UT Scholarships To Hereford Grads

Two Hereford students attending the University of Texas as freshmen this year recently were awarded scholarships at the Austin university. Both graduated from Hereford High School this spring. They are Nona Marie Strange, who received a $200 Students' Memorial Scholarship, and John Stanley Fuhrmann, who received a $500 Henry Beckman Scholarship in mathematics. Both rated high scholastically in their graduating classes last May. Miss Strange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Strange, 203 N. Bennett, and salutatorian of her high school class, received a scholarship awarded to freshmen with preference given to students from Texas high schools. Awards are based on a desire for college education, scholastic ability and character.

Fuhrmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Fuhrmann, 505 Union, received a scholarship awarded to those who were in the highest 25 per cent of their high school graduating classes and who have demonstrated unusual ability in the Number Sense Contest in any regional or state competitive test held by the University Interscholastic League.

Competing in state finals in Austin this spring, Fuhrmann placed second in the Number Sense division. He made a bid for state honors by winning

$15,000 Paid For Ten Cows

One of the highest prices paid in a cattle sale was reported in Deaf Smith County last week by the Dameron Hereford Ranch. The ranch sold 10 head of registered Hereford cows to Vic Pierce of Nocona for $15,000.

According to information available, it was the highest price paid locally for Hereford cows in the past 37 years. Records of the Hereford Brand show that the Jones and Dameron Hereford Ranch sold 30

Demos Organize 'Johnson For President' Club

Deaf Smith County went on record this week as one of the first counties in the Panhandle to organize a "Lyndon Johnson for President" Club, when a delegation of interested Johnson boosters met with Executive members of the County Democratic organization to petition for the club Friday night.

County Democratic Chairman Louis Woodford, along with several precinct chairmen, approved the idea which got unanimous support from the group. Bill Decker was named as chairman of the Johnson for President Club, and said that an effort should be made to get every Democrat in the county enrolled as a member.

"Texas has a wonderful opportunity — and an outstanding man," said Decker. "We need to get behind the movement and really get it rolling. I can't think of any better possible way to serve our country than to offer the name of Lyndon Johnson for President."

No further plans were completed at the meeting, but Woodford said that the Executive Committee of the Deaf Smith Democratic Party will help in every way possible to secure county-wide membership, and to help conduct any necessary fund raising drives to carry on the Johnson Club.

The executive group also discussed appointment of a member to succeed Sylvester Slacie, deceased, but took no action because several members of the committee were absent, due to the football game and other conflicting activities.

Reset Cancer Meet Tuesday

The first organizational meeting of the Deaf Smith County American Cancer Society, scheduled to be held last Thursday, was re-scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Building.

Because of insufficient attendance at the Thursday meeting, the open meeting was postponed and scheduled to be held this week.

Tom Williams of Amarillo, field representative of the Texas division, will be on hand at the meeting to head organization of the proposed unit.

The unit, generally, will be organized as an information and educational service, common

Rowland's Landrace Hogs Win Top Honors At Abilene

If Deaf Smith County doesn't soon become the Landrace breeding center of Texas, it will be no fault of hog-raiser H. H. Rowland — he brought back two Grand Champion awards and six blue ribbons from the annual Texas Association of Landrace Breeders Show and Sale in Abilene last Saturday, Oct. 24.

His six entries, four sows and two boars, placed tops in each division. Rowland, state president of the Association, was nominated for a national directorship during the state competition.

The Grand Champion sow and boar were judged by confirmation. The sow weighed nearly 500 pounds, and the boar weighed 278 pounds.

Rowland, who raises hogs and farms one mile north of Hereford, has been raising the extra-rib specimen here for about three years. The breed is comparatively new in America. His entries won blue ribbons in the best sow and best gilt class, senior gilt class, senior boar class and the junior boar division.

The Abilene show was the first exhibition of Rowland's entries. The grand champions were sold at the show.

More than 150 adult members entered the statewide competition. Billy Williams, also a county hog raiser, entered animals in the show.

Rowland placed entries in the Deaf Smith County grain elevator managers Saturday morning generally agreed that maize cutting for 1959 crops was from 75 to 85 percent complete when harvesting operations were delayed because of damp weather the latter part of the week.

Weary lettuce and carrot growers, who were feeding a weak market, estimated that about 80 percent of both crops were probably harvested and that processing should continue through Nov. 15.

Stripping of cotton just got a good start in the county Monday last week when overcast skies and nearly an inch of moisture later in the week threw skids to harvesting.

Elevator managers, reporting a good crop this year, said that harvest, however, was already beginning to slow down last week as cutting operations were in finishing stages throughout most of the county. Many grain sorghum growers have completed harvesting, they said.

One manager said it was difficult to estimate how much harvesting has been finished as many are expected to store grain on their own farms, and that most of that grain will not be cut for a while.

Harvesting of the crops was running from a week to 10 days behind the harvest of last year when farmers had to vacate their fields Thursday and Friday.

Stripping of about 10,000 acres of excellent grade cotton began early last week, and some strippers worked in fields around the clock. Approximately 1,200 bales have been harvested in this county.

A trace of moisture hit the county Thursday, and temperature ranged between 70 and 40 degrees. Instruments at City Hall registered 83 of an inch Friday with a high of 63 and a low of 35 degrees.

Moisture in October was gauged slightly over two inches and 16.93 for the year. Moisture last year at this time was more than 20 inches.

Texas Agriculture Commissioner Has Talk Slated Here

Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White will visit Deaf Smith County Tuesday and speak at an open meeting of Hereford Optimist Club Tuesday noon in the L. O. O. F. Temple. The public is invited to attend the meeting by making reservation with the Optimist Club by noon Monday.

White recently returned from the annual convention of the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture at Nashville, Tenn., according to Roy Grimes, Texas Department of Agriculture market news manager.

Grimes told the Brand Friday that White will probably tour county farms and will discuss what he learned at the Nashville meeting in regard to agricultural problems in Texas and the Panhandle area.

Optimist Club president Roy Boyer said that the club must know the number of people planning to attend the meeting in order that arrangements may be made for meals.

He asked that persons planning to attend make reservation by sending their name and address to Hereford Optimist Club, Box 626, by noon Monday.

This week, White is making a swing through the West Texas area to speak to various groups. From Hereford, he will go to Lubbock to attend the meeting of Texas Seed Men's Association.

The Agriculture Commissioner is now serving his fifth term in that office. He was elected to the position in 1950 when he was 25 years old, the youngest ever to be elected to that office.

Before that, he was a vocational agriculture instructor at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls. At the present time, his home is in Austin.

$1,000 Bond On Addiction Case

Bond for Lloyd C. McWhirter, 51, a farm laborer who lives east of Hereford, was set at $1,000 Saturday morning after he was charged with narcotics addiction, a felony.

McWhirter was charged Friday afternoon shortly after his arrest by Deaf Smith County Deputy Sheriff Bill McCarver.

Bond Saturday morning was set by Justice of the Peace Berry Miles.

County United Fund Drive Opens Thursday Morning

Campaign workers for the 1959 United Fund drive in Deaf Smith County will report for duty on Thursday, Nov. 5. The third annual campaign will attempt to duplicate the feat of last year, when the goal was reached in one day.

Slogan for the 1959 drive is "Wake Up And Give!"

Drive chairman George McLean announced that all business area solicitors are to meet briefly at the Jim Hill Hotel ballroom Thursday at 7:30 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served as the volunteer workers get last-minute instructions. Rural workers also will report to the morning meeting.

During the day, reports from the workers will be accepted in the Community Room of the First National Bank.

At 6:30 p.m., additional volunteers will report for duty at the High School auditorium before canvassing the residential areas.

These workers will report back to the auditorium upon completing their assigned areas.

"Our goal this year is $25,000," McLean commented. "This is higher than in previous years, but all of the ten agencies included in the United Fund are local groups and everyone knows of the work they are doing."

All county residents are urged to decide in advance how much they will donate and whether they will give through a business or as individuals.

Both previous UF drives have

Around Town

When the county let a contract for building the jail and remodeling the courthouse they thoughtfully asked about the steel strike. With the walk-out looming, contractors said they had steel on hand. But the strike hit a blow at the courthouse renovation this week because of aluminum. The new windows are fabricated, but cannot be shipped out of a Republic Steel Company plant in Pennsylvania until the strike is ended. So there is a minor snag. The steel for other phases of the construction is on hand.

Notice where Castro County is coming back at the recent election in their Precinct Four in an attempt to invalidate the recent "wef" election. They are going to try a test case on a legal technicality in an effort to get the results thrown out.

Repair Vehicle For Motor Corps

Hereford's Motor Corps is almost mobile now, after being without transportation since its organization in June, 1955. The Deaf Smith County Red Cross sponsors the unit, which operates as an auxiliary of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department.

Recently the Fire Department purchased a used delivery van, which is being renovated for the Motor Corps.

Members of the Motor Corps are Gladys Carrol, Betty Jowell, Wilda Jowell, Pauline Howard, Maryanna Laing, Helen Nelson, Bertha Tiefel and Betty Turpen. All are wives of volunteer firemen.

Members have been trained by the Red Cross in transportation, and standard and advanced first aid. The membership presently is restricted to eight women, until there is a demand for additional members.

Purpose of the organization is to serve as a disaster mobile unit and canteen, in the event of a local disaster or large fire. The Motor Corps is ordered into operation at the discretion of the Fire Department.

When repaired and repainted, the panel truck will be completely stocked with provisions or first aid or canteen work. At least four of the trained members will be on call at all times for emergency work.

Future plans call for separate mobile units for disaster and canteen duties, each fully equipped and staffed by trained personnel.

Local businesses are assisting volunteer firemen, who are repairing the truck. The businesses are furnishing materials free or at actual cost prices.

Around...

It will be an interesting development, and one that Deaf Smith County folks will watch with interest.

Publisher Bascom Nelson, down at Dimmitt, was column-wondering the other day how Castro county might establish toll roads from Swisher and Deaf Smith Counties. He figured the revenue from traffic going to the liquor stores in Precinct Four would enable Castro County to lower, or even eliminate, taxes.

Director George Hill said a 16-mm. sound and color motion picture of the Hereford High Big Domino Band in the marching contest will be available about Nov. 10 and thereafter for club showings. You program chaps who are interested can contact Hill at the High School.

The Encampment Branch of the I. O. O. F. will sponsor a complete first aid training course, beginning Thursday, Nov. 5, at 7:30 p. m. in the Odd Fellows Temple. Classes will be held the first and third Thursday of each month. Henry Aycock will be instructor, assisted by Marlin Gilliland. The public is invited to enroll in the class.

I have heard rumors this week that schools superintendent Fred Cunningham got left behind when the local bands returned from marching contest at Canyon last Tuesday. He hitched a ride with some Hereford folks. It was a case of each of the two bus drivers thinking Cunningham was on the other bus.

There was a good crowd at the Kiwanis Club's annual pancake supper Friday night at Shirley School. Even I got enough to eat, which my wife contends is almost in the miracle class.

Tickets are still available for the American Legion Auxiliary's dinner to benefit the Community Center. The meal will be served Friday, Nov. 6, from 11:30 a. m. until 1:30 p. m. in the American Legion Hall. If you can evade American Legion members all week, tickets may still be purchased at the door.

Operating closely with the county welfare agency and other charitable groups, the Salvation Army last year spent a large amount of money aiding needy persons in Hereford.

Among other expenditures, they list food for 41 families, meals for 24 transients, transportation for 22 individuals or families, shelter for two local families with wage earners ill, camp expense for four local boys, school clothing for 15 local children and medical expenses for two families.

A certain portion of the UP allocation to the Salvation Army is kept in reserve for use in case of emergencies or disasters, other than routine local aid.

(Continued from page 1) plained that grade of cotton would probably drop slightly because of the recent rain, but that the crop would still be of good to excellent quality. Most of the cotton, to date, has been hand-picked.

State Employment representative Pat Patterson said that the supply of laborers is nearly meeting the demands of farmers. With the start of mechanical harvesting of cotton, lack of cotton pullers will not damage the cotton crop.

A frost about two weeks ago paved the way for most harvesting of crops. The temperature reportedly dropped to 30 degrees Tuesday this week.

Feeding a "cheap" market, one vegetable shed operator said, harvesting of carrots and lettuce continued at a steady pace through Thursday.

During the current "wet" season, he pointed out, the market would improve as the damp weather would create a better market because of increased demand and smaller supply of the two crops. Many vegetable farmers, he explained, have been more than slightly disappointed at the market for their crops this year. Prices were high at the start of the season, but lower ed as harvesting continued. "There are just too many growers who want to get into the act, and too many carloads of vegetables have been put on the market to keep prices at a decent level," he said.

THE NEWLY ORGANIZED Future Teachers of America in Stanton Junior High held installation and initiation Thursday night in the Stanton Junior High auditorium. The club is the first FTA organization in that school. From left are: Connie Kent, president of the junior high organization, Mrs. Claude McDougal, sponsor of the high school club, and Rosa Lee Strange, president of the high school club.

Stanton Junior High Organizes FTA Club

The L. L. Chisum Future Teachers of America of Stanton Junior High was organized Thursday. Mrs. Claude McDougal, high school teacher and FTA sponsor, presided over the meeting.

The following high school officers of FTA were present to initiate members and install officers: president, Rosa, Lee Strange; vice-president, Sandy Blythe; secretary, Jeanette Rayburn; treasurer, Carol Sneed; historian, Joy Wiman; parliamentarian, Sandra Childers; song leader, Tommy Kay Roberson.

Officers for the new club are as follows: president, Connie Kent; vice-president, Janie McBroom; secretary, Terry Smith; treasurer, Dianna Robinson; historian, Donald Payne; librarian, Jan Story; parliamentarian, Nancy Boardman; song leader, Becky Jackson. Sponsors are Mrs. F. G. Collier and Frank Jones. The installation was held on the stage of the Stanton Junior High auditorium. The table in the center of the stage was covered with a white cloth, with the FTA emblem and a red candle over it.

During the ceremony, new members heard the history of FTA and repeated its creed. The high school officers pinned a ribbon on each new member. Mrs. McDougal installed the officers by reading the responsibilities of each officer. Approximately 40 new members attended the services.

This is the first year for an FTA group to be organized in a junior high school.

It was voted that the chapter be named "L. L. Chisum FTA" in memory of an outstanding teacher and citizen of the junior high faculty, who passed away during the school term of 1958-59.

Beauty At Home

Q. How do I go about giving myself a home pedicure?

A. First, clip your toenails then smooth the edges with emery, and apply some cuticle cream. Separate the toes with gauze or cotton and apply your polish. Clean off any errors with an orange stick and cotton dipped in remover. Two coats of polish will last almost a month. And if you really want to be kind to these hard-working members of your body, give them a good creaming.

Q. How can I remove soft drink stains from a dress?

A. Usually colorless at first, these stains may turn brown if allowed to stand or if sudsed. Therefore, they should be removed at once by sponging with cool water or with a solution of equal parts of alcohol and water. Rub glycerine into the stains, let stand for a half-hour, then rinse with water, and finally launder in hot suds.

7 Of 13 Bouts Won By Local Boxers At Pampa

Coming out on the winning end again, Hereford boxers Thursday night won seven bouts and lost six while fighting at Pampa.

After a series of four team matches in three weeks, the boxers, sponsored by the Hereford Athletic Club, will rest a week or two. Next bouts are tentatively scheduled for Hereford at the Bull Barn on Nov. 10, if a card can be arranged.

In the feature bout of the evening at Pampa, Robert Welty of Hereford lost a decision to James Snider of Pampa in a 155-pound battle. The fight was a crowd-pleaser from start to finish. Welty had Snider staggering in the first but was unable to apply the finishing blows. Snider weathered the storm and came roaring back to pile up points enough to win in the next two rounds.

Complete results for Hereford boxers include:

Name Four Directors For Hereford Bridge Group

The Hereford Duplicate Bridge Association was formed Thursday night. Named to the board of directors were Kenneth Coker, Curtis Tra week, Wilma Hill and Virginia Carver.

Terry Kirby finished in first place at the Hereford Open Duplicate Bridge Club's eight-week series of competition. Also placing were Genevieve King, Wilma Hill, Kenneth Coker, Mozelle Neill and Jane Kirby.

In the recent sectional Bridge Tournament, held in Amarillo, four Hereford players made a good showing in the meet. Terry and Jane Kirby, Mrs. King and Mrs. Hill played as a team of four and won the first session. They came in second for the over-all competition. Mrs. King and Mrs. Hill also combined to win the Novice Trophy.

The Hereford club is fully affiliated with the American Contract Bridge League and awards points recognized by the national organization.

Mrs. Hill has volunteered to give free instruction for persons interested in learning the operation of duplicate bridge play.

The Hereford Club is open to the public, meeting each Thursday night at 7:30 in the V. F. W. building. The third Thursday night of each month is Master Point Night, with higher points given the winners.

Herd Battles Cats Before Bowing, 14-6, In The Mud

Hereford made a game of it before bowing to the Littlefield Wildcats, 14-6, in a District 1-AAA game Friday night. About 600 fans shivered in damp, windy weather as the temperature dropped to 35 degrees in Whiteface Field. For the Wildcats, it put them in the conference lead with a 2-0 record, with a string of seven victories for the season. For the Whitefaces, it was an addition to a skein of seven losses. With the Williams brothers coaching, younger Brother Don got the best of Bobby for the second time in as many years. Battling back from a 14-point deficit, the Whitefaces scored once and moved to Littlefield's two-yard line, and a chance for a tie, before losing the ball on downs. The action was as hot on the field as the weather was cold, as both teams played possession football on a wet, slippery field. After a punt exchange early in the first period, the Wildcats started to move on the ground. They plodded 75 yards in 16 plays. The longest gain of the drive by a 10 yard gallop by fullback Jerry Koller, who tried to pass then decided to run. Koller wound up the drive by plowing five yards over right tackle for the score. Quarterback De Pierce passed to end Weldon Pace for the two extra points, with 2:14 left in the first period.

Hereford moved to the Littlefield 22 early in the second period, before losing on a fourth down running play that was short of a first. The Wildcats immediately began to roll. The 78-yard push included the only two passes completed by Littlefield. Pierce hit halfback Max Ball for 10 and Pace for 8 during the 12 plays to pay dirt (or mud). Max Ball skipped and skidded 13 yards for the TD. A 15-yard penalty nullified Littlefield's first PAT attempt and a pass was batted down to close out Littlefield's scoring with 4:23 left in the second quarter. Herdsman Herman Harrison returned the kick-off to Hereford's 42. Despite a five-yard penalty on the first play, Hereford moved steadily behind the quarterbacking of Billy Dirks and halfback Jerry Hodges. With time running out, Dirks rolled out to his right, faked a run and pitched an aerial to Hodges, who scooted over for Hereford's only score. The pass attempt for two points was incomplete, but the scoring was complete for the game with 1:49 left in the first half. Hereford spent most of the third period in Littlefield territory. A serious threat to the Wildcats saw the Herd move from Littlefield's 47 to the Wildcat two. With a fourth and goal situation, Dirks' keeper was smothered by end Weldon Pace. After two plays, Hereford

AN END RUN by Littlefield Wildcat Jerry Koller gained three yards for the visitors in the third quarter Friday night, when they met Hereford Whitefaces here. Bringing the Wildcat fullback down were Hereford's Curtis Ritchie and Wesley Poarch. Blocking for Koller at right is Littlefield's De Pierce. Whitefaces in the background are Terry Hodges (70) and Harvey Garrison (55). Littlefield won, 14-6. (Staff Photo)

Cockrells Honored At Surprise Coffee

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Cockrell, who celebrated their Golden Anniversary on Saturday, were honored with a surprise coffee Friday afternoon. Deaf Smith County employees entertained the couple in the county court room.

"Jasper," as he is known to workers in the courthouse, has served as custodian of the Deaf Smith County courthouse for the past 28 years. During the present remodeling, he is on duty at the clerk's office vault. One other "charter member" of the courthouse group was present Friday afternoon. She is Mrs. Bessie L. Smith, who was the only person working at the courthouse when Jasper started.

Forty members of the courthouse workers presented Mr. and Mrs. Cockrell with a 400-day anniversary clock as a token of their esteem.

Golden Age Group Favored By Pioneer Study Club

Women of the Golden Years were honored Friday afternoon, Oct. 23, at the first of three social affairs scheduled for the 1959-60 club season by the Pioneer Study Club.

The party-event was held in Hereford State Bank Friendship Room, where gaiety and fun prevailed from the beginning to the conclusion of the party. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr. was chairman of arrangements.

Decorations recalled days of long ago in Halloween suggestions and appointments. Guests were presented large gold colored chrysanthemum corsages as they arrived.

Mrs. Ralph McCullough, president of the club, welcomed the group and read the poem, "In Grandmother's Day." Mrs. C. J. Mountz, daughter of one in the group and herself a grandmother, and Mrs. T. W. Roberson, also a grandmother, entertained with vocal selections and guitar music, and led in singing best loved hymns and ballads. They started off with "Here We All Sit Like Birds In the Wilderness Waiting for the Show To Start", sung in relays to the tune of "The Old Grey Mare" and ending with "Home on the Range."

This song brought back fond memories of their own homes on the Western range and as they all joined in with heartiness and joy, the walls rang with their happy voices.

The special guests included Miss Jessie Morris, Mesdames L. L. Cannon, J. W. Alexander, Mary Bodkin, Odilia Huckert, Josephine Huckert, Anne Ness of Denver, Colo., a former resident, H. M. Benefield, Katie McGehee, J. L. Click, R. L. Campbell, Minnie E. Williams, D. H. Bryant and F. W. Lambert.

Members of the club present were Mesdames Ralph McCullough, Ray Johnson, O. G. Hill Sr., L. H. Lookingbill Sr., A. G. Bell, W. C. Hromas, Henry Hastings, E. S. Ireland, Mary Seigler, F. M. Kester, Fred Barrett, N. E. Gass, Charlie Walser, Buddie Evans, Bess Werner and Miss Roberta Campbell.

Mrs. McCullough has announced that anyone is welcome to join the group by calling her or any member of the club.

Mrs. Duane Albracht, formerly Miss Theresa Jesko.

Jesko-Albracht Wedding Vows Pledged

Flame-tipped tapers in seven branched candelabra highlighted arrangements of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis when Miss Theresa Jesko and Duane J. Albracht pledged double-ring wedding vows in St. Anthony's Catholic Church at 4:30 p.m. Saturday.

Father Nathaniel read the service as the couple and their attendants stood before the altars.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jesko, 205 Western, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cyril J. Albracht, Route 3.

Mrs. Morris Hacker was organist and Carl Sunde, vocalist, presented the wedding music. Selections included "Paris Angelicus", "Ave Marie" and "Mother at Thy Feet We Are Kneeling".

Mrs. Kenneth Wheat, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Lynn Grinnell, Nealy Moore and Shirley Schulte, cousin of the bride. Barbara Craighead, niece of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

All the attendants wore full skirted frocks of turquoise velvet, having sleeveless bodices with low round necklines. They wore matching picture hats and elbow length white gloves. Each carried a single long-stemmed white rose.

Tommy Albracht assisted his brother as best man. Grooms-men were Sammy Albracht and Gary Kreighauser, cousins, and Roger Albracht, brother of the bridegroom. Tony Disclafani, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer. Ushers were Paul Jesko of Muleshoe and David Albracht of Amarillo.

The bride, given in marriage

Wedding Is Held In Parents' Home

Miss Cecilla Wilkins became the bride of Wayne Hansen in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wilkins, 108 Ave. G., Monday morning at 10 a.m., with the Rev. Russell Wingert, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hansen of Lawton, Okla.

Vows were pledged as the couple and their attendants stood before an improvised altar arranged with pink and white dahlias and asters. Immediate members of both families and a few close friends attended. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Dick Whittington of Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hansen of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Dick Whittington of Borger, roommate of the bride at Northwest Texas Hospital Nursing School in Amarillo, was her only attendant. She wore a gray and white print in cotton satin with a white satin hat trimmed with seed pearls. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Carroll Hansen of Oklahoma City served his brother as best man.

The bride's dress was pastel blue silk organza trimmed in matching satin bands. Her small white satin hat was embroidered in seed pearls and was worn with a shoulder-length veil. Her corsage was of white feathered carnations.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held in the home. The bride's table was laid with a blue net cloth over yellow satin and centered with triple candelabra holding white wedding tapers. The tiered wedding cake was done in white topped by tiny sugar-spun yellow rosebuds and a miniature bridal couple.

When the couple left on a two weeks tour of the west coast, the bride was wearing a turquoise Italian silk suit with bone accessories and the wedding corsage.

After the honeymoon trip they will return to Lawton to live. He is associated with the English Motor Company in Lawton.

Mrs. Hansen is a graduate of Hereford High School and of Amarillo College. She received her degree in nursing at Northwest Texas Hospital School of nursing in Amarillo. At present she is supervisor at Southwestern Hospital in Lawton.

TOO SLICK TO HOLD was this pass Thursday night. The Hereford receiver, in the mud-covered white jersey, failed to retain the pass, which a Littlefield defender was trying to bat away. ### Pre-College Needs Studied By Group

Mrs. Jim Bookout and Mrs. Melvin Young presented the program at the El Nino Study Club session held in the Pioneer Gas Co. Flame Room Monday evening.

Speaking on the subject "College Requirements", they told of the need for preparation for college in the lower grades. "Children need to be given the desire to study and taught how to study and they need a good foundation in reading and spelling before going to college".

Statistics given were: 68 per cent of students only finish high school, 30 per cent of those who graduate from high school go to college and only 40 per cent of those who start college complete the course.

Members present were Mesdames Ben Childers, Jim Bookout, R. A. Daniel Jr., Bill Decker, Byron Durham, O. G. Hill Jr., John Jacobsen Jr., Gayle Neal, Sam Nunnally, Wayne Thomas, Melvin Young and Gilbert Davis.

Health Movies Shown At Schools

More than 140 Latin-American school children and their mothers have been shown health movies at Central and Shirley elementary schools during the past week.

The movies were arranged by Mrs. Earl Springer, public schools nurse, and were in Spanish dialogue.

Some 65 first grade Latin-American children and their mothers saw the two films Tuesday at Central School. There were 80 present for the movies Thursday at Shirley.

"Foods For Health" and "Insects And Diseases" were the movie topics, according to Mrs. Springer.

E. E. Atkinson acted as interpreter at the Tuesday showing, with Dr. Bruce Beene on hand to answer questions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Floyd Cole and Mrs. Eugene Noel, president of the Central School PTA.

Dr. L. A. Beyer answered questions Thursday as one of the mothers acted as interpreter. Serving refreshments were Mrs. Herb Boardman and Mrs. J. D. Greeson, first and third vice presidents, respectively, of the Shirley School PTA.

The films are part of a continuing health education program which is carried on in the schools, Mrs. Springer said.

Beauty At Home

Q. The skin on my throat appears darker than that on my face. What can I do?

A. Try bleaching this skin with a half-lemon squeezed into a small glass of water.

Q. I've just heard that beer makes a good hair-setting lotion. Is this true?

A. Many women say it is. Be sure the beer you use is fresh. It does have a way of keeping the hair in place, dries quickly, and leaves no after-odor.

Q. What usually is the cause of dull-looking hair?

A. Quite often, faulty shampooing and inadequate rinsing. Don't use laundry soaps or powders. Bland, liquid shampoos are best. You can mix your own by shaving castile soap and melting it in sufficient water to make a thick liquid. Rinse, rinse, and rinse after the shampoo to be sure every vestige of soap is flotted away. Then, too, regular sessions with the hair brush encourage glossy, healthy-looking hair.

Q. What is an easy and simple exercise for encouraging slimmer hips?

Q. How can I hide or disguise an ugly-looking pimple on my face?

A. Over the blemish, pat a paste made of powder and foundation cream, then press some powder evenly over the spot.

About half the world's supply of salt is used for industrial purposes.

Just What Is A Real American?

While Premier Khrushchev was visiting the United States in an attempt to learn what an American really is, the Mayville, Mo., Record-Herald came up with some answers that seem to fairly well answer the question.

He yells for the government to balance the budget and then takes the last dime he has to make the down payment on his car. He whips the enemy nations and then gives 'em the shirt off his back. He yells for speed laws that will stop fast driving, and then won't buy a car if it won't make 100 miles an hour.

An American gets scared to death if we vote a billion dollars for education — but he's cool as a cucumber when he finds out we're spending three billion dollars a year for smoking tobacco. He gripes about the high prices of the things he has to buy, but gripes still more about the low prices of things he has to sell. He knows the line-up of every baseball team in the American and National Leagues — and doesn't know half the words in "The Star Spangled Banner."

An American will get mad at his wife for not running their home with the efficiency of a hotel, and then he'll get mad at the hotel for not operating like a home. He'll spend half a day looking for vitamin pills to make him live longer — then drive 90 miles an hour on slick pavement to make up for the time he lost.

An American is a man who will fall out with his wife over her cooking and then go on a fishing trip and swallow half-fried potatoes, burnt fish, and gritty creek water coffee made in a rusty gallon bucket — and think it's good.

An American will work hard on a farm so he can move into town where he can make more money so he can move back to the farm.

When an American is in his office he talks about baseball, football or fishing — when he is out at the games or on the creek bank, he talks about business.

He is the only fellow in the world who pay 50 cents to park his car while he eats a 25-cent sandwich.

An American likes to cuss his government but gets fighting mad if a foreigner does it.

We're the country that has more food to eat than any other country in the world and more diets to keep us from eating it. We're the most ambitious people on earth, and we run from morning until night trying to keep our earning power up with our yearning power.

We're supposed to be the most civilized, Christian nation on earth, but still can't deliver payrolls without an armored car.

In America we have more experts on marriage than any other country in the world — and more divorces.

But we're still pretty nice folks. Calling a person "a real American" is the best compliment we can pay him. Most of the world is itching for what we have — but they'll never have it until they start scratching for it the way we did.

Time To Wake Up, and Give!

Deaf Smith County will open its third annual United Fund drive Thursday, Nov. 5 with a goal of raising $25,000 in one day, if possible. There seems little reason why the goal should not be achieved.

Charity is a necessary expense these days, and past drives have shown that most of our citizens recognize their responsibility along this line. The United Fund, although no panacea, is the best method yet produced in the community. In addition to careful spending, establishment of budgets and meeting emergencies, the United Fund creates a much needed type of insurance policy for the community. At the same time, it has actually cut down on overall donations for many people in the area.

Record bank deposits, following good harvest yields and general business up-trends, are another indication that the drive will succeed, possibly in the one day allotted. Considering this factor, along with substantial population increases, and the proposed $25,000 sum for this year seems reasonable, indeed.

Most people, we feel, will honestly want to do their part to help those less fortunate in 1959. The privilege and opportunity will be with us next Thursday, Nov. 5. As the 1959 slogan points out, all we need do is "Wake Up and Give."

Freedom Brings Responsibility

Freedom is an ideal which most Americans cherish, even to the point of giving up their lives in behalf of its continuance.

With freedom, however, comes a myriad of responsibilities which few of us seldom stop to ponder. Under a dictator, people do not have to worry about such things as buying new homes, new cars or washing machines. Instead, they live in whatever surroundings their overlords provide, and count their meager blessings from day to day.

In our country, the average man must fume and fret over such things as insurance to protect his home and its furnishings, while in most other countries he owns little or nothing to protect. Whereas, the average American must decide if he will eat steak, roast or fish, the average man under a dictatorship is spared this decision; he merely eats what he can scrape together.

These decisions, though commonplace to most of us, require extensive education and training. They provide the answer to why our public schools must include many phases not taught in schools of numerous other nations. They also provide the reason cited by imperialists as the means to overcome our nation of free people.

Until the people who populate other nations also become free, establish individual wealth and live parallel to our own people, it is doubtful if those people will ever fully understand America and Americans, much less our ideals and dreams of world peace. Likewise, it is equally difficult for us to place ourselves in their position — and come to the conclusions at which they arrive.

The situation, sometimes grave, is another responsibility incurred through freedom. We know of no American, however, who would not risk his life to preserve his freedom, along with that of his fellowman.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

When he was approaching 50, Leo Tolstoy, one of the greatest writers in the history of literature, felt an emptiness within him. He was famous, wealthy, happily married and a proud father, yet he said: "Why wish for anything, or do anything? Is there any meaning in life?"

This profound melancholy lasted for about three years, but the answer Tolstoy found to his question changed his life. He discovered "those clear simple truths common to all men . . . the Spirit of God lives in man and the practical rule . . . that man should act towards others as he wishes others to act towards himself . . . God is a Spirit whose image lives in us, the power of which we can increase by our conduct . . . and all that naturally follows a peaceful, friendly, happy life would come about for humanity . . ."

Tolstoy renounced his title, and began his work to relieve the oppressed. He crusaded for the rights of peasants, protested the oppression of minorities, and opposed capital punishment and the use of physical force. All that remained of his old ways of living were his tremendous literary contributions.

Every morning in solitude, Tolstoy prayed. He wrote, "My prayer is like this . . . 'Who so abideth in love abideth in God, and God in him . . . if we love one another . . . His love is fulfilled in us . . . Brethren, let us love one another, for God is love'."

Should A Museum Be Constructed In County?

By MRS. E. L. CRISWELL Is Hereford and Deaf Smith County, in general, interested in preserving some of the contributions of the pioneers? Would or will the county be interested enough to support a museum? Only time will tell.

There are so many things that should be preserved and displayed that one would wonder if we are falling down on our responsibility to future generations in not doing something about it.

Too often, relics of great value as well as memorable articles of the county, state and families of this area are not given proper care and are not on display because their owners do not wish to place them where they might be stolen or destroyed. Almost every family has an article with a story which people of the younger generations would enjoy hearing and passing on to their own children. It seems that interest grows and dies down only to flare with great energy. Let's give a boost by looking into a few of the things the Mid-Plains Pioneer Association Historical Survey Committee has done.

Mrs. Henry Neely, Byrle Elliston and J. C. Allred are past presidents of the association and Will G. Harris of Summerfield is president at the present time, with Mrs. Clara Shore as secretary-treasurer.

There are many others on different committees which have been appointed by the Commissioners and the County Judge to find and help preserve any and all historical relics pertaining to the county. This is an especially difficult thing to do without a place to house them when found.

The Pioneer Study Club had a lovely display at their fiftieth anniversary tea which was held in the Episcopal Church the past year. These were mostly in the fashions of that day with cut glass, china and silver, such as tablespoons made of silver dollars, dolls and an especially beautiful black lace mantilla.

Mrs. Lee Curry brought her wedding dress to display and Mrs. Bess Werner had several dresses of lawn, lace and tucks, which were a delight to the eye, and I am sure there is a story to each dress that would make delightful reading.

Mrs. Martha Pierce has a very old electric lamp with a shade of beaded silk and a fringe of iridescent beads, and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson has a footwarmer of old days. Mrs. Arthur Thompson has quite a collection of old cut-glass, one could go on and on.

There are saddles, dutch ovens, used on the range, or perhaps some one has an old chuckwagon box (the wagon-cook's kitchen cabinet), which has traveled over much of the Staked Plains. Also a huge coffee pot without a lid; but this did not bother the cook as he would put a green mesquite twig over the top to prevent the coffee from boiling over. Branding irons, ox yokes, boots of that day along with a hat or two would be available.

Men's fashions do change but one needs a comparison to know how much. Then farther back are the dinosaur teeth, bones and firearms. Pink Luck has the old 44 his grandfather used in the Civil War, and Bill Brady has one also.

There are also musical instruments, a pump organ with pedals that have sent many a pretty girl home with aching legs after playing for the church services and the singings of that day. There are old time fiddles and Mrs. J. L. Mauk has a Stradavarius made in 1713 which was brought to this country by her father.

We shouldn't forget the Indian relics of arrow heads, tommyhawks, and the crude bows in which the Indians ground the maize to make their bread.

A museum could be worth a lot to our little city in trade and in tourist dollars. Tourists from the north would trade

MACHINE SOLVES LABOR NEEDS

Mechanical cotton pickers are making tracks around the Littlefield area this year, opening up a new avenue of harvesting on the High Plains. The machines are yet untried and unproven as a better way to harvest cotton for area farmers. The machines are not new to Lamb County, however. The pickers were operated last year around the Olton area, and also tried in some surrounding counties. But they are back this year in larger numbers than in any past year. The fact that they return year after year and more in number is causing many farmers to wonder if the mechanical picker does not deserve due consideration. Harvesting the huge cotton crop cheaply and maintaining high grades has long been a problem to the cotton producer on the plains. Until recent years, farmers depended on transient labor to pull their cotton. In later years, the Bracero has furnished a part of the hand pulling labor, but transient labor can no longer be depended upon. Fewer laborers are coming to the plains each year, and are not enough to meet the need. Too, the cost of having it gathered by hand has risen steadily. Maybe the mechanical picker will solve the problem. The value of the mechanical picker has been demonstrated beyond doubt in other cotton producing areas. But the conditions that are needed to do a quality job of cotton harvesting through use of the picker do not usually exist in a High Plains cotton field.

AREAS STRESSED IN PAVING PROGRAM

Emphasis in the 1960 paving program will be placed on the old parts of Perryton, and city officials hope to include 15 to 20 blocks from these areas in the program. City secretary G. K. Rupprecht pointed out that if 500 per cent of the property owners in a block voluntarily requested paving, the city can assess the other 50 per cent. Any block included in a given year's program must connect with existing paving, or with a block included in that year's program which does connect. City participation on all paving is 10 per cent of the actual paving cost plus the entire cost of engineering fees. In the older portions, the city's portion is paid immediately, and in new sub-divisions the developers put up the entire cost and are refunded the 10 per cent over a five-year period. The city anticipates paving 50 to 60 blocks in new-subdivisions in addition to the 20 blocks in older areas.

UF AGENCY ACTIVE IN AREA

When the Dallam-Hartley Counties United Fund was organized several years ago one of the original participating agencies was the Salvation Army. This year the Salvation Army is a member of the United Fund along with 13 other charitable organizations. Because of the local nature of the Red Feather campaign, the Salvation Army set up a local organization to administer their share of the funds. Formerly the Salvation Army donations were all going out of town to the state and national organizations. Now a substantial part of the fund stays in Dallam and Hartley counties to help carry out the work of the Salvation Army. The Salvation Army is equipped and ready to furnish aid in times of disaster. The local Salvation Army unit can call in any facilities of this vast organization when the need arises. When a disaster strikes, such as a tornado, flood or destructive fire, the Salvation Army is ready to bring relief to the victims by serving food, providing shelter, and care for the injured. The local Salvation Army has been very active in giving aid to stranded travelers on the highways. They have provided funds for food and shelter for these travelers that have run out of money and luck, and provided them with enough gasoline and oil to continue on their way. This program has aided over 500 people during the last several years.

The BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editors note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm brings up a novel idea this week, but he's probably confusing farming with what he does.

Dear editor:

Now that everybody has pretty well found out that television quiz shows were fixed, I have been looking around out here and doing some heavy thinking and have come to the conclusion that the investigation committee that brought this to light has only scratched the surface.

If you think television quiz shows are fixed, you ought to try farming.

Do you reckon farming is fixed?

It has a lot of the ear-marks. For example, like a T.V. contestant you start out on a farming year feeling like you're going to hit the jackpot, you've got the answers straight from the experts ahead of show time, but when the time comes to cash in, it seems that the producers of the show trip you up and run in another contestant known as the middle man who winds up with the big money. Or maybe he doesn't but it goes somewhere, as groceries on the shelf keep going up and groceries in the raw straight off the farm keep going down. If the middle man doesn't get it, the insects do, or the weather. Regardless of how many books they give us to take home and read, even with the pages marked, we can't find the right answers.

I wish you would contact that Congressional Investigating Committee and have it look into this farming situation.

On second thought, though, maybe they'd better not. When people found out quiz shows were rigged, the shows collapsed. We can't have that happening to farming. Just forget I ever mentioned it.

Let's change the subject. If you think Mr. Khrushchev's claim that "he'll bury us" has the United States Diplomatic Corps upset, you ought to hear what the American Undertakers association thinks about it.

Yours Faithfully, J. A.

Welcome Back, Student Paper

Appearance Thursday of "The Whiteface," student newspaper published as a supplement to The Brand, marks an event welcomed both by students and parents.

Previously, the page has been sponsored by the high school journalism class, but appears this year as an extra-curricular activity on the part of interested students who are supervised by Joe Smith. Reason for the change is due to dropping of journalism as a local high school subject, a step necessary from small enrollment and schedule conflicts, according to administrators.

The Whiteface, as in the past, proved interesting from several angles. In addition to being well-written and newsy, it carries numerous features and reflects a brand of teenage thinking to which many adults are seldom exposed.

The very fact that the students are willing to sacrifice their own time, without school credit, indicates that they have a deep-rooted interest in community service, a factor which has ever been fundamental in American journalism. All in all, we may be short on the required number of students interested in the journalism field, but we would conclude that the quality of those who remain is definitely above the average.

Composers Of Twentieth Century Discussed By Music Study Club

Continuing the course of study, "Music Throughout the World", members of the Music Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Bill Stanford Monday afternoon, with Mrs. B.Y. Crosthwait as co-hostess.

Mrs. C. C. Ferguson was leader of the program, "Twentieth Century Composers And The United Nations". She said, in part, "When God created the heavens and earth He employed music and we are told that the morning stars sang together. The Twentieth Century has put a great responsibility on musicians and those who make music, for it is the hope that poetry and music will continue to bring nations closer together. Music is at home in any nation where the door is open."

Musical selections included "Golliwog's Cakewalk" (Debussy) played by Mrs. Wayne Thomas; "Siboney" (Lecouona), sung by Mrs. H. K. Fox; "Nothing I Ask You To Give Me" (Widor), sung by Mrs. C. W. Parker; "The Scarlet Cape" (Federer), duet by Mrs. A. J. Schroeter and Mrs. B. Y. ### REMEMBER WHEN?

By Charlie Seeds

RUSSIA LAUNCHES MOON! Remember that dramatic announcement? It came on the morning of October 5 when Moscow Radio reported "the successful launching of the first man-made satellite." It had gone up the day before.

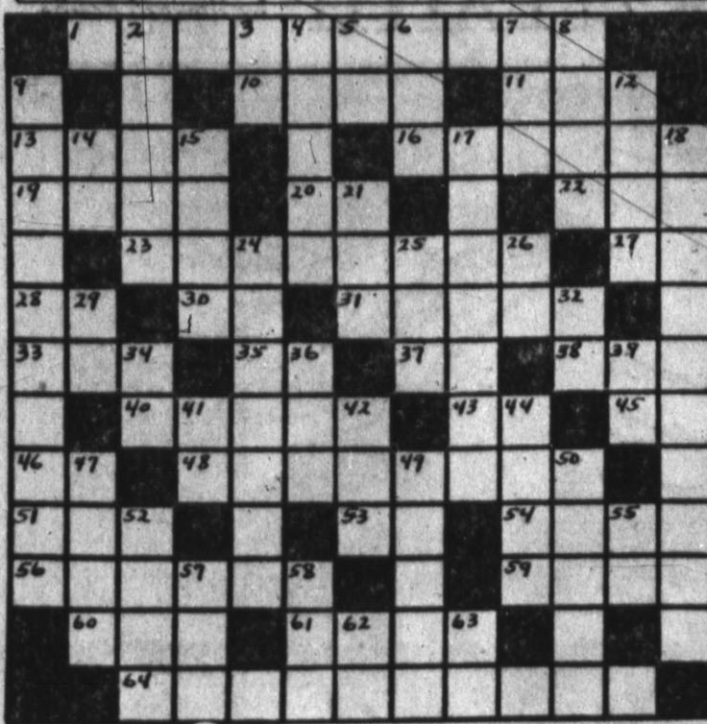

Seldom has any scientific achievement generated so much excitement. All of a sudden the fantastic dreams of the science-fiction writers weren't dreams any more. A 23-inch, 185-pound artificial moon was circling the earth, 560 miles high, at a speed of 18,000 miles per hour. The beep-beep-beep of its radio signals was being picked up all over the world as the little earth satellite circled the globe in its orbit. It was hard to grasp what a great step forward had been made.

The era of space travel seemed at hand... and wherever you went people talked of little else but the "Sputnik." Remember the year? That was a year when some car dealers were promising the moon, or close to it, in claiming bigger and better deals. But a wise buyer relied on an established dealer, one who could give expert service and who would stand behind his sales. The year was 1957.

Buying from an established, reliable dealer, with a reputation for fair deals and dependable service is the only way to buy a car. The deals we make, and the service we give, are strong reasons why so many people who buy from us come back again for their next car. For a good deal on a new or used car, see CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR CO., INC., 146 E. Second, Phone EM-2727.

POWER OF PERSUASION

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The "last minute literary spurt" can kill off a man's chances for promotion, officers and others who rate airmen for promotion at Lockbourne Air Force Base here have been warned.

Lt. Col. Robert D. Elliott, director of administrative services, referred to these examples from recommendations received in the last promotion cycle: "... a divided asset to this organization." "... the U. S. Air Force will be none the loser for it." "... definitely qualified beyond qualification." In one man's folder, the colonel added, were five recommendations — signed by different officers but identical, word for word.

FOX HUNTERS SAY:

Reds Give Better Race Than Greys

By EARL GOLDING

Mexia, Okla. — Limestone County is a foxhunter's county, only the hunters around here like to put their big Walker hounds on the trail of red foxes. This isn't considered red fox country, so the hunters have been doing something about that.

They're planting the reds, which are bigger, tougher, and run longer and harder than do the grey foxes. Planting red foxes, says J. W. Elliott isn't too much of a problem. Elliott and a dozen or so other hunters from here to Groesbeck to Oetha are buying litters of young reds which are trapped in their dens before they're weaned.

They're putting them in man-made dens in the running grounds around here and feeding them but until they're old enough to make it on their own. "We get them when they are about three-quarters grown," Elliott says. "dig out dens in the sides of hills. We make two entrances to the dens, just like the foxes do in the wilds, and construct a wire fence around the hillside. We feed them every day then when they're grown we take the fence down and they make it on their own from then on."

The result, Elliott says, "is that we get some mighty good races out of red foxes."

Elliott is president of the Texas Fox and Wolf Hunters Assn, which holds its annual state hunt at Garrison, near Nacagdoches, Oct. 26-29.

The hounds in the state hunt will be put to the test of the big reds, too, Elliott says. 39 red foxes have been released in the area around Garrison. Where do they get the young ones?

"From around Brownwood. They have a lot of them over there and it is ranch country and you can't run hounds over there. So the ranchers want some of them taken out."

Fox hunters keep and feed from 5 to 25 big hounds the year around and like to think of their sport as the purist of all. They never kill or keep a fox but simply release the game to run again on another night.

"You have to have an ear for foxhunting," Elliott says. It is much the same as the people who delight in classical music. A fox hunter trains his ear to do what the eye does in most outdoor sports."

One of Elliott's Mexia friends is Jess Cox.

Jess retired not long ago, and is now mainly a foxhunter, full time.

"We did give him one job," Elliott jokes, "he's in charge of going and getting the hounds which don't come in from a hunt."

Old-Time Chicken Dish Goes Modern

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
IT GOES under several names: Yorkshire Chicken, Chicken Baked in Batter, Chicken on a Cloud. But no matter what the name, the recipe derives from an early American one called Chicken Pudding.

One old-time Virginia recipe for the dish calls for jointing the chicken and cooking it in herb-seasoned water until tender. Then the chicken is drained and arranged in a baking dish and a Yorkshire pudding or pop-over batter poured over. Now into the oven the whole thing goes. The chicken stock is used for a cream gravy with directions carefully given to "pass separately."

Modern recipes for the dish brown the chicken in fat, then arrange the pieces in a skillet of Yorkshire pudding or pop-over batter and bake. Some years ago this old-time dish won a prize in a contest for new recipes!

We've taken a further liberty with this dish. Seemed to us the chicken would taste good baked in cornmeal batter as a change from the usual Yorkshire pudding or pop-over mixture. No sooner thought of than tried; now crisp brown chicken peeps up through a blanket of cornbread.

This is the sort of baked main dish that's convenient when company's coming. You can put it in the oven an forget about it: 40 minutes later the chicken will be tender and brown, the cornbread baked through, all ready to enjoy. We like the dish with pickled watermelon rind, corn relish, chow-chow. Add a big salad dessert and coffee; you're all set.

CHICKEN CORNBREAD PUDDING
Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer (any size), 3/4 cup sifted flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 3/4 teaspoon paprika, 5 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/2 cup enriched yellow cornmeal, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 egg, 1/4 cup milk, 2 tablespoons soft shortening.
Method: Have chicken cut in 10 pieces; wash and drain. Stir together 3/4 cup of the flour, 1 teaspoon of the salt, pepper and paprika; coat chicken with flour mixture. Brown chicken in hot butter in a 10-inch black or enamel-coated iron frying pan; remove chicken; reserve drippings, wash and dry pan; grease. Sift remaining 1/2 cup flour, cornmeal, baking powder and re-

Cheese Bread Choice Fare

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
New Features Food Editor
THERE'S A NEW star in the hot-bread heaven — a biscuit filled with cheese.

And what a biscuit — crusty brown on the outside, fluffy white inside! Drool over that onion-favored creamy cheese filling. Four yourself another cup of tea or coffee and have a second helping of the bread — you have only one life in which to enjoy good food.

So many ways to serve this dish. Snacktime first. This is the sort of munch that men take to. A stag party going on at your house with you relegated to the kitchen? Bake a batch of this quick skillet bread and serve it fresh from the oven. Soup and salad planned for lunch? This bread is so interesting it will give a real fillip maining 1/2 teaspoon salt into a mixing bowl; add egg, milk and shortening; beat with rotary beater until just smooth, about 1 minute. Pour batter into prepared frying pan; arrange chicken in batter, skin side up. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 40 minutes or until cake tester inserted in cornbread comes out clean. Cut in wedges and serve at once. If desired, you may use the reserved drippings for a cream gravy to serve with the chicken pudding, making stock for the gravy out of the chicken giblets. Makes 4 servings.

to both.
A company dinner, with baked ham featured, in the offing? Hostesses have a regrettable habit of serving the same old go-alongs with ham — baked beans, macaroni and cheese, sweet potatoes. Surprise and delight your guest with this cheese biscuit concoction.

Or is it a chili con carne supper you are planning? This cheese-stuffed bread would taste out of the world with that fiery dish.

It's a bread that is simple to bake. No need to make the biscuit dough for it from scratch, a mix is used with fine results.

No need, either, to peel and chop onion for the flavorful filling. Instant minced onion — in our opinion one of the best of modern packaged products — does the trick.

We do grate the cheese, for this recipe choosing a variety of cheddar that comes marked "very sharp."

STUFFED CHEESE BREAD
Ingredients: 6 teaspoons instant minced onion, 3 cups biscuit mix, 1 cup milk, 1 1/2 cups (6 ounces) grated cheddar cheese, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted).

Method: With a fork, stir 2 teaspoons of the onion into biscuit mix; stir in milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; divide dough in half. With floured hands, pat half of dough into a circle a little larger than the bottom of a black or enamel-coated iron skillet (9 inches by 2 inches). Grease skillet well and place round of dough in it, having the dough extend about 3/4-inch up sides. Mix cheese, mayonnaise and 3 teaspoons of the remaining onion; spread over dough almost to edge. Pat out remaining dough into another round, making it the size of skillet bottom. Place dough over filling; crimp edge and bottom layer together; dough will be soft as you do this. Brush top with some of the melted butter. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 25 minutes. Remove, skillet from oven; brush bread with remaining melted butter and sprinkle with remaining 1 teaspoon onion. Bake 3 to 5 minutes longer until onion is toasted. Remove from oven; let stand 10 minutes so filling will set a bit; cut into wedges and serve warm. (Bread may be turned out of skillet and then cut). Makes 6 servings.

Note: If an aluminum or steel skillet is used, increase oven heat to 425 degrees and use baking time given.

Former National Champs Of A & M Hold Reunion

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF The last Southwest Conference team to win the national championship - Texas A & M of 1939 - held a reunion the other day.

The word "last" in this instance might well mean just what it says - there may never be another Southwest Conference team take the national crown.

It isn't because there haven't been teams worthy of it - there have been many. That's the reason no team has won it lately and perhaps never will. The competition inside the Southwest Conference is so even that it prevents a member team from making the season undefeated and untied. If they don't lose intersectionally they do it inside the conference.

Texas last year is a good example. The Longhorns won against all outsiders, including high-ranking Oklahoma, but took three licks inside the conference.

The reason Southwest Conference teams are so evenly matched is because they get their material from the same source - Texas Schoolboy football. They're usually about even in recruiting.

Homer Norton, who coached the 1939 Aggie team to the national title, was the honor guest at the reunion. He also was named "Father of the Year" because there'll be a child born to the Nortons in January and Homer says it definitely will be a boy.

Moreover, he expects it to be a football player. "I would not be surprised if the boy is born with a football headgear and cleats on," he smiled.

The 1939 Aggie team decided to furnish the name for the Norton boy. It will be "Jargo." That was the name of a trap play the Aggies used in winning the championship.

Norton, who has been out of coaching since 1947, still has an interest in football. Each fall he does a column for Texas newspapers in which he analyzes what's going on in the Southwest Conference.

He has outlined four things he says his son could be:

1. President of the United States.
2. He could be doctor (Norton had three brothers who were doctors).
3. He could be a preacher (Norton's father was a preacher).
4. He could be a coach. "I was but I don't recommend it; too many ulcers."

But being a football player is a must for his son. When Kaufman beat Wills Point 94-0 in the Texas schoolboy football race there were hurried looks at the records to see if that wasn't the highest score ever run up.

It was the highest in some time but it is far from a record. Back in the twenties scores of over 100 points were common. Especially with the Waco teams of that era. Waco scored more than a 100 points a half-dozen times, once running up 140 points.

But it has been a long time since there were such one-sided games. The reason is ob-

Louisiana State Handing Southwest Teams Trouble

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF The Southwest Conference would be having a great year were it not for the Southeastern Conference. Four of the five intersectional losses have come here.

The big trouble is that Louisiana State is a member of the Southeastern Conference and Louisiana State is the best team in the nation. The Southwest Conference was unfortunate enough to have three of its teams play LSU - Rice, Texas Christian, and Baylor.

Another unfortunate situation comes from the fact that Georgia had to choose this year to be great once more. Southern Methodist took a licking from the Techs.

The only other intersectional loss was to a southern team - Rice was belted by Duke. But the Southwest has a majority in its warfare with the South, winning two games while losing one.

In all other areas the league is supreme. It has really poured it on the Big Eight Conference, winning five games out of five. Among them was a victory by Texas over Oklahoma, which means the best of the Big Eight was included in the conference's swipe.

The league also has been victorious three times against Missouri Valley teams, beaten two Pacific Coast outfits, one Big Ten team and one Eastern team.

There are some tough intersectional games coming up but the conference already is so far ahead it can't help but finish first for the season. The record is 14-5-1 with six games to go.

Texas Christian plays Pitt, Arkansas engages Mississippi, Rice tackles Clemson and Baylor plays Southern California in the games the league is likely to lose. Tulane and Arizona are on the schedule but they should be taken into camp all right.

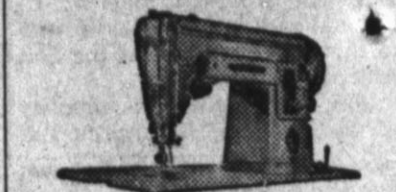

But for Louisiana State the league could have compiled its best record in intersectional football history. In the future the boys ought to spread it out more and not play any certain team more than once in a season.

Texas' victory over Oklahoma showed that the Sooners weren't getting the best athletes from Texas after all. It has often been stated that Oklahoma managed to snare the top schoolboy football players away from Southwest Conference members. The method to stop it was pointed up like this beat Oklahoma and it'll cut down on the flow of athletes to Oklahoma. Most top athletes go to a school where they think they will be on a winning team.

Last year's Texas victory over Oklahoma - the first in seven years - hadn't done anything to take Texas boys away from the Sooners that would be available this year. Thus, Texas' victory last week over Oklahoma just showed that Oklahoma wasn't really getting the cream of the crop.

Anyway, it now seems likely that fewer and fewer Texas boys will be going up Oklahoma way. That is, they won't until Oklahoma resumes its winning ways again. That might be in the far distant future.

Stanton PTA Meet On Foods

Stanton Junior High PTA met Monday, Oct. 26, in the school auditorium. Don Moore led the Junior High Girls Choir in several numbers to open the program.

W. C. Quattlebaum, Stanton principal, introduced the faculty, stating that some 608 students were enrolled to date in the Junior High School.

Mrs. M. T. Rutter was elected as Stanton's delegate to the state PTA convention in Dallas, slated for November 23.

Everyone was urged to write their state congressman, urging them to put the first portion of the Gilmer-Alken bill before the House at the earliest possible time.

Dr. L. E. Barnett spoke on Nutrition for the Junior High School students. He describes them as the Coke, vitamin and candy crowd. He went on to explain that they don't usually take time to eat properly and that they need higher protein intake than when they were in the lower grades.

He said that the new cafeteria will enable the school to provide a proper diet for the Junior high and high school students and that, if enough students use the facilities, there will be a choice of two meat courses each day.

Eating habits are a reflection of social factors, background and time available, Dr. Barnett added.

Quattlebaum said he thought the new cafeteria would be open about Dec. 1.

The meeting closed with a social period. About 125 persons were present.

vious: in those days there were few expert coaches. Those that were produced teams that thoroughly outclassed the opposition. Too, in those days all the high schools were in the same class and a school with 2,000 enrollment might be playing one with 350.
