Most of the arguments in behalf of the law fall back upon the theory of prevention of waste. The principal argument is that if a pipe line company buys from one leasee but does not buy from the adjacent lease, the favored operator draws his oil from the ground to the detriment of the unfavored operator.

But just how the pipe line company can be required to purchase from the unfavored lease is a question yet to be answered. Especially would this be difficult in cases where the pipe line companies operate their own properties and not only their own oil.

Injunction Restrains City, Railway Company From Closing Goliad Crossing

Trial Of Suit Due For December Court Term

The Goliad Street crossing controversy flared in court again Friday, with granting of a temporary injunction restraining the Texas & Pacific Railway and the City of Big Spring from making any effort to close the street by Judge Fritz R. Smith, judge of the 32nd judicial district.

According to a supplemental petition, replacing one filed several months ago by the Farmers Gin and Supply Co. against J. B. Pickle, et al, work of closing the crossing had started. Mayor Pickle, City Manager V. R. Smitham, other city officials and the Texas & Pacific Railway, were named as defendants. W. W. Inkman, who was named as a defendant in the first suit, was not included in the second. Inkman, a former city commissioner, has resigned.

It is alleged in the petition that work started Thursday in closing the grade crossing. Work was halted, however, by the injunction. Several property owners on the north side of the Texas and Pacific right of way, joined the Farmers Gin as plaintiffs, alleging closing the street would damage their property.

The injunction follows the opening Thursday of the new $111,000 Benton Street viaduct, said to be one of the best concrete and steel structures in West Texas. The new viaduct, which was constructed by the railway company, was opened for the first time Thursday. According to the agreement reached between the Texas and Pacific and the city, the Goliad Street crossing would be closed as soon as the viaduct was completed.

When it is closed it will mark the elimination of the final grade crossing in the city limits.

When the initial suit was called for trial in the September term of court, attorneys for each side agreed to a continuance until the December term. The injunction against the company is temporary, with plaintiffs asking it be made permanent.

In all probability, it is said, the suit will go to trial during the December term of court.

Damage Suit Filed Against Radio Concern

Suit for damages of "not less than $3,000" was filed in district court today by the Anderson Music Co., Dallas.

It follows a suit filed by the state of Texas against the same company, charging violation of the anti-trust laws, and asking for penal damages totaling more than $500,000. The latter suit was filed in Dawson County.

The suit was filed by Clyde E. Thibault, local attorney, who also joined the state in the Dawson County suit.

Eastern Howard Well On Pump After Third Shot

Ambition Curbed

Greene Petroleum Co. and Gety Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Denman, section 14, block 30, township 1-1, T&P survey, eastern Howard county, is to be produced from total depth of 2,818 feet, following the third shot.

The well swabbed 63 barrels in nine hours early this week. One hundred quarts was shot from 2,660-2,710 feet and the well put 100 barrels of oil in the tank in nine hours. The first shot was with 90 quarts from 2,790-2,816 feet, making the well look good for about 60 barrels a day on the pump.

The first pay was logged from 2,615-30 feet with increases encountered at 2,666-2,703 and 2,775 feet. The last shot was 80 quarts from 2,600-40 feet and the well was then cleaned out to run tubing. It looks much better than heretofore.

Getty & Greene No. 1 Snyder, southeast of No. 1 Denman and in the southwest quarter of section 27, block 30, township 1 south, T&P survey, had apparently defined limit of the eastern Howard pool operated by Sinclair's No. 1 Dodge Estate, having drilled to 2,965 feet without showing oil since 2,795 feet.

Sinclair Oil & Gas company's No. 1 G. D. Montgomery, which had first pay at 2,152-64 feet and was shot with 220 quarts at 2,452-2,570 feet, later finding second pay at 2,640-42 feet and being shot with 300 quarts at 2,648-98 feet, produced 200 barrels. Total depth 2,798 feet.

In Glasscock county an important test, F.H.E. Oil Co's No. 1 Mee 1,550 feet north and east parallel to section lines of the southeast corner of section 7, block 34, township 28, T&P survey, had drilled to 2,120 feet.

World Oil company's No. 3 C McDowell, 2310 feet from the north and west of the northeast corner of section 21, block 44, township 28, T&P survey, was shut down at 660 feet early in the week.

In Mitchell county Morrison et al No. 1 Pae et al 660 feet south and 1580 feet west, parallel to section lines of the northern corner of section 8, block 27, T&P survey, spudded 10 feet and shot down.

Buck Bennett, chief deputy sheriff of Dawson county, other than to say he was "working on a clue" regarding the disappearance of Enid Marriott, Fort Morgan, Colo., school teacher, has no comment to make regarding a telegram he had sent to the sheriff of Fort Morgan, asking if a reward was offered for information on the woman's whereabouts.

Bennett declared in all probability something definite would be learned by Saturday. Bennett declared a member of the sheriff's department was working on the theory the woman in question was the missing Colorado school teacher.

FOR FORT MORGAN, Colo., Nov. 28 (AP)—The Enid Marriott disappearance case today added to its tangled threads of evidence additional personal effects of the missing school teacher and a telegram from a Texas sheriff asking whether a reward was offered for information leading to the woman's whereabouts.

The sheriff's office here replied a reward of $100 had been posted. No answer had been received from Bennett at noon.

Meanwhile, at the point where the brick, iron ditch, which yesterday yielded Miss Marriott's comb, hat box and suit case, is under the Fort Morgan-Greeley highway a nail file identified by one of the woman's pupils as belonging to her was found on a ledge under the bridge. Apparently it had fallen there from the bridge banister.

On the bed of the ice-crustured water in the ditch was found an automatic lead pen, supposedly also property of the missing school teacher. Down stream a half mile the hat box was found yesterday, and still further down stream today searchers came upon a handkerchief, a powder puff and some pupils' examination papers, all identified as belonging to Miss Marriott.

Fred Young, Denver private airplane pilot, flew his machine to a point near Fort Morgan today, and carried Deputy Sheriff Homer A. McMullen aloft to search irrigation reservoirs and irrigation ditches with a spyglass for possible traces of the school teacher's belongings.

Hundreds of pupils with pick axes and crowbars dug in the bed of the irrigation ditch, in which were found the teacher's personal effects.

Daily average runs of crude oil to the Cosden Oil company's refinery here set a high mark for recent months during the week ending Nov. 22, when 10,449 barrels was used each day.

Cosden's runs represented a third of the entire consumption of West Texas refineries for the week. Col. Tex. Colorado ran 7,000 barrels daily and Humble's plant at Mesquite 8,612 barrels.

COLORADO WOLVES OUST BIG SPRING EASILY, 26-13

Passing Of Mann, Quarterback, Is Too Much For Steers To Cope With In Last Grid Clash Of The Season

Wolves Give Longhorns Last Lesson In Aviation Line, Scoring Four Touchdowns Via The Aerial Route

The Big Spring Steers took their final 1930 lesson in aviation Thanksgiving Day. The Colorado Wolves, a Class B organization, with a young fellow named Mann fooling around in the backfield, again demonstrated to the Bovines that in this day and time those that take to the air go places. The complete absence of an aerial defense, coupled with a brilliant presence of an aerial offense, on Colorado's part, sent the Steers down 26 to 13 in the final encounter of the season.

The Wolves had the habit of slinging the ball every time they got hold of it, which was often. In all they tossed 32 passes, and completed 13 for a total yard gainage of 294 yards. Wrapped up in that is found the punt that proved fatal to the heavier, more experienced Big Spring Longhorns.

Score Early

The Wolves tallied one touchdown in the first quarter, two in the second and one in the third, and gleamed a pair of extra points. The Steers tallied one in the third quarter and one in the fourth, grasping one extra point, to account for their total tally of the day.

Harry Taylor's little fellows forced the Steers to accept the defensive from the start.

Starting on their 30 yard line in the final minutes of the first quarter, the Wolves went for the initial counter.

Flowers' pass was intercepted by Dune. Colorado's 30 yard line. Mann flipped a 20 yard pass to Harlow who raced 20 to place the ball on Big Spring's 30 yard line. Another pass, Mann to Stagner netted 7 yards, and Aubrey plunged for a first down. After two passes were incomplete, Mann tossed to Harlow for 16 yards, a first down, and to place the ball on Big Spring's six yard line. Aubrey having failed to gain through the forward, Mann passed to Burrows for the intervening six yards, and a touchdown. Aubrey's kick from placement was a nullo.

That is how they got their first touchdown. That also is how they got their second, third and fourth ones. Literally speaking, they passed right on into a victory.

Second Tally

Their second came late the second quarter, after Mims. Big Spring safety man, had been downed in his tracks on Big Spring's 15 yard line after Aubrey's punt. Phillips punted to Aubrey who returned 20 yards to the Steers 28 yard line. He took four plays to get across. Aubrey carried the ball out of bounds, Mann passed to Harlow twice, Flowers knocking them down. With Coats replacing Hopper at end for the Steers, Mann heaved another to Harlow, this time connecting for 31 yards and the counter. Mann passed to Harlow for the extra point.

This third came in the fourth quarter, when the third quarter opened. Captain Delbert Rogers fumbled, with Harkins recovering. Big Spring's 33 yard line. Two plays had the ball over for a touchdown. Aubrey carried out of bounds, and Mann passed to Aubrey for the 23 yards and the marker. Mann's pass to Stagner for the extra point was incomplete.

That ended a Colorado scoring for the day, but not their threats. In fact they kept threatening all afternoon, but weakened in the last half. The Steers scored their first in the third quarter. Taking Smith's punt, Rogers returned 20 yards to Big Spring's 30. Bob Kildwell, playing his final game, had to be carried from the field. With Flowers, Rogers and Stagner carrying the ball, the first down was slipped to place the ball on Colorado's 43 yard line. Neal raced 13 yards around left end. Flowers made four and Rogers six through the Colorado line to place the ball on Colorado's 19 yard line. Rogers was hurt in the play and joined Kildwell on the sidelines, with Schutzenbach replacing him. After Flowers made two yards, and Neal, two, through the line, Flowers went over the Colorado left tackle, and out back for the touchdown. Flowers' pass for the extra point was grounded.

Swatzie Trots

A 58 yard run by Schutzenbach after he intercepted Mann's pass paved the way for the other counter. Flowers and Schutzenbach ripped off a first down just as the third quarter terminated. Flowers to Hopper netted 10 yards and a first down, to place the ball on Colorado's 43 yard line. Flowers made six around left end, and two over right tackle, and three for a first down. Flowers plowed over for the second touchdown, and scored the extra point when he kicked from placement.

Was the Colorado goal threatened after that? It was, and before, too. In the second quarter, the Wolves were backed to their five yard line, and they got off a bad punt which went out of bounds on the Colorado 19 yard line. Back came the ball. Flowers, fumbling and Burrows recovering on Colorado's six yard line. In the same quarter, a drive that started on Spring's 42 yard line, ended abruptly on the Colorado 5 yard line when Flowers passed over the goal line. The Wolves threatened soon after that, tugging the ball on the Steer's 5 yard line after Mann's pass to Harlow was good for 44 yards. Mann passed over the goal line, however.

In the third quarter, Aubrey which is to be for charity, will be

Christians Determined To Take Final Engagement Of The Season From The Fast Pony Aggregation

Both Contingents, Sorely Disappointed With Showing In Conference Race, Are At Fine Fighting Stage

It's over. Defeated by Abilene, Cisco, Breckenridge, Ranger, Sweetwater, Brownwood and Colorado—six class A and one class B organizations—the Big Spring Steers brought their season to a climax and a close Thursday afternoon. It wasn't a very auspicious ending. Harry Taylor's organization had the Steers and Brown combination helpless. They, too, realized that if they took to the air, it would mean the Steers would have to take to their heels. So they started passing and never did stop passing until the final whistle blew. The little red clad fellows were outweighed, and could get nowhere through the Steer forward. It is safe to say that during the four quarters they didn't gain a total of 30 yards on line plays. But they didn't have to. They forgot about the line, and confined their interest in the line above. This fellow Mann—Whataman Mann. He could heave one for 60 yards just as easily as he could for five. He didn't carry the ball a single time during the fray, but his treacherous aerial attack soon had the Steers on the run, and the Longhorns were never able to catch up. It seemed that every time it looked as if the Bovines might get going, Mann, somehow, would get in possession of the ball and sling it, shifting the scene of attack for 50 yards or more. The Steers aerial defense simply wasn't.

It was a rough affair. Bob Kildwell, receiving a terrific blow over the kidney, had to be carried from the field, and later carried home. Captain Delbert Rogers was carried off the gridiron with a badly injured knee. Stagner, Colorado end, had his left arm broken in the final game of the season. Glover was put out of the game for slugging. Penalties were frequent. Almost as frequent as Colorado passes.

About all there is left of the season is to award the sweaters. One of the Steers will get a new suit of clothes, given by the Model Shop, for being the most valuable man on the team. Another will receive a watch from the Crown Jewelry store, for something of another.

Ranger and Breckenridge clash today on the Bulldog gridiron. Although the Bulldogs are given only the slightest of slight chances to win over the Bucks, a crowd of 8,000 or more is expected to witness the annual conflict. Cisco, by trouncing the Eagles, got back into the running, and are yearning for a victory for the Bulldogs over the Bucks. Cisco maintains that they still have a chance to play Mineral Wells, providing the game would have any bearing on the championship. It won't. The Bulldogs are not expected to stem the green and white tide.

Although Bill Stevens, Steer mentor, has not announced the date for first basketball practice, it is presumed it won't be long now. The hoopers will get into action within the next couple of weeks and probably have a game or so before the Christmas holidays.

As to the most valuable man on the Steer team. The honor, in our opinion, goes to Captain Delbert Rogers.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 28.—The Texas Christian Horned Frogs returned to the practice field this week determined to win the remaining game on their schedule, that next Saturday in Dallas with their arch-rivals, the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Last Saturday against the Baylor Bears Vance Woolwine threw passes for the Frogs that boomeranged to turn a football game into a near riot. The Saturday before, against Texas, the same player, on the same plays, was the most valuable Frog on the field. Next Saturday will undoubtedly see the same offensive threat employed, in spite of the Baylor disaster.

Out of Race

With both the Frogs and the Mustangs virtually out of the running for the championship, the season will be called a success by the winner of the game in Dallas Saturday. If the Frogs can defeat their old enemy, and the team that defeated the Navy and scored two touchdowns against a Knute Rockne defense, the season cannot be considered an entire failure.

If the Mustangs can defeat the team that tied them last year and kept another championship from going to S. M. U., they will have considerable to show for their season's efforts in spite of the fact that the Longhorns ran over them and Baylor tied them.

Twelve members of the varsity squad will end their football careers for T. C. U. Saturday. This fact, along with the rivalry that exists between the two institutions, will furnish incentive for a great battle. The players, sorely disappointed in their showing as championship contenders, will be fighting hard for a victory to redeem themselves somewhat.

No Injuries

A check-up on the physical condition of the Frogs reveals that there were no injuries on the practice field this week. The Christians will go into the Mustang game physically fit.

The final game of the season, everything to win and nothing to lose, no future games for which to hold back, a keen rivalry of years' standing—what a game all these factors should produce.

Letter To County Club Women

Mrs. Loucille Allgood Tells Of The Six Pantry Demonstrations Last Week

Dear Club Women:

November is nearly at a close, winding up our 4-H pantry work for the year, as well as other demonstrations.

The six pantry demonstrations were a huge success. Mrs. Reese Adams, of Soash, found it necessary to leave home a short time before the meeting in her home, arriving home the night before.

This upset her a little, but the large crowd who attended, could not understand her. It could be much better. Her shelves are located in a pantry, opening into her kitchen. Her food is preserved in small containers. This suits the need of her family. Mrs. John Smith, of Highway, is far different in this respect. She has some small containers in her pantry, but they are used mostly as gifts for visitors and friends with small families. You should see her shelves in the cellar. One end and one side are solid shelves, close enough together to allow a lot of room. You know many times you see shelves so far apart there is more space wasted than used.

Mrs. Smith said she lacked only nine containers putting up 1400 during the year. Mrs. J. W. Wooten of Fairview has a cellar full of canned foods, dried beans and peas, and home made soap. Her emergency shelves in the pantry hold commercial supplies and plenty of her canned foods to prepare several meals without putting her menu-recipe cards in a box, she made oilcloth pockets and tacked in her pantry, with a division for each class of recipes.

Her refreshments were prepared from foods produced at home. They consisted of stuffed peppers, canned blackeyed peas, corn relish, cranberries, hot rolls, and a beverage. Besides rural women there were visitors from town present. Mesdames T. S. Curry, Joye Fisher, Julia B. DeBridges, Hart Phillips, J. B. DeBridges, and Miss Jewel Creighton, went to Mrs. Smith's, and Mesdames B. Reagan, Ona Reagan Parsons, Jack Ellis, Ernest Potter, and C. K. Bivings went to Mrs. Wooten's. It has been whispered to me that these women brought back good reports to their neighbors and friends in town.

Women, fill out your report blanks, and give them to your secretary. If you neglect this, your club will not get credit for the work you have done. The girls are getting their records in almost 100 per cent.

Present and future officers, remember to attend the council meeting the second Saturday in December to give a report of your club work, and organize the new council.

Yours sincerely,
LOUCILLE ALLGOOD.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

What is the basic meaning of "nival parity"?

It is as yet impossible to define the terms because there is no definite agreement as to its meaning. For some it signifies parity of defense, for others parity of equality, for still others, to use a well-known slogan, "guns for gun and ton for ton." The recent demand that the United States should build another battleship to maintain parity until all battleships are scrapped may not have been seriously made. Nevertheless, it expressed the feeling of not a few Americans on parity.

Speaking practically, the word indicates that the claim of any single nation to be supreme on the seas is forever abolished. Hereafter, we can, if so disposed, possess a navy second to none. The question of its necessity is now in debate. If the nations which signed the Pact of Paris approach naval parity in the temper and the terms of that historic covenant, they will not interpret parity so as to increase the tremendous military burdens which the European Powers are carrying. Meanwhile, it is highly probable that long before the experts have finished their debates, naval parity will have been rendered futile, because the supremacy of force in warfare may by then have been transferred to chemicals and the air squadrons.

Why try to visualize God at all? The analogy you introduce breaks down the moment you consider it. Your friend's face and form are familiar. You see him with the mind's eye when distant from him. But "no man hath seen God at any time." He is "spirit," and Jesus has told us that a "spirit hath no flesh and blood." You will ask, how then can God be known. The answer is by His activities.

We are deeply aware of certain great streams of beneficial influence pulsating in life. We witness the slow yet sure triumph of good over evil in every realm. We therefore rationally infer that God exists as the source of exhaustless blessing and help. But no form we conceive can obtain Him whose being radiates throughout and beyond space and time.

The final answer to your question, however, is found in a true appraisal of prayer as "the soul's pressed." You voice your heart's sincere desire, uttered or unexpressed, when you really pray. Comfort, guidance, the sense of oneness with the Eternal or the relief of a loved one's difficulties, are alike subjects of prayer.

You unburden your heart confident that the Father hears you. Do not attempt to visualize Him. Be so certain that He is at all times and in all places more ready to hear us than we are to ask of Him, that your supplications shall be as natural and spontaneous as a child's appeals to its earthly parent.

SADDLER SAYS HE GOT BETTER
Confining Work Didn't Agree With Him.—Black-Draught Brought Relief.
Somerset, Ky.—"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for twenty-five or thirty years," says Mr. W. S. Conant, of this city. "I have often been constive. I am a saddler and harness-maker, and am very closely confined. I found that I had to take something for constiveness, as I would get so tired, or have a dull feeling. "After I heard of Black-Draught, and began taking it, I avoided this trouble, and am now in good condition. "I take Black-Draught in small doses, and it is most satisfactory. I feel better after using it. I have recommended it to my friends." Theford's Black-Draught is prepared from medicinal herbs and roots, of highest quality, finely powdered, carefully combined and packaged by automatic machinery. This well-known medicine has been in use nearly 100 years, and its popularity is constantly increasing, as growing sales clearly prove. Get the genuine—see that the yellow package bears the name Theford's. Price 25c.

Picking Of New Congressional District Begins

SAN ANGELO, Nov. 28 (AP)—Apparently the picking of a new congressional district will be the indoor sport for a lot of West Texans during the winter months. West Texas is due for larger representation and many of the boys are out with their maps trying to figure out a district that looks good to them and theirs, as indicated in the large number of proposals made since the census figures were announced. How the districts will be cut and what localities will dominate will be a big question.
Representative Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo expects to offer a congressional redistricting bill to reapportion strictly on a population basis, and not to gerrymander districts, he said. Representative Metcalfe's measure will provide 21 districts, taking advantage of the increase of three places under the new census. The additional representatives cannot take office before March 1, 1933.
The Sweetwater club designated Judge Charles W. Lee as its president, to name a committee of five to be known as a congressional redistricting committee to plan a new district which would include Sweetwater and Nolan county.

Legislature May Get Increased Pay This Session Witt Says

AUSTIN, Nov. 28 —Lieut.-Gov. Elect Edgar E. Witt said legislators will get the newly-authorized $10 per diem pay for the session beginning in January, and cited the law and precedents for it, in a statement made here.
He answered the contention of Rep. W. T. Williams of Austin that the constitution forbids a legislator serving in any post whose salary he has helped raise.
That relates to other than legislative offices, according to uniform precedents and decisions, he said. Full reading of the constitutional section show, he pointed out, that the restriction is intended to keep the legislators from creating administrative posts, then taking the office, and does not relate to legislative places.
J. M. Claunch, representative-elect from Snyder supplemented this in a written statement pointing out that in the legislature, meeting under circumstances similar to the one now taking office, under a constitution providing "not exceeding $7 per day," fixed its own salary, and that no question was raised.

J. M. Claunch, representative-elect from Snyder supplemented this in a written statement pointing out that in the legislature, meeting under circumstances similar to the one now taking office, under a constitution providing "not exceeding $7 per day," fixed its own salary, and that no question was raised.

Three Conference Championships Are Decided In Thanksgiving Day Football Battles Over The Nation

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP)—Thanksgiving Day's football slate decided three more conference championships and left only the East, among the major groups, lacking a generally recognized leader.

In a day conspicuously by a decided absence of form reversals, the Southwestern, Big Six and Southern conferences wound up their seasons yesterday insofar as titular play goes. A few remain to be played but cannot affect the championship situation.

In the Southwest, the Texas Longhorns supplanted Texas Christian as title-holders by whipping the hapless Texas Aggies, 26-0. In the Big Six, Kansas walked into the Oklahoma Sooners were held to a scoreless tie by Missouri's inexperienced outfit. In the Southern Conference, the situation is not so cut and dried for both Alabama and Tulane finished their conference seasons unbeaten and untied. Alabama registered its eighth straight conference triumph by whipping Georgia after a bitter battle, 13-0. Tulane also found plenty of trouble with Louisiana State but finally eked out a 12-7 victory.

Merger

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) low enrollment has made the over head oppressive, it was repeated. If the Texas-Louisiana conference approves the plan, it will then be placed before the executive committee of Southwestern.
