Parties Against Gandhi

NEW DELHI, India (AP) - Four parties opposed to Prime Minister Indira Gandhi have formed a united front and say they will run a single slate of candidates in the March parliamentary elections.

"We hope to win a thumping majority, not just a small majority," said former Deputy Prime Minister Morarji Desai in announcing formation of the new Janta People's party Thursday.

The coalition is made up of the Socialists, Desai's Opposition Congress, the Indian People's party and the Hindu nationalist Jana Sangh.

3 Cabinet Members Missing

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Carter will begin work without three of his Cabinet nominees who have to wait at least until next week to take office.

A few hours after Carter took the oath of office on the Capitol steps Thursday, the Senate confirmed by voice vote eight of his Cabinet choices and two nominees for top economic posts.

But several Republican senators demanded more time for debate and roll-call votes on the nominations of Joseph C. Califano Jr. to be secretary of health, education and welfare, Griffin B. Bell to be attorney general and F. Ray Marshall to be secretary of labor.

Loans, Law Conflict

AUSTIN (AP) - The legislature would have to change the law for the state to insure college student loans, says Atty. Gen. John Hill.

Hill responded to an inquiry by Commissioner Kenneth Ashworth of the College Coordinating Board, who asked whether the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund might be used as a reserve fund for insuring loans.

Ashworth said since 1971 loans from the fund have been insured by the federal government, but Congress has revised the program to provide incentives for states to insure loans, with the federal government offering to reinsure the

Blast Kills Two Students

PITTSBURGH (AP) - When Bernie Payne rushed from a nearby classroom and saw the twisted rubble that seconds before he had been a University of Pittsburgh lecture hall, he thought of his fellow students and said, "My God, I hope there wasn't a lot in there."

There weren't, but two of the 20 or so people inside - early arrivals for a lecture - were killed when an explosion destroyed the science hall auditorium Thursday. Dozens more were injured.

Had the blast come 20 minutes later, the auditorium would have been filled with 150 students.

Stock Market Does Well

NEW YORK (AP) - Though he served in a time of stubborn economic problems, the stock market did very nicely in the 29-month presidency of Gerald Ford.

At noon on Aug. 9, 1974, when Ford was sworn in to succeed Richard Nixon, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks stood at 777.77. At noon Thursday, when Jimmy Carter took the oath of office, the average was at 967.09.

Thus, the Dow - best-known measure of stock price trends - posted a 24.3 per cent gain during Ford's administration, a 10 1/2 per cent annual advance that slightly outstripped the 9 per cent a year increase the market has shown in long-term studies of the 20th century.

Police Solve J.C. Penny Store Burglary With Arrest

The Hereford Police Department officially solved a recent major burglary here with the arrest of a local resident early Thursday. It may result in the solution of several other crimes committed in Hereford and nearby towns.

Police Captain Ray Morgan said that Jose Ramirez Villarreal, 26, a Mexican male living parttime at 315 Ave. E., was taken into custody as a suspect at about 1:20 a.m. Thursday. He was formally arrested later that morning and booked into the Deaf Smith County jail on a felony charge of burglary of a business at night.

Villarreal was arraigned before Deaf Smith County Justice of the Peace Glen Nelson this morning and his bond was set at $5000 on the burglary charge.

He is also expected to be charged with the burglary of a number of guns and cameras from Gibsons Discount Center in Friona.

Villarreal was charged with the burglary on Jan. 4 of the J.C. Penny store located in Sugarland Mall. Apparently the charged man entered the store through a front display window which was broken.

An extensive investigation has been conducted ever since with patrolman Joe Brown coordinating much of the work. The arrest was made by Brown and chief of Police Don Brush.

Merchandise taken in the burglary was estimated at a value of $2,600. It included mens pants, shirts, coats, ties, suits, boys shirts and pants. Also taken were surfboards, albums, tapes, and several watches. Some of the merchandise recovered by police this week included items taken in a recent burglary of the Gibson's store in Friona.

A warrant from Friona law enforcement officials is expected to be issued soon in that crime. Morgan said that a recent house burglary here may also have been committed by Villarreal although it is not yet a part of the formal charge.

Police were helped out in their investigation when an informant called identifying the suspect. Villarreal lives half of the time with relatives at the above residence and lists an apartment in Amarillo as his official home.

The suspect will be questioned concerning other burglaries, police confirmed.

Investigation into the $23,000 antique burglaries Monday from the Aaron Hutto residence on Country Club Drive is still continuing although no definite suspects have been revealed as yet.

Joe Griffith

Humorist To Highlight Sugar Beet Banquet

Dallas humorist Joe Griffith will head a slate of speakers at the annual Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association banquet tomorrow (Saturday) night at the Bull Barn.

THE BANQUET is scheduled to get underway at 7 p.m. Tickets for the event are still available at both city banks and the Chamber of Commerce, or they may be purchased at the door tomorrow night at a cost of $5 each.

Agriculture Council of America Chairman elect Dale Hendricks and Holly Sugar Corporation President John Bunker will be other speakers on the banquet program.

One of the highlights of the annual banquet is the naming of the year's top sugar beet producer. The recipient of that award will be recognized Saturday night.

Griffith features take offs on his various experiences as a stockbroker, bank director, pilot, night club and USO entertainer, television newscaster and Naval Air Intelligence team member in his humorous presentations.

HE HAS ALSO been in movies and over 100 commercials.

A graduate of East Texas State University and the New York Institute of Finance, Griffith is active in Big Brothers of America.

Beet growers, landlords and all interested persons are invited to attend the grower's banquet.

Tools Taken At High School

City police are currently investigating the theft of some tools from the workshop at Hereford High School.

The tools were apparently stolen Thursday when a rear window of the workshop was broken to gain entry.

Officers are also checking into a possible theft at First Realty at 1005 West Park Avenue.

The back door at the firm was apparently left unlocked and a calculator valued at $30 was reported missing.

New President Opens White House To Fellow Outsiders, Friends

BY LEE BYRD
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - The keys finally his, Jimmy Carter opened the White House today to the once-fellow outsiders who helped put him there, a triumph celebrated in hopes that their "joy and friendship and caring for each other" would sustain the Republic for the next four years.

After a rigorous inaugural day highlighted by a remarkable walk in the first light of his presidency, and the traditional waltzes on the first night of it, the 39th chief executive settled back today to welcome friends and top appointees to his new home.

The President's schedule officially listed only four items, all receptions. The first, at 10 a.m., was for the men and women who had entertained him at their own homes during his long political quest.

Then, in succession, came meetings with his Cabinet and governors, with party officials and labor and business leaders and, finally in late afternoon, with the Georgia congressional delegation.

Thursday night, Carter and his wife Rosalynn climaxed the inaugural day with a rapid-fire tour of seven parties spread throughout the city of four hotels, the railroad station, a government building and an armory. Each was jammed with thousands of persons, all of whom paid $25 to get in, a bargain price as inaugural balls go.

Bridge Benefit
Winners

Top winners at an Oldham County Country Club bridge benefit held Thursday night were Mrs. Billie Hodges and Mrs. George Doshier, left, second place, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover of Hereford, first place. The Oldham County CC event drew 12 tables of players, and Vega area merchants provided prizes for the benefit party.

Recovered Merchandise

Hereford Police captain Ray Morgan, right, and officer Joe Brown inspect merchandise recovered from the J.C. Penny store burglary here earlier this month. A local man was arrested for the felony offense Thursday morning. Some of the merchandise including clothing, cameras, a rifle, watches and suitcases, came from a burglary of the Gibson's store in Friona. The arrest may even clear up other offenses in the area. St. Anthony's To Host Week Of Prayer Service

The annual worship service in recognition of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church with most area ministers participating.

It is part of the Jan. 18-25 week celebrating a world wide observance designed to bring together Christians in a common goal of peace and religious commitment among numerous diverse peoples.

The Hereford Ministerial Association is sponsoring the service which is one of two activities held community wide this week. The other was a luncheon held at the First Christian Church Wednesday.

At the service, the Hereford Chamber Singers will lead hymns as well as perform selected numbers. Pastors of different churches will lead the order of worship.

Rev. Bernard McGorry will deliver the opening prayers followed by a scripture reading by Rev. Jesse Hodge, pastor of the Wesley United Methodist Church. Another reading will be given by Mrs. Meredith Wilcox, president of Church Women United.

Rev. Jack McCarter, pastor of First Christian Church, will deliver the Homily. Rev. George Belford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will give the First Presbyterian Church, will give the prayers of Christian Unity; and Rev. C.W. Allen, pastor of St. Johns Baptist Church, will say the closing prayer.

The area pastors have extended an invitation to the service to members of all local churches.

Monthly Sales Tax Check Mailed To City Officials

A sales tax for January totaling $24,157.72 was mailed to Hereford by the State Comptroller Bob Bullock as of this week. It represents a part of the $23.2 million mailed to 620 Texas cities and towns.

For Hereford, the state collected $25,882.76 in taxes for the periods allocation in January. Of this, a $517.66 two per cent state service fee was subtracted and a 4.76 per cent retained amount was deducted for processing purposes.

Amounts received by other area towns are as follows: Friona, $2,230.36; Dimmitt, $14,861.12; Canyon, $10,636.79; and Vega, $602.50. Adrian did not receive payments since their period allocation net payment was less than $500 and therefore it is paid quarterly. Taxes collected for Adrian in January amounted to $199.26.

Bullock reminds quarterly sales tax filers that Jan. 31 is the deadline for their returns.

The January checks raise to $152.8 million the total in rebates received by the cities for the current fiscal year, compared to $115.3 million for the same five-month period a year ago. This is a 32.5 per cent increase.

The rebate checks, which are mailed monthly to the cities, are for the one cent city sales tax collected within their boundaries.

"State and city sales tax collections were up more than 16 per cent for fiscal 1976 and the indications are now that the increase will go even higher this year," Bullock said.

"It's always a good sign for the economy when the people have and spend more money."

Bullock also reminded those businesses which file their sales tax returns on a quarterly basis that they must have those returns in the mail no later than Jan. 31 to avoid possible penalties.

He noted that some $172,000 businesses which collect less than $750 a month in sales taxes file their sales tax returns and collections on a quarterly rather than a monthly basis.

Bullock said that anyone having any problems with preparing those returns should contact the nearest Comptroller's field office or call his toll-free Tax Information number, 1-800-252-5555, for assistance.

TV Dialogue

STAR BUCKS -- How much, if any, money did the stars win on The Battle of the Network Stars? Also, why weren't Paul Michael Glaser and David Soul on? You'd think they'd be asked since the show is popular and it would be good publicity. TIP KLEIN, Argusville, N.D. There was some decent money involved -- the winners walked away with $20,000 and a few aches, while the losers were consoled with $15,000. I also see you've figured out the workings of a publicist's mind. ABC would have loved to have had the intrepid duo on their side, only Glaser and Soul turned the producers down.

OSCAR'S BID -- How many times was Gig Young nominated for an Academy Award, and did he ever win? I say yes he won, but my husband refuses to believe me. J.R., Rosville, Ga.

I don't know why your husband refuses to believe you, but he should. Young received his first Oscar nomination in 1951 for his performance in "Come Fill the Cup." His second nomination was for "Teacher's Pet," starring Clark Gable and Doris Day. Finally, in 1969 he won the coveted statue for best supporting actor in "They Shoot Horses, Don't They?"

WHERE'S JULIE? -- Tell me what happened to Peggy Lipton who played Julie in the "Mod Squad" after the show was taken off the air? M.B. Paterson, N.J. Among other things, she married musician Quincy Jones and has had two children.

Those With Money Decide Not To Work In Local Area

In Deaf Smith County, as well as in most other sections of the country, a significant portion of the male population over age 16 is, by choice, not going to school, not working and not intending to work.

For the most part, they are able-bodied men who have sufficient sources of income or adequate financial backing to enable them to get along without working, many of them at a comparatively young age. Also among them are people who are unable to work because of poor health.

In this non-work category, based upon the latest figures from the Department of Labor and the Department of Commerce, are an estimated 570 local residents. Included are some 280 who are between 16 and 65 and 290 who are over 65. They represent 9.8 per cent of Deaf Smith County's over-16 male population. Elsewhere in the country, the non-workers comprise 14.9 per cent of the total.

The majority of them are retired persons who have accumulated sufficient resources, through savings, pensions and the like, to enable them to lead lives of leisure.

There are others, of course, who are able-bodied but not self-supporting, who are not looking for work and not wanting it. They represent a small fraction of the total.

however. Nationally, in the over-16 male population, there are some 15 million in this non-school, non-work group, an increase of about 2 million since 1970.

Much of it is attributed to the fact that more men are quitting their jobs when they reach retirement age. Only about one out of five continues working after 65, according to the latest Commerce Department findings.

Of Deaf Smith County's male population over 65, approximately 47.9 per cent are still in the labor force.

What has been making retirement possible for many more people, often before reaching that age, is the rapid expansion in recent years of private and public pension programs and of Social Security.

In addition, some have other sources of funds available to them, such as interest on savings, dividends from investments, life insurance annuities, veterans benefits and the like.

Landers Named To Dean's Roll

Gary Landers, a Wayland Baptist College Sophomore, has been placed on the Dean's Honor Roll for the period September 1-December 17. It's located in Plainview.

Dr. Kyle Perrin, academic dean of the four-year Christian liberal arts college in the Texas Panhandle, said the position was earned with a 4.00 grade point average. "Announcement is made at mid-semester and at the end of the semester of those students who have carried at least 12 semester hours of academic subjects and have made an average of 3.5, or above."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Landers, Route 1105 Higgins Street, Hereford, Tx.

Landers is a member of an unique student body in a college which has been obviously unique from her founding in 1908, said Wayland President Dr. Roy C. McClung. "Wayland's very survival of the first 25 years as evidenced by her early intergration of the races, early international student emphasis, women's sports (Wayland is home of the popular women cagers, the Flying Queens), calendar innovations, interinsti-tutional cooperation, vocational and career offerings, budgetary stability, and outstanding achievements by graduates and former students."

Dr. McClung, now completing his 14th year as chief executive officer, points with pride to the students, faculty and administration of today who sense a yet more significant role for Wayland. "Wayland aspires to be a center for the intelligent exploration and initiation of new ideas in the spread of constructive influences upon community and national life."

BIRMINGHAM MAN IS 'BELLMAN OF YEAR'

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — "If you see someone without a smile, give him one of yours." That's the slogan of Jim Carr, winner of the 11th annual "bellman-bellwoman of the year" award, presented here recently.

Carr, 51, was chosen by judges Henry E. Bradshaw, president of the Society of American Travel Writers, Richard P. Friese, publisher of a travel magazine, and tennis star Evonne Goolagong. There were nearly 1,000 bellmen and bellwomen nominated by the hotels and motels where they work.

Carr is bell captain at the Birmingham Hyatt House in Alabama. His son, Brett, 18, is a bellman on his staff. An older son, Jim Jr., also worked for him parttime while attending college.

The award, of money, luggage and plane tickets, is given by the American Hotel and Motel Association, Samsonte Luggage and Delta Air Lines.

U.S. Coast Guard Awards Search Aircraft Project

The U.S. Coast Guard has announced that Falcon Jet Corporation of Teterboro, New Jersey has been awarded a multi-million dollar contract to construct 41 new medium range search aircraft. The contract totals $204,846,291 and includes the construction and documentation of the aircraft, crew training, and a computerized maintenance system.

The new search aircraft will be fitted with fuel-efficient fan jet engines manufactured by the Garrett Corporation of Phoenix, Arizona. Collins Radio of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, division of Rockwell International, will supply a sophisticated avionics package designed to provide the aircraft with the latest in communication and navigational equipment. Airframe components, manufactured in France, will be sent to the United States for assembly and modification at the Falcon Jet facility in Little Rock, Arkansas. Delivery of the first plant is scheduled for June of 1979.

The new fan jet aircraft will replace the aging fleet of Grumman HU16E "Albatross" twin-engined aircraft, many of which have been in Coast Guard service for over 20 years. The Coast Guard is now using the Grumman HU16E's at Air Stations in: San Francisco, California; Corpus Christi, Texas; Mobile, Alabama; Miami, Florida; Cape Cod, Massachusetts; and Taverse City, Michigan.

The primary duties of the new Falcon fan jet aircraft will be search and rescue, marine environmental protection through pollution surveillance, and law enforcement patrols of U.S. territorial waters and the new 200-mile Fisheries Conservation Zone. All of the new aircraft will be capable of carrying infrared and ultraviolet sensor systems that can detect an oil slick as small as 50 feet square from an altitude of 5,000 feet.

David McKendree Key (1824-1900) of Tennessee, Postmaster General in President Hayes' cabinet from 1877 to 1880, was the first former Confederate officer to serve in the federal cabinet. Key was a lieutenant colonel in the Confederate army.

Cortez Goes To White's Auto Meet

Tony Cortez, manager of the White's Auto Store in Hereford, attended the semi-annual company merchandise show held at the Dallas Hilton, Dallas, Texas January 16-18.

Highlighting the show was the introduction of the new lawn and garden lines, and the new brand name program featuring major appliances. White's dealers will now be able to offer Kelvinator, Speed Queen, and B.F. Goodrich, C.B. Radios, and White tires. Top salespeople from the companies presented material on the selling advantages of their products during these informative clinics. Counseling sessions on advertising, credit and the new M.S.I. ordering system were also available.

White's is a chain of more than 650 retail and franchise outlets spanning the southern seaboard from Arizona to Florida and ranging upward into Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia.

items in the well rounded blend of housewares, automotive, sporting good, toys, hardware, tires, giftware, and electronics offered by White's.

Obituary

MRS. OLIVE RECTOR

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. today in United Methodist Church at Friona for a longtime resident of that community. Mrs. Olive Rector, 78, The Rev. Bobby McMillan, pastor, and Dr. Dewitt Seago, chaplain of King's Manor Retirement Home, will officiate.

Burial will be in Friona Cemetery by Parsons-Ellis Funeral Home.

Mrs. Rector died Tuesday, the day before her 79th birthday, of an apparent heart attack. She was the mother of Mrs. Clara Trowbridge, 849 Irving.

Mrs. Rector was born in Illinois and had lived at Friona 41 years. She was a lifelong member of the Methodist Church and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. She was the widow of Foister Rector, who died in 1968.

Survivors include two sons, Floyd and Lloyd, both of Friona; two daughters, Mrs. Neoma Oldham of Eules and Mrs. Trowbridge of Hereford; three sisters, Mrs. Nola Adams of Friona, Mrs. Gertrude Elliott of Cortez, Colo., and Mrs. Lauretta Brookfield of Friona; four brothers, F.O. Griffith, Jim Griffith and Paul Griffith, all of Friona, and Tom Griffith of Bovina; 15 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

THE "POWERS THAT BE" ARE IN NEED OF YOUR PRAYERS

he governments of free nations are chosen by their citizens not to rule but to serve; to uphold existing laws, and to use their best collective judgment in the passage of good new laws and the prevention of bad ones. Governments periodically change hands; but whether they do or not the process continues, and the men and women responsible for it strive to do the best job of which they are capable, with the help of God and the cooperation of the citizens in making their wishes known. Your government needs your help, and you can best provide it by attending the Church of your choice regularly and praying for God's guidance to insure the wisdom and good judgment of your chosen leaders. Remember that your own success depends largely on theirs.

"The powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil."
—Romans 13:1,2,3

Governments are a recognized necessity...and their existence is manifestly in accordance with the divine will.

Carter Offers Renewed Hope For Nation

WASHINGTON (AP) - Here is a text of President Carter's inaugural address:

For myself and our nation, I want to thank my predecessor for all he has done to heal our land.

In this outward and physical ceremony we attest once again to the inner and spiritual strength of our nation.

As my high school teacher, Miss Julia Coleman, used to say, "We must adjust to changing times and still hold to unchanging principles."

Here before me is the Bible used in the inauguration of our first President in 1789, and I have just taken my own oath of office on the bible my mother gave me a few years ago, opened to a timeless admonition from the ancient prophet Micah: "He hath showed thee, o man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God." Micah 6:8

This inauguration ceremony marks a new beginning, a new dedication within our government, and a new spirit among us all. A President may sense and proclaim that new spirit, but only a people can provide it.

Two centuries ago our nation's birth was a milestone in the longest quest for freedom, but the bold and brilliant dream which excited the founder of our nation still awaits its consummation. I have no new dream to set forth today, but rather urge a fresh faith in the old dream.

Ours was the first society openly to define itself in terms of both spiritually and of human liberty. It is that unique self definition which has given us an exceptional appeal - but it also imposes on us a special obligation - to take on those moral duties which, when assumed, seem invariably to be in our own best interests.

You have given me a great responsibility - to stay close to you, to be worthy of you, and to exemplify what you are. Let us create together a new national spirit of unity and trust. Your strength can compensate for my weakness, and your wisdom can help to minimize my mistakes.

Let us learn together and laugh together and work together and pray together, confident that in the end we will triumph together in the right.

The American dream endures. We must once again have full faith in our country - and in one another. I believe America can be better. We can be stronger than before.

Let our recent mistakes bring a resurgent commitment to the basic principles of our nation, for we know that if we despise our own government we have no future. We recall in special times when we have stood briefly, but magnificently, united; in those times no prize was beyond our grasp.

But we cannot dwell upon remembered glory. We cannot afford to drift. We reject the prospect of failure or mediocrity or an inferior quality of life for any person.

Our government must at the same time be both competent and compassionate.

We have already found a high degree of personal liberty, and we are not struggling to enhance equality of opportunity. Our commitment to human rights must be absolute, our laws fair, our natural beauty preserved; the powerful must not persecute the weak, and human dignity must be enhanced.

We have learned that "more" is not necessarily "better", that even our great nation has its recognized limits, and that we can neither answer all questions nor solve all problems. We cannot afford to do everything, nor can we afford to lack boldness as we meet the future. So together, in a spirit of individual sacrifice for the common good, we must simply do our best.

Our nation can be strong abroad only if it is strong at home, and we know that the best way to enhance freedom in other lands is to demonstrate here that our democratic system is worthy of emulation.

To be true to ourselves, we must be true to others. We will not behave in foreign places so as to violate our rules and standards here at home, for we know that the trust which our nation earns is essential to its strength.

The world itself is now dominated by a new spirit. Peoples more numerous and more politically aware are craving and now demanding their place in the sun - not just for the benefit of their own physical conditions, but for basic human rights.

The passion for freedom is on the rise. Tapping this new spirit, there can be no nobler nor more ambitious task for America to undertake on this day of a new beginning than to help shape a just and peaceful world that is truly humane.

We are a strong nation and we will maintain strength so sufficient that it need not be proven in combat - a quiet strength based not merely on the size of an arsenal, but on the nobility of ideas.

We will be ever vigilant and never vulnerable, and we will fight our wars against poverty, ignorance and injustice; for those are the enemies against which our forces can be honorably marshalled.

We are a proud idealistic nation, but let no one confuse our idealism with weakness.

Because we are free we can never be indifferent to the fate of freedom elsewhere. Our moral sense dictates a clearcut preference for those societies which share with us abiding respect for individual human rights. We do not seek to intimidate, but it is clear that the world which others can dominate with impunity would be inhospitable to decency and a threat to the well-being of all people.

The world is still engaged in a massive armaments race designed to insure continuing equivalent strength among potential adversaries. We pledge perseverance and wisdom in our efforts to limit the world's armaments to those necessary for each nation's own domestic safety. We will move this year a step toward our ultimate goal - the elimination of all nuclear weapons from this earth.

We urge all other people to join us, for success can mean life instead of death.

Within us, the people of the United States, there is evident a serious and purposeful rekindling of confidence, and I join in the hope that when my time as your President has ended, people might say this about our nation:

That we had remembered the words of Micah and renewed our search for humility, mercy and justice;

That we had torn down the barriers that separated those of different race and region and religion, and where there had been mistrust, built unity, with a respect for diversity;

That we had found productive work for those able to perform it;

That we had strengthened the American family, which is the basis of our society;

That we had ensured respect for the law, and equal treatment under the law, for the weak and the powerful, the rich and the poor;

And that we had enabled our people to be proud of their own government once again.

I would hope that the nations of the world might say that we

Museum Tax Exemption Rules Set

Members of the Texas Historical Commission approved criteria for recognizing museums recently to help the state's over 300 museums qualify for exemption from the Texas "Limited Sales Excise and Use Tax."

The criteria were approved in response to a recent ruling by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts that a museum may be eligible for tax exemption if the institution is, among other things, "recognized as a museum by the Texas Historical Commission."

Museums must also qualify for an exemption from certain federal income taxes and must submit the necessary application to the Sales Tax Division of the State Comptroller's Department requesting the exemption.

The museum definition adopted by the Texas Historical Commission states:

A museum is an organized and permanent nonprofit institution, chartered by the Secretary of the State with an exemption from the Federal Income Tax under I.R.C. 501(c)(3) or established by the State or a governmental subdivision of the State, such as a city or county funded museum, essentially educational in purpose, which owns or utilizes tangible objects, cares for them and exhibits them to the public on some regular schedule.

There are not just my goals, but our common hopes. And they will not be my accomplishments, but the affirmation of our nation's continuing moral strength and our belief in an undiminished, ever-expanding American dream.

Comptroller Finds Fund Shortage

LAREDO (AP) - A state comptroller's audit of Webb County vehicle registrations indicates a possible shortage of $250,000 owed to the state for tax collected on automobile sales, a county official said Thursday.

Dist. Atty. Charles Borchers said he is investigating the shortage.

"From a criminal standpoint, I have definite ideas," Borchers said in a telephone interview. He would not elaborate.

Borchers said he had been briefed on the audit results by officials in the state comptroller's office in Austin.

The audit showed that registration receipts apparently were sent by Webb County to the Texas Highway Department in Austin so a title could be issued to the new owner of a vehicle.

The county also must collect sales tax on vehicle sales.

However, Borchers said, a copy of the receipt, showing the amount of sales tax collected on the transaction by the county, apparently was not sent to the state comptroller's office. Nor was the collected sales tax ever forwarded to the comptroller, he said.

Borchers said estimates are that 2,400 to 2,500 individual receipts were never sent to the state comptroller's office during 1976. Based on the average tax per transaction, the missing receipts would be worth about $250,000, he said.

Borchers also said the missing receipts would indicate a shortage of about $13,000 to the county, since the county receives a percentage of the tax collected.

Borchers said the comptroller's office is now obtaining from the highway department copies of the receipts which were not sent to the comptroller's office.

Borchers said the comptroller's office began the audit of Webb County registrations after it noticed a decline in collections and a difference in the number of new titles issued by the highway department and the number of receipts sent to the comptroller.
