WASHINGTON (AP) — Transportation Secretary Drew Lewis is asking Congress to quickly approve legislation ordering an end to the crippling strike against the nation's freight railroads.

request for congressional action. Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, called a separate session of the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee, which he chairs, to take up the matter as well.

Lewis said the president wants Congress to approve legislation that would impose on the railroads and striking engineers the recommendations of a special presidential commission established during a 60-day cooling off period that ended Sunday.

Efforts to end the 3-day-old strike by locomotive engineers moved to Capitol Hill when talks between union and management negotiators broke off after a three-hour session Monday.

Lewis, saying "the nation cannot afford a prolonged rail strike," told reporters at the White House after meeting with President Reagan that he expected Congress to act by Wednesday at the latest.

Hereford, unbeaten in three starts, averaging nearly 36 points a game and some 415 yards total offense, has accomplished a first this week.

Both are a point behind ninth-ranked Highland Park, and just three points back of perennial power Temple. "It's a real honor for our football team, and the school," head coach Don Cumpton said.

"But, to tell you the truth, the rankings don't make that much difference at this point of the season. "I don't think you can worry about where you're ranked this early. I'm more concerned with where we stand after 10 games.

They've earned the honor." Ironically, Hereford was never ranked in the AP Top 10 last year, en route to a perfect 10-0 regular season mark, and an overall 13-1 standard — losing to eventual state champion Lake Highlands, 10-7, in the Class 5A semifinals.

Austin Reagan, San Angelo, Odessa Permian, San Antonio Churchill and Plano. While the Top 10 ranking is an honor to Cumpton, he's presently more concerned about this week's opponent — Lubbock Monterey, also 3-0 on the season and 2-0 in District 3-5A.

Cablevision proposes rate increase

Hereford Cablevision brought to city commissioners Monday night a proposed rate increase which will also bring four more channels to its customers.

Under the proposal, which will be aired in a public hearing later, monthly rates will be raised from $6.26 to $9. Cliff Gardner of Cablevision said each home will have a new converter box installed which will bring four new channels. Customers without HBO will have the box too, but it will contain a blocker.

The networks are Nickelodeon, specializing in children's shows; on the same channel at 8 p.m. ARTS, a network featuring cultural arts programming; USA Network, fulltime programming targeted to women during the day and children in the afternoon; and satellite programming which will have French and British shows in English and a focus toward special audiences such as senior citizens.

Garner explained that PBS programming is still being planned and engineered for better reception. Cablevision may have to build its own microwave dish in order to receive the station. The city commission approved a resolution proclaiming the need for better highway maintenance, but deleted the paragraph designating how funds were to be derived.

Mike Carr, Chamber exec, and Gary Phipps will go to Austin Wednesday with a group of Panhandle leaders to present the proposal. The resolution suggested an increase in state fuel tax to fund road improvement. Wes Fisher made the motion to delete that part from the resolution.

No police car bids were received because local dealerships were unable to obtain prices from the major companies. Bids will be advertised again. The commission also will authorize bids for a flow recorder for the wastewater treatment plant. Replacement of the recorder, installed in 1964, will cost approximately $4,000.

Hereford Tractor to Smithsonian

Gerald McCathern, a leader of the American Agriculture Movement, stands beside his tractor which has been selected to be placed in the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. McCathern drove the tractor as National Wagonmaster in the AAM's Tractorcade in 1979. He took the tractor to Amarillo Monday for display in the Tri-State Fair. The Smithsonian presentation is tentatively set for January.

A Hereford tractor will soon be making history — it has been selected for display in the agricultural area of the Smithsonian Institute.

That tractor, owned by Gerald McCathern of Hereford, was taken to Amarillo Monday for display at the Tri-State Fair. It will travel to the Panhandle - South Plains Fair in Lubbock, then to the national convention of the American Agriculture Movement in Nashville, Tenn., before it goes into the Smithsonian.

This specific tractor was selected because it served as the National Wagonmaster's vehicle in the AAM's "tractorcade protest" in 1979. The Smithsonian's ag display has very little modern equipment.

Since the government does not purchase items for the Smithsonian, members of the AAM are soliciting donations from members to pay McCathern for the tractor. Clifford Hamilton of Shallowater mailed out 30,000 letters to farmers across the nation for these contributions.

'Bubble boy' observes 11th

HOUSTON (AP) — David celebrates his 11th birthday today in a protective plastic bubble.

He has been in that germ-free environment since he was born and has never been touched by someone else's bare hand. David is the oldest known survivor of untreated severe combined immune deficiency, a rare inherited disorder that left him with no natural immunities to fight disease.

"He's just like any other 11-year-old boy except he's never been sick a day in his life," said Suzannah Griffin, a public information officer at the Baylor College of Medicine. He lives in a three-compartment bubble occupying the dining room and living room of his family's home. His family can hug and kiss him through the bubble, which has gloves that can be used to reach into the unit or let David reach out.

Hamilton requested any size of contribution, but plans to include donors of $100 or more on a plaque to be placed with the tractor. The tractor, a 1978 International (1486), also stayed in Washington, D.C., following the tractorcade and was used to plow and re-seed the Mall where the tractors had been (See TRACTOR, Page 3)

His parents and his 14-year-old sister, Kathleen, planned a party and Mass for today in honor of David's birthday. His presents — as he requested — will include a new computer game and Star Trek toys. David's older brother died of severe combined immune deficiency and doctors at Baylor College of Medicine predicted David would be born with the same disorder. He was the second baby in the United States to be born in a germ-free environment.

Fourth student dies from traffic accident

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP) — A fourth Texas Tech student has died from injuries she received in a traffic accident that occurred while seven students were returning to Lubbock, Texas, from a college football game.

Lisa Perich, 18, of Clovis, died from multiple injuries, said Bernie Sterenberg, nursing supervisor at Clovis High Plains Hospital.

Two survivors of the accident, Lisa Owens, 19, of Garland, Texas, and Gary Nordstrom, 19, of Arlington, Texas, were in stable condition Monday, Mrs. Sterenberg said.

Ms. Owens was to be transferred today to a Dallas hospital and Nordstrom has been transferred to an Arlington hospital, Mrs. Sterenberg said.

A third survivor, Brian Tuerff, 18, of Houston, was discharged from the hospital Sept. 13, authorities said.

The accident occurred about 2 a.m. Sept. 12 on U.S. 60-84, about 10 miles west of Clovis when the students' east-bound car and a westbound pickup truck collided, police said.

The students were returning to Lubbock, Texas, after a college football game between Texas Tech and the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, officials said.

The other students killed in the accident were Walter Black, 18, of Houston; Patricia Marchbanks, 18, of Cresson, Texas, and Christopher Heller, 18, of San Antonio, Texas.

Texas man's appeal denied

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Just because a Texas man has been tried three times on one murder charge does not mean he cannot be tried again, a federal appeals court says.

Howie Ray Robinson has been tried, convicted and sentenced to death three times in the September 1973 shooting death of a grocery store clerk, and three times has won an appeal for a new trial.

After the first conviction, in 1974, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial, saying a prosecution witness should not have been allowed to testify he passed a lie detector test.

Retried in 1977, Robinson won a reversal from the trial judge.

On May 13, 1978, a state court jury once again found Robinson guilty of murder and sentenced him to death. But, two years later, the trial judge overturned the conviction because the court reporter lost some notes and could not provide a complete transcript for Robinson's appeal.

Robinson contended the prosecutors' and judges' errors which resulted in retrials showed malicious intent to deprive him of a fair trial. He asked for an injunction and damages.

He lost in state and U.S. district courts, then appealed to the 5th Circuit Court.

"On the record before us we cannot say the district court clearly erred," the appeals court said.

Founder says private firm won't sell stock

HOUSTON (AP) — The founder of the company that successfully launched a privately financed rocket earlier this month has decided not to sell stock to the public.

David Hannah, founder of Space Services Inc. of America, said selling stock would require having detailed plans that would have to be closely followed.

"We have good, clear directions we want to go, but that doesn't mean that in the next 60 or 90 days something may shift on us," Hannah said over the weekend.

The longer the company avoids going public, the more options it has, Hannah said.

Since the solid fuel rocket, Contestoga 1, was launched from Matagorda Island on Sept. 9, several investors have made inquiries, Hannah said.

Fifty-seven investors — all approached by Hannah — already have pumped $6 million into research and development and have provided money to run the company.

Hannah said the firm now has two markets available — launching low Earth-orbit payloads and communications satellites.

Judge delays ruling on Braniff's pension

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A federal bankruptcy judge says he will hear trial testimony, beginning Friday, before deciding when two of Braniff Airways Corp.'s employee pension plans will be shut down.

U.S. Bankruptcy Judge John Flowers on Monday rejected a motion, filed by former Braniff employees, seeking to force the company to maintain its four pension plans at current payment levels. Flowers said he did not have jurisdiction.

However, he postponed a ruling on the dispute between Braniff and the federal Pension Benefit Guaranty Corp. concerning the effective date for dissolving the plans.

Braniff wants Flowers to terminate the pension plans as of May 12, the day the airline suspended operations. Braniff officials filed for protection under Chapter 11 of the Federal Bankruptcy Code last next day.

However, the PBGC — which has agreed to assume management of the underfunded pension programs — recommends Aug. 30 instead.

Braniff owes the retirement plans approximately $25 million, but wants Flowers to assign that debt a low priority among the company's long list of creditors.

Retirees covered by the other two plans — management personnel and pilots — received reduced payments for September. Officials with the PBGC said they might not have to take over those two funds, since they both have enough money to meet their current obligations.

Police investigating rash of tire slashing

A half-dozen movie-goers were victims of a rash of tire slashing Monday night.

Vehicles parked in the 300 block of Main Street and in the 400 block of West Fourth had one to two tires each sliced while drivers and passengers were at a theater. Police took all the reports around 9:30 p.m. No suspects have been named and police are still investigating.

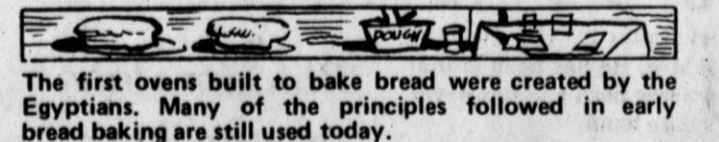

Hereford police arrested one man and a juvenile girl for shoplifting at Furr's Monday.

Police received a report of a juvenile who was allegedly beaten while on his way to a friend's house. Police have suspects, but no arrest has been made.

During the weekend police took a theft report from a man whose battery had been taken and received a report of criminal mischief from 618 Avenue K where a window was broken. A man returning from vacation found that tools and a toolbox were stolen from the back of his pickup.

Saturday, Hereford police questioned three men allegedly involved in a rape at Dimmitt. The three gave voluntary statements which were sent to Dimmitt police, however charges have not been filed yet.

The first ovens built to bake bread were created by the Egyptians. Many of the principles followed in early bread baking are still used today.

Drugs to reduce the difficulty. "David's parents have elected not to choose these treatments because they are still experimental and the risks are too great," Shearer said.

David spends most of his time in the bubble in his home. Twice a year he goes to the Texas Children's Hospital for a week for tests while his bubble is cleaned. Two rooms at the hospital are reserved for him at all times.

He travels to the hospital in a portable bubble. The portable unit is on wheels so it can be rolled around in his home or outside, or put in a van.

NASA engineers provided him with a specially constructed space suit which let him leave the bubble, but he has outgrown the suit.

The report by the Baylor College of Medicine said economic support for David has come from grants from many individual donors in addition to the Division of Resources of the National Institutes of Health, Texas Children's Hospital and the TCH Women's Auxiliary. His parents provide clothes, toys and school supplies, the report said.

Some foods may prevent cancer

A mountain of money has not cured cancer. Perhaps we can prevent it, instead. Researchers are shifting gears, adopting new strategy. The war against disease has moved from defensive to offensive, from getting well to staying well, from cure to prevention.

It's fun to watch medical scientists eating again. For a decade there they had themselves and us convinced that the air we breathe, the water we drink, the food we eat — is "poison." With an assist from scare-mongering headline writers they had us drowning in an irreversible tide of cancer-causing chemicals.

Last year a Harvard study warned that such a carcinogen had been found in coffee.

But since then, University of Minnesota researchers discovered that there are two "carcinogen inhibitors" in coffee; two anti-carcinogens in coffee beans which are potent protectors against cancer!

The recent International Cancer Congress in Seattle heard, further, that these are detoxifying enzyme cancer-fighters are present in a variety of fruits and vegetables: carrots, beans, peas, cabbage. Almost nobody who eats cabbage regularly ever develops bowel cancer.

Nor is this the last word on the subject. Diet is no more the entire answer to disease prevention than was sorcery or blood-letting or sterilization of psychiatry or massage or chemistry or exercise...

Holistic medicine recognizes potential benefits from each. And the emerging understanding of nutrition will be jeopardized by the overdoers.

But meanwhile, as I say, it is fun to watch medical schools beginning to teach some of what they recently condemned as "quackery." Even though they insist on using fancy names such as "beta carotene" for vitamin A.

Medical College of Toledo "discovers" that injuries heal faster if you add zinc to your diet.

PREVENTION magazine has been saying that for 15 years.

Kansas University discovers that iron deficiency may be corrected by increased consumption of vitamin C.

Linus Pauling has tried to tell us that for 20 years. Dr. Anthony Sattilario, president of Philadelphia's Methodist Hospital, says he was rescued from widely metastasized cancer by a couple of hippie hitchhikers who taught him about their grains-and-vegetables diet.

Our government's National Cancer Institute Director, Dr. Vincent Devita, is admittedly "excited" and promises to turn his research machinery "in the right direction."

Texas making mistake pushing for lignite fuel

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texas is making a mistake encouraging public utility companies to go all out for lignite fuel instead of paying attention to other alternative sources of energy, a group of environmentalists say.

More attention also should be paid to possible environmental and health dangers of the use of lignite, the Texas Environmental Coalition said Monday.

"The rosy picture for lignite in Texas that has been presented most recently before the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council assumes that the public will continue to bear the health risks and economic risks of that development," said Bill Carter, speaking for the Central Texas Lignite Watch.

In addition to the piano, they play such varied instruments as sand blocks, rab boards, shakers, bongo drums, sticks, bells, butter molds, harmonicas, skillets

Scholarships grants now good through fourth year

WTSU - A sixth grant of $200,000 to the Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholars program at West Texas State University has extended the availability of the scholarships to students through their fourth year at WTSU.

The most recent grant from the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation of Amarillo has boosted the total endowment for the honor scholarship fund to $1.2 million.

For the 1982-83 academic year, the largest group of Don and Sybil Harrington honor scholars since the program began in 1978 as the President's Honor Scholars program, has received $200 scholarships which are renewable through their third year of study. Almost 400 beginning freshman students have received the scholarships this year.

The initial grant in October of 1979 was intended by the administrators of the Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation to create a permanent endowment fund for academic merit scholarships, known as the Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarships.

Grants each of $200,000 were awarded to WTSU by the foundation in October of 1979, June 1980, May 1981, October 1981 and May 1982.

Scholarship amounts have grown from $100 to $200 each and students are eligible to receive the scholarships for four years if they maintain a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale beginning with the 1983-84 academic year. The availability of the scholarship through the third year of study became possible with the 1982-83 academic year.

During the past three years, 902 students have been designated as Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholars as freshman students. To be eligible to receive the scholarships, freshman students must have been members of high school National Honor Society chapters.

"All of us at West Texas State are most grateful to Mrs. Sybil Harrington, to Mr. Richard Palmer, vice president, and to members of the Harrington Foundation board for their continued interest in West Texas State University, their confidence in our curricular programs and their willingness to support academically-qualified students in pursuit of baccalaureate degrees," said Dr. Gail Shannon, WTSU president.

"The Don and Sybil Harrington scholarship fund has been a significant factor in our efforts to maintain a modest growth in enrollment."

The $200 Don and Sybil Harrington Honor Scholarship enables students to waive out-of-state tuition.

Ann Landers Animal lover speaks

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a teenager who loves rock music. I also love animals. I cannot stand it when I hear what is going on during some of these punk rock concerts. Please do what you can to stop it. I am talking about the onstage murdering of helpless animals.

Ozzy Osbourne did indeed bite the head off a bat in Des Moines last January however. He claimed someone threw it to him from the audience and he thought it was a toy. When he discovered he had bitten the head off a live bat, he was horrified and had to take a series of extremely painful rabies shots. Ozzy said under no circumstances would he ever do that again.

At one concert the group threw a bunch of baby kittens into the audience and demanded that they be killed or the concert would not continue. Another group steps on baby chicks and stomps them to death to the beat of the music. Last year an attempt was made to blow a goat at a rock concert out East. Strangling cats is another method used to get the crowd excited.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is for "Scared in San Jose" who was worried about the hot checks she has been writing. The best thing that could happen to her would be to have a check or two bounce. It worked for me.

I got into the habit of writing checks about two days before I deposited my paycheck, thinking they had a couple of days to clear. I was wrong! Some checks cleared in one day. Others took as long as two weeks. I then started to go by what the bank said my balance was - and that was even riskier.

Last January in Des Moines Ozzy Osbourne - a heavy-metal rock star - bit the head off a live bat. Isn't this just sickening?

No wonder there is so much violence and senseless killing in the world. With these crazy nuts torturing animals and thousands of people thinking it's fun, what is going to happen to the human race? I won't sign my name. Just call me - Animal Protector (Age 13) In Warren, Conn.

I ended up, nine months ago, with four overdrawn checks (which the bank covered for me, thank the good Lord). But the one that wasn't covered was the rent check. Imagine my embarrassment when the landlord called to say my check was returned marked "insufficient funds."

DEAR A.P.: I have received several letters complaining about a rock group that tossed baby kittens into the audience and demanded that they be killed. I also have gotten letters about a group that strangles chickens. No one, however, has told me when or where these horrible incidents occurred, nor has anyone come up with the names of the groups. A Sun-Times librarian searched high and low for documentation and there isn't a line to be found. So, unless someone can produce authentic evidence, I must assume these stories are untrue. But wait, I'm not finished.

Statement issued by Santa Fe railway

In answer to queries regarding the ICC ruling in the Union Pacific - Missouri Pacific - Western Pacific merger, the Santa Fe Railway has issued the following statement:

"We are gravely disappointed with the Interstate Commerce Commission's announcement that it has voted 5 to 1 to approve Union Pacific's takeover of the Missouri Pacific and Western Pacific, said John S. Reed, Chairman of The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company. "We are also distressed that the Commission, in an attempt to mitigate some of the harm which will result from the proposed takeover, has granted rights to the Southern Pacific between Kansas City and St. Louis and to the Denver & Rio Grande Western between Pueblo, Colorado and Kansas City. A grant of these trackage rights would impose Southern Pacific and Denver & Rio Grande Western operations over segments of Santa Fe lines and would constitute an unlawful appropriation of Santa Fe properties as well as an undue, adverse interference with Santa Fe's operations."

Moreover, Mr. Reed said, "The Commission's elimination of the Bieber Route Conditions would materially reduce Santa Fe's ability to compete for rail traffic between California and the Pacific Northwest."

Reed said that it will be necessary to review the Commission's decision in detail when it is issued in October before determining Santa Fe's course of action. He indicated, however, that, given what Santa Fe believes to be the substantial anti-competitive nature of the transactions and the serious injury they would do to other segments of the western rail industry, the possibility of a successful appeal of the Commission's decision should not be ruled out.

HEALTH

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Perspective on jogging

DEAR DR. LAMB - I am very concerned that you seem to endorse exercise and jogging for health. I read a report that a study in Rhode Island showed that joggers had seven times the death rate from heart attacks as occurred in inactive people. There are frequent reports of men dying from heart attacks from jogging. Isn't all that exercise really harmful? In view of these findings, I'm following the old idea that whenever I get the urge to exercise I just rest until the urge passes.

DEAR READER - People die from heart attacks while just resting, too, so don't be so smug.

The study you are referring to actually showed only 12 men died during jogging in Rhode Island in a period between 1975 and 1980. That number is so small that a statistician would have trouble making a lot out of it. And one of those deaths was from gastrointestinal hemorrhage, unrelated to heart disease and probably unrelated to jogging.

Incidentally almost all of the 11 others had heart disease and many were cigarette smokers.

People who exercise should know their risk factors. They should not smoke and should limit activity until they start reducing high cholesterol and high blood pressure levels. A good way to start an exercise program is with a walking program.

NFL owners vs. players

Strike could end season

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking players and team owners both say they are willing to lose the rest of the National Football League season if it means winning at the bargaining table.

Fans, dismayed by the first regular-season strike in the sport's history, are about to be barraged with Canadian and college football, along with movies, as television networks scramble to fill the air time.

Gene Upshaw, president of the 1,500-member NFL Players Association, announced the strike Monday after the union's executive committee voted unanimously in favor of a walkout. The strike began about eight hours later, after the Green Bay Packers beat the New York Giants 27-19 to complete the season's second week.

The Hereford Brand Sports

"At the conclusion of tonight's game, the league will be struck," Upshaw, a Los Angeles Raiders guard, said Monday. "No practices, no workouts, no games will be played until management engages in good-faith bargaining."

He later added the players were ready to hold out "one day longer than management."

But Jack Donlan, executive director of the NFL Management Council, countered that team owners were prepared to "go as long as necessary, including the entire season, to prove their point."

He made his remarks after a Monday night meeting of the owners' executive committee, held in New York.

The first game to be affected by the strike will be Thursday night, when the Atlanta Falcons were scheduled to play in Kansas City against the Chiefs, ABC, which was to televise the game, announced it will instead show Peter Falk in "The Cheap Detective."

It's the second time in just over a year that a strike has interrupted American professional sports. Baseball players struck last summer for 50 days in a dispute over free agency. NFL players staged two training-camp strikes, in 1970 and 1974.

The football strike centers on money and how the NFL's billion-dollar income should be distributed.

Donlan says owners are "unalterably opposed" to guaranteed percentages and wage scales for the players. They have offered a package containing $10,000-a-year bonuses for veterans, plus base salary hikes.

Both sides have reached basic agreement on how much a new contract should cost — $1.6 billion. The length of the contract, where the money comes from and how it will be divided are the sticking points.

Ed Garvey, executive director of the NFLPA, said he hoped the strike "will force the owners to start bargaining in good faith."

Mark Murphy, a member of the union's executive committee and a Washington Redskins defensive back, said it was "vital" for NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle to step into the talks. Rozelle so far has not participated in the bargaining, and Donlan said Monday night that the commissioner should remain on the sidelines.

Negotiations between the management council and the players union broke off Friday and no further talks were scheduled.

NEW YORK (AP) — Here are some facts and figures on the National Football League players' strike against the NFL:

ON STRIKE: The 1,500 members of the NFL Players Association against the 28 teams.

EFFECTIVE DATE: It begins Tuesday. The first game to be affected will be Thursday's Atlanta-Kansas City in Kansas City.

NFLPA DEMANDS: A total package of $1.6 billion over four years with $1.66 of that coming from 50 percent of the club's network-television package, plus free agency after three years.

MANAGEMENT'S OFFER: A total package of $1.6 billion over five years, from whatever source the clubs choose.

EFFECTS ON TV COVERAGE: CBS plans to continue coverage of the season; NBC will televise Canadian Football League games and ABC will revert to prime-time programming. Turner Broadcasting of Atlanta has signed a contract for a series of games between all-star teams made up of strikers.

Packer rally tops Giants

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) — Green Bay Packers quarterback Lynn Dickey likes a winning season — even if it's only two games. "If there's going to be a strike, I'd rather be 2-0 than 1-1," Dickey said after the Packers pulled another second-half comeback and thrashed the New York Giants 27-19 Monday night.

When the clock ran out, the National Football League players strike had begun. James Lofton, whose 83-yard end-round touchdown run late in the third quarter swung the momentum to the Packers, said the players were distracted by the announcement of a strike hours earlier.

Lofton said he was sorry the strike had been announced before the game. "It kind of took some of the air out of us," he said.

Coaches of each team warned their players to forget the strike as they prepared for the game — the only NFL contest played after the strike was announced.

But players on both sides met at midfield and exchanged union solidarity handshakes just before the game began as the crowd jeered loudly.

Dickey would not blame the strike for the Packers' slow start.

"There was some mild talk about the possibility of a strike, but it had nothing to do with our performance. Once we got on the field all the talk and joking stopped. We were ready," said Dickey, who completed 13 of 20 passes for 203 yards.

The Packers scored only once in the first half, on Dickey's 7-yard touchdown pass to fullback Jim Jensen.

Before Lofton's late third-quarter touchdown, the Giants had built a 19-7 lead.

The Giants scored on 3- and 2-yard touchdown runs by rookie Joe Morris and first-year Cliff Chatman, respectively, as well as a 37-yard Joe Danelo field goal and a Packers' team safety.

Lofton raced elegantly to the end zone, holding the football high in the air as the Giants scrambled at his heels with 1:37 left in the third quarter.

In schoolboy poll

12 ranked teams fall

By The Associated Press
Top-ranked Brownwood in Class 4A and Class A Lindsay are good examples of why being ranked in The Associated Press Schoolboy Football Poll last week was a dangerous distinction.

Twelve ranked teams were beaten and four others fought to ties in the most hectic week of upsets of the young season.

Brownwood, the defending state champion, dropped to third this week after losing 21-7 to San Angelo, the No. 4 ranked Class 5A team. Lindsay dropped to eighth after being shut out 29-0 by Pottshoro, ranked 10th in 2A.

Fort Bend Willowridge, the runnerup in 4A last week, moved up to replace Brownwood and Bremond jumped from fifth to first in Class A.

Bryan in 5A, Luling in 3A and Eastland in 2A escaped with their top ranks intact.

Bryan continued to hold off runnerup Port Arthur Jefferson with 12 first-place votes while Austin Reagan moved into third place and San Angelo fell to fourth.

No. 7 Houston Yates, No. 9 Tyler and No. 10 Longview all were losers and dropped from the top 10. The newcomers are No. 7 Plano, No. 8 Temple and Hereford, tied for 10th with Conroe McCullough. Fourth-ranked Cleburne and El Campo joined Brownwood in losing 4A games. El Campo dropped from the rankings and Cleburne fell into a tie for 10th with newcomer Corsicana.

Refugio dropped from third to eighth on the 3A list after a 15-7 loss to Hallettsville, and Bonham and Daingerfield fought to ties. Bonham fell from the list and Daingerfield remained ninth.

Hebronville, 3-0, moved into the No. 10 position. Fourth-ranked Shallowater, eighth-ranked Trinity and ninth-ranked Garrison were the 2A losers and all dropped out of the top 10.

They were replaced by No. 8 New Deal, No. 9 Deweyville and No. 10 Anna.

In Class A, No. 3 Agua Dulce lost to Riviera 35-9 while No. 2 Eden and No. 10 Throckmorton were tied.

On the new list, Eden fell to seventh, Throckmorton to ninth and Agua Dulce was replaced by Gorman.

Other teams receiving votes included: 5A, Gregory-Portland 17, Dallas South Oak Cliff 15, Plainview 14, Fort Worth Eastern Hills 12; 4A, Lubbock Estacado and DeSoto 1 each; 3A, Newton 20 — including one first-place vote — Littlefield 19, Bonham 18, Decatur 14, Hearne 13.

Hallettsville 11 — including one first-place vote; 2A, Panhandle 13; A, Agua Dulce 16, Motley County 10.

McDowell grabs offensive honor

Charles McDowell, the total offense leader in District 3-5A, became the second Hereford player in as many weeks to gain recognition by the Amarillo Globe-news as its Class 5A offensive player of the week.

The Herd quarterback joins tailback Alfred Ball, who had been selected following the Canyon game. McDowell ripped Lubbock High last Friday for 117 yards rushing on five carries, scoring two touchdowns, and completed one of two passes for 24 yards — a TD strike to end Brian Taylor.

In three games thus far, McDowell has accounted for 430 yards total offense — nearly 100 more than Tascosa's David Rittenberry, who has 336.

Against the Westerners last week, McDowell scored on runs of 53 and 12 yards.

Herd strong safety Jay Hodge received honorable mention among defensive players for last week's games. He intercepted a pass and returned it 25 yards for a TD, in addition to causing and recovering a fumble.

This week, the Herd travels to Lubbock to take on unbeaten Monterey at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Lowrey Field. The Plainsmen currently sit atop the 3-5A standings with a 2-0 record, having beaten Amarillo High (24-0) and Coronado (17-14).

Dodgers lead Braves by 3 in West

Cardinals magic number in NL East is eight

By DENNIS D'AGOSTINO
Associated Press Writer

With 12 games to go, it's possible to start putting the words "St. Louis Cardinals" and "magic number" in the same sentence. But just eight days ago, the Redbirds were a half-game out of first place, having lost seven out of ten games.

Then came the streak. Seven days. Eight games. Eight victories. And suddenly, the magic number is eight.

Behind a combined nine-hitter by Joaquin Andujar and Bruce Sutter, the Cards won their eighth straight game Monday night, beating the Philadelphia Phillies 4-1. They extended their lead in the National League East to 5½ games over second-place Philadelphia, and any combination of Cardinal victories and Phillie losses adding up to eight will give St. Louis its first divisional title in history.

In other NL action Monday, Houston edged Atlanta 4-3, while Chicago topped Pittsburgh 3-1. Rain washed out the Montreal-New York contest at Shea Stadium.

"If we win tomorrow, it will put serious pressure on them," Cardinal third baseman Ken Oberkfell said of Philadelphia, which has lost seven of nine coming into tonight's game at Busch Stadium. "It's exciting. It will be a big game. The fans are getting revved up. It's like a 10th player on our side."

"Probably our starting pitching over the last nine games has been the best I've ever seen," said Cardinal Manager Whitey Herzog. In their last eight contests, the Cards' starters have given up seven runs.

"I just try to do my best. Right now I'm giving it 200 percent," said Andujar, 14-10, who pitched the first 62-3 innings. Sutter came on in the seventh to post his league-leading 34th save.

George Hendrick's two-run fifth-inning double off John Denny, 0-2, was the game's decisive hit.

"I felt that we had a real good chance of winning a championship. I'm not saying we're out of it yet," Phillie skipper Pat Coralles said. "I've seen strange things happen in this game."

Astros 4, Braves 3

While the Cards were assuming a commanding position in the NL East race, the Braves, who led the NL West by as many as nine games in late July, fell three full games behind first-place Los Angeles with 12 games to play.

Dickie Noles' ninth-inning double to left-center off reliever Gene Garber, 7-9, won the game for the fifth-place Astros.

"This was the toughest loss of the season for us," said Atlanta's Jerry Royster. "It's late in the season, and we had a chance to pick up a half game. It's real tough to take."

"I'd much rather be in our position than the Astros," said Atlanta manager Joe Torre. "They are relaxed and have nothing to lose. We've been picking ourselves up off the floor all season. Any time you lose in the last 12 or 13 games, it's tough. Every loss is monumental and very critical to our pennant hopes."

Cubs 3, Pirates 1

Dickie Noles, 9-12, doubled and scored a run to back his own pitching, as he scattered five hits and struck out eight in seven innings of work. Dick Tidrow earned his sixth save as the Cubs won their fifth straight game.

The Cubs' last loss prior to the winning streak was a 15-5 drubbing to Pittsburgh in which Noles was the losing pitcher.

"I told Bo (Cubs shortstop Larry Bowa) I was feeling like part of the team again," Noles said. "I was mostly joking, but I lost the last game this team has lost in a while and it was nice to come back."

"He had the best stuff I've ever seen him have, and he's won some big ballgames," said Pittsburgh manager Chuck Tanner.

Angels grab AL West lead

Brewers lead over Orioles

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

With two outs and two strikes on their last hitter in the ninth inning, the Milwaukee Brewers looked just about dead.

Then Ben Oglivie brought them to life.

sacrifice fly.

Oglivie's game-tying homer, his 31st, was one of only seven hits off Eckersley.

"With the count 0-2, I had to be ready for anything in that situation," said Oglivie. "I knew he might want to waste a pitch, but I couldn't let anything go by."

Pete Vuckovich, 18-4, went the distance for his eighth straight victory, tying a club victory. He scattered 11 hits, walked four and struck out two.

"There's no one I'd rather have out there in a big game than Vuke," said Thomas. "He's just awesome." Orioles 3, Tigers 1

John Lowenstein's two-run homer in the ninth inning lifted Baltimore over Detroit. It was the 27th victory in 32 games for the red-hot Orioles.

Angels 3, Royals 2

Tim Foli's two-out homer in the fifth inning snapped a 1-1 tie and Geoff Zahn won his 17th game as California beat Kansas City. The two teams entered the series with identical 84-65 records.

"This has to be one of the greatest moments of my career because it meant so much to this team," said Oglivie after his dramatic home run on an 0-2 pitch from Dennis Eckersley tied the game 3-3 in the ninth against the Boston Red Sox Monday night.

After Oglivie rescued the Brewers, they won it 4-3 in the 11th on Gorman Thomas' sacrifice fly.

"We could've been only one up, but we're still two up, and that's very nice," said Oglivie, whose Brewers maintained a two-game lead in the American League East over the Baltimore Orioles, 3-1 winners over the Detroit Tigers.

Zahn, 17-8, gave up eight hits, walked four and struck out two before needing relief help in the ninth from Luis Sanchez, who gained his third save after giving up John Wathan's RBI grounder.

Foli's blast broke up a pitchers' duel between left-handed aces Zahn and Larry Gura, 17-11, giving the Angels a 2-1 lead.

They scored their eventual winning run in the seventh inning as Bobby Grich led off with a walk, took second on Bob Boone's sacrifice and, after Foli reached first on shortstop U.L. Washington's throwing error, scored on Ron Jackson's double. Twins 4, Blue Jays 1

Randy Bush drove in three runs with two homers to lead Minnesota over Toronto. Bob-

Left-hander Frank Tanana, 7-18, snapped a personal five-game losing streak with the victory, allowing solo homers to Rickey Henderson, Kelvin Moore and Mike Heath before getting relief help in the eighth from Danny Darwin.

The Rangers sent nine batters to the plate in the first inning, collecting five of their 14 hits off loser Matt Keough, 11-18. Mariners 5, White Sox 2

Joe Simpson scored once and drove in the go-ahead run with an infield single in the fifth inning as Seattle downed Chicago.

Bryan Clark, 4-2, struck out five over 52-3 innings, getting relief help from Rich Bordi and Ed Vande Berg, who earned his fourth save.

Meanwhile, the California Angels beat the Kansas City Royals 3-2 to take over sole possession of the lead in the AL West. The two teams had been tied for first going into Monday night's opener of their big, three-game series.

In other AL action, Minnesota defeated Toronto 4-1, Texas belted Oakland 10-3 and Seattle trimmed Chicago 5-2. Rain postponed the Cleveland-New York game.

Robin Yount beat out a single to open the Milwaukee 11th off reliever Bob Stanley, 11-7. Cecil Cooper followed with a single and Ted Simmons' sacrifice moved both runners up. After Oglivie was intentionally walked to load the bases, Thomas, who earlier hit his 38th homer, delivered his game-winning sacrifice fly.

Building a successful 4-H program

BY BRAD MORRISON
Assistant County Agent

Here in Deaf Smith County we have just had a 4-H enrollment night that has been a great source of enthusiasm for us as 4-H advisors, leaders and parents. Our young people and parents have shown great interest in our county 4-H program. But now how do we turn all of this enthusiasm and interest into success?

The responsibility of harnessing all of this potential is up to the leaders, advisors, and parents. Our means of making your 4-H club a success is by the use of community resources. You may have to take a new look at the community from a new view point but you will find all kinds of possibilities.

The key to finding people, faces and things to help your 4-H group is PLANNING. Planning ahead is crucial to your success in recruiting people, places and things you need to get the job done.

A well planned program gives a 4-H club direction for the year. Each individual knows his or her responsibility and will have ample time for preparation.

Now let's see how we can use the ideas we have.

- 1) Decide what your project is going to be.
- 2) Make three lists of possible people, places, and things that can be used in your project.
- 3) Now with your group, list the possible resources you can use — you will be surprised at the number of ideas you will be given.
- 4) Now go over your list and pick out the people, places and things that will best fit your situation.
- 5) Now all you have to do is contact your resources and you're on your way to having a fine 4-H project.

Using this short and simple outline will enable you, the 4-H leader, advisor, or parent, to take the easiest route possible to achieve success with your 4-H project.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Enquirer's class set tomorrow at St. Thomas

St. Thomas Episcopal Church will conduct its fall series of Enquirer's classes beginning Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church.

These classes deal with the Apostolic Faith as presented in the Bible, and as remembered and passed down by the Apostolic Fathers of the church.

The classes are for long-time Episcopalians who may simply want a refresher course, or for those who are definitely interested in membership in the Episcopal Church.

There is no obligation implied and anyone is welcome to attend. The classes will continue for approximately ten weeks. Those who wish to become Episcopalians will be confirmed by Bishop Sam Hulseby during the dedication of the new church on St. Thomas Day, Dec. 19.

Further information may be obtained by calling the church office at 364-0146 or 364-7058.

Bullock elected president of association

AUSTIN, Tex. — State Comptroller Bob Bullock last week was elected president of the Western States Association of Tax Administrators.

Bullock's election came at the end of the group's annual conference, held this year in Portland, Oregon.

The association is comprised of state tax collectors from 14 western states, including Hawaii and Alaska.

"I'm honored that my colleagues have singled me out for this position but I believe the real credit should go to the people who work in the state Comptroller's Office," Bullock said.

Bullock is also vice-chairman of the Multistate Tax Commission and serves on the board of the Federation of Tax Administrators. In 1979 Bullock received the Louisville Gold Medal, highest national honor of the Municipal Finance Officers Association. He received the award for developing a model accounting system for Texas counties.

Bullock, a former member of the Texas House of Representatives, former general counsel to the Governor and Secretary of State, was first elected Comptroller in 1974.

Bullock will preside over the Western States Association of Tax Administrators 1983 national conference in San Antonio.

At Wits End

BY ERMA BOMBECK

Americans can't resist naming inanimate things. They buy a home and right away it has a name: "Dun Roamin'," "Dew Drop Inn," "Bonnie and Wilbur's Mi Casa, Su Casa."

Some people spend more time naming a rowboat than they do picking out names for their children: "Frank's Folly," or "Q.E. III."

You see names on apartment buildings that make you fantasize (La Dolce Vita and Ball Hall) and housing developments that carry out themes (Friar Tuck's Retreat and God's Little Acres with Heavenly Financing).

Even hurricanes are given human status by dubbing them with first names of men and women in alphabetical order.

The most intriguing names, however, are to be found on menus. Any food or drink worth its salt has to have a cute name.

Can you remember when you last saw a menu with the plain word, "Hamburger" on it?

The informative burgers are easy to interpret: Baconburgers, Cheeseburgers, Avocadoburgers and Chiliburgers.

The regional burgers are fun: Yankeeburger, the Pilgrimburger, Y'all Come Backburgers, the Sidewinderburger and the Make-You-a-Starburger.

But the vague ones make me suspicious: Solarburger, Ploysterburger, Spaceburger, Aphrodisiacburger, and the really scary one: THE ORIGINAL HAMBURGER!

I never sit in a restaurant and read a menu that I don't think of a great group of authors who sit at a desk day after day trying to come up with another name for a fish sandwich or a bowl of clam chowder.

America is fast becoming a bilingual country: English and Menu.

The other day I must have stared at a menu for 20 minutes. The names didn't give me a clue as to what the food was. Finally, I took the plunge, "I'll have the Mt. Helena Eruption, the Denture Stain Under a Blanket and the Hair of the Dog malt."

I got a bowl of oatmeal, a blueberry cobbler and a vodka martini.

A lot of people don't have that for breakfast.

The slide rule was invented by English mathematician William Outred in the 1600s.

Caring for carbon steel

DEAR POLLY — My set of beautiful carbon steel knives have become rusty and discolored. What did I do wrong and how can I shine them again? — EDNA
DEAR EDNA — Carbon steel does tend to turn dark. However, rust should be avoided at all costs and removed if it occurred. I suspect you let those knives sit around wet once in a while. Always wash and dry a knife immediately after using. And don't put it in the automatic dishwasher. Clean them up with a soap-filled steel wool pad. A little lemon juice rubbed on with a scouring pad might help restore a shine. Don't be discouraged if they are still dark colored, however. The knives will still perform well, but do remove the rust! — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — Here's my Pointer for hard-to-open jars. I put the jar upside down in a deep pan, run hot water into it for a few minutes, then let it stand for a while. Soon, the cover comes off easily. Hope this helps lots of people. — JEAN

DEAR POLLY — When I prepare for a trip, I make a list in advance of things to pack. When I do pack, the list goes into the suitcase so I can make sure that everything comes home with me again.

If you travel with insulin or any medication that must stay cool, purchase a wide-mouth vacuum bottle. Put a few ice cubes in it, plus your medication. This will keep it cool for an entire day. — PEARL
