

Vaughan To Be Asked About Alleged 'Pull'

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) said today he wants to question Ma. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan closely about whether he has "a blank check of authority" at the White House.

OUT, UP AND—OOPS—Indian Moe Sam, barely out of the chute on Panokta, gets his hands down to break his fall at the Pendleton, Ore., Round Up in the bucking horse contest. The halter rope, only rein allowed, is still up in the air as Sam's feet. (AP Wirephoto).

would seem that he does. But I have a pretty good idea that President Truman knew nothing about a lot of Vaughan's activities we have been hearing about at the five percent investigation.

His name has figured in the investigation of influence peddling from the start of the public hearings three weeks ago. During that time Vaughan has spoken out only once—to acknowledge that an official and an agent of a Chicago perfume firm present prominent Washingtonians in 1945, prominent Washingtonians in 1945.

Legion Group Pushes Fight On Communism

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20 (AP)—The American Legion opened its 31st annual convention today with its fight against communism—in China, particularly—shaping up as the No. 1 issue. What to do about communism and where and when to do it are questions that several Legion committees have been wrestling with in pre-convention sessions—mostly behind closed doors.

Court Ruling Due In Hawaiian Strike

HONOLULU, Aug. 20 (AP)—The first round in the legal battle on Hawaii's dock seizure law came to a decision today. At the same time a new negotiation effort in the 121-day CIO longshore strike was being arranged.

U. S. District Judges J. Frank McLaughlin and Delbert E. Metzger were to rule whether to halt temporarily the territory's stevedoring operations. Government dock work was authorized by the seizure law. The striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union contended the law was unconstitutional. The government argued the law protected the public welfare and said the union's challenge should have been through territorial, not federal, courts.

Fund-Slashing Plan Beaten

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Administration forces beat today an effort in the Senate to direct that President Truman save 5 to 10 per cent of the billions of dollars Congress has appropriated to run the government. The Senate voted 48 to 29 to suspend it's rules and adopt a "rider" to the armed services appropriation bill to order Mr. Truman to make the savings. That was short of the two-thirds vote required to suspend the rules.

NO USE FOR HOSPITAL BEDS AS CENTENARIANS STAGE CONCLAVE

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20 (AP)—Six old Civil War veterans settled down to have convention fun today. It's no breeze, especially when you're 100 and up, and thousands of younger kindfolk are hovering around talking sadly about "the last encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic."

Brother Suspects To Be Returned In Burglary Case

Deputy Sheriff C. E. Kiser left Sunday afternoon for Fort Worth where he was to pick up two brothers wanted here in the connection of a $1,400 payroll burglary of the Farwell Plumbing company office. The robbery occurred last Thursday night. The two were picked up by Fort Worth authorities over the weekend on a tip spread throughout Texas by local officers. The two are believed to be former employees of the Farwell company, which maintains its office on the site of the Veterans hospital building.

Fire Sweeps Home Laundry

An early-morning explosion started a fire that did an estimated $11,250 damage to the Bendix Automatic Laundry, 1605 Scurry, today. The blaze was started when one of the washing machines exploded about 4:45 a. m., firemen said. The structure that housed the laundry was 90 per cent destroyed, firemen reported, while loss to contents was placed at 25 percent. The building was insured for $10,000. Contents were covered for $9,000. Two trucks and seven fire-fighters answered the alarm.

Climbing Mountain In Quest Of Ark

DOGU BAYAZIT, Turkey, Aug. 20 (AP)—Five Americans are toiling up three-mile-high Mount Ararat today to see if Noah's Ark lies on the summit. They left this isolated village yesterday morning and no word is expected from the group making the perilous ascent until tomorrow at the earliest. The Russians have protested strenuously that the search for the ark is merely a blind for a spying expedition. Mt. Ararat is on the Turkish-Russian border.

COLLECTORS AFTER NICKELS

Wooden Centennial nickels have already become a collector's item. Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, a coin collector's journal published in Chicago, has requested information about wooden money being circulated here. Centennial association officials stated. The wooden certificates will be described in the publication. Wooden nickels are being circulated in Big Spring by 80 retail merchants who distribute them as change to customers. Centennial workers said that 3900 of the redeemable wooden money has been placed in the hands of the retailers.

NO POLICE PROTECTION?

Robeson Supporters Demand Inquiry Into Concert Riot

NEW YORK, Aug. 20 (AP)—Backers of Paul Robeson plan to call on Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today and demand a probe of the riot that canceled a concert by the Negro singer Saturday night. Their demands—coming in a flurry of charges by Robeson and others—include the ouster of several Westchester County officials. Groups of Robeson supporters plan to call on Dewey and Atty. Gen. Nathaniel Goldstein and make charges that the officials failed to give police protection at the riot scene near Peekskill, N. Y. Robeson himself claimed the disturbance was part of a "national terror" and an attack on the Negro people, and he demanded that Dewey start an investigation. The governor's office last night

Senators Seek A Showdown On Arms Aid Fund

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20 (AP)—Senators sought a showdown today on demands for a $160,990,000 cut in proposed arms aid for European members of the Atlantic Alliance. Allotment May Be Held To An Even Billion

The combined Senate Committees on Foreign Relations and Armed Services were called together to resume discussion of the $1,450,000,000 arms program. Republicans and some Democrats saw a good chance for adoption of a proposal by Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich) to hold aid for western Europe to an even $1 billion, instead of the $1,160,990,000 asked by President Truman.

Commies Make A New Drive Toward Canton

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Aug. 20 (AP)—The big hurricane was blowing itself out today. It turned back to the northeast in North Carolina and southern Virginia in a dying effort to return to the Atlantic Ocean where it was spawned a week ago. The howling monster which ripped into Florida's Gold Coast on the east side Friday, cutting a multi-million dollar damage swath, was described by weathermen as just another heavy windstorm.

Complaints allegedly levelled against Margaret Christie, Howard county home demonstration agent, drew fire from a delegation of 10 women who appeared in commissioners court this morning.

County Judge J. E. Brown produced a letter from Grace Martin, district agent, which was read aloud by Mrs. Armstrong. The letter mentioned complaints against Miss Christie to the extension service. All members of the court denied that any such correspondence had come from them. They suggested that the club council request copies of all complaints from the extension service.

Propertied voters of the Coahoma Independent School District, including the attached Green Valley, Vincent, R-Bar and Morgan districts, will decide crucial issues Tuesday. Failure to carry it would leave the district in dire financial straits.

Concrete Of Any Color Can Be Supplied In Ready-Mix

Concrete of any color can be obtained from the West Texas Sand and Gravel company.

The only ready-mix concrete supplier in this area, the concern will deliver any amount of colored concrete for topping porches and walks or for plastering walls.

West Texas Sand and Gravel recently furnished a bright red mixture of concrete for enclosing a high voltage conduit leading to the Cosden Refinery east of town.

Buried under the ground, the red concrete will give warning to any future excavators who might otherwise dig into the powerful current. A higher than usual percentage of coloring material was used in the concrete for the Cosden project, making it an extremely brilliant red in color.

The Big Spring concern also furnishes the area with regular concrete for any purpose. Mixing trucks will deliver any amount of the material, from a bucketful to a truckload.

Deliveries can be made anywhere within a 45 mile radius of Big Spring. When orders are received from further away, materials are hauled to the job on a flat bed truck before being mixed in one of the mobile concrete mixers.

Tensile strength of the concrete is kept at its highest in this manner. The material begins to lose its strength if not poured within one hour after mixing.

The West Texas Sand and Gravel company supplies concrete with tensile strengths ranging from 2,000 to 4,500 pounds per square inch. Strength required for foundations or finish desired on walks or floors determines the mixture used. The company has three principal proportions of sand and rock used in making concrete.

The 50-50 mixture, employing equal portions of rock and sand, the 60-40 and the 70-30 mixtures, using increasingly larger amounts of sand, are most commonly used.

West Texas Sand and Gravel company, supplying practically all the concrete used in this area, delivers an average of around 1,000 cubic yards of the material each month, company officials stated.

CONCRETE SUPPLIERS—Otis Grafe, Jr., left and Otis Grafe, Sr., head the West Texas Sand & Gravel company, supplier of this area in ready-mix concrete. Their operations also include vast amounts of gravel, sand and similar construction materials. Newest feature to the comparatively new ready mix concrete service is that of colored cement—any color specified. Here Grafe and son overlook part of the big operations at their plant south of town. Seed Supply And Markets Assured By Grain Firm

Two important autumnal questions already are answered by Tucker-McKinley Grain company. One is that of market for grain. The other is that of seed for small grain and winter cover crop plantings.

As for the grain, Tucker-McKinley is ready to receive any amount of grain at the government loan level of $2.03. Storage is no problem, for the company has arrangements made to handle the anticipated volume. It makes no difference whether it is red, white or mixed. Tucker-McKinley is equipped to receive and store the grain if farmers want to put it in the loan. Mixed goes in at only three cents less than the single color.

Staying abreast of the mounting demand for winter pasturage and cover grains, Tucker-McKinley has laid in big stocks of wheat, rye, barley, oats and vetch. The supply is being augmented this week with a large shipment of green-lag oats. Large kernels weigh out 44-pounds to the bushel, giving some idea of the quality. Vetch supplies are certified and free from Johnson grass. Ample stocks of abuzzi rye extremely popular for sandy and blow-sand areas, are available. The same is true of wheat. Barley seed will be ample to meet any demand in this area, too.

Receipts of grain this season have amounted to only one car so far. However, the movement may get underway in greater strength next month. Weather and tremendous cotton acreage have mitigated against prospects for a big grain yield, but whatever amount comes to market will find prompt service for loan or purchase. In the latter event, the company quotes daily prices to give advantage to producers of any rise in the market.

Tool Company Is Help To Others

Most any industry a person can name is at least partly dependent upon one or more other industries. A case in point is the Southwest Tool and Supply Co., located at 901 East Second street in Big Spring.

This firm which is the largest of its kind in this immediate area, composes an industry within itself—an industry that keeps others going and in so doing is kept spinning along by the others.

Heavy machine shop work, blacksmithing and welding are specialties of the Southwest Tool and Supply. These services are essential to operation of the oil production and drilling industries in the area as well as several others.

Equipment includes huge lathes, pipe cutting and threading machines, giant drill presses, all types of welding apparatus, blacksmithing tools and anything else that might be required to turn out tools and parts needed to keep machinery in running order.

The firm keeps supplies of many standard tools and parts, but at the same time it is equipped to produce them from its own equipment from raw materials. Thus, machinery that requires parts that are not available on the regular market can be kept in operation.

Oil field equipment represents the largest single source—demands for the Southwest Tool and Supply services, but others such as cotton gins and many industries that use smaller machinery are served as well.

Tucker & McKinley Add New Feed Line

An additional line—products from Burrus Mills—has been added to the feed supplies of Tucker-McKinley Grain company. The name Burrus implies its quality and needs no further boosting. Included in stocks will be crumbled poultry feeds, chicken pellets, range cubes, rabbit feed, horse and mule feed and 18 per cent dairy mixes. Tucker-McKinley has stocked heavily on the range cubes and the operators plan to hold a reserve of at least a carload at all times to meet the anticipated demands of ranchers.

Gets Degree On 69th Birthday

COMMERCE, Aug. 29 (AP)—William L. Oliver of Van, Tex., stepped up to get his degree of bachelor of science — on his 69th birthday.

He was one of 714 who were graduated from East Texas State Teachers College yesterday. It was the largest class in the school's 60-year-old history.

For 28 years Oliver has taught in rural schools. "I started to college back in 1904 with only $12 in my pockets. I've had a lot of setbacks, but I never gave up," he said.

The setbacks included a 1929 bank failure; the depression of the '30s, and destruction of his home by fire in 1945.

President Has Another Big Battle Over Confirmation Of Ilgenfritz

By ROBERT S. ALLEN For DREW PEARSON WASHINGTON—President Truman doesn't know it yet, but he has another brawl on his hands to get Senate confirmation for an appointee to a key defense post.

Most Successful Hitch-Hiker Sought His Goal In Reverse

One of the more successful hitch-hikers we ever had occasion to see in action was an affable fellow who planted himself very conspicuously beside the road and kept singing out the name of the locality where it was to be assumed he was headed.

State Dept. Collaboration With Congress Is Encouraging Sign

In the avalanche of bad news from abroad, it is at least comforting to find a little good news here at home. The good news is that something has at last been done to restore the old close collaboration between the State Department and the foreign policy leaders in Congress.

role, since it detracted from President Truman's luster. The State Department is less independent of the White House than in the past, and it rather naturally fears Connally's wrath, since Connally's co-operation is essential.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

There's been a good deal of talk lately concerning the possibility of telephone wire tapping as a means of securing evidence. There's a lot of people who call such methods "snooping" and they are probably right.

Some of the principal reasons given by people, questioned in nation-wide polls, in favor of wire tapping include the idea that it is difficult to convict some criminals without this type of evidence, that it is the only way to get true evidence, that it's one of the few ways to stop illegal gambling and bookkeeping and that it's necessary when the government or our country's welfare is at stake.

Some of the reasons advanced against allowing wire-tap as evidence in court is that it's undemocratic, that one's privacy is invaded, that it is illegal, unscrupulous, snooping, violates one's freedom, takes away constitutional rights, that it's too much like dictator countries and that such conversations are likely to be misinterpreted by the listener.

We are of the opinion that such action is going a little too far, too. Not only that, but we wonder if wire-tapping wouldn't waste an awful lot of time. Some of the most foolish conversations engaged in are those which go over the telephone line. People can talk for 30 minutes or so and never come to any conclusions and this happens with business calls as well as social calls. (Ever call anyone long distance for a social chat and later wonder why you paid hard earned money for such a stupid conversation?)

We aren't available for any jobs connected with wire-tap. We're afraid they would be more than slightly on the boring side.

You're not going to pay more to buy from us ... and we don't blame you

So, to get your business, we're going to try to supply you with all the petroleum products you need and with the best petroleum products we can make, at prices that are no higher than those of other companies. Every other oil company in the industry is trying to do the same.

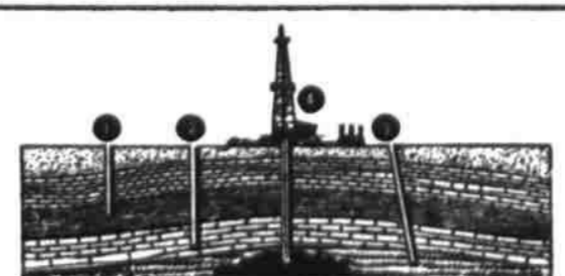

They are our competitors; we are theirs.

We compete in the search for oil, so that we can be in a better position to supply your demands. Our geological and geophysical crews are in the field 365 days a year seeking subsurface reservoirs which may contain oil. So are the crews of other oil companies. Sometimes we find oil where others couldn't; sometimes they get production where we have failed. Competition within the industry finds more oil than any other system.

We compete in production, and the oil company with the most efficient production and conservation methods has more oil to sell.

And we compete in the manufacture of the petroleum products you use. In our laboratories, and in those of our competitors, some of the world's foremost scientists are working at a never-ending task of improving gasolines and motor oils for your car, and the other petroleum products you use every day; and to discover new oil products which will be equally as useful to you. A good many of these scientists only recently have returned to their peacetime laboratories; during the war, they were on loan to the government for important and secret wartime scientific tasks.

You are the beneficiary of this competition within the oil industry. It assures you the lowest possible price for petroleum products (the increase in the price you pay for gasoline is less than half the increase in the price of food and clothing); it gives you more and better gasolines and motor oils; it gives you improved service at retail outlets.

This diagram shows you how four oil companies may compete to find oil to supply your needs. Competitors 1, 2 and 3 lost out to Competitor 4, which found the oil in this particular "prospect."

In Humble's research laboratory at Baytown refinery, scientists work to improve the petroleum products you use, and to find ways to make new products for you. Humble Esso Extra gasoline was developed in Baytown's research laboratory.

Service attracts customers, and retail outlets displaying the Humble sign strive to give service that is complete, courteous and prompt. Most of them are operated by independent business men.

Navy Conducts Own Inquiry In B-36 Affair

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29. (AP)—The Navy set out today to learn if naval higher-ups had any hand in the now-explored charges of fraud and politics in the Air Force's B-36 bomber procurement program.

A court of inquiry was called at the order of Secretary of the Navy Matthews to follow up disclosures unearthed by the House Armed Services Committee.

The committee's investigation came to a halt until Oct. 5 after reaching a sensational climax last week.

At that time, Cedric Worth a special assistant to Undersecretary of the Navy Dan Kimball, was unmasked as the author of a document hinting at corruption in Air Force bomber policy—and naming Secretary of Air Symington, Secretary of Defense Johnson, and Financier Floyd Oditum.

Worth, promptly suspended by Matthews, made a complete and abject repudiation of his charges under merciless examination by Committee Counsel Joseph B. Keenan.

The committee found "not one iota" of evidence to support the "fact and rumor" contained in the nine-page document which was responsible for touching off the House probe.

But Worth's testimony, although it absolved all of Worth's associates in the Navy Department, left a blear trail of innuendo studded with the names of naval officers.

Matthews ordered the Navy court to follow this trail to the end, and to inquire particularly whether "other persons, military or civil" in the Navy Department had any connection with the document.

The court's instructions were also to determine if any offense had been committed in writing the document for which Worth took complete responsibility.

TOWN LISTS PROJECTS IT WILL DEVELOP FROM ITS 'INHERITANCE'

PERRYOPOLIS, Pa., Aug. 29. (AP)—The citizens of Perryopolis finally have decided how to spend the $1,320,000 left the town a year ago by Mrs. Mary Fuller Frazier, a former resident.

At a meeting last night, 200 townspeople voted unanimously to adopt a plan worked out by the Perryopolis Community Planning Assn.

The plans call for the circulation of petitions to incorporate the town of 1,500 as a borough and the eventual expenditure of $660,000 for improvements.

Mrs. Frazier stipulated that half the money be used for public improvements and the remainder for maintenance of the public works agreed upon.

The actual construction work may not get under way for almost another year however because the Fayette county court will not receive the incorporation petition before December and an election must be held once the petition has been granted.

The improvements decided on include $250,000 for an educational center, $50,000 for a municipal building, $250,000 for a sewage disposal and water system, $82,000 for streets and highways, $10,000 for street lighting and $18,000 for shade trees and parks.

Not now, though, under Japan's democratic constitution which holds that a prince is no better than the next man.

Four princesses told how they like their new freedom in a round table reported Saturday in the September issue of the Home Journal of Japan.

They are Princesses Asako Fushimi, Naoko Kan'in, Toshiko Kaya and Yoshiko. All are members of Japan's princely families, although none is of the family of Emperor Hirohito.

HOW TO CALL ON TEACHER

SAN JOSE, Calif., Aug. 29. (AP)—Ernest Golindo, a student pilot, missed school by a city block and went calling, instead, on a teacher.

He knocked her front door in with his airplane.

Golindo, 23, was soloing over San Jose yesterday when his motor went dead. He picked the Roosevelt Junior High School yard for a forced landing but over-shot his light monoplane went through Miss Ethel Boyd's front door. The teacher was in the rear of the house and escaped injury. O'Connor has head wounds.

JAP PRINCESSES LIKE FREEDOM THEY FIND IN NEW DEMOCRACY

TOKYO, Aug. 29. (AP)—The princesses of Japan are just crazy about this new "democracy" that arrived with the occupation.

They even ride a bicycle if they feel like it. A princess riding a bicycle in the old days would have rocked imperial court circles like a first-class earthquake.

Not now, though, under Japan's democratic constitution which holds that a prince is no better than the next man.

They can window shop, enter restaurants, ride streetcars, and even talk with the passengers.

They can do their own marketing if they want to, and ride to market on a bicycle.

They can have a hot meal as they put it. Never were our meals hot because the kitchen was so far away the dishes cooled while the servants carried them down the long halls. Now we even bring pans right to the table.

Their houses no longer are cluttered with servants who always were supervising what they did. We used to have 50 or more. Now we have six.

And on top of all these boons, they point out that a princess now can marry for love.
