Season Tonight

Riders from the cast of 'Texas' musical drama line up to practice for the opening showing in Palo Duro Canyon with the colors of the six flags that have flown over the state. "Texas" opens tonight and will run nightly during the summer except Sundays.

'Texas' Opens 8th Season

Prizes will be waiting for the 242 person who walks up the ramp tonight to see the Gala Opening of the eighth season of the musical drama "Texas", because he or she will be the 500,000 person to attend this production. In seven years the show has drawn half a million people.

The Paul Green show this season will be the finish of many races against time - as it always is at the opening of a new season.

The directors, William and Margaret Moore, Royal Brantley and Neil Hess, have had to find time to prepare the members of the cast so that the opening comes at the peak of their powers when they are ready but not jaded or tired.

THE costumers led by Charlotte Brantley have prepared a new look for the second act overture and renewed the other scenes. However, this took more time than usual because the new members of the cast happen to be very different sizes from the ones they are replacing. Pat Jarrett and his sound and light crew have been working day and night for two months to install a new lighting system.

UNDER THE leadership of Mrs. Nolon Henson, the committee for the Gala Opening will find time to hang the works of the finalists in the Windmill Art Competition and help the judges choose the winners. She must also arrange for the best-of-show ceremony from the stage.

After seven years of experience in making these races come out even, the staff will present the finish, the Gala Opening of the eighth season of "Texas", to its audience at 8:30 P.M. CDST tonight.

Indians Move 1-Up In Playoff

The Indians moved into a one game-up situation over the Orioles in Pony League action Tuesday night with an 8-7 win over the birds in the first game of the best-of-three series.

The two teams will now tangle tonight in the second game and a third game will be played Friday should the Orioles win tonight. All games start at 8:30 p.m. in Veterans Park.

The Indians used plain-ole power to batter their way past the Orioles as three Indians knocked home runs during the 10-hit barrage. The Orioles garnered their seven runs off four hits during the game.

Winning pitcher for the Indians was Dale Tarr with Mike Reyes losing his first pitching battle against the Indians in three tries.

The Orioles were leading going into the top of the 6th inning 7-6, even after three Indians had clouted their homers. However, Steve Hoover doubled in two more runs for the Indians which proved to be the winning margin.

The Orioles will not try to even up the series in the game tonight. The Indians had won the first half of league action and the Orioles took the second half.

Two Wrecks Reported

Hereford Police officers investigated two accidents during a light traffic weekend in the city.

Shortly after 6 p.m. Saturday an accident in the 300-block of Park Avenue knocked down a support post to an awning to a business. According to police records a 1963 Ford station-wagon driven by Jesus Mendoza Delecruz of Rt. 3 was headed north in a parking lot just off Park Avenue and struck the support post.

About 2:45 p.m. Monday at U.S. 60 and East Park Avenue an accident was reported between a 1967 Plymouth driven by William Franklin Ball, 336 Star, and a 1971 Buick driven by Larkin C. Lindsey of Portales, N.M.

The Buick was apparently headed east on U.S. 60 as the Plymouth made a left turn from east Park onto U.S. 60 headed east when the collision occurred.

In other police action during the weekend three illegal aliens were arrested and the theft of $106 bicycle was reported.

Dispatchers also received calls for a reported window peeper and reports of a house burglary.

Whiteface Kiwanis Club Learns Of 385 Sights

The Whiteface Kiwanis Club learned of the tourist sights along U.S. 385 during regular breakfast meeting last Friday morning.

Guy Lawrence of Hereford and a member of the Highway 385 Association, told Kiwanians of the efforts of the group to get U.S. 385 designated all the way to Canada. The highway presently runs from the Texas-Mexico border in Big Bend National Park north to Deadwood, S.D. It then changes to U.S. Highway 85 up to and through Canada.

"We are trying to change it to 385 all the way so that we will have a continuous highway all the way," said Lawrence.

Lawrence went over many of the tourists attractions along and near the 385 and said the route was one of the most scenic and inexpensive to travel.

After a secret ballot of members, president Gene Brock announced the club will meet regularly at Dickies Restaurant instead of the Civic Club Center downtown.

Cablevision Explained To Hereford Rotarians

Hereford Rotarians got the "lowdown" concerning the installation of cable television in Hereford during the regular noon meeting Monday.

Roger Hale, manager of Cablevision, explained the concept of the cable television plan in Hereford and told members what to expect from the multi-channel service.

Introduced by Rotarian C.T. Gross, Hale said Cablevision would improve television reception in Hereford "even of the three Amarillo stations." However, he admitted it is not a cure-all to all television problems.

"But it will help a lot," Hale said. "You will get three Amarillo stations, three Dallas-

Ft. Worth stations and two local channels."

Hale said the local channels would be for weather, time, temperature, etc., and for locally-oriented programs. He said presently the local channels will carry public service announcements with FM music in the background.

The cable tv manager said the Dallas-Ft. Worth stations would include a lot of old movies and syndicated programs and one educational channel without commercials.

Hale explained the installation of the cable to each residence requesting and asked members to be patient until all the "bugs" can be worked out.

Auto Accident Victim's Funeral Is Held

The funeral of Odean Benjamin Nixon, 48, of 211 Ave. C, was conducted Tuesday afternoon in First United Methodist Church by Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor.

Burial Wednesday morning was in Hillcrest Cemetery at Rocky Ford, Colo. Local arrangements were by Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home.

Mr. Nixon was dead on arrival at a hospital in Boise City, Okla., Sunday, of injuries received in an automobile wreck near that city.

He had been a Deaf Smith County resident since 1947, when he moved from Rocky Ford. He was a livestock farmer.

Born April 21, 1925, at Rocky Ford, he married Annis Verlea Gettel there Sept. 6, 1947. He saw service in the U.S. Navy during World War II.

Survivors are his wife; two nephews who were reared in his home, Richard and Gary Dunning, both of Hereford; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Nixon of Rocky Ford, and a brother, Homer, of Leadville, Colo.

Trustees Continue School Plans

Hereford School Trustees sent architects back to the drawing board early Wednesday as they continued the search for the "right" floor plan for the new elementary school building to replace Central School.

Meeting with Lubbock Architect Herb Brasher for breakfast at the Caison House, trustees discussed in detail the different ideas and concepts for the new building and decided to call in elementary principals for further consultation before reviewing the plans again during the July 10 board meeting.

The board members, all except Dr. A.T. Mims who was out of town, discussed with Brasher a generally approved plan but differed on the design of the learning center classrooms. However, a modified version of open space-conventional classrooms has been agreed to by all.

Supt. Roy Hartman informed the members that a decision will be needed in the July 10 meeting concerning the recently state passed kindergarten plan for next fall. The plan requires the school to teach kindergarten on at least a half-day basis or a full-day basis for half the year. Also announced at the meeting was the appointment by the National Educators Association of Hartman as a state director for the association. The NEA is regarded as the major organized education group in the United States.

Who's Who Honor Given Resident

Selection for Who's Who In American Women is a recent honor accorded Argen Draper, Deaf Smith County Extension agent since 1947. Mrs. Draper was recently notified by Marquis Who's Who, Inc. of Chicago that she is included in the 1973-74 listing.

It notes that she was recipient of the National Home Demonstration Agents Association's distinguished service award in 1967, the superior award from Texas

A&M University in 1968, and was chosen Citizen of the Year by the Hereford Lions Club in 1967.

As a home economist who has taught and worked with the Texas A&M Extension Service for a total of more than 30 years, she is a member of a number of professional and civic organizations.

Born in Wellington, Argen Hix attended schools of that city and received the bachelor of science degree from Texas Tech in 1940, then married Tom Draper in 1946. She had taught in Wellington schools from 1932 to 1939 while working on her BS degree.

She came to Hereford as county agent in 1947 and completed requirements for a masters of science degree from Texas Woman's University in 1964. The Drapers live on their farm southwest of Hereford.

A member of the American Association of University Women and of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, she is also affiliated with Phi Upsilon Omicron and Epsilon Sigma Phi honor societies, the American Legion and VFW Auxiliaries, and the Order of Eastern Star of which she is a past matron in the Hereford chapter.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

HONOR LISTS FROM colleges for the spring semester are arriving in bunches now, with lots of Hereford students' names on them.

Rojean Block is listed on the dean's honor roll at Columbia College in the Missouri city of that name, where she is a freshman. She is the daughter of the Ivan Blocks, 200 N. Texas, and a graduate of Hereford High.

The honor lists, incidentally, gave me my first knowledge that Christian College at Columbia has changed its name to Columbia College. The new name may have been in effect some time, but somehow I'd missed the fact that the well-known old name appears in smaller type on the college stationery now, as "formerly Christian College."

AT ANOTHER MIDWEST college, the University of Kansas, Jana Denton Trent has earned a 3.9 average on a 4.0 scale to reach honor roll status. She is a junior in the college of liberal arts and sciences, majoring in art history.

Daughter of the Leon Dentons of this city, she is now attending the summer session of the university at Lawrence, Kan. John C. Cornelius, a senior in Panhandle State College at Goodwell, Okla., is another Hereford student earning honors at an out-of-state school.

In a Texas school, Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, Theresa Vines is named on the honor list for the past semester. Also, Eugene Suttle, freshman at Texas Tech, piled up 3.68 grade points of a possible 4.0 average to make the dean's list. He is a business administration major, son of the Gene Suttles, 803 Fourteenth.

SOMEBODY IN HEREFORD is nearly always ready to do a good turn when it's needed.

Hardly had the County Library's request for space to park its Jubilee parade float appeared in print, before the Bob Fullwoods phoned that there is room in the Fullwood Electric building and the library is welcome to use it.

It won't be the first parade float decorated there, Mrs. Fullwood says. And the library staff is most grateful, Gwen London says.

CACTUS IN THE Canadian River valley north of here is making a brilliant display of bloom right now, and will probably still be showy this weekend. A drive Sunday revealed thousands of the tall type of cactus full of bright magenta blooms.

You begin seeing them as soon as you reach the beginning of the river breaks on the highway between Vega and Boys Ranch, and soon they are on view all across the pastures as the road crosses canyons going toward the river.

We went across the Tascosa-Amarillo road which turns off just this side of the river bridge, and follows the river for miles. But when we crossed the river, none appeared on the other side.

Mesquite trees are in bloom, too, and there were still some yucca blossoms Sunday although their season is about over. We didn't see any prickly pear blooms; they are usually a little later than the tall cactus.

New fuel research program is announced

A new five-year, $25 million research program to "develop science and technology for the economic utilization of coal and hydrogen as energy sources to compensate for diminishing availability of oil and gas" has been announced by Dr. Sherwood Fawcett, president of Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, Ohio.

"The solution to this critical situation lies in the prompt development of domestic energy sources which meet appropriate environmental standards and are readily available for public consumption," he said.

NEWLY ELECTED president of the Jayce-Ettes, Mrs. Carl Lynn Hollingsworth is currently working with other club members preparing for the Diamond Jubilee celebration. "We hope to have a concession stand at the celebration and we have tentative plans for a chapter of Celebration Belles," states Mrs. Hollingsworth. "We are a civic minded organization and work hand-in-hand with the Jaycees. We have several money making projects to undertake this coming year."

SHE WAS ELECTED to her office in April and installed at the annual Jaycee-Jaycee-Ettes banquet. She had been a member for one year prior to her election.

Assistant teacher of a Sunday school class at the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Hollingsworth also was appointed director of the five-year-old class in Vacation Bible School.

Working with church groups is not new to her. After her marriage, the Hollingsworths lived in Amarillo where she was secretary of the San Jacinto Baptist Church. She later worked at First Baptist Church here.

DECOUAGING PLAQUES for her home and friends is one of the hobbies the young homemaker enjoys doing. She has made a set for her secret pal in Jaycee-Ettes and hopes to make some to give for Christmas.

She has an old milk can displayed in the living room of her home that she antiqued and decouaged. She also plans to refinish a buffet belonging to her grandfather.

Painting ceramics is another artistic talent of Mrs. Hollingsworth's. She has painted a ceramic cowboy and is helping her mother-in-law paint a two-foot-high manger scene.

SHE FINDS TIME to sew for her daughter, and herself besides being a member of a volleyball team. She also enjoys swimming and cooking.

She and her husband help with the Little Dribblers basketball league sponsored by Jaycees. She helps run the concession stand while he coaches. Hollingsworth was vice-president of the minor league last February. They also have taken up playing tennis.

The former Nancy Howard before her marriage in 1969, Mrs. Hollingsworth moved to Hereford from Dimmitt while a student in high school. She later attended West Texas State University and her husband attended Texas Tech University.

THE HOLLINGSWORTHS have one daughter, Amy, 17 months old. Hollingsworth is employed by the City Police Force.

For family birthdays, Mrs. Hollingsworth is in charge of baking the cakes. One of her favorite cake recipes is Quick and Easy Chocolate Cake.

Named To Office

Hereford's representative to Bluebonnet Girls State, now in session on the campus of Texas Lutheran College at Seguin, Babette Stengel has been elected city councilman for place 2, in the imaginary city of Git.

Mock election of city and state officials is a part of the program at Girls State, an annual convocation sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary units over Texas, to help the girls learn and practice the forms of government.

This year 516 girls from every part of the state, plus two from Mexico, are attending sessions from June 12 to 22. Each has just completed her junior year in high school and was selected from her local Legion Auxiliary on the basis of character, leadership and scholarship.

Babette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Stengel of Summerfield.

Weekly Market Report

Spring Delays Ripening

An usually late spring has delayed ripening of products in most Texas growing areas resulting in relatively short supplies, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt said this week. Specifically, the consumer marketing information specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, pointed to dry onion prices, noting some moderation, but added they're still "on the high side." "Cabbage, carrots, potatoes, corn, celery, mustard greens, squash, turnips, radishes and green onions generally are the most economical vegetables." Also oranges, grapefruit, bananas, lemons, and avocados. "There's a wider choice of small fruits as new items make their appearance on Texas markets. "These include apricots, cherries, peaches and nectarines — mostly in the high-price bracket. "Watermelons are more plentiful with more attractive prices. "Honeydew melons, mostly from the Texas Valley, are on the market now with prices likely as low as they will be this year. Their season is relatively short, so enjoy them now," she advised. Turning to meat and poultry counters, the specialist suggested chuck roast for family cookouts. "Cut it into cubes, marinate for kabobs and grill. "Also, ground beef and liver make good menu choices — no bones, no waste." At the pork section, Mrs. Clyatt cited values on smoked picnic, ham portions, some brands of bacon and sausage. "Fryer chickens are featured at more attractive prices in some markets — but not near

Recycled Fashion Aim Of Sew Fair

Recycling, a popular concept of today, will be the theme of the third annual Summer Sew Fair to be held Tuesday afternoon in the County Bull Barn, sponsored by the County Extension Service and open to all interested persons. Emphasis will be on recycling a wardrobe, its purpose to demonstrate the making of usable garments from discarded and out-of-style items. A fashion show of remade garments for both adults and children, will be staged with comment by Mrs. Ira Ott as a feature of the afternoon. Argen Draper, Deaf Smith County extension agent, will direct demonstrations by Joyce Shipp, extension agent here, Irene Keating, Castro County agent, and Jana Pronger, Parmer County agent. Mrs. Shipp will demonstrate top stitching; Mrs. Pronger, bias binding; Mrs. Keating, ribbing and finishing collars, cuffs and pockets. Objective of the Sew Fair is to encourage use of garments which might be thrown away,

At The Library

Jubilee Research Gets Aid From Library List

PREPARING FOR Hereford's Diamond Jubilee, many residents are looking for information on early history of the city and the High Plains area.

To meet this need, Lorene Newman, librarian, and the staff at Deaf Smith County Library have listed books available there which may be useful in arranging programs, building parade floats, finding information for club and church histories.

One concerning this county only, is Bessie Patterson's History of Deaf Smith County Featuring Pioneer Families, published in 1964.

SEVERAL BOOKS are concerned with the famous XIT Ranch, which included many acres in western Deaf Smith County and had one of its division headquarters, the Escarbada, in this county.

The fabulous story of the three-million-acre West-Texas ranch, which has been celebrated in song, story and serious history, is told by Lewis Nordyke in Cattle Empire, by J. Evetts Haley in XIT Ranch of Texas, and by Cordia Sloan Duke in 6,000 Miles Of Fence.

The latter book is written from reminiscences of old XIT cowmen, and puts on record the everyday life of the men who made the ranch run.

Their forthright and picturesque discussion of ranching hardships and dangers dissipates Hollywood and TV glamorizing. They relate in honest cowboy language what actually happened inside the XIT's 6,000 miles of fence.

HISTORY OF DEAF SMITH County's next-door neighbor, Castro County, is seen through the eyes of a resident who came to the Plains as a boy, in The Moving Finger, by Lillie Mae Hunter.

When the J.W. Carters, "following their herds like the patriarchs of the Bible," topped the Caprock in November of 1884, a whole new and unspoiled world lay before them. Thus the Castro County history begins.

This story, told later by Percy Estes who himself came to the area in boyhood and wished that he might have been in the Carter caravan, is told in the book.

Residents of Deaf Smith and other Western Panhandle counties as well as those of Castro County will return to the past in reading it.

PIONEER RANCHERS of a wider area of the Southwest are subjects of The Big Ranch Country, by J.W. Williams. This book reaches deep into the stories of the folks who established ranching in the Southwest.

Colorful tales of the finest cutting horse, the meanest cow thief, the most princely cowman of them all, even the hair-raising details of gunplay with a bad man whose name cannot be revealed, are told in bare-knuckle fashion that leaves no cushion of falsehood to soften the truth.

OTHER BOOKS listed, which touch on various phases of Plains history from Indian days to modern feedlot operation, include Cornado, Knight Of Pueblos And Plains, by Herbert E. Bolton; The Texas Panhandle From Cattlemen to Feed Lots, by F. Stanley.

Also Adobe Walls Bride, by John McCarty; Light And Hitch and Shortgrass And Longhorns, both by Laura V. Hamner; The Hereford Brand, Belle Of The Prairie Press, by Dudley M. Lynch, and all the novels of Loula Grace Erdman.

TSTI To Offer New Courses

TSTI in Amarillo will begin training students in September in two new career education fields — Feedmill Operation and Maintenance and Saddle and Tack Making.

Both new programs will be 36-weeks long and will train people to work in industries that have indicated a near critical shortage of employees.

Applications are now being accepted for enrollment in the two new programs, which will bring to 15, the number of programs being offered by the Mid-Continent Campus of TSTI.

The growth of the livestock feeding industry in the Panhandle and South Plains region has created a demand for trained feedmill personnel. A recent survey taken by TSTI showed a need for 109 feedmill operators at 43 feedmills.

The course will include classes in feeds, processing, inventory control, mill mechanics, welding, animal nutrition, elements of supervision, plus field trips to several operating feedmills in the area.

The Saddle and Tack Making program is an outgrowth of an evening program that TSTI began offering this year. A survey of 19 potential employers turned up a need for 56 persons trained in this field. Saddle and Tack Makers are needed to meet the increasing demand for custom made saddles and accessories. Opportunities are available for skilled craftsmen in this industry either self-employed or working for an established business or firm.

Courses in the Saddle and Tack Making curriculum include: identifying and grading leather, saddle design and layout, leather tooling, saddle making, tack making, industrial safety and business records.

Both the Feedmill Operations and Saddle and Tack Making courses will be taught on a five-day a week basis meeting approximately seven hours each day for 36-weeks.

For full details regarding entrance requirements, financial aids available or housing, write or phone the TSTI Registrar, P.O. Box 4228, Amarillo, 79105.

Autistic children need better care

England's National Society for Autistic Children reports that of 6,000 children in Britain suffering from autism, a form of mental illness, fewer than 500 are receiving proper education and treatment.

Many of the cases are not being correctly diagnosed, according to the report, which criticizes admission of autistic children to mental hospitals, "where they are fated to spend their lives."

Food is No. 1 on French budgets

According to figures published recently, food is still a Frenchman's No. 1 budget priority and on the average he spends more on his car than his rent.

Frenchmen spend 37.3 per cent of their income on food, with meat accounting for 12.8 per cent, and three out of five households own cars, with 10 per cent spent on maintenance with only 5.2 per cent for rent, the National Statistical Institute reports.

Letter To The Editor

Want Changes At Theatre

Dear Editor:

This complaint is in regard to an incident at the Star Theatre on a recent Friday night. There was a group of junior high students sitting all together, being very rowdy, all getting up and sitting back down numerous times during the course of the show.

This was annoying, however, but this was not nearly quite so offensive as the drinking of alcoholic beverages in the group. One person, in particular, became very obnoxious and loud so as to be a distraction to many people in the theatre. Then, if that were not enough, the individual vomited—not once, but twice. With the rude behavior of these people, and the nauseous smells, we were forced to get up and leave the theatre.

As residents of Hereford for several years, we realize that the show on Friday night is notorious for not being an enjoyable time for all age groups to see a show, because of kids running up and down the aisles, their inconsiderate behavior, etc.

But why must the citizens of Hereford put up with this? When one goes to shows in Lubbock or Amarillo, the kids don't run everything. It is our opinion that if any person is serving as a distraction to the patrons of the theatre, he should be ejected—not warned repeatedly—but asked to leave immediately.

Unless some changes take place, we and others know will not go back to the Star Theatre again on a Friday evening.

Sincerely,
 Susan Compton, Karen Scott, Judy Scott, Craig Solomon

EDITOR'S NOTE— We checked with theatre manager Scott Brewer, who also received a copy of your letter, and he admits some of your points are well taken. He is hopeful the letter might influence some parents to instruct their children on how to behave at a public theatre. Believe it or not, he adds, the situation on Friday nights has improved.

If some of the youngsters are drinking alcoholic beverages in the theatre, it is a rare situation says the manager. He will not tolerate this, but he can't search everyone for miniature bottles, Brewer adds.

Brewer reports that several obnoxious and rowdy students have been ejected from the theatre, and he has called the parents on some occasions. Besides attempting to deal with undisciplined youngsters on Friday night, the manager points out that improvements have been made in both the downtown and drive-in theatres and more first-run movies are being booked here.

He'd be happy to discuss the problem area with anyone.

Girlstown Still Needs BC Coupons

Still saving coupons to acquire a pickup needed at Girlstown at Berger, supporters of the girls' residence home ask persons who will contribute Betty Crocker coupons to mail them to Berger Girlstown, Box 1, Berger, or to Viola Williams, 404 Western, Hereford.

Mrs. Williams is a director of Girlstown U.S.A. and has lately visited the home at Berger. This branch of the home has been collecting the coupons from food products, for several months, and is nearing its goal of enough coupons to buy the pickup.

Another unit of Girlstown, at Austin, was visited by Mrs. Williams last week.

Glen Nelson Completes Training

Judge W. Glen Nelson, Hereford, has successfully completed an advanced 20 hour In-Service Justice of the Peace Training course. The seminar was held in Amarillo from June 5-8, 1977.

This program of basic and advanced in-service training workshops will provide information as to the proper conduct of the office, involve participants in hypothetical situations, role playing, group discussions, problem solving and examination settings. In addition to the formal presentation, the workshops will provide an opportunity for informal visitation and exchange of ideas that will be vital to improvement in the caliber and quality of service offered by magistrates across the state.

Among the 6.3 million veterans of the Vietnam era, there are somewhat more than 5,000 amputees. Of these 5,000, about 1,000 have more than one amputation and about 4,500 of the total are leg amputees.

Road-testing cars not a new idea

The concept of using test tracks for automobiles is not a new one. U.S. automakers were already putting cars through outdoor obstacle courses in 1915, the second year of World War I.

"HELP PEOPLE HELP THEMSELVES"

For God So Loved The World

An angel food cake may be a work of perfection. An athlete may have a perfect golf swing. But, generally speaking, our lives are quite imperfect. About the most perfect thing one could ever find is a little girl just turned five.

"Be ye perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect." That's a big order. No man has perfectly kept God's commandments... we all break them in thought and word and deed. Yet, the order stands — "perfection!" "Be perfect!"

Then, make perfection the constant aim of your life. Be dissatisfied with your accomplishments and unremittingly and everlastingly strive toward the highest and the best which is found only in Jesus. "Be ye perfect!"

Traveling the perfect way one needs all the help he can muster. We suggest regular church attendance as your greatest aid.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" — GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Gary Royal And Bride To Make Their Home Here

Miss Susan Benson of Dimmitt and Gary L. Royal were married Saturday evening at First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt with the Rev. Jim Pickens, pastor of the church, officiating. After a New Orleans honeymoon they will be at home in Hereford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Benson of Dimmitt and Royal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Royal, 139 Sunset Drive.

Maid of honor to the bride was Miss Vanditta Dinkins of San Antonio and best man was Steve Egerley of Dallas. Vickie Golden served as bridesmaid and groomsmen were David Block. Ushering guests were Dave Sorrells, Donnie Golden of Dimmitt and Randal Jones.

Valery Shaw, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and his nephews, Don and Scott Shaw, were candle lighters. Patsy Morris and Ben Gollehon sang wedding selections, accompanied by Mrs. James Horton, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of embroidered organza. The empire waisted gown was designed with full sheer sleeves and a square cut neckline.

Her net bridal veil was attached to a caplet trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies centering orchids. She wore her grandmother's wedding ring as a good luck piece.

The bride's attendants wore yellow and apple green eyelet organza dresses.

The three-tier wedding cake at the reception in Dimmitt Country Club was decorated with lime green and yellow flowers. Serving at the bride's and bridegroom's tables were Misses Marilyn McLeroy, Delores Golden, Debbie Wilson, Lynn Wilburn and Mrs. Andy Rogers.

Mrs. Clarence Botts, sister of the groom, invited guests to the registry.

Mrs. Royal chose a two-piece lime green dress with a pleated skirt as her going-away costume.

The bride attended Texas Woman's University in Denton, where she majored in nurses training. The bridegroom graduated from Hereford High School and attended Texas Tech University at Lubbock. He also has served in the U.S. Army.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Dallas, Colorado Springs and Lubbock.

Pioneer Club's Belles Organized

Buttermilk Belles is the name chosen by Pioneer Study Club members for the chapter of the Hereford Celebration Belles which they organized Monday morning. Pioneer Club is one of the two oldest women's clubs in the county, dating back to 1909. It will enter a float in the city's Diamond Jubilee parade Aug. 25, members decided, and also do hostess duty at an antique show planned as one of the women's events of the week celebrating Hereford's 75th anniversary.

Officers, given names in keeping with the Belles' purpose of promoting the celebration, are Mrs. W.C. Hromas, high bustle; Mrs. Delmar Sigle, silver belle; Mrs. Henry Neely, Susie Quill; Mrs.

L.H. Lookingbill Sr., sheriff; Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., mainstay.

The Belles chapter was formed at a Monday morning meeting of the club, called by Roberta Campbell, president, to care for necessary business before club yearbooks for the 1973-74 season are completed this summer.

The budget for the new year, submitted by Mrs. Hromas, treasurer and finance chairman, was approved. Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. Lookingbill, delegates to the spring convention of Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, made reports on that state meeting held in Brownwood.

Others present included Mmes. Ted Panciera, Tandy Legg, Herman Ford, Henry Hastings, R.L. Wilson, P.B. Sowell, Bess Werner, Ralph McCullough and H.E. Miller.

French are drinking more -- tea, that is

France has more than doubled its consumption of tea in recent years, from 1,771 tons in 1961 to 3,360 tons in 1971, an increase of 125 per cent.

The French are far behind the British, however, who hold the world record with a consumption of 200,000 tons per year, an average of 2,400 cups per year per Englishman.
