Alfred E. Smith Dies In New York

Fierce German Resistance Met On Italy Front

Assault Germans Guarding Rhine

By DANIEL DE LUCE MOSCOW, Oct. 4 (AP)—Russian machinegunners in American jeeps, with Yugoslav Partisans acting as guides, speared westward along the Danube less than 20 miles from Belgrade today.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith, 70, native of New York City's east side, four times governor of New York state and 1928 democratic presidential candidate, died today.

ROME, Oct. 4 (AP)—Fifth army infantry made slight gains yesterday on a 20-mile front through the stiffest kind of German resistance, the Allied command announced today.

By JAMES M. LONG LONDON, Oct. 4 (AP)—American troops, knocking back German counterblows in battles of rising violence, struck into and beyond the breached Siegfried Line above Aachen today, assaulting backstop defenses guarding Cologne and the Rhine.

Nearly all the Yugoslav territory east of the big elbow formed by the confluence of the Danube and Tisza rivers was reported swept clean of German resistance as Red army forces advancing like a flood from the foothills of the Transylvania Alps more than 50 miles beyond the Danubian iron gate.

Death came to the man who made the brown derby famous at 5:20 a. m. (CWT) in Rockefeller Institute. Dr. Raymond P. Sullivan, his physician, said lung congestion and acute heart failure were the causes. He had been transferred to the institute Sept. 23 from St. Vincent's hospital where he had been treated for an intestinal and liver disturbance since Aug. 10.

Deep mud and determined opposition slowed the Americans fighting along valley roads on the north side of the Apennines toward the Po valley.

U.S. Third Army men 125 miles to the south fought as bitterly at Fort Mitty, strongest of the ring of fortresses guarding Metz. Supreme headquarters announced capture of the port, but a later front dispatch said doughboys were clinging to surface positions in the fort, which is honeycombed by tunnels, against increasingly furious enemy resistance.

Scouts of Marshal Tito's partisan army ferried across the Danube to meet the Russians on the northern bank and help lead them westward toward the Yugoslav capital, field dispatches said.

Only last night a dozen red roses arrived at the hospital for him from President and Mrs. Roosevelt. It was Mr. Roosevelt who nicknamed Smith the "happy warrior" when he nominated Smith for the presidency in 1928.

Clearing skies help Fifth army artillery observation, however, and the guns held German road movements to a minimum.

Work Halted As 35,500 Strikers Enter Union War

The Russian drive looked like an arc, one flank of which was hinged on the Danube several miles west of Bela Crkva. The other reached nearly to the Tisza east of Petrovgrad. The enemy garrison in Belgrade seemed shortly due to be gripped in a pincers.

The close political and personal friendship between Mr. Roosevelt and Smith cooled, however, in 1936 when Smith took what he called "a walk" from Mr. Roosevelt and the democratic party and supported Alf Landon for the presidency. He again opposed the New Deal in 1940, stumping for the republican candidate, Wendell L. Willkie.

Near the coast, an official report said the Brazilian division with the Fifth army "continued to maintain pressure against the enemy along its entire front."

DETROIT, Oct. 4 (AP)—Production in seven Detroit war plants was halted today and approximately 35,500 workers made idle by a strike of maintenance employees engaged in a wage dispute with the War Labor Board.

Front line reports told of the Germans fleeing after the Russians broke up their counterattacks in the vicinity of Petrovgrad, important rail junction of 33,000 population 37 miles from the Yugoslav capital.

In Washington, President Roosevelt issued a statement in which he said "The country loses a true patriot" in Smith's death. The president said in part: "Al Smith had qualities of heart and mind and soul which not only endeared him to those who came under the spell of his dynamic presence in personal association but also made him the idol of the multitude."

In the Adriatic sector, the Fiumicino river, behind which the Germans are strongly entrenched, was in full flood and only a few Eighth army patrols managed to cross it to probe enemy positions.

Closed were five Briggs Manufacturing company factories, the De Soto Wyoming avenue plant of the Chrysler Corporation and the Jefferson avenue factory of Chrysler. All the plants have been making aircraft, truck and gun parts.

WLB Opens 3rd Year Of Control

Former President Herbert Hoover, who defeated Smith in the 1928 presidential election, paid this tribute: "Gov. Alfred Smith contributed a real part in building America. Great as that was, it was his qualities of character that will leave a mark on American life. He was valiant in political campaigns, but he was so intrepid in his honesty of mind, in his fairness and his sportsmanship that he won the esteem and personal friendship of every opponent."

Fighting was reported in Borgh at the inland end of the narrow Eighth army front spanning the southeastern corner of the Po valley. The town remained in British hands.

The dispute involves wages paid CIO and AFL maintenance men. The CIO union, in demanding an investigation by WLB, claimed its men were paid less than AFL-affiliated employees and that it had failed in efforts to obtain "equalization" through WLB.

The Little Steel formula is getting its severest test now. The next few weeks may determine whether it can withstand labor's assaults, although there are grounds for belief that military developments will be the determining factor.

White House advisers are said to feel strongly that the line against inflation must be held where it is until the day of victory in Europe is definitely in sight. After that, a cut in work time and gross earnings may permit an increase in base rates without danger.

In the mountainous central sector the most striking American gains were made east of highway 65, the main Florence-Bologna artery. The Americans reached the area just south of Boschi, 15 air-line miles from Bologna, a city of 270,000.

At the same time electricians left their jobs at the Ford-operated Willow Run bomber plant. Production was maintained at the bomber plant, however, and within two hours the workers had voted to return to their jobs and re-entered the plant.

Browns Triumph 2-1 In Opener

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4—Behind the seven-hit pitching of Denny Galehouse the American League champion St. Louis Browns defeated their cross-town rivals, National League champions, the Cardinals, 2 to 1, that thrilled 35,000 fans gathered in Sportsman Park to witness the World Series opener.

Other American units driving northeast toward the Po valley road junction of Imola mopped up Campeggio, and advanced 1,000 yards.

The formula has affected the incomes of millions of wage earners, but many who regard it as a brake on their lives wouldn't get a pay raise even if the formula were adjusted upwards 10 or 15 percentage points.

First Inning BROWNS—Gutteridge flied to Marion back of third base. Kreevich fanned on four pitched balls and Laabs also struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Navy Getting Set To Strike Japanese

Second Inning BROWNS—Stephens was thrown out by Mort Cooper, then Moore walked. Litwhiler came in to take McQuinn's high fly. Christman was called out on strikes. No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Signs multiplied today that the Navy is getting set for new blows against Japan, possibly with Admiral Ernest J. King stepping personally into the campaign.

The cost of living today is up about 15 per cent but 25 per cent, officially. Labor says it is more like 45 per cent. So labor wants the formula ditched or raised to a "realistic" level. The proposed level is not statistically specified.

Third Inning BROWNS—Kurovski flied deep to Moore. Litwhiler struck out on three pitches. Marion doubled down the third base line. Verban singled over second, sending Marion to third. Mort Cooper was called out on strikes. No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

The Navy, following disclosure of a west coast meeting by its top ranking chiefs, announced a shift of Washington command that will give King a chance to spend more time in war zones. Friends say the fleet commander in chief will welcome this opportunity.

Fifth Inning BROWNS—Hayworth was thrown out. Galehouse was thrown out. Gutteridge was thrown out. No runs, hits or errors, none left.

Strong possibilities exist that, with the war in the Pacific primarily a naval fight and growing in intensity, King will spend more and more time closer to the war zones there. He could thereby hold more frequent conferences with Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, Pacific fleet commander in chief.

Wonderful for Grown-ups, Too!
Whenever the Quintuplets catch cold—their chests, throats and backs are rubbed with Musterole. So Musterole must be just about the best cold-relief you can buy!

Just see how promptly white, stainless Musterole relieves coughs, sore throat, aching chest muscles due to colds—how breathing becomes easier—how fast congestion in upper bronchial tract, nose and throat begins to break up! Such blessed comfort! In 3 strengths: Children's Mild, Regular and Extra Strong.

Informal Tea is Held Following Revue of Styles

A crisp autumn wind accompanied by chilling whispers from 'Old Man Winter' proved a perfect setting for the 1944 fall fashion revue which was presented for the Women's club of AAFBS in the clubhouse at the Big Spring Bombarrier School Tuesday by Swartz's Ladies Ready-to-Wear.

Fall and winter shades with enchanting names such as Nassau pink, blond brown and Chinese fushia, were previewed by models who promanaded the improvised stage banked with seasonal flowers.

Mrs. Faulkner Commentator Mrs. R. H. Faulkner was commentator and musical background for the show was furnished by Sgt. Edd Todd and members of the post orchestra.

Suits, coats, spectator sports and cocktail dresses were modeled by Clarinda Mary Sanders, Mrs. O. O. Craig, Mrs. B. P. Levin, Mrs. Bruce Hardin and Mrs. Morris Patterson.

New trends in short jackets and high waisted skirts accentuated by mink trim on the pockets, with shaggy Stroock jacket suits and collarettes, vergin wool ensembles were shown and cocktail dresses, said to be a mainstay of modern fashion, were of black crepe with hand made wool crocheted trim, and metallic two piece ensembles with tunic over blouse.

Bright Accessories Street dresses were of brown wool, in deep tones of Alba purple macaroon black, and were accented with bright but harmonizing accessories.

For sport and casual wear or to toss on over a suit, the models displayed coats in soft lime shades cinched with snug belts, black Persian swaggy styles, petal soft ermine blended into flattering cocoa shades, styles in suede cloth, natural silver fox, red fox and natural Alaskan red fox strollers.

Informal program presented during the revue through courtesy of special service section included songs by Sgt. Ross Fineberg, piano numbers by Cpl. Donald Hoyt, vocal numbers by the Debutantes.

Tea was served after the show from a table laid with an ecru lace cloth and decorated with an autumn motif. Mrs. Ralph C. Rockwood, who welcomed guests, presided at the refreshment table.

Mrs. W. W. Whipkey, Mr. and Mrs. Farnell Hearin and Mrs. Betty Wade and son, David, of Colorado City visited Mrs. W. D. Buchanan Tuesday.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Unlike a toxin, it should stimulate appetite, help digestion, & thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 2 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

TO AMERICAN WOMEN ASKING—
"Will Defeat of Germany Lessen the Need for Saving Used Fats?"

—THE GOVERNMENT ANSWERS "NO!"

ON THE contrary, Mrs. America, the need for saving used cooking fats will be as great or greater than ever.

American farmers are doing everything possible to build up domestic production of fats and oils. But during the next 12 months, because of a smaller hog kill and reduced yields of some oil-seed crops, we expect that approximately a billion-and-a-third pounds less of fats will be produced.

Need Greater Than Ever

Therefore, more than ever, salvaging used cooking fats is an important resource on which the country must continue to lean in order to tide us over.

Saving used fats is not a glamorous task. It takes effort. But it is one that only you, the American housewife, can perform for the country. We ask you to continue the wonderful job you are doing to help speed final Victory.

Postwar Income Cited By Dewey

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4 (AP)—His sights fixed on an annual post-war national income of $150,000,000,000, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey stood committed today to a program of cutting peacetime taxes on individuals and businesses, if the republicans win in November.

The republican presidential nominee, in a nationwide radio address (Mutual) last night, called for simplification of what he termed "our existing, confused and complicated tax laws" which he said threatened to form "a road-block in the way" of post-war progress.

VFW IRON LUNG FUND

Favorable Action Will End Strikes

HOUSTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Methods for putting Mosher Steel company workers involved in a work stoppage back on the job will be threshed out by a War Labor Board panel this week if the urgent request made by Frank A. Hardesty, district 37 director of the United Steelworkers of America, late yesterday to Cliff Potter of Dallas, regional WLB directors of the disputes division, is acted on favorably.

Plans for returning the union men to work broke down yesterday when they were told seniority rights could not be guaranteed. At a conference with company officials, T. J. Mosher of Dallas, president, told Hardesty and other union representatives that "the company could not and would not agree to the demand of the union officials that it lay off employees who are now working in order to provide jobs for those currently engaged in the strike."

"Our first aim," he continued, "must be to increase our national income by putting to work all of the productive resources of our country—industry, labor and agriculture. It is far better to have a low tax rate with a national income of $150,000,000,000 than a national income of $76,000,000,000 and a high tax rate, as we had under the new deal at its peacetime best."

Texas Convicted On Manslaughter Charge

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 4 (AP)—A sentence of three years at hard labor has been imposed by a court martial upon two Camp Chaffee soldiers, one a Texan, who were convicted on charges of involuntary manslaughter in the death of a 14-year-old Arkoma, Okla., girl Sept. 5.

Sgt. Donald Walls of Leachville, Ark., and Sgt. Bynum Long of Mineral Wells, Tex., were charged with murder in the death of Oleeta Sterling, who succumbed in an Oklahoma City hospital two weeks after she was alleged to have been pushed from a moving car by Walls.

President Serves Notice New Deal Wants Fair Treatment For Workers

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt, signing two bills providing tools for the shift from war to peace, has served notice that his administration wants something more—treatment for laid-off war workers "no less fair" than that given farmers and returning veterans.

Mr. Roosevelt put his signature "with considerable reluctance" yesterday to the surplus war property bill which Surplus Administrator William L. Clayton has called unworkable. With less distaste he approved the overall demobilization act creating an office of war mobilization and reconversion.

But Mr. Roosevelt expressed his hope that congress, when it reconvenes after elections, will "promptly" rectify what he called deficiencies in the latter measure. Still needed to complete the kit of reconversion tools, he said, are: back-home travel pay for discharged workers nationwide minimum standards of unemployment benefits and unemployment pay for federal employees.

As it stands, the bill is a "states-rights" measure, with the federal government guaranteeing the state payments by providing help when state funds run low.

Mr. Roosevelt noted that "fair and generous treatment" for returning servicemen and reconverting industry had been provided, along with price support for farmers. "We should be no less fair in our treatment of war workers," he added.

Have a Coca-Cola = Eat, drink and enjoy yourself

... or adding refreshment to a backyard barbecue

One of the secrets of any successful home barbecue is plenty of ice-cold Coca-Cola. Everybody enjoys its life, sparkle and refreshment. Plan to have frosty bottles of "Coke" ice-cold and ready to drink. When you shop, remember to ask for Coca-Cola. Everywhere, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become a high-sign of hospitality in the American home.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

Lieutenant Governor Says Congress Gradually Enslaving States' Rights

FORT WORTH, Oct. 4 (AP)—Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith says there is a growing enslavement of sovereign states by giant bureaus which, by a usurpation of power from the congress, have forced a

"rule by directives" upon the American nation. Speaking at a banquet held during the annual convention of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors, Smith urged President Roosevelt to re-examine a statement he made 14 years ago in which, Smith said, the president declared the trend toward centralization of power in Washington.

West Texas Court Verdict Reversed

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4 (AP)—A judgment rendered by the western Texas district court which ordered revocation of citizenship granted Max Hermann Kelbar, co-owner of a former German language newspaper published at Taylor, Tex., has been reversed by the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, in session in Atlanta.

For purposes of trial, the cases of two other defendants, Hans Ackermann, co-owner of the publication and his wife, Frieda Ackermann, were consolidated with the Kelbar case. After Judge W. A. Keeling of the Western Texas district had upheld the government's charges that the defendants obtained their naturalization papers through fraud and ordered surrender of citizenship Dec. 7, 1943, the Appellate Court entered instructions for dismissal of the case.

The complaint alleged that the defendants were born in Germany. Their paper, formerly known as the Taylor Herald, was called the Texas Herald in 1937 and ceased publication in June, 1942.

District Judge Keeling, in his order of Dec. 7, 1943, said that the paper, a weekly, had "extolled the virtues of Hitler and Germany" from 1935 until Dec. 7, 1941.

"There was some evidence that after war was declared in December, 1941, the paper advertised the purchase of war bonds and stamps," Judge Keeling said. "There was at least one article calling for unity of all Americans against its enemies. The evidence does not impress the court in determining the mind and heart of the defendants on the dates alleged in the complaint."

Music Hath Charms To Soothe Belgians

By AL BOYLE SPA, Belgium, Oct. 1 (delayed) (AP)—American swing music rattled the remaining ramparts of the Siegfried line today to the delight of Belgian jitterbugs who only a few weeks ago were watching convalescent German soldiers "hell" each other in this world famous watering place. In this granddaddy of all health resorts—this is the original from which all "SPAS" have sprung—the American First Army band gave a mixed concert of martial, classic and hot dance tunes that had three generations of Belgians by their ears. It was given in the Casino not far from the Hotel Britannique. The great hall was packed with natives, many of whom had journeyed miles to hear their first authentic American jam session. The band swung into "Starrust" and "In The Mood" and the whole audience went mad. They jumped up and down and clapped wildly, and one man with a handlebar mustache up in the gallery shouted "Vivent Les Americains."

Russell Inspects Texas Farmlands

ALICE, Oct. 4 (AP)—U. S. Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, chairman of the agriculture appropriations committee, was expected in the lower Rio Grande valley today after a tour of Jim Wells county farms at Alice. He said that every farm he visited yesterday showed signs of pink boll worm infestation and urged prompt federal action to halt the spread of the cotton pest. Every Belgian in the building had one foot tapping while the crew scotched, hammered, yowled, swung and blew its way through "Crazy Rhythm," "Exactly Like You" and a couple of encores, including "Annie's Cousin Fannie." It will take the Germans three more wars to wipe swing music out of this corner of Belgium.

Roosevelt Appeals For Music Records

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt today called on James Petrillo, of the American Federation of Musicians, to lift his ban on the making of musical recordings, saying "What you regard as your loss will certainly be your country's gain." Mr. Roosevelt sent a telegram to the musicians union head terminating a case which long has been before the war labor board and Stabilization Director Fred Vinson. In the wire he said that because war emergency is not created by the union ban the government cannot change the musicians to return to making records but that it should be lifted "in the interest of orderly government." The WLB has entered directives in the dispute between the Electrical Transcription manufacturers and the American Federation of Musicians directing that the federation withdraw its ban, but Petrillo has not complied.

One result of Phillips laboratory and pilot-plant research is this section of a Phillips Refinery, now devoted to war production.

MOLECULES TAKE THE HURDLES ON PHILLIPS NEW "PROVING GROUNDS"

Almost buried in a recent Phillips Petroleum Company report was this simple statement: "The Company has completed... an additional research laboratory which is one of the largest in the industry."

To every patriotic citizen interested in new products, and particularly excited by the thought of our nation's finest product—complete and final victory over the Axis powers—the statement deserves to be underscored and spotlighted.

The new research laboratory at Phillips, Texas, more than doubles Phillips existing research facilities. Judging from the previous record and long list of achievements of the Phillips research and technical staff, it is obvious that this enlargement will mean new weapons for the war effort; significant improvement in old ones, and vastly better post-war gasolines and lubricants for car owners.

A laboratory originally meant "the workshop of a chemist." But the new Phillips laboratory is much more than that. It is a series of experimental; pilot (small-scale) plants; which are true proving-grounds for products; processes, and full-scale manufacturing plants.

And these are the workshop; not of a chemist, but of literally hundreds of technically trained enthusiasts; whose ranks represent graduate degrees from 142 universities; Devoted to science, both pure and applied; these experts are engaged in the never-ending study, test, and analysis, which has made Phillips a leader in extending the frontiers of knowledge concerning hydrocarbon chemistry. Always they are seeking new and better ways to make new and better things from petroleum gases as well as from petroleum: 100-plus octane aviation gasoline; synthetic rubber; explosives; plastics; medicines; and an almost limitless list of other synthetic chemicals;

No wonder the Phillips 66 Shield reminds so many people that Phillips refineries, in addition to producing gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils, are also gigantic chemical plants, pouring out weapons for victory.

Galehouse Chosen To Start Series For Browns; Opposes Mort Cooper

By JACK HAND
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4 (AP)—Luke Sewell's St. Louis Browns, the boys from the other side of the tracks, dared to match Mort Cooper, the Cardinals ace with Denny Galehouse, a veteran curve ball artist who didn't win his first game until July 20, in today's opener of the first all-St. Louis world series.

Despite the record books and the season averages which gave the National leaguers the "paper" edge, the pendulum of popular support appeared to be swinging toward the underdog Browns.

The odds makers, however, still followed the figures for the price on today's game was 1 to 2 and on the series 2 to 5 with the Redbirds favored.

Selection of Galehouse upset the dopsters who had expected Sewell to lead with Nels Potter. It was a certainty the Cards would see plenty of low breaking stuff backed up by excellent control and cunning pitching equipment.

Cloudy skies and a continual threat of rain hovered over the final dress rehearsal at Sportsman's Park but the weather man promised improved conditions for today's big event. Fager bleacher fans started a line before noon yesterday and club officials, with all reserves sold, counted on 35,000 for the first game, scheduled for 2 p. m.

Both Sewell and Southworth said they would stick with their regular lineups, although the Browns' boss reserved the right to change his mind in right field where he has named Gene Moore over Milt Byrne. Milt the Kid said he would insert Augie Bergam in left if Danny Litwhiler wasn't ready.

Pitching plans past today were strictly a jumble. Sewell parried off questioners with "You can't tell, it might rain all winter." An infected tooth forced Sig Jakucki to miss the final tuneup and may alter turns on the Brownie staff.

Cooper hasn't pitched since Sept. 24 but worked in hitting practice on the road and was reported ready. Big Mort, who won 23 and lost seven, was no surprise choice as he had been a standout all season after finally breaking the American league jinx and winning an inter-league tilt in the 1943 series. As usual, brother Walker will do the catching.

Galehouse almost didn't play this year but the peculiar twists of a wartime season combined to give him his first chance in the

Harding Picked As Best Grid Player Of Week

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Roger Harding, 190-pound center for the University of California, was selected today as the outstanding college football lineman of the week in the first Associated Press lineman poll of the grid season.

Harding, a 21-year-old civilian student from Walnut Creek, Calif., playing his second year on the varsity, was the big reason why underdog California upset UCLA, 6-0. In the first period he broke and blocked an attempted punt, scooped up the ball and raced 20 yards for the only touchdown.

Nick Collins, an 18-year-old freshman chatterbox guard at Wisconsin, was second choice of linemen. Collins, a Chicago lad, twice smashed through to throw Northwestern ball carriers for losses in the fourth period, protecting Wisconsin's slim 7-6 lead.

Noteworthy feats were turned in by Joe Dyer, of Southern Methodist, an end, who blocked two punts in a row against North Texas Aggies, and by John Cooke, Texas Christian tackle, who intercepted a pass and ran 30 yards for a touchdown. It is seldom a tackle intercepts an aerial, let alone score a six-pointer.

Other players who drew praise: Center: Jack Sachse, Texas.

fall classic when it was least expected.

Deciding to stay at his war plant job in Cleveland in the spring Denny finally caught the "fever" and told the Browns he would join them on Sundays only. The experiment was not successful as he lost three in a row and was being pointed out as the horrible example of how baseball is a full time job.

Visiting Team Pre-Game Pick To Take Clash

When Odessa's Bronchos roll into Big Spring Friday night to open the local team's district competition they will bring a crew of men that have run riot over Lamesa 45-0, and decidedly trounced Bowie High of El Paso 51-0; after losing their season opener to Lubbock 6-18. The latter team easily won from the Steer eleven last week 25-0, using many reserves.

However if weight charts aid the situation any the locals look like, they may not be so far the underdogs in the District Three AA clash. The Steer forward wall, boasting one 215-pounder and one 196-pound lad, is the heavier. The Broncho line lists three boys over the 170-pound class, at 195, 185 and one on the line at 170. This makes the lines add up pretty even.

In the backfield it is all in favor of Odessa. They have 170, 177, 160 and 148 listed as their starting backfield weights. Against this the heaviest local player will be Pete Cook in the backfield full-back slot at 160.

The game promises to be the "battle of the Cooks" as outstanding Broncho George Cook, running from the tailback slot in the Broncho backfield, meets Pete Cook, listed as fullback but running from tailback in the shift, in a clash that promises to be quite a duel between the two forward walls and two backs.

Tickets have gone on sale this week at the Big Spring Hardware, the chamber of commerce, and the high school administration building. Reserve tickets are almost depleted today, but there are enough general admission tickets left to assure every one a seat. The starting game time has been changed to 8:15 from 8:30. Tickets read at 8:00 but this was declared too early and changed. Booths at the field will open at 7 p. m. Friday to assure those without tickets a chance to get them before the gametime rush.

The Odessa lineup will probably show Partridge and Fly at ends weighing 150 each; Hally weighing 195 and Edrington at 185 starting at tackles; Marcel at 170 and Kelly at 138 in the guard slots; center Taylor weighs 148; with T. B. Cook, 170, Wilfred Elmore 148, J. W. Thompson, 177, and Tommy Tucker, 160, in the backfield. Moody Bates may break into this lineup in the backfield.

The Broncho reserve strength is much better than Coach John Dibrell's Steers, and these reserves who played against Lamesa and Bowie may aid the Broncho cause quite a bit in relieving a tiring first string.

Dibrell has reported that the Steers are in good shape and a better-than-usual attitude. They are reportedly ready to take on the Bronchos with no holds barred and are planning on an upset over the favored invaders.

Kickoff will be at 8:15 in Steer stadium Friday night.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 4 (AP)—Columbia's Lou Little explains that he adopted the "T" formation this year because he has a light backfield and no good blockers... He also maintains that lateral passing never can become an integral part of American football because it seldom is possible to work the ball downfield into the open where laterals do some good... Andy Kerr of Colgate, long a staunch upholder of the double-wing system, now is using what he calls a "T-Z" formation, which mixes up several styles... All of which is just further evidence to show that grid coaches in these wartime seasons are doing a lot of experimenting and may come up with some fancy new doings for the post-war "boom" times...

Wray Picks Browns To Capture Series

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4 (AP)—J. Edward Wray, 71-year-old sports editor of the St. Louis Post Dispatch, the only one of 68 baseball writers in the pre-season Associated Press poll to pick both the St. Louis Cardinals and Browns to win the National and American league pennants today picked the Browns to triumph in the world series.

"A redhot team against one that is cold," Wray said. "I figure the Browns will win four out of six games."

Wray sides with a majority of the baseball writers covering the series. Twenty-six of the 51 polled by the Associated Press who expressed opinions favor the Browns, most of them within six games.

Big Ten Problem Nearing Solution

CHICAGO, Oct. 4 (AP)—There'll be a lot of questions settled when the smoke clears off the gridiron battlefields of the mid-west Saturday evening.

The Big Ten problem will be at least one step closer to solution when unbeaten Illinois and Purdue settle their afternoon's business. Just what the once all-powerful Gophers, Ohio State's Buckeyes and the Iowa Hawkeyes, may have to toss into the championship hopper will become known as the three swing into their conference schedules.

And two inter-sectional struggles between non-league foes will provide more or less of a yardstick of power to judge future events on the midwest's grids—Tulane vs. Notre Dame at South Bend, and Iowa Pre-Flight vs. the Superbombers of the Second Air Force at Lincoln, Neb.

To top it off, Michigan and Minnesota meet in their traditional struggle for that "little brown jug" at Minneapolis.

They Buildded Better Than They Knew

With the help of the neighbors, many a little red schoolhouse was built. That readiness to help the folks down the road and the family across the square was the strength of our early America, the foundation for our democracy. Because of it, we have a greater heritage to defend than any other people on Earth.

In these wartime days, the spirit of neighborliness so characteristic of our people is again paying dividends. Did you ever dream ten years ago that today you would pull up to the curb and offer a ride to a stranger? That you would have a bundle of salvaged paper ready when the Boy Scouts called? That you would walk home with awkward packages because your dealers have difficulty making deliveries? When you aid your neighbor, you aid your country. Isn't it surprising how many things one person can do to help win the war?

Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of: Rubber • Aluminum • Medicines • B Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets • Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and Textiles—to name a few.

Design A Right Program

We want to commend the attitude of W. C. Hankenship, superintendent of schools, in dealing with returning veterans who have availed themselves of the opportunity to complete their schooling. In a nutshell, he has determined not to subject these men to time and other restraints imposed on regular students, but to let them go as fast as they can make it.

There can be much scholarly discussion and analysis of the veteran education program after the war, but when it gets down to brass tacks, how well the plan works will depend in a large measure how our educators adopt a similar philosophy of designing a system suited to veterans.

It must be recognized that these young men, although only slightly older in years than other high school youngsters, will be much older and much more mature. They have been used to action when action is demanded. In combat they have learned to be impatient of petty obstacles. Moreover, they have developed a nervous tension which will not be compatible to ordinary tempo of doing things. They have been fitted into military procedure, and while it has taught them discipline and cooperation, they will rebel at much of what resembles its red tape once the restraint of rigid authority is removed.

In short, they will be in no mood to don the freshman's cap and go through the ordinary antics laid out to underclassmen. They will be in school to learn if they enter at all.

Secondary schools and colleges can perform a great service not only to these veterans but to the nation as well if they seize upon this golden opportunity and evolve an educational program which will fit these young men.

It sounds simple, yet it is far more complicated than it appears on the surface. We believe the time is ripe for educators to be giving serious consideration and to take prompt action in this direction. They can get much help from veterans already discharged. If needs be, business and professional men can be of help in designing a practical program that will give the veteran a feeling of having really accomplished something and of not only having been benefitted but also fitted back into normal pursuits.

Census Bureau Tries To Get Home

WASHINGTON—Now it's Census Bureau Director J. C. Clegg who is staying awake nights trying to solve shortages of manpower and office space. Census must do considerable mushrooming in the next few months. They have been ordered to make a quick census of manufacturers immediately and the agricultural census starts in January. It's estimated that 2,000 additional workers will be needed in Washington, and many more than that in the field. Occupying cramped temporary quarters now, Census couldn't find office space for a fourth that many workers. As a result, Clegg is fighting to oust the Office of Price Administration from the Census building. He argues it's time for some war agencies to do a little temporarying and let the permanents get back to buildings built for them.

If there's anything to that rumor that Leo T. Crowley might back out as head of the Federal Economic Administration, he gave no hint he had ever heard of it when he gave his staff a pep talk the other day. He told them not to think that FEA wouldn't go on for a long time yet and said when the agency is no longer needed for waging economic warfare it will have to start economic battles for maintaining the peace.

Down on Independence avenue, in the neighborhood of the Navy temporary buildings, there's a little parking space Navy officers have been using since before Pearl Harbor. It accommodates only 20 cars, but to the 20 drivers and boss who ride with them, it's mighty important. The other day he park police of which Interior Secretary Harold L. Ickes is the super chief, informed the Navy members not to permit parking. "Protesting parkers wanted to know why. One reported that the President liked the view from the White House of the Jefferson Memorial, and that the parked cars cut it off. But further digging disclosed the complaint had come from visitors and camera fans who couldn't get that long unobstructed view of the White House, Gov. Earl Warren of California

The War Today

by Dewitt Mackenzie
Associated Press War Analyst

China's fiery rebuttal of British Premier Churchill's recent assertion that she had received lavish American military help is understandable, although the term "lavish" is relative and one could make out a fair case for both sides.

The cold truth is that, despite America's fine contribution, China hasn't enough military material of any sort to dust a flute.

The spokesman for the Chinese military council in Chungking didn't exaggerate when he declared "determination" has had to be their substitute for firepower, and in the defense of their provinces they have willingly accepted staggering losses.

The Chinese aren't afraid to die. But you can't win wars simply by dying.

That was the situation when I was in Chungking last year. It has been the situation ever since. And it will remain the situation until the Allies are able to invade China in a big way and open up a feasible supply route. Continued American air transport from India, and a revival of the serpentine Burma road through the Primeval mountain wilds will be helpful, but they cannot carry more than an infinitesimal amount of the supplies which China must have if she is to wage real war.

Establishment of an adequate supply route into China will require a major operation. It might mean an Allied amphibious invasion of the south coast—a great undertaking. It might be achieved by invading the Malay peninsula from the Indian ocean and driving across Siam and French Indochina proper. Once a route is opened up, a great task of transporting supplies from the other side of amount of shipping will have to be assigned to the world.

Albrecht To Speak To Tyler Farmers

DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—Dr. William A. Albrecht of the University of Missouri was to speak today at Tyler after having predicted before 200 agricultural workers at Dallas that the time would come when hay will be measured in terms of animal nutrients it contains, not in tons or bales.

Dr. Albrecht, chairman of the soils department at Missouri's school of agriculture, is touring the state under the sponsorship of the Texas extension service. Last night at Dallas he told farm workers, county extension agents, Agricultural Adjustment Administration committee members and vocational agricultural teachers of an experiment in which sheep fed hay grown on untreated land gained eight pounds in 63 days, as compared to a gain of 18 pounds in the same period by sheep fed on hay which had been fertilized with lime and phosphorus.

Acting Extension Director J. D. Prewitt said 53,000,000 acres of Texas land are "half-zone" because of soil erosion and that another 11,000,000 acres already have been abandoned.

Ernie Pyle: Describing Life Of Troops At Front Becomes Very Difficult

Editor's Note: This is No. 19 in a series of reprints from past Ernie Pyle war columns. Ernie is home on leave.

THE TUNISIAN FRONT, February 1943—It must be hard for you folks at home to conceive how our troops right at the front actually live. In fact it is hard to describe it to you even when I'm among them, living in somewhat the same way they are. You can scarcely credit the fact that human beings—the same people you've known all your life—could adjust themselves so acceptingly to a type of living that is only slightly above the cave-man stage.

Some of our troops came directly to the Tunisian front after the original occupation of North and West Africa, and have been here ever since. They have not slept in a bed for months. They've lived through this vicious winter sleeping outdoors on the ground. They haven't been paid in three months. They have been on British rations most of the time, and British rations—though good, get mighty tiresome. They never take off their clothes at night, except their shoes. They don't get a bath often, but once a month. One small detachment acquired lice and had to be fumigated, but all the rest have escaped so far. They move so frequently they don't attempt to put in many home touches, as the men do at the more permanent camps toward the rear. Very few of the front-line troops have ever had any leave. They never go to town for an evening's fun. They work all the time.

Nobody keeps track of the days or weeks. I'll wager that 90 per cent of our front-line troops never know when Sunday comes. Furthermore, the old traditional difference between day and night have almost ceased to exist. Night-time no longer necessarily means rest or daytime work. Often it's just conveying of supplies and shifting of troops is done at night. The soldiers are accustomed to traveling all night, sometimes three or four nights in a row. Irregularity of sleep becomes normal. One soldier told me he once went three days and nights without sleep. You see men sleeping anywhere, anytime. The other day I saw a soldier asleep in blankets under an olive tree at 2 in the afternoon. A few feet away a full colonel was

Family Trees Bloom On Movie Sets

By ROBBIN COONS
HOLLYWOOD—You find family trees in the Hollywood orchard where you least expect them. Who would ever suspect Bill Demarest, of the hard-boiled visage and jaundiced eye, to turn up as a current-carrying flowering of an ancient, illustrious line, with its history, tallied lovingly in a heavy, small-print volume spanning generations? Not you, nor I—but it's true. Bill had the book out on the set of "Salty O'Rourke," where he's a character mixed up in some racketeer doings with Alan Ladd and young Stanley Clements. "And first thing they do," averred Bill, not without indignation, "is to turn up a couple of horse-thieves somewhere along the line, and a fellow who deserted the army, back there in the Revolution or maybe it was some other war. I don't remember. "But we Demarests had a lot of soldiers," he added lest you get the wrong idea. "My brother was killed in the last war, and all of us served."

That's where you'll find Bill in the book. He's one name in the list Demarests (also spelled des Marets, des Marest, Demaree, etc.) who fought for the U. S. through the years. "I was a sergeant-major," he said. "Same rank I held in 'Hail the Conquering Hero.'" "And how long, Bill, have you been interested in genealogy?" "Huh?" "Family tree—you know?"

Chairman Wright Patman Promises Committee Report On October 6

By PAUL BOLTON
Economic Stabilizer Fred Vinson is the man on whom the Patman small business committee is going to work in its drive to get an increased price for oil.

After a hearing in Austin last week, the committee will resume its hearings in Washington Oct. 4, and Chairman Wright Patman has promised friends, there will be a report by the committee on Oct. 6. Obviously, if the committee plans its report that soon, the committee is ready to report now. So why the hearing on Oct. 4?

Well, the answer to that one is, committee reports in Washington are a dime a dozen. As in Austin on the various reports by state agencies, few are read. But the committee does want one man to know what the report will be, i. e., what the committee has found and concluded. Hence—although the list of witnesses has not been announced at this writing—Economic Stabilizer Vinson will be asked to confer with the committee.

Vinson was the man who, on appeal, turned down the oil price increase on the last go-round. And his report largely influenced the vote of congressmen who voted against the bill incorporating a price increase.

There was something altogether beautiful about the manner in which the price increase evidence was presented to the three-man congressional committee in Austin. To the casual observer, it might have been considered spontaneous; but it took no expert to see that the presentation had been carefully planned.

There were selected witnesses from North Texas, Panhandle, West Texas, East Texas, Gulf Coast—actual operators. There were drilling contractors likewise representative of the several areas. And there were the three railroad commissioners to give the affair the stamp of official approval. But all of these were largely window-dressing. The main witness was a quiet-voiced medium-sized man named Merle Becker of St. Louis.

Becker is chairman of a production cost committee for the committee on crude oil requirements, representing 37 trade associations. His purpose before the Patman committee was to present data intended to refute findings of the Federal Trade Commission that the cost of producing crude oil was 76.4c per barrel. This figure was for 1941. And the gist of his testimony—the point which it was intended that the Patman committee should get and transmit to Mr. Vinson—was embodied in one small table:

Barrel	Cost per

Good Neighbor Policy Declared

No Law By Court

AUSTIN, Oct. 4 (AP)—The state supreme court today left standing an intermediate court's finding that the Texas legislature's resolution and Gov. Coke R. Stevenson's proclamation of the good neighbor policy as the public policy of the state had not the effect of law.

It refused the application of Jacob I. Rodriguez vs. the Terrell Wells Swimming Pool and Henry E. Stumberg of San Antonio, for a writ of error against the reversal by the fourth court of civil appeals of a trial court's judgment granting Rodriguez an injunction against the swimming pool.

The trial court granted the injunction, restraining the pool from refusing or denying to Rodriguez "the use of equal accommodations, facilities and privileges."

Attorney M. C. Gonzales of San Antonio, who said he presented the views of the Republic of Mexico and the Dominion Republic "at the request of the governments of those republics," argued in his brief that the court of civil appeals had erred in failing to give any effect to the state defense act as operative in connection with the legislative resolution and the governor's proclamation.

Gonzales noted that the defense act authorizes the governor to adopt measures to suppress activities which may assist the enemy, and that the good neighbor resolution and proclamation call for solidarity.

The supreme court passed on the application without a written opinion. The immediate effect of its action was to leave standing the court of civil appeals action in setting aside the injunction.

The opinion suggested the legislature could have enacted a civil rights law to change the common law, had it so desired.

Midland Boy Joined Paratroops For Adventure; He Got His Excitement

LONGVIEW, Oct. 4 (AP)—Pvt. Walter J. Dorman, 20, of Midland, Tex., volunteered for the paratroops two years ago because he thought it would be adventurous, and he found all the excitement he had bargained for.

Holder of a presidential citation and the purple heart, Dorman is one of the latest arrivals at Harmon general hospital from France. A small silver star attached to his paratroop wings shows that he was one of the first units to land in Normandy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dorman, box 1774, Midland.

"I volunteered for the paratroops because I figured it would be exciting and adventurous," said Dorman.

After training he was sent to northern Ireland, then to England. One day the planes loaded and "we knew we were going into combat. I don't know why, but I wasn't really scared," he said.

Across the English channel the planes flew, then ten miles behind the enemy lines the jump signal came on.

"We had to jump at about 500 feet. When we hit the ground bullets were flying all around us," Dorman continued.

With hand grenades the paratroopers knocked out some enemy machine guns; then were scattered. That morning eight of them met again, two of them with broken legs. They were about five miles from their objective; a bridge to be blown up; high ground to be taken, and another bridge to be captured and held.

As they moved toward this objective they ran into snipers and machinegun nests and had to wipe them out to proceed. About noon, after blowing up one bridge, they hit the objective, a bridge skirted with enemy machinegun positions.

"Everything went along smoothly for about three hours. Then they hit us with a panzer division," said Dorman. "We had heavy fighting there all that day and night. We fought until the next afternoon when we were relieved by more paratroopers. We walked about 400 yards and had our first sleep in two days and two nights.

Butler Honored At Houston Banquet

HOUSTON, Oct. 4 (AP)—Nearly 400 persons last night attended a banquet for George A. Butler, Houston, former chairman of the state democratic executive committee, who was praised for his services to the democratic party, to Houston and to Texas.

Former Gov. W. P. Hobby was toastmaster at the testimonial dinner, during which Butler was presented with a framed resolution from the board of directors of the United War Chest of Texas thanking him for his work as first president and chairman of the chest.

Among the speakers was Gov. Coke Stevenson.

Detectives Mystified As To Disappearance

DETROIT, Oct. 3 (AP)—Detectives, after checking more than 100 clues, reported today they were mystified as ever by the whereabouts of four-month-old Robert James King and a nursemaid recently hired to care for him. Both disappeared from the King home Saturday night while the baby's parents were away.

Addresses and reference given by the maid when she was employed by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. King a week ago were found to be false, police said.

Government Unlimited On Veterans Education; Pay Any And All Bills

(Editor's Note: This is the ninth in a series on veterans' benefits, ranging from demobilization to jobs and pensions.)

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—There is no limit on the money the government will spend to educate or train a disabled war veteran so he can make a living.

Uncle Sam pays all his educational or training expenses, no matter how much, for a maximum of four years.

Rayburn Confident Democrats Will Win

DALLAS, Oct. 3 (AP)—Speaker Sam Rayburn, here to aid in planning the democratic campaign in Texas, said today he was confident that the nation would give the Roosevelt-Truman ticket a "big majority."

Rayburn will confer tomorrow and Thursday with Myron Blalock, Texas national committeeman; Harry Seay, chairman of the State Executive committee, and other party leaders.

"President Roosevelt is gaining strength every day, according to reports from all sections of the country. He will get stronger and stronger as election day approaches," Rayburn told the Times Herald.

Louisiana Replaces Seven Demo Electors

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 3 (AP)—Chairman John Fred Odom of the democratic state central committee said today "that when the committee meets next Saturday it will replace seven of the ten democratic elector nominees, and all will be favorable to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket."

Chairman Odom said he had received four resignations from electors who had refused to pledge the ticket, and three pledges accepting the Roosevelt-Truman ticket.

Under resolutions adopted at the Sept. 26 committee meeting, those electors who had refused to pledge by midnight yesterday, are to be replaced with electors who will pledge themselves at the Oct. 7 committee meeting.

President Not Likely To Make Long Trip

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt said today she does not believe that the president will make any extensive campaign trip before the November election.

However, the president's wife told her first press conference since D-day that she does not know the president's campaign plans. Her statements were in response to inquiries.

The first lady said that when she visited Madame Chiang Kai-Shek recently in a New York hospital, the wife of the Chinese Generalissimo looked "very ill."

HEALTH QUIZ

Do you have poor digestion?  YES  NO

Do you feel headachy after eating?  YES  NO

Do you get sour or upset easily?  YES  NO

Do you feel tired—listless?  YES  NO

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10¢ and 25¢.

South's Wood Pulp Industry Is Good

ATLANTA, Oct. 4 (AP)—The Federal Reserve bank of Atlanta today looked at the south's pulp and paper industry and found it good.

In its monthly business review, the bank predicted an optimistic future for the industry based on what it described as two advantages southern mills hold over northern mills:

1. Southern mills are larger and newer, and hence more efficient than northern plants.
2. Southern mills do not have to maintain a large stock of pulpwood because they can get deliveries the year around. Northern mills' larger inventories involve more expense.

The review pointed out that the production of kraft paper promises to continue to dominate the south's paper industry and added: "Some years ago the possibility of manufacturing newsprint from southern pine pulp received enthusiastic publicity. It seems unlikely, however, that the industry in the south will take this direction."

Demo's Plan Rallies To Get "Pro" Votes

DALLAS, Oct. 4 (AP)—Tom Tyson of Corsicana says the object of four proposed major campaign rallies will be to obtain a million votes for Roosevelt and Truman in the general election.

He said the four rallies will be held in Dallas or Fort Worth, Austin, Houston and either Abilene or Lubbock, and listed these men as speakers:

Senator Tom Connally, Speaker Sam Rayburn, Herman Jones, Austin; Fleetwood Richards, Lockhart; former Gov. James V. Allred, Houston; Robert W. Calvert, former speaker of the Texas house and now county attorney at Hillsboro; Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne college, and nominees of the party for congress.

Where A Complete Stock Is Always Carried

It's no cinch, cinch, cinch to make a pinch, pinch, pinch

The "heavy foot" has been replaced by great headwork in Wartime driving. And that's a great hint for the future.

"Scorchers" are rare. The cops have to look thrice—and even then what they mostly see is skilled, ticket-proof driving that earns their respect. For as experts they know that's really how to get there, without taking it out on your car. You too, knew it all the time, but war "alerted" you to it—and you're staying alert. Now be still more alert to the perils of engine acids. Those can be curbed by one brainy move... by having your engine OIL-PLATED.

Changing to Conoco Nth motor oil—at popular price—is all it takes to own an OIL-PLATED engine. One special characteristic of OIL-PLATING is the acid-resistance that costly pioneer research developed. This acid-fighter—OIL-PLATING—becomes surfaced to your engine's fine inner finish as closely as chromium plating could be. That's made possible by Conoco Nth oil's special ingredient whose magnet-like nature holds OIL-PLATING direct to metals—square in the path of the acids always created by every engine explosion. Contact between acids and metals is checked. Then so is corrosion.

And now here looms the season of lowest engine temperatures—unable to clear out acids sufficiently. So they could now do their worst—but not with your engine safely OIL-PLATED by Conoco Nth motor oil. Change at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Today. Continental Oil Co.
