

Poll Indicates Public Sharply Divided over Lance

RADNOR, Pa. (AP)—The American people, the jury that Bert Lance sought to judge his case, are sharply divided over whether Lance should keep his job as budget director in the Carter administration, an Associated Press public opinion poll shows.

The nationwide survey of 1,548 adults, taken Monday evening, also found President Carter's image had been dented by the Lance affair, particularly in regard to Carter's oft-repeated campaign pledge to enforce high moral standards in government.

The AP survey showed that nearly 38 per cent of those interviewed felt Lance should resign his position as director of the Office of Management and Budget, while about 35 per cent said he should stay. Nearly 27 per cent expressed no opinion, despite wide publicity about the case.

The AP survey followed Lance's vigorous self-defense during three days of nationally televised Senate committee hearings into his personal and business dealings.

The hearings before the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee were intended to focus on allegations that Lance withheld personal financial information during his senate confirmation hearings in January.

The impact of Lance's 20-plus hours of testimony last week before the Senate panel is difficult to measure, since the television audiences for the hearings were believed to be very small. National television ratings for last week are not yet available.

The survey provided some indication that Lance's television performance helped his standing with some Americans.

The telephone survey was conducted for The AP by Chilton Research Services of Radnor, Pa.

The 3 per cent difference between those favoring Lance's resignation and those opposing it is inconclusive because of the margin of possible statistical error.

Lance has repeatedly said that he would not resign and that he is innocent of any wrong doing in his personal financial affairs.

Carter and Lance met privately Monday. White House Press Secretary Jody Powell said he had no information on what was discussed or who requested the session.

Powell said if Carter has made a decision on whether to keep Lance as budget director, "I'm certainly not aware of it."

As for Carter's promise to enforce high moral conduct in government, about 26 per cent of those interviewed said that their confidence in Carter's keeping that promise had decreased, while 8 per cent said their confidence had increased. More than half, 53 per cent, said their opinion of Carter's commitment was unaffected by the controversy.

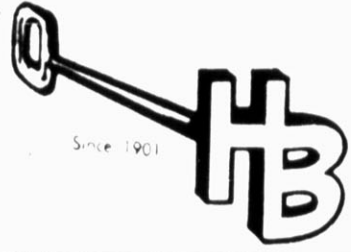

This erosion of confidence in Carter also was reflected in an evaluation of his over all job performance. About 22 per cent said their opinion of Carter's performance in office had decreased because of the Lance controversy. Slightly more than 9 per cent said their opinion of Carter's performance in office had decreased because of the Lance controversy. Slightly more than 9 per cent said their opinion of Carter's performance had risen with 59 per cent saying there had been no change.

Asked to rate Carter's over-all performance, more than half of those interviewed gave Carter excellent or good marks. About 38 per cent gave him only a fair rating, with 9 per cent saying he has done a poor job.

Carter is somewhat lower than findings by other polls taken in early August, but factors such as differences in the wording of

Commissioners Okay 2-Way Mailbox Median

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

Hereford city commissioners voted 3-1 in favor of a mailbox median to be constructed on Fourth St. next to the post office by the alley in an attempt to alleviate the present traffic hazard at Fourth and Main.

The commissioners' decision ended a long battle for Dr. Milton Adams, who heads the Health and Safety Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Supper Club Officials May Be Indicted

CINCINNATI (AP)—The owners of the Beverly Hills Supper Club and a former state fire marshal "might well be indicted," Kentucky Gov. Julian Carroll said Monday.

Carroll said the state's attorney general has received the report on the May 28 blaze that killed 164 persons in nearby Southgate, Ky., and that a Campbell County, Ky., grand jury might be called to study it.

Carroll spoke to reporters after testifying before a congressional subcommittee on the state's findings in the fire. The subcommittee is studying a possible national fire code and also heard testimony from survivors of the fire.

The report described wiring in the supper club as "an electrician's nightmare" and said numerous building code violations had been covered up.

Carroll, who also suspended the state's three top fire officials for violation of the state's fire code, said Monday's City Hall meeting.

Grady told commissioners one proposal building the median on Samson between Fourth and Fifth streets would necessitate hiring an additional postal employee.

"Our budget is extremely critical. Sending someone away from the building would necessitate an extra employee. And next year, we've been informed that there will be a 30 percent cut in our budget."

Adams, who had approached the commission on two other occasions, requesting that the drive-in mailbox on the north side of Fourth next to the post office be moved to the middle of the street, began Monday by saying, "I know this is a recurring complaint that we bring to the city commission."

"I am averaging five calls a day from people asking me what's going to be done at the post office. I don't think we have a safe situation at the present time."

Commissioner Frank Barrett told Adams, "I think the only contention is making it safe this new way."

Barrett, John Matthews and Stanley Fry voted in favor of the median, which will be planned by the post office. Commissioner Ed Copeland cast the dissenting vote.

The mailbox as it is now causes drivers to slide across the front seat of their cars to the passenger side to mail an inconvenience to some.

"It also has resulted in drivers wishing to go south of Main after mailing a letter to turn from the right side of Fourth a traffic hazard."

In other business Monday, commissioners approved the purchase of three half-ton pickups from Jones Motors for approximately $4,900 each, a zoning request by Dr. B.J. Weaver to change part of lot 26, Block 5 of the Evans Addition (on E. Park Ave.) from a "C" residential to "D" restricted and the platting of the Chaparral Addition, a 1,230 square-foot section between La Plata Dr. and 15th.

Commissioners rejected the opportunity to purchase workmen's compensation insurance, optional for elected officials under Senate Bill 133 of the state legislature.

Jose De La Cruz of the American GI Forum in Hereford asked commissioners whether the Lions Club would be given special favors for use of the proposed dining facilities at the community center.

De La Cruz said he hoped the Lions Club would not dominate the facility even though they have donated $30,000 to its construction.

"Are they doing to have any special benefits?" De La Cruz asked.

That would be up to the city commission, City Manager Alex Bayne said. But the commissioners already have voted no. The city commission has decided there will be no contract.

De La Cruz replied, "The reason I asked is because we have a hard time getting the Bull Barn."

Commissioners will next meet Oct. 3.

Fun Breakfast Principals

Jim Sears, left, was the recipient of the "Bull Chip" award at the DSC Chamber of Commerce Fun Breakfast Monday morning, while Brian Hall was the keynote speaker for the kickoff of the United Way campaign in the community. Sears was cited for outstanding contributions to the community in the special presentation. Hall, former Texas Tech kicker, related to the "competitive spirit" of Americans in urging support of the United Way drive.

Hall Urges United Way Support

By O.G. NIEMAN
Editor-Publisher

"Build a better you" was the theme of a keynote message by Brian Hall, former Texas Tech kicker, when the United Way launched its campaign drive at the chamber of commerce Fun Breakfast Monday morning.

As he urged support of the United Way campaign, Hall claimed that "no other country in the world has the competitive spirit of Americans." He challenged local citizens to give of themselves in the funding drive, through contributions or work, or both.

The Fun Breakfast also followed its usual format which saw Jim Sears receive the "Bull Chip" award, Allen Brockman and B.F. Cain claim $75 and $25 cash prizes, announcements of projects and events from other organizations, and the recognition of new firms and professionals.

The big $400 cash drawing for a chamber member who had to be present to win was bad news for Wilma Taylor and Dr. Eugene Hendon, but it could be great news for a C of C member next time around. When Mrs. Taylor's name was drawn and she was not present, the emcee decided to draw one more time for a winner. But he drew a blank with Hendon's name, too.

Emcee Doug Manning and Lynton Allred kept the event at a fast pace as announcements were made by JoAn Dwyer, concerning a regional Big Brothers Big Sisters meeting to be held in Hereford, Bud Eades, relating to the new health club being cooperated by the YMCA, Ken Rogers, telling of the Antique Car Show slated by the Rotary Club Sept. 24-25, and details on the UW campaign as outlined by David Pruitt, president, and Jim Arney, drive chairman.

Introduced at the meeting were four new doctors in the community—dentists Richard Sheppard, Bill McClarty and Kent Kellin, and Dennis Canon, MD. Joining them for a game event at the breakfast were Peggy Ferguson, from A Touch of Class, and Barbara Hardin, Stairway to Fashions.

Sears, president of First National Bank and a former mayor, was presented the special "Bull Chip" award by Brand

Commission Upholds Permit Cancellation

AUSTIN—The Texas Water Commission has unanimously upheld the Texas Department of Water Resources' actions in revoking the permits of two weather modification firms operating over the Panhandle and South Plains.

The TWC action came Monday, and the commission moved without hearing testimony from Plains Weather Improvement Association of Plainview and Atmospherics Inc. of Littlefield on why they were challenging the cancellation of their permits.

Members of the commission listened to arguments from attorneys for opponents and proponents of weather modification for an hour.

An outline of the history of the controversial operations was also presented by DWR counsel Bruce Bigelow.

Bigelow's contention was that the permits for the two firms were revoked, based on elections held in the Panhandle and South Plains.

Results of those elections indicated that voters were overwhelmingly opposed to the operations of the two firms.

Though some areas favored the modification flights, the DWR was empowered to cancel permits over all areas.

Jerome Kirby of Littlefield, who represented both weather modification firms, claimed that the election votes were illegally tabulated. He said that votes were counted so that permits were cancelled in all areas instead of just those which had voted against hail suppression programs.

Electricity, Football Consume Time

By KEITH RIBNICK
Brand Staff Writer

As a district manager for Southwestern Public Service Company, there's more to Jake Webb's job than flipping switches and sending out bills.

Webb and his local SPS office stay busy providing electrical service in Hereford, as well as in Vega, Adrian, Bovina and Friona. The electrical service must be in constant order for every customer on every day of the year.

Yet, Webb has found the time to become involved in many Hereford community projects and stresses it to his employees.

"Everybody needs to serve their community in some way. It's sort of like paying the community back for the chance to live here," Webb said.

As a 16-year veteran employee of SPS, Webb began his career in Amarillo as a sales representative in 1961. After a year there, he moved to Pampa as a sales rep for six years. Floydada was Webb's next stop, where he promoted to district manager. Webb then transferred to Hereford in 1972 to serve as district manager.

Webb was graduated from Phillips High School, where he played football as a halfback. He continued his studies at the then Texas Western University at El Paso (now called UTEP) and played two years of football there. He completed his business management degree at West Texas State University in the summer of 1960.

Sports always have been important in Webb's life, and he is an active football official in the area. He has been a member of the Southwestern Football Officials Association for 17 years, officiating mostly at high school games. He occasionally refs a college game or two.

Webb is active in the American Cancer Society, Hereford Industrial Foundation, United Way program, Iron's Club, Chamber of Commerce and other civic projects. He is a member of Hereford's First Methodist Church.

Married 19 years, Webb and his wife Patss have one daughter, Joni, a senior at Hereford High School.

As one of Hereford's necessity providers, Webb must be aware of most trends in the energy field. To ask Webb about his field, his knowledge is immediately apparent.

"Things are changing rapidly in the electrical field. You're always reading about new developments, always keeping up with the needs."

"The lifestyle of people have developed into a wasteful attitude. We could all learn in the wise use of energy."

"Our main concern is providing this area with power."

"We're a fully integrated system. We can tap energy from any of 11 different power plants in the system."

"I think Hereford is excellent. Of all the towns we (SPS) serve, this is the finest."

A United Way Agency

BB/BS Gives Kids Beneficial Relationships

Growing up without the guidance of one or both parents can result in serious emotional problems for some Hereford youngsters.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Hereford is one of several social organizations which receives funding from the United Way program. The BB/BS organization will receive $11,300 in funds from the total amount contributed to United Way this year.

It has received United Way funds since its conception. Thus far, BB/BS has helped approximately 100 children from 5 to 15 years old by supplying a Big Brother or Big Sister.

The Hereford BB/BS Chapter was organized in January, 1974.

"We've really involved 300 people in the program that's counting a child, a big brother or sister, and a parent of the child," said JoAnn Dwyer, director of the local BB/BS program.

When an adult volunteer inquires about being a brother or sister, it is just the beginning of a careful process of matching interest and need.

Each volunteer must fully understand his or her role as a brother or sister. Applicants are informed they will spend several hours a week with their little brother or sister.

Meanwhile, children without a parent are referred to BB/BS by a variety of sources ranging from their public school to local churches.

With much consideration put on the information collected, a Big Brother Big Sister relationship is developed.

"These people (volunteers) are involved with other people's lives. We have to be very careful," Mrs. Dwyer said.

If you're planning to move from New York to California and you want to take your beach with you, here's some advice from Dean Rusk.

Henderson is way above average," said Henderson, who helps coordinate the Coffee Memorial Blood Bank activities in the Panhandle.

Rusk and another former secretary of state, Henry A. Kissinger, appeared before the House International Relations Committee to testify in support of the proposed Panama Canal treaty.

Henderson opened his talk with a brief history of blood transfusions and the story of the Coffee Memorial Blood Bank of Amarillo, which was begun in 1950.

During his testimony, Rusk tried to counter arguments that the Panamanians might shut down the canal during some future dispute with the United States.

Hereford is way above average in giving blood. We have had tremendous chairmen in Hereford in Inez Albracht and Marlene Watson.

According to Rusk, the realities of international trade were such that the Panamanians would more likely be anxious to improve the canal and make it more competitive.

Mrs. Watson is the present chairman in Hereford.

Rusk said he recently talked to the director of an American railroad who told him that the increasing operating costs made it cheaper to ship sand from New York to the west coast by air than by train.

The blood bank services 13 area hospitals, including Deaf Smith General in Hereford. The Hereford hospital keeps between eight and 10 units of different types of blood on hand around the clock.

"When it was Kissinger's turn to testify he looked at Rusk and asked, 'Why would anyone want to ship sand from New York to California?'" publisher O.G. Nieman Sears was recognized for many contributions usually without fanfare to the community.

The award is a Fun Breakfast tradition and is presented to an individual who is active in community affairs or projects. The presentation is made in a lighthearted fashion.

Hall, who graduated from Tech last year as the fourth leading scorer in Kader football history, told his audience that Americans have a great sense of humor to go with their competitive spirit. He related several examples in athletics to illustrate how important the competitive spirit can be.

The personable young Hall, a native of Dalhart, compared the talents of each individual to the gold at Fort Knox. It means no impression, buried in the ground, and neither do the talents locked in your heart. You've got to bring them out and let the world see them shine. You have to give of yourself.

And while he didn't use himself as an example, Hall typifies the spirit of which he talked. Despite a childhood accident which forced him to walk with an artificial leg from the knee down, Hall became one of the top kicking specialists in Tech history. He set three university records and tied two others while lettering three years on the grid team.

Hall was introduced by Pruitt, United Way leader, who urged citizens to support the community drive to secure

YHT Honors Hughes

Pat Hughes, principal of La Plata Junior High School, was recognized as an honorary member of Hereford's Chapter of Young Homemakers of Texas during the Area I convention in Amarillo.

Hughes was selected for the special membership by the executive YHT council of Area I, who remarked that "Hereford citizens have a reputation for supporting their community organizations." It is the first time that a local resident has received honorary membership on the area level.

Young homemakers and their counterpart organization, Young Farmers of Texas, are sanctioned by the Texas Education Agency, which specifies that the two groups be coordinated with the local school system. Hereford's YHT chapter has been allied with La Plata since the school was built nine years ago.

Hughes assists with administrative items in the league between his school and the Young Homemakers. He emphasized however, that Mrs. M. T. Burelsmith, who received honorary YHT membership while living at Hale Center, is the "guiding hand" of Hereford's Young Homemakers. Mrs. Burelsmith, who teaches homemaking at La Plata, is advisor of the local YHT chapter.

Upon receiving his certificate of honorary membership, Hughes stated "It is a pleasure to work with this able group of Young Homemakers."

Other local honors awarded during the Area I convention included the citation of Janis Kelley as Outstanding Young Homemaker and citation of Hereford's YHT chapter as runner-up for the Outstanding Chapter award.

Ann Landers Illegal Letters

DEAR ANN LANDERS: May I make a comment on chain letters? I refer to those similar to the one I am enclosing -- The Good Luck Prayer:

I've been asked to send 20 copies of the prayer within four days. (Postage alone is $2.60 -- not to mention the time and trouble.)

I can't think of 20 people I dislike enough to hand them such a bothersome burden. The chain letter I am now looking at threatens death to anyone who breaks the chain. How would I feel if I sent this terrible thing to a friend and she died shortly after?

Since I am not acquainted with any of the signatures on the letter, who knows if it has been around the world nine times or whether the extravagant claims are true. Please comment.

DEAR MAD: Chain letters are a racket, a crashing bore and a pain in the ankle. They are also illegal. My advice to one and all who receive these trashy annoyances is to feed them to the nearest goat.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I've noticed complaints from your readers because you use "he" when you mean he or she. Why don't you create a new pronoun exclusively denoting him or her? May I suggest "hem"?

Any newly made-up word, in order to gain acceptance, would have to be launched by a widely-read person such as you.

I hope you'll do it, Ann. Sexist expressions are an insult to the new breed of woman! --P.T. From San Francisco

DEAR P.T.: The word "hem" is already in the language. It has several meanings: (1) To restrain or surround, (2) the border or edge of a piece of fabric, (3) to pause in speech...as to "hem and haw."

I'm not particularly interested in coining any new words. I have enough trouble with the ones we already have.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Was I right or wrong? I'll leave it to you.

My husband and I were invited to my mother-in-law's home for Sunday brunch. She was a little late with the preparation so I offered to help.

I went in the back of the house to get my eyeglasses out of my purse and passed the bedroom. I was shocked to catch a glimpse of my husband lying on the bed and my mother-in-law's stepdaughter was sitting on the edge of the bed beside him. It looked very cozy.

After I regained my composure I walked back there, stood in the doorway and gave my husband a go-to-hell look. When we got home I told him a thing or two. He said I was out of my mind. -- to "grow up" -- that a mature woman wouldn't throw a fit over "nothing."

Does that sound like "nothing" to you? Answer soon. I am -- Furious In Anson

DEAR FUTY: Sorry, there are too many missing links in your story. (1) How old is the girl? (2) Why was your husband lying down? Was he ill? (3) What do you do when you "throw a fit"? Yell? Belt him? If I had more information I might be able to give you a reasonably intelligent answer. Write again, Please.

Dinner Launches Calliopian Year

Calliopian Study Club opened its 48th season Thursday with a dinner in the home of Meredith Wilcox, 205 Ranger Drive. Co-hostesses were Jane Gulley, Lee Alston, Peggy Furr, Amy Gilliland and Kay McWhorter.

A brief business meeting was conducted with the new club president, Mrs. Gilliland, officiating.

The 1977-78 yearbooks were presented with the theme being "Holidays for Calliopian".

Some of the upcoming programs include holidays of decorating, fashion, history, knowledge, love, stitchery, gardening, Broadway, the past and spring.

The club name of "Calliopian" is inspired from the ancient Greek Muse who presided over epic literature and rhetoric.

Active members in attendance were Teddy Alexander, Lee Alston, Leona Carruth, Lee Cave, Irene Conaway, Audine Dettman, Mary E. Fraser, Jane Gulley, Nancy Hays, Virginia Holmes, Faye Holt, Mary Sue

The Lame Duck became a symbol of one of America's oldest political animals -- the defeated office-holder serving out the remainder of his term. In the 18th century, however, the lame duck symbolized a speculator who got caught short playing the stock market.

In 1800, Abigail Adams described the newly built White House in a letter. "We have not the least fence, yard, or other convenience, without, and the great unfinished audience room I make a drying-room of, to hang up the clothes in," she wrote.

Michigan Retains Rank

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

Despite Coach Bo Schembechler's plea to newsmen to "Do me a favor and vote us out of first place," the Michigan Wolverines are still college football's No. 1 team.

Michigan and Southern California held onto the top spots in Monday's Associated Press college football poll while Oklahoma and Ohio State, who played Saturday in Columbus, Ohio, moved into the 3-4 positions, replacing Notre Dame and Alabama.

Michigan had more trouble than expected in beating Duke 24-9, evoking the following comment from Schembechler: "I hope you fellows do me a favor and vote us out of first place. I'd really appreciate that."

Nevertheless, the Wolverines improved 42 of 64 first-place votes and 1,094 of a possible 2,280 points from a nationwide ballot of sports writers and broadcasters.

Five first-place votes and 1,032 points went to Southern California, which beat Oregon State 17-10.

Oklahoma, the preseason leader, had dropped to fifth in the first regular-season poll last week by edging Vanderbilt 25-23 but jumped back to third with seven first-place votes and 955 points by crushing Utah 42-24. Meanwhile, Ohio State leaped from sixth to fourth with two first-place votes and 877 points by trouncing Minnesota 38-7.

Penn State, a 31-14 winner over Houston, jumped from 10th to fifth with five first-place ballots and 717 points while the losers slipped out of the Top Ten, from ninth to 19th.

In rising to fifth, Penn State edged past Texas A&M, which defeated Virginia Tech 27-4 and went from seventh to sixth with 708 points, and Texas Tech, up from eighth to seventh with two first-place votes and 631 points after trouncing New Mexico 49-14.

Colorado, which buried Kent State 42-0, joined the Top Ten, going from 12th to eighth with 435 points. Texas flattened Virginia 58-0 and also cracked the Top Ten, vaulting from 18th to ninth. The Longhorns earned the remaining first-place vote and 287 points.

Alabama sank from fourth to 10th by losing to Nebraska 31-24, but the triumph enabled the Crimson Tide to move back into the Top Twenty. They are in 14th place.

Notre Dame fell from third to 11th by losing to Mississippi 20-13. Completing the Second Ten behind the Irish are Mississippi State, Florida, Nebraska, Washington State, Arkansas, West Virginia, UCLA, Houston and Brigham Young.

Washington State, Arkansas and West Virginia made the Top Twenty for the first time. Washington State defeated Michigan State 23-21 after downing Nebraska the previous week while Arkansas dumped Oklahoma State, last week's No. 15 team, 28-6 and West Virginia upset No. 11 Maryland 16-10.

Last Week's Second Ten consisted of Maryland, Colorado, Mississippi State, UCLA, Oklahoma State, Pitt, Georgia, Texas, Florida and BYU.

CHICAGO (AP) - Charles O. Finley, owner of the Oakland A's baseball team, is reported doing "quite well" at Northwestern Memorial hospital in recuperating from open-heart surgery, a hospital spokesman says.

Finley, 59, was moved to a post-cardiac ward Monday and is eating regularly but receiving no visitors other than members of his immediate family.

The spokesman said no release date has been set but most persons spend "about eight days in the hospital following this kind of operation."

Finley underwent a four-hour bypass operation Thursday after emergency tests indicated arterial blockage.

KANSAS CITY (AP) - A record 2,385,893 spectators turned out last weekend for the 77 games involving at least one Division I team, the National Collegiate Athletic Association announced.

The Vikings, meanwhile, picked up where they left off last January - losing. This time it wasn't the Raiders doing the damage, the way they did in Super Bowl XI. It was Roger Staubach and the Dallas Cowboys, by a 16-10 sudden-death overtime score. The last time the Vikings had been beaten at home was in the 1975 playoffs. They were victimized by... who else? ... Roger Staubach and the Dallas Cowboys.

There were some changes, of course, in the NFL course of things. A few teams did rise up and shock fans and foes alike.

The Atlanta Falcons gave Coach Leeman Bennett a first-game present of a 17-6 victory over Joe Namath and the Los Angeles Rams.

The Cleveland Browns marched into Cincinnati, defied the Bengals with a ferocious defense and waltzed out with a 13-3 victory, their first triumph in Riverfront Stadium in five years.

The New York Giants went with untested quarterback Jerry Golsteyn and rode his first pro TD pass... and other opportunistic moments... to a 20-17 victory over the grizzled Washington Redskins.

Oh, some things remained very much the same - like Tampa Bay and Seattle, whose expansion futility of 1976 resumed with frustration in 1977, punchless offenses com-

The Oakland Raiders did their thing and the Minnesota Vikings did theirs. Like the man said, the more things change, the more they remain the same.

The Raiders picked up against San Diego where they left off last season, with the defense doing lethal but legal things and Ken Stabler throwing "bludge-down passes en route to a 24-0 whitewashing of the Chargers. It was the same score by which the two teams finished the 1976 regular season against each other.

The Buccaneers were beaten 13-3 by Philadelphia and the Seahawks were belted 29-14 by Baltimore.

Sunday's other season openers were Chicago 30, Detroit 20, New England 21, Kansas City 17, Miami 13, Buffalo 0, Green Bay 24, New Orleans 20, Denver 7, St. Louis 0, and Houston 0. Tonight it's San Francisco at Pittsburgh.

"It's nice to get a shoutout and great to get off to a winning start," said Raiders Coach John Madden. And it must have been particularly nice to see a couple of rookies - people the Raiders didn't figure to be playing - figuring strongly in the scoring.

Rookie Lester Hayes blocked a punt, rookie Randy McClanahan scooped up the loose ball and ran 18 yards to the San Diego 13, and Stabler cashed it in with a seven-yard scoring toss to Cliff Branch. Later, rookie Jeff Barnes recovered a fumble by San Diego's Johnny Rodgers, and Stabler turned it into a one-yard TD flip to Dave Casper.

"It was a near-perfect game," San Diego Coach Tommy Prothro said.

He wasn't talking about his charges.

Of the total 262,000 homes insured by the Federal Housing Administration last year, 34,000 were new homes and 228,000 were existing homes, reports the Mortgage Bankers Association of America.

Nieman Swamps Panel

Brand publisher Speedy Nieman shined up his crystal ball last week to blow out the rest of the Fearless Forecasters Panel behind a record of 22 correct picks and only four misses. Nieman overtook early leader Joyce Shipp with the good showing, and now owns a four-game margin over her.

Ship missed the contests last week, one better than Brand sports editor Bob Nigh. Craig Nieman posted a 15-11 mark, while editor Paul Sims fell further behind with a 12-14 record.

Nieman missed only two high school games and two collegiate contests in the third edition of the panel. He picked the Herd in their 40-6 loss to Borger as well as tabbing Midland Lee in their 21-14 upset loss to Plainview. His college misses came on the West Texas and Houston losses to McNeese and Penn State respectively.

Nieman leads the panel with a 59-19 mark on the year, four games better than Shipp, who resides at 55-23. Nigh is third at 52-26, while Craig Nieman at 48-30 and Sims, at 43-35, round out the list.

Percentage-wise Nieman has a .756 standard to lead the pack. Shipp has a .705 mark, while Nigh is at .667, Craig Nieman at .615, and Sims at .551. The consensus column trails Nigh by two picks, and owns a 50-28 (.641) mark.

Shipp was the only panelist to correctly pick the Bulldogs over the Herd, while Nieman outguessed the entire panel by picking Canyon and Lockney over Caprock and Olton respectively.

Cummings Tops Grid Entries

The games are either getting easier, or the football fans are getting back into the swing of things. Three entrants in last week's Brand Football Contest missed but four games on the slate.

Joe Don Cummings walked away with the first place prize of $25 with his tie-breaker guess of 72 on the total number of points Oklahoma and Utah would score. The Sooners won that contest 62-64, making the correct figure 80.

Larry Walterscheid placed second on his tie-breaker guess of 50, while Dickey Sims won third place for his tie-breaker guess of 48. Walterscheid won $15 for his efforts, while Sims

All three winners missed the Plainview upset of Midland Lee on the contest. Cummings and Sims both erred in picking Iowa State over Iowa and Tulia over Muleshoe. Cummings tabbed Dumas over Tascosa as his fourth miss, while Sims lost out by going with West Texas over McNeese.

Walterscheid's other three misses were the Borger win over Hereford, the Canyon win over Caprock, and the Lockney win over Olton.

The fourth edition of the contest appears in today's Brand. All entries must be turned into the Brand office by 5 p.m. Friday.

Volleyball Team Third at Slaton

The HHS volleyball team claimed third place in the Slaton Tournament last weekend, winning two of three matches while losing only to eventual tourney champ Brownfield along the way.

Hereford whipped Dusbear 15-11, 15-9 in their opening round match, but fell to a tough Brownfield team 15-6, 15-11 in the semifinals. Brownfield went on to win the tourney Saturday night.

Hereford met District 4-4A foe Plainview in the third-place matchup, and came away with a 15-9, 16-14 win to claim the third place trophy.

The dual wins leave coach Helen Reed's spikers with a 4-4 season record. The team will travel to Amarillo tonight for a match with Caprock. The next home match is Thursday night against Tascosa.

Bell Honored

Hereford tailback Paul Bell has been honored by the Amarillo Globe-News as AA back of the week for his performance against the Borger Bulldogs in the Herd's 40-6 loss last Friday. Bell rushed for 138 yards in the game on 32 carries, and leads District 4-4A runners with 338 yards for the season.

Bell was selected over Palo Duro's fullback Autry Polley (117 yards on 21 carries against Clovis), Tascosa's Stan Frampton (115 yards on 16 totes), Amarillo fullback Kym Fletcher (121 yards on 19 carries), and Caprock sophomore sensation Bobby Short, who went over 100 yards for the third straight week with 101 markers against Canyon.

Palo Duro linebacker Trine Villarreal was named the defensive player of the week for a 13-tackle performance in the Don's 26-0 swamping of the Clovis Wildcats.

Friona Co-op Claims Title

The Fiestas Patrias First Annual Men's Class A Slow-Pitch Softball Tournament attracted fourteen area teams to compete in Hereford over the weekend. Entries from Amarillo, Lubbock, Clovis, Friona, Vega, Canyon and six local teams started competition Saturday morning playing on the Pony League Field and St. Anthony's field. The Tournament, sponsored by the GI Forum and co-directed by Rumaldo Garcia, Gary Victor, and Rudy Gonzales, concluded Sunday Afternoon.

The first four places earned trophies and represented four cities' entries with the Beacon A's from Hereford claiming second place. First place went to Friona Co-op, a Friona and Lubbock entry, third place to MBPXL, a Friona and Clovis entry and fourth place to Dier Weinersattel of Amarillo.

Other local teams playing included The Toters, Greyhound, Vega, Caviness and Grain Handlers.

A Most Valuable player trophy was presented to Bo Carnack, Friona Co-op, based on his consistent performance by increasing electric bills? Part of the explanation is: RIISING FUEL COSTS!

PUZZLED

5. Amarillo at 6. Plainview

The tremendous jump in the cost of fuels needed to produce electricity accounts for a large part of higher electric bills. Users of fuel turned to less expensive forms of energy when oil prices began to rise a few years ago. The demand for the less expensive types of fuels increased, and so did the cost. Now all fuels are expensive. It appears the cost of fuel will continue rising and this will cause the cost of electricity your Cooperative purchases to increase.

'Heady' Roger Too Much for Vikings

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) - Roger Staubach fulfilled one of the Navy's most famous fighting traditions in leading the Dallas Cowboys to their 13th consecutive opening-day victory in the National Football League.

"Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead," the legendary Naval battle cry, may well have been on Staubach's lips as he navigated the final four yards into Minnesota's end zone to give the Cowboys a 16-10 overtime victory over the Vikings Sunday.

The 35-year-old quarterback, who spent four years on active duty with the U.S. Navy before joining Dallas in 1969, doesn't always like to run, but when he has to...

"I just put my head down," explained Staubach. "Sometimes it works, sometimes, well you know, I've got a few bruises."

Staubach pinched into the end zone between Viking line-backers Matt Blair and Jeff Siemon.

"I don't like seeing him run, but I can't take that away from him," added Dallas Coach Tom Landry. "When he knows it's gonna win the game, you can't stop him."

The Vikings were expecting Staubach.

"We know that's one of their plays down in that area," said Viking Coach Bud Grant. "We were looking for it."

Staubach's seven-yard TD pass to Preston Pearson gave a Dallas a 10-7 lead midway through the fourth period, but Fred Cox kicked a 35-yard field goal with 1:25 left to send the game into overtime.

Dallas' placekicker Efran Herrera missed a 27-yard field goal try with three seconds left that could have prevented the sudden-death session.

The Cowboy defense harassed Fran Tarkenton and Co., mercilessly after Minnesota's opening drive of the game, which carried 81 yards and resulted in the lone Viking touchdown.

"There is just no answer why we looked so good then and not later," said Tarkenton. "It's obvious both defenses played better than the offense."

Chuck Foreman, all along at the Dallas 10, caught a Tarkenton pass and high-stepped into the end zone. Cox's kick gave the Vikings a 7-0 lead. Herrera's 40 yard field goal in the second period pulled Dallas within 7-3.

Staubach hit on 18 of 30 pass attempts for 196 yards while Tarkenton suffered three interceptions while completing just 13 of 32 attempts for 182 yards.

Cliff Harris picked off two passes by Tarkenton, who suffered through a miserable performance. The 17-year veteran quarterback was responsible for another Viking turnover with a poor pitchout to Foreman and he was whistled twice for intentionally grounding the ball.

"We gave up more than they did," said Grant. "That's hard to overcome."

Tony Dorsett, the 1976 Heisman Trophy winner, played briefly in the second quarter, carrying the ball four times for 11 yards. Dorsett fumbled at the Viking 15 to kill one Dallas threat.

"It's tempting to use Tony, because we know he's going to be a great player," said Landry. "I want to see him get the experience, but this wasn't a good day for him to get experience."

Yocum Only Top Team to Descend

By The Associated Press

Yoakum's reign atop the Class 2A rankings in The Associated Press Schoolboy Football poll came to an abrupt halt at the hand of JA Gonzales last week and runnerup Bellville was standing by to take advantage of the slip.

Gonzales' 37-14 victory dropped Yoakum down to 10th in this week's 2A ratings while the other No. 1's of a week ago-Sherman in 4A, Mount Pleasant in 3A, Seagraves in A and Wheeler in B-continued to lead their divisions.

Houston Offense A Disappointment

HOUSTON (AP) - The Houston Oilers offense, so much improved during preseason games, finally cranked up to blank the New York Jets 20-0 in a ragged National Football League season opener Sunday but it took plenty of urging—two pass interference calls and Curley Culp's fumble return.

"I will speak sternly to these young men next week," Oilers offensive coordinator Ken Shipp said after the Oilers finally put away the hapless Jets. "I was really disappointed in our game. We worked hard all week. We just didn't get the job done."

A second quarter pass interference call gave Houston a first down at the New York one and fullback Don Hardeman bulled over on the next play.

The penalty originally was called against Jets defensive back Burgess Owens but both Owens and safety Maurice Tyler said later that Tyler was guilty of both key pass interference calls.

Early in the fourth quarter an 11-yard pass interference call against Tyler gave Houston another first down at the New York one and this time, quarterback Dan Pastorini submarined in for the score.

Since the Jets got inside Houston's 20 only once in the game, that should have wrapped it up for Houston but Culp gave the Oilers another score in the fourth quarter. He scooped up a fumble by Jets quarterback Richard Todd and ran 27 yards to the New York three before being hauled down from behind.

Two plays later rookie Rob

Carpenter leapfrogged the line for the score on a 22-yard pass to Culp.

Butler, who already had missed on four field goal tries, then missed the attempt.

Despite Shipp's concern, Oilers head coach D. W. Moore Phillips said "I think we had great things, but the offense was as good as the defense was given me since I've been here."

The Oilers have been there but the results have been in coming. The Oilers finished after Butler missed field goals of 22, 46 and 41 yards in the first three minutes.

"After we missed those field goals, we got down," Shipp said. "We had no thought of chances to blow through the defense. I didn't have the better sense; it was like we were willing to let the defense take over."

Tyler and Owens already disagreed with the referee's penalties.

"I don't know what the referee's the first game of the season and we can't touch the referee," Tyler said. "The referee says the game is football, it's not a sport and it's not a game. It's a Warner game."

Owens said "I believe that in a game of professional football, you can't be aggressive. It's become a pity game."

Billy "White Shoes" Johnson, bottled up some of the game, provided fourth quarter excitement with a 71-yard punt return to the Jets 28. His time was wasted by Butler's fourth field goal miss, this one from 44 yards.

"Two of them were partially blocked," Butler said. "Even on the last one, they were able to get good penetration. I've never been one to lose my confidence."

The Boston Red Sox may have gotten themselves back in the American League East pennant race with a 6-3 victory over the first-place Yankees. But few of the participants were dwelling on Monday's game.

"We've got to win tomorrow night," Boston catcher Carlton Fisk said after his three-run homer in the third inning powered the Red Sox within 3½ games of New York and into a tie for second place with Baltimore. "Pretty soon you run out of tomorrow."

"If we win tomorrow night, it's going to be an interesting 11 days after that," added Boston manager Don Zimmer.

And Yankees manager Billy Martin chipped in by saying, "I'll be very satisfied if we win tomorrow night. A split is all we need here."

Reggie Cleveland hurled a seven-hitter and received support from Carl Yastrzemski, who smashed his 24th homer in the eighth inning after New York had moved within 4-3 on Dave Kingman's third home run in three games as a Yankee.

"I got a few breaks and there were some good plays behind me," said Cleveland, 10-8, who pitched eight shutout innings against New York last Wednesday before losing on Reggie Jackson's two-run homer. "I also made some good pitches when I needed them."

"The fifth inning was the key," added Cleveland, who got out of a jam after Craig Nettles and Lou Piniella opened the inning with singles. "In every game, there's a time when you get out of trouble in one inning and you're okay. The fifth was the inning for me."

Thurman Munson also homered for New York. Ed Figueroa, 15-10, took the loss.

Yaz's homer was Boston's 200th of the season, making the Red Sox only the fifth team to hit 200 or more home runs in a season twice.

Baltimore lost a chance to gain ground on the Yankees as they lost to Toronto 3-1. Chicago shutout Oakland 8-0. Detroit beat Cleveland 6-4 and Texas topped California 6-1.

There was no action in the National League Monday. Blue Jays 3, Orioles 1

Jerry Garvin tossed a nine-hitter, working out of jams in the eighth and ninth innings, to hurt the Orioles' pennant chances.

Garvin got Lee May to hit into a double play with men on first and third in the Orioles' eighth, then retired three straight batters with men on first and third again in the ninth.

White Sox 8, A's 0

Ken Kravec hurled his first shutout in the major leagues, a four-hitter, and struck out eight as Chicago topped Oakland. Lamar Johnson and Jorge Orta each knocked in two runs and Eric Soderholm slammed his 23rd home run for Chicago.

Tigers 6, Indians 4

A two-run single by Ben Oglive in the eighth inning was decisive for Detroit. Rusty Staub hammered his 22nd home run of the year for the Tigers and Andre Thornton had No. 28 for Cleveland.

NUMBER ONE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 18)

S.J.R. 18 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to provide for expanding the Court of Criminal Appeals from its current membership of five judges to nine judges and to permit the court to sit in panels of three judges.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment increasing the size of the Court of Criminal Appeals to nine judges, and permitting the court to sit in panels of three judges."

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 13)

S.J.R. 13 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide for an additional $200 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund and to allow surviving widows of veterans to purchase tracts under certain circumstances.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide for an additional $200 million in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the Veterans' Land Fund and to allow surviving widows of veterans to purchase tracts under certain circumstances."

NUMBER THREE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 3)

Under current Texas law a person charged with a felony offense who has previously been convicted of two felony offenses may be denied bail. S.J.R. 3 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution which would also result in the denial of bail, for a limited time and subject to appeal, to a person accused of committing a felony while on bail for a prior felony for which the person has been indicted, or accused of a felony involving the use of

NUMBER SIX ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 49)

S.J.R. 49 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution to permit the legislature to authorize state and national banks to exercise banking privileges by use of electronic devices or machines located at such places as may be provided by law and authorizes the sharing of such electronic devices or machines among banks on a reasonable, non-discriminatory basis.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to give the legislature the power to authorize state and national banks to exercise banking and discounting privileges by use of electronic devices or machines."

NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 5)

S.J.R. 5 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution authorizing the legislature to grant exemptions or other relief from ad valorem taxes on property designated for the preservation of cultural, historical or natural history resources.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing tax relief to preserve certain cultural, historical, or natural history resources."

NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 19)

S.J.R. 19 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution authorizing the formation of associations authorized to collect certain refundable assessments from producers of poultry, livestock, and other raw agricultural or marine products and validating the 1967 law regarding the formation of such associations.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the formation of agricultural or marine associations which may mandate the collection of refundable assessments for improvement of production, marketing, or use of their products."

NUMBER SEVEN ON THE BALLOT (S.J.R. 30)

S.J.R. 30 proposes an amendment to the Texas Constitution changing the name of the State Judicial Qualifications Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct and making several changes in its powers and procedures. The most significant change would authorize the Commission to suspend from office judges and justices under indictment.

The wording of the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment changing the name of the State Judicial Qualifications Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, and relating to the commission and the powers and proceedings of the commission, a master, and the supreme court, and the court of civil appeals justices serving in place of the supreme court, for the suspension, censure, removal, or involuntary retirement of a justice, judge, or justice of the peace under certain circumstances"

Today In History

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 20, the 263rd day of 1977. There are 102 days left in the year. Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1938, a hurricane swept over parts of New Jersey, New York and New England, taking nearly 700 lives.

On this date: In 480 B.C., the Greeks defeated the Persians in the naval Battle of Salamis in the Aegean Sea.

In 1519, the Portuguese navigator, Ferdinand Magellan, set out from Spain on a voyage to find a western passage to the Indies, and one of his ships circled the world.

In 1850, Congress voted to ban slave trading in the District of Columbia.

In 1870, national unification of Italy was achieved.

In 1881, Chester Arthur took the oath as the 21st president of the United States after the death of President James Garfield.

In 1973, the British-French supersonic airliner, Concorde, made its first landing in the U.S. - at the dedication of the Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport.

Ten years ago: The British luxury liner, Queen Elizabeth 2, was launched.

Five years ago: A Federal judge allowed the Democratic Party to continue a $3 million damage suit in connection with the Watergate bugging, and to name as a defendant President Richard Nixon's chief fund-raiser, Maurice Stans.

One year ago: President Carter promised sweeping tax reforms that he said would place the burden of government on the wealthy and big business rather than on the working class.

Today's birthdays: Actress Sophia Loren is 43 years old. Fashion designer James Galanos is 53.

Thought for today: No question is ever settled until it is settled right - Ella Wheeler Wilcox, American writer, 1855-1919.

Med Schools Must Hire Blacks

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Carter administration Monday asked the Supreme Court to rule that medical schools can consider the race of would-be students in an "affirmative action" special admissions program.

The action was seen as a victory for civil rights groups that had feared the Justice Department position might weaken affirmative action programs mandating hiring and school enrollment of minorities.

Opponents claim that such affirmative action programs often result in reverse discrimination, shutting college and employment doors to more qualified whites.

The Justice Department suggested that the high court not reach a decision, however, on whether Allan Bakke should be admitted to the University of California at Davis Medical School.

Bakke, a white man who was rejected for admission to the medical school in 1973 and 1974, successfully argued before the California Supreme Court that he was the victim of racial discrimination. Bakke claimed that he would have been admitted if not for the school's practice of reserving 16 of its 100 entering-class spots for "disadvantaged" students.

Bakke said that those students selected for the special admissions program were never white and that they were less academically qualified than he.

The university appealed the California court's ruling, and the Supreme Court will hear arguments in the case Oct. 12.

The Justice Department brief, signed by Atty. Gen. Griffin Bell, Solicitor General Wade McCree and Drew Days III, head of the department's Civil Rights Division, said the California court applied "incorrect legal standards" in evaluating the constitutionality of the special admissions program.

"The parties have portrayed the case as an appropriate vehicle for definitive resolution of numerous constitutional questions that may arise with respect to minority-sensitive programs," said the brief. "But deficiencies in the record of this case make it inappropriate for the court to anticipate these questions."

"In our view, only one question should be finally resolved ... whether a state university admissions program may take race into account to remedy the effects of societal discrimination. We submit that it may."

The administration's brief should come as a relief to many civil rights attorneys who feared not as strong an endorsement for affirmative action programs, called "reverse discrimination" by their opponents.

It was reported that an earlier Justice Department brief supported affirmative action but came down heavily against racial quotas. The California Supreme Court found that Bakke was the victim of such a racial quota.

Although not speaking to the quota issue explicitly, the Justice Department brief filed today appeared to defend the medical school's program against the California Supreme Court's finding that it was harboring an unconstitutional quota that violated Bakke's right to equal treatment under the law.

Saying it did not understand the state court's definition of a quota, the government brief referred to the 16-student program as "a particular target."

"It is not clear whether the number was inflexible or was used simply as a standard for assessing the program's operation," the 74-page brief said of the university's 16 reserved spots.

Civil rights groups urged the university not to appeal the California court's decision, fearing that the facts of the case would not present the best possible test for affirmative action programs before the Supreme Court. One fact that troubled some civil rights attorneys was that the medical school at situation with no long history of racial discrimination.

Americans Working!

Headlines which focus on Americans who are not working tend to leave the impression that we are a nation of goldbricks. We are not.

There is still so much Horatio Algerism left alive in our people that there are more than 4 million Americans holding down two or more jobs--almost 5 percent of all workers are doing double-duty! What is more, our workers are more productive than those in other countries.

A lot of Americans are goofing off; that none can deny. Some families have been three generations on welfare; that is a scandalous indictment of "the system" which encourages idleness.

Yet in spite of that negative influence, Americans remain the most industrious people on this planet! Andy Rooney researched this ratio for CBS, surprised himself to learn that for every $100 worth of goods which the average American worker produces, the average Canadian produces $92 worth, the French worker $81, the German--for all his reputation as a hard worker--produces $174 worth of goods, the average Japanese $61, the average Italian $55. And the average Britisher--with his Labor government--has been so weaned away from the work ethic that he now produces only $54 worth of goods. About half as much as the United States of American Worker.

Let it be said that American workers look better partly because of the phenomenal productivity of our farmers.

Also, where one-in-six Americans works for government, where productivity is more difficult to measure and goofing off is more obvious, in most of those other nations that percentage is even higher.

Arnold Toynbee once predicted that by the year 2000 only 25 percent of the world's people would be working and that those who did work would be paid high wages for a 25-hour work week.

Evidence now indicates he miscalculated the relative attraction of work versus idleness. Idleness is like a rich dessert; there's just so much you can take.

Rooney's research convinced him that if the day ever came when our work was performed by machines, so that we could all be on an endless vacation, bored Americans would immediately go to work inventing a machine to take those vacations for them!

Rutgers University researchers interviewed 1,026 auto workers, discovered 95 percent of them "happy" in their work.

All things considered--automation, improved equipment, streamlined procedures--the average American worker is producing more than his grandfather did.

And where Soviet Russian production figures are not available for comparison, a significant fringe benefit was mentioned recently in a Soviet study of longevity.

Russia claims 19,304 centenarians.

The Soviet Institute of Gerontology found that "almost all of the 40,000 very elderly who were interviewed had continued working to an advanced age."

A vineyard worker to age 124, a carpenter to age 128 and a shepherd to age 131!

Wife May Have Stopped Oswald At One Time

NEW YORK (AP) - Lee Harvey Oswald planned to shoot Richard Nixon in Dallas seven months before the assassination of President John F. Kennedy but was stopped by his wife, according to an article in the current issue of Ladies Home Journal.

In a copyright excerpt from Priscilla Johnson McMillan's book "Marina and Lee," Marina Oswald Porter is quoted as saying Oswald was angry by a speech Nixon made in Washington on April 20, 1963, attacking Cuban leader Fidel Castro and calling for the ouster of the Soviets from Cuba.

After reading accounts of the speech the next day, she said, Oswald, who was slain by Jack Ruby in the basement of the Dallas police station after being arrested for Kennedy's killing, put a pistol in his pocket and said: "Nixon is coming to town. I am going to have a look."

Taking that as a threat to Nixon, Mrs. Porter said she asked Oswald to follow her into the bathroom, then ran out and braced the door closed to lock him inside.

She said she warned him that if he did not agree to stay home, she would tell police about an assassination attempt he allegedly made 10 days earlier against former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

Vandals Ruin Carrots

As if insects, weather and the market weren't enough to contend with, local farmer Don Waters discovered he had a vandalism problem when he went to work Monday morning. Vandals left a tractor running in a field of carrots on Waters' farm south of Hereford on Progressive Road, and a total of approximately four acres of carrots was ruined. The tractor was discovered still circling in the field early Monday. The top photo shows the area in the field which was worn down by the tractor, while the bottom photo depicts a small patch of carrots left in the midst of the destruction. Tracks left by the machine can be seen, running through the carrots left standing. Waters, who couldn't come up with any apparent reason for the destruction, estimated that his loss on the carrots could run as high as $5,000. The county sheriff's office is investigating the incident. [Brand Photos by Jim Steiert].

On Canal Treaty

No Blackmail, Says Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate Intelligence Committee said Monday it has found "no evidence" that Panamanian officials had blackmailed the United States into concessions in the Panama Canal Treaty negotiations.

Following two days of closed door hearings, the panel chairman, Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, issued a statement saying that it had found "no reason to believe or conclude that U.S. intelligence activities have in any way affected the final results" of the Panama Canal treaty talks.

The report came following a second secret meeting of the panel in which Stansfield Turner, director of the CIA, U.S. treaty negotiators Ellsworth Bunker and Sol Linowitz, and State Department officials gave testimony.

Senate sources had reported earlier that the panel was investigating an allegation that in 1974, Panamanian dictator Omar Torrijos had discovered electronic surveillance by U.S. agents and had threatened to expose the practice unless the Americans made concessions on the canal treaty then being negotiated.

Inouye refused to confirm that that was the subject of his committee's inquiry or to comment on any aspects of the subject.

Asked whether he felt that would put the matter to rest, he said "I would hope the people of the United States would have some faith" in the panel.

Torrijos and President Carter signed the treaties nearly two weeks ago but they still must overcome strong opposition to win Senate Ratification. Some opponents have charged that Torrijos is corrupt and the United States should not make treaties or other agreements with him.

The Lighter Side

DENVER (AP) - Trans World Airlines has the go-ahead to begin nonstop flights between Denver and London, but there's a hitch - the wide-bodied Boeing 747 often used on such long flights can't make it from Denver to London.

The problem came to light after the Civil Aeronautics Board granted TWA the route last week.

A man who identified himself as a 747 flight crew member from a competing airline pointed out to reporters that a non-stop flight from Denver to London would be impossible for a 747. Denver's mile-high atmosphere is too thin to permit a 747 loaded for an intercontinental flight to get off the ground.

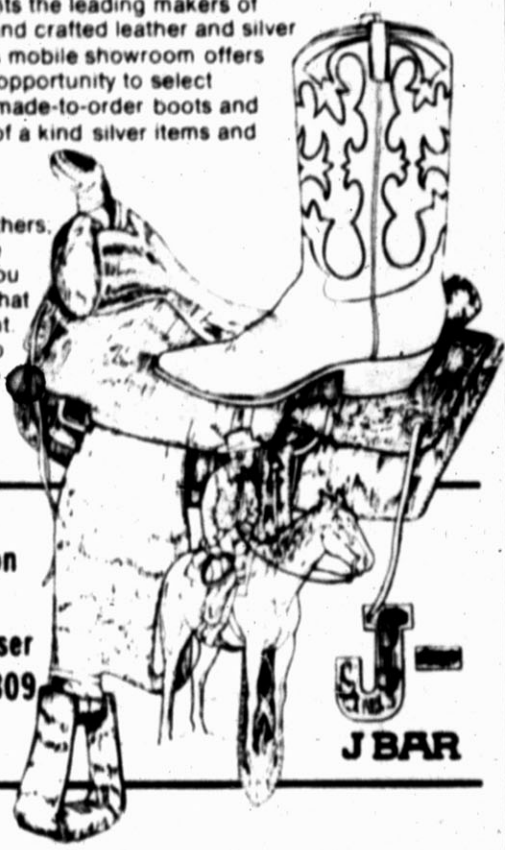

TWA's official Jerry Cosley, contacted about the report, admitted after some research that the caller's information was accurate. He said the 747 could fly from London to Denver with a full load, however.

HEREFORD BOARD OF REALTORS

Lance: Others Doing It

By JOHN CUNIFF AP BUSINESS ANALYST

NEW YORK (AP) - Some corporation executives and bankers forget the mail issues as they watched Bert Lance duel for his honor and his job. They were worried about their own.

The same issues involved in the Lance Affair, particularly bank overdrafts and the blurred distinction between personal and corporate business, are erupting in heated business debates too.

Shareholder suits and angry annual meetings emphasize the concern over what some critics have termed the management ripoff, the conferring upon itself by management of numerous perquisites.

Not only have public attitudes changed in regard to management, but so have the rules and regulations. The internal Revenue Service and the Securities and Exchange Commission actively seek to dispell any notion that what's good for management is necessarily good for business.

It might have worked that way for the likes of the Morgans, Hills, Harrimans, Rockefeller and Goulds, but times have changed, and many a corporate executive keeps a wary eye on "troublesome" shareholders.

It is true, as Bert Lance indicated, that overdrafts were and perhaps still are thought to be a legitimate way of doing business in small communities, where the banker occupies a patriarchal role.

His arbitrariness, it has been said, is for the good of the community. Who knows best who should get money, and on what terms? The banker, of course, or so the argument goes, is human. He is wise. Responsible.

He also can be discriminatory. The "responsible" people in town who are thought worthy of the bank's money might also be a clique. Black farmers who tried to get crop loans after they registered to vote in the early 1960s can tell you about that.

Overdrafts to bank officers are hardly so benign a practice, as Lance indicated. People do get hurt. In fact, unofficial overdrafts to officers are known to be a common denominator in bank failures.

Viewed from a regulatory point of view, the unofficial overdraft is a broken contract, a threat, however small, to a bank's solvency. In good times overdrafts might not be dangerous. When economies turn, as they do, such loans often cannot be paid.

It is for this reason that bankers throughout the country are disturbed by what they feel is the mistaken notion on the part of many people that overdrafts are everyday practice. Such notions, they know, soon lead to investigations.

But unofficial overdrafts - there are official overdrafts also, in which a line of credit is established for a customer, presumably after an inquiry into his credit-worthiness - apply only to banks. Even larger among the considerations that are focused by this inquiry is the personal use of shareholders' property.

Our conception of the corporation has changed in the past century, and much regulation has been aimed at reminding everyone concerned that the shareholders own the company and that management is an employee. Still, many people view corporations as private, a semantical problem that develops too easily when one wishes to distinguish between government and nongovernment enterprise. The truth is, the words public and private are still interchangeable.

The large corporation which sells shares to the public is publicly owned in that it might have hundreds of thousands of owners. But it is private as distinguished from government-owned. Private enterprise yes, but publicly owned.

And so it is in the interest of shareholders that the SEC has been examining another Georgia development, the assembly of many corporate jets in Augusta for this year's masters Golf Tournament. Company business? Or private pleasure?

Because an executive takes papers with him on a weekend, does this justify his use of the company jet in traveling to his New Hampshire summer home? Don't all employees take their jobs home with them - in mind if not on paper?

New SEC guidelines require that perquisites for the personal use of top officers hereafter will have to be reported as compensation. And that, of course, means that the IRS is looking into the implications for taxes.

Will the Lance affair clarify some of the issues? Perhaps.

Today's REAL ESTATE

by Lynn Jones-G.R.I. Realtor

Many people are unaware that every month legislation is introduced, both national, and state, which would be detrimental to your right of private ownership of property. Serious attempts are being made to give the government increasing control and to restrict your rights to ownership.

Realtors, through their national and state organizations of NAR and TAR, are effectively the only voice that lobbies for the right of the individual to own property. Sure, Realtors are interested in maintaining their profession. But in doing so, they also protect your right to own property in fee simple, without government restrictions.
