

Around Town

Work is underway on construction of a stock car race track in the old race grounds in Veteran's Park, according to Leonard Ross, who said that the project should be completed within 30 days. "Then it will be up to the weather," he said, regarding the starting of races here. The track will be lighted for night racing and will be one-fifth of a mile. Ross said that special construction is required on all entries to prevent fatal accidents, and that a racing club is being formed. Full details on the club may be secured by calling him at 1011.

Another new venture is the proposed $250,000 installation of a vacuum cooling plant in Hereford, according to Cecil Massey, C-C manager. Rex Brunson will open the plant here and plans to have it in operation to handle fall lettuce; 40 percent of the West Coast lettuce is now packed in this manner, he said. No ice is required. Light cartons are used instead of crates, thus cutting shipping and packaging costs.

A. R. Bateman, former county agent, was reported to be in serious condition this week in Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo. Mr. Bateman was living in Lubbock and entered the Veteran hospital for a gall-stone operation. Indications of cancer turned the case into a critical one, Saturday.

Two Hereford firms have announced that they will close out with sales. Bill McKendree said that he will sell out his entire stock in the Hereford Food Store on Highway 60, and Ralph Gragg is closing out the Western Hardware Store on Third Street with daily auctions.

Arriving in Hereford this week was M. T. Howell of Abilene, who will succeed Birdie D. Fellers as service agent for the Deaf Smith County Farm Bureau. He plans to take over around March 1, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Howell and their son. They are members of the Methodist Church and he is active in the "Aggie" Club.

Rev. R. H. Cagle, Wayland College board member, said today that a committee has been named to select a successor for President (Continued on page 3)

Town-Wide Church Census Date Set Here For March 1

A town-wide religious census will be taken in Hereford Sunday, March 1, from 1:30 to 4:00 o'clock, according to plans made at the Ministerial Alliance meeting Monday morning.

The group planned the cooperative census in an effort to eliminate individual surveys by each of the churches, and asked that all persons who possibly could remain at home during the hours. Bob Lawrence was named as personnel director for the census and will have workers from each of the churches.

"It is important to have a card on each individual member of the family," the group decided. Copies of the card will later appear in The Brand and persons who expect to be away were asked to fill out the blanks and leave them on the front door.

Churches included in the census are: First Baptist, Avenue Baptist, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Assembly of God, St. Anthony's, First Methodist and First Christian.

"STUCK ON SIXTY" seems to have replaced the convention theme of "Stick to Sixty" when the four above tourists were arrested to appear on the Texas Highway 60 convention program at noon Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, left, are from Oceanside, Calif., while Rev. and Mrs. Amiel Hanson are from Moberidge, S. D. Police Chief Leo box and Hollis Rainey accompany the quartet as they entered the hotel ballroom following the arrest. Later they received an array of small gifts as "fines". Hotel rooms, car service and other details were provided during their stay in Hereford. Staff Photo.

Four Tourists Are "Arrested" For Appearance In Highway 60 Session

"I feel like Queen for a Day." Such was the comment of Mrs. George Johnson, one of the four people traveling Highway 60 who were arrested and interviewed on the association program Wednesday at noon. The visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, traveling west on 60, enroute to their home at Oceanside, Calif. Rev. and Mrs. Amiel Hanson of Moberidge, S. D., were the second couple; they were traveling east, enroute to their home in Moberidge, S. D.

Each of the couples was interviewed by Clint Formby to provide the combined Highway 60 Convention and weekly Lions Club program in Hotel Jim Hill. Mr. Johnson is a Commissioned Warrant Officer in the Marines and has 30 years service to his credit. The couple had been visiting in Kansas City for two weeks, they said. He served in both World Wars and reported that he had been through Hereford often as a tourist on Highway 60. "Well, it shows that I am educated," was the reason Johnson gave for traveling on Highway 60. "On 66 you only write one figure twice when you send a card back home, but on 60 it takes two figures—and shows you are smarter."

Rev. Hanson is pastor of the First Methodist Church, Moberidge, S. D. He and Mrs. Hanson said that they had tried to enter Mexico, but were unable to do so due to lack of proper car papers. Therefore, they started a leisure-trip for home. "In my study people ask me thousands of unusual questions," declared Rev. Hanson, "but I can safely say that this is the first time anyone ever asked me if I minded being 'arrested'."

Cecil Massey acted as master of ceremonies and presented each of the couples with gifts, which he termed as "fines" for being stopped. A cowboy shirt was given to each of the individuals, also a blanket and a picnic kit to each couple. Their cars were serviced, hotel bills paid, corsages presented the ladies, and several other small favors included in the awards.

Court Purchases Law Library For County Attorney

The Commissioners Court Monday purchased the law library of former County Attorney Gib Howard, who resigned recently to move to Amarillo. The court voted to pay $523.50 cash to Mr. Howard and to assume a balance of $832.50 still due on the books and equipment. The library will be placed at disposal of the county attorney. The library includes sets of Texas Jurisprudence, Texas Digest and Vernon's Black Statutes, along with 13 sections of glass front bookcases. Motion was made by J. T. Guinn and all four commissioners voted favorably on the purchase. Balance on the books was scheduled to be paid in monthly installments to the publishers.

Paving Program On Rural Roads

Steps were taken toward a comprehensive, long-range road-surfacing program for Deaf Smith County in the regular meeting of the Commissioners Court here Monday. Action came at the suggestion of Judge Horace L. Schloss, who recommended a unanimous agreement on an over-all program.

The four-point road program appears in the court minutes as follows:

Plan Is Outlined

"First: all four commissioners agree that the Wyche road be surfaced and paved to the county line, using bond money for that purpose.

"Second: the next project in the order of agreement being that the road running from Bootleg south to the Farmer County line be surfaced and paved.

"Third: agreement on the next project being that the road surfacing money will be spent in Precinct No. 2, and agreement on the fourth and final project, being that funds be used to surface roads in Precinct No. 4.

"All four commissioners were in accord and agreement in connection with this future road surfacing program."

Road maintenance also came under discussion by the commissioners, following which a policy was outlined regarding division of income from the sale of motor license plates: Precinct 1, 27½ percent; Precinct

2, 27½ percent; Precinct 3, 22½ percent; Precinct 4, 22½ percent. This motion was made by C. G. Richardson and seconded by J. C. Morrison. All four commissioners voted favorably.

Dyalthia Bradly Resigns Welfare Post Here After 19 Years Service

Mrs. Dyalthia Bradly, associated with welfare work in this county since February 5, 1934, Monday appeared before the Commissioners Court and offered her resignation as County Welfare worker. The resignation will become effective March 31, 1953.

During the same session, the court appointed Mrs. Frank Marrs as County Welfare Worker at a salary of $150 per month, plus $25 per month for travelling expenses. The court also decided to move the office to the top floor of the courthouse. Mrs. Marrs, however, declined the post Tuesday, and the appointment will come up for action, probably at the next court session.

Termination of Mrs. Bradly's affiliation with the county welfare office, she said, was due to (Continued on Page Two)

Dameron Elected Director Texas Hereford Group

Bill Dameron of Hereford last week was chosen a member of the Texas Hereford Association's executive committee, probably the youngest man ever to serve on this group which governs the association of almost 1,000 members covering the state of Texas.

R. T. Alexander, Jr., of Canadian, newly elected president of the association, selected Mr. Dameron and four other Hereford breeders over the state for additions to the executive committee at the group's annual meeting in Fort Worth at the time of the stock show there.

Mr. Dameron addressed the annual association banquet at Fort Worth's Texas Hotel in presenting a scroll to retiring president J. M. North, editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Hereford breeder at Fort Worth. Some 550 persons from all over Texas, from about half of the states of the Union, Hawaii and the Argentine attended the banquet on Feb. 2.

In presenting the scroll of appreciation to Mr. North, Mr. Dameron said, in part:

"The Texas Hereford Association, like every organization, can trace its growth or decay directly to the caliber of its leaders. Successful leadership in some instances is a stroke of luck or a matter of chance. But in the main, the great leaders follow the pattern of the great sires of our breed—they've got it in them to start (Continued on Page 3)

Knives, Razors And Boards Fly In Free-For-All At Labor Camp Sunday

A fight of considerable proportions at the labor camp south of town terminated with residents calling in officers and the arrest of four Spanish-Americans Sunday night, Feb. 8.

Razors, knives and flying boards accounted for most of the personal damages inflicted in the fight. One man, Mallo Tarez, was so badly injured that he was unable to appear in A. L. Thomas' justice court here Tuesday morning. Three of the men, Nito Gloria, Ernest Martinez, and Joe Martinez paid fines of $10.00, plus $8.00 costs. The fathers of Martinez and Tarez, who entered the fray in an effort to stop it, also suffered severe cuts and bruises. No fines were assessed in their case, however, Mr. Thomas said.

Neither officers or the Justice Court examination revealed exactly how the fight started, but witnesses said that slashing knives and flying boards presented a real hazard. A long-bladed razor was confiscated by Deputy Sheriff Neal Young, who made the arrest.

Mass Meeting Is Called Tonight To Discuss Experimental Station Plans

Plans for an independent Experimental Station, operating in conjunction with the Texas A. & M. program, was announced today by Howard Gault. He also called a mass meeting to discuss further details on the project. The meeting was set for Thursday night, Feb. 12, district courtroom, 8 o'clock.

Austin Anson, secretary of Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers, will be on hand for the meeting. The experiment station, if established, will cost approximately $16,000 per year to operate and will be set up for a two-year period. It would be financed through donations and with a small assessment on each bag of potatoes and onions, and on each crate of lettuce—probably running at a fraction of a cent.

Object of the station would be experiments toward growing better products, securing greater yields and establishing better varieties for this area, Gault said. It would also be the purpose of the group to turn the station over to the state for operation at a future date, if possible.

"The meeting has been called to find out if the growers, shippers, merchants and other people are interested," Gault declared. "It will be up to them to decide." He added that several large concerns have shown considerable interest in the program and thinks that it can easily be established if the people are sincerely interested.

Stock Show Holds Wide Interest

The Hereford Bull Barn will once again become the center of attraction over a three-day period as the Seventh annual Rotary Club Junior Livestock and Poultry Show opens today.

D. C. McWhorter, president, foresees another outstanding show this year, which he believes may run smoother than ever before.

"We had a meeting of committees Monday evening," said McWhorter, "and everything seems to be in order for a smooth operating show. The chairman reported that things are looking good."

Rev. T. Edgar Neal, in charge of weather, was the only committee chairman to show any possible doubt—and he still insists that things will turn out all right.

In addition to the array of cups and ribbons for which the young stockmen and poultry breeders are competing, the two other annual events—free barbecue and parade on Saturday—promised to be of usual high quality.

Pigs, lambs and poultry will be judged on Friday, with cattle judging slated for Saturday morning. Sale of livestock will follow the parade.

Will Eat Ham

The big, free barbecue will this year switch from beef to ham and will, as in the past, be served in the Norton building. A total of more than 1,000 pounds of boned, cooked ham has already been arranged for the event, Francis Hardwick, chairman, said. Packers estimated that it will easily feed 3,500 persons, but Hardwick said he expected to handle around 2,500.

The parade is scheduled to begin promptly at 1 o'clock Saturday. Five bands, along with the ROTC drill team from West Texas State College will be featured in the parade. The bands include Amarillo Army Air force, Hereford, Dimmitt, Friona, and Canyon high school bands.

Same Parade Route

The parade will follow the same route as in 1952, forming north of Dameron Park. Actual parade travel will come south on main to Highway 60, east on the highway to Sampson, then north to Third and disband in front of the courthouse. Parade prizes on floats will be $25 and $15.

A growing list of dignitaries and delegations from various Panhandle towns was reported Thursday by McWhorter, who said that additional letters of acceptance are arriving with every mail.

Purris Williams will be a soloist for the group. Other Hereford "exes" who will be with the band are: Pat Walton, Randy Thomas, Leta Dene Swatzell and Emma Jane Brown. Staff Photo.

Her first connection with the work was February 5, 1943, at the beginning of the Civil Works Administration program under Herbert Hoover as president. Eventually the Texas Relief Commission was organized and Mrs. Bradly, as an administrator of the program, handled nine Panhandle counties at the time of her resignation from this post in 1937.

Since June, 1937, she has been employed by Deaf Smith County as Welfare Administratrix, along with her duties as treasurer of the credit organization. At the beginning of World War II, Mrs.

Bradly accepted additional responsibilities of Red Cross secretary for this county. She resigned this post last year, however, when duties of the combined offices became too heavy.

Mrs. Bradly expressed appreciation to all individuals and county officials whom she said had cooperated wholeheartedly at all times, and declared that although she disliked leaving the position with the welfare department, that it was an absolute necessity to carry on the other activities.

Hereford Retains Lead In District

By SHELBY WHITFIELD

The Hereford Whitefaces are still resting in first place in District 2AA, having defeated Floydada twice: 68-58 and 60-35. Saturday night the Herd journeyed to Floydada and took the 68-35 victory. Hereford played host to the Whirlwinds, Tuesday night, and easily won the other 60-35 tilt.

After losing seven of the first nine games played, the locals have been in the win column consistently. The team now has 13 wins and 12 losses.

The first quarter of the game with the Winds was an even affair. Everett Allen's 11 points helped Hereford to lead 19-18 in the first quarter. The Whiteface defense tightened in the second. Floydada hit only seven as Hereford counted 16 to make the score at half-time 35-25. The lead piled up in the second period made the difference, as each of the teams scored 30 points in the last half.

Allen led the Whiteface scoring with 21 points. He was followed by Marshall Wilson with 16 and Tommie Wilson was a close third with 15. Jerry Bob Harrison led Floydada with 13; Brooks Chapman made 11 and Adrian Holmes made 10.

Game In Hereford

The game in Hereford was never in doubt as the Herd took a 13-4 lead in the first five minutes of play. It was increased to 23-9 at the end of the first quarter. Hereford led at intermission, 39-21. The third quarter was even with both teams scoring 10 points. The visitors were held to three points in the last period as Hereford made the final score 60-35.

Injuries hurt Floydada's chances in the second game. Connie Bearden suffered a knee injury in the first quarter of the game. Adrian Helms, the Winds' leading rebounder and floor man, was left behind due to a sprained ankle received in the Monday workout.

Allen again took high point honors, scoring 20 points; Woodford was next with 14. Franklin Stovall led Floydada with 12.

Hereford made a clean sweep of all six games, played with Marshall. The committee includes Rev. A. Hope Owen, formerly of Hereford, along with Dr. Carl Bates, Amarillo, Rev. Ralph Grant, Lubbock, Rev. Lee Hemphill of Littlefield, and Mayes Osborn of Plainview.

J. M. Thompson has a church structure under way at Hart, and was low bidder on the new Baptist Church at Littlefield this week. Contracts have not been let as yet, however. The Littlefield church will be around a $250,000 project.

All singers who will sing the "Hallelujah" chorus from the Messiah are invited to sing at the Polk Street Methodist church on Thursday, Feb. 19, at 7:30 p. m., for the Jurisdictional conference. A rehearsal will be held on Sunday, Feb. 15 at 3 p. m. Singers who cannot attend the rehearsal are invited to sing with the chorus anyway.

The Hereford Garden Club will meet with Mrs. Jeff Gilbreath, Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. instead of the place of meeting scheduled in the year book.

"During the three years as president of the Texas Hereford Association, J. M. North has given generously of his time, money and talent. Under his leadership we have seen our membership almost doubled; in every section of the state; we have seen our publication The Texas Hereford mature from an idea into a leading livestock publication; we have seen Fort Worth play host to the nation at a great Hereford Congress; we have seen the Fort Worth show grow in size and prestige; we have seen an outstanding program of public relations greatly increase the demand for Texas Herefords across the nation.

"In all of these achievements and many, many more the credit goes to Mr. North, the man behind the scenes, directing progress with determination and a humble service."

The scroll which Mr. Dameron presented to Mr. North on behalf of the association carried the names of most of the members of the group.

Schools In Parmer 100 Percent In Jr. Red Cross Program

According to George E. Meyer, Junior Red Cross Chairman for the Parmer County Chapter of the American National Red Cross, Parmer County is "One Hundred Percent" in Junior Red Cross enrollment, with every room of every school of the county having enrolled. The Friona schools, with Principal John Parrish of the elementary division and Dilly Kelly of the secondary schools, lead the schools of the county in the amounts given. The total receipts for the Junior Red Cross fees was $62.71, received as follows: Bovina Schools, $12.25; Farwell, $21.65; Friona, $39.19; and Lazbuddie, $9.68.

The schools enrolled are receiving the official publications of the national organization which give highlights on the program, according to Mr. Meyer. There is also a movie in sound which describes the work of the Junior division of the Red Cross which may be had without rental charge by contacting Mr. Meyer at Friona. Meyer states that he is anxious to have every youngster of every school of the county see the film.

The next step in organizational procedure of the Junior Red Cross is the naming of the representatives from the schools, one from the elementary and from the secondary, who will be members of the Junior Council.

In addition to registration fees paid the national organization the Juniors of the county made a gift of $15 to the National Children's Fund which goes to work with children and young people throughout the world.

West Texas College Band To Appear In Concert Program Here On Monday

A versatile program will be presented next Monday night, Feb. 16, at 8 o'clock in the Hereford High School Auditorium by the West Texas State College Concert Band, directed by M. J. Newman, music department head.

Sponsored by the Hereford High School Band, the concert is the first of 16 for the West Texas State group which they will play in Panhandle cities. The 65-piece band will later appear in Tulia, Amarillo, Memphis, Childress, Wellington, Shamrock, Canadian, Pampa, Phillips, Panhandle, Dumas, Stratford, Texhoma, Okla., Perryton and Borger.

Novel as the program of music is the printed program announcing selections to be played. Headings for each group characterize the type of music, and indicate the intricate and ambitious undertakings of the band. Selections range from concerti, ballads, and overtures to Latin music, "rhythmic music," and marches.

Noteworthy number is the Harry James "Concerto for Trumpet," which features Purdie Will-

White Catfish In Lamar Area

PARIS, Texas (AP)—A couple of oddities—pure white catfish—are causing Paris area fishermen to shake their heads in amazement these days. The two freaks turned up in a minnow dealer's nets in Lamar County.

Aaron Chenault, who has been selling minnows 47 years, caught the two albino catfish while seining two Lamar ponds for minnows. One is about seven inches long, the other about five.

Making it even stranger, Chenault found them in unconnected ponds about 100 yards apart.

Veteran fisherman in this area can't account for the white catfish. Neither can Chenault. Both fish have heads two-thirds the size of mud cats, two large blue eyes and a square tail that isn't characteristic of a channel cat.

Actually, the skin of the fish is transparent with the inside of the catfish showing pink.

In the meantime, the fish are bringing a steady stream of visitors to the Chenault place of business where he keeps them in a minnow vat.

Bob Lewis New Hospital Head

R. G. "Bob" Lewis was named to the $4,800-a-year post of manager of Dent Smith County Hospital this week by the hospital board, which operates under authority of the Commissioners Court of the County.

Lewis went into business here in 1947 with T. E. Seiser in operation of an implement firm, later operating the entire venture himself. He has also been active in the automobile and insurance business in the area, and has an excellent background of business experience for the post, board members said.

He will assume duties of the office on Sunday, Feb. 15, succeeding Billy Miller, who resigned as manager to accept a position with an automobile firm.

Stop Sign Changes Mark Start Of New Locations

The first of a series of changes in stop signs over the town were put into effect this week at four of Hereford's intersections. Before the changes are completed there will be 50 or 60 new stop signs in Hereford, with the designated through streets having stop signs at each of the streets leading into them, according to an announcement by Police Chief Leo Box.

Battery Theft Draws $75 Fine

Lionoso Salinas and Pete Martinez discovered Monday that crime does not pay. Each of the pair drew a fine of $75 and 20 in jail when they appeared in Judge Horace L. Schloss' County court on charges of "Theft of personal property valued under $50". Salinas, 17, and Martinez, 23, were arrested Friday afternoon by county officers after having stolen a battery from an irrigation well on the C. E. Carney farm, one mile south and two east of Hereford, Friday morning. Both entered guilty pleas in the court.

One of the changes which went into effect this week is a stop sign on Fourth street where it comes into Park Avenue, by the hospital.

A stop sign has been placed on B street where it comes into Main, and the stop sign which was on Main street at the intersection of Main and B has been removed, all near Mother's Park. Two stop signs have been placed on Sampson street where it intercepts Fourth street by the old Catholic Church. The stop sign on Fourth street entering Sampson has been removed.

Stop signs have been placed on each side of Park Avenue where Irving comes into the Avenue. Eventually, the city hopes to make Third, Fourth and possibly Sixth streets through streets.

A tennis court should be laid out with service ends north and south.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM Your State CAPITOL

AUSTIN—One step in the direction of solving the state's difficult highway problem was taken when the Legislature passed a resolution asking the federal government to abandon its two-cent per gallon gasoline tax.

States now levying an income tax have agreed to give up that revenue source if the federal government will stop taxing gasoline. Texas has no state income tax, so Texas has everything to gain and nothing to lose.

The resolution was introduced in the House by Representative Will Lee Smith of Beaumont and in the Senate by Senator Johnnie B. Rogers of Austin.

...s...areJandk/recren—ETA

A campaign to bring about retirement of the federal government from the field of motor fuel taxation was initiated by Governor Allan Shivers and the National Conference of Governors.

Farm and highway user groups are supporting the campaign.

The resolution urges the governor to send suitable representatives from Texas to Washington to appear before congressional committees and urge repeal.

If the federal government abandons its two-cent tax, the state could impose that additional sum and thus, without actually increasing the gasoline tax as paid by the consumer, boost Texas revenues by about $60 million a year.

That amount has been going to the federal government annually from Texas highway users. But Texas has been receiving only about $29 million per year in federal aid to highways.

Senator George Parkhouse of Dallas introduced a bill that would set up a district (similar to a water conservation district) for the purpose of building a Fort Worth-Dallas toll road.

In his message to the Legislature, Governor Shivers suggested that a commission be appointed to study whether or not the toll road is the answer to the vexing traffic problem.

Meanwhile, E. H. Thornton Jr., chairman of the state highway commission, says that in his opinion toll roads are not the solution, except possibly in isolated cases such as that of the Dallas-Fort Worth route.

"Toll roads," said Thornton, "are not the panacea unless we want to embark on a program of unjustifiable deficit financing and project to the next generation the problem of paying for the road needs of our day."

"I won't subscribe to such a program, and, I feel sure, neither will the people of Texas."

One way to build up highway finances would be to stop diverting road user taxes.

Representatives Charles Murphy of Houston has offered a constitutional amendment to require that all taxes on motor fuel and lubricants must be spent on roads.

One-fourth of the gasoline tax now goes to the public schools of Texas. If the schools should lose this revenue, they would have to find other funds.

What's the right way to finance roads, and what's the right way to finance schools? Members of the Legislature would give you a rousing vote of thanks for an acceptable answer to that one.

If you want to see what the road situation is, one source of information would be the 1953 Texas official highway map, now released by the state highway department.

The map is a 100 per cent Texas product. Wood pulp for the paper was grown in East Texas. The paper was made near Houston. The plates were made and the printing done in Austin.

When you buy your 1953 car license you can get a special pre-addressed card that you can use to send for the map. Or you can get one at any highway department district office or by writing direct to the department at Austin.

The maps are free.

Representative Jack Bryan of Buffalo has introduced a "fair trade" bill affecting cigarettes of...

The bill would prohibit below-costs of cigarettes by requiring all retailers to add at least 10 per cent to the wholesale cost.

New chairman of the state board of pardons and paroles is Thomas B. White, who has been a member of the board for the last two years. He succeeds Lyle C. Harris, who continues as a member of the board. A new member is Jack Ross of Edinburg, who succeeds R. A. (Smoot) Schmid of Dallas.

Fireside Gardens Nice Pastime For Wintertime Days

Fireside gardening is a pleasant winter pastime for many persons. Reading flower catalogs often carries one into a dream of spring and summer gardens that do develop. Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, suggests practical planning for the enjoyable flower garden. How will the flowers be used—corsages, cut flowers for the home or church? Winter bouquets? Or color in the landscape? Will you choose hardy annuals or those that require much care? Other questions might be—how much space do you have for growing flowers? Is there enough water? Will you need help for cultivation and care? "Remember," Miss Hatfield advises, "flower gardens require digging, planting, weeding, cultivating, dusting, spraying and mulching." "You can have an attractive flower garden during the spring and summer without too much work," the specialist adds. "First of all, plant flowers in one or two well prepared beds. This not only improves the design of the landscape, but saves time when you need to water, dust, or do any of the other necessary jobs of caring for the flower garden. Or, if you are a very busy person, plant one or two rows of flowers in the vegetable garden. You prepare the soil for flowers as you would for growing vegetables." For varieties, the specialist recommends larkspur, poppy and cornflower to grow in most of the areas of Texas. These can be planted in the fall and winter for early blooms, and then replaced with others such as petunias, pinks and phlox. When these flowers are full of buds, plant the hot weather flowers, gallardia, coneflowers, coxcomb, globe-ararath, periwinkle and salvias and straw flowers. Many bulbs and perennial flowers are useful in corsage making or as cut flowers. Gladioli and chrysanthemum which come in different varieties and colors are useful for church or other places where you need large arrangements. The smaller sizes make lower arrangements and corsages. When you're doing your fireside gardening this winter, use a practical labor-saving approach to the plans for spring and summer blooms. "You'll find it more pleasant and profitable," the specialist advises, "if you do not have to overwork yourself to make the flower garden a success."

A HARD DAY'S WORK or maybe Jack Morpurgo is hinting for a pair of boots to go with the "10-gallon hat" presented him by the Lions Club and Chamber of Commerce while he was in Hereford, Texas, making tape recordings for "Trans-Atlantic Mirror," a BBC program feature. The above stance, Morpurgo told photographer Royden Willelts is relaxation "in typical Texas Cowboy style." Hereford, England Photo by Royden Willelts.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Lima Bean and Sausage Casserole
1 cup large dry lima beans
2 1/2 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
3 medium sized carrots, sliced
1/2 pound sausage
2 tablespoons chopped onion
Add water to dry beans. Boil two minutes and soak one hour before cooking, or soak overnight if preferred. After soaking, add salt and simmer gently for 30 minutes. Add carrots the last five minutes. Do not drain.
If bulk sausage is used, blend onion with it, shape into small patties and brown in frying pan. If link sausage is used, cut in 1/2 inch slices and brown with onion. Add cooked sausage and 2 tablespoons of the drippings to the beans. Bake at 350F (moderate oven) in a covered casserole until beans are tender, about one hour. If necessary, add extra water during baking. Makes 4 servings.

Busy Meeting Calls For Court Session Feb. 23

Faced with a long list of items on their calendar this week, members of the Commissioner's Court acted on 23 points, Monday, before recessing the regular meeting until Monday, Feb. 23, when they will reconvene.

The court approved a letter of congratulations to Marshall Forby, recently named on the State Highway Commission and made the letter part of the court minutes, along with Forby's reply.

Monthly reports from the County Home Demonstration office were reviewed and monthly report of fees received by various county officials during January, except the office of sheriff, were heard.

The court also reviewed a letter from Fr. Bartholomew Paythas, pastor, St. Anthony's Parish, offering the Catholic church property, across from the courthouse, at the following figures: two lots (old church and school locations) $8,000; two north lots, $4,000; school building, $19,000. Total $31,000. Fr. Paythas said the figures were estimated by the Real-Estate Board. The court took no action on the matter.

Likewise, no action was taken on a proposed bill banning the sale of fireworks within the county. The matter of 2-4-D was also tabled, awaiting further information from the State Commissioner of Agriculture.

Bond of County Attorney J. Edgar Line was approved, and the court examined and approved monthly bills for payment. The judge and county attorney were authorized to purchase a typewriter and filing cabinet for the attorney's office.

The court also discussed painting and improving the county courtroom and accepted a bid of $70 on labor from Floyd Tucker. The courtroom is to be painted from the ceiling down to the black picture moulding. The county will furnish the paint.

M. T. Rutter made a motion that the county pay O. L. Bybee the sum of $200 on his fees for legal work done and now in the process of being done for the county. All commissioners voted favorably and the treasurer was authorized to draw a check for the amount.

The court also took action toward raising the rent of Mrs. Dorothy Ross, who operates a credit association in the courthouse, to $50 per month, effective March 1, 1953.

Selection of a county depository for county, school and trust funds was tabled until the commissioners again convene, Feb. 23.

Q. What can I do about certain signs of dryness in my face—fine lines appearing about my eyes, mouth, and on my forehead?

A. Procure some lanolin-rich dry-skin cream, and apply this carefully every night, and leave on for at least 20 minutes. Leaving a thin film underneath your makeup foundation is very good, too.

Q. How can I keep my arms and shoulders white-looking?

A. Rub a paste made of a few lumps of laundry starch and cold water on these areas. Let dry and stay on for a half-hour. Then rinse off with cold water.

Q. What exercise is good for reducing the abdomen?

A. One of the best is to sit on the floor with legs outstretched before you. Bend forward, grasp toes, keeping knees straight and stiff. Keep repeating this.

REAL ESTATE BOARD REPORT

Just went up to Mrs. Flowers and couldn't even find the place. We haven't been up there since Lee Hopson used to keep his race horse there. Mrs. Flowers has added a new roof, torn down all the fences and moved the barn away. Makes a completely different place out of it. We can expect a surprise out at the Luke's Grocery within the next few days... Luke's putting in a new modern store... and we are just wondering if he made the money to do this by selling groceries or by playing the fiddle. How about it Luke? Parker Brothers are just finishing up their string of lots up at the north end of J street. They only have one left. There are two new homes under construction there right now. The next addition to the town... we predict... is the opening of one more block on the north end of Star Street. I suppose it would be the County Commissioners' duty to do it but we have never seen a place that needs paving like the ambulance entrance to the County Hospital... why if Slat's Gilliland ever got in a hurry getting in there he would break the patients neck against the top of the Ambulance. I'm sure the paving and curb and gutter would not break the county and while we are griping... they should either deed the land east of the Hospital to the City who would include it in their park there or the county should put in their own sprinkling system. How many people go up to Shirley school after their kids? We have never seen a farm blow like the playground does there south and west of Shirley... It's a shame when only burmuda grass and water would stop it... we couldn't see the kids for the dirt. Gifford Hill... the concrete pipe manufacturers are just about as far behind as the West drills... all over the area there are more and more farms putting in underground systems. Wallace and Byrd... No open concrete dealers are working round the clock with their concrete ditch and just out 4 1/2 miles north of town on 51 we notice the Jacobsen brothers have installed a new type plastic ditch. All of these things add up to just one thing... Conservation of our underground water. Back to the Hospital... there has been a remarkable difference in the atmosphere there since 1947... nurses... doctors... The patients and everyone are more than friendly... thanks! Q. How can I soften dried shoe polish? A. A small quantity of turpentine added to dry shoe polish will soften it almost immediately. The misfortunes hardest to bear are those which never happen.

Club Reporters Hear C. Formby

Clint Formby was the guest speaker for the meeting of the reporters of the Deaf Smith county Home Demonstration clubs, Monday afternoon. He suggested that the women keep their news as simple and conversational as possible. Mrs. E. M. Cox was selected as secretary for the group. The next meeting will be held on April 9 and will be a training program. Those attending were: Mrs. Hardy Bason, Ford; Mrs. John Draper, South Hereford; Mrs. Johnnie Townsend, Westway; Mrs. Hailey Ward, Wyche; Mrs. C. F. Homfield, Bippus; Mrs. R. A. Fullwood, North Hereford; Mrs. E. M. Cox, West Hereford; Mrs. Otto Olson, North Hereford and Mrs. Tom Draper, CHDA.

An informal program of vocal and piano selections was presented by Nancy Patterson, Zelma Allman and Mrs. J. H. Hinds. Refreshments were served from a lace laid table which carried out the Valentine theme combined with the prospective bride's chosen colors of blue and white. Extending from the hearts and flowers centerpiece were blue satin

Q. How can I easily remove an obstinate cork? A. By first dipping a piece of woolen cloth into boiling water and wrapping about the neck of the bottle. In a few minutes the cork can be removed.

Q. How can I dry stockings quickly? A. A quick method of drying them is to wring them out as dry as possible and roll tightly in a Turkish towel for five minutes. Then hang in an airy place and they will dry very quickly.

Q. How can I paint on glass surfaces?

A. Be sure that the glass is absolutely clean of grease. This is accomplished by washing with benzine or alcohol. Allow to dry thoroughly before applying first coat of paint. A straight white lead-linseed oil paint containing some turpentine is a satisfactory first coat. Over this may be applied the desired color of paint.

Degree Level Is New Gadget For Accurate Work

ORANGE, Texas (AP)—A. A.

Rouse has done his level best to take the guesswork out of carpentry, electrical work, plumbing, bricklaying and a lot of other crafts. He says he's done it with the best level ever made.

Rouse, an Orange contractor, invented a degree level that a carpenter can use "360 ways." "It takes the guesswork out of carpentry," he said. "I'll give any degree on rafters and at the same time serve as a level."

He expects his new level to replace not only the old plumb type level in the craftsman's tool kit but a lot of other gadgets.

"It's a gravity-operated degree wheel," he explained. "It can be used like this." Rouse put the level atop a door jamb. "Now you see, you can read the angle right from where you're standing."

He took an old plumb level and lined it up along the door jamb. "What happens now?"

"You pull up a chair." He did. "You stand on top of it." He did.

"You break your neck trying to see if it's level." He craned but refrained from breaking his neck.

"Now take the plumber," he went on. "He has to lay a sewer line. With my tool he can lay every joint on the same angle. He won't need an instrument or a line to set the pipe. Just take the angle on each joint as it is laid and that's all there is to it. It'll come out right on the money."

"Take the electrician," he said. "He eliminates the guesswork of his conduit bends. He takes my degree level, checks the angle in the building, goes back to his conduit and bends it to the exact degree."

The bricklayer "won't have to build forms for arches any longer. Figure the degree of each brick, take my level and set each brick to level as he goes along. It's that simple."

"I could tell of a thousand examples," Rouse said. "There was the carpenter who asked, 'What will you do with lumber leaning up against a stack and needing an angle cut?'

"Simplest thing," said Rouse. "Check the angle the board is standing at, add to that the angle to cut, swing the level to that angle, mark it off and cut it. You don't have to pick up the lumber to lay it off with your level."

Rouse got the idea several years ago when he was erecting the main building at City Park. "We had a degree on the roof to lay brick," he recalled. "I spent half a day figuring the degree on a 40-foot span and never did get it. I guess that day cost me fifty dollars."

He went home and thought up the degree level and its gravity wheel. Five hours later that night Rouse had turned out his first model. On Jan. 1, 1952, it was patented. Right now a working model is being turned out by a Houston firm. Rouse expects to have the tool in production in February.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Each state is entitled to as many electors as it has senators and representatives.

Q. How can I clean a silk hat that is spotted with rain?

A. It will look nearly as new as before by shaking off as much of the water as possible, then rubbing with a clean linen or silk handkerchief, with the nap, until smooth. Hang in a room where there is no fire until dry; then brush with a soft brush.

Q. How can I stop a leak in a gas plate?

A. If you are using a gas plate with a tubing that leaks or smells, melt some paraffin wax and dip the leaky part into it, or dip it in all over. It will be as good as new. Painting metal gas hose with aluminum paint stops any leak and greatly prolongs its life.

Q. How can I soften and clean an alligator skin bag or shoes?

A. First brush off thoroughly with a soft brush or cloth; then rub well with one teaspoon of petroleum jelly mixed with six drops of glycerin. After it has set for half an hour, wipe off any surplus grease and polish with soft dry cloth. This prevents the leather from splitting.

Grain And Forage Crops Replace
Wheat, Cotton In 1953 Planning

COLLEGE STATION, Jan.—The 1953 production goals for spring-seeded crops in Texas reflect the need for more grain and forage crops and less cotton and wheat. If the goals are attained, says B. F. Vance, chairman of the state Agricultural Mobilization Committee, total agricultural production must continue at a high level and would equal or exceed last year's output.
The largest increase -- 92 percent -- is for grain sorghums for grain. The acreage goal is 5,150,000 acres, says Vance. The goal for all sorghums which includes those used for forage such as hay and silage and for grain has been raised 22 percent above last year's figure to 7,385,000 acres. The corn goal has been increased to 2,500,000 acres or nine percent above the 1952 acreage. The goal for tame or planted hay crops has been increased by 5 percent and stands at 1,400,000 acres.

These increases, points out Vance, are urgently needed to restore the depleted stocks of grain and roughage feeds because of the drought and reduced plantings in the state during the past two years. Unusually large quantities of hay have had to come from other states, says Vance, to help meet the demand for roughage feeds.
Texas producers of upland cotton are asked to reduce their acreage 14 percent below the July 1 acreage of last year. The 1953 goal, according to Vance, has been set at 9,945,800 acres. It is hoped that much of this reduced acreage will be planted to grain sorghums. Producers in the state of extra long staple cotton are asked to plant no more than 14,000 acres or a reduction of 59 percent from 1952 plantings. This type of cotton is produced in the Pecos-El Paso areas.
In commenting on the 1953

Slight Gains In Livestock Price

FORT WORTH — Slaughter steers and yearlings opened the week at Fort Worth with around 50 cents higher prices, making advances above the low time of the previous week fully $1 to $2. Cows sold 30 cents higher, or $1 above a week earlier. Calves and stocker and feeder classes revealed similar strength and some to better advantage. Bulls gained 50 cents.
Slaughter sheep and lambs ruled fully steady, lambs holding to the substantial advances of a week ago. Feeders also drew firm prices. Hog shipments were resumed following a weekend shutdown caused by a suspected case of VE appearing on the yards. The suspected vesicular exanthema hogs were destroyed and yards cleaned and disinfected. Demand for good hogs has been strong.

A feeling persisted around the Fort Worth stockyards that more orderly marketing of fed cattle and less bunching of shipments would be seen in the coming weeks and this should strengthen the market on those classes.
Good and choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $18 to $23.50 in most sales, just a few above that range. Common and medium slaughter kinds sold for $13 to $18 a few shelly kinds lower. Beef cows drew $13.50 to $16.00 and canners and cutters sold for $10 to $13.50. Bulls cashed at $10 to $17.50.
Good and choice slaughter calves drew $19 to $23 and common and medium slaughter grades sold for $13 to $18. Culls sold for $10 to $13. Good and choice stocker steers calves drew $18 to $23. Stocker steer yearlings sold mainly from $22 downward. Stocker cows cleared at $13 to $20.
Medium, good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $16 to $20, a few at $21. Shorn lambs cashed at $19.50 downward. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $13 to $16, some choice fleshy and fat shearing type lambs upwards to $19.50. Slaughter ewes sold from $6 to $8.50. Slaughter yearlings and older weathers sold mainly from $10 to $15, a few yearlings to $16.
Although no hogs arrived at Fort Worth for sale Monday because of the embargo, the markets were generally higher over the nation and top hogs were considered quotable in the $19.50 to $20 level.

Arkansas is the only member of the Southwest Conference that is subject to the rigors of regulation by the over tough North Central accrediting association, all the other league clubs belong to the softer Southern Association. . . . Wyatt has always been accorded to have an active and astute mind and why he would choose the current doormat team of a very tough league as his bounden duty to uplift, unless he does have the solution as to how and where to procure some ball-players, is hard to imagine. . . . Those Tennessee lads are omnipresent in the coaching ranks. . . . Wyatt at Laramie, succeeds Wyatt at Laramie. . . . If and when the Razorbacks get into contention in the SWC, you might design to recall these few another 2 pointer and then the Ags went into their act. For 2 1/2 minutes they walled that one point bulge by adroit ball handling, then again with 9 seconds to go, a designing Billiken blomed the ball handler and in doing so, erred grievously, 'cause the mistreated Rogers, with malice and aforethought, took dead aim and the St. Louisers, at one and the same time, by ramming both shots home. But even those remaining 4 seconds were fraught with fright, the Ags fouled the Bill's 6-7 Shockley, who with repeat m & a, plus an inserted Herrington, a 6-9 specimen, obviously intended to make the first gratis try and roll off the second for a lying tip in by this biggie. But the dinged thing clogged, on account Brer Shockley muffed the big first one and then, futilely, canned the second to write a 60-58 Okie Ag squeaker into the chronicle. My guess is, that the Ag adherents will get their hearts down out of their respective esophagae along about next Wednesday and return to normal, however that is pure conjecture and in reality, things may never be the same. For the two seasonal fears of Bill Alexander caught the Ags in 8 days duration. That wily old coach was convinced that in every sports team's season there were two contests that you were very lucky, indeed, to cop. In each term, he averred, there would be one game you couldn't win (on account your club was so lousy that time out) and one game the opposition couldn't lose (on account they were so hot). And his logic, derived through repeated factual occurrences, stands up, if you don't believe it, analyze even the most successful sports season record, the old boy "wuz right".

Cummings, Funk Win Tag Match

Bob Cummings and Dory Funk were declared winners over Ivan Kalmakoff and Buck Lipscomb in the tag-team bout at the Lions wrestling matches Saturday night, after the Kalmakoff-Lipscomb team tried every rough tactic in the book and then proceeded to make up a few of their own.

In the opening bout of the wrestling card Saturday night, Cummings, who hails from Hereford, and Lipscomb, who calls Eugene, Ore., home, fought it out in a 1-fall bout. Cummings took the match at the end of 15 minutes with a knee-action leg binder.

The second event of the evening was between Funk, of the Flying Mare Ranch, and Kalmakoff, of Russia. The match was declared no contest when both contestants got out in the aisles and started slugging it out. Kalmakoff was the first to leave the ring via the air express and Funk followed him into the crowd. The referee came out of the ring right behind them, but decided it was no use and called for the bell.

In the main event Cummings took the first fall from Ivan with his pet hold-a-knee-action leg binder in 10 minutes.

Kalmakoff didn't let that stop him, though. He came back and took the second fall in 7 minutes from Cummings with a top-body press.

When no one showed any signs of leaving the ring after the second fall the referee, Tiger Brown, called for the bell and let them go to it. Ten minutes later, Cummings and Funk were given the match when the other team was disqualified for roughness.

Shivers Reviews School Situation, Considers Plans For Raising Pay

BY ALLAN SHIVERS
Governor Of Texas

The crisis of our schools is that we need more teachers.

The crisis of our teachers is that they need more money.

The crisis of our State is that it must remain on a sound financial basis in these pressing times.

But, instead of setting a definite figure for a raise and then trying to find the money, I think we need to locate the money first.

That is the only way to operate on long-range principles that will be to the best interest of all Texas.

We cannot measure educational values solely in terms of dollars. At the same time, we have a limited number of dollars to translate into educational values. A dollar mispent means the lack of a dollar where it is needed.

My proposals for obtaining the money for increased teacher pay are: (1) transfer part of the available school fund, which goes to all districts on a strict per capita basis regardless of need, over to the Gilmer-Aikin minimum foundation fund, which guarantees a decent standard to the less prosperous schools, and (2) return to the original proportion of one local dollar for every three State Dollars of Gilmer-Aikin support.

That first suggestion, which I have already explained in detail, boils down to a switch of part of our State school money from one pocket to another. The pocket that pays for the Gilmer-Aikin program of State help to needy schools ought to have a little of the money from the pocket that shells out its contents to "haves" and "have nots" alike.

As for proposal number two—local support of the State aid program to public schools—it is both a matter of simple mathematics and a question of fundamental policy.

Mathematically, it is clear that nobody's money goes as far today as it did in 1949 when the Gilmer-Aikin concept was put into operation. Yet the total contributions of Texas school districts toward the minimum foundation program have remained exactly the same—$45 million—from year to year. This has left it up to the State to bear the rising expense of the Gilmer-Aikin plan.

If $45 million was a fair share for the local school districts in 1949, it is no longer a fair share. I feel that it would be fair for the local districts to continue to contribute at the original rate—25 per cent of the expense of the minimum foundation program.

Policy-wise, the districts need to pay their part as a means of insuring that local schools remain under the control of local people. As the State government paid more and more of the minimum foundation bill, it would be nationalizing more authority in the local schools. That would be an unwholesome situation, contrary to the independent traditions of Texas.

When we discuss the contributions of local school districts, one of the first questions to arise is the ability to pay. The Gilmer-Aikin plan includes an "economic index" formula designed to place the financial burden equitably.

This index takes into account elements like assessed valuation of property, school-age population, and local income. A few inequalities have become apparent because of disasters, droughts, and other economic factors in various parts of the State. But these can be corrected to a great extent by averaging experiences over periods of several years in order to compensate for unusual conditions.

The ability-to-pay idea should continue to be practiced in all phases of public school education in Texas.

The Texas Department of Education has made a study of 20 representative counties to see how the payment of one local dollar for every three State dollars toward the Gilmer-Aikin fund would affect the average community. Briefly, the conclusion was that the local people can pay 25 per cent of the minimum foundation program cost just as easily NOW as they could in 1949 when it was started. That is because of higher incomes and the increased value of property. For example, total county assessed valuations

Underground Water Regulations Are Reviewed, Area Committees Listed

LUBBOCK, Texas—A simple letter-size application blank, free to everyone, is getting lots of attention this week among actual and prospective water well owners in the 13-county High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, in West Texas. It is the new "Application for Water Well Permit" effective February 1. Approval of these applications by local county committees is the basis for regulation of water well spacing in the 13 affected counties.

These free forms may be obtained from four handy sources: (1) county committeemen, (2) county agents, (3) pump companies, or (4) water well drillers. Completed blanks are to be filled out in triplicate and submitted to the five-member county committee for action. Approval by three of the five-member committee is the "go ahead" sign to start drilling.

New county committeemen, elected January 13 by resident taxpaying voters in Armstrong, Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Parmer, Potter, and Randall counties, are now setting up county offices. These are generally located in county agents' or Farm Bureau offices.

Committeemen are acting as fast as possible to keep abreast of the current rush for drilling approval. When this rush slackens off, they will meet weekly to process later applications. Information on how to fill out application blanks may be secured from committee headquarters, 1110 Lubbock National Bank Building, Lubbock, Texas.

According to Mr. T. J. McFarland, manager of the High Plains Water Conservation District No. 1, this whole plan is aimed at benefiting the individual well owner. He observes, "Wells too close together hurt the owner, his neighbors, and sometimes

- affect the entire community. This program permits spacing regulations to vary according to the problems of different counties. This seems to be the best way to protect everyone's interests."
- The names of the County Committees for each of the 13 counties are listed below:

Clifford Stevens, Happy Melton McGehee, Wayside H. T. Duke, Route 1, Happy B. Heisler, Wayside D. K. McGehee, Canyon

in Texas in 1948 were about $6 billion. The 1952 valuations were $8.4 billion.

The below-average districts that really can't stand more expense would not be assessed any higher payments.

Over-all, however, the total contributions of the school districts of Texas must be raised if we are to give our teachers better pay without increasing State taxes.

Public school financing, over and above the once-small per capita State aid, was originally a burden on the local district. The State has contributed more year by year, until now the annual cost of "equalization aid" is approaching the $175 million mark. Only by a proper balance between State aid and local support can we hope to continue both and to keep control of our public schools at home, where it belongs.

Howling Buffalo Is In The WACs

FORT SAM HOUSTON (AP)—The Army believes Pvt. Carrie Howling Buffalo is the first WAC to come from the Cheyenne-Arapaho Indian Reservation in Oklahoma.

She is an operating room technician student at the Medical Field Service School here.

Pvt. Howling Buffalo also answers to the name of Singing Pines, if you'd rather call her that than Carrie.

Many of her relatives have adopted the more ordinary name of Lincoln. But the young WAC is proud of her ancestral name.

While in basic training at Fort Lee, Va., she was selected for medical service training.

She stopped at her home for a visit en route to the school, and the tribe danced in her honor.

Singing Pines was the first woman ever to be honored by a tribal dance. It's a ceremony usually reserved for male warriors.

CONG. WALTER ROGERS REPORTS:

Formosa Question Is Reviewed By Panhandle Congressman This Week

THE FORMOSA QUESTION: Many news articles and columns have been written and many words have been spoken over radio and television in an attempt to analyze the statement of the President that he was issuing a directive withdrawing the 7th Fleet from its present assignment between the island of Formosa and the Red China coast. Many of them have concluded that the end result will be an attack on the Red China coast by the Chinese Nationalist forces. As all of you know, I have long been a strong advocate of a policy of employing the Chinese Nationalist forces to the utmost of their abilities and to increase as much as possible their potentialities for operations against the Red legions. I sincerely hope that the forces of Chiang Kai-shek can mount a major onslaught in the nature of an invasion force against Red China. However, I doubt that under the present circumstances such result will be realized within the near future unless a tremendous amount of aid is furnished by United States naval and ground forces. The chances for a successful invasion by the Chinese Nationalist forces would have been much better had such invasion attack been a surprise attack. Many people here are wondering why advance notice should be given to the Red forces as to possible or probable military movements of the UN forces. Certainly the Red Chinese would lose no time in setting up a formidable defense against a possible invasion force if they are given advance notice as to the general locality in which such invasion might be attempted. The setting up of such defense would require less manpower and less withdrawal of troops from Korea than would be necessary if the Reds were forced to defend against a surprise attack. If the Reds are going to be informed in advance of the possible or probable strikes of the UN forces, their need for espionage service will be reduced to a minimum. There have been suspicions that the Red forces have been obtaining vital information on troop movements through their member of the UN, towit, Russia. The recent uncovering of personnel in the UN with definite Red leanings would indicate that there might be some basis for some of the suspicions. I recently called upon the State Department for an explanation of certain charges made in a magazine article to the effect that troop movements in Korea were being cleared through a division of the UN in which one Constantine Zinchenko, a Soviet citizen, occupied an important desk. The State Department advised me that such was not the case and that the United States is in control of the actual conduct of operations in Korea in accordance with the general United Nations' principles and objectives; and further that the United States Government has not cleared and does not clear any proposed military movements or any directions to the troops with any organ of the United Nations or any person on its Secretariat. My question to the State Department and the State Department's answer received wide publicity and headlines in a number of Eastern papers. The matter was also treated in a Paris, France, newspaper, a clipping of which was recently forwarded to me by some friends of mine in the Canary Islands.

THE TWO BILLS THAT PASSED THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON FEBRUARY 3RD: As most of you already know, the House passed and sent to the Senate the bill extending the Reorganization Act and giving President Eisenhower the same powers of reorganization that were held by the former President. These were the powers requested by the President and about which I wrote in the newsletter last week. After much wrangling on the Floor between the two factions on the Republican side of the Aisle, the several amendments were offered and defeated. The bill was then passed in the form requested by President Eisenhower by an overwhelming majority, as it should have been. Although I question the basic constitutionality of permitting the Executive Branch to legislate, as I pointed out last week, the new President is entitled to have the full support and cooperation of the Congress in carrying out the wishes of the American people. The other bill that passed the House was requested by Secretary of State Dulles. It created a new Under Secretary of State at a salary of $17,500 per year. The new Congressman at Large from Texas, the Honorable Martin Dies, offered an amendment to this bill reducing the salary to the same figure as the salary received by Senators and Congressmen. He made a very able presentation of this amendment and pointed out,
