Grand jury indicts 22, to hear more cases Wednesday

The county grand jury, whose term ends Aug. 1, will return Wednesday for its third time in three weeks to consider indictments against persons charged with felonies in Deaf Smith County.

The grand jury, headed by foreman Herman Ford, indicted 22 persons last Wednesday and no billed seven persons, declaring there was insufficient evidence to hold the seven for trial.

The indictments included two for rape, three for possession of narcotics, one for assault with intent to murder and three for burglary. The other indictments were for driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense, 6; theft over $50, 5; forgery, 1; and sale of mortgaged property, 1.

The grand jury bound over for district court trial, Aljeroy Rozell and Alvin Black, for rape. The narcotics charges were against Ralph William Warren, possession of marijuana; James Brent Sweny, possession of marijuana for purpose of sale; and Francisco Chavez Garcia, possession of heroin.

Damacio D. Bocanegra was indicted for assault with intent to murder. The other indictments were:

—Freddy Rincon, Steven Reyes and Jimmie Wesley Stotts Rabb, all for burglary.

—Robert Lassitor, Tommy Lee Freeman, Pedro Rodriguez Jr., Eddie Burnett Collins Jr., and Senida Garza, all for theft.

—Argo Lucas, Leland Edward Clay, James Newman Brown, Vernon Francis Nivens, Louis Crispin and Jimmy A. Waits, all driving while intoxicated, subsequent offense.

—Betty Whiteside, forgery and passing; and —James Burrell Murphy, disposing of mortgaged property. Rincon, 15, and Rabb, 16, are juveniles under Texas law, but both went along with the transfer of their cases to the grand jury for treatment as adults. Rincon and Reyes were charged in the burglary of tires from Penney Auto Center and Rabb was charged with burglary of a number of homes in Hereford.

After the grand jury action, all three pleaded guilty before District Judge Archie McDonald. The judge sentenced them to five years in the state penitentiary but probated it for a five-year period.

Hereford FFA students attend state convention

Six members of the Hereford Future Farmers of America Chapter will attend the State FFA Convention in Houston this week, according to Richard Schilling, president of the FFA chapter.

The three-day meeting of representatives of over 800 FFA Chapters from throughout the state will include the awarding of advanced degrees, scholarships and awards to outstanding members of the organization.

The convention begins Wednesday and runs through Friday.

Rodney Coleman, Rocky An-draws, and Richard Schilling have been elected by chapter members as voting delegates of the Hereford chapter to the state convention.

Joe Weaver, Rodney Coleman, and Jim Fowler will receive their State Farmer degrees, and Leroy Johnson has been selected as a member of the courtesy corps and will compete for state honors in beef production.

Guest speakers addressing the convention will be Donald McDowell, executive director, National FFA Sponsoring Committee, Madison, Wis., and Dr. Regan Brown, extension sociologist, College Station, Tex.

Barham Fulmer, state FFA president, Nacodoches, will be in charge of convention activities. The convention will open with a vesper service Tuesday night in the Rice Hotel.

National FFA officers attending the convention will be John McCulley, national student secretary, Marlin, Ore. and Jim Beard, Southern Region vice president, Mounds, Okla.

Among the important business matters to be transacted at the convention will be the election of a state president from 10 state officer nominees who have been elected by members in the 10 areas of the state.

The state public speaking contest will be conducted. Voting delegates to the national FFA convention in Kansas City in October will be selected.

In addition, delegates will elect a state sweetheart from the 10 candidates elected by the areas and will select the top talent team in the state.

Some 912 Future Farmers from the 54,378 memberships of the organization will receive the state's highest award, the Lone Star Farmer Degree. The membership will confer honor; degrees on adults who have contributed in an outstanding way to the accomplishments of the organization.

More than 5,000 FFA members, advisors and guests are expected to converge on Houston and the Sam Houston Coliseum.

David Thomas takes top UN tour honors

BY CHARLES RICHARDS
News Editor

At the McAlpin Hotel in the very heart of New York City, just across the street from the world's largest department store and the world's tallest building, one student from Hereford and 146 students from the rest of the United States sat in suspense nine days ago.

It was about 4:15 p.m. and David Thomas, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas, 206 Sunset Dr., Hereford was back on the seventh row.

In the next chair was Scott Everett of Rhode Island, whom David had been rooming with for the week in New York City, during the 22nd annual U. N. Pilgrimage sponsored by the Odd Fellows. They awaited the verdict of six judges on which of the 147 juniors and seniors in high school best grasped the feeling and reality of the United Nations during four days of on-site observation.

Earlier in the week, the teenagers had inter-spiced their all-day visits in the United Nations with trips to such places as Macy's and the Empire State Building, both within a stone's throw of the McAlpin Hotel. And they'd made the Broadway shows, the Statue of Liberty, Radio City Music Hall.

On this afternoon of July 2, however, each one stood before their fellow students and told what impressions they got of the United Nations in their four days in the massive structure on the banks of the East River in Manhattan.

The speeches ended at 4 p.m., and there was 15 minutes of waiting while six judges huddled to make their decision.

Then a man stepped to front and center.

"And, now, the winner is, from the state of Texas, David Thomas," he said.

Having been chosen top boy for the group which visited the U. N. the week of June 28-July 2, Thomas is one of seven semi-finalists. Judges will pick from among the seven weekly "top boy" and "top girl" winners, the two overall top boy and top girl.

Those two will get an all-expense paid trip to Vancouver in September to speak before the Sovereign Grand Lodge session of the Odd Fellows and will receive a 30-volume, 1971 edition of the Encyclopedia Americana.

Setting the stage for David's victory, the 147 first were split up into six groups for preliminary speeches at 1:30 p.m., and the students themselves voted on the top boy and girl from among them. There were 21 boys in his group, so it took 11 votes to be the preliminary winner. David had 15 votes on the first ballot in his group. His roommate, Scott Everett, won in another group. Emmett Richardson of Amarillo, whom David met and became close friends with at the start of the tour when it left by bus from Irving on June 21, won in another group.

"It was really a surprise, because we had each talked with each other about what we thought we were going to do (for the speech)," David said. The three then were among the six boys and six girls who went, in turn, before the entire group and the judges to give their talk again, for final judging.

In his week of getting briefings from U. S. and foreign officials at the U. N. on such topics as population, narcotics and peace keeping, David told the other students the United Nations came across to him as symbolizing "Care."

He said each letter of "care" meant something to him, in thinking of the United Nations—"c" for communication, "a" for action, "r" for realistic outlook and "e" for encouragement. He gave specific examples of where it proved so to him, such as solving the Arab refugee problem and in the UN's work with UNICEF, a program to help children throughout the world. He talked about four minutes.

A highlight of the U. N. visit was the appearance of U.S. Ambassador to the U. N., George Bush, before the pilgrimage group. It was the first time a U. S. ambassador had ever spoken before such a group, David said.

"It was a real surprise. They had asked him to meet with us, but he was supposed to have left for Geneva, already. The man we were talking with said he had already left, and then all of a sudden he popped in. He answered our questions and he was not afraid to say where he felt the United Nations was failing and where it was succeeding. Everyone enjoyed him."

The tour lasted for just over two weeks, with about half of it being spent in New York City. The rest of the time was spent traveling to and from the nation's largest city, stopping at historic points along the way. The bus tour from Irving went through the South and along the East Coast on the way to New York, with stops at Monticello, home of Thomas Jefferson, in Virginia, and at Washington, D. C.

On the way back, the tour took the 20 Texas students to Niagara Falls, into Canada and down through the Midwest.

Odd Fellows furnished the food for the students along the way, "and we enjoyed just talking with them as well," David said.

"It was all great and exciting, but, I'd like to make this point," David said Saturday morning. "Although it was very interesting to visit Washington, New York and these other places, every Hereford citizen should be happy of having the opportunity of living in Hereford. Those cities have their problems."

There were no hippies among the U. N. pilgrimage group and David said he "was real proud of our group because of its clean-cut appearance. They were all well groomed and well behaved."

They did see hippies in New York.

"There were quite a few," David said. "As a matter of fact they were having a homosexual parade when we got there."

How did that impress him? He didn't say anything, just grinned.

Trustees consider vacancy

The Hereford School Board will consider the resignation of Lowell Sharp as a trustee at its regular session Tuesday night. Sharp, the county adult probation officer, has said he plans to move soon to Oregon.

The board also will hear a follow-up on the bilingual education program, the 4-year-old migrant project being planned for the coming year and a report of the recent Board of Equalization meeting. Gasoline, milk and bread bids for 1971-72 will be accepted, and Larry Wartes will report on summer maintenance work. The board will choose the bank to serve as official school depositor for 1971 through 1973. The trustees also will set an official budget hearing. Several teacher applications will be acted upon. They include a recommendation for Athletic Director Larry Dippel about a coach to fill a vacancy on his staff.

Ruling opens the door

If minors vote, then what else?

BY MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

The question of whether it now is legal for 18, 19 or 20-year-olds to serve on a county or district jury is the beginning of many problems that may arise from the new Constitutional amendment allowing young people to vote.

Local county and district officials are awaiting a probable ruling by the Attorney General as to whether the young voters will be allowed to sit on a jury panel. Under present state laws, anyone who is on the registered voter list is qualified to sit on a jury.

There are other questions. If it is legal for a person 18 to 20 years of age to vote in a bond election, will it come to the point where 18 will be the legal adult age to buy a vehicle, sign a contract and buy alcoholic beverages?

Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval said he believes by 1980 this will be the case.

"I envision we will lower the adult age to 18 in the next seven or eight years," he said.

"But, my position as to whether it is right for an 18-year-old to serve on a jury is a constitutional question. With the passage of this new constitutional amendment it would seem all right, but there also is, under the new jury law, a provision that you must take jurors from the county voter registration rolls but they must be 21 years old," he said.

"So, since the 18-year-old is on the voting list, the question is can you exclude them?"

Shuval said he will recommend to the sheriff's office that they put the 18, 19, and 20-year-olds in the new "jury wheel" selection box and select them along with the adults. Then, after the total number has been drawn from the box, the number of 18, 19 and 20-year-olds should then be counted and enough other adults drawn from the wheel to make up for the number of non-adults, he is suggesting.

With this final list, he said, he will give the defending attorney the choice of selecting the jury from either the original list including the 18-year-olds, or the second list excluding them.

"We will try and do this to avoid any difficulties later on. It would be a shame to have to go back on a case for something as stupid as this," he said.

If a student is called for jury selection, he will be paid the same as any other person called. Persons who are called receive $4 a day and those who serve get $10 a day.

Roy Hartman, superintendent of schools, said the school will go along with the constitution and let the students serve.

"We would do the same as with our other people. If they are selected and they desire to serve we will let them," he said. "We don't have a policy on this because we have never needed one and we don't see this as being a real problem."

"We would just hope they'd be more active in exercising their new right better than many adults, not only here but everywhere else."

The "jury wheel" selection of prospective jurors is a new innovation in Texas. A new law requires that counties with 10,000 population or more use the system to select potential jurors.

The wheel, a six-sided box placed between two legs, has a small door on one side. After the box is spun several times, someone chooses—without locking—the required number of jurors.

The procedure will be used in both county and district court jury selection.

District officials said they will delay selection of 18 to 20-year-olds for jury duty until official rulings are made on the matter.

One county official said Friday he did not see where the new rights will end for the young people. He said the giving of the privilege to vote could very well be just the beginning.

"How are things going to work when an 18-year-old boy goes down and tries to buy a car but can't because he has to be 21 to do that? What is this man over here going to do when these 18-year-olds vote on a bond issue that will cost the adult money but not the 18, 19 or 20-year-olds?" he said.

All 18, 19 and 20-year-old persons acquired the right to vote on July 1 when Ohio approved the constitutional amendment, thus becoming the 38th state to do so. It took the okay of legislatures in three-fourths of the states. The ratification of the amendment granted the right for those persons to vote in all elections, whether local, state or federal.

Persons who turned 18 years of age after the close of the regular 1971 registration period still may register for the current voting year. The certificate is effective for any election held 30 days after registration.

It will not be necessary to separate the late registrations from any other age classification on the list of registered voters, and the registration cards will not be stamped with "For Federal Elections Only."

Persons who registered to vote in elections this year who have registration cards bearing the "For Federal Elections Only" will keep the cards, and they can be used in any election.

Research unit studies changes in area sorghum

A three-year study of the effects of various cultural practices in the amino acid composition of High Plains grain sorghum has been initiated at the High Plains Research Foundation.
The test is being conducted by Joe Wright and Jim Schrib, Agronomists, at the High Plains Research Foundation in cooperation with Texas Tech University and Phillips Petroleum Company.
In the study, 18 fertilizer levels, two irrigation programs, two row spacings and two rates of propazine will be investigated as to their effects upon the amino acid content of grain sorghum grown in this area.
The 18 fertilizer methods will be composed of different combinations of three rates of nitrogen applied preplant and side-dress and two rates of sulfur applied preplant.

The different fertilizer levels will be observed under both limited and optimum irrigation methods, under both single and double row spacings on 40-inch spaced beds, and under 1 1/2 pounds and 3 pound per acre rates of propazine.
Wright said that although the primary aim is to study the effect of cultural practices on the amino acid content in grain sorghum, a secondary benefit will be determining cultural influences on yields. "After all, an increase in the nutrition value of grain sorghum is not necessarily desirable unless we can also maintain comparable yields," Wright pointed out.
Wright said results of the study will be published in the High Plains Research Foundation Annual Report and encourages Foundation visitors to observe the project.

INTEGRATED BAPTISTS HOUSTON - For the first time, five associations of black Baptists, one association of white Baptists and one of Mexican-American Baptists are going to hold simultaneous conventions and a joint evangelism rally here Oct. 27.
"This historic meeting will show the world that we have moved past the state of talking about unity and have become a symbol of unity in the oneness of Christ," says the Rev. Jimmy R. Allen of San Antonio, president of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.
Stagner, and her husband and children, Leslie and Crit of Knoxville, Tenn.

Local persons attend Breckenridge wedding

Deborah Ann Goodall and Ronald Clyde Edwards were married Saturday evening in the First Christian Church at Breckenridge where they are residents. Miss Goodall is the granddaughter of Mrs. Raymond Russell, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Goodall and Edwards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Virgil Edwards, all of Breckenridge.

Ben Karnes of Irving, organist, and Mrs. A. C. Gallagher, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of candlelight organza and Alencon lace. The high crown collar, empire bodice and bishop sleeves were pearl encrusted and reembroidered with Alencon lace.

Her A-line skirt was overlaid with matching lace and appliques scattered to the sides and back. The chapel-length train was edged in scallops of lace and appliques.

Stephanotis blossoms held her waist-length veil of English illusion and she carried a toptiary bouquet of stephanotis, white rosebuds, baby's breath and English ivy.

Honor attendant was Miss Becky Lynn Anderson. Bridesmaids were Misses Gail Thomas and Karen Williams, Mrs. Robert W. Whitman Jr. of Austin and Mrs. Curtis W. Harrison of La., the bride's cousin. Miss Debra Edwards, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

Attendants wore blue and green floral organza print gowns featuring empire waistlines encircled with lilac velvet ribbon with a bow in the back and floor-length streamers. Prtrait necklines and full sleeves complimented the dresses.

They wore large brimmed hats trimmed with lilac bows and carried olive wicker baskets filled with purple asters, baby's breath and English ivy.

Kathleen Thompson, flower-girl, was identically attired and wore a bonnet shaped hat that tied under her chin. Ringbearer was Daryle Edwards, cousin of the bridegroom.

Clyde Virgil Edwards was his son's best man. Groomsmen were D. C. Edwards of Waxahachie, uncle of the bridegroom, Peyton Hudlow, Michael Gallagher and Dana Mehaffey.

The bride's brother, Gregg Goodall, was junior groomsman. Ushers were Bill Edwards of Fairhope, Alabama, Gene Ross, Austin, Stephen Coneway of Hereford and Bruce Curry of Breckenridge.

Deanna Rose and Tom Coneway, cousins of the bride, and David Edwards, cousin of the bridegroom, lighted candles.

Dr. and Mrs. Goodall were hosts for a garden reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Josephine G. Welch.

Guests were registered, greeted and served by Misses Jo Clair Welch, Sally Blodgett, Ann Black, Emily White, Patti Crockett, Jan Stockton, Carol Wulfjen, Sara Clark and Mmes. Ed Rose, Ross Elliott, Mike Rogres, Randy Deubler, Charles Hagler, Stephan Coneway, Bob Adams, L. W. Burney, Dana Mehaffey, P. A. Sheets, Phillip M. Pitzer, Gene Ross and R. W. Whitman Sr.

The four-tiered wedding cake of candlelight color was enhanced with roses and pastel forget-me-nots. Guests were seated at marble-topped tables.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a coat and dress ensemble in yellow and white embossed woven pique print.

She graduated from Breckenridge High in 1970 and attended Tech where she was a member of the Texas Tech Fashion Board.

Edwards is a May graduate of Tech with a degree in accounting. Also a Breckenridge High graduate who attended A&M, he is employed by Cenard Oil and Gas of Dallas where the couple will make their home.

Out-of-town relatives were guests at a pre-wedding supper in the home of Mrs. W. G. Arnot Jr. Hostesses were Mrs. Margaret Halluer, A. C. Gallagher Jr., Joe Hanna, W. R. Black and Arnot.

Newlyweds make home in Temple

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Clyde Spence are at home in Temple following their recent marriage in St. Mary's Catholic Church of that city. The Rev. Jerry Smith officiated for the double-ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Spence is the former Miss Elaine Mary Skypala, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Skypala and granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Skypala.

210 Fuller. Spence is son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Spence Jr. of Belton.

Nuptial music was presented by Miss Daria Herrington, organist, and the Rev. Davis Shuttlesworth, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line silk organza gown featuring empire waistline and Victorian neckline.

The bodice and bishop sleeves were accented by seed pearls and Venice lace extending into a panel back. Her circular train was edged in lace and her English veil of illusion was held by a bandeau of lace flowers.

She carried a nosegay of gladioli, daisies and rosebuds.

Mrs. Kurt Hartmann Jr. of San Antonio was her sister's matron of honor with Mrs. Rod Wright of Beaumont, sister of the bride, Miss Marcia Ashley, Mrs. Michael Kelley and Miss Sherri Deaver of Huntsville, as bridesmaids.

Cindy Bryant of Houston was flower girl and Scott Deaver of Huntsville, carried the rings.

Best man was Mack Parker of Belton. Rod Wright of Beaumont, Bob Long and Mark Pittman, both of Belton, and Bobby Blair of Austin served as groomsmen.

Ushers were Clarence Griggs and Bill Messer, oth of Belton. Kenneth Klares and Jimmy Conarty were alter boys.

Mrs. Gene Barnes registered guests at the reception which followed in the parish hall.

Members of the houseparty were Mmes. Mack Parker, Herb Stimmel, Ken Kohutch, Anna Vaughn, Jake Klaus and George Conarty, and Misses Ginger Lesikor and Jeanne Logsdon.

Both the bride and bridegroom are 1971 honor graduates of Temple Junior College, where they were on the Dean's List and named to the 1971 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges."

They graduated from Temple High and Belton High, respectively, in 1969 where they were members of the National Honor Society.

They have enrolled for the fall semester at Baylor University.

H.D. CHATTER
Favorite desserts

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

THIS WAS A short week with Monday being a holiday. However, we have accomplished a lot at the office. A specialist's visit to help with clothing programs for home demonstration year book; the horse show in Amarillo, Ten sewing workshops continuing; Joyce Shipp in College Station for new agent's training; Dress Revue Committee.

Here are two good recipes from a former assistant agent. Loretta Fowler Henderson wrote this week and sent these recipes that she says are favorites with her family. Here's good desserts for the hot days that are promised for next week.

FROZEN LEMON PIE
Loretta Fowler

1 large can evaporated milk
Place in freezer until can is frosty looking.
Beat until it looks like whipped cream.
Add:
1 cup of sugar

1/2 cup pure lemon juice
Makes 2 pies — Pour into graham cracker crust. Freeze and serve frozen. It is supposed to keep well. However, it is so good it doesn't last long.

MIRACLE CHEESE PIE
Loretta Fowler

1 pkg. lemon jello
1 cup boiling water
3 Tablespoons lemon juice
Dissolve these ingredients and cool.

1 8 oz. or 3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream together and add jello mix.

1 can whipped chilled evaporated milk — fold into jello
1/2 lb. crushed graham crackers
1/4 cup margarine
Mix crackers and butter — use to line bottom and sides of 9 X 13 X 2 pan. Add filling and spread cherry pie filling over top or sprinkle reserved graham cracker crumbs on top. Let set until firm — Cut in squares.

MRS. DORIS Myers, home management specialist, sent this release on solving family money problems. It has some sound advice that is worth considering. This is related to the programs we've had in financial management.

Having family money problems — making ends meet or buying things you want? More money isn't always the solution. The problem may have a variety of causes. If the real source can be identified, a solution usually can be worked out. If the real problem can be identified, a solution usually can be worked out.

1) One money problem results when families over-estimate income. They fail to realize the amount of money that may be deducted from a pay check before they receive it. Such a mistake may cause the family to overbuy.

2) Another problem stems from underestimating expenditures. Rising prices contribute to this problem, she says. Keeping up with the cost of goods and services is a real task for most families.

3) Poor buymanship can result in a waste of needed income. It takes skill to be a wise shopper — a skill that must be learned.

Differences in attitudes towards-values can keep a family in a financial bind. Family members need to agree on what is important.

DIVERGENT ATTITUDES about money management can cause money problems. A family, then, may argue about how money will be used, or if it will all be spent now or if some of it will be saved.

Too, many fixed expenses can keep a family so tied down that there is no room for anything extra, even for spending mistakes. Each fixed expense taken by itself may not be very high; however, collectively they may amount to a sum above the family's financial ability.

The family that has no long-term plans may live from paycheck to paycheck. The level of living for such a family will usually be very low compared to what is possible.

Some families disagree over who will have control over the money — who will pay the bills. In some families this should be a joint affair, but in others, one family member is able to handle it.

Another problem stems from lack of family participation in management of money. Money is a family affair. All family members should have an opportunity to voice an opinion on how the money is used. It's easier to get cooperation on a family spending plan if the entire family helps to make it.

Letter to the editor

(Editor's Note: The following is a copy of a letter sent to all U. S. Senators.)
The Honorable John Tower
United States Senate
OSOB
Washington, D. C. 20510
Dear Senator Tower:

Limitation of government payments to farmers is a point of concern to all the people of your state, regardless of whether they are rural or urban. We encourage you to use all your influence to defeat any amendments to the Agricultural Appropriations Bill that would lower the limits from the present $5,000 ceiling per crop.

The low cost of food (in comparison to income), which every citizen of the United States now enjoys, is a direct result of our farm programs. Farmers large or small, cannot produce for the present market price alone. The government payments to farmers are necessary, in addition to the market prices, to pay the high cost of production and have any return for labor, management, and capital.

Should further limits be placed upon these payments, farmers will have to sell their crops for higher prices or face bankruptcy. It is that simple. When the farm prices are increased, how the money is used. It's easier to get cooperation on a family spending plan if the entire family helps to make it.

PARENTS HAVE found that children may be surprisingly cooperative about giving up personal wants when they understand the demands on the family's money. A plan made by and for the entire family, then has an excellent chance of succeeding.

Some families have irregular or uncertain incomes. It is particularly important that these families plan use of income. This however, is very difficult to do at times.

If a family can analyze their situation, identifying sources of money problems they are in a better position to do something about their situation.

JEWELRY LORE.
Welcome to "GEM WISE." Over the years, it has been possible for me to learn many interesting things about precious gems and fine jewelry both from an historical standpoint and the technical or gemological side. There are also certain points that are helpful to anyone buying fine merchandise — basic guides to intelligent selection, as well as information on the etiquette and care of gems. In this column feature, I will try to bring you something of interest each month about our wonderful world of gems.

For example, did you know that ruby and sapphire are both the same gem mineral called corundum? Only when the sapphire attains a certain shade of red can it be called a ruby; otherwise it is pink sapphire. Other "sister" gems are emerald and aquamarine, both members of the Beryl family. Again, color is the only difference. A light emerald is aquamarine.

If you are interested in history, the story of Angès Sorel and Charles VII of France is a charming tale. She was the first woman to use diamonds as a means of attracting the King's attention. She also started the feminine vogue of wearing diamonds which previously was restricted to men.

In buying fine jewelry, one of the most important things to know is your jeweler. His knowledge and business ethics should be above reproach. Through "GEM WISE," I hope you will come to know me and our firm a little better. See you soon.

AARP Board met Thursday to discuss various opportunities

The Board of Directors of the American Association for Retired Persons met at 7 p. m. Thursday in the Community Center with president, Bert Brown presiding.

Brown appointed Mrs. W. O. McCutchen assistant treasurer and discussed insurance benefits, future tours, and the Institute of Lifetime Learning courses.

Members present read and approved articles of incorporation for the Hereford Chapter 884. Other discussion included a Defensive Driving course for the elderly offered by the National Safety Council.

In attendance were L. Z. Oldham, R. G. Blue, Lucille Brown, Mrs. Bert Brown and Ed Jesko. At the regular meeting which followed Mrs. Brown read a letter from Charles D. Heydon, administrative assistant for chapter activities, saying the Hereford chapter was approved in June.

Claude McDaniel, state director from Amarillo, played a tape of Lum and Abner, comedy team, and Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Benson showed color slides of New York City, Boston, the Autumn Foliage of Virginia, Quebec, Expo '67, and Old Ironsides.

Benson said "The capital of Maine is constructed of the same material as Hereford's

Glady's Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

Breathtaking beauty in a garden can aid in creating memories which are never to be forgotten. The beauty, fragrance, forms and sweetness are often relived and refreshed throughout the years. It was my joy to visit recently in a number of famous gardens, and of different types.

The White House has three gardens. They are the Rose Garden, the Jacqueline Kennedy Garden and the Garden of the South Grounds.

Since I am virally interested in history as well as gardening, I want to share some of the historical facts pertaining to the three gardens of the White House.

The first White House garden was planned by President John Adams. In a diary entry of March 20, 1800, a Washingtonian wrote: "After breakfast we walked to the ground behind the President's House which will be enclosed and laid out for a garden. Just now it is in great confusion having on it old brick kilns, pits to contain water used by the brick makers." We do not know the type of garden which the writer was referring to, nor just when it was completed, but to know that President Adams was interested in gardening and beautification, it is good to know and worthy of our interest, in the establishing of gardens on the White House grounds.

The Rose Garden, which adjoins the President's office, was first planted with roses in 1913 by the first Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. Except for rearrangements resulting from the enlargement of the Executive office in 1936 and from the renovation of the mansion in 1952, no significant changes were made in the Rose Garden until 1962.

President Kennedy then called upon Mrs. Paul Mellon to redesign the garden and to provide space to receive the public groups. This garden is perhaps the most popular of the gardens, because of its use and now it will be ever remembered because the first White House wedding was held in the Rose Garden.

The Rose Garden made a spectacular setting for Miss Tricia Nixon's wedding. It was very beautiful and a never to be forgotten occasion because of the loveliness of the garden setting. It was our privilege to see a portion of the Rose Garden and some of the decorations. All white flowers were used.

Hundreds and thousands of cut carnations, roses and other white flowers were used, as well as potted flowering plants. The traditional 18th century American garden, with lovely beds, formed long lines of the rectangular, famed beauty spot.

It was from the colors in the garden that Miss Nixon chose her wedding colors. The green was selected from the green of the foliage on the crab apple trees (there are a number of the crab apple trees placed at various intervals in the garden). The pink selected from the pinks of the roses, which were at their height of bloom in June. Lavender was selected because of the pansies and petunias. (The petunias are grown for summer flowering when the roses are dormant.)

Thousands of visitors have been welcomed to the White House in the Rose Garden. Among groups greeted by the President have been Medal of Honor recipients, America's first team of astronauts and many foreign delegations. The Garden has also been used as the setting for a state dinner.

The Jacqueline Kennedy Garden, the former East Garden, has a somewhat obscure history. During the 19th century it was a lawn area with flowering beds shrubs and ornamental trees. The first plan for the garden is attributed to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt. Later in 1913 and 1952 changes were made which made the garden more popular and beautiful.

The garden was named in honor of Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy by Mrs. L. B. (Lady Bird) Johnson and dedicated during the administration of President Johnson. The primary use of the garden from the beginning was for the use of the First Lady, her family and friends. Its present restoration reflects the philosophy of President Washington and President Jefferson, which was that a garden must be functional as well as decorative.

The garden is very attractive. While touring the White House, it could be seen from many of the windows and I stopped and studied the garden and the plantings. One of the spots of interest is the arbor which is paved with hand made bricks. Two large Magnolia soulangeana alexandria trees have been planted in the northwest and southwest corners. Lindens form an areil hedge against the building and provide shade for the glassed in colonnade.

As in the Rose Garden, there are a number of crab apples and centered in the flower beds which are bordered with miniature box-wood are American hollies. These are surrounded with old fashioned flowers in summer, such as sweet aly-sum, heliotrope, pansies, peonies, lavender, etc. In the fall chrysanthemums are massed in these areas. Spring bulbs are grown in profusion in the spring. All of the gardens are so planted that there is a continuous bloom from early spring until the gorgeous fall colors of the trees, and these with the deep fall colors of chrysanthemums creates much beauty. (Some of the spring bulbs were still in bloom when I saw the gardens.)

Adjacent to the tennis courts is a small garden known as the South Garden. This was established and set aside for the children of the White House (also grandchildren). It is paved in an irregular pattern with Pennsylvania blue flagstone. The garden included a winesap apple tree and a goldfish pond. It is small but well-designed and used.

The part of the grounds which face the South Executive Avenue are very beautiful. One of the centers of attraction is the portico, which extends from the main floor to the top floor. This was added when the White House was restored during the administration of President Truman, and he with President Eisenhower stated that it added much to their enjoyment of the grounds of the White House and to their personal enjoyment and relaxation.

Bob Renfro

Renfro accepts 1st National job

Bob Renfro, formerly of Hereford, will join the staff of the First National Bank effective Monday as assistant cashier and manager of the credit department.

Renfro, 29, and his wife, the former Judy McGee, have lived for the past two years in Amarillo where he was employed by the First National Bank there.

He and his wife are both graduates of Hereford High School and he graduated from West Texas State with a BBA in finance.

He and his wife have two children, Quinton and Paige. They will make their home at 241 Douglas.

WT high school football magazine goes on sale

The second edition of "West Texas High School Football" is on sale now at the Whiteface Barber Shop and the City Barber Shop and from members of the high school cheerleaders and pep squad.

The publication, which deals with high school football teams of West Texas and their upcoming seasons, sells for $1.50 per copy. The magazine is published by Win Publications, Inc. of Hereford and written by sportswriters in this area.

The second edition of the magazine contains 176 pages and some 20 teams more than did the first publication. It was edited by Carlton Stowers, formerly of the Amarillo Globe-Times and current biographer of Randy Matson. The book presents an in-depth view of all the teams in 26 districts from class A to class AAAA. Schedules results of last year's season and several pictures of team players accompany each story.

The magazine devotes two pages to Hereford.

This year's edition also includes stories on Jim Carlen of Texas Tech, Gene Mayfield of

Sandy Frye delegate to FHA convention

Sandy Frye, Hereford High School senior, will be among 1600 delegates attending the 1971 national meeting of Future Homemakers of America, July 12-15 in Kansas City, Missouri.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Frye, 118 Avenue E.

The meeting will focus on the objective to encourage individuals to discover the satisfactions gained through personal involvement. The four day program will revolve around the theme "Accent on Action: Discovery, Involvement, Growth."

Delegates will hear outstanding speakers, hold "digging sessions," participate in panel discussions, visit the Truman Library at Independence and enjoy an evening at Kansas City's famous Starlight Theater.

Miss Frye is Area I second vice president and will represent more than 6,000 Panhandle FHA members.

Delegates from Texas will assume many important responsibilities at the national meeting.

Lynn Emerson, national reporter from Midlothian will assume major leadership roles as she works with the other national officers in conducting the meeting.

Jennifer Dujka, state president from East Bernard will be in charge of officer elections for the Southern Region.

Other state officers receiving these assignments are voting delegates; Jeanine Barber, parliamentarian, Natalia; Melinda Smith, historian, Blue Ridge; Vicki Annen, recording secretary, Big Spring; Glenda Reed, Pleasanton; Vicki Lynn Topping, Detroit; and Barbara Whittis, Huckabay, all vice presidents.

National committee member: Debbie Hobgood, corresponding secretary, Wolfthor; Relaxer at general session: Patricia Bookman, fourth vice-president, Clifton.

Trying out for national pianist will be Colla Kallenberger, Orange, while Nancy Tolar, Huffman; Vickie Borland, Lamesa; and Sheree Smith, Llano will participate in the national chorus.

The Texas delegation of 110 high school students and 28 adult advisors will be the largest state delegation in attendance.

West Texas State and the West Texas-oriented coaching staff of Darrell Royal. Also, the cover is a colorful photo of Brownwood's Gordon Wood, Coach of the Year, and an interview with the state's most successful high school coach.

Two wedding anniversaries observed today

Two wedding anniversaries will be observed today in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Eugene Brink, 211 Sunset, with open house from 3 to 6 p.m.

Brink, president of the Hereford Kiwanis Club, and pastor of the First Christian Church, encourages his fellow Kiwanians and church members to join them as special guests.

Brink married Dorothy McCleary July 17, 1946 in Houston. They will observe their silver wedding anniversary. Sharing the spotlight will be son Jim Brink and wife Trish of Ft. Worth. They were married one year ago today.

Other hosts are son David Brink, a junior at Texas Christian University, and daughter, Nancy, a junior at Hereford High.

In town for the occasion are Mrs. Brink's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McCleary and Harriet of Houston.

The Brinks came to Hereford in February of 1963 at which time the Rev. Brink became pastor of First Christian Church. Brink was born in Tampa, Fla. and his wife in San Antonio. They did undergraduate work at Rice University where Mrs. Brink graduated. Brink graduated from TCU and in 1950 graduated from Brite Divinity School in Ft. Worth.

The couple met at church camp during the summer of 1941.

DEFENDS TECHNOLOGY
NEW YORK — Technology cannot be repudiated if a "humane social order" is to be created on a planet already supporting 3 billion people and another 3 billion expected to populate the earth by the turn of the century, says Dr. Margaret Mead, noted cultural anthropologist.

Dr. Mead, an Episcopal lay leader and member of the World Council of Churches committee on social concerns, says it is unrealistic to think man can "retire to the wilderness" without modern productive tools. She says it will take "all the technical skill we have" to support human needs.

Frank Nobles

HONOR ROLL — Frank Nobles, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Nobles, 111 Sunset Dr., has been named to the University of Texas College of Engineering honor roll for the spring semester. Eligibility is based upon a student's having maintained at least a 12-semester-hour course load with a minimum grade-point average of 3.25 out of a 4.0 system. Nobles, a 1968 honor graduate of Hereford High School, was one of 500 students named to the honor roll.

Charles Richards Here and there...

Mike Patrick, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone, says the 1971 edition of the local telephone directory will be out this week.

The book already is printed. It will be sent here from Dallas and delivered to Hereford customers on Friday, he says.

It has the same front page appearance as last year, the Deaf Smith County Museum. The color may be slightly different.

School board members looked closely several months ago at the high school auditorium, and how much longer it will continue to serve the local system well.

Most of this came during discussions about the possible need someday soon to abandon the idea of piecemeal expansion of the high school and just convert it to a junior high instead. A new high school would be built, big enough to hold the foreseeable enrollment.

The auditorium holds about 1,000 persons, and that's approximately the high school enrollment now. But it's picking up every year.

The high school production, "The Music Man," was played for elementary students during the school year, for example. Students from the fifth and sixth grades from the city's six elementary schools filled the auditorium for one showing. And the enrollment for the seventh and eighth grades is similar to that for the fifth and sixth.

"What happens when these seventh and eighth graders get into high school?" Supt. Roy Hartman asked.

A longtime area coach, with a highly impressive record in Class A and AA, will be joining the Whiteface coaching staff this year.

He was among the first that new Athletic Director Larry Dippel interviewed for the job. He took his football teams repeatedly past the district level, and as a track coach took boys and relay teams to the state meet year after year.

The school board will consider the application Tuesday. It will fill the vacancy made by Dippel's elevation into the post Larry Wartes left to take an administrative position.

The remainder of the coaching staff is the same as a year ago. Everyone is back.

Junior golfers from throughout the area will be at the local golf course Monday. Hereford will be hosting the junior golf tour. They'll be playing 18 holes in several flights, determined by age.

The golf course is in good condition, with more grass in the fairways than ever before. To really find out how nice it is, you have to play on some of the other courses in the area. Pro Cal Garrett, course superintendent, Donald Bridges and the rest of the staff have been busy putting the water on and keeping the course manicured.

The 1971 "West Texas High School Football" magazine is out, and Hereford's Eugene Suttle comes in for prominent mention.

He's among the "Super Seniors, '71" featured in a two-page article in the publication. Suttle, a defensive back, is among only five players from District 4-AAA on the list.

The others are defensive tackle Mike Blackburn and tight end Danny Irons of Monterey, flanker Duane Sarten of Lubbock and defensive guard Tommy Lusk of Plainview.

The magazine's prediction for the district is that Monterey will finally mark up a championship this season, after the Plainsmen's 8-2, 8-1-1, 9-1 records of the past three years gave them finishes of fourth, second and a tie for first. With 25 victories in 30 games, Monterey is yet to appear in a bidistrict game.

The magazine says Coronado, Lubbock, Plainview and Hereford will finish in that order, behind Monterey.

The magazine, which is on sale at a pair of local barber-shops and from cheerleaders at $1.60 a copy, has feature articles on West Texas' Gene Mayfield, Tech's Jim Carlen, the Texas coaching staff of Darrell Royal, and Brownwood's Gordon Wood.

Wood had two of his many state championships at Stamford, where Wartes was an assistant and Dippel was a player. He's the one man that Larry Wartes said probably influenced him most on his coaching.

Former residents announce marriage

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reeves of Center, Colorado, former residents of Hereford, announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Debra, to David Eugene Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Scott of Center.

The evening wedding took place in the First United Methodist Church at Center. The Rev. Glen R. Barber, associate pastor, read the vows.

Miss Kathy Noffsinger and Cindee Bond were the bride's attendants. Best man was Steve Tonso and Tom Tonso groomsmen.

Mrs. Kay Anderson presented the program of nuptial music.

The bride wore a powder blue linen dress accented with white embroidered daisies on the scalloped edge of the circular skirt.

Her shoulder-length veil was held by a crown of white daisies. She carried a bouquet of white roses tied with white satin streamers.

The attendants wore blue frocks similar in design to that of the bride and carried nosegays of spring flowers.

A reception followed in the Reeves' home. Cake and punch was served by the bride's sister, Mrs. George Scott of Turkey, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Richard Stone of Ft. Collins,

by MELVIN YOUNG
D. L. "Buster" Thomas, 61, has always figured the folks out in the Easter Community were the greatest in the world and now he's sure of it.

"Buster" had some problems recently that necessitated a week long stay at the clinic at Temple, Texas and just returned home this Friday. Upon returning, he discovered that his friends and neighbors had taken care of his farming while he was gone. "This place looks better than I've ever seen it," Thomas told us Friday night, "and I want everyone to know how much I appreciate the wonderful people of the Community."

And fortunately, the doctors at Temple pinpointed Thomas's physical problem and it is not as serious as he had thought and can be corrected with out surgery, he tells us. Thomas has been suffering from severe headaches for the past 6 to 8 weeks and his local physician suggested that he spend a few days in Temple going through the clinic.

Of course, this is not the first time the folks out at Easter have gotten together to help out a neighbor. They do it quite often, and we think it is indicative of the type of folks we have in the area. As "Buster" would say, "the greatest in the world."

The local Camp Fire organization is now enrolling girls to attend the annual summer camp. This year the girls will travel to Camp Makuiwa, New Mexico, which is near Taos. As usual, the camp activities will include such things as swimming, horseback riding, folk dancing, Indian lore, tennis, crafts, canoeing and rafting.

Deadline for registering is July 16th and the camp will run from July 25th thru the 31st. Cost for Camp Fire girls is $25.00 and those entering 5th grade in school this fall are eligible to go.

If you're interested, better contact Nita Lea soon.

When traveling, it's always interesting to watch the signs along the highways — and in the cities too. For instance, we noted one last week across the street from the University of Texas which stated: "We all won." Can't figure what that one referred to. However, another along Guadalupe Avenue no doubt reflects its owner's attitude concerning federal aid to education. It said, "Famous Last Words — Federal Aid to Education Without Federal Controls!"

Near Lake Travis was a real estate sign advertising land for sale which read: "5 acre Tracks."

Well now, how big is a 5 acre track? About as big as a dinosaur track, we suppose.

And it's always interesting to check the origin of names and their meaning. For instance, Harlan Vander Zee allows that his last name means "wandering sea," but Jeff Carlie has another idea about it. We're not sure that Jeff is an authority on languages but he has suggested that Vander

Zee might also mean "crazy river."

—HB—

And then there's the story about the insurance salesman who wrote out a policy on a 92-year-old man because statistics show that few men die after 92.

Questions about social security

(Have you a question about social security? Address it to: Travis C. Briggs, District Manager, Social Security Administration, 317 East Third Street, Amarillo, Texas; You will receive an answer in this column or by mail.)

Q. I have been working for the same company since 1936 and have always paid in the maximum social security. Could you tell me about how much social security tax I have paid during this time?

A. The most social security tax contributions that a person working as an employee could have paid from 1937 through 1969 is $3,391.20.

Q. Do I have to pay income tax on my social security benefits?

A. No. Social security benefits are not taxable for Federal income tax purposes.

Q. I am 70 years old, I did not sign up for Medicare when I was 65 because I was still working. Can I sign up for it now?

A. You should apply for Hospital Insurance immediately. However, you will not be eligible to sign up for Medical Insurance since you have already missed the three enrollment periods provided by law.

Q. I recently filed a claim for disability benefits but my claim was denied. What else can I do to try to prove my eligibility?

A. Since you do not agree with the determination on your claim, you may file a request to have your claim reconsidered. You must file such request within 60 days from the date of the letter notifying you of the disallowance.

Q. How old do you have to be to get a social security card?

A. There is no minimum age.

West Texans tour west coast water system

A large contingent of West Texas and New Mexico residents will tour facilities of the California State Water Project on a Water, Inc., sponsored tour August 22-26. Reservations are now being accepted for the guided tour which includes visits with California water officials.

Plans call for the entourage to fly aboard regularly scheduled airlines from Lubbock and Amarillo to Sacramento, California, on August 22. Utilizing chartered buses in California, the group follows the canal system from its beginning at the Oroville Dam south with overnight stops in Fresno and Bakersfield, flying back from Los Angeles on the fifth night.

Cost of the tour including all transportation, lodging and a portion of the meals while away is $300 per person. The tour will be limited to 80 persons and Wells suggests that those interested contact the Water, Inc. offices in Lubbock as soon as possible.

The California State Water Project, now in operation, includes impoundments on the Feather River in Northern California and a canal system extending almost the entire length of the state providing municipal, industrial and agricultural water to vast areas. The project also includes a lift system for carrying the water over the Tehachapi mountain range northeast of Los Angeles.

Gaston Wells, president of Water, Inc., issued an invitation to all interested persons to join in the trek. "This is a unique opportunity to see a water development program similar to the one proposed for Texas," Wells said.

This is one more town she'll like

IT TAKES a while to get acquainted in a new town, and it even takes some time to get settled in a new parsonage although a Methodist minister's wife is certainly accustomed to moving, says Mrs. W. A. Appling.

She and her family moved to Hereford the first of this month when Dr. Appling became pastor of First United Methodist Church, and now they feel quite at home in the pleasant parsonage at 127 Star.

A lifelong resident of the Texas plains country, Mrs. Appling says she is getting acquainted as quickly as possible with members of the church, her neighbors and other Hereford residents.

"WHEN YOU meet dozens of people at once, as we did on our first Sunday at the church, it does take time to sort them out," she smiles. "I already like living in Hereford very much, but then I've always like the towns where we lived. West Texas people are just the kind that are easy to like!"

Mrs. Appling's friendly smile reinforces the warm look from her eyes, which just match in color the auburn of her hair.

She was born Latrell Anderson, in Lubbock, and grew up in Yoakum County. After graduation from Plains High School she went on to Texas Tech and completed work for her degree in business administration.

That business training was put to use briefly in secretarial work, but she planned a career as a teacher. She explains that her contract to teach was given up for one she wanted more, a contract of marriage.

The rural economy of Deaf Smith and Oldham County is stronger because loans from the Farmers Home Administration have helped many farmers fi-

She is the mother of two; daughter Karen will be in the eighth grade next fall while son Douglas returns to Rice Institute at Houston for his sophomore year.

No special place in the church is filled by this pastor's wife. She says she "tries to help where there is need" and she has taught at various times but right now is enjoying "just being a member of a Sunday School class."

VIEW ON LUTHERANISM
MINNEAPOLIS — Lutheranism "has elevated the quest for social justice from its previous subordinate position to a central tenet of Christian ethics," says the president of the Lutheran World Federation.

The Rev. Dr. Mikko E. Juva of Finland told churchmen here that Lutheranism used to concentrate entirely on "individual sins" but now sees the struggle for social justice as an urgent task of the churches.

Life of Napoleon

For some facts on the life of Napoleon and the evil and dangerous involvement in his greatness by his sister, Caroline Bonaparte, check at the Deaf Smith County Library. It is quite a fascinating story, you'll agree.

MY BROTHER NAPOLEON

By F. W. Kenyon

Caroline Bonaparte had all the qualities which made her brother great, and added to them a beauty and feminine appeal which made her almost the more dangerous of the two. She was by turns hot-blooded and direct, and cool and calculating.

She impetuously defied her brother's wishes to marry Joachim Murat, the handsome and dashing son of an innkeeper, who was to become a genius in the use of cavalry and the one among Napoleon's marshals who was perhaps a greater soldier than himself.

Seduction was her frequent weapon in her schemes to advance her brother's plans to make himself emperor, and also in those to secure a kingdom—that of Naples and Sicily—for herself and her husband.

But, only too like her brother, she failed in judgement at the last!

She connived in Murat's treachery, which left him disowned by the Allies, who sentenced him to face a firing squad. Caroline entered on a life of widowed exile, but not to wither like her brother on St. Helena! Her little court in Florence was well-frequented, and, as in her youth, lovers were not

Mrs. Conrad Schulte former Debbie Masson

Couple at home in Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Schulte are at home in Oklahoma City following their recent marriage in St. John's Catholic Church at Yukon, Okla.

Mrs. Schulte is the former Miss Debbie Marie Masson, daughter of Mrs. Margie Masson, Swannee, Okla. Her husband is son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schulte of Route 3.

Attending the couple were Miss Cheryl Masson of Tulsa, sister of the bride, and Michael Schulte, brother of the groom.

The bride's brother, Randall Masson, gave her in marriage. A buffet supper and reception was held the following Sunday in the home of the bridegroom's parents with approximately 150 friends and relatives in attendance.

Mrs. Schulte is a 1970 graduate of Swannee High School. Schulte graduated from Hereford High in 1967 and Devry Electronics School in Phoenix in 1970. He is employed by Western Electronics in Oklahoma City.

Fascinating in its creation of a woman of varied gifts and strong emotions, this novel throws intriguing light on the life of Napoleon's court, on the Bonaparte family feud with Josephine, and the petty quarrels

THE HEIGHTS OF ZERVOX
By Colin Forbes
On a morning early in April, 1941, a Greek ferry leaves Istanbul on its usual run to the Gulf of Zervox. Aboard the ferry are ex-saboteur Macomber, disguised as a German intelligence officer, two English soldiers in multi, and a suspiciously large number of Germans, also in civilian clothes.

The Germans take control of the ship, but the harbor has been mined by the Italians and bomb has been planted amidships. Will any of them make it safely to shore?

Macomber guesses that the objective of the Nazi soldiers is the monastery atop Mount Zervox, which commands a view of the gulf and all the major roads

Jaycee-Ettes plan projects

Jaycee-Ettes met Tuesday night at the Flame Room to collect recipes for the cookbook project they are working on, and to select a cover.

In other business they discussed the July 10 rummage sale and rescheduled it for July 31 in the garage of Mrs. Aaron Hutto, 705 Country Club Drive.

Shifts were appointed for the July 12 downtown merchants sidewalk sale concession stand. Members present for the meeting were Mrs. Hutto, a new member, and Mmes. Jerry Tisdale, Michael Solomon, Dale Lawrence, Bill McKinney, Larry Jackson, Terry Hill and Dan Warrick.

The next meeting will be 8 p.m. Aug. 3 in the home of Mrs. Jackson, 708-B Miles Avenue.

He reveals his identity to the English soldiers, and with a crippled Greek to guide them they take off in a Nazi army truck in a desperate attempt to reach the monastery before the Nazis.

Battling against time, snow and ice, hunger and fatigue, and with the Germans at their heels, they make it up the mountain.

The violent finale caps a driving tale that more than matches Alistair MacLean's entertainments in holding the reader on the edge of his chair.

Wedding vows Friday unite Cole and Vinson

Wedding vows uniting Miss Jana Ellen Cole, formerly of Hereford, and Herman Wayne Vinson, both of Pampa, were solemnized Friday evening in Frio Baptist Church. The Rev. Terry Don Cooper of Wichita Falls officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole of Route 2, and Mrs. Herman Vinson and the late Mr. Vinson of Clarendon.

Arched and spiral candelabra holding white burning tapers with palm trees in the background, decorated the altar. Behind the kneeling bench stood a white columned pedestal holding a three-branched silver candelabra and white tapers.

A program of nuptial selections was presented by Mike Smith of Hearne, organist, and Mrs. John Kilgore of Dallas. Mrs. Kilgore sang "More, Eternal Love and The Wedding Prayer."

The bride wore an empire waist, silk organza gown with lace-designed bodice featuring a Victorian lace neckline and long full sleeves caught at the wrists by deep lace cuffs.

Her A-line skirt fell unadorned to the floor. Appliques and seed pearls enhanced the train.

The bride's matching camelot coil of lace flowerettes accented by seed pearls held her veil of imported English illusion.

She carried a nosegay of white pom pom mums and daisies and wore a cameo ring belonging to her late grandmother, Mrs. Earl Cole. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Misses Cheryl Cole and Beverly Cole were their sister's maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively, and Mrs. Terry Don Cooper of Wichita Falls, was bridesmatron.

They wore gowns featuring emerald green chiffon bodice with standup collar, empire waist and long sheer sleeves gathered to button cuffs. The bodice was accented by ruffles and covered buttons down the center front.

Floor-length crepe floral skirts were in emerald, yellow and white and yellow flop-hats were trimmed with emerald green ribbon. They carried white baskets of yellow daisies and mums.

W. N. Elam of Amarillo was Vinson's best man. Charlie Anderson of Amarillo and Gary Mahaffey of Pampa served as groomsmen. Bill Cole, brother of the bride, and Robert Williams of Amarillo ushered.

Marla and Karla Bobbitt, nieces of the groom and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bobbitt of Dalhart, were flower girls. Jay Huffaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Huffaker of Pampa, carried the rings.

Gary and Eddie Vinson of Clarendon, brothers of the groom, were candlelighters.

For the evening the bride's mother wore a yellow belted coatdress with white accessories and green orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose a lime green, A-line dress with beige accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

Miss Ava Vinson of Clarendon, sister of the groom, invited guests to register at the reception following in the Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. Don Huffaker and Mrs. James Cunningham, both of Pampa, served cake and punch from the bride's table. The bride's four-tiered columnade cake was topped with yellow sugar daisies. The table was centered with silver epergne, yellow daisies, mums and yellow candles.

The groom's cake was topped with a miniature golf bag. The table arrangement was made of golf balls, tees, daisies and mums.

Serving from the groom's table were Mrs. L. G. Bobbitt, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Mike Smith.

For a honeymoon trip to Colorado Springs, the bride chose a yellow and navy dress with yellow coat and navy accessories. She wore a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

Following the trip they will be at home at 212 N. Star Kweather in Pampa.

The bride, a graduate of Hereford High School with the class of 1966, received her BS degree in home economics in 1970 from Baylor University, where she was on the Dean's Honor List. She held memberships in Chi's Women's Service Club, Tri-D Home Economics Club, Women's Student Advisory Council and is current Gray County Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

Vinson graduated from Clarendon High, attended Clarendon Junior College and graduated in 1967 from West Texas State University with a BS degree in Biology Education.

He is an August candidate for his masters in education at WTSU. Vinson is presently employed by the Pampa Independent School System.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding came from Oklahoma City, Vinita, Okla., Wichita Falls, Midland, Dallas, Hearne, Amarillo, Spearman, Hugo, Okla., Farmington, New Mex., Clarendon, Wellington, O'Donnell, Panhandle, Dimmitt, Plainview, Ala., and Monahans.

An outdoor buffet was held Thursday night in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Miller.

State seeks solution to drunk driver problem

AUSTIN—Governor Preston Smith revealed Saturday another step in his program designed to control the No. 1 traffic safety menace in Texas, the abusive drinker-driver.

Smith announced that he has approved three Texas Alcohol Safety Action Projects (TASAP) and authorized the submission of the applications to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration for federal funding approval.

The three projects, one in Harris County, one in the City of Dallas, and one in the six-county Central Texas Council of Governments (COG) region, are to be funded on a 50-50 state-federal matching grant.

"These three projects are another approach to finding solutions to the problems created on Texas streets and highways by abusive drinker-drivers," Smith said.

"Through these projects, and a similar project in the San Antonio area, meaningful countermeasures directed at controlling the traffic safety menace of the drunken driver will be developed. In the three projects a number of innovative countermeasures will be undertaken," the governor commented.

"Hopefully, through these studies, Texas can learn the best ways to reduce the number of fatalities, injuries, and economic loss caused by this small group of problem drinker-drivers," said Governor Smith.

"Though our alcohol traffic safety problem is no greater than that of any other state, with these projects Texas will take the lead in the nation in finding effective solutions to control the number-one highway killer—the abusive drinker," stated Governor Smith.

The Harris County TASAP will be operated by the Harris County District Attorney's Office; the City of Dallas project will be conducted by the City Manager's Office; and the Central Texas project, encompassing Bell, Coryell, Hamilton, Lampasas, Milam, and Mills Counties, will be administered by the Central Texas COG. In each project numerous local agencies and government units play important roles. The San Antonio project is being funded by a 100 per cent federal grant and is operated by the City Manager's Office.

In general, the projects seek to identify the problem drinker-driver, apply a variety of possible solutions, and to evaluate the possible solutions for their overall effectiveness.

"Last year in Texas, abusive drinker-drivers were responsible for the deaths of at least 4,700 people on our streets and highways. Alcohol related traffic deaths cost Harris County at least $32 million, Falls County at least $23 million, and the Central Texas COG area $7 million last year," the governor said.

"The importance of these projects toward finding a solution to our traffic safety problems cannot be over emphasized, I have repeatedly stressed my intention of making Texas a safer place to drive. And I have stressed the importance of getting the drunk driver out from behind the wheel. These projects approach this problem on a scientific basis and they will provide a base for future action throughout the state," Smith commented.

The three Texas Alcohol Safety Action Projects are due to run for a period of three years. First year funding will be approximately $850,000 with a similar amount anticipated for each year of the projects. First year funding for Harris County is for $311,200, Dallas is for $239,300, and, the Central Texas COG program will cost $300,700.

Smith said that he hoped that federal approval of all three projects would be given soon, as the traffic death situation in Texas is so critical.

Wall Street in New York was so named because it follows the line of the palisaded wall or stockade built in 1652 across the southern end of Manhattan Island.

Silver and gold coins have a rough edge because if they were smooth it would be easy to file off some of the valuable metal without changing the coin's appearance.

Clean-up campaign is a 12-month effort

Obviously no individual has ever solved all his personal problems, and by the same token, no political entity ever solves all of its. But just as obviously, we must continue seeking the solutions to the difficulties that beset our society or else society itself will literally go to pot.

And with this thought in mind, we must surely agree with the ladies of the Women's Division of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce that additional efforts should be made to clean-up our city. Without pointing the finger of guilt at anyone and realizing that many developments beyond human control adversely affected the recent clean-up project, we must admit that there was something less than "total effort" put forth by all of us.

Of course, no one could predict the tornado that hit at the beginning of the C-of-C sponsored clean-up campaign and we realize that the City was taxed almost beyond its ability in the aftermath.

City employees did a fine job throughout the devastated areas, but their efforts there put them far behind schedule in other parts of town, and it is difficult to stay abreast of the alley problem even when everything is working fine. It seems that people have a habit of littering their alleys and a city clean-up effort must be continuous.

Basically, the real problems is with the individual. Only personal pride of the people can ever give any long-range relief to the littering problem, and only personal pride can accomplish any substantial beautification project. Although we may have a concerted effort during one specific month per year, the people should be encouraged to continue their individual efforts year around. Otherwise, the gains made during clean-up week, will soon be lost.

In looking over the situation, however, we feel that Hereford is now faced with a problem much bigger than a few messy alleys. Through a shifting of the population to newer sections of the city, we now have a number of "blighted" areas scattered around town, and it is here that we need to concentrate our efforts for the next few years.

We have, as we've said before, areas where old automobiles have been pulled into the yards (beyond the legal reach of the city) and where homes have been allowed to run down. There is little that the city can do in these situations, but a concerted effort by the Chamber of Commerce, with the full cooperation of the local news media and the city, might encourage the owners of this property to correct the problem. We believe the end result would be well worth the effort.

HEBRON, IND., PORTER COUNTY HERALD: "In scanning a little magazine the other day as I went through my mail, I came across the following item that I would like to pass on to each of you. . . 'The trouble with politics is not the thousands who are in it, but the millions who are out.' There is so much truth in that statement. It is a shame that so many 'good' people refuse to get involved in politics. They either take the 'let George do it' attitude or else they cover up by saying those 'dirty' politicians. . . when, basically, they are to blame. Remember. . . 'bad' public officials are elected by good people who refuse to vote or 'get involved.'"

BRIDGEPORT, ILL., LEADER: "There seems to be a connection between the state of our national economy and the national highway traffic fatalities. Fewer accidents when money is harder to get is the formula. There is always something good that comes of everything."

SOMERSET, KY., COMMONWEALTH-JOURNAL: "Even the National Safety Council sometimes gets tired of harping on the tragic side of driving. It has discovered there is humor on the highways, too, as evidenced by a round-up of funny signs published in an issue of the council's magazine 'Traffic Safety.' For instance, on one side of a signboard on an Ohio secondary road the message says: 'Road Closed - Do Not Enter.' The other side reads: 'Welcome Back, Stupid!' In Cleveland, signs posted along a main rush-hour artery admonish: 'Keep Moving.' Then add, almost wistfully: 'When Possible.' When nobody paid any attention to a 10 m.p.h. speed limit sign in a mobile park in Oxnard, Calif., the manager revised the sign slightly to get better results. Catching the eye of motorists was this new restriction: 'SPEED Limit 9 1/2 M. P. H.'"

CANT SEE, CANT HURT?

MAIN STREET, U. S. A.

Inflation, unemployment continue to bother us

BY BERT MILLS
WASHINGTON—Continued economic growth during the second half of 1971 is foreseen by both business leaders and government forecasters but inflation and unemployment will remain serious problems.

President Nixon's recent decision to do nothing drastic to stimulate the economy makes it clear that he believes that present policies will suffice to keep the uptrend going. Therefore he has ruled out mandatory controls over wages and prices, a tax cut, and increased government spending.

To be sure, nobody is predicting a real boom this year. In fact, recovery from last year's setback has been gradual and slower than predicted by Administration forecasters last winter. Ambitious goals set then, such as a $1.065 billion gross national product this year, are now regarded as too lofty.

Nation's Business magazine

recently surveyed top industrial leaders. They responded by a margin of more than 20 to 1, that the economy will continue to improve in the last quarter of 1971. Of 531 replies, 424 executives predict sales increases in their own business, 41 expect volume to hold steady, and only 35 see a decline.

President Archie K. Davis of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce said in his midyear economic report that he foresees "gradual improvement, due mainly to substantial increases in spending on housing and state and local government." However, he expects that "inflation and unemployment will continue to plague the economy."

Housing Is Brightest Spot
The U. S. Department of Commerce has reported "the boom in residential construction has been the strongest single element in the recovery." Eased credit conditions caused the dramatic upsurge. Housing starts were "very high" during the spring. However, higher mortgage rates may be coming, tempering the "rosy" outlook for homebuilding.

Retail sales have been "fairly strong this spring" although consumers "remain cautious." An immediate rise in spending for goods and services is expected, due to higher Social Security benefits paid in June and an impending raise in military pay.

Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally has been officially designated as "the President's chief economic spokesman." At his first press conference in his new role, Connally sought to put in perspective the 6.2 per cent unemployment rate, which Nixon foes harp on constantly.

The Secretary pointed out that most people want reduced defense spending, fewer men in the armed services, and a reduction in civilian employment in the defense establishment. The Nixon Administration is cutting back in all three areas, with the result that half of all the unemployed people in the nation are veterans, defense workers, or former civilian employees of the Defense Department.

Another fact cited by Connally helps put the jobless picture in focus. Non-farm employment in the U. S. today is 70.8 million, only 400,000 below the all-time record. So while a lot of people are out of work, the employment situation is nowhere near as dark as some try to paint it.

Economy May Decide Election
Sixteen months before the 1972 Presidential election, it looks as if the state of the economy will determine whether Nixon is to be a "one-term" President. American voters seldom reject an incumbent President if times are good. The pocketbook is perhaps the most important influence in voter decision-making.

Nixon is confident the Vietnam war will not be a major issue in 1972. He is deescalating American involvement and if his plans succeed most of his prospective opponents will have lost their main talking point. It is a good bet that their substitute issue will be economy, if that looks like a vote-getting point.

Nixon is a past master at neutralizing issues that might hurt him. If he can run on a prosperity platform in 1972, his chances of reelection have to be considered better than they look today. So it can be assumed that the President will do all in his power to be sure the economic machine is functioning smoothly by the time he faces the voters.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

WHERE THE MONEY IS — If residents of Midland appear to be a bit more prosperous than most, it's with good reason. They enjoy the highest per capita income in Texas and rank among the most affluent citizens in the country. The average Midland citizen takes home $4,508 each year — about a fourth more than the U. S. average. Dallas residents are next with $4,052 annually while Wichita Falls ranks third among all Texas cities with an average per capita income of $3,817.

Houston just manages to equal the national average of $3,674, trailed by Beaumont-Port Arthur-Orange with $3,570. Waco ranks ninth in per capita income with $3,218 and Austin is in 11th place with $3,176.

According to the U. S. Department of Commerce, the most depressed area in Texas is McAllen-Pharr-Edinburg in the Rio Grande Valley. The annual per capita income there is only $1,777, one of the lowest in the nation.

REMEMBER WHEN — The Governor of Texas got only $4,000 a year for his services and members of the Legislature served for $2 a day?

Then legislators got only $1 a day for special sessions, or for sessions that went beyond the constitutional maximum. Later the law makers raised their pay to $5 a day.

Today legislators get $4,800 annually. The governor is paid $40,000, plus quarters in the Executive Mansion, a limousine and a turbo-prop airplane.

Mr. Betsy Ross? — Archelaus Bynum-Dodson, husband of the woman whom many historians believe was the designer of the first Texas flag, now has an historical marker of his own on Farm Road 1931 on the outskirts of Alice.

Dodson was a lieutenant in Capt. Andrew Robinson's company in the Texas Revolution, but his principal claim to fame was his marriage to Sarah Bradley in 1835. Mrs. Dodson designed a red, white and blue flag with a single lone star and gave it to her husband when he joined the Texan Army. It was the banner that flew over Washington-on-the-Brazos when the Declaration of Independence from Mexico was signed on March 2, 1836.

Although Mrs. Dodson's flag apparently was the first standard to utilize the lone star, she is rarely given credit for it. The "official" Betsy Ross of Texas is Joanna Troutman, an 18-year-old Georgia girl, who also designed a lone star flag. She is buried in the State Cemetery in Austin under the only monument honoring a woman that stands in that historic burial place.

COLLECTORS NOTE — A Houston shop may be the only place in the world where a complete set of "Tarzan" Sunday comics can still be purchased in mint condition.

Chandler's Discriminating Junk shop at 1832 Westheimer in the port city once purchased copies of the Galveston Tribune and Daily News printed between 1919 and 1956. They threw away most of the old papers, but saved the Sunday comic sections. Today a complete set of "Tarzan" goes for $5,000!

HISTORY-MINDED — Texas has 317 local museums devoted to history and 189 others are in the planning stage, the Texas Historical Association says.

... from the Brand's files

50 YEARS AGO

Deaf Smith County's first courthouse is to be the new Catholic church. The church will be called St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Approximately $14,000 will be spent in remodeling the old building. This old building being modernized was the first county courthouse and was originally erected at La Plata in the summer of 1801. In 1808 the railroad was built through Hereford and the county seat was moved from La Plata. The old building was torn down and the lumber transported to Hereford, where it was rebuilt. Incidentally, Judge Dean was County Judge at that time and Rat Jowell was sheriff.

35 YEARS AGO

A monument of "Deaf" Smith and the county which bears his name, erected on Highway 60 five miles west of Hereford as part of the state highway departments Centennial year project, has been visited by numerous Hereford citizens. It was erected two or three weeks ago. A similar monument is being placed in each county of the state. The local wheat harvest will be in full swing next week, according to different authorities, who estimate the yield of the county from 150,000 to "considerably higher than that figure."

20 YEARS AGO

A critical shortage of migrant labor to help in the harvest of the 1951 potato crop has developed in this area, Tom Bourland Texas Employment Commission representative in Hereford, said this week. . . The loan rate for the 1951 wheat crop in Deaf Smith County was set this week at $2.16 per bushel, according to Faust Collier, PMA administrative officer.

5 YEARS AGO

Lady, yours isn't the only budget that's had to go up in these last few years. Prosperity over all the nation plus better-than-average growth in the Southwest has put the people of West Texas in a situation where everything is going up, up, up, prices and government costs being no exception. A landmark of Southwestern growth, our own small city of Hereford goes forward to keep pace with its growing population; added strains have been made on the city's budget, and like it or not, have forced Hereford to follow the federal trend, debt-wise.

1 YEAR AGO

Just like Muleshoe, Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield and a number of other area cities, Hereford soon may lose its "mark" on letters mailed out of town. In the near future, instead of being stamped, "Hereford" in the upper right hand corner of the envelope, letters from here bound for other cities may be marked "Amarillo"

Dillard-Tiner vows solemnized Saturday

Miss Glenda Sue Dillard became the bride of Arthur Franklin Tiner of Abilene Saturday evening in the Church of Christ. Roy Willingham, associate minister of Southern Hills Church of Christ at Abilene, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dillard, 217 N. Texas, and Tiner is son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Tiner of Detroit, Mich.

The couple repeated wedding vows as they stood before an altar decorated with a green background of woodwardia, fern and ivy and topary bird cages of doves and pom poms.

The bride wore a pink organza gown with peau de soie with peau d'arge lace appliques scattered on the fitted bodice and A-line skirt.

Her Victorian neckline was enhanced by an organza ruffle which continued to form a squared back neckline. The short, puffed sleeves were edged in lace scalloped.

The bride's skirt swept to a scalloped lace hemline and formed into a chapel-length train. Self bows and seed pearls accented the back bodice.

She wore a camelot coil of ivory lace over pink and ivory organza, featuring a self bow entwined with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of stephanotis and English ivy.

Friends from Abilene Christian College, where the couple studied, sang "This Our Wedding Day, For All We Know, A Time For Us, Twelfth of Never, Faithful and True and Let Wedding Bells Ring."

They were Sharon Wilson, Sudan; Mr. and Mrs. Ed George and Charles Traylor, all of Abilene; Dianne Hall, Jasper; Muriel Mills, Sac City, Iowa; Margie Johnston, New Cumberland, West Va.; Debbie Minick, Snyder; Allan Brumley, McAllen; David Ratcliff, Wylie; Odies Wright, Kansas City, Mo.; Andy Craig, Dalhart; and Neil Bryan, Happy.

The bride's matrons of honor were Mrs. Landy McCallon of Santa Anna, Calif., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Wendell Crim of Evansville, Ind.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gay McClure, Cleburne; Miss Marcille Russell, Mart; and Mrs. Allan Brumley, McAllen.

Becky Willingham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Willingham of Dallas, was flower girl. Rings were carried by DeWain Traylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Traylor of Abilene.

Attendants wore pink, floor-length gowns of georgette over taffeta featuring necklines edged with ivory Venice lace to match sleeves and bodice front. Waistlines and hemlines were ribbon encircled and they wore fresh flowers in their hair.

Jimmy Mauldin of Clyde and Mike Melton of McCamey were best men. Gary Dillard, brother of the bride, Bill Jennings of Gail, and Jay King of Abilene were groomsmen.

Lowell Wiggains and W. R. Johnson of San Marcos lighted the candles.

The reception followed in the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Lonnie Coker of Canyon registered guests who were served cake and punch by Mrs. Dennis Downey of Lubbock, Miss Jane Witkowski, Miss Andi Burdge of Hooker, and Mrs. Allen Cansler.

Others assisting at the reception were Mmes. N. D. Bartlett, Tom Burdett, R. B. Hutson, Lloyd McGee, Don Robinson and Chester Wiggains.

The serving table was covered with pink satin and overlaid with ivory tiered illusion. A bouquet of baby pink roses, gardenias and stephanotis in a silver epergne served as centerpiece.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with wedding bells and decorated with pink roses, stephanotis and white doves. Gardenias were laid at the base of the cake.

The couple will be at home this week at 2773 Simmons in Abilene following a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N.M. For the trip the bride wore a yellow pantsuit with yellow accessories. She carried a long stem yellow rose.

A 1968 graduate of Hereford High School, the bride is presently an A.C.C. senior.

Tiner graduated from Highland High School in San Antonio, attended A.C.C. where he earned a B.M. degree in education before graduation in 1970 and is band director at Roby High while working on his masters degree.

Other out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baccus and Rex of Sudan; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hiett, Wellington; and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jenkins, Teena and Lynn Marc, Altus, Okla.

Hostesses for a rehearsal dinner the night prior to the wedding were Mrs. Tiner, Mrs. Chester Wiggains and Mrs. Tom Burdett. It was held at the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Company.

According to law, a minimum of three persons can create a riot.

In a 20-mile race, a man would win over a horse because of his endurance.

Wedding vows set

Miss Patricia Schulte of Tulsa, Okla. and Jon Maul of Oklahoma City, plan marriage vows for the evening of Sept. 4 in St. Anthony's Catholic Church it is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Schulte of Route 3.

Maul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maul of Pampa.

Miss Schulte graduated from Hereford High School in 1964 and Oklahoma State Tech in 1967. She is employed as accountant at Warehouse Market in Tulsa. Maul graduated from Pampa High in 1964 and received his degree in diesel engineering from Oklahoma State. He is manager of a car salvage in Oklahoma City, where the couple will make their home.

Engagement told

Mr. and Mrs. Don T. Martin, 204 Northwest Drive, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Nancy Jo, to Captain James Raymond Cwelich son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cwelich of NY City. They plan to marry at high noon August 14 in Most Precious Blood Catholic Church, Denver, Colo.

Miss Martin graduated from Hereford High School in 1965 and received her BS degree in elementary education from West Texas State University in 1969. She is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and has been teaching in Denver for two years.

Captain Cwelich graduated from high school in New York City, received his BS in electrical engineering at Manhattan College and was commissioned Second Lt. in the U.S. Air Force in 1967.

The following year he earned his MS in industrial administration at Purdue and, presently serving in the Air Force, is technical contract manager for the Titan Missile Program in Denver.

Couple married on WTSU campus Friday

Miss Nelda Kay Smith of Hart and Douglas Frank Watson of Canyon, were married Friday evening in Hill Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State University at Canyon.

The Rev. Gerald Mann, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hereford, officiated for the double ring ceremony. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Lewis Smith of Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson, 501 Avenue J.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, was escorted to the altar by Richard Franks.

She wore a floor-length silk organza, empire waist gown, fashioned with Venice lace, featuring a Victorian neckline and full sheer sleeves caught at the wrists by deep cuffs.

Her gathered skirt swept into a short, brush train. The Cathedral-length veil edged in Venice lace fell from a tiered organza bow.

She carried a cascade of mums surrounding white rose buds atop a Bible with her grandmother's wedding ring attached.

Jim Hannaford, pianist, accompanied Terry Scoggin as he sang "The Lord's Prayer and Someone Who Cares."

The altar was decorated with basket arrangements of white daisies and gladioli and candelabra intertwined with ivy. The altar table was centered by a gold cross, surrounded by daisies and gladioli.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Richard Franks, matron of honor, Peggy Ragsdale, bridesmaid, and Lesley Franks, flower girl. Laurey Franks was candlelighter.

Attendants wore floor-length, ice blue sibone dresses featuring cap sleeves and empire waistlines trimmed in white lace and blue appliqued flowers.

They carried blue votive candles and white carnation cascades tied with blue satin ribbon.

Attending the bridegroom were Larry McGinty, best man, and Ralph Johnston, groomsmen. Jim Green and James Elkins ushered.

Miss Darla Hays registered guests at the reception which followed in the Methodist Student Center, also located on the WTSU campus.

Miss Lynda Shive and Miss Hays served cake and punch from a white lace covered table. The two-tiered cake was decorated with white wedding bells. The bride's bouquet served as centerpiece.

For a wedding trip to Colorado the bride wore a blue knit pantsuit. The couple will be at home this week in Canyon.

The bride is a May graduate of WTSU with a BS degree in secondary education. Her husband is a May 1969 Baylor University graduate who is currently assistant English teacher at WT.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor: I would like to announce that I will hold preaching services. Old time religion in the cottage school room at 307 N. Ross every Sunday at 2:30 p.m. The subject this Sunday (7-11-71) is "In the beginning," 1st chapter Genesis and 1st chapter St. John.

I am not trying to start a new church. It is non-denominational. I am not trying to interfere with any other churches but trying to help people to realize more the need of going to the church of their choice, to be more concerned about God's word and way of life.

God has a purpose for us all. Are we doing our best? There will be no collections taken. God has provided for the needs and Jesus said, "Freely you have received, freely give."

I do not feel qualified, but I seem to be God's call and I cannot get the responsibility off my mind, so with God's help I will do the best I can. Whosoever will come is welcomed. No restrictions on creed or color. We are all alike in God's eyes. Yours truly, Ole T. Larson 501 W. 4th

Summer music workshop for kids begins

The First United Methodist Church summer music workshop for children will begin Monday morning at 9:30. Children who will be in the first through sixth grades in Sept. are invited to take part in this 4th annual workshop.

This year the group for children will perform "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

The performance will take place Sunday July 18 at 7 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Other performances will be each morning from 9:30 to 11:30, July 12-16. Persons interested may contact Bob Wert, music director.

The 1968 summer music workshop theme was "worship." "Noah and The Ark" was performed in 1969 and "Barefoot School," a musical about the early missionary movement to Hawaii, in 1970.

James Madison agreed to declare war on Great Britain in 1812, if elected president.

Rotary district governor sets flying tour of clubs

CANYON — How do you administer to 2,500 Rotarians in an area larger than half of the 50 states and at the same time serve the needs of 7,900 college students?

"Get your own airplane," says Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs at West Texas State University and new governor of District 573 of Rotary International.

Carruth, 40, took office July 1 and within a week was off on a flying tour of his 56,700-square-mile district that will take him to 47 clubs in 41 cities during the next four months.

The new governor will meet with President Kenneth R. Rogers and the Hereford Rotary Club Aug. 9.

His territory covers from the top of the Texas Panhandle south 330 miles to Odessa-Midland and from the New Mexico border on the west to Childress on the east, about 172 miles.

"I knew I would need an airplane to make all that distance," he says.

Carruth took up flying three years ago because "I was spending most of my waking hours in a car."

At the time he was making numerous speeches throughout the area for the university as dean of student life, a title that was changed to vice president for student affairs last year.

In his visits to the Rotary membership, Carruth says he will stress the 1971-72 theme of international president Ernest G. Breitholtz of Sweden, "Good Will Begins With You."

Carruth feels that many civic organizations are full of apathy.

"They meet, eat, burp and go home," he says. "Members feel it is easier to just write a check instead of grabbing a project and really making it go."

That is one of the reasons for his fly-in visits with the clubs in his district.

"I can look at the clubs, and if they need help, I can recommend the committee chairman within the district who could help them get started in the right direction," he says.

The governor says that Rotary has three main service areas — community service, vocational orientation and international goodwill.

During the next year, Carruth says, "I want to emphasize youth within the club, increase the membership and extend Rotary to more people, and upgrade the types of services sponsored by the clubs on the community and international levels."

Carruth, who flies a Cessna 150, was born at Vernon, Tex., and was graduated from West Texas State in 1952. After a year of military service in Korea, he returned to WTSU and obtained a Master of Education Degree in 1955.

He was a social studies teacher at Kermit High School for three years and then received a teaching fellow at Texas Tech University, where he obtained a Doctor of Education Degree in 1959.

Carruth became an assistant professor of education at West Texas State that fall and two years later was named associate dean of men.

Four years after he joined the Canyon Rotary Club in 1960 he was elected president. In the interim he served as weekly bulletin editor, a club director, chairman of various committees and vice president.

The Canyon club has had the distinction of providing two other district governors. The late Dr. Harris M. Cook, former dean of men at West Texas State, served in 1944-45 and Herschel Coffee, professor of economics at the university, was governor in 1953-54.

Carruth and his wife, Norma, have five children, Alan, 17, Jerri, 14, Joe, 12, Tommy, 9, and Melissa, 6.

Revival planned at Grace Gospel

The Grace Gospel Church, 13th and Avenue K, will hold revival services beginning today and continuing through July 18.

Services will be each evening at 8 o'clock with J. N. Cobb of Alice the evangelist.

Pastor of the church is the Rev. H. V. Fields.

PROMOTES UNION

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Churches of different denominations should pool their facilities and manpower for greater effectiveness, South Africa's Church Unity Commission said in its news bulletin "In Touch." The commission, which promotes organic union among Anglican, Congregational, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, said the churches are wasting enormous amounts of money, effort and resources in a time of chronic manpower shortage in all churches.

ROTARY CHIEF — Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for students affairs at West Texas State, stands beside his single-engine airplane which will carry him thousands of miles in the next year as a district governor of Rotary International. Carruth's district, which comprises the Texas Panhandle-Plains, is larger in size than 26 of the states in this country. (WTSU Photo)

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FUSTER

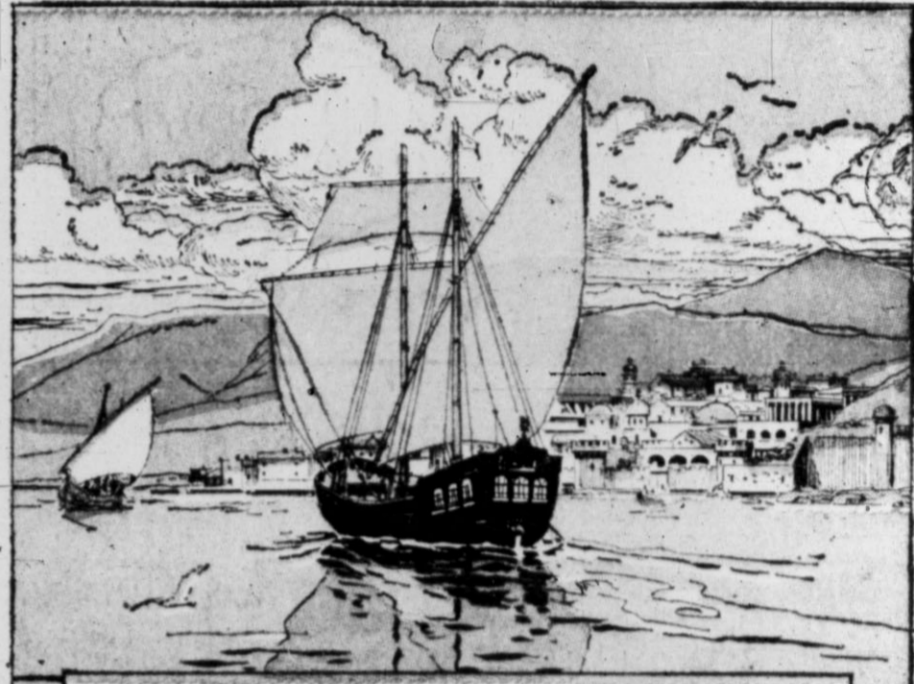

Our Story: SIEUR DELAUNCY IS LAID TO REST AND THE DAYS THAT FOLLOW ARE DOLEFUL. ZIRARA SPENDS ALL HIS TIME DOCTORING HIS LAME HORSE AND REFUSES TO LEAVE UNTIL HIS BELOVED MOUNT IS FIT FOR THE ROUGH ROAD AHEAD.

ARN MAKES FRIENDS WITH AN ADVENTUROUS YOUTH AND THE TWO SPEND THEIR DAYS SEARCHING OUT THE SAFEST ROUTE TO THE SEA.

TO PRINCE VALIANT THE LONG DELAY IS TORTURE. HIS SEARCH FOR ALETA HAS BECOME HIS GREATEST QUEST AND EACH PASSING HOUR ADDS TO HIS IMPATIENCE.

ON THIS DAY, AND FAR TO THE EAST, ALETA REACHES THE MISTY ISLES. AFTER THE PERILS OF THE STORMY OCEAN AND THE PIRATE-INFESTED MEDITERRANEAN, HOW BEAUTIFUL THESE ISLANDS SEEM AS THEY GLISTEN LIKE JEWELS IN AN EMERALD SEA.

SHE TAKES HER THRONE, BUT SO WELL HAD SHE ORGANIZED THE GOVERNMENT ON HER LAST SOJOURN THAT THERE IS LITTLE TO CHALLENGE HER STATESMANSHIP.

BUT IN HER PRIVATE CHAMBERS LONELINESS SETS IN. FOR POOR ALETA HAS NO WAY OF KNOWING THAT VAL IS BRAVING THE DANGERS OF A WAR-TORN LAND TO REACH HER SIDE.

THE LONG DELAY IS ENDED AND ONCE MORE THE THREE ADVENTURERS ARE ON THEIR WAY, SWIFTLY NOW ALONG THE ROUTE ARN HAS EXPLORED.

ORTHO, RULER OF KOS, RETURNING HOME FROM ATHENS, PAYS A VISIT TO THE MISTY ISLES AND LIKES WHAT HE SEES.

PONYTAIL BY LEE HOLLEY

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

My two boys (eight and six years old) had been sick for several days, but as soon as they started feeling a little better they were looking for something to keep them occupied.

They were on day beds on opposite sides of the family room, so what I did was to put a chair with rungs on the back, near each bed. I then took a long rope and put this through the rungs on each chair and tied it in the middle. It made the handiest pulley you have ever seen. The boys clipped messages to the rope with a clothespin and sent the messages back and forth.

They would use an envelope to send crayons and small toys to each other. Just clipped the envelope and clipped out words and pictures to cover the outside of the "jug bank." I took words like—"get rich, discount, poor, money, budget, inflation," etc. All these words reminded me of money and made me want to save.

It turned out really cute and it didn't cost a penny!

Jo Starr Age 13½

Oh, the miracle world of communication! Keep that "hot line" open, Mom, for those priority messages.

SENSIBLE SAVER

DEAR HELOISE: I wanted a bank, but I didn't want to spend $2 to $4 for one. So I used my brain and came up with this:

I took a milk jug and cut a hole in the cap, large enough for half dollars to go through.

Then I went through old newspapers and magazines and clipped out words and pictures to cover the outside of the "jug bank." I took words like—"get rich, discount, poor, money, budget, inflation," etc. All these words reminded me of money and made me want to save.

It turned out really cute and it didn't cost a penny!

PENNY-WISE IDEA

DEAR HELOISE: Children like "mint-new" pennies. I pick mine from my change every day and put them in a little boy's coin purse or in a little girl's bag and they make shiny treasure gifts come birthday time.

Children still do love shiny "brownies" as my grandparents called them! And a handful looks so rich...

Myrtle Wood

SAY IT RIGHT!

DEAR HELOISE: I'm a sophomore in high school and recently had an idea for improving my own as well as my family's grammar. I call it our "home improvement plan."

Every time one of us makes an error in grammar, he or she has to put a nickel in the box! The money mounts up, and you can bet that after a few weeks our speech has improved considerably.

The money in the box goes for new curtains, throw rugs, etc. . . . to beautify our home.

BITSEY'S BEST!

DEAR HELOISE: I ran out of money to buy my older sister a gift, so I made one which I (and she) especially liked.

I took a piece of shel-lacked wood (about 1½" x 5½") and stuck colored thumbtacks in the uppermost part of the wood at different levels. I then painted flower petals around the tacks with enamel model paints and added painted stems and leaves.

With a hook attached to the back, it makes a very pretty picture for my sister's room.

Bitsey Larsen Age 10

Bitsey, I think your hint is precious . . . just like YOU! I know your sister appreciates the love and thought that went into that gift and will cherish it all ways!

Heloise.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: In regard to neighbors who borrow one egg, one quart of milk and half a cup of sugar . . . I'd say they were making a SPONGE cake!

Fran Podhorn

REFRESHING PAUSE

DEAR HELOISE:

The other evening guests were arriving and I had neglected to get cocktail napkins on my trip to the store.

Quickly I took my scissors and cut around the scallops of the regular paper luncheon napkins (the type with embossed borders).

Several of my guests remarked about how dainty the napkins were and this gave me the idea to tell you about it, and possibly pass it on to other harried hostesses.

Frances Jungbluth

WATCH OUT!

DEAR HELOISE:

Recently my father was in the hospital and that's where I discovered this little hint.

His wristwatch bothered him, yet he didn't want to be without it. One of the nurses turned a drinking glass upside down on the bedside table and slipped the adjustable band of the watch down over the glass.

The watch could then be seen by him in his reclining position and yet he wasn't bothered with it on his arm.

Heloise.

I thought someone else might benefit by this little suggestion.

Mrs. E. P.

STICKY PROBLEM

DEAR HELOISE: Remember the old saying, "Slower than molasses in January"? Well, ain't it the truth?

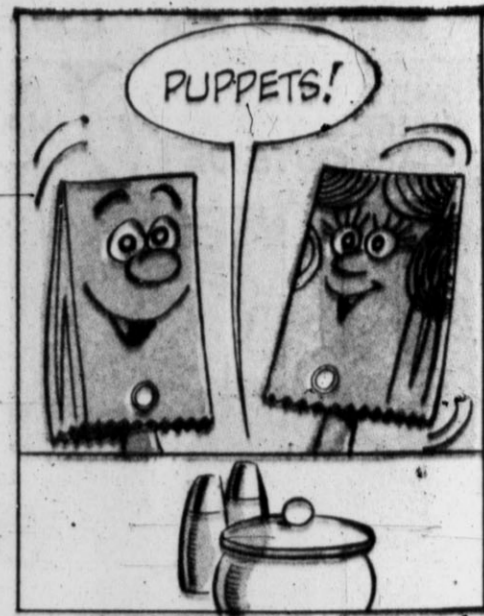

You know how sometimes you need that very last drop of molasses or corn syrup for a recipe. This means that you have to stand there and hold the bottle until it drains. Well, my patience wore thin and I decided there must be an easier way.

I grabbed an old canning funnel and set it in my measuring cup and turned the bottle upside down in the funnel.

You can go on about your recipe while your bottle slowly drains out that last little bit that is needed.

HOCUS-FOCUS

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you point out what these differences are? Answer below.

Hal Kaufman's JUNIOR WHIRL

FILL 'ER UP?

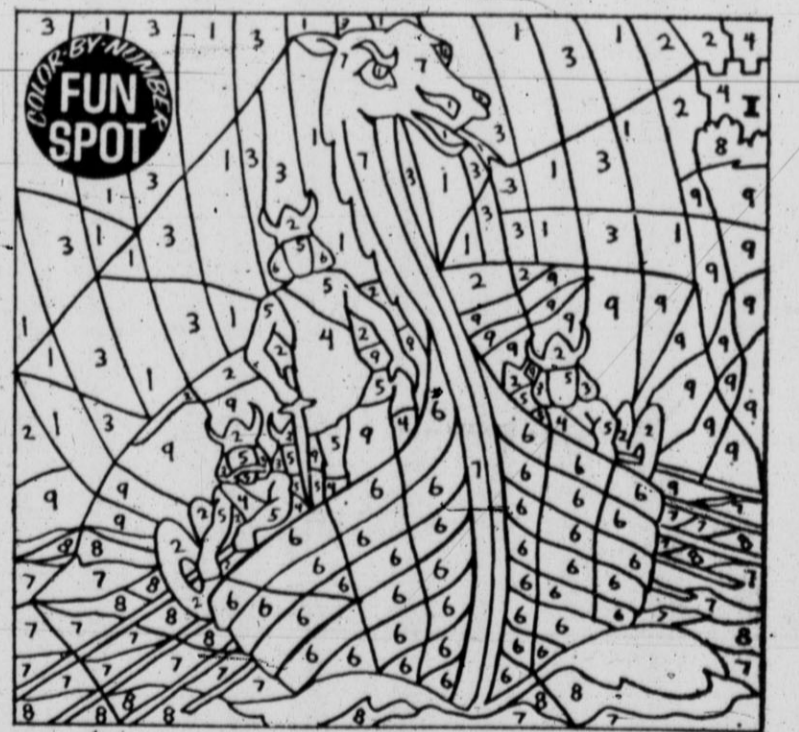

THIS trick seemingly disproves the contention that two bodies cannot occupy the same place at the same time. Fill a glass to the top with water. Fill another glass, the same size, with cotton. (Ordinary absorbent cotton.) Surprisingly, the whole glass of water can be poured into the glass containing the cotton without spilling a drop. If you have any doubts, why not try it a try?

BULLETIN BOARD

- STANDING CHEER! Invite a friend to sit on the floor with you. Tell him that he will be unable to rise by himself until you are willing that he should. He'll scoff, of course, but when he tries to get up, you rise, too. He can't win.
- Robert's history homework consists of reading pages two through eleven of his book. Quickly, and without counting on your fingers, see if you can state how many pages Robert must read.
- If Louis eats less than Frank and Herbert eats as much as Louis and Charles eats more than Frank, then Herbert eats less than Charles. True or false?

NAMES OF SIX occupations are represented in pictorial rebus form above. One is an engineer. Can you name the others?

SHIP AHOY! To bring forth a surprise picture above, apply these colors: 1-Red, 2-Blue, 3-Yellow, 4-Lt. brown, 5-Flesh, 6-Dk. brown, 7-Lt. green, 8-Dk. green, 9-Purple.

SPELLBINDER!

SCORE 10 points for using all letters in the word below to form two complete words: FREAKISH

THEN score 2 points each for all words of four letters or more found among the letters. Try to score at least 50 points.
