A farmer plows a fire line around a house with his disc at left as one of a number of firetrucks on hand to fight a massive grassfire near the Westway community yesterday is shown in the background. Several farmers pressed their tractors into service to assist firemen in battling the fire, which covered an area of nearly three miles. At top, a fireman plays water on a burning haystack near the Johnny Jesko farm in an effort to prevent the spread of flames to nearby buildings. At right, a Hereford fireman extinguishes a small blaze at the edge of the Westway community as the truck moves rapidly, snuffing out small fires. [Photos By Jim Steiert]

THERE'S NO question as to what the main topic of conversation was around Hereford Tuesday. The sandstorm not only brought up conversations as to what was happening at the moment, it stirred up tales of all the bad dusters over the years. And, this one was a dilly!

The sandstorm served as a nostalgic reminder of this writer's childhood days in Lamesa. I don't recall every being any place where the sandstorms topped those we used to have around Lamesa and Seminole. I still remember donning my aviator's cap, pulling down the goggles and heading for school. With the lights turned on because of the dust-laden skies, you had the eerie feeling that classes were being held at night.

I recall, too, as a young married man that I once took a shovel to remove the sand from around the kitchen door. The little three-room house had too many cracks and crevices where the sand piled up in surprising quanity. If the environmentalists has been around in those days, it would have been illegal to live in Lamesa!

But, in case any Yankees read this report, we still wouldn't trade places. The good days outnumber the bad by a wide margin, and we'll take a little dust, and occasional tornado, anytime, in comparison to ice and snow, floods and typhoons. Because of our clear, beautiful weather, we need a little sand in our craws every

Dean Stallings, overall director of the local Heart Association campaign, announced yesterday that the fund drive will be winding up this week. Stallings expressed pleasure over the fact that the local goal of $10,000 has already been surpassed and several sectors have not yet reported recent contributions. The drive will be wrapped up this week with volunteers contacting the city's remaining residences and businesses.

A rough estimate of $2,400 was the tabulation of donations received on Heart Sunday this past weekend in door-to-door collections. Marie Griffin was chairman of the residential campaign and expressed gratitude to contributors and to more than 300 volunteers who canvassed the community A major portion of the successful goal was due to the $3,000 gleaned from Hereford's first Heart Ball on Jan. 28. Directing this dinner- dance was Jerome Friemel. Other contributing sectors were rural donations which were collected under the direction of Virgil Slentz. A weighty

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) - The menace of flames sweeping across arid brush and timber in dust-dry northern California this year may be the worst in half a century, forestry officials warn.

The danger grows as the lack of rain or snow and the rapidly sinking ground water level create thousands of acres of grass and trees just walting for a spark to set them ablaze.

Once the fires start, the lack of water will make it far harder to stop them.

High Winds Whip Up Dust Storms Across Regions

Some thought it was the return of the Dust bowl days Tuesday as high velocity winds raged into the Hereford area and across the Panhandle and West Texas. It wasn't exactly, but conditions became so bad that visability was near zero on

This and the 70-mile-an-hour winds caused dangerous driving conditions resulting in several accidents and fires here. Traffic on some highways in the area such Highway 385 south and north stopped suddenly when wind- dust storms rushed in. Some waited till the air cleared while others risked the weather

The biting dust hit predestrians like a sandblaster and caused much congestion of sinuses with several persons, reports indicated. High winds are expected through out the spring increasing chances for other dust storms rising from the area's dry farmlands.

Destructive gales topping hurricane force belabored some localities. They caved in a medical complex under construction in El Paso, and eight communities of Dawn, Simms and Walcott.

Some 40 local firemen were involved in the firefighting effort.

According to a spokesman for the Hereford Fire Department, the huge grassfire apparently started about three miles southwest of the Westway community and burned rangeland, stalks and haystacks over a three mile area as it moved toward the Westway community.

The spokesman was unsure of what started the blaze.

FARMERS PRESSED tractor and disc rigs into action to plow fire lines around numerous rural homes threatened by the fire and firefighters managed to halt the searing progress of the blaze just south of the Westway Baptist Church.

Smoke and blowing dust cut visibility drastically in the area of the fire and according to a local DPS officer, at least two minor accidents occurred near the area of the fire, due to the poor visibility. Fire units spent the best portion of the afternoon fighting the grassfire, and at 5:11 Tuesday afternoon, Hereford fire units were once again summoned to the area of the grassfire where a blaze consumed a chickenhouse on the Johnny Jesko farm, eight miles west of Hereford on the Harrison Highway.

While county firefighers were busy. Deaf Smith County DPS officers received a call to assist in working an accident on Interstate 40 East of Vega Tuesday

BLOWING DUST CUT visibility to virtually zero in that area and a sevenvehicle pileup was triggered when a motorist apparently pulled to the side of the road.

Local troopers assisted officers from Vega at the accident site.

Several accident victims were taken to the Emergency Receiving Center in Amarillo, where they were treated for minor injuries and released.

The hard day of firefighting took its toll as City Fire Marshal Jay Spain suffered a leg injury when he stepped into a hole while getting out of a firetruck last night. Spain was checking on a report of a fire at the time of the injury. WITH THE PROSPECT of additional windstorms this week, dry conditions. and a long spring still waiting. Spain had some serious warnings for local residents in the wake of yesterday's blazes. "We would request that everyone be especially careful with fire. When you're driving in rural areas, be careful about tossing out cigarettes or matches. And if you live in the country, don't burn trash on windy days. It only takes a few seconds for a fire to get away, and with a little wind behind it, the flames can be running wild long before firefighting units can make it to the scene. We've been lucky in averting the destruction of homes in the grassfires we've had locally. but with dry and windy conditions, it takes only a careless second or two to touch off a disaster," he commented.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: 1 am writing to protest about the lady whose letter appeared recently criticizing us baldies for trying to spread our few remaining strands of hair across an open expanse of bare head. Is that lady ready to file an affidavit that she is not disguising a flat bosom with a padded bra, that she is not holding in flabby hips with a tight girdle, that she isn't putting black pencil on a mole and trying to pass if off as a "beauty mark," or that she doesn't have a number of other physical imperfections which she tries to minimize somewhat?

We skinheads have a right to pretend that our few remaining strands of hair make us look less bald, if properly fluffed and distributed. It is difficult enough to live such a charade without being constantly reminded that we are not fooling anyone but ourselves.

Dodgers Sign Garvey

By The Associated Press

Steve Garvey, Dave LaRoche and Paul Lindblad all have signed baseball contracts, but they seem to be headed in different directions.

Garvey has found a home in Los Angeles, LaRoche expects to be traded from the Cleveland Indians and Lindblad is up in the air at Texas.

'I feel lkie a part of the family, and it's great to know I have the opportunity to finish my career with the Dodgers." the 28-year-old Garvey said after signing a six-year contract Tuesday.

and rapped 13 homers. LaRoche was hardly as happy as Garvey, signing a one-year contract with the Indians under year contract offered by Cleveland "so I can become a free agent at the end of this year and not have to take a 20 per cent pay cut for playing out my option.

Under the new baseball contract, there will be no option year in contracts signed now and in the future.

Lindblad said he had agreed to terms with the Texas Rangers, but the 12-year veteran relief pitcher added that the agreement "cannot become official until Bowie Kuhn has okaved this."

And, that lodges the script for a possible repeat confrontation between Oakland owner Charles O. Finley and baseball Commissioner Kuhn. Finley sold Lindblad to Texas last weekend for $400,000 and is threatening to take Kuhn to court again if the commissioner voids the sale in the "best interest of baseball" as he did in another

East Texas Wins

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP)-East Texas had everything going against it in the finals of the Lone Star Conference basketball tournament, but the Lions overcame the odds to win the LSC title over Howard

HPU had the homecourt advantage, the best record in the conference and already owned two victories over East Texas this season.

But Larry McGhee scored a tournament record 31 points to lead the Lions to the LSC championship here Tuesday night with a 77-66 victory over Howard Payne.

His career high effort gave him 73 points for the threegame affair, a tourney record. He was a shoo-in as the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

The victory put the Lions in the NAIA Dist. 4 playoffs against Texas Lutheran in Commerce Saturday. HPU will go to San Antonio to play St. Mary's, the Big State champion. in the other district semifinal game. Winners of the semifinals meet March 1 to decide which team goes to the national tournament in Kansas City.

ETSU never trailed after six minutes to cruise into the intermission with a 39-30 advantage. HPU, behind David Harrison's 21-point performance came within three at 65-62 with 4:02 left.

ETS will take a 21-8 record into the playoffs. The Lions finished 13-4 in LSC play. HPU is 22-5 and 13-2.

Spring Woods defeated Stratford 72-45 Tuesday night in a Dist. 17-AAAA basketball game - and that's exactly what Stratford wanted.

Stratford intentionally lost the game as Coach Jerry Kroll said. 'Wasn't much else we could Stratford was in the unusual position of having to lose the game to have any hopes of making the championship race a threeway playoff. This situation arose because of the district's decision four years ago to divide the league schedule into two separate rounds.

The Spartans and Houston Westchester tied for the first round championship, each with 5-1 marks.

However, Stratford hit a snag. in the second round and went into Tuesday night's game with a 2-3 mark while Westchester. assured of a playoff spot. finished with a 5-1 record.

"If Stratford had defeated Spring Woods, that would have left Spring Woods tied with Westchester, automatically advancing Westchester to the HOUSTON (AP) - Houston playoffs since the Wildcats would have tied for the championship of each round.

But the Spring Woods victory gave it the undisputed second round title, necessitating an intra-league playoff among Westchester, Stratford and Spring Woods, with the survivor wining the playoff berth.

Richard Lane, Spring Woods assistant principal, said he was disappointed the game had to be played.

We've had great basketball all year," he said. "And now it comes down to this."

"I'm satisfied we won," said Spring Woods Coach Wendell Hilton, "And I certainly don't blame him (Kroll) for doing what he did. He had no choice. He couldn't just throw the game away. I think he handled it right."

Stratford fans sat listless most of the night.

He tried to pass the ball and I was fortunate to deflect it." said Smith after grabbing Paul Westphal's pass, racing down the court and scoring the winning basket with seven seconds remaining.

We wanted Westphal to handle the ball," said Phoenix Coach John MacLeod. "but then Randy jumped in between the ball and Ricky Sobers and made the steal."

Before Smith picked off Westphal's intended pass to Sobers, Mullaney had instructed Adrian Dantive to foul Phoenix' Keith Erickson. But nothing happened.

"Dantley was trying to foul Erickson in the corner," said Mullaney, "I looked over there and the official saw Dantley getting Erickson around the waist. I guess he felt it was too. obvious and ignored it."

MacLeod, naturally, was sorry that the foul call was not made

"I sure wish they would have called the foul," said MacLeod. 'We thought they'd foul and we had all our good foul shooters in there.

The win ups Hereford's second half district mark to 4-0 and gives them the right to play first half winner Plainview for the right to advance in the playoffs against District 3-4A champ Pampa.

The win also gave Herd coach Barry Arnwine his first district co-title, and marked the first trip to the throneroom for the Herd since the move to 4A competition was made.

But, things weren't all that rosy for the first ten minutes Tuesday evening as the stubborn Lubbockites seemed determined to thwart the Herd plans at a perfect 4-0 mark.

Cecil Ross and Craig Mitchell scored four points apiece as Lubbock took a 14-11 lead after one period, and Herd playmaker Kelly Kitchens did an almost unheard of thing for him by missing on two one-and-one situations in the final minute of the period.

The Westerners kept the momentum for the early part of the second stanza and moved ahead 18-13 before Kitchens hit a 20-footer to narrow the gap to three, and the Whitefaces got a break that proved to be the turning point of the game.

Mitchell was whistled for a foul on James Mays, and his vocal reaction to the call drew a technical foul. Westerner coach C.E. Carmichael got his a few seconds later as he also questioned the Ritter got the honor of scoring the final points of the night with just 45 seconds left, hitting a 10-foot jumper to make it the final 71-51 count.

Jubilation followed the final whistle. and Mays and Mike O'Rand took turns cutting down the nets at either end of the La Plata gynmasium.

Lawson's 15 points led all scorers in the contest, while coach Arnwine got his most evenly balanced output from the team. Mays and Kitchens added 10 points each, while Kenneth Mercer and Blake Autry each canned nine.

David Schumacher hit eight. O'Rand added six, and Ritter and Greg Brockman rounded out the list with a pair of points

Robert Stearnes led the losers with 12 points, while Mitchell and Scotty Garcia each added 11. The Herd put the clamps on the Westerners' two top scorers again. with Cecil Ross managing but four points, and Gary Norris only two.

The victory raised the Whitefaces' season mark to 20-11, the best record by a Herd bunch since 1974, when Arnwine guided the 'Faces to a 22-11 mark in his first year at the helm.

Accuracy wasn't either teams forte. however, with the Whitefaces hitting only 46 per cent from the field (27-59) and 58 per cent from the line (17-29). Lubbock was even worse with a 21 of 63 performance from the field (33 per cent). and 9 of 18 free throws (50 per cent).

"The players and I are physically and emotionally drained," said Arkansas Coach Eddie Sutton. "The win tonight was very important. We're 16-0 and it is very unlikely anyone can do that again for a long time this league. Winning the league was our goal, but when it became apparent that we had a chance to go unbeaten in the league that was on this team's Arkansas led by 13 at halftime but the Aggies came back to tie the score 53-53 behind the play of Willie Foreman, who poured in 23 points. But the Razorbacks held on to post their first victory at College Station since 1959.

Baylor kept close to Houston by holding SWC most valuable player Otis Birdsong to 20 points, 10 under his average. But Mike Schultz tallied 21 and Charles Thompson 18 for the Cougars.

'This was as hard as we could possibly play," said Baylor Coach Jim Haller. "We played the No. 2 scoring team in the nation and held them to just 78 points.

SMU had a chance to land a tournament home berth if it could beat Texas Tech and the Mustangs looked like they didn't want it in the first half as they shot 39 per cent and trailed

The Mustangs rallied to go ahead on two occasions in the second half as Jeff Swanson scored 18 of his 22 points. But all-SWC center Mike Russell scored 28 points, including two key three-point plays, to push the Red Raiders ahead.

Texas also looked sluggish in the first half against Rice, which managed a 23-23 tie at one point. But the Longhorns outscored the Owls 67-28 the rest of the way as Jim Krivacs scored 31 points and Ron Baxter

Carter Keeps Some Campaign Vows, Slow On Balanced Budget Promise

WASHINGTON (AP)- President Carter's 1978 budget proposals show he is taking steps to keep his campaign promises to reduce unemployment and stimulate the economy, while also moving toward a national health insurance program.

But his proposals appear to move him further from the balanced budget he has pledged by 1981 and they are far short of his promise to cut defense spending by $5 billion to $7

There is nothing on the antiinflation, tax reform and welfare reform programs that he said he would prepare. Carter said these will come later, as will his plan to put zero- based budgeting into effect.

But for critics who thought Carter should have proposed more in the 1978 budget, the President made clear that he does not consider it his budget, since he's only been in office four weeks.

"The 1978 budget is essentially still former President Gerald Ford's budget, with only such limited revisions as my administration has had time to make," Carter said Tuesday. His budget director, Bert Lance, said the new administration had time only to correct "the major defects" of the budget prepared before Ford left office.

Son of 'union suit'

WASHINGTON - (NEA) -

For nearly a century they were the staple item in the male underworld. They were one piece, 100 per cent wool

itchies that were worn day and night by man and boy.

Because many of them were sold by the Union manufacknown from Bangor to Boise simply as "union suits."

And today they are back, redesigned and repackaged as thermal underwear. The president of the United States is wearing them. So are millions of others, including m'ladies and lasses, as much of the nation shivers through an insidiously frigid winter. Sales of Long Johns are up as much as 30 per cent, according to industry spokesmen. A Maryland store has reportedly advertised them as "Jimmy

Johns," with respect to the president, and sold its stock out in four hours , Jack

Marshall, a sales executive for Fruit of the Loom, says

this may be the biggest year for winter underwear in history.

That history is long, but not in all respects delightful. The original union suit, with its button up front and flap bottom, was an esoteric not to say physical curse. Going to the toilet through one was novel, and they were so dam-nably severe in the family bed that generations of frustrated couples called them "passion killers."

Then too, they were unhygenic. Bathing in earlier America was not as prolific as it is now, and the 24 hour underwear was said to have had a life of its own by Saturday night. The wool fabric retain-

-NATIONAL HEALTH IN-SURANCE. The Carter budget revisions propose a ceiling on increases in health costs as part of a so-called "cost containment program" that the administration said is the first step twoard making national health insurance financially feasible.-

-UNEMPLOYMENT. Carter pledged to reduce the unemployment rate, now at 7.3 per cent, to about 4.5 per cent by the end of his term. The budget would aim to reduce it to an average of 7.1 per cent in 1977 and 6.3 per cent in 1978, still a long way from Carter's goal.

-ECONOMY. The economic stimulus is his budget would increase economic growth by 6 per cent, he says, up from the approximately 5.5 per cent growth projected by Ford. Carter and his economic advisers had promised after last fall's elections that a 6 per cent growth rate would be the goal for 1977. Defense expenditures by about $5 billion to $7 billion annually." national average.

Gov. Jay Hammond, who proposed the legislation, says he has "quit counting" the number of people he knows who have murdered or been murdered during drinking

Most of the proposals Hammond unveiled Friday were aimed at Alaska's native bush villages where the long winter, seasonal employment and lack of recreation have led to heavy drinking.

The measures would allow the bush villages to establish possession limits on alcohol, JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) - Some alcohol and impose a two-week time lag between purchase and pick-up.

The proposals would also prohibit liquor price advertising, make bootlegging a felony. and hike alcohol taxes by $10 million.

Hammond, a non-drinker, acknowledged that his proposals to the state legislature were drastic and were likely to be unpopular, but he said the grim statistics" of alcohol abuse in the state made strong action long overdue.

"One of the reasons I've long felt that it was necessary to institute some sweeping changes is the fact that of the 16 homicides that I'm personally familar with, every one of them, without exception, were alcohol induced." Hammond said.

Hammond said his anti-alcohol package grew out of a new study he commissioned which computed the per capita alcohol consumption in Alaska at 3.86 gallons for every man, woman and child above the age of 15. which is 57 per cent above the national average.

'Alaskans do indeed drink a lot," Hammond said, "and they are drinking more all the time.'

The study concluded that Alaskans now drink 80 per cent more alcohol per person than they did in 1958. The national increase over the same period was 36 per cent.

Researchers also blamed drinking for 45 per cent of all reported cases of child neglect. 45 per cent of all traffic deaths. 60 per cent of all boating accidents and 30 per cent of all fire deaths. The study said the state had between 15,000 and 25,000 clinical alcoholics.

Hammond said the state takes in $7 million a year in alcohol taxes but spends more than $17 million a year for treatment, social service programs, welfare and criminal justice related to alcohol abuse.

Large Mexican Oil, Gas Imports Planned Over Next Six Years

DALLAS (AP)- Mexico hopes to be exporting a billion barrels of oil and a billion cubic feet of natural gas per day in six years. according to an official of Petroleos Mexicanos (PEMEX), the government's oil monopoly. In order to reach that level of exports, Mexico plans to spend $15 billion in the next six years to improve the petroleum industry in the country, an official said.

Jorge Diaz Serrano, director of PEMEX, said Tuesday "exciting" new oil and gas discoveries in Mexico could mean substantial improvements in the social and economic Serrano said, however, the country does not have 60 billion barrels of proved reserves of hydrocarbons as has been

Diaz Serrano said the 60

By comparison, he said, the conditions in Mexico. Diaz United States has 32.7 billion barrels of "proved" reserves and Saudi Arabia has about 107 billion barrels of "proved" reserves.

Diaz Serrano said the new discoveries are primarily in Tabasco, Chiaps and Campeche states in Southern Mexico and on the Yucatan Peninsula.

Diaz Serrano said the expected increase in exports in six years would eliminate Mexico's critical balance of payments deficit and help finance domestic economic improvements.

About 30 per cent of the $15 billion, he said, will be spent to develop reserves using imported technology and equipment.

Several Texas firms, he said, stand to obtain a major share of the contracts for the improve-

Nixon's Former Lawyers Agree On $200,000 Legal Settlement

By MIKE SHANAHAN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) - Lawyers for former President Richard M. Nixon's 1972 campaign fund have agreed to pay $200,000 in an out-of-court legal settlement to four men recruited for the original Watergate burglary.

"This settlement provides what we have been saying along, that the Cubans were tricked into participating in the Watergate entries." their lawyer, Daniel Schultze, said Tuesday.

The civil case had been scheduled to go on trial Thursday before U.S. District Judge Charles Richey.

The original lawsuit filed by Bernard L. Barker, Eugenio Martinez Virgilio Gonzales and Frank Sturgis asked $2 million dollars in damages, mainly from former officials of the 1972 Committee to Re-elect the

This list of defendants in the case read like a Who's Who of the Watergate scandals which drove Nixon from office. They included former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, former Commerce

Secretary Maurice H. Stans. retired CIA officials E. Howard Hunt, G. Gordon Liddy and Jeb Stuart Magruder.

All served as officials of the Committee to Re-elect the President, now known as the 1972 Campaign Liquidation

In their suit, the four Miami men, often referred to as the foot soldiers of Watergate. alleged that they believed they were working for the National Security Agency or the CIA when recruited for the June 17. 1972. break-in at Democratic

All four said they had participated in CIA operations against the Castro government in Cuba, including the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion. All served more than a year in prison after pleading guilty to charges stemming from their part in the National Committee headquar-

Schultze said the size of the settlement shows "we could have proved our case in court."

"The only drawback is that people will never know the full story of the Cubans," he said. "For people to really grasp the full reason they believed what they did you have to see the CIA records."

Hunt knew the Cubans from his CIA days. He recruited three of the four men for the 1971 break-in by the White House plumbers against Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist. Then later, he again asked them for help on the Watergate burglary. But Schultze said that CIA records would show far more than their earlier association with Hunt. He would not elaborate, citing the secret classivication of the records, which would have been made public in court.

In its last report filed with the Federal Election Commission, the Liquidation Trust showed a balance of $1.2 million.

The $50,000 settlement for each of the four Miami men will come from that balance. Schultze said. The agreement was reached over the weekend.

Hunt had been scheduled for release on parole on Wednesday, in time to appear as a witness in the civil trial. He had served enough of a 30-month to 8-year-term for his part in the original break-in to qualify for parole and release from the federal prison camp at Eglin AFB in Florida.

Hunt's release will leave only Liddy among the original Watergate defendants still in prison. He is serving a six-year. eight-month to 20-years term after refusing to plead guilty and going to trial. The seventh defendant, James W. McCord Jr., served four months and now lives in Fort Collins, Colo.

In a subsequent Watergate trial. four senior Nixon administration officials including Mitchell were convicted of joining a conspiracy to cover up the original break-in. Among them, only former White House aide John D. Ehrlichman is currently in

group of Oklahoma farmers have appeared in bankruptcy court here to certify claims to grain they stored in a grain elevator owned by a missing Iowa Park grain and fertilizer

Appearing in bankruptcy court Tuesday were about a dozen farmers, including men and women from Oklahoma.

The grain was stored with in the Geronimo Elevator Co. and the Robert Johnson Grain and Molasses Co., both owned by Robert Johnson who reportedly drowned on Jan. 3. Authorities do not believe he actually drowned.

Companions said Johnson fell from a cabin cruiser just off Port Aransas. Investigators, who said Johnson cashed several large checks just before his disappearance, claim the lowa Park resident is still alive. Federal authorities have filed charges against him for alleged transportation of stolen grain from Oklahoma to Texas.

State agriculture investigators found only 400,000 bushels

WICHITA FALLS (AP)- A of grain in the Johnson storage facilities and said about 500,000 bushels are missing. Those who showed up at bankruptcy court today were farmers from southern Oklahoma who had been asked to verify their claims.

Most showed no bitterness at the prospect of not being able to recover their grain or money.

J.P. Davis of Walters, Okla., said he was too old to farm and this was his last crop because he is retiring.

'They Johnson's companies got every last grain," he said. "I figured I would get a better price for it later in the year so I stored with Johnson." He said he had 1,207 bushels in the storage facilities. When asked about the prospects of not getting some of it back, he shrugged and said: "I've come through a lot harder times.' James W. Dugger has been

Johnson firms in the bankruptcy proceedings. Glen Hamilton of Faxon, Okla., said he is a parttime appointed receiver for the farmer and he would not be affected by the grain loss as badly as some of the others who had stored grain with Johnson. Hamilton, who said he is also self-employed, added "It would hurt even more if farming was the only income I had."

Hamilton said he had 2,000 bushels in storage.

A new twist to the missing 500,000 bushels of grain was added by Robert Piatt of Walters Okla. He said when he delivered his wheat to a Johnson facility, he specified he wanted to sell. He said he received a check from the Johnson company signed by a secretary. but when he tried to cash it after Christmas, he was told the signature was not registered at the bank and the check was not authorized.

A federal grand jury has opened an investigation into Johnson's activities, including his disappearance, but the grand jury adjourned last week until next month without returning any indictments or reports. A federal prosecutor said the investigation will floats in the Dead Sea.

When walking into it, you reach a point — usually when you are between waist and chest deep — when buoyancy sweeps your feet to the surface. Sun worshippers simply prop their hands behind their heads and soak up the rays with almost no distractions, except a hardy breed of flies.

For tourists in Israel, a visit to the 500-square-mile Dead Sea is as essential as going to the top of the Empire State Building is in New York. Apart from its quirky swimming qualities, the Dead Sea is the lowest point on earth, lying 1,292 feet below sea level. It is part of the great Jordan rift that cleaves the earth from Syria to southeast Africa.

A head-first plunge is definitely not the best way to experience this natural phenomenon since the salt level is 10 times greater than the open seas. Most bathers enter cautiously, trying not to splash wa-

Dead Sea water is painful if a swimmer has cuts or sores. It's a literal case of pouring salt into wounds.

Surrounded by the sparsely populated, lunar-like Judean hills, the Dead Sea is nearly dead quiet. Floating is a smooth sport because of minimal wave action and because floaters don't have to keep a watchful eye out for sharks, crabs, jellyfish or other ordinary nuisances to swimmers.

Unlike at other rocky-bottomed beaches, swimmers don't have to worry about slipping on algae-covered stones because no plants or animals survive in this land-locked sea. The Jordan River empties its waters and some fish into the salty basin, but the fish don't last long.

The Dead Sea's name accurately describes this body of water, but some Israelis feel it is a misnomer because the ancient sea is a great source of raw chemicals for industry and agriculture.

Of course, there is a catch to the relaxing sensation of weightlessness. The body's balancing mechanism becomes accustomed to the buoyancy of the water and therefore when swimmers walk out of the sea they experience the clumsiness of a newborn animal.

Returning from the dense water, bathers head for the nearest shower to rinse off the potent mineral solution. Without a shower, hair begins to feel gritty and a chalky white powder appears on the skin.

Only two inches of sain fall annually at the Dead Sea. The Jordan River pours 6.5 million tons of water daily into the lake, but all its living contents die soon after contact with the salt liquid.

The water evaporates so fast in the baking sun that a permanent vapor cloud hangs over the Dead Sea. Parts of the lake smell of sulphur. Greek author Nikos Kazantzakis wrote that the Dead Sea was his vision of What causes bad breath?

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My daughter is 24 and has had bad breath for several years. None of the products on the market seem to help for very

When she had a check-up with her doctor she asked him about this but he couldn't seem to find out what is causing this.

She has a bit of a weight problem so she watches her diet but she says she has no problem with her bowels, which sometimes happens when people don't eat the right food. I am wondering if you have any solution to this problem?

DEAR READER — Bad breath is a symptom, not a diagnosis. It is also very common. Unfortunately some people have it and are unaware they are offensive to others.

Your daughter was correct in asking her doctor about it and I am sorry she didn't get more help. It is also true that the available mouthwashes and breath sweeteners are of limited help. They just mask the odor temporarily and do not do anything to correct the cause.

The cause can be from the teeth. This may be from infected pockets around the roots that a person cannot clean out himself. A low grade infection is present along with decaying material. This is pyorrhea and it needs to be treated by a dentist. So, one thing a person with bad breath should do is see the dentist to correct any existing dental problems.

Beyond that the problem may be a low grade infection in the sinuses. As the air flows through the nose or back of the throat it may pick up unpleasant odors from such infections.

Mouth breathing may cause bad breath. The normal secretions in the back of the throat may dry up and this may allow bacteria to grow there that create an odor.

Chronically infected tonsils may be a source of bad breath. Any significant infection can release unpleasant odors. However, if the tonsils are not infected, taking them out will not help a bad breath problem.

Beyond the teeth, throat, nose and sinuses there are possible problems with the lungs. Any infection of the lungs, such as chronic lung disease, can cause bad odors that pass out of the lung with each breath.

The lungs are a major, source of odors. Remember that the odor of alcohol on a person's breath comes from the alcohol vapors being released from the blood going into the lungs and into the air that the person exhales. This is the basis for the breath test for alcohol consumption.

You can breathe out the odor of any chemical from the body. A person with diabetic acidosis will have an odor to the breath similar to alcohol because chemicals of incomplete metabolism (ketones) are released from the blood into the air. Similarly chemicals from liver disease may cause the breath to have a particular "fruity"

My advice to everyone who has a breath problem is to have a medical and dental evaluation. The causes of this social problem are many and some are more important than just having a socially embarrassing problem.

AUSTIN — Texas homeowners may be in for an increase in their insurance rates.

Insurance companies, at a hearing last week, asked for an eight per cent statewide average raise in homeowner policies, citing costs of construction and general inflation.

Board of Insurance statisticians will present their own recommendations at a March 9 hearing.

New rates would become effective with policies written or renewed in July. In the past, the board usually has adopted rates lower than those sought by the industry.

Lumping fire, homeowners and extended coverage together, the industry seeks a 6.6 per cent average hike in premiums charged building owners.

The board ordered two rate increases last year — four per cent average statewide in July, following 6.9 per cent in Feb-

Industry recommendations would result in $19 a year increases on one-year $25,000 homeowners policies in Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth and Waco; $8 in Abilene, Amarillo, San Angelo, Lubbock, Midland, and Wichita Falls; $21 in Corpus Christi; and $18 in Houston.

Pipeline Bill Moves

Coal slurry pipeline legislation zoomed through committees in both houses and landed on House and Senate calendars.

The measures would grant coal pipeline companies power to condemn land for right of way and place them under Railroad Commission supervision.

Slurry pipelines would transport finely-ground excess of 95 per cent of their assigned allowable. The 50 fields produce 61 per cent of Texas crude.

Newton said the actual statewide production — which trails the allowable — is 85 per cent.

The commission, in temporarily trimming the allowable, tried to get the federal government's attention and see if oil was being wasted by 100 per cent production.

Courts Speak

The State Supreme Court upheld an intermediate court decision permitting Exxon to store gas in the West Clear Lake Frio Reservoir which still holds 95.3 billion cubic feet of producible gas.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a Dallas 99-year rape sentence, finding the assault took place in adjoining Rock-wall County after a woman was abducted from a Dallas County discount store parking lot.

A murder for hire conviction of a Dallas man was reversed by the Court of Criminal Appeals and new trial ordered due to erroneous introduction in the trial of exhibits involving an insurance policy.

Hesburgh Marks 25 Years as Notre Dame Head

THE REV. THEODORE M. HESBURGH

Father Hesburgh, now 59. continues to earn plaudits in the field of education without shrinking from the public sector. He has served as chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights and the Overseas Development Council; as president of the Association of American Colleges; as the permanent Vatican City representative on the International Atomic Energy Agency; as a member of the Carnegie Commission on the Future of Higher Education and as a director of the Chase Manhattan Bank.

Father Hesburgh is not apologetic for his involvement outside the university. Nor has his outlook narrowed in the face of criticism.

During a recent interview with The Associated Press, for others have to formulate a pub-lic lobbying group to promote tenure. The biggest was in 1967 handed over to laymen by the priests of the Congregation of the Holy Cross. The change had During a speech commemorating his quarter-century as president of Notre Dame, Father Hesburgh said: "One would hope that beyond competence in doing something to earn a living, students would emerge from our institutions with some compassion for and commitment to the improvement of the larger, less favored world around them. *

"If we, as presidents, do not show these concerns in our own lives and works, then I doubt that our students will take any of our words very seriously.

That, in turn, reflects Father Hesburgh's larger concept of a moral world - a concept, he believes, the university president should advocate and ad-

Many of the educational leaders who were deposed in the late 1960s were Father Hesburgh's personal friends - and his anger at their troubles drew him into sharp conflict with some of Notre Dame's students. In 1967, he said "Notre Dame will not have its undergraduates making policy decisions." A year later, he threatened to expel 1,000 students before permitting girls to visit the

And, in 1969, he said that anyone substituting "force for rational persuasion" would merit 15 minutes of "meditation," followed by suspension.

Father Hesburgh has always been a staunch advocate of civil rights, speaking, for instance, on the nation's bicentennial of the "need to get more people from minority groups involved in the American dream."

In 1970, when the Notre Dame football team made its first appearance in a post-season bowl garne, Father Hesburgh used revenues from the game to step up the school's minority recruitment drive.

Toward the end of the turbulent era of campus disruption he seemed to adopt a more sympathetic attitude toward the student protesters and some of their causes.

His opposition to coeducation also dissolved and the change was effected in 1972. Today, he says, "having women on campus has had a settling effect. It helps make the guys less rowdy.

Green said his old rules, such as requiring atbill would cost only $2 million tendance at Mass, have been for the state to administer.

But Capt. F.F. Ferguson of the Department of Public Safety said his office would have to suspend the driver's licenses of 1.059,000 Texans, and this would be a mountainous problem.

Ferguson noted that South Carolina suspended 200,000 licenses, then discovered half of those persons had obtained insurance from other companies. "This becomes harassment," he said.

Green said approximately, 60 per cent of all automobile accidents involve at least one uninsured driver. And often it is difficult to determine which driver was at fault. The result is that the uninsured driver sometimes has three or four accidents before the adds catch up with him, Green said.

Davis suggested that those high-risk drivers in the assigned- risk pool should be excluded from a mandatory insurance bill because it would mean good drivers would be paying higher rates to cover those bad drivers. Such exclusion would raise the rates for those bad drivers even higher than the astronomical rates they now pay. Davis said. but that is preferable to raising rates for everybody else.

Sam Sullivan, representing American Automobile Association, spoke for the bills. "We're tried of carrying the irresponsible minority-- the uninsured motorists."

Rep. John Bryant, D-Dallas, author of another of the bills. said drivers would have to prove they have insurance both at the time they register their cars and at time they get their driver's licenses. If they cancel their insurance, or if the insurance company cancels it, the DPS automatically would be notified and it would give the driver 20 days to get coverage or have his plates taken away from him.

Jerry F. Johns, president of Southwestern Insurance Information Service in Austin, said Oklahoma drivers became disenchanted within a few weeks of the adoption of a mandatory liability insurance law, and the Oklahoma legislature is likely to repeal it.

Other witnesses against the bills said good drivers are for such legislation until they learn it will increase the administrative costs of the insurance companies and in turn their insurance premiums.

Holmes' Trial Gets Underway Today

AMARILLO (AP)- Testimony in Amarillo attending a wedding got under way in state court here Wednesday in the cocaine possession trial of Pittsburgh Steelers defensive tackle Ernie Holmes after defense lawyers failed in an attempt to get the indictment quashed on grounds that cocaine is not a narcotic.

District Court Judge George E. Dowlen overruled the motion and seated a jury of six men and six women to hear the felony charge against Holmes.
